21 JUNE 2007

RETIREMENT OF CHIEF MARKETING OFFICER, RICK SCULLY

Rick Scully, Chief Marketing Officer, will retire from Foster's Group Limited (Foster's) effective 30 June 2007 after 39 years with the company and affiliated businesses.

Rick has served as a member of the Foster's Leadership Team for the past 12 years. During this time, Rick has taken on a number of key marketing, commercial and executive roles, including responsibility for Foster's global beer businesses. Most recently, Rick has taken on the challenge of building a global marketing capability and contributed successfully to the growth of Foster's global brand portfolio.

Following Rick's departure, responsibility for global brand strategy will be split between the Regional Managing Directors.

"Rick has made an enormous contribution to the business over a 39 year career," said Foster's CEO, Trevor O'Hoy.

"I offer my sincere thanks and appreciation to Rick for his leadership and passionate commitment to the business. I wish Rick and his family all the very best for the future."
