SABMiller plc Trading Update

Following the summer peak season in its southern hemisphere operations, SABMiller plc today issues its trading update for the group's third quarter and for the nine months ended 31 December 2006. The calculation of the group's organic growth rates includes volumes for Bavaria SA from 12 October 2006, 12 months after it became part of the group.

The group's organic lager volume growth for the third quarter was some 10%, marginally ahead of growth for the year to date of 9.5%.

South Africa Beverages achieved an increase in lager volumes of almost 1% during the quarter, in line with year to date volume growth. Lager volumes were constrained by stock shortages resulting from temporary disruptions to both raw material and glass supplies, in addition to disruptions in the national rail transport network. Underlying economic performance and consumer confidence in South Africa remain positive, contributing to continuing mix improvements, albeit at a moderating pace. Soft drinks volumes declined by 3% in the quarter reflecting the national shortage of carbon dioxide, and year to date soft drink volumes are now slightly down on the prior year.

On a pro forma basis, South America lager volumes for the three months to 31 December 2006 were some 12% above the prior year and up 11% year to date. This performance reflects continuing growth across the region with robust growth in Peru, where market conditions remain competitive. In Colombia, the launch of Peroni Nastro Azzurro and the relaunch of Club Colombia have been successful and the regional volume performance also reflects a range of initiatives including the packaging changes to Cristal in Peru. In Central America, carbonated soft drink volumes (CSDs) were up 6% for the quarter and year to date, with growth being achieved in both countries, whilst lager volumes were 9% higher in the quarter, with year to date growth of 7%.

In Europe, lager volume grew some 13% during the quarter on an organic basis, with year to date growth of over 9%. This has been driven by continuing good performances from Poland, Russia and Romania, influenced by an exceptionally mild winter. Worthmore volumes grew by 13% in the quarter, consistent with year to date growth.

Miller's third quarter domestic sales to retailers (STRs) were 4.3% above the prior year and 0.9% below prior year on an organic basis excluding Sparks and Steel Reserve. Following management initiatives, STRs of flagship brand Miller Lite have grown by 1.5% in the quarter. STR performance for Miller, and particularly Miller Lite, was stronger in December. Miller's shipments to wholesalers for the quarter grew less than STRs as distributor inventories reduced. For the year to date, Miller's organic domestic STRs declined 2.8% after adjusting for the number of trading days in the period (3.3% unadjusted). Whilst Miller's December STR performance has been encouraging, supported by increased marketing and sales programmes, price recovery and raw material costs were more adverse in the quarter than expected.

Our Africa and Asia business delivered organic growth of 30% in lager volumes in the quarter and 25% year to date, reflecting particularly strong growth in China of over 30% in the quarter. In Africa (excluding Zimbabwe) lager volumes grew by 10% in the quarter and 7% year to date, with volumes in Tanzania advancing 10% in the quarter. Strong gains were also achieved in Mozambique and Uganda, whilst a marginal decline in lager volume was recorded in Botswana in the quarter. CSD growth (excluding Zimbabwe) was 17% in the quarter and 21% year to date, which was led by continuing strong growth in Angola.

The group's financial performance has been in line with our expectations outlined at the time of the interim results announcement, despite the headwinds experienced at Miller and in South Africa, and the comparatively weaker South African rand/US dollar exchange rate prevailing in the quarter.

TERMINATION OF AMSTEL BRAND LICENCE

SABMiller's subsidiary, The South African Breweries Limited, ("SAB" or "the company"), has been given notice by Heineken that it is terminating SAB's licence to manufacture and distribute Amstel Lager with immediate effect.

This move follows a private arbitration held recently to determine whether Heineken was entitled to terminate the Amstel trade mark licence. The arbitration panel found that SABMiller's transaction in South America in 2005 constituted a material change in shareholding of the SABMiller group which could be regarded as inimical to the interests of the Heineken group, thus giving rise to the right to terminate the licence.

SAB will consequently move to bolster its competitive position in the South African premium segment by drawing upon SABMiller's global portfolio of brands and the wealth of experience and expertise it has built up in the market. The company is already pursuing a number of initiatives which will mitigate the impact of the licence termination, including extending SAB's reach into direct distribution and broadening its premium offerings. The bulk of Amstel's sales, like most beer sales in South Africa, are in returnable bottles, requiring a capability which SAB is uniquely positioned to provide.

Sales volumes of Amstel currently represent approximately 2.3mhl or 9% of beer sales volumes in South Africa. The sales of the Amstel brand will constitute approximately US$300m of SA Beverages' revenues for the year ending 31 March 2007 based on an average exchange rate of ZAR7.03 = US$1.00. SABMiller estimates that any impact on the group's earnings in the current financial year will be immaterial.

For the 2008 financial year, and going forward, the company expects to mitigate the financial impact on its earnings of the Amstel licence termination through the actions and initiatives referred to above. Nevertheless there will still be a negative financial impact. In the current financial year, on a pro-forma basis, SABMiller expects that this would have been some US$80m of EBITA, equivalent to pro-forma earnings of approximately 3.0 US cents per SABMiller share. SABMiller would expect the impact in the next financial year to be of the same order.

Commenting on the termination of the licence, Graham Mackay, SABMiller chief executive, said:

"Whilst we are surprised by the outcome of the arbitration, our consumers remain our first priority and we are confident of our continuing ability to provide them with a comprehensive choice of superior and differentiated brands, backed by our strong marketing and distribution capabilities."

SABMiller announces new brewery investment in Russia

SABMiller plc, one of the world's leading brewers, announces that its Russian operations will invest approximately US$170 million in the construction of a new brewery outside the city of Ulyanovsk, which is located approximately 1000 kilometres East of Moscow. The city of Ulyanovsk, which lies on the Volga river, enjoys good road and rail links and is home to a number of raw material suppliers.

The new brewery, which will have an initial capacity of 3 million hectolitres, is expected to be operational in early 2009 and will complement the group's existing brewery in Kaluga, which is located some 180 kilometres south west of Moscow. SABMiller's business in Russia has enjoyed compound annual volume growth of approximately 30% over the last 5 years, and its Kaluga site has now been expanded to a capacity of 6 million hectolitres. Both breweries will produce SABMiller's Russian brands, including Zolotaya Bochka ("Golden Barrel"), Miller Genuine Draft and Velkopopovicky Kozel; which together comprise 3 of Russia's top 10 leading brands in the premium segment.

Alan Clark, managing director of SABMiller Europe, commented:

"Russia remains a strategically important market for SABMiller and this investment will enable us to maintain our strong growth profile in the premium segment, whilst optimising our transport costs and at the same time improving our service levels to distributors and big retailers."

SABMiller's current market share in Russia is 6% on a volume basis, or an estimated 15% of industry profitability. In the year to March 2006, the company generated volume growth of 14% in Russia, twice the rate of the market.
