Regulatory announcement no 19/2007 dated 23 April 2007

PKN ORLEN purchase of shares in ETYLOBENZEN Plock

Polski Koncern Naftowy ORLEN S.A. ("PKN ORLEN"), Central Europe's largest downstream oil company, announces that on 23 April 2007 it signed with Firma Chemiczna DWORY ("DWORY"), headquartered in Oswiecim, Poland, an agreement ("Agreement") in accordance with which PKN ORLEN will purchase from DWORY shares in ETYLOBENZEN Plock Spolka z ograniczona odpowiedzialnoscia ("ETYLOBENZEN Plock"), headquartered in Plock, Poland.

With reference to the Agreement PKN ORLEN will purchase from DWORY 588 shares in ETYLOBENZEN Plock for PLN 10,000 per share and with a total nominal value of PLN 5,880,000. This represents 49% of the initial capital of ETYLOBENZEN Plock and 49% of the votes at the General Meeting of shareholders of ETYLOBENZEN Plock, for a total price of PLN 6,016,444.59.

The purchased shares in ETYLOBENZEN Plock will be paid for by PKN ORLEN not later than 14 days after the day of signing the Agreement. In accordance with the Agreement the shares of ETYLOBENZEN Plock will be transferred to PKN ORLEN on the day of the receipt of the purchase price from PKN ORLEN in DWORY's bank account. The shares purchased by PKN ORLEN will be funded from the PKN ORLEN's own cash resources. The book value of the purchased shares in the PKN ORLEN books will be equal to the purchase price.

After the transaction settlement PKN ORLEN will own 100% of the initial capital of ETYLOBENZEN Plock. The initial capital of ETYLOBENZEN Plock amounts to PLN 12,000,000 and is divided into 1,200 equal and indivisible shares with a par value of PLN 10,000 for each share.

The Management Board of ETYLOBENZEN Plock consists of two persons. The President of the Management Board is a PKN ORLEN employee.

PKN ORLEN's investment in ETYLOBENZEN Plock shares is considered as a short-term investment, as the intention of PKN ORLEN's Management Board is to incorporate ETYLOBENZEN Plock into the structure of PKN ORLEN.

ETYLOBENZEN Plock produces and sells organic chemicals.

Except in respect of the relationships referred to above, no other relationship exists between PKN ORLEN and PKN ORLEN's managing or supervisory personnel, and the seller of the shares –DWORY.

In accordance with paragraph 2 item 1 point 52 and item 5 "Regulation of the Minister of Finance dated 19 October 2005 on current and periodic information to be published by the issuers of securities" the purchased shares constitute "significant assets" due to the fact that they represent 49% of the share capital of ETYLOBENZEN Plock.

I	Objective of the company The basic operational objective of a company's bodies is to further the interest of the company, i.e. to increase the value of the assets entrusted by its shareholders, with consideration to the rights and interests of entities other than shareholders, involved in the functioning of the company, including, in particular, the company's creditors and employees.	Yes	In accord: Managerr. principal interests, of its ass respect fr than sha performar Company
II	Majority rule and protection of minority A joint-stock company is a capital venture, and therefore, it must respect the principle of capital majority rule, and the primacy of majority over minority. A shareholder who contributes more capital also bears a higher economic risk. It is, therefore, justified that his interest be taken into consideration in proportion to the contributed capital. The minority must have a guarantee of proper protection of their rights, within limits set by law and commercial integrity. While exercising its rights, the majority shareholder should take into account the interests of the minority.	Yes	The Comj interests one persc abides b respecting law and th
III	Honest intentions and non-abuse of rights The exercise of rights and the reliance on legal institutions should be based on honest intentions (good faith) and cannot reach beyond the purpose and economic reasons for which these institutions have been established. No activities should be taken which exceed the limits so set, and which thus constitute an abuse of the law. The minority should be protected against abuse of ownership rights by the majority and the interests of the majority should be protected against abuse by the minority of its rights, thus ensuring the best protection of equitable interests of the shareholders and other market participants.	Yes	Members Company perform th care, with to achieve was estak employee members Company could rest
IV	Court control Neither the company's bodies, nor persons chairing a General Meeting, may decide on issues which should be resolved by court judgments. This does not apply to activities which are within the powers of the company's bodies and of persons chairing General Meetings, or which they are obliged to undertake by force of law.	Yes	The Con General respective defined i deciding resolution

GENERAL PRINCIPLES
I	Objective of the company The basic operational objective of a company's bodies is to further the interest of the company, i.e. to increase the value of the assets entrusted by its shareholders, with consideration to the rights and interests of entities other than shareholders, involved in the functioning of the company, including, in particular, the company's creditors and employees.	Yes	In accordance with §2 item 3 of the Constitution of the Management Board the Management Board's principal objective is to realise the Company's interests, which are understood as building the value of its assets entrusted by its shareholders, with due respect for the rights and interests of parties other than shareholders, who are also engaged in the performance of the Company, especially the Company's creditors and employees.
II	Majority rule and protection of minority A joint-stock company is a capital venture, and therefore, it must respect the principle of capital majority rule, and the primacy of majority over minority. A shareholder who contributes more capital also bears a higher economic risk. It is, therefore, justified that his interest be taken into consideration in proportion to the contributed capital. The minority must have a guarantee of proper protection of their rights, within limits set by law and commercial integrity. While exercising its rights, the majority shareholder should take into account the interests of the minority.	Yes	The Company's activities are subordinated to the joint interests of all shareholders, and not the interest of one person or organisation, hence PKN ORLEN fully abides by the principle of a majority rule, while respecting the rights of minority within the limits set by law and the Company's Articles of Association.
III	Honest Intentions and non-abuse of rights The exercise of rights and the reliance on legal institutions should be based on honest intentions (good faith) and cannot reach beyond the purpose and economic reasons for which these institutions have been established. No activities should be taken which exceed the limits so set, and which thus constitute an abuse of the law. The	Yes	Members of the Company's bodies and the Company's employees exercise their rights and perform their obligations in good faith and with utmost care, within the limits set by law, their objective being to achieve the economic goals for which the Company was established. The Code of Ethics, drawn up by the employees, is obligatory in the Company. Neither the minority should be protected against abuse of ownership rights by the majority and the interests of the majority should be protected against abuse by the minority of its rights, thus ensuring the best protection of equitable interests of the shareholders and other market participants.		members of the Company's bodies nor the Company's employees engage in any actions which could result in a conflict of interests.

IV	Court control Neither the company's bodies, nor persons chairing a General Meeting, may decide on issues which should be resolved by court judgments. This does not apply to activities which are within the powers of the company's bodies and of persons chairing General Meetings, or which they are obliged to undertake by force of law.	Yes	The Company's bodies and the persons chairing General Meetings act in accordance with their respective scopes of competence and in a manner defined in the applicable laws, and refrain from deciding on issues which should be submitted for resolution to courts.
V	Independent opinions ordered by the company When choosing an entity which is to provide expert services, including in particular the services of an expert auditor, financial and tax advisory services, as well as legal services, the company should consider whether there exist circumstances limiting the independence of this entity when performing the entrusted tasks.	Yes	In choosing an entity which is to provide expert services, including the appointment of a chartered auditor, the Company abides by the relevant procedures to ensure the independence of the entity and the observance of the principle of fair competition. In particular, the Company ensures that the auditing services and the advisory services it uses are provided by separate entities, and the expert auditor is selected by the Supervisory Board. In accordance with the Company's internal procedure, making the additional orders for the expert auditor requires the acceptance of the Supervisory Board Audit Committee. That internal procedure details the types of services that can be additionally ordered to the expert auditor.
BEST PRACTICES OF GENERAL MEETINGS
1	A General Meeting should take place in a location and at a time to allow the participation of as many shareholders as possible.	Yes	General Meetings of PKN ORLEN are held in the Company's registered offices in Plock, but in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association they may also be held in Warsaw.
2	A request for convening a General Meeting and placing certain issues on its agenda, made by parties so entitled, should be justified. Draft resolutions proposed to be	Yes	Courses of the General Meetings of PKN ORLEN and thematic conferences are broadcasted via internet, allowing the participation of all interested persons in the Company's events According to §1 item 4 and item 5 of the Constitution of the General Meeting the Company confirms the approval of that rule.

	adopted by the General Meeting and other key documents should be presented to the shareholders along with a justification and an opinion of the Supervisory Board prior to the General Meeting, in advance so as to allow them to review and evaluate the same.
3	A General Meeting convened at the request of shareholders should be held on the date given in the request, and if this date cannot be kept, on the closest date which will allow the General Meeting to settle the issues placed on its agenda.	Yes	Respecting the shareholders' rights under the law or the Company's Articles of Association, the Management Board of PKN ORLEN takes into account the shareholders' proposals as to the date on which a General Meeting should be held, unless there are obstacles of a formal (legal) nature or objective reasons for which a General Meeting cannot be held on the date requested by a shareholder.
4	A General Meeting whose agenda includes certain issues at the request of authorised entities or which has been convened at such request may be cancelled only upon consent of the requesting parties. In all other instances, a General Meeting may be cancelled if its holding is hindered (force majeure) or is obviously groundless. The meeting is called off in the same manner as it has been convened, ensuring as little negative consequences for the company and its shareholders as possible, and in any case no later than three weeks prior to the original date of the meeting. A change in the date of the General Meeting is made in the same manner as the cancellation, even if the proposed agenda does not change.	Yes	In §1 item 6 of the Constitution of the General Meeting there are provisions which confirm the approval of the rule no 4. Should it become necessary to cancel a General Meeting which is justified by exceptional circumstances, the Management Board will take steps to minimize the negative consequences of the cancellation for the shareholders.
5	In order for a proxy of a shareholder to participate in a General Meeting, his right to act on behalf of the shareholder should be duly documented. It should be presumed that a written document confirming the right to represent a shareholder at a General Meeting is in conformity with the law and does not require any additional confirmations and acknowledgements unless its authenticity or validity prima facie raises doubts by the company's management board (upon drawing up the attendance list) or the chairman of the General Meeting.	Yes	The right to act on behalf of a shareholder is deemed by the Company to be duly documented if the Company is presented with a written power of proxy prepared and executed in accordance with the provisions of the law and granted by persons who – in accordance with a valid excerpt from a relevant register presented to the Company – are authorised to do so. The appropriate provisions in that issue are included in §7 item 2 point c) of the Constitution of the General Meeting.
6	The General Meeting should have regular by-laws setting forth the detailed principles of conducting the meetings and adopting resolutions. The by-laws should contain, in particular, provisions concerning elections to the supervisory	Yes	General Meetings of PKN ORLEN are held in compliance with the binding laws, provisions of the Company's Articles of Association and Constitution of the General Meeting. The Constitution of the General

	board by voting in separate groups. The by-laws should not be subject to frequent changes; it is advisable that the changes enter into force as of the subsequent General Meeting.		Meeting contains provisions concerning election of members of the Supervisory Board. §14a item 1 of the Constitution of the General Meeting says that upon a motion of shareholders representing at least one fifth of the equity, the Members of the Supervisory Board shall be elected by the next Meeting of Shareholders by means of the voting of separate groups (group voting). Additionally §14a determines in details the rules of electing the Supervisory Board Members in group voting.
7	A person opening the General Meeting should procure an immediate election of the chairman of the meeting, and should refrain from any substantial or formal decisions.	Yes	In accordance with the Constitution of the General Meeting a person opening the General Meeting initiates the meeting and procures the election of the chairman. Once elected, the Chairman starts presiding over the meeting. Neither the Articles of Association nor the Constitution of the General Meeting provide for any other role by or grant any other powers to a person opening the General Meeting.
8	The chairman of the General Meeting ensures an efficient conduct of the meeting and observance of the rights and interest of all shareholders. The chairman should counteract, in particular, the abuse of rights by the participants of the meeting and should guarantee that the rights of minority shareholders are respected. The chairman should not, without sound reason, resign from his function, or put off the signing of the minutes of the meeting.	Yes	The Constitution of the General Meeting specify the powers and duties of the Chairman of the General Meeting to the extent necessary for efficient and correct conduct of the meeting and observance of the rights of all the shareholders in line with the established practice, binding laws, the Company's Articles of Association and the Constitution of the General Meeting.
9	A General Meeting should be attended by members of the Supervisory Board and the Management Board. An expert auditor should be present at an annual General Meeting and at an extraordinary General Meeting if financial matters of the company are to be discussed. An absence of a Management Board or Supervisory Board member at a General Meeting requires an explanation. Such an explanation should be presented at the General Meeting.	Yes	In accordance with §4 item 3 of the Constitution of the General Meeting the person opening the General Meeting of Shareholders informs those present about the absence of a Management Board or Supervisory Board Member at a General Meeting and the reasons of this absence, if such information was passed to the person opening the General Meeting. The Company will ensure that General Meetings whose agendas include financial matters, in particular approval of financial statements of the Company or its Group, are attended by an auditor prepared to provide explanations or information concerning its audit and opinion.
10	Members of the Supervisory Board and the Management	Yes	Members of the Company's Management and

	Board and the expert auditor of the company should, within their powers and to the extent necessary for the settlement of issues discussed by the General Meeting, provide the participants of the meeting with explanations and information concerning the company.		Supervisory Boards present at a General Meeting will make every effort to provide the shareholders, within their powers, with information and explanations connected with the issues under consideration.
11	All answers provided by the Management Board to the questions posed in the General Meeting should take into account the fact that the reporting obligations are performed by a public company in a manner which follows from the Law on Public Trading in Securities, and certain information cannot be provided otherwise.	Yes	Members of the Company's Management and Supervisory Boards and the auditor present at the General Meeting provide explanations and give information to the extent complying with the limitations under the existing legal framework concerning reporting obligations binding on a public company.
12	Short breaks in the session which do not defer the session, ordered by the chairman in justified cases, cannot be aimed at hindering the exercise of the rights by the shareholders.	Yes	In accordance with the Constitution of the General Meeting the Chairman may order a break, however such a break may in no way violate any provisions of the effective statutes or defer the session or hinder the exercise of the rights by the shareholders, as any such break is technical in nature.
13	Voting on procedural matters may be carried out only on issues related to the conduct of the meeting. This voting procedure cannot apply to resolutions which may have impact on the exercise by the shareholders of their rights.	Yes	In §12 item 1a of The Constitution of the General Meeting there are included appropriate provisions in this issue. At the same time §12 item 2 of the Constitution of the General Meeting says that proposals concerning the progress of the Meeting and voting are understood and considered as proposals regarding matters of routine, and this include in particular: a) limitations, adjournment of discussion b) closure of discussion c) setting limits on speeches d) manner of running the Meeting e) ordering breaks during the Meeting f) order of covering points in the agenda g) order of passing proposals
14	A resolution not to consider an issue placed on the agenda may be adopted only if it is supported by important reasons. A motion in this respect should be accompanied by a detailed justification. Removing an item from the agenda or a decision not to consider an issue placed on the agenda at the request of the shareholders requires a resolution of the General Meeting, adopted following approval by all the present shareholders who submitted such a request, and	Yes	In §7 item 9a of the Company's Articles of Association there are included provisions saying that the resolution regarding a decision not to consider an issue placed on the agenda may be adopted only if it is supported by important reasons. The resolutions regarding removing an item from the agenda or a decision not to consider an issue placed on the agenda requires a majority of 75% of the given votes, with restriction that supported by 75% of the shareholders voting at the General Meeting.		the shareholders present at the General Meeting who put a motion to include such an issue on the agenda, previously gave approval for its removing or decided not to consider that issue.

15	A party objecting to a resolution must have an opportunity to concisely present the reasons for its objection.	Yes	The Constitution of the General Meeting as currently in force guarantee to its participants a possibility to present the reasons for their objection with respect to an adopted resolution.
16	Due to the fact that the Commercial Partnerships and Companies Code does not provide for court control in the event where a resolution is not adopted by the General Meeting, the Management Board or the Chairman of the Meeting should form the resolutions in such a way that each person who does not agree with a decision being the subject of the resolution, has the possibility of challenging the same; provided that he is entitled to do so.	Yes	In accordance with §10 item 7 of the Constitution of the General Meeting the text of the resolutions should be formulated in such a way that any entitled person who does not agree with the main substance of the matter in the resolution has the possibility to appeal against the resolution.
17	At the request of a participant in the General Meeting, his written statement is recorded in the minutes.	Yes	During General Meetings the shareholders are absolutely free to make written statements in connection with the discussed issues, and to have those statements included in the minutes at their request.

BEST PRACTICES OF SUPERVISORY BOARDS

18	The Supervisory Board submits to the General Meeting an annual concise evaluation of the company's standing. The evaluation should be made available to all shareholders early enough to allow them to become acquainted with the same before the annual General Meeting.	Yes	In accordance with §2 item 5 of the Constitution of the Supervisory Board, intending to ensure the possibility of accurate evaluation of the Company by the shareholders, each year, the Supervisory Board submits to the General Meeting a concise evaluation of the Company's standing. The evaluation should be made available to the Company's shareholders within such a period of time which would allow them to become acquainted with it before the Ordinary General Meeting.
19	A member of the Supervisory Board should have relevant education, professional and practical experience, be of high moral character and be able to devote all the time required to properly perform the function on the Supervisory Board. Candidates for members of the Supervisory Board should be presented and supported by reasons in sufficient detail to	Yes	Members of the Supervisory Board are evaluated by those considered by the Company to be the most competent to do so, namely the investors, who entrust the Company with their capital and place their trust in the members of the Supervisory Board, which is manifest in the very election and appointment of these

In accordance with §2 item 3 of the Constitution of the Supervisory Board the member of the Supervisory Board while performing his/her duties, first and foremost, should take into the consideration the interest of the Company.
22	Members of the Supervisory Board should take relevant actions in order to receive from the Management Board regular and complete information on any and all significant issues concerning the company's operations and on risks related to the business being conducted and the ways of managing such risk.		Yes	Acting as part of the collegiate body which, in the case of a joint-stock company, is the Supervisory Board, and exercising all their rights under relevant statutes and the Company's Articles of Association, members of the Supervisory Board are regularly informed on how individual transactions are carried out and on any other significant issues. In addition, permanent Committees have been established within the Supervisory Board, to constantly monitor specific areas of the Company's operations.
23	A Supervisory Board member should inform the remaining members of the board of any conflict of interest that arises, and should refrain from participating in discussions and from voting on passing a resolution on the issue in which the conflict of interest has arisen.		Yes	In accordance with §27 of the Constitution of Supervisory Board a Supervisory Board member shall inform the remaining members of the Supervisory Board of any conflict of interests and he should refrain from participating in discussions and cast the "abstain" vote in case of voting over the resolution on the issue in which the conflict of interests has arisen. The violation of provisions of the previous sentence does not cause invalidity of the Supervisory Board resolution. In case of any doubt whether the conflict of interests exists or not, the matter is solved by the Supervisory Board by resolution.
24	Information on the personal, actual and organisational connections of a Supervisory Board member with a given shareholder, and in particular with the majority shareholder should be made available to the public. The company should have a procedure in place for obtaining information from members of the Supervisory Board and for making it available to the public.		Yes	§5 item 4 of the Constitution of the Supervisory Board confirms the approval of that rule. Each information on the above mentioned connections should be made available to public in accordance with the Company's internal procedure.
25	Supervisory Board meetings, save for issues which directly concern the Management Board or its members, and in particular their removal, liability and the setting of their remuneration, should be accessible and open to		Yes	In accordance with §24 item 1 of the Constitution of the Supervisory Board the Management Board members are entitled to take part in the Supervisory Board meetings with the exception when matters members of the Management Board.		regarding directly the Management Board or its members, in particular their removal, responsibilities or remuneration are discussed.

26	A Supervisory Board member should enable the Management Board to present publicly and in an appropriate manner information on the disposal or acquisition of shares of the company or of its dominant entity or subsidiaries, and of transactions with such companies, provided that such information is relevant for his financial standing.	Yes	In accordance with §5 item 5 of the Constitution of the Supervisory Board each member of the Supervisory Board, according to the internal procedures, takes action that would enable the Management Board to present publicly and in an appropriate manner information on a disposal or acquisition of the Company's shares or shares of its dominant entity or subsidiary, and on transactions with such companies provided that such information is relevant for his financial standing.
27	Remuneration of members of the Supervisory Board should be established according to transparent procedures and rules. The remuneration should be fair, but should not constitute a significant cost item in the company's business and have material impact on its financial results. It should also be in reasonable relation to the remuneration of members of the Management Board. The aggregate remuneration of all members of the Supervisory Board as well as individual remuneration of each member of the Supervisory Board should be disclosed and itemised in the annual report, together with information on the procedures and rules of establishing the remuneration.	Yes	Remuneration of members of the Supervisory Board does not constitute a significant cost item in the Company's business. The aggregate remuneration of all members of the Supervisory Board as well as individual remuneration of each member is disclosed in the Company's annual report.
28	The Supervisory Board should operate in accordance with its by-laws which should be available to the public. The by-laws should provide for creation of at least two committees: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • audit committee and • remuneration committee. The audit committee should include at least two independent members and at least one member qualified and experienced in accountancy and finance. The duties of the Committees should be specified in detail in the by-laws of the Supervisory Board. The Supervisory Board Committees should submit to the Supervisory Board annual reports on their activities. Such reports should be made available by the company to its shareholders.	Yes	The Constitution of the Supervisory Board is available to the public in the Company's website. In accordance with §11 item 2 of the Constitution of the Supervisory Board the following permanent Committees shall operate within the Supervisory Board: Audit Committee, Strategy and Development Committee, Corporate Nomination and Remuneration Committee, Corporate Governance Committee. The Constitution of the Supervisory Board determines the rules of selecting, acting and tasks of the committees in details. In accordance with §12 item 3 the Audit Committee shall be composed of at least two independent members with at least one having qualifications and experience in accountancy and finance.

29	The agenda of a Supervisory Board meeting should not be amended or supplemented during the meeting which it concerns. This requirement does not apply if all members of the Supervisory Board are present and agree to the amendment or supplementation of the agenda, and in instances where the adoption of certain activities by the Supervisory Board is necessary in order to protect the company against damage and in the case of a resolution which concerns the determination whether there exists a conflict of interest between a Supervisory Board member and the company.	Yes	In accordance with §29 of the Constitution of the Supervisory Board the agenda of the Supervisory Board meeting specified in the notifications of convening the meeting shall not be amended during the meeting which it concerns.
