Strike ends at US Rexam beverage can plants

Rexam, the global consumer packaging company and the world's leading beverage can maker, is pleased to announce that the United Steelworkers union approved a new five year labour contract at the weekend. Consequently, the strike that began on 11 April at nine of Rexam's US beverage can plants is now over and the sites affected are back in operation.

As indicated in the trading update issued on Thursday 3 May in conjunction with the Annual General Meeting, it is estimated the strike will cost up to £15m in 2007.
