POOL EXTENDS BID FOR AGRICORE

Saskatchewan Wheat Pool Inc. (the "Pool") announced today that it is extending the expiry date of its offers to acquire all outstanding limited common voting shares and Series A convertible preferred shares of Agricore United ("Agricore"). The offers, which were to expire on April 25, 2007, are now open until 5 pm (Toronto time) on May 15, 2007, unless further extended or withdrawn.

The Pool will file its Notice of Extension with Canadian regulatory authorities and mail copies to all Agricore shareholders shortly.

Saskatchewan Wheat Pool Inc. is a publicly traded agribusiness headquartered in Regina, Saskatchewan. Anchored by a Prairie-wide grain handling and agri-products marketing network, the Pool channels Prairie production to end-use markets in North America and around the world. These operations are complemented by value-added businesses and strategic alliances, which allow the Pool to leverage its pivotal position between Prairie farmers and destination customers. The Pool's common shares are listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the symbol SWP and its subscription receipts under the symbols SWP.R and SWP.N.

U.S. Shareholders

The Pool's exchange offer is being made for the shares of United Grain Growers (also known as Agricore United), a Canadian company, that are listed on The Toronto Stock Exchange. The exchange offer is subject to disclosure requirements of Canada, which requirements are different from those of the United States. It may be difficult for U.S. shareholders to enforce their rights and any claim they may have arising under the federal securities laws, since the Pool and some of its officers and directors are located in a foreign country. U.S. shareholders may not be able to sue a foreign company or its officers or directors in a foreign court for violations of the U.S. securities laws.

It may be difficult to compel a foreign company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a U.S. court's judgment. U.S. shareholders should be aware that, to the extent permissible, the Pool may purchase Agricore United shares otherwise than under the exchange offer, such as in open market or privately negotiated purchases.
