Tax credit of TRY 270 million has been written as income to Akbank's financials

The information has previously been made public that the law suit Akbank has opened to the tax authorities regarding the corporate tax and fund payment receivables in total of TRY 754 million for the years of 2001, 2002 and 2003 has ended with a resolution to the benefit of Akbank for the years 2001 and 2002. According to the court decision Akbank has entitlement to receive TRY 686 million in total for the the time being.

Recently, Akbank has been informed by Boğaziçi Tax Authority that TRY 270 million of TRY 485 million receivable for the year 2002 tax payment can be deducted from its tax payables account. Following this announcement Akbank has written TRY 270 million as income to its financials.

Further information about the timing, collection and the period of accounting for the remaining portion of our receivables will be shared to the investment community as soon as any development has taken place with regards to the legal process.
