Accordingly, Deutsche Lufthansa will no longer be required to mail materials in paper form to the SEC as was previously required to satisfy the submission obligations.

All materials currently being submitted to the SEC by mail will be published on the website: www.lufthansa-financials.com

English translations will be available, as was the case in the prior paper submission process, of the annual report and any interim reports (including financial statements), material press releases and other distributions sent to the shareholders under home-country law.
