Attention Business Editors:
Stelco provides restructuring update

HAMILTON, ON, Jan. 9 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. (TSX:STE) today issued an update on various measures being pursued under its Court-supervised restructuring process. The update is designed to, among other things, provide information that will assist affected creditors in electing whether to receive all or any part of their distribution from the cash pool in new common shares of Stelco, rather than cash, as part of the recovery provided under the restructuring plan approved by affected creditors on December 9, 2005.

The Company indicated that election forms were delivered to all affected creditors in recent weeks. Under the restructuring plan, each affected creditor may elect, no later than 5:00 p.m. (Eastern time) on January 16, 2006, to receive all or any part of its distribution from the cash pool in new common shares, subject to an overall limit on the number of new common shares that creditors collectively can elect to receive. Any affected creditor who does not so elect will receive its entire distribution from the cash pool in cash.

Stelco also confirmed that the Court will consider the restructuring plan approved on December 9, 2005 at a sanction hearing on January 17, 2006. At that time the Court will also hear an application by certain existing shareholders seeking the sale of the entire Stelco enterprise as a going concern. Stelco does not believe that such a course would be in the best interests of the Company and its stakeholders.

The Company also reported that the process of identifying a new board of directors is continuing. The Company's agreement with the three significant equity holders provides that the new board will consist of: four directors to be named by Tricap Management Limited, one director to be named by each of Sunrise Partners Limited Partnership and Appaloosa Management LP, and the remaining three directors to be satisfactory to the three significant equity holders as a group. It is expected that the composition of the new board will be announced shortly before the date of the sanction hearing.

Stelco also announced that the three significant equity holders, who together will hold a majority of shares in the Company upon completion of the restructuring, have indicated their desire that Courtney Pratt, the current chief executive officer of the Company, be named chairman of the new board of directors, and that the Company seek a new chief executive officer. Any such changes are dependent upon plan implementation, scheduled for the end of February 2006.

Stelco announces filing of 45th Monitor's Report

HAMILTON, ON, Jan. 10 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. (TSX:STE) today announced that the Forty-Fifth Report of the Monitor in the matter of the Company's Court-supervised restructuring has been filed. The full text of the Report, including a number of appendices, can be accessed through a link available on Stelco's web site. The Report deals primarily with the following matters:

Analysis of range of recoveries for affected creditors: The Report notes that the total of proven claims plus post-filing interest obligations is estimated to be approximately $640 million. The Report also provides, in Appendix B to the Report, an illustrative range of recoveries for affected creditors based on the plan approved in December 2005 and various enterprise value ranges.

Stelco's forecasting process: The Monitor notes that it has reviewed concerns expressed about the Company's forecasting processes in an affidavit by Fabrice Tayor ("the Taylor affidavit") filed by certain equity holders in December 2005. The Monitor states its view that the forecasting processes followed by Stelco have been thorough and comprehensive, and that the projections have been prepared in a responsible and detailed manner. In support of this conclusion the Report notes that the forecasts have been prepared by senior management with input from key departments. The Monitor adds that Stelco has regularly updated its financial projections as business conditions have shifted, and has kept key stakeholder groups informed of changes to its forecasts on a regular basis.

Timing of sale of Stelpipe assets: The Report expresses the view that the Taylor affidavit inaccurately claims that Stelco delayed closing of the sale of Stelpipe to Lakeside Steel. The Report notes that the Monitor was involved in the negotiation of the definitive sale agreement and with the closing of the transaction. The Monitor notes that the transaction closed on October 31, 2005, which was the date contemplated under the definitive agreement.

Absence of prospective purchasers: The Monitor confirms that during the last several months it has not been approached by, or received any expression of interest from, any party interested in purchasing Stelco. The Report adds that no such overtures have been made since the terms of the Company's restructuring plan were approved by affected creditors in December.

Meeting equity holder information requests: The Report reviews the manner in which Stelco, with the Monitor's assistance, has received and reviewed information requests from certain equity holders. The Report notes that Stelco and the Monitor have met with the equity holders' financial advisors and solicitors, have provided them with the same detailed presentation made to other stakeholders, and responded to questions.

The claims process: The Report provides an update in such matters as the number and value of claims received, the manner of dealing with such claims under the Court's claims process, and the assignment of claims under that process. Appendix A to the Report provides information on the status of claims under such headings as total claims filed, proven claims, disputed claims and unresolved claims.

Stelco announces filing of 46th Monitor's Report

HAMILTON, ON, Jan. 13 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. (TSX:STE) today announced that the Forty-Sixth Report of the Monitor in the matter of the Company's Court-supervised restructuring has been filed. The full text of the Report can be accessed through a link available on Stelco's web site.

Status of key financing elements: The Report reviews the status of a number of financing elements associated with the restructuring plan approved by affected creditors in December 2005.

The Monitor indicates that it has been advised that the relevant parties are working to resolve outstanding issues in the process of finalizing the $600 million asset based loan and the $375 million Tricap bridge loan facilities. The Report adds that the parties remain optimistic that acceptable solutions to these issues will be found and implemented.

The Monitor expresses the view that the principal issues to be resolved include the corporate structure of Stelco, which could involve the transfer of assets of some of Stelco's operations or divisions to new affiliates, and satisfying the providers of the above-noted facilities as to the priority of the new financing.

The Report notes that, if the potential resolution of these issues involves the reorganization of Stelco's corporate structure, and if the restructuring plan is approved by the Court, the Monitor is of the view that the closing might reasonably be expected to extend beyond the currently anticipated plan implementation date of February 28, 2006, and may require a further Order from the Court.

Status of board selection: The Monitor provides an update on the process of identifying the list of proposed directors for the new board of Stelco.

The Report notes that the three significant equity holders - Tricap Management Limited, Sunrise Partners Limited Partnership, and Appaloosa Management L.P. - have identified directors to be named by them who are willing to act in such capacity. The Monitor adds that, based on input from the three significant equity holders, Stelco has developed a list of directors which the three significant equity holders have indicated that they support. The Report states that discussions are ongoing between the three significant equity holders and representatives of the Informal Committee of Senior Bondholders with respect to the composition of the board.

Attention Business Editors:
Stelco issues restructuring update

HAMILTON, ON, Jan. 19 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. (TSX:STE) today provided an update on matters addressed during the sanction hearing in the matter of the Company's CCAA restructuring plan. The hearing began on Tuesday, January 17, 2006, resumed Wednesday morning and adjourned that afternoon.

While the Court has not yet made its decision in the matter of a sanction order, it has indicated that it wants to be certain that the restructuring plan is capable of being implemented.

To that end, the hearing identified several issues to be addressed in the coming days and weeks in the context of the sanction order application.

The first is to finalize the terms of Stelco's $600 million asset based loan with the loan providers. A second is to finalize the terms of the Company's $375 million Tricap bridge loan facility. The Company has committed to delivering signed term sheets in these matters to the Court-appointed Monitor by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, January 20, 2006.

Another issue concerns the reorganization of the Company's corporate structure. Last week the Court-appointed Monitor had indicated that this step was a possibility. The three new equity sponsors have now identified the structure they wish to have in place. In addition, it is a condition of Stelco's financing from Tricap that Tricap must be satisfied with the Company's financial and corporate structure as a condition of its participation in the restructuring plan.

Details of the proposed structure were contained in documents filed with the Court by Tricap this morning. Under this structure, Stelco would primarily serve as a holding company, with the operating businesses and assets transferred into newly created limited partnerships. The materials filed by Tricap indicate its belief that this structure will provide Stelco with, among other benefits, greater flexibility at lower cost in meeting its future financing needs.

In this proposed structure, Stelco itself will remain responsible for all employment-related obligations, including the pension plans.

The Company indicated its view that Tricap's goal is shared by all stakeholders - to provide Stelco with the best possible opportunity to succeed as it emerges from the CCAA process. Tricap and the other equity sponsors have indicated that they consider this new structure to be essential in achieving that goal.

The Company's next scheduled Court appearance is likely to be on February 10, 2006, at which time Stelco will seek approval of the corporate reorganization. The reorganization is subject to the approval of Stelco's board of directors.

Stelco announces filing of 48th Monitor's Report

HAMILTON, ON, Jan. 20 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. (TSX:STE) today announced that the Forty-Eighth Report of the Monitor in the matter of the Company's Court-supervised restructuring has been filed. The full text of the Report, including appendices, can be accessed through a link available on Stelco's web site.

The Report provides updating information on previously disclosed developments of recent days. The Monitor expresses the view that there has been considerable progress in resolving issues this week. These issues include:

Term sheets: The Report notes that the finalization of the $600 million asset based loan and the $375 million bridge loan are conditions precedent to the implementation of the restructuring plan and are critical components of the liquidity and financing contemplated for the restructured Stelco. The Report states that Stelco advised the Court that it expected to be in a position to deliver term sheets in the matter of these loan facilities to the Monitor by 5:00 p.m. today. The Report notes that the letters and term sheets delivered to the Monitor by the Company are appended to the Report, and that the term sheets have been approved by Stelco's board of directors, subject to obtaining the approval of the credit committees of the asset based loan providers. The Report notes that the asset based loan providers will recommend that such approval be granted.

Conditions precedent: The Report notes that the term sheets contain certain conditions precedent to the implementation of the financings, which the Monitor notes is not unusual for exit financing at this stage of a major CCAA restructuring. The Report adds that the parties to the loan facilities have indicated to the Monitor that they are committed to working to fulfill those conditions precedent.

The Report notes that the parties to the asset based loan have indicated to the Monitor that they have reached sufficient consensus between themselves and with the Province. As a result, the parties have indicated that they do not believe that any issues remain which could reasonably be expected to prevent the transactions contemplated in the term sheet from being implemented.

The Report notes that the parties to the bridge loan have indicated to the Monitor that details concerning the condition with respect to the proposed corporate reorganization of Stelco remain to be finalized. At the same time, the Report adds that the parties have confirmed to the Monitor that, subject to obtaining Court approval of the proposed reorganization, they do not believe that any issues remain which could reasonably be expected to prevent the transactions contemplated in the bridge loan term sheet from being implemented.

The Monitor indicates that the Province has confirmed that, to the extent that the transactions contemplated in the term sheets affect pensions and related liabilities, the Province is committed to working with the parties to satisfy the conditions precedent in the term sheets. The Report adds that the Province has confirmed that it is also committed to working to resolve any remaining issues that may affect pension and related liabilities arising from the proposed corporate reorganization.

Outlook: The Report states that, as is typical in restructurings of this size and complexity, there is significant work to be done to settle definitive documentation and to implement the contemplated transactions. The Monitor states that it is optimistic that the transactions contemplated by the term sheets can be implemented.

Board composition: The Report notes that the Monitor has been in discussion with counsel for the Informal Committee of Senior Bondholders ("the bondholders") regarding the composition of the new board of directors. The Report adds that the bondholders have proposed that Mr. Dennis Belcher be appointed to the new board in lieu of the vacant spot currently designated for Stelco's next chief executive officer. The Report notes that the three significant equity holders and the Company have agreed to this change, and that Mr. Belcher is prepared to stand as a director of the board on plan implementation. The Report adds that it is contemplated that, after the plan implementation date, the board will be expanded to add Stelco's next chief executive officer when that position is filled. The Monitor indicates its understanding that the issue of the composition of the new board is now resolved.

Dennis Belcher held increasingly senior executive positions during more than 40 years in Canada's financial services industry, principally with The Bank of Nova Scotia. He retired as Executive Vice President, Credit and Risk Management of that bank in 2002. He has served as a director on the boards of a number of public companies, and has authored publications dealing with such matters as risk assessment, restructuring and project financing.

Stelco comments on resignation letter of former directors

HAMILTON, ON, Jan. 21 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. (TSX:STE) today commented on the resignation letter of two former directors which was made public under an Order of the Superior Court of Justice (Ontario) last evening.

The Company noted that allegations contained in the letter had been addressed previously by the board of directors and by a Special Officer of the Court. A Special Committee of the board was established to review the allegations following receipt of the resignation letter last August. In addition, the Company sought and obtained the appointment of the Honourable Coulter Osborne as a Special Officer of the Court. His mandate was to assist and oversee the Special Committee's review of the allegations, and to report to the Court.

Mr. Osborne's report ("the Osborne report") was filed and made public on September 21, 2005. The report confirmed the appropriateness of the process and findings of the Special Committee in the matters under review. The report expressed the view that there was no conflict of interest on the part of the president and chief executive officer or other members of senior management, that there had been no stakeholder complaint about the forecasting model that was used, and that the board had acted responsibly in considering all aspects of the forecasts with which it was presented.

The Company today noted in particular a number of allegations in the former directors' letter concerning the Chief Restructuring Officer ("CRO"), Mr. Hap Stephen. The Company noted the Osborne report's finding that "there was nothing which emerged in the course of the Special Committee process which in any way compromised the role of the CRO."

Richard Drouin, chairman of Stelco's board of directors, said, "The allegations, and particularly those concerning the motives and conduct of specific individuals, are not accepted by Stelco's current directors who consider those allegations to be inappropriate and unjustified.

"The activities of the board, management, advisors and the CRO have been overseen by the Court-appointed Monitor. For its part, the board has had complete confidence in every member of the Company's restructuring team throughout this process."

Attention Business Editors:
Stelco's restructuring plan receives Court approval

HAMILTON, ON, Jan. 21 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. (TSX:STE) today announced that its restructuring plan was sanctioned and approved by the Superior Court of Justice (Ontario) last evening.

The Court indicated its view that Stelco has been in compliance with all statutory requirements, has adhered to previous orders of the Court, and that nothing has been done or purported to be done that is not authorized by the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act. The Court also found that the restructuring plan was fair, reasonable and equitable.

Courtney Pratt, Stelco President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "This is wonderful news for Stelco, for our employees and retirees, for our other stakeholders, and for the communities in which we operate. The conclusion of our restructuring is now in sight. The new Stelco that emerges from this process will be much better positioned to become a viable and competitive steel producer for the long term. Stelco will do everything possible to reward the confidence that has been shown in the restructuring plan and in the future of this great company."

The Court had indicated earlier this week that it wanted to be certain that the restructuring plan presented for approval could actually be implemented. To that end, the Company had advised the Court that it expected to be in a position to deliver term sheets in the matter of the $600 million asset based loan and the $375 million bridge loan to the Monitor by 5:00 p.m. on January 20, 2006. Letters and term sheets in a form acceptable to the Court were delivered, as referenced in the 48th Report of the Monitor issued late yesterday afternoon. Having reviewed these materials and the Monitor's Report, the Court indicated that it was satisfied the restructuring plan was implementable.

The Court also determined that the restructuring plan was fair to existing shareholders on the grounds that there was insufficient value with which to provide them any recovery. In addition, the Court noted its belief that the marketplace had been exhaustively and well canvassed for prospective purchasers of the Company during the restructuring process. The Court also noted that no real or realistic interest had been shown even though certain existing shareholders had made efforts in this regard in recent months.

The Sanction Order also extended the stay period from January 31, 2006 until March 3, 2006.

Stelco provides update on Lake Erie upgrade program

HAMILTON, ON, Jan. 25 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. (TSX:STE) today issued an information update on the Phase 2 upgrade of the Lake Erie hot strip mill.

This upgrade is one of the critical capital investment programs identified in the Company's 4-point strategy announced in July 2004. It is designed to increase hot roll capacity, improve production quality, enable Stelco to close its obsolete 56" mill in Hamilton, and contribute to the Company's financial performance by reducing costs.

The new equipment associated with the current stage of the upgrade has been installed, is operational, performing extremely well, and the Company is confident that the upgrade's strategic objectives will be achieved.

The implementation of this stage of the upgrade process has taken longer than anticipated, primarily as a result of the complex task of integrating the related control software as part of the commissioning process. Despite the delays, it is still expected that this commissioning process will be completed by the end of the first quarter of 2006. The operation of the mill is improving on a weekly basis and is currently operating at 80% of the anticipated production capacity that is expected to be achieved for this stage of the project.

Stelco noted that the installation and commissioning delays associated with this stage of the upgrade program will have a short-term negative impact on the facility's overall production, the volume and mix of products shipped, and the Company's revenue from sales. These items will impact the fourth quarter of 2005 and the first quarter of 2006.

Attention Business Editors:
Stelco issues restructuring update

HAMILTON, ON, Jan. 27 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. (TSX:STE) today provided an update in the matter of its Court-supervised restructuring.

The Company announced that the Forty-Ninth Report of the Monitor has been filed. The full text of the Report can be accessed through a link available on Stelco's web site.

The Report deals exclusively with the matter of facilitating Stelco's sale of its interest in Norambar Inc., Stelwire Ltd. ("Stelwire") and Stelfil Ltée to Mittal Canada Inc. ("Mittal"). The Court approved this transaction on December 12, 2005. The Report notes that Stelwire is the only one of the three non-core subsidiaries that is an applicant under the CCAA proceedings.

Stelco and Mittal are seeking to close the transaction on January 31, 2006. The Company's restructuring plan, however, will not be implemented by that date. This has raised concerns on the part of Mittal regarding Stelwire's status as a CCAA applicant and liability for affected claims.

The Monitor notes that it has worked with Stelco and Mittal to find a way to address Mittal's concerns in order to allow the transaction to close on January 31, 2006. The Report states that Stelco will seek a Court Order to the effect that on the closing of the transaction: (a) the Initial Order and subsequent Court Orders in the CCAA proceedings will not be construed in any way that restricts Mittal's ability to carry on the business of Stelwire, (b) the Monitor's powers and duties in respect of Stelwire will be limited, (c) the holders of affected claims will have no further recourse to Stelwire unless provided for in the restructuring plan, and (d) if the plan is not implemented, the affected claims that have recourse against Stelwire or the property of Stelwire shall only have recourse to the sale proceeds from the sale transaction.

The Monitor recommends that Stelco's application in this regard be granted as a means of facilitating the closing of the transaction.

Stelco also announced the outcome of the share election process undertaken by affected creditors in the matter of the Company's approved restructuring plan.

Under the Company's restructuring plan, affected creditors could elect to receive all or part of their distribution from the cash pool in new common shares. A total of 5.624 million shares were available for that purpose, to be shared pro rata if affected creditors subscribed collectively for more than this number. The total value of affected creditor claims for purposes of the Company's restructuring plan is approximately $546,703,308.

Stelco advises that the affected creditors elected to receive all of the 5.624 million shares that were available. Each affected creditor who made such an election will receive approximately 33.1% of the new common shares they elected to receive.

The Company also announced today that it has accepted an offer of financing from Tricap Management Limited regarding the $375 million bridge loan facility contemplated under Stelco's restructuring plan.

Application materials served for Stelco reorganization

HAMILTON, ON, Feb. 3 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. (TSX:STE) today announced that materials were served late this afternoon in the matter of an application to be heard on February 10, 2006. The application seeks Court approval of a proposed post-CCAA corporate structure in which distinct portions of the Company's business would be transferred into separate limited partnerships.

The proposed limited partnerships cover the following businesses: Hamilton steel, Lake Erie steel, Hamilton coke, Lake Erie coke, Hamilton energy, Lake Erie energy, mining, Hamilton land and Lake Erie land.

The proposed reorganization was announced on January 20, 2006. It is a condition of Stelco's financing from Tricap Management Limited ("Tricap") that Tricap must be satisfied with the Company's financial and corporate structure. Tricap and the other equity sponsors under Stelco's Court-approved restructuring plan are of the view that the proposed reorganization will, among other things, minimize the cost of capital by enabling the financing of the individual business units in the most effective way possible.

The materials served this afternoon note that numerous discussions have been conducted in recent weeks among Tricap, Stelco, the Court-appointed Monitor, the USW, active and retired salaried employees, bondholder representatives and the Province of Ontario, among others. The material adds that the revised proposed reorganization endeavours to balance a range of issues while facilitating the goal of enabling Stelco to emerge successfully from the CCAA process.

As noted in the application materials, among the features of the proposed reorganization are provisions concerning the pension plan funding arrangement contained in Stelco's restructuring plan. In addition to confirming the ten-year funding arrangement agreed to by the Company and the Province, the reorganization proposal outlines the ongoing pension funding obligations of Stelco and of any acquiror of the Company. Stelco will also be prohibited from making dividend payments or other forms of distribution on its common shares while the pension funding arrangements are in effect.

Attention Business Editors:
Stelco Announces Filing of 50th Monitor's Report

HAMILTON, ON, Feb. 9 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. (TSX:STE) today announced that the Fiftieth Report of the Monitor in the matter of the Company's Court-supervised restructuring was served last evening and is being filed this morning. The full text of the Report, including appendices, can be accessed through a link available on Stelco's web site.

The Report provides an update on the previously-announced proposed reorganization of Stelco's corporate structure, in which distinct portions of the Company's business would be transferred into separate limited partnerships.

The Monitor recommends that the Court grant an Order approving the proposed corporate reorganization, to be accomplished by way of plan of arrangement under the Canada Business Corporations Act, at a hearing to be held on February 10, 2006. The Report acknowledges, however, that even with this approval, significant work remains to be done. This work includes settling definitive documentation and resolving outstanding issues with key stakeholders in order to enable Stelco to implement the plan of arrangement and exit from Court protection under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, which is scheduled to occur during the first quarter of 2006.

Stelco will also be prohibited from making dividend payments or other forms of distribution on its common shares while the pension funding arrangements are in effect.

Stelco Announces Filing of 51st Monitor's Report

HAMILTON, ON, Feb. 23 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. (TSX:STE) today announced that the Fifty-First Report of the Monitor in the matter of the Company's Court-supervised restructuring was filed this afternoon. The full text of the Report can be accessed through a link available on Stelco's web site.

The Report deals exclusively with the sale of real property owned by Welland Pipe Ltd. as part of Stelco's non-core asset sale process. The sale of two pipe manufacturing mills that had been located on the property was approved in 2004 and 2005.

The Monitor notes that the real property was appraised and marketed for sale by an independent realtor. An agreement of purchase and sale was entered into on January 9, 2006 by Welland Pipe Ltd. and the purchaser, Universal Capital Corporation. The transaction, which is subject to Court and other approvals as well as the fulfillment of other conditions, is expected to close on May 15, 2006.

The Report adds that Stelco has indicated that it will seek the Court's approval of the transaction, as well as the temporary sealing of certain commercially sensitive financial information contained in the agreement of purchase and sale, at a hearing to be held on March 2, 2006.

The Monitor expresses the view that the property was marketed for sale in a commercially reasonable fashion, that the purchase price is fair and commercially reasonable, that the request for a sealing Order is appropriate, and that the transaction represents the best recovery for Welland Pipe stakeholders. As a result, the Monitor recommends that Stelco's application in these matters be approved.

TSX requests that Stelco apply to delist current shares

HAMILTON, ON, Feb. 27 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. (TSX:STE) announced today that it has been in discussions with the Toronto Stock Exchange concerning requests received from the TSX to delist the Company's common shares. Discussions are ongoing.

As disclosed on previous occasions, and as reflected in Stelco's approved restructuring plan, there is insufficient value in the Company under the plan to provide recovery for the current common shareholders. As a result, the existing common shares will be eliminated on plan implementation with no value being attributed to them.

Stelco advised today that it expects to file a delisting application with the Toronto Stock Exchange as soon as it is confident with respect to the satisfaction of all major business issues relating to implementation of the Company's restructuring plan. Stelco anticipates that it will be able to make this determination on or about March 2, 2006, in which case a delisting application is expected to be filed shortly thereafter.

HAMILTON, ON, Feb. 28 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. (TSX:STE) today announced that the Fifty-Second Report of the Monitor in the matter of the Company's Court-supervised restructuring was filed this evening. The full text of the Report, including an appendix, can be accessed through a link available on Stelco's web site. The Report recommends that the Court extend the stay period, which will otherwise expire at midnight on March 3, 2006, to March 31, 2006. The Monitor notes that progress has been made in resolving the issues to be addressed in the process of implementing the approved restructuring plan and the approved reorganization of Stelco's corporate structure. The Report adds that the contemplated transactions are complex, they require the input and approval of a number of stakeholders, and that issues remain to be resolved.

The Monitor observes that the stakeholders involved in the finalization of the documents and other measures required to implement the above-noted arrangements have committed to an implementation timetable they believe is achievable. The timetable contemplates that the principal documents will be finalized and that a pre-closing will take place on March 17, 2006, with a plan implementation date of March 31, 2006. In recommending that the application for a stay extension be granted, the Monitor states its belief that the parties have been working diligently towards plan implementation, that a plan implementation date of March 31, 2006 is achievable, and that Stelco has been acting and continues to act in good faith and with due diligence. The Report and its appendix also provide a summary of receipts and disbursements for the period November 19, 2005 to February 17, 2006, an analysis of variances from the forecast provided in the 40th Report of the Monitor, as well as a cash flow forecast for the period February 18, 2006 to March 31, 2006. The Monitor notes that total facility utilization stood at $296.5 million as at February 17, 2006, and is projected to increase to $325.6 million by March 31, 2006.

Attention Business Editors:
Stelco stay period extended until March 31, 2006

HAMILTON, ON, March 2 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. (TSX:STE) today was granted an Order of the Superior Court of Justice (Ontario) extending the stay period in its Court-supervised restructuring from March 3, 2006 until March 31, 2006.

The Court-appointed Monitor had recommended that the extension be granted on the grounds that the parties have been working diligently towards implementation of the Company's restructuring plan, that a plan implementation date of March 31, 2006 is achievable, and that Stelco has been acting in good faith and with due diligence.

The Order contains a provision that the Monitor report to the Court as to the status of the plan implementation process and that a further Court hearing be held on March 23, 2006 if progress in that regard is unsatisfactory and should the Court so direct.

Courtney Pratt, Stelco President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "We are making progress in our drive to completion. The stakeholders involved in these final stages have agreed on an implementation timetable they believe is achievable. We're committed to working with stakeholders, to achieving those targets, and to bringing this process to a successful conclusion."

At the same hearing held this morning, the Court approved the previously announced sale of real property owned by Welland Pipe Ltd. and ordered the temporary sealing of certain commercially sensitive financial information contained in the agreement of purchase and sale.

Stelco to seek delisting of current common shares

HAMILTON, ON, March 3 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. (TSX:STE) announces that its board of directors today approved a resolution authorizing an application for the delisting of the Company's current common shares from the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSX"). The application will request that the shares be delisted as at the close of trading on March 10, 2006.

Stelco previously announced that it was in discussions with the TSX concerning delisting and indicated that it expected to file a delisting application at such time as it was confident major business issues relating to implementation of its restructuring plan would be satisfied. While there are still some significant issues to be settled between stakeholders before Stelco's plan can be implemented, Stelco now reasonably expects the issues to be resolved for a March 31 plan implementation date.

Courtney Pratt, President and Chief Executive Officer: "We are making progress in our drive to completion. Key stakeholders have agreed on an implementation timetable and we are committed to working toward a successful conclusion in the near future."

As disclosed on previous occasions, there is insufficient value in the Company under the approved restructuring plan to provide recovery for the current common shareholders. As a result, the existing common shares will be eliminated on plan implementation with no value being attributed to them.

Stelco announces filing of 54th Monitor's Report

HAMILTON, ON, March 10 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. announces that the Fifty-Fourth Report of the Monitor in the matter of the Company's Court-supervised restructuring was served this evening and will be filed on Monday, March 13, 2006. The full text of the Report will be accessible through a link available on Stelco's web site.

The Report deals exclusively with a motion by the Company to be heard on March 16, 2005. The motion concerns the distribution of sale proceeds with respect to Stelco's disposition of non-core assets during its restructuring.

In pursuit of its previously-announced strategy, and as announced throughout the asset sale process, the Company sold the issued and outstanding shares of four wholly-owned subsidiaries: AltaSteel Ltd., Norambar Inc., Stelfil Ltée and Stelwire Ltd. The Company also sold the assets of CHT Steel Company Inc., Stelpipe Ltd. and Welland Pipe Ltd.

The sale proceeds from those transactions were paid to, and have been held since then by, the Monitor in trust. The motion seeks a Court Order authorizing the Monitor to distribute the funds that can be released on the restructuring plan implementation date to Stelco or as Stelco may direct. The motion also deals with those sale proceeds the Monitor is required to hold beyond the plan implementation date pursuant to any of the above-noted sale agreements. The Order being sought would authorize the Monitor to release such sale proceeds in accordance with those agreements without further Order of the Court.

RECEIVED

March 24, 2006

To the stakeholders of Stelco Inc.

This letter accompanying the 2005 Annual Report represents our final report on the affairs of the Company in our current roles. In accordance with the provisions of the Court-approved restructuring plan and other understandings, a new Board of Directors and a new president and chief executive officer will assume office upon Stelco's emergence from the CCAA process. We'd like to take this opportunity to report on several aspects of the Company's activity since the previous Annual Report.

With the assistance of the Court-appointed Monitor, each of the Board, management, independent advisors and the Chief Restructuring Officer has endeavourerd to act in the best interests of the Company in restructuring its affairs. In addition to exercising this ongoing mandate, Stelco has been mindful of an added responsibility. Under the restructuring process, the Company has been responsible for balancing the competing interests and demands of all stakeholders.

The restructuring plan that was approved by the Board, by creditors and by the Court achieves that balance. We and others believe it is fair, reasonable and responsible. It enables Stelco to emerge from the process a stronger company than it was at the outset. And it provides an opportunity for Stelco to become viable and to compete successfully in a fast-changing environment.

Getting to this point has not been easy. During 2005 and in subsequent months the Company has continued its ongoing business while at the same time conducting all activities under the restructuring process. These activities have included two capital raising processes; the sale of non-core assets; a Court-established mediation process; negotiations toward the conclusion of agreements between Stelco and various stakeholders; the Company's submissions in numerous Court hearings; the proposed reorganization of the Company's corporate structure; and the announcement of the appointment of Stelco's next President and Chief Executive Officer.

The outcome to which this process is moving is a credit to the dedication and hard work of a great many people. While each and every one of them deserves our thanks, there are several to whom we'd like to offer our personal appreciation. The members of the Board have worked tirelessly in the best interests of Stelco during what has been called the most complex and difficult restructuring in Canadian history. The Company's managers and employees have remained focused on their jobs, have set production and safety records, and have maintained Stelco's reputation for quality products. And our customers, suppliers, other business partners, creditors and governments at all levels have shown tremendous patience and support during this most challenging period. All of these men and women, and the communities in which Stelco operates, have played an important role in achieving a successful restructuring.

We extend best wishes to Stelco and its stakeholders as the Company enters the next stage in its long and storied history.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

This Management's Discussion and Analysis ("MD&A") is dated March 24, 2006 and is in respect of the Consolidated Financial Statements of Stelco Inc. ("Stelco" or the "Corporation") for the year ended December 31, 2005. The purpose of Stelco's MD&A is to provide commentary on the Corporation's financial situation and future prospects, focusing on the Corporation's Integrated Steel segment. Stelco sold all of its Mini-mill and Manufactured Products segments by February 1, 2006 – see "Creditor Protection and Restructuring" below for additional comments. The Corporation prepares its consolidated financial statements (the "Consolidated Financial Statements") in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). The following MD&A should be read in conjunction with the Consolidated Financial Statements and the accompanying notes and the Third Amended and Restated Plan of Arrangement and Reorganization of Stelco and certain of its subsidiaries dated December 9, 2005 (the "CCAA Plan"). Additional information about Stelco is available in the Corporation's 2005 Annual Information Form, which can be accessed from SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

Forward-Looking Statements

This MD&A, including the documents incorporated by reference, contains forward-looking statements. Often, but not always, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of words such as "plans", "expects" or "does not expect", "is expected", "budget", "scheduled", "estimates", "forecasts", "intends", "anticipates" or "does not anticipate", or "believes", or variations of such words and phrases or state that certain actions, events or results "may", "could", "would", "might" or "will" be taken, occur or be achieved. Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of Stelco to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. Examples of such statements include, but are not limited to: (A) factors relating to the CCAA Plan and the arrangement (the "CBCA Plan") under the Canada Business Corporation Act (the "CBCA") and the results expected to be achieved from the successful implementation of the CCAA Plan, including the expected CCAA Plan implementation date; the expectation that plan implementation will be achieved; and the completion of the reorganization of Stelco (the "CBCA Arrangement") into discrete business units to create maximum financial and operating flexibility and increased accountability; and (B) factors relating to the business, financial position, operations and prospects of Stelco, including (1) Stelco's strategies and plans; (2) labour matters related to Stelco's predominantly unionized workforce; (3) pension matters including the requirement to make solvency deficiency payments and the availability of a Section 5.1 Election with respect to such payments; (4) changes to environmental laws and regulations concerned with, among other things, emissions into the air, discharges to water or land, noise control and the generation, handling, storage, transportation and disposal of toxic substances; (5) new technological developments and Stelco's ability to make capital expenditures to maintain and enhance its technological ability; (6) Stelco's energy and raw material costs; (7) the volatility of selling prices for steel; (8) international trade matters, including increases in steel imports into Canada; (9) employee matters, including the retention of the skills and knowledge of Stelco's employees and the ability to attract and retain new employees; (10) development of new products; and (11) planned capital expenditures and tax payments. Actual results and developments are likely to differ, and may differ materially, from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements contained in this MD&A. Such forward-looking statements are based on a number of assumptions which may prove to be incorrect, including, but not limited to: the ability of Stelco and its stakeholders to implement the CCAA Plan; Stelco's ability to meet the conditions to CCAA Plan implementation; exchange rates, energy and other anticipated and unanticipated costs; pension contributions and expenses; the supply and demand for, deliveries of, and the level and volatility of prices of, steel and raw materials; the continued availability of financing on appropriate terms; market competition; the impact on Stelco of various environmental regulations and initiatives; and Stelco's ongoing relations with its employees. While Stelco anticipates that subsequent events and developments may cause Stelco's views to change, Stelco specifically disclaims any obligation to update these forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing Stelco's views as of any date subsequent to the date of this MD&A.

Creditor Protection and Restructuring

On January 29, 2004 (the "Filing Date"), Stelco Inc. and certain related entities filed for protection under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act ("CCAA") and obtained an order (the "Initial Order") from the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (the "Court") granting it creditor protection under CCAA. On the same date, Stelco made a concurrent petition for recognition of the Initial Order and ancillary relief under Section 304 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code (the "U.S. Section 304 Proceedings"). The Canadian proceedings include Stelco and its wholly owned subsidiaries, Stelpipe Ltd. ("Stelpipe"), CHT Steel Company Inc. ("CHT Steel"), Welland Pipe Ltd. ("Welland Pipe"), and formerly held wholly owned subsidiary Stelwire Ltd. ("Stelwire") which are collectively referred to as the "Applicants". The U.S. Section 304 Proceedings include Stelco, Stelwire, and Stelpipe. The Corporation's other subsidiaries and joint ventures are not included in the expected proceedings. During the stay period, the Applicants were authorized to continue operations. Ernst & Young Inc. was appointed by the Court as monitor (the "Monitor") in the Canadian proceedings and has been reporting to the Court from time to time on the Applicants' cash flow and on other developments during the proceedings.

The Initial Order and the U.S. Section 304 Proceedings provided for an initial stay period of 30 days, which has subsequently been extended to the earlier of March 31, 2006 and the implementation of the CCAA Plan (the "Plan Implementation Date"). The purpose of the Initial Order and stay of proceedings was to provide the Applicants with relief designed to stabilize their operations and business relationships with their customers, suppliers, employees, and creditors and to provide them with time to develop the CCAA Plan.

The CCAA proceedings triggered defaults under substantially all debt obligations of the Applicants (see Notes 7 and 17 to the Consolidated Financial Statements). The Initial Order generally stayed actions against the Applicants including steps to collect indebtedness incurred by the Applicants prior to the Filing Date and actions to exercise control over the Applicants' property. The Initial Order granted the Applicants the authority to pay outstanding and future wages, salaries, employee pension contributions and benefit payments, and other obligations to employees; the costs of goods and services, both operating and of a capital nature, provided or supplied after the date of the Initial Order; rent under existing arrangements payable after the date of the filing; and principal, interest, and other payments to holders of security in respect of the property of the Applicants if the amount secured by such security is, in the reasonable opinion of the applicable Applicant, with the concurrence of the Monitor, less than or equal to the fair value of such security, having regard to, among other things, the priority of such security.

Conditions to CCAA Plan Implementation

The implementation of the CCAA Plan is subject to a number of conditions, including settlement of the terms of the agreements governing the New ABL Facility, the Secured Revolving Term Loan, the FRNs, the New Province Note, the Pension Arrangements, the New Warrants and the warrants to be issued to the Province (as described below under Overview of the CCAA Plan). These agreements and related documents must be settled with the parties that will be entering into them as well as with certain other parties that, pursuant to the terms of the CCAA Plan, must be satisfied with or not object to the terms of these agreements.

Stelco is in the process of negotiating the terms of these agreements and documents with the applicable stakeholders as well as is seeking to satisfy other conditions to implementation. If the conditions are not satisfied subject to the right of various parties to waive compliance, the CCAA Plan will not be implemented.

CCAA Plan

By order dated October 4, 2005, the Applicants were authorized to call and conduct meetings of affected creditors (as defined in the CCAA Plan) on November 15, 2005 to consider and vote on their plan of arrangement and reorganization dated October 3, 2005 (the "Original Plan"), as amended from time to time. As a result of extensive negotiations with stakeholders, the Original Plan was amended and on December 9, 2005, a majority in number of Affected Creditors representing more than two-thirds in value of the Affected Claims (as defined in the CCAA Plan) of each class voted to approve and adopt the CCAA Plan.

By order dated January 20, 2006 (the "Sanction Order"), the CCAA Plan was sanctioned by the Court and, among other things, the Court:

a) declared that the CCAA Plan was fair and reasonable and in the best interests of the Applicants;
b) authorized the Applicants to take all steps necessary to implement the CCAA Plan and the transactions contemplated by it;
c) authorized Stelco to file Articles of Reorganization with effect on the Plan Implementation Date, which will have the effect of eliminating the existing common shares, and create new common shares of Stelco (the "New Common Shares") that will be issued to affected creditors and others under the CCAA Plan;
d) ordered that, as of the Plan Implementation Date, Stelco's existing shareholders' rights plan agreement and all warrants, options and agreements to purchase existing common shares of Stelco will be of no further force or effect and cancelled;
e) ordered that, as of the Plan Implementation Date, the Applicants will be released from affected claims and certain other matters and that the directors and officers of the Applicants and certain others will be released from all claims relating to, among other things, the business and affairs of the Applicants, the CCAA Plan and proceedings, excluding claims arising from fraud, wilful misconduct and some other specific matters;
f) ordered that the term of office of the existing board of directors of Stelco will terminate on the Plan Implementation Date and appointed nine new directors of Stelco as of that time;
g) ordered that the Applicants will be released from all CCAA Charges (as defined in the Initial Order) against their property and assets created by the Initial Order, with effect from the Plan Implementation Date or, in the case of the $350 Million Credit Facility and DIP Credit Facility (as those terms are defined below), the date of delivery of a release from the lenders; and
h) ordered that the stay of proceedings under the CCAA will terminate on the earlier of the Plan Implementation Date and March 3, 2006 (subsequently extended to March 31, 2006).

On February 9, 2006, an order was obtained in the U.S. Section 304 Proceedings that provides that the CCAA Plan and the Sanction Order are enforceable in the United States.

Status of Claims Process

The Applicants initiated a process for certain creditors to file Proofs of Claim against the Applicants for Claims (as defined in the CCAA Plan) incurred prior to January 29, 2004 and for Restructuring Claims (as defined in the CCAA Plan). The claims bar date for filing Proofs of Claim for Claims arising prior to January 29, 2004 and for Restructuring Claims arising prior to December 17, 2004 was set at January 31, 2005. The claims bar date for filing Proofs of Claim for Restructuring Claims arising after December 17, 2004 was set at October 26, 2005.

A dispute mechanism was put in place for those Claims that could not be resolved by way of negotiation with the Applicants and/or the Monitor. These Claims were forwarded to a Claims Officer providing the claimant filed a notice of dispute by the earlier of eight business days following receipt of a dispute package on March 7, 2005 (or, in respect of a Restructuring Claim arising after December 17, 2004, on October 26, 2005). Outstanding Claims were reviewed and ruled on by the Claims Officer. Decisions of the Claims Officer may be approved by the Court within five business days of notification of the Claims Officer's decision. All determinations from the Court regarding appealed Claims are final for the purpose of recording Claims. See Note 7 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for the Claim Summary as at December 31, 2005.

Overview of the CCAA Plan

Treatment of Affected Claims

Under the CCAA Plan, the claims of the Affected Creditors will not be satisfied in full by the consideration being distributed under the CCAA Plan (see Note 7 to the Consolidated Financial Statements). Stelco is seeking to implement the CCAA Plan by March 31, 2006.

Each Affected Creditor will receive its pro rata share of the following:

a) New Secured Floating Rate Notes ("FRNs") in the US dollar equivalent of $275 million;
b) 1,100,000 New Common Shares of Stelco;
c) cash in the amount of $137.5 million (the "Cash Pool") subject in the case of each Affected Creditor to its right to elect to receive New Common Shares instead of cash at $5.50 per New Common Share (the "Share Election"), up to a maximum of 5,264,000 New Common Shares in the aggregate for all Affected Creditors so electing to do so; and
d) warrants for 1,418,500 New Common Shares (the "New Warrants") representing, if exercised, approximately 5% of the fully diluted New Common Shares of Stelco at the Plan Implementation Date. The New Warrants will have an exercise price of $11.00 per New Common Share and have a seven-year term.

As a result of Share Elections filed by the Affected Creditors, the total amount of cash to be issued to Affected Creditors under the CCAA Plan will be $108,548,000 and the electing Affected Creditors will receive 5,264,000 New Common Shares pursuant to the Share Elections.

Based on the current estimate of proven claims of $546 million (see Note 7 to the Consolidated Financial Statements), Affected Creditors will receive, for each $1,000 of proven claim, approximately the following amounts:

a) $502 of FRN's;
b) two new Common Shares; and
c) $251 of cash from the Cash Pool, subject to any Share Election at $5.50 per share; and
d) a pro rata share of the New Warrants.

Plan Sponsor Agreement

The new equity of the restructured Stelco, in the form of New Common Shares, will be divided among three groups under the CCAA Plan: the Affected Creditors, the Province of Ontario (the "Province") and the Equity Sponsors. The Affected Creditors are acquiring their portion of the equity as part of the consideration distributed under the CCAA Plan. The Province is to obtain its portion by virtue of warrants to purchase 851,100 New Common Shares negotiated as part of the financing it is providing to Stelco described below (wherein it receives warrants representing, if exercised, 3% of the fully diluted New Common Shares at the Plan Implementation Date) and the Equity Sponsors are acquiring their equity interests for cash pursuant to a Plan Sponsor Agreement ("the PSA") between the Corporation and the Equity Sponsors.

Pursuant to the PSA, Tricap Management Limited ("Tricap"), Sunrise Partners Limited Partnership ("Sunrise") and Appaloosa Management LP ("Appaloosa") (collectively the "Equity Sponsors") agreed to purchase New Common Shares in Stelco at a price of $5.50 per share for proceeds of $108,548,000, which funds comprise the Cash Pool to be distributed to Affected Creditors. In addition, Sunrise and Appaloosa agreed to provide a stand-by commitment to purchase up to an additional 5,264,000 shares at $5.50 per share for an aggregate maximum stand-by commitment of $28,952,000 to supplement the Cash Pool to be paid to the Affected Creditors if the Share Elections did not result in a full take-up of the 5,264,000 New Common Shares available. The share elections resulted in a full take-up of the 5,264,000 New Common Shares. Therefore, the stand-by commitment was not required.

Proposed CCAA Plan Financing

The CCAA Plan is conditional upon a number of matters, including implementation of a number of agreements to secure new financing and a pension plan funding agreement with the Province. Stelco plans to raise new financing from the following sources:

- New ABL facility (asset based loan) $600 million
- New Secured Revolving term loan $375 million
- New Province Note $150 million

The finalization of the new financing are conditions precedent to the implementation of the CCAA Plan and are critical components of the liquidity and financing contemplated for the restructured Stelco.

New ABL Facility

On the Plan Implementation Date, the current $75 million Debtor-in-Possession Credit Facility (the "DIP Credit Facility") and existing $350 Million Credit Facility (the "$350 Million Credit Facility") which are due to expire no later than March 31, 2006 (see Note 13 to the Consolidated Financial Statements), are to be replaced by a new asset based lending facility (the "New ABL Facility"). The Corporation is in negotiations with lenders to provide this facility. The available amount of the New ABL Facility will be dependent upon the value of the underlying collateral, but will not exceed $600 million.

New Secured Revolving Term Loan

Pursuant to a term sheet/commitment letter, signed by Stelco on January 27, 2006, Tricap has agreed to provide a new secured revolving term loan (the "New Secured Revolving Term Loan") to Stelco in an amount of $375 million for a term of seven years from the Plan Implementation Date. The facility is revolving until the third anniversary of the Plan Implementation Date (the "Target Date"). On and after the Target Date, the facility may cease to revolve and any amount of the New Secured Revolving Term Loan outstanding on the Target Date will be repayable in full on the seventh anniversary of the Plan Implementation Date.

The New Secured Revolving Term Loan is conditional upon a number of matters, including Stelco adopting a financing and corporate structure acceptable to Tricap.

Stelco and Tricap entered into a restructuring agreement dated September 22, 2005 (the "Stelco/Tricap Restructuring Agreement") pursuant to which Tricap was to provide financing by way of a $350 million secured revolving term loan and support a rights offering in connection with the Original Plan. As a result of amendments to the Original Plan, including the elimination of the rights offering and changes to the financing, Tricap was paid a break fee of $11 million under the Stelco/Tricap Restructuring Agreement, which was recorded in reorganization items in the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss).

New Province Note

Subject to a number of conditions, including implementation of the CCAA Plan and the Province Agreement (defined below), the Province has agreed to provide Stelco with an advance by way of the New Province Note in the amount of $150 million. The loan is repayable on December 31, 2015 and can be repaid in cash or Stelco common shares and is subject to a 75% discount if the solvency deficiencies in Stelco's four main pension plans are eliminated on or before that date.

Federal Government Grant

The Federal Government of Canada has agreed to provide a $30 million cogeneration grant, which was announced on November 23, 2005. The federal contribution represents approximately 60% of the initial cost of the Corporation's near-term cogeneration projects. Stelco intends to spend $50 million towards those projects in 2006.

Non-Core Asset Sales

Subject to finalization of working capital adjustments under the respective purchase and sale agreements, gross proceeds from the sale of the remaining Non-Core Assets (AltaSteel, Norambar, Stelwire, and Stelfil) are anticipated to generate $107 million in cash in the first quarter of 2006.

These sources of liquidity will be used firstly to payout Stelco's existing $350 million Credit Facility and to make an upfront payment of $400 million to its four main pension plans on closing as outlined in the pension funding arrangements described below.

Pension Plan Funding Arrangements

Stelco and the Province entered into a restructuring agreement (the "Province Agreement"), that contemplates Stelco and the Province entering into a pension agreement, to provide for funding arrangements with respect to Stelco's four main pension plans aimed at substantially reducing or eliminating the solvency deficiencies in these plans over a ten-year period.

It is a condition of the CCAA Plan that Stelco and the Province enter into a Province Agreement, to be effective on the Plan Implementation Date containing the following key terms:

a) An obligation of Stelco on the Plan Implementation Date to make an initial upfront payment of $400 million to its four main pension plans less any contributions to plans already made in 2006;
b) Stelco will fund its four main pension plans in the following amounts in the years subsequent to plan implementation:
   i) Years 1 – 5: $65 million per year, payable monthly, commencing July 1, 2006; and
   ii) Years 6 – 10: $70 million per year, payable monthly;
c) Stelco will make additional pension plan payments to fund any solvency deficiency in the Stelco four main pension plans if Stelco generates free cash flow in excess of a formula both as defined in the Province Agreement and the proposed new regulations under the Pension Benefits Act in respect of Stelco's four main pension plans; and
d) Stelco will not be required to make any adjustments to its pension funding based on annual actuarial valuations up to December 31, 2015; and
e) Any future benefit improvements will be required to be funded in accordance with the Pension Benefits Act and will be in addition to the funding payments outlined above.

Board of Directors

The CCAA Plan contemplates a Board of Directors of the restructured Stelco comprised of nine directors. The PSA specifies that the Equity Sponsors shall have the right to name six of the nine directors with Tricap naming four and each of Sunrise and Appaloosa naming one. The PSA also provides that the other directors must be satisfactory to the Equity Sponsors.

Based on input from the Equity Sponsors, Stelco's existing Board of Directors approved the submission of the following list of directors who were named in the Sanction Order as the individuals to be appointed as the new directors of Stelco on the Plan Implementation Date:

- Mr. Courtney Pratt – current President and CEO of Stelco
- Mr. Pierre Dupuis – former Chief Operating Officer, Dorel Industries
- Mr. Cyrus Madon – Managing Partner, Tricap Management Limited (Tricap nominee)
- Mr. Peter Gordon – Managing Partner, Tricap Management Limited (Tricap nominee)
- Mr. Tony Molluso – President and CEO, Concert Industries (Tricap nominee)
- Mr. John Lacey – Chair of Alderwoods Group board of directors (Tricap nominee)
- Mr. Laurie Bennett – retired Ernst & Young LLP Audit partner (Sunrise nominee)
- Mr. Steven Cohn – Managing Director Albarez & Marsal, LLC (Appaloosa nominee)
- Mr. Dennis Belcher – former Executive Vice President, Scotiabank

The Province and the informal committee of the senior debenture holders have indicated to the Monitor that the proposed Board of Directors is satisfactory.

Employees

The Approved Plan does not require any concessions in terms of salaries, wages or pension and other benefits.

Secured Creditors

The CCAA Plan does not affect creditors with secured claims. The claims of the lenders pursuant to the $350 Million Credit Facility and the DIP Credit Facility (see Note 13 to the Consolidated Financial Statements) will be paid in full on or prior to the Plan Implementation Date.

Existing Shareholders

There is no value allotted to existing shares of Stelco under the CCAA Plan. The existing shares are to be exchanged into new redeemable shares at a ratio of 0.000001 new redeemable share for each existing share and such shares will be redeemed on the Plan Implementation Date for consideration at the rate of $0.01 for each new redeemable share with no amounts paid on account of fractional interests or if payment would be less than $10.00. The result is that shareholders of Stelco will receive no consideration in respect of their existing shares.

Corporate Reorganization

On February 14, 2006, the Court approved a reorganization of the Corporation pursuant to an arrangement under the CBCA. As a result, distinct portions of Stelco's business will be transferred into nine separate limited partnerships upon the Corporation's emergence from its Court-supervised restructuring process.

The following business units of Stelco Inc. have been identified for transfer to limited partnerships: Hamilton steel works; Lake Erie steel works; energy assets (primarily a future asset); vacant land; coke batteries; and mining interests (collectively the "Business Units").

The reorganization is expected to include the following steps:

- For each Business Unit, Stelco Inc. will incorporate a new subsidiary corporation to act as general partner of a limited partnership ("GPCo").
- Each GPCo will enter into a limited partnership agreement with Stelco Inc., as limited partner, to form a limited partnership (each, a "Limited Partnership").
- Stelco Inc. will convey to each of the Limited Partnerships the assets and undertaking of one of the business units in return for consideration consisting of a combination of Limited Partnership interests and liabilities.
- Each of the Limited Partnerships will assume the liabilities of Stelco associated with its business, the Hamilton Steel Limited Partnership and the Lake Erie Steel Limited Partnership will be responsible for all employment-related obligations. Stelco will remain primarily liable for all assumed pension and post-employment benefit obligations.
- A corporate office will be retained at Stelco, but operational management of each of the Business Units will be conducted within the respective Limited Partnerships by an active GPCo.
- All transactions between and among the Limited Partnerships and Stelco will be on fair market terms.

The CBCA Plan will be implemented concurrently with the implementation of the CCAA Plan. Orders authorizing leave to bring the arrangement application, approving the arrangement, and dispensing with any requirement to obtain shareholder approval of the CBCA arrangement (as there is no economic interest in the existing shares) were granted by the Court on February 14, 2006.

Discontinued Operations

The Corporation's 2004 strategic review determined that all of the businesses of the Mini-mill and Manufactured Products segments were non-core and as a result would not form part of Stelco's business going forward. The Corporation initiated a sales process in respect of these business units, which was approved by the Court on October 19, 2004 (as subsequently amended).

These business segments were previously defined as follows:

Mini-mills – AltaSteel Ltd. ("AltaSteel") including its 50% interest in GenAlta Recycling Inc. ("GenAlta"), and Norambar Inc. ("Norambar) including its wholly owned subsidiary Fers et Métaux Ltée ("Fers et Métaux").

Manufactured Products – Stelwire, Stelfil Ltée ("Stelfil"), Stelpipe, Welland Pipe, Camrose Pipe Company ("Camrose"), and MOLY-COP Canada ("Moly-cop").

During 2005, all of the non-core businesses in the segments identified above were sold or committed to be sold in whole or in part pursuant to sales approved by the Court. In total, the Corporation recorded a pre-tax loss in connection with the pending sale of its investment in these subsidiaries during 2005 of $78 million. This loss is included in discontinued operations on the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss). The components of this loss are as follows:

- $37 million of non-cash curtailment expenses relating to the pension and other benefit plans of all these subsidiaries;
- $24 million of non-cash settlement expenses on the pension and other benefit plans of Stelpipe and Camrose Pipe;
- $17 million of losses, primarily relating to the sale of substantially all of Stelpipe's assets, offset partially by a gain on the sale of Camrose Pipe, and on the sale of Welland Pipe's U and O pipe mill.

In 2004, a pre-tax write-down of $18 million was recorded to reduce the carrying value of property, plant, and equipment of Stelwire and Stelpipe to nil. In addition, a pre-tax gain of $7 million was recorded relating to the sale of assets at Welland Pipe and Stelpipe. Both of these were reflected in discontinued operations on the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss).

Welland Pipe

On March 7, 2003, the Corporation permanently closed the facilities of Welland Pipe. The primary assets of Welland Pipe were two pipe mills, a spiral weld and a U and O pipe mill, which were sold during the fourth quarter of 2004 and the second quarter of 2005 resulting in a pre-tax gain on sale of $6 million and $4 million respectively, both of which were recorded in discontinued operations on the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss).

The property and plant of Welland Pipe were listed for sale in March 2005. In January 2006, the Corporation entered into a purchase and sale agreement, which is subject to a number of conditions. If all these conditions are met, the sale is expected to close in the second quarter of 2006. The net book value of these assets is nominal.

Camrose

The sale of the Corporation's 40% partnership interest in Camrose to Canadian National Steel Corporation closed for gross proceeds of $23 million on April 20, 2005. The resulting pre-tax gain of $4 million, net of a settlement loss of $5 million relating to Camrose's pension and other benefits plans, was included in discontinued operations during second quarter of 2005.

Stelpipe

The sale of Stelpipe's 16" pipe mill, which had been idled since 1998, was completed during the fourth quarter of 2004. Net proceeds of $1 million were received with a corresponding pre-tax gain recorded as the assets were fully amortized.

The sale of substantially all of Stelpipe's assets to Lakeside Steel Corporation ("Lakeside Steel"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Romspen Investment Corporation, closed on October 31, 2005. The pre-tax loss recorded in 2005 on this sale was $51 million of which $21 million related to settlement and curtailment expenses both associated with the pension and other benefit plans related to the employees transferred to Lakeside Steel. The remainder reflects the loss on the sale of these assets.

AltaSteel

On December 1, 2005, the Corporation entered into a definitive purchase and sale agreement to sell the shares of AltaSteel, which included its 50% investment in both Moly-cop and GenAlta to Moly Cop Steel Inc., an affiliate of Scaw International Sarl. The Court approved this transaction on December 16, 2005. The transaction closed on January 31, 2006 for gross proceeds of $77 million (subject to final working capital adjustments). During the fourth quarter of 2005, Stelco recorded a pre-tax curtailment loss of $12 million relating to the pension and other benefit plans at AltaSteel. The transaction closed on January 31, 2006.

Norambar, Stelwire and Stelfil

On November 23, 2005, the Corporation entered into a definitive purchase and sale agreement to sell the shares of Norambar, Stelwire, and Stefil, including Norambar's wholly owned subsidiary Fers et Métaux, to Mittal Canada Inc. The Court approved this transaction on December 12, 2005. The transaction closed on February 1, 2006, generating gross proceeds of $30 million (subject to final working capital adjustments). During the fourth quarter of 2005, Stelco recorded a pre-tax curtailment loss of $23 million relating to the pension and other benefit plans at these subsidiaries. Despite the closing of the sale, Stelwire remains subject to the CCAA proceedings until implementation of the CCAA Plan or the proceedings otherwise end in respect of it.

Financial Statement Information

The following tables summarize the net sales, earnings (loss) before income taxes, and net earnings (loss) relating to all of the Corporation's discontinued operations:

Based on information as of December 31, 2005, the Corporation expects to record a further pre-tax, non-cash loss on its investment in these subsidiaries of approximately $32 million upon closing of these sales in the first quarter of 2006, subject to post-closing adjustment. This net pre-tax loss relates to settlement expenses on the pension and other benefit plans associated with AltaSteel, Norambar, Stelwire, and Stelfil, partially offset by gains on the sale of these investments.

Idled or Closed Facilities

The Corporation sold a number of idled facilities or mills over the course of 2004 and 2005.

CHT Steel

The Corporation announced the closure of CHT Steel on February 18, 2004. The sale of property, plant, and equipment was completed in various transactions during 2004. Net proceeds received were $4 million resulting in a pre-tax gain of $1 million, relating principally to the property and plant, which was reflected as a reduction to reorganization items on the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss). As at December 31, 2005, CHT Steel does not have any material assets other than restricted cash.

Stelco Hamilton – Plate Mill

The plate mill assets at Stelco Hamilton were sold on June 9, 2005. The gross proceeds of $25 million were secured by irrevocable letters of credit, which have and will continue to be drawn down in tandem with the progress made on dismantling of the equipment. All net proceeds will be used to partially satisfy the debt associated with these assets. The expected shortfall has been filed as a claim against Stelco Inc. (see Note 7 to the Consolidated Financial Statements). The carrying value of these assets was nil, therefore a pre-tax gain (net of $5 million fees) of $20 million was recorded during the second quarter of 2005.

Stelco Hamilton – Tin Mill

The tin mill assets at Stelco Hamilton have been idled since 1995 when the Corporation decided to exit the tinning line business. On December 20, 2005, the Corporation sold certain of these assets for net proceeds of approximately $1 million. The residual value of these assets were nil, therefore a corresponding pre-tax gain was included as a reduction to Costs on the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss) during the fourth quarter of 2005.

"Operating earnings (loss)" is a non-GAAP financial measure used by management to assess the performance of the Corporation. The Corporation's use of this measure may not be comparable to measures used by other companies. In accordance with GAAP, a reconciliation of Earnings (loss) to net earnings (loss) is presented above.

All note references in this document are to the Corporation's December 31, 2005 Consolidated Financial Statements.

All information stated below excludes the discontinued operations of the Corporation. The continuing operations are the Integrated Steel segment, which comprises those business units that include and are primarily associated with the Stelco Hamilton and Stelco Lake Erie Integrated Steel plants and their raw materials properties. The primary markets served by this segment are automotive, transportation, construction, manufacturing, pipe and tubular manufacturers, steel service centres, and steel fabricators.

Overview

Overall revenue per ton increased by 5% in 2005 compared to 2004. This was primarily due to the renewal of customer contracts for 2005 at higher prices than the previous year. However, the steel and steel products industries experienced a decline in spot market prices in 2005 when compared to the historically high selling prices in the second half of 2004. This was mainly due to increased imports and high inventory levels at the steel service centres. Spot market prices reached a low in August 2005, before partially recovering in fourth quarter 2005. The 2005 increase in revenue per ton was more than offset by a 9% increase in the average cost per ton as well as higher restructuring costs. The result was a net loss from continuing operations of $9 million in 2005, when compared to net earnings from continuing operations of $34 million in 2004.

Demand and pricing in the fourth quarter improved compared to third quarter 2005 partly due to lower inventory levels at steel service centres. The planned fourth quarter 2005 Phase 2 upgrade of the Lake Erie hot strip mill took longer than anticipated and had a negative impact on the facility's overall production, the volume and mix of products shipped, and revenue from sales. These items impacted the fourth quarter of 2005 and will impact the first quarter of 2006.

Financial Information

Net Sales and Costs

QUARTER ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2005

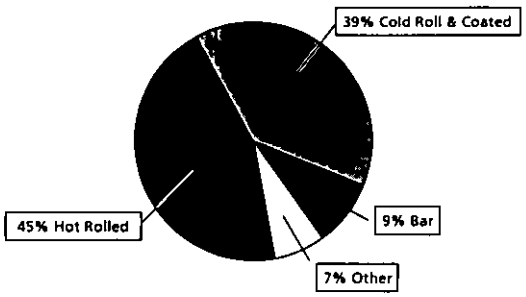
Net sales for the quarter ended December 31, 2005 were 10% lower than in the same quarter of 2004. Steel shipments were similar to the same quarter in 2004, while average revenue per ton was down by 11%. The fourth quarter decrease in revenue and average revenue per ton was primarily due to:

- the Lake Erie hot strip mill outage;
- softer market demand, which had the effect of lowering prices;
- the negative impact of the higher Canadian dollar; and
- a lower-value-added mix of sales mainly due to increased slab sales.

Costs in fourth quarter 2005 were up 7% compared with the same quarter 2004 and average cost per ton was up 6% primarily due to:

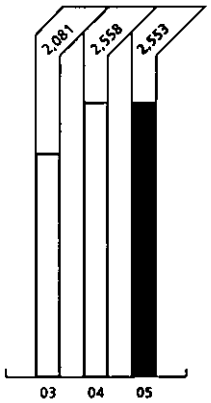
- higher raw material and energy costs, particularly coal, iron ore, natural gas, and electricity;
- lower production levels due to Lake Erie hot strip mill outage; and
- fourth quarter 2004 included a $10 million partial recovery from an insurance claim related to the June 2004 Lake Erie blast furnace outage.

The above cost increases were partially offset by:



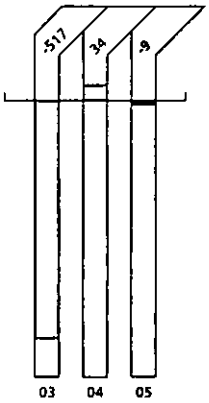
- lower purchased coke and scrap prices;
- a lower-value-added mix of sales; and
- reduced labour costs at Stelco Hamilton resulting from the continuing attrition of the workforce.

Amortization of property, plant, and equipment in fourth quarter 2005 was $3 million higher than the same quarter of 2004.



YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2005 COMPARED TO YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2004

For the year ended December 31, 2005, net sales were similar to 2004, mainly due to the renewal of customer contracts for 2005 at higher prices, offset by lower spot market prices, and lower shipments. The net loss from continuing operations of $9 million includes $76 million of pre-tax charges related to reorganization items, and a $20 million pre-tax gain on the sale of plate mill assets. In 2004, net earnings included $53 million of pre-tax charges related to reorganization items (see Notes 4 and 5 to the Consolidated Financial Statements).



Net Sales by Product 2005

Net Sales ($ in millions)

Net Earnings (Loss) from Continuing Operations ($ in millions)

Average revenue per ton increased by 5% due to:

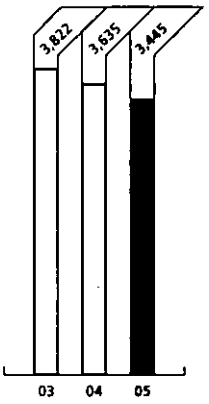
- the renewal of customer contracts for 2005 at higher prices; and
- selling price surcharges implemented to cover high raw material and energy costs in the first half of 2005.

Partly offset by:

- weaker spot market prices in the second half of 2005 compared to the same period 2004;
- the negative impact of the higher Canadian dollar;
- the impact of the Lake Erie hot strip mill outage on shipments; and
- a lower-value-added mix of sales mainly due to increased slab sales.

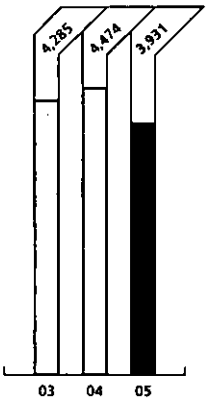
Cost per ton increased by 9% mainly due to:

- rise in raw material and energy costs, particularly iron ore, coal, natural gas, and electricity;
- the fixed cost per ton impact of reduced output at the primary operations and Integrated Steel finishing mills required to balance steel inventory levels with market demand and the impact of the Lake Erie hot strip mill upgrade;
- higher spending for repairs and maintenance and supplies; and
- higher fuel costs related to the mix of fuels used.



The above cost increases were partially offset by:

- lower purchased coke and scrap prices;
- a lower-value-added mix of sales;
- reduced labour costs at Stelco Hamilton; and
- a strengthening Canadian dollar.



Annual 2005 semi-finished steel production dropped by 12% compared to 2004 due to weaker market conditions and planned steel inventory reductions.

Amortization of property, plant, and equipment in 2005 was $3 million higher than in 2004.

Steel Shipments (thousands of net tons)

Production of Semi-Finished Steel (thousands of net tons)

Reorganization Items

Reorganization expense incurred during the fourth quarter of 2005 was $29 million compared to $15 million in the comparable quarter of 2004. The increase is largely attributed to the incurrence of an $11 million break-fee paid to Tricap triggered by significant changes that were made to the initially proposed CCAA Plan.

Total reorganization expense incurred during 2005 was $76 million. In comparison, $53 million was incurred during 2004. The change is largely a result of higher professional fees ($26 million) and the payment of break-fees to Tricap and Deutsche Bank ($22 million) in 2005. Partially offsetting this increase were a number of non-cash expenses ($24 million) recognized in 2004. These non-cash expenses related primarily to the adjustments required to reflect the Corporation's convertible debentures at face value and the write-off of the associated deferred financing fees.

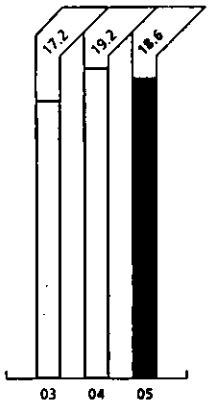
During the first quarter of 2006 and post-CCAA proceedings, significant reorganization expense may be incurred as a number of activities are completed, such as documentation of agreements, the oversight of the distribution of securities to affected creditors, the registration of these new securities, the establishment of the new partnerships and related asset transfers, and the recognition of success fees.

Financial Expense

Total financial expense incurred during the fourth quarter of 2005 was $16 million as compared to $15 million incurred in 2004. Financial expenses were marginally higher as variable interest rate loans reflected the impact of higher effective interest rates.

For 2005, total financial expense of $55 million was incurred. This was reduced from the $64 million incurred in 2004. The main reason for the reduction in expense relates to a lower utilization of the Corporation's lines of credit in the second and third quarter of 2005 leading to lower interest costs incurred during this period.

Income Tax expense



Future income tax assets are recognized to the extent that realization is considered more likely than not. The assessment as to the future realization of future income tax assets, including loss carry-forwards, is conducted on a company-by-company basis for the Stelco group of businesses. Realization of future income tax assets is dependent upon the availability of sufficient taxable income within the carry-forward periods. The assessment of realization is based upon the weight of evidence at the respective balance sheet date.

While the Corporation and its subsidiaries recognize future income tax assets where applicable, a future income tax asset valuation allowance of $16 million was released in 2005 ($5 million was released in the fourth quarter of 2005) related to continuing operations.

Operational Information

Trade

Imports accounted for 51% of apparent domestic steel consumption in 2005 compared to 46% in 2004. As a result, Canadian domestic producers including Stelco lost market share in 2005.

On November 30, 2005, the Canadian International Trade Tribunal ("CITT") announced it was initiating an expiry review of its August 2001 unfair trade ruling with respect to imports of hot rolled sheet and strip originating in or exported from Brazil, Bulgaria, the People's Republic of China, Chinese Taipei, India, the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Serbia & Montenegro, South Africa, and Ukraine. The Company is participating in the review that will include a June 2006 hearing and a ruling by the CITT on August 16, 2006.

The Company continues to participate in the North American Steel Trade Committee that operates under the collective auspices of the governments of Canada, Mexico, and the United States. Steel companies, including Stelco, are assisting the three governments to develop a strategic plan for the industry as an element of the prosperity side of the Security & Prosperity Partnership created on March 23, 2005.

The Company is also an active participant in the Canadian Steel Partnership Council, the objective of which is to develop a sustainability vision for the Canadian steel industry and to recommend actions that will give effect to that vision.

Enterprise Resource Planning System ("ERP")

Implementation of the first phase of the order flow ERP system, which will reduce Stelco's dependence on aging legacy systems, is targeted for the second quarter of 2006.

Health, Safety and Environment

Health and safety performance has been relatively unchanged, based on a five-year trend. Integrated Steel lost time accident frequency deteriorated from 1.9 per 200,000 hours worked in 2004 to 2.2 in 2005. Integrated Steel has no outstanding environmental charges. Since the base year (1990), as of December 31, 2004:

- energy consumption per ton of steel shipped has dropped by 15%;
- carbon intensity per ton of steel shipped has dropped by 19%; and
- greenhouse gas emissions have dropped by 10%.

Stelco Hamilton and Stelco Lake Erie are both International Standards Organization ("ISO") 14001 registered. This system provides the framework for the implementation, maintenance, and continuous improvement process for managing environmental aspects at both integrated plants.

Equipment Upgrades

The Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill rougher motors were replaced with new higher horsepower rougher motors in fourth quarter 2005. The previously identified risk of failure associated with the old rougher motors has been eliminated. The second stage of the upgrade (quick roll change and the sixth finishing stand) is planned for 2006 and the final stage (finish mill drives upgrade) for the second quarter of 2007.

Facilities/Competitiveness

The Stelco Hamilton plant is not competitive as measured by cost per ton of hot rolled steel with reorganized U.S. integrated mills, Canadian integrated mills, or U.S. mini-mills. The Stelco Hamilton 56-inch mill is uncompetitive as a result of its high conversion cost and its width, coil weight, and quality limitations. The historic competitive advantages of the Stelco Lake Erie plant in hot rolled costs per ton have been reduced because of the cost savings achieved by reorganized U.S. integrated steel mills and the appreciation of the Canadian dollar. Work is currently progressing on the Phase 2 upgrade of the Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill with the installation of new higher horsepower rougher motors in fourth quarter 2005 and the planned completion of the quick roll change and sixth finishing stand in second quarter 2006. Following completion of the Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill quick roll change and sixth finishing stand, the Stelco Hamilton 56-inch mill will be closed.

Currently, two pickle lines operate at Hamilton to supply the cold rolling and coating operations. In addition, approximately 440,000 tons per year of Stelco Hamilton's steel requirements are pickled externally. The Hamilton pickle lines have significant operational issues related to reliability, conversion cost, and product quality. The cost of external pickling, however, is relatively expensive. Ultimately, Stelco will need to replace the Hamilton pickle lines or outsource all pickling. New pickle line facilities are included as part of the Corporation's current strategic capital plans.

The cold rolled and coated products facilities at Stelco Hamilton are registered to ISO/TS 16949. The Bar Product mills at Stelco Hamilton, and the 2050 hot strip mill at Stelco Lake Erie are scheduled to be registered to ISO/TS 16949 in the 2nd and 3rd quarter of 2006 respectively. ISO/TS 16949 is an international quality management system standard developed by the International Automotive Task Force and the Japan Automotive Manufacturers Association in conjunction with the international standards community. As internal suppliers to the finishing mills, the Stelco Hamilton and Stelco Lake Erie blast furnace and Steelmaking facilities are scheduled to be registered to ISO 9001 by the end of 2006. By meeting these standards, Stelco demonstrates its ability to consistently provide product that meets customer requirements, and enhance customer satisfaction through continual improvement of processes, products and services.

The Stelco Hamilton sinter plant and the Stelco Lake Erie #1 coke battery set production records in 2005. The Stelco Hamilton sinter plant will significantly reduce its dioxin emissions by mid-year 2006. In the fourth quarter, 2005, using new trial technology, dioxin emissions were reduced in tests done to 177 picograms per cubic metre of air. This is well under the 2005 – 2010 limit of 500 and below the limit of 200 that applies after 2010. Permanent equipment is now being installed to implement this technology.

The Stelco Hamilton cold mill set a new annual prime yield record in 2005 with a 2% improvement when compared to 2004.

The compliance audits of Stelco Hamilton and Stelco Lake Erie's ISO 14001 systems were satisfactorily completed.

Labour Matters

The Lake Erie labour contract with Local 8782 of the United Steelworkers ("USW") expired on July 31, 2004. The bargaining unit employees continued to work after the labour contract expired. A new labour contract was ratified on January 18, 2006 and will continue in effect until July 31, 2009. The Stelco Hamilton labour contract with USW Local 1005 will expire on July 31, 2006.

(a) The $90 million convertible debenture is included in debt subject to compromise for 2004 as filing for CCAA protection was an event of default. A non-cash restructuring expense of $15 million was recorded in January 2004 to reflect these debentures at the anticipated claim amount of $90 million. These debentures were previously accreted up to face value over its term to maturity.

In 2003, as compared with 2002, the market was subjected to rapid revenue per ton changes with prices deteriorating and then increasing late in the year. Factors negatively affecting average revenue per ton included:

- lower selling prices due to weak market demand;
- a lower value-added mix of sales due to increased slab and hot rolled sales; and
- the significant appreciation of the Canadian dollar relative to the U.S. currency.

Cost per ton increased in 2003 over 2002 primarily due to:

- higher input costs, particularly related to natural gas and scrap;
- reduced production levels at Stelco Hamilton in the first half of 2003 as a result of weak market demand and measures taken to reduce inventory levels;
- higher employment costs; and
- a power outage in August 2003.

The above cost increases were partially offset by:

- a lower value-added mix of sales due to increased slab and hot rolled sales;
- cost reduction initiatives that included productivity and yield improvements;
- a property tax settlement of $13 million at Stelco Hamilton in the third quarter of 2003; and
- the impact of the stronger Canadian dollar.

In addition, in the fourth quarter 2003, the Corporation recorded transactions that had significant negative non-cash effects on earnings: an $87 million pre-tax write-down of assets at the Stelco Hamilton plate mill and a $295 million valuation allowance against future income tax assets related to continuing operations.

In 2004, as compared to 2003, the steel and steel product industries experienced a positive economic environment due to the increase in global demand, especially from China. As a result, Stelco benefited from historically high steel prices. Factors positively affecting average revenue per ton included:

- improved market demand, which had the effect of raising prices;
- selling price surcharges implemented to cover high raw material and energy costs; and
- higher value-added mix of sales due to increased coated and prepaint shipments and reduced slab, rod, and hot rolled sales.

Cost per ton increased by 13% from 2003 to 2004 primarily due to:

- unprecedented rise in raw material and energy costs, particularly scrap, coal, coke, natural gas, reagents, and fluxes;
- higher value-added mix of sales;
- higher employment costs;
- higher spending for repairs and maintenance and supplies;
- the third quarter 2003 included a property tax settlement of $13 million at Stelco Hamilton;
- the work stoppage at the Wabush iron ore mine and recognition of certain pension liabilities associated with the closed Chisholm mine; and
- the Lake Erie blast furnace outage in June 2004.

The above cost increases were partially offset by:

- $10 million partial recovery from an insurance claim related to the June 2004 Lake Erie blast furnace outage;
- increased production and yield improvements primarily at Stelco Hamilton; and
- a strengthening Canadian dollar.

Net Sales and Costs

QUARTER 4, 2005 COMPARED TO QUARTER 3, 2005

Net sales for the fourth quarter of 2005 were 9% higher than third quarter 2005. Steel shipments were 10% higher than third quarter 2005, while revenue per ton was down by 1%. The fourth quarter decrease in average revenue per ton was primarily due to a lower value-added mix of sales due to increased slab shipments as a result of the Phase 2 upgrade of the Lake Erie hot strip mill, partially offset by an overall increase in revenue per ton on most products.

Cost per ton in fourth quarter 2005 was up 3% compared with third quarter 2005 primarily due to:

- increased repairs and maintenance and supplies spending during planned shutdowns at a number of facilities;
- the fourth quarter shutdown for the Phase 2 upgrade of the Lake Erie hot strip mill;
- higher natural gas, iron ore and scrap costs;
- higher fuel costs related to the mix of fuels used.

The above cost increases were partially offset by:

- a lower value-added mix of sales;
- lower electricity and purchased coke costs.

Historic Trends

Revenue per ton increased significantly in 2004, peaking in the third quarter. Increased import activity throughout the fourth quarter and higher customer inventories resulted in a softening of selling prices. The steel and steel product industries experienced a positive economic environment due to the increase in global demand, especially from China. As a result, Stelco benefited from historically high steel prices.

Factors positively affecting average revenue per ton included:

- improved market demand, which had the effect of raising prices;
- selling price surcharges implemented to cover high raw material and energy costs; and
- higher value-added mix of sales due to increased coated and prepaint shipments and reduced slab, rod and hot rolled sales.

Cost per ton continued to increase in the first half of 2004 mainly due to:

- unprecedented rise in raw material costs, particularly scrap, coke, reagents, and fluxes;
- higher value-added mix of sales;
- higher employment costs; and
- the Lake Erie blast furnace outage in June 2004.

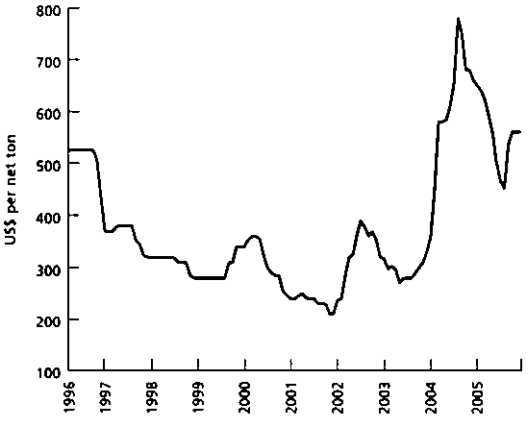
In the second half of 2004, cost per ton increased due to:

- continuing high raw material and energy costs;
- higher employment costs;
- higher spending for repairs and maintenance and supplies; and
- the work stoppage at the Wabush iron ore mine and recognition of certain pension liabilities associated with the closed Chisholm mine.

The foregoing cost increases were partially offset by:

- $10 million partial recovery from an insurance claim related to the June 2004 Lake Erie blast furnace outage; and
- a strengthening Canadian dollar.

Revenue per ton increased in the first quarter of 2005 primarily due to an increase in revenue per ton on contract business, partially offset by a decrease in spot market revenue per ton. The second and third quarter 2005 decrease in average revenue per ton was primarily due to softening market demand, which was partly caused by excess customer inventories and the continued negative impact of the higher Canadian dollar.



In the first three quarters of 2005, cost per ton increased due to:

- a rise in raw material and energy costs, particularly coal, iron ore, natural gas and electricity;
- higher spending for repairs and maintenance and supplies;
- the fixed cost per ton impact of reduced output at the primary operations and finishing mills required to balance steel inventory levels with market demand.

The cost increases were partially offset by:

- $14 million for the balance of the insurance claim recovery related to the June 2004 blast furnace outage;
- lower scrap and purchased coke costs; and
- reduced labour costs at Stelco Hamilton.

Risk Factors

Plan Implementation

There are no assurances that the CCAA Plan or the CBCA Plan will be implemented. The failure to achieve implementation of either Plan could materially negatively affect the Corporation.

Pricing

Factors affecting volatility of selling prices include:

- the strength of the economy in the United States;

- the impact China may have globally as its economy grows and the relationship of its consumption of steel relative to its growth in steelmaking capacity;
- the impact of imports and threat of imports from Europe and Asia on North American selling prices;
- the U.S./Canadian dollar exchange rate;
- the cyclical nature of the steel industry;
- material substitution when steel prices are relatively high.

Stelco and the steel industry experienced unprecedented price increases through 2004. Inventories peaked as 2004 ended and spot prices declined significantly throughout the first three quarters of 2005 before recovering somewhat and stabilizing in the fourth quarter. Due to price volatility, the Corporation cannot rely on high selling prices being sustainable in the longer term and believes it cannot compete effectively in the longer term unless it takes steps to lower its overall costs.

Costs

Stelco must continue with its efforts to lower costs in order to ensure its long-term viability. Stelco has identified specific cost reduction initiatives including managed attrition and improvement in maintenance planning which will reduce repairs and maintenance costs, increase throughput as well as reduce electrical and mechanical delays. These cost reduction initiatives, along with strategic capital spending, are essential to achieving long-term viability. There can be no assurance that cost reduction initiatives will be sufficient to sustain long-term viability.

Labour Matters

The Corporation's workforce is predominantly unionized and is covered by various labour agreements. The Stelco Hamilton labour contract with USW Local 1005 will expire on July 31, 2006. There can be no assurance that labour difficulties at any of Stelco's business units will not result in a significant loss of production and revenue and have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, and results of operations of Stelco.

Pension Plans

Provincial pension standards legislation requires that the funded status of registered pension plans be determined periodically on both a going concern basis (i.e., assuming indefinite plan continuation) and a solvency basis (i.e., essentially assuming immediate plan termination).

Where an actuarial valuation reveals a solvency deficiency, current regulations in Ontario generally require it to be funded by equal monthly cash payments over a maximum period of five years from the date of valuation.

The solvency liability is influenced primarily by long-term interest rates on which annuity purchase rates are based. The interest rate used to calculate the benefit obligations for solvency purposes is a prescribed rate derived from the interest rates on long-term Government of Canada bonds. In the current low interest rate environment, the calculation results in a higher present value of the pension obligations, leading to larger solvency liabilities.

The aggregate solvency deficiency under Stelco's four main pension plans as at December 31, 2005 was $1.5 billion (December 31, 2004 – $1.1. billion).

Solvency deficiency payments are not required where the employer has taken the Section 5.1 Election under the Pension Benefits Act (Ontario). Stelco has been operating under the Section 5.1 Election for its four main pension plans, but pursuant to arrangements with the Province, to take effect upon the implementation of the CCAA Plan, Stelco will cease to operate under the Section 5.1 Election and will enter into a funding agreement aimed at eliminating over a ten-year period the existing solvency deficiencies in the four main pension plans.

Absent the Section 5.1 Election, annual pension funding would increase significantly beyond the level annual payments required under the Pension Plan Funding Arrangements described in the overview of the CCAA Plan. For example, had the Section 5.1 Election not been in effect in 2005 with no other arrangement in place, Stelco's 2005 contributions to its four main pension plans would have increased more than $348 million over the current level of funding. This level of payment is not sustainable by Stelco.

Despite the level of contributions under the Province Agreement, the solvency deficiency could grow as a result of actuarial losses.

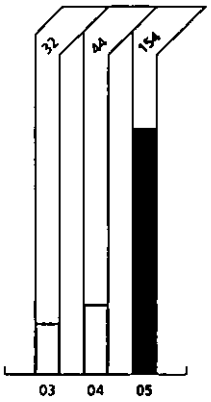
Environmental Compliance

The Corporation is subject to substantial and evolving environmental laws and regulations concerned with, among other things, emissions into the air, discharges to water or land, noise control, and the generation, handling, storage, transportation, and disposal of toxic and hazardous substances. These laws and regulations vary depending on the location of the facility and can fall within federal, provincial, or municipal jurisdictions.

In meeting its overall environmental goals and government-imposed standards in 2005, the Corporation incurred operating costs of $71 million ($70 million in 2004) and spent $3 million on capital improvements ($1 million in 2004). Stelco Hamilton has a benzene emissions reduction program underway, with spending of approximately $4 million in 2005 and estimated additional costs of $5 million over the next two years.

Stelco regularly reviews and audits the operating practices of each business to monitor compliance with the Corporation's health and safety and environmental policies and legal requirements. The Corporation believes that future costs relating to environmental compliance can be dealt with in a manner such that they will not have a material adverse effect on the Corporation's financial position. There is always the possibility, however, that unforeseen changes, such as in the laws of enforcement policies of relevant government bodies, or the discovery of changed conditions on the Corporation's real property or its operations could result in an increase in the costs of environmental compliance that could result in a material adverse effect on the Corporation's financial position.

Unplanned Repairs or Equipment Outages



Stelco is heavily dependent upon the continuous operation of its plants and equipment. There can be no assurance that unplanned downtime at any of Stelco's facilities will not have a material adverse effect on Stelco. Stelco maintains first party property and boiler and machinery breakdown insurance, both of which include business interruption coverage, to address some of these exposures to the extent of the limits of coverage and the terms of the individual insurance contracts.

Technology

The Corporation is subject to competition from new technological developments used by other steel producers. Limited liquidity and cash conservation measures over the last several years have caused the Corporation to reduce spending to capital and nonessential maintenance. However, over the last five years the Corporation has made capital expenditures on several projects to maintain and enhance its technological ability including the following:

- Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill, blast furnace, and caster upgrades;
- Stelco Hamilton coke oven refurbishment, "E" blast furnace improvements, 4-stand upgrade, roll shop grinder refurbishment, batch anneal control system, Z-Line surface inspection system; and
- ERP systems implementation for Stelco's maintenance, procurement, human resources, and finance functions.

Expenditures for Capital Assets
($ in millions)

Expenditures in 2006 are expected to include the installation of the Lake Erie hot strip finishing mill quick roll change system, sixth finishing stand and other strategic capital initiatives.

Stelco's current strategic plan requires continual improvement in both its product and process technologies in order to maintain its competitive position in the high value-added automotive market. In particular, failure to meet the automotive industry's ever-more demanding requirements for product quality and service, and failure to provide the new grades of advanced high-strength steels will seriously jeopardize Stelco's long-term participation in this market. Similarly, for Stelco to attain a competitive cost structure will require the ongoing selective implementation of new process technologies throughout its integrated steelmaking processes. There is no assurance that Stelco will be able to improve its product and process technologies in accordance with its strategic plan or that the improvements, once implemented, will meet the automotive market's quality and service requirements. Please refer to "Forward Looking Statements" on page 4.

Steel Consolidation

Stelco could face risks related to cost competitiveness and access to large customers if it does not participate in consolidation.

Supply and Pricing of Raw Material and Energy

The Corporation's operations require substantial amounts of raw materials and energy including coal, iron ore, coke, scrap, natural gas, electricity, and other inputs. The price and availability of such raw materials and inputs are subject to market forces where the Corporation does not have ownership interests and, in some cases, to government regulations and, accordingly, are subject to change. Increases in the price of natural gas, coal, scrap and coke can have a significant negative impact on the Corporation's costs.

The Corporation produces approximately 85% of its annual coke requirements through its own coke ovens. However, it purchases 100% of its metallurgical coal requirements (raw material for the coke ovens) at market prices. Stelco has secured 100% of its 2006 metallurgical coal requirements under purchase contracts.

Through its ownership interests in iron ore mining properties and related supply agreements Stelco has secured approximately 90% of its 2006 requirements at its cost of production.

The Corporation's financial performance is exposed to price volatility associated with the electricity commodity market. The Government of Ontario introduced competition to the electricity market on May 1, 2002, giving rise to uncertainty of prices since commodity prices are now determined based on hourly supply and demand requirements. Large industrial end-users such as Stelco have been provided with some relief through a rebate program called the "Rebate on OPG Non-Prescribed Assets". On February 9, 2006, the provincial government announced that they have extended the rebate program to April 30, 2009. Stelco's strategic plan includes co-generation facilities that will minimize Stelco's short- and long-term exposure to energy price fluctuations.

Trade Regulations

A number of foreign steel producers have in the past exported large quantities of steel to North America, impairing the Applicants' ability to sell their products and, accordingly, their profitability. This steel has often been sold at levels that are below cost or below home market price, a practice known as "dumping". Existing trade laws and regulations in Canada may be inadequate to prevent such trade practices. Some foreign steel producers are owned, controlled or subsidized by foreign governments. Decisions by these foreign producers to continue production at marginal facilities may be influenced to a greater degree by political and economic policy considerations than by prevailing market conditions and may further contribute to excess global capacity. Moreover, trade regulation in other countries, particularly in the United States, could materially adversely affect the Applicants through the imposition of dumping duties which would reduce or effectively eliminate their access to certain steel markets.

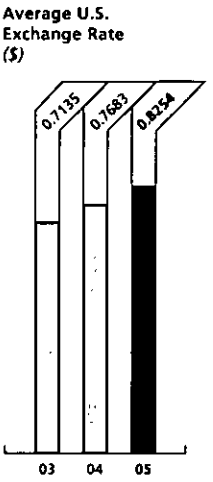
(% of total)

Employees

Approximately 27% of Stelco's salaried workforce and 45% of the hourly workforce at Stelco Hamilton are eligible to retire under the current provisions of the defined pension benefit plans. A further 34% and 46% respectively of these groups could retire in the next five years under current eligibility provisions. Stelco is currently recruiting individuals to satisfy necessary manpower requirements consistent with its succession plans and attrition rates.

Retention of the skills and knowledge of Stelco's employees, and the ability to attract and retain new employees where replacement is considered necessary, is essential to Stelco's continued operations.



Enterprise Resource Planning Systems

Implementation of the first phase of the order flow ERP system, which will reduce Stelco's dependence on aging legacy systems, is now planned for the second quarter of 2006. Although the application has been delivered and tested in modules, there is a risk that the integrated testing may reveal additional development requirements, which could further delay the implementation. In the meantime, the legacy systems remain available for these applications.

Related Party Transactions

The Corporation is a vertically integrated producer of steel products. As such, several transactions occur between entities that are related, for example, between Stelco, the parent company, and its wholly owned subsidiaries and joint ventures.

In 2005, the Integrated Steel business acquired approximately 3,500,000 gross tons of iron ore valued at $297 million from companies in which the Corporation has an ownership interest (3,600,000 gross tons in 2004 valued at $190 million). In addition, businesses in the Integrated Steel segment sold approximately $118 million ($226 million in 2004) of steel to businesses in the Manufactured Products segment during 2005. All of the Manufacturing Products segment businesses have now been sold.

Currency Fluctuations

Stelco is a net purchaser of U.S. dollars. Accordingly, any strengthening of the Canadian dollar results in a benefit to Stelco for its net purchases of U.S. funds. However, more than offsetting the above is the negative effect on Stelco's domestic sales revenue due to the following reasons. Firstly, many of Stelco's domestic customers export their products into the U.S. Thus, a stronger Canadian dollar can cause those customers to be less competitive in the U.S. and the customers may resist price increases or request steel price reductions from Stelco. Secondly, U.S. exports of steel into Canada have historically forced domestic steel prices in Canadian dollars downward. Finally, the North American benchmark for spot market prices for certain products, such as hot rolled, are established and determined in U.S. dollars. A strong Canadian dollar results in lower benchmark prices in Canadian dollars for 2006.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The liquidity and capital resources of the Corporation will be determined by the outcome of the restructuring process and a number of other factors, including without limitation, market and economic conditions and the impact of these conditions on the price of steel products, raw material costs, the ability to fund critical capital projects, pension issues, and labour negotiations or disputes.

The Corporation's liquidity and capital resources position is summarized as follows:

The accommodation agreement (the "Accommodation Agreement"), which provides for the continued access to the $350 Million Credit Facility, and the DIP Credit Facility were amended on December 1, 2005, resulting in the extension of these credit facilities to the earlier of March 31, 2006, the effective date of a Plan, termination of the DIP Credit Facility, and the date at which the Operating Lenders terminate the forbearance under the terms of the Accommodation Agreement due to a further event of default. The DIP Credit Facility was subsequently amended on December 31, 2005, modifying certain covenants associated with this credit facility.

Overview

For the three months ended December 31, 2005, net cash of $10 million was required largely due to weak operating results ($70 million) and capital expenditures ($50 million), which were partly offset by cash provided by working capital ($108 million). Comparatively, $59 million of net cash was generated during the three months ended December 31, 2004. Relatively strong operating results ($73 million) were partially offset by cash required for capital expenditures ($15 million). Overall, $69 million more cash was required during the fourth quarter of 2005 as compared to fourth quarter 2004 mainly attributable to a $143 million deterioration in operating results and $35 million for capital spending, partially offset by $111 million of additional cash provided by working capital.

For the year 2005, $23 million of net cash was required. Strong earnings from continuing operations in the first half were partially offset by a substantially weaker fourth quarter resulting in $124 million for the year. In addition, gross proceeds from the sale of Camrose Pipe ($23 million) added to the positive net cash position. Largely offsetting these positive cash flows was $154 million of capital spending and $17 million for repayment of non-Applicant long-term debt. In comparison, $69 million of cash was generated during 2004 driven by very strong earnings from continuing operations ($289 million) partially offset by working capital requirements ($158 million), and capital spending ($44 million). Overall, $92 million less cash was generated in 2005 than was in 2004 attributable to weaker operating results in the second half of 2005 as compared to a very strong second half of 2004 netting $165 million and additional capital spending of $110 million partially offset by cash provided by working capital ($148 million), and gross proceeds from the sale of Camrose Pipe ($23 million).

Working Capital

QUARTER ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2005

Working capital represented a significant component of operating cash flow for continuing operations during 2005. While as a whole it was not of such significance in 2004, a number of components of working capital fluctuated substantially.

Three months ended December 31 (in millions)	2005	2004	Favourable (Unfavourable)
Cash provided by (used for)
Accounts receivable	$ 83	$ 34	$ 49
Inventory	(35)	(84)	49
Accounts payable	53	35	18
Other	7	$ 12	$ (5)
Total	$ 108	$ (3)	$ 111

Accounts Receivable

During the fourth quarter of 2005, $83 million was provided by a decrease in accounts receivable. Lower shipments (primarily in December) at slightly lower selling prices resulted in more cash being collected from the previous quarter sales than was billed to customers during the current quarter.

In comparison, accounts receivable provided $34 million during the fourth quarter of 2004 resulting from a decrease in selling prices from those experienced in third quarter 2004 coupled with a decline in shipments in the latter half of the quarter.

Inventories

$35 million was required for an increase in inventories during the fourth quarter of 2005. Higher costs associated with steel inventories, largely due to high raw material input costs along with a larger quantity of iron ore pellets (associated with the winter build program) drove inventory higher during the quarter. Partially offsetting this increase was lower volumes and costs for coal, coke and coke related products.

During the fourth quarter of 2004, $84 million was required to finance an increase in inventories primarily related to higher costs and volumes of steel products and higher volumes of coal and iron ore. Partially offsetting these increases were lower scrap and coke quantities and cost.

Accounts Payable and Accrued

During the fourth quarter of 2005, $53 million of cash was provided due to increased accounts payable and accrued items that largely pertained to increased procurement activity in the quarter (including raw material purchases) and an increase in post-filing interest, which continues to be accrued. In addition, the Corporation has reduced the number of suppliers on prepayment terms and is beginning to re-establish trade terms with a number of other vendors.

In comparison, $35 million was sourced predominantly from an increase in accrued payables for coal and iron ore purchases and interest on stayed debt.

Other

$7 million of cash was provided during the fourth quarter of 2005. Much of the improvement resulted from a reduction in prepaid items, a large portion of which pertained to improved payment terms from vendors previously receiving cash before delivery.

Comparatively, $12 million was provided in the fourth quarter of 2004 largely due to a reduction in prepayments to suppliers.

YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2005

Working capital as a whole did not have a significant impact on operating cash flow during 2005, although a number of components changed substantially. During 2004, working capital was a significant requirement of operating cash flow.

Year ended December 31 (in millions)	2005	2004	(Unfavourable)
Cash provided by (used for)
Accounts receivable	$ 78	$ (65)	$ 143
Inventory	(134)	(172)	38
Accounts payable	41	98	(57)
Other	5	$ (19)	24
Total	$ (10)	$ (158)	$ 148

Accounts Receivable

$78 million was provided by accounts receivable during 2005 resulting from a significant drop in selling prices from 2004 and lower overall shipments resulting in fewer sales being billed during the fourth quarter of 2005 compared to the fourth quarter of 2004.

For 2004, $65 million was required to finance an increase in receivables resulting largely from a steel-pricing environment near historic highs, partially offset by weaker shipments in the fourth quarter of 2005.

Inventories

For 2005, $134 million was required for an increase in inventories driven by higher costs and volumes of iron ore and coal. Steel inventory quantities were also higher and were produced at a higher cost due to increased prices for raw materials and energy costs. Partially offsetting these increases were lower costs associated with coke inventories.

Cash required to finance inventories during 2004 was $172 million. In spite of a Canadian dollar that continued to appreciate, historically high material input costs was the main driver behind the increase in the value of steel inventories. Steel quantities also increased significantly in an effort to replenish levels required to provide for efficient operation and customer supply. Coke inventories also grew as sufficient quantities were stockpiled at historically high prices to ensure availability in a period of scarcity in the industry.

Accounts Payable and Accrued

$41 million of cash was provided during 2005 primarily from the accrual of post-filing interest on the Applicants' long-term debt subject to compromise.

During 2004, $98 million of cash was provided from accounts payable and accrued. The Initial Order under the CCAA provided the Applicants with relief by way of staying trade payables and post-filing interest on stayed debt. Partially offsetting this increase was the erosion of credit terms following the filing when the majority of suppliers switched the Applicants to either a cash or prepayment basis.

Other

For 2005, $5 million of cash was provided resulting primarily from a decrease in prepaid items as the number of vendors on prepayment trade terms was reduced.

Cash required during 2004 to finance an increase of $19 million related primarily to an increase in prepaid items as many suppliers reacted to the Corporation's CCAA filing by switching trade terms to cash before delivery.

Investing Activities

Investment activities required $46 million during fourth quarter 2005 primarily due to capital expenditures of $50 million directed mainly towards the Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill upgrade. For more information on the status of this project see "Operational Information – Equipment Upgrades".

For the fourth quarter of 2004, $11 million of investments were made which largely related to capital expenditures of $15 million. These expenditures related primarily to the Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill upgrade and various projects at both Stelco Hamilton and the Corporation's various mining interests.

For the year 2005, $122 million was required for the investing activities of the Corporation. Spending on capital projects of $154 million included the Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill upgrade, various projects at the Corporation's mining interests, and the Corporation's ERP system. Partially offsetting capital expenditures were $32 million of gross proceeds on the sale of Camrose Pipe, and other asset sales.

$50 million was invested during 2004 of which $44 million related to spending on capital projects including various projects at the Corporation's mining interests, the Corporation's ERP systems, the Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill upgrade, and a new processing line at Baycoat. In addition, $10 million was deposited in a trust account in January 2004 to indemnify the directors and officers of the Stelco group of companies against claims and liabilities that may arise as a result of their association with the Stelco group of companies.

Net Debt*
($ in millions)

*Long-term debt and debt subject to compromise plus net short-term debt (bank indebtedness net of cash, cash equivalents, and restricted cash)

Financing Activities

During the fourth quarter of 2005, $3 million was used to make a repayment against the debt associated with the Stelco Hamilton plate mill. Additional information on this obligation can be found in Notes 5, 7, and 17 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

During 2005, $17 million was required to repay long-term debt reflecting repayments of non-Applicant subsidiaries

Comparatively, $11 million was required for repayments of long-term debt associated with a non-Applicant.

Contractual Obligations

The following is a summary of the principal obligations of the Corporation's continuing operations at December 31, 2005:

(in millions)	Total	2006	2007–2008	2009–2010	>2010
Long-term debt and debt subject to compromise[1]	$ 467	$ 447	$ 20	$ –	$ –
Capital leases	7	4	2	1	–
Operating leases	23	10	9	3	1
Purchase obligations and other commitments	577	252	156	110	59
Total	$ 1,074	$ 713	$ 187	$ 114	$ 60

(1) Includes the $90 million convertible debenture (see Note 17 to the Consolidated Financial Statements).

Details of long-term debt provisions are contained in Note 17 to the Consolidated Financial Statements. Repayment in 2006 includes long-term debt subject to compromise as these obligations are assumed to be settled upon Plan implementation (see CCAA Plan – Overview of the CCAA Plan). The debt associated with the Hamilton plate mill is also in default and due immediately. (See Note 17 to the Consolidated Financial Statements).

Purchase obligations and other commitments are for coal, electricity, natural gas, oxygen, certain operating services and equipment, and information systems support services.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

Other than the operating lease obligations included in the Contractual Obligations table above, the Corporation had no off-balance sheet arrangements at either December 31, 2005 or 2004.

Financial Instruments

The Corporation did not utilize any third party financial instruments to mitigate interest rate or foreign exchange risk in 2005, and accordingly no such financial instruments were outstanding at December 31, 2005.

Outstanding Share Data

Under the CBCA, the Corporation is authorized to issue, in series, unlimited numbers of Preferred Shares and Common Shares without nominal or par value. The Corporation has the following shares outstanding:

Convertible Common shares outstanding	February 28, 2006	December 31, 2005	December 31, 2004
Series A	100,342,827	100,735,965	101,783,542
Series B	1,906,371	1,513,233	465,658
Total number of shares	102,249,198	102,249,198	102,249,200
Total (in millions)	$ 781	$ 781	$ 781

Stelco is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Series A Convertible Common Shares and an unlimited number of Series B Convertible Common Shares (collectively, the "Common Shares"). As of December 31, 2005, there were outstanding 100,735,965 Series A Convertible Common Shares and 1,513,233 Series B Convertible Common Shares. The Common Shares were delisted from the Toronto Stock Exchange at the close of business on March 10, 2006.

Under the articles of reorganization being filed in connection with the CCAA Plan, Stelco's authorized capital shall consist of an unlimited number of New Common Shares, an unlimited number of preferred shares and an unlimited number of redeemable shares. At the effective time of the CCAA Plan, each Series A Convertible Common Share and each issued Series B Convertible Common Share will be changed into 0.000001 of a Redeemable Share. Immediately thereafter, the Corporation will redeem the Redeemable Shares. In addition, the existing employee stock option program will be terminated on the Plan Implementation Date and no stock options will remain outstanding.

Upon emergence from CCAA, the Corporation will issue New Common Shares (see Overview of CCAA Plan – Treatment of Affected Claims).

Disclosure Controls and Procedures over Financial Reporting

Disclosure controls and procedures are designed to provide reasonable assurance that all relevant information is collected and reported to senior management, including the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and the Senior Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer ("CFO"), to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. At December 31, 2005, as required by the Canadian Security Administrators Multilateral Instrument 52-109, the CEO and CFO have evaluated the effectiveness of the Corporation's disclosure controls and procedures and have concluded that the disclosure controls and procedures are effective.

Changes in Accounting Policy

Accounting changes effective in 2006

Comprehensive Revaluation of Assets and Liabilities

Upon CCAA Plan implementation, there will be a substantial realignment of the equity and non-equity interests in the Corporation upon emergence from CCAA and the Corporation will be required, under Canadian GAAP, to adopt "fresh start" reporting in accordance with CICA Handbook section 1625 – Comprehensive Revaluation of Assets and Liabilities. Under fresh start reporting, the Corporation will undertake a comprehensive revaluation, based on the reorganization value as established and confirmed in the CCAA Plan, of its assets and liabilities by assigning a new fair value cost to all of the Corporation's assets and liabilities. Once the Corporation has completed this revaluation, the Statement of Financial Position will not be comparable to those previously reported.

Critical Accounting Assumptions and Estimates

The Corporation's Consolidated Financial Statements are prepared in accordance with GAAP as disclosed in Note 2 thereto.

In preparing Consolidated Financial Statements, management is required to make certain assumptions and estimates. Choosing one assumption or estimate from a range of possibilities can materially impact the amounts reported on the Statement of Earnings (Loss) or the Statement of Financial Position. Management reviews accounting assumptions and estimates regularly in light of past experience and current conditions or changes in GAAP, and utilizes outside consultants as necessary to arrive at appropriate assumptions and estimates to be used in the preparation of the Consolidated Financial Statements. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors reviews the significant assumptions and estimates throughout the year.

Management considers assumptions and estimates relating to the following matters to be the most critical:

- Going concern
- Carrying value of long-lived assets (property, plant and equipment)
- Employee future benefits
- Income taxes
- Inventory valuation

As a result of the financial condition of the Corporation and the uncertainty associated with the CCAA filing on January 29, 2004, no sensitivity analyses have been presented in the following discussion.

Unless indicated otherwise, all adjustments related to the items below are reflected in Costs in the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss).

Going Concern

The Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared using the same GAAP as applied by the Corporation prior to the filing for CCAA. While the Corporation and certain of its subsidiaries have filed for and been granted creditor protection, these consolidated financial statements continue to be prepared using the going concern concept, which assumes that the Corporation will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. A CCAA Plan has been sanctioned by the Court (see CCAA Plan above). Management believes that these actions make the going concern basis appropriate. However, the CCAA Plan implementation is subject to a number of conditions (see Conditions to CCAA Plan Implementation above) and it is not possible to predict the outcome of the CCAA proceedings and accordingly doubt exists as to whether the Corporation will be able to continue as a going concern. Further, it is not possible to predict whether the actions taken in any restructuring will result in improvements to the financial condition of the Corporation sufficient to allow it to continue as a going concern. If the going concern basis is not appropriate, adjustments may be necessary to the carrying amounts and/or classification of assets and liabilities, and expenses in these Consolidated Financial Statements. The Consolidated Financial Statements do not reflect any adjustments related to subsequent events related to conditions that arose subsequent to December 31, 2005.

Carrying Value of Long-Lived Assets

In accordance with GAAP appropriate for a going concern, property, plant, and equipment is carried at cost less accumulated amortization. This carrying amount is reviewed for impairment whenever events or circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. The carrying value is considered recoverable if the sum of undiscounted cash flows from operations and cash flow from disposal of the property, plant, and equipment exceeds the carrying amount. The Corporation's CCAA protection triggers an impairment review. In estimating future cash flows from operations of the Corporation's property, plant, and equipment, the Corporation made certain assumptions about the reductions in operating costs that could be achieved in the restructuring of its operations. In addition, future cash flows are dependent upon the assumptions used for revenues and costs to produce product. The Corporation believes that these assumptions are consistent with use of the going concern assumption in the preparation of the Consolidated Financial Statements. In connection with the CCAA proceedings, any compromise of liabilities required the approval of affected creditors. There can be no assurance that future cash flows will be sufficient to recover the carrying amount of property, plant, and equipment.

Employee Future Benefits

The Corporation's continuing operations participate in a number of employee future benefit arrangements (principally providing pension and health care benefits) in Canada and the United States. These benefits represent a substantial cost to the Corporation. In 2005, a total of $250 million was charged to Costs ($236 million in 2004) in the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss), representing approximately $73 per ton shipped in 2005 versus $65 per ton shipped in 2004. As indicated in Note 2 to the Consolidated Financial Statements, these plans are primarily of a defined benefits nature. As a result, complex actuarial and accounting rules are used to determine the expense to be recorded for the year and the accrued benefit obligation as at each measurement date, which corresponds to the year-end date, for the Corporation's principal defined benefit plans.

To arrive at the cost of employee future benefits to be recognized in the Consolidated Financial Statements, management is required to review and update various actuarial assumptions each year, based on a going concern concept. These assumptions include investment yields, discount rates, salary escalation, health care cost trends, retirement age, mortality rates, and other factors. The trend over the last few years has been towards lower investment yields, discount rates, mortality rates, and retirement ages. Coupled with benefit increases in labour contract settlements and escalating health care costs, these trends have generally resulted in significantly increased liabilities and corresponding increases in expense. Management consults certain outside advisors, including actuaries, in determining these factors in order to ensure that the assumptions chosen are reasonable and comparable to other large organizations. The assumptions used to calculate the 2005 year-end obligation do not impact the 2005 expense but will impact 2006 expense as described later in this section.

The obligations and costs incurred, based on these assumptions, are displayed in the tables and narrative contained in Note 22 to the Consolidated Financial Statements. As further outlined in Note 22, several adjustments are made to the costs incurred to arrive at the costs recognized in accordance with GAAP. These adjustments are intended to recognize the long-term nature of employee future benefits and reduce short-term volatility in the costs recognized.

The following comments highlight the significant 2005 changes and 2006 trends within the Corporation's principal pension and other benefit plans pertaining to continuing operations.

Pension Benefits

Pension benefit obligations are calculated using actuarial models. Accounting rules determine the related effects on pension expense. The assumptions affecting these include the discount rate, the expected return on plan assets, the average retirement age, and the mortality rate. In addition, benefit improvements have a material impact.

The discount rate enables the Corporation to calculate the present value of the benefit obligation as of the measurement date (December 31). There is little latitude in selecting this rate: it is the current yield on high-quality fixed income investments whose term and cash flow are similar to the liabilities under the plan. A lower discount rate increases the present value of the benefit obligation and therefore increases pension expense.

The expected long-term rate of return on plan assets is determined by assessing historical and anticipated investment returns on the various categories of plan assets. Similar to the discount rate, lower expected returns result in increased expense.

Establishment of the expected average retirement age is based on a review of the actual experience of the pension plans. Lower retirement ages result in increasing the benefit obligation as well as pension expense.

The mortality rate allows the Corporation to define the duration for which benefits are expected to be paid. Mortality rates are based on actuarial tables that are updated periodically to reflect expected mortality trends in the general population. A lower mortality rate (higher life expectancy) lengthens the benefit payment stream resulting in a higher benefit obligation and pension expense.

As at December 31, 2005, management made the following adjustments to these assumptions for continuing operations from December 31, 2004:

- Discount rate – reduced from 5.75% to 5.00%; and
- Expected long-term rate of return on plan assets – reduced from 7.50% to 7.00%

For continuing operations, the consolidated funded status deteriorated from a deficit of $816 million as at December 31, 2004, to a deficit of $953 million as at December 31, 2005, mainly as a result of the revised assumptions for the discount rate and long-term rate of return on plan assets, somewhat offset by better than expected return on plan assets. Under GAAP, the impact of changes to the above assumptions, benefit improvements, actual investment returns, and other changes are recognized over a number of years rather than in the year of occurrence. As a result, for accounting purposes, there is an accrued benefit asset of $112 million on the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position as at December 31, 2005 reflecting the deficit of $953 million reduced by $877 million of unamortized net actuarial losses, and $188 million of unamortized past service costs.

Other Benefits

The assumptions for other benefit plans are similar to pension plans, with the additional factor of health care cost trend rates. Changes in the health care cost trend rate have a significant effect on the accrued benefit obligation and recorded expense. (See Note 22 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for a sensitivity analysis.) As these plans are generally unfunded, changes to the assumptions do not materially impact cash outlays. Cash outlays are the actual amounts paid for other benefits.

As at December 31, 2005, management made the following adjustments to the Other benefit plan assumptions for continuing operations from December 31, 2004:

- Discount rate – reduced from 6.00% to 5.00%;
- Initial health care cost trend rate – increased from 7.9% to 8.1%; and
- Cost trend rate declining to 4.5% in 2014 (previous assumption was in 2013).

For continuing operations, the consolidated funded status deteriorated from a deficit of $1,201 million as at December 31, 2004, to a deficit of $1,364 million as at December 31, 2005, primarily due to these revised assumptions. Similar to the accounting rules for pension plans, the full impact of changes in assumptions is not recognized in the current year. Unamortized actuarial losses and past service costs of $470 million reduced the liability recorded on the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position to $894 million as at December 31, 2005, up from $855 million as at December 31, 2004.

The Corporation estimates that the above assumption changes will add an additional $14 million to Other benefit expense in 2006.

Further details on Pension and Other benefit plans are included in Note 22 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Income Taxes

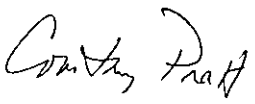
Application of GAAP concerning future income taxes requires projection of tax rates expected to be in effect in years in which tax benefits will be realized. Changes to the amount and timing of tax rates in future years can impact the amount of income tax expense or recovery recognized in an accounting period. The realization of future income tax assets is dependent on the Corporation's ability to generate sufficient taxable income in future years to utilize income tax benefits and income tax loss carry-forwards. Deviations of future profitability from estimates would result in adjustments to the value of future income tax assets and liabilities that could have a significant effect on earnings. (See Note 11 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.) Please refer to "Forward Looking Statements" on page 4.

Inventory Valuation

Valuation of inventories requires a number of estimates to be made, including inventory quality, condition, and obsolescence. These determinations require management to exercise judgment. Inventories are generally valued at cost, subject to adjustments required under certain circumstances to reflect replacement value or net realizable value. Management must exercise judgment in determining the appropriateness of values used to determine market value of finished product inventory. Cyclical changes in selling prices and/or input costs can result in material adjustments being made to the carrying value of finished product inventory.

Outlook

Stelco expects to exit from its Court-supervised restructuring process on March 31, 2006. As a condition of Tricap providing funding under the New Secured Revolving Term Loan, upon emergence, the Corporation's business structure will be reorganized into nine distinct limited partnerships with transactions between entities conducted on an arms-length basis. In addition, "fresh start accounting" will be adopted which will require a comprehensive revaluation of its assets and liabilities, the impact of which has not been determined at this time.



Entering 2006, steel service centre inventory levels have remained constant, resulting in order demand and pricing that has stabilized through the first quarter. However, selling prices beyond the first quarter remain subject to potential variability due to a stronger Canadian dollar and import levels.

As previously advised, the installation and commissioning delays associated with the Phase 2 upgrade of the Lake Erie hot strip mill will have a negative impact on financial results in the first quarter of 2006. The next outage to continue the implementation of the Phase 2 upgrade is currently scheduled in 2006. The Corporation's other strategic capital initiatives are expected to commence as soon as practicable after exit from CCAA.

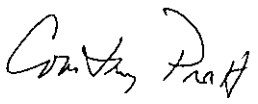
Management's Statement of Responsibility



Management of Stelco is responsible for the preparation of the accompanying consolidated financial statements and related information contained in this Annual Report. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. Where alternative accounting methods exist, management has chosen methods which management believes to be appropriate in the circumstances. Where estimates or judgments have been required, management has determined such amounts on a reasonable basis in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

In meeting its reporting responsibility, management has established and followed policies and procedures and systems of internal control designed to (i) provide reasonable assurance that assets were safeguarded from loss or unauthorized use and (ii) produce reliable financial information. Management, with participation of the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, have evaluated the effectiveness of the Corporation's disclosure control and procedures as defined in the Canadian Securities Administrators National Instrument 52-109 and has concluded that such disclosure controls and procedures are effective. These internal control systems were periodically tested and evaluated by the internal auditors and management took any action necessary to respond appropriately to their recommendations. Management recognizes the limits inherent in all systems of internal control but believes that Stelco has established effective and responsive systems of internal control through the careful selection of employees, the division of responsibilities, and the application of formal policies and procedures.

The Board of Directors oversees management's preparation of the consolidated financial statements and ultimately approves the consolidated financial statements and related disclosure based on a recommendation from the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors. As a basis for recommending approval of the consolidated financial statements to the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee, among other things, reviews with management the Corporation's internal controls over financial reporting and the accounting policies and procedures employed by the Corporation for financial reporting purposes and, as well, meets independently with internal and external auditors to consider the results of their audits.

Stelco's management believes that the systems of internal control, review procedures, and established policies provide reasonable assurance that the Corporation's operations have been carried out in conformity with the high business standards of the Corporation's Code of Ethics and Business Conduct.

The Audit Committee recommended the appointment of the Corporation's external auditors, KPMG LLP, to examine the 2005 and 2004 consolidated financial statements of the Corporation in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Canada. The external auditors' report as to the fairness of presentation of these consolidated financial statements and their conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles is included in this Annual Report.

Note 1. Creditor Protection and Restructuring

On January 29, 2004 (the "Filing Date"), Stelco Inc. and certain related entities filed for protection under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act ("CCAA") and obtained an order (the "Initial Order") from the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (the "Court") granting it creditor protection under the CCAA. On the same date, Stelco made a concurrent petition for recognition of the Initial Order and ancillary relief under Section 304 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code (the "U.S. Section 304 Proceedings"). The Canadian proceedings include Stelco and its wholly owned subsidiaries, Stelwire Ltd. ("Stelwire"), Stelpipe Ltd. ("Stelpipe"), CHT Steel Company Inc. ("CHT Steel"), and Welland Pipe Ltd. ("Welland Pipe"), which are collectively referred to as the "Applicants". The U.S. Section 304 Proceedings include Stelco, Stelwire, and Stelpipe. The Corporation's other subsidiaries and joint ventures are not included in the proceedings. During the stay period, the Applicants were authorized to continue operations. Ernst & Young Inc. was appointed by the Court as monitor (the "Monitor") in the Canadian proceedings and has been reporting to the Court from time to time on the Applicants' cash flow and on other developments during the proceedings.

The Initial Order and the U.S. Section 304 Proceedings provided for an initial stay period of 30 days, which has subsequently been extended to the earlier of March 31, 2006 and the implementation date of the CCAA Plan (the "Plan Implementation Date"). The purpose of the Initial Order and stay of proceedings was to provide the Applicants with relief designed to stabilize their operations and business relationships with their customers, suppliers, employees, and creditors and to provide them with time to develop the CCAA Plan.

The CCAA proceedings triggered defaults under substantially all debt obligations of the Applicants (see Notes 7 and 17). The Initial Order generally stayed actions against the Applicants including steps to collect indebtedness incurred by the Applicants prior to the Filing Date and actions to exercise control over the Applicants' property. The Initial Order granted the Applicants the authority to pay outstanding and future wages, salaries, employee pension contributions and benefit payments, and other obligations to employees; the costs of goods and services, both operating and of a capital nature, provided or supplied after the date of the Initial Order; rent under existing arrangements payable after the date of the filing; and principal, interest, and other payments to holders of security in respect of the property of the Applicants if the amount secured by such security is, in the reasonable opinion of the applicable Applicant, with the concurrence of the Monitor, less than or equal to the fair value of such security, having regard to, among other things, the priority of such security.

Conditions to CCAA Plan Implementation

The implementation of the CCAA Plan is subject to a number of conditions, including settlement of the terms of the agreements governing the New ABL Facility, the Secured Revolving Term Loan, the FRNs, the New Province Note, the Pension Arrangements, the New Warrants and the warrants to be issued to the Province (as defined below under Overview of the CCAA Plan). These agreements and related documents must be settled with the parties that will be entering into them as well as with certain other parties that, pursuant to the terms of the CCAA Plan, must be satisfied with or not object to the terms of these agreements.

Stelco is in the process of negotiating the terms of these agreements and documents with the applicable stakeholders as well as is seeking to satisfy other conditions to implementation. If the conditions are not satisfied subject to the right of various parties to waive compliance, the CCAA Plan will not be implemented.

There can be no assurances that these agreements will be reached by March 26, 2006 or that the CCAA stay period will be extended beyond March 31, 2006 if required. Should the CCAA Plan not be implemented or if the Applicants lose the protection of the stay of proceedings, substantially all debt obligations will become due and payable immediately or subject to immediate acceleration creating an immediate liquidity crisis which would in all likelihood lead to the liquidation of the Applicants' assets.

CCAA Plan

By order dated October 4, 2005, the Applicants were authorized to call and conduct meetings of affected creditors (as defined in the CCAA Plan) on November 15, 2005 to consider and vote on their plan of arrangement and reorganization dated October 3, 2005 (the "Original Plan"), as amended from time to time. As a result of extensive negotiations with stakeholders, the Original Plan was amended and on December 9, 2005, a majority in number of Affected Creditors representing more than two-thirds in value of the Affected Claims (as defined in the CCAA Plan) of each class voted to approve and adopt the CCAA Plan.

By order dated January 20, 2006 (the "Sanction Order"), the CCAA Plan was sanctioned by the Court and, among other things, the Court:

a) declared that the CCAA Plan was fair and reasonable and in the best interests of the Applicants;
b) authorized the Applicants to take all steps necessary to implement the CCAA Plan and the transactions contemplated by it;
c) authorized Stelco to file Articles of Reorganization with effect on the Plan Implementation Date, which will have the effect of eliminating the existing common shares, and create new common shares of Stelco (the "New Common Shares") that will be issued to affected creditors and others under the CCAA Plan;
d) ordered that, as of the Plan Implementation Date, Stelco's existing shareholders' rights plan agreement and all warrants, options and agreements to purchase existing common shares of Stelco will be of no further force or effect and cancelled;
e) ordered that, as of the Plan Implementation Date, the Applicants will be released from affected claims and certain other matters and that the directors and officers of the Applicants and certain others will be released from all claims relating to, among other things, the business and affairs of the Applicants, the CCAA Plan and the CCAA proceedings, excluding claims arising from fraud, wilful misconduct and some other specific matters;
f) ordered that the term of office of the existing board of directors of Stelco will terminate on the Plan Implementation Date and appoint nine new directors of Stelco as of that time;
g) ordered that the Applicants will be released from all CCAA Charges (as defined in the Initial Order) against their property and assets created by the Initial Order, with effect from the Plan Implementation Date or, in the case of the $350 Million Credit Facility and DIP Credit Facility (as those terms are defined in Note 13), the date of delivery of a release from the lenders; and
h) ordered that the stay of proceedings under the CCAA will terminate on the earlier of the Plan Implementation Date and March 3, 2006 (subsequently extended to March 31, 2006).

On February 9, 2006, an order was obtained in the U.S. Section 304 Proceedings that provides that the CCAA Plan and the Sanction Order are enforceable in the United States.

Overview of the CCAA Plan

Treatment of Affected Claims

Under the CCAA Plan, the claims of the Affected Creditors will not be satisfied in full by the consideration being distributed under the CCAA Plan (see Note 7 Liabilities Subject to Compromise). Stelco is seeking to implement the CCAA Plan by March 31, 2006.

Each Affected Creditor will receive its pro rata share of the following:

a) New Secured Floating Rate Notes ("FRNs") in the US dollar equivalent of $275 million;
b) 1,100,000 New Common Shares of Stelco;
c) cash in the amount of $137.5 million (the "Cash Pool") subject in the case of each Affected Creditor to its right to elect to receive New Common Shares instead of cash at $5.50 per New Common Share (the "Share Election"), up to a maximum of 5,264,000 New Common Shares in the aggregate for all Affected Creditors so electing to do so; and
d) warrants for 1,418,500 New Common Shares (the "New Warrants") representing, if exercised, approximately 5% of the fully diluted New Common Shares of Stelco at the Plan Implementation Date. The New Warrants will have an exercise price of $11.00 per New Common Share and have a seven-year term.

As a result of Share Elections filed by the Affected Creditors, the total amount of cash to be issued to Affected Creditors under the CCAA Plan will be $108,548,000 and the electing Affected Creditors will receive 5,264,000 New Common Shares pursuant to the Share Elections.

Based on the current estimate of proven claims of $546 million (see Note 7), Affected Creditors will receive, for each $1,000 of proven claim, approximately the following amounts:

a) $502 of FRN's;
b) two new Common Shares; and
c) $251 of cash from the Cash Pool, subject to any Share Election at $5.50 per share; and
d) a pro rata share of the New Warrants.

Plan Sponsor Agreement

The new equity of the restructured Stelco, in the form of New Common Shares, will be divided among three groups under the CCAA Plan: the Affected Creditors, the Province of Ontario (the "Province") and the Equity Sponsors. The Affected Creditors are acquiring their portion of the equity as part of the consideration distributed under the CCAA Plan. The Province is to obtain its portion by virtue of warrants negotiated as part of the financing it is providing to Stelco described below (wherein it receives warrants to purchase 851,100 New Common Shares representing, if exercised, 3% of the fully diluted New Common Shares of Stelco at the Plan Implementation Date) and the Equity Sponsors are acquiring their equity interests for cash pursuant to a Plan Sponsor Agreement ("the PSA") between the Corporation and the Equity Sponsors.

Pursuant to the PSA, Tricap Management Limited ("Tricap"), Sunrise Partners Limited Partnership ("Sunrise") and Appaloosa Management LP ("Appaloosa") (collectively the "Equity Sponsors") agreed to purchase New Common Shares in Stelco at a price of $5.50 per share for proceeds of $108,548,000, which funds comprise the Cash Pool to be distributed to Affected Creditors. In addition, Sunrise and Appaloosa agreed to provide a stand-by commitment to purchase up to an additional 5,264,000 shares at $5.50 per share for an aggregate maximum stand-by commitment of $28,952,000 to supplement the Cash Pool to be paid to the affected creditors if the Share Elections did not result in a full take-up of the 5,264,000 New Common Shares available. The share elections resulted in a full take-up of the 5,264,000 New Common Shares. Therefore, the stand-by commitment was not required.

Proposed CCAA Plan Financing and Pension Plan Funding

The CCAA Plan is conditional upon a number of matters, including implementation of a number of agreements to secure new financing and a pension plan funding agreement with the Province. Stelco plans to raise new financing from the following sources:

- New ABL facility (asset based loan) $600 million
- New Secured Revolving term loan $375 million
- New Province Note $150 million

The finalization of the new financing are conditions precedent to the implementation of the CCAA Plan and are critical components of the liquidity and financing contemplated for the restructured Stelco.

New ABL Facility

On the Plan Implementation Date, the current $75 million Debtor-in-Possession Credit Facility (the "DIP Credit Facility") and existing $350 million Credit Facility (the "$350 Million Credit Facility") which are due to expire no later than March 31, 2006 (see Note 13), are to be replaced by a new asset based lending facility (the "New ABL Facility"). The Corporation is in negotiations with lenders to provide this facility. The available amount of the New ABL Facility will be dependent upon the value of the underlying collateral, but will not exceed $600 million.

New Secured Revolving Term Loan

Pursuant to a term sheet/commitment letter, signed by Stelco on January 27, 2006, Tricap has agreed to provide a new secured revolving term loan (the "New Secured Revolving Term Loan") to Stelco in an amount of $375 million for a term of seven years from the Plan Implementation Date. The facility is revolving until the third anniversary of the Plan Implementation Date (the "Target Date"). On and after the Target Date, the facility may cease to revolve and any amount of the New Secured Revolving Term Loan outstanding on the Target Date will be repayable in full on the seventh anniversary of the Plan Implementation Date.

The New Secured Revolving Term Loan is conditional upon a number of matters, including Stelco adopting a financing and corporate structure acceptable to Tricap.

Stelco and Tricap entered into a restructuring agreement dated September 22, 2005 (the "Stelco/Tricap Restructuring Agreement") pursuant to which Tricap was to provide financing by way of a $350 million secured revolving term loan and support a rights offering in connection with the Original Plan. As a result of amendments to the Original Plan, including the elimination of the rights offering and changes to the financing, Tricap was paid a break fee of $11 million under the Stelco/Tricap Restructuring Agreement, which was recorded in reorganization items (Note 4) in the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss).

New Province Note

Subject to a number of conditions, including implementation of the CCAA Plan and the Province Agreement (defined below), the Province has agreed to provide Stelco with an advance by way of the New Province Note in the amount of $150 million. The loan is repayable on December 31, 2015 and can be repaid in cash or Stelco common shares and is subject to a 75% discount if the solvency deficiencies in Stelco's four main pension plans are eliminated on or before that date.

Federal Government Grant

The Federal Government of Canada has agreed to provide a $30 million cogeneration grant, which was announced on November 23, 2005. The federal contribution represents approximately 60% of the initial cost of the Corporation's near-term cogeneration projects. Stelco intends to spend $50 million towards those projects in 2006.

Pension Plan Funding Arrangements

Stelco and the Province entered into a restructuring agreement (the "Province Agreement"), that contemplates Stelco and the Province entering into a pension agreement, to provide for funding arrangements with respect to Stelco's four main pension plans aimed at substantially reducing or eliminating the solvency deficiencies in these plans over a ten-year period.

It is a condition of the CCAA Plan that Stelco and the Province enter into a Province Agreement, to be effective on the Plan Implementation Date containing the following key terms:

a) An obligation of Stelco on the Plan Implementation Date to make an initial upfront payment of $400 million to its four main pension plans less any contributions to plans already made in 2006;
b) Stelco will fund its four main pension plans in the following amounts in the years subsequent to plan implementation:
   (i) Years 1 – 5: $65 million per year, payable monthly, commencing July 1, 2006; and
   (ii) Years 6 – 10: $70 million per year, payable monthly;
c) Stelco will make additional pension plan payments to fund any solvency deficiency in the Stelco four main pension plans if Stelco generates free cash flow in excess of a formula both as defined in the Province Agreement and the proposed new regulations under the Pension Benefits Act in respect of Stelco's four main pension plans; and
d) Stelco will not be required to make any adjustments to its pension funding based on annual actuarial valuations up to December 31, 2015; and
e) Any future benefit improvements will be required to be funded in accordance with the Pension Benefits Act and will be in addition to the funding payments outlined above.

Employees

The Approved Plan does not require any concessions in terms of salaries, wages or pension and other benefits.

Secured Creditors

The CCAA Plan does not affect creditors with secured claims. The claims of the lenders pursuant to the $350 Million Credit Facility and the DIP Credit Facility (Note 13) will be paid in full on or prior to the Plan Implementation Date.

Existing Shareholders

There is no value allotted to existing shares of Stelco under the CCAA Plan. The existing shares are to be exchanged into new redeemable shares at a ratio of 0.000001 new redeemable share for each existing share and such shares will be redeemed on the Plan Implementation Date for consideration at the rate of $0.01 for each new redeemable share with no amounts paid on account of fractional interests or if payment would be less than $10.00. The result is that shareholders of Stelco will receive no consideration in respect of their existing shares.

Corporate Reorganization

On February 14, 2006, the Court approved a reorganization of the Corporation pursuant to an arrangement under the CBCA. As a result, distinct portions of Stelco's business will be transferred into nine separate limited partnerships upon the Corporation's emergence from its Court-supervised restructuring process.

The following business units of Stelco Inc. have been identified for transfer to limited partnerships: Hamilton steel works; Lake Erie steel works; energy assets (primarily a future asset); vacant land; coke batteries; and mining interests (collectively the "Business Units").

The CBCA Plan will be implemented concurrently with the implementation of the CCAA Plan. Orders authorizing leave to bring the arrangement application, approving the arrangement, and dispensing with any requirement to obtain shareholder approval of the CBCA arrangement (as there is no economic interest in the existing shares) were granted by the Court on February 14, 2006.

Basis of presentation and going concern issues

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the same Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") as applied by the Corporation prior to the filing for CCAA. While the Corporation and certain of its subsidiaries have filed for and been granted creditor protection, these consolidated financial statements continue to be prepared using the going concern concept, which assumes that the Corporation will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. A CCAA Plan has been sanctioned by the Court (see CCAA Plan above). Management believes that these actions make the going concern basis appropriate. However, the CCAA Plan implementation is subject to a number of conditions (see Conditions to CCAA Plan Implementation above) and it is not possible to predict the outcome of the CCAA proceedings and accordingly doubt exists as to whether the Corporation will be able to continue as a going concern. Further, it is not possible to predict whether the actions taken in any restructuring will result in improvements to the financial condition of the Corporation sufficient to allow it to continue as a going concern. If the going concern basis is not appropriate, adjustments may be necessary to the carrying amounts and/or classification of assets and liabilities, and expenses in these consolidated financial statements.

While the Corporation is under creditor protection, the Corporation will make adjustments to the consolidated financial statements to isolate assets, liabilities, revenues, and expenses related to the reorganization and restructuring activities so as to distinguish these events and transactions from those associated with the ongoing operation of the business (see Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies). Further, allowed claims arising under the CCAA proceedings may be recorded as liabilities subject to compromise and presented separately on the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position. If the CCAA Plan is implemented there will be a substantial realignment of the equity and non-equity interests in the Corporation upon emergence from CCAA, which will require the Corporation, under Canadian GAAP, to adopt "fresh start" reporting. Under fresh start reporting, the Corporation will undertake a comprehensive revaluation of its assets and liabilities based on the reorganization value as established and confirmed in the Plan. The consolidated financial statements do not present any adjustments that may be required under fresh start reporting.

In accordance with Canadian GAAP appropriate for a going concern, property, plant, and equipment is carried at cost less accumulated amortization. This carrying amount is reviewed for impairment whenever events or circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. The carrying value is considered recoverable if the sum of undiscounted cash flows from operations and cash flow from disposal of the property, plant, and equipment exceeds the carrying amount. The Corporation's creditor protection under CCAA triggers an impairment review. In estimating future cash flows from operations of the Corporation's property, plant, and equipment, the Corporation makes certain assumptions about revenue, reductions in operating costs and its liabilities that could be achieved in the restructuring of its operations. The Corporation believes that these assumptions are consistent with use of the going concern assumption in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements. There can be no assurance that such cost reductions can be achieved and that future cash flows will be sufficient to recover the carrying amount of property, plant, and equipment.

Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the same Canadian GAAP as applied by the Corporation prior to certain entities of the Corporation filing for creditor protection, except as described below under the heading Accounting policies applicable to an entity under Creditor Protection. These consolidated financial statements are prepared using the going concern concept, although uncertainties remain about the future financial condition of the Corporation as described in Note 1 – Creditor Protection and Restructuring - Basis of presentation and going concern issues.

Revenue recognition

Net sales revenue is recognized when the risks of ownership have been transferred to the customer and reasonable assurance exists regarding the measurement of the sales consideration, provided that ultimate collection is reasonably assured. Generally, the risks of ownership are transferred when title passes at the time of shipment and sales consideration is recognized to the extent it is fixed or determinable.

Accounting policies applicable to an entity under Creditor Protection

As a result of the filings as described in Note 1, the Corporation has followed accounting policies, including disclosure items, applicable to entities that are under creditor protection. In addition to Canadian GAAP, the Corporation is applying the guidance in the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Statement of Position 90-7, "Financial Reporting by Entities in Reorganization under the Bankruptcy Code" (SOP 90-7). While SOP 90-7 refers specifically to Chapter 11 in the U.S., its guidance, in management's view, is also applicable to an entity restructuring under CCAA, where it does not conflict with Canadian GAAP.

Consistent with Canadian GAAP, SOP 90-7 does not change the manner in which consolidated financial statements are prepared. However, SOP 90-7 does require that the consolidated financial statements for periods subsequent to the filing distinguish transactions and events that are directly associated with the reorganization from the ongoing operations of the business where it does not conflict with Canadian GAAP. Revenues, expenses, gains and losses, and provisions for losses that can be directly associated with the reorganization and restructuring of the business are reported separately as Reorganization items (see Note 4). The timing of the recognition of Reorganization items is consistent with Canadian GAAP. Cash flows related to Reorganization items have been disclosed separately in Note 4.

While payments may not be made on liabilities subject to compromise, including long-term debt, interest on debt obligations will continue to be recognized under Canadian GAAP, consistent with Canadian legal requirements. Interest is not a Reorganization item. The Consolidated Statement of Financial Position distinguishes pre-filing liabilities subject to compromise from both those pre-filing liabilities that are not subject to compromise and from post-filing liabilities (see Note 7). Liabilities that may be affected by the Third Amended and Restated Plan of Arrangement under the CCAA and the Canada Business Corporation Act (the "CBCA Plan") have been reported at the amounts estimated to be allowed, even if they may be settled for lesser amounts. A claims procedure was established on December 17, 2004, for which a claims bar date of January 31, 2005 was set for the pre-filing claims and post-filing claims relating to the restructuring, repudiation, or termination of obligations between January 29, 2004 and December 17, 2004. Consolidated financial statements that include one or more entities in reorganization proceedings and one or more entities not in reorganization proceedings should include disclosure of Condensed Combined Financial Statements of the entities in reorganization proceedings, including disclosure of the amount of intercompany receivables and payables therein between Applicants and non-Applicants (see Note 8).

SOP 90-7 has been applied effective January 29, 2004, and for subsequent reporting periods while the Corporation continues to operate under creditor protection.

The resulting changes in reporting are described in Note 4 (Reorganization items), and Note 7 (Liabilities subject to compromise), and Note 8 (Condensed combined financial statements).

Principles of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Stelco Inc., its wholly owned subsidiaries, and its proportionate share of the accounts of its joint ventures. Comparative figures on the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position are not comparable year over year as a result of assets held for sale disclosure pertaining to the sale of non-core subsidiaries (See Notes 10 and 26).

Foreign currencies

Monetary assets and liabilities originating in foreign currencies are translated at year-end exchange rates. All other assets and liabilities originating in foreign currencies are translated at historic rates prevailing when the assets were acquired or the liabilities incurred. Income and expense items, other than those related to assets and liabilities translated at historic rates, are generally translated at the rate in effect at the time the transaction occurs.

Gains or losses resulting from foreign currency translations are reflected in the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss).

The temporal method of translation of foreign currency is followed for foreign subsidiaries, all of which are considered to be financially and operationally integrated. Translation of foreign currencies for the foreign subsidiaries using the temporal method is consistent with the method described above.

Inventories

Inventories of raw materials and supplies are valued at the lower of cost and replacement cost. Semi-finished product inventories are valued at actual cost. Finished product inventories are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value.

Property, plant, and equipment

Property, plant, and equipment is carried at cost less accumulated amortization, and includes construction in progress. Amortization is provided using the straight-line method applied to the cost of the assets at rates based on their estimated useful life and beginning from the point when production commences except for the cost of blast furnace relines (see below) and at certain mining properties where amortization is calculated on a unit-of-production basis. The following annual amortization rates are in effect:

Buildings	20 to 30 years
Equipment	15 to 20 years
Automotive and mobile equipment	5 to 10 years
Raw material plants and properties	20 years

Blast furnace relines

The Corporation's blast furnaces periodically require extensive relining. Costs incurred in the reline of a blast furnace that extend the useful life of the furnace are capitalized and amortized over their estimated useful life on a unit-of-production basis. All other costs associated with the reline are expensed as incurred.

Intangible assets

Intangible assets of the Corporation are computer systems and applications. These assets are recorded at historical cost and are amortized on a straight-line basis over ten years beginning at the point at which the system or application becomes operative.

Impairment of long-lived assets

An impairment loss would be recognized when the carrying value of a long-lived asset exceeds the total undiscounted cash flows expected from its use and eventual disposition. The impairment loss would be calculated as the amount by which the carrying value of the asset exceeds its fair value.

Interest

Interest on all debt obligations, including debt classified as liabilities subject to compromise, has been accrued and expensed.

Employee future benefits

The Corporation, its wholly owned business units, wholly owned subsidiaries, and joint ventures maintain a number of defined benefit and defined contribution plans providing pension, other retirement, and post-employment benefits to most of its employees.

Pension plan assets are valued at market-related value and are used to calculate the expected rate of return on plan assets. Market-related value is the market value of pension plan assets averaged over a three-year period.

The cost of pension and other post-employment benefits (including medical benefits, dental care, life insurance and certain compensated absences) is charged to income annually. The cost is computed on an actuarial basis using the projected benefit method by estimating the usage, frequency, and cost of services covered and management's best estimate of the long-term rate of return on plan assets, discount rates, salary escalation, health care cost trends, retirement age, mortality, and other factors. These assumptions relate to factors that are of a long-term nature and, consequently, are subject to a degree of uncertainty. Actual trends and values may differ from those assumed at this time resulting in changes in the cost of pension and other post-employment benefits in future periods. The assumptions are reviewed and updated annually or more frequently where the level of benefits provided to employees changes. Past service costs (such as increased benefits provided under labour contract settlements) are amortized over the estimated average remaining service life (EARSL) of the employees at the date of the amendment.

The Corporation has elected under Canadian GAAP to use the corridor method to amortize actuarial gains and losses (arising from changes in actuarial assumptions and experience gains and losses) over the EARSL of active employees. Under the corridor method, amortization is recorded only if the accumulated net actuarial gains or losses exceed 10% of the greater of the accrued benefit obligation and the value of the plan assets. These amortizations reflect the concept, as stated in GAAP, that the cost of employee future benefits should be recorded based on long-term assumptions to be consistent with the nature of the economic benefits derived therefrom. Short-term actuarial gains and losses may occur which differ from the long-term nature of the assumptions used under Canadian GAAP. The cost of employee future benefits in any year should not be unduly impacted by such short-term changes in market returns, discount rates, or in the level of benefits provided. Continued trends in these factors will be reflected by changes in assumptions if these trends persist, and would affect future costs.

Salaried employees hired after July 31, 1997, participate in the Corporation's "Opportunity" or similar programs, which include a flexible credit plan for benefits and a self-directed group RRSP. These employees do not participate in the defined benefit plans. These programs are accounted for as defined contribution plans. Costs of defined contribution plans are expensed as incurred.

Income taxes

The Corporation follows the liability method of accounting for future income taxes. Under the liability method, future income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on "temporary differences" (differences between the accounting basis and the tax basis of the assets and liabilities) and are measured using the currently enacted, or substantively enacted, tax rates and laws expected to apply when these differences reverse. A valuation allowance is recorded against any future income tax asset if it is more likely than not that the asset will not be realized. Income tax expense or benefit is the sum of the Corporation's provision for current income taxes and the differences between the opening and ending balances of the future income tax assets and liabilities. The effect of increases and decreases to future income tax assets and liabilities arising from changes in tax rates is recognized in income in the year the changes occur.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with Canadian GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions which affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the stated amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates (see Note 1 – Creditor Protection and Restructuring – Basis of presentation and going concern issues).

Note 3. Changes in Accounting Policy

Financial Instruments

Effective January 1, 2005, the Corporation adopted a change in accounting policy to conform with amendments to the CICA Handbook Section 3860 – Financial Instruments – disclosure and presentation. The amendments modify the presentation and accounting of financial instruments where there is an option of satisfying the obligation and/or interest payments with the issuance of a variable number of an entity's own shares. Such instruments are no longer presented and accounted for as a component of Shareholders' Equity on the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position but rather as Long-term Debt. Interest and accretion, net of tax, applicable to these instruments are no longer charged directly to retained deficit and are now accounted for separately as interest and tax expense on the Statement of Earnings (Loss). The amendment applies to the Corporation's $90 million convertible debentures and has been adopted retroactively resulting in a restatement of prior periods. Interest expense of $1 million relating to accretion of the convertible debentures prior to filing for CCAA has been recorded in the Statement of Earnings (Loss) for 2004 offset by a corresponding adjustment to retained deficit. The presentation and accounting for the convertible debentures that was triggered by the CCAA filing (see Note 17) is consistent with the amendment and therefore did not result in any additional adjustments in 2005. There was no impact to the basic or diluted earnings per share for 2004 as a result of adopting this change retroactively.

Note 4. Reorganization Items

Reorganization items relating to continuing operations represent post-filing revenues, expenses, gains and losses, and provisions for losses that can be directly associated with the reorganization and restructuring of the Applicants. The following table summarizes the reorganization items included in the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss):

Years ended December 31 (in millions)	2005	2004
Professional fees	$ 53	$ 27
Break fees[i]	22	–
Gain on sale of non-core assets (Note 5)	–	(1)
Lease repudiation and relocation expenses[ii]	–	6
Financing fees[iii]	1	6
Adjustment of convertible debenture balance[iv]	–	15
Total reorganization items	$ 76	$ 53

(i) In March 2005, Stelco discontinued the capital raising process and decided to pursue a recapitalization of the Corporation and as a result, Deutsche Bank became entitled to a break fee of approximately $11 million. In December 2005, Tricap became entitled to break fees totalling approximately $11 million as a result of the significant changes that were made to the Plan.

(ii) Consists primarily of lease repudiation costs and moving expenses from 100 King Street West to 386 Wilcox Street in Hamilton.

(iii) Related to fees incurred for the DIP facility and the write-off of deferred fees associated with the convertible debentures

(iv) To adjust the principal element of the convertible debentures from $75 million to the anticipated claim amount of $90 million (see Note 17).

The cash flow associated with reorganization and restructuring items is summarized as follows:

Years ended December 31 (in millions)	2005	2004
Professional fees	$ 46	$ 24
Break fees (see (i) above)	22	–
Proceeds on sale of non-core assets (Note 5)	–	(4)
Lease repudiation and relocation expenses (see (ii) above)	–	1
Financing fees	1	3
Total cash usage	$ 69	$ 24

Note 5. Asset Sales

As part of the Corporation's overall effort to restructure operations, simplify processes, and rationalize non-core resources during 2004 and 2005, a number of assets idled prior to CCAA were sold.

Where indicated, the proceeds received from these asset sales of the Applicants are held in trust with the Monitor and are therefore included in restricted cash (Note 6) on the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position.

The following asset sales activity occurred during 2004 and 2005:

CHT Steel

The Corporation announced the closure of CHT Steel, a wholly owned subsidiary located in Richmond Hill, Ontario, on February 18, 2004. CHT Steel processed plate sourced from the Stelco Hamilton plate mill.

The sale of property, plant, and equipment was completed in various transactions during 2004. Net proceeds received were $4 million resulting in a pre-tax gain of $1 million relating principally to the property and plant and was reflected as a reorganization item (Note 4). As at December 31, 2005, CHT Steel does not have any material assets other than restricted cash.

Stelco Hamilton – Plate Mill

The plate mill assets at Stelco Hamilton were sold on June 9, 2005. The gross proceeds of $25 million were secured by irrevocable letters of credit, which have and will continue to be drawn down in tandem with the progress made on dismantling of the equipment. All net proceeds will be used to partially satisfy the debt associated with these assets (see Note 17). The expected shortfall has been filed as a claim against Stelco Inc. (see Note 7). The carrying value of these assets was nil, therefore a pre-tax gain (net of $5 million of fees) of $20 million was recorded during 2005.

Stelco Hamilton – Tin Mill

The tin mill assets at Stelco Hamilton have been idled since 1995 when the Corporation decided to exit the tinning line business. On December 20, 2005, the Corporation sold certain of these assets for net proceeds of approximately $1 million. The residual value of these assets were nil, therefore a corresponding pre-tax gain was included as a reduction to Costs on the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss) during 2005.

Non-core business sales

The Corporation has sold all of the businesses in the Mini-mill and Manufactured Products segments. For more information, see Note 10 – Discontinued Operations.

Note 6. Restricted Cash

Restricted cash represents funds being held in trust with the Monitor pending direction from the Court for its use. The composition of these funds is derived as follows:

- Post-closing sale of inventory by Stelpipe;
- Proceeds relating to the sale of CHT assets (Note 5);
- Proceeds from the sale of Welland Pipe's spiral weld and U and O pipe mills (Note 10); and
- Proceeds associated with the sale of Stelpipe's 16" pipe mill (Note 10).

Note 7. Liabilities Subject to Compromise

Liabilities subject to compromise refers to liabilities incurred prior to the filing date that were dealt with as Affected Claims under the CCAA Plan, as well as claims incurred after filing but before October 26, 2005 and arising out of any repudiated leases, contracts, and other arrangements. It is possible that consolidated financial statement items not currently included below as liabilities subject to compromise will be added to this category of liabilities at a later date. The amounts below are the Corporation's estimate of known and expected claims in this category and are subject to future adjustment as a result of negotiations, Court orders, proofs of claim, and other events. Any additions to this category of liabilities and any adjustments may be material and, depending on their nature, may be recorded as a reorganization item. The CCAA Plan has determined how the Affected Claims will be settled, including payment terms, if applicable. See Note 1 – Treatment of Affected Claims for more information.

The Corporation continues to accrue for interest on long-term debt that is subject to compromise ($73 million as of December 31, 2005). No interest has been paid on unsecured debt of the Applicants subsequent to the date of filing.

Claims procedure

As established by Court order on December 17, 2004, the Applicants initiated a process for certain creditors to file claims against the Applicants for liabilities incurred prior to January 29, 2004 and those arising between January 29, 2004 and December 17, 2004 as a result of the restructuring, repudiation or termination of any contract, lease or other agreement. The claims bar date for filing of proofs of claim was set at January 31, 2005, unless the claim relates to the restructuring, repudiation or termination of any contract, lease or other agreement on or after December 17, 2004, in which case the bar date for these types of claims was set at October 26, 2005.

A dispute mechanism was in place for those claims that could not be resolved by way of negotiation with the Applicants and/or Monitor. These claims were forwarded to a claims officer. Outstanding claims are being reviewed and ruled on by the claims officer. Both the Applicants and the claimant have the right to appeal the decision of the claims officer to the Court within five business days of notification of the claims officer's decision. All determinations from the Court regarding appealed claims are final for the purposes of recording claims. While the claims process is not finalized at this time, there are no material items outstanding.

(a) The Corporation continues to accrue for interest on long-term debt that is subject to compromise. No interest has been paid on long-term debt of the Applicants subsequent to January 29, 2004, the date of the CCAA filing. The holders of long-term debt subject to compromise (Note 17) have reserved their right to file a claim for post-filing interest, although this is not a provable claim pursuant to the claims procedure order.

(b) Certain claims have been excepted from the process including, but not limited to:

- claims pursuant to existing financing and DIP documents;
- claims secured by CCAA charges and any further charge ordered by the Court;
- claims of any non-Applicant wholly owned subsidiary, other than such claims that are the subject of a security interest in favour of a secured creditor and the secured creditor is enforcing, or is entitled to enforce, its security;
- employment, compensation, group benefit and pension claims;
- certain claims arising from a cause of action for which the Applicants are fully insured.

(c) Represents amounts that have been disallowed from the original claim. Included are revisions from the original claim amount for which the Corporation and the claimant have agreed upon, a Claims Officer has ruled on, or for which the claimant has not filed a dispute notice within the time frame outlined in the claims procedure. Of the litigation and contingent claims adjustments, the vast majority related to three claims filed by joint venture partners of Stelco in which they claimed, $2.72 billion against Stelco. These claims were filed in the event Stelco did not honour its obligations under the joint venture agreements. Management and the Monitor did not believe these were valid claims as no breach of contract had occurred. During the second half of 2005, all three of these claims were withdrawn.

Note 8. Condensed Combined Financial Statements

As stated in Note 2, consolidated financial statements should provide disclosure of Condensed Combined Financial Statements of the entities in reorganization proceedings (Applicants), including disclosure of the amount of intercompany receivables and payables between Applicants and non-Applicants. Entities not in reorganization proceedings included AltaSteel, Norambar, Stelfil, Stelco Holding Company, and their wholly owned subsidiaries and joint ventures.

Asset retirement obligations of continuing operations relate to the site restoration and reclamation of iron ore properties at the Corporation's mining interests in Wabush, Tilden, and Hibbing. The following table provides the pertinent information associated with these obligations:

In addition, a former participant in Wabush funded its estimated share of mine closure costs at the time of its exit from the joint venture. These funds ($4 million) are reflected in Other non-current assets on the Statement of Financial Position.

Note 10. Discontinued Operations and Assets Held for Sale

All the businesses that comprised the Manufactured Product segment and Mini-mill segment were determined to be non-core upon the conclusion of the Corporation's strategic review in 2004. The decision was made to sell these businesses as part of a broader capital raising process aimed at generating the cash flow and financing required to implement the Corporation's strategic capital expenditure plan at its core-integrated steel making facilities.

All of these businesses have been presented as discontinued operations resulting in the retroactive restatement of the consolidated financial statements to isolate the earnings (loss) and cash flows associated with these businesses as discontinued operations.

Mini-mill Segment

AltaSteel

AltaSteel is a wholly owned subsidiary with its plant and head office located near Edmonton, Alberta. AltaSteel produces grinding rod, merchant quality and special quality bars, and ballstock. On December 1, 2005 the Corporation entered into a definitive purchase and sale agreement to sell the shares of AltaSteel, which included its 50% investment in both MOLY-COP Canada ("MOLY-COP") – see Manufactured Products Segment – and GenAlta Recycling Inc. ("Genalta") to Moly Cop Steel Inc., an affiliate of Scaw International Sarl. The Court approved this transaction on December 16, 2005. The transaction closed on January 31, 2006 for gross proceeds of $77 million (subject to final working capital adjustment). During the fourth quarter of 2005, Stelco recorded a pre-tax curtailment loss of $12 million related to the pension and other benefit plans at AltaSteel. Based on information as of December 31, 2005, a net pre-tax gain of approximately $11 million is expected to be recorded in the first quarter of 2006, subject to post-closing adjustment.

Norambar

Norambar is a wholly owned subsidiary located in Contrecœur, Quebec and manufactures billets, automotive leaf spring flat bars, rebar, merchant quality and special quality bars, and railway related products. On November 23, 2005, the Corporation entered into a definitive purchase and sale agreement to sell the shares of Norambar to Mittal Canada Inc. as part of a sale that also included its investment in wholly owned subsidiary Fers et Métaux Recyclés Ltée ("Fers et Métaux") and the shares of Stelwire and Stelfil – see Manufactured Products Segment. The Court approved this transaction on December 12, 2005. The transaction closed on February 1, 2006 generating gross proceeds of $30 million (subject to final working capital adjustment). During the fourth quarter of 2005, Stelco recorded a pre-tax curtailment loss of $10 million related primarily to the pension plans at Norambar. Based on information as of December 31, 2005, a further net pre-tax loss of approximately $28 million is expected to be recorded in the first quarter of 2006 relating to Norambar, subject to post-closing adjustment.

Manufactured Products Segment

Stelwire

Stelwire operates plants in both Hamilton and Burlington, Ontario, and, as a wholly owned subsidiary, is one of North America's largest producers of steel wire and wire products. Stelwire is part of the previously noted sale to Mittal Canada Inc. that closed on February 1, 2006. During the fourth quarter of 2005, Stelco Inc. recorded a pre-tax curtailment loss of $8 million related to the pension plans at Stelwire. Based on information as of December 31, 2005, a further pre-tax loss of approximately $11 million is expected to be recorded in the first quarter of 2006, subject to post-closing adjustment.

Stelfil

Stelfil is located in Lachine, Quebec and produced wire and wire products as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Corporation. Stelfil was part of the previously mentioned sale to Mittal Canada Inc. that closed on February 1, 2006. Stelco Inc. recorded a pre-tax curtailment loss of $5 million during the fourth quarter of 2005 related to both the pension and other benefit plans of Stelfil. Based on information as of December 31, 2005, a further pre-tax loss of approximately $4 million is expected to be recorded upon closing of the sale in 2006, subject to post-closing adjustment.

Stelpipe

The sale of Stelpipe's 16" pipe mill, which had been idled since 1998, was completed during fourth quarter 2004. Net proceeds of $1 million were received with a corresponding pre-tax gain recorded as the assets were fully amortized.

Stelpipe is a wholly owned subsidiary located in Welland, Ontario which manufactured a number of pipe and tubular products. On October 31, 2005 the Corporation sold substantially all of Stelpipe's assets to Lakeside Steel Corporation ("Lakeside Steel"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Romspen Investment Corporation. As part of the agreement, Stelco retained all of the pension and benefit obligations of Stelpipe's existing retirees. The pre-tax loss related to this asset sale was $51 million. This includes settlement and curtailment losses of $21 million related to the pension and other benefit plans of the employees transferred to Lakeside Steel.

Welland Pipe

On March 7, 2003, the Corporation permanently closed its wholly owned subsidiary, Welland Pipe, a manufacturer of large-diameter pipe located in Welland, Ontario. The primary assets of the company were two pipe mills, a spiral-weld and U and O pipe mill, which were sold during 2004 and 2005 resulting in a pre-tax gain on sale of $6 million and $4 million, respectively.

The property and plant of Welland Pipe were listed for sale in March 2005. In January 2006, the Corporation entered into a purchase and sale agreement, which is subject to a number of conditions. If all conditions are met, the sale is expected to close in the second quarter of 2006. The net book value of these assets is nominal.

Camrose Pipe

Camrose Pipe was a partnership situated in Camrose, Alberta which manufactured small- and large-diameter pipe. The Corporation held a 40% interest in this partnership. The sale, with gross proceeds of $23 million, closed in the second quarter 2005. The resulting pre-tax gain of $4 million from the sale is included in discontinued operations during second quarter 2005. Netted in the pre-tax gain is a settlement loss of approximately $5 million relating to the Corporation's share of Camrose Pipe's pension and other benefit plans.

MOLY-COP Canada

MOLY-COP is located in Kamloops, British Columbia and produces forged grinding balls for the mining and mineral industry. AltaSteel, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Corporation, has a 50% ownership interest in this partnership. All of the ballstock processed at this plant was acquired from AltaSteel. MOLY-COP was sold as part of the previously mentioned sale to Moly Cop Steel Inc. that closed on January 31, 2006.

Future income taxes

Future income tax assets are recognized to the extent that realization is considered more likely than not. The assessment as to the future realization of future income tax assets, including loss carry-forwards, is conducted on a company-by-company basis for the Stelco group of businesses. Realization of future income tax assets is dependent upon the availability of sufficient taxable income within the carry-forward periods. The assessment of realization is based upon the weight of evidence at the respective balance sheet date.

While the Corporation and its subsidiaries recognize future income tax assets where applicable, a future income tax asset valuation allowance of $289 million for continuing operations is recorded as of December 31, 2005 ($307 million as of December 31, 2004) to reduce the consolidated net future income tax asset.

Financing during CCAA proceedings

To ensure the Corporation has sufficient liquidity to fund the ordinary course of operations for the duration of the CCAA process, Debtor-in-Possession ("DIP") financing was secured. In addition, an accommodation agreement to the Corporation's $350 million revolving operating credit facility was negotiated as the CCAA filing was an event of default under its terms and conditions.

DIP Financing

This financing is with CIT Business Credit Canada Inc., General Electric Capital Canada Inc., and BABC Global Finance Inc. (the "Lenders"), participating in the same percentages as in the $350 million revolving credit facility.

The agreement includes Stelco Inc. as well as Stelpipe, Welland Pipe, and CHT Steel (collectively, the "Subsidiary Companies") and is for $75 million as a revolving line of credit. Stelwire was included in the agreement prior to its sale on February 1, 2006. The DIP is secured by a second charge on the receivables, inventory and general intangibles and a first charge on property, plant, and equipment of Stelco Inc. Each of the Subsidiary Companies, excluding Stelwire as noted above, has guaranteed payment of the Borrower's obligations and provided Lenders' liens on all their assets as security.

An amendment to the DIP agreement was negotiated on December 1, 2005 extending the maturity date to the earliest of (i) March 31, 2006; (ii) the effective date of a CCAA Plan; and iii) termination of the $350 million revolving credit facility. The DIP agreement was subsequently amended on December 31, 2005 modifying certain covenants associated with this credit facility.

Interest rates are Canadian prime rate plus 4%, U.S. base rate plus 4%, or unused facility fee margin of 0.5%. A commitment fee of 0.5% remains from the initial revolving line of credit dated March 8, 2004 and is to be paid at the time of the first drawing on this loan.

Accommodation Agreement

Under the accommodation agreement dated January 29, 2004 (the "Accommodation Agreement"), the lenders agreed (i) to continue to make the credit facilities available; (ii) to make certain amendments to the revolving operating credit facility; and (iii) to forbear exercising remedies under the revolving operating credit facility as a result of the CCAA filing event of default.

Based on an extension granted December 1, 2005, this Accommodation Agreement (and the term of the $350 million revolving operating credit facility) will expire at the earliest of (i) March 31, 2006; (ii) the effective date of a CCAA Plan; (iii) termination of the DIP facility; and (iv) the date at which the Lenders shall have terminated the forbearance under the terms of the Accommodation Agreement due to a further event of default.

Interest rates under the Accommodation Agreement are (i) prime rate loans – prime rate plus 2.50%; (ii) U.S. base rate loans – U.S. base rate plus 2.50%; (iii) LIBOR loans – LIBOR plus 4%; (iv) Banker's acceptance drawing fee – 4%; (v) issuance of any letter of credit – 4%.

One ERP system remains under development for which the implementation of the first phase is targeted for the second quarter of 2006.

(1) The CCAA filing was an event of default under the $150 and $125 million debentures and $90 million convertible debentures. The Corporation defaulted on a $47 million financing agreement in October 2004 when a scheduled payment was not made. As a result, both debentures, the convertible debentures and the financing were due and payable immediately or subject to immediate acceleration, subject to the provisions of the Initial Order (see Note 1).

(2) On March 10, 2004, the Corporation did not make the quarterly installment on the term loan associated with the Stelco Hamilton plate mill which resulted in a default of the debt. This debt is a liability of a wholly owned subsidiary of Stelco Inc., which is not an Applicant under the CCAA filing described in Note 1. On October 13, 2004, the agent for the lenders of the term loan notified Stelco Inc. that, as a result of the default in payment, Stelco Inc. was obligated to pay under a tolling agreement between Stelco Inc. and the subsidiary an amount equal to the amount owing under the term loan. Net proceeds from the sale of the plate mill assets (see Note 5) have and will be used to partially satisfy this obligation. A claim of $12 million, representing the expected shortfall after asset sales proceeds are applied was filed and accepted in the fourth quarter of 2005 (Note 7). Interest continues to be calculated in accordance with the terms of the credit agreement.

Repayments of long-term debt related to continuing operations of non-Applicants over the next five years amount to $23 million in 2006, $13 million in 2007, and $7 million in 2008. These repayments do not include debt subject to compromise or repayments relating to discontinued operations.

(a) The debentures mature on November 30, 2009 but were redeemable after November 30, 1999 at the option of the Corporation at a redemption price equal to the greater of the Canada Yield Price and par. Canada Yield Price means, in effect, a price for the debentures calculated on the business day preceding the date on which the Corporation gave notice of redemption, to provide a yield to maturity equal to the yield on a non-callable Government of Canada bond, issued at 100% of its principal amount with a term to maturity equal to the remaining term to maturity of the debentures, plus 0.40%. As noted above, these debentures are currently in default.

(b) The effective interest rate on the debentures is 16.65%. The debentures were convertible at the option of the holder into Series A Convertible Common Shares ("Shares") of the Corporation at any time prior to the maturity date at a conversion price of $4.50 per share. The debentures were redeemable by the Corporation, under certain circumstances, on and after February 1, 2005. The Corporation had the option to pay interest in cash, or by the issuance to a Trustee of Shares, the proceeds of the sale of which would be used to discharge the interest payment to the holder. The Corporation had the option to repay the principal amount of the debentures, at redemption or maturity, in cash or by the issuance of Shares directly to the holder. As a result of the change in accounting policy referred to in Note 3, the debentures have been reclassified as a component of long-term debt with an initial allocation of $67 million to the principal element. The balance, $23 million, remains in equity and was allocated to the value of the debenture holders' conversion option at the date of issue.

As a further result of the filings described in Note 1, the Corporation recorded in first quarter 2004 a reorganization charge of $15 million (see Note 4) in order to reflect the convertible debenture balance at the principal amount of $90 million and the convertible debentures have been classified as liabilities subject to compromise (see Note 7).
(c) The debentures matured on February 15, 2006 and were redeemable at any time at the option of the Corporation at a redemption price equal to the greater of the Canada Yield Price and par. Canada Yield Price means, in effect, a price for the debentures calculated on the business day preceding the date on which the Corporation gave notice of redemption, to provide a yield to maturity equal to the yield on a non-callable Government of Canada bond, issued at 100% of its principal amount with a term to maturity equal to the remaining term to maturity of the debentures, plus 0.50%. As noted above, these debentures are currently in default.
(d) Throughout the life of the debentures, upon the occurrence of both a designated event and a rating decline, a holder of debentures may require the Corporation to purchase all or any portion of such holder's debentures unless a rating recovery has occurred. For these purposes, designated event includes significant changes in ownership, control or structure of the Corporation or membership of the Board of Directors or certain distributions of cash, property, or securities excluding regular dividends and distributions of non-redeemable and non-retractable shares of the Corporation.
(e) The Corporation had arranged financing with the service provider primarily relating to the development cost of new enterprise resource planning systems during the 24-month period beginning April 1, 2002, at an interest rate of 9.1% to a maximum of $47 million plus accrued interest. As a result of the failure to commence repayments in October 2004, as required under the financing agreement, the debt is currently in default.
(f) These term loans are secured by claims on the assets of the borrowers (various subsidiaries and joint ventures of the Corporation) and are payable in monthly, quarterly, or semi-annual installments ending on the maturity dates shown.

Note 18. Commitments and Contingencies

(a) Capital programs

The estimated cost to complete previously approved capital programs of continuing operations is $123 million. Of this amount $67 million relates to Phase 2 of the Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill upgrade. An additional $9 million pertains to steam generators for both Integrated Steel plants.

(b) Operating leases

Future minimum rental payments required under operating leases at continuing operations that have initial or remaining lease terms in excess of one year at December 31, 2005 are:

2006	$ 10
2009	2
2010	1
Subsequent to 2010	1
Total operating leases	$ 23

(c) Contingencies

Various lawsuits and claims, other than matters arising out of the filings as described in Note 1 and the claims process as described in Note 7, are pending by and against the Corporation and provisions have been recorded where appropriate under liabilities subject to compromise. In addition, as a result of the filings as described in Note 1, proceedings related to matters arising prior to January 29, 2004 are stayed and suspended and are subject to compromise under the CCAA process.

In addition, a $350 million lawsuit was launched against the Corporation by Georgian Windpower Corporation ("GWC") relating to a Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") and Agreement to Enter into a Land Lease Agreement ("AELLA") that the Corporation terminated in accordance with its provisions in April 2005. As ordered by the Court on June 28, 2005, the claim relating to the MOU should be removed from the statement of claim and dismissed. This ruling was overturned by the Ontario Court of Appeal in January 2006. With respect to that portion of the claim that relied on the AELLA, the Court held that the AELLA portion of the claim could proceed and that the stay would be lifted to allow it to be initiated and filed, but that no further action may be taken by GWC until the Corporation emerges from CCAA protection except with leave of the Court. As a result of the Ontario Court of Appeal decision, both the MOU and ALLEA will survive the CCAA process. The result of this claim is not determinable at this time and consequently the Corporation has not recorded any provisions in the consolidated financial statements.

Note 19. Capital Stock and Dividends

(a) Authorized shares

Under the Canada Business Corporations Act, the Corporation is authorized to issue, in series, unlimited numbers of Preferred Shares and Common Shares without nominal or par value.

The Common Shares were delisted from the Toronto Stock Exchange as at the close of trading on March 10, 2006, as these shares will be eliminated on Plan implementation with no value being attributed to them (Note 1).

(c) Dividends

No dividends were declared or paid in 2005 or 2004.

Shareholder rights plan (the "Rights Plan")

A shareholder rights plan was adopted on December 14, 1998, to give the Board of Directors and the shareholders sufficient time to consider the terms of a takeover bid and allow more time for the Board to pursue, if appropriate, other alternatives to maximize shareholder value. Pursuant to the Sanction Order, the Rights Plan terminates on the Plan Implementation Date (Note 1).

Note 20. Stock-based Compensation

Key Employee Stock Option Plan

Under the Key Employee Stock Option Plan ("KESOP"), 13,000,000 Convertible Common Shares are reserved for issuance, of which 3,114,653 shares remained available at December 31, 2005. Under the KESOP, the exercise price of each option equals the market price of the Corporation's Convertible Common Shares on the date of the grant. All options granted mature 10 years after the grant date and vest, or vested, 1/3 each year in the first three years after the date of the grant.

No stock options were exercised during 2005 or 2004.

The compensation cost for the grant made under the KESOP in 2004 was determined at the grant date using the fair value method by applying the Black-Scholes option-pricing model using the following assumptions:

Grant Date	January 5, 2004
Expected volatility	30%
Risk-free interest rate	3.60%
Expected life	4–6 years
Expected dividends	nil

The KESOP will terminate on the Plan Implementation Date pursuant to the Sanction Order (Note 1) and no options will remain outstanding.

Deferred Share Unit Plan

On May 1, 2001, the Board of Directors approved a Deferred Share Unit Plan (the "DSUP") for members of the Board and certain officers of the Corporation and its subsidiaries. The DSUP became effective on July 1, 2001. Under the terms of the DSUP, a Director may elect to receive all or a portion of his or her compensation, and certain officers may elect to receive all or a portion of certain elements of their compensation, in the form of notional Series A Convertible Common Shares of the Corporation (the "Shares"), which are referred to as deferred share units ("DSUs"). Annual elections are generally required. The number of DSUs to be credited to a "Unit holder's" account is determined by dividing the applicable amount of the compensation by the market value of the Shares at the time the compensation would otherwise have been paid. The DSUs are redeemable in cash in an amount equivalent to the number of DSUs in the unit holder's account, multiplied by the market value of the Shares at the time of redemption determined following retirement or termination of employment.

A summary of activity during 2005 and 2004 is as follows:

Note 22. Employee Future Benefits

The Corporation, its wholly owned business units, wholly owned subsidiaries, and joint ventures maintain a number of defined benefit and defined contribution plans providing benefits to most of its employees. Quantitative information provided in this note includes all of these plans either in total or, where indicated, as weighted averages. Qualitative information, such as details of benefits provided, refers to the plans at the Corporation and its wholly owned subsidiaries, and due to the number of employees covered by these plans relative to the plans at the joint ventures, is indicative of the factors that affect all employee future benefit cost.

Defined contribution plans

Total expense and cash payments for the Corporation's defined contribution pension plans were $3.1 million in 2005 ($8.6 million in 2004.

Defined benefit plans

The defined benefit plans provide pension, other retirement, and post-employment benefits to salaried employees hired previous to August 1, 1997, and to most hourly rated employees. Employees do not contribute to the plans that are maintained by the Corporation's business units and wholly owned subsidiaries.

Defined pension benefits for salaried employees are calculated based on an average of their highest five years earnings. Pensions payable from these plans are not indexed for inflation. Pension benefits for hourly rated employees are based on years of service multiplied by dollar factors in accordance with collective agreements in order to determine the monthly pension payment amount. Cost-of-living adjustments are provided for bargaining unit retirees in accordance with the collective agreements.

Other benefit plans provide health care benefits including dental, hearing, vision, prescription drugs, and hospital care to retirees, their spouses and dependants, and to the retirees' surviving spouses, and life insurance coverage on the retiree. In addition, other benefit plans provide compensated absence benefits in the form of vacation to be taken immediately before retirement if certain service requirements are met.

Estimated average remaining service life

The estimated average remaining service life of active employees covered by the defined benefit pension plans for both 2005 and 2004 ranges from 6 to 14 years. The estimated average remaining service life of active employees covered by the defined benefit plans providing other benefits ranges from 8 to 14 years in both 2005 and 2004.

Cash payments to benefit plans

Total cash payments to employee future benefits plans, including cash contributed by the Corporation, its wholly owned business units, wholly owned subsidiaries, and joint ventures to funded pension plans, cash payments directly to employees for unfunded plans, and cash contributed to its defined contribution plans, was $211 million in 2005 ($165 million in 2004). These amounts include payments to the Ontario Pension Benefit Guarantee Fund (PBGF) of $16 million in 2005 and $10 million in 2004. The Corporation elected to designate its four principal pension plans (Stelco Inc. and Stelco Lake Erie hourly rated and salaried) as Qualifying Plans, pursuant to regulations under the Pension Benefits Act, which results in higher payments into the PBGF and waiver of solvency funding payments otherwise required. Effective on the date the Corporation emerges from CCAA, this election will no longer be available to the Corporation. As a result, Stelco and the Province of Ontario entered into a funding agreement with respect to its four principal pension plans aimed at substantially reducing or eliminating the solvency deficiencies in these plans over a ten-year period. The Province Agreement (Note 1) would require an initial upfront payment of $400 million into the four principal plans, less any contributions to plans already made in 2006. Annual funding under this arrangement will commence July 1, 2006 requiring Stelco to make a $65 million in equal monthly contributions in years 1 – 5 (half of which is required in 2006), increasing to $70 million in equal monthly contributions in years 6 – 10. Further information can be found in Note 1 under Pension Plan funding Arrangements.

Funding for the pension plans of other continuing operations are expected to be approximately $19 million in 2006. The Corporation currently expects that payments in 2006 for other benefit plans relating to its continuing operations to be approximately $53 million.

Measurement and valuation

The measurement date for the Corporation's principal employee future benefit plans is December 31. Actuarial valuations on the Corporation's four principal pension plans for 2005 funding purposes were carried out on December 31, 2004. These plans are subject to a valuation review every year. Actuarial valuations for the plans of subsidiaries are generally required every three years. Actuarial valuations for funding purposes were required at December 31, 2005, for the four principal plans (Stelco Inc. and Stelco Lake Erie hourly rated and salaried) and for some plans of the subsidiaries.

As required under fresh start accounting, a re-measurement will be required on the Plan Implementation Date and will apply to all plans, including the elimination of all actuarial losses and past service costs that were deferred immediately prior to the Plan Implementation Date. The subsequent annual reporting will continue to be on a calendar year basis commencing December 31, 2006.

Significant assumptions

The significant actuarial assumptions adopted are as follows (weighted average):
Accrued benefit obligation as of December 31:

	2005*		2004
	Pension benefit plans	Other benefit plans	Pension benefit plans	Other benefit plans
Discount rate	5.00%	5.00%	5.75%	5.96%
Expected long-term rate of return on plan assets	7.00%	8.50%	7.50%	8.50%
Estimated rate of compensation increase	4.00%	4.00%	4.00%	4.00%

Benefit costs for years ended December 31:

	2005*		2004
	Pension benefit plans	Other benefit plans	Pension benefit plans	Other benefit plans
Discount rate	5.75%	5.96%	6.00%	6.21%
Expected long-term rate of return on plan assets	7.50%	8.50%	7.50%	8.40%
Estimated rate of compensation increase	4.00%	4.00%	4.00%	4.00%

Assumed health care cost trend rates at December 31:

	2005*	2004
Initial health care cost trend rate	8.10%	8.00%
Cost trend rate declines to	4.50%	4.50%
Year that the rate reaches the rate it is assumed to remain at	2014	2013

* Reflects significant assumptions pertaining to continuing operations only.

Sensitivity analysis

Assumed health care cost trend rates have a significant effect on the amounts reported for the health care plans (included in Other benefit plans). A one-percentage-point change in the assumed health care cost trend rates for continuing operation plans would have the following effects for 2005:

(in millions) Increase (decrease)	One percentage point increase	One percentage point decrease
Total of service and interest cost	$ 13	$ (11)
Accrued benefit obligation	$ 202	$ (164)

Pension assumptions

Pension benefit obligations and the related effects on operations are calculated using actuarial models. In 2005, four critical assumptions – the discount rate, the retirement age, mortality, and expected return on assets – were important elements affecting plan cost and asset/liability measurement. Management evaluates three of these critical assumptions at least annually. Other assumptions involving demographic factors, such as mortality, are evaluated periodically and are updated to reflect expected future experience giving consideration to actual past experience. Actual results in any year will differ from assumptions.

Upon implementation of the CCAA Plan, the Corporation will review and update a number of the assumptions used to calculate employee future benefit obligations as required under fresh start accounting.

Note 23. Earnings (Loss) per Common Share

Interest on the convertible debentures is recorded in the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss) as interest on long-term debt and debt subject to compromise. This amount, net of tax, is added back to net earnings (loss) from continuing operations and net earnings (loss) in order to calculate fully diluted earnings (loss) from continuing operations and fully diluted earnings (loss) per common share. Fully diluted earnings (loss) per common share is calculated by applying the treasury stock method for the potential exercise of stock options, and assuming the dilutive effect of the conversion of all outstanding convertible debentures at the $4.50 per share conversion price applicable to these debentures.

($ in millions)	2005	2004
		Restated (Note 3 and 10)
Basic net earnings (loss) from continuing operations	$ (9)	$ 34
Convertible debentures – interest expense net of tax	6	6
Fully diluted net earnings (loss) from continuing operations	$ (3)	$ 40
Basic net earnings (loss)	(73)	64
Convertible debentures – interest expense net of tax	6	6
Fully diluted net earnings (loss)	$ (67)	$ 70
Weighted average number of common shares outstanding – basic	102,249,198	102,249,200
Incremental number of common shares assumed to be issued on the exercise of stock options	37,234	–
Common shares issued on the assumed conversion of convertible	20,000,000	20,000,000
Weighted average number of common shares outstanding – fully diluted	122,286,432	122,249,200
Options to purchase common shares not included in the above calculation*	4,745,013	5,131,352

* Exercise prices were greater than the average market price of the common shares during the periods.

In 2005, a basic net loss from continuing operations and a basic net loss were incurred, therefore options and convertible debentures related information have not been used to calculate fully diluted earnings per share from continuing operation and fully diluted earnings per share as both are anti-dilutive.

Note 24. Financial Instruments

Interest rate risk
The Corporation did not enter into any interest rate swap agreements during 2005 or 2004. As at December 31, 2005 or 2004, there were no interest rate swap agreements in place.

Foreign exchange risk
No foreign exchange contracts with arm's length counterparties were entered into in 2005 or 2004. Accordingly, none were outstanding as at December 31, 2005 or 2004.

Concentration of credit risk
The Corporation does not have significant exposure to any individual customer or counterparties. The major markets for the Corporation's products are the automotive sector, steel service centres, the construction industry, various industries that utilize pipe and tube products, and wire and wire products. Except in a few situations where the risk warrants it, the Corporation does not require collateral on trade receivables. The Corporation reviews its customers' credit histories before extending credit and conducts regular reviews of its existing customers' credit performances. Overall, credit risk related to the Corporation's trade receivables is limited due to the large number of customers in differing industries and geographical areas.

Fair values
The estimated fair value of the Corporation's long-term debt, including the portion due within one year and liabilities subject to compromise, is not reasonably determinable given the current status of the Corporation while under creditor protection (see Note 17). The carrying value of other financial instruments approximates fair value due to the short maturities or the terms and conditions attached to these instruments.

Note 25. Segmented Information

Discontinued Operations
Due to the restructuring of the Corporation's business, the operations of the Mini-mill segment (AltaSteel, Norambar, Genalta, and Fers et Métaux) and the Manufactured Products segment (Stelwire, Stelpipe, Stelfil, Camrose Pipe, MOLY-COP, and Welland Pipe) are discontinued and have been sold in whole or in part, or a sale is pending. Information relating to these businesses is contained in Note 10 – Discontinued Operations and is not disclosed below due to the related retroactive restatement of the consolidated financial statements.

Continuing Operations
The continuing operations of the Corporation, the Integrated Steel Segment, operate primarily within the North American market, as a group of businesses producing and marketing a wide range of steel products. Businesses in this segment produce raw materials (iron ore) and manufacture and sell slabs, hot rolled, cold rolled, and coated sheet, and bar. Intersegment sales are recorded at market value.

The following provides segmented information pertaining to the Integrated Steel Segment where the information cannot otherwise be found directly in the consolidated financial statements:

Note 26. Comparative Figures

As a result of the accounting involved with the non-core asset sales process in 2005, the consolidated statement of financial position is not directly comparable with that of the prior year. Reference should be made to Note 10 – Discontinued Operations for additional information.

Re: Bank of Nova Scotia—Project Crystal

Review of Template Financial Advisor Agreements

I have reviewed the following documents:

(i) Template Financial Advisor Agreement for MFDAs (identified on the Berkshire – TWC Financial Group Publications List as Document 4.01.02) (the "MFDA Advisor Agreement"); and

(ii) Template Financial Advisor Agreement for IDAs (identified on the Berkshire – TWC Financial Group Publications List as Document 4.01.03) (the "IDA Advisor Agreement").

For purposes of this review, I have assumed that the template agreements accurately represent the actual relationship between Berkshire Securities ("Berkshire") and their "franchised" MFDA and IDA advisors.

Based on my review of the MFDA Advisor Agreement and the IDA Advisor Agreement, I have the following concerns:

1. There is a risk that MFDA Advisors and IDA Advisors could be employees of Berkshire under applicable employment statutes and common law.

2. There is a smaller risk that the support staff employed by the MFDA Advisors and IDA Advisors could be employees of Berkshire under applicable employment statutes and common law.

Given the present level of our knowledge about the actual relationships between Berkshire and the MFDA and IDA Advisors, it is not possible at this time to estimate the magnitude of these risks.

I deal with each of these concerns in more detail below.

1. Could MFDA and IDA Advisors be "employees" of Berkshire?

From my review of the MFDA and IDA Advisor Agreements, it appears that the intent is to establish a franchisor/franchisee-like relationship between Berkshire and the MFDA and IDA Advisors. A franchise has been defined as essentially the grant of a right to operate a business, which business involves the use of the franchisor's trade mark or trade name and some substantial control of the franchisee's operation of the business by the franchisor.

In most cases, a franchisee is not the employee of the franchisor for purposes of employment statutes or the common law. Thus, for instance, the franchisor is not required to withhold and remit income taxes, CPP and EI contributions from the franchisee's earnings, and is not liable to provide statutory termination pay or notice, statutory severance pay, common law notice, etc. to the franchisee on termination of the franchise relationship.

However, franchisees have on occasion been held to be "employees" of their franchisors. The decisive factors or indeces considered by a court or tribunal appear to include:

(a) whether the franchisor exercises a high degree of control over substantially all aspects of business operations, such as opening hours, maintenance of the premises, advertising, insurance, purchasing, banking, overtime assignment; hiring, supervision and termination of employees;

(b) whether the franchisee has the "chance of profit" and "risk of loss" associated with the business;

(c) whether the franchisor retains ownership of the premises and merchandise;

(d) whether the franchisor determines the quantity, price and kind of merchandise to stock/sell;

(e) whether the franchise agreement can be terminated on relatively short notice or at the discretion of the franchisor;

(f) whether the franchisor is committed to working relatively long hours in the franchise operation and is prohibited from working elsewhere.

The fact that the franchisee may have employees of its own is not necessarily decisive. Indeed, where a franchisee is found to be an employee of the franchisor, the employees of the franchisee may also be found to be employees of the franchisor.

Based on my review of the MFDA and IDA Agreements, the following are some of the elements of the Agreements which provide support for the position that the Advisors are not employees of Berkshire:

- MFDA and IDA Advisors are responsible for incurring the expenses necessary to earn commissions on the sale of financial products, and such expenses include, but are not limited to, the Advisors' administrative staff and employees, rent, property and casualty insurance, office costs, computer hardware. etc.

- MFDA and IDA Advisors are free to arrange for support staff to assist them in their practices, and agree that such individuals are not employees of Berkshire. The Advisors are responsible for the hiring, supervision, performance appraisals and termination of the support staff, and all expenses related to staff terminations.

- Berkshire charges back to MFDA and IDA Advisors any amounts Berkshire is required to pay in respect of any claim, demand, threat, suit, action etc. brought by any of the Advisor's support staff or former staff.

- An MFDA Advisor's or an IDA Advisor's "payout" is determined by the gross commissions and revenues earned by the Advisor, and there is no minimum level of commissions or revenues set in the Agreement.

- MFDA and IDA Advisors have no authority to incur any liability or debt on the account of Berkshire or purchase any goods or services or enter into any contracts or leases in the name of Berkshire.

- Both MFDA and IDA Advisors assume full financial responsibility for debts which result from the Advisor taking or having received incorrect or unclear trading instructions from clients or others or which are the result of the Advisor not conveying clear and correct instructions to Berkshire or any affiliate. Advisors also assume full financial responsibility for any amounts owing by clients pursuant to the Rules in respect of that client's trades.

- IDA Advisors remain personally responsible and liable for payment of all their financial obligations.

- IDA Advisors appear to own their respective "book of business" and can sell or transfer it.

- Either the Advisors or Berkshire can terminate the respective Advisor Agreement on 30 days written notice.

- MFDA and IDA Advisors who leave Berkshire are permitted to take their own client files to their new dealer, unless the client requests otherwise. Berkshire also agrees that if the Advisor leaves Berkshire without seeking to harm Berkshire, Berkshire will not attempt to approach clients handled by the Advisor to leave their accounts with Berkshire.

Conversely, the following are some of the elements of the MFDA and IDA Advisor Agreements which provide support for the position that the MFDS and IDA Advisors may be employees of Berkshire:

- Berkshire sponsors the Advisors' registration with the governing Securities Commission and the MFDA/IDA.

- Both MFDA and IDA Advisors are required by securities legislation to devote their "full time and attention" to their practices as Berkshire advisors. It appears that securities legislation or regulation requires Berkshire to control other aspects of the Advisors' activities and the manner in which they run their business as well.

- Berkshire reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to reprimand, fine or suspend an IDA Advisor.

- Both MFDA and IDA Advisors agree that they will not provide, sell, offer for sale or advise any client in respect of any products or services which are not specifically authorized by Berkshire.

- Both MFDA and IDA Advisors agree not to accept any referral fees, etc. from any source in respect of business conducted by the Advisor through Berkshire without Berkshire's prior written consent.

- Berkshire is liable to clients and other third parties for the MFDA and IDA Advisors' acts and omissions relating to Berkshire business "as if [the Advisor] were an employee of Berkshire". Note however, that this appears to be a regulatory requirement, and the Advisors also agree to indemnify Berkshire for any claims made against Berkshire by reason of the Advisor's conduct or alleged conduct in carrying out his/her practice.

2. Could Advisors' support staff be "employees" of Berkshire?

The question of who is the "true" employer of an MDFA or IDA Advisor's support staff under applicable employment statutes or the common law will depend on factors including the following:

(a) which party exercises direction and control over the support staff;

(b) which party bears the burden of remuneration (ie payment of salary, benefits);

(c) which party hires the support staff;

(d) which party imposes discipline on the support staff;

(e) which party has the authority to dismiss the employees;

(f) whether there is an intention to create the relationship of employer and employees.

My review of the MFDA and IDA Advisor Agreements indicates that it is probably more likely than not that the Advisor's support staff would not be found to be employees of Berkshire. This conclusion would of course be subject to a further review of the actual relationships between Berkshire and its Advisors.

Pursuant to the MFDA and IDA Advisor Agreements, the MFDA and IDA Advisors are responsible for:

- deciding whether to hire support staff;
- hiring support staff;
- supervising support staff, including administration of performance appraisals;
- terminating support staff;
- complying with all legislation applicable to the relationship with support staff;
- all amounts which Berkshire is required to pay in respect of any claims brought by support staff or former support staff against Berkshire and/or the Advisor; and
- instructing Berkshire as to the Personal Payout to be calculated for a registered assistant;

The Agreements are silent with respect to who has liability to pay the support staff salary, which should provide support for the position that the Advisors have that responsibility.

On the other hand, Berkshire retains the right to require an MFDA or IDA Advisor to terminate their relationship with a support staff member if that staff member puts or may put Berkshire at legal or financial risk or may risk Berkshire's reputation. This is one indication that Berkshire has some control over the management of the support staff. In itself, however, it should not create an employment relationship between MFDA and IDA.

In addition, if an MFDA or IDA Advisor is found to be an employee of Berkshire, there is an enhanced possibility that the Advisor's support staff will also be found to be employees of Berkshire.

Notes and Instructions

1. This participation fee is payable by all reporting issuers, except in the case of investment funds. An investment fund that is a reporting issuer and that has an investment fund manager does not pay a corporate finance participation fee. The only investment funds that pay a corporate finance participation fee are those that are reporting issuers and that do not have an investment fund manager.

2. The capitalization of income trusts or investment funds that have no investment fund manager, which are listed or posted for trading, or quoted on, a marketplace in either or both of Canada or the U.S. should be determined with reference to the formula for Class 1 Reporting Issuers. The capitalization of any other investment fund that has no investment fund manager should be determined with reference to the formula for Class 2 Reporting Issuers.

3. All monetary figures should be expressed in Canadian dollars and rounded to the nearest thousand. Closing market prices for securities of Class 1 and Class 3 Reporting Issuers should be converted to Canadian dollars at the daily noon exchange rate in effect at the end of the issuer's last financial year, if applicable.

4. A reporting issuer shall pay the appropriate participation fee no later than the date on which it is required to file its annual financial statements.

5. The number of listed securities and published market closing prices of such listed securities of a reporting issuer may be based upon the information made available by a marketplace upon which securities of the reporting issuer trade, unless the issuer has knowledge that such information is inaccurate and the issuer has knowledge of the correct information.

6. Where the securities of a class or series of a Class 1 Reporting Issuer have traded on more than one marketplace in Canada, the published closing market prices shall be those on the marketplace upon which the highest volume of the class or series of securities were traded in that financial year. If none of the class or series of securities were traded on a marketplace in Canada, reference should be made to the marketplace in the United States on which the highest volume of that class or series were traded.

7. Where the securities of a class or series of securities of a Class 3 Reporting Issuer are listed on more than one exchange, the published closing market prices shall be those on the marketplace on which the highest volume of the class or series of securities were traded in the relevant financial year.

Creditor Protection and Restructuring

On January 29, 2004 (the "Filing Date"), Stelco Inc. and certain related entities filed for protection under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act ("CCAA") and obtained an order (the "Initial Order") from the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (the "Court") granting it creditor protection under CCAA. On the same date, Stelco made a concurrent petition for recognition of the Initial Order and ancillary relief under Section 304 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code (the "U.S. Section 304 Proceedings"). The Canadian proceedings include Stelco and its wholly owned subsidiaries, Stelpipe Ltd. ("Stelpipe"), CHT Steel Company Inc. ("CHT Steel"), Welland Pipe Ltd. ("Welland Pipe"), and formerly held wholly owned subsidiary Stelwire Ltd. ("Stelwire") which are collectively referred to as the "Applicants". The U.S. Section 304 Proceedings include Stelco, Stelwire, and Stelpipe. The Corporation's other subsidiaries and joint ventures are not included in the expected proceedings. During the stay period, the Applicants were authorized to continue operations. Ernst & Young Inc. was appointed by the Court as monitor (the "Monitor") in the Canadian proceedings and has been reporting to the Court from time to time on the Applicants' cash flow and on other developments during the proceedings.

The Initial Order and the U.S. Section 304 Proceedings provided for an initial stay period of 30 days, which has subsequently been extended to the earlier of March 31, 2006 and the implementation of the CCAA Plan (the "Plan Implementation Date"). The purpose of the Initial Order and stay of proceedings was to provide the Applicants with relief designed to stabilize their operations and business relationships with their customers, suppliers, employees, and creditors and to provide them with time to develop the CCAA Plan.

The CCAA proceedings triggered defaults under substantially all debt obligations of the Applicants (see Notes 7 and 17 to the Consolidated Financial Statements). The Initial Order generally stayed actions against the Applicants including steps to collect indebtedness incurred by the Applicants prior to the Filing Date and actions to exercise control over the Applicants' property. The Initial Order granted the Applicants the authority to pay outstanding and future wages, salaries, employee pension contributions and benefit payments, and other obligations to employees; the costs of goods and services, both operating and of a capital nature, provided or supplied after the date of the Initial Order; rent under existing arrangements payable after the date of the filing; and principal, interest, and other payments to holders of security in respect of the property of the Applicants if the amount secured by such security is, in the reasonable opinion of the applicable Applicant, with the concurrence of the Monitor, less than or equal to the fair value of such security, having regard to, among other things, the priority of such security.

Conditions to CCAA Plan Implementation

The implementation of the CCAA Plan is subject to a number of conditions, including settlement of the terms of the agreements governing the New ABL Facility, the Secured Revolving Term Loan, the FRNs, the New Province Note, the Pension Arrangements, the New Warrants and the warrants to be issued to the Province (as described below under Overview of the CCAA Plan). These agreements and related documents must be settled with the parties that will be entering into them as well as with certain other parties that, pursuant to the terms of the CCAA Plan, must be satisfied with or not object to the terms of these agreements.

Stelco is in the process of negotiating the terms of these agreements and documents with the applicable stakeholders as well as is seeking to satisfy other conditions to implementation. If the conditions are not satisfied subject to the right of various parties to waive compliance, the CCAA Plan will not be implemented.

CCAA Plan

By order dated October 4, 2005, the Applicants were authorized to call and conduct meetings of affected creditors (as defined in the CCAA Plan) on November 15, 2005 to consider and vote on their plan of arrangement and reorganization dated October 3, 2005 (the "Original Plan"), as amended from time to time. As a result of extensive negotiations with stakeholders, the Original Plan was amended and on December 9, 2005, a majority in number of Affected Creditors representing more than two-thirds in value of the Affected Claims (as defined in the CCAA Plan) of each class voted to approve and adopt the CCAA Plan.

By order dated January 20, 2006 (the "Sanction Order"), the CCAA Plan was sanctioned by the Court and, among other things, the Court:

a) declared that the CCAA Plan was fair and reasonable and in the best interests of the Applicants;
b) authorized the Applicants to take all steps necessary to implement the CCAA Plan and the transactions contemplated by it;
c) authorized Stelco to file Articles of Reorganization with effect on the Plan Implementation Date, which will have the effect of eliminating the existing common shares, and create new common shares of Stelco (the "New Common Shares") that will be issued to affected creditors and others under the CCAA Plan;
d) ordered that, as of the Plan Implementation Date, Stelco's existing shareholders' rights plan agreement and all warrants, options and agreements to purchase existing common shares of Stelco will be of no further force or effect and cancelled;
e) ordered that, as of the Plan Implementation Date, the Applicants will be released from affected claims and certain other matters and that the directors and officers of the Applicants and certain others will be released from all claims relating to, among other things, the business and affairs of the Applicants, the CCAA Plan and proceedings, excluding claims arising from fraud, wilful misconduct and some other specific matters;
f) ordered that the term of office of the existing board of directors of Stelco will terminate on the Plan Implementation Date and appointed nine new directors of Stelco as of that time;
g) ordered that the Applicants will be released from all CCAA Charges (as defined in the Initial Order) against their property and assets created by the Initial Order, with effect from the Plan Implementation Date or, in the case of the $350 Million Credit Facility and DIP Credit Facility (as those terms are defined below), the date of delivery of a release from the lenders; and
h) ordered that the stay of proceedings under the CCAA will terminate on the earlier of the Plan Implementation Date and March 3, 2006 (subsequently extended to March 31, 2006).

On February 9, 2006, an order was obtained in the U.S. Section 304 Proceedings that provides that the CCAA Plan and the Sanction Order are enforceable in the United States.

Status of Claims Process

The Applicants initiated a process for certain creditors to file Proofs of Claim against the Applicants for Claims (as defined in the CCAA Plan) incurred prior to January 29, 2004 and for Restructuring Claims (as defined in the CCAA Plan). The claims bar date for filing Proofs of Claim for Claims arising prior to January 29, 2004 and for Restructuring Claims arising prior to December 17, 2004 was set at January 31, 2005. The claims bar date for filing Proofs of Claim for Restructuring Claims arising after December 17, 2004 was set at October 26, 2005.

A dispute mechanism was put in place for those Claims that could not be resolved by way of negotiation with the Applicants and/or the Monitor. These Claims were forwarded to a Claims Officer providing the claimant filed a notice of dispute by the earlier of eight business days following receipt of a dispute package on March 7, 2005 (or, in respect of a Restructuring Claim arising after December 17, 2004, on October 26, 2005). Outstanding Claims were reviewed and ruled on by the Claims Officer. Decisions of the Claims Officer may be approved by the Court within five business days of notification of the Claims Officer's decision. All determinations from the Court regarding appealed Claims are final for the purpose of recording Claims. See Note 7 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for the Claim Summary as at December 31, 2005.

Overview of the CCAA Plan

Treatment of Affected Claims

Under the CCAA Plan, the claims of the Affected Creditors will not be satisfied in full by the consideration being distributed under the CCAA Plan (see Note 7 to the Consolidated Financial Statements). Stelco is seeking to implement the CCAA Plan by March 31, 2006.

Each Affected Creditor will receive its pro rata share of the following:

a) New Secured Floating Rate Notes ("FRNs") in the US dollar equivalent of $275 million;
b) 1,100,000 New Common Shares of Stelco;
c) cash in the amount of $137.5 million (the "Cash Pool") subject in the case of each Affected Creditor to its right to elect to receive New Common Shares instead of cash at $5.50 per New Common Share (the "Share Election"), up to a maximum of 5,264,000 New Common Shares in the aggregate for all Affected Creditors so electing to do so; and
d) warrants for 1,418,500 New Common Shares (the "New Warrants") representing, if exercised, approximately 5% of the fully diluted New Common Shares of Stelco at the Plan Implementation Date. The New Warrants will have an exercise price of $11.00 per New Common Share and have a seven-year term.

As a result of Share Elections filed by the Affected Creditors, the total amount of cash to be issued to Affected Creditors under the CCAA Plan will be $108,548,000 and the electing Affected Creditors will receive 5,264,000 New Common Shares pursuant to the Share Elections.

Based on the current estimate of proven claims of $546 million (see Note 7 to the Consolidated Financial Statements), Affected Creditors will receive, for each $1,000 of proven claim, approximately the following amounts:

a) $502 of FRN's;
b) two new Common Shares; and
c) $251 of cash from the Cash Pool, subject to any Share Election at $5.50 per share; and
d) a pro rata share of the New Warrants.

Plan Sponsor Agreement

The new equity of the restructured Stelco, in the form of New Common Shares, will be divided among three groups under the CCAA Plan: the Affected Creditors, the Province of Ontario (the "Province") and the Equity Sponsors. The Affected Creditors are acquiring their portion of the equity as part of the consideration distributed under the CCAA Plan. The Province is to obtain its portion by virtue of warrants to purchase 851,100 New Common Shares negotiated as part of the financing it is providing to Stelco described below (wherein it receives warrants representing, if exercised, 3% of the fully diluted New Common Shares at the Plan Implementation Date) and the Equity Sponsors are acquiring their equity interests for cash pursuant to a Plan Sponsor Agreement ("the PSA") between the Corporation and the Equity Sponsors.

Pursuant to the PSA, Tricap Management Limited ("Tricap"), Sunrise Partners Limited Partnership ("Sunrise") and Appaloosa Management LP ("Appaloosa") (collectively the "Equity Sponsors") agreed to purchase New Common Shares in Stelco at a price of $5.50 per share for proceeds of $108,548,000, which funds comprise the Cash Pool to be distributed to Affected Creditors. In addition, Sunrise and Appaloosa agreed to provide a stand-by commitment to purchase up to an additional 5,264,000 shares at $5.50 per share for an aggregate maximum stand-by commitment of $28,952,000 to supplement the Cash Pool to be paid to the Affected Creditors if the Share Elections did not result in a full take-up of the 5,264,000 New Common Shares available. The share elections resulted in a full take-up of the 5,264,000 New Common Shares. Therefore, the stand-by commitment was not required.

Proposed CCAA Plan Financing

The CCAA Plan is conditional upon a number of matters, including implementation of a number of agreements to secure new financing and a pension plan funding agreement with the Province. Stelco plans to raise new financing from the following sources:

- New ABL facility (asset based loan) $600 million
- New Secured Revolving term loan $375 million
- New Province Note $150 million

The finalization of the new financing are conditions precedent to the implementation of the CCAA Plan and are critical components of the liquidity and financing contemplated for the restructured Stelco.

New ABL Facility

On the Plan Implementation Date, the current $75 million Debtor-in-Possession Credit Facility (the "DIP Credit Facility") and existing $350 Million Credit Facility (the "$350 Million Credit Facility") which are due to expire no later than March 31, 2006 (see Note 13 to the Consolidated Financial Statements), are to be replaced by a new asset based lending facility (the "New ABL Facility"). The Corporation is in negotiations with lenders to provide this facility. The available amount of the New ABL Facility will be dependent upon the value of the underlying collateral, but will not exceed $600 million.

New Secured Revolving Term Loan

Pursuant to a term sheet/commitment letter, signed by Stelco on January 27, 2006, Tricap has agreed to provide a new secured revolving term loan (the "New Secured Revolving Term Loan") to Stelco in an amount of $375 million for a term of seven years from the Plan Implementation Date. The facility is revolving until the third anniversary of the Plan Implementation Date (the "Target Date"). On and after the Target Date, the facility may cease to revolve and any amount of the New Secured Revolving Term Loan outstanding on the Target Date will be repayable in full on the seventh anniversary of the Plan Implementation Date.

The New Secured Revolving Term Loan is conditional upon a number of matters, including Stelco adopting a financing and corporate structure acceptable to Tricap.

Stelco and Tricap entered into a restructuring agreement dated September 22, 2005 (the "Stelco/Tricap Restructuring Agreement") pursuant to which Tricap was to provide financing by way of a $350 million secured revolving term loan and support a rights offering in connection with the Original Plan. As a result of amendments to the Original Plan, including the elimination of the rights offering and changes to the financing, Tricap was paid a break fee of $11 million under the Stelco/Tricap Restructuring Agreement, which was recorded in reorganization items in the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss).

New Province Note

Subject to a number of conditions, including implementation of the CCAA Plan and the Province Agreement (defined below), the Province has agreed to provide Stelco with an advance by way of the New Province Note in the amount of $150 million. The loan is repayable on December 31, 2015 and can be repaid in cash or Stelco common shares and is subject to a 75% discount if the solvency deficiencies in Stelco's four main pension plans are eliminated on or before that date.

Federal Government Grant

The Federal Government of Canada has agreed to provide a $30 million cogeneration grant, which was announced on November 23, 2005. The federal contribution represents approximately 60% of the initial cost of the Corporation's near-term cogeneration projects. Stelco intends to spend $50 million towards those projects in 2006.

Non-Core Asset Sales

Subject to finalization of working capital adjustments under the respective purchase and sale agreements, gross proceeds from the sale of the remaining Non-Core Assets (AltaSteel, Norambar, Stelwire, and Stelfil) are anticipated to generate $107 million in cash in the first quarter of 2006.

These sources of liquidity will be used firstly to payout Stelco's existing $350 million Credit Facility and to make an upfront payment of $400 million to its four main pension plans on closing as outlined in the pension funding arrangements described below.

Pension Plan Funding Arrangements

Stelco and the Province entered into a restructuring agreement (the "Province Agreement"), that contemplates Stelco and the Province entering into a pension agreement, to provide for funding arrangements with respect to Stelco's four main pension plans aimed at substantially reducing or eliminating the solvency deficiencies in these plans over a ten-year period.

It is a condition of the CCAA Plan that Stelco and the Province enter into a Province Agreement, to be effective on the Plan Implementation Date containing the following key terms:

a) An obligation of Stelco on the Plan Implementation Date to make an initial upfront payment of $400 million to its four main pension plans less any contributions to plans already made in 2006;
b) Stelco will fund its four main pension plans in the following amounts in the years subsequent to plan implementation:
   i) Years 1 – 5: $65 million per year, payable monthly, commencing July 1, 2006; and
   ii) Years 6 – 10: $70 million per year, payable monthly;
c) Stelco will make additional pension plan payments to fund any solvency deficiency in the Stelco four main pension plans if Stelco generates free cash flow in excess of a formula both as defined in the Province Agreement and the proposed new regulations under the Pension Benefits Act in respect of Stelco's four main pension plans; and
d) Stelco will not be required to make any adjustments to its pension funding based on annual actuarial valuations up to December 31, 2015; and
e) Any future benefit improvements will be required to be funded in accordance with the Pension Benefits Act and will be in addition to the funding payments outlined above.

Board of Directors

The CCAA Plan contemplates a Board of Directors of the restructured Stelco comprised of nine directors. The PSA specifies that the Equity Sponsors shall have the right to name six of the nine directors with Tricap naming four and each of Sunrise and Appaloosa naming one. The PSA also provides that the other directors must be satisfactory to the Equity Sponsors.

Based on input from the Equity Sponsors, Stelco's existing Board of Directors approved the submission of the following list of directors who were named in the Sanction Order as the individuals to be appointed as the new directors of Stelco on the Plan Implementation Date:

- Mr. Courtney Pratt – current President and CEO of Stelco
- Mr. Pierre Dupuis – former Chief Operating Officer, Dorel Industries
- Mr. Cyrus Madon – Managing Partner, Tricap Management Limited (Tricap nominee)
- Mr. Peter Gordon – Managing Partner, Tricap Management Limited (Tricap nominee)
- Mr. Tony Molluso – President and CEO, Concert Industries (Tricap nominee)
- Mr. John Lacey – Chair of Alderwoods Group board of directors (Tricap nominee)
- Mr. Laurie Bennett – retired Ernst & Young LLP Audit partner (Sunrise nominee)
- Mr. Steven Cohn – Managing Director Albarez & Marsal, LLC (Appaloosa nominee)
- Mr. Dennis Belcher – former Executive Vice President, Scotiabank

The Province and the informal committee of the senior debenture holders have indicated to the Monitor that the proposed Board of Directors is satisfactory.

Employees

The Approved Plan does not require any concessions in terms of salaries, wages or pension and other benefits.

Secured Creditors

The CCAA Plan does not affect creditors with secured claims. The claims of the lenders pursuant to the $350 Million Credit Facility and the DIP Credit Facility (see Note 13 to the Consolidated Financial Statements) will be paid in full on or prior to the Plan Implementation Date.

Existing Shareholders

There is no value allotted to existing shares of Stelco under the CCAA Plan. The existing shares are to be exchanged into new redeemable shares at a ratio of 0.000001 new redeemable share for each existing share and such shares will be redeemed on the Plan Implementation Date for consideration at the rate of $0.01 for each new redeemable share with no amounts paid on account of fractional interests or if payment would be less than $10.00. The result is that shareholders of Stelco will receive no consideration in respect of their existing shares.

Corporate Reorganization

On February 14, 2006, the Court approved a reorganization of the Corporation pursuant to an arrangement under the CBCA. As a result, distinct portions of Stelco's business will be transferred into nine separate limited partnerships upon the Corporation's emergence from its Court-supervised restructuring process.

The following business units of Stelco Inc. have been identified for transfer to limited partnerships: Hamilton steel works; Lake Erie steel works; energy assets (primarily a future asset); vacant land; coke batteries; and mining interests (collectively the "Business Units").

The reorganization is expected to include the following steps:

- For each Business Unit, Stelco Inc. will incorporate a new subsidiary corporation to act as general partner of a limited partnership ("GPCo").
- Each GPCo will enter into a limited partnership agreement with Stelco Inc., as limited partner, to form a limited partnership (each, a "Limited Partnership").
- Stelco Inc. will convey to each of the Limited Partnerships the assets and undertaking of one of the business units in return for consideration consisting of a combination of Limited Partnership interests and liabilities.
- Each of the Limited Partnerships will assume the liabilities of Stelco associated with its business, the Hamilton Steel Limited Partnership and the Lake Erie Steel Limited Partnership will be responsible for all employment-related obligations. Stelco will remain primarily liable for all assumed pension and post-employment benefit obligations.
- A corporate office will be retained at Stelco, but operational management of each of the Business Units will be conducted within the respective Limited Partnerships by an active GPCo.
- All transactions between and among the Limited Partnerships and Stelco will be on fair market terms.

The CBCA Plan will be implemented concurrently with the implementation of the CCAA Plan. Orders authorizing leave to bring the arrangement application, approving the arrangement, and dispensing with any requirement to obtain shareholder approval of the CBCA arrangement (as there is no economic interest in the existing shares) were granted by the Court on February 14, 2006.

Discontinued Operations

The Corporation's 2004 strategic review determined that all of the businesses of the Mini-mill and Manufactured Products segments were non-core and as a result would not form part of Stelco's business going forward. The Corporation initiated a sales process in respect of these business units, which was approved by the Court on October 19, 2004 (as subsequently amended).

These business segments were previously defined as follows:

Mini-mills – AltaSteel Ltd. ("AltaSteel") including its 50% interest in GenAlta Recycling Inc. ("GenAlta"), and Norambar Inc. ("Norambar) including its wholly owned subsidiary Fers et Métaux Ltée ("Fers et Métaux").

Manufactured Products – Stelwire, Stelfil Ltée ("Stelfil"), Stelpipe, Welland Pipe, Camrose Pipe Company ("Camrose"), and MOLY-COP Canada ("Moly-cop").

During 2005, all of the non-core businesses in the segments identified above were sold or committed to be sold in whole or in part pursuant to sales approved by the Court. In total, the Corporation recorded a pre-tax loss in connection with the pending sale of its investment in these subsidiaries during 2005 of $78 million. This loss is included in discontinued operations on the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss). The components of this loss are as follows:

- $37 million of non-cash curtailment expenses relating to the pension and other benefit plans of all these subsidiaries;
- $24 million of non-cash settlement expenses on the pension and other benefit plans of Stelpipe and Camrose Pipe;
- $17 million of losses, primarily relating to the sale of substantially all of Stelpipe's assets, offset partially by a gain on the sale of Camrose Pipe, and on the sale of Welland Pipe's U and O pipe mill.

In 2004, a pre-tax write-down of $18 million was recorded to reduce the carrying value of property, plant, and equipment of Stelwire and Stelpipe to nil. In addition, a pre-tax gain of $7 million was recorded relating to the sale of assets at Welland Pipe and Stelpipe. Both of these were reflected in discontinued operations on the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss).

Welland Pipe

On March 7, 2003, the Corporation permanently closed the facilities of Welland Pipe. The primary assets of Welland Pipe were two pipe mills, a spiral weld and a U and O pipe mill, which were sold during the fourth quarter of 2004 and the second quarter of 2005 resulting in a pre-tax gain on sale of $6 million and $4 million respectively, both of which were recorded in discontinued operations on the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss).

The property and plant of Welland Pipe were listed for sale in March 2005. In January 2006, the Corporation entered into a purchase and sale agreement, which is subject to a number of conditions. If all these conditions are met, the sale is expected to close in the second quarter of 2006. The net book value of these assets is nominal.

Camrose

The sale of the Corporation's 40% partnership interest in Camrose to Canadian National Steel Corporation closed for gross proceeds of $23 million on April 20, 2005. The resulting pre-tax gain of $4 million, net of a settlement loss of $5 million relating to Camrose's pension and other benefits plans, was included in discontinued operations during second quarter of 2005.

Stelpipe

The sale of Stelpipe's 16" pipe mill, which had been idled since 1998, was completed during the fourth quarter of 2004. Net proceeds of $1 million were received with a corresponding pre-tax gain recorded as the assets were fully amortized.

The sale of substantially all of Stelpipe's assets to Lakeside Steel Corporation ("Lakeside Steel"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Romspen Investment Corporation, closed on October 31, 2005. The pre-tax loss recorded in 2005 on this sale was $51 million of which $21 million related to settlement and curtailment expenses both associated with the pension and other benefit plans related to the employees transferred to Lakeside Steel. The remainder reflects the loss on the sale of these assets.

AltaSteel

On December 1, 2005, the Corporation entered into a definitive purchase and sale agreement to sell the shares of AltaSteel, which included its 50% investment in both Moly-cop and GenAlta to Moly Cop Steel Inc., an affiliate of Scaw International Sarl. The Court approved this transaction on December 16, 2005. The transaction closed on January 31, 2006 for gross proceeds of $77 million (subject to final working capital adjustments). During the fourth quarter of 2005, Stelco recorded a pre-tax curtailment loss of $12 million relating to the pension and other benefit plans at AltaSteel. The transaction closed on January 31, 2006.

Norambar, Stelwire and Stelfil

On November 23, 2005, the Corporation entered into a definitive purchase and sale agreement to sell the shares of Norambar, Stelwire, and Stefil, including Norambar's wholly owned subsidiary Fers et Métaux, to Mittal Canada Inc. The Court approved this transaction on December 12, 2005. The transaction closed on February 1, 2006, generating gross proceeds of $30 million (subject to final working capital adjustments). During the fourth quarter of 2005, Stelco recorded a pre-tax curtailment loss of $23 million relating to the pension and other benefit plans at these subsidiaries. Despite the closing of the sale, Stelwire remains subject to the CCAA proceedings until implementation of the CCAA Plan or the proceedings otherwise end in respect of it.

Based on information as of December 31, 2005, the Corporation expects to record a further pre-tax, non-cash loss on its investment in these subsidiaries of approximately $32 million upon closing of these sales in the first quarter of 2006, subject to post-closing adjustment. This net pre-tax loss relates to settlement expenses on the pension and other benefit plans associated with AltaSteel, Norambar, Stelwire, and Stelfil, partially offset by gains on the sale of these investments.

Idled or Closed Facilities

The Corporation sold a number of idled facilities or mills over the course of 2004 and 2005.

CHT Steel

The Corporation announced the closure of CHT Steel on February 18, 2004. The sale of property, plant, and equipment was completed in various transactions during 2004. Net proceeds received were $4 million resulting in a pre-tax gain of $1 million, relating principally to the property and plant, which was reflected as a reduction to reorganization items on the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss). As at December 31, 2005, CHT Steel does not have any material assets other than restricted cash.

Stelco Hamilton – Plate Mill

The plate mill assets at Stelco Hamilton were sold on June 9, 2005. The gross proceeds of $25 million were secured by irrevocable letters of credit, which have and will continue to be drawn down in tandem with the progress made on dismantling of the equipment. All net proceeds will be used to partially satisfy the debt associated with these assets. The expected shortfall has been filed as a claim against Stelco Inc. (see Note 7 to the Consolidated Financial Statements). The carrying value of these assets was nil, therefore a pre-tax gain (net of $5 million fees) of $20 million was recorded during the second quarter of 2005.

Stelco Hamilton – Tin Mill

The tin mill assets at Stelco Hamilton have been idled since 1995 when the Corporation decided to exit the tinning line business. On December 20, 2005, the Corporation sold certain of these assets for net proceeds of approximately $1 million. The residual value of these assets were nil, therefore a corresponding pre-tax gain was included as a reduction to Costs on the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss) during the fourth quarter of 2005.

"Operating earnings (loss)" is a non-GAAP financial measure used by management to assess the performance of the Corporation. The Corporation's use of this measure may not be comparable to measures used by other companies. In accordance with GAAP, a reconciliation of Earnings (loss) to net earnings (loss) is presented above.

All note references in this document are to the Corporation's December 31, 2005 Consolidated Financial Statements.

All information stated below excludes the discontinued operations of the Corporation. The continuing operations are the Integrated Steel segment, which comprises those business units that include and are primarily associated with the Stelco Hamilton and Stelco Lake Erie Integrated Steel plants and their raw materials properties. The primary markets served by this segment are automotive, transportation, construction, manufacturing, pipe and tubular manufacturers, steel service centres, and steel fabricators.

Overview

Overall revenue per ton increased by 5% in 2005 compared to 2004. This was primarily due to the renewal of customer contracts for 2005 at higher prices than the previous year. However, the steel and steel products industries experienced a decline in spot market prices in 2005 when compared to the historically high selling prices in the second half of 2004. This was mainly due to increased imports and high inventory levels at the steel service centres. Spot market prices reached a low in August 2005, before partially recovering in fourth quarter 2005. The 2005 increase in revenue per ton was more than offset by a 9% increase in the average cost per ton as well as higher restructuring costs. The result was a net loss from continuing operations of $9 million in 2005, when compared to net earnings from continuing operations of $34 million in 2004.

Demand and pricing in the fourth quarter improved compared to third quarter 2005 partly due to lower inventory levels at steel service centres. The planned fourth quarter 2005 Phase 2 upgrade of the Lake Erie hot strip mill took longer than anticipated and had a negative impact on the facility's overall production, the volume and mix of products shipped, and revenue from sales. These items impacted the fourth quarter of 2005 and will impact the first quarter of 2006.

Financial Information

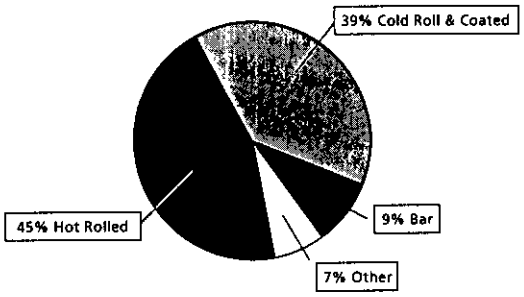
Net sales for the quarter ended December 31, 2005 were 10% lower than in the same quarter of 2004. Steel shipments were similar to the same quarter in 2004, while average revenue per ton was down by 11%. The fourth quarter decrease in revenue and average revenue per ton was primarily due to:

- the Lake Erie hot strip mill outage;
- softer market demand, which had the effect of lowering prices;
- the negative impact of the higher Canadian dollar; and
- a lower-value-added mix of sales mainly due to increased slab sales.

Costs in fourth quarter 2005 were up 7% compared with the same quarter 2004 and average cost per ton was up 6% primarily due to:

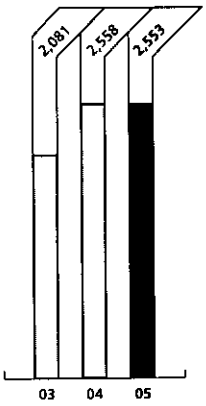
- higher raw material and energy costs, particularly coal, iron ore, natural gas, and electricity;
- lower production levels due to Lake Erie hot strip mill outage; and
- fourth quarter 2004 included a $10 million partial recovery from an insurance claim related to the June 2004 Lake Erie blast furnace outage.

The above cost increases were partially offset by:



- lower purchased coke and scrap prices;
- a lower-value-added mix of sales; and
- reduced labour costs at Stelco Hamilton resulting from the continuing attrition of the workforce.

Amortization of property, plant, and equipment in fourth quarter 2005 was $3 million higher than the same quarter of 2004.



YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2005 COMPARED TO YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2004

For the year ended December 31, 2005, net sales were similar to 2004, mainly due to the renewal of customer contracts for 2005 at higher prices, offset by lower spot market prices, and lower shipments. The net loss from continuing operations of $9 million includes $76 million of pre-tax charges related to reorganization items, and a $20 million pre-tax gain on the sale of plate mill assets. In 2004, net earnings included $53 million of pre-tax charges related to reorganization items (see Notes 4 and 5 to the Consolidated Financial Statements).

Net Sales
($ in millions)

Net Earnings (Loss) from Continuing Operations
($ in millions)

Average revenue per ton increased by 5% due to:

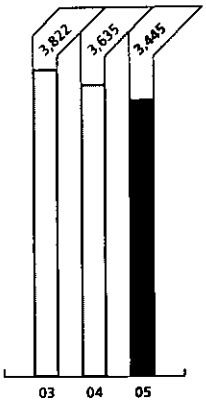
- the renewal of customer contracts for 2005 at higher prices; and
- selling price surcharges implemented to cover high raw material and energy costs in the first half of 2005.

Partly offset by:

- weaker spot market prices in the second half of 2005 compared to the same period 2004;
- the negative impact of the higher Canadian dollar;
- the impact of the Lake Erie hot strip mill outage on shipments; and
- a lower-value-added mix of sales mainly due to increased slab sales.

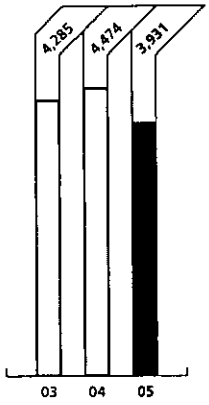
Cost per ton increased by 9% mainly due to:

- rise in raw material and energy costs, particularly iron ore, coal, natural gas, and electricity;
- the fixed cost per ton impact of reduced output at the primary operations and Integrated Steel finishing mills required to balance steel inventory levels with market demand and the impact of the Lake Erie hot strip mill upgrade;
- higher spending for repairs and maintenance and supplies; and
- higher fuel costs related to the mix of fuels used.



The above cost increases were partially offset by:

- lower purchased coke and scrap prices;
- a lower-value-added mix of sales;
- reduced labour costs at Stelco Hamilton; and
- a strengthening Canadian dollar.



Annual 2005 semi-finished steel production dropped by 12% compared to 2004 due to weaker market conditions and planned steel inventory reductions.

Amortization of property, plant, and equipment in 2005 was $3 million higher than in 2004.

Production of Semi-Finished Steel

Reorganization Items

Reorganization expense incurred during the fourth quarter of 2005 was $29 million compared to $15 million in the comparable quarter of 2004. The increase is largely attributed to the incurrence of an $11 million break-fee paid to Tricap triggered by significant changes that were made to the initially proposed CCAA Plan.

Total reorganization expense incurred during 2005 was $76 million. In comparison, $53 million was incurred during 2004. The change is largely a result of higher professional fees ($26 million) and the payment of break-fees to Tricap and Deutsche Bank ($22 million) in 2005. Partially offsetting this increase were a number of non-cash expenses ($24 million) recognized in 2004. These non-cash expenses related primarily to the adjustments required to reflect the Corporation's convertible debentures at face value and the write-off of the associated deferred financing fees.

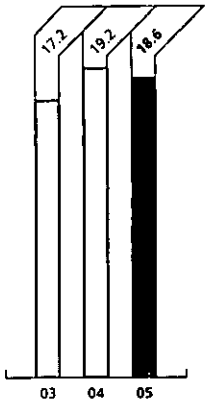
During the first quarter of 2006 and post-CCAA proceedings, significant reorganization expense may be incurred as a number of activities are completed, such as documentation of agreements, the oversight of the distribution of securities to affected creditors, the registration of these new securities, the establishment of the new partnerships and related asset transfers, and the recognition of success fees.

Financial Expense

Total financial expense incurred during the fourth quarter of 2005 was $16 million as compared to $15 million incurred in 2004. Financial expenses were marginally higher as variable interest rate loans reflected the impact of higher effective interest rates.

For 2005, total financial expense of $55 million was incurred. This was reduced from the $64 million incurred in 2004. The main reason for the reduction in expense relates to a lower utilization of the Corporation's lines of credit in the second and third quarter of 2005 leading to lower interest costs incurred during this period.

Income Tax expense



Future income tax assets are recognized to the extent that realization is considered more likely than not. The assessment as to the future realization of future income tax assets, including loss carry-forwards, is conducted on a company-by-company basis for the Stelco group of businesses. Realization of future income tax assets is dependent upon the availability of sufficient taxable income within the carry-forward periods. The assessment of realization is based upon the weight of evidence at the respective balance sheet date.

While the Corporation and its subsidiaries recognize future income tax assets where applicable, a future income tax asset valuation allowance of $16 million was released in 2005 ($5 million was released in the fourth quarter of 2005) related to continuing operations.

North American Automotive Production

Apparent Canadian Steel Consumption

Operational Information

Trade

Imports accounted for 51% of apparent domestic steel consumption in 2005 compared to 46% in 2004. As a result, Canadian domestic producers including Stelco lost market share in 2005.

On November 30, 2005, the Canadian International Trade Tribunal ("CITT") announced it was initiating an expiry review of its August 2001 unfair trade ruling with respect to imports of hot rolled sheet and strip originating in or exported from Brazil, Bulgaria, the People's Republic of China, Chinese Taipei, India, the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Serbia & Montenegro, South Africa, and Ukraine. The Company is participating in the review that will include a June 2006 hearing and a ruling by the CITT on August 16, 2006.

The Company continues to participate in the North American Steel Trade Committee that operates under the collective auspices of the governments of Canada, Mexico, and the United States. Steel companies, including Stelco, are assisting the three governments to develop a strategic plan for the industry as an element of the prosperity side of the Security & Prosperity Partnership created on March 23, 2005.

The Company is also an active participant in the Canadian Steel Partnership Council, the objective of which is to develop a sustainability vision for the Canadian steel industry and to recommend actions that will give effect to that vision.

Enterprise Resource Planning System ("ERP")

Implementation of the first phase of the order flow ERP system, which will reduce Stelco's dependence on aging legacy systems, is targeted for the second quarter of 2006.

Health, Safety and Environment

Health and safety performance has been relatively unchanged, based on a five-year trend. Integrated Steel lost time accident frequency deteriorated from 1.9 per 200,000 hours worked in 2004 to 2.2 in 2005. Integrated Steel has no outstanding environmental charges. Since the base year (1990), as of December 31, 2004:

- energy consumption per ton of steel shipped has dropped by 15%;
- carbon intensity per ton of steel shipped has dropped by 19%; and
- greenhouse gas emissions have dropped by 10%.

Stelco Hamilton and Stelco Lake Erie are both International Standards Organization ("ISO") 14001 registered. This system provides the framework for the implementation, maintenance, and continuous improvement process for managing environmental aspects at both integrated plants.

Equipment Upgrades

The Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill rougher motors were replaced with new higher horsepower rougher motors in fourth quarter 2005. The previously identified risk of failure associated with the old rougher motors has been eliminated. The second stage of the upgrade (quick roll change and the sixth finishing stand) is planned for 2006 and the final stage (finish mill drives upgrade) for the second quarter of 2007.

Facilities/Competitiveness

The Stelco Hamilton plant is not competitive as measured by cost per ton of hot rolled steel with reorganized U.S. integrated mills, Canadian integrated mills, or U.S. mini-mills. The Stelco Hamilton 56-inch mill is uncompetitive as a result of its high conversion cost and its width, coil weight, and quality limitations. The historic competitive advantages of the Stelco Lake Erie plant in hot rolled costs per ton have been reduced because of the cost savings achieved by reorganized U.S. integrated steel mills and the appreciation of the Canadian dollar. Work is currently progressing on the Phase 2 upgrade of the Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill with the installation of new higher horsepower rougher motors in fourth quarter 2005 and the planned completion of the quick roll change and sixth finishing stand in second quarter 2006. Following completion of the Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill quick roll change and sixth finishing stand, the Stelco Hamilton 56-inch mill will be closed.

Currently, two pickle lines operate at Hamilton to supply the cold rolling and coating operations. In addition, approximately 440,000 tons per year of Stelco Hamilton's steel requirements are pickled externally. The Hamilton pickle lines have significant operational issues related to reliability, conversion cost, and product quality. The cost of external pickling, however, is relatively expensive. Ultimately, Stelco will need to replace the Hamilton pickle lines or outsource all pickling. New pickle line facilities are included as part of the Corporation's current strategic capital plans.

The cold rolled and coated products facilities at Stelco Hamilton are registered to ISO/TS 16949. The Bar Product mills at Stelco Hamilton, and the 2050 hot strip mill at Stelco Lake Erie are scheduled to be registered to ISO/TS 16949 in the 2nd and 3rd quarter of 2006 respectively. ISO/TS 16949 is an international quality management system standard developed by the International Automotive Task Force and the Japan Automotive Manufacturers Association in conjunction with the international standards community. As internal suppliers to the finishing mills, the Stelco Hamilton and Stelco Lake Erie blast furnace and Steelmaking facilities are scheduled to be registered to ISO 9001 by the end of 2006. By meeting these standards, Stelco demonstrates its ability to consistently provide product that meets customer requirements, and enhance customer satisfaction through continual improvement of processes, products and services.

The Stelco Hamilton sinter plant and the Stelco Lake Erie #1 coke battery set production records in 2005. The Stelco Hamilton sinter plant will significantly reduce its dioxin emissions by mid-year 2006. In the fourth quarter, 2005, using new trial technology, dioxin emissions were reduced in tests done to 177 picograms per cubic metre of air. This is well under the 2005 – 2010 limit of 500 and below the limit of 200 that applies after 2010. Permanent equipment is now being installed to implement this technology.

The Stelco Hamilton cold mill set a new annual prime yield record in 2005 with a 2% improvement when compared to 2004.

The compliance audits of Stelco Hamilton and Stelco Lake Erie's ISO 14001 systems were satisfactorily completed.

Labour Matters

The Lake Erie labour contract with Local 8782 of the United Steelworkers ("USW") expired on July 31, 2004. The bargaining unit employees continued to work after the labour contract expired. A new labour contract was ratified on January 18, 2006 and will continue in effect until July 31, 2009. The Stelco Hamilton labour contract with USW Local 1005 will expire on July 31, 2006.

(a) The $90 million convertible debenture is included in debt subject to compromise for 2004 as filing for CCAA protection was an event of default. A non-cash restructuring expense of $15 million was recorded in January 2004 to reflect these debentures at the anticipated claim amount of $90 million. These debentures were previously accreted up to face value over its term to maturity.

In 2003, as compared with 2002, the market was subjected to rapid revenue per ton changes with prices deteriorating and then increasing late in the year. Factors negatively affecting average revenue per ton included:

- lower selling prices due to weak market demand;
- a lower value-added mix of sales due to increased slab and hot rolled sales; and
- the significant appreciation of the Canadian dollar relative to the U.S. currency.

Cost per ton increased in 2003 over 2002 primarily due to:

- higher input costs, particularly related to natural gas and scrap;
- reduced production levels at Stelco Hamilton in the first half of 2003 as a result of weak market demand and measures taken to reduce inventory levels;
- higher employment costs; and
- a power outage in August 2003.

The above cost increases were partially offset by:

- a lower value-added mix of sales due to increased slab and hot rolled sales;
- cost reduction initiatives that included productivity and yield improvements;
- a property tax settlement of $13 million at Stelco Hamilton in the third quarter of 2003; and
- the impact of the stronger Canadian dollar.

In addition, in the fourth quarter 2003, the Corporation recorded transactions that had significant negative non-cash effects on earnings: an $87 million pre-tax write-down of assets at the Stelco Hamilton plate mill and a $295 million valuation allowance against future income tax assets related to continuing operations.

In 2004, as compared to 2003, the steel and steel product industries experienced a positive economic environment due to the increase in global demand, especially from China. As a result, Stelco benefited from historically high steel prices. Factors positively affecting average revenue per ton included:

- improved market demand, which had the effect of raising prices;
- selling price surcharges implemented to cover high raw material and energy costs; and
- higher value-added mix of sales due to increased coated and prepaint shipments and reduced slab, rod, and hot rolled sales.

Cost per ton increased by 13% from 2003 to 2004 primarily due to:

- unprecedented rise in raw material and energy costs, particularly scrap, coal, coke, natural gas, reagents, and fluxes;
- higher value-added mix of sales;
- higher employment costs;
- higher spending for repairs and maintenance and supplies;
- the third quarter 2003 included a property tax settlement of $13 million at Stelco Hamilton;
- the work stoppage at the Wabush iron ore mine and recognition of certain pension liabilities associated with the closed Chisholm mine; and
- the Lake Erie blast furnace outage in June 2004.

The above cost increases were partially offset by:

- $10 million partial recovery from an insurance claim related to the June 2004 Lake Erie blast furnace outage;
- increased production and yield improvements primarily at Stelco Hamilton; and
- a strengthening Canadian dollar.

Net Sales and Costs

QUARTER 4, 2005 COMPARED TO QUARTER 3, 2005

Net sales for the fourth quarter of 2005 were 9% higher than third quarter 2005. Steel shipments were 10% higher than third quarter 2005, while revenue per ton was down by 1%. The fourth quarter decrease in average revenue per ton was primarily due to a lower value-added mix of sales due to increased slab shipments as a result of the Phase 2 upgrade of the Lake Erie hot strip mill, partially offset by an overall increase in revenue per ton on most products.

Cost per ton in fourth quarter 2005 was up 3% compared with third quarter 2005 primarily due to:

- increased repairs and maintenance and supplies spending during planned shutdowns at a number of facilities;
- the fourth quarter shutdown for the Phase 2 upgrade of the Lake Erie hot strip mill;
- higher natural gas, iron ore and scrap costs;
- higher fuel costs related to the mix of fuels used.

The above cost increases were partially offset by:

- a lower value-added mix of sales;
- lower electricity and purchased coke costs.

Historic Trends

Revenue per ton increased significantly in 2004, peaking in the third quarter. Increased import activity throughout the fourth quarter and higher customer inventories resulted in a softening of selling prices. The steel and steel product industries experienced a positive economic environment due to the increase in global demand, especially from China. As a result, Stelco benefited from historically high steel prices.

Factors positively affecting average revenue per ton included:

- improved market demand, which had the effect of raising prices;
- selling price surcharges implemented to cover high raw material and energy costs; and
- higher value-added mix of sales due to increased coated and prepaint shipments and reduced slab, rod and hot rolled sales.

Cost per ton continued to increase in the first half of 2004 mainly due to:

- unprecedented rise in raw material costs, particularly scrap, coke, reagents, and fluxes;
- higher value-added mix of sales;
- higher employment costs; and
- the Lake Erie blast furnace outage in June 2004.

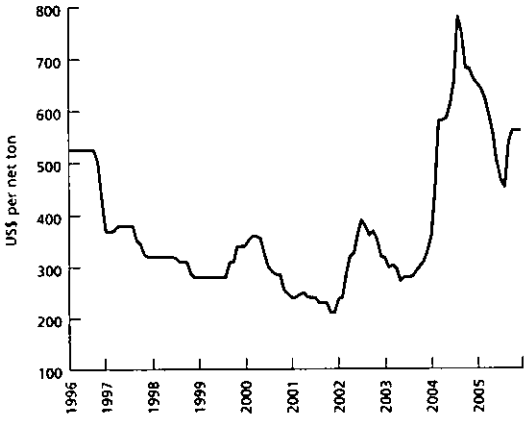
In the second half of 2004, cost per ton increased due to:

- continuing high raw material and energy costs;
- higher employment costs;
- higher spending for repairs and maintenance and supplies; and
- the work stoppage at the Wabush iron ore mine and recognition of certain pension liabilities associated with the closed Chisholm mine.

The foregoing cost increases were partially offset by:

- $10 million partial recovery from an insurance claim related to the June 2004 Lake Erie blast furnace outage; and
- a strengthening Canadian dollar.

Revenue per ton increased in the first quarter of 2005 primarily due to an increase in revenue per ton on contract business, partially offset by a decrease in spot market revenue per ton. The second and third quarter 2005 decrease in average revenue per ton was primarily due to softening market demand, which was partly caused by excess customer inventories and the continued negative impact of the higher Canadian dollar.



In the first three quarters of 2005, cost per ton increased due to:

- a rise in raw material and energy costs, particularly coal, iron ore, natural gas and electricity;
- higher spending for repairs and maintenance and supplies;
- the fixed cost per ton impact of reduced output at the primary operations and finishing mills required to balance steel inventory levels with market demand.

The cost increases were partially offset by:

- $14 million for the balance of the insurance claim recovery related to the June 2004 blast furnace outage;
- lower scrap and purchased coke costs; and
- reduced labour costs at Stelco Hamilton.

Risk Factors

Plan Implementation

There are no assurances that the CCAA Plan or the CBCA Plan will be implemented. The failure to achieve implementation of either Plan could materially negatively affect the Corporation.

Pricing

Factors affecting volatility of selling prices include:

- the strength of the economy in the United States;

- the impact China may have globally as its economy grows and the relationship of its consumption of steel relative to its growth in steelmaking capacity;
- the impact of imports and threat of imports from Europe and Asia on North American selling prices;
- the U.S./Canadian dollar exchange rate;
- the cyclical nature of the steel industry;
- material substitution when steel prices are relatively high.

Stelco and the steel industry experienced unprecedented price increases through 2004. Inventories peaked as 2004 ended and spot prices declined significantly throughout the first three quarters of 2005 before recovering somewhat and stabilizing in the fourth quarter. Due to price volatility, the Corporation cannot rely on high selling prices being sustainable in the longer term and believes it cannot compete effectively in the longer term unless it takes steps to lower its overall costs.

Costs

Stelco must continue with its efforts to lower costs in order to ensure its long-term viability. Stelco has identified specific cost reduction initiatives including managed attrition and improvement in maintenance planning which will reduce repairs and maintenance costs, increase throughput as well as reduce electrical and mechanical delays. These cost reduction initiatives, along with strategic capital spending, are essential to achieving long-term viability. There can be no assurance that cost reduction initiatives will be sufficient to sustain long-term viability.

Labour Matters

The Corporation's workforce is predominantly unionized and is covered by various labour agreements. The Stelco Hamilton labour contract with USW Local 1005 will expire on July 31, 2006. There can be no assurance that labour difficulties at any of Stelco's business units will not result in a significant loss of production and revenue and have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, and results of operations of Stelco.

Pension Plans

Provincial pension standards legislation requires that the funded status of registered pension plans be determined periodically on both a going concern basis (i.e., assuming indefinite plan continuation) and a solvency basis (i.e., essentially assuming immediate plan termination).

Where an actuarial valuation reveals a solvency deficiency, current regulations in Ontario generally require it to be funded by equal monthly cash payments over a maximum period of five years from the date of valuation.

The solvency liability is influenced primarily by long-term interest rates on which annuity purchase rates are based. The interest rate used to calculate the benefit obligations for solvency purposes is a prescribed rate derived from the interest rates on long-term Government of Canada bonds. In the current low interest rate environment, the calculation results in a higher present value of the pension obligations, leading to larger solvency liabilities.

The aggregate solvency deficiency under Stelco's four main pension plans as at December 31, 2005 was $1.5 billion (December 31, 2004 – $1.1. billion).

Solvency deficiency payments are not required where the employer has taken the Section 5.1 Election under the Pension Benefits Act (Ontario). Stelco has been operating under the Section 5.1 Election for its four main pension plans, but pursuant to arrangements with the Province, to take effect upon the implementation of the CCAA Plan, Stelco will cease to operate under the Section 5.1 Election and will enter into a funding agreement aimed at eliminating over a ten-year period the existing solvency deficiencies in the four main pension plans.

Absent the Section 5.1 Election, annual pension funding would increase significantly beyond the level annual payments required under the Pension Plan Funding Arrangements described in the overview of the CCAA Plan. For example, had the Section 5.1 Election not been in effect in 2005 with no other arrangement in place, Stelco's 2005 contributions to its four main pension plans would have increased more than $348 million over the current level of funding. This level of payment is not sustainable by Stelco.

Despite the level of contributions under the Province Agreement, the solvency deficiency could grow as a result of actuarial losses.

Environmental Compliance

The Corporation is subject to substantial and evolving environmental laws and regulations concerned with, among other things, emissions into the air, discharges to water or land, noise control, and the generation, handling, storage, transportation, and disposal of toxic and hazardous substances. These laws and regulations vary depending on the location of the facility and can fall within federal, provincial, or municipal jurisdictions.

In meeting its overall environmental goals and government-imposed standards in 2005, the Corporation incurred operating costs of $71 million ($70 million in 2004) and spent $3 million on capital improvements ($1 million in 2004). Stelco Hamilton has a benzene emissions reduction program underway, with spending of approximately $4 million in 2005 and estimated additional costs of $5 million over the next two years.

Stelco regularly reviews and audits the operating practices of each business to monitor compliance with the Corporation's health and safety and environmental policies and legal requirements. The Corporation believes that future costs relating to environmental compliance can be dealt with in a manner such that they will not have a material adverse effect on the Corporation's financial position. There is always the possibility, however, that unforeseen changes, such as in the laws of enforcement policies of relevant government bodies, or the discovery of changed conditions on the Corporation's real property or its operations could result in an increase in the costs of environmental compliance that could result in a material adverse effect on the Corporation's financial position.

Stelco is heavily dependent upon the continuous operation of its plants and equipment. There can be no assurance that unplanned downtime at any of Stelco's facilities will not have a material adverse effect on Stelco. Stelco maintains first party property and boiler and machinery breakdown insurance, both of which include business interruption coverage, to address some of these exposures to the extent of the limits of coverage and the terms of the individual insurance contracts.

Technology

The Corporation is subject to competition from new technological developments used by other steel producers. Limited liquidity and cash conservation measures over the last several years have caused the Corporation to reduce spending to capital and nonessential maintenance. However, over the last five years the Corporation has made capital expenditures on several projects to maintain and enhance its technological ability including the following:

- Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill, blast furnace, and caster upgrades;
- Stelco Hamilton coke oven refurbishment, "E" blast furnace improvements, 4-stand upgrade, roll shop grinder refurbishment, batch anneal control system, Z-Line surface inspection system; and
- ERP systems implementation for Stelco's maintenance, procurement, human resources, and finance functions.

Expenditures for Capital Assets
($ in millions)

Expenditures in 2006 are expected to include the installation of the Lake Erie hot strip finishing mill quick roll change system, sixth finishing stand and other strategic capital initiatives.

Stelco's current strategic plan requires continual improvement in both its product and process technologies in order to maintain its competitive position in the high value-added automotive market. In particular, failure to meet the automotive industry's ever-more demanding requirements for product quality and service, and failure to provide the new grades of advanced high-strength steels will seriously jeopardize Stelco's long-term participation in this market. Similarly, for Stelco to attain a competitive cost structure will require the ongoing selective implementation of new process technologies throughout its integrated steelmaking processes. There is no assurance that Stelco will be able to improve its product and process technologies in accordance with its strategic plan or that the improvements, once implemented, will meet the automotive market's quality and service requirements. Please refer to "Forward Looking Statements" on page 4.

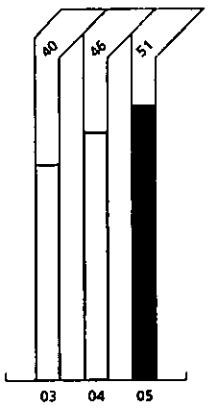
Steel Consolidation

Stelco could face risks related to cost competitiveness and access to large customers if it does not participate in consolidation.

Supply and Pricing of Raw Material and Energy

The Corporation's operations require substantial amounts of raw materials and energy including coal, iron ore, coke, scrap, natural gas, electricity, and other inputs. The price and availability of such raw materials and inputs are subject to market forces where the Corporation does not have ownership interests and, in some cases, to government regulations and, accordingly, are subject to change. Increases in the price of natural gas, coal, scrap and coke can have a significant negative impact on the Corporation's costs.

The Corporation produces approximately 85% of its annual coke requirements through its own coke ovens. However, it purchases 100% of its metallurgical coal requirements (raw material for the coke ovens) at market prices. Stelco has secured 100% of its 2006 metallurgical coal requirements under purchase contracts.



Through its ownership interests in iron ore mining properties and related supply agreements Stelco has secured approximately 90% of its 2006 requirements at its cost of production.

The Corporation's financial performance is exposed to price volatility associated with the electricity commodity market. The Government of Ontario introduced competition to the electricity market on May 1, 2002, giving rise to uncertainty of prices since commodity prices are now determined based on hourly supply and demand requirements. Large industrial end-users such as Stelco have been provided with some relief through a rebate program called the "Rebate on OPG Non-Prescribed Assets". On February 9, 2006, the provincial government announced that they have extended the rebate program to April 30, 2009. Stelco's strategic plan includes co-generation facilities that will minimize Stelco's short- and long-term exposure to energy price fluctuations.

Trade Regulations

A number of foreign steel producers have in the past exported large quantities of steel to North America, impairing the Applicants' ability to sell their products and, accordingly, their profitability. This steel has often been sold at levels that are below cost or below home market price, a practice known as "dumping". Existing trade laws and regulations in Canada may be inadequate to prevent such trade practices. Some foreign steel producers are owned, controlled or subsidized by foreign governments. Decisions by these foreign producers to continue production at marginal facilities may be influenced to a greater degree by political and economic policy considerations than by prevailing market conditions and may further contribute to excess global capacity. Moreover, trade regulation in other countries, particularly in the United States, could materially adversely affect the Applicants through the imposition of dumping duties which would reduce or effectively eliminate their access to certain steel markets.

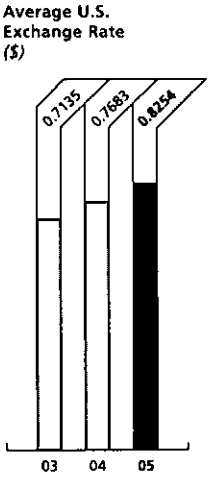
(% of total)

Employees

Approximately 27% of Stelco's salaried workforce and 45% of the hourly workforce at Stelco Hamilton are eligible to retire under the current provisions of the defined pension benefit plans. A further 34% and 46% respectively of these groups could retire in the next five years under current eligibility provisions. Stelco is currently recruiting individuals to satisfy necessary manpower requirements consistent with its succession plans and attrition rates.

Retention of the skills and knowledge of Stelco's employees, and the ability to attract and retain new employees where replacement is considered necessary, is essential to Stelco's continued operations.



Enterprise Resource Planning Systems

Implementation of the first phase of the order flow ERP system, which will reduce Stelco's dependence on aging legacy systems, is now planned for the second quarter of 2006. Although the application has been delivered and tested in modules, there is a risk that the integrated testing may reveal additional development requirements, which could further delay the implementation. In the meantime, the legacy systems remain available for these applications.

Related Party Transactions

The Corporation is a vertically integrated producer of steel products. As such, several transactions occur between entities that are related, for example, between Stelco, the parent company, and its wholly owned subsidiaries and joint ventures.

In 2005, the Integrated Steel business acquired approximately 3,500,000 gross tons of iron ore valued at $297 million from companies in which the Corporation has an ownership interest (3,600,000 gross tons in 2004 valued at $190 million). In addition, businesses in the Integrated Steel segment sold approximately $118 million ($226 million in 2004) of steel to businesses in the Manufactured Products segment during 2005. All of the Manufacturing Products segment businesses have now been sold.

Currency Fluctuations

Stelco is a net purchaser of U.S. dollars. Accordingly, any strengthening of the Canadian dollar results in a benefit to Stelco for its net purchases of U.S. funds. However, more than offsetting the above is the negative effect on Stelco's domestic sales revenue due to the following reasons. Firstly, many of Stelco's domestic customers export their products into the U.S. Thus, a stronger Canadian dollar can cause those customers to be less competitive in the U.S. and the customers may resist price increases or request steel price reductions from Stelco. Secondly, U.S. exports of steel into Canada have historically forced domestic steel prices in Canadian dollars downward. Finally, the North American benchmark for spot market prices for certain products, such as hot rolled, are established and determined in U.S. dollars. A strong Canadian dollar results in lower benchmark prices in Canadian dollars for 2006.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The liquidity and capital resources of the Corporation will be determined by the outcome of the restructuring process and a number of other factors, including without limitation, market and economic conditions and the impact of these conditions on the price of steel products, raw material costs, the ability to fund critical capital projects, pension issues, and labour negotiations or disputes.

The Corporation's liquidity and capital resources position is summarized as follows:

Overview

For the three months ended December 31, 2005, net cash of $10 million was required largely due to weak operating results ($70 million) and capital expenditures ($50 million), which were partly offset by cash provided by working capital ($108 million). Comparatively, $59 million of net cash was generated during the three months ended December 31, 2004. Relatively strong operating results ($73 million) were partially offset by cash required for capital expenditures ($15 million). Overall, $69 million more cash was required during the fourth quarter of 2005 as compared to fourth quarter 2004 mainly attributable to a $143 million deterioration in operating results and $35 million for capital spending, partially offset by $111 million of additional cash provided by working capital.

For the year 2005, $23 million of net cash was required. Strong earnings from continuing operations in the first half were partially offset by a substantially weaker fourth quarter resulting in $124 million for the year. In addition, gross proceeds from the sale of Camrose Pipe ($23 million) added to the positive net cash position. Largely offsetting these positive cash flows was $154 million of capital spending and $17 million for repayment of non-Applicant long-term debt. In comparison, $69 million of cash was generated during 2004 driven by very strong earnings from continuing operations ($289 million) partially offset by working capital requirements ($158 million), and capital spending ($44 million). Overall, $92 million less cash was generated in 2005 than was in 2004 attributable to weaker operating results in the second half of 2005 as compared to a very strong second half of 2004 netting $165 million and additional capital spending of $110 million partially offset by cash provided by working capital ($148 million), and gross proceeds from the sale of Camrose Pipe ($23 million).

Working capital represented a significant component of operating cash flow for continuing operations during 2005. While as a whole it was not of such significance in 2004, a number of components of working capital fluctuated substantially.

Three months ended December 31 (in millions)	2005	2004	Favourable (Unfavourable)
Cash provided by (used for)
Accounts receivable	$ 83	$ 34	$ 49
Inventory	(35)	(84)	49
Accounts payable	53	35	18
Other	7	$ 12	$ (5)
Total	$ 108	$ (3)	$ 111

Accounts Receivable

During the fourth quarter of 2005, $83 million was provided by a decrease in accounts receivable. Lower shipments (primarily in December) at slightly lower selling prices resulted in more cash being collected from the previous quarter sales than was billed to customers during the current quarter.

In comparison, accounts receivable provided $34 million during the fourth quarter of 2004 resulting from a decrease in selling prices from those experienced in third quarter 2004 coupled with a decline in shipments in the latter half of the quarter.

Inventories

$35 million was required for an increase in inventories during the fourth quarter of 2005. Higher costs associated with steel inventories, largely due to high raw material input costs along with a larger quantity of iron ore pellets (associated with the winter build program) drove inventory higher during the quarter. Partially offsetting this increase was lower volumes and costs for coal, coke and coke related products.

During the fourth quarter of 2004, $84 million was required to finance an increase in inventories primarily related to higher costs and volumes of steel products and higher volumes of coal and iron ore. Partially offsetting these increases were lower scrap and coke quantities and cost.

Accounts Payable and Accrued

During the fourth quarter of 2005, $53 million of cash was provided due to increased accounts payable and accrued items that largely pertained to increased procurement activity in the quarter (including raw material purchases) and an increase in post-filing interest, which continues to be accrued. In addition, the Corporation has reduced the number of suppliers on prepayment terms and is beginning to re-establish trade terms with a number of other vendors.

In comparison, $35 million was sourced predominantly from an increase in accrued payables for coal and iron ore purchases and interest on stayed debt.

Other

$7 million of cash was provided during the fourth quarter of 2005. Much of the improvement resulted from a reduction in prepaid items, a large portion of which pertained to improved payment terms from vendors previously receiving cash before delivery.

Comparatively, $12 million was provided in the fourth quarter of 2004 largely due to a reduction in prepayments to suppliers.

Working capital as a whole did not have a significant impact on operating cash flow during 2005, although a number of components changed substantially. During 2004, working capital was a significant requirement of operating cash flow.

Year ended December 31 (in millions)	2005	2004	(Unfavourable)
Cash provided by (used for)
Accounts receivable	$ 78	$ (65)	$ 143
Inventory	(134)	(172)	38
Accounts payable	41	98	(57)
Other	5	$ (19)	24
Total	$ (10)	$ (158)	$ 148

Accounts Receivable

$78 million was provided by accounts receivable during 2005 resulting from a significant drop in selling prices from 2004 and lower overall shipments resulting in fewer sales being billed during the fourth quarter of 2005 compared to the fourth quarter of 2004.

For 2004, $65 million was required to finance an increase in receivables resulting largely from a steel-pricing environment near historic highs, partially offset by weaker shipments in the fourth quarter of 2005.

Inventories

For 2005, $134 million was required for an increase in inventories driven by higher costs and volumes of iron ore and coal. Steel inventory quantities were also higher and were produced at a higher cost due to increased prices for raw materials and energy costs. Partially offsetting these increases were lower costs associated with coke inventories.

Cash required to finance inventories during 2004 was $172 million. In spite of a Canadian dollar that continued to appreciate, historically high material input costs was the main driver behind the increase in the value of steel inventories. Steel quantities also increased significantly in an effort to replenish levels required to provide for efficient operation and customer supply. Coke inventories also grew as sufficient quantities were stockpiled at historically high prices to ensure availability in a period of scarcity in the industry.

$41 million of cash was provided during 2005 primarily from the accrual of post-filing interest on the Applicants' long-term debt subject to compromise.

During 2004, $98 million of cash was provided from accounts payable and accrued. The Initial Order under the CCAA provided the Applicants with relief by way of staying trade payables and post-filing interest on stayed debt. Partially offsetting this increase was the erosion of credit terms following the filing when the majority of suppliers switched the Applicants to either a cash or prepayment basis.

Other

For 2005, $5 million of cash was provided resulting primarily from a decrease in prepaid items as the number of vendors on prepayment trade terms was reduced.

Cash required during 2004 to finance an increase of $19 million related primarily to an increase in prepaid items as many suppliers reacted to the Corporation's CCAA filing by switching trade terms to cash before delivery.

Investing Activities

Investment activities required $46 million during fourth quarter 2005 primarily due to capital expenditures of $50 million directed mainly towards the Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill upgrade. For more information on the status of this project see "Operational Information – Equipment Upgrades".

For the fourth quarter of 2004, $11 million of investments were made which largely related to capital expenditures of $15 million. These expenditures related primarily to the Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill upgrade and various projects at both Stelco Hamilton and the Corporation's various mining interests.

For the year 2005, $122 million was required for the investing activities of the Corporation. Spending on capital projects of $154 million included the Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill upgrade, various projects at the Corporation's mining interests, and the Corporation's ERP system. Partially offsetting capital expenditures were $32 million of gross proceeds on the sale of Camrose Pipe, and other asset sales.

$50 million was invested during 2004 of which $44 million related to spending on capital projects including various projects at the Corporation's mining interests, the Corporation's ERP systems, the Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill upgrade, and a new processing line at Baycoat. In addition, $10 million was deposited in a trust account in January 2004 to indemnify the directors and officers of the Stelco group of companies against claims and liabilities that may arise as a result of their association with the Stelco group of companies.

Net Debt*
($ in millions)

*Long-term debt and debt subject to compromise plus net short-term debt (bank indebtedness net of cash, cash equivalents, and restricted cash)

Financing Activities

During the fourth quarter of 2005, $3 million was used to make a repayment against the debt associated with the Stelco Hamilton plate mill. Additional information on this obligation can be found in Notes 5, 7, and 17 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

During 2005, $17 million was required to repay long-term debt reflecting repayments of non-Applicant subsidiaries

Comparatively, $11 million was required for repayments of long-term debt associated with a non-Applicant.

Contractual Obligations

The following is a summary of the principal obligations of the Corporation's continuing operations at December 31, 2005:

(1) Includes the $90 million convertible debenture (see Note 17 to the Consolidated Financial Statements).

Details of long-term debt provisions are contained in Note 17 to the Consolidated Financial Statements. Repayment in 2006 includes long-term debt subject to compromise as these obligations are assumed to be settled upon Plan implementation (see CCAA Plan – Overview of the CCAA Plan). The debt associated with the Hamilton plate mill is also in default and due immediately. (See Note 17 to the Consolidated Financial Statements).

Purchase obligations and other commitments are for coal, electricity, natural gas, oxygen, certain operating services and equipment, and information systems support services.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

Other than the operating lease obligations included in the Contractual Obligations table above, the Corporation had no off-balance sheet arrangements at either December 31, 2005 or 2004.

Financial Instruments

The Corporation did not utilize any third party financial instruments to mitigate interest rate or foreign exchange risk in 2005, and accordingly no such financial instruments were outstanding at December 31, 2005.

Outstanding Share Data

Under the CBCA, the Corporation is authorized to issue, in series, unlimited numbers of Preferred Shares and Common Shares without nominal or par value. The Corporation has the following shares outstanding:

Convertible Common shares outstanding	February 28, 2006	December 31, 2005	December 31, 2004
Series A	100,342,827	100,735,965	101,783,542
Series B	1,906,371	1,513,233	465,658
Total number of shares	102,249,198	102,249,198	102,249,200
Total (in millions)	$ 781	$ 781	$ 781

Stelco is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Series A Convertible Common Shares and an unlimited number of Series B Convertible Common Shares (collectively, the "Common Shares"). As of December 31, 2005, there were outstanding 100,735,965 Series A Convertible Common Shares and 1,513,233 Series B Convertible Common Shares. The Common Shares were delisted from the Toronto Stock Exchange at the close of business on March 10, 2006.

Under the articles of reorganization being filed in connection with the CCAA Plan, Stelco's authorized capital shall consist of an unlimited number of New Common Shares, an unlimited number of preferred shares and an unlimited number of redeemable shares. At the effective time of the CCAA Plan, each Series A Convertible Common Share and each issued Series B Convertible Common Share will be changed into 0.000001 of a Redeemable Share. Immediately thereafter, the Corporation will redeem the Redeemable Shares. In addition, the existing employee stock option program will be terminated on the Plan Implementation Date and no stock options will remain outstanding.

Upon emergence from CCAA, the Corporation will issue New Common Shares (see Overview of CCAA Plan – Treatment of Affected Claims).

Disclosure Controls and Procedures over Financial Reporting

Disclosure controls and procedures are designed to provide reasonable assurance that all relevant information is collected and reported to senior management, including the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and the Senior Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer ("CFO"), to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. At December 31, 2005, as required by the Canadian Security Administrators Multilateral Instrument 52-109, the CEO and CFO have evaluated the effectiveness of the Corporation's disclosure controls and procedures and have concluded that the disclosure controls and procedures are effective.

Changes in Accounting Policy

Accounting changes effective in 2006

Comprehensive Revaluation of Assets and Liabilities

Upon CCAA Plan implementation, there will be a substantial realignment of the equity and non-equity interests in the Corporation upon emergence from CCAA and the Corporation will be required, under Canadian GAAP, to adopt "fresh start" reporting in accordance with CICA Handbook section 1625 – Comprehensive Revaluation of Assets and Liabilities. Under fresh start reporting, the Corporation will undertake a comprehensive revaluation, based on the reorganization value as established and confirmed in the CCAA Plan, of its assets and liabilities by assigning a new fair value cost to all of the Corporation's assets and liabilities. Once the Corporation has completed this revaluation, the Statement of Financial Position will not be comparable to those previously reported.

Critical Accounting Assumptions and Estimates

The Corporation's Consolidated Financial Statements are prepared in accordance with GAAP as disclosed in Note 2 thereto.

In preparing Consolidated Financial Statements, management is required to make certain assumptions and estimates. Choosing one assumption or estimate from a range of possibilities can materially impact the amounts reported on the Statement of Earnings (Loss) or the Statement of Financial Position. Management reviews accounting assumptions and estimates regularly in light of past experience and current conditions or changes in GAAP, and utilizes outside consultants as necessary to arrive at appropriate assumptions and estimates to be used in the preparation of the Consolidated Financial Statements. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors reviews the significant assumptions and estimates throughout the year.

Management considers assumptions and estimates relating to the following matters to be the most critical:

- Going concern
- Carrying value of long-lived assets (property, plant and equipment)
- Employee future benefits
- Income taxes
- Inventory valuation

As a result of the financial condition of the Corporation and the uncertainty associated with the CCAA filing on January 29, 2004, no sensitivity analyses have been presented in the following discussion.

Unless indicated otherwise, all adjustments related to the items below are reflected in Costs in the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss).

Going Concern

The Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared using the same GAAP as applied by the Corporation prior to the filing for CCAA. While the Corporation and certain of its subsidiaries have filed for and been granted creditor protection, these consolidated financial statements continue to be prepared using the going concern concept, which assumes that the Corporation will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. A CCAA Plan has been sanctioned by the Court (see CCAA Plan above). Management believes that these actions make the going concern basis appropriate. However, the CCAA Plan implementation is subject to a number of conditions (see Conditions to CCAA Plan Implementation above) and it is not possible to predict the outcome of the CCAA proceedings and accordingly doubt exists as to whether the Corporation will be able to continue as a going concern. Further, it is not possible to predict whether the actions taken in any restructuring will result in improvements to the financial condition of the Corporation sufficient to allow it to continue as a going concern. If the going concern basis is not appropriate, adjustments may be necessary to the carrying amounts and/or classification of assets and liabilities, and expenses in these Consolidated Financial Statements. The Consolidated Financial Statements do not reflect any adjustments related to subsequent events related to conditions that arose subsequent to December 31, 2005.

Carrying Value of Long-Lived Assets

In accordance with GAAP appropriate for a going concern, property, plant, and equipment is carried at cost less accumulated amortization. This carrying amount is reviewed for impairment whenever events or circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. The carrying value is considered recoverable if the sum of undiscounted cash flows from operations and cash flow from disposal of the property, plant, and equipment exceeds the carrying amount. The Corporation's CCAA protection triggers an impairment review. In estimating future cash flows from operations of the Corporation's property, plant, and equipment, the Corporation made certain assumptions about the reductions in operating costs that could be achieved in the restructuring of its operations. In addition, future cash flows are dependent upon the assumptions used for revenues and costs to produce product. The Corporation believes that these assumptions are consistent with use of the going concern assumption in the preparation of the Consolidated Financial Statements. In connection with the CCAA proceedings, any compromise of liabilities required the approval of affected creditors. There can be no assurance that future cash flows will be sufficient to recover the carrying amount of property, plant, and equipment.

Employee Future Benefits

The Corporation's continuing operations participate in a number of employee future benefit arrangements (principally providing pension and health care benefits) in Canada and the United States. These benefits represent a substantial cost to the Corporation. In 2005, a total of $250 million was charged to Costs ($236 million in 2004) in the Consolidated Statement of Earnings (Loss), representing approximately $73 per ton shipped in 2005 versus $65 per ton shipped in 2004. As indicated in Note 2 to the Consolidated Financial Statements, these plans are primarily of a defined benefits nature. As a result, complex actuarial and accounting rules are used to determine the expense to be recorded for the year and the accrued benefit obligation as at each measurement date, which corresponds to the year-end date, for the Corporation's principal defined benefit plans.

To arrive at the cost of employee future benefits to be recognized in the Consolidated Financial Statements, management is required to review and update various actuarial assumptions each year, based on a going concern concept. These assumptions include investment yields, discount rates, salary escalation, health care cost trends, retirement age, mortality rates, and other factors. The trend over the last few years has been towards lower investment yields, discount rates, mortality rates, and retirement ages. Coupled with benefit increases in labour contract settlements and escalating health care costs, these trends have generally resulted in significantly increased liabilities and corresponding increases in expense. Management consults certain outside advisors, including actuaries, in determining these factors in order to ensure that the assumptions chosen are reasonable and comparable to other large organizations. The assumptions used to calculate the 2005 year-end obligation do not impact the 2005 expense but will impact 2006 expense as described later in this section.

The obligations and costs incurred, based on these assumptions, are displayed in the tables and narrative contained in Note 22 to the Consolidated Financial Statements. As further outlined in Note 22, several adjustments are made to the costs incurred to arrive at the costs recognized in accordance with GAAP. These adjustments are intended to recognize the long-term nature of employee future benefits and reduce short-term volatility in the costs recognized.

The following comments highlight the significant 2005 changes and 2006 trends within the Corporation's principal pension and other benefit plans pertaining to continuing operations.

Pension Benefits

Pension benefit obligations are calculated using actuarial models. Accounting rules determine the related effects on pension expense. The assumptions affecting these include the discount rate, the expected return on plan assets, the average retirement age, and the mortality rate. In addition, benefit improvements have a material impact.

The discount rate enables the Corporation to calculate the present value of the benefit obligation as of the measurement date (December 31). There is little latitude in selecting this rate: it is the current yield on high-quality fixed income investments whose term and cash flow are similar to the liabilities under the plan. A lower discount rate increases the present value of the benefit obligation and therefore increases pension expense.

The expected long-term rate of return on plan assets is determined by assessing historical and anticipated investment returns on the various categories of plan assets. Similar to the discount rate, lower expected returns result in increased expense.

Establishment of the expected average retirement age is based on a review of the actual experience of the pension plans. Lower retirement ages result in increasing the benefit obligation as well as pension expense.

The mortality rate allows the Corporation to define the duration for which benefits are expected to be paid. Mortality rates are based on actuarial tables that are updated periodically to reflect expected mortality trends in the general population. A lower mortality rate (higher life expectancy) lengthens the benefit payment stream resulting in a higher benefit obligation and pension expense.

As at December 31, 2005, management made the following adjustments to these assumptions for continuing operations from December 31, 2004:

- Discount rate – reduced from 5.75% to 5.00%; and
- Expected long-term rate of return on plan assets – reduced from 7.50% to 7.00%

For continuing operations, the consolidated funded status deteriorated from a deficit of $816 million as at December 31, 2004, to a deficit of $953 million as at December 31, 2005, mainly as a result of the revised assumptions for the discount rate and long-term rate of return on plan assets, somewhat offset by better than expected return on plan assets. Under GAAP, the impact of changes to the above assumptions, benefit improvements, actual investment returns, and other changes are recognized over a number of years rather than in the year of occurrence. As a result, for accounting purposes, there is an accrued benefit asset of $112 million on the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position as at December 31, 2005 reflecting the deficit of $953 million reduced by $877 million of unamortized net actuarial losses, and $188 million of unamortized past service costs.

Other Benefits

The assumptions for other benefit plans are similar to pension plans, with the additional factor of health care cost trend rates. Changes in the health care cost trend rate have a significant effect on the accrued benefit obligation and recorded expense. (See Note 22 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for a sensitivity analysis.) As these plans are generally unfunded, changes to the assumptions do not materially impact cash outlays. Cash outlays are the actual amounts paid for other benefits.

As at December 31, 2005, management made the following adjustments to the Other benefit plan assumptions for continuing operations from December 31, 2004:

- Discount rate – reduced from 6.00% to 5.00%;
- Initial health care cost trend rate – increased from 7.9% to 8.1%; and
- Cost trend rate declining to 4.5% in 2014 (previous assumption was in 2013).

For continuing operations, the consolidated funded status deteriorated from a deficit of $1,201 million as at December 31, 2004, to a deficit of $1,364 million as at December 31, 2005, primarily due to these revised assumptions. Similar to the accounting rules for pension plans, the full impact of changes in assumptions is not recognized in the current year. Unamortized actuarial losses and past service costs of $470 million reduced the liability recorded on the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position to $894 million as at December 31, 2005, up from $855 million as at December 31, 2004.

The Corporation estimates that the above assumption changes will add an additional $14 million to Other benefit expense in 2006.

Further details on Pension and Other benefit plans are included in Note 22 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Income Taxes

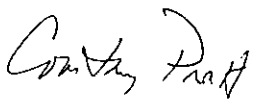
Application of GAAP concerning future income taxes requires projection of tax rates expected to be in effect in years in which tax benefits will be realized. Changes to the amount and timing of tax rates in future years can impact the amount of income tax expense or recovery recognized in an accounting period. The realization of future income tax assets is dependent on the Corporation's ability to generate sufficient taxable income in future years to utilize income tax benefits and income tax loss carry-forwards. Deviations of future profitability from estimates would result in adjustments to the value of future income tax assets and liabilities that could have a significant effect on earnings. (See Note 11 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.) Please refer to "Forward Looking Statements" on page 4.

Inventory Valuation

Valuation of inventories requires a number of estimates to be made, including inventory quality, condition, and obsolescence. These determinations require management to exercise judgment. Inventories are generally valued at cost, subject to adjustments required under certain circumstances to reflect replacement value or net realizable value. Management must exercise judgment in determining the appropriateness of values used to determine market value of finished product inventory. Cyclical changes in selling prices and/or input costs can result in material adjustments being made to the carrying value of finished product inventory.

Outlook

Stelco expects to exit from its Court-supervised restructuring process on March 31, 2006. As a condition of Tricap providing funding under the New Secured Revolving Term Loan, upon emergence, the Corporation's business structure will be reorganized into nine distinct limited partnerships with transactions between entities conducted on an arms-length basis. In addition, "fresh start accounting" will be adopted which will require a comprehensive revaluation of its assets and liabilities, the impact of which has not been determined at this time.



Entering 2006, steel service centre inventory levels have remained constant, resulting in order demand and pricing that has stabilized through the first quarter. However, selling prices beyond the first quarter remain subject to potential variability due to a stronger Canadian dollar and import levels.

As previously advised, the installation and commissioning delays associated with the Phase 2 upgrade of the Lake Erie hot strip mill will have a negative impact on financial results in the first quarter of 2006. The next outage to continue the implementation of the Phase 2 upgrade is currently scheduled in 2006. The Corporation's other strategic capital initiatives are expected to commence as soon as practicable after exit from CCAA.

RECEIVED

Attention Business/Financial Editors:
Stelco reports results for the fourth quarter and year 2005

HAMILTON, ON, March 24 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. today released its 2005 Audited Consolidated Financial Statements together with Management's Discussion and Analysis, which outlines the Corporation's financial results and condition.

The results reported today include certain discontinued operations of the Corporation. During 2005 all of the non-core businesses in the Mini-mill and Manufactured Products segments were sold or committed to be sold in whole or in part. As a result, these business units were characterized as discontinued operations. Previously reported financial results have been restated to isolate their income statement and cash flow activities from the continuing operations of the Corporation. In addition, their assets and liabilities have been presented as held for sale.

For the year ended December 31, 2005, Stelco reported a net loss of $73 million ($0.71 per common share), including a $64 million net loss from discontinued operations. This compares with restated net earnings of $64 million ($0.63 per common share) for the year ended December 31, 2004, which included net earnings of $30 million ($0.30 per common share) from discontinued operations.

For the fourth quarter of 2005, Stelco reported a net loss of $120 million ($1.17 per common share), including a $53 million net loss from discontinued operations. During this period the continuing operations recorded production of 982,000 semi-finished tons and shipments of 888,000 tons. For the fourth quarter of 2004 Stelco had restated net earnings of $1 million ($0.01 per common share), which included a net loss of $20 million ($0.20 per common share) from discontinued operations, on production of 1,115,000 semi-finished tons and shipments of 881,000 tons from continuing operations.

The results issued today were attributable in large measure to factors that reduced revenue and increased costs. A longer than anticipated shutdown at the Lake Erie facility was incurred during the fourth quarter as the Company initiated the previously announced upgrading of the hot strip mill. The shutdown had a negative impact on the facility's overall production, as well as on the volume and mix of products shipped. This led to reduced revenue from sales. Other factors affecting revenue included softer demand, resulting in lower prices, and a higher Canadian dollar.

Increased costs were attributable to such factors as higher spending on raw material and energy, especially for coal, iron ore, natural gas and electricity. In addition, Stelco experienced increased repair, maintenance and supply costs associated with planned shutdowns at a number of facilities. As well, reorganization costs increased from $53 million in 2004 to $76 million in 2005.

Cash consumed from continuing operations for 2005 amounted to $23 million compared to $69 million generated in 2004. Major elements of cash consumption in 2005 included:

- $154 million usage for capital expenditures.
- $17 million used for the repayment of non-Applicant long-term debt.
- $124 million generated from cash earnings before working capital changes.
- $23 million generated from gross proceeds on the sale of Camrose Pipe.

As at December 31, 2005, Stelco's continuing operations net liquidity stood at $254 million. Cash, cash equivalents and restricted cash totaled $42 million. Available lines of credit stood at $403 million. And lines of credit drawn down totaled $191 million. Net short-term debt for continuing operations decreased from $152 million as at December 31, 2004 to $149 million as at December 31, 2005.

The Corporation noted that, entering 2006, customer inventory levels remained constant, resulting in stable order demand and pricing through the first quarter. Stelco also indicated that, as disclosed previously, financial results for the first quarter of 2006 would be negatively affected by the longer than anticipated shutdown of the Lake Erie hot strip mill during the fourth quarter of 2005.

Courtney Pratt, Stelco's President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "The past year was one of transition for Stelco. The bottom line results were recorded in the context of much more positive developments that bode well for the Company's future. These included the achievement of a consensual restructuring plan, the conclusion of agreements to place the pension plans on a sound financial footing, the sale of non-core assets, the announcement of a contribution by the federal government to the funding of our electricity cogeneration projects, and the ratification of a new collective bargaining agreement at Lake Erie.

"Stelco is poised to emerge from Court protection on March 31, 2006 with an improved financial position, a new board of directors, a new president and chief executive officer, and a new organizational structure. These factors, together with a dedicated workforce and quality products, provide the opportunity for Stelco to be a viable and competitive steel producer going forward."

STELCO'S CODE OF ETHICS AND BUSINESS CONDUCT

Stelco, as used throughout this Code of Ethics and Business Conduct (referred to herein as the "Code"), means Stelco Inc. and its Subsidiaries.

I. GENERAL

This policy statement applies to the directors, officers and employees (referred to herein as "employees") of Stelco. Employees are responsible for reading, understanding and complying with the Code.

The Code is not meant to be a complete listing of ethics and business conduct covering every eventuality. Consequently, should an employee be confronted with a situation where further guidance is required, the matter should be discussed with their immediate supervisor, department head, personnel department or senior management.

Stelco is committed to conducting its business affairs in compliance with all applicable laws, statutes and regulations and expects employees acting on its behalf to do likewise. In addition, business dealings among employees and by employees with shareholders, customers, suppliers, community organizations and governmental and regulatory authorities must be based on principles of honesty, integrity and the ethical standards outlined below.

Employees are expected to report situations of non-compliance with respect to this Code of which they become aware, to their immediate supervisor or to the General Office Human Resources Department by mail or at ext. 4504 inside Stelco or 905-577-4504 locally. If calling long distance employees can call toll free 800-465-0034 (dial ext. 4504). Aside from instances of non-compliance, employees may also report concerns relating to ethics and business conduct in the same manner. If the employee chooses to remain anonymous, every effort will be made to respect this request. It is Stelco's policy not to take any action against an employee who reports in good faith regardless of whether or not the report proves to be accurate.

A failure to comply with the Code will result in disciplinary actions up to and including termination.

II. INTEGRITY OF RECORDS AND SOUND ACCOUNTING PRACTICES

Stelco takes very seriously the accuracy of its financial records and financial statements. Accuracy and reliability in the preparation of all business records is of critical importance to the decision making process and to the proper discharge of financial, legal and reporting obligations. All business records, expense accounts, invoices, bills, payroll and employee records and other reports are to be prepared with care and honesty. False or misleading entries are not permitted in the books of Stelco's various businesses. All Corporate, Subsidiary and Business Unit assets and liabilities are to be recorded in compliance with Stelco's accounting and internal control procedures and with generally accepted accounting policies.

III. MAINTENANCE OF ASSETS

All employees have a responsibility to protect Stelco's assets against loss, theft, abuse and unauthorized use or disposal. "Stelco's assets" refers to all property whether tangible, intangible or electronic in form, which includes the Corporation's products, equipment, vehicles, computers and software.

IV. CONFIDENTIALITY

During the normal course of business, employees will have access to business and information records of a confidential nature. Confidential information is any information, which has not been made public by the Company through its designated spokespersons or publicly disclosed documents. Confidential business information is not to be disclosed externally or used for any inappropriate purpose such as trading in shares. These requirements apply both during and after termination of employment.

Confidential material could include information developed by other employees or information acquired from outside sources, sometimes under obligations of secrecy. Employees are expected to utilize such information exclusively for business purposes. The information must not be disclosed externally without the approval of their supervisor or used for any inappropriate purpose.

In cases where information or records are obtained under an agreement with a third party, such as software licenses or technology purchases, employees must ensure that the provisions of such agreements are strictly adhered to. Unauthorized disclosure or use of information or records associated with third party agreements could expose the employee involved and/or Stelco to serious consequences.

V. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Employees should never engage in conduct, which is harmful to Stelco or its reputation.

All employees have an obligation to be entirely free of conflicting interests when they represent Stelco in business dealings or are making recommendations, which could influence Stelco's subsequent actions.

Stelco respects the right of employees to privacy in their personal activities and financial affairs. The prime purpose of this section of the Code is to provide guidance to employees so that they can avoid situations in their personal activities and financial affairs, which are, or may appear to be, in conflict with their responsibility to act in the best interests of Stelco. Keep in mind, the Code cannot specifically deal with every potential conflict situation. Use, therefore, common sense in approaching conflict situations.

In general terms, a conflict of interest will exist where an employee's personal activities, interests or financial affairs, may influence or threaten to influence their judgment in the performance of their duties to Stelco. Conflicting interests may be direct or indirect. For example, the interest may be that of the employee, a family member, a relative, or a business enterprise in which any of these individuals have an interest, financial or otherwise. Some examples of conflict are discussed below:

1. FINANCIAL INTERESTS: A conflict of interest will likely exist when an employee who is able to influence business with Stelco, owns, directly or indirectly, a beneficial interest in an entity which is a competitor of Stelco, or which has current or prospective business with Stelco as a supplier, customer, or contractor. A conflict is not likely to exist, however, where the interest in question consists only of shares, bonds or other securities of an entity, which is listed on a securities exchange and where the amount of this interest is less than one percent of the value of the class of securities involved.

2. INVOLVEMENT WITH THIRD PARTIES: A conflict of interest will likely exist when an employee, directly or indirectly, acts as a director, officer, employee, consultant, or agent of an entity that is a competitor of Stelco, or which has current or prospective business as a supplier, customer or contractor with Stelco. Similarly, a conflict of interest may exist when an employee undertakes to engage in an independent business venture or to perform work or services for another business, civic or charitable institution to the extent that the activity involved prevents such employee from devoting the time and effort to the conduct of Stelco's business, which their position requires.

3. RELATIONSHIP WITH CUSTOMERS AND SUPPLIERS: A conflict of interest will arise when an employee, either directly or indirectly, solicits and/or accepts any gift or favour from any person or organization which is a competitor of Stelco, or which has current or prospective business with Stelco as a customer, supplier or contractor. The acceptance or prospect of gifts or favours may tend to limit or give the appearance of limiting the employee-recipient from acting solely in the best interests of Stelco in dealings with these persons or organizations. It is important to avoid any gift or favour that may give the appearance of undue influence regardless of whether or not you think the gift or favour can or will affect your judgment.

A "gift" or "favour" includes any gratuitous service, loan, discount, money or article of value. It does not include loans from financial institutions on customary terms or articles of nominal value normally used for sales promotion purposes, ordinary business meals or reasonable entertainment consistent with local, social or business customs.

Employees should refer any question regarding what nominal benefits are permitted to their supervisor. If a nominal benefit becomes repetitive, the employee-recipient must have their supervisor rule on its continuing appropriateness.

4. MISAPPROPRIATION OF BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES: A conflict of interest will likely exist when an employee, without the knowledge and consent of Stelco, appropriates for their own use, or that of another person or organization, the benefit of any business venture, opportunity or potential about which he may have learned or may have developed during the course of his employment.

Employees are requested to bring any potential conflict of interest situation to the attention of their immediate supervisor for discussion, review and written approval. This helps avoid any misunderstanding between Stelco and the employee.

VI. COMPANY ASSETS

Company assets are meant for Stelco's use, not personal use. Company assets include computers and software. Employees can only access the Internet for personal use when it involves a nominal amount of the employee's work time.

VII. POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS

By way of supporting the democratic process, Stelco may make contributions to political parties as permitted by law. Any such contributions must be approved, in advance, by the Office of the Secretary of the Corporation. No contributions of any kind may be made to any political party, candidate or campaign on behalf of Stelco without this approval.

VIII. IMPROPER BUSINESS PAYMENTS

The following are deemed improper business payments and are therefore prohibited.

1. The offering or accepting of bribes, payoffs or kickbacks made directly or indirectly to obtain an advantage in a commercial transaction.

2. The offering of gifts, gratuities, entertainment or other similar payments, except to the extent customary and reasonable in amount and not in consideration for any improper action by the recipient.

IX. LAWS, STATUTES AND REGULATIONS

It is the policy of Stelco to comply, not merely with the letter, but also with the spirit of the law. Management at all the Business Units are required to maintain compliance with various acts, statutes and regulations governing activities in the jurisdictions in which they carry on business.

This Code does not seek to provide legal guidance for all laws, statutes and regulations that impact Stelco's activities. Specialized resources – legal, tax, environmental, government relations, personnel – are available within Stelco for that purpose. There are, however, several items of legislation that warrant specific mention. These are listed below along with some general guidelines for compliance.

1. HEALTH AND SAFETY LAWS

Stelco is committed to create and maintain healthy and safe workplaces for its people. Employees are expected to comply with all safety laws, regulations and business unit directives (which may not necessarily be a law or regulation).

2. ENVIRONMENTAL LAWS

Stelco is committed to preserve and enhance the environment in the communities where its various businesses operate through responsible and environmentally-oriented operating practices. To this end, it works closely with government and other groups on programmes aimed at reducing emissions and the use of toxic substances in industrial processes. Employees are encouraged to participate in undertakings geared to improving the environment in both their workplace and their community.

3. HUMAN RIGHTS LEGISLATION

Every person has the right to equal treatment with respect to employment and without discrimination because of race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, sex, sexual orientation, age, record of offences, marital status, family status or handicap. Stelco has no tolerance for less than equitable treatment of any kind.

4. COMPETITION ACT

Stelco is required to make its own decisions on the basis of the best interests of the Corporation and must do so independent of agreements or understandings with competitors. The Competition Act prohibits certain arrangements or agreements with others regarding product prices, terms of sale, division of markets, allocation of customers or any other practice, which restrains competition. While the areas of highest risk are the marketing departments, Stelco can also be put at risk through the activities of employees within trade associations. It is important, therefore, to review the charter, by-laws and activities of these associations before becoming actively involved.

5. SECURITIES LAWS

Employees who possess material, non-public information may not buy or sell Stelco securities while such information remains non-public. These trading prohibitions apply to employees at all levels – not just officers or managers. The prohibition on such trading is based on such information potentially providing an unfair advantage to the employee. You should consider information to be material if there is a reasonable prospect that an investor would consider the information to be important in arriving at a decision to buy, sell or hold Stelco securities. Where you have any doubts, contact your supervisor.

X. ADMINISTRATION OF THE CODE

1. Responsibility for the periodic review and revision of this Code lies with the Stelco Inc. Executive.

2. Questions concerning this Code should be referred to an employee's immediate supervisor, department head, personnel department, division vice president or subsidiary head. In the case of directors, questions should be directed to the Chairman of the Board.

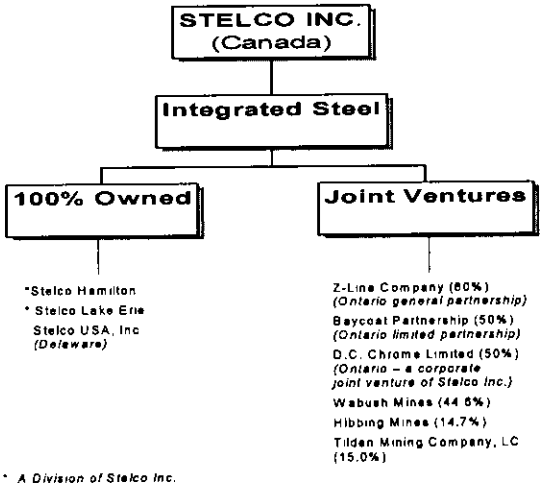
1.1 Stelco Inc.



Stelco Inc. ("Stelco" or the "Corporation") is a corporation amalgamated under and governed by the Canada Business Corporations Act. Its registered and principal office is located at 386 Wilcox Street (formerly 100 King Street West), Hamilton, Ontario, Canada. Stelco came into existence as The Steel Company of Canada, Limited in 1910. The Corporation was continued pursuant to the Canada Business Corporations Act (the "CBCA") by certificate of continuance dated June 27, 1980. On January 1, 1999, the Corporation amalgamated with its wholly owned subsidiary, Lake Erie Steel Company Ltd. The year-end of the Corporation is December 31.

In early 2004, after a thorough financial and strategic review, Stelco concluded that it faced a serious viability issue. The Corporation incurred significant operating and cash losses in 2003 and believed that it would have exhausted available sources of liquidity before the end of 2004 if it did not obtain legal protection and other benefits provided by a Court-supervised restructuring process. Accordingly, on January 29, 2004, Stelco and certain subsidiaries filed for protection under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (Canada) ("CCAA"). Stelco obtained an order (the "Initial Order") from the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (the "Court") granting it creditor protection under the CCAA. The stay period under the Initial Order expires on March 31, 2006, subject to extension by the Court. Protective proceedings were also taken in the United States, as discussed below.

There has been no meeting of shareholders of Stelco since April 30, 2003. Pursuant to an Order of the Court dated April 13, 2004 made in the CCAA proceedings, Stelco was permitted to defer its annual general meeting of shareholders to a date no later than three months after the end of the CCAA proceedings. As a result, a Management Information Circular has not been filed for 2004 or 2005.

1.2 The Stelco Group of Businesses

Based on Stelco's four-point strategy, it was determined that Stelco's future operations would be focused on the Integrated Steel business in Hamilton and Lake Erie and all of the businesses of the Mini-mill and Manufactured Products segments would be sold as non-core assets. The Mini-mill and Manufactured Products segments were deemed non-core and all were sold by February 1, 2006. The corporate structure of the business as at March 24, 2006, is set forth in the chart below. Under the CBCA Plan (described below), Stelco will transfer certain assets to nine separate limited partnerships.

2. GENERAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE BUSINESS

2.1 Recent Events

Based on a financial and strategic review that began in 2003, Stelco concluded that it faced a serious viability issue. Its problems included a high-cost structure, a deteriorating cash position, and an inability to compete against other steel companies that had benefited from their own restructuring. Stelco determined that it needed to reduce its costs, improve productivity, and focus on key operations and products to remain viable.

On January 29, 2004 (the "Filing Date"), Stelco obtained the Initial Order from the Court granting creditor protection under the CCAA. The Initial Order has been and may be further amended throughout the CCAA proceedings on motions from Stelco, its creditors, and other interested stakeholders. On the same date, Stelco made a concurrent petition for recognition of the Initial Order and ancillary relief under Section 304 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. The Canadian proceedings include Stelco and its wholly owned subsidiaries, Stelwire Ltd. ("Stelwire"), Stelpipe Ltd. ("Stelpipe"), CHT Steel Company Inc. ("CHT Steel"), and Welland Pipe Ltd. ("Welland Pipe"), which are collectively referred to as the "Applicants". The U.S. proceedings include Stelco, Stelwire, and Stelpipe. Welland Pipe was closed on March 7, 2003 (see Note 10 in the Corporation's 2005 Consolidated Financial Statements). The Corporation's other subsidiaries and joint ventures are not included in the proceedings. During the stay period, the Applicants are authorized to continue operations. Ernst & Young Inc. (the "Monitor") was appointed by the Court as Monitor in the Canadian proceedings and has been reporting to the Court from time to time on the Applicants' cash flow and other developments during the proceedings.

The purpose of the Initial Order and stay of proceedings is to provide the Applicants with relief designed to stabilize their operations and business relationships with their customers, suppliers, employees, and creditors.

The CCAA proceedings triggered defaults under substantially all debt obligations of the Applicants (see Notes 7 and 17 to the Consolidated Financial Statements). The Initial Order generally stays actions against the Applicants including steps to collect indebtedness incurred by the Applicants prior to the Filing Date and actions to exercise control over the Applicants' property. The Initial Order granted the Applicants the authority to pay outstanding and future wages, salaries, employee pension contributions and benefit payments, and other obligations to employees; the costs of goods and services, both operating and of a capital nature, provided or supplied after the date of the Initial Order; rent under existing arrangements payable after the date of the filing; and principal, interest, and other payments to holders of security in respect of the property of the Applicants if the amount secured by such security is, in the reasonable opinion of the applicable Applicant, with the concurrence of the Monitor, less than or equal to the fair value of such security, having regard to, among other things, the priority of such security.

By order dated October 4, 2005, the Applicants were authorized to call and conduct meetings of Affected Creditors (as defined in the CCAA Plan) on November 15, 2005, to consider and vote on their plan of arrangement and reorganization dated October 3, 2005 (the "Original Plan"), as amended from time to time. As a result of extensive negotiations with stakeholders, the Original Plan was amended and on December 9, 2005, a majority in number of Affected Creditors representing more than two-thirds in value of the Affected Claims (as defined in the CCAA Plan) of each class voted to approve and adopt the CCAA Plan.

Stelco expects to emerge from Court protection under the CCAA on March 31, 2006.

The completion of the CBCA Plan is a condition precedent to obtaining a term loan from Tricap Management Limited ("Tricap") under the CCAA Plan. In connection with the CBCA Plan, Stelco will transfer certain of its assets into nine separate limited partnerships, each of which will carry on its own business, with some services being provided by Stelco (see section 2.3 "CBCA Plan" on page 8)

2.2 Three-year Overview

Stelco currently produces and markets rolled steel products. In 2005, Stelco's Integrated Steel segment produced 3.9 million tons of semi-finished steel and shipped 3.4 million tons of steel products valued at $2.6 billion. Annual integrated steelmaking capability at January 1, 2006, is 4.8 million semi-finished tons. During 2005, Stelco operated an integrated steel business consisting of two steel-producing plants: Stelco Hamilton in Hamilton, Ontario, and Stelco Lake Erie in Nanticoke, Ontario. Prior to their sale in 2005 and early 2006, Stelco's operations also consisted of its mini-mill business and its manufactured products business. Stelco sold two mini-mill steel-producing subsidiaries in the first quarter of 2006: Norambar Inc. ("Norambar") in Contrecoeur, Quebec, and AltaSteel Ltd. ("AltaSteel") in Edmonton, Alberta. Stelco also sold its manufactured products businesses comprising Stelfil Ltée ("Stelfil"), Stelwire and Stelpipe in 2005 and 2006. Steel products supplied by Stelco businesses to the North American market include hot rolled, cold rolled and coated sheet, and bars.

Over the three-year period 2003 to 2005, total Integrated Steel assets have decreased by approximately $193 million mainly due to: recording of valuation allowances against future income tax assets in 2003; and a write-down of the Stelco Hamilton plate mill assets in 2003. This was partially offset by an increase in capital spending and an increase in working capital.

In 2003, negative factors affected the Corporation including significant cost increases for inputs such as energy and scrap, as well as rising employee future benefit costs, industry overcapacity, and an increase in the value of the Canadian dollar relative to its U.S. counterpart. Another major negative factor was the emergence of a number of U.S. mills from creditor protection with reduced cost structures.

Average revenue per ton decreased in 2003 by 6% compared with 2002 due to the significant appreciation of the Canadian dollar relative to the U.S. currency, weak market demand, and a lower value-added mix of sales reflecting increased slab, billet, hot rolled, and Norambar bar sales.

Cost per ton was higher in 2003 than in 2002 due mainly to: higher input costs (particularly natural gas and scrap); reduced production levels at Stelco Hamilton in the first half of 2003 as a result of weak market demand and measures taken to reduce inventory levels; higher pension and health care expense; and a significant power outage in August. The cost increases were partially offset by: the lower value-added mix of sales, production recommencing at Norambar after the strike in 2002, cost reduction initiatives that included productivity and yield improvements primarily at the Integrated Steel Segment, and a $13 million property tax settlement at Stelco Hamilton.

Effective January 1, 2003, Stelco combined its two integrated steel operations located in Hamilton, Ontario, and Nanticoke, Ontario, into one business called Stelco Integrated Steel. Stelco announced the permanent closure of Welland Pipe on March 7, 2003, and a decision was made to close the plate mill at Stelco Hamilton in the fourth quarter of 2003.

In November 2003, Stelco renegotiated and renewed the terms of its $350 million credit facility (the "$350 Million Credit Facility").

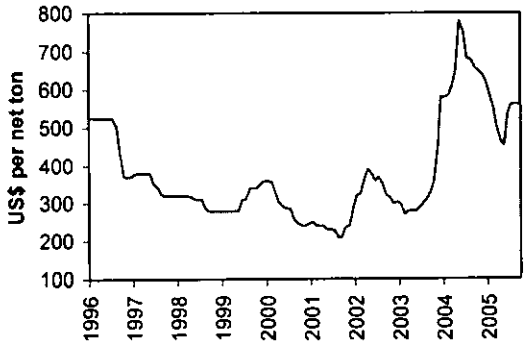
On January 29, 2004, the Applicants obtained the Initial Order from the Court granting them creditor protection under the CCAA. The Initial Order triggered defaults under substantially all debt obligations of the Applicants. The Initial Order, however, generally stays actions against the Applicants including steps to collect indebtedness incurred by the Applicants prior to the Filing Date and actions to exercise control over the Applicants' property. The Initial Order granted the Applicants the authority to pay outstanding and future wages, salaries, employee pension contributions and benefit payments, and other obligations to employees; the costs of goods and services, both operating and capital, provided or supplied after the date of the Initial Order; rent under existing arrangements payable after the date of the filing; and principal, interest, and other payments to holders of security in respect of the property of the Applicants if the amount secured by such security is, in the reasonable opinion of the applicable Applicant with the concurrence of the Monitor, less than or equal to the fair value of such security, having regard to, among other things, the priority of such security.

The Initial Order also created an event of default under the $350 Million Credit Facility. Stelco entered into the Accommodation Agreement, which provides for the continued access to the Applicants' $350 Million Credit Facility, and a $75 million Debtor-in-Possession Credit Agreement (the "DIP Credit Agreement") in early 2004. Following the CCAA filing, the Corporation was required to maintain a minimum of $75 million of excess eligible collateral over its drawings, letters of credit, and overdraft facility. Each of the other Applicants has guaranteed payment of the Corporation's obligations to the Lenders under the $350 Million Credit Facility and the DIP Credit Agreement. The $350 Million Credit Facility and related guarantees of the other Applicants have been secured by a first charge on the receivables, inventory and general intangibles of, and a second charge on the property, plant and equipment of, the Corporation and the other Applicants. Additionally, the $350 Million Credit Facility is secured by a first pledge of the shares of certain subsidiaries of the Corporation. The DIP Credit Agreement and related guarantees of the other Applicants are secured by a second charge on the receivables, inventory and general intangibles of, and a first charge on the property, plant and equipment of, the Corporation and the other Applicants. Additionally, the DIP Credit Agreement is secured by a second pledge of the shares of certain subsidiaries of the Corporation. The Applicants entered into amending agreements dated December 1, 2005, resulting in the extension of the credit facilities under the existing $350 Million Credit Facility and the DIP Credit Agreement to the earlier of March 31, 2006 and the effective date of the Plan, subject to termination of the credit facilities as a result of the occurrence of an event of default.

In July 2004, Stelco announced a four-point strategy to achieve a more stable revenue stream and competitive cost structure. The strategy's four-points are:

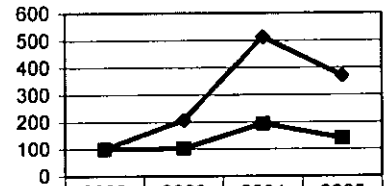
- Build on existing strengths that differentiate it from other steel producers;
- Focus on high-quality products for value-added markets, including the automotive and other sectors;
- Simplify the number of product lines, processes and facilities;
- Invest in new facilities that strengthen Stelco's competitive advantage.

The core of Stelco's operations is the integrated steel business in Hamilton and Lake Erie. Stelco planned to concentrate on producing higher-value products for value-added markets, including the automotive, construction and other manufacturing sectors.



As discussed under the CBCA Plan (see section 2.3 on page 8), the Hamilton and Lake Erie steel businesses will be transferred to separate limited partnerships.

Stelco reduced its ongoing operating costs through workforce attrition (in excess of 700 employees in 2004) with annual wages and salaries savings estimated at $40 million. The corporate office was moved to available premises at Stelco Hamilton, saving approximately $5 million in annual lease costs.



In 2004, the Canadian steel industry began to benefit from increased global demand, especially from China. Revenue per ton increased significantly in 2004, peaking in the third quarter. Factors positively affecting average revenue per ton for Canadian steel producers included improved market demand, which had the effect of raising prices, selling price surcharges implemented to cover high raw material and energy costs, and higher value-added mix of sales due to increased coated and prepaint shipments and reduced slab, hot rolled and rod sales.

Cost per ton increased in 2004 over 2003 primarily due to an unprecedented rise in raw material and energy costs (particularly scrap, coal, coke, natural gas, reagents, and fluxes), the higher value-added mix of sales, higher employment costs, higher spending for repairs and maintenance and supplies at the Integrated Steel business unit, a property tax settlement of $13 million at Stelco Hamilton in the third quarter of 2003, the work stoppage at the Wabush iron ore mine, and the Lake Erie blast furnace outage in June 2004. The above cost increases were partially offset by a $10 million partial recovery from an insurance claim related to the Lake Erie blast furnace outage in June 2004, increased production and yield improvements primarily at Stelco Hamilton, and a strengthening Canadian dollar.

The Stelco Lake Erie labour contract with Local 8782 of the United Steelworkers (the"USW") expired on July 31, 2004. The bargaining unit employees continued to work after the labour contract expired. A new labour contract was negotiated and became effective January 1, 2006, and will expire on July 31, 2009.

On July 5, 2004, Locals 6285, 6254 and 6680 of the USW at the Wabush iron ore mine, a joint venture partnership in which Stelco has a 44.6% interest and a supplier of iron ore pellets to Stelco, commenced a strike. On October 10, 2004, new collective agreements were ratified by the relevant labour unions, ending the strike. The collective agreements at Hibbing Mine and Tilden Mining Company expired on July 31, 2004. Stelco has a 15% interest in each of these mines. On July 28, 2004, tentative contract settlements for both these mines were reached and subsequently ratified.

The closure of CHT Steel occurred in February 2004. The rod mill at Stelco Hamilton closed in September 2004. After the plate mill was closed in 2003, a sale agreement for the plate mill assets was entered into with a purchaser in November 2004 and the transaction closed in June 2005 (see Note 5 to the Corporation's 2005 Consolidated Financial Statements). A sale agreement was executed in August 2004, for the sale of the 16" mill at Stelpipe that had been idle since 1998. The sale of the Welland Pipe Ltd. spiral-weld pipe mill closed in October 2004.

For the year ended December 31, 2005, net sales were similar to 2004, mainly due to the renewal of customer contracts for 2005 at higher prices, offset by lower spot market prices, and lower shipments. The net loss from continuing operations of $9 million included $76 million of pre-tax charges related to reorganization items.

Average revenue per ton increased in 2005 by 5% compared with 2004 due to the renewal of customer contracts for 2005 at higher prices, selling price surcharges implemented to cover high raw material and energy costs in the first half of 2005, partially offset by weaker spot market prices in the second half of 2005 compared to the same period in 2004, the negative impact of the higher Canadian dollar, the impact of the Lake Erie hot strip mill outage on shipments, and a lower value-added mix of sales mainly due to increased slab sales.

Cost per ton increased in 2005 by 9% compared with 2004 due to a rise in raw material and energy cost, particularly iron ore, coal, natural gas, and electricity; the fixed cost per ton impact of reduced output at the primary operations and Integrated Steel finishing mills required to balance steel inventory levels with market demand; and the impact of the Lake Erie hot strip mill upgrade; higher spending for repairs and maintenance and supplies; and higher fuel costs related to the mix of fuels used. The cost increases were partly offset by lower purchased coke and scrap prices, a lower value-added mix of sales, reduced labour costs at Stelco Hamilton, and a strengthening Canadian dollar.

In 2005, Stelco reduced its ongoing operating costs through workforce attrition (approximately 500 employees) with annual wages and salary savings estimated at $25 million.

During 2005, as part of its four-point strategic plan, Stelco sold:

(i) its 40% partnership interest in Camrose Pipe to Canadian National Steel Corporation. Proceeds of the sale of $22.5 million were held in escrow pending expiry of the appeal period applicable to the approval order;

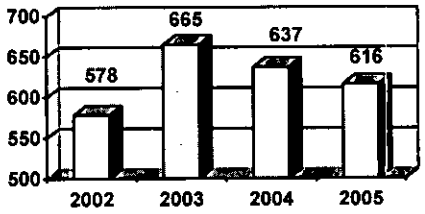
(ii) the Welland Pipe U and O pipe mill for $4 million;

(iii) substantially all of Stelpipe's assets to Lakeside Steel Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of Romspen Investment Corporation, which closed on October 31, 2005. The pre-tax loss recorded in 2005 on this sale was $51 million of which $21 million related to settlement and curtailment expenses both associated with the pension and other benefit plans related to the employees transferred to Lakeside Steel. The remainder reflects the loss on the sale of these assets;

(iv) AltaSteel to Moly Cop Steel Inc., an affiliate of Scaw International Sarl, which closed on January 31, 2006, with gross proceeds of $77 million (subject to final working capital adjustments). During the fourth quarter of 2005, a pre-tax curtailment loss of $12 million was recorded relating to the pension and other benefit plans at AltaSteel; and

(v) Norambar, Stelwire, and Stelfil to Mittal Canada Inc., which closed on February 1, 2006, with gross proceeds of $30 million (subject to final working capital adjustments). During the fourth quarter of 2005, a pre-tax curtailment loss of $23 million was recorded relating to the pension and other benefit plans at these subsidiaries.

2.3 CBCA Plan



A condition precedent to obtaining the term loan from Tricap under the CCAA Plan is that Stelco is reorganized into discrete business units in order to create maximum financial and operating flexibility and increased accountability for results. Accordingly, Stelco obtained a court order approving the CBCA Plan pursuant to section 192 of the Canada Business Corporations Act. Under the CBCA Plan, at the effective time (currently proposed to be March 31, 2006), Stelco will transfer substantially all of its assets into nine separate limited partnerships: the Hamilton Steel Limited Partnership, the Lake Erie Steel Limited Partnership, the Hamilton Coke Limited Partnership, the Lake Erie Coke Limited Partnership, the HMLTN Energy Limited Partnership, the Lake Erie Energy Limited Partnership, the Hamilton Land Limited Partnership, the Lake Erie Land Limited Partnership and the HLE Mining Limited Partnership. Each of these limited partnerships will carry on its own business with some services being provided by Stelco. The Order under the CBCA Plan includes a restriction on dividends.

2.4 Debt

All long-term debt of the Applicants has been stayed under the Initial Order. During the years 2003 to 2005, the Corporation reduced its long-term debt by $48 million. Repayment of long-term debt totalled $70 million, while borrowings amounted to $22 million for new enterprise resource planning systems. During the three years 2003 to 2005, net short-term debt increased by $65 million primarily as a result of negative cash flows due to operations, capital spending, and long-term debt repayment. Therefore, total debt decreased by $17 million ($65 million increase in net short-term debt partially offset by $48 million reduction in long-term debt). In addition, the $90 million convertible debenture is included in debt subject to compromise for 2004 and 2005 as filing for CCAA protection was an event of default. This restricted the Corporation's ability to satisfy interest repayments by way of issuing shares and exercising the convertible feature of the debenture.

($ in millions)

Long-term debt plus long-term portion of stayed debt plus net short-term debt (bank indebtedness net of cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash).*

2.5 Dividends and Share Repurchase

No shares were repurchased in 2003, 2004, or 2005 and no dividends were paid.

The Corporation suspended its quarterly dividend effective with the May 1, 2001 payment date.

2.6 Capital Structure

The capital structure of the Corporation is discussed in Note 19 to the Corporation's 2005 Consolidated Financial Statements.

2.7 Competition

Approximately 90% of Stelco sales are domestic, with domestic competition coming from Dofasco Inc. ("Dofasco"), Algoma Steel Inc. ("Algoma"), Mittal Canada Inc. and Hamilton Speciality Bar (formerly Slater Steel Inc.). Mittal Steel USA ISG Inc., United States Steel Corp., Nucor Corp., AK Steel Corp., Severstal N.A. Inc., and Republic Engineered Products are the main competitors from the United States.

2.8 Customer Contracts

The majority of Stelco's customer contracts are annual contracts, which expire annually on December 31. Most 2005 contracts were renewed for 2006. Stelco also entered into a new supply contract with General Motors. Stelco was not able to conclude a contract with General Motors for 2005 due to the fact that USW Local 8782 and Stelco had not signed a new labour agreement (expired July 31, 2004). Stelco's 2005 contract prices were relatively high due to peak pricing levels experienced in late 2004. Through 2005, prices moderated and the new contract prices established for 2006 are lower than 2005.

2.9 Risk Factors

2.9.1 Risks and Uncertainties

Plan Implementation

There are no assurances that the conditions to plan implementation will be met or that the CCAA Plan will be implemented. The failure to achieve CCAA Plan implementation, or a delay in CCAA Plan implementation, could materially negatively affect the Corporation.

Pricing

Factors affecting volatility of selling prices include:

- the strength of the economy in the United States;
- the impact China may have globally as its economy grows and the relationship of its consumption of steel relative to its growth in steelmaking capacity;
- the impact of imports and threat of imports from Europe and Asia on North American selling prices;
- the U.S./Canadian dollar exchange rate;
- the cyclical nature of the steel industry; and
- material substitution when steel prices are relatively high.

Stelco and the steel industry experienced unprecedented price increases in 2004. Inventories peaked as 2004 ended and prices declined significantly throughout the first three quarters of 2005 before recovering somewhat and stabilizing in the fourth quarter. Due to price volatility, the Corporation cannot rely on high selling prices being sustainable in the longer term and its businesses must take steps to lower overall costs.

Costs

Stelco must continue with its efforts to lower costs in order to ensure its long-term viability. Stelco has identified specific cost reduction initiatives including managed attrition and improvement in maintenance planning which will reduce repairs and maintenance costs, increase throughput as well as reduce electrical and mechanical delays. These cost reduction initiatives, along with strategic capital spending, are essential to achieving long-term viability. There can be no assurance that cost reduction initiatives will be sufficient to sustain long-term viability.

Possible Fluctuation in Raw Material and Energy Costs

The Integrated Steel operations are heavily dependent on the supply of various raw materials, including iron ore, coal, coke and energy. The Integrated Steel results of operations could be adversely affected by supply interruptions or increases in the cost of materials and energy.

Labour Matters

The Corporation's workforce is predominantly unionized and is covered by various labour agreements. The Stelco Hamilton labour contract with USW Local 1005 will expire on July 31, 2006. There can be no assurance that labour difficulties at any of the businesses units in which Stelco has an interest will not result in a significant loss of production and revenue and have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, results of operations of Stelco, or the ability of Stelco to restructure.

Pension Plans

Provincial pension standards legislation requires that the funded status of registered pension plans be determined periodically on both a going concern basis (i.e., assuming indefinite plan continuation) and a solvency basis (i.e., essentially assuming immediate plan termination).

Where an actuarial valuation reveals a solvency deficiency, current regulations in Ontario generally require it to be funded by equal monthly cash payments over a maximum period of five years from the date of valuation.

The solvency liability is influenced primarily by long-term interest rates on which annuity purchase rates are based. The interest rate used to calculate the benefit obligations for solvency purposes is a prescribed rate derived from the interest rates on long-term Government of Canada bonds. In the current low interest rate environment, the calculation results in a higher present value of the pension obligations, leading to larger solvency liabilities.

The aggregate solvency deficiency under Stelco's four main pension plans as at December 31, 2005 was $1.5 billion (December 31, 2004 - $1.1. billion).

Solvency deficiency payments are not required where the employer has taken the Section 5.1 Election under the Pension Benefits Act (Ontario). Stelco has been operating under the Section 5.1 Election for its four main pension plans, but pursuant to arrangements with the Province, to take effect upon the implementation of the CCAA Plan, Stelco will cease to operate under the Section 5.1 Election and will enter into a funding agreement aimed at eliminating over a ten-year period the existing solvency deficiencies in the four main pension plans.

Absent the Section 5.1 Election, annual pension funding would increase significantly beyond the level of annual payments required under the Pension Plan Funding Arrangements described in the Overview of the CCAA Plan of the Management's Discussion and Analysis in the 2005 Annual Report. For example, had the Section 5.1 Election not been in effect in 2005 with no other arrangement in place, Stelco's 2005 contributions to its four main pension plans would have increased more than $348 million over the current level of funding. This level of payment is not sustainable by Stelco.

Despite the level of contributions under the Pension Agreements, the solvency deficiency could grow as a result of actuarial losses.

Environmental Compliance

The Corporation's business is subject to substantial and evolving environmental laws and regulations concerned with, among other things, emissions into the air, discharges to water or land, noise control, and the generation, handling, storage, transportation, and disposal of toxic and hazardous substances. These laws and regulations vary depending on the location of the facility and can fall within federal, provincial, or municipal jurisdictions.

In meeting its overall environmental goals and government-imposed standards in 2005, the Corporation incurred operating costs of $71 million ($70 million in 2004) and spent $3 million on capital improvements ($1 million in 2004). Stelco Hamilton has a benzene emissions reduction program underway, with spending of approximately $4 million in 2005 and estimated additional costs of $5 million over the next two years.

Stelco regularly reviews and audits the operating practices of each business to monitor compliance with the Corporation's health and safety, environmental policies and legal requirements. The Corporation believes that future costs relating to environmental compliance can be dealt with in a manner that they will not have a material adverse effect on the Corporation's financial position. There is the possibility, however, that unforeseen changes, such as in the laws or enforcement policies of relevant government bodies, or the discovery of changed conditions on the Corporation's real property or in its operations could result in an increase in the costs of environmental compliance that could result in a material adverse effect on the Corporation's financial position.

Stelco is heavily dependent upon the continuous operation of its plants and equipment. There can be no assurance that unplanned down time at any of Stelco's facilities will not have a material adverse effect on Stelco. Stelco maintains first-party property and boiler and machinery breakdown insurance, both of which include business interruption coverage, to address some of these exposures to the extent of the limits of coverage and the terms of the individual insurance contracts.

Technology

The Corporation is subject to competition from new technological developments used by other steel producers. Limited liquidity and cash conservation measures over the last several years have caused the Corporation to reduce spending to capital and nonessential maintenance. However, over the last five years the Corporation has made capital expenditures on several projects to maintain and enhance its technological ability including the following:

- Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mill, blast furnace, and caster upgrades;
- Stelco Hamilton coke oven refurbishment, "E" blast furnace improvements, 4-stand upgrade, roll shop grinder refurbishment, batch anneal control system, Z-Line surface inspection system; and
- ERP systems implementation for Stelco's maintenance, procurement, human resources, and finance functions.

Expenditures in 2006 are expected to include the installation of the Lake Erie hot strip finishing mill sixth finishing stand, the quick roll change system and other strategic capital initiatives.

Stelco's current strategic plan requires continual improvement in both its product and process technologies in order to maintain its competitive position in the high value-added automotive market. In particular, failure to meet the automotive industry's ever-more-demanding requirements for product quality and service, and failure to provide the new grades of advanced high-strength steels will seriously jeopardize Stelco's long-term participation in this market. Similarly, for Stelco's businesses to maintain a competitive cost structure will require the ongoing selective implementation of new process technologies throughout its steelmaking processes. There is no assurance that any Stelco business will be able to improve its product and process technologies in accordance with the strategic plan or that the improvements, once implemented, will meet the automotive market's quality and service requirements.

Steel Consolidation

The steel industry has and continues to consolidate. There are risks related to not participating in consolidation, including risks related to cost competitiveness and access to large customers.

Supply and Pricing of Raw Material and Energy

The Corporation's operations require substantial amounts of raw materials and energy including coal, iron ore, coke, scrap, natural gas, electricity, and other inputs. The price and availability of such raw materials and inputs are subject to market forces where the Corporation does not have ownership interests and, in some cases, to government regulations and, accordingly, are subject to change. Increases in the price of natural gas, coal, scrap and coke can have a significant negative impact on the costs of Stelco's businesses.

The Corporation produces approximately 85% of its annual coke requirements through its own coke ovens. However, it purchases 100% of its metallurgical coal requirements (raw material for the coke ovens) at market prices. Stelco has secured 100% of its 2006 metallurgical coal requirements under purchase contracts. The coke operations are to be transferred to the coke limited partnerships under the CBCA Plan.

Through its ownership interests in iron ore mining properties and related supply agreements, Stelco has secured approximately 90% of its 2006 requirements at its cost of production. These mining interests are to be transferred to the mining limited partnerships under the CBCA Plan.

The Corporation's financial performance is exposed to price volatility associated with the electricity commodity market. The Government of Ontario introduced competition to the electricity market on May 1, 2002, giving rise to uncertainty of prices since commodity prices are now determined based on hourly supply and demand requirements. Large industrial end-users such as Stelco have been provided with some relief through a rebate program called the "Rebate on OPG Non-Prescribed Assets". On February 9, 2006, the provincial government announced that they have extended the rebate program to April 30, 2009. Stelco's strategic plan includes co-generation facilities that will minimize Stelco's short- and long-term exposure to energy price fluctuations.

Trade

World crude steel production increased 5.9% in 2005 to reach 1.129 billion metric tons. Chinese producers accounted for all of the growth. The rest of world production actually decreased by 1.1%. North American production was down 5.3%. Continued capacity installation in China and other countries will place additional pressure on North American markets in 2006.

Imports into Canada in 2005 reached 51% of apparent domestic consumption. That level is likely to increase further in 2006 as countries formerly exporting to China, along with China itself, may ramp up shipments to Canada.

The Corporation is participating as a petitioner in a sunset review of a Canadian unfair trade ruling with respect to hot rolled coils from several countries and as a respondent in a U.S. sunset review of corrosion resistant (galvanized) steel coils from Canada. Rulings on both are expected in 2006.

Employees

Approximately 27% of the Corporation's salaried workforce and 45% of the hourly workforce at Stelco Hamilton are eligible to retire under the current provisions of the defined pension benefit plans. A further 34% and 46% respectively of these employee groups could retire in the next five years under current eligibility provisions. Stelco is currently recruiting individuals to satisfy its manpower requirements consistent with its succession plans and attrition rates.

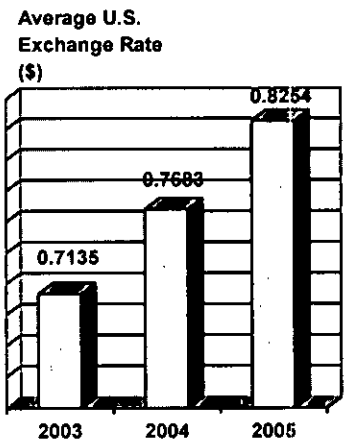
Retention of the skills and knowledge of the Corporation's employees, and the ability to attract and retain new employees where replacement is considered critical, is essential to the Corporation's continued operations.

Information Technology

Information Technology ("IT") services are primarily delivered by EDS Canada through the ten-year agreement initiated in April 2002. Modifications to the agreement were negotiated in 2005 to ensure improved focus on business requirements and metrics.

Major initiatives in 2005 included:

- Final testing of the first phase of the order flow ERP system, which will reduce the Corporation's dependence on aging legacy systems. Implementation is planned for the second quarter of 2006. Although the application has been delivered and tested in modules, there is a risk that the integrated testing may reveal additional development requirements, which could further delay the implementation. In the meantime, the legacy systems remain available for these applications.
- Review of business process documentation, application controls and general IT controls in support of financial reporting.
- Support of the Stelco maintenance improvement program and the strategic capital spending.



Related Party Transactions

The Corporation is a vertically integrated producer of steel products. As such, several transactions occur between entities that are related; for example, between Stelco, the parent company, and its wholly owned subsidiaries and joint ventures.

In 2005, the Integrated Steel business acquired approximately 3,500,000 gross tons of iron ore at a market value of $297 million from companies in which the Corporation has an ownership interest (3,600,000 gross tons in 2004 at a market value of $190 million). In addition, businesses in the Integrated Steel segment sold approximately $118 million ($226 million in 2004) of in-process steel to businesses in the Manufactured Products segment during 2005. All of the Manufacturing Products segment businesses have now been sold.

Currency Fluctuations

Stelco is a net purchaser of U.S. dollars. Accordingly, any strengthening of the Canadian dollar results in a benefit to Stelco for its net purchases of U.S. funds. However, more than offsetting the above is the negative effect on Stelco's domestic sales revenue due to the following reasons. Firstly, many of Stelco's domestic customers export their products into the U.S. Thus, a stronger Canadian dollar can cause those customers to be less competitive in the U.S. and the customers may resist price increases or request steel price reductions from Stelco. Secondly, U.S. exports of steel into Canada have historically forced domestic steel prices in Canadian dollars downward. Finally, the North American benchmark for spot market prices for certain products, such as hot rolled, are established and determined in U.S. dollars. A strong Canadian dollar results in lower benchmark prices in Canadian dollars for 2006.

3.5.1 Stelco Hamilton

Stelco Hamilton is a division of Stelco. It occupies 1,100 acres, including harbour facilities, in Hamilton, Ontario. It is a fully integrated steelmaking facility. Its location on Lake Ontario provides good access to raw material sources in Canada and the United States via water-borne transportation. In addition, its location provides ready access via water, rail, and highway transportation to steel-consuming markets in Canada and the U.S.

(a) Semi-finished Steel

Facilities used in the production of semi-finished steel include an 83-oven coke oven battery, a pulverized coal injection facility, a blast furnace, a sinter plant, a three-vessel basic oxygen furnace shop, and a ladle metallurgy/continuous casting complex with one slab caster and one combination slab/bloom caster. Annual semi-finished steelmaking capability is 2.2 million tons.

Steel slabs and blooms produced are used at Stelco Hamilton in the production of sheet and bar products. In addition, slabs are shipped to Stelco Lake Erie for hot rolling or can be sold to third parties.

(b) Strip

Slabs for flat rolled products are hot-processed through a 56-inch coilbox-equipped hot strip mill. The 56-inch hot strip mill is scheduled to close in third quarter 2006, after completion of the Lake Erie 80-inch hot strip mill upgrade quick roll change and sixth finishing stand.

A significant portion of hot rolled sheet output is further processed at the cold rolling and coating facilities in Stelco Hamilton. Principal markets for hot rolled sheet are the automotive sector, pipe and tubular products manufacturers, and steel service centres. Over the past three years, approximately 5% of the shipments of hot rolled sheet were to related-party customers.

Major competitors in the hot rolled sheet market include Dofasco, Mittal and Algoma in Canada, a number of integrated and mini-mill steel producers in the U.S., and imports.

(c) Cold Rolled and Coated

Hot rolled sheet from both the Stelco Hamilton and Stelco Lake Erie hot strip mills, (after pickling to remove scale), is further processed by cold rolling through an 80-inch, 4-stand, 4-high tandem mill or a 56-inch, 5-stand (scheduled to close in third quarter 2006), 4-high tandem mill. Other facilities of Stelco Hamilton include a batch annealing facility, two temper mills, and two hot-dipped galvanizing lines. Stelco Hamilton also provides management and operating services to the Z-Line Company, a third hot-dipped galvanizing/galvannealing facility (see section 3.5.3 on page 17).

Stelco Hamilton is a supplier of cold rolled and coated sheet products to the North American market. Coated sheet products include galvanized and prepainted sheet. Prepainted sheet is produced at Baycoat limited partnership ("Baycoat") (see section 3.5.3 on page 17).

Principal markets for cold rolled and coated products in North America are the automotive, construction, appliance, and steel service centre sectors.

Principal competitors in the market for cold rolled and coated sheets in North America include Dofasco and Algoma in Canada, a number of steel producers in the United States, and imports.

(d) Bar

Cast blooms for bar products are hot-processed through a bloom and billet mill to produce billets, which are then processed through a bar mill.

The principal market for bar products in North America is the automotive sector.

This division's principal competitors in North America include Mittal and Hamilton Speciality Bar in Canada, and Republic Technologies International and a number of mini-mill producers in the United States.

3.5.2 Stelco Lake Erie

Stelco Lake Erie is situated on 6,600 acres in Nanticoke, Ontario, on the north shore of Lake Erie, approximately 65 kilometres from Hamilton. It is a fully integrated steelmaking facility, commissioned in stages from 1980 to 1983. Included in this acreage is a 2,500-acre industrial park and a woodlot preserve to form a buffer zone on the north side of this facility, which is in a predominantly rural location. Its location provides good access to raw material sources via water-borne transportation. Its location also provides ready access via highway transportation to steel-consuming markets in Canada and the United States.

Primary production facilities include a 45-oven coke oven battery, a blast furnace, a two-vessel basic oxygen furnace shop, a vacuum degasser, ladle trim station, and a twin-strand slab caster. Annual semi-finished steelmaking capability is 2.6 million tons, all in the form of slabs. Slabs produced at Stelco Lake Erie and Stelco Hamilton are rolled on a coilbox-equipped, 80-inch hot strip mill, which has an annual rolling capacity of 3.0 million tons.

The 80-inch hot strip mill is currently being upgraded, which will increase its annual capacity to 3.7 million tons. The first phase of the upgrade (new higher horsepower rougher motors) was completed in fourth quarter 2005. The second phase of the upgrade (quick roll change and sixth finishing stand) will be completed in 2006 and the final phase (finish mill drives upgrade) will be completed by second quarter 2007.

Stelco Lake Erie is focused on the production and sale of high-quality hot rolled sheet. Principal markets for hot rolled sheet products in North America are the automotive sector, steel service centres, and pipe and tubular products manufacturers. Over the past three years, approximately 25% of the hot rolled shipments of this division were to related-party customers, most of which is shipped to Stelco Hamilton for cold rolled and galvanized applications.

Stelco Lake Erie's major competitors in the North American market for hot rolled sheet include Dofasco and Algoma in Canada, a number of integrated and mini-mill steel producers in the United States, and imports.

3.5.3 Steel Processing

Stelco USA, Inc.

Stelco USA, Inc. ("Stelco USA"), wholly owned by Stelco through Stelco Holding Company, is located in Troy, Michigan. Stelco USA purchases the products of Stelco's businesses for the purposes of consignment, further processing, and warehousing in the United States prior to shipment to the final customer.

Z-Line Company

Stelco owns 60% of the Z-Line Company, a galvanizing line which is located at Stelco Hamilton (see section 3.5.1(c) on page 16). The Z-line is a toll coating facility that zinc coats cold rolled sheets for Stelco Hamilton for a wide variety of demanding applications, primarily automotive. Stelco's partner is Metal One Canada Corporation.

Baycoat Limited Partnership

Stelco owns 50% of Baycoat. Baycoat applies a variety of paint finishes to flat rolled steel coils at its facility in Hamilton, Ontario. Baycoat operates three coil-coating lines each equipped to coat cold rolled or galvanized substrates with a variety of exterior and interior paint systems. Baycoat's customers are its owners, Stelco and Dofasco.

D.C. Chrome Limited

Stelco owns 50% of D.C. Chrome Limited. Stelco's partner in D.C. Chrome Limited is The Court Group of Companies Limited.

D.C. Chrome operates a plant in Stoney Creek, Ontario, to texture and chromium plate work rolls used in the cold rolling of steel at Stelco Hamilton as well as for other customers and the grinding and chroming of steel shafts used in manlifts.

3.6 Sale of Businesses

Stelco sold its Mini-mill segment businesses, viewed as a non-core asset, in the first quarter of 2006. Stelco's Manufactured Products segment businesses, viewed as non-core assets, were sold in 2005 and 2006.

3.7 Raw Materials and Energy

3.7.1 Integrated Steel Segment

The principal raw materials used in the Corporation's integrated steelmaking operations are coal, iron ore, scrap and coke. Stelco owns minority interests in iron ore properties in North America to ensure secure sources of iron ore. Ownership sources, through direct receipts or trade, permit Stelco to obtain approximately 90% of total iron ore requirements at its production cost (see section 3.8 below for further details). Stelco's coke oven batteries are capable of producing 85% of its requirements. The Corporation believes that the current sources of coal are sufficiently stable and adequate for maintaining operations. Stelco purchases all of its coal and approximately 15% of its coke requirements on the open market.

3.7.2 Energy

The Stelco business is energy intensive. The Corporation is a major consumer of natural gas and electricity and is susceptible to volatility in price. See page 25 in the Management's Discussion and Analysis section of the Corporation's 2005 Annual Report for further discussion on supply and pricing of raw materials and energy.

3.8 Iron Ore Mines

Stelco directly or indirectly owns interests in the following three North American iron ore mines:

	Percent Ownership Interest as of December 31
Location and Name	2005	2004	2003
Tilden Mining Company L.L.C. Michigan (Marquette Range)	15.0	15.0	15.0
Hibbing Taconite Company – Joint Venture Minnesota (Mesabi Range)	14.7	14.7	14.7
Wabush Mines – Joint Venture Canada (Newfoundland and Quebec)	44.6	44.6	44.6

3.8.1 Tilden Mine

The Tilden mine is located on the Marquette Iron Range in Michigan's Upper Peninsula approximately five miles south of Ishpeming, Michigan. The Tilden mine has been in operation since 1974. On January 31, 2002, Cleveland-Cliffs Inc. increased its ownership of the Tilden mine to 85% by acquiring Algoma's 45% interest in the mine. Cleveland-Cliffs manages the mine. Each partner takes its share of production pro rata; however, provisions in the partnership agreement allow additional or reduced production to be delivered under certain circumstances. Cleveland-Cliffs owns all of the ore reserves at the Tilden mine and leases them to Tilden.

3.8.2 Hibbing Mine

The Hibbing mine is located in the centre of Minnesota's Mesabi Iron Range and is approximately ten miles north of Hibbing, Minnesota and five miles west of Chisholm, Minnesota. The Hibbing mine has been in operation since 1976. In 2002, Cleveland-Cliffs acquired from Bethlehem Steel Corporation an 8% interest in the Hibbing mine, which increased its ownership to 23%. In 2005, Mittal acquired ISG which has a 62.3% interest and Cleveland-Cliffs manages the mine. Each partner takes its share of production pro rata. Provisions in the joint venture agreement allow additional or reduced production to be delivered under certain circumstances.

3.8.3 Wabush Mines

The Wabush mine and concentrator is located in Wabush, Labrador, Canada, and the pellet plant is located in Pointe Noire, Quebec, Canada. The Wabush mine has been in operation since 1965. In 1997, Cleveland-Cliffs acquired Inland Steel's (now Mittal Steel USA ISG Inc.) interest in the Wabush mine. In August 2002, the Corporation acquired its proportionate share (approximately 6.73%) of the 15.09% interest rejected by Acme Metals Incorporated in its bankruptcy proceedings. As a result of this event, Stelco increased its ownership in the mine from 37.87% to 44.6%. Cleveland-Cliffs manages the mine. Cleveland-Cliffs has a 26.83% interest and Dofasco has a 28.57% interest in the mine.

3.8.4 Mine Facilities

Each of the mines has crushing, concentrating, and pelletizing facilities. The facilities at each site are in satisfactory condition, although they require routine capital and maintenance expenditures on an ongoing basis.

3.8.5 Transportation

Railroads link the Tilden mine with Lake Michigan at the loading port of Escanaba, Michigan and with the Lake Superior loading port of Marquette, Michigan. From the Mesabi Range, Hibbing pellets are transported by rail to a ship-loading port at Superior, Wisconsin. At the Wabush mine, concentrates are shipped by rail from the Scully mine at Wabush to Pointe Noire where they are pelletized for shipment via vessel to Canada, the United States and other international destinations or shipped as concentrates for sinter feed to Europe.

Total	4.54	4.02	4.50

[1]Tons are long tons of pellets of 2,240 pounds

3.8.7 Exploration and Development

The Tilden, Hibbing, and Wabush mines are all open pit mines that are well past the exploration stage and are in production. Additional pit development is underway at each mine as required by long-range mine plans. Drilling programs are conducted periodically for the purpose of refining guidance related to ongoing operations.

Geologic models are developed for all mines to define the major ore and waste rock types. Computerized block models are then constructed that include all relevant geologic and metallurgical data. These are used to generate grade and tonnage estimates, followed by detailed mine designs.

3.9 Health, Safety and Environment

The Corporation's group of businesses is subject to substantial and evolving environmental laws and regulations concerning, among other things, emissions to the air, discharges to water or land, noise control, and the handling, storage, transportation, treatment, and disposal of toxic, hazardous and non-hazardous substances. These laws and regulations vary depending on the location of the business and can involve federal, provincial, and municipal levels of government.

In 2005, the Stelco group of businesses incurred operating costs of $71 million and spent $3 million on capital improvements to meet overall corporate and business environmental goals and objectives, and to maintain compliance with environmental laws. The Corporation believes that future costs relating to environmental compliance can be dealt with in a manner that they will not have a material adverse effect on its financial position, but there can be no assurance that unforeseen changes in the laws or enforcement policies of relevant government bodies, or the discovery of changed conditions on the Corporation's real property or in its operations, will not result in materially adverse costs.

The Corporation engages in a range of non-regulatory, cooperative activities aimed at environmental abatement and improvement.

- Canadian Steel Producers Association Statement of Commitment and Action;
- Canadian Industrial Program for Energy Conservation (CIPEC);
- Canadian Chemical Producers' Association (CCPA) Responsible Care and its Memorandum of Understanding VOC Annex (incorporates former Environment Minister's Benzene Challenge);
- Local Community Advisory Panels;
- Hamilton Air Quality Committee and Hamilton Industrial Environmental Association;
- Remedial Action Plan for Hamilton Harbour;
- Stelco Hamilton and Stelco Lake Erie both ISO 14001 registered;
- Stelco Hamilton benzene emissions reduction program.

The Corporation maintains an internal health, safety, environment, asset integrity, and risk audit system, which is carried out at the Integrated Steel business level, to determine compliance with legal requirements and Stelco's corporate policies in these areas.

The Corporation complies with a variety of health and safety legislation administered by provincial authorities throughout Canada where facilities are located. The Corporation does not believe that it is faced with any requirements in respect of health and safety or industrial hygiene that will have a material adverse effect on the Corporation's financial position.

On January 10, 2005, the Government of Canada, the Government of Ontario and the Canadian Steel Producers Association signed a Memorandum of Understanding to work together to address climate change and Canada's obligations under the Kyoto Protocol. The agreement sets out short-term and longer-term plans for government and industry action to reduce greenhouse gas emissions. Stelco and the Canadian steel industry have reduced greenhouse emissions intensity (kilograms of greenhouse gasses per tonne of steel shipped) by 10% from 1990 levels.

3.9.1 Health, Safety and Environment Policy and Vision

The health and safety of Stelco's employees and protection of the environment are the top priorities at Stelco. Stelco is committed to continued responsibility and excellence in the health and safety of its employees and in protecting and enhancing the environments of the communities where it has operating facilities.

Stelco manages its business in a manner that leaves employees and its communities healthy and safe while producing quality products for its customers. Stelco recognizes this is a long-term commitment which requires continuous improvement to its practices as new developments occur in health, safety and in environmental science, and as advances are made in technology.

Stelco works toward this vision by:

- Employing safe technologies and operating procedures and by being prepared for emergencies including cooperation with government and other businesses where community action is needed;
- Minimizing and striving to eliminate the release of substances that adversely affect the work environment or cause damage to the natural environment;
- Committing management resources, including a Health, Safety and Environment committee of the Board of Directors, to ensure the implementation of its policies and procedures, and compliance with regulatory requirements;
- Conducting regular self-evaluations of health, safety and environmental performance at each facility. Risk evaluation techniques will be employed to prevent environmental incidents;
- Maintaining a system of pre-evaluation of capital appropriations to ensure compatibility with its Health, Safety and Environmental policies and procedures;
- Requiring employees to share the responsibility of reporting and improving upon conditions that pose health and safety risks or threaten the environment;
- Continually improving the education of its employees in health, safety and environmental matters including joint programs with the Unions at our manufacturing sites;

- Making sustainable use of renewable natural resources, conserving non-renewable natural resources through efficient use and careful planning, and continuing to recycle products after use for the production of new steel;
- Minimizing the creation of waste and maximizing the reuse and recycling of materials. Disposing of all wastes will continue to be done through methods known to be safe and responsible;
- Investing in improved efficiency and conservation in its operations and making every effort to use environmentally safe and sustainable energy sources to meet its needs.

In addition to protecting the health and safety of its employees and the environments of the communities where Stelco has operating facilities, Stelco believes that adherence to these principles will sustain the viability of its businesses, and enable it to continue to provide value to its employees, communities, customers and shareholders.

3.9.2 Corporate Environmental Policy

Stelco's commitment is to meet or exceed legal requirements, and the requirements of other environmental commitments and agreements, which are in place to protect land, air, water, plants, animals and the enjoyment of life. To this end, Stelco is committed to developing and applying feasible and effective methods and technologies for the elimination, reduction, collection, containment, recycling and disposal of materials which are of environmental concern, and to setting and reviewing environmental objectives and targets to achieve continual improvement, and the prevention of pollution.

3.10 Discrimination and Harassment Policy

The Corporation believes that the human rights of all employees must be protected, so as to ensure that every person is treated with dignity and respect.

It is the Corporation's position that no individual should suffer from or be exposed to discrimination or harassment at work, based upon that person's race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, sex, handicap, age, record of criminal offences, family, marital or employment status. Harassment is a course of conduct or comment that offends or abuses a person on any of the grounds stated above, where such behaviour is known or ought reasonably be known to be offensive and unwelcome.

In order to ensure the consistent application of this policy, it is both the right and the responsibility of any employee who believes that he or she has been subjected to harassment as defined above to immediately report such concerns to the designated representative. All allegations will be fully investigated in a confidential manner. The results of any investigation will be made known to affected employees.

Any employee who, as a result of a full investigation is determined to be in violation of the Corporation's discrimination and harassment policy may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including discharge from employment.

3.11 Employees

The Corporation, directly and through its wholly owned subsidiaries, employed the following:

Year	Average	As at December 31
2005	7,198	6,267
2003	8,399	8,328

Of this total in 2005, approximately 75% were represented by seven separate collective bargaining agreements, such agreements being limited to single plants. Refer to Management's Discussion and Analysis in the 2005 Annual Report for further details.

3.12 Research and Technology

Stelco spent $2 million on scientific research and experimental development activities in 2005. Development continued for bake hardenable and dual-phase steels licensed from JFE Steel Corporation. In addition, development of several other new advanced automotive grades of sheet steels was undertaken. Stelco continued to support the McMaster University Steel Research Centre and was instrumental in the establishment of the Stelco/NSERC Chair in steel product applications on August 1, 2003. A research program on coated steel processes and products is underway under the direction of Dr. J. R. McDermid. An integral part of this initiative was the acquisition and commissioning of a multi-purpose coating simulator by McMaster University to support the specialized research program on galvanizing and galvannealing of Advanced High Strength Steels required by the automotive industry.

3.13 Specialized Skill and Knowledge

Stelco is continually identifying the specialized skills and knowledge required across all of its operations and support functions. Stelco is undertaking training activities and programs to ensure its employees have the requisite expertise. Where required to replace technical skill sets lost through retirements, Stelco is also undertaking selective hiring of both new graduates and qualified professionals.

3.14 New Products

Stelco's Cold Rolled & Coated Division continued to support commercialization of recently launched products including grades of automotive applications and galvanized and residential door steel grades for the construction market.

Stelco's Bar Division has continued to support the commercialization of our StelR MM grade as an alternative for conventional spring grades. This product has provided automotive spring manufacturers a cost-effective product that combines higher strength and improved toughness to achieve weight savings.

3.15 Products and Processes Under Development

To meet automotive industry demands for advanced high-strength steel, Stelco is developing sheet grades and hot-form die-quench steels. Stelco is also developing stretch-flangeable hot rolled for wheel and frame applications and developing more robust product and process practices for hot rolled impact critical grades for line pipe.

Stelco is a major supplier of hot rolled bar in coil form for the manufacture of helical springs. Development of new processing techniques for hot rolled bar in coil form is underway to provide improved surface quality and microstructures for cold drawn automotive helical coil spring rounds. In addition, Stelco is commissioning the hot eye surface inspection technology in both its Hamilton bloom and bar mills.

At Stelco Hamilton's BOF, the Corporation has signed a contract to develop and demonstrate Techint's Goodfellow EFSOP™ system for use in BOF steelmaking to improve energy efficiency and decrease greenhouse gas emissions.

3.16 Patents and Trademarks

The operations of Stelco's businesses are not dependent, to any significant extent, upon any single or related patents, licences, or franchises. The Corporation's operations are also not dependent upon any single trademark, although certain trademarks are identified with a number of the Corporation's products and services (see section 3.8 "Iron Ore Mines" on page 18).

3.17 Foreign Operations

The Corporation has owned minority interests in properties for producing iron ore in the U.S. for many years. These properties are an important source of raw materials for the integrated steelmaking units. Although these properties and the operations associated with them are located in a foreign country, the Corporation believes that there are no material risks associated with them by virtue of that fact.

3.18 Accounting Policy Changes

Please see Note 3 to the Corporation's 2005 Consolidated Financial Statements for changes in accounting policy.

12. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

See discussions elsewhere in this Annual Information Form concerning restructuring proceedings before the Court pursuant to the CCAA.

On December 17, 2004, the Court made an order in the CCAA proceedings establishing a process by which certain creditors of the Applicants must prove their claims (the "Claims Procedure Order"). The claims process set out in the Claims Procedure Order establishes the amount of certain claims against each Applicant in existence as at the date of the Initial Order (the "Pre-Filing Claims") and claims arising against each Applicant since the date of the Initial Order arising out of the restructuring, repudiation or termination of any contract, lease or other agreement (a "Restructuring Claim").

The Monitor received 1,404 Proofs of Claim representing total claims, prior to any disallowances or revisions, of approximately $3.645 billion. The Monitor, in conjunction with the Applicants, reviewed and examined each Proof of Claim and after disallowances and revisions expect that the value of claims ultimately allowed will be approximately $546 million.

In early December 2002, the Ministry of Labour laid three charges relating to the fatality that occurred in 2001 in the No. 1 Bar Mill at Stelco Hamilton. Stelco was convicted and a fine of $250,000 was paid. The matter is currently under appeal.

There are various grievances and arbitration matters outstanding together with various human rights complaints. Stelco has agreed to proceed with certain arbitrations, notwithstanding the stay of proceedings.

There are no current environmental charges or investigations underway of which the Corporation is aware.

There are no claims that the Corporation considers material with respect to amounts involved, other than with the exception of the Alstom matter and Georgian Windpower. In the Alstom proceedings, Stelco is claiming approximately $85 million in damages for breach of contract, negligence and negligent misrepresentation. The defendant is Alstom Power Conversion Inc. and JNE Constructors Ltd. The matter is the subject of a current arbitration proceeding in Ontario. A counter-claim has been made against Stelco for damages for approximately $U.S. 4.5 million by Alstom.

In addition, a $350 million lawsuit was launched against the Corporation by Georgian Windpower Corporation ("GWC") relating to a Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") and Agreement to Enter into a Land Lease Agreement ("AELLA") that the Corporation terminated in accordance with its provisions in April 2005. As ordered by the Court on June 28, 2005, the claim relating to the MOU should be removed from the statement of claim and dismissed. This ruling was overturned by the Ontario Court of Appeal in January 2006. With respect to that portion of the claim that relied on the AELLA, the Court held that the AELLA portion of the claim could proceed and that the stay would be lifted to allow it to be initiated and filed, but that no further action may be taken by GWC until the Corporation emerges from CCAA protection except with leave of the Court. As a result of the Ontario Court of Appeal decision, both the MOU and ALLEA will survive the CCAA process. The result of this claim is not determinable at this time and consequently the Corporation has not recorded any provisions in the consolidated financial statements.

Several of Stelco's joint ventures have civil litigation proceedings outstanding including employment matters, injuries and asbestos-related claims. None of the matters are viewed by Stelco as being material to it based on current information.

14.2 Directors

Each of the Directors elected at the 2003 annual meeting of shareholders held on April 29, 2003 was elected to hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until his or her successor is appointed or elected unless prior thereto he or she resigns or his or her office becomes vacant by death, retirement or otherwise. On February 18, 2005 the Board appointed Messrs R. T. Keiper and M. D. Woollcombe. They resigned from the Board on August 31, 2005.

The Court has ordered the Corporation to defer its annual meeting until three months after its emergence from protection under the CCAA. Directors have therefore not been elected since April 29, 2003.

14.3 Executive Compensation

14.3.1 Report on Executive Compensation

The Human Resources and Compensation Committee currently consists of four Directors: W. P. Cooper, R. Drouin, D. W. Mahaffy and the Hon. Barbara J. McDougall. The Committee is responsible for succession planning, considering and approving incentive programs for senior management, reviewing the compensation arrangements for the Chief Executive Officer, setting annual objectives for the Chief Executive Officer, reviewing management development programs for the Corporation and approving employment arrangements for executive officers. The Committee also reviews material regulatory disclosure with respect to executive compensation and related matters.

Mr. C. Pratt was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer effective January 1, 2004. Mr. William Vaughan was appointed Senior Vice President – Finance on January 1, 2004 and Chief Financial Officer on April 27, 2004. Mr. Colin Osborne was appointed Chief Operating Officer and Executive Vice President – Strategy on January 12, 2004. Each of these individuals is party to an employment contract, in the form of a letter of appointment, and is party to change of control agreements as described below.

In the search for the Corporation's President and Chief Executive Officer, the Committee was motivated to identify an individual capable of leading the Corporation through a CCAA restructuring as part of the Corporation's senior management team. Compensation arrangements agreed to with Mr. Pratt reflected the unusual circumstances at the time of his hiring. No variable incentive compensation awards were made in 2005. Under the terms of his contract, Mr. Pratt does not participate in any pension plan.

Mr. Vaughan and Mr. Osborne, both long-time employees, remain eligible for the Corporation's cash incentive programs. Both Mr. Vaughan and Mr. Osborne participate in the Corporation's salaried employee pension plan. No variable incentive compensation awards were made in 2005.

During the restructuring process, the Committee has recommended to the Board and the Board has accepted the recommendations of the Committee to suspend new awards under the Corporation's Key Employee Stock Option Plan. The plan will terminate on implementation of the CCAA Plan.

The Corporation operates a Variable Cash Incentive Program, which has been under review for executives and other salaried employees who were eligible for the Program. The Variable Cash Incentive Program is closely aligned with the Corporation's financial performance. The Program is designed to recognize the contributions of executive officers and other eligible employees to the financial results of the Corporation on a year-by-year basis. Executive officers are eligible for an annual bonus under the Program for up to 70% of base salary with the payout factor ultimately determining the amount of the bonus that is received by executives and others eligible for the Program. The bonus is paid in cash following the end of the year. Mr. Pratt has declined any bonus payments under the Program.

In connection with the performance of the Chief Executive Officer, the Committee undertakes an annual review of performance taking into account reasonable objectives set by the Chief Executive Officer with the Committee annually. The Committee considers views of the Board of Directors in this review process. Mr. Pratt's objectives for 2005 included seeking an exit from protection under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act at the earliest possible opportunity with sufficient capital to enable the Corporation to sustain itself in the competitive marketplace, develop and implement capital expenditure programs consistent with the Corporation's four point strategic direction and strategy, and focus on the appropriate implementation of processes and systems to underpin financial statement certification and internal control reporting.

The Corporation has share ownership guidelines for executive officers requiring them to purchase Common Shares at specified levels within prescribed time limits. For the purposes of determining whether an executive has met stock ownership guidelines, a deferred share unit is treated as a share. An unexercised option is not included in the calculation. These ownership guidelines were suspended in light of the CCAA filing.

14.3.2 Compensation Plans

Variable Cash Incentive Program

Under the Variable Cash Incentive Program, payment potential is based on management's views of an acceptable level of profitability, measured by operating income. Achieving the acceptable level of operating income results in a mid-point performance factor of 50%. The minimum and maximum performance factors are driven off of the mid-point. Various levels of participation are possible under the Program with the executive officers being eligible for an annual bonus of up to 70% of base salary depending on the individual's performance and position held. Bonus levels may vary for other eligible salaried employees. No payments were awarded under the Program in 2005 for employees of Stelco. The Committee, in conjunction with management of the Corporation, has been examining alternatives to the Program for future years but is deferring this matter to the new management and new board.

Deferred Share Unit Plan

The Corporation established a Deferred Share Unit Plan ("DSU Plan") for Directors and designated executive officers. Executive officers entitled to participate in the Plan are reviewed and agreed annually between management and the Human Resources and Compensation Committee.

Key Employee Stock Option Plan

Under the Corporation's Key Employee Stock Option Plan ("Option Plan") established in 1991, the Corporation may designate from time to time full-time employees of the Corporation or its subsidiaries as eligible employees for purposes of the Option Plan, and may grant to such eligible employees options to purchase Common Shares of the Corporation.

The Option Plan will be of no further force and effect on implementation of the CCAA Plan.

Retirement Benefit Plans

The Named Executives, except C. Pratt, are members of a retirement plan for salaried employees. The annual basic lifetime benefit payable under the applicable pension plan, together with amounts payable under the Retirement Benefits Contracts hereinafter described, is shown on the following table based upon retirement at age 65. Retirement benefits are calculated using the average of the highest five years' remuneration.

The benefit formula is the sum of 1.00% of earnings up to the Canada Pension Plan Yearly Maximum Pensionable Earnings multiplied by the Available Service plus 1.85% of earnings in excess of the Canada Pension Plan Yearly Maximum Pensionable Earnings multiplied by the Available Service. If a member of a retirement plan for salaried employees retires prior to age 65, there is a pension bridge which replaces benefits under the Canada Pension Plan up to age 65. Pension and related benefits are calculated based on salary and bonus as referred to in the Summary Compensation Table beginning with bonuses earned in 1997 and paid in 1998. Retirement benefits in excess of the amount which can be paid pursuant to the Corporation's pension plan are paid as described below under "Retirement Benefits Contracts".

The credited service for the Named Executives as of December 31, 2005 is:

C. Osborne, 18.5 years; W. E. Vaughan, 37.7 years; J. E. DiCosimo, 33.6 years; T. E. Witter, 27.5 years.

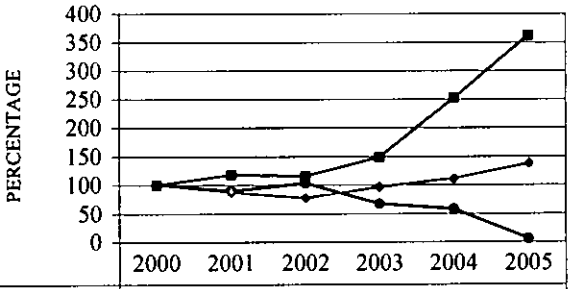
Retirement Benefits Contracts

The Corporation has entered into Retirement Benefits Contracts with the Named Executives (except C. Pratt and T. E. Witter). Under the terms of the contracts, the Named Executives undertake that they will not, for various periods after their retirement, engage in competitive activities without the consent in writing of the Corporation. Pursuant to the Retirement Benefits Contracts, the Corporation will pay to the Named Executives following retirement the difference between the maximum pension benefit payable under the Corporation's retirement plan for salaried employees and the basic lifetime benefit amount as set out in the table above. Such obligations are secured through a funded trust.

Other Employment-Related Agreements

The Corporation has entered into agreements with certain Named Executives dealing specifically with termination in the event of a change in control of the Corporation. Under the terms of these agreements, the executive officer is entitled to compensation in the event of termination or constructive termination of employment following a change in legal or effective control of the Corporation unless termination occurs as a result of death, permanent disability, retirement, or termination for cause. The principal component of the compensation payable to such executive will be a lump sum amount which will be a multiple, depending upon the position held by the individual executive, of 2.5 times the executive's annual compensation.

In the case of a number of the Named Executives, the Corporation has entered into letters of appointment with them confirming the terms of their employment and, among other things, confirming their entitlement to notice in the event of termination without cause or compensation in lieu of such notice. Typically, such arrangements provide for compensation of 18 to 24 months salary in the event of termination without cause. In arriving at such contractual arrangements, the Corporation takes into account common law rights to notice or pay in lieu of notice on termination of employment.



Mr. Pratt, Mr. Osborne and Mr. Vaughan are party to letters of appointment and change of control agreements. Under the letters of appointment, in connection with the Board's objective of returning the Corporation to profitability, the Corporation expressed an intention to pay each of Mr. Pratt, Mr. Osborne and Mr. Vaughan a bonus, which is at the discretion of the Board of Directors as to amount, if after emerging from CCAA, Stelco achieved three successive financial quarters of positive net income (without regard to extraordinary items) at any time up to and including the second quarter of 2006. A bonus cannot be achieved due to the timing of emergence from CCAA and financial losses in the second half of 2005. Mr. Pratt will be leaving his post as President and Chief Executive Officer at the end of the first quarter of 2006. Mr. Pratt will receive a payment pursuant to his change of control agreement on leaving his officer post. It is expected that Mr. Pratt will become Chair of the Board of Directors immediately thereafter.

Compensation of Directors

Directors who were not employees of the Corporation ("Outside Directors") were entitled to be paid a base retainer of $25,000. Previously the retainer had been $20,000 and the Directors received an award of common shares valued at $5,000 pursuant to the Corporation's outside Directors Share Compensation Plan. The Plan was designed to recognize the importance of aligning remuneration with Shareholder interests. Since the Corporation filed for a protective order under the CCAA on January 29, 2004, the Corporation has suspended the Outside Director Share Compensation Plan until such time as the Corporation emerges from protection under the statute. Outside Directors who were members of a committee of the Board, other than the Audit Committee, were paid $3,500 per annum for their services as members of such committees. Outside Directors who acted as the chair of a committee of the Board, other than the Audit Committee, were paid $5,000 per annum for their services, such payment being in addition to any amount to which they are entitled as a member of such committee. Outside Directors were paid a fee of $1,500 for attendance at each meeting of the Board and any committee of the Board of which they are a member. The fee paid to the Chair of the Audit Committee is $7,500 and the fee paid to Outside Directors who act as members of the Audit Committee is $5,000. The non-executive Chairman of the Board was paid an all-inclusive fee of $200,000 per annum. Directors also receive reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with attending Board and committee meetings.

Attention Business Editors:
Stelco to seek court order concerning issuance of amended Floating Rate Notes

HAMILTON, ON, March 24 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. announced today that it has proposed to amend its Court-approved restructuring plan to change, among other things, certain terms of the New Secured Floating Rate Notes ("FRNs") to be issued under the plan. The amendments include an increase of 0.50% to the interest rate payable under the FRNs in the first two years of the term and thereafter under certain circumstances. The call protection for the FRNs has also been changed.

The proposed amendments to the FRNs are the result of discussions held among key stakeholders to finalize the terms of various agreements contemplated by Stelco's restructuring plan. The proposed amendments require the consent of the Court-appointed Monitor, Tricap Management Limited and the other equity sponsors, and must not be objected to by the Senior Bondholder Steering Committee ("the SBSC"). Stelco has obtained the consent of the Monitor and Tricap. The Company is awaiting confirmation from the other equity sponsors and the SBSC that Stelco may proceed with the proposed amendments. The Province of Ontario supports the amendments.

Stelco also announced that it will seek an Order of the Superior Court of Justice (Ontario) in connection with U.S. securities law requirements and the issuance of the amended FRNs. The motion is scheduled to be heard on Tuesday, March 28, 2006. If for any reason the remaining confirmations from the other equity sponsors and the SBSC are not obtained, the motion will not proceed.

On March 9, 2006, Stelco sought and obtained an Order in connection with U.S. securities law requirements and the issuance and exchange of the FRNs and guarantees of Stelco's obligations under the FRNs. The Company has been advised by U.S. securities law counsel that an Order similar to that obtained on March 9, 2006 is required in respect of the amended FRNs.

The Order being sought, if granted, will enable Stelco to utilize a U.S. securities law exemption by approving the terms and conditions of the issuance and exchange of the amended FRNs and other securities for the claims of affected creditors, and by declaring that those terms and conditions are fair to the affected creditors, in a manner similar to the approval in the March 9, 2006 Order.

Notice of this motion is being provided so that affected creditors and other persons are aware of the hearing and of the fact that the hearing is open to them to be heard. A copy of the court materials for the motion, including the form of letter that would amend Stelco's restructuring plan to change the terms of the FRNs, will be accessible through a link available on the Company's web site.

Attention Business Editors:
Stelco issues restructuring update

HAMILTON, ON, March 27 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. today issued an update in the matter of the finalization and approval of principal documents as the Company moves towards implementation of its restructuring plan, expected to occur on March 31, 2006.

On March 24, 2006 Stelco announced the proposed amendment of its restructuring plan to change, among other things, certain terms of the New Secured Floating Rate Notes ("FRNs") to be issued under the plan. The Company indicated at that time that the proposed amendments had the consent or support of the Court-appointed Monitor, Tricap Management Limited and the Province of Ontario. In that same news release, Stelco said that it was awaiting confirmation from the other equity sponsors and indication from the Senior Bondholder Steering Committee that the Company could proceed with the proposed amendments.

Stelco announced this morning that those confirmations and indications have now been received. This means that the Company will now proceed to seek an Order of the Superior Court of Justice (Ontario) in connection with U.S. securities law requirements and the issuance of the amended FRNs as disclosed in the news release issued on March 24, 2006. Notice of such motion was provided in that news release. The motion is scheduled to be heard on Tuesday, March 28, 2006.

The Company today also announced that the terms of various material documents and agreements contemplated by Stelco's restructuring plan have now been finalized. These documents include the Company's ABL Loan Agreement, its Secured Revolving Term Loan Agreement, the Secured Floating Rate Note Trust Indenture under which the Company will issue secured notes, the Province Loan Agreement and Pension Agreement, the Intercreditor Agreement, the Province Intercreditor Agreement, and the Warrant Indenture. Certain of these documents are in the process of being prepared in form suitable for posting. Attention Business Editors:
Stelco obtains Court Order concerning issuance of new securities

HAMILTON, ON, March 28 /CNW/ - Stelco Inc. announced today that it has sought and obtained an Order concerning the issuance of new securities and other consideration to affected creditors in connection with the Company's restructuring plan.

At a hearing held this morning, the Superior Court of Justice (Ontario) approved the terms and conditions of the issuance and exchange of these securities and cash in exchange for the affected claims. The Court also declared that those terms and conditions are fair to the affected creditors.

The consideration in question includes New Secured Floating Rate Notes ("FRNs"), New Common Shares, New Warrants and cash.

As Stelco has disclosed on previous occasions, the Order will enable the Company to utilize an exemption under U.S. securities law concerning the issuance and exchange of the FRNs. A similar Order had been granted on March 9, 2006. In the meantime, and as a result of discussions among relevant stakeholders, Stelco has made certain amendments to its restructuring plan, including changes to the FRNs. The Company was advised by U.S. securities law counsel that, in light of these amendments, an Order similar to that obtained on March 9, 2006 was required.

(2) The applicant for the issue of a new Warrant Certificate pursuant to this Section 2.08 will bear the reasonable cost of the issue thereof and in case of loss, destruction or theft will, as a condition precedent to the issue thereof:

(6) Neither the Corporation nor the Trustee will be bound to take notice of or see to the execution of any trust, whether express, implied or constructive, in respect of any Warrant, and may transfer any Warrant on the written direction of the Person registered as the holder thereof and delivered in accordance with Section 3.01(3), whether named as trustee or otherwise, as though that Person were the beneficial owner thereof.

(7) The registers referred to in Section 3.01(2), and any branch registers maintained pursuant to Section 3.01(8), will at all reasonable times be open for inspection by the Corporation and any Warrantholder. (8) The Trustee, with the approval of the Corporation, may at any time and from time to time change the place at which the registers referred to in Section 3.01(2) are kept, cause branch registers of holders or transfers to be kept at other places and close such branch registers or change the place at which such branch registers are kept. ARTICLE 4 - EXERCISE OF WARRANTS

(1) Subject to the limitations set forth in Section 4.01(2) and Section 4.05, holders of Warrants may at any time and from time to time on or after the Initial Exercise Date and prior to the Expiry Time exercise the Warrants, in whole or in part, by surrendering to the Trustee at its principal corporate trust office in Toronto, Ontario or to any other Person or at any other place designated by the Corporation with the approval of the Trustee, during normal business hours on a Business Day at such place:

(i) a certified cheque, bank draft or money order payable at par (without deduction for bank service charges or otherwise) to the Corporation, in the amount of the Exercise Price in respect of each Common Share to be issued;

(ii) the Warrant Certificate evidencing such Warrants; and

(iii) a duly completed and executed Notice of Exercise substantially in the form set out in Appendix 1 to such Warrant Certificate.

(2) Any certified cheque, money order or bank draft, Warrant Certificate or notice of exercise referred to in Section 4.01(1) will be deemed to have been surrendered only on personal delivery thereof to, or, if sent by mail or other means of transmission, on actual receipt thereof by, the Trustee or one of the other Persons at the office or one of the other places specified in Section 4.01(1).

(3) Any notice of exercise referred to in Section 4.01(1) must be signed by the Warrantholder, or such Warrantholder's executors, administrators or other legal representatives or his or their attorney duly appointed by an instrument in writing in form and execution satisfactory to the Trustee, acting reasonably, and, if any Common Shares thereby issuable are to be issued to a Person or Persons other than the Warrantholder such issuance must be in accordance with Applicable Laws (as determined by the Corporation) and must specify the name and the address of each such Person and the number of Common Shares to be issued to each such Person if more than one is so specified.

(4) The holder of any Warrant Certificate who wishes to exercise the Warrants evidenced by such Warrant Certificate may exercise less than all of such Warrants and in the case of any such partial exercise will be entitled to receive, without charge therefor, a Warrant Certificate, in form, signed and certified in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 evidencing the number of Warrants held by the Warrantholder which remain unexercised. Such Warrant Certificate will be delivered by the Trustee to the holder concurrently with the certificates representing the Common Shares issued on partial exercise of such holder's Warrants.

4.02 Effect of Exercise

(1) Upon the exercise of any Warrant in accordance with Section 4.01, the Common Shares thereby issuable will be deemed to have been issued, and the Person to whom such Common Shares are to be issued will be deemed to have become the holder of record thereof on the Exercise Date, unless the transfer registers for the Common Shares are closed on that date, in which case such Common Shares will be deemed to have been issued and such Person will be deemed to have become the holder of record thereof on the date on which such transfer registers are reopened, but such Common Shares will be issued on the basis of the number of Common Shares to which such Person was entitled on the Exercise Date.

(2) As soon as practicable and in any event not later than the third Business Day on which the transfer registers for the Common Shares have been open after such exercise, the Corporation will cause the Trustee to mail to the Person in whose name the Common Shares thereby issued have been issued, at its address, or, if so specified, cause to be delivered to such Person at the place where the Warrant Certificate evidencing such Warrant was surrendered, a certificate representing the Common Shares so issued.

(3) If any Common Shares issuable pursuant to any Warrant are to be issued to a Person other than the Warrantholder, the Warrantholder must pay to the Corporation or to the Trustee on its behalf an amount equal to all exigible transfer taxes or other government charges, and the Corporation will not be required to issue or deliver any certificates representing any such Common Shares unless or until such amount has been so paid or the Warrantholder has established to the satisfaction of the Corporation that such taxes and charges have been paid or that no such taxes or charges are owing.

4.03 No Fractional Common Shares

The Corporation will not be required to issue fractional Common Shares upon the exercise of Warrants. To the extent that a holder of Warrants would otherwise have been entitled to receive, on the exercise of Warrants, a fraction of a Common Share, the Corporation will, in lieu of delivering the fractional Common Share, satisfy the right to receive such fractional interest by payment to the Warrantholder of an amount in cash (computed in the case of a fraction of a cent, to the next lower cent) equal to the value of the right to acquire such fractional interest on the basis of the Current Market Price of the Common Shares on the date of exercise.

4.04 Recording

The Trustee will record particulars of each Warrant exercised which will include the name and address of each Person to whom Common Shares are thereby issued, the number of Common Shares so issued and the Exercise Date in respect thereof. Within five Business Days after each Exercise Date the Trustee will provide such particulars in writing to the Corporation.

4.05 Securities Restrictions

No Common Shares will be issued on exercise of any Warrant, if in the opinion of Counsel to the Corporation (delivered to the Trustee prior to issue), the issuance of such

Common Shares would constitute a violation of the securities laws of any applicable jurisdiction or require the Corporation to qualify the Common Shares issuable upon exercise of the Warrants for distribution in, or make any notice or other filing in, any jurisdiction other than the Qualifying Jurisdictions. The Warrants may not be exercised in the United States or by or on behalf of a U.S. Person unless the securities to be delivered upon such exercise have been registered or qualified under the U.S. Securities Act and applicable state securities laws or an exemption from such registration or qualification is available. Further, in order to ensure compliance with applicable United States federal or state securities laws, at the time of exercise of a Warrant, the Corporation may require certificates, opinions, and other documentation of the holder of such Warrant that such exercise is in accordance with the United States federal and state securities laws and that the Common Shares issuable upon exercise thereof are being issued pursuant to an exemption from registration or qualification under the U.S. Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. Without limiting the generality of the preceding sentences, certificates representing Common Shares thereby issued will bear such legends as may, in the opinion of counsel to the Corporation, be necessary or advisable in order to avoid a violation of any applicable securities laws of the United States of America or any other jurisdiction or to comply with the requirements of any stock exchange on which the Common Shares are then listed, provided that no legend will be placed on the certificate if the Person exercising the Warrant provides the first certification (relating, among other things, to the Warrant not being exercised in the United States) set forth on Appendix 1 to the Warrant Certificate and further provided that if, at any time, in the opinion of counsel to the Corporation, such legends are no longer necessary or advisable in order to avoid a violation of any such laws or requirements, or the holder of any such legended certificate, at its expense, provides the Corporation with evidence satisfactory in form and substance to the Corporation (which may include an opinion of Counsel satisfactory to the Corporation) to the effect that such holder is entitled to sell or otherwise transfer such Common Shares in a transaction in which such legends are not required, such legended certificate may thereafter be surrendered to the Corporation in exchange for a certificate which does not bear such legends.

ARTICLE 5 - ADJUSTMENTS

5.01 Adjustment of Exercise Price

(1) The Exercise Price in effect at any date will be subject to adjustment from time to time in the events and in the manner provided in this Article 5.

(2) If and whenever at any time after the date hereof and prior to the Expiry Time, the Corporation:

(a) issues Common Shares or securities convertible into or exchangeable for Common Shares to the holders of all or substantially all of the outstanding Common Shares as a stock dividend or similar distribution;

(b) makes a distribution on its outstanding Common Shares to the holders of all or substantially all of the outstanding Common Shares payable in Common Shares or securities convertible into or exchangeable for Common Shares (other than an issue of Common Shares to holders of Common Shares pursuant to a right granted to such holders to receive such Common Shares in lieu of Dividends Paid in the Ordinary Course);

(c) subdivides its outstanding Common Shares into a greater number of Common Shares; or

(d) reduces, combines or consolidates its outstanding Common Shares into a smaller number of Common Shares,

(any of such events in Sections 5.01(2)(a), (b), (c) and (d) being called a "Common Share Reorganization"), then the Exercise Price then in effect will be adjusted effective immediately on the effective date or record date for the happening of a Common Share Reorganization, as the case may be, at which the holders of Common Shares are determined for the purpose of the Common Share Reorganization, so that it will equal the price determined by multiplying the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such effective date or record date by a fraction, the numerator of which will be the total number of Common Shares outstanding on such effective date or record date before giving effect to such Common Share Reorganization and the denominator of which will be the total number of Common Shares outstanding immediately after giving effect to such Common Share Reorganization (including, in the case where securities exchangeable for or convertible into Common Shares are distributed, the number of Common Shares that would have been outstanding had all such securities been exchanged for or converted into Common Shares on such effective date or record date).

(3) If and whenever at any time after the date hereof and prior to the Expiry Time, the Corporation fixes a record date for the issue of rights, options or warrants to the holders of all or substantially all of the outstanding Common Shares under which such holders are entitled, during a period expiring not more than 45 days after the record date for such issue (the "Rights Period"), to subscribe for or purchase Common Shares or securities exchangeable for or convertible into Common Shares at a price per share to the holder (or at an exchange price or conversion price per share during the Rights Period to the holder in the case of securities exchangeable for or convertible into Common Shares) which is less than 95% of the Current Market Price for the Common Shares on such record date (any of such events being called a "Rights Offering"), then the Exercise Price will be adjusted effective immediately after the end of the Rights Period so that it will equal the price determined by multiplying the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to the end of the Rights Period by a fraction:

(a) the numerator of which will be the aggregate of

(i) the total number of Common Shares outstanding as of the record date for the commencement of the Rights Offering, and

(ii) a number determined by dividing (A) either (x) the product of the number of Common Shares issued or subscribed for during the Rights Period upon the exercise of the rights, warrants or options under the Rights Offering and the price at which such Common Shares are offered for such issue or subscription, or, as the case may be, (y) the product of the exchange price or conversion price of such securities exchangeable for or convertible into Common Shares and the number of Common Shares for or into which the securities so offered pursuant to the Rights Offering could have been exchanged or converted during the Rights Period (whether or not they were then exchangeable or convertible), by (B) the Current Market Price of the Common Shares as of the record date for the commencement of the Rights Offering, and

(b) the denominator of which will be the number of Common Shares outstanding, or the number of Common Shares which would be outstanding if all the exchangeable or convertible securities were exchanged for or converted into Common Shares during the Rights Period (whether or not they were then exchangeable or convertible), after giving effect to the Rights Offering and including the number of Common Shares actually issued or subscribed for during the Rights Period upon exercise of the rights, warrants or options under the Rights Offering.

To the extent that any such rights, options or warrants are not so exercised on or before the expiry thereof, the Exercise Price will be readjusted to the Exercise Price which would then be in effect based on the number of Common Shares (or the securities convertible into or exchangeable for Common Shares) actually delivered on the exercise of such rights, options or warrants.

(4) If and whenever at any time after the date hereof and prior to the Expiry Time, the Corporation fixes a record date for the issue or the distribution to the holders of all or substantially all of the outstanding Common Shares of (A) securities of the Corporation, including rights, options or warrants to acquire securities of the Corporation or any of its property or assets and including cash and evidences of indebtedness; or (B) any property or other assets, including cash and evidences of indebtedness, and if such issuance or distribution does not constitute a Dividend Paid in the Ordinary Course, a Common Share Reorganization, a Rights Offering (any of such non-excluded events being called a "Special Distribution"), then the Exercise Price will be adjusted effective immediately after such record date so that it will equal the price determined by multiplying the Exercise Price in effect on such record date by a fraction:

(a) the numerator of which will be:

(i) the product of the number of Common Shares outstanding on such record date and the Current Market Price of the Common Shares on such record date, less

(ii) the Fair Market Value, as determined by action by the Directors (whose determination, subject to the consent of a Recognized Stock Exchange, if required, will be conclusive), to the holders of Common Shares of such securities or property or other assets so issued or distributed in the Special Distribution; and

(b) the denominator of which will be the product of the number of Common Shares outstanding on such record date and the Current Market Price of the Common Shares on such record date.

To the extent that any Special Distribution is not so made, the Exercise Price will be readjusted effective immediately to the Exercise Price which would then be in effect based upon such securities or property or other assets as actually distributed.

(5) If and whenever at any time after the date hereof and prior to the Expiry Time, there is a reclassification of the Common Shares at any time outstanding or change of the Common Shares into other shares or into other securities or other capital reorganization (other than a Common Share Reorganization), or a consolidation, amalgamation or merger of the Corporation with or into any other corporation or other entity (other than a vertical short-form amalgamation with one or more of its wholly-owned subsidiaries pursuant to the Canada Business Corporations Act), or a transfer of the undertaking or assets of the Corporation as an entirety or substantially as an entirety to another corporation or other entity in which the holders of Common Shares are entitled to receive shares, other securities or other property (any of such events being called a "Capital Reorganization"), any Warrantholder who exercises the right to acquire Common Shares pursuant to Warrants then held after the effective date of such Capital Reorganization will be entitled to receive, and will accept for the same aggregate consideration in lieu of the number of Common Shares to which such Holder was previously entitled upon such conversion, the aggregate number of shares, other securities or other property that such holder would have been entitled to receive as a result of such Capital Reorganization if, on the effective date thereof, the holder had been the registered holder of the number of Common Shares to which such holder was previously entitled upon exercise of its Warrants. The Corporation will take all steps necessary to ensure that, on a Capital Reorganization, the Warrantholders will receive the aggregate number of shares, other securities or other property to which they are entitled as a result of the Capital Reorganization. Appropriate adjustments will be made as a result of any such Capital Reorganization in the application of the provisions set forth in this Article 5 with respect to the rights and interests thereafter of Warrantholders to the end that the provisions set forth in this Article 5 will thereafter correspondingly be made applicable as nearly as may reasonably be in relation to any shares, other securities or other property thereafter deliverable upon the exercise of any Warrant. Prior to or concurrent with effecting a Capital Reorganization, the Corporation will enter into an indenture supplemental hereto approved by action of the Directors and by the Trustee, which will set forth an appropriate adjustment to give effect to this Section 5.01(5), in which event such adjustment will for all purposes be conclusively deemed to be an appropriate adjustment, subject to the prior written consent of a Recognized Stock Exchange, if required.

(6) If the purchase price provided for in any rights, options or warrants (the "Rights Offering Price") referred to in Sections 5.01(3) or 5.01(4) is decreased, the Exercise Price will forthwith be changed so as to decrease the Exercise Price to the Exercise Price that would have been obtained if the adjustment to the Exercise Price made under Section 5.01(3) or (4), as the case may be, with respect to such rights, options or warrants had been made on the basis of the Rights Offering Price as so decreased, provided that the terms of this Section 5.01(6) will not apply to any decrease in the Rights Offering Price resulting from terms in any such rights, options or warrants designed to prevent dilution except to the extent that the resulting decrease in the Exercise Price under this Section 5.01(6) would be greater than the decrease, if any, in the Exercise Price to be made under the terms of this Section 5.01 by virtue of the occurrence of the event giving rise to such decrease in the Rights Offering Price.

(7) If and whenever at any time after the date hereof and prior to the Expiry Time, any of the events set out in Sections 5.01(2), 5.01(3) or 5.01(4) occur and the occurrence of such event results in an adjustment of the Exercise Price pursuant to the provisions of this Article 5, then the number of Common Shares purchasable pursuant to the Warrants upon exercise thereof will be adjusted contemporaneously with the adjustment of the Exercise Price by multiplying the number of Common Shares then otherwise purchasable on the exercise thereof by a fraction, the numerator of which will be the then applicable Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to the adjustment and the denominator of which will be the Exercise Price resulting from such adjustment.

(8) In any case in which this Section 5.01 requires that an adjustment will become effective immediately after a record date for an event referred to herein, the Corporation may defer, until the occurrence of such event, issuing to the holder of any Warrant exercised after such record date and before the occurrence of such event the additional Common Shares issuable upon such exercise by reason of the adjustment required by such event, provided, however, that the Corporation will deliver to such holder evidence of such holder's right to receive such additional Common Shares upon the occurrence of such event and the right to receive any distributions made on such additional Common Shares declared in favour of holders of record of Common Shares on and after the date of conversion or such later date on which such holder would, but for the provisions of this Section 5.01(8), have become the holder of record of such additional Common Shares.

5.02 Rules Regarding Calculation of Adjustment of Exercise Price

(1) For the purposes of Section 5.01:

(a) the adjustments provided for in Section 5.01 are cumulative and will be computed to the nearest one-tenth of one cent and will be made successively whenever an event referred to therein occurs, subject to the following provisions of this Section;

(b) no adjustment in the Exercise Price will be required unless the cumulative effect of such adjustment would result in a change of at least 1% in the prevailing Exercise Price and no adjustment in the number of Common Shares purchasable upon exercise of a Warrant will be required unless the cumulative effect of such adjustment would result in a change of at least one-hundredth of a Common Share; provided, however, that any adjustments which, except for the provisions of this Section 5.02(1)(b) would otherwise have been required to be made, will be carried forward and taken into account in any subsequent adjustment;

(c) no adjustment in the Exercise Price will be required upon the issuance from time to time of Common Shares pursuant to the Corporation's stock option plans or share purchase plan, or any dividend reinvestment plan, as such plans may be replaced, supplemented or further amended from time to time;

(d) no adjustment in the Exercise Price will be made in respect of any of the events referred to in Sections 5.01(2)(a) and (b), Section 5.01(3) or Section 5.01(4), if Warrantholders are entitled to participate in such event on the same terms, mutatis mutandis, as if they had exercised their Warrants prior to or on the effective date or record date of such event. Any such participation will be subject to any required prior consent of a Recognized Stock Exchange;

(e) if at any time a dispute arises with respect to adjustments provided for in Section 5.01, such dispute will be conclusively determined, subject to the consent of a Recognized Stock Exchange, if required, by the Corporation's auditors, or if they are unable or unwilling to act, by such other firm of independent chartered accountants as may be selected by action of the Directors and any such determination will be binding upon the Corporation, the Trustee, the Warrantholders and shareholders of the Corporation; such auditors or accountants will be given access to all necessary records of the Corporation. If any such determination is made, the Corporation will deliver a Certificate of the Corporation to the Trustee describing such determination, and the Trustee will be entitled to act and rely upon such Certificate of the Corporation;

(f) if the Corporation sets a record date to determine the holders of Common Shares for the purpose of entitling them to receive any dividend or distribution or sets a record date to take any other action and thereafter and before the distribution to such shareholders of any such dividend or distribution or the taking of any other action, legally abandons its plan to pay or deliver such dividend or distribution or take such other action, then no adjustment in the Exercise Price will be made; and

(g) in the absence of a resolution of the Directors fixing a record date for a Special Distribution or Rights Offering, the Corporation will be deemed to have fixed as the record date therefor the date on which the Special Distribution or Rights Offering is effected.

5.03 Certificate as to Adjustment

The Corporation will from time to time, immediately after the occurrence of any event which requires an adjustment or readjustment as provided in Section 5.01, deliver a Certificate of the Corporation to the Trustee specifying the nature of the event requiring the same and the amount of the adjustment or readjustment necessitated thereby and setting forth in reasonable detail the method of calculation and the facts upon which such calculation is based, and the Trustee will be entitled to act and rely upon such Certificate of the Corporation. Such Certificate of the Corporation and the amount of the adjustment specified therein will be conclusive and binding on all parties in interest. Until such Certificate of the Corporation is received by the Trustee, the Trustee may act and be protected in acting on the presumption that no adjustment has been made or is required. Except in respect of any subdivision, reduction, combination or consolidation of the Common Shares contemplated by Section 5.01(2)(a), the Corporation will forthwith give notice to the Warrantholders specifying the event requiring such adjustment or readjustment and the amount thereof, including the resulting Exercise Price; provided that if the Corporation has given notice under Section 5.04 covering all the relevant facts in respect of such event, no such notice need be given under this Section 5.03.

5.04 Notice of Special Matters

The Corporation covenants that, so long as any Warrants remain outstanding, it will give notice to the Trustee and to the Warrantholders of its intention to fix a record date for any event referred to in Sections 5.01(2), 5.01(3), 5.01(4) or 5.01(5) (other than the subdivision, reduction, combination or consolidation of Common Shares contemplated by Sections 5.01(2)(c) and 5.01(2)(d) or a cash dividend (other than a Dividend Paid in the Ordinary Course) which may give rise to an adjustment in the Exercise Price, or other adjustment, and such notice will specify the particulars of such event and the record date and the effective date for such event; provided that the Corporation will only be required to specify in such notice such particulars of such event as will have been fixed and determined on the date on which such notice is given. Such notice will be given not less than 14 days prior to the applicable record date in the case of an event referred to in Sections 5.01(2), 5.01(3) or 5.01(4) and 30 days prior to the applicable record date in the case of an event referred to in Section 5.01(5).

5.05 Protection of Trustee

The Trustee will not at any time be under any duty or responsibility to any Warrantholder to determine whether any facts exist which may require any adjustment in the Exercise Price, or with respect to the nature or extent of any such adjustment when made, or with respect to the method employed in making the same; and will not be accountable with respect to the validity or value (or the kind or amount) of any Common Shares or of any shares or other securities or other property which may at any time be issued or delivered upon the exercise of any Warrant; and the Trustee, except to the extent that there has been a failure by the Trustee or its employees or agents to act honestly and in good faith or where the Trustee or its employees or agents have acted negligently or in wilful disregard of their obligations hereunder or not have complied with Article 10, will not be responsible for any failure of the Corporation to issue, transfer or deliver Common Shares or share certificates upon the surrender of any Warrant for the purpose of exercise, or to comply with any of the covenants contained in this Article 5.

ARTICLE 6 - COVENANTS

6.01 General Covenants

The Corporation represents, warrants and covenants with the Trustee that so long as any Warrant remains outstanding and may be exercised:

(a) the Corporation is duly authorized to create and issue the Warrants and that the Warrant Certificates, when issued and countersigned as herein provided, will be valid and enforceable against the Corporation;

(b) subject to the provisions of Section 9.02, the Corporation will at all times maintain its corporate existence, carry on and conduct its business in a proper and business-like manner and keep or cause to be kept proper books of account in accordance with generally accepted accounting practice;

(c) the Corporation will reserve for the purpose and keep available sufficient unissued Common Shares to enable it to satisfy its obligations on the exercise of the Warrants;

(d) the Corporation will cause the Common Shares from time to time issued pursuant to the exercise of the Warrants, and the certificates representing such Common Shares, to be duly issued and delivered in accordance with the Warrants and the terms hereof;

(e) all Common Shares that are issued or created on exercise of the Warrants will be fully paid and non-assessable;

(f) the Corporation will cause the Trustee to keep open on Business Days the registers of holders and registers of transfers referred to in Section 3.01 and, subject to Section 4.05, will not take any action or omit to take any action that would have the effect of preventing the Warrantholders from exercising any of the Warrants or receiving any of the Common Shares upon such exercise;

(g) generally, the Corporation will well and truly perform and carry out all acts and things to be done by it as provided in this Indenture and, subject to Section 4.05, will not take any action that might reasonably be expected to deprive the Warrantholders of their rights to acquire Common Shares upon the exercise of the Warrants;

(h) subject to Section 4.05, the Corporation will make all requisite filings in connection with the exercise of the Warrants and issue of the Common Shares; and

(i) the Corporation will maintain its status as a reporting issuer (or the equivalent) not in default in each of the Qualifying Jurisdictions providing for such a regime and will use its best efforts to maintain the listing of the Common Shares and the Warrants on a Recognized Stock Exchange. For greater certainty, using best efforts to maintain the listing of the Common Shares and Warrants shall not preclude the directors from approving or recommending a transaction which may result in the acquisition of all or substantially all the Common Shares which transaction may result in the de-listing of the Common Shares or Warrants.

6.02 Trustee's Remuneration and Expenses

The Corporation will pay to the Trustee from time to time reasonable remuneration for its services hereunder and will, on the Trustee's request, pay to or reimburse the Trustee for all reasonable documented expenses, disbursements and advances made or incurred by the Trustee in the administration or execution of the trusts hereof (including reasonable documented compensation and disbursements of its Counsel and other advisers and assistants not regularly in its employ), both before any default hereunder and thereafter until all duties of the Trustee hereunder have been finally and fully performed, except any such expense, disbursement or advance that arises out of or results from negligence, wilful misconduct or bad faith of the Trustee or of Persons for whom the Trustee is responsible. This Section 6.02 will survive the termination of this Indenture and the removal or resignation of the Trustee.

6.03 Performance of Covenants by Trustee

If the Trustee is made aware of the failure of the Corporation to perform any of its obligations under this Indenture, the Trustee may notify the Warrantholders of such failure or may itself perform any of such obligations capable of being performed by it, but will not be bound to do so or to notify the Warrantholders that it is so doing. All sums expended or advanced by the Trustee in so doing will be repayable as provided in Section 6.02. No such performance, expenditure or advance by the Trustee will relieve the Corporation of any default or of its continuing obligations hereunder.

ARTICLE 7 - ENFORCEMENT

7.01 Warrantholders May Not Sue

(1) Subject to Section 7.01(2), no holder of any Warrant will have any right to institute any action or proceeding against the Corporation in relation to its rights under this Indenture, unless:

(a) such holder has previously given to the Trustee written notice of the nature of such action or proceeding;

(b) the holders of at least 20% of the Warrants have made a written request to the Trustee and have afforded to it reasonable opportunities either itself to proceed to exercise the powers hereinbefore granted or to institute an action, suit or proceeding in its own name for such purpose;

(c) such Warrantholders have provided to the Trustee, when so requested by the Trustee, sufficient funds and security and indemnity satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities to be incurred therein or thereby; and to be conditions precedent to any such proceeding or for any other remedy hereunder by or on behalf of the holder of any Warrants.

(d) the Trustee has failed to act within a reasonable time after such notification, request and provision of indemnity; and such notification, request and provision of indemnity are hereby declared in every such case, at the option of the Trustee,

(2) Notwithstanding Section 7.01(1), a holder is not required to comply with Section 7.01(1)(c) and Section 7.01(1)(d) will not be applicable, if the Trustee, notwithstanding compliance by the Warrantholders with Section 7.01(1)(a) and Section 7.01(1)(b), has advised the Warrantholders in writing that it will not take any of the actions requested in subsection 7.01(b) even if the Trustee were to be provided with sufficient funds and security and indemnity satisfactory to it as contemplated by Section 7.01(1)(c).

7.02 Suits by Warrantholders

Subject to Sections 7.01 and 8.11, any of the rights conferred upon a Warrantholder by the terms of the Warrants held by it and/or this Indenture may be enforced by such Warrantholder by appropriate legal proceedings but without prejudice to the right that is hereby conferred upon the Trustee to proceed in its own name to enforce each and all of the provisions herein contained for the benefit of the holders of the Warrants from time to time outstanding.

7.03 Trustee May Institute All Proceedings

(1) The Trustee will also have the power at any time and from time to time to institute and to maintain such suits and proceedings as it may be advised will be necessary or advisable to preserve and protect its interests and the interests of the Warrantholders.

(2) Any such suit or proceeding instituted by the Trustee may be brought in the name of the Trustee as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment will be for the rateable benefit of the holders of the Warrants subject to the provisions of this Indenture. In any proceeding brought by the Trustee (and also any proceeding in which a declaratory judgment of a court may be sought as to the interpretation or construction of any provision of this Indenture, to which the Trustee will be a party) the Trustee will be held to represent all the holders of the Warrants, and it will not be necessary to make any holders of the Warrants parties to any such proceeding.

7.04 Immunity of Shareholders, etc.

Subject to the rights available at law or in express provisions of any contract or other instrument the Trustee and, by the acceptance of the Warrant Certificates and as part of the consideration for the issue of the Warrants, the Warrantholders hereby waive and release any right, cause of action or remedy now or hereafter existing in any jurisdiction against any Person in its capacity as an incorporator or any past, present or future shareholder or other securityholder, director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation for the creation and issue of the Common Shares pursuant to any Warrant or on any covenant, agreement, representation or warranty by the Corporation herein or in the Warrant Certificates.

7.05 Limitation of Liability

The obligations hereunder are not personally binding upon, nor will resort hereunder be had to, the Directors or shareholders of the Corporation or any of the past, present or future Directors or shareholders of the Corporation or any of the past, present or future officers, employees or agents of the Corporation, but only the property of the Corporation or any successor corporation will be bound in respect hereof.

ARTICLE 8 -

MEETINGS OF WARRANTHOLDERS

8.01 Right to Convene Meetings

(1) The Trustee may, at any time and from time to time convene, a meeting of the Warrantholders and will do so on receipt of a written Request of the Corporation or a Warrantholders' Request and on being funded and indemnified to its reasonable satisfaction by the Corporation or by one or more of the Warrantholders signing such Warrantholders' Request against the costs that it may incur in connection with calling and holding the meeting.

(2) If the Trustee fails, within five Business Days after receipt of such written Request of the Corporation or Warrantholders' Request and indemnity, to give notice convening a meeting, the Corporation or any of such Warrantholders, as the case may be, may convene such meeting.

(3) Every such meeting will be held in Toronto, Ontario or such other place as is approved or determined by the Trustee and the Corporation. However, if the meeting is convened by the Corporation or a Warrantholder as a result of the Trustee's failure or refusal to convene such meeting, the meeting must be held in Toronto.

8.02 Notice

(1) At least 21 days' notice of any meeting must be given to the Warrantholders, to the Trustee (unless the meeting has been called by it) and to the Corporation (unless the meeting has been called by it).

(2) The notice to be delivered in accordance with Section 11.02 must state the time when and the place where the meeting is to be held and describe (with sufficient detail to permit a Warrantholder to make a reasoned decision with respect to the matters for consideration) the general nature of the business to be transacted thereat, but it will not be necessary for the notice to set out the terms of any resolution to be proposed or any of the provisions of this Article 8.

8.03 Chairman

Some individual (who need not be a Warrantholder) designated in writing by the Trustee will be chairman of the meeting or, if no individual is so designated or the Person so designated is not present within 15 minutes after the time fixed for the holding of the meeting, the Warrantholders present in person or by proxy may choose some individual present to be chairman.

8.04 Quorum

(1) Subject to the provisions of Section 8.12, at any meeting of Warrantholders a quorum will consist of one or more Warrantholders present in person or by proxy at the commencement of business holding in the aggregate not less than 20% of the total number of Warrants then outstanding.

(2) If a quorum of Warrantholders is not present within 30 minutes after the time fixed for holding a meeting, the meeting, if convened by Warrantholders or on a Warrantholders' Request, will be dissolved, but, subject to Section 8.12, in any other case will be adjourned to the seventh calendar day following the meeting, at the same time of day and place and no notice of the adjournment need be given.

(3) At the adjourned meeting the Warrantholders present in person or by proxy will form a quorum and may transact any business for which the meeting was originally convened notwithstanding the number of Warrants that they hold.

8.05 Power to Adjourn

The chairman of a meeting at which a quorum of the Warrantholders is present may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting, and no notice of such adjournment need be given except as the meeting prescribes.

8.06 Show of Hands

Every question submitted to a meeting, other than an Extraordinary Resolution, will be decided in the first place by a majority of the votes given on a show of hands and, unless a poll is duly demanded as herein provided, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority will be conclusive evidence of the fact.

8.07 Poll

(1) On every Extraordinary Resolution, and on every other question submitted to a meeting on which a poll is directed by the chairman or requested by one or more Warrantholders acting in person or by proxy, a poll will be taken in such manner as the chairman directs.

(2) Questions other than those required to be determined by Extraordinary Resolution will be decided by a majority of the votes cast on the poll.

8.08 Voting

(1) On a show of hands each Person present and entitled to vote, whether as a Warrantholder or as proxy for one or more absent Warrantholders, or both, will have one vote, and on a poll each Warrantholder present in person or represented by a proxy duly appointed by instrument in writing will be entitled to one vote in respect of each Warrant held by such holder.

(2) A proxy need not be a Warrantholder.

8.09 Regulations

(1) The Trustee, or the Corporation with the approval of the Trustee, may from time to time make or vary such regulations as it thinks fit:

(a) for the issue of voting certificates by any bank, trust company or other depository satisfactory to the Trustee stating that the Warrants specified therein have been deposited with it by a named Person and will remain on deposit until a specified date, which voting certificates will entitle the Persons named therein to be present and vote at any meeting of Warrantholders and at any adjournment thereof held before that date or to appoint a proxy or proxies to represent them and vote for them at any such meeting and at any adjournment thereof held before that date in the same manner and with the same effect as though the Persons so named in such voting certificates were the actual holders of the Warrants specified therein;

(b) for the form of instrument appointing a proxy, the manner in which it must be executed, and verification of the authority of a Person who executes it on behalf of a Warrantholder;

(c) governing the places at which and the times by which voting certificates or instruments appointing proxies must be deposited;

(d) for the deposit of voting certificates or instruments appointing proxies at some approved place other than the place at which the meeting is to be held and enabling particulars of such voting certificates or instruments appointing proxies to be sent by mail, facsimile or other means of prepaid, transmitted, recorded communication before the meeting to the Corporation or to the Trustee at the place where the meeting is to be held and for voting pursuant to instruments appointing proxies so deposited as though the instruments themselves were produced at the meeting; and

(e) generally for the calling of meetings of Warrantholders and the conduct of business thereof.

(2) Any regulations so made will be binding and effective and the votes given in accordance therewith will be valid and will be counted.

(3) Except as such regulations provide, the only Persons who will be recognized at a meeting as the holders of any Warrants, or as entitled to vote or, subject to Section 8.10, be present at the meeting in respect thereof, will be the registered holders of such Warrants or their duly appointed proxies.

8.10 The Corporation and Trustee may be Represented

The Corporation and the Trustee by their respective employees, officers or directors, and the Counsel of the Corporation and the Trustee may attend any meeting of Warrantholders, but will have no vote as such.

8.11 Powers Exercisable by Extraordinary Resolution

In addition to all other powers conferred on them by the other provisions of this Indenture, by the Warrants or by Applicable Law, the Warrantholders at a meeting will have the power, exercisable from time to time by Extraordinary Resolution:

(a) subject to the agreement of the Corporation, to assent to or sanction any amendment, modification, abrogation, alteration, compromise or arrangement of any right of the Warrantholders or of the Trustee in its capacity as warrant trustee hereunder, subject to the Trustee's approval, on behalf of the Warrantholders against the Corporation, whether such right arises under this Indenture or otherwise and to authorize the Trustee to concur in and execute any indenture supplemental hereto in connection therewith;

(b) to amend, alter or repeal any Extraordinary Resolution previously passed;

(c) to direct or authorize the Trustee to enforce any obligation of the Corporation under this Indenture or to enforce any right of the Warrantholders in any manner specified in the Extraordinary Resolution;

(d) to refrain from enforcing any obligation or right referred to in Section 8.11(c);

(e) to waive and direct the Trustee to waive any default by the Corporation in complying with any provision of this Indenture, either unconditionally or on any condition specified in the Extraordinary Resolution;

(f) to appoint a committee with power and authority to exercise, and to direct the Trustee to exercise, on behalf of the Warrantholders, such of the powers of the Warrantholders as are exercisable by Extraordinary Resolution;

(g) to restrain any Warrantholder from taking or instituting any suit, action or proceeding against the Corporation for the enforcement of any obligation of the Corporation under this Indenture or to enforce any right of the Warrantholders;

(h) to direct any Warrantholder who, as such, has brought any suit, action or proceeding, to stay or discontinue or otherwise deal therewith on payment of the costs, charges and expenses reasonably and properly incurred by such Warrantholder in connection therewith;

(i) from time to time and at any time to remove the Trustee and appoint a successor; and

(j) to assent to any compromise or arrangement with any creditor or any class of creditors, whether secured or otherwise, and with holders of any shares or other securities of the Corporation.

8.12 Meaning of "Extraordinary Resolution"

(1) The expression "Extraordinary Resolution" when used in this Indenture means, subject to the provisions of this Section 8.12 and of Sections 8.15 and 8.16, a resolution passed at a meeting of Warrantholders duly convened for that purpose and held in accordance with the provisions of this Article at which there are present in person or by proxy Warrantholders holding in the aggregate not less than 35% of the aggregate number of Warrants then outstanding and passed by the affirmative votes of Warrantholders who hold in the aggregate not less than 66⅔% of the aggregate number of Warrants then outstanding represented at the meeting and voted on the poll on the resolution.

(2) If, at a meeting called for the purpose of passing an Extraordinary Resolution, the quorum required by Section 8.12(1) is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting, if convened by Warrantholders or on a Warrantholders' Request, will be dissolved, but in any other case will stand adjourned to such day, being not less than seven calendar days or more than 30 calendar days later, and to such place and time, as is appointed by the chairman.

(3) Not less than seven calendar days' notice must be given to the Warrantholders of the time and place of such adjourned meeting.

(4) The notice must state that at the adjourned meeting the Warrantholders present in Person or by proxy will form a quorum but it will not be necessary to set forth the purposes for which the meeting was originally called or any other particulars.

(5) At the adjourned meeting, the Warrantholders present in person or by proxy will form a quorum and may transact any business for which the meeting was originally convened, and a resolution proposed at such adjourned meeting and passed by the requisite vote as provided in Section 8.12(1) will be an Extraordinary Resolution within the meaning of this Indenture notwithstanding that Warrantholders holding in the aggregate not less than 35% of the total number of Warrants outstanding may not be present.

(6) Votes on an Extraordinary Resolution must always be given on a poll and no demand for a poll on an Extraordinary Resolution will be necessary.

8.13 Powers Cumulative

Any one or more of the powers, and any combination of the powers, in this Indenture stated to be exercisable by the Warrantholders by Extraordinary Resolution or otherwise, may be exercised from time to time, and the exercise of any one or more of such powers or any combination of such powers from time to time will not prevent the Warrantholders from exercising such powers or combination of powers thereafter from time to time.

8.14 Minutes

Minutes of all resolutions passed and proceedings taken at every meeting of the Warrantholders will be made and duly entered in books from time to time provided for such purpose by the Trustee at the expense of the Corporation, and any such minutes, if signed by the chairman of the meeting at which such resolutions were passed or such proceedings were taken, will be prima facie evidence of the matters therein stated, and, until the contrary is proved, every such meeting in respect of the proceedings of which minutes have been so made, entered and signed will be deemed to have been duly convened and held, and all resolutions passed and proceedings taken thereat to have been duly passed and taken.

The Corporation will be provided with, in a timely manner and at its own expense, copies of any and all resolutions passed at any meeting of the Warrantholders.

8.15 Instruments in Writing

Any action that may be taken and any power that may be exercised by Warrantholders at a meeting held as provided in this Article 8 by way of an Extraordinary Resolution may also be taken and exercised (a) by Warrantholders who hold in the aggregate not less than 50% of the aggregate number of Warrants then outstanding with respect to resolutions that are not Extraordinary Resolutions and (b) by Warrantholders who hold in the aggregate not less than 66 2/3% of the aggregate number of Warrants then outstanding with respect to Extraordinary Resolutions, by their signing, each in person or by attorney duly appointed in writing, an instrument in writing in one or more counterparts. The expression "Extraordinary Resolution" when used in this Indenture includes a resolution embodied in an instrument so signed.

The Corporation will be provided with, in a timely manner and at its own expense, copies of any and all instruments in writing signed by the Warrantholders pursuant to this Section 8.15.

8.16 Binding Effect of Resolutions

Every resolution and every Extraordinary Resolution passed in accordance with the provisions of this Article at a meeting of Warrantholders will be binding on all Warrantholders, whether present at or absent from the meeting and whether voting for or against the resolution or abstaining, and every instrument in writing signed by Warrantholders in accordance with Section 8.15 will be binding on all Warrantholders, whether signatories thereto or not, and every Warrantholder and the Trustee (subject to the provisions for its indemnity herein contained) will be bound to give effect accordingly to every such resolution and instrument in writing.

8.17 Holdings by the Corporation and Subsidiaries Disregarded

In determining whether Warrantholders holding the required total number of Warrants are present in person or by proxy for the purpose of constituting a quorum, or have voted or consented to a resolution, Extraordinary Resolution, consent, waiver, Warrantholders' Request or other action under this Indenture, a Warrant held by the Corporation or by any Affiliate of the Corporation will be deemed not to be outstanding. Upon a request in writing by the Trustee, the Corporation will provide a certificate of the Corporation detailing the registration and denomination of any Warrants held by the Corporation or by any Affiliate of the Corporation.

ARTICLE 9 - SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES AND SUCCESSOR CORPORATIONS

9.01 Provision for Supplemental Indentures for Certain Purposes

From time to time the Corporation (when authorized by its Directors) and the Trustee may without the consent of the Warrantholders, subject to the provisions hereof, and will when so directed hereby, execute and deliver by their proper officers indentures or instruments supplemental hereto, which thereafter will form part hereof, for any or all of the following purposes:

(a) setting forth any adjustments resulting from the application of the provisions of Article 5;

(b) adding hereto such additional covenants and enforcement provisions for the benefit of Warrantholders as in the opinion of Counsel are necessary or advisable;

(c) giving effect to any Extraordinary Resolution passed as provided in Article 8;

(d) making such provisions not inconsistent with this Indenture as are necessary or desirable with respect to matters or questions arising hereunder, and are not, in the opinion of the Trustee relying on the opinion of counsel, materially adverse to the rights or interests of the Warrantholders as a group;

(e) adding to, deleting or altering the provisions hereof in respect of the transfer of Warrants or the exchange of Warrant Certificates, and making any modification in the form of the Warrant Certificates provided that any such action in the opinion of Counsel acceptable to the Trustee does not materially adversely affect the rights of the Warrantholder;

(f) modifying or amending any provision of this Indenture or relieving the Corporation from any obligation, condition or restriction herein contained, except that no such modification or relief will be or become operative or effective if in the opinion of the Trustee, relying on the opinion of Counsel, it would impair any of the rights or interests of the Warrantholders or of the Trustee, and the Trustee may in its uncontrolled discretion decline to enter into any such supplemental indenture which in its opinion will not afford adequate protection to the Trustee when it becomes operative; and

(g) for any other purpose not inconsistent with the terms of this Indenture, including the correction or rectification of any ambiguity, defective or inconsistent provision, error or omission herein, if in the opinion of the Trustee relying on the opinion of Counsel, the rights of the Trustee and of the Warrantholders, as a group, are not materially prejudiced thereby.

9.02 Successor Corporations

In the case of the reorganization, reconstruction, consolidation, amalgamation, arrangement or merger of the Corporation or transfer, sale or lease of the undertaking or assets of the Corporation as an entirety, or substantially as an entirety, to another corporation, the successor corporation resulting from such reorganization, reconstruction, consolidation, amalgamation, arrangement, merger or transfer, sale or lease (if not the Corporation) will be bound by the provisions hereof and for the due and punctual performance and observance of each and every covenant and obligation contained in this Indenture to be performed by the Corporation and will, as a condition precedent to any such transaction, agree to succeed to and be substituted for the Corporation by supplemental indenture in form satisfactory to the Trustee and executed and delivered to the Trustee with the same effect as closely as may be possible as if it had been named herein.

ARTICLE 10 - CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

10.01 Trust Indenture Legislation

(1) If and to the extent that any provision of this Indenture limits, qualifies or conflicts with a mandatory requirement of Applicable Law, the mandatory requirement will prevail.

(2) The Corporation and the Trustee each will at all times in relation to this Indenture and any action to be taken hereunder observe and comply with and be entitled to the benefits of Applicable Law.

10.02 Trustee's Authority to Carry on Business

The Trustee represents and warrants to the Corporation that at the date hereof it is authorized to carry on the business of a trust company in Toronto, Ontario. If, notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 10.02, it ceases to be authorized to carry on such business, the validity and enforceability of this Indenture and the Warrants issued hereunder will not be affected in any manner whatsoever by reason only of such event provided that the Trustee, within 30 days after ceasing to be authorized to carry on such business, either becomes so authorized or resigns in the manner and with the effects specified in Section 10.09.

10.03 Rights and Duties of Trustee

(1) In the exercise of the rights and duties prescribed or conferred by the terms of this Indenture, the Trustee will act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Warrantholders, and will exercise that degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent warrant trustee would exercise in comparable circumstances. Subject to the foregoing, the Trustee will not be bound to give any notice or do or take any act, action or proceeding by virtue of the powers conferred on it hereby unless and until it will have been required so to do under the terms hereof; nor will the Trustee be required to take notice of any default hereunder, unless and until notified in writing of such default, which notice will distinctly specify the default desired to be brought to the attention of the Trustee and in the absence of any such notice the Trustee may for all purposes of this Indenture conclusively assume that no default has been made in the observance or performance of any of the representations, warranties, covenants, agreements or conditions contained therein. Any such notice will in no way limit any discretion herein given to the Trustee to determine whether or not the Trustee will take action with respect to any default.

(2) No provision of this Indenture will be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own dishonesty, bad faith, wilful misconduct or negligence.

(3) The obligation of the Trustee to commence or continue any act, action or proceeding for the purpose of enforcing any right of the Trustee or the Warrantholders hereunder is on the condition that, when required by notice to the Warrantholders by the Trustee, the Trustee is furnished by one or more Warrantholders with sufficient funds to commence or continue such act, action or proceeding and indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee to protect and hold it harmless against the costs, charges and expenses and liabilities to be incurred thereby and any loss and damage it may suffer by reason thereof.

(4) No provision of this Indenture will require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur financial liability in the performance of any of its duties or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers unless it is so indemnified.

(5) The Trustee may, before commencing or at any time during the continuance of any such act, action or proceeding, require the Warrantholders at whose instance it is acting to deposit with the Trustee the Warrant Certificates held by them, for which certificates the Trustee will issue receipts.

(6) Every provision of this Indenture that relieves the Trustee of liability or entitles it to rely on any evidence submitted to it is subject to the provisions of Applicable Law, of this Section 10.03 and of Section 10.04.

10.04 Evidence, Experts and Advisers

(1) In addition to the reports, certificates, opinions and other evidence required by this Indenture, the Corporation will furnish to the Trustee such additional evidence of compliance with any provision hereof, and in such form, as is prescribed by Applicable Law or as the Trustee reasonably requires by written notice to the Corporation.

(2) In the exercise of any right or duty hereunder the Trustee, if it is acting in good faith, may act and rely, as to the truth of any statement or the accuracy of any opinion expressed therein, on any statutory declaration, opinion, report, certificate or other evidence furnished to the Trustee pursuant to a provision hereof or of Applicable Law or pursuant to a request of the Trustee, if such evidence complies with Applicable Law and the Trustee examines such evidence and determines that it complies with the applicable requirements of this Indenture.

(3) Whenever Applicable Law requires that evidence referred to in Section 10.04(1) be in the form of a statutory declaration, the Trustee may accept such statutory declaration in lieu of a Certificate of the Corporation required by any provision hereof.

(4) Any such statutory declaration may be made by any director or officer of the Corporation.

(5) The Trustee may act and rely and will be protected in acting and relying upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, letter or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or presented by or on behalf of the proper party or parties.

(6) Proof of the execution of any document or instrument in writing, including a Warrantholders' Request, by a Warrantholder may be made by the certificate of a notary public, or other officer with similar powers, that the Person signing such instrument acknowledged to him the execution thereof, or by an affidavit of a witness to such execution, or in any other manner that the Trustee considers adequate.

(7) The Trustee may employ or retain such Counsel, accountants, engineers, appraisers, or other experts or advisers as it reasonably requires for the purpose of determining and discharging its duties hereunder and may pay reasonable remuneration for all services so performed by any of them, without taxation of costs of any Counsel, and will not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any of them who has been selected with due care by the Trustee. Any remuneration so paid by the Trustee will be repaid to the Trustee in accordance with Section 6.02.

(8) The Trustee may act and rely and will be protected in acting and relying in good faith on the opinion or advice of or information obtained from any Counsel, accountant or other expert or advisor, whether retained or employed by the Corporation or by the Trustee, in relation to any matter arising in the administration of the trusts hereof.

10.05 Documents, Money, Etc. held by Trustee

The Trustee may retain any cash balance held in connection with this Indenture and may, but need not, hold the same in its deposit department or the deposit department of one of its Affiliates, but the Trustee and its Affiliates shall not be liable to account for any profit to the Corporation or any other person or entity other than at a rate of interest on such balance, if any, established from time to time by the Trustee or its Affiliates.

10.06 Action by Trustee to Protect Interests

The Trustee will have power to institute and to maintain such actions and proceedings as it considers necessary or expedient to protect or enforce its interests and the interests of the Warrantholders.

10.07 Trustee not Required to Give Security

The Trustee will not be required to give any bond or security in respect of the performance of the agency created hereby, the execution of the trusts and powers of this Indenture or otherwise in respect of this Indenture.

10.08 Protection of Trustee

(1) By way of supplement to the provisions of any Applicable Law for the time being relating to trustees or agents, it is expressly declared and agreed that:

(a) the Trustee will not be liable for or by reason of, or required to substantiate, any statement of fact or recital in this Indenture or in the Warrant Certificates (except the representation contained in Section 10.10 or in the certificate of the Trustee on the Warrant Certificates), but all such statements or recitals are and will be deemed to be made by the Corporation;

(b) nothing herein contained will impose on the Trustee any obligation to see to, or to require evidence of, the registration or filing (or renewal thereof) of this Indenture or any instrument ancillary or supplemental hereto;

(c) the Trustee will not be bound to give notice to any person of the execution hereof;

(d) the Trustee will not incur any liability or responsibility whatever or be in any way responsible for the consequence of any breach by the Corporation of any obligation herein contained or of any act of any Director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation; and

(e) the Trustee will not be liable or accountable for any loss or damage whatsoever to any person caused by the performance or failure by it to perform its responsibilities under this Indenture save only to the extent that such loss or damage is attributable to the negligence, wilful misconduct or negligence of the Trustee.

(2) The Corporation agrees to indemnify the Trustee and its directors, officers and employees and save them harmless from all liabilities, losses, claims, demands, suits, damages, costs and actions which may be brought against or suffered by them arising out of or connected with the performance by the Trustee of its duties hereunder except to the extent that such liabilities, suits, damages, costs and actions are attributable to dishonesty, bad faith, wilful misconduct or negligence of the Trustee. In the absence of dishonesty, bad faith, wilful misconduct or negligence on its part, the Trustee shall not be liable for any action taken, suffered, or omitted by it or for any error of judgement made by it in the performance of its duties under this Indenture. In no event will the Trustee be liable for special, indirect, consequential or punitive loss or damages of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Trustee has been advised of the possibility of such damages. Any liability of the Trustee will be limited in the aggregate to an amount equal to twelve (12) times the monthly fee paid by the Corporation. In the event any question or dispute arises with respect to the Trustee's duties hereunder, the Trustee shall not be required to act or be held liable or responsible for its failure or refusal to act until the question or dispute has been (i) judicially settled (and, if appropriate the Trustee may file a suit in interpleader or for a declatory judgement for such purpose) by final judgement by a court of competent jurisdiction that is binding on all parties in the matter and is no longer subject to review or appeal, or (ii) settled by written document in form and substance satisfactory to the Trustee and executed by the Trustee. In addition, the Trustee may require for such purpose, but shall not be obligated to require, the execution of such written settlement by parties that may have an interest in the settlement. This provision will survive the resignation or termination of the Trustee or the termination of this Indenture.

10.09 Replacement of Trustee

(1) The Trustee may resign its trust hereunder and be discharged from all further duties and liabilities hereunder, except as provided in this Section, by giving to the Corporation and the Warrantholders not less than 30 Business Days notice in writing or, if a new Trustee has been appointed, such shorter notice as the Corporation accepts as sufficient.

(2) The Warrantholders by Extraordinary Resolution may at any time remove the Trustee and appoint a new Trustee.

(3) If the Trustee so resigns or is so removed or is dissolved, becomes bankrupt, goes into liquidation or otherwise becomes incapable of acting hereunder, the Corporation will forthwith appoint a new Trustee unless a new Trustee has already been appointed by the Warrantholders.

(4) Failing such appointment by the Corporation, the retiring Trustee or any Warrantholder may apply to the Ontario Superior Court of Justice, on such notice as the Court directs, for the appointment of a new Trustee, at the expense of the Corporation.

(5) Any new Trustee so appointed by the Corporation or by the Court will be subject to removal as aforesaid by the Warrantholders.

(6) Any new Trustee appointed under any provision of this Section must be a corporation authorized to carry on the business of a trust company in Ontario and, if required by the Applicable Law of any other province, in such other province.

(7) On any such appointment, the new Trustee will be vested with the same powers, rights, duties and responsibilities as if it had been originally named herein as Trustee without any further assurance, conveyance, act or deed, but there will be immediately executed, at the expense of the Corporation, all such conveyances or other instruments as, in the opinion of Counsel, are necessary or advisable for the purpose of assuring such powers, rights, duties and responsibilities to the new Trustee, provided that, on any resignation or termination of the Trustee and appointment of a successor Trustee, the successor Trustee will have executed an appropriate instrument accepting such appointment and, at the Request of the Corporation, the predecessor Trustee, upon payment of its outstanding remuneration and expenses, will execute and deliver to the successor Trustee an appropriate instrument transferring to such successor Trustee all rights and powers of the Trustee hereunder.

(8) On the appointment of a new Trustee, the Corporation will promptly give notice thereof to the Warrantholders.

(9) A corporation into or with which the Trustee is merged or consolidated or amalgamated, or a corporation succeeding to the trust business of the Trustee, will be the successor to the Trustee hereunder without any further act on its part or on the part of any party hereto if such corporation would be eligible for appointment as a new Trustee under Section 10.09(6).

(10) A Warrant Certificate certified but not delivered by a predecessor Trustee may be delivered by the new or successor Trustee in the name of the predecessor Trustee or successor Trustee.

10.10 Conflict of Interest

The Trustee represents to the Corporation that at the time of the execution and delivery hereof no material conflict of interest exists between its role as a fiduciary hereunder and its role in any other capacity and if a material conflict of interest arises hereafter it will, within 30 Business Days after ascertaining that it has such material conflict of interest, either eliminate the conflict of interest or resign its trust hereunder.

If any such material conflict of interest exists or hereafter will exist, the validity and enforceability of this Indenture and of the Warrants will not be affected in any manner whatsoever by reason thereof.

The Trustee, in its personal or any other capacity, may buy, lend upon and deal in securities of the Corporation and generally may contract and enter into financial transactions with the Corporation without being liable to account for any profit made thereby.

10.11 Acceptance of Trusts

The Trustee hereby accepts the trusts in this Indenture declared and provided for and agrees to perform them on the terms and conditions herein set forth.

To the extent of any inconsistency between the terms of the Warrant Indenture and the terms of this Warrant Certificate, the terms of the Warrant Indenture will prevail. The Corporation will furnish to the holder, on request and upon payment of a reasonable charge for photocopying and postage, a copy of the Warrant Indenture or a holder may obtain a copy thereof from www.sedar.ca.

The Warrants evidenced by this Warrant Certificate may be exercised by the holder on or after June 28, 2006 until 5:00 p.m. (Toronto time) on March 31, 2013 ("Expiry Time").

On and after the date of any exercise of the Warrants evidenced by this Warrant Certificate, the holder will have no rights hereunder except to receive certificates representing the Common Shares thereby issued to the holder upon delivery of a certified cheque, bank draft or money order payable to the Corporation in the amount of the Exercise Price in respect of each Common Share to be issued, this Warrant Certificate and duly completed Notice of Exercise as set out in Appendix 1 hereof to the Trustee at its principal corporate trust office in Toronto, Ontario. After the Expiry Time, all rights under any unexercised Warrant evidenced hereby will wholly cease and terminate and this Warrant Certificate will be void.

The Corporation will not be obligated to issue any fraction of a Common Share on the exercise of any Warrant. To the extent that a holder of Warrants would otherwise have been entitled to receive, on the exercise of Warrants, a fraction of a Common Share, the Corporation will, in lieu of delivering the fractional Common Share, satisfy the right to receive such fractional interest by payment to the Warrantholder of an amount in cash equal (computed in the case of a fraction of a cent, to the next lower cent) to the value of the right to acquire such fractional interest on the basis of the Current Market Price of the Common Shares on the date of exercise.

The Warrant Indenture provides for adjustments to the number of Common Shares issuable and the Exercise Price upon the occurrence of certain events set forth therein.

No Common Share will be issued pursuant to any Warrant if the issuance of such security would constitute a violation of the securities laws of any applicable jurisdiction or require the Corporation to qualify or register such Common Shares, or make any notice or other filing, in any jurisdiction other than the Qualifying Jurisdictions.

The Warrant Indenture contains provisions making binding on all holders of Warrants outstanding thereunder resolutions passed at meetings of such holders held in accordance with such provisions and instruments in writing signed by holders of a specified majority of all outstanding Warrants.

On presentation at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee in Toronto, Ontario, subject to the provisions of the Warrant Indenture and on compliance with the reasonable requirements of the Trustee, one or more Warrant Certificates may be exchanged for one or more Warrant Certificates of different denominations evidencing in the aggregate the same number of Warrants as the Warrant Certificate or Warrant Certificates being exchanged, and such holder will pay the reasonable cost thereof.

The Warrants evidenced by this Warrant Certificate may only be transferred, upon compliance with the conditions prescribed in the Warrant Indenture, on the register of transfers to be kept at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee in Toronto, Ontario by the holder or, in the case of an individual, his/her executors, administrators or other legal representatives or an attorney duly appointed by an instrument in writing in form and execution satisfactory to the Trustee, and, upon compliance with such requirements and such other reasonable requirements as the Trustee may prescribe, such transfer will be duly noted on such register of transfers by the Trustee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation will be entitled, and may direct the Trustee, to refuse to record any transfer of any Warrant on such register if such transfer would constitute a violation of the securities laws of any jurisdiction or require the Corporation to qualify the Common Shares for distribution in any jurisdiction.

The holding of this Warrant Certificate will not constitute the holder a shareholder of the Corporation or entitle the holder to any right or interest in respect thereof except as otherwise provided in the Warrant Indenture.

This Warrant Certificate will not be valid for any purpose until it has been certified by or on behalf of the Trustee for the time being under the Warrant Indenture. Time will be of the essence hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Corporation has caused this Warrant Certificate to be signed by its officers duly authorized in that behalf as of March 31 , 2006.

surrendered for transfer will be duly endorsed or accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Corporation and the Transfer Agent or Registrar, duly executed by the Holder thereof or his or her attorney duly authorized in writing. To permit registrations of transfers, the Corporation will execute and the Trustee, Transfer Agent or Registrar will certify or authenticate Debt Securities.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section, the Registrar and Transfer Agent will not be required to register the exchange or transfer of any Debt Security during the period of 15 Business Days preceding the date for any payment with respect to such Debt Security, including the date on which such Debt Security is to be redeemed, if applicable.

(4) The Registrar, Transfer Agent, the Trustee and the Corporation will not be required to (a) execute for delivery, register the transfer of or exchange Debt Securities of any particular Series during the 15 Business Day period before the day of the mailing of a notice of redemption of Debt Securities of such Series selected for redemption under Section 3.01, beginning at the open of business on the first Business Day of such period and ending at the close of business on the last day of such period; or (b) register the transfer of or exchange any Debt Security so selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of any Debt Security being redeemed in part.

(5) The Registrar and the Trustee will be reimbursed by the Corporation for any stamp taxes or governmental charges required to be paid and will be paid a reasonable charge for their services and a reasonable sum per Debt Security created and issued upon any exchange or transfer of Debt Securities effected by them, other than an exchange of interim Debt Securities for permanent Debt Securities. Payment of such charges or sums will be made by the Person requesting the exchange or transfer as a condition precedent to such exchange or transfer.

2.09 No Duty to Monitor

The Trustee has no obligation or duty to monitor, determine or inquire as to compliance with any restrictions on transfer imposed under this Indenture or under Applicable Law with respect to any transfer of any interest in any Debt Security (including any transfers between or among Participants or beneficial owners of interests in any Global Security) other than to require delivery of such certificates and other documentation or evidence as are expressly required by, and to do so if and when expressly required by the terms of, this Indenture, and to examine the same to determine substantial compliance as to form with the express requirements hereof.

2.10 Persons Entitled to Payment

(1) Prior to due presentment for registration of transfer of any Debt Security, the Corporation, the Trustee, the related Registrar, the related Paying Agent, the related Transfer Agent and any other Person may treat the Person in whose name any Debt Security is registered in the applicable register (including in the case of a Global Debt Security, the related Depository or the nominee of such Depository in whose name such Global Debt Security is registered) as the absolute and sole owner of such Debt Security for all purposes including receiving payment of the principal of and any premium, interest or other amount on such Debt Security, receiving any notice to be given to the Holder of such Debt Security, and taking any Act of Holders with respect to such Debt Security, whether or not any payment with respect to such Debt Security is overdue, and none of the Corporation, the Trustee, the related Registrar, the related Paying Agent, the related Transfer Agent or any other Person will be affected by notice to the contrary.

(2) Delivery of a Debt Security to the Trustee, the related Registrar or the related Paying Agent by or on behalf of the Holder thereof will, upon payment of such Debt Security, be a good discharge to the Corporation of all obligations evidenced by such Debt Security. None of the Corporation, the Trustee, the related Registrar, the related Paying Agent or any other Person will be bound to inquire into the title of any such Holder nor will the Corporation, the Trustee, the related Registrar, the related Paying Agent or any other Person be bound to see to the execution of any trust affecting the ownership of any Debt Security or be affected by notice of any equity that may be subsisting in respect of any Debt Security.

(3) In the case of the death of one or more joint registered Holders of a Debt Security, the principal of, and any premium, interest and other amounts payable on such Debt Security may be paid to the survivor or survivors of such registered Holders whose receipt of such payment, accompanied by the delivery of such Debt Security, will constitute a valid discharge to the Corporation, the Trustee, the related Registrar, and the related Paying Agent.

2.11 Cancellation of Debt Securities

(1) All Debt Securities surrendered for payment of the final amount required to be paid thereon or that have been redeemed by the Corporation as contemplated by Section 3.01, or that have been surrendered to the Trustee for registration of exchange or transfer, will be promptly cancelled by the Trustee, and if surrendered to the related Registrar or the related Paying Agent, will be delivered by it to the Trustee for cancellation and will be cancelled by the Trustee on receipt.

(2) The Corporation may, in its discretion at any time, deliver to the Trustee for cancellation any Debt Securities that the Corporation has purchased as provided for in this Indenture, and all such Debt Securities so delivered will be cancelled by the Trustee.

(3) All Debt Securities that have been cancelled by the Trustee will be destroyed or disposed of by the Trustee in accordance with its standard practices, and the Trustee will furnish upon request to the Corporation, the related Registrar and the related Paying Agent a certificate setting forth the numbers and denominations of the Debt Securities so destroyed or disposed of.

2.12 Mutilated, Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Debt Securities

(1) If any Debt Security has been mutilated or defaced or has or has been alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, then, on application by the applicable Holder to the related Registrar (in such capacity a "Replacement Agent"), the Corporation will execute, and upon such execution the Trustee will certify and deliver, a new Debt Security of the same Series, date and the same Principal Terms as the mutilated, defaced, lost, stolen or destroyed Debt Security in exchange for and in place of the mutilated or defaced Debt Security, and in lieu of and in substitution for the lost, stolen or destroyed Debt Security. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Debt Security will be delivered as a replacement for any Debt Security that has been mutilated or defaced otherwise than upon surrender of the mutilated or defaced Debt Security, and no Debt

Security will be delivered as a replacement for any Debt Security which has been lost, stolen or destroyed unless the applicant for the replacement Debt Security has furnished to the Corporation and the Trustee evidence, satisfactory in form and substance to the Corporation and the Trustee, of its ownership of, and of such loss, theft or destruction of, such Debt Security and has provided such security or indemnity (including an indemnity bond if so required) to the Corporation, the Trustee, the related Registrar and the related Paying Agent in amount, form and substance satisfactory to each of them. Any instructions by the Corporation to a Replacement Agent under this Section will include such indemnity for the protection of such Replacement Agent as such Replacement Agent may reasonably require.

(2) If any mutilated, defaced, lost, stolen or destroyed Debt Security has become or is about to become due and payable, the Corporation, in its discretion, may, instead of executing a replacement Debt Security, pay to the Holder thereof the full amount outstanding on such mutilated, defaced, lost, stolen or destroyed Debt Security.

(3) Upon the issuance of a replacement Debt Security, the Corporation may require the applicant for such replacement Debt Security to pay a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation to such issuance and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Trustee, the related Registrar, the related Paying Agent and the Corporation) connected with such issuance.

(4) Each replacement Debt Security will bear a unique serial number and be in a form otherwise identical to the Debt Security it replaces and will be entitled to the benefits of this Indenture to the same extent and in the same manner as the Debt Security it replaces.

(5) The Replacement Agent will promptly deliver to the Trustee for cancellation each mutilated or defaced Debt Security surrendered to it and in respect of which a replacement Debt Security has been delivered or money has been paid.

(6) Unless the Corporation instructs otherwise, the Trustee will, in accordance with its practice, destroy each mutilated or defaced Debt Security surrendered to and cancelled by it and in respect of which a replacement Debt Security has been delivered or money or securities has been paid and will, as soon as reasonably practicable, upon request furnish to the Corporation, the related Registrar and the related Paying Agent a certificate as to such destruction specifying in numerical sequence the serial numbers of the Debt Securities so destroyed.

2.13 Access to Lists of Holders

(1) The U.S. Trustee will preserve in as current a form as is reasonably practicable the most recent list available to it of the names and addresses of Holders of the Debt Securities of a Series and will otherwise comply with TIA Section 312(a). If the U.S. Trustee is not the Registrar, the Corporation must furnish to the U.S. Trustee, in writing no later than each Regular Interest Record Date for each Series and at such other times as the U.S. Trustee may request in writing a list in such form and as of such Record Date or other date as the U.S. Trustee may reasonably require of the names and addresses of Holders, including the aggregate principal amount of Debt Securities held by each Holder. If the Canadian Trustee is not the Registrar, the Corporation must furnish to the Canadian Trustee, in writing at such times as the Canadian Trustee may request in writing such information reasonably required by the Trustee to comply with its duties under Section 85(1) of the Canada Business Corporations Act.

(2) Holders may communicate pursuant to TIA Section 312(b) with other Holders with respect to their rights under this Indenture or any Debt Security. The Corporation, the Trustee, the related Registrar and anyone else will have the protection of TIA Section 312(c).

2.14 Global Debt Securities

(1) The Corporation, at its option, may at any time and from time to time require that any or all Debt Securities of a Series be represented in the form of a Global Debt Security held by or on behalf of the related Depository as custodian of such Global Debt Security. If the Corporation requires that the Debt Securities of a particular Series are to be issued as a Global Debt Security, then the Corporation will execute, and the Trustee or the Certifying Agent or the Authenticating Agent, as the case may be, will certify and deliver, one or more Global Debt Securities that (a) will represent, and will be denominated in an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of, the Debt Securities of such Series, (b) if in registered form, will be registered in the name of the related Depository or its nominee, (c) will be delivered or caused to be delivered by the Trustee to the related Depository or pursuant to the related Depository's instruction, and (d) will bear a legend which may be in the form provided by the Depository, substantially to the effect that except as otherwise provided in the Indenture, the Global Debt Security may be transferred, in whole but not in part, only to another nominee of the Depository or to a successor Depository or to a nominee of such successor Depository. Any endorsement of a Global Debt Security to reflect the principal amount, or any increase or decrease in the principal amount, of the Debt Securities represented by such Global Debt Security will be made by the Trustee, the related Registrar or the related Paying Agent, as the case may be, in such manner and upon instructions given by such Person as is specified in such Global Debt Security or in an Order of the Corporation.

(2) It is expressly acknowledged that any registrations of beneficial ownership, and transfers of beneficial ownership, of Debt Securities represented by Global Debt Securities will be made only through the applicable Book-Based System. The rights of a holder of any interest in a Debt Security represented by a Global Debt Security (including the right to receive a certificate or other instrument evidencing an ownership interest in such Debt Security) will be limited to those rights established by Applicable Law and by agreements between the related Depository and its applicable Participant and between such Participant and the holder of such interest. Accordingly, none of the Corporation, the Trustee, the related Registrar, the related Paying Agent or any agent of any such Person will be under any obligation to deliver to the holder of such interest, nor will such holder have any right to require the delivery of, a certificate evidencing any Debt Security (or interest therein) represented by a Global Debt Security.

(3) If:

(a) required to do so by Applicable Law;

(b) the applicable Book-Based System ceases to exist;

(c) at any time a Depository notifies the Corporation or the Corporation otherwise determines that the applicable Depository is no longer willing or able to discharge properly its responsibilities as Depository or if at any time such Depository is no longer registered or in good standing under any Applicable Law or be qualified as a Clearing Agency under any Applicable Securities Law, in each case as required in order to fulfil its duties and obligations as Depository of that Series and the Corporation is unable to locate a qualified successor within 90 days or such longer period as agreed to by the Trustee;

(d) the Corporation at its option elects to terminate the applicable Book-Based System for any reason (including if the Corporation considers it impracticable or inefficient to effect any distribution of the applicable Debt Securities through the applicable Book-Based System or through the facilities of the applicable Depository); or the Corporation will cause Debt Securities represented by a Global Debt Security to be issued in definitive form to holders other than the applicable Depository and its nominees and to allow transfers of such Debt Securities other than within the applicable Book-Based System and to allow any payments or distributions required to be made under this Indenture with respect to such Debt Securities to be made other than to the related Depository or to be distributed other than through the applicable Book-Based System. In addition, the Corporation has the right to appoint one or more sub-custodians in the event that the Corporation determines that it is impractical for the related Depository to act as custodian for any Debt Securities that are, and which are permitted to be, beneficially owned by non-residents of Canada.

(e) after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, Holders of Debt Securities of the applicable Series determine (by an instrument in writing signed in one or more counterparts by Holders or Participants for such Holders representing beneficial interests aggregating over 51% in principal amount of Debt Securities of that Series then outstanding and delivered to the Corporation, the Trustee and the Depository) that the continuation of the holding of Debt Securities of that Series in the Book-Based System is no longer in the best interests of the Holders thereof;

(4) Notwithstanding Section 2.08, a Global Debt Security may be transferred, in whole but not in part and in the manner provided in Section 2.08, only to another nominee of the Depository for the applicable Series, or to a successor Depository for the applicable Series selected or approved by the Corporation or to a nominee of such successor Depository.

(5) In the event that the use of the Book-Based System is terminated in accordance with Section 2.14(3), then the Trustee, upon receipt of an Order of the Corporation so requesting, will certify or authenticate and deliver Definitive Debt Securities of such Series in authorized denominations, and in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Global Debt Securities of such Series in exchange for such Global Debt Securities. Upon the exchange of the Global Debt Securities of a Series for Definitive Debt Securities of such Series, such Global Debt Securities will be cancelled by the Trustee. Such Definitive Debt Securities will be registered in such names and in such authorized denominations as the related Depository, pursuant to instructions from its Participants or otherwise, will notify to the Trustee or the related Registrar, as the case may be. The Trustee will deliver such Definitive Debt Securities to the related Depository for delivery to the Persons in whose names such Debt Securities have been so registered.

ARTICLE 3 - REDEMPTIONS AND PURCHASES

3.01 Redemption

Debt Securities that are redeemable before their Stated Maturity will be redeemable in accordance with their Principal Terms and, except as otherwise specified in the Principal Terms, in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) Election to Redeem; Notice to Trustee, Registrar and Paying Agent. If the Corporation elects to redeem less than all of the Debt Securities of a Series, the Corporation will, at least 15 days prior to the date determined by the Corporation for the giving of notice of redemption to the Holders of the Debt Securities to be redeemed (unless a shorter notice is satisfactory to the Trustee, the related Registrar and the related Paying Agent), notify the Trustee, the related Registrar and the related Paying Agent of the Redemption Date and of the principal amount of such Series to be redeemed.

(b) Selection of Debt Securities to Be Redeemed.

(i) If less than all the Debt Securities of any Series are to be redeemed, the particular Debt Securities to be redeemed will be selected by the Trustee from the outstanding Debt Securities of such Series not previously called for redemption, on a pro rata aggregate basis or by such other method as the Trustee deems equitable.

(ii) The Trustee will upon request notify the Corporation in writing of the Debt Securities selected for redemption and, in the case of any Debt Securities selected for partial redemption, the principal amount thereof to be redeemed.

(iii) For all purposes of this Indenture, unless the context otherwise requires, all provisions related to the redemption of Debt Securities will relate, in the case of any Debt Security redeemed or to be redeemed only in part, to the portion of the principal amount of such Debt Security that has been or is to be redeemed.

(c) Notice of Redemption.

(i) Notice of redemption will be given not less than 30 or more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date to the Holders of the Debt Securities to be redeemed.

(ii) All notices of redemption will state: (A) the Redemption Date; (B) the Redemption Price; (C) if less than all of the applicable Series is to be redeemed, the identification (and, in the case of partial redemption, the principal amounts) of the particular Debt Securities to be redeemed; (D) that on the Redemption Date the Redemption Price of each such Debt Security (or part thereof) to be redeemed will become due and payable, and, unless the Corporation defaults in making the redemption payment, that interest on such Debt Security (or part thereof to be redeemed) will cease to accrue on and after such date; (E) the Place of Payment where such Debt Securities, maturing on or after the Redemption Date, are to be surrendered; (F) any other matter that the Trustee, the related Registrar or the related Paying Agent reasonably requests in connection with such redemption; and (G) in the case of Debt Securities in the Book-Based System, that the redemption will take place in such manner as may be agreed by the Depository, the Trustee and the Corporation.

(iii) Notice of redemption of Debt Securities to be redeemed at the election of the Corporation will be given by the Corporation or, at the Corporation's request, by the Trustee, the related Registrar or the related Paying Agent in the name and at the expense of the Corporation.

(d) Deposit of Redemption Price. On or prior to the Redemption Date, the Corporation will deposit with the Paying Agent, an amount of money sufficient to pay the Redemption Price of and (except as provided in Section 3.01(e)(i) below) accrued interest on, all the Debt Securities (or parts thereof) that are to be redeemed on such date.

(e) Debt Securities Payable on Redemption Date.

(i) If notice of redemption has been given as provided herein, the Debt Securities (or parts thereof) that are to be redeemed will become due and payable on the Redemption Date, at the Redemption Price specified in such notice, in the same manner and with the same effect as if such date was the Stated Maturity specified in such Debt Securities, anything therein or herein to the contrary notwithstanding, and from and after such Redemption Date, if the money necessary to redeem such Debt Securities has been deposited as provided in Section 3.01(d) and affidavits or other proof satisfactory to the Trustee as to the publication or mailing of such notice as have been lodged with the Trustee, such Debt Securities will not be considered as outstanding hereunder. From and after such Redemption Date (unless the Corporation defaults in the payment of the Redemption Price or any accrued interest) such Debt Securities (or parts thereof) will cease to bear interest. Upon surrender of any Debt Security for redemption in accordance with a notice of redemption, the Redemption Price of such Debt Security will be paid by the Paying Agent together with accrued interest to the Redemption Date, provided that instalments of interest on Debt Securities, where the Redemption Date is subsequent to a Regular Interest Record Date but prior to the related Interest Payment Date, will be payable to the Holders thereof registered as such on the applicable Regular Interest Record Dates for such instalments.

(ii) If a Debt Security called for redemption is not paid upon surrender of such Debt Security for redemption, the principal of and any premium, interest and other amounts on such Debt Security will, until paid, bear interest from the Redemption Date at the rate or rates prescribed therefor in the related Supplemental Indenture.

(f) Debt Security Redeemed in Part. Any Debt Security that is to be redeemed only in part will be surrendered to the Paying Agent, with, if such Person so requires, due endorsement by, or a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to such Person duly executed by, the Holder or the Holder's attorney duly authorized in writing, and the Corporation will execute, and the Trustee will certify or authenticate and deliver to such Holder without charge, a new Debt Security or Debt Securities of the same Series, of any authorized denomination as requested by such Holder in an aggregate principal amount equal to, and having the same Principal Terms as, and in exchange for, the unredeemed portion of the Debt Security so surrendered.

3.02 Purchase of Debt Securities

(1) The Corporation has the right at any time and from time to time to purchase Debt Securities in the market or by tender or by private contract, at any price that is agreed upon between the Corporation and the applicable Holders.

(2) Upon an invitation for tenders, if more Debt Securities of the applicable Series are tendered, at the same lowest price, than the Corporation is prepared to accept, the Debt Securities to be purchased by the Corporation will be selected by the Trustee in such manner (which may include random selection by computer) as the Canadian Trustee deems appropriate, from the Debt Securities tendered at such price. For this purpose, the Trustee may make, and from time to time amend, regulations with respect to the manner in which Debt Securities may be so selected, and regulations so made will be valid and binding upon all Holders notwithstanding the fact that, as a result of such regulations, any Debt Security becomes subject to purchase in part only. The Holder of any Debt Security of which part only is purchased will be entitled to receive, upon surrender of such Debt Security, without cost to such Holder, one or more new Debt Securities for the unpurchased part so surrendered, and the Corporation will execute, and the Trustee will certify or authenticate and deliver, such new Debt Securities upon receipt of the Debt Security so surrendered.

(3) Subject to the provisions as to Debt Securities redeemed in part, all Debt Securities purchased under the provisions of this Section 3.02 will be forthwith delivered to and cancelled by the Trustee and no Debt Securities will be issued in substitution therefor.

ARTICLE 4 - PAYMENTS, PRIORITY ARRANGEMENTS

4.01 Provisions for Payment

The principal of and any premium, interest and other amounts on a Series will be payable in the currency specified in the related Supplemental Indenture for such Series at the Place of Payment for such Series against surrender of the Debt Securities of such Series at the Office of the Paying Agent in such Place of Payment. If no currency is specified in the related Supplemental Indenture, amounts payable with respect to such Series will be payable in Canadian Dollars. Each Series will bear interest, if any, payable on the Interest Payment Dates and at the rate specified in, or determined in the manner provided in, the related Supplemental Indenture. Each Debt Security will be dated its issue date or, if agreed upon by the Corporation and the Trustee, the date of its certification or authentication by the Trustee.

4.02 Interest Payments

(1) Interest payable on a Debt Security on an Interest Payment Date will be paid to the Holder thereof as at the close of business on the Regular Interest Record Date for such Interest Payment Date. Upon payment by the Corporation of the additional fees and expenses of the Trustee, the related Registrar or the related Paying Agent, as the case may be, with respect thereto, payment of interest on a Debt Security may be made by wire transfer to an account maintained with a bank in Canada designated in writing at least 15 days prior to the applicable Interest Payment Date by a Holder of such Series from time to time. In addition, at the option of the Corporation, payment of interest on a Debt Security may be made by cheque mailed not later than five days prior to the applicable Interest Payment Date to the address of the Person entitled to such payment as the address appearing in the relevant register. The forwarding of such cheque will satisfy and discharge the liability for the interest on such Debt Securities to the extent of the sum represented thereby (plus the amount of any tax deducted or withheld, if any) unless such cheque is not paid on presentation at any of the places at which such interest is payable. In the event of the non-receipt of such cheque by the applicable Holder of Debt Securities or the loss, theft or destruction thereof, the Corporation, upon being furnished with evidence of such non-receipt, loss, theft or destruction and indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it, will issue or cause to be issued to such Holder of Debt Securities a replacement cheque for the amount of such cheque.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Indenture to the contrary, the Corporation may enter into an agreement with the Holder of a Debt Security or with the Person for whom such holder is acting as nominee providing for the payment, without presentation or surrender of the Debt Security or notation of payment thereon, to such holder of the principal sum of, any premium and interest on such Debt Security and all other money or securities payable hereunder at a place, and by electronic funds transfer on or in such other manner, other than the places or the manner specified in this Indenture and in such Debt Security as the places and the manner for such payment. The Corporation will furnish to the Trustee a Certificate of the Corporation setting forth the details of such agreement. Any payment of the principal of, any premium and interest on any such Debt Security and other money payable hereunder at such other place or in such other manner pursuant to such agreement will, notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture or the Debt Security, be valid and binding on the Corporation, the Trustee and all holders of Debt Securities.

(3) If a Debt Security or a portion thereof is called or presented to the Corporation for redemption and the Redemption Date is subsequent to a Regular Interest Record Date but prior to the related Interest Payment Date, interest on such Debt Security will be paid upon presentation and surrender of such Debt Security as provided in Section 3.01(e).

(4) Interest on any Series that is not paid on or within three Business Days following the applicable Interest Payment Date (such unpaid interest, together with interest thereon as provided in Section 5.01, collectively "Default Interest") will be paid in accordance with the following:

(a) The Corporation may elect to pay the Default Interest to the Holders of such Series as at the close of business on a Special Interest Record Date for the payment of the Default Interest, which will be fixed in the following manner. The Corporation will notify the Trustee in writing of the amount of Default Interest proposed to be paid and the date of the proposed payment, and at the same time the Corporation will deposit with the Trustee an amount of money equal to the amount of the Default Interest proposed to be paid, or will make arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for such deposit prior to the date of the proposed payment, and such money when deposited will be held in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled thereto. The Trustee will then fix a special record date on a Business Day (a "Special Interest Record Date") for the payment of the Default Interest, which will be not less than 10 days and not more than 15 days prior to the proposed payment date and not less than 10 days after the receipt by the Trustee of the notice of the proposed payment. The Trustee will cause notice of the proposed payment of Default Interest and the Special Interest Record Date to be given to the Holders of such Series not less than 10 days prior to such Special Interest Record Date. Default Interest will be paid to such Holders as at the close of business on such Special Interest Record Date and will not be payable pursuant to Section 4.02(4)(b).

(b) The Corporation may pay Default Interest on any Series in any other lawful manner not inconsistent with the requirements of any securities exchange on which such Series is listed or any over-the-counter market in which such Series is traded, and upon such notice as may be required by such exchange or market, if, after notice given by the Corporation to the Trustee of the proposed payment pursuant to this Section 4.02(4), such manner of payment will be deemed practicable by the Trustee.

(c) This Section 4.02(4) will not have any effect in determining if there is an Event of Default under Section 7.01.

(5) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Section, each Debt Security delivered upon the transfer of or in exchange for or in lieu of any other Debt Security will carry the rights to interest accrued and unpaid, and to accrue, that was carried by such other Debt Security.

4.03 Currency Indemnity

The Corporation will make payments relative to each Debt Security in the currency in which such Debt Security is denominated (the "Original Currency"). If the Corporation makes a payment relative to a Debt Security (whether to the Trustee, the related Registrar, the related Paying Agent or the applicable Holder) in a currency (the "Other Currency") other than the Original Currency (whether voluntarily or pursuant to an order or judgment of a court or tribunal of any jurisdiction), such payment will constitute a discharge of the liability of the Corporation in respect of such Debt Security only to the extent of the amount of the Original Currency which the recipient of such payment purchases, in accordance with its normal practice, with the amount of the Other Currency received. If the amount of the Original Currency which the recipient is able to purchase in accordance with normal banking procedures is less than the amount of the Original Currency due, the Corporation will indemnify and save harmless the Trustee, the related Registrar, the related Paying Agent and the applicable Holder from and against any loss or damage arising as a result of such deficiency. This indemnity will constitute an obligation separate and independent from the other obligations contained in this Indenture, will give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, will apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by the Trustee, the related Registrar, the related Paying Agent or the applicable Holder, and will continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any judgment or order in respect of any amount due under this Indenture.

4.04 Ranking of Debt Securities

(1) All Debt Securities of a Series will rank pari passu and ratably with all other Debt Securities of such Series, and will share all collateral security, if any, delivered to the Trustee or any Person on its behalf with respect to such Series equally and ratably, except as provided in the Supplemental Indenture related to such Series.

(2) Each Holder by accepting a Debt Security irrevocably authorizes and directs the Trustee on its behalf to take such action (including the execution and delivery of documents of subordination of payment and of any such collateral security) at the request of the Corporation as may be necessary or appropriate with the Trustee relying on the advice of Counsel to further assure the priority arrangements provided for in this Indenture and the Secured Note Loan Documents with respect to any Series, including regarding application of payments, the provision of security, the entering into of intercreditor arrangements and the effecting of subordination arrangements including in connection with any Refinancing Indebtedness, and each Holder appoints the Trustee as its agent for any and all such purposes.

(3) A Holder may at any time extend any time of payment applicable to its Debt Securities or waive any Event of Default applicable to such Debt Securities, without notice to or consent from any creditor of the Corporation (including any other Holder) which is subordinate in right of payment to such Holder.

ARTICLE 5 - COVENANTS OF THE CORPORATION

5.01 Payment of Principal, Premium and Interest

The Corporation covenants and agrees with the Trustee and for the benefit of the Holders of each Series of Debt Securities that it will duly and punctually pay the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on the Debt Securities of such Series in accordance with their terms and this Indenture. Principal (and premium, if any) or interest payable with respect to any Debt Securities will be considered paid on the date due if the Paying Agent holds on that date money or securities or both sufficient to pay all principal (and premium, if any) and interest then due. Notwithstanding any other term of this Indenture, the Corporation will pay, to the extent such payments are lawful, interest in cash on overdue principal and it shall pay interest in cash on overdue interest (without regard to any applicable grace periods) from time to time on demand at the rate borne by the Debt Securities plus 2% per annum.

5.02 Maintenance of Office or Agency

(1) The Corporation will maintain or cause the related Registrar or the related Paying Agent, as the case may be, to maintain an Office or Agency at each Place of Payment for any Series where Debt Securities of such Series may be presented or surrendered for payment, or for registration of transfer or exchange, and where notices and demands to or upon the Corporation in respect of such Debt Securities and this Indenture may be served. The Corporation will give prompt written notice to the Trustee of the location, and any change in the location, of any such Office or Agency. If at any time the Corporation fails to maintain such required Office or Agency or fails to furnish to the Trustee the address of any such Office or Agency, such presentations, surrenders, registrations, notices and demands may be made or served at the principal corporate trust office of the Canadian Trustee in Toronto, Ontario, unless in respect of a presentation or surrender for payment, or a registration of transfer or exchange in which case such presentation or surrender or registration will be made or served at the security transfer department of the Canadian Trustee in Toronto, Ontario, and the Corporation hereby appoints the Canadian Trustee as its agent to receive all such presentations, surrenders, notices, registrations and demands.

(2) The Corporation may from time to time designate one or more other Offices or Agencies (in or outside of such Place of Payment) where the Debt Securities of such Series may be presented or surrendered for any or all of such purposes, and may from time to time rescind such designations; provided, however, that no such designation or rescission will in any manner relieve the Corporation of its obligation to maintain, or cause the related Registrar or the related Paying Agent, as the case may be, to maintain for such purposes an Office or Agency in each Place of Payment for such Series. The Corporation will give prompt written notice to the Trustee of any such designation and any change in the location of any such other Office or Agency.

5.03 Money for Debt Securities Payments to Be Held in Trust

(1) Whenever the Corporation has one or more Paying Agents with respect to any Series of Debt Securities, it will, prior to each due date for payment of the principal of (and premium, if any) or interest on any Debt Securities of such Series, deposit with a Paying Agent an amount sufficient to pay the principal (and premium, if any) or interest so becoming due, such amount to be held in trust by such Paying Agent for the benefit of the Persons entitled to such principal, premium or interest, and (unless such Paying Agent is the Trustee) the Corporation will promptly notify the Trustee of its action or failure so to act.

(2) The Corporation will cause each Paying Agent with respect to any Series of Debt Securities, other than the Trustee, to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such Paying Agent agrees, subject to the provisions of this Section, that such Paying Agent will:

(a) hold all amounts held by it for the payment of the principal of (and premium, if any) or interest on Debt Securities of such Series in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled thereto until such amounts are paid to such Persons or otherwise disposed of as herein provided;

(b) give the Trustee written notice of any default by the Corporation (or any other obligor upon the Debt Securities of such Series) in the making of any payment of principal of (and premium, if any) or interest on the Debt Securities of such Series; and

(c) at any time during the continuance of any such default, upon the written request of the Trustee, forthwith deliver to the Trustee all amounts so held in trust by such Paying Agent.

(3) The Corporation may at any time, for the purpose of obtaining the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture or for any other purpose, pay, or by request of the Corporation direct any Paying Agent to deliver, to the Trustee all amounts held in trust by the Corporation or such Paying Agent, such amounts to be held by the Trustee upon the same trusts as those upon which such amounts were held by the Corporation or such Paying Agent; and upon such payment by any Paying Agent to the Trustee, such Paying Agent will be released from all further liability with respect to such amounts.

(4) Any amounts deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent, or then held by the Corporation, in trust for the payment of the principal of (and premium, if any) or interest on any Debt Security of any Series and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal (and premium, if any) or interest has become due and payable will to the extent permitted by Applicable Law be delivered to the Corporation on Request of the Corporation, or (if then held by the Corporation) will be discharged from such trust; and the Holder of such Debt Security will thereafter, as an unsecured general creditor, look only to the Corporation for payment thereof, and all liability of the Trustee or such Paying Agent with respect to such trust property, and all liability of the Corporation as trustee thereof, will thereupon cease.

5.04 Corporate Existence; Books of Account; Annual Filing; Compliance Certificate, etc.

(1) The Corporation covenants and agrees with the Trustee for the benefit of each Holder that:

(a) it will (and will cause each Restricted Subsidiary to), subject to the provisions of Section 9.01 do or cause to be done all necessary things to preserve and keep in full force and effect its corporate existence or limited partnership existence and its rights and franchises;

(b) it will keep or cause to be kept by each Restricted Subsidiary proper books of account in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles;

(c) it will, on or before June 1, in each year and at any other reasonable time if requested by the Trustee, furnish to the Trustee a Certificate of the Corporation stating that the Corporation and each Restricted Subsidiary has complied with all covenants, conditions and other requirements contained in the Secured Note Loan Documents, non-compliance with which would, with the giving of notice, lapse of time, or otherwise, constitute an Event of Default hereunder or, if such is not the case, specifying the covenant, condition or other requirement that has not been complied with and giving particulars of such non-compliance and its current status and the action, if any, the Corporation has taken or proposes to take with respect thereto to eliminate such circumstance and remedy such Event of Default, as the case may be; and

(d) it will promptly notify the Trustee in writing upon becoming aware of the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default and provide the Trustee with a Certificate of the Corporation specifying the Default or Event of Default, its current status and the action, if any the Corporation has taken or proposes to take with respect thereto to remedy the Default or Event of Default.

(2) So long as any Debt Securities are outstanding:

(a) if the Corporation is subject to the reporting requirements under the securities laws of one or more provinces or territories of Canada and is required to file information with one or more securities commissions in Canada (the "Canadian Commissions"), the Corporation will make such filings and furnish to the Canadian Trustee and the Holders of the Debt Securities to the extent not otherwise generally available on the Canadian System for Electronic Document Analysis and Retrieval ("SEDAR"), as promptly as is reasonably practicable after such information has been filed:

(i) all quarterly and annual financial information that the Corporation would be required to file with such Canadian Commissions as if it was a reporting issuer under the securities laws of the Province of Ontario, including in each case a "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and, with respect to the annual information only, a report on the annual financial statements by the Corporation's independent chartered accountants (who will be a firm of established national reputation); and

(ii) all material change reports and other current reports that the Corporation would be required to file with the Canadian Commissions as if it was a reporting issuer under the securities laws of the Province of Ontario;

(b) if the Corporation is not subject to the reporting requirements under the securities laws of any province or territory of Canada or is otherwise not required to file information with one or more Canadian Commissions, the Corporation will furnish, as promptly as is reasonably practicable after it is available, to the Canadian Trustee and the Holders of Debt Securities to the extent not otherwise generally available on SEDAR, a copy of all of the financial information and reports referred to in Section 5.04(2)(a) above; and

(c) the Corporation will, and will cause the Guarantors to the extent required to, comply with Section 314(a) of the TIA to the extent such compliance is not otherwise provided for in this Section 5.04.

(3) If the Debt Securities of any Series are to be secured by a mortgage or pledge of property, the Corporation will, and will cause the Guarantors to the extent required to, comply with Section 314(b) and Section 314(d) of the TIA. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 5.04(3), neither the Corporation nor any Guarantor will be required to comply with all or any portion of Section 314(d) of the TIA if the Corporation determines, in good faith based on advice of Counsel, that, under the terms of Section 314(d) of the TIA and/or any interpretation or guidance as to the meaning thereof of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission or its staff, including publicly available "no action" letters or exemptive orders, all or any portion of Section 314(d) of the TIA is inapplicable to all or any part of the collateral or the release, deposit or substitution thereof.

(4) The Corporation will not (and will cause each Restricted Subsidiary and Unrestricted Subsidiary in respect of which a Lien has been granted in favour of the Trustee not to) change its name or amalgamate with another corporation under a different name in accordance with Article 9 without giving at least 30 days' prior written notice to the Trustee of the new name and the date upon which such change of name or amalgamation is to take effect and, within five days of the change of name or amalgamation, the Corporation will provide the Trustee with:

(a) a notarial or certified copy of the articles or amendment or articles of amalgamation affecting the change of name or amalgamation, as the case may be; and

(b) an opinion from Counsel satisfactory to the Trustee confirming that all appropriate or requested actions registrations, filings or recordings have been made on behalf of the Trustee to fully and effectively perfect, maintain, preserve and protect any security and Lien (and priority with respect thereto) in favour of the Trustee.

5.05 Waiver of Certain Covenants

The Corporation may omit in any particular instance to comply with any covenant or condition set forth in Section 5.04(2) with respect to the Debt Securities of any Series or identified in any Supplemental Indenture with respect to such Series as being subject to this Section 5.05 if, before the time for such compliance, the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Debt Securities of such Series, by Act of Holders, either waive such compliance in such instance or generally waive compliance with such covenant or condition, but no such waiver will extend to or affect such covenant or condition except to the extent so expressly waived, and, until such waiver becomes effective, the obligations of the Corporation and the duties of the Trustee in respect of any such covenant or condition will remain in full force and effect.

5.06 Incumbency Certificate

The Corporation will provide to the Trustee an incumbency certificate setting out the names and sample signatures of Persons authorized to give instructions to the Trustee hereunder. The Trustee will be entitled to rely on such certificate until a revised certificate is provided to it hereunder. The Trustee will be entitled to refuse to act upon any instructions given by a party which are signed by any Person other than a Person described in the incumbency certificate provided to it pursuant to this section.

ARTICLE 6 - GUARANTEES

6.01 Guarantees

With respect to the Debt Securities of any Series, the Corporation will cause each Subsidiary of the Corporation that is specified in the Supplemental Indenture for such Series (a "Guarantor") to enter into the guarantee agreement (a "Guarantee") attached hereto as Schedule A. Any such Guarantee will be deemed to be issued under this Indenture.

6.02 Release of Guarantors

The Guarantee of a Guarantor will be released and discharged upon a sale or other disposition, by way of merger, consolidation or otherwise, of all the Capital Stock or all or substantially all of the assets of any Guarantor to any Person that is not (either before or after giving effect to such transaction) a Restricted Subsidiary or the Corporation; provided that such sale or other disposition complies with the applicable provisions of any Supplemental Indenture; and, prior to release and discharge of such Guarantee, the Corporation has delivered to the Trustee a Certificate of the Corporation and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent herein or in any Supplemental Indenture relating to such transactions have been complied with and that such release and discharge is authorized and permitted hereunder or thereunder. The Trustee shall execute any documents reasonably requested by either the Corporation or a Guarantor (at the expense of the Corporation or the Guarantor, as the case may be) in order to evidence the release and discharge of such Guarantor from its obligations under its Guarantee under this Article 6. Any Guarantor not released from its obligations under its Guarantee will remain liable for the full amount of the principal and interest on the Debt Securities and for the other obligations of such Guarantor under its Guarantee.

ARTICLE 7 - DEFAULT AND ENFORCEMENT

7.01 Events of Default

The occurrence of any events of default provided in any Supplemental Indenture with respect to the Debt Securities of any Series constitute an "Event of Default" with respect to the Debt Securities of that Series.

7.02 Acceleration on Default

Subject to any provision of a Supplemental Indenture so otherwise providing, if an Event of Default occurs and is continuing with respect to outstanding Debt Securities of any Series, then in every such case, the Trustee may, in its discretion, and must, upon the written request of the Holders of not less than 25% in principal amount of the outstanding Debt Securities of such Series, declare the principal amount of and premium, if any, on all the outstanding Debt Securities of such Series and all accrued interest thereon to be due and payable immediately by notice in writing to the Corporation (and to the Trustee if given by such Holders), and upon any such declaration such principal amount, premium and interest will become immediately due and payable.

7.03 Waiver of Declaration

At any time after a declaration of acceleration with respect to the outstanding Debt Securities of one or more Series has been made pursuant to Section 7.02 and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the Trustee as hereinafter provided, the Holders of a majority in principal amount of outstanding Debt Securities of all Series affected by such Event of Default (as a class), by written Notice to the Corporation and the Trustee, may thereupon rescind and annul such declaration and its consequences in respect of such Series, if the Corporation has paid or deposited with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay:

(a) all overdue interest on all Debt Securities of such Series and all amounts due the Trustee hereunder;

(b) the principal of (and premium, if any) the Debt Securities of such Series that have become due otherwise than by such declaration of acceleration, and interest thereon at the rate or rates prescribed therefor in such Debt Securities; and

(c) to the extent that payment of such interest is lawful and applicable, interest upon overdue instalments of interest at the rate prescribed therefor in such Debt Securities; and all Events of Default with respect to the Debt Securities of such Series, other than the non-payment of the principal of (and premium, if any), and interest on, such Debt Securities that have become due solely by such declaration of acceleration, have been cured or waived in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture and such rescission or annulment would not conflict with any judgment or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction. No such rescission or annulment will affect any subsequent Event of Default or impair any right consequent thereto.

7.04 Waiver

(1) The Holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Debt Securities of any Series may on behalf of the Holders of all Debt Securities of any such Series waive any past default hereunder with respect to such Series and its consequences, except a default in the payment of the principal of (or premium, if any) or interest on any Debt Security of such Series.

(2) Upon any such written waiver, such default will cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom will be deemed to have been cured in accordance with such written waiver. No such written waiver will extend to any subsequent or other default or impair any right consequent thereon.

7.05 Other Remedies

(1) If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may pursue any available remedy to collect the payment of principal of (and premium, if any) or interest on the Debt Securities or to enforce the performance of any term of the Secured Note Loan Documents.

(2) The Trustee will have the power at any time and from time to time to institute and to maintain such suits and Proceedings as it may be advised will be necessary or advisable to preserve and protect its interests and the interests of the Holders. The Trustee may maintain a Proceeding even if it does not possess any Debt Securities or does not produce any of them in the Proceeding. A delay or omission by the Trustee or any Holder in exercising any right or remedy accruing upon an Event of Default will not impair the right or remedy or constitute a waiver of or acquiescence in the Event of Default.

7.06 Application of Money Collected

Any money collected by the Trustee pursuant to this Article 7 in respect of a Series will (subject to any claims having priority under Applicable Law or by contract by which the Trustee is bound) be applied in the following order, at the dates fixed by the Trustee and, in case of the distribution of such money on account of principal of (and premium, if any) or interest, or both, as the case may be, upon presentation of Debt Securities and the notation thereon of the payment (if only partially paid) and upon surrender thereof (if fully paid):

(a) first, to the payment of all amounts due to the Trustee (ratably in proportion of amount owed) under Section 8.07 of this Indenture with respect to such Series;

(b) second, to the payment of accrued interest on such Series;

(c) third, to the payment of the principal of (and premium, if any) on such Series;

(d) fourth, to the payment of any other amounts with respect to such Series; and

(e) fifth, to whomever may be lawfully entitled to receive the balance of such money pursuant to Applicable Law as directed by an Order of the Corporation or a court of competent jurisdiction.

7.07 Control by Holders

(1) The Holders of at least a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Debt Securities of all Series affected by an Event of Default (as a class) may:

(a) direct the time, method and place of conducting any Proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee with respect to the Debt Securities of all Series affected by such Event of Default; and

(b) take any other action authorized to be taken by or on behalf of the Holders of any specified aggregate principal amount of Debt Securities of such Series under any provisions of the Secured Note Loan Documents or under Applicable Law.

(2) The Trustee may refuse, however, to follow any direction that conflicts with Applicable Law or the Secured Note Loan Documents or that may expose the Trustee to potential liability unless, in each such case, the Trustee has been provided funds and an indemnity in form satisfactory to the Trustee prior to taking such action in accordance with Section 8.02(1)(d) provided that the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee which is not inconsistent with such direction.

7.08 Limitation on Suits

(1) A Holder of Debt Securities of any Series may pursue a remedy with respect to the Secured Note Loan Documents directly only if: (a) the Holder has previously given to the Trustee written notice of a continuing Event of Default with respect to the Debt Securities of such Series; (b) the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the then outstanding Debt Securities of all Series affected by such Event of Default (as a class) have made a request in writing to the Trustee to institute a Proceeding and pursue the remedy; (c) such Holders have provided to the Trustee funds and an indemnity in form satisfactory to the Trustee against any loss, liability or expense; (d) the Trustee does not comply with such request and has failed to institute such Proceeding within 60 days after receipt of such request and funds and indemnity; and (e) during such 60-day period the Holders of a majority in principal amount of outstanding Debt Securities of all Series affected by such Event of Default (as a class) do not give the Trustee a direction inconsistent with such request.

(2) Holders may not use this Indenture to prejudice the rights of another Holder or to obtain a preference or priority over another Holder.

(3) The limitations set forth in Section 7.08(1) do not apply to a suit instituted by a Holder of a Debt Security for the enforcement of payment of the principal of or any premium or interest on such Debt Security on or after the applicable Maturity Date specified in such Debt Security.

7.09 Rights of Holders To Receive Payment

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, the right of any Holder to receive payment of principal of (and, premium, if any) and interest on Debt Securities held by such Holder, on or after the respective due dates expressed in the Debt Securities (or, in the case of redemption, on the Redemption Date), or to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after such respective dates, will not be impaired or affected without the consent of the Holder, except if and to the extent that the institution or prosecution thereof or the entry of judgment therein would, under Applicable Law, result in the surrender, impairment, waiver or loss of the Lien of any Secured Note Loan Documents upon any property subject to such Lien.

7.10 Collection Suit by Trustee

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may recover judgment in its own name and as trustee of an express trust against the Corporation for the whole amount of principal (and premium, if any) and interest remaining unpaid (including Default Interest), together with any and all amounts due the Trustee hereunder (including expenses of legal counsel and those amounts set out in Section 8.07).

7.11 Trustee May File Proofs of Claim

The Trustee may file such proofs of claim and other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee and the Holders lodged or allowed in any judicial proceedings relative to the Corporation, its Affiliates, its creditors or its property. The Trustee will be entitled and empowered to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same in accordance with the Secured Note Loan Documents, and any receiver, trustee, assignee, liquidator, sequestrator or similar official under any bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws in any such judicial proceedings is hereby authorized by each Holder to make such payments to the Trustee and, in the event that the Trustee will consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders, to pay to the Trustee any amount due to the Trustee for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Trustee under Section 8.07. Nothing herein contained will be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Holder any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Debt Securities or the rights of any Holder thereof, or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Holder in any such proceeding.

7.12 Undertaking for Costs

In any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under the Secured Note Loan Documents or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee, a court in its discretion may require the filing by any party litigant in the suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of the suit, and the court in its discretion may assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in the suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defences made by the party litigant. This Section 7.12 does not apply to a suit by the Trustee, a suit by a Holder pursuant to Section 7.08, or a suit by any Holder or group of Holders of more than 10% in principal amount of the outstanding Debt Securities of all Series affected.

7.13 Delay or Omission Not Waiver

No delay or omission of the Trustee or of any Holder of any Debt Security to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon any Event of Default will impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every right and remedy given by this Article 7 or by Applicable Law to the Trustee or to the Holders may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by the Trustee or by the Holders, as the case may be.

7.14 Remedies Cumulative

No remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or upon or to the Holders is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy, but each remedy will be cumulative and will be in addition to every other remedy given hereunder or now existing or hereafter to exist by law or statue.

7.15 Judgment Against the Corporation

The Corporation covenants and agrees with the Trustee that, in case of any judicial or other Proceedings to obtain judgment for payment of the principal of, premium (if any) on or interest (if any) on the Debt Securities, judgment may be rendered against it in favour of the Holders or in favour of the Trustee, as trustee and agent for the Holders, for the amount which may remain due in respect of the Debt Securities of such Series and the interest and premium (if any) thereon.

ARTICLE 8 - THE TRUSTEE

8.01 Duties of Trustee

In the exercise of its rights, duties and obligations prescribed or conferred by this Indenture and any other Secured Note Loan Documents:

(a) the Canadian Trustee will act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Holders, and will exercise that degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent corporate trustee would exercise in comparable circumstances in respect of corporate debt instruments;

(b) if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the U.S. Trustee will exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture and will use the same degree of care and skill in the exercise as a prudent man would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of his own affairs;

(c) except during the continuance of an Event of Default, the U.S. Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture to be performed by the U.S. Trustee and no others, and no implied covenants or obligations will be read into this Indenture against the U.S. Trustee;

(d) in the absence of bad faith on its part, the Trustee may conclusively act and rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture. In the case of any such certificates or opinions which by any provisions hereof are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee, the Trustee will examine same to determine whether they conform to the requirements of this Indenture (but need not confirm or investigate the accuracy of mathematical calculations or other facts stated therein);

(e) the Trustee will not be relieved from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act or its own wilful misconduct, except that:

(i) this Section 8.01(e) does not limit the effect of Section 8.01(c);

(ii) the Trustee will not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Trust Officer unless it is proved that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(iii) the Trustee will not be liable with respect to any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in accordance with a direction received by it pursuant to Section 7.02 or 7.07; and

(iv) no provision of this Indenture requires the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers;

(f) the Trustee will retain the right not to act and shall not be held liable for refusing to act unless it has received clear and reasonable documentation which complies with the terms of this Indenture; such documentation must not require the exercise of any discretion or independent judgment;

(g) the Trustee will not be liable for interest on any money received by it except as the Trustee may agree in writing with the Corporation. Money held in trust by the Trustee need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law or this Indenture; and

(h) whether or not therein expressly so provided and notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary, every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to a Trustee will be subject to the provisions of this Section 8.01 and to the applicable provisions of Trust Indenture Legislation.

8.02 Certain Rights of Trustee

(1) Subject to Section 8.01:

(a) the Trustee may conclusively rely, and will be fully protected in acting or refraining from acting, upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document (whether in original or facsimile form) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper Person;

(b) before the Trustee acts or refrains from acting, it may require a Certificate of the Corporation or an Opinion of Counsel. The Trustee will not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in reliance on such certificate or opinion;

(c) the Trustee may act through its attorneys and agents and will not be responsible for the misconduct or negligence of any attorney or agent appointed with due care by it hereunder;

(d) the Trustee will be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Holders, unless such Holders have provided to the Trustee funds and an indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities that might be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction;

(e) the Trustee will not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith that it believes to be authorized or within its rights or powers, provided that the Trustee's conduct does not constitute negligence or bad faith;

(f) whenever in the administration of this Indenture the Trustee deems it desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder, the Trustee (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, rely upon a Certificate of the Corporation;

(g) the Trustee will not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document, but the Trustee, in its discretion, may make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as it may see fit, and, if the Trustee determines to make such further inquiry or investigation, it will be entitled to examine the books, records and premises of the Corporation and its subsidiaries personally or by agent or attorney at the expense of the Corporation and, except as otherwise provided in Section 8.01(e) or required by Trust Indenture Legislation, will incur no liability of any kind by reason of such inquiry or investigation;

(h) except as otherwise provided in Section 8.01(e) or required by Trust Indenture Legislation, in no event will the Trustee be responsible or liable for special indirect, or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including, but not limited to, loss of profit) irrespective of whether the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action;

(i) the rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and will be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, and each agent, custodian and other Person employed to act hereunder;

(j) the Trustee may retain such independent legal counsel, auditor, valuer, engineer, surveyor or other expert and may employ such agents or assistants as may be required by it for the purposes of the discharging its of duties and determining its rights hereunder, and may or may not in its discretion act and rely on the advice, information or opinion of any such expert and will not be liable for acting and relying in good faith on such advice, information or opinion, nor will the Trustee be responsible for any misconduct or negligence of any such Person appointed with due care. The Corporation will reimburse the Trustee for the reasonable fees, expenses and disbursements of any and all such independent legal counsel, auditor, valuer, engineer, surveyor other expert, agent or assistants. The Trustee may but need not, in its sole discretion, act and rely on the information, advice or opinion of such independent legal counsel, auditor, valuer, engineer, surveyor or other expert or agent retained or employed by the Corporation;

(k) the Trustee will not be liable for any reason for failure or default of the Corporation to remove any Lien upon the property of the Corporation or its subsidiaries or for failure to take any action necessary to constitute, perfect or maintain the priority of any Lien or for any failure of any Lien or any defect in any Lien or for the sufficiency, correctness, genuineness, or validity of any Lien;

(l) the duties and obligations of the Trustee will be determined solely by the provisions hereof and the other Secured Note Loan Documents to which it is a party and, accordingly, the Trustee will not be responsible except for the performance of such duties and obligations as it has undertaken herein and therein;

(m) the Trustee will have the right to decline to take any enforcement action under Article 7 if, in the opinion of the Trustee acting reasonably, such enforcement action may not lawfully be taken or would be unduly prejudicial to the rights of the Trustee;

(n) the Trustee will not be obligated to analyze financial statements, auditors' reports, insurance coverage or other information relating to the business or financial condition of the Corporation which may come into the Trustee's possession, or to evaluate, at any time in any manner whatsoever, the performance of the Corporation;

(o) in the event of any disagreement arising regarding the terms of this Indenture, the Trustee will be entitled at its option to refuse to comply with any or all demands whatsoever until the dispute is settled either by agreement amongst the various parties or by a court of competent jurisdiction; and

(p) the Trustee shall be entitled to rely on, and act upon, any direction, order, instruction, notice or other communication provided to it hereunder which is sent to it by facsimile transmission.

(2) A Trustee may request that the Corporation deliver a Certificate of the Corporation setting forth the names of the individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to this Indenture, which Certificate of the Corporation may be signed by any Person authorized to sign a Certificate of the Corporation, including any person specified as so authorized in any such certificate previously delivered and not superseded.

8.03 Individual Rights of Trustee

The Trustee, any Paying Agent, any Registrar or any other agent of the Corporation or of the Trustee, in its individual or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Debt Securities and, subject to TIA Sections 310(b) and 311, may otherwise deal with the Corporation with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee, Paying Agent, Registrar or such other agent.

8.04 Trustee's Disclaimer

The recitals and statements of fact contained herein and in the Debt Securities, except for the Trustee's certificates of authentication, will be taken as the statements of the Corporation, and the Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. Neither Trustee makes any representations as to the validity or sufficiency of this Indenture or of any Debt Securities. The Trustee will not be accountable for the use or application by the Corporation of Debt Securities or the proceeds thereof.

8.05 Notice of Defaults

(1) Each Trustee will promptly give the other Trustee notice of any Event of Default known to it. If any Event of Default occurs and is continuing and if such Event of Default is known to either Trustee, one or both of the Trustees will mail to the Holders of all outstanding Debt Securities affected thereby in the manner and to the extent provided in TIA Section 313(c) notice of the Event of Default promptly after its occurrence; provided, however, that, except in the case of a default in the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Debt Security, either Trustee will be protected in withholding such notice if and so long as the Trustee in good faith determines that the withholding of such notice is in the interest of the Holders and so informs the Corporation in writing.

(2) The Trustee will not be deemed to have knowledge of an Event of Default unless a written notice of such Event of Default has been received by either Trustee at its corporate trust office and such notice references the Debt Securities and this Indenture. In the absence of any such notice, the Trustee may for all purposes of this Indenture conclusively assume that the Corporation is not in default hereunder and that no Event of Default has been made with respect to the payment of principal of or costs, fees, charges, expenses or interest on the Debt Securities or in the observance or performance of any of the covenants, agreements or conditions contained herein. Any such notice will in no way limit any discretion herein given to the Trustee to determine whether or not the Trustee will take any action with respect to any Event of Default or take action without any such notice.

8.06 Reports by Trustee to Holders

(1) Within 60 days after May 15 of each year commencing with May 15, 2006, the U.S. Trustee will transmit to the Holders, in the manner and to the extent provided in TIA Section 313(c), a brief report dated as of such date that complies with TIA Section 313(a). The U.S. Trustee also will comply with TIA Section 313(b) and (c).

(2) The Corporation will promptly notify the Trustee whenever any Debt Securities become listed on any securities exchange and of any delisting thereof, and the U.S. Trustee will comply with TIA Section 313(d).

8.07 Compensation and Indemnity

(1) The Corporation will pay to the Trustee such compensation as may be charged from time to time by the Trustee under its standard fee schedule for its services hereunder. The Trustee's compensation will not be limited by any law on compensation of a trustee of an express trust. The Corporation will reimburse the Trustee upon request for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, in addition to the compensation for its services. Such expenses will include the reasonable compensation and out-of-pocket expenses of the Trustee's agents, counsel and other advisors.

(2) The Corporation will indemnify the Trustee (in any of its capacities in connection with any of the transactions contemplated hereby, including under this Indenture) and its officers, directors, employees and agents (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") for, and hold it and them harmless from and against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage or expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses), penalties, actions, suits, demands, costs, levies, disbursements of whatever kind or nature ("Costs") which may at any time be suffered by, imposed on, incurred by or asserted against any Indemnified Party whether groundless or otherwise incurred by it or any of them without wilful misconduct or negligence or bad faith on its part arising out of or in connection with the administration of this trust and the performance of its duties hereunder (including the costs and expenses of enforcing this Indenture including this Section 8.07 and of defending itself against any claim, whether asserted by the Corporation, any Holder or any other Person). The Indemnified Party will notify the Corporation promptly of any claim for which it may seek indemnity. Failure by such Indemnified Party to so notify the Corporation will not relieve the Corporation of its obligations hereunder. The Corporation will defend the claim and the Indemnified Party will reasonably cooperate in such defense. The Indemnified Party may have separate counsel and the Corporation will pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel. The Corporation need not pay for any settlement made without its consent, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld. The Corporation will not reimburse any expense or indemnify against any loss, liability or expense incurred by the Trustee through the Trustee's own wilful misconduct or negligence or bad faith.

(3) Without limiting the generality of the preceding paragraph, the Corporation will indemnify the Indemnified Parties for, and hold them harmless from and against any and all Costs which may at any time be suffered by, imposed on, incurred by or asserted against an Indemnified Party whether groundless or otherwise incurred by it or any of them without wilful misconduct or negligence or bad faith on its part relating to the Environment which arises out of the execution, delivery or performance of, or the enforcement or exercise of any right under, this Indenture or any Supplemental Indenture, including any claim in nuisance, negligence, strict liability or other cause of action arising out of a Release of a Hazardous Substance into the Environment, the presence or Clean-Up of any Hazardous Substance in the Environment, liability for personal injury or property damage arising from Hazardous Substances, any fines or Orders of any kind that may be levied or made pursuant to an Environmental Law; other than such Costs to the extent they arise as a result of the failure of the Indemnified Parties to comply with Section 8.01.

(4) The Trustee shall be constituted as the agent and bare Trustee of the other Indemnified Parties and shall hold and enforce each such Indemnified Party's rights under Sections 8.07(2) and (3) for such Indemnified Party's benefit.

(5) To secure the Corporation's payment obligations in this Section 8.07, the Trustee will have a Lien prior to the Debt Securities on all money or property held or collected by the Trustee hereunder, in its capacity as Trustee, except money or property held in trust to pay principal of, premium, if any, and interest on particular Debt Securities.

(6) The Corporation's obligations under this Section 8.07, and any claim arising hereunder will survive the resignation or removal of any Trustee, the satisfaction and discharge of the Corporation's obligations pursuant to Article 12 and any rejection or termination under any bankruptcy law, and the termination of this Indenture.

(7) "Trustee" for purposes of this Section 8.07 will include any predecessor Trustee; provided, however, that the negligence or wilful misconduct or bad faith of any Trustee hereunder will not affect the rights of any other Trustee hereunder.

8.08 Replacement of Trustee

(1) A resignation or removal of a Trustee and appointment of a successor Trustee will become effective only upon the successor Trustee's acceptance of appointment as provided in this Section 8.08.

(2) Either Trustee may resign at any time by so notifying the Corporation. The Holders of a majority in outstanding principal amount of the outstanding Debt Securities may remove either Trustee by so notifying the Trustee and the Corporation. The Corporation will remove a Trustee if:

(a) such Trustee fails to comply with the applicable requirements of Section 8.10;

(b) such Trustee is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent;

(c) a receiver or other public officer takes charge of such Trustee or its property; or

(d) such Trustee otherwise becomes incapable of acting.

(3) If either Trustee resigns or is removed, or if a vacancy exists in the office of U.S. Trustee or Canadian Trustee for any reason, the Corporation will promptly appoint a successor Canadian or U.S. Trustee, as the case may be. Within one year after the successor Trustee takes office, the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Debt Securities may appoint a successor Trustee to replace the successor Trustee appointed by the Corporation.

(4) A successor Trustee will deliver a written acceptance of its appointment to the retiring Trustee and to the Corporation. Thereupon the resignation or removal of the Trustee will become effective, and the successor Trustee will have all the rights, powers and duties of the Trustee that it is succeeding under this Indenture. The successor Trustee will mail a notice of its succession to all Holders. The retiring Trustee will, upon payment of its charges and subject to its Lien, if any, created by Section 8.07, promptly transfer all property held by it as Trustee to the successor Trustee.

(5) If a successor Trustee does not take office within 60 days after the Trustee resigns or is removed, the retiring Trustee, the Corporation or the Holders of at least 10% in outstanding principal amount of the Debt Securities of any Series may, at the Corporation's expense, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee at the expense of the Corporation.

(6) If a Trustee fails to comply with Section 8.10, any Holder may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of such Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(7) Notwithstanding the replacement of a Trustee pursuant to this Section 8.08, the Corporation's obligations under Section 8.07 will continue for the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

(8) Any resignation or removal of the Trustee pursuant to this Indenture will be deemed to be a resignation or removal of the Trustee in its capacity as agent under the Secured Note Loan Documents and any appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Indenture will be deemed to be an appointment of a successor Trustee under the Secured Note Loan Documents and such successor will assume all of the rights, duties and obligations of the retiring agent in its capacity as Trustee under the Secured Note Loan Documents.

8.09 Successor Trustee by Merger

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee will be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Trustee, will be the successor of the Trustee hereunder, provided such corporation will be otherwise qualified and eligible under this Article 8, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto. In case any Debt Securities will have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor by merger, conversion or consolidation to such authenticating Trustee may adopt such authentication and deliver the Debt Securities so authenticated with the same effect as if such successor Trustee had itself authenticated such Debt Securities. In case at that time any of the Debt Securities have not been authenticated, any successor Trustee may authenticate such Debt Securities either in the name of any predecessor hereunder or in the name of the successor Trustee. In all such cases such certificates will have the full force and effect which this Indenture provides that the certificate of authentication of the Trustee will have; provided, however, that the right to adopt the certificate of authentication of any predecessor Trustee or to authenticate Debt Securities in the name of any predecessor Trustee will apply only to its successor or successors by merger, conversion or consolidation.

8.10 Eligibility: Disqualification

(1) The U.S. Trustee will at all times satisfy the requirements of TIA Section 310(a)(1) and (5). The U.S. Trustee will have a combined capital and surplus of at least U.S. $50,000,000 as set forth in its most recent published annual report of condition. The U.S. Trustee will comply with TIA Section 310(b); provided, however, that there will be excluded from the operation of TIA Section 310(b)(1) any indenture or indentures under which other securities or certificates of interest or participation in other debt securities of the Corporation are outstanding if the requirements for such exclusion set forth in TIA Section 310(b)(1) are met. If either Trustee has or will acquire a conflicting interest within the meaning of the TIA, such Trustee will either eliminate such interest within 90 days or resign, to the extent and in the manner provided by, and subject to the provisions of, the TIA and this Indenture.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing, by their acceptance of Debt Securities and the benefits of this Indenture, the Holders waive any conflict that may arise from the fact that the Canadian Trustee acted as trustee for securities of the Corporation issued pursuant to various indentures entered into by the Corporation and the Canadian Trustee prior to the date of this Indenture.

(3) Subject to Trust Indenture Legislation, the Trustee may buy, lend upon and deal in the Debt Securities with the Corporation or otherwise, and generally contract and enter into financial transactions with the Corporation or otherwise, without being liable to account for any profit made thereby.

(4) There will at all times be a Canadian Trustee under this Indenture. The Canadian Trustee will at all times be a corporation organized under the laws of Canada or any province thereof and authorized to carry on trust business therein. If at any time the Canadian Trustee will cease to be eligible in accordance with this Section, it will resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 8.08.

8.11 Preferential Collection of Claims Against Corporation

The Trustee will comply with TIA Section 311(a), excluding any creditor relationship listed in TIA Section 311(b). A Trustee who has resigned or been removed will be subject to TIA Section 311(a) to the extent indicated therein.

8.12 Joint Trustees

The rights, powers, duties and obligations conferred and imposed upon the Trustee are conferred and imposed upon and will be exercised and performed by the U.S. Trustee and the Canadian Trustee jointly, except to the extent otherwise provided herein or otherwise required by Trust Indenture Legislation and except to the extent that under Trust Indenture Legislation either Trustee will be incompetent or unqualified to perform such act, in which event such rights, powers, duties and obligations will be exercised and performed by the Trustee which is not so incompetent or unqualified to the extent it can do so under Applicable Law, and except that neither Trustee will be liable or responsible for the acts or omissions of the other Trustee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Indenture, it is hereby agreed and understood as between the U.S. Trustee and the Canadian Trustee that: (i) the U.S. Trustee is appointed hereunder solely for the purpose of satisfying Section 310(a) of the TIA, and such other sections of the TIA that expressly require a U.S. Trustee to act; (ii) the U.S. Trustee will not be subject to Canadian law; and (iii) the U.S. Trustee will have no obligation whatsoever in any capacity whatsoever (including the capacity of Paying Agent, Registrar, or Transfer Agent) under this Indenture or to administer this Indenture or the Debt Securities issued hereunder or under any Supplemental Indentures, except as set forth in clause (i), and the Canadian Trustee will be responsible for (a) the matters set forth in this clause (iii) and (b) to enforce this Indenture and exercise all rights and remedies on behalf of Holders hereunder; provided, however, that upon an Event of Default, the U.S. Trustee will exercise rights and remedies solely under U.S. law on behalf of U.S. Holders. For the avoidance of doubt, the certification or authentication of the Debt Securities may be carried out by either the U.S. Trustee or the Canadian Trustee.

8.13 Appointment of Co-Trustee

(1) It is the purpose of this Indenture that there will be no violation of any law of any jurisdiction denying or restricting the right of banking corporations or associations to transact business as a trustee in such jurisdiction. It is recognized that in case of litigation under this Indenture, and in particular in case of the enforcement thereof on default, or in the case the Trustee deems that by reason of any present or future law of any jurisdiction it may not exercise any of the powers, rights or remedies herein granted to the Trustee or hold title to the properties, in trust, as herein granted or take any action which may be desirable or necessary in connection therewith, it may be necessary that the Trustee appoint an individual or institution as a separate or co-trustee. The following provisions of this Section 8.13 are adopted to these ends.

(2) In the event that the Trustee appoints an additional individual or institution as a separate or co-trustee, each and every remedy, power, right, duty, claim, demand, cause of action, immunity, estate, title, interest and Lien expressed or intended by this Indenture and the Secured Note Loan Documents to be exercised by or vested in or conveyed to the Trustee with respect thereto will be exercisable by and vest in such separate or co-trustee but only to the extent necessary to enable such separate or co-trustee to exercise such powers, rights, duties and remedies, and only to the extent that the Trustee by the laws of any jurisdiction is incapable of exercising such powers, rights, duties and remedies, and every covenant and obligation necessary to the exercise thereof by such separate or co-trustee will run to and be enforceable by either of them.

(3) Should any instrument in writing from the Corporation be required by the separate co-trustee so appointed by the Trustee for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to it such powers, rights, duties and remedies, any and all such instruments in writing will, on request, be executed, acknowledged and delivered by the Corporation; provided, however, that if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, if the Corporation does not execute any such instrument within 5 days after request therefor, the Trustee will be empowered as an attorney-in-fact for the Corporation to execute any such instrument in the Corporation's name and stead. In case any separate or co-trustee or a successor to either will die, become incapable of acting, resign or be removed, all the powers, rights, duties and remedies of such separate or co-trustee, so far as permitted by law, will vest in and be exercised by the Trustee until the appointment of a new trustee or successor to such separate or co-trustee.

(4) Each separate trustee and co-trustee will, to the extent permitted by law, be appointed and act subject to the following provisions and conditions:

(a) all powers, rights, duties and remedies conferred or imposed upon the Trustee under this Indenture and the Secured Note Loan Documents will be conferred or imposed upon and may be exercised or performed by such separate trustee or co-trustee; and

(b) no trustee hereunder will be personally liable by reason of any act or omission of any other trustee hereunder.

(5) Any notice, request or other writing given to the Trustee will be deemed to have been given to each of the then separate trustees and co-trustees, as effectively as if given to each of them. Every instrument appointing any separate trustee or co-trustee will refer to this Indenture and the conditions of this Article 8.

(6) Any separate trustee or co-trustee may at any time appoint the Trustee as its agent or attorney-in-fact with full power and authority, to the extent not prohibited by law, to do any lawful act under or in respect of this Indenture on its behalf and in its name.

8.14 Responsibility of Trustee

In no event will the Trustee be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond its control, including strikes, work stoppages, accidents, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services; it being understood that the Trustee shall use reasonable efforts which are consistent with accepted practices in the banking industry to resume performance as soon as practicable under the circumstances.

8.15 Dealings with Collateral

Beyond the exercise of reasonable care in the custody thereof and subject to the Secured Note Loan Documents, the Trustee (even in its capacity as a collateral agent, if applicable) shall have no duty as to any collateral in its possession or control or in the possession or control of any agent or bailee or any income thereon or as to preservation of rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining thereto and the Trustee will not be responsible for preparing or filing any financing or continuation statements or recording any documents or instruments in any public office at any time or times or otherwise perfecting or maintaining the perfection of any security interest in the collateral. The Trustee will not be responsible for the existence, genuineness or value of any collateral or for the validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of the Liens in any collateral.

ARTICLE 9 – SUCCESSOR CORPORATIONS

9.01 Certain Requirements in Respect of Merger, etc.

(1) So long as any Debt Securities issued under the Indenture remain outstanding, the Corporation will not (and will cause each Restricted Subsidiary not to) enter into any transaction (whether by way of reorganization, reconstruction, consolidation, amalgamation, merger, transfer, sale, assignment, disposition, lease or otherwise) whereby all or substantially all of its undertaking, property and assets would become the property of any other Person or, in the case of amalgamation or merger, of the continuing corporation resulting therefrom, but may do so if:

(a) in the case of the Corporation such other Person or continuing corporation is a body corporate (herein called a "Successor Corporation") incorporated under the laws of Canada or any province thereof ;

(b) the Successor Corporation executes, prior to or contemporaneously with the consummation of such transaction, such instruments as are satisfactory to the Trustee and, in the Opinion of Counsel, are necessary or advisable to evidence the assumption by the Successor Corporation of liability for the due and punctual payment of the principal (and premium, if any) of all outstanding Debt Securities and the interest thereon, according to their tenor, and all other money payable hereunder and the covenant of the Successor Corporation to pay the same and its agreement to observe and perform all the covenants and obligations of the Corporation under this Indenture;

(c) the Restricted Subsidiary is consolidating with or amalgamating or merging with, or conveying, transferring or leasing all or substantially all of its assets in a single transaction or series of transactions to, the Corporation or any other Restricted Subsidiary;

(d) in the case of a Restricted Subsidiary the surviving entity of such consolidation, amalgamation or merger is a Restricted Subsidiary and will be governed by the laws of Canada or a province or of the United States or a state thereof (collectively with the Successor Corporation, herein called a "Successor Entity");

(e) the Successor Entity executes, prior to or contemporaneously with the consummation of such transaction, such instruments as are satisfactory to the Trustee and, in the Opinion of Counsel, are necessary or advisable to evidence the Successor Entity's agreement to observe and perform all the covenants and obligations of the Successor Entity under this Indenture and any other Secured Note Loan Documents;

(f) no condition or event will exist in respect of the Successor Corporation or the Successor Entity at the time of such transaction and after giving full effect thereto which would constitute a Default or an Event of Default; and

(g) the Corporation, the Successor Corporation or the Successor Entity will have delivered to the Trustee a Certificate of the Corporation and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that such transaction complies with the applicable provisions of this Indenture and that all conditions precedent in this Indenture relating to such transactions have been satisfied; provided that such Opinion of Counsel will also confirm that all appropriate or requested actions, registrations, filings or recordings have been made on behalf of the Trustee to fully and effectively perfect, maintain, preserve and protect any Lien in favour of the Trustee.

9.02 Vesting of Powers in Successor

Whenever the conditions of Section 9.01 have been duly observed and performed, the Successor Corporation will succeed to and be substituted for the Corporation with the same effect as if the Successor Corporation had been named herein as the Corporation, and the Successor Corporation will possess and from time to time may exercise each and every right and power of the Corporation under this Indenture in the name of the Corporation or otherwise and any act or proceeding required by any provision of this Indenture to be done or performed by any directors or officers of the Corporation may be done and performed with like force and effect by the like directors or officers of the Successor Corporation.

ARTICLE 10 – MEETINGS OF HOLDERS OF DEBT SECURITIES

10.01 Purposes of Meetings

A meeting of the Holders may be called at any time pursuant to this Article 10 for any of the following purposes:

(a) to give any notice to the Corporation or to the Trustee, or to give any directions to the Trustee, or to consent to the waiving of any Event of Default hereunder and its consequences, or to take any other action authorized to be taken by Holders pursuant to Article 7 or Article 8;

(b) to remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee pursuant to Article 8; or

(c) to consent to the execution of indentures or instruments supplemental hereto pursuant to Section 11.02.

10.02 Place of Meetings

Meetings of Holders may be held at such place or places as the Trustee or, in case of its failure to act, the Corporation or the Holders calling the meeting, from time to time determine.

10.03 Call and Notice of Meetings

(1) The Trustee may at any time (upon not less than 21 days' notice) call a meeting of Holders to be held at such time and at such place in Toronto, Ontario or in such other city as determined by the U.S. Trustee pursuant to Section 10.02. Notice of every meeting of Holders, setting forth the time and the place of such meeting and in general terms the action proposed to be taken at such meeting, will be given to each Holder in the manner contemplated by Section 13.03.

(2) In case at any time the Corporation or the Holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Debt Securities of one or more Series then outstanding will have requested the Trustee to call a meeting of the Holders, by written request setting forth in reasonable detail the action proposed to be taken at the meeting, and the Trustee has not given the notice of such meeting within 20 days after receipt of such request, then the Corporation or the Holders of Debt Securities of the applicable Series in the amount above specified may determine the time (not less than 21 days after notice is given) and the place in Toronto, Ontario or in such other city as determined by the Corporation or the Holders pursuant to Section 10.02 for such meeting and may call such meeting to take any action authorized in Section 10.01 by giving notice thereof as provided in Section 13.03.

10.04 Voting at Meetings

To be entitled to vote at any meeting of Holders, a Person must be (a) a Holder at the relevant record date for determining the identity of Holders entitled to vote on any matter or (b) a Person appointed by an instrument in writing as proxy for a Holder by such Holder. The only Persons who will be entitled to be present or to speak at any meeting of Holders will be the Persons so entitled to vote at such meeting and their counsel and any representatives of the Trustee and its counsel and any representatives of the Corporation and its counsel.

10.05 Voting Rights, Conduct and Adjournment

(1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Indenture, the Trustee may make such reasonable regulations as it may deem advisable for any meeting of Holders in regard to proof of the holding of Debt Securities and of the appointment of proxies and in regard to the appointment and duties of inspectors of votes, the submission and examination of proxies, certificates and other evidence of the right to vote, and such other matters concerning the conduct of the meeting as it deems appropriate. Except as otherwise permitted or required by any such regulations, the appointment of any proxy will be proved in such manner as is deemed appropriate by the Trustee or by having the signature of the Person executing the proxy witnessed or guaranteed by any bank, banker or trust company customarily authorized to certify to the holding of a Debt Security such as a global note.

(2) At any meeting of Holders, the presence of Persons holding or representing Debt Securities in an aggregate principal amount sufficient under the appropriate provision of this Indenture to take action upon the business for the transaction of which such meeting was called will constitute a quorum. Any meeting of Holders duly called pursuant to Section 10.03 may be adjourned from time to time by vote of the Holders (or proxies for the Holders) of a majority of the Debt Securities represented at the meeting and entitled to vote, whether or not a quorum is present; and the meeting may be held as so adjourned without further notice. No action at a meeting of Holders will be effective unless approved by Persons holding or representing Debt Securities of the applicable Series in the aggregate principal amount required by the provision of this Indenture pursuant to which such action is being taken.

(3) At any meeting of Holders, each Holder or proxy will be entitled to one vote for each $1,000 aggregate principal amount of outstanding Debt Securities of the applicable Series held or represented.

10.06 Revocation of Consent by Holders at Meetings

At any time prior to (but not after) the evidencing to the Trustee of the taking of any action at a meeting of Holders by the Holders of the percentage in aggregate principal amount of the Debt Securities specified in this Indenture in connection with such action, any Holder of a Debt Security the serial number of which is included in the Debt Securities the Holders of which have consented to such action may, by filing written notice with the Trustee and upon proof of holding as provided herein, revoke such consent so far as concerns such Debt Security. Except as aforesaid, any such consent given by the Holder of any Debt Security will be conclusive and binding upon such Holder and upon all future Holders and owners of such Debt Security and of any Debt Security issued in exchange therefor, in lieu thereof or upon transfer thereof, irrespective of whether or not any notation in regard thereto is made upon such Debt Security. Any action taken by the Holders of the percentage in aggregate principal amount of the Debt Securities specified in this Indenture in connection with such action will be conclusively binding upon the Corporation, the Trustee and the Holders.

ARTICLE 11 - SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES

11.01 Without Consent of Holders

Subject to the Indenture, from time to time, without notice to or the consent of any Holders, the Corporation (when authorized by a resolution of its Board of Directors) and the Trustee may, and the Trustee must, upon the receipt of a Request of the Corporation or when so otherwise directed hereunder, execute and deliver by their proper officers, indentures or other instruments supplemental hereto (each such indenture or instrument a "Supplemental Indenture"), which thereafter will form part hereof, for any one or more of the following purposes:

(a) establishing the Principal Terms of a Series that the Corporation wishes to be able to issue under this Indenture;

(b) evidencing the succession of Successor Corporations to the Corporation and the covenants of and obligations of the Corporation under this Indenture assumed by such Successor Corporations in accordance with the provisions of Article 9;

(c) adding to the covenants of the Corporation contained in this Indenture for the benefit of the Holders of all or any Series (and, if such covenants are to be for the benefit of less than all Series, stating that such covenants are expressly being included solely for the benefit of such Series), providing additional Collateral for the benefit of Holders of all or any Series, or surrendering any right or power herein conferred upon the Corporation;

(d) adding to or altering the provisions hereof in respect of the registration and transfer of Debt Securities of any Series, making provision for the issue of Debt

Securities of any Series in forms or denominations other than those herein provided for and for the exchange of Debt Securities of any Series of different forms and denominations or making any modification in the forms of the Debt Securities of any Series that does not affect the substance thereof;

(e) making any additions to, deletions from or alterations of the provisions of this Indenture or the Debt Securities of any Series that, in the opinion of Counsel, are necessary or advisable in order to incorporate, reflect or comply with any Applicable Law, including the Trust Indenture Legislation or any requirement of any Governmental Authority, the provisions of which apply to the Corporation, the Trustee or this Indenture;

(f) making such provisions, not substantially inconsistent with this Indenture, as may be necessary or desirable with respect to matters arising under this Indenture that, in the opinion of the Trustee relying on the advice of Counsel, are expedient to make; provided that such provisions do not individually or in the aggregate materially adversely affect the interests of the Holders of any Series or the Trustee;

(g) adding to or modifying, amending or eliminating any of the terms of this Indenture or a Supplemental Indenture, provided however that:

(i) no such addition, modification, amendment or elimination will be effective with respect to any Debt Securities that are outstanding at the time of such addition, modification, amendment or elimination; and

(ii) the Trustee may decline to enter into any Supplemental Indenture that would adversely affect its own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise;

(h) evidencing and providing for the acceptance of appointment hereunder by a successor trustee with respect to the Debt Securities of one or more Series, and adding to or changing any of the provisions of this Indenture as may be necessary to provide for or facilitate the administration of the trusts hereunder by two Trustees; and

(i) the correction or rectification of any ambiguity, defective provision, error or omission herein, provided that the rights of the Trustee and of the Holders of Debt Securities of any Series are not materially prejudiced thereby.

11.02 With Consent of Holders

(1) Except as provided in Section 11.02(2) below and in Sections 7.03 and 7.04 and without prejudice to Section 11.01,

(a) the Corporation, when authorized by a resolution of its Board of Directors, and the Trustee may, with the written consent of the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Debt Securities of an applicable Series then outstanding affected thereby, amend this Indenture and the Debt Securities of such Series, and

(b) any existing default or compliance by the Corporation with any provision of this Indenture affecting the Debt Securities of a Series may be waived with the written consent of the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Debt Securities of such Series then outstanding.

(2) Without the consent of each Holder affected thereby, no amendment, modification, supplement or waiver, including a waiver pursuant to Sections 7.03 and 7.04 and an amendment, modification or supplement pursuant to Section 11.01, may (with respect to any Debt Securities held by a non-consenting Holder):

(a) reduce the principal amount of Debt Securities whose Holders must consent to an amendment, modification, supplement or waiver;

(b) reduce the principal of or change the Stated Maturity of any Debt Security or alter the provisions, or waive any payment, with respect to the redemption of any Debt Security or make the principal of, or the interest on any Debt Security payable in money other than as provided for in this Indenture or any Supplemental Indenture;

(c) reduce the rate of or change the time for payment of interest including Default Interest on any Debt Security;

(d) waive an Event of Default in the payment of principal of, or interest, or premium, if any, on, the Debt Securities of a Series (except a rescission of acceleration of such Debt Securities by the Holders in accordance with Section 7.03);

(e) make any change in the provisions of this Indenture relating to waivers of past defaults or the rights of Holders of Debt Securities to receive payments of principal of, or interest or premium, if any, on, the Debt Securities;

(f) impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment on or with respect to any Debt Securities;

(g) except as otherwise permitted herein, consent to the assignment or transfer by the Corporation of any of its rights or obligations under this Indenture;

(h) amend or modify any of the provisions of the Secured Note Loan Documents or the related definitions affecting the ranking or, with respect to Collateral, the priority, of the Debt Securities of any Series, in each case, in any manner adverse to the Holders of the Debt Securities of such Series; or

(i) permit the creation of any Lien on the Collateral or any part thereof (other than the Lien of the Secured Note Loan Documents and Liens expressly permitted by the Secured Note Loan Documents) or terminate the Lien of the Secured Note Loan Documents as to the Collateral or any part thereof or deprive the Holders of the security afforded by the Lien of the Secured Note Loan Documents or any part thereof, except as expressly permitted under the Secured Note Loan Documents; or

(j) make any change in the amendment and waiver provisions of this Section 11.02.

The consent of the Holders is not necessary to approve the particular form of any proposed amendment. It is sufficient if such consent approves the substance of the proposed amendment.

11.03 Compliance with Trust Indenture Legislation

Every amendment, modification or supplement to this Indenture or the Debt Securities of any Series will be set forth in a supplemental indenture that complies with the applicable Trust Indenture Legislation as then in effect.

11.04 Authorization of Trustee

In executing, or accepting the additional trusts created by, any Supplemental Indenture permitted by this Article 11 or the modifications thereby of the trusts created by this Indenture, the Trustee will be entitled to receive, and subject to Section 8.01, will be fully protected in acting and relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of such Supplemental Indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture, is a valid and binding obligation of the Corporation, enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency or other laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and general principles of equity and in connection with a Supplemental Indenture executed pursuant to Section 11.01 that the Trustee is authorized to execute and deliver such Supplemental Indenture without the consent of the Holders. The Trustee may, but will not be obligated to, enter into any such Supplemental Indenture that affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise.

11.05 Effect of Supplemental Indentures

(1) Upon the execution of any Supplemental Indenture under this Article 11, this Indenture will be modified in accordance therewith, and such Supplemental Indenture will form a part of this Indenture for all purposes, unless otherwise so specified, and every Holder of Debt Securities theretofore or thereafter certified and delivered under this Indenture will be bound by such Supplemental Indenture.

(2) A Supplemental Indenture that changes or eliminates any covenant or other provisions of this Indenture that has expressly been included solely for the benefit of one or more particular Series of Debt Securities, or that modifies the rights of the Holders of Debt Securities of such Series with respect to such covenant or other provision, will be deemed not to affect the rights under this Indenture for the Holders of Debt Securities of any other Series.

11.06 Reference in Debt Securities to Supplemental Indentures

Debt Securities of any Series certified or authenticated and delivered after the execution of any Supplemental Indenture pursuant to this Article 11 may, and will if required by the Trustee, bear a notation in form approved by the Trustee as to any matter provided for in such Supplemental Indenture. If the Corporation so determines, new Debt Securities of any Series so modified as to conform, in the opinion of the Trustee and the Board of Directors, to any such Supplemental Indenture may be prepared and executed by the Corporation and certified and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for outstanding Debt Securities of such Series.

ARTICLE 12 - DEFEASANCE; SATISFACTION AND DISCHARGE

12.01 Corporation's Option to Effect Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance

The Corporation may, at its option by a resolution of the Board of Directors, at any time, with respect to the Debt Securities of a particular Series, elect to have either Section 12.02 or Section 12.03 be applied to all outstanding Debt Securities of such Series upon compliance with the conditions set forth below in this Article 12.

12.02 Defeasance and Discharge

Upon the Corporation's exercise under Section 12.01 of the option applicable to this Section 12.02, the Corporation will be deemed to have been discharged from its obligations with respect to the Debt Securities of a particular Series on the date the conditions set forth in Section 12.04 are satisfied (hereinafter, "Legal Defeasance"). For this purpose, such Legal Defeasance means that the Corporation will be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire indebtedness represented by the Debt Securities of such Series and to have satisfied all its other obligations under the Debt Securities of such Series, except for the following which will survive until otherwise terminated or discharged hereunder: (a) the rights of Holders of Debt Securities of such Series to receive, solely from the trust fund described in Section 12.07 and as more fully set forth in such Section, payments in respect of the principal of (and premium, if any), and interest on such Debt Securities when such payments are due; (b) the provisions set forth in Section 12.05 below; (c) the rights, powers, trusts, duties and immunities of the Trustee hereunder, and the Corporation's obligations in connection therewith; and (d) this Article 12. Subject to compliance with this Article 12, the Corporation may exercise its option under this Section 12.02 notwithstanding the prior exercise of its option under Section 12.03 below with respect to the Debt Securities of such Series. If the Corporation exercises its Legal Defeasance option and the conditions set forth in Section 12.04 are satisfied, payment of the Debt Securities of such Series may not be accelerated because of an Event of Default.

12.03 Covenant Defeasance

Upon the Corporation's exercise under Section 12.01 of the option applicable to this Section 12.03 with respect to the Debt Securities of a particular Series, the Corporation will be released from its obligations under any covenant contained in Section 5.04 or Sections indicated for such release contained in a Supplemental Indenture (other than the covenant to comply with TIA Section 314(a) to the extent that such obligations thereunder cannot be terminated) with respect to the outstanding Debt Securities of such Series on and after the date the conditions set forth in Section 12.04 below are satisfied (hereinafter, "Covenant Defeasance"), and the Debt Securities of such Series will thereafter be deemed not "outstanding" for the purposes of any direction, waiver, consent or declaration or Act of Holders (and the consequences of any thereof) in connection with such covenants, but will continue to be deemed "outstanding" for all other purposes hereunder, (it being understood that such Debt Securities will not be deemed outstanding for accounting purposes). For this purpose, Covenant Defeasance means that, with respect to the outstanding Debt Securities of such Series, the Corporation may omit to comply with and will have no liability in respect of any term, condition or limitation set forth in any such covenants, whether directly or indirectly, by reason of any reference elsewhere herein to any such covenants or by reason of any reference in any such covenants to any other provision herein or in any other document and such omission to comply will not constitute an Event of Default under Section 7.01 hereof, but, except as specified above, the remainder of this Indenture and such Debt Securities will be unaffected thereby.

12.04 Conditions to Defeasance

In order to exercise the Legal Defeasance option or the Covenant Defeasance option:

(a) the Corporation must irrevocably deposit with the Trustee, in trust, for the benefit of the Holders of the Debt Securities of a particular Series subject to an irrevocable trust and security agreement in form and substance satisfactory to the Trustee, acting reasonably, money in the currency in which such Debt Securities are payable, non-callable Government Securities in such currency, or a combination thereof, in such amounts as will be sufficient without consideration of reinvestment of interest and after payment of all taxes, in the opinion of an independent accounting or investment banking firm of national standing in Canada or the United States, to pay the principal of, and interest and premium, if any, on the outstanding Debt Securities of such Series on their Stated Maturity or on the applicable Redemption Date, as the case may be, and the Corporation must specify whether the Debt Securities are being defeased to maturity or to a particular Redemption Date;

(b) in the case of Legal Defeasance, the Corporation will have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel reasonably acceptable to the Trustee confirming that (i) the Corporation has received from, or there has been published by, the U.S. Internal Revenue Service a ruling or (ii) there has been a change in the applicable U.S. federal income tax law, in either case to the effect that, and based thereon such Opinion of Counsel will confirm that, the Holders and beneficial owners of the outstanding Debt Securities of such Series will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such Legal Defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Legal Defeasance had not occurred;

(c) in the case of Covenant Defeasance, the Corporation will have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel reasonably acceptable to the Trustee confirming that the Holders and beneficial owners of the outstanding Debt Securities of such Series will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such Covenant Defeasance and will be subject to U.S.

federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Covenant Defeasance had not occurred;

(d) in the case of Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance, the Corporation must deliver to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel in Canada reasonably acceptable to the Trustee confirming that the Holders and beneficial owners of the outstanding Debt Securities of such Series will not recognize income, gain or loss for Canadian federal, provincial or territorial income tax or other tax purposes as a result of such Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance, as applicable, and will be subject to Canadian federal, provincial or territorial income tax and other tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance, as applicable, had not occurred;

(e) no Event of Default will have occurred and be continuing either: (i) on the date of such deposit; or (ii) insofar as Events of Default specified in Section 7.01 concerned, at any time in the period ending on the 91st day after the date of deposit;

(f) such Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, any material agreement or instrument to which the Corporation, or any of its subsidiaries, is a party or by which the Corporation, or any of its subsidiaries, is bound;

(g) the Corporation must deliver to the Trustee a Certificate of the Corporation stating that the deposit was not made by the Corporation with the intent of preferring the Holders over the other creditors of the Corporation or with the intent of defeating, hindering, delaying or defrauding creditors of the Corporation or others;

(h) if the Debt Securities are to be redeemed prior to their Stated Maturity, the Corporation must deliver to the Trustee irrevocable instructions to redeem all of the Debt Securities of such Series on the specified Redemption Date;

(i) the Trustee, for the benefit of the Holders, will have a perfected security interest under Applicable Law in and to the money or Government Securities deposited under Section 12.04(a);

(j) the Corporation will have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel in Canada, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, to the effect that, (A) the trust funds will not be subject to the rights of holders of Indebtedness of the Corporation other than the Debt Securities of such Series and (B) assuming no intervening bankruptcy or other insolvency proceedings or filing relating to the Corporation between the date of deposit and the 91st day following the deposit and that no Holder of such Debt Securities is an insider of the Corporation, after the passage of 90 days following the deposit, the trust funds will not be subject to any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or similar law affecting creditors' rights generally; and

(k) the Corporation must deliver to the Trustee a Certificate of the Corporation and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent relating to the Legal Defeasance or the Covenant Defeasance have been complied with provided however that no deposit under Section 12.04(a) will be effective to terminate the obligations of the Corporation under the Debt Securities prior to 91 days following any such deposit.

12.05 Survival of Certain Obligations

Notwithstanding Sections 12.02, 12.03 and 12.11, any obligations of the Corporation and the Trustee or other applicable Person, as the case may be, in Sections 2.05 through 2.14, 5.01, 5.02, 5.03, 7.09, 8.01, 8.02, 8.07, 8.08, 8.09, 8.10, 8.13 and 12.05 through 12.10 will survive until the Debt Securities have been indefeasibly paid in full. Thereafter, any obligations of the Corporation in Sections 8.07, 12.05, 12.06, 12.07, 12.08, 12.09 and 12.10 will survive such satisfaction and discharge. Nothing contained in this Article 12 will abrogate any of the rights, obligations or duties of the Trustee under this Indenture.

12.06 Acknowledgment of Discharge by Trustee

After the conditions of Section 12.02, 12.03, 12.04 or 12.11 have been satisfied, the Trustee, at the expense of the Corporation, upon written request will acknowledge in writing the discharge of all of the Corporation's obligations under this Indenture except for those surviving obligations specified in this Article 12.

12.07 Application of Trust Money

All money deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 12.04 or 12.11 will be held in trust and applied by it, in accordance with the provisions of the Debt Securities and this Indenture and any applicable Order of the Corporation, to the payment, either directly or through any Paying Agent, as the Trustee may determine, to the Persons entitled thereto, of the principal (and premium, if any) and interest for whose payment such money has been deposited with the Trustee.

12.08 Repayment to the Corporation

(1) The Trustee and any Paying Agent will promptly pay to the Corporation upon Request of the Corporation any money or Government Securities not required for the payment of the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on Debt Securities of any Series for which money or Government Securities have been deposited pursuant to Section 12.04 held by them at any time.

(2) Subject to Applicable Law, the Trustee and any Paying Agent will pay to the Corporation upon an Order of the Corporation any money held by them for the payment of principal (and premium, if any) and interest that remains unclaimed for two years after the Maturity of the Debt Securities for which a deposit has been made pursuant to this Article 12. After such payment to the Corporation, the Holders of Debt Securities of such Series will thereafter be unsecured general creditors and look only to the Corporation for payment thereof.

12.09 Indemnity for Government Securities

The Corporation will pay and must indemnify the Trustee against any tax, fee or other charge imposed on or assessed against deposited Government Securities or the principal and interest, if any, received on such Government Securities.

12.10 Reinstatement

If the Trustee or Paying Agent is unable to apply cash or Government Securities in accordance with this Article 12 by reason of any legal proceeding or by reason of any order or judgment of any court or Governmental Authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting such application, the Corporation's obligations under this Indenture and the Debt Securities of the applicable Series will be revived and reinstated as though no deposit had occurred pursuant to this Article 12 until such time as the Trustee or any such Paying Agent is permitted to apply all such cash and Government Securities in accordance with this Article 12; provided, however, that, if the Corporation has made any payment of principal of, (and premium, if any) and interest, if any, on any Debt Securities of a particular Series because of the reinstatement of its obligations, the Corporation will be subrogated to the rights of the Holders of such Debt Securities to receive such payment from the cash or Government Securities held by the Trustee or Paying Agent.

12.11 Satisfaction and Discharge

(1) This Indenture will, upon Request of the Corporation, cease to be of further effect (except as to any surviving rights of registration of transfer or exchange of Debt Securities provided for herein, rights to receive payments of principal of (and premium, if any) and interest thereon and as to any indemnification of the Trustee by the Corporation), and the Trustee will execute proper instruments acknowledging satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, when:

(a) either,

(i) all Debt Securities theretofore certified and delivered, other than: (A) Debt Securities that have been destroyed, lost or stolen and that have been replaced or paid as provided in Section 2.12; and (B) Debt Securities for whose payment money has theretofore been irrevocably deposited in trust or segregated and held in trust by the Corporation and thereafter repaid to the Corporation or discharged from such trust, as provided in Section 5.03 have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation; or

(ii) all such Debt Securities not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation:

(A) have become due and payable;

(B) will become due and payable at their Stated Maturity within one year; or

(C) are to be called for redemption within one year under arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for the giving of notice by the Trustee in the name, and at the expense, of the Corporation; and the Corporation, in the case of Sections 12.11(1)(a)(ii)(A), (B) or (C) above, has irrevocably deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee as trust funds in trust an amount sufficient to pay and discharge the entire indebtedness on such Debt Securities for principal (and premium, if any) and interest to the date of such deposit (in the case of Debt Securities that have become due and payable) or to the Stated Maturity or Redemption Date, as the case may be;

(b) the Corporation has paid or caused to be paid all other sums payable hereunder by the Corporation; and

(c) the Corporation has delivered to the Trustee a Certificate of the Corporation and an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent herein provided related to the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture have been complied with.

12.12 Investment of Trust Money

(1) Upon receipt of a written Order of the Corporation, the Trustee will invest funds received from the Corporation in its name in accordance with such Order. Any Order of the Corporation will be provided to the Trustee no later than 9:00 a.m. on the day on which the investment is to be made. Any such Order of the Corporation received by the Trustee after 9:00 a.m. or received on a non-Business Day, will be deemed to have been given prior to 9:00 a.m. on the next Business Day. For the purpose of this Section, "Authorized Investments" means short-term interest-bearing or discount debt obligations issued or guaranteed by the Government of Canada, the Government of a province of Canada or a Canadian chartered bank (which may include an Affiliate or related party of the Trustee) provided that such obligation is rated at least R-1 (middle) by Dominion Bond Rating Service Limited or has an equivalent rating from another widely recognized rating service.

(2) In the absence of any Order of the Corporation to invest such funds in an Authorized Investment, the Trustee may hold cash balances constituting part or all of such funds and may, but need not, invest same in its deposit department or the deposit department of one of its Affiliates or of a Schedule I or II Canadian chartered bank; but the Trustee and its Affiliates will not be liable to account for any profit to the Corporation or to any other Person other than at a rate, if any, established from time to time by the Trustee or one of its Affiliates.

(3) For the purpose of this Section, "Affiliate" includes affiliated companies within the meaning of the Business Corporations Act (Ontario), as amended.

(4) The Trustee will not be held liable for any losses incurred in the investment of any such funds in Authorized Investments.

A Certificate of the Corporation may be based, insofar as it relates to legal matters, upon an Opinion of Counsel, unless the officer signing such certificate knows, or in the exercise of reasonable care should know, that such Opinion of Counsel with respect to the matters upon which such Certificate of the Corporation is based are erroneous. Any Opinion of Counsel may be based and may state that it is so based, insofar as it relates to factual matters, upon a Certificate of the Corporation stating that the information with respect to such factual matters is in the possession of the Corporation, unless the counsel signing such Opinion of Counsel knows, or in the exercise of reasonable care should know, that the Certificate of the Corporation with respect to the matters upon which such Opinion of Counsel is based are erroneous.

ENFORCEMENT

Section 2.1 Remedies

The Trustee shall not be bound to exhaust their recourse against the Corporation or any other Person or realize on any security they may hold in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations before being entitled to (i) enforce payment and performance under this guarantee or (ii) pursue any other remedy against the Guarantor, and the Guarantor renounces all benefits of discussion and division.

Section 2.2 Impairment of Security

Any loss of, or loss of value of, any security granted to the Trustee by the Corporation or any other Person shall not discharge pro tanto or limit or lessen the liability of the Guarantor under this guarantee except as a result of, and to the extent caused by, the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the Trustee.

Section 2.3 Amount of Guaranteed Obligations

Any account settled or stated by or between the Trustee and the Corporation, or if any such account has not been settled or stated immediately before demand for payment under this guarantee, any account stated by the Trustee shall, in the absence of manifest mathematical error, be accepted by the Guarantor as conclusive evidence of the amount of the Guaranteed Obligations which is due by the Corporation to the Trustee or remains unpaid by the Corporation to the Trustee.

Section 2.4 Payment on Demand

The obligation of the Guarantor to pay and perform the Guaranteed Obligations and pay all other amounts payable by it to the Trustee under this guarantee shall arise, and the Guarantor shall make such payments or perform, immediately after demand for such payment or performance is made in writing to it. The liability of the Guarantor shall bear interest from the date of such demand at the rate or rates of interest then applicable to the Guaranteed Obligations under and calculated in the manner provided in the Secured Note Loan Document (including any adjustment to give effect to the provisions of the Interest Act (Canada)).

Section 2.5 Costs and Expenses

The Guarantor is liable for and will pay on demand by the Trustee any and all expenses, costs and charges incurred by or on behalf of the Trustee in connection with this guarantee, including all legal fees, court costs, receivers or agent's remuneration and other expenses in connection with enforcing any of their rights under this guarantee.

Section 2.6 Assignment and Postponement

(a) All obligations, liabilities and indebtedness of the Corporation to the Guarantor of any nature whatsoever and all security therefor (the "Intercorporate Indebtedness") are assigned and transferred to the Trustee as continuing and collateral security for the Guarantor's obligations under this guarantee and postponed to the payment in full of all Guaranteed Obligations. Notwithstanding the foregoing, until the occurrence of a Default or an Event of Default that is continuing, the Guarantor may receive payments in respect of the Intercorporate Indebtedness as permitted under the Indenture. The Guarantor shall not assign all or any part of the Intercorporate Indebtedness to any Person other than to the Secured Creditors (as defined in, and in accordance with, the Inter-Creditor Agreement).

(b) Upon the occurrence of a Default or an Event of Default that is continuing, all Intercorporate Indebtedness shall be held in trust for the Trustee and shall be collected, enforced or proved subject to, and for the purpose of, this guarantee. In such event, any payments received by the Guarantor in respect of the Intercorporate Indebtedness shall be held in trust for the Trustee and segregated from other funds and property held by the Guarantor and immediately paid to the Trustee on account of the Guaranteed Obligations.

(c) The Intercorporate Indebtedness shall not be released or withdrawn by the Guarantor unless the Trustee's written consent to the release or withdrawal is first obtained. The Guarantor shall not allow a limitation period to expire on the Intercorporate Indebtedness or ask for or obtain any security or negotiable paper for, or other evidence of, the Intercorporate Indebtedness except for the purpose of delivering the same to the Trustee.

(d) In the event of any insolvency, bankruptcy or other proceeding involving the liquidation, arrangement, compromise, reorganization or other relief with respect to the Corporation or its debts, the Guarantor will, upon the request of the Trustee, make and present a proof of claim or commence such other proceedings against the Corporation on account of the Intercorporate Indebtedness as may be reasonably necessary to establish the Guarantor's entitlement to payment of any Intercorporate Indebtedness. Such proof of claim or other proceeding must be made or commenced prior to the earlier of (i) the day which is thirty (30) days after notice requesting such action is delivered by or on behalf of the Trustee to the Guarantor and (ii) the day which is ten (10) days preceding the date when such proof of claim or other proceeding is required by Applicable Law to be made or commenced. Such proof of claim or other proceeding must be in form and substance acceptable to the Trustee.

(e) If the Guarantor fails to make and file such proof of claim or commence such other proceeding in accordance with this Section, the Trustee is irrevocably authorized, empowered and directed and appointed the true and lawful attorney of the Guarantor (but each is not obliged) with the power to exercise for and on behalf of the Guarantor the following rights, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default: (i) to make and present for and on behalf of the Guarantor proofs of claims or other such proceedings against the Corporation on account of the Intercorporate Indebtedness, (ii) to demand, sue for, receive and collect any and all dividends or other payments or disbursements made in respect of the Intercorporate Indebtedness in whatever form the same may be paid or issued and to apply the same on account of the Guaranteed Obligations, and (iii) to demand, sue for, collect and receive each such payment and distribution and give acquittance therefor and to file claims and take such other actions, in its own name or in the name of the Guarantor or otherwise, as the Trustee may deem necessary or advisable to enforce each of its rights under this guarantee.

(f) The Guarantor will execute all subordinations, postponements, assignments and other agreements as the Trustee may reasonably request to more effectively subordinate and postpone the Intercorporate Indebtedness to the payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations.

(g) The provisions of this Section 2.6 survive the termination of this guarantee and remain in full force and effect until (i) the Guaranteed Obligations are repaid in full; and (ii) the Trustee has no further obligations under any of the Secured Note Loan Documents.

Section 2.7 Suspension of Guarantor Rights

So long as there are any Guaranteed Obligations, the Guarantor will not exercise any rights which it may at any time have by reason of the performance of any of its obligations under this guarantee (i) to be indemnified by the Corporation, (ii) to claim contribution from any other guarantor of the debts, liabilities or obligations of the Corporation, or (iii) subject to Section 2.9, to take the benefit (in whole or in part and whether by way of subrogation or otherwise) of any rights of the Trustee under the Secured Note Loan Documents.

Section 2.8 No Prejudice to the Trustee

The Trustee shall not be prejudiced in any way in the right to enforce any provision of this guarantee by any act or failure to act on the part of the Corporation or the Trustee. The Trustee may, at any time and from time to time, in such manner as any of them may determine is expedient, without any consent of, or notice to, the Guarantor and without impairing or releasing the obligations of the Guarantor (i) change the manner, place, time or terms of payment or performance of the Guaranteed Obligations, (ii) renew or alter the Guaranteed Obligations, (iii) amend, vary, modify, supplement or replace the Indenture or any Secured Note Loan Document or any other related document or instrument, (iv) discontinue, reduce, renew, increase, abstain from renewing or otherwise vary any credit or credit facilities to, any transaction with, the Corporation or any other Person, (v) release, compound or vary the liability of the Corporation or any other Person liable in any manner under or in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations, (vi) take or abstain from taking securities or collateral from any other Person, or from perfecting securities or collateral of any other Person, (vii) exercise or enforce or refrain from exercising or enforcing any right or security against the Corporation, the Guarantor or any other Person, (viii) accept compromises or arrangement from any Person, (ix) apply any sums from time to time received to the Guaranteed Obligations, or any part thereof, and change any such application in whole or in part from time to time, (x) otherwise deal with, or waive or modify their right to deal with, any Person and security. In their dealings with the Corporation, the Trustee need not enquire into the authority or power of any Person purporting to act for or on behalf of the Corporation.

Section 2.9 No Subrogation

The Guarantor irrevocably waives any claim, remedy or other right which it may now have or hereafter acquire against the Corporation that arises from the existence, payment, performance or enforcement of the Guarantor's obligations under this guarantee, including any right of subrogation, reimbursement, exoneration, indemnification or any right to participate in any claim or remedy of the Trustee against the Corporation or any collateral which the Trustee now has or hereafter acquires, whether or not such claim, remedy or other right is reduced to judgment or is liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, secured or unsecured, and whether or not such claim, remedy or other right arises in equity or under contract, statute or common law. The Guarantor further agrees that the Corporation shall be an intended third party beneficiary of the Guarantor's waiver contained in this Section 2.9. If any amount is paid to the Guarantor in violation of this Section and, at such time, the claims of the Trustee against the Corporation in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations shall not have been paid in full, any amount paid to the Guarantor shall be deemed to have been paid to the Guarantor for the benefit of, and held in trust for, the Trustee, and shall immediately be paid to the Trustee to be credited and applied upon such Guaranteed Obligations. The Guarantor acknowledges that it will receive direct and indirect benefits from the transactions contemplated by this guarantee and that the waiver in this Section 2.9 is knowingly made in contemplation of such benefits.

Section 2.10 No Set-off

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Guarantor shall make all payments under this guarantee without regard to any defence, counter-claim or right of set-off available to it.

Section 2.11 Successors of the Corporation

This guarantee will not be revoked by any change in the constitution of the Corporation. This guarantee and the Guarantor Security Documents extend to any person, firm or corporation acquiring, or from time to time carrying on, the business of the Corporation.

Section 2.12 Continuing Guarantee and Continuing Obligations

The obligation of the Guarantor under Section 1.1 is a continuing guarantee, and the obligations of the Guarantor under Section 1.2 and Section 1.3 are continuing obligations. Each of Section 1.1, Section 1.2 and Section 1.3 extends to all present and future Guaranteed Obligations, applies to and secures the ultimate balance of the Guaranteed Obligations due or remaining due to the Trustee and is binding as a continuing obligation of the Guarantor until the Trustee releases the Guarantor in accordance with the terms of the Indenture. This guarantee will continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time any payment of any of the Guaranteed Obligations is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by the Trustee upon the insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization of the Corporation or otherwise, all as though the payment had not been made.

Section 2.13 Supplemental Security

This guarantee is in addition and without prejudice to and supplemental to all other guarantees and securities held or which may hereafter be held by the Trustee.

Section 2.14 Security for Guarantee

The Guarantor acknowledges that this guarantee is intended to guarantee payment of the Guaranteed Obligations and that the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations and the other obligations of the Guarantor under this guarantee are secured pursuant to the terms and provisions of the Guarantor Security Documents.

Section 2.15 Right of Set-off

Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default, the Trustee is authorized by the Guarantor at any time and from time to time and may, to the fullest extent permitted by law, set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) at any time held and other indebtedness at any time owing by the Trustee to or for the credit or the account of the Guarantor against any and all of the obligations of the Guarantor now or hereafter existing irrespective of whether or not (i) the Trustee has made any demand under this guarantee, or (ii) any of the obligations comprising the Guaranteed Obligations are contingent or unmatured. The Trustee agrees promptly to notify the Guarantor after any such set-off and application made by the Trustee provided that the failure to give notice shall not affect the validity of the set-off and application. The rights of the Trustee under this Section 2.15 are in addition and without prejudice to and supplemental to other rights and remedies which the Trustee may have.

Section 2.16 Interest Act (Canada)

The Guarantor acknowledges that certain of the rates of interest applicable to the Guaranteed Obligations may be computed on the basis of a year of three hundred sixty (360) days or three hundred sixty-five (365) or three hundred sixty-six (366) days, as the case may be, and paid for the actual number of days elapsed. For purposes of the Interest Act (Canada), whenever any interest is calculated using a rate based on a year of three hundred sixty (360) days or three hundred sixty-five (365) or three hundred sixty-six (366) days, as the case may be, such rate determined pursuant to such calculation, when expressed as an annual rate is equivalent to (i) the applicable rate based on a year of three hundred sixty (360) days or three hundred sixty-five (365) or three hundred sixty-six (366) days, as the case may be, (ii) multiplied by the actual number of days in the calendar year in which the period for such interest is payable (or compounded) ends, and (iii) divided by three hundred sixty (360) days or three hundred sixty-five (365) or three hundred sixty-six (366), as the case may be.

Section 2.17 Taxes and Other Taxes

(a) All payments to the Trustee, any Noteholder and any other Person considered to be a beneficial owner of a Secured Note (each a "Tax Indemnitee") by the Guarantor under this guarantee or any of the Secured Note Loan Documents to which the Guarantor is a party will be made free and clear of and without withholding or deduction for or on account of any present or future tax, duty, levy, interest, assessment or other governmental charge imposed or levied by or on behalf of the Government of Canada or any province or territory thereof or by any authority or agency therein or thereof having power to tax ("Withholding Taxes"), unless the Guarantor is required to withhold or deduct Withholding Taxes under the laws of Canada, the United States, any other relevant jurisdiction, or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof, or by the interpretation or administration of such laws. If the Guarantor is so required to withhold or deduct any amount for or on account of Withholding Taxes from any payment made under or with respect to this guarantee or any of the other Secured Note Loan Documents to which the Guarantor is a party, the Guarantor will pay to each Tax Indemnitee such additional amounts ("Additional Amounts") as may be necessary so that the net amount received by each Tax Indemnitee after such withholding or deduction will not be less than the amount each such Tax Indemnitee would have received if such Withholding Taxes had not been withheld or deducted, provided that no Additional Amounts will be payable with respect to a payment made to a Tax Indemnitee which is subject to such Withholding Taxes by reason of its being connected with Canada, the United States, any other relevant jurisdiction, or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof, otherwise than by the mere holding of the Secured Notes or the receipt of payments thereunder (an "Excluded Holder"). The Guarantor will also (i) make such withholding or deduction and (ii) remit the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant authority in accordance with applicable law.

(b) The Guarantor will furnish, within thirty (30) days after the date of payment of any Withholding Taxes due pursuant to applicable law, to the Tax Indemnitees, copies of tax receipts evidencing that such payment has been made by the Guarantor. The Guarantor will indemnify and hold harmless each Tax Indemnitee (other than an Excluded Holder) and upon written request, reimburse each Tax Indemnitee for the amount of: (i) any Withholding Taxes levied or imposed on such Tax Indemnitee as a result of payments made under or with respect to the guarantee, or any agreement or document contemplated hereby (excluding Taxes imposed on or measured by the net income or profit of a Tax Indemnitee); and (ii) any liability (including penalties, interest and expense) arising therefrom or with respect thereto.

(c) The provisions of this Section 2.17 shall survive the termination of this guarantee.

Section 2.18 Indemnity

The Guarantor shall indemnify and save the Trustee harmless from and against any losses which may arise by virtue of any of the Guaranteed Obligations, the Indenture or any of the Secured Note Loan Documents being or becoming for any reason whatsoever in whole or in part (i) void, voidable, ultra vires, illegal, invalid, ineffective or otherwise unenforceable by the Trustee in accordance with its terms, or (ii) released or discharged by operation of law (collectively, an "Indemnifiable Circumstance"). For greater certainty, these losses shall include, without limitation, the amount of all Guaranteed Obligations which would have been payable by the Corporation but for the existence of an Indemnifiable Circumstance.

Section 2.19 Judgment Currency

(a) If, for the purposes of obtaining or enforcing judgment against the Guarantor in any court in any jurisdiction, it becomes necessary to convert into any other currency (such other currency being hereinafter in this Section 2.19 referred to as the "Judgment Currency") an amount due under this guarantee or under any other Secured Note Loan Document to which the Guarantor is a party in any currency (the "Obligation Currency") other than the Judgment Currency, the conversion shall be made at the date of exchange prevailing on the Business Day immediately preceding (i) the date of actual payment of the amount due, in the case of any proceeding in the courts of any jurisdiction that will give effect to such conversion being made on such date, or (ii) the date on which the judgment is given, in the case of any proceeding in the courts of any other jurisdiction (the applicable date as of which such conversion is made pursuant to this Section 2.19 being hereinafter in this Section 2.19 referred to as the "Judgment Conversion Date").

(b) If, in the case of any proceeding in the court of any jurisdiction referred to in Section 2.19(a), there is a change in the rate of exchange prevailing between the Judgment Conversion Date and the date of actual receipt for value of the amount due, the Guarantor shall pay such additional amount (if any, but in any event not a lesser amount) as may be necessary to ensure that the amount actually received in the Judgment Currency, when converted at the rate of exchange prevailing on the date of payment, will produce the amount of the Obligation Currency which could have been purchased with the amount of the Judgment Currency stipulated in the judgment or judicial order at the rate of exchange prevailing on the Judgment Conversion Date. Any amount due from the Guarantor under Section 2.19(a) shall be due as a separate debt and shall not be affected by judgment being obtained for any other amounts due under or in respect of any of the other Secured Note Loan Documents to which the Guarantor is a party.

(c) The term "rate of exchange" in Section 2.19(b) means the rate of exchange at which a Schedule I bank under the Bank Act (Canada) would, on the relevant date at or about 12:00 noon (Toronto time), be prepared to sell the Obligation Currency against the Judgment Currency.

ARTICLE 3
REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

Section 3.1 Representations and Warranties

The Guarantor represents and warrants, acknowledging and confirming that the Trustee and the Noteholders are relying on such representations and warranties in connection with the acceptance of this guarantee, that each representation and warranty made by the Corporation under the Indenture, to the extent it pertains to the Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries, the business of the Guarantor or its Subsidiaries and the Secured Note Loan Documents to which the Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries is a party, is true, accurate and complete in all respects.

Section 3.2 Indenture Covenants

Until the Guaranteed Obligations and all other amounts owing under this guarantee are paid or repaid in full, the Guaranteed Obligations are performed in full and the Trustee and the Noteholders have no obligations under the Indenture or any of the Secured Note Loan Documents, the Guarantor covenants and agrees that it will take, or will refrain from taking, as the case may be, all actions that are necessary to be taken or not taken so that no violation of any provision, covenant or agreement contained in the Indenture or any of the other Secured Note Loan Documents, and so that no Default or Event of Default, is caused by the actions of the Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries.

Section 4.2 Defined Terms

Capitalized terms used in this guarantee and not otherwise defined have the meanings specified in the Indenture.

Section 4.3 Interpretation

(a) In this guarantee the words "including", "includes" and "include" mean "including (or includes or include) without limitation". The phrase "the aggregate of", "the total of", "the sum of", or a phrase of similar meaning means "the aggregate (or total or sum), without duplication, of". (b) Any reference in this guarantee to gender shall include all genders and words importing the singular number only shall include the plural and vice versa.

(c) The division of this guarantee into Articles and Sections and the insertion of headings are for convenient reference only and are not to affect the interpretation of this guarantee.

(d) The schedule attached to this guarantee forms an integral part of it for all purposes of it.

(e) Any reference to this guarantee, the Indenture, any Secured Note Loan Document or any Guarantor Security Document refers to this guarantee or the Indenture or such Secured Note Loan Document or Guarantor Security Document as the same may have been or may from time to time be amended, modified, extended, renewed, restated, replaced or supplemented and includes all schedules and exhibits to it. Any reference in this guarantee to a statute refers to such statute and all rules and regulations made under it as the same may have been or may from time to time be amended or re-enacted.

(f) All references in this guarantee to dollars, unless otherwise specifically indicated, are expressed in Canadian currency.

Section 4.4 No Merger, Survival of Representations and Warranties

The representations, warranties and covenants of the Guarantor in this guarantee survive the execution and delivery of this guarantee. Notwithstanding any investigation made by or on behalf of the Trustee, the representations, warranties and covenants in this guarantee continue in full force and effect.

Section 4.5 Further Assurances

(a) The Guarantor will do all acts and things and execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, all documents and instruments that the Trustee may reasonably request to give full effect to this guarantee and to preserve the rights and powers of the Trustee under this guarantee, including any acknowledgements and confirmations of this guarantee and the Guarantor Security Documents.

(b) The Guarantor acknowledges and confirms that the Guarantor itself has established its own adequate means of obtaining from the Corporation on a continuing basis all information desired by the Guarantor concerning the financial condition of the Corporation and that the Guarantor will look to the Corporation and not to the Trustee, in order for the Guarantor to keep adequately informed of changes in the Corporation's financial condition.

Section 4.6 Successors and Assigns

This guarantee shall be binding upon the Guarantor, its successors and assigns, and shall enure to the benefit of the Trustee and its successors and assigns. All rights of the Trustee under this guarantee shall be assignable in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture. In any action brought by an assignee to enforce any such right, the Guarantor shall not assert against the assignee any claim or defence which the Guarantor now has or hereafter may have against the Trustee. The Guarantor may not assign, transfer or delegate any of its rights or obligations under this guarantee without the prior written consent of the Trustee.

Section 4.7 Amendment

This guarantee may only be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified by written agreement executed by the Trustee and the Guarantor.

Section 4.8 Waivers, etc.

(a) No consent or waiver by a Trustee in respect of this guarantee is binding unless made in writing and signed by an authorized officer of such Trustee. Any consent or waiver given under this guarantee is effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given. No waiver of any of the provisions of this guarantee constitutes a waiver of any other provision.

(b) A failure or delay on the part of the Trustee in exercising a right under this guarantee does not operate as a waiver of, or impair, any right of the Trustee however arising. A single or partial exercise of a right on the part of the Trustee does not preclude any other or further exercise of that right or the exercise of any other right by the Trustee.

Section 4.9 Severability

If any court of competent jurisdiction from which no appeal exists or is taken, determines that any provision of this guarantee is illegal, invalid or unenforceable, that provision will be severed from this guarantee and the remaining provisions will remain in full force and effect.

The Guarantor irrevocably waives objection to the venue of any action or proceeding in such court or that such court provides an inconvenient forum. Nothing in this Section limits the right of the Trustee to bring proceedings against the Guarantor in the courts of any other jurisdiction.

(c) The Guarantor hereby irrevocably consents to the service of any and all process in any such action or proceeding by the delivery of copies of such process to the Guarantor at the address specified in and in accordance with Section 4.1. In the event of a conflict between the terms of the Indenture and the terms of this guarantee, the terms of the Indenture shall prevail to the extent of such conflict. The Indenture and this guarantee are subject, to the provisions of the Inter-Creditor Agreement and the Province Inter-Creditor Agreement for so long as the same remain in effect and, notwithstanding any of the other provisions of the Indenture and this guarantee, the exercise by the Trustee and/or the Noteholders of any rights and remedies thereunder and hereunder and any action taken by the Trustee and/or the Noteholders thereunder and hereunder shall be subject to the terms of the Inter-Creditor Agreement and the Province Inter-Creditor Agreement for so long as the same remain in effect, provided however, and for greater certainty, the foregoing shall not be deemed to amend or alter the terms thereof or hereof or the rights and obligations thereunder or hereunder as between the Trustee, the Noteholders, the Corporation and the Guarantor.

(1) The Corporation will not, and will cause each Restricted Subsidiary not to, directly or indirectly, enter into any transaction or series of related transactions (including, the purchase, sale, conveyance, transfer, disposition, exchange or lease of property, the making of any Investment, the giving of any guarantee or the rendering of services) with, or for the benefit of, any of their Affiliates, except in good faith and:

(a) on terms that are no less favourable to the Corporation or such Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, than those that could have been obtained in a comparable transaction at such time on an arm's length basis from a Person not an Affiliate of the Corporation or such Restricted Subsidiary; and

(b) if the Corporation or any Restricted Subsidiary, directly or indirectly, enters into any transaction or series of related transactions (including the purchase, sale, conveyance, transfer, disposition, exchange or lease of property, the making of any Investment, the giving of any guarantee or the rendering of services) with or for the benefit of (i) any Person who owns, directly or indirectly, 20% or more of the outstanding Common Shares in the capital of the Corporation at such time (including Common Shares held by Affiliates of such Person) (a "20% Holder"), or (ii) any Affiliate of such 20% Holder, which transaction(s) involve aggregate payments by or to such 20% Holder or its Affiliate, or involves property with a Fair Market Value in excess of, $15 million, the Corporation or the Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, will first obtain the approval of the Board of Directors to such transactions excluding from such vote each director who (A) is a party to such transactions, (B) is a director or officer of that 20% Holder or of an Affiliate of such 20% Holder, or (C) has a material interest in the 20% Holder or any of its Affiliates, such approval to be evidenced by a Certificate of the Corporation certifying that such transaction(s) have been approved by the Board of Directors in accordance with the foregoing.

(2) The foregoing restrictions in Section 6.08(1) will not apply to (a) fees and compensation paid to and indemnities provided on behalf of officers, directors, employees or consultants of the Corporation or any Restricted Subsidiary as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors or senior management of the Corporation; (b) transactions exclusively between or among the Corporation and any of its Wholly-Owned Subsidiaries or Restricted Subsidiaries or exclusively between or among such Subsidiaries, including the Supply and Services Agreements, provided such transactions are not otherwise prohibited by this Indenture; (c) loans or advances that are set out in clause (ii) of the definition of "Permitted Investments" to employees of the Corporation in an aggregate principal amount not exceeding $2 million at any time; (d) the making of any Permitted Investment specifically permitted to be made to or with an Affiliate under other terms of this Indenture; (e) issuances of Qualified Capital Stock of the Corporation or warrants, rights or options to acquire Qualified Capital Stock of the Corporation; or (f) sales, leases, conveyances or other transfers or dispositions of Receivables and other Related Assets or Standard Securitization Undertakings, in each case in connection with a Receivables Transaction, and acquisitions of Permitted Investments in connection with a Receivables Transaction.

6.09 Impairment of Security Interest

The Corporation will not, and will cause each Restricted Subsidiary not to, take or omit to take any action which could reasonably be expected to have the result of materially adversely affecting or impairing the Liens in favour of the Trustee, on behalf of itself and the Noteholders, with respect to the Collateral. The Corporation will not, and will cause each Restricted Subsidiary not to, enter into any agreement or instrument (other than any agreement or instrument pursuant to which Indebtedness described in clause (ii), (iii), (vi), (vii) or (xii) of the definition of "Permitted Indebtedness" is Incurred or any permitted Refinancing Indebtedness with respect thereto) that by its terms requires the proceeds received from any sale of Collateral to be applied to repay, redeem, defease or otherwise acquire or retire any Indebtedness of any Person, other than pursuant to this Indenture, the Secured Notes and the Security Documents.

6.10 Limitation on Dividend and Other Payment Restrictions Affecting Subsidiaries

The Corporation will not, and will cause each Restricted Subsidiary not to, directly or indirectly, create or otherwise cause or permit or suffer to exist or become effective any encumbrance or restriction on the ability of any Restricted Subsidiary to:

(a) pay dividends or make any other distributions to the Corporation or to any Restricted Subsidiary (i) on its Capital Stock or (ii) with respect to any other interest or participation in, or measured by, its profits;

(b) make loans or advances or pay any Indebtedness or other obligation owed to the Corporation or to any Restricted Subsidiary; or

(c) sell, lease or transfer any of its property to the Corporation or to any Restricted Subsidiary, except for such encumbrances or restrictions existing under or by reason of: (A) Applicable Law; (B) the Secured Note Loan Documents; (C) customary non-assignment provisions of any contract or any lease governing a leasehold interest of any Restricted Subsidiary; (D) any instrument governing Indebtedness Incurred in accordance with and pursuant to clause (xi) of the definition of "Permitted Indebtedness"; provided that such encumbrance or restriction is not, and will not be, applicable to any Person, or the property of any Person, other than the Person, or the property of the Person, becoming a Restricted Subsidiary; (E) restrictions imposed by Liens granted pursuant to clauses (vi), (ix), (x), (xii), (xv) and (xvii) of the definition of "Permitted Liens"; (F) any restriction or encumbrance contained in contracts for the sale of assets to be consummated in accordance with this Indenture solely in respect of the assets to be sold pursuant to such contract; (G) any encumbrance or restriction contained in Refinancing Indebtedness Incurred to Refinance the Indebtedness issued, assumed or Incurred pursuant to an agreement referred to in clause (B), (D) or (E) above or clause (H) or (I) below; (H) any agreement in effect on the date hereof; (I) the ABL Facility and the Secured Revolving Term Loan and any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof; (J) provisions of any instrument governing secured Indebtedness otherwise permitted to be incurred under this Indenture and Incurred in connection with the acquisition of the assets securing Indebtedness, which provisions limit the right of the debtor thereunder to dispose of the assets securing such Indebtedness; or (K) Indebtedness or other contractual requirements of the Corporation, a Restricted Subsidiary or a Receivables Subsidiary or any Standard Securitization Undertaking, in each case in connection with a Receivables Transaction; provided that such restrictions apply only to the Corporation, such Restricted Subsidiary or such Receivables Subsidiary, as the case may be, and Receivables and Related Assets.

6.11 Limitation on Liens

(1) The Corporation will not, and will cause each Restricted Subsidiary not to, directly or indirectly, create, incur, assume or permit or suffer to exist or remain in effect any Liens, upon any item of Collateral other than Permitted Liens.

(2) The Corporation will cause The Stelco Plate Company Ltd. not to (i) create, incur, assume or permit to exist any Lien on or with respect to any of its property except those in favour of Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, or its successors and assigns ("CIBC"), on the date hereof, (ii) create, incur, assume or suffer to exist any Indebtedness, except Indebtedness in favour of CIBC on the date hereof, and (iii) conduct or operate any business.

6.12 Limitation on Sale of Assets

(1) Subject to Section 6.12(9), the Corporation will not, and will cause each Restricted Subsidiary not to, consummate or permit, directly or indirectly, any Asset Sale unless (a) the Corporation or such Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, receives consideration at the time of each such Asset Sale at least equal to the Fair Market Value of the property the subject of such Asset Sale, (b) if the Asset Sale is a Core Asset Sale, at least 75% of the consideration received by the Corporation or such Restricted Subsidiary is in the form of cash or Cash Equivalents, (c) no Default or Event of Default will have occurred and be continuing on the date of the proposed Asset Sale or would result as a consequence of such proposed Asset Sale, and (d) the Corporation or such Restricted Subsidiary will apply the Net Cash Proceeds of such Asset Sale for the following purposes, individually or in combination:

(i) to permanently repay and cancel the commitments under the Secured Revolving Term Loan (or any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof), the ABL Facility (or any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof) or the Secured Notes, subject to and in accordance with the terms of any such Indebtedness and the Inter-Creditor Agreement;

(ii) to purchase or otherwise invest in Related Business Investments, provided that:

(A) until such Related Business Investment is completed, the Corporation must use the Net Cash Proceeds of such Asset Sale to repay the Secured Revolving Term Loan (or any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof) or the ABL Facility (or any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof), subject to and in accordance with the terms of any such Indebtedness and the Inter-Creditor Agreement;

(B) the amount of the Net Cash Proceeds of the Asset Sale arising from Term Priority Collateral so repaid (the "Blockage Amount") must temporarily reduce availability under the Secured Revolving Term Loan (or any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof) or the ABL

Facility (or any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof), as applicable, in a corresponding amount; and

(C) the Blockage Amount will only be reduced by the amount of any re-borrowings (if otherwise permitted under the terms thereof) under such facilities which are used for the purposes of purchasing or otherwise investing in Term Priority Collateral provided such Term Priority Collateral is subject to Liens in favour of the Trustee with the priorities set forth in the Inter-Creditor Agreement;

(iii) for purposes of Section 6.12(1)(ii):

(A) Net Cash Proceeds will be deemed to have been used to purchase or otherwise invest in Related Business Investments if within 18 months of such Asset Sale the Board of Directors will have adopted a plan contemplating the application of such Net Cash Proceeds in a Related Business Investment and the Corporation will have taken steps to implement such plan; provided further, however, that such Net Cash Proceeds must have been so applied within the later of (x) the Target Date under the Secured Revolving Term Loan Credit Agreement and (y) 24 months after the completion of the Asset Sale; and

(B) to the extent that there are no borrowings under the Secured Revolving Term Loan (or any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof) or the ABL Facility (or any Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof), the commitment under such facility or facilities may be reduced by an amount less than or equal to the Net Cash Proceeds of the Asset Sale arising from Term Priority Collateral (a "Commitment Reduction") in which case the Net Cash Proceeds for the purposes of Section 6.12(1)(ii) will be reduced by the amount of such Commitment Reduction; provided that the Commitment Reduction may be reversed up to its total amount to the extent the Corporation purchases or otherwise invests in Term Priority Collateral in an amount so reversed and such Term Priority Collateral is subject to Liens in favour of the Trustee with the priorities set forth in the Inter-Creditor Agreement;

(iv) with respect to any Net Cash Proceeds remaining after application or reduction pursuant to the preceding paragraphs (i) or (ii) (the "Excess Proceeds Amount"), the Corporation will make an offer to purchase (the "Asset Sale Offer") from all Noteholders, up to a maximum principal amount (expressed as an integral multiple of U.S.$1,000) of such Secured

Notes equal to the Excess Proceeds Amount at a purchase price equal to 100% of the aggregate principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon, if any, to the date of purchase (herein called the "Purchase Date"), in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Indenture. The Corporation may defer the Asset Sale Offer until the aggregate unutilized Excess Proceeds Amount equals or exceeds $5 million resulting from one or more Asset Sales (at which time, the entire unutilized Excess Proceeds Amount, and not just the amount in excess of $5 million, will be applied as required pursuant to this paragraph). All amounts remaining after the consummation of any Asset Sale Offer pursuant to this paragraph may be used by the Corporation or such Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, for general corporate purposes.

(2) If at any time any non-cash consideration received by the Corporation or any Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, in connection with any Asset Sale is converted into or sold or otherwise disposed of for cash, then such conversion or disposition will be deemed to constitute an Asset Sale hereunder and the Net Cash Proceeds thereof will be applied in accordance with Section 6.12(1).

(3) For purposes of Section 6.12(1)(ii), each of the following shall be deemed to be cash:

(a) any liabilities (as shown on the Corporation's or such Restricted Subsidiary's most recent balance sheet) of the Corporation or any Restricted Subsidiary (other than contingent liabilities, Indebtedness that is by its terms subordinated to the Secured Notes or any guarantee and liabilities to the extent owed to the Corporation or any Subsidiary) that are assumed by the transferee of any such assets or Capital Stock to the extent that the Corporation or such Restricted Subsidiary has no further liability for such liabilities; and

(b) any securities, notes or other obligations received by the Corporation or any such Restricted Subsidiary from such transferee that are converted, sold, monetized or exchanged by the Corporation or such Restricted Subsidiary into or for, as applicable, cash within 90 days of receipt (to the extent of the cash received in that conversion).

(4) For greater certainty, prior to application as permitted above, the Net Cash Proceeds and all non-cash consideration in respect of any such Asset Sale, and any Related Business Investment made with any Net Cash Proceeds as provided in Sections 6.12(1), will remain, at all times, subject to the Lien of the Security Documents with the same priority as provided in the Inter-Creditor Agreement including, for greater certainty, with respect to the continuation of priority on proceeds of Collateral as therein provided.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 6.12, any disposition of property of the Corporation or any Restricted Subsidiary that is governed under and complies with Article 9 of the Principal Indenture will not be deemed to be an Asset Sale except that in the event of the transfer of substantially all (but not all) of the property of the Corporation and its Restricted

Subsidiaries to a Person in a transaction permitted under Section 9.01 of the Principal Indenture, the Successor Corporation will be deemed to have sold the property of the Corporation and its Restricted Subsidiaries not so transferred for purposes of this Section 6.12, and will comply with the provisions of this Section 6.12 with respect to such deemed sale as if it were an Asset Sale. In addition, the Fair Market Value of such property of the Corporation or its Restricted Subsidiaries deemed to be sold will be deemed to be Net Cash Proceeds for purposes of this Section 6.12. Furthermore, the cash or Cash Equivalent portion of consideration paid by an Unrestricted Subsidiary for the purchase of an asset from the Corporation or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries may include Investments made in such Unrestricted Subsidiary by the Corporation or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries to the extent such Investments are made in accordance with Section 6.02 provided the Unrestricted Subsidiary is immediately thereafter designated a Restricted Subsidiary.

(6) Subject to the deferral of an Asset Sale Offer provided in this Section 6.12, each notice of an Asset Sale Offer pursuant to this Section 6.12 will be mailed, by first class mail, to the Noteholders as shown on the register of Noteholders not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days before the Purchase Date for the Asset Sale Offer with a copy to the Trustee. Upon receiving notice of the Asset Sale Offer, such Noteholders may elect to tender their Secured Notes in whole or in part in integral multiples of U.S.$1,000 principal amount in exchange for cash. The notice will contain all instructions and materials necessary to enable such Noteholders to tender Secured Notes pursuant to the Asset Sale Offer and will state the following terms:

(a) that the Asset Sale Offer is being made pursuant to Section 6.12 and that all Secured Notes tendered will be accepted for payment; provided, however, that if the aggregate principal amount of Secured Notes tendered in an Asset Sale Offer plus accrued interest at the expiration of such offer exceeds the aggregate amount of the Excess Proceeds Amount, the Corporation will select the Secured Notes to be purchased on a pro rata basis (with such adjustments as may be deemed appropriate by the Corporation so that only Secured Notes in denominations of U.S.$1,000 or multiples thereof will be purchased);

(b) that the purchase price (including the amount of accrued interest) and the Purchase Date (which will be at least 30 days from the date of mailing of notice of such Asset Sale Offer and which will remain open until the close of business on the Business Day immediately prior to such Purchase Date, or such longer period as required by law);

(c) that any Secured Note not tendered will continue to accrue interest;

(d) that, unless the Corporation defaults in making payment therefor, any Secured Note accepted for payment pursuant to the Asset Sale Offer will cease to accrue interest after the Purchase Date;

(e) that Noteholders electing to have a Secured Note purchased pursuant to an Asset Sale Offer will be required to surrender the Secured Note, with the form entitled "Option of Noteholder to Elect Purchase" attached to the Secured Note, to the Paying Agent at the address specified in the notice prior to the close of business on the Business Day prior to the Purchase Date;

(f) that Noteholders will be entitled to withdraw their election if the Paying Agent receives, not later than five Business Days (or such later time as is required by law) prior to the Purchase Date, a facsimile transmission or letter setting forth the name of the Noteholder, the principal amount of the Secured Notes the Noteholder delivered for purchase and a statement that such Noteholder is withdrawing its election to have such Secured Note purchased; and

(g) that Noteholders whose Secured Notes are purchased only in part will be issued new Secured Notes in a principal amount equal to the unpurchased portion of the Secured Notes surrendered; provided that each Secured Note purchased and each new Secured Note issued will be in an original principal amount of U.S.$1,000 or integral multiples thereof.

(7) On or before the Purchase Date, the Corporation will (i) accept for payment Secured Notes or portions thereof tendered pursuant to the Asset Sale Offer that are to be purchased in accordance with Section 6.12(6)(a) above, (ii) deposit with the Paying Agent U.S. dollars sufficient to pay the purchase price plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, of all Secured Notes to be purchased and (iii) deliver or cause to be delivered to the Trustee Secured Notes so accepted together with a Certificate of the Corporation stating the Secured Notes or portions thereof being purchased by the Corporation. The Paying Agent will promptly mail to the Noteholders so accepted payment in an amount equal to the purchase price plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any.

(8) If an offer is made to purchase Secured Notes pursuant to an Asset Sale Offer, the Corporation will and will cause its Restricted Subsidiaries to comply with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act, if applicable, the provisions of Rule 13e-4 and Rule 14e-1, if applicable, and any other tender offer rules under the Exchange Act or other relevant Canadian or United States federal, provincial and state securities legislation which may then be applicable and, to the extent applicable, will file Schedule 13E-4 or Schedule 13E-4F or any other schedule required thereunder in connection with any offer by the Corporation to purchase Secured Notes pursuant to an Asset Sale Offer.

(9) Any Core Asset Sale that consists of either (a) the sale of more than 49% of the Capital Stock of Lake Erie Steel Limited Partnership or (b) all or substantially all of the assets of the Lake Erie Steel Business, requires the consent of the Holders of at least two-thirds in principal amount of the outstanding Secured Notes.

6.13 Limitation on Sale and Leaseback Transactions

The Corporation will not, and will not cause or permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, enter into any Sale and Leaseback Transaction involving any of its property unless: (a) the Attributable Indebtedness in respect of such Sale and Leaseback Transaction is permitted to be Incurred by the Corporation or such Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, under Sections 6.03(1) and 6.03(2) other than the requirement that such Indebtedness be unsecured; (b) such Sale and Leaseback Transaction complies with Section 6.12, in the manner provided by the provisions of such Section 6.12; and (c) the Lien Incurred in connection with such Sale and Leaseback Transaction is permitted pursuant to Section 6.11.

6.14 Limitation on Issuance and Sale of Capital Stock of Restricted Subsidiaries

The Corporation will not permit (a) any Restricted Subsidiary to issue any Capital Stock other than to the Corporation or a Wholly-Owned Subsidiary or Restricted Subsidiary or (b) any Person (other than the Corporation or a Wholly-Owned Subsidiary) to, directly or indirectly, own or control any Capital Stock of any Restricted Subsidiary (other than directors' qualifying shares); provided, however, that clauses (a) and (b) will not prohibit (i) any sale of 100% of the shares of the Capital Stock of any Restricted Subsidiary owned by the Corporation or any Wholly-Owned Subsidiary effected in accordance with Section 6.12; (ii) the making of any Permitted Investments in accordance with clause (iii) of the definition thereof; or (iii) any sale or issuance of Capital Stock of a Restricted Subsidiary so long as immediately after such sale the Restricted Subsidiary remains a Restricted Subsidiary; provided, however, that, subject to Section 6.12(9), if any such sale or issuance of Capital Stock would result in the Corporation or a Restricted Subsidiary owning less than 50% of the Capital Stock of such Restricted Subsidiary, the consent of the Holders of at least two-thirds in principal amount of the outstanding Secured Notes is required and if such consent is obtained the Net Cash Proceeds from any such sale will be applied in accordance with Section 6.12.

6.15 Restricted and Unrestricted Subsidiaries

The Board of Directors may designate or redesignate any Subsidiary of the Corporation to be an Unrestricted Subsidiary if: (a) the Subsidiary to be so designated does not own any Capital Stock, Disqualified Capital Stock or Indebtedness of, or own or hold any Lien on any property of, the Corporation or any other Restricted Subsidiary; (b) the Subsidiary to be so designated is not obligated by any Indebtedness or Lien that, if in default, would result (with the passage of the time or notice or otherwise) in a default on any Indebtedness of the Corporation or any Restricted Subsidiary; and (c) either (i) the Subsidiary to be so designated has total property valued at $1,000 or less, or (ii) such designation is effective immediately upon such Person becoming a Subsidiary of the Corporation or of a Restricted Subsidiary. Unless so designated as an Unrestricted Subsidiary, any Person that becomes a Subsidiary of the Corporation or any Restricted Subsidiary will be classified as a Restricted Subsidiary and, concurrently with becoming a Restricted Subsidiary, the Corporation will cause such Restricted Subsidiary to execute and deliver such instruments and agreements (including guarantees of the Obligations of the Corporation under this Indenture and the Secured Note Loan Document and security in respect of the Obligations under such Guarantees as the Trustee may require) in favour of the Trustee on behalf of itself and the Noteholders and to cause to be delivered an Opinion of Counsel in favour of the Trustee to the effect (among other things as may be required by the Trustee) that such instruments and agreements have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by such Restricted Subsidiary and constitute valid and binding obligations of such Restricted Subsidiary, enforceable against such Restricted Subsidiary in accordance with their respective terms (subject to customary qualifications) (the foregoing instruments, agreements and opinions collectively the "Restricted Subsidiary Required Documentation"). Except as provided in the first sentence of this Section 6.16, no Restricted Subsidiary may be redesignated as an Unrestricted Subsidiary. Any such designation by the Board of Directors will be evidenced to the Trustee by promptly filing with the Trustee a Certified Resolution giving effect to such designation and a Certificate of the Corporation certifying that such designation complies with the foregoing provisions.

6.16 Environmental Matters

(1) The Corporation will and will cause each Restricted Subsidiary and each Person within its control to conduct its operations and keep and maintain its Corporation Real Property in compliance with all of its environmental compliance, monitoring, remediation and other policies in effect from time to time and otherwise implement any and all investigation, remediation, removal and response actions that are necessary in order to remain in compliance with such policies.

(2) Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, the Trustee may, but will not be obligated to, enter onto the Collateral and take such actions as may be required to ensure that the Collateral is operated or remediated in accordance with Environmental Law in the event that the Corporation or any Restricted Subsidiary is failing to do so, including the preparation of any environmental audits including subsurface sampling of soil and groundwater. Until foreclosure of the Collateral, the Trustee will have no responsibility to supervise or have control over the conduct of the Corporation's environmental practices. No inaction or action by the Trustee prior to foreclosure of the Collateral will be construed as exercising ownership, possession, care, control or management over the Collateral.

(3) Other than as hereinafter provided in Section 6.16(4), the Trustee will be reimbursed for its costs and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of lawyers, attorneys, engineers and environmental consultants) under this Section 6.16 which claim will as between such claim and the Secured Notes only, in accordance with Section 8.07 of the Principal Indenture, be senior and prior to the Secured Notes.

(4) The Trustee will not be reimbursed for its costs and expenses to the extent that such costs and expenses arise from any action or decisions of the Trustee that are not in compliance with Section 8.01 of the Principal Indenture.

(5) Subject to Sections 6.16(3) and 6.16(4), the Trustee will have no duty to foreclose on, take possession of or take any other action in connection with any security on real property unless Noteholders have provided to the Trustee funds and an indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it to protect it from any liability from any Environmental Liabilities arising in connection with such actions.

6.17 Withholding Tax

(1) All payments made by or on behalf of the Corporation under or with respect to the Secured Notes will be made free and clear of and without withholding or deduction for or on account of any present or future tax, duty, levy, interest, assessment or other governmental charge imposed or levied by or on behalf of the Government of Canada or any province or territory thereof or by any authority or agency therein or thereof having power to tax ("Withholding Taxes"), unless the Corporation or such other payor is required to withhold or deduct Withholding Taxes under Canadian law or by the interpretation or administration thereof. If the Corporation or any other payor is so required to withhold or deduct any amount for or on account of Withholding Taxes from any payment made under or with respect to the Secured Notes, the Corporation will or the Corporation will cause such payor to pay to each Holder such additional amounts ("Additional Amounts") as may be necessary so that the net amount received by each Holder after such withholding or deduction will not be less than the amount each such Holder would have received if such Withholding Taxes had not been withheld or deducted, provided that no Additional Amounts will be payable with respect to a payment made to a Holder which is subject to such Withholding Taxes by reason of its being connected with Canada or any province or territory thereof otherwise than by the mere holding of the Secured Notes or the receipt of payments thereunder (an "Excluded Holder"). The Corporation will or will cause any such other payor to also (i) make such withholding or deduction and (ii) remit the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant authority in accordance with Applicable Law.

(2) The Corporation will or will cause any such other payor to furnish, within 30 days after the date of payment of any Withholding Taxes due pursuant to applicable law, to the Holders, copies of tax receipts evidencing that such payment has been made by the Corporation or any other applicable payor. The Corporation will indemnify and hold harmless each Holder (other than an Excluded Holder) and upon written request, reimburse each Holder for the amount of: (a) any Withholding Taxes levied or imposed on such Holder as a result of payments made under or with respect to the Secured Notes, or as a result of the execution, issue, sale, transfer, delivery or registration of, or otherwise with respect to, the Secured Notes, any Indenture, and Security Document or any agreement or document contemplated hereby or thereby (excluding Taxes imposed on or measured by the net income or profit of a Holder); and (b) any liability (including penalties, interest and expense) arising therefrom or with respect thereto. In this Section 6.17, "Holder" means the Trustee, any holder of Secured Notes and any other person considered to be a beneficial owner of a Secured Note.

(3) At least 30 days prior to each date on which any payment under or with respect to the Secured Notes is due and payable, if the Corporation becomes obligated to pay Additional Amounts with respect to such payment, the Corporation will deliver to the Trustee a Certificate of the Corporation stating the fact that such Additional Amounts will be payable, and the amounts so payable and will set forth such other information as is necessary to enable the Trustee to cause the Paying Agent to pay such Additional Amounts to the Holders on the payment date. Whenever in this Indenture there is mentioned, in any context, (a) the payment of principal (and premium, if any), (b) purchase prices in connection with a repurchase of Secured Notes, (c) interest, or (d) any other amount payable on or with respect to any of the Secured Notes, such mention will be deemed to include mention of the payment of Additional Amounts provided for in this Section to the extent that, in such context, Additional Amounts are, were or would be payable in respect thereof.

(4) The Secured Notes are redeemable, as a whole but not in part, at the option of the Corporation at any time upon not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice at a redemption price equal to 100% of the aggregate principal amount so redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the date of redemption, if the Corporation has become or would become obligated to pay, on the next date on which any amount would be payable under or with respect to the Secured Notes, any Additional Amounts as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws (or any regulations promulgated thereunder) of Canada (or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein), or any change in, or amendment to, any official position regarding the application or interpretation of such laws or regulations, which change or amendment is announced or becomes effective on or after the date hereof.

6.18 Indemnity

The Corporation will indemnify each of the Trustee and the Noteholders for, and hold each of them harmless from and against, any and all loss, loss, liability, claim, damage or expense (including reasonable legal fees and expenses), penalties, actions, suits, demands, costs, levies and disbursements of whatever kind or nature which may at any time be suffered by, imposed on, incurred by or asserted against the Trustee and/or the Noteholders arising out of or in connection with the failure by any Restricted Subsidiary or Unrestricted Subsidiary to perform or comply with any of the terms and conditions of the Secured Note Loan Documents.

6.19 Insurance Proceeds

Any Insurance Proceeds received by the Corporation will be applied in accordance with Section 6.12 as if such Insurance Proceeds were Net Cash Proceeds.

ARTICLE 7 - SATISFACTION AND DISCHARGE

7.01 Cancellation and Destruction

On the Maturity Date or following any redemption or purchase of Secured Notes in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, such Secured Notes will forthwith after payment thereof as provided in this Indenture be delivered to the Trustee or to a Person appointed by it or by the Corporation with the approval of the Trustee and cancelled by the Trustee. All Secured Notes cancelled or required to be cancelled under this or any other provision of this Indenture, in the Trustee's sole discretion, may be destroyed by or under the direction of the Trustee by cremation or otherwise (in the presence of a representative of the Corporation, if the Corporation so requires) and the Trustee will prepare and retain upon request a certificate of such destruction and deliver a duplicate thereof to the Corporation.

7.02 Non-Presentation of Secured Notes

If the Noteholders fail to present the Secured Notes for payment within 30 days of the date on which the principal thereon or represented thereby becomes payable in accordance with the terms hereof or otherwise fail within such 30 day period to accept payment on account thereof or give such receipt therefor, if any, as the Trustee may require

(a) the Corporation will be entitled to pay or issue and deliver, as the case may be, to the Trustee and direct the Trustee to set aside, or

(b) in respect of money in the hands of the Trustee that may or should be applied to the payment of the Secured Notes, the Corporation will be entitled to direct the Trustee to set aside, the principal and interest, or other amounts, as the case may be, in trust to be paid or delivered, as the case may be, without interest on such principal and interest to the Noteholder after the date of such failure to present for payment or accept payment, upon due presentation or surrender thereof in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture; and thereupon the principal and interest payable on or represented by each Secured Note in respect whereof such money has been set aside will be deemed to have been paid and the Noteholder thereof will thereafter have no right in respect thereof, except that of receiving payment of the money so set aside by the Trustee upon due presentation and surrender by the Noteholder of such Secured Note, subject always to the provisions of Section 7.03.

7.03 Repayment of Unclaimed Money to Corporation

Any money in the hands of the Trustee and set aside under Section 7.02 and not claimed by and paid or delivered as provided in Section 7.02, to Noteholders within two years after the date of such setting aside must be repaid or delivered to the Corporation by the Trustee on demand, and thereupon the Trustee will be released from all further liability with respect to such money and thereafter the Noteholders in respect of which such money was so repaid or delivered to the Corporation will have no rights in respect thereof, except to obtain payment of the money due thereon from the Corporation upon due presentation and surrender by the Noteholders without interest.

7.04 Release from Covenants

Upon Written Request and evidence being given to the reasonable satisfaction of the Trustee that the principal of all the Secured Notes and interest thereon and other money payable hereunder have been paid or satisfied subject to and in accordance with the terms of this Indenture and, such payment having been duly and effectually provided for by payment to the Trustee or otherwise in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, and upon payment of all reasonable costs, charges and expenses properly incurred by the Trustee in relation to these presents and all interest thereon and the remuneration of the Trustee, or upon provision satisfactory to the Trustee being made therefor, the Trustee will, at the request and at the expense of the Corporation, execute and deliver to the Corporation such deeds or other instruments as are requisite to release the Corporation from the terms of this First Supplemental Indenture and the terms of the Principal Indenture relating to the Secured Notes, except those relating to the indemnification of the Trustee or which by the terms hereof are expressly intended to survive any such release or discharge.

The Corporation will, and will cause any Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, to furnish to the Trustee, at the time of execution and delivery of any Additional Security Document, an Opinion of Counsel substantially similar to the Opinion of Counsel delivered pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence (but relating only to such Additional Security Documents and the related After-Acquired Property).

(3) At any time when an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, no release (including by way of automatic release) of Collateral pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture and the Secured Note Loan Documents shall be effective as against the Noteholders, except in accordance with the terms of the Security Documents including the Inter-Creditor Agreement.

by any act that may be unlawful or in violation of the Secured Note Loan Documents or this Indenture, and such Proceedings as the Trustee may deem expedient to preserve or protect its interests and the interests of the Noteholders in the Collateral (including the power to institute and maintain Proceedings to restrain the enforcement of or compliance with any legislative or other governmental enactment, rule or order that may be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid if the enforcement of, or compliance with, such enactment, rule or order would impair the Liens thereunder or be prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders or of the Trustee). No duty beyond that of a reasonably prudent corporate trustee will rest upon the Trustee in taking any such action or instituting and maintaining any such Proceedings pursuant to this Section 9.09.

9.10 Authorization of Receipt of Funds by the Trustee Under the Security Documents

Reference is hereby made to the Indenture for a description of the rights of the Holders of the Secured Notes, the Corporation and the Trustee and of the terms and conditions upon which the Secured Notes are issued and held, all to the same effect as if the provisions of the Indenture were herein set forth, to all of which provisions the Holder of this Secured Note, by acceptance hereof, agrees. To the extent that the terms and conditions stated in this Secured Note conflict with the terms and conditions of the Indenture, the latter prevails. All capitalized terms used herein have the meaning ascribed thereto in the Indenture unless otherwise indicated. This Secured Note is subject to the provisions of the Inter-Creditor Agreement and the Province Inter-Creditor Agreement for so long as the same remain in effect.

The Secured Notes are issuable as fully registered Secured Notes in denominations of U.S.$1,000 and integral multiples of U.S.$1,000 except with respect to additional Secured Notes issued in lieu of cash payments of interest, which additional Secured Notes may be issued in any denomination subject to the requirements of any Recognized Stock Exchange on which the Secured Notes are listed. The Secured Notes of any authorized denomination may be exchanged, as provided in the Indenture, for Secured Notes in equal aggregate principal amount.

This Secured Note and all other Secured Notes certified and issued under the Indenture rank pari passu with one another, in accordance to their tenor without discrimination, preference or priority.

Upon the giving of notice by the Trustee of the occurrence of an Event of Default in accordance with the Indenture, the Secured Notes will become immediately due and payable.

After the date hereof and prior to April 1, 2008, the Corporation may at its option redeem the Secured Notes, at any time, in whole or in part from time to time, upon not less than 30 days prior notice at a redemption price in lawful money of the United States equal to 110% of the principal amount of the Secured Notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to but not including the Redemption Date. On or after April 1, 2008 and prior to April 1, 2009, the Corporation may at its option redeem the Secured Notes, at any time, in whole or in part from time to time, upon not less than 30 days' prior notice at a redemption price in lawful money of the United States equal to 105% of the principal amount of the Secured Notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to but not including the Redemption Date. On or after April 1, 2009 and prior to April 1, 2010, the Corporation may at its option redeem the Secured Notes, at any time, in whole or in part from time to time, upon not less than 30 days' prior notice at a redemption price in lawful money of the United States equal to 102.5% of the principal amount of the Secured Notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to but not including the Redemption Date. On or after April 1, 2010, the Corporation may at its option redeem the Secured Notes, at any time, in whole or in part from time to time, upon not less than 30 days' prior notice at a redemption price in lawful money of the United States equal to the principal amount of the Secured Notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to but not including the Redemption Date.

The Corporation may purchase Secured Notes in the open market or by tender or private contract at any price that is agreed upon between the Corporation and the applicable Holders. Secured Notes purchased or redeemed by the Corporation will be cancelled and will not be reissued.

Any payments made by or on behalf of the Corporation under or with respect to the Secured Notes will be made free and clear of and without withholding or deduction for or on account of any Withholding Taxes, unless the Corporation or any other payor is required to withhold or deduct Withholding Taxes under Canadian law or by the interpretation or administration thereof. If the Corporation or any other payor is so required to withhold or deduct any amount for or on account of Withholding Taxes from any payment made under or with respect to the Secured Notes, the Corporation will or the Corporation will cause such payor to pay to each Holder such additional amounts ("Additional Amounts") as may be necessary so that the net amount received by each Holder after such withholding or deduction will not be less than the amount each such Holder would have received if such Withholding Taxes had not been withheld or deducted, provided that no Additional Amounts will be payable with respect to a payment made to a Holder which is subject to such Withholding Taxes by reason of its being connected with Canada or any province or territory thereof otherwise than by the mere holding of the Secured Notes or the receipt of payments thereunder. The Corporation will or will cause any such other payor to also (i) make such withholding or deduction and (ii) remit the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant authority in accordance with Applicable Law. In this paragraph, "Holder" means the Trustee, any holder of Secured Notes and any other person considered to be a beneficial owner of a Secured Note.

The Indenture contains provisions for the holding of meetings of Noteholders and rendering certain resolutions passed at such meetings by, or by instruments in writing signed by, the holders of the majority in aggregate principal amount of the Secured Notes outstanding binding upon all Noteholders, subject to the provisions of the Indenture.

This Secured Note may only be transferred upon compliance with the conditions precedent in the Indenture on the register kept at the above-mentioned principal office of the Trustee and at such other place or places, if any, or by such other registrar or registrars, if any, as the Corporation with the approval of the Trustee may designate, or both and may be exchanged at any such place by the Holder hereof or its executors or administrators or other legal representatives or its or their attorney duly appointed by an instrument in writing in form and execution satisfactory to the Trustee, and upon compliance with such reasonable requirements as the Trustee or registrar or both may prescribe, and such transfer will be duly noted thereon by the Trustee or other registrar. No transfer of any Secured Notes will be registered during the 15 Business Days preceding the day of the mailing of a notice of redemption of the Secured Notes or Regular Interest Record Date or Special Interest Record Date.

This Secured Note will not become obligatory for any purpose until it has been certified by the Trustee for the time being under the Indenture.

The Holder of this Secured Note, by receiving and holding same, hereby accepts and agrees to be bound by the terms, and to be entitled to the benefits, of this Secured Note and of the Indenture and confirms the appointment of the Trustee, the whole in accordance with and subject to the respective provisions thereof.

ARTICLE 6
EVENTS OF DEFAULT

6.1 Events of Default

(1) Subject to Section 6.1(2), if any one of the following events (each an "Event of Default") occurs and is continuing:

(a) Borrower fails to pay the Loan when due and such default continues for a period of five (5) days;

(b) Borrower fails to pay any interest due on the Loan when due and such default continues for a period of thirty (30) days;

(c) any material representation or warranty or certification made or deemed to be made by the Borrower in this Agreement shall prove to have been incorrect in any material respect when made or deemed to be made and which has not been cured within thirty (30) days;

(d) Borrower shall fail to perform, observe or comply with any of the covenants contained in Section 5.1 of this Agreement in a material way and such default continues for a period of thirty (30) days;

(e) Borrower or any Guarantor fails to meet any of its material obligations under the Pension Agreement and such default continues for a period of thirty (30) days;

(f) Borrower or any Guarantor breaches in a material way the Stelco Regulation and such breach continues for a period of thirty (30) days;

(g) Borrower or any Guarantor shall: (i) apply for or consent to the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, administrator, trustee, liquidator or other similar official for itself or for all or any material part of its Assets; (ii) generally not pay its debts as such debts become due or admit in writing its inability to pay its debts generally, or declare any general moratorium on its indebtedness; (iii)

make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or a proposal under the United States Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada), the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (Canada) or the Winding-up and Restructuring Act (Canada) or a similar Law of any applicable jurisdiction; (iv) institute any proceeding seeking to adjudicate it a bankrupt or insolvent, or seeking liquidation, dissolution, winding-up, reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, protection, relief or composition of it or its debts under any statute, rule or regulation relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, relief or protection of debtors; or (v) take any corporate action to authorize any of the actions described in the foregoing; or

(h) any proceeding against either the Borrower or any Guarantor has been commenced to: (i) adjudicate it a bankrupt or insolvent; (ii) result in the liquidation, dissolution, winding-up, reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, protection or relief or composition of it or its Debts under any statute, rule or regulation relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, relief or protection of debtors; or (iii) result in the appointment of a receiver, custodian, administrator, trustee, liquidator or other similar official for it or for all or any material part of its Assets, and, in each case, such proceeding remains undismissed or unstayed for a period of thirty (30) days or any of the actions sought in such proceeding shall occur; then the Province may declare the Loan and all other amounts payable under this Agreement to be immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or further notice of any kind, all of which are expressly waived by the Borrower. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if an Event of Default set out in Section 6.1(g) or (h) occurs (subject to Section 6.1(2), then without prejudice to the other rights of the Province as a result of any such event, without any notice or action of any kind by the Province, and without presentment, demand or protest, the Loan shall immediately become due and payable.

(2) Any event described in Section 6.1(1) with respect to a Guarantor is only an Event of Default if the Guarantor owns a material portion of the Assets of the Borrower on a consolidated basis.

6.2 Remedies Upon Default

(1) Upon a declaration that the Loan is immediately due and payable in cash pursuant to Section 6.1, the Province may, subject to the terms of the Province Intercreditor Agreement, commence such legal action or proceedings as it, in its sole discretion, deems expedient, all without any additional notice, presentation, demand, protest, notice of dishonour, entering into of possession of any property or assets, or any other action or notice, all of which are expressly waived by the Borrower.

(2) The failure to exercise the option to accelerate the maturity of this Agreement upon the happening of any one or more of the Events of Default shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the Province, subject to the terms of the Province Intercreditor Agreement, to exercise the same or any other option at that time or at any subsequent time with respect to such or any other Event of Default.

(3) The rights and remedies of the Borrower under this Agreement are cumulative and are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights or remedies.

(4) The acceptance by the Province of any payment under this Agreement which is less than payment in full of all amounts due and payable at the time of such payment shall not (a) constitute a waiver of or impair, reduce, release or extinguish any remedy of the Province or the rights of the Province to exercise the foregoing option or any other option granted to the Province in this Agreement or (b) impair, reduce, release, extinguish or adversely affect the obligations of the Borrower under this Agreement.

7.1 Amendments, etc.

No amendment or waiver of any provision of any of this Agreement, nor consent to any departure by the Borrower or any other Person from such provisions, is effective unless in writing and approved by the parties hereto. Any amendment, waiver or consent is effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which it was given.

7.2 Waiver

No failure on the part of the Province to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver of such right; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right under this Agreement preclude any other or further exercise of such right or the exercise of any other right.

7.3 Evidence of Funded Debt

The indebtedness of the Borrower shall be evidenced by the records of the Province which shall constitute prima facie evidence of such indebtedness, absent manifest error.

7.5 Interest on Accounts

Except as may be expressly provided otherwise in this Agreement, all amounts owed by the Borrower to the Province which are not paid when due (whether at stated maturity, on demand, by acceleration or otherwise) shall (to the extent permitted by Law) bear interest (both before and after default and judgment), from the date on which such amount is due until such amount is paid in full, payable on demand, at a rate per annum equal at all times to the sum of 8% per annum.

7.6 No Set-Off

The Borrower agrees that it shall have no rights of set-off or counterclaim with respect to the principal and interest on the Loan at any time when any payment of, or in respect of, such amounts to the Province is otherwise required to be paid under this Agreement.

7.7 Costs, Expenses and Indemnity

(1) The Borrower shall indemnify and hold the Province and its employees and agents (each an "Indemnified Person") harmless from, and shall pay to such Indemnified Person on demand any amounts required to compensate the Indemnified Person for, any claim or loss suffered by, imposed on, or asserted against, the Indemnified Person as a result of, connected with or arising out of (i) the preparation, execution and delivery of, preservation of rights under, enforcement of, or refinancing, renegotiation or restructuring of, this Agreement and any related amendment, waiver or consent, (ii) any advice of counsel as to the rights and duties of the Province with respect to the administration of the Loan, (iii) a default (whether or not constituting an Event of Default) by the Borrower hereunder, and (iv) any proceedings brought against the Indemnified Person due to its entering into of this Agreement.

(2) The provisions of this Section 7.7 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the repayment of the Loan. The Borrower acknowledges that neither its obligation to indemnify nor any actual indemnification by it of the Province or any other Indemnified Person in respect of such Person's losses for the legal fees and expenses shall in any way affect the confidentiality or privilege relating to any information communicated by such Person to its counsel.

7.8 Confidentiality

The Province and Stelco will not disclose to anyone or use for any purpose other than the purpose contemplated by this Agreement any confidential information obtained by either the Province or Stelco pursuant hereto and will hold such information in the strictest confidence.

7.9 Successors and Assigns

(1) This Agreement shall become effective when executed by the Borrower and the Province and after that time shall be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the Borrower and its respective successors and permitted assigns.

(2) The Borrower shall not have the right to assign its rights or obligations under this Agreement or any interest in this Agreement without the prior consent of the Province, which consent may be arbitrarily withheld.

(3) The Province may assign all or any part of its interest in the Loan to an assignee (an "Assignee") without any requirement for notice to, or consent of, the Borrower or any other Person provided that any assignee is not a competitor of Stelco or any of the Guarantors and provided that such Assignee shall agree to be bound by the Province Intercreditor Agreement and further provided that if the Borrower exercised its option under either Section 2.4 or 2.6 to deliver Common Shares, such assignment would not require the Borrower to qualify or register the issuance of such Common Shares for distribution in, or make any notice or other filing in, any jurisdiction other than the provinces or territories of Canada. Upon an assignment, the Assignee shall have the same rights and benefits and be subject to the same limitations under this Agreement as it would have if it were the Province, provided that no Assignee shall be entitled to receive any greater payment, on a cumulative basis, pursuant to Section 7.7 than the Province which granted the assignment would have been entitled to receive.

(4) The Borrower shall provide such certificates, acknowledgments and further assurances in respect of this Agreement and the Loan as the Province may reasonably require in connection with any assignment, pursuant to this Section 7.9, subject to the Borrower being satisfied with the form of such documents, acting reasonably.

(5) In the case of an assignment, the Province shall deliver to the Borrower and the Borrower shall execute an assignment and assumption agreement pursuant to which the Assignee agrees to be bound by all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, all as if the Assignee had been an original party, subject to the Borrower being satisfied with the form of such documents, acting reasonably.

(6) Any assignment pursuant to this Section 7.9 will not constitute a repayment by the Borrower to the assigning or granting holder of the Loan nor a new loan to the Borrower by the Province or by the Assignee and the parties acknowledge that the Borrower's obligations with respect to the Loan will continue and will not constitute new obligations.

7.10 Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein. (j) the date of crystallization of any floating charge contained in any of the Security Documents;

(k) the date of commencement of any Enforcement Action under any of the Security Documents;

(l) any other matter which may affect the relative priorities of any of the Obligations, any of the Security Documents and/or any of the Secured Parties Liens;

(m) the priorities otherwise accorded to any of the Security Documents or any of the Secured Parties Liens by any applicable laws or by equity; or

(n) any other circumstances that otherwise might constitute a defence available to, or a discharge of, any Credit Party in respect of any of the Obligations, or of any other Secured Party or any Credit Party, to the extent applicable, in respect of this Agreement.

2.4 Nature of ABL Obligations.

(1) Each of the Non-ABL Secured Parties acknowledges that the ABL Obligations represent debt that is revolving in nature and that the amount thereof that may be outstanding at any time or from time to time may be increased or reduced and subsequently re-borrowed, and that the terms of the ABL Obligations may be modified, extended or amended from time to time, and that the aggregate amount of the ABL Obligations may be increased by the ABL Secured Parties, in each event, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of Section 6.1 hereof. The Lien priorities provided in Section 2.2 shall not be altered or otherwise affected by any such amendment, modification, supplement, extension, repayment, re-borrowing or increase, or by any replacement, renewal, restatement or refinancing of the ABL Obligations or any portion thereof.

(2) The ABL Agent and each of the Secured Notes Trustees acknowledges that the Term Credit Obligations represent debt that is, revolving in nature and that the amount thereof that may be outstanding at any time or from time to time may be increased or reduced and subsequently re-borrowed, and that the terms of the Term Credit Obligations may be modified, extended or amended from time to time by the Term Credit Secured Parties, in each event, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of Section 6.1 hereof. The Lien priorities provided in Section 2.2 shall not be altered or otherwise affected by any such amendment, modification, supplement, extension, repayment or re-borrowing or by any replacement, renewal, restatement or refinancing of the Term Credit Obligations or any portion thereof.

2.5 Agreements Regarding Actions to Perfect Liens.

Each Secured Party hereby acknowledges that, to the extent that it holds, or a third party holds on its behalf, physical possession of Collateral pursuant to any of its Security Documents (in this Section 2.5, the "Possessing Secured Party"), such possession is also for the benefit of the other Secured Parties solely to the extent required to perfect their Liens in such Collateral. Nothing in the preceding sentence shall be construed to impose any duty on the Possessing Secured Party (or any third party acting on their behalf) with respect to such Collateral or provide any other Secured Party with any rights with respect to such Collateral beyond those specified in this Agreement, provided that if the Possessing Secured Party is not, or ceases to be, the Secured Party entitled to priority with respect to such Collateral pursuant to Section 2.2 hereof, the Possessing Secured Party shall, at the request of the Secured

Party entitled to priority to such Collateral pursuant to Section 2.2 (in this Section 2.5 the "Entitled Secured Party") and at the sole cost and expense of the Credit Parties (x) deliver to the Entitled Secured Party, the Collateral together with any necessary endorsements to the extent required by the applicable Credit Documents, or (y) deliver such Collateral as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct.

2.6 No New Liens.

(1) So long as the ABL Obligations Payment Date has not occurred, the parties hereto agree that, if any Term Credit Secured Party or Secured Notes Secured Party shall acquire or hold any Lien on any assets of any Credit Party constituting ABL Priority Collateral and securing any Term Credit Obligation or Secured Notes Obligation, as the case may be, and such assets are not also subject to the first-priority Lien of the ABL Secured Parties in the ABL Priority Collateral under the ABL Security Documents, then the Term Agent and/or the Secured Notes Trustees, as applicable, upon demand by the ABL Agent, will, without the need for any further consent of any other Term Credit Secured Party or Secured Notes Secured Party, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other Term Credit Document or Secured Notes Credit Document, either (i) release such Lien, or (ii) cause the applicable Credit Party to forthwith provide such Lien over such ABL Priority Collateral to the ABL Agent subject to the priorities of this Agreement (in which case the Term Agent and/or the Secured Notes Trustees, as applicable, may retain a Term Credit Lien or Secured Notes Lien, as applicable, on such assets subject to the terms hereof). To the extent that the foregoing provisions are not complied with for any reason, without limiting any other rights and remedies available to the ABL Agent, the Term Agent and each of the Secured Notes Trustees agrees that any amounts received or distributed by it pursuant to or as a result of Liens granted in contravention of this Section 2.6(1) shall be subject to Section 3.4 and Section 4.1(1).

(2) Provided the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred but so long as the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has not occurred, the parties hereto agree that if any Secured Notes Secured Party shall acquire or hold any Lien on any assets of any Credit Party constituting ABL Priority Collateral and securing any Secured Notes Obligation and such assets are not also subject to the Lien of the Term Credit Secured Parties in the ABL Priority Collateral under the Term Credit Documents, then the Secured Notes Trustees upon demand by the Term Agent, will without the need for any further consent of any other Secured Notes Secured Party, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other Secured Notes Credit Document, either (i) release such Lien, or (ii) cause the applicable Credit Party to forthwith provide such Lien over such ABL Priority Collateral to the Term Agent subject to the priorities of this Agreement (in which case the Secured Notes Trustees may retain a Secured Notes Lien on such assets subject to the terms hereof). To the extent that the foregoing provisions are not complied with for any reason, without limiting any other rights and remedies available to the Term Agent, each of the Secured Notes Trustees agrees that any amounts received or distributed by it pursuant to or as a result of Liens granted in contravention of this Section 2.6(2) shall be subject to Section 3.4 and Section 4.1(1).

(3) So long as the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has not occurred, the parties hereto agree that if any ABL Secured Party or Secured Notes Secured Party shall acquire or hold any Lien on any assets of any Credit Party constituting Term Priority Collateral and securing any ABL Obligation or Secured Notes Obligation, as the case may be, and such assets are not also subject to the first-priority Lien of the Term Credit Secured Parties in the Term Priority Collateral under the Term Credit Documents, then the ABL Agent and/or the Secured Notes Trustees, as applicable, upon demand by the Term Agent, will without the need for any further consent of any other ABL Secured Party or Secured Notes Secured Party, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other ABL Credit Document or Secured Notes Credit Document, either (i) release such Lien, or (ii) cause the applicable Credit Party to forthwith provide such Lien over such Term Priority Collateral to the Term Agent subject to the priorities of this Agreement (in which case the ABL Agent and/or the Secured Notes Trustees, as applicable, may retain an ABL Lien or Secured Notes Lien, as applicable, on such assets subject to the terms hereof). To the extent that the foregoing provisions are not complied with for any reason, without limiting any other rights and remedies available to the Term Agent, the ABL Agent and each of the Secured Notes Trustees agrees that any amounts received or distributed by it pursuant to or as a result of Liens granted in contravention of this Section 2.6(3) shall be subject to Section 3.4 and Section 4.1(2).

(4) Provided the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred but so long as the ABL Obligations Payment Date has not occurred, the parties hereto agree that, if any Secured Notes Secured Party shall acquire or hold any Lien on any assets of any Credit Party constituting Term Priority Collateral and securing any Secured Notes Obligation and such assets are not also subject to the Lien of the ABL Secured Parties in the Term Priority Collateral under the ABL Credit Documents, then each of the Secured Notes Trustees, upon demand by the ABL Agent, will without the need for any further consent of any other Secured Notes Secured Party, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other Secured Notes Credit Document, either (i) release such Lien, or (ii) cause the applicable Credit Party to forthwith provide such Lien over the Term Priority Collateral to the ABL Agent subject to the priorities of this Agreement (in which case the Secured Notes Trustees may retain a Secured Notes Lien on such assets subject to the terms hereof). To the extent that the foregoing provisions are not complied with for any reason, without limiting any other rights and remedies available to the Secured Notes Trustees, the ABL Agent agrees that any amounts received or distributed by it pursuant to or as a result of Liens granted in contravention of this Section 2.6(4) shall be subject to Section 3.4 and Section 4.1(2).

2.7 Accounts and Cash.

(1) The parties acknowledge that from time to time, cash proceeds of Term Priority Collateral may be deposited into accounts which, subject to this Section 2.7, are included in ABL Priority Collateral and thereby become commingled with proceeds of ABL Priority Collateral. The Term Agent or, if the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, the Secured Notes Trustees, shall be entitled to recover such proceeds of Term Priority Collateral:

(a) prior to any Enforcement Action by the ABL Agent or the commencement of any Insolvency Proceeding, from a Credit Party or the ABL Agent if, within five (5) Business Days of such cash proceeds being deposited into the account, the ABL Agent is provided with written notice of the deposit providing reasonable particulars thereof; or

(b) after any Enforcement Action by the ABL Agent or the commencement of any Insolvency Proceeding, from a Credit Party or the ABL Agent if, within thirty (30) days of such cash proceeds being deposited into the account, the ABL Agent is provided with written notice of the deposit providing reasonable particulars thereof.

(2) In addition and for greater certainty, (i) Term Credit Permitted Payments and Secured Notes Permitted Payments made in accordance with Section 3.3 to any Non-ABL Secured Party shall not be included in ABL Priority Collateral, and (ii) any proceeds of Term Priority Collateral so deposited into accounts as aforesaid are subject to the provisions of Sections 3.4 and 4.1(2).

SECTION 3 ENFORCEMENT RIGHTS RESPECTING THE COLLATERAL

3.1 Exclusive Enforcement against the Collateral.

(1) Until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, whether or not an Insolvency Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Credit Party, the ABL Agent shall, subject to the remainder of this paragraph, have the exclusive right (i) to take and continue any Enforcement Action with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral in such order and manner as the ABL Agent may determine in its sole discretion, and (ii) to refrain from taking or continuing any such Enforcement Action, in each case, without any consultation with or consent of any other Secured Party, but subject to the proviso set forth in Section 5.1(1). If a Term Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Term Agent shall have the right to issue a notice to the ABL Agent (the "ABL Priority Collateral Enforcement Request Notice") requesting the ABL Agent to take and continue an Enforcement Action within a period of 90 days from the receipt of the ABL Priority Collateral Enforcement Request Notice by the ABL Agent, failing which, subject to the application of proceeds required by Section 4.1(1), the Term Agent may take and continue an Enforcement Action with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral in such order and manner as it may so determine in its sole discretion, provided there shall have occurred and be continuing a Term Credit Event of Default (which has not been waived in accordance with the Term Credit Documents). If a Secured Notes Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Secured Notes Trustees shall have the right to issue a notice to the ABL Agent and the Term Agent (the "Secured Notes ABL Priority Collateral Enforcement Request Notice") requesting the ABL Agent and/or the Term Agent to take and continue an Enforcement Action within a period of 210 days from receipt of the Secured Notes ABL Priority Collateral Enforcement Request Notice by the ABL Agent and the Term Agent, failing which, subject to the application of proceeds required by Section 4.1(1), the Secured Notes Trustees may take and continue an Enforcement Action with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral in such order and manner as they may so determine in their sole discretion, provided there shall have occurred and be continuing a Secured Notes Event of Default (which has not been waived in accordance with the Secured Notes Credit Documents).

(2) Provided the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred and until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, whether or not an Insolvency Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Credit Party, the Term Agent shall have the exclusive right (i) to take and continue any Enforcement Action with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral in such order and manner as the Term Agent may determine in its sole discretion, and (ii) to refrain from taking or continuing any such Enforcement Action, in each case, without any consultation with or consent of any Secured Notes Secured Party, but subject to the proviso set forth in Section 5.1(2). If a Secured Notes Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Secured Notes Trustees shall have the right to issue a Secured Notes ABL Priority Collateral Enforcement Request Notice (to the Term Agent only) requesting the Term

Agent to take and continue an Enforcement Action within a period of 210 days from receipt of the Secured Notes Term Priority Collateral Enforcement Request Notice by the Term Agent, failing which, subject to the application of proceeds required by Section 4.1(1) , the Secured Notes Trustees may take and continue an Enforcement Action with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral in such order and manner as they may so determine in their sole discretion, provided there shall have occurred and be continuing a Secured Notes Event of Default (which has not been waived in accordance with the Secured Notes Credit Documents).

(3) Until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, whether or not an Insolvency Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Credit Party, the Term Agent shall, subject to the remainder of this paragraph, have the exclusive right (i) to take and continue any Enforcement Action with respect to the Term Priority Collateral in such order and manner as the Term Agent may determine in its sole discretion, and (ii) to refrain from taking or continuing any such Enforcement Action, in each case, without any consultation with or consent of any other Secured Party, but subject to the proviso set forth in Section 5.1(2). If an ABL Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the ABL Agent shall have the right to issue a notice to the Term Agent (the "Term Priority Collateral Enforcement Request Notice") requesting the Term Agent to take and continue an Enforcement Action within a period of 30 days from receipt of the Term Priority Collateral Enforcement Request Notice by the Term Agent, failing which, subject to the application of proceeds required by Section 4.1(2), the ABL Agent may, subject to the next sentence, take and continue an Enforcement Action with respect to the Term Priority Collateral in such order and manner as it may so determine in its sole discretion, provided there shall have occurred and be continuing an ABL Event of Default (which has not been waived in accordance with the ABL Credit Documents). If a Secured Notes Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Secured Notes Trustees shall have the right to issue a notice to the Term Agent and the ABL Agent (the "Secured Notes Term Priority Collateral Enforcement Request Notice") requesting the Term Agent and/or the ABL Agent to take and continue an Enforcement Action within a period of 210 days from receipt of the Secured Notes Term Priority Collateral Enforcement Request Notice by the Term Agent and the ABL Agent, failing which, and subject to the application of proceeds required by Section 4.1(2), the Secured Notes Trustees may take and continue an Enforcement Action with respect to the Term Priority Collateral in such order and manner as they may so determine in their sole discretion, provided there shall have occurred and be continuing a Secured Notes Event of Default (which has not been waived in accordance with the Secured Notes Credit Documents).

(4) Provided the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred and until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, whether or not an Insolvency Proceeding has been commenced by or against any Credit Party, the ABL Agent shall, subject to the next sentence, have the exclusive right (i) to take and continue any Enforcement Action with respect to the Term Priority Collateral in such order and manner as the ABL Agent may determine in its sole discretion, and (ii) to refrain from taking or continuing any such Enforcement Action, in each case, without any consultation with or consent of any Secured Notes Secured Party, but subject to the proviso set forth in Section 5.1(1). If a Secured Notes Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Secured Notes Trustees shall have the right to issue a Secured Notes Term Priority Collateral Enforcement Request Notice requesting the ABL Agent to take and continue an Enforcement Action within a period of 210 days from receipt of the Secured Notes Term Priority Collateral Enforcement Request Notice by the ABL Agent, failing which and subject to the application of proceeds required by Section 4.1(2), the Secured Notes Trustees may take and continue an Enforcement Action with respect to the Term Priority Collateral in such order and manner as they may so determine in their sole discretion, provided there shall have occurred and be continuing a Secured Notes Event of Default (which has not been waived in accordance with the Secured Notes Credit Documents).

(5) For greater certainty, in all cases in this Section 3.1, proceeds of Collateral shall be distributed in accordance with Section 4.1 and the priorities set forth in Section 2.2 shall apply.

3.2 Notices of Default.

(1) Each of the ABL Agent, the Term Agent and the Secured Notes Trustees shall give each other prompt written notice of any notice of any Default or Event of Default delivered by it to, or received from, any Credit Party no later than three (3) Business Days after receiving or giving same; provided, however, that no adverse consequence (including no liability) to any Secured Party shall result from any inadvertent failure to provide any notice contemplated by this Section 3.2(1).

(2) Each of the ABL Agent, the Term Agent and the Secured Notes Trustees shall give each other prior written notice of its intention to commence any Enforcement Action. For greater certainty, no Enforcement Action may be taken or commenced under Section 3.1(1) on any ABL Priority Collateral by any ABL Secured Party unless the ABL Agent provides the Term Agent and the Secured Notes Trustees with the same notice of commencement of such Enforcement Action as has been provided to the Borrower. For greater certainty, no Enforcement Action may be taken or commenced under Section

3.1(3) on any Term Priority Collateral by any Term Credit Secured Party unless notice of such Enforcement Action shall have been given to the ABL Agent and the Secured Notes Trustees prior to the earlier of (i) five (5) days prior to the issuance of a notice of intention to enforce under Section 244 of the Bankruptcy Act, or (ii) fifteen (15) days prior to the commencement of any other Enforcement Action. No adverse consequences (including no liability) to any Secured Party shall result from any inadvertent failure to provide any notice contemplated by this Section 3.2(2).

3.3 Permitted Payments.

(1) Subject to Section 3.3(2) and except as otherwise provided in accordance with Sections 4.1(2) and 4.1(3), at any time prior to the occurrence of the ABL Obligations Payment Date, no payments shall be made by the Borrower or any other Credit Party or received by any Secured Notes Secured Party on account of, or in respect of, the Secured Notes Obligations (as principal, interest, fees, gross-up, indemnification, expense reimbursement or otherwise), except for Secured Notes Permitted Payments.

(2) After notice of an ABL Default or ABL Event of Default has been given pursuant to Section 3.2(1) above and has not been withdrawn, and until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, no Secured Notes Permitted Payments or any other direct or indirect payment (whether in cash, property, securities or otherwise or by way of set-off arising by contract, at law, in equity or otherwise or in any other manner) other than Secured Notes Capitalized Interest Payments shall be made by the Borrower or such other Credit Party or received by any Secured Notes Secured Party on account of, or in respect of, any Secured Notes Obligations owed to it. For greater certainty and notwithstanding the foregoing, no such Secured Notes Permitted Payment or any other such direct or indirect payment other than Secured Notes Capitalized Interest Payments shall be permitted in respect of the Secured Notes Obligations if the ABL Default or ABL Event of Default has been so waived but is following the occurrence of an Insolvency Proceeding which is continuing, in which event no such payments shall be permitted until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred or such Insolvency Proceeding has terminated.

(3) (a) Subject to Section 3.3(3)(b) and except as otherwise provided in accordance with Sections 4.1(2) and 4.1(3), at any time prior to the occurrence of the ABL Obligations Payment Date, no payments shall be made by the Borrower or any other Credit Party or received by any Term Credit Secured Party on account of, or in respect of, the Term Credit Obligations (as principal, interest, fees, gross-up, indemnification, expense reimbursement or otherwise), except for Term Credit Permitted Payments.

(b) No Term Credit Permitted Payments or any other direct or indirect payment (whether in cash, property, securities or otherwise or by way of set-off arising by contract, at law, in equity or otherwise or in any other manner) other than Term Credit Capitalized Interest Payments shall be made by the Borrower or such other Credit Party or received by any Term Credit Secured Party on account of, or in respect of, any Term Credit Obligations during any Term Credit Blockage Period.

(c) The Term Agent acknowledges that nothing in this Agreement shall in any way restrict or limit the right of the ABL Secured Parties to terminate their commitments or reduce the amount of their commitments under the ABL Credit Agreement or to otherwise suspend the revolving line of credit under the ABL Credit Agreement.

(4) Provided the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, after notice of a Term Default or Term Event of Default has been given pursuant to Section 3.2(1) above and has not been withdrawn and until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, no Post-ABL Permitted Payments or any other direct or indirect payment (whether in cash, property, securities or otherwise or by way of set-off arising by contract, at law, in equity or otherwise or in any other manner) other than Secured Notes Capitalized Interest Payments, shall be made by the Borrower or such other Credit Party or received by any Secured Notes Secured Party on account of, or in respect of, any Secured Notes Obligations.

(5) For greater certainty, other than as provided in accordance with Sections 4.1(2) and 4.1(3) in respect of Dispositions of Term Priority Collateral, there shall be no restrictions on the ability of any Credit Party to make any payments at any time to the ABL Secured Parties (or on the ability of any ABL Secured Party to receive any such payment) pursuant to the ABL Credit Documents.

(6) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, there shall be no restrictions on the ability of any Credit Party to pay over, and of the Term Agent to receive, (i) proceeds of Dispositions of Term Priority Collateral in accordance with Sections 4.1(2) and 4.1(3), and to apply such proceeds to the Term Credit Obligations, (ii) any repayment of the Term Credit Obligations from advances under the Term Credit Agreement, or (iii) proceeds, dividends, distributions or any other payments from any plan of compromise, arrangement and/or reorganization implemented pursuant to an Insolvency Proceeding, and to apply such proceeds to the Term Credit Obligations.

(7) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, there shall be no restrictions on the ability of any Credit Party to pay over, and of the Secured Notes Trustees to receive, proceeds of Dispositions of Term Priority Collateral in accordance with Sections 4.1(2) and 4.1(3), and to apply such proceeds to the Secured Notes Obligations.

3.4 Payments Held in Trust.

If any payment is made to or received by any Secured Party in contravention of this Agreement and which is to have been made to any other Secured Party, whether or not an Insolvency Proceeding shall have occurred and be continuing, such receiving Secured Party will hold such payment in trust for the Secured Party otherwise entitled to receive such payment and will forthwith pay such payment to the ABL Agent, Term Agent or Secured Notes Trustees, as applicable, for application against its Obligations of the Credit Parties or as otherwise required by this Agreement. Each Secured Party agrees that if all or any part of any payment made on account of any Obligations of any other Secured Party is recovered from such other Secured Party as a fraudulent preference, fraudulent conveyance, settlement or similar payment under any bankruptcy, insolvency or other law, any payment or distribution received by such first Secured Party in respect of its respective Obligations will be deemed to have been received by it in trust for such other Secured Party and will promptly be paid over to the ABL Agent, Term Agent or Secured Notes Trustees, as applicable.

3.5 Remedies Standstill.

(1) Any provision in any Credit Document to the contrary notwithstanding, but subject to the provisions of Section 3.1 and Section 5.1 of this Agreement, until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, none of the Non-ABL Secured Parties shall:

(a) take or cause to be taken any action, the purpose or effect of which is to make any Lien pari passu with, or to give any Person any preference or priority relative to, the ABL Liens on the ABL Priority Collateral;

(b) seek or support any sale of any Credit Party or any division of any Credit Party as a going concern by any Receiver or other court officer or pursuant to any court-supervised process on terms that do not provide for the repayment in full of all ABL Obligations; or

(c) where an Insolvency Proceeding in respect of one or more Credit Parties (whether initiated by such Credit Party, a Secured Party or otherwise) has been in existence for at least six months or which otherwise has resulted in any deterioration of the "Borrowing Base" (as defined in the ABL Credit Documents) by ten percent (10%), oppose any application brought by any ABL Secured Party to (i) appoint a Receiver on behalf of the Secured Parties, or (ii) have a Receiver appointed to supervise a going concern sale of a Credit Party or certain of its assets.

(2) Any provision in any Credit Document to the contrary notwithstanding, but subject to the provisions of Section 3.1 and Section 5.1 of this Agreement, until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, none of the Secured Notes Secured Parties shall:

(a) take or cause to be taken any action, the purpose or effect of which is to make any Lien pari passu with, or to give any Person any preference or priority relative to, the Term Credit Liens on the Term Priority Collateral; or

(b) seek or support any sale of any Credit Party or any division of any Credit Party as a going concern by any Receiver or other court officer or pursuant to any court-supervised process on terms that do not provide for the repayment in full of all Term Credit Obligations.

3.6 Judgment Creditors.

In the event that any Secured Party becomes a judgment lien creditor in respect of any Collateral, such judgment lien shall be subject to the same terms of this Agreement for all purposes as the other Liens in respect of such Collateral securing its Obligations, subject to this Agreement.

3.7 Cooperation.

(1) Until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, the Term Agent and each of the Secured Notes Trustees agrees that each of them shall take such actions, at the cost of the ABL Agent, as the ABL Agent shall reasonably request in connection with the exercise by the ABL Agent of its rights in respect of the ABL Priority Collateral, subject to and as provided herein.

(2) Provided the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred and until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, each of the Secured Notes Trustees agrees that it shall take such actions, at the cost of the Term Agent, as the Term Agent shall reasonably request in connection with the exercise by the Term Agent of its rights in respect of the ABL Priority Collateral, subject to and as provided herein.

(3) Until the Term Obligations Payment Date has occurred, the ABL Agent and each of the Secured Notes Trustees agrees that it shall take such actions, at the cost of the Term Agent, as the Term Agent shall reasonably request in connection with the exercise by the Term Agent of its rights in respect of the Term Priority Collateral, subject to and as provided herein.

(4) Provided the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred and until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, each of the Secured Notes Trustees agrees that it shall take such actions, at the cost of the ABL Agent, as the ABL Agent shall reasonably request in connection with the exercise by the ABL Agent of its rights in respect of the Term Priority Collateral, subject to and as provided herein.

(5) Until the Secured Notes Obligations Payment Date has occurred, the ABL Agent (until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred) and the Term Agent (until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred) agrees that each of them shall take such actions, at the cost of the holders of Secured Notes, as the Secured Notes Trustees shall reasonably request in connection with the exercise by the Secured Notes Trustees of their rights in respect of the ABL Priority Collateral and the Term Priority Collateral, subject to and as provided herein.

3.8 No Additional Rights for the Credit Parties hereunder.

Except as provided in Section 3.9, if any Secured Party shall enforce its rights or remedies in violation of the terms of this Agreement, the Credit Parties shall not be entitled to use such violation as a defence to any action by any such Secured Party or any other Secured Party, nor to assert such violation as a counterclaim or basis for set-off or recoupment against any such Secured Party.

3.9 Actions Upon Breach.

(1) Until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, if any Term Credit Secured Party or Secured Notes Secured Party, contrary to this Agreement, commences or participates in any action or proceeding against any Credit Party with respect to any ABL Priority Collateral, or against the ABL Priority Collateral, the relevant Credit Party may, in respect of such ABL Priority Collateral, interpose as a defence the making of this Agreement, and the ABL Agent may, in respect of such ABL Priority Collateral, intervene and interpose such defence in its name or in the name of the relevant Credit Party. Until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, should any Term Credit Secured Party or Secured Notes Secured Party, contrary to this Agreement, in any way take, attempt to or threaten to take any action with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral (including, without limitation, any attempt to realize upon or enforce any remedy with respect to this Agreement), or fail to take any action required by this Agreement, the ABL Agent (in its own name or in the name of the relevant Credit Party) may obtain relief against such Secured Party by injunction, specific performance and/or other appropriate equitable relief, it being understood and agreed by the Term Agent and the Secured Notes Trustees that (i) the ABL Agent's damages from its actions may at that time be difficult to ascertain and may be irreparable and may not be adequately compensated in damages, and (ii) each Term Credit Secured Party and Secured Notes Secured Party waives any defence that the Credit Parties and/or the ABL Agent cannot demonstrate damage and/or be made whole by the awarding of damages; provided, however, that in such circumstances, in no event shall any Term Credit Secured Party or Secured Notes Secured Party be liable for any indirect, special, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever, including, but not limited to, lost profits, even if it has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

(2) Provided the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred and until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, if any Secured Notes Secured Party, contrary to this Agreement, commences or participates in any action or proceeding against any Credit Party with respect to any ABL Priority Collateral, or against the ABL Priority Collateral, the relevant Credit Party may, in respect of such ABL Priority Collateral, interpose as a defence the making of this Agreement, and the Term Agent may, in respect of such ABL Priority Collateral, intervene and interpose such defence in its name or in the name of the relevant Credit Party. Provided the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred and until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, should any Secured Notes Secured Party, contrary to this Agreement, in any way take, attempt to or threaten to take any action with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral (including, without limitation, any attempt to realize upon or enforce any remedy with respect to this Agreement), or fail to take any action required by this Agreement, the Term Agent (in its own name or in the name of the relevant Credit Party) may obtain relief against such Secured Notes Secured Party by injunction, specific performance and/or other appropriate equitable relief, it being understood and agreed by the Secured Notes Trustees that (i) the Term Agent's damages from its actions may at that time be difficult to ascertain and may be irreparable and may not be adequately compensated in damages, and (ii) each Secured Notes Secured Party waives any defence that the Credit Parties and/or the Term Agent cannot demonstrate damage and/or be made whole by the awarding of damages; provided, however, that in such circumstances, in no event shall any Secured Notes Secured Party be liable for any indirect, special, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever, including, but not limited to, lost profits, even if it has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

(3) Until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, if any ABL Secured Party or Secured Notes Secured Party, contrary to this Agreement, commences or participates in any action or proceeding against any Credit Party with respect to any Term Priority Collateral, or against the Term Priority Collateral, the relevant Credit Party may, in respect of such Term Priority Collateral, interpose as a defence the making of this Agreement, and the Term Agent may, in respect of such Term Priority Collateral, intervene and interpose such defence in its name or in the name of the relevant Credit Party. Until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, should any ABL Secured Party or Secured Notes Secured Party, contrary to this Agreement, in any way take, attempt to or threaten to take any action with respect to the Term Priority Collateral (including, without limitation, any attempt to realize upon or enforce any remedy with respect to this Agreement), or fail to take any action required by this Agreement, the Term Agent (in its own name or in the name of the relevant Credit Party) may obtain relief against such Secured Party by injunction, specific performance and/or other appropriate equitable relief, it being understood and agreed by the ABL Agent and the Secured Notes Trustees that (i) the Term Agent's damages from its actions may at that time be difficult to ascertain and may be irreparable and may not be adequately compensated in damages, and (ii) each ABL Secured Party and Secured Notes Secured Party waives any defence that the Credit Parties and/or the Term Agent cannot demonstrate damage and/or be made whole by the awarding of damages; provided, however, that in such circumstances, in no event shall any ABL Secured Party or Secured Notes Secured Party be liable for any indirect, special, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever, including, but not limited to, lost profits, even if it has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

(4) Provided the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred and until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, if any Secured Notes Secured Party, contrary to this Agreement, commences or participates in any action or proceeding against any Credit Party with respect to any Term Priority Collateral, or against the Term Priority Collateral, the relevant Credit Party may, in respect of such Term Priority Collateral, interpose as a defence the making of this Agreement, and the ABL Agent may, in respect of such Term Priority Collateral, intervene and interpose such defence in its name or in the name of the relevant Credit Party. Provided the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred and until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, should any Secured Notes Secured Party, contrary to this Agreement, in any way take, attempt to or threaten to take any action with respect to the Term Priority Collateral (including, without limitation, any attempt to realize upon or enforce any remedy with respect to this Agreement), or fail to take any action required by this Agreement, the ABL Agent (in its own name or in the name of the relevant Credit Party) may obtain relief against such Secured Notes Secured Party by injunction, specific performance and/or other appropriate equitable relief, it being understood and agreed by each of the Secured Notes Trustees that (i) the damages of the ABL Agent from its actions may at that time be difficult to ascertain and may be irreparable and may not be adequately compensated in damages, and (ii) each Secured Notes Secured Party waives any defence that the Credit Parties and/or the ABL Agent cannot demonstrate damage and/or be made whole by the awarding of damages; provided, however, that in such circumstances, in no event shall any Secured Notes Secured Party be liable for any indirect, special, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever, including, but not limited to, lost profits, even if it has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

(5) Until the Secured Notes Obligations Payment Date has occurred, if any ABL Secured Party (until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred) and/or any Term Credit Secured Party (until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred), contrary to this Agreement, commences or participates in any action or proceeding against any Credit Party with respect to any ABL Priority Collateral or any Term Priority Collateral, or against the ABL Priority Collateral or the Term Priority Collateral, the relevant Credit Party may, in respect of such ABL Priority Collateral or Term Priority Collateral, as the case may be, interpose as a defence the making of this Agreement, and the Secured Notes Trustees may, in respect of such ABL Priority Collateral or Term Priority Collateral, as the case may be, intervene and interpose such defence in its name or in the name of the relevant Credit Party. Until the Secured Notes Obligations Payment Date has occurred, if any ABL Secured Party (until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred) and/or any Term Credit Secured Party (until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred) should, contrary to this Agreement, in any way take, attempt to or threaten to take any action with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral or Term Priority Collateral, as the case may be, (including, without limitation, any attempt to realize upon or enforce any remedy with respect to this Agreement), or fail to take any action required by this Agreement, the Secured Notes Trustees (in their own names or in the name of the relevant Credit Party) may obtain relief against such ABL Secured Party or Term Credit Secured Party, as the case may be, by injunction, specific performance and/or other appropriate equitable relief, it being understood and agreed by each of the ABL Agent and the Term Agent that (i) the damages of the Secured Notes Trustees from their actions may at that time be difficult to ascertain and may be irreparable and may not be adequately compensated in damages, and (ii) each ABL Secured Party and Term Credit Secured Party waives any defence that the Credit Parties and/or the Secured Notes Trustees cannot demonstrate damage and/or be made whole by the awarding of damages; provided, however, that in such circumstances, in no event shall any ABL Secured Party or Term Credit Secured Party be liable for any indirect, special, punitive or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever, including, but not limited to, lost profits, even if it has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

3.10 Liquidation Period.

The ABL Agent and/or any Receiver may, upon receipt by the Term Agent and the Secured Notes Trustees of prior written notice from the ABL Agent given in accordance with Section 3.2 in connection with an Enforcement Action (such notice to be received by such Persons no later than fifteen (15) days after the Commencement Date, as hereinafter defined), and subject to the rights of applicable landlords, occupy and use the Term Priority Collateral, for the purposes set out in Section 3.11, consisting of or located within (i) each Credit Party's manufacturing facilities for up to one hundred and twenty (120) days from the Commencement Date (the "Manufacturing Liquidation Period"), and (ii) each Credit Party's warehouse, distribution and office facilities for up to one hundred and fifty (150) days from the Commencement Date (the "Warehouse Liquidation Period", and together with the Manufacturing Liquidation Period, the "Liquidation Period") following the earliest to occur of: (i) the commencement of an Enforcement Action by the ABL Agent in respect of the ABL Priority Collateral; (ii) receipt by the ABL Agent of an enforcement notice from any other Secured Party; and (iii) the expiration of any period during which the ABL Agent and/or a Receiver is stayed or enjoined or precluded by statute or otherwise (through no fault of the ABL Agent or any Receiver) from taking one or more Enforcement Actions in respect of the ABL Priority Collateral (the date on which the earliest of an event described in clauses (i), (ii) or (iii) inclusive above occurs being the "Commencement Date"). For greater certainty, the Manufacturing Liquidation Period and the Warehouse Liquidation Period shall run concurrently and under no circumstance shall any Liquidation Period exceed a period of one hundred and fifty (150) days from the Commencement Date. During the applicable term of the Liquidation Period, the ABL Agent or any Receiver, as applicable, may use and occupy the Term Priority Collateral without force or process of law and without any obligation to pay rents, royalties or other fees to any other Secured Party or any Credit Party, except for payment or reimbursement of rents, costs and expenses as set forth in Section 3.14. During the Liquidation Period, the ABL Agent or any Receiver, as applicable, may make copies of all books, records, books of account, computer disks, printouts and tapes and other computer-generated information relating to ABL Priority Collateral. The license or lease to use and occupy the Term Priority Collateral during the Liquidation Period shall apply to and for the benefit of the ABL Agent or any Receiver, as applicable, and any agents, brokers, appraisers, auctioneers or liquidators retained by the ABL Agent or such Receiver.

3.11 Use of Term Priority Collateral.

During the Manufacturing Liquidation Period, the ABL Agent or any Receiver, as applicable, shall have access to and use and occupancy of each Credit Party's manufacturing facilities and other Term Priority Collateral located therein to the extent necessary to convert raw materials, to complete the manufacturing of work in process, and to package, ship, sell, liquidate or otherwise dispose of Inventory. During the Liquidation Period, the ABL Agent or any Receiver, as applicable, shall have access to and use and occupancy of (i) each Credit Party's warehouse and distribution facilities and other Term Priority Collateral located therein (and all material handling equipment comprising Term Priority Collateral whether or not located therein) and in the offices to the extent necessary to package, ship, sell, liquidate or otherwise dispose of Inventory, and (ii) the offices of each Credit Party and the Term Priority Collateral located therein, including computers and computer programs and all other office equipment and supplies, to the extent necessary to collect, sell or otherwise dispose of Accounts.

3.12 Rights During Liquidation Period.

(1) During the Liquidation Period, the ABL Agent's access, use and occupancy of the manufacturing facilities, warehouse and distribution facilities, offices and Term Priority Collateral shall not be exclusive and provided that none of the following interfere in any material respect in connection with the exercise by the ABL Agent or any Receiver of the rights afforded by Sections 3.10 and 3.11, including the liquidation, sale or other disposition of the ABL Priority Collateral by the ABL Agent or any Receiver: (i) the Term Agent or the Secured Notes Trustees, as the case may be, and its or their Receiver shall have access to the manufacturing, warehouse, distribution and office facilities, offices and Term Priority Collateral to preserve, protect, appraise and evaluate the Term Priority Collateral, to show the Term Priority Collateral to potential purchasers, to offer the Term Priority Collateral for sale, to operate the business of the Credit Parties, or any part thereof, and/or to otherwise use the Term Priority Collateral; and (ii) the Term Agent or the Secured Notes Trustees, as the case may be, and its or their Receiver may sell some or all of the Term Priority Collateral, provided to the extent such Term Priority Collateral continues to be required for the purposes set out in Section 3.11 that the purchasers of such Term Priority Collateral shall have expressly agreed in writing to be bound by the Term Agent's or Secured Notes

Trustees' obligations, as the case may be, under this Agreement with respect to the purchased Term Priority Collateral until the expiration of the Liquidation Period and that to the extent so required as aforesaid, the items purchased shall remain in place and shall remain subject to the rights of use and occupancy of the ABL Agent and its Receiver, all in accordance with this Agreement.

(2) For greater certainty, the rights of the Secured Notes Trustees as provided for in this Section 3.12 shall only apply for the benefit if the Secured Notes Trustees to the extent they are taking and continuing an Enforcement Action after the issuance of a Secured Notes Term Priority Collateral Enforcement Request Notice under Section 3.1(3) or (4), as the case may be.

3.13 Availability and Delivery of Books, Records.

During the Liquidation Period, the Term Agent or the Secured Notes Trustees, as the case may be, (to the extent that such Person or Persons is or are in a position to do so) and the Credit Parties shall make available to the ABL Agent and any Receiver at no cost to the ABL Agent or such Receiver (other than for any reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the Term Agent or the Secured Notes Trustees, as the case may be, in connection therewith) copies of all books, records, books of account, computer disks, printouts, tapes and other computer-prepared information and other information with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral, and the Term Agent shall deliver to the ABL Agent or the Receiver, as applicable at no cost to the ABL Agent or such Receiver (other than for any reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the Term Agent or the Secured Notes Trustees, as the case may be, in connection therewith) copies of all ledgers and documents, if any, held by it and related to the ABL Priority Collateral.

3.14 Expenses During Liquidation Period.

If the ABL Agent or its Receiver elects to use some or all of the Term Priority Collateral as set forth herein, to the extent and for so long as the ABL Agent or the Receiver, as applicable, occupies or uses a manufacturing, warehouse or distribution facility or office owned or leased by a Credit Party, the ABL Agent shall be responsible for all direct expenses related thereto, including costs with respect to heat, light, electricity, water, insurance and real property taxes with respect to that portion of any building so used or occupied and payroll and related expenses for employees whose services are required by the ABL Agent or the Receiver for such use and operation of such facility or office. In addition, the ABL Agent shall, at its own cost and expense, perform, or cause to be performed, normal reasonable maintenance on those Term Priority Collateral used or occupied by the ABL Agent or the Receiver during the period of such use or occupation. The ABL Agent agrees to hold the Term Agent and the Secured Notes Trustees harmless concerning (i) any third party liability resulting from the use or operation of such facilities, offices, buildings, premises and equipment by the ABL Agent or its Receiver and (ii) for any damage to or loss of the Term Priority Collateral. In the case of Term Priority Collateral leased to a Credit Party and used or occupied by the ABL Agent or a Receiver, the ABL Agent or the Receiver, as applicable, shall assume and be directly responsible for all obligations of the lessee, including without limitation, paying the rental and other payments required to be paid to the lessor, in each case in accordance with the terms of such lease for the period of such use and occupancy of the Term Priority Collateral, unless the applicable lessor shall have otherwise agreed. The ABL Agent or the Receiver, as applicable, shall promptly repair, at the ABL Agent's or Receiver's expense, any physical damage to the Term Priority Collateral caused by the ABL Agent or the Receiver or any other Person acting under the direction of either of them during the use or occupancy of the Term Priority Collateral by or on behalf of the ABL Agent or the Receiver, as applicable, or any sale, removal or other disposition of its Collateral (ordinary wear and tear excluded) and the Term Priority Collateral so used or occupied shall be left by the ABL Agent and the Receiver at the expiration of the applicable term of the Liquidation Period in substantially the same state of repair and be in the same working order (ordinary wear and tear excluded), in each case as existed upon the commencement of the Liquidation Period.

3.15 No Obligation to Take Possession/Maintain Leases.

Nothing in this Section 3 shall obligate any Secured Party to take possession of or appoint or seek to appoint a Receiver over, the Term Priority Collateral, or to take any other enforcement step with respect to the Term Priority Collateral. In addition to the foregoing and for greater certainty, nothing in this Section 3 shall obligate any Secured Party to undertake any measures or expend or incur any amounts in order to maintain any Term Priority Collateral which has been leased by a Credit Party.

3.16 Rights Personal to ABL Agent.

The rights and obligations of Sections 3.10 to 3.14 above inclusive are personal to the ABL Agent and, notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, may not be assigned or otherwise transferred by the ABL Agent to any other Person or Persons, in whole or in part, unless each such assignee provides an indemnity in favour of the Term Credit Secured Parties, on substantially the same terms as are set forth in Section 3.14.

4.2 Asset Dispositions.

(1) Until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, subject to compliance with Sections 4.1(1) or (3), as applicable, each of the Secured Notes Trustees agrees, it shall not, subject to Section 4.2(5) in an Insolvency Proceeding or otherwise, oppose any Disposition of any assets of any Credit Party constituting ABL Priority Collateral that is supported and consented to by the ABL Agent, and each Secured Notes Secured Party will be deemed to have consented to any such Disposition supported and consented to by the ABL Agent and to have released their Liens in such assets (but not the proceeds thereof as provided in Section 4.3), provided that the ABL Agent agrees that nothing in this Section 4.2 shall, is intended to, or shall be deemed to, constitute a waiver by any Secured Notes Secured Party or prohibit or otherwise restrict any Secured Notes Secured Party from instituting any legal proceeding against the ABL Secured Parties seeking damages on the grounds of non-compliance with applicable law or gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the ABL Agent, its Receiver, any other ABL Secured Party or any other Person acting on behalf or under the direction of any of them.

4.3 Releases of Secured Parties Liens.

(1) Until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, upon any Disposition of ABL Priority Collateral subject to and in accordance with the terms of the ABL Credit Documents and this Agreement (including, without limitation, pursuant to Sections 4.1(1), 4.1(3), 4.2(5) and 4.3(5)) that results in the release of the ABL Lien on any ABL Priority Collateral (including without limitation any Disposition pursuant to any Enforcement Action), the Secured Notes Lien on such ABL Priority Collateral (but not on any proceeds of such ABL Priority Collateral not required by the provisions of Section 4.1 to be paid to the ABL Agent) shall be automatically and unconditionally released with no further consent or action of any Person, unless such Disposition has not been completed in compliance with applicable law or results from the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the ABL Agent, its Receiver, any other ABL Secured Party or any other Person acting on behalf or under the direction of any of them. Subject to the foregoing, each of the Secured Notes Trustees shall promptly execute and deliver such release documents and instruments and shall take such further actions as the ABL Agent shall reasonably request to evidence any release of their Liens described above, and each of the Secured Notes Trustees hereby appoints the ABL Agent and any senior officer or duly authorized person of the ABL Agent, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney in its place and stead and in its name or in the ABL Agent's own name, from time to time, in the ABL Agent's sole discretion, acting reasonably, for the purposes of carrying out the terms of this subparagraph (1) (which appointment, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable).

Subject to the foregoing, each of the Secured Notes Trustees shall promptly execute and deliver such release documents and instruments and shall take such further actions as the Term Agent shall reasonably request to evidence any release of their Liens described above, and each of the Secured Notes Trustees hereby appoints the Term Agent and any senior officer or duly authorized person of the Term Agent, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney in its place and stead and in its name or in the Term Agent's own name, from time to time, in the Term Agent's sole discretion, acting reasonably, for the purposes of carrying out the terms of this subparagraph (2) (which appointment, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable).

(3) Until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, upon any Disposition of Term Priority Collateral subject to and in accordance with the terms of the Term Credit Documents and this Agreement (including, without limitation, pursuant to and subject to compliance with Sections 4.1(2) , 4.1(3), 4.2(5) and 4.3(5)) that results in the release of the Term Credit Lien on any Term Priority Collateral (including without limitation any Disposition pursuant to any Enforcement Action), the Secured Notes Lien on such Term Priority Collateral (but not on any proceeds of such Term Priority Collateral not required by the provisions of Section 4.1 to be paid to the Term Agent) shall be automatically and unconditionally released with no further consent or action of any Person, unless such Disposition has not been completed in compliance with applicable law or results from the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the Term Agent, its Receiver, any other Term Credit Secured Party or any other Person acting on behalf or under the direction of any of them. Subject to the foregoing, each of the Secured Notes Trustees shall promptly execute and deliver such release documents and instruments and shall take such further actions as the Term Agent shall reasonably request to evidence any release of the Liens described above, and each of the Secured Notes Trustees hereby appoints the Term Agent and any senior officer or duly authorized person of the Term Agent, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney in its place and stead and in its name or in the Term Agent's own name, from time to time, in the Term Agent's sole discretion, acting reasonably, for the purposes of carrying out the terms of this subparagraph (3) (which appointment, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable).

(4) Provided the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred and until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, upon any Disposition of Term Priority Collateral subject to and in accordance with the terms of the ABL Credit Documents and this Agreement (including, without limitation, pursuant to and subject to compliance with Sections 4.1(2), 4.1(3), 4.2(5) and 4.3(5)) that results in the release of the ABL Lien on any Term Priority Collateral (including without limitation any Disposition pursuant to any Enforcement Action), subject to Section 4.3(5), the Secured Notes Lien on such Term Priority Collateral (but not on any proceeds of such ABL Priority Collateral not required by the provisions of Section 4.1 to be paid to the ABL Agent) shall be automatically and unconditionally released with no further consent or action of any Person, unless such Disposition has not been completed in compliance with applicable law or results from the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the ABL Agent, its Receiver, any other ABL Secured Party or any other Person acting on behalf or under the direction of any of them. Subject to the foregoing, each of the Secured Notes Trustees shall promptly execute and deliver such release documents and instruments and shall take such further actions as the ABL Agent shall reasonably request to evidence any release of the Secured Notes Lien described above, and each of the Secured Notes Trustees hereby appoints the ABL Agent and any senior officer or duly authorized person of the ABL Agent, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful attorney in the place and stead of such Secured Notes Trustee and in the name of such Secured Notes Trustee or in the name of the ABL Agent, from time to time, in the sole discretion of the ABL Agent, acting reasonably, for the purposes of carrying out the terms of this subparagraph (4) (which appointment, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable).

(5) Notwithstanding Sections 4.3(1), 4.3(2), 4.3(3) and 4.3(4) above but subject to compliance with Section 4.1(3), if the Secured Notes are not or have not been fully redeemed pursuant to Article 3 of the Supplemental Trust Indenture (any such redemption being subject to the prior written consent of the ABL Agent and the Term Agent which may be withheld in their sole discretion), no Secured Notes Liens shall be so automatically released in connection with the Disposition of (i) all or substantially all of the assets of, or more than 49% of the equity securities of, any Lake Erie Steel Entity, or (ii) more than 50% of any of the equity securities of any of the other General Partners or Limited Partnerships (other than any of the Lake Erie Steel Entities), in each case, without the prior written consent of the holders of the Secured Notes in accordance with Section 6.12(9) or Section 6.14 of the Supplemental Trust Indenture, as the case may be.

(2) Provided the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred and until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, subject to compliance with Sections 3.1, 4.1, 4.2(5) and 4.3(5), the Term Agent and its representatives and invitees may at any time inspect, repossess, remove and otherwise deal with the ABL Priority Collateral, and the Term Agent may advertise and conduct public or private sales of the ABL Priority Collateral, in each case without the involvement of or interference by any Secured Notes Secured Party or liability to any Secured Notes Secured Party, provided that the Term Agent agrees that nothing in this Section shall, is intended to, or shall be deemed to, constitute a waiver by any Secured Notes Secured Party or prohibit or otherwise restrict any Secured Notes Credit Secured Party, from instituting any legal proceeding against the Term Agent, its representatives and invitees, seeking damages on the grounds of non-compliance with applicable law or gross negligence or wilful misconduct of any such party or any other Person acting on behalf or under the direction of any of them. Provided the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred and until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Term Agent and the Secured Notes Trustees will have the right to be named as additional insureds and loss payees under any insurance policies maintained from time to time by any Credit Party in respect of the ABL Priority Collateral provided that any payments under such insurance policies shall be made solely and exclusively to the Term Agent until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, and until such time the Term Agent will have the sole and exclusive right to (i) adjust or settle any insurance policy or claim covering the ABL Priority Collateral in the event of any loss thereunder, and (ii) to approve any award granted in any expropriation, condemnation or similar proceeding affecting the ABL Priority Collateral, provided that the Term Agent agrees that nothing in this Section 4.4(2) shall, is intended to, or shall be deemed to, constitute a waiver by any Secured Notes Secured Party or prohibit or otherwise restrict any Secured Notes Secured Party from instituting any legal proceeding against the Term Credit Secured Parties seeking damages on the grounds of non-compliance with applicable law or gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the Term Agent, its Receiver, any other Term Credit Secured Party or any other Person acting on behalf or under the direction of any of them.

(3) Until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, subject to compliance with Sections 3.1, 4.1, 4.2(5) and 4.3(5), the Term Agent and its representatives and invitees may, at any time inspect, repossess, remove and otherwise deal with the Term Priority Collateral, and the Term Agent may advertise and conduct public or private sales of the Term Priority Collateral, in each case without the involvement of or interference by any other Secured Party or liability to any other Secured Party, provided that the Term Agent agrees that nothing in this Section shall, is intended to, or shall be deemed to, constitute a waiver by any other Secured Party or prohibit or otherwise restrict any other Secured Party, from instituting any legal proceeding against the Term Agent, its representatives and invitees, seeking damages on the grounds of non-compliance with applicable law or gross negligence or wilful misconduct of any such party or any other Person acting on behalf or under the direction of any of them. Until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, subject to the terms of this Agreement, each of the Term Agent, the ABL Agent and each of the Secured Notes Trustees will have the right to be named as additional insureds and loss payees under any insurance policies maintained from time to time by any Credit Party in respect of the Term Credit Priority Collateral provided that any payments under such insurance policies shall be made solely and exclusively to the Term Agent until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, and until such time the Term Agent will have the sole and exclusive right to (i) adjust or settle any insurance policy or claim covering the Term Priority Collateral in the event of any loss thereunder, and (ii) to approve any award granted in any expropriation, condemnation or similar proceeding affecting the Term Priority Collateral, provided that the Term Agent agrees that nothing in this Section 4.4(3) shall, is intended to, or shall be deemed to, constitute a waiver by any ABL Secured Party or Secured Notes Secured Party or prohibit or otherwise restrict any ABL Secured Party or Secured Notes Secured Party from instituting any legal proceeding against the Term Credit Secured Parties seeking damages on the grounds of non-compliance with applicable law or gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the Term Agent, its Receiver, any other Term Credit Secured Party or any other Person acting on behalf or under the direction of any of them.

(4) Provided the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred and until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, subject to compliance with Sections 3.1, 4.1, 4.2(5) and 4.3(5), the ABL Agent and its representatives and invitees may at any time inspect, repossess, remove and otherwise deal with the Term Priority Collateral, and the ABL Agent may advertise and conduct public or private sales of the Term Priority Collateral, in each case without the involvement of or interference by any Secured Notes Secured Party or liability to any Secured Notes Secured Party, provided that the ABL Agent agrees that nothing in this Section shall, is intended to, or shall be deemed to, constitute a waiver by any Secured Notes Secured Party or prohibit or otherwise restrict any Secured Notes Secured Party, from instituting any legal proceeding against the ABL Agent, its representatives and invitees, seeking damages on the grounds of non-compliance with applicable law or gross negligence or wilful misconduct of any such party or any other Person acting on behalf or under the direction of any of them. Provided the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred and until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, subject to the terms of this Agreement, each of the ABL Agent and the Secured Notes Trustees will have the right to be named as additional insureds and loss payees under any insurance policies maintained from time to time by any Credit Party in respect of the Term Priority Collateral provided that any payments under such insurance policies shall be made solely and exclusively to the ABL Agent until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred. In addition, as long as any ABL Obligations are outstanding, the ABL Agent will have the sole and exclusive right to (i) adjust or settle any insurance policy or claim covering the Term Priority Collateral in the event of any loss thereunder, and (ii) to approve any award granted in any expropriation, condemnation or similar proceeding affecting the Term Priority Collateral, provided that the ABL Agent agrees that nothing in this Section 4.4(4) shall, is intended to, or shall be deemed to, constitute a waiver by any Secured Notes Secured Party or prohibit or otherwise restrict any Secured Notes Secured Party from instituting any legal proceeding against the ABL Secured Parties seeking damages on the grounds of non-compliance with applicable law or gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the ABL Agent, its Receiver, any other ABL Secured Party or any other Person acting on behalf or under the direction of any of them.

SECTION 5 INSOLVENCY PROCEEDINGS

5.1 Filing of Motions.

(1) Until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, subject to Sections 3.1(1), (3) and (4), each of the Non-ABL Secured Parties agrees that no such Secured Party shall, in or in connection with any Insolvency Proceeding, file any pleadings or motions, take any position at any hearing or proceeding of any nature, or otherwise take any action whatsoever with respect to the determination of any Liens or claims held by any ABL Secured Party (including the validity and enforceability thereof) or the value of any claims of such parties in any such Insolvency Proceeding or otherwise; provided that such Non-ABL Secured Parties may accelerate their respective Obligations for the sole purpose of filing a proof of claim in an Insolvency Proceeding and take or participate in legal proceedings arising thereunder, and take action for the conversion of any floating charge to a fixed charge, in each case, subject to the limitations contained in this Section 5.

(2) Until the Term Obligations Payment Date has occurred, subject to Sections 3.1(2) and (3), each of the Secured Parties (other than the Term Agent) agrees that no such Secured Party shall, in or in connection with any Insolvency Proceeding, file any pleadings or motions, take any position at any hearing or proceeding of any nature, or otherwise take any action whatsoever with respect to the determination of any Liens or claims held by any Term Credit Secured Party (including the validity and enforceability thereof) or the value of any claims of such parties in any such Insolvency Proceeding or otherwise; provided that such other Secured Parties may accelerate their respective Obligations for the sole purpose of filing a proof of claim in an Insolvency Proceeding and take or participate in legal proceedings thereunder, and take action for the conversion of any floating charge to a fixed charge, subject to the limitations contained in Section 3.5 and this Section 5.

5.2 No Relief From Stay.

(1) Until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, each of the Non-ABL Secured Parties agrees, subject to Section 3.1(1), that none of them will seek relief from any stay of proceedings in any Insolvency Proceeding in respect of any ABL Priority Collateral without the prior written consent of the ABL Agent.

(2) Provided the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred and until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, each of the Secured Notes

Trustees agrees, on behalf of the Secured Notes Secured Parties, that none of them will seek relief from any stay of proceedings in any Insolvency Proceeding in respect of any ABL Priority Collateral without the prior written consent of the Term Agent.

(3) Until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, each of the Secured Parties (other than the Term Agent) agrees, subject to Section 3.1(3) and (4), that none of them will seek relief from any stay of proceedings in any Insolvency Proceeding in respect of any Term Priority Collateral without the prior written consent of the Term Agent.

(4) Provided the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred and until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, subject to Section 3.1(4), each of the Secured Notes Trustees agrees that it will not seek relief from any stay of proceedings in any Insolvency Proceeding in respect of any Term Priority Collateral without the prior written consent of the ABL Agent.

5.3 Avoidance Issues.

If any Secured Party is required in any Insolvency Proceeding or otherwise to turn over or otherwise pay to the bankruptcy trustee of any Credit Party, because the payment of such amount was declared to be a fraudulent preference, fraudulent conveyance, settlement or preference in any respect or for any other reason, any amount (a "Recovery"), whether received as proceeds of security, enforcement of any right of set-off or otherwise, then its respective Obligations shall be reinstated to the extent of such Recovery and deemed to be outstanding as if such payment had not occurred and its respective Obligations Payment Date shall be deemed not to have occurred. If this Agreement shall have been terminated prior to such Recovery, this Agreement shall be reinstated in full force and effect, and such prior termination shall not diminish, release, discharge, impair or otherwise affect the obligations of the parties hereto. Each of the Secured Parties agrees that none of them shall be entitled to benefit from any avoidance action affecting or otherwise relating to any distribution or allocation made in accordance with this Agreement, whether by preference or otherwise, it being understood and agreed that the benefit of such avoidance action otherwise allocable to them shall instead be allocated and turned over for application in accordance with the priorities set forth in this Agreement.

5.4 Separate Grants of Security and Separate Classification.

(1) Until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, the Term Agent and each of the Secured Notes Trustees agrees that (i) the grants of Liens over the ABL Priority Collateral pursuant to each of the Security Documents constitute separate and distinct grants of Liens and (ii) because of, among other things, their differing rights in the ABL Priority Collateral, the Term Credit

Obligations and Secured Notes Obligations are fundamentally different from the ABL Obligations and must be separately classified with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral in any plan of compromise, arrangement and/or reorganization proposed or adopted in an Insolvency Proceeding. To further effectuate the intent of the parties as provided in the immediately preceding sentence, if it is held that the claims of the Secured Parties in respect of the ABL Priority Collateral constitute only one secured claim (rather than separate classes of secured claims), then each of the Term Agent and the Secured Notes Trustees acknowledge and agree that all distributions shall be made as if there were separate classes of secured claims against the Credit Parties in respect of the ABL Priority Collateral (with the effect being that, to the extent that the aggregate value of the ABL Priority Collateral is sufficient (for this purpose ignoring all claims held by the Term Credit Secured Parties and Secured Notes Secured Parties), the ABL Agent shall be entitled to receive all amounts owing to the ABL Secured Parties before any distribution on the ABL Priority Collateral is made in respect of the claims held by the Term Credit Secured Parties and Secured Notes Secured Parties), with the Term Agent and the Secured Notes Trustees acknowledging and agreeing to turn over to the ABL Agent amounts otherwise received or receivable by them with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral to the extent necessary to effectuate the intent of this sentence, even if such turnover has the effect of reducing the claim or recovery of the Term Credit Secured Parties or the Secured Notes Secured Parties.

(2) Provided the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred and until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, each of the Secured Notes Trustees agrees that (i) the grants of Liens over the ABL Priority Collateral pursuant to each of the Security Documents constitute separate and distinct grants of Liens, and (ii) because of, among other things, their differing rights in the ABL Priority Collateral, the Secured Notes Obligations are fundamentally different from the Term Credit Obligations and must be separately classified with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral in any plan of compromise, arrangement and/or reorganization proposed or adopted in an Insolvency Proceeding. To further effectuate the intent of the parties as provided in the immediately preceding sentence, if it is held that the claims of the Term Credit Secured Parties and the Secured Notes Secured Parties in respect of the ABL Priority Collateral constitute only one secured claim (rather than separate classes of secured claims), then each of the Secured Notes Trustees acknowledge and agree that all distributions shall be made as if there were separate classes of secured claims against the Credit Parties in respect of the ABL Priority Collateral (with the effect being that, to the extent that the aggregate value of the ABL Priority Collateral is sufficient (for this purpose ignoring all claims held by the Secured Notes Secured Parties), the Term Agent shall be entitled to receive all amounts owing to the Term Credit Secured Parties before any distribution on the ABL Priority Collateral is made in respect of the claims held by the Secured Notes Secured Parties), with the Secured Notes Trustees acknowledging and agreeing to turn over to the Term Agent amounts otherwise received or receivable by them with respect to the ABL Priority Collateral to the extent necessary to effectuate the intent of this sentence, even if such turnover has the effect of reducing the claim or recovery of the Secured Notes Secured Parties.

(3) Until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred, the ABL Agent and each of the Secured Notes Trustees agrees that (i) the grants of Liens over the Term Priority Collateral pursuant to each of the Security Documents constitute separate and distinct grants of Liens and (ii) because of, among other things, their differing rights in the Term Priority Collateral, the ABL Obligations and Secured Notes Obligations are fundamentally different from the Term Credit Obligations and must be separately classified with respect to the Term Priority Collateral in any plan of compromise, arrangement and/or reorganization proposed or adopted in an Insolvency Proceeding. To further effectuate the intent of the parties as provided in the immediately preceding sentence, if it is held that the claims of the Secured Parties in respect of the Term Priority Collateral constitute only one secured claim (rather than separate classes of secured claims), then the ABL Agent and each of the Secured Notes Trustees acknowledge and agree that all distributions shall be made as if there were separate classes of secured claims against the Credit Parties in respect of the Term Priority Collateral (with the effect being that, to the extent that the aggregate value of the Term Priority Collateral is sufficient (for this purpose ignoring all claims held by the ABL Secured Parties and Secured Notes Secured Parties), the Term Agent shall be entitled to receive all amounts owing to the Term Credit Secured Parties before any distribution on the Term Priority Collateral is made in respect of the claims held by the ABL Secured Parties and Secured Notes Secured Parties), with the ABL Secured Parties and Secured Notes Secured Parties acknowledging and agreeing to turn over to the Term Agent amounts otherwise received or receivable by them with respect to the Term Priority Collateral to the extent necessary to effectuate the intent of this sentence, even if such turnover has the effect of reducing the claim or recovery of the ABL Secured Parties or Secured Notes Secured Parties.

(4) Provided the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred and until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, each of the Secured Notes Trustees agrees that (i) the grants of Liens over the Term Priority Collateral pursuant to each of the Security Documents constitute separate and distinct grants of Liens and (ii) because of, among other things, their differing rights in the Term Priority Collateral, the Secured Notes Obligations are fundamentally different from the ABL Obligations and must be separately classified with respect to the Term Priority Collateral in any plan of compromise, arrangement and/or reorganization proposed or adopted in an Insolvency Proceeding. To further effectuate the intent of the parties as provided in the immediately preceding sentence, if it is held that the claims of the ABL Secured Parties and Secured Notes Secured Parties in respect of the Term Priority Collateral constitute only one secured claim (rather than separate classes of secured claims), then each of the Secured Notes Trustees acknowledges and agrees that all distributions shall be made as if there were separate classes of secured claims against the Credit Parties in respect of the Term Priority Collateral (with the effect being that, to the extent that the aggregate value of the Term Priority Collateral is sufficient (for this purpose ignoring all claims held by the Secured Notes Secured Parties), the ABL Agent shall be entitled to receive all amounts owing to the ABL Secured Parties up to the ABL Term Priority Collateral Capped Amount before any distribution on the Term Priority Collateral is made in respect of the claims held by the Secured Notes Secured Parties), with the Secured Notes Secured Parties acknowledging and agreeing to turn over to the ABL Agent amounts otherwise received or receivable by them with respect to the Term Priority Collateral to the extent necessary to effectuate the intent of this sentence, even if such turnover has the effect of reducing the claim or recovery of the Secured Notes Secured Parties.

5.5 No Waivers of Rights of Secured Creditors.

Nothing contained herein shall, subject to Section 3.1, prohibit or in any way limit the Secured Parties from, in respect of any Collateral, objecting in any Insolvency Proceeding or otherwise to any action taken by any other Secured Party in respect of such Collateral, including the assertion by any other Secured Party of any of its rights and remedies under its respective Credit Documents or otherwise.

5.6 Plans of Reorganization; Debtor-in-Possession Financing.

(1) To the extent that, notwithstanding the intent of the parties as provided in Section 5.4, it is held that the claims of the Secured Parties and in respect of the ABL Priority Collateral constitute only one secured claim (rather than separate classes of secured claims), no Term Credit Secured Party or Secured Notes Secured Party shall support or vote in favour of any plan of compromise, arrangement and/or reorganization (and each shall be deemed to have voted to reject any plan of compromise, arrangement and/or reorganization) unless such plan (i) pays off, in cash in full, all ABL Obligations, (ii) is accepted by the class of holders of ABL Obligations voting thereon and is supported by the ABL Agent, or (iii) incorporates this Agreement by reference and continues the rights and priorities of the Secured

Parties in the ABL Priority Collateral subsequent to the effective date of such plan.

(2) To the extent that, notwithstanding the intent of the parties as provided in Section 5.4, it is held that the claims of the Secured Parties and in respect of the Term Priority Collateral constitute only one secured claim (rather than separate classes of secured claims), no ABL Secured Party or Secured Notes Secured Party shall support or vote in favour of any plan of compromise, arrangement and/or reorganization (and each shall be deemed to have voted to reject any plan of compromise, arrangement and/or reorganization) unless such plan (i) pays off, in cash in full, all Term Credit Obligations, (ii) is accepted by the class of holders of Term Credit Obligations voting thereon and is supported by the Term Agent, or (iii) incorporates this Agreement by reference and continues the rights and priorities of the Secured Parties in the Term Priority Collateral subsequent to the effective date of such plan.

(3) The Term Agent agrees that (i) it shall not provide any debtor-in-possession or similar financing to the Credit Parties, and (ii) it shall support any application or other action brought or taken by the ABL Secured Parties (before any Governmental Authority or otherwise) against the Credit Parties or any other Person as a result of the provision of any such debtor-in-possession or similar financing to any Credit Party by any Person other than the ABL Secured Parties in contravention or breach of the ABL Credit Agreement. This Section 5.6(3) shall not restrict in any way the right of the Term Agent to object to the terms of any such financing provided by the ABL Secured Parties.

5.7 Effectiveness in Insolvency Proceedings.

This Agreement shall be effective both before and after the commencement of an Insolvency Proceeding. All references in this Agreement to any Credit Party shall include such Credit Party and any receiver or trustee for such Credit Party in any Insolvency Proceeding.

SECTION 6 CREDIT DOCUMENTS

6.1 No Amendments.

(1) Each of the Non-ABL Secured Parties and the Credit Parties agrees that it and they shall not amend, restate, modify or supplement any terms or conditions of their respective Credit Documents to:

(a) increase the interest rates from those in effect on the date of this Agreement (other than by automatic adjustment of any generally applicable base rates and as otherwise specifically provided for under the terms of the Term Credit Documents and/or the Secured Notes Credit Documents, as the case may be, on the date hereof) or increase any applicable margins over the said base rates from those in effect on the date of this Agreement;

(b) increase the amount of any fees payable thereunder or charge any new fees in connection with such Credit Documents (except for nominal fees which are reasonable in the opinion of the ABL Agent in connection with any amendments to or waivers of any provisions of any of such Credit Documents which are not inconsistent with this Agreement);

(c) other than in respect of Capitalized Interest Payments, increase the principal amount of any of the respective Non-ABL Obligations;

(d) change to an earlier date the dates or amounts of (i) the mandatory repayments or prepayments of any principal amounts of any of their respective Obligations, or (ii) any interest payments in respect of any such Obligations; or

(e) amend or modify the provisions of any of their respective Credit Documents in any manner which is more onerous than the provisions of their respective Credit Documents in effect on the date of this Agreement or which would reasonably be expected to adversely affect the ABL Secured Parties (or, in the case of amendments to the Secured Notes Credit Documents, the Term Credit Secured Parties) or which violates the terms of the ABL Credit Documents as in effect on the date hereof, or which would have the effect of terminating or reducing the availability of the lending commitments under the ABL Credit Agreement or the Term Credit Agreement.

(2) Until the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred, the ABL Agent and the Credit Parties agree that it and they shall not amend, restate, modify or supplement any terms or conditions of the ABL Credit Documents to:

(a) increase the principal amount of the ABL Obligations in excess of a further $30,000,000 over the maximum principal amount of $600,000,000 (subject to Section 6.1(8) hereof) for any purpose other than as Protective Advances; or

(b) amend or modify the provisions of any of the ABL Credit Documents in any manner which would have the effect of terminating or reducing the availability of the lending commitments under the Term Credit Agreement.

For greater certainty, but subject to the foregoing, the ABL Agent may amend, restate, modify or supplement any other terms or conditions of the ABL Credit Documents; provided, however, that the ABL Agent shall not amend, restate, modify or supplement any provision of the ABL Credit Agreement to the extent it would further restrict the ability of the Borrower to make Term Credit Permitted Payments or Secured Notes Permitted Payments hereunder, in each case without the prior written consent of the Term Agent or the Secured Notes Trustees, as the case may be, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(3) The ABL Agent agrees that it shall not at any time execute or deliver any amendment, supplement or other modification to any of the ABL Credit Documents in violation of this Agreement.

(4) The Term Agent agrees that it shall not at any time execute or deliver any amendment, supplement or other modification to any of the Term Credit Documents in violation of this Agreement.

(5) Each of the Term Agent and the Borrower agrees that no Exchange Notes shall be issued by the Borrower unless (i) the ABL Agent has provided it prior written consent as to the terms and conditions of the Exchange Notes and the Exchange Note Indenture and any related documents, it being acknowledged by the ABL Agent that such consent shall not be withheld if the terms and conditions of such Exchange Notes, the Exchange Note Indenture and any related documents are no more onerous to the Credit Parties (and no less favourable to the ABL Secured Parties) than the terms and conditions of the Term Credit Documents otherwise then in effect as permitted hereunder, (ii) the terms and conditions of such Exchange Notes, the Exchange Note Indenture and any related documents are no more onerous to the Credit Parties (and no less favourable to the Secured Notes Secured Parties) than the terms and conditions of the Term Credit Documents otherwise then in effect as permitted hereunder, and (iii) concurrently with the issuance of any such Exchange Notes, the Exchange Note Trustee has executed and delivered an agreement to be bound by this Agreement as if it were the "Term Agent" hereunder, such agreement to be in the form of Schedule "A" hereto.

(6) Each of the Secured Notes Trustees agrees that it shall not at any time execute or deliver any amendment, supplement or other modification to any of the Secured Notes Credit Documents in violation of this Agreement.

(7) The ABL Agent and the Credit Parties acknowledge that the maximum principal amount of the ABL Facility is subject to reduction in connection with any Receivables Transaction as contemplated in the definition of "Permitted Indebtedness" as defined under the Supplemental Trust

Indenture and any reference herein to the maximum principal amount of the ABL Facility shall be deemed to refer to same as reduced (or subsequently increased, as the case may be) in accordance with the Supplemental Trust Indenture as in effect on the date hereof.

(8) The Term Agent and the Credit Parties acknowledge that the maximum principal amount of the Term Facility is subject to reduction in connection with any sale of Term Priority Collateral as provided in Section 6.12(1)(ii) or (iii) of the Supplemental Trust Indenture, and any reference herein to the maximum principal amount of the Term Facility shall be deemed to refer to same as reduced (or subsequently increased, as the case may be) in accordance with the Supplemental Trust Indenture as in effect on the date hereof.

(9) The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the ABL Term Priority Collateral Capped Amount is available only to the ABL Agent and the ABL Lenders or, in connection with any refinancing or replacement of the ABL Facility, one or more financial institutions who have agreed to provide such financing on the basis of an "asset based loan" or "working capital loan" in which, in each case, credit facilities are provided to a Credit Party on the basis of a formula or borrowing base calculation with reference only to the accounts receivable and/or inventory of the Credit Parties. For greater certainty this Section 6.1(9) shall in no way restrict the ability of any such financial institutions to take Liens on any Term Priority Collateral.

SECTION 7 RELIANCE; WAIVERS; ETC.

7.1 Reliance.

(1) The ABL Credit Documents are deemed to have been executed and delivered, and all extensions of credit thereunder are deemed to have been made or incurred, in reliance upon this Agreement. The Term Agent and each of the Secured Notes Trustees expressly waives all notice of the acceptance of and reliance on this Agreement by the ABL Agent.

(2) The Term Credit Documents are deemed to have been executed and delivered and all extensions of credit thereunder are deemed to have been made or incurred, in reliance upon this Agreement. The ABL Agent and each of the Secured Notes Trustees expressly waives all notices of the acceptance of and reliance on this Agreement by the Term Agent.

(3) The Secured Notes Credit Documents are deemed to have been executed and delivered, and all extensions of credit thereunder are deemed to have been made or incurred, in reliance upon this Agreement. The ABL Agent and the Term Agent each expressly waives all notice of the acceptance of and reliance on this Agreement by the Secured Notes Trustees.

7.2 No Warranties or Liability.

Each Secured Party acknowledges and agrees that no other Secured Party has made any representation or warranty with respect to the execution, validity, legality, completeness, collectibility or enforceability of any Credit Document. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, each Secured Party will be entitled to manage and supervise their respective extensions of credit to any Credit Party in accordance with law and their usual practices, modified from time to time as they deem appropriate.

7.3 No Waivers.

(1) No right or benefit of any party hereunder shall at any time in any way be prejudiced or impaired by any act or failure to act on the part of such party or any other party hereto or by any non-compliance by any Credit Party with the terms and conditions of any of the Credit Documents.

(2) Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, until the ABL Obligations Payment Date shall have occurred, each of the ABL Secured Parties may, at any time and from time to time in accordance with the ABL Credit Documents and/or applicable law, without the consent of, or notice to, any other Secured Party, but subject to and except as required by the terms of this Agreement (including, without limitation, Section 3.1, Section 4.1(3) and Section 6.1) without incurring any liabilities to such other Secured Parties and without impairing or releasing the Lien priorities and other benefits provided in this Agreement do any one or more of the following:

(a) make loans and advances to any Credit Party or issue, guarantee or obtain letters of credit for the account of any Credit Party or otherwise extend credit to any Credit Party, in any amount and on any terms, whether pursuant to a commitment or as a discretionary advance and whether or not any default or event of default or failure of condition is then continuing;

(b) change the manner, place or terms of payment or change or extend the time of payment of, or amend, renew, exchange, increase or alter, the terms of any of the ABL Obligations or any Lien on any ABL Priority Collateral or any liability of any Credit Party, or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof (including any increase in or extension of the ABL Obligations, without any restriction as to the amount, tenor or terms of any such increase or extension) or otherwise amend, renew, exchange, extend, modify or supplement in any manner any Liens held by the ABL Agent, the ABL Obligations or any of the ABL Credit Documents;

(c) sell, exchange, release, surrender, realize upon, enforce or otherwise deal with in any manner or in any order any part of the ABL Priority Collateral or any liability of any Credit Party to the ABL Agent, or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect of the ABL Obligations;

(d) settle or compromise any ABL Obligations of any Credit Party or any security therefor or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof and apply any sums by whomsoever paid and however realized to the ABL Obligations in any manner or order;

(e) exercise or delay in or refrain from exercising any right or remedy against any Credit Party or any other Person in respect of the ABL Obligations or the ABL Priority Collateral, elect any remedy and otherwise deal freely with any Credit Party or any ABL Priority Collateral and any security and any guarantor or any liability of any Credit Party to the ABL Agent or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof;

(f) take or fail to take any Lien securing the ABL Obligations or any other collateral security for any ABL Obligations or take or fail to take any action which may be necessary or appropriate to ensure that any ABL Security Document or any other Lien upon the ABL Priority Collateral is duly enforceable or perfected or entitled to priority as against any other Lien; or

(g) otherwise release, discharge or permit the lapse of any or all Liens securing the ABL Obligations or any other Liens upon the ABL Priority Collateral at any time securing any ABL Obligations, provided that the ABL Agent agrees that nothing in this Section 7.3(2) shall, is intended to, or shall be deemed to, constitute a waiver by any other Secured Party or prohibit or otherwise restrict any other Secured Party, from instituting any legal proceeding against the ABL Secured Parties seeking damages on the grounds of non-compliance with this Agreement, applicable law or gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the ABL Agent, its Receiver, any other ABL Secured Party or any other Person acting on behalf or under the direction of any of them.

(3) Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing Section 7.3(1), until the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date shall have occurred, each of the Term Credit Secured Parties may, at any time and from time to time in accordance with the Term Credit Documents and/or applicable law, without the consent of, or notice to, any other Secured Party, but subject to and except as required by the terms of this Agreement (including, without limitation, Section 3.1, Section 4.1(3) and Section 6.1), without incurring any liabilities to such other Secured Parties and without impairing or releasing the Lien priorities and other benefits provided in this Agreement do any one or more of the following:

(a) make loans and advances to any Credit Party or otherwise extend credit to any Credit Party, in any amount and on any terms, whether pursuant to a commitment or as a discretionary advance and whether or not any default or event of default or failure of condition is then continuing;

(b) change the manner, place or terms of payment or change or extend the time of payment of, or amend, renew, exchange or alter, the terms of any of the Term Credit Obligations or any Lien on any Term Priority Collateral or any liability of any Credit Party, or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof or otherwise amend, renew, exchange, extend, modify or supplement in any manner any Liens held by the Term Agent, the Term Credit Obligations or any of the Term Credit Documents;

(c) sell, exchange, release, surrender, realize upon, enforce or otherwise deal with in any manner or in any order any part of the Term Priority Collateral or any liability of any Credit Party to the Term Agent, or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect of the Term Credit Obligations;

(d) settle or compromise any Term Credit Obligations of any Credit Party or any security therefor or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof and apply any sums by whomsoever paid and however realized to the Term Credit Obligations in any manner or order;

(e) exercise or delay in or refrain from exercising any right or remedy against any Credit Party or any other Person in respect of the Term Credit Obligations or the Term Priority Collateral, elect any remedy and otherwise deal freely with any Credit Party or any Term Priority Collateral and any security and any guarantor or any liability of any Credit Party to the Term Agent or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof;

(f) take or fail to take any Lien securing the Term Credit Obligations or any other collateral security for any Term Obligations or take or fail to take any action which may be necessary or appropriate to ensure that any Term Credit Security Document or any other Lien upon the Term Priority Collateral is duly enforceable or perfected or entitled to priority as against any other Lien; or

(g) otherwise release, discharge or permit the lapse of any or all Liens securing the Term Credit Obligations or any other Liens upon the Term Priority Collateral at any time securing any Term Credit Obligations, provided that the Term Agent agrees that nothing in this Section 7.3(3) shall, is intended to, or shall be deemed to, constitute a waiver by any other Secured Party or prohibit or otherwise restrict any other Secured Party, from instituting any legal proceeding against the Term Credit Secured Parties seeking damages on the grounds of non-compliance with this Agreement, applicable law or gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the Term Agent, its Receiver, any other Term Credit Secured Party or any other Person acting on behalf or under the direction of any of them.

SECTION 8 MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Conflicts.

In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of any Credit Document, the provisions of this Agreement shall govern; provided however and for greater certainty, the foregoing shall not be deemed to alter or amend the terms of the Credit Documents or the rights and obligations thereunder as between the Secured Parties and the Credit Parties.

8.2 Termination and Continuing Nature of Provisions.

Subject to Section 5.4, this Agreement shall continue to be effective, and shall not be revocable by any party hereto and shall not terminate (and be of no further force and effect), until each of the ABL Obligations Payment Date, the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date and the Secured Notes Obligations Payment Date shall have occurred, as the case may be. This is a continuing agreement and the ABL Secured Parties and the Term Credit Secured Parties may continue, at any time and without notice to the other parties hereto, to extend credit and other financial accommodations, lend monies and provide indebtedness to, or for the benefit of, the Credit Parties in reliance hereon. For greater certainty, subject to Section 5.4, this Agreement shall terminate (i) as against the ABL Agent once the ABL Obligations Payment Date has occurred and all ABL Liens have been released, (ii) as against the Term Agent once the Term Credit Obligations Payment Date has occurred and all Term Credit Liens have been released, and (iii) as against the Secured Notes

Trustees once the Secured Notes Obligations Payment Date has occurred and all Secured Notes Liens have been released.

8.3 Amendments; Waivers.

Subject to the second sentence of this paragraph, no amendment or modification of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be effective unless the same shall be in writing (i) and signed by the ABL Agent, the Term Agent and each of the Secured Notes Trustees, and (ii) if the rights or duties of any Credit Party are directly affected by such amendment or modification, and also signed by such Credit Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all of the parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the rights of the ABL Agent set forth in Sections 3.3(3)(a) and 3.3(3)(b) are for the benefit of the ABL Agent only, and can be amended by an instrument in writing signed by the ABL Agent and the Term Agent, provided that (i) such amendment or modification does not directly affect the rights of the Secured Notes Secured Parties and (ii) copies of any such amendment are promptly delivered to the Secured Notes Trustees and the Credit Parties.

8.4 Information Concerning Financial Condition of Credit Parties.

Each of the Secured Parties hereby assumes responsibility for keeping itself informed of the financial condition of each of the Credit Parties and all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of non-payment of their respective Obligations. Each of the Secured Parties hereby agrees that no party shall have any duty to advise any other party of information known to it regarding such condition or any such circumstances. If any Secured Party, in its sole discretion, undertakes at any time or from time to time to provide any information to any other party to this Agreement, it shall be under no obligation to provide any such information to such other party or any other party on any subsequent occasion, to undertake any investigation not a part of its regular business routine, or to disclose any other information.

8.5 Acting On Behalf of Creditors.

When any reference is made herein to an action to be taken or a consent or acknowledgement to be given by or on behalf of the ABL Agent, the ABL Secured Parties, the Term Agent, the Term Credit Secured Parties, the Secured Notes Trustees or the Secured Notes Secured Parties, the parties hereto shall be entitled to assume that such action has been taken or such consent or acknowledgement has been given (i) by the ABL Agent on behalf of the ABL Secured Parties (including, for greater certainty, Persons who become ABL Secured Parties after the date hereof), (ii) by the Term Agent on behalf of the Term Credit Secured Parties (including, for greater certainty, Persons who become Term Credit Secured Parties after the date hereof), and (iii) by the Secured Notes Trustees on behalf of the Secured Notes Secured Parties (including, for greater certainty, Persons who become Secured Notes Secured Parties after the date hereof), in each case, acting in accordance on the instructions of the required percentage of the applicable Secured Parties in accordance with the applicable Credit Documents.

8.6 No Third Party Rights Established.

Subject to Section 6.1(5), no creditor (other than a Secured Party contemplated hereby) of any Credit Party or any other Person which is not a party to this Agreement will derive or be entitled to any rights or benefits hereunder.

8.7 Severability.

Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability and will be severed from the balance of this Agreement, all without affecting the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

8.8 Further Assurances.

The parties hereto agree to execute and deliver such further and other documents and perform and cause to be performed such further and other acts and things as may be necessary or desirable in order to give full effect to this Agreement and every part thereof, including all acts, deeds and agreements as may be necessary or desirable for the purpose of enforcement of the applicable Credit Documents pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and registering or filing notice of the terms of this Agreement.

8.9 Communication.

Any communication required or permitted to be given under this Agreement will be in writing and will be effectively made and given if (i) delivered personally, (ii) sent by prepaid courier service, or (iii) sent prepaid by facsimile transmission or other similar means of electronic communication, in each case to the address or facsimile number of the relevant party set out opposite such party's name in the execution pages of this Agreement. Any communication so given will be deemed to have been given and to have been received on the day of delivery if so delivered, or on the day of facsimile transmission or sending by other means of recorded electronic communication provided that such day is a Business Day and the communication is so delivered or sent prior to 4:30 p.m. (local time at the place of receipt). Otherwise, such communication will be deemed to have been given and to have been received on the following Business Day. Any party to this Agreement may from time to time change its respective address or facsimile number for notice by giving notice to the other parties hereto in accordance with the provisions of this Section 8.9.

8.10 Entire Agreement.

This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any prior agreements, undertakings, declarations, representations and understandings, both written and verbal, in respect of the subject matter hereof. There are no representations, restrictions, agreements, promises, warranties, covenants, terms, conditions or undertakings between the parties hereto or relating to the subject matter hereof other than those expressly set forth in this Agreement.

8.11 Governing Law.

This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the law of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein, without reference to conflict of laws rules, except as otherwise required by mandatory provisions of law and except to the extent that remedies provided by the laws of any jurisdiction other than the Province of Ontario are governed by the laws of such jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the rights, powers, duties and responsibilities of The Bank of New York will be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York and the federal laws of the United States of America.

8.12 Submission to Jurisdiction.

Each party hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits, for itself and its property, to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of the Province of Ontario, in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment, and each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that all claims in respect of any such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such Ontario Court. Each of the parties hereto agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Agreement shall affect any right that any Secured Party may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or any of its respective Credit Documents, as the case may be, against any Credit Party or their respective properties in the courts of any other proper jurisdiction. Each Credit Party hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent they may legally and effectively do so (i) any objection they may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement in any court referred to in this Section 8.12 and (ii) the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding.

8.13 Transfers of Indebtedness and Security.

(1) The respective Obligations and Credit Documents will not be sold, assigned, transferred or refinanced in whole or in part unless and until the proposed purchaser, assignee, transferee or refinancier (or its agent or trustee) has executed and delivered either (i) an agreement to be bound by this Agreement in the form of Schedule "A" hereto, or (ii) a new intercreditor agreement in favour of all Secured Parties on the terms of this Agreement, and all such Secured Parties and Credit Parties hereby agree to execute same upon request of such purchaser, assignee, transferee or refinancier.

(2) Other than in connection with the issuance of Exchange Notes in accordance with Section 6.1(5), if all or any of the Obligations is repaid or retired from the proceeds of any sale or issue of instruments evidencing indebtedness for borrowed money, no such sale or issue will be completed unless and until the proposed lender, purchaser or refinancier has executed and delivered either (i) an agreement to be bound by this Agreement in the form of Schedule "A" hereto, or (ii) a new intercreditor agreement in favour of all Secured Parties on the terms of this Agreement, and all such Secured Parties and Credit Parties agree to execute same upon request of such lender, purchaser or refinancier.

8.14 Successors and Assigns.

(1) Subject to Section 3.16, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of each of the parties hereto and the Secured Parties, their respective successors and assigns, and nothing herein is intended, or shall be construed, to give any other Person any right, remedy or claim under, to or in respect of this Agreement or any Collateral. All references to any Credit Party shall include any receiver or trustee for such Credit Party in any Insolvency Proceeding.

(2) For greater certainty, upon the appointment of any successor to (or co-agent or co-trustee with) the ABL Agent, the Term Agent or the Secured Notes Trustees pursuant to the terms of their respective Credit Documents, such successor (or co-agent or co-trustee, as the case may be) shall execute and deliver an agreement to be bound by this Agreement in the form of Schedule "A" hereto.

8.15 Credit Parties Bound.

(1) By executing this Agreement, each Credit Party acknowledges the existence of this Agreement and agrees to be bound by its terms; provided, however, that, subject to Section 6.1(5), nothing in this Agreement shall confer or be deemed to confer any right, benefit or advantage on any Credit Party.

(2) The Borrower acknowledges and agrees that it shall cause any future guarantor of any of the Obligations to forthwith enter into an agreement to be bound by this Agreement in the form of Schedule "A" hereto.

8.16 Payment of Costs and Expenses.

Each of the Credit Parties shall pay to each of the Secured Parties on demand all of their respective reasonable costs and expenses or of their respective agents (including legal fees on a full indemnity basis) incurred in connection with the negotiation, preparation and enforcement of this Agreement.

8.17 Headings.

Section headings used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and shall not affect the construction of, or be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

8.18 Currency.

Unless otherwise stated herein, all references to currency and dollar amounts are references to the lawful currency of Canada.

8.19 Counterparts; Integration; Effectiveness.

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Agreement by facsimile or PDF copy via electronic mail shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement. This Agreement shall become effective only when it shall have been executed by each party hereto.

8.20 Joint Trustees.

The Canadian Trustee and the U.S. Trustee are joint trustees under the Secured Notes Trust Indenture. As contemplated by the "Joint Trustees" provisions of the Secured Notes Trust Indenture, it is agreed that, as between the Canadian Trustee and the U.S. Trustee, the Canadian Trustee shall be responsible for the administration of this Agreement, the Secured Notes Credit Documents and the Collateral granted thereunder, except to the extent required by the U.S. Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended, and the rules thereunder, or by the Secured Notes Trust Indenture.

(e) Each Revolving Loan shall initially be the type of loan specified in the applicable Borrowing Notice and shall bear interest at the rate applicable to that type of loan until (i) in the case of a LIBOR Rate Loan, the end of the initial LIBOR Interest Period specified in the Borrowing Notice, (ii) in the case of a Canadian Prime Rate Loan or US Base Rate Loan, the date on which the loan is repaid in full or is changed to another type of loan pursuant to Section 1.2(f), or (iii) in the case of any loan, it is converted to another type of Accommodation pursuant to Section 1.2(f).

(f) The Borrower may elect to (i) change any loan to another type of loan in accordance with Section 1.2(g) or convert a loan to another type of Accommodation upon the number of days notice specified in Section 1.2(c), (y) in the case of a Canadian Prime Rate Loan or US Base Rate Loan, as of any Business Day, and (z) in the case of a LIBOR Rate Loan, as of the last day of the LIBOR Interest Period applicable to the LIBOR Rate Loan and in a principal amount equal to its equivalent currency amount (as determined by the Administrative Agent as of the date of the Accommodation notice in accordance with the relevant definitions of Equivalent Cdn$ Amount and Equivalent U.S.$ Amount), or (ii) continue any LIBOR Rate Loan for a further LIBOR Interest Period beginning on the last day of the then current LIBOR Interest Period in accordance with Section 1.2(g). No LIBOR Rate Loan may be continued as such upon (i) Availability being less than $100,000,000, (ii) Line Availability being less than $25,000,000 or (iii) the occurrence and continuance of a Default or an Event of Default under this Agreement, but shall be automatically converted to a US Base Rate Loan on the last day of the LIBOR Interest Period during which any such event occurred.

(g) Each election to change from one type of loan to another type of loan or to continue a LIBOR Rate Loan for a further LIBOR Interest Period shall be made on the number of days prior notice specified in Section 1.2(c), given, in each case, not later than 10:30 a.m. (Toronto time) by the Borrower to the Administrative Agent. Each such notice (an "Election Notice") shall be given substantially in the form of Exhibit "E" and shall be irrevocable and binding upon the Borrower. If the Borrower fails to deliver an Election Notice to the Agent for any LIBOR Rate Advance as provided in this Section 1.2(g) the LIBOR Rate Advance shall be converted (as of the last day of the applicable LIBOR Interest Period) to and be outstanding as a US Base Rate Loan. The Borrower shall not select a LIBOR Interest Period which conflicts with the definition of LIBOR Interest Period.

(h) The Administrative Agent shall on any Settlement Date, and upon notice given by the Administrative Agent no later than 12:00 P.M. Toronto time, request each Lender to make, and notwithstanding the occurrence and continuance of a Default or an Event of Default, each Lender hereby agrees to make, a Revolving Loan in an amount equal to such Lender's Revolving Credit Commitment percentage (calculated with respect to the aggregate Revolving Credit Commitments then outstanding) of the aggregate amount of the Revolving Loans made by the Administrative Agent from the preceding Settlement Date to the date of such notice. Each Lender's obligation to make the Revolving Loans and to make the settlements pursuant to this Section 1.2 shall not be affected by any circumstance, including, without limitation, (i) any set-off, counterclaim, recoupment, defence or other right which any such Lender or the Borrower may have against the Administrative Agent, the Borrower, any Lender or any other Person for any reason whatsoever; (ii) any adverse change in the condition (financial or otherwise) of the Borrower; or (iii) any other circumstance, happening or event whatsoever, whether or not similar to any of the foregoing. Without limiting the liability and obligation of each Lender to make such advances, the Borrower authorizes the Administrative Agent to charge the Borrower's Revolving Loan Account to the extent amounts received from the Lenders are not sufficient to repay in full the amount of any such deficiency.

(i) Unless demand is earlier made pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, the Borrower shall repay, and there shall become due and payable, the Obligations and all accrued and unpaid interest thereon, on the earlier of the Early Termination Date and the Maturity Date.

Section 1.3 Mandatory and Voluntary Prepayments.

(1) Immediately upon receipt by the Borrower of any Asset Sale Proceeds or Insurance Proceeds either directly or in accordance with Section 5.6 in respect of any Disposition or loss, destruction or condemnation, as the case may be, of any ABL Priority Collateral or Term Priority Collateral, the Borrower shall prepay outstanding Accommodations (together with all interest, fees and other amounts owing with respect thereto) in an amount equal to all such proceeds as specified in accordance with Section 5.6. For greater certainty, any amounts so prepaid in accordance with this Section 1.3(1) may be reborrowed and shall not reduce the Commitment (and each Lender's Commitment on a pro rata basis).

(2) If, on any day, the Accommodations outstanding under the Revolving Line of Credit exceed the lesser of (i) the Initial Revolving Credit Amount or the Initial Revolving Credit Amount plus the amount of each Incremental Tranche, as applicable, and (ii) the Borrowing Base (based on the most recently delivered Borrowing Base Certificate and the Equivalent Cdn. $ Amount of the Accommodations outstanding in U.S. Dollars on that day), the Borrower shall on that day (iii) prepay Revolving Loans, or (iv) pay such amount to the Administrative Agent and irrevocably authorize and direct the Administrative Agent to apply such payment to LIBOR Rate Loans or as a repayment of the Borrower's reimbursement obligation in respect of any BA Instruments or issuances of Letter so Credit on the next maturity date; such that the Accommodations outstanding, after giving effect to the payment, do not exceed the lesser of (i) the Initial Revolving Credit Amount or the Initial Revolving Credit Amount plus the amount of each Incremental Tranche, as applicable, and (ii) the Borrowing Base.

(3) If the Borrower has, upon five (5) Business Days' notice, delivered a notice to the Administrative Agent stating the proposed date and aggregate principal amount of any prepayment of Accommodations outstanding or reduction of the Lenders' Commitment, it shall, on that date, pay to the Lenders the amount of the proposed prepayment or the amount, if any, by which the Accommodations outstanding under the Revolving Line of Credit exceed the proposed reduced Commitment, as the case may be. Each partial prepayment or reduction shall be in an aggregate principal amount of Cdn. $1,000,000 or an integral multiple of such amount in the case of Accommodations denominated in Canadian Dollars, and in an aggregate principal amount of U.S. $1,000,000 or in an integral multiple of such amount in the case of Accommodations denominated in U.S. Dollars. The Borrower shall prepay (i) a LIBOR Rate Loan only on the last day of the LIBOR Interest Period applicable to it, and (ii) the amount of any Drawing only on the maturity date for the relevant BA Instrument.

(4) Nothing in this Section 1.3 shall be construed to constitute the Administrative Agent's or any Lender's consent to any transaction that is not permitted by other provisions of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents.

Section 1.4 Use of Proceeds.

The Borrower shall utilize the proceeds of the Revolving Loans for (i) funding the repayment of all amounts owing under the Financing Agreement and the DIP Credit Agreement on the Closing Date, (ii) making any other cash payments as contemplated by the CCAA Plan and as approved by the Administrative Agent and the Lenders, (iii) funding the ordinary course working capital requirements of the Borrower (and the making of any intercompany advances to any of the respective Credit Parties for the same purpose), (iv) Capital Expenditures and Maintenance Capital Expenditures of the Borrower (and the making of any intercompany advances to any of the respective Credit Parties for the same purpose), and (v) making Investments as permitted under Section 6.2.

Section 1.5 Interest and Applicable Margins.

(1) Interest. The Borrower shall pay interest on the unpaid principal amount of each Revolving Loan from the date of the loan until the principal amount of the Revolving Loan is repaid in full, at the following rates per annum:

(a) if and so long as the loan is a Canadian Prime Rate Loan, at a rate per annum equal at all times to the sum of the Canadian Prime Rate in effect from time to time plus the Applicable Canadian Prime Rate Margin;

(b) if and so long as the loan is a US Base Rate Loan, at a rate per annum equal at all times to the US Base Rate in effect from time to time plus the Applicable US Base Rate Margin; and

(c) if and so long as the loan is a LIBOR Rate Loan, at a rate per annum equal at all times during each LIBOR Interest Period for such LIBOR Rate Loan to the sum of the LIBOR Rate for such LIBOR Interest Period plus the Applicable LIBOR Rate Margin.

(2) Payment of Interest.

(a) Interest on Canadian Prime Rate Loans and U.S. Base Rate Loans shall be calculated and payable in arrears (i) on the first Business Day of each month, and (ii) when the loan becomes due and payable in full, is repaid, or is converted to another type of advance or Accommodation. Interest on LIBOR Rate Loans shall be calculated and payable (iii) on the ninetieth day, if any, of the LIBOR Interest Period, and (iv) on the last day of the LIBOR Interest Period.

(b) The Administrative Agent on behalf of the Lenders shall be entitled to charge the Borrower's Revolving Loan Account for any and all Canadian and United States dollar fees, costs and expenses incurred by the Administrative Agent and permitted to be charged by the Administrative Agent on behalf of the Lenders under this Agreement at the rate provided for herein for Canadian Prime Rate Loans, US Base Rate Loans and LIBOR Rate Loans, as the case may be, when due until all such Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full.

(3) Applicable Margins. So long as any Obligations remain outstanding, the Applicable Margins are as follows:

Applicable US Base Rate Margin	0.50%
Applicable Canadian Prime Rate Margin	0.50%
Applicable Unused Facility Fee Margin	0.375%
Applicable Drawing Fee	2.25%
Applicable LIBOR Rate Margin	2.25%

(4) Extension to Next Business Day. If any payment on any Revolving Loan becomes due and payable on a day other than a Business Day, the maturity thereof will be extended to the next succeeding Business Day and, with respect to payments of principal, interest thereon shall be payable at the then applicable rate during such extension.

(5) Calculation of Rates. All computations of Fees and interest in this Agreement and any other Loan Document calculated on a per annum basis shall be made by the Administrative Agent on the basis of a calendar year of 360 days (if based on the LIBOR Rate) or 365 or 366 days (if based on the Canadian Prime Rate or the US Base Rate), in each case for the actual number of days occurring in the period for which such interest and Fees are payable. Each determination by the Administrative Agent of an interest rate and Fees hereunder shall be final, binding and conclusive on the Borrower, absent manifest error.

(6) Default Rate of Interest. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Applicable Margins, otherwise applicable, shall be increased by two percentage points (2%) each ("Default Rate of Interest"). Interest and fees on all Obligations at the Default Rate of Interest shall accrue from the initial date of such Event of Default until that Event of Default is cured or waived and shall be payable upon demand.

(7) Limitation on Interest. If any provision of this Agreement or of any of the other Loan Documents would obligate any Credit Party to make any payment of interest with respect to the Obligations or other amount payable to any Lender in an amount or calculated at a rate which would be prohibited by law or would result in a receipt by that Lender of "interest" with respect to the Obligations at a "criminal rate" (as such terms are construed under the Criminal Code (Canada)) then, notwithstanding such provision, such amount or rates shall be deemed to have been adjusted with retroactive effect to the maximum amount or rate of interest, as the case may be, as would not be so prohibited by law or so result in a receipt by that Lender of interest with respect to the Obligations at a criminal rate, such adjustment to be effected, to the extent necessary, as follows: (i) first, by reducing the amount or rates of interest required to be paid to the affected Lender under this Section 1.5; and (ii) thereafter, by reducing any charges, fees, commissions, expenses, premiums and other amounts required to be paid to the affected Lender which would constitute "interest" with respect to the Obligations for purposes of Section 347 of the Criminal Code (Canada). Notwithstanding the foregoing, and after giving effect to all adjustments contemplated thereby, if any Lender shall have received an amount in excess of the maximum permitted by that section of the Criminal Code (Canada), then the Borrower shall be entitled, by notice in writing to the affected Lender, to obtain reimbursement from that Lender in an amount equal to such excess, and pending such reimbursement, such amount shall be deemed to be an amount payable by that Lender to Borrower. Any amount or rate of interest on the Obligations referred to in this Section 1.5(7) shall be determined in accordance with generally accepted actuarial practices and principles as an effective annual rate of interest over the term that the Loan remains outstanding on the assumption that any charges, fees, commissions, expenses, premiums and other amounts that fall within the meaning of "interest" (as defined in the Criminal Code (Canada)) shall, if they relate to a specific period of time, be pro-rated over that period of time and otherwise be pro-rated over the period from the Closing Date to the Termination Date and, in the event of a dispute, a certificate of a Fellow of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries appointed by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive for the purposes of such determination.

(8) Interest Act* (Canada). For purposes of the Interest Act (Canada), (i) the annual rates of interest or fees to which the rates of interest or fees provided in this Agreement and the other Loan Documents (and stated herein or therein, as applicable, to be computed on the basis of a calendar year of 360, 365 or 366 days, as applicable), are equivalent are the rates so determined multiplied by the actual number of days in the applicable calendar year and divided by 360, 365 or 366, as applicable, (ii) the principal of deemed reinvestment of interest shall not apply to any interest calculation under this Agreement; and (iii) the rates of interest stipulated in this Agreement are intended to be nominal rates and not effective rates or yields.

Section 1.6 Bankers' Acceptances.

(1) Each Lender severally agrees, on the terms and conditions of this Agreement and from time to time on any Business Day prior to the Maturity Date (i) in the case of a Lender which is willing and able to accept Drafts, to create acceptances ("Bankers' Acceptances") by accepting Drafts and to purchase such Bankers' Acceptances in accordance with Section 1.6(6), and (ii) in the case of a Lender which is unwilling or unable to accept Drafts, to purchase completed Drafts (which have not and will not be accepted by the Lender or any other Lender) in accordance Section 1.6(6).

(2) Each Drawing shall be in a minimum Face Amount of $1,000,000 and in an integral multiple of $100,000, and shall consist of the creation and purchase of Bankers' Acceptances or the purchase of Drafts on the same day, in each case for the Drawing Price, effected or arranged by the Lenders in accordance with this Section 1.6 and their respective Lender's Commitment.

(3) If the Administrative Agent determines that the Bankers' Acceptances to be created and purchased or Drafts to be purchased on any Drawing (upon a conversion or otherwise) will not be created and purchased rateably by the Lenders in accordance with Section 1.6(6) and this Section 1.6(3), then the requested Face Amount of Bankers' Acceptances and Drafts shall be reduced to such lesser amount as the Administrative Agent determines will permit rateable sharing and the amount by which the requested Face Amount shall have been so reduced shall be converted or continued, as the case may be, as a Canadian Prime Rate Loan to be made contemporaneously with the Drawing.

(4) Each Draft presented by the Borrower shall (i) be in a minimum amount of $1,000,000 and in an integral multiple of $100,000, (ii) be dated the date of the Drawing, and (iii) mature and be payable by the Borrower (in common with all other Drafts presented in connection with such Drawing) on a Business Day which occurs approximately 30, 60, 90 or 180 days at the election of the Borrower after the Drawing Date and on or prior to the Maturity Date.

(5) Each Drawing shall be made on notice (a "Drawing Notice") given by the Borrower to the Administrative Agent not later than 10:00 a.m. (Toronto time) on two (2) Business Days' notice. Each Drawing Notice shall be in substantially the form of Exhibit "F" shall be irrevocable and binding on the Borrower and shall specify (i) the Drawing Date, (ii) the aggregate Face Amount of Drafts to be accepted and purchased (or purchased, as the case may be), and (iii) the contract maturity date for the Drafts.

(6) Not later than 2:00 p.m. (Toronto time) on an applicable Drawing Date, each Lender shall complete one or more Drafts in accordance with the Drawing Notice and either (i) accept the Drafts and purchase the Bankers' Acceptances so created for the Drawing Price, or (ii) purchase (or arrange to have purchased) the Drafts for the Drawing Price. In each case, upon receipt of the Drawing Price and upon fulfilment of the applicable conditions set forth in Article 2, the Administrative Agent shall make funds available to the Borrower in accordance with Section 1.2.

(7) The Borrower shall, at the request of the Lender, issue one or more non-interest bearing promissory notes (each a "BA Equivalent Note") payable on the date of maturity of any unaccepted Draft which the Lender has purchased or has arranged to have purchased in accordance with Section 1.6(6), in such form as the Lender may specify and in a principal amount equal to the Face Amount of, and in exchange for, any such unaccepted Drafts.

(8) Bankers' Acceptances purchased by the Lender may be held by it for its own account until the contract maturity date or sold by it at any time prior to that date in any relevant Canadian market in such Person's sole discretion.

(9) To enable the Lenders to create Bankers' Acceptances or complete Drafts in the manner specified in this Section 1.6, the Borrower shall supply each Lender with such number of Drafts as it may reasonably request, duly endorsed and executed on behalf of the Borrower. Each Lender will exercise such care in the custody and safekeeping of Drafts as it would exercise in the custody and safekeeping of similar property owned by it and will, upon request by the Borrower, promptly advise the Borrower of the number and designations, if any, of uncompleted Drafts held by it for the Borrower. The signature of any officer of the Borrower on a Draft may be mechanically reproduced and BA Instruments bearing facsimile signature shall be binding upon the Borrower as if they had been manually signed. Even if the individuals whose manual or facsimile signature appears on any BA Instrument no longer hold office at the date of signature, at the date of its acceptance by the Lender or at any time after such date, any BA Instrument so signed shall be valid and binding upon the Borrower.

(10) Upon the maturity of a BA Instrument, the Borrower may (i) elect to issue a replacement BA Instrument by giving a Drawing Notice in accordance with Section 1.6(5), (ii) elect to have all or a portion of the Face Amount of the BA Instrument converted to an advance by giving a Borrowing Notice in accordance with Section 1.2, or (iii) pay, on or before 10:00 a.m. (Toronto time) on the maturity date for the BA Instrument, an amount in Canadian Dollars equal to the Face Amount of the BA Instrument (notwithstanding that the Lender may be the holder of it at maturity). Any such payment shall satisfy the Borrower's obligations under the BA Instrument to which it relates and the relevant Lender shall then be solely responsible for the payment of the BA Instrument.

(11) If the Borrower fails to pay any BA Instrument when due or issue a replacement BA Instrument in the Face Amount of such BA Instrument pursuant to Section 1.6(10), the unpaid amount due and payable shall be converted to a Canadian Prime Rate Loan made by the Lenders and shall bear interest calculated and payable as provided in Section 1.5. This conversion shall occur as of the due date and without any necessity for the Borrower to give a Borrowing Notice. In addition, upon Availability being less than $100,000,000 or Line Availability being less than $25,000,000, or upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, any and all maturing BA Instruments shall be deemed to have been and shall be converted on their maturity date into a Canadian Prime Rate Loan in an amount equal to the face amount of such BA Instruments. A payment of and issue of BA Instruments on the same date having the same aggregate Face Amount and where the proceeds of such issue are intended to be used for such payment under this Section 1.6 shall be deemed not to constitute a repayment of any advance or a new advance of funds.

(12) If, by reason of circumstances affecting the money market generally, there is no market for Bankers' Acceptances (i) the right of the Borrower to request a Drawing shall be suspended until the circumstances causing a suspension no longer exist, and (ii) any Drawing Notice which is outstanding shall be deemed to be a Borrowing Notice requesting a borrowing comprised of Canadian Prime Rate Loans.

(13) The Administrative Agent shall promptly notify the Borrower of the suspension of the Borrower's right to request a Drawing and of the termination of any suspension.

Section 1.7 Letters of Credit

In order to assist the Borrower in establishing or opening Letters of Credit with an Issuing Bank, the Administrative Agent, on behalf of the Lenders, has agreed at the request of the Borrower to join in the applications for such Letters of Credit in order to lend the Administrative Agent's credit to the Borrower, subject to the following terms and conditions set forth below:

(1) Subject to the Revolving Line of Credit, the Initial Revolving Credit Amount, the Incremental Revolving Credit Amount, Line Availability, Availability and the Letter of Credit Sub-Line, the Administrative Agent on behalf of the Lenders, shall assist the Borrower in obtaining Letter(s) of Credit provided that (i) no Default or Event of Default exists hereunder or would result from the issuance of such Letter of Credit, (ii) such Letter(s) of Credit shall not have an expiration date subsequent to any applicable Maturity Date, and (iii) the term, form and purpose of each Letter of Credit and all documentation in connection therewith, and any amendments, modifications or extensions thereof, shall be acceptable to the Administrative Agent;

(2) The Administrative Agent shall have the right, without notice to the Borrower, to charge the Borrower's Revolving Loan Account with the amount of all indebtedness, liability or obligation of any kind incurred by the Administrative Agent and/or the Lenders under each Letter of Credit at the earlier of (a) payment by the Administrative Agent under such Letter of Credit, or (b) upon the occurrence of an Event of Default which is continuing. Any amount charged to the Borrower's Revolving Loan Account shall be deemed a Revolving Loan hereunder and shall incur interest at a rate based upon the Canadian Prime Rate or US Base Rate, as applicable;

(3) The Borrower hereby indemnifies the Administrative Agent and the Lenders and their respective officers, directors, agents, representatives, advisors and employees and holds each of them harmless from and against any and all damages, penalties, charges, costs, expenses, losses, claims, actions, proceedings, obligations, demands or liabilities incurred by any of them arising from any transactions or occurrences relating to Letters of Credit established or opened for the Borrower's account, the collateral relating thereto, any drafts or acceptances thereunder, and all obligations thereunder, including, without limitation, any such loss, claim, damages, penalties, costs, expenses, actions, proceedings, obligations, demands or liabilities due to any errors, omissions, negligence, misconduct or action taken by any Issuing Bank, other than for any such loss, claim or liability arising out of the gross negligence or wilful misconduct by any of them; and

(4) The Borrower agrees that, absent gross negligence or wilful misconduct, any action taken by the Administrative Agent or the Lenders, if taken in good faith, or any action taken by any Issuing Bank, under or in connection with any Letters of Credit, shall be binding on the Borrower and shall not result in any liability whatsoever of the Administrative Agent or the Lenders to the Borrower.

(5) Without limiting the foregoing, the Borrower's obligations with respect to Letters of Credit under this Section 1.7 and the Administrative Agent's right to charge the Revolving Loan Account under Section 1.7(2), shall be absolute, unconditional and irrevocable under any and all circumstances whatsoever and irrespective of (i) any lack of validity or enforceability of any Letter of Credit or this Agreement, or any term or provision therein or herein, (ii) any draft or other document presented under a Letter of Credit proving to be forged, fraudulent or invalid in any respect or any statement therein being untrue or inaccurate in any respect, (iii) payment by the Issuing Bank under a Letter of Credit against presentation of a draft or other document that does not comply with the terms of such Letter of Credit, or (iv) any other event or circumstance whatsoever, whether or not similar to any of the foregoing, that might, but for the provisions of this Section 1.7(5), constitute a legal or equitable discharge of, or provide a right of set-off against, the Borrower's obligations hereunder. Neither the Administrative Agent, the Lenders nor the Issuing Bank, nor any of their Affiliates, shall have any liability or responsibility by reason of or in connection with the issuance or transfer of any Letter of Credit or any payment or failure to make any payment thereunder (irrespective of any of the circumstances referred to in the preceding sentence), or any error, omission, interruption, loss or delay in transmission or delivery of any draft, notice or other communication under or relating to any Letter of Credit (including any document required to make a drawing thereunder), any error in interpretation of technical terms or any consequence arising from causes beyond the control of the Issuing Bank; provided that the foregoing provisions of this subsection (5) shall not be construed to excuse the Issuing Bank from liability to the Borrower to the extent of any direct damages (as opposed to consequential damages, claims in respect of which are hereby waived by the Borrower to the extent permitted by applicable Law) suffered by the Borrower that are caused by the Issuing Bank's failure to exercise care when determining whether drafts and other documents presented under a Letter of Credit comply with the terms thereof. The parties hereto expressly agree that, in the absence of gross negligence or wilful misconduct on the part of the Issuing Bank (as finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction), the Issuing Bank shall be deemed to have exercised care in each such determination. In furtherance of the foregoing and without limiting the generality thereof, the parties agree that, with respect to documents presented which appear on their face to be in substantial compliance with the terms of a Letter of Credit, the Issuing Bank may, in its sole discretion, either accept and make payment upon such documents without responsibility for further investigation, regardless of any notice or information to the contrary, or refuse to accept and make payment upon such documents if such documents are not in strict compliance with the terms of such Letter of Credit.

Section 1.8 Circumstances Requiring Prime Rate Pricing.

(1) If, at any time during the term of this Agreement, a Lender acting in good faith determines (which determination shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the Borrower) that:

(a) adequate and fair means do not exist for ascertaining the rate of interest on a LIBOR Rate Loan;

(b) the LIBOR Rate does not accurately reflect the effective cost to the Lender of making, funding or maintaining a LIBOR Rate Loan and the costs to the Lender are increased or the income receivable by the Lender is reduced in respect of a LIBOR Rate Loan;

(c) the making, funding or maintaining of a LIBOR Rate Loan or a portion thereof by the Lender has become impracticable by reason of circumstances which materially and adversely affect the London interbank market; or

(d) deposits of U.S. Dollars are not available to the Lender in the London interbank market in sufficient amounts in the ordinary course of business for the applicable Lender to make, fund or maintain a LIBOR Rate Loan during the LIBOR Interest Rate Period; the Lender shall promptly notify the Borrower and the Administrative Agent setting forth the basis of that determination and the Borrower hereby instructs the Lender with notification to the Administrative Agent to repay the affected LIBOR Rate Loan with the proceeds of a U.S. Base Rate Loan in the amount of the LIBOR Rate Loan, to be drawn down on the date of such repayment. The Lender shall not be required to make any further LIBOR Rate Loan available under this Agreement so long as any of the circumstances referred to in this Section 1.8(1) continue.

(2) If (i) by reason of circumstances affecting financial markets generally, deposits of U.S. Dollars are unavailable to the Lenders in Canada, (ii) adequate and fair means do not exist for ascertaining the applicable interest rate on the basis provided in the definition of LIBOR Rate or US Base Rate, as the case may be, (iii) the making or continuation of any US Dollar loans has been made impracticable or unlawful (y) by the occurrence of a contingency (other than a mere increase in rates payable by the Lender to fund the Revolving Loans) and which materially adversely affects the funding of the Revolving Loans at any interest rate computed on the basis of the LIBOR Rate or the US Base Rate, as the case may be, or (z) by reason of a change since the date of this Agreement in any applicable law, order, treaty or official direction, or in the interpretation thereof by any Governmental Entity (whether or not having the force of law but, if not having the force of law, one with which a responsible Canadian chartered bank would comply) affecting financial markets or institutions generally and which results in the LIBOR Rate or the US Base Rate, as the case may be, no longer representing the effective cost to the Lenders of deposits in the market, then:

(a) the right of the Borrower to select any affected type of Revolving Loan shall be suspended until the circumstances causing the suspension no longer exist and the Administrative Agent so notifies the Borrower;

(b) if any affected Revolving Loan is not yet outstanding, any applicable Accommodation notice shall be cancelled and the requested loan shall not be made;

(c) if a LIBOR Rate Loan is already outstanding at any time when the right of the Borrower to select LIBOR Rate Loans is suspended, it and all other LIBOR Rate Loans in the same borrowing shall become US Base Rate Loans on the last day of the then current LIBOR Interest Period (or on such earlier date as may be required to comply with any applicable law, rule, regulation, judgment or order) or, if the Borrower does not have the right to select US Base Rate Loans at such time, the LIBOR Rate Loan shall become a Canadian Prime Rate Loan on the last day of the then current LIBOR Interest Period applicable to it (or on such earlier date as may be required to comply with any applicable law, rule, regulation, judgment or order) in a principal amount equal to the Equivalent Cdn. $ Amount of the LIBOR Rate Loan determined on the date on which the loan becomes denominated in Canadian Dollars; and

(d) if any U.S. Dollar loan is already outstanding at any time when the right of the Borrower to select U.S. Dollar loans is suspended, it and all other U.S. Dollar Loans included in the same borrowing shall become Canadian Prime Rate Loans (i) in the case of a LIBOR Rate Loan, on the last day of the then current LIBOR Interest Period (or on such earlier date as may be required to comply with any applicable law, rule or regulation), and (ii) in the case of a US Base Rate Loan, immediately, in a principal amount equal, in each case, to the Equivalent Cdn. $ Amount of the related U.S. Dollar loan determined on the date on which the loan becomes denominated in Canadian Dollars.

Section 1.9 Fees.

(1) The Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders, as applicable, the various fees set forth in the Fee Letter and in accordance with the terms thereof.

(2) As additional compensation for the Lenders, the Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent, for the rateable benefit of the Lenders, in arrears, on the first Business Day of each month prior to the Maturity Date, and on the Early Termination Date, a Fee for the Borrower's non-use of funds available under the Revolving Line of Credit (the "Standby Fee") in an amount equal to the Applicable Unused Facility Fee Margin per annum, calculated on the basis of a 365-day or 366-day year, as applicable, for actual days elapsed and on the average amount of the unused daily closing balance of the Revolving Line of Credit during the month for which such Fee is due.

(3) In consideration of the Administrative Agent's assistance with the issuance of Letters of Credit, the Borrower shall pay the Administrative Agent:

(a) on behalf of the Lenders, a letter of credit fee (the "Letter of Credit Fee") equal to two and one quarter of one percent (2.25%) per annum, payable monthly, in arrears, on the face amount of each Letter of Credit issued and outstanding;

(b) a fronting fee equal to the greater of Cdn$500 per annum (payable upon the issuance of each such Letter of Credit) and 0.25% per annum payable monthly, in arrears, on the face amount of each Letter of Credit issued and outstanding, which shall be retained by the Issuing Bank; and

(c) customary drawing and administration fees charged by each Issuing Bank.

(4) Each Fee payable hereunder shall be deemed to be fully-earned and payable when due, and any amount so paid shall be non-refundable.

(5) The Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent, the Co-Collateral Agents and the Lenders upon request all Out-of-Pocket Expenses (including all reasonable legal, environmental, appraisal and valuation and other consultant costs and fees) incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated in this Agreement.

(6) The Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent the Administrative Agent's standard charges, fees, costs and expenses for the personnel used by the Administrative Agent for conducting its field examinations and audits and for protecting, safeguarding, preserving or disposing of all or any part of the Collateral and enforcing any of its rights hereunder or under any other Loan Document (which fees shall be in addition to any fee set forth in the Fee Letter) and any Out-of Pocket Expenses) as incurred by the Administrative Agent.

Section 1.10 Payments.

The Borrower hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to charge the Revolving Loan Account with the amount of all payments due hereunder (including

Out-of-Pocket Expenses) as such payments become due. The Borrower confirms that any charges which the Administrative Agent may so make to the Revolving Loan Account as herein provided will be made as an Accommodation to the Borrower.

Section 1.11 Application and Allocation of Payments.

So long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, all payments shall be applied as follows: first, to Fees and reimbursable expenses of the Agents and the Lenders then due and payable pursuant to any of the Loan Documents; second, to interest then due and payable on the Revolving Loans; and third, to the principal balance of the Revolving Loans until the same has become paid in full. All payments applied to the Revolving Loans shall be applied rateably to the portion thereof held by each Lender as determined by its Pro Rata Share. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or any other Loan Document to the contrary, as to any other payment and as to all payments made when an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Borrower hereby irrevocably waives the right to direct the application of any and all payments received from or on behalf of the Borrower, and hereby irrevocably agrees that the Administrative Agent shall have the continuing exclusive right to apply any and all such payments to the Obligations as the Administrative Agent may deem advisable notwithstanding any previous entry made by the Administrative Agent in the Revolving Loan Account or any other books and records.

Section 1.12 Revolving Loan Account and Accounting.

(1) The Administrative Agent shall maintain a Revolving Loan Account on its books in which the Borrower will be charged with all loans and advances made by the Administrative Agent and the Lenders to it or for its account, and with any other Obligations, including, without limitation, any and all costs, expenses and reasonable counsel fees which the Administrative Agent, the Co-Collateral Agents or the Lenders may incur on the Lenders' behalf in connection with the exercise by or for the Administrative Agent, the Co-Collateral Agents or the Lenders of any of the rights or powers herein conferred or in any other Loan Document upon the Administrative Agent, the Co-Collateral Agents or the Lenders, or in the prosecution or defence of any action or proceeding to enforce or protect any rights of the Administrative Agent, the Co-Collateral Agents or the Lenders in connection with this Agreement, the other Loan Documents or the Collateral, or any Obligations owing by the Borrower. The Borrower will be credited with all amounts received by the Administrative Agent, the Co-Collateral Agents and/or the Lenders from the Borrower or from others for the Borrower's account, including, without limitation, as above set forth, all amounts received by the Administrative Agent in payment of Accounts, and such amounts will be applied to payment of the Obligations as set forth herein. In no event shall prior recourse to any Accounts or other security granted to or by the Borrower be a prerequisite to the Administrative Agent's right to demand payment of any Obligation. Further, it is understood that the Administrative Agent, the Co-Collateral Agents and/or the Lenders shall have no obligation whatsoever to perform in any respect any of the Borrower's contracts or obligations relating to the Accounts.

(2) After the end of each month, the Administrative Agent shall promptly send the Borrower a statement showing the accounting for the charges, loans, advances and other transactions occurring between the Administrative Agent (on behalf of the Co-Collateral Agents and the Lenders) and the Borrower during that month. The monthly statements shall constitute an account stated between the Borrower and the Administrative Agent and shall be deemed correct and binding on the Borrower unless the Administrative Agent receives a written statement of the exceptions within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the monthly statement by the Borrower.

Section 1.13 Sundry Credit Facilities.

(1) The Borrower may from time to time, by written notice to the Administrative Agent, request (and the Administrative Agent shall use its best efforts to do so upon receipt of such request, provided that such efforts shall not require the Administrative Agent to incur additional liabilities, obligations or costs to effect such arrangements, other than as contemplated under Section 1.13(3) with respect to the granting of an indemnity in favour of the financial institution providing the Sundry Credit Facilities) that the Administrative Agent arrange for a financial institution to provide Sundry Credit Facilities to the Borrower. The aggregate outstanding amount in respect of all Sundry Credit Facilities shall not exceed at any time the Sundry Credit Facility Limit. Upon the establishment of any Sundry Credit Facility, the amount of the Sundry Credit Facility Limit shall be deemed to be outstanding and to constitute and form part of the Obligations in the same manner as all other Obligations of the Borrower under this Agreement, and be secured by the Loan Documents and availability under CIT's Commitment shall be reduced by such amount. The parties acknowledge as of the date hereof such Sundry Credit Facilities have been established pursuant to the TD Banking Services Agreement.

(2) Any obligation of the Administrative Agent to arrange for a financial institution to establish any Sundry Credit Facility shall terminate upon (i) Availability being less than $100,000,000, (ii) Line Availability being less than $25,000,000, or (iii) the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default, or (iii) five (5) Business Days prior written notice by the Administrative Agent to the Borrower. For greater certainty, in the event of such termination of any such obligation, availability under CIT's Commitment shall thereafter be increased by the amount by which it was formerly reduced pursuant to Section 1.13(1) as a result of the establishment of the Sundry Credit Facilities.

(3) In connection with the establishment of the Sundry Credit Facilities, CIT as lender shall, if required by the financial institution(s) providing the Sundry Credit Facilities, provide such financial institution(s) with an indemnity (the "Sundry Credit Facility Indemnity") which shall be in form and substance satisfactory to CIT and such financial institution(s) for all indebtedness, liabilities, obligations, damages or other claims that such financial institution(s) may suffer or incur in connection with or arising out of the provision of the Sundry Credit Facilities, up to a maximum aggregate amount not exceeding the Sundry Credit Facility Limit (the "Indemnity Amount"). Without duplication to the reduction of availability under CIT's aggregate Commitment as contemplated in Section 1.13(1), the Indemnity Amount shall be deemed to constitute and form part of CIT's Commitment and to be outstanding and to constitute and form part of the Obligations in the same manner as all other Obligations of the Borrower under this Agreement, and CIT's obligations thereunder shall be secured by the Loan Documents.

Section 1.14 Blocked Accounts.

The Borrower shall continue to maintain and cause each of the other Blocked Account Credit Parties which maintains a deposit account to maintain, in its name and at its expense, the Blocked Accounts. The Borrower shall cause to be deposited and cause the Restricted Subsidiaries (as applicable) to cause to be deposited into such Blocked Accounts: (i) all proceeds of Collateral received by the Borrower or such Restricted Subsidiary, (ii), all amounts payable to the Borrower or any Canadian Credit Party from credit card issuers and credit card processors, and (iii) all amounts on deposit in deposit accounts used by the Borrower or any Canadian Credit Party at each of its locations. At any time upon (i) Line Availability being less than $75,000,000, or (ii) the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Administrative Agent may provide a Block Notice (as defined in, and pursuant to, a Blocked Account Agreement) or similar notice and upon the issuance of such notice, the depository banks at which the Blocked Accounts are maintained shall transfer all funds received or deposited into the Blocked Accounts to the Depository Accounts. For greater certainty, any such Block Notice or similar notice once issued shall only be withdrawn at the sole option and sole discretion of the Co-Collateral Agents. The Borrower hereby confirms and agrees that all amounts deposited in such Blocked Accounts and any other funds received and collected by the Administrative Agent, whether as proceeds of Inventory or Other Collateral or otherwise, shall be the property of the Administrative Agent on behalf of the Lenders.

Section 1.15 Indemnity.

(1) The Borrower shall indemnify and hold harmless each Agent and each of the Lenders and their respective Affiliates, and each such Person's respective officers, directors, employees, attorneys, agents and representatives (each, an "Indemnified Person"), from and against any and all suits, actions, proceedings, demands, obligations, claims, damages, losses, disbursements, liabilities, penalties, costs and expenses (including, but not limited to, legal fees and fees of any financial advisors to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders, or any successor or replacement financial advisors) of any kind that may be incurred by or asserted against any such Indemnified Person (including, without limitation, any payments made by the Administrative Agent, the Co-Collateral Agents or any Lender pursuant to any indemnity provided by any such Person) in connection with or arising out of the transactions contemplated under this Agreement, the other Loan Documents, or any commitment relating thereto, any other related financing documentation, including without limitation (a) the Depository Account, the Blocked Accounts, the Payroll Accounts, any depository account and/or any and all agreements executed in connection with the foregoing; (b) the issuance of any Letters of Credit; (c) the establishment of any Sundry Credit Facilities and any indemnity (including, the Sundry Credit Facility Indemnity) issued by the Administrative Agent or any Lender in connection with the Sundry Credit Facilities; and (d) disputes or Environmental Liabilities or any related investigation, litigation or proceeding (collectively, "Indemnified Liabilities"); provided, that the Borrower shall not be liable for any indemnification to any Indemnified Person to the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction has determined, by a final and non-appealable judgment, that any such suit, action, proceeding, claim, damage, loss, liability or expense results directly from such Indemnified Person's gross negligence or wilful misconduct. Under no circumstances shall any Indemnified Person be responsible or liable to any other party to any loan document, any successor, assignee or third party beneficiary of such person or any other person asserting claims derivatively through such party, for indirect, punitive, exemplary or consequential damages which may be alleged in connection with the transactions contemplated under this Agreement, any other Loan Documents, or any commitment relating thereto, the documents related thereto, or any other financing, irrespective of whether or not such transactions are so consummated.

(2) The Borrower shall pay to each Lender on demand any amounts required to compensate the Lender for any loss suffered or incurred by it as a result of (i) any payment being made in respect of a BA Instrument, Letter of Credit or Accommodation, other than on the maturity or expiration or on the last day of an LIBOR Interest Period applicable to it, (ii) the failure of the Borrower to give any notice in the manner and at the times required by this Agreement, (iii) the failure of the Borrower to effect an Accommodation in the manner and at the time specified in any Accommodation Notice, or (iv) the failure of the Borrower to make a payment or a mandatory repayment in the manner and at the time specified in this Agreement. A certificate as to the amount of any loss submitted in good faith by the Lender to the Borrower shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes, absent manifest error.

(3) The Borrower acknowledges that neither its obligation to indemnify nor any actual indemnification by it of the Lender, the Administrative Agent or any other Indemnified Person in respect of such Person's losses for legal fees and expenses shall in any way affect the confidentiality or privilege relating to any information communicated by such Person to its counsel.

Section 1.16 Taxes.

(1) Subject to Section 1.16(6), all payments to the Administrative Agent, the Co-Collateral Agents and the Lenders by the Borrower under any of the Loan Documents shall be made free and clear of and without deduction or withholding for any and all present and future taxes, duties, levies, interest, assessments, imposts, deductions, charges or withholdings and all related liabilities (but excluding taxes imposed on or measured by the net income or capital of the Administrative Agent, any Co-Collateral Agent or any Lender) (all such included taxes, duties, levies, imposts, interest, assessments, deductions, charges, withholdings and liabilities being referred to as "Withholding Taxes"), unless such Withholding Taxes are required by applicable law to be deducted or withheld. If the Borrower shall be required by applicable law to deduct or withhold any such Withholding Taxes from or in respect of any amount payable under any of the Loan Documents (i) the amount payable shall be increased (and for greater certainty, in the case of interest, the amount of interest shall be increased) as may be necessary so that after making all required deductions or withholdings (including deductions or withholdings applicable to any additional amounts paid under this Section 1.16(1)), the Administrative Agent, the Co-Collateral Agents and the Lenders receive an amount equal to the amount they would have received if no such deduction or withholding had been made, (ii) the Borrower shall make such deductions or withholdings, and (iii) the Borrower shall immediately pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Entity in accordance with applicable law.

(2) Subject to Section 1.16(6), the Borrower also agrees to immediately pay any present or future stamp or documentary taxes or any other excise or property taxes, charges, financial institutions duties, debits taxes or similar levies (all such taxes, charges, duties and levies being referred to as "Other Taxes") which arise from any payment made by the Borrower under any of the Loan Documents or from the execution, delivery or registration of, or otherwise with respect to, any of the Loan Documents.

(3) Subject to Section 1.16(6), the Borrower shall also indemnify the Administrative Agent, the Co-Collateral Agents and the Lenders on an after tax basis (taking into account any taxes on the net income of the entity so indemnified) for the full amount of Withholding Taxes or Other Taxes (including, without limitation, any Withholding Taxes or Other Taxes imposed by any jurisdiction on amounts payable by the Borrower under this Section 1.16) paid by the Administrative Agent or the relevant Co-Collateral Agent or Lender and any liability (including penalties, interest and expenses) arising from or with respect to such Withholding Taxes or Other Taxes, whether or not they were correctly or legally asserted. Payment under this indemnification shall be made within 30 days from the date the Administrative Agent or the relevant Co-Collateral Agent or Lender, as the case may be, make written demand for it. A certificate as to the amount of such Withholding Taxes or Other Taxes submitted to the Borrower by the Administrative Agent or the relevant Co-Collateral Agent or Lender shall be conclusive evidence, absent manifest error, of the amount due from the Borrower to the Administrative Agent or the relevant Co-Collateral Agent or Lender, as the case may be.
