COBHAM SECURES FIVE YEAR CONTRACT TO OPERATE QANTASLINK B717 FLEET

Cobham plc ('Cobham') is pleased to announce that Cobham Flight Operations and Services company, National Jet, has secured an agreement worth up to A$300m to operate Qantaslink's entire fleet of 11 B717 aircraft. Cobham currently provides aircrew, cabin crew and first line maintenance for eight B717 aircraft, with Qantaslink responsible for the other three. National Jet will now operate all 11 aircraft for five years to 2012, with the first of the three additional aircraft commencing operations in August 2007.

National Jet has provided regional operations for Qantas including pilots, cabin crew and aircraft maintenance engineers for more than 15 years and has operated B717s on Qantaslink regional routes since 2005.

Allan Cook, Cobham's Chief Executive, commented:
 "National Jet is the only aircraft operator outside the Qantas group entrusted with the Qantas brand. We have been flying, maintaining and operating jets in Qantas livery for 15 years, carrying over one million passengers per year. I am delighted to be extending our partnership with Australia's national airline."

NOTES

Cobham plc is an international company engaged in the development, delivery and support of advanced aerospace and defence systems for land, sea and air platforms. The company has five technology divisions and one in the service sector that collectively specialise in the provision of components, subsystems and services that keep people safe, improve communications and enhance the performance of aerospace and defence platforms.

Cobham Flight Operations & Services operates more than 150 fixed and rotary wing aircraft around the world. It operates the largest civil maritime surveillance contract in the world, covering more than 37,000km of coastline, and trains all UK helicopter pilots for the Navy, Air Force and Army. The group provides modern battlespace air warfare training and essential flight inspection services for civil and military airports in the UK, Europe and beyond. It also specialises in the conversion and support of a wide range of civil and military platforms including the Nimrod MRA2, R1 and Sentry E3-D fleets, and operates a fleet of aircraft providing passenger and freight services.

people. The company specialises in provision, operation and maintenance of aircraft in specialist roles against long-term performance-based contracts. National Jet provides "fly in, fly out" (FIFO) personnel transport services for resource companies in Western Australia and South Australia, airline services for Qantas regional subsidiary Qantaslink and high-capacity scheduled air freight services for express freight provider Australian air Express.
