PETROWEST ENERGY SERVICES TRUST

● Trust Units

This prospectus qualifies the distribution of ● trust units (the "Trust Units") of Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust"). The Trust is an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose mutual fund trust established under and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta.

The Trust intends to make monthly distributions of its available cash to holders of Units ("Unitholders"). The initial cash distribution, which will be for the period from Closing to ● , 2006, is expected to be paid on ● , 2006 to Unitholders of record on ● , 2006, and is estimated to be approximately $ ● in the aggregate, representing $ ● per Unit. As results of operations may vary, the distribution of cash is not assured. See "Summary of Distributable Cash".

The price of the Trust Units has been determined by negotiation between the Trust, Petrowest Energy Services General Partner Ltd. (the "General Partner") and Westwind Partners Inc. and Sprott Securities Inc. (together, the "Lead Underwriters"), Lightyear Capital Inc., Blackmont Capital Inc. and Dundee Securities Corporation (collectively with the Lead Underwriters, the "Underwriters"). Westwind Partners Inc., Westwind Partners (UK) Limited and Sprott Securities Inc. are financial advisors to Petrowest.

Price: $10.00 per Trust Unit

	Price to the Public	Underwriters' Fee	Net Proceeds to the Trust[1]
Per Trust Unit	$10.00	$0.60	$9.40
Total Offering	$ ●	$ ●	$ ●

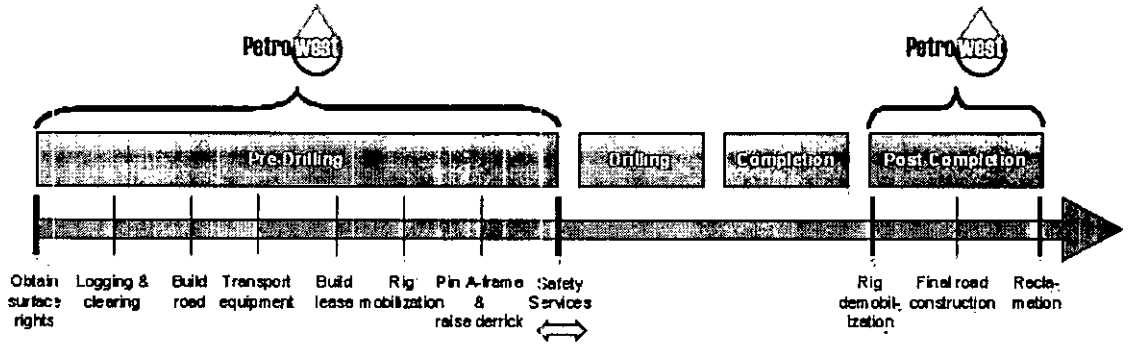
Notes:

(1) After deducting the Underwriters' fee but before deducting the estimated expenses of this offering of $2 million, which expenses, together with the Underwriters' fee, will be paid from the proceeds of this offering.

(2) The Trust has granted to the Underwriters an option (the "Over-Allotment Option") to purchase up to an additional ● Trust Units on the same terms as set forth above, exercisable in whole or in part from time to time for a period of 30 days following the date of closing solely to cover over-allotments, if any. This prospectus also qualifies the distribution of these additional Trust Units. If the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full, the price to the public, Underwriters' fee and net proceeds to the Trust (before deducting the expenses of this offering) will be $ ● , $ ● and $ ● , respectively. See "Plan of Distribution".

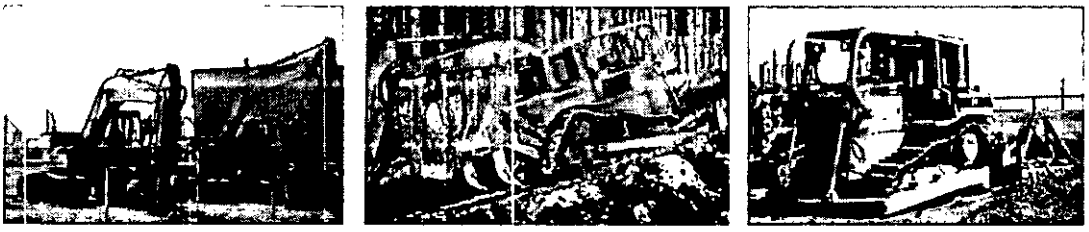
The Trust does not currently carry on any active business. Closing of this offering is conditional upon the satisfaction of the Acquisition Condition (as herein defined). An investment in these securities should be considered speculative due to the nature of Petrowest's (as herein defined) business and its present stage of development and is subject to a number of risks. There is currently no market through which the Trust Units may be sold and purchasers may not be able to resell the Trust Units purchased under this prospectus. An investment in Trust Units should only be made by persons who can afford a significant or total loss of their investment. See "Risk Factors".

The Underwriters, as principals, conditionally offer the Trust Units, subject to prior sale, if, as and when issued by the Trust and accepted by the Underwriters in accordance with the conditions contained in the Underwriting Agreement referred to under "Plan of Distribution" and subject to the approval of certain legal matters on behalf of the Trust and its subsidiaries by Bennett Jones LLP and on behalf of the Underwriters by Stikeman Elliott LLP. Subscriptions for Trust Units will be received subject to rejection or allotment in whole or in part and the right is reserved to close the subscription books at any time without notice. One or more certificates representing the Trust Units issued pursuant to this offering will be issued in registered form to The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited ("CDS") or its nominee and will be deposited with CDS on the date of the Closing, which is expected to occur on or about ● , 2006, but in any event not later than ● , 2006. A purchaser of Trust Units will receive only a customer confirmation from a registered dealer that is a CDS participant from or through which Trust Units are purchased.



Although the Trust intends to make distributions of its available cash to Unitholders, these cash distributions are not assured. The actual amount distributed will depend on numerous factors including the Trust's and its subsidiaries' financial performance, debt covenants and obligations, working capital requirements and future capital requirements. The market value of the Trust Units may deteriorate if the Trust is unable to meet its cash distribution targets in the future, and that deterioration may be material. The Trust does not have a stability rating. See "Risk Factors".

The after-tax return to Unitholders subject to Canadian federal income tax from an investment in Trust Units will depend, in part, on the composition for tax purposes of distributions paid by the Trust, portions of which may be fully taxable or constitute non-taxable returns of capital, which are not included in a Unitholder's income but which reduce the adjusted cost base of the Trust Units to the Unitholder. The composition for tax purposes of those distributions may change over time, thus affecting the after-tax return to Unitholders. The estimated portion of a subscriber's investment that initially will be taxed as a return on capital is 85% and the estimated portion that initially will be taxed as a return of capital is 15%. Returns on capital are generally taxed as ordinary income or as dividends in the hands of a Unitholder resident in Canada. Returns of capital are generally non-taxable to a Unitholder resident in Canada (but reduce the holder's adjusted cost base of the Trust Units for tax purposes). See "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations" and "Description of the Trust — Cash Distributions".



The Trust Units are not "deposits" within the meaning of the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation Act (Canada) and are not insured under the provisions of that Act or any other legislation. Furthermore, the Trust is not a trust company and, accordingly, it is not registered under any trust and loan company legislation and it does not carry on or intend to carry on the business of a trust company.

PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

The following is a summary of the principal features of this offering and should be read together with the more detailed information and financial data and statements contained elsewhere in this prospectus. Please refer to the Glossary for an explanation of certain terms used in this prospectus and in this summary.

On Closing of this offering, the Trust will be a business trust operating an energy services business through its indirect subsidiaries. Unitholders will hold Units of the Trust, which in turn will hold a 100% beneficial interest in the Petrowest Business Trust. The Petrowest Business Trust will, via the four Partnerships (corresponding with four business divisions), hold the assets of the businesses historically operated by the Acquired Companies. See "The Trust and its Subsidiaries".

Business of Petrowest

Petrowest will be a diversified oilfield services trust that will provide pre-drilling and post-completion services to the northern region of the WCSB. Petrowest will service the region via its head and operational office in Grande Prairie, Alberta and nine full-service locations throughout northern Alberta and British Columbia, each with a staging area, shop area, and sales and service personnel. Petrowest's corporate office will be in Calgary, Alberta.

Petrowest will acquire the Acquired Companies, which are all established, private Grande Prairie-based pre-drilling and post-completion service providers. The nine Acquired Companies are complementary to one another and will have the ability to provide clients with a full-range of services, cost competitive pricing, the capability to service large-scale contracts, and a modern and well-maintained equipment fleet. Petrowest intends to expand and improve on the aforementioned benefits as it executes its growth strategy of further integration, organic expansion, and complementary acquisitions.

Petrowest's business will be operated in four divisions corresponding to the four Partnerships as follows:

- Road and Lease Construction Division – will provide oilfield well site lease preparation, road construction, earth moving, reclamation, commercial projects and other lease construction services. The Road and Lease Construction Division will have four camps and approximately 90 pieces of major equipment (average age: four years) and 130 full-time employees (average industry experience: nine years);
- Transportation and Hauling Division – will provide general oilfield hauling, rig mobilization and demobilization, equipment transportation, log loading and hauling, gravel hauling, pipe hauling and other transportation services. The Transportation and Hauling Division will have approximately 80 pieces of major equipment (average age: five years) and 100 full-time employees (average industry experience: 10 years);
- Civil Services Division – will provide general rock and gravel crushing and oilfield safety services and rentals. The Civil Services Division will have approximately 120 pieces of major equipment (average age: five years) and 80 full-time employees (average industry experience: eight years); and

- Heavy Equipment Rentals Division – will provide oilfield and construction heavy equipment rentals. The Heavy Equipment Rentals Division will have approximately 60 pieces of major equipment (average age: three years) and 10 full-time employees (average industry experience: 15 years).

See "Business of Petrowest" and "Divisional Structure".

The following table illustrates selected historical financial performance of the Acquired Companies, organized by Petrowest's operating divisions, for the periods indicated.

Operational Strengths

Petrowest intends to become the leader in pre-drilling and post-completion services to the northern region of the WCSB. Petrowest intends to achieve this by capitalizing on the operational strengths of the Acquired Companies, which combined provide the following advantages:

- Ability to Provide a "One-Stop-Shop" Service Approach – As a result of the broad spectrum of energy services businesses which will comprise Petrowest, oil and gas clients will have access to a full range of pre-drilling and post-completion services. Industry trends suggest that oil and gas companies prefer to utilize a services company that can provide a full range of services as opposed to procuring the same services from a host of sources. Benefits to the client include reduced overhead costs, a reduction in invoicing and accounting procedures, reduced wait times for services and increased efficiency in procuring pre-drilling and post-completion services. This model allows clients to meet the shorter time frames demanded by an environment where it is becoming increasingly difficult to engage services in a timely manner due to the general robustness of the energy sector coupled with labour challenges.

- Intra-Company Synergies – Each operating division within Petrowest will possess the ability to provide services to other divisions to facilitate its customers' specific pre-drilling and post-completion needs. Petrowest's clients will benefit from Petrowest's cross-company utilization strategies that otherwise would be absent. For example, the Civil Services Division can take advantage of the Transportation and Hauling Division's ability to provide hauling needs resulting in increased utilization rates due to reduced down time.

- Ability to Service Large Scale Contracts – Petrowest's combined divisions will be positioned to take advantage of larger contract jobs as a result of its increased capacity to provide a full range of pre-drilling and post-completion services at competitive rates and in geographic areas that are comparatively difficult to access for smaller service companies. In northern Alberta and British Columbia, where well site lease-building costs are much greater than at conventional locations with relatively easy year-round access, this advantage will become increasingly strategic.

- Competitive Pricing – Petrowest intends to provide its customers with high-quality services using competitive pricing in an environment where costs are becoming increasingly high. By offering clients a full range of pre-drilling and post-completion services, Petrowest will have the ability to meet customer price points with greater flexibility and customer satisfaction.

- Quality Equipment Fleet – With the acquisition of a fleet of equipment with an average age of approximately 4.5 years and an increased access to growth capital, Petrowest will utilize an equipment fleet that is new and well-maintained. This will result in greater safety standards and reduced down times due to equipment breakdowns. As a result, clients will benefit from greater reliability in the performance of Petrowest's full range of pre-drilling and post-completion services.

- People – The key operating and technical people that comprise the four divisions within Petrowest will represent a valuable and important component of Petrowest's operational strengths. Given the current labour shortages in western Canada combined with senior management attrition in the energy services industry generally, it is important to understand that the key managers of the Acquired Companies have been in place with the Acquired Companies for an average of 17 years. Additionally, the respective middle management and employees of the Acquired Companies are dedicated to their businesses and have proven their commitment and loyalty by their long-term employment tenures. Petrowest's human resource assets will be key in its overall profitability and customer satisfaction, both near and long term.

See "Business of Petrowest - Operational Strengths".

Strategy for Growth

Petrowest's strategy will be to develop a long-term business which delivers sustainable and increasing per Unit distributions by growing its Road and Lease Construction, Transportation and Hauling, Civil Services and Heavy Equipment Rentals divisions. Petrowest will achieve this by integrating the businesses conducted by the Acquired Companies and establishing Petrowest as the recognized pre-drilling and post-completion service provider to the northern region of the WCSB. Petrowest will consider expanding the number of businesses within the divisions and adding other businesses and divisions if acquisition candidates meet Petrowest's acquisition criteria. See "Strategy – Acquisitions."

Petrowest anticipates acquiring approximately $32 million of new equipment over the next twelve months. This expenditure will be funded by operating leases and $8.3 million of working capital. These expenditures will add equipment to each of Petrowest's divisions to allow for future growth. This equipment has been ordered and management anticipates that the majority of this equipment will be utilized by Petrowest later in the third quarter of 2006.

Petrowest intends to integrate the businesses conducted by the Acquired Companies and future acquisitions within the divisions. Petrowest intends to capitalize on the track records of the Acquired Companies with respect to commitment to customer service, operational efficiency, health and safety and financial return.

Petrowest will operate in the northern region of the WCSB, principally from Grande Prairie, Alberta. At the present time, Petrowest does not intend to expand operations into eastern Canada, the United States or internationally.

See "Business of Petrowest - Strategy".

Investment Opportunity

Petrowest intends to sustain and increase its cash flow and distributions through both organic growth and acquisitions of other energy services businesses that have similar characteristics to the Acquired Companies.

Management expects Petrowest to have the following notable attributes:

- ownership of established businesses that provide the full-range of pre-drilling and post-completion services to the northern region of the WCSB;
- alignment of management and Unitholder interests through the subordination of management's equity interest and structured escrow terms on the Units acquired by the founding Unitholders as well as structured escrow terms on the Trust Units acquired by the shareholders of each of the Acquired Companies. See "Escrowed and Subordinated Securities";
- strong balance sheet with financial flexibility to balance between internal growth and payout of distributions to investors;
- high historic profitability of the Acquired Companies with average Adjusted EBITDA margins over 30%;
- an initial monthly distribution of $• per Unit. See "Summary of Distributable Cash";
- well positioned to capitalize on robust industry activity levels and future northern development opportunities through internal growth and acquisition opportunities;
- modern and well-maintained major equipment with an average age of approximately 4.5 years, providing a solid, cost-effective foundation from which growth can occur;
- focused and experienced executive management team and board of directors;

- focused growth strategy through a combination of internal, organic growth coupled with strategic accretive acquisitions; and

- tax effective trust structure which will facilitate access to capital that can be used for investments in equipment and strategic acquisitions.

See "Business of Petrowest - Investment Opportunity".

Acquisition Agreements

Acquisitionco has entered into the Purchase and Sale Agreements providing for the purchase by Acquisitionco of the Acquired Companies for an aggregate base purchase price of $230,934,992, subject to post-closing adjustments. This represents a value of approximately five times the sum of aggregate EBITDA plus management bonuses and non-recurring items for the twelve months ended December 31, 2005 of the Acquired Companies, plus an estimate of adjustments for working capital ($15.7 million), plus amounts paid for equipment after December 31, 2005 ($6.7 million), less an estimate of long-term debt ($23.5 million). Management's estimate of the sum of EBITDA plus management bonuses and non-recurring items of the Acquired Companies was based on financial statements reviewed by the Acquired Companies' independent accountants for the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2005. The aggregate base purchase price will be paid by $103,284,052 in cash and the issuance by the Trust of an aggregate of 12,765,094 Trust Units. Post-closing an audit of the working capital, shareholder loans and long term debt of each of the Acquired Companies as at the date of closing of the acquisition of the Acquired Companies will be performed. Subject to certain conditions, the results of this audit will be used to determine whether a positive or negative cash adjustment will be made to the aggregate base purchase price of the Acquired Companies. Petrowest will also retire term and capital lease debt associated with the Acquired Companies.

The Purchase and Sale Agreements contain representations and warranties in favour of Acquisitionco including representations and warranties respecting the Acquired Companies' corporate status, financial status, employees, assets, real property and the absence of environmental claims. Subject to certain limited exceptions, all representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Purchase and Sale Agreements on the part of each of the parties will survive the closing of the acquisition of the Acquired Companies, the execution and delivery under the Purchase and Sale Agreements of any share or security transfer instruments or other documents of title to any of the shares and the payment of the consideration for the shares.

In addition, it is a condition of the Purchase and Sale Agreements that 13 key personnel of the Acquired Companies shall have executed and delivered management employment agreements with the General Partner prior to closing. See "Acquisition of the Acquired Companies – Management Contracts."

Purchasers of Trust Units pursuant to this offering may not have a direct statutory right of action against each vendor of the shares of the Acquired Companies for a misrepresentation in this prospectus in respect of the Acquired Companies. Purchasers are advised to review the terms of the Purchase and Sale Agreements for a complete description of the representations, warranties and indemnities and related liabilities of the vendors of the shares of the Acquired Companies. Copies of the Purchase and Sale Agreements may be inspected at Petrowest's corporate office in Calgary during normal business hours during the period of distribution of the Trust Units.

Summary of Distributable Cash

Management has prepared the following summary of distributable cash generated by the Acquired Companies on the basis of information contained in this prospectus, and management's estimate of the amount of expenses that would have been incurred by the Acquired Companies and Petrowest had Petrowest been in existence for the three months ended April 30, 2006 and for the twelve-months ended December 31, 2005. The analysis is neither a forecast nor a projection of future results. The actual results of operations of Petrowest for any period, whether before or after the Closing, will vary from the amounts set forth in the following analysis and such variation may be material. Additionally, management believes the operations of Petrowest are subject to risks, and in reviewing the following summary of distributable cash, investors should review and consider the risks described under the heading "Risk Factors".

Management views distributable cash as an operating performance measure, as it is a measure generally used by Canadian income funds as an indicator of financial performance. As the Trust will distribute substantially all of its cash on an ongoing basis (after providing for certain amounts described below) and since EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA (as respectively defined in "Non-GAAP Measures") are metrics used by many investors to compare issuers on the basis of their ability to generate cash from operations, management believes that, in addition to net earnings, EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are useful supplemental measures from which to make adjustments to determine distributable cash. The estimate of distributable cash has been prepared using assumptions which management believes are reasonable and supportable, all of which reflect the Partnerships planned course of action given management's judgement about the most probable set of economic conditions.

Management believes that, upon completion of this offering and the Concurrent Acquisitions, Petrowest will incur lease expenses, management salaries, maintenance capital expenditures, general and administrative costs, and other expenses that will differ from those contained in the historical financial statements of each of the Acquired Companies that are included elsewhere in this prospectus. Although management does not have firm commitments for all of the aforementioned items and, accordingly, the complete financial effects of all of those items are not objectively determinable, management believes that the following represents a reasonable estimate of the distributable cash of the Trust that could have been available for distribution for the three months ended April 30, 2006 and for the twelve-months ended December 31, 2005 had the Trust been in existence during such time and had the Concurrent Acquisitions taken place at the beginning of such periods.

Summary of Distributable Cash

Adjusted EBITDA[1][2]	$ 15,795	$ 42,739
Management believes that cash available for distribution should be reduced by the following:
Incremental executive, board and public company costs[3]	$ 306	$ 1,223
Maintenance capital expenditures[4]	$ 825	$ 3,300
Interest expense[5]	$ 75	$ 300
Management believes that cash available for distribution should be increased by the following:
Adjustment for costs associated with non-recurring items, insurance, and office and administration consolidation[3]	$ 283	$ 1,132
Cash available for distribution	$ 14,872	$ 39,048
Cash holdback[6]	$ •	$ •
Cash holdback %	•%	•%
Distributable cash[7]	$ •	$ •
Estimated distributable cash per Unit[8]	$ •	$ •

Notes:

(1) Represents the pro forma consolidated Adjusted EBITDA of the Trust for the three months ended April 30, 2006 and the twelve months ended December 31, 2005 calculated as the sum of earnings (loss) of $7,411,674 and $10,346,723, income taxes of $nil and $nil, other interest of $50,706 and $103,247 and amortization of $8,418,645 and $32,374,714 less interest and other revenue of $85,773 and $85,684, respectively. See "Selected Pro Forma Consolidated Financial Information" and the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements and related notes of the Trust included in Schedule "B" of this prospectus.

(2) Adjusted EBITDA is not a recognized measure under GAAP, does not have a standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP and may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other issuers. See "Non-GAAP Measures" and Schedule "C" - "Reconciliation of Net Earnings to EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA". As the Trust intends to distribute substantially all of its cash available for distribution (after satisfaction of administrative expenses and other amounts as may be considered appropriate by the Board of Directors) on an on-going basis, management believes that Adjusted EBITDA is an important measure in evaluating the Trust's performance and in determining whether to invest in the Trust.

(3) Management estimates that, subsequent to this offering, Petrowest will incur additional costs on an ongoing basis in connection with ongoing public disclosure requirements, investor relations, additional employee compensation, trustee and director fees, and other related matters. Also, management anticipates that Petrowest will realize savings associated with general and administrative costs on an ongoing basis in connection with insurance, office administration and supplies and non-recurring items. These estimates are based on quotes provided by service providers, preliminary contractual arrangements, expenses in similar offering transactions and comparisons with historical expenses.

(4) Represents management's estimate of annual maintenance capital expenditures, including expenditures required to maintain the base fleet of equipment, inventory of equipment, equipment certification costs, leasehold and office improvements, and tools. Estimates are based on historical expenditures, consistent with management's plans for funding capital expenditures on an ongoing basis. See "Acquisition of the Acquired Companies".

(5) Represents estimated interest expense on proposed credit facilities that management intends to secure concurrent with the Closing. Management anticipates a credit facility will be in the form of a revolving line of credit. Management estimates that the facility will be utilized to fund seasonal working capital requirements. On an annualized basis, management estimates that Petrowest will, on average, carry a balance of $5 million with an average interest rate of 6%.

(6) Management initially intends to reserve approximately •% of cash available for actual distribution.

(7) Distributable cash is not a recognized measure under GAAP and is typically used by Canadian income funds as an indicator of financial performance. The method of calculating the Trust's distributable cash may differ from similar computations as reported by other issuers and, accordingly, the distributable cash of the Trust may not be comparable to distributable cash as reported by other issuers. See "Non-GAAP Measures".

(8) Based on • Units outstanding on a fully diluted basis upon Closing.

The Offering

Offering:	• Trust Units of the Trust.
Over-Allotment Option:	The Trust has granted to the Underwriters the Over-Allotment Option to purchase up to an additional • Trust Units. See "Plan of Distribution".
Amount:	$• million ($• million if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full).
Price:	$10.00 per Trust Unit.
Closing:	The Closing of this offering is anticipated to occur on or about •, 2006, and in any event not later than •.
Units:	An unlimited number of Trust Units and Subordinated Units may be issued pursuant to the Deed of Trust. In certain circumstances Subordinated Units are subordinate to Trust Units in respect of distributions of the Trust. The Subordinated Units will automatically convert into Trust Units on a one-for-one basis at (and the subordination provisions will only apply until) the end of the first fiscal year ending on or after December 31, 2008 where the Trust satisfies its EBITDA Target and Distribution Target for such fiscal year. Each Unit represents an equal undivided beneficial interest in the Trust and, subject to the subordination of the Subordinated Units, any distributions from the Trust. Each Trust Unit is transferable and entitles the registered holder thereof to an equal participation in distributions of the Trust, rights of redemption and one vote at all meetings of Unitholders. See "Description of the Trust".
Use of Proceeds:	The aggregate gross proceeds of this offering will be $• million ($• million if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full). The estimated net proceeds of this offering, after deducting $• million representing fees payable to the Underwriters ($• million if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full) and the estimated expenses of this offering of $2.0 million, will be $• million ($• million if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full). The Trust will use the net proceeds to subscribe for Business Notes and Business Units. Petrowest Business Trust is anticipated to use the offering proceeds as follows: approximately $103.3 to pay the cash portion of the base purchase price for the Acquired Companies, $8.3 million for growth capital and $• million for working capital and, in the interim, $• million will be used for debt repayment to retire certain long-term debt of the Acquired Companies ($•, $• and $•, respectively, if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full). See "Use of Proceeds" and "Acquisition of the Acquired Companies".
Distribution Policy of the Trust:	The Trust expects to make monthly distributions of its available cash to Unitholders which are expected to be paid on or about the 15th day following the end of each month. These distributions will represent all cash received from the Trust's indirect interest in the Partnerships, less cash amounts required for expenses and other obligations of the Trust, cash redemptions of Units, any tax liability, reserves determined by the General Partner and certain other amounts. The Trust expects to make its initial cash distribution for the period from Closing to •, 2006 on •, 2006 to Unitholders of record on •, 2006 in the estimated aggregate amount of $•, representing $• per Unit. See "Summary of Distributable Cash".

Cash distributions are not guaranteed and Distributable Cash will fluctuate with, among other things, Petrowest's performance. See "Risk Factors - Risks Related to the Business".

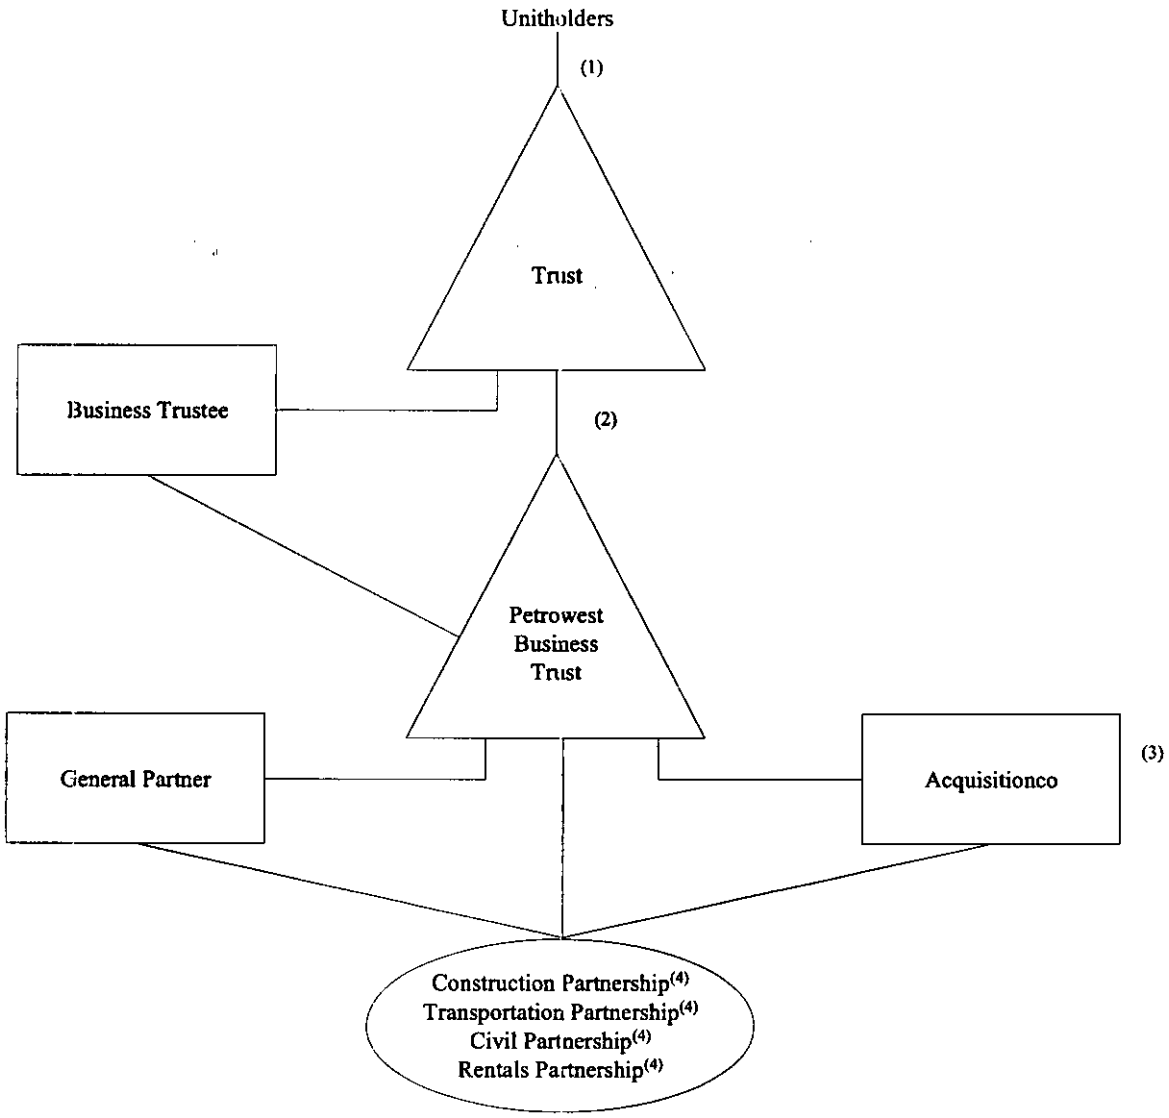
Eligibility for Investment: In the opinion of Bennett Jones LLP, counsel to the Trust, and Stikeman Elliott LLP, counsel to the Underwriters, based upon the assumptions set out under "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations" and certificates as to factual matters given by the Trust, the Trust Units, on Closing, will be qualified investments under the Tax Act for trusts governed by Plans.

Risk Factors: An investment in these securities should be considered speculative due to the nature of Petrowest's business and its present stage of development. There are additional risks associated with an investment in these securities relating to: absence of any current business; absence of operating history; failure to acquire all of the Acquired Companies; failure to realize anticipated benefits of the Concurrent Acquisitions and/or future acquisitions; volatility of industry conditions; seasonality; capital expenditures; alternatives to and changing demand for petroleum products; sources, pricing and availability of equipment and equipment parts; government regulation; Kyoto Protocol; operating risks and insurance; agreements and contracts; personnel; competition; credit risk; conflicts of interest; foreign exchange and interest rates; disclosure and internal controls; investment eligibility; mutual fund trust status; redemption of Units; nature of Units; Unitholder limited liability; restrictions on non-resident ownership; dependence on operating entities; return of capital; changes in legislation; delay in cash distributions; additional financing; absence of prior market; income tax matters; and statutory remedies. In assessing the risks of an investment in the Units, subscribers must rely upon the ability and integrity of the management of Petrowest. Subscribers should consult their own professional advisors to assess the income tax, legal and other aspects of an investment in the Units. See "Risk Factors".

Petrowest Energy Services Trust and its Subsidiaries

The Trust is an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose mutual fund trust established under and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to the Deed of Trust that was created on July 6, 2006. The registered office of the Trust is 4500 855- 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta and the head office of the Trust is located at Suite 204, 10605 Westside Drive, Grande Prairie, Alberta. The Trust was established to hold Business Notes and a 100% beneficial interest in the Petrowest Business Trust. The trustee of the Trust will be the Trustee. The General Partner will be responsible for overseeing and managing the Trust and Petrowest Business Trust. The General Partner is a corporation that was incorporated under the ABCA on July 6, 2006, all of the outstanding shares of which will be held by the Petrowest Business Trust.

When established, the Petrowest Business Trust will be an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose mutual fund trust established under and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to the Business Deed of Trust. The trustee of the Business Trust will be Business Trustee, a corporation to be incorporated under the ABCA, all of the outstanding shares of which will be held by the Trust.



The Petrowest Business Trust, directly and indirectly, will hold a 100% interest in the Construction Partnership, the Transportation Partnership, the Civil Partnership and the Rentals Partnership (collectively, the "Partnerships") through which Petrowest's Road and Lease Construction Division, Transportation and Hauling Division, Civil Services Division and Heavy Equipment Rentals Division, respectively, will operate upon completion of the Concurrent Acquisitions and the Reorganization. Each of the Partnerships will be a limited partnership formed under the laws of Alberta. The general partner of the Partnerships will be the General Partner and the limited partners of the partnerships will be the Petrowest Business Trust and Acquisitionco.

Acquisitionco is a corporation, all of the common shares of which will be held by the Petrowest Business Trust. Acquisitionco has entered into the Share Purchase Agreements pursuant to which Acquisitionco has the right, subject to certain conditions, to acquire all of the outstanding shares of the Acquired Companies, each of which is involved in the energy services business. Concurrent with the Closing of this offering, Acquisitionco will acquire all of the outstanding shares of each of the Acquired Companies following which each of the Acquired Companies will be amalgamated with Acquisitionco. Acquisitionco will then transfer the businesses historically operated by the Acquired Companies, including all of their assets, undertaking, intellectual property and liabilities, into the Partnerships.

The General Partner and Acquisitionco have not carried on any business prior to the date hereof and do not hold any material assets other than the right of Acquisitionco to acquire the Acquired Companies pursuant to the Purchase and Sale Agreements. All of the outstanding shares of the General Partner and Acquisitionco are currently held by the Trust. Prior to Closing, all of the outstanding shares of the General Partner and Acquisitionco will be transferred to the Business Trust.

See "The Trust and its Subsidiaries".

Following completion of this offering, the Concurrent Acquisitions and the Reorganization, Petrowest's business will operate as follows:

Notes:

(1) Unitholders hold Trust Units and Subordinated Units of the Trust. Immediately following the Closing of this offering and the Concurrent Acquisitions, the shareholders of the Acquired Companies will hold •%, the subscribers under this offering will hold •% and the holders of Subordinated Units will hold •%, of the outstanding Units, respectively.

(2) The Trust will hold the Business Notes and a 100% beneficial interest in the Petrowest Business Trust.

(3) Acquisitionco will amalgamate with the Acquired Companies immediately following the completion of the Concurrent Acquisitions.

(4) Pursuant to the Reorganization, the Partnerships will acquire the businesses historically carried on by the Acquired Companies.

NON-GAAP MEASURES

Throughout this prospectus, the Trust uses the term "Distributable Cash" to refer to the amount of cash that is expected to be available for distributions to Unitholders; the term "EBITDA" to refer to earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization; the term "Adjusted EBITDA" to refer to EBITDA before management bonuses; the term "Adjusted EBITDA Margin" to refer to a fraction, the numerator of which is Adjusted EBITDA and the denominator of which is revenue; and the term "Earning percentage" to refer to a fraction, the numerator of which is Net Earnings for the period and the denominator of which is revenue. The terms Distributable Cash, EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA Margin and Earnings percentage are not measures recognized by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. Distributable Cash is an amount calculated in accordance with the terms of the Deed of Trust. Distributable Cash, EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA Margin and Earnings percentage may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other issuers, and investors are cautioned that Distributable Cash, EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA Margin and Earnings percentage should not be considered as alternatives to net earnings, cash flow from operating activities or other measures of financial performance calculated in accordance with GAAP. See also "Management's Discussion and Analysis – Reconciliation of Net Earnings to EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis – Reconciliation of EBITDA to Cash Flow from Operations" and Schedule "C" - "Reconciliation of Net Earnings to EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA".

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements contained in this prospectus constitute forward-looking statements. When used in this document, the words "may", "would", "could", "will", "intend", "plan", "anticipate", "believe", "seek", "propose", "estimate", "expect" and similar expressions, as they relate to the Trust, the Partnerships, the Petrowest Business Trust and other subsidiaries, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect Petrowest's current views with respect to future events and are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions, including, without limitation, those described in this prospectus under the heading "Risk Factors", "Business of Petrowest" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis". Many factors could cause the Trust's actual results, performance or achievements to vary from those described in this prospectus. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should assumptions underlying forward-looking statements prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those described in this prospectus as intended, planned, anticipated, believed, estimated or expected. Neither the Trust nor the Underwriters intend, and do not assume any obligation, to update these forward-looking statements, except as required by law. These forward-looking statements are made as of the date of this prospectus and are expressly qualified in their entirety by these cautionary statements.

With respect to forward-looking statements contained in this prospectus, the Trust has made assumptions regarding, among other things:

- the Trust's ability to market successfully to current and new customers;
- the Trust's ability to obtain equipment from suppliers;
- the impact of increasing competition; and
- the Trust's ability to obtain additional financing on satisfactory terms.

In particular, this prospectus contains forward-looking statements pertaining to the following:

- completion of the acquisition of each of the Acquired Companies;
- anticipated benefits to be realized from the Acquired Companies;
- the timing and amount of the payment of the initial and subsequent distributions of the Trust;

- capital expenditure programs;
- projections of market prices and costs;
- supply and demand for energy services;
- expectations regarding the Trust's ability to raise capital;
- amounts to be retained for capital expenditures;
- treatment under governmental regulatory regimes; and
- commodity prices.

The Trust's actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of the risk factors set forth below and elsewhere in this prospectus:

- general economic conditions in Canada;
- the demand for energy services during drilling and completion of oil and gas wells;
- volatility in market prices for oil and natural gas and the effect of this volatility on the demand for energy services generally;
- regional competition;
- liabilities and risks, including environmental liabilities and risks, inherent in oil and gas operations;
- sourcing, pricing and availability of raw materials, component parts, equipment, suppliers, facilities, and skilled personnel;
- the ability to integrate technological advances and match advances of competition;
- the availability of capital;
- uncertainties in weather and temperature affecting the duration of the service periods and the activities that can be completed;
- changes in legislation and the regulatory environment, including uncertainties with respect to implementing the Kyoto Protocol; and
- the other factors considered under "Risk Factors".

ELIGIBILITY FOR INVESTMENT

In the opinion of Bennett Jones LLP, counsel to the Trust, Petrowest Business Trust, the Partnerships, Acquisitionco and the General Partner, and Stikeman Elliott LLP, counsel to the Underwriters, based upon the assumptions set out under "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations" below and certificates as to factual matters given by the Trust, the Units on Closing, will be qualified investments under the Tax Act for trusts governed by Plans.

The Trust will be a "business income trust" and the Units will constitute "restricted investment property" as described in proposed amendments to the Tax Act announced by the Minister of Finance (Canada) on March 23,

2004 (the "Budget Proposals"). Under the Budget Proposals, certain investors, including trusts governed by registered pension plans and pension corporations, would have been liable for a penalty tax commencing in 2005 if they held restricted investment property or units of a business income trust in excess of the limits described in the Budget Proposals. The Budget Proposals did not propose that Plans would be subject to this penalty tax. On May 18, 2004, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced that the Budget Proposals relating to business income trusts would be suspended to allow consultations with representatives of the pension fund industry, the investment industry, provincial governments and other interested parties and that legislative proposals would be released following such consultations. This position was reiterated by the Minister of Finance (Canada) in the press release that accompanied the release of the draft amendments for the Budget Proposals dated September 16, 2004. As part of the release of the 2005 federal budget, the Minister of Finance (Canada) issued further statements in respect of the Budget Proposals advising that the Department of Finance (Canada) would continue to consult stakeholders on tax issues related to business income trusts and other flow-through entities. On September 8, 2005, the Minister of Finance (Canada) released a consultation paper on flow-through entities and requested submissions from stakeholders by December 31, 2005. On November 23, 2005, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced that the public consultation process had ended and tabled in the House of Commons a Notice of Ways and Means Motion to implement a reduction in personal income tax on dividends paid by public corporations with a view to establishing a better balance between the treatment of large corporations and that of income trusts. No measures were announced with respect to the taxation of flow-through entities and their investors. No assurance can be given that further review of the tax treatment of flow-through entities will not be undertaken or that Canadian federal or provincial income tax laws respecting flow-through entities will not be changed in a manner which adversely affects the Trust and the Unitholders. To the extent that changes are made, such changes could result in the income tax considerations described under the heading "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations" being materially different in certain respects. See "Risk Factors — Risks Relating to an Investment in the Trust — Income Tax Matters".

THE TRUST AND ITS SUBSIDIARIES

On closing of this offering, the Trust will be a business trust operating an energy services business through its indirect subsidiaries. Unitholders will hold Units of the Trust, which in turn will hold Business Notes and a 100% beneficial interest in the Petrowest Business Trust. The Petrowest Business Trust, via four partnerships (corresponding with four business divisions), will hold the assets of the businesses historically operated by the Acquired Companies.

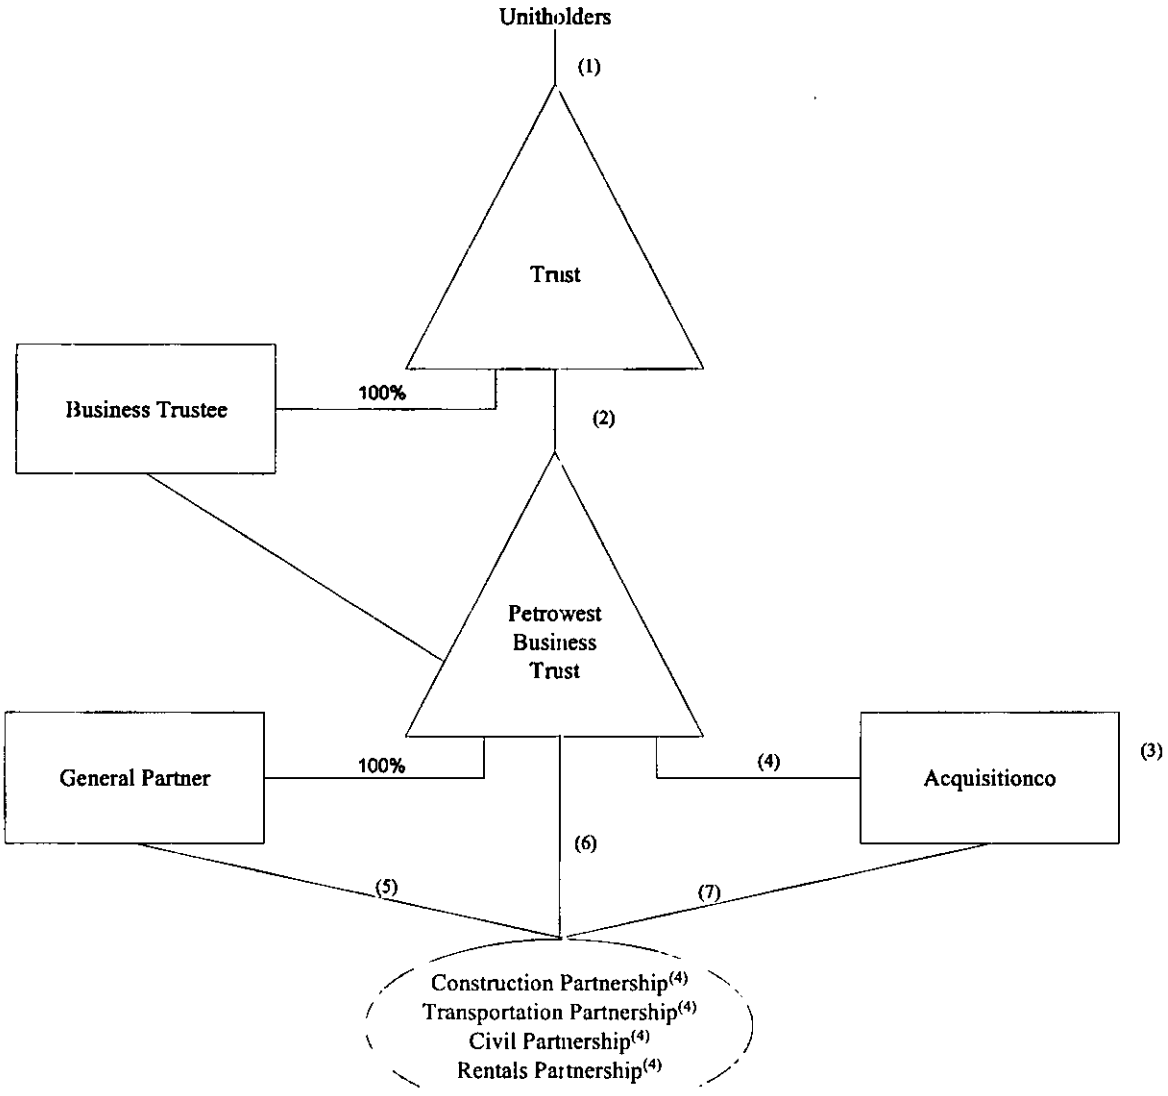
The Trust is an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose mutual fund trust established under and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to the Deed of Trust that was created on July 6, 2006. The registered office of the Trust is 4500 855- 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta and the head office of the Trust is located at Suite 204, 10605 Westside Drive, Grande Prairie, Alberta. The Trust was established to hold Business Notes and a 100% beneficial interest in the Petrowest Business Trust. The trustee of the Trust will be the Trustee. The General Partner will be responsible for overseeing and managing the Trust and Petrowest Business Trust. The General Partner is a corporation that was incorporated under the ABCA on July 6, 2006, all of the outstanding shares of which will be held by the Petrowest Business Trust.

When established, the Petrowest Business Trust will be an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose mutual fund trust established under and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to the Deed of Trust. The trustee of the Petrowest Business Trust will be Business Trustee, a corporation to be incorporated under the ABCA, all of the outstanding shares of which will be held by the Trust.

The Petrowest Business Trust will, directly and indirectly, hold a 100% interest in the Construction Partnership, the Transportation Partnership, the Civil Partnership and the Rentals Partnership through which Petrowest's Road and Lease Construction Division, Transportation and Hauling Division, Civil Services Division and Heavy Equipment Rentals Division, respectively, will operate upon completion of the Concurrent Acquisitions and the Reorganization. Each of the Partnerships will be a limited partnership formed under the laws of the Province of Alberta. Each Partnership will be authorized to issue Class A Partnership Units and Class B Partnership Units. The Class A Partnership Units will represent an undivided interest in a Partnership and the Class B Partnership Units will represent an entitlement to a fixed preferential interest in a Partnership's income. The general partner of the Partnerships will be the General Partner and the limited partners of the partnerships will be the Petrowest Business Trust (which will hold Class A Partnership Units) and Acquisitionco (which will hold Class B Partnership Units).

Acquisitionco is a corporation all of the common shares of which will be held by the Petrowest Business Trust. Acquisitionco has entered into the Share Purchase Agreements pursuant to which Acquisitionco has the right, subject to certain conditions, to acquire all of the outstanding shares of the Acquired Companies, each of which is involved in the energy services business. Concurrent with the closing of this offering, Acquisitionco will acquire all of the outstanding shares of each of the Acquired Companies following which each of the Acquired Companies will be amalgamated with Acquisitionco. Acquisitionco will then transfer the businesses historically operated by the Acquired Companies, including all of their assets, undertaking, intellectual property and liabilities, into the Partnerships in consideration for notes and Class B Partnership Units of each of the Partnerships.

The General Partner and Acquisitionco have not carried on any business prior to the date hereof and do not hold any material assets other than the right of Acquisitionco to acquire the Acquired Companies pursuant to the Purchase and Sale Agreements. All of the outstanding shares of the General Partner and Acquisitionco are currently held by the Trust. Prior to Closing, all of the outstanding shares of the General Partner and Acquisitionco will be transferred to the Petrowest Business Trust.



The Deed of Trust requires the Trustee, on or before each Distribution Record Date, to declare payable to the Unitholders all or any part of the Cash Flow of the Trust for the Distribution Period which includes such Distribution Record Date. It is currently anticipated that the only income to be received by the Trust will be from securities of Petrowest Business Trust.

The net proceeds of this offering will be invested by the Trust in Business Notes and Business Units of Petrowest Business Trust. Petrowest Business Trust will then loan a portion of such funds to Acquisitionco to pay the cash portion of the purchase price of the Acquired Companies and to repay certain indebtedness of the Acquired Companies, and Acquisitionco will issue a note to Petrowest Business Trust to evidence this indebtedness. The Trust will issue 12,765,094 Units to Acquisitionco and Acquisitionco will issue a note to the Trust in consideration therefore. The Trust will contribute this note to the Business Trust for additional Business Notes and Business Units. Petrowest Business Trust will use the remaining portion of the net proceeds of this offering to acquire Class A Partnership Units of each of the Partnerships. Following the Amalgamation, Acquisitionco will transfer the businesses historically operated by the Acquired Companies, including all their assets, undertaking and intellectual property and liabilities, to the Partnerships pursuant to the Reorganization, in consideration for notes and Class B Partnership Units of each of the Partnerships. The notes issued to Acquisitionco pursuant to the Reorganization will be assigned by Acquisitionco to Petrowest Business Trust in repayment of a portion of the debt owing by Acquisitionco to Petrowest Business Trust. Petrowest Business Trust will then contribute these notes to each of the Partnerships for additional Class A Partnership Units.

See the "Description of the Trust".

Following completion of this offering, the Concurrent Acquisitions and the Reorganization, Petrowest's business will operate as follows:

Notes:

(1) Unitholders hold Trust Units and Subordinated Units of the Trust. Immediately following the Closing of this offering and the Concurrent Acquisitions, the shareholders of the Acquired Companies will hold •%, the subscribers under this offering will hold •% and the holders of Subordinated Units will hold •%, of the outstanding Units, respectively.

(2) The Trust will hold Business Notes and a 100% beneficial interest in the Petrowest Business Trust.

(3) Acquisitionco will amalgamate with the Acquired Companies immediately following the completion of the Concurrent Acquisitions.

(4) Acquisitionco will borrow the cash portion of the purchase price ($103.3 million) and will be indebted to Petrowest Business Trust for the purchase price of 12,765,094 Units ($127,650,970), less the amount assigned to Petrowest Business Trust equal to the tax basis of the assets transferred by Acquisitionco to the Partnerships, less certain liabilities associated therewith.

(5) The General Partner will hold a 0.001% interest in the Partnerships.

(6) Petrowest Business Trust will hold Class A Partnership Units of the Partnerships.

(7) Pursuant to the Reorganization, the Partnerships will acquire the businesses historically carried on by the Acquired Companies, and the consideration therefor will be paid by the issuance of Class B Partnership Units and notes to Acquisitionco.

BUSINESS OF PETROWEST

The Trust will be a diversified oilfield services trust that will provide pre-drilling and post-completion services to the northern region of the WCSB. Petrowest will service the region via its head and operational office in Grande Prairie, Alberta and nine full-service locations throughout northern Alberta and British Columbia, each with a staging area, shop area, and sales and service personnel. The Trust's corporate office will be in Calgary, Alberta.

Petrowest will acquire the Acquired Companies, which are all established, private Grande Prairie-based pre-drilling and post-completion service providers. The nine Acquired Companies are complementary to one another and will allow Petrowest to benefit from their ability to provide clients with a full-range of services, cost competitive pricing, capabilities to service large-scale contracts and a modern and well-maintained equipment fleet. Petrowest will continue to expand and improve on the aforementioned benefits as it executes its growth strategy of further integration, organic expansion and complementary acquisitions.

Petrowest's business will be operated in four divisions corresponding to the four Partnerships as follows:

- Road and Lease Construction Division - includes oilfield well site lease preparation, road construction, earth moving, reclamation, commercial projects, four camps and other lease construction services. The Road and Lease Construction Division will have approximately 90 pieces of major equipment (average age: four years) and 130 full-time employees (average industry experience: nine years);
- Transportation and Hauling Division - includes general oilfield hauling, rig mobilization and demobilization, equipment transportation, log loading and hauling, gravel hauling, pipe hauling and other transportation services. The Transportation and Hauling Division will have approximately 80 pieces of major equipment (average age: five years) and 100 full-time employees (average industry experience: 10 years);
- Civil Services Division - includes general rock and gravel crushing and oilfield safety services and rentals. The Civil Services Division will have approximately 120 pieces of major equipment (average age: five years) and 80 full-time employees (average industry experience: eight years); and

- Heavy Equipment Rentals Division - includes oilfield and construction heavy equipment rentals. The Heavy Equipment Rentals Division will have approximately 60 pieces of major equipment (average age: three years) and 10 full-time employees (average industry experience: 15 years).

The following table illustrates selected historical financial performance of the Acquired Companies, organized by Petrowest's operating divisions, for the periods indicated.

Road and Lease Construction Division

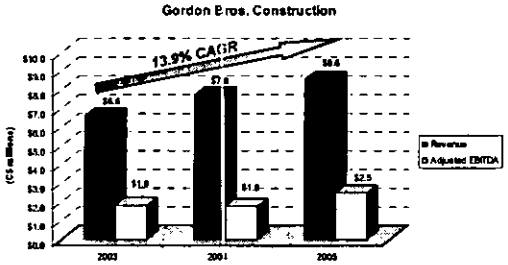
Pursuant to the Reorganization, Petrowest's Construction Partnership will acquire the businesses historically conducted by Wales Contractors, Roy Larson Construction and Gordon Bros. Construction and will operate these businesses under those names as the Road and Lease Construction Division. In 2005, contract jobs undertaken by those Acquired Companies included approximately 410 to 470 well site leases built for drilling activity including over 85 kilometers of combined road construction. The Road and Lease Construction Division will own over 90 pieces of major equipment with an average age of four years and four camps to support its road and well site lease building operations. The Road and Lease Construction Division, utilizing modern equipment, may be configured to complete earth moving, reclamation, commercial projects and other lease construction services. The Road and Lease Construction Division will acquire from the Acquired Companies master service agreements and preferred agreements with key customers including repeat customers.



The following charts illustrate the financial performance of the Acquired Companies whose assets are to be transferred to the Road and Lease Construction Division for the periods indicated:

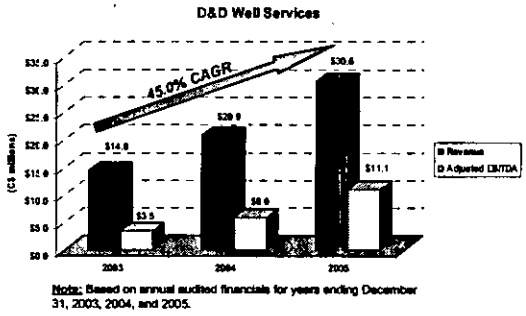
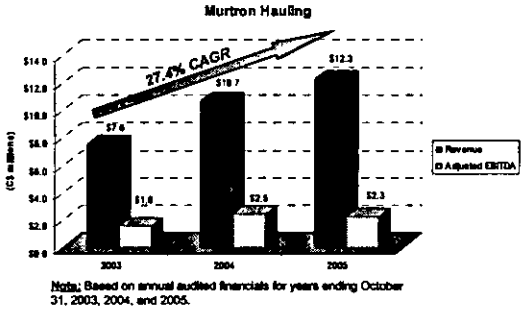
See "Non-GAAP Measures" and Schedule "C" - "Reconciliation of Net Earnings to EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA".



Transportation and Hauling Division

Pursuant to the Reorganization, Petrowest's Transportation Partnership will acquire the businesses historically conducted by D&D Well Services and Murtron Hauling and will operate these businesses under those names as the Transportation and Hauling Division. The services provided by the Transportation and Hauling Division will include hauling to the well site, rig mobilization, gravel hauling and hauling of drill pipe, supplies and equipment to well sites along with rig mobilization and demobilization for both coil tubing and conventional drilling rigs via the use of special equipment and procedures. In 2005, the Acquired Companies which will comprise the Transportation and Hauling Division transported approximately 700 pieces of heavy equipment.



The Transportation and Hauling Division will also provide gravel and log hauling throughout northern Alberta and British Columbia. In 2005, the Acquired Companies which will comprise the Transportation and Hauling Division hauled approximately 350,000 cubic meters of timber and approximately 400,000 tonnes of gravel.

The Transportation and Hauling Division will acquire from the Acquired Companies several preferred supplier agreements with major Alberta-based oil and gas companies, oil and gas drilling rig companies, western Canadian logging companies and aggregate companies.

The following charts illustrate the financial performance of the Acquired Companies whose assets are to be transferred to the Transportation and Hauling Division for the periods indicated:

Note: Based on annual audited financials for years ending December 31, 2003, 2004, and 2005.

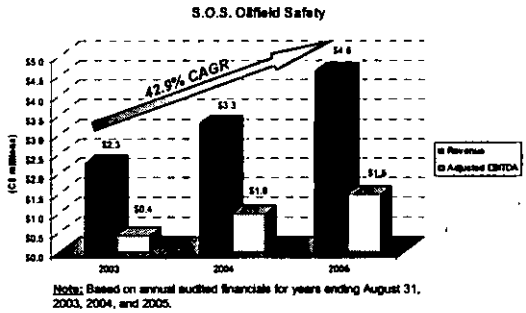
Civil Services Division

Pursuant to the Reorganization, Petrowest's Civil Partnership will acquire the businesses historically conducted by R Bee Crushing and S.O.S. Oilfield Safety and will operate these businesses under those names as the Civil Services Division. The Civil Services Division will provide rock and gravel crushing, safety supervision and safety equipment rentals services.



The Civil Services Division will have over 115 pieces of modern, large capacity equipment with an average age of five years to support its rock and gravel crushing services. Typical rock and gravel crushing jobs have been between 100,000 to 500,000 tonnes. The largest single project completed to date by R Bee Crushing was 1,100,000 tonnes. In 2005, total rock crushing was estimated to be in the order 5,500,000 tonnes. The Civil Services Division will also be capable of stripping pits, clearing pits, pit run crushing, large screening and quarry crushing. The Civil Services Division will manufacture highway base aggregates, asphalt aggregates, concrete aggregates and general crushed products.

The Civil Services Division will also provide safety supervision to well sites and safety unit rentals throughout northern Alberta and British Columbia. Safety supervision and rentals will be complementary to Petrowest's other divisions and to external companies.

The following charts illustrate the financial performance of the Acquired Companies whose assets are to be transferred to the Civil Services Division for the periods indicated:

Note: Based on annual audited financials for years ending April 30, 2003, 2004, and 2005.

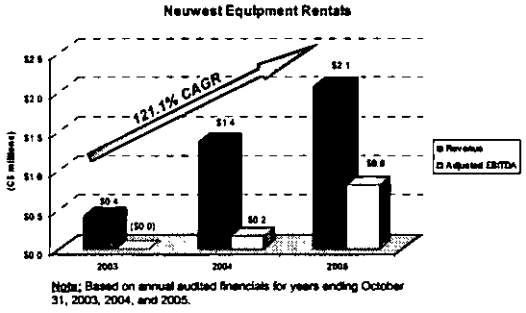
See "Non-GAAP Measures" and Schedule "C" - "Reconciliation of Net Earnings to EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA".



Heavy Equipment Rentals Division

Pursuant to the Reorganization, Petrowest's Rentals Partnership will acquire the businesses historically conducted by Northern Tractor and Neuwest Equipment and will operate these businesses under those names as the Heavy Equipment Rentals Division. Typical rental contracts undertaken by these companies have ranged from a single piece of equipment to 15 pieces of heavy equipment per job site. The Heavy Equipment Rentals Division's equipment will be modern and in a variety of sizes that can be configured to complete various types of work due to the changing seasons as well as specific job requirements. The Heavy Equipment Rentals Division will have approximately 60 pieces of major equipment with an average age of three years including articulated haulers, tracked excavators, crawler dozers, sidebooms, and earth compactors to support oil and gas construction jobs as well as commercial construction company needs. The rentals will be provided from offices in Grande Prairie and Fort McMurray, Alberta. The Heavy Equipment Rentals Division will acquire from the Acquired Companies renewable contracts with key customers and repeat customers. The Heavy Equipment Rentals Division will provide rentals both internally amongst Petrowest's divisions and externally to other companies involved in the western Canadian oil and gas industry.

The following charts illustrate the financial performance of the Acquired Companies whose assets are to be transferred to the Heavy Equipment Rentals Division for the periods indicated:

Note: Based on annual audited financials for years ending September 30, 2003, 2004, and 2005.

Operational Strengths

As a result of its focused "first and last line of services" approach in providing key services to the oil and gas industry in the pre-drilling and post-completion phases, Petrowest will enjoy several operational strengths that will benefit customers. Petrowest's major operational strengths include:

- Ability to Provide a "One-Stop-Shop" Service Approach – As a result of the broad spectrum of energy services businesses which will comprise Petrowest's oil and gas clients will have access to a full range of pre-drilling and post-completion services. Industry trends suggest that oil and gas companies prefer to utilize a services company that can provide a full range of services as opposed to procuring the same services from a host of sources. Benefits to the client include reduced overhead costs, a reduction in invoicing and accounting procedures, reduced wait times for services and increased efficiency in procuring pre-drilling and post-completion services. This model allows clients to meet the shorter time frames demanded by an environment where it is becoming increasingly difficult to engage services in a timely manner due to the general robustness of the energy sector coupled with labour challenges.

- Intra-Company Synergies – Each operating division within Petrowest will possess the ability to provide services to other divisions to facilitate its customers' specific pre-drilling and post-completion needs. Petrowest's clients will benefit from Petrowest's cross-company utilization strategies that otherwise would be absent. For example, the Civil Services Division can take advantage of the Transportation and Hauling Division's ability to provide hauling needs resulting in increased utilization rates due to reduced down time.

- Ability to Service Large Scale Contracts -- Petrowest's combined divisions will be positioned to take advantage of larger contract jobs as a result of its increased capacity to provide a full range of pre-drilling and post-completion services at competitive rates and in geographic areas that are comparatively difficult to access for smaller service companies. In northern Alberta and British Columbia, where well site lease-building costs are much greater than at conventional locations with relatively easy year-round access, this advantage will become increasingly strategic.

- Competitive Pricing – Petrowest intends to provide its customers with high-quality services using competitive pricing in an environment where costs are becoming increasingly high. By offering clients a full range of pre-drilling and post-completion services, Petrowest will have the ability to meet customer price points with greater flexibility and customer satisfaction.

- Quality Equipment Fleet – With the acquisition of a fleet of equipment with an average age of 4.5 years and an increased access to growth capital, Petrowest will utilize an equipment fleet that is new and well-maintained. This will result in greater safety standards and reduced down times due to equipment breakdowns. As a result, clients will benefit from greater reliability in the performance of Petrowest's full range of pre-drilling and post-completion services.

- People – The key operating and technical people that comprise the four divisions within Petrowest will represent a valuable and important component of Petrowest's operational strengths. Given the current labour shortages in western Canada combined with senior management attrition in the energy services industry generally, it is important to understand that the key managers of the Acquired Companies have been in place with the Acquired Companies for an average of 17 years. Additionally, the respective middle management and employees of the Acquired Companies are dedicated to their businesses and have proven their commitment and loyalty by their long-term employment tenures. Petrowest's human resource assets will be key in its overall profitability and customer satisfaction, both near and long term.

Investment Opportunity

Petrowest intends to sustain and increase its cash flow and distributions through both organic growth and acquisitions of other energy services businesses that have similar characteristics to the Acquired Companies.

Management expects Petrowest to have the following notable attributes:

- ownership of established businesses that provide the full-range of pre-drilling and post-completion services to the northern region of the WCSB;

- alignment of management and Unitholder interests through the subordination of management's equity interest and structured escrow terms on the Units acquired by the founding Unitholders as well as structured escrow terms on the Trust Units acquired by the shareholders of each of the Acquired Companies. See "Escrowed and Subordinated Securities";

- strong balance sheet with financial flexibility to balance between internal growth and payout of distributions to investors;
- high historic profitability of the Acquired Companies with average Adjusted EBITDA margins over 30%;
- an initial monthly distribution of $• per Unit. See "Summary of Distributable Cash";
- well positioned to capitalize on robust industry activity levels and future northern development opportunities through internal growth and acquisition opportunities;
- modern and well-maintained major equipment with an average age of approximately 4.5 years, providing a solid, cost-effective foundation from which growth can occur;
- focused and experienced executive management team and board of directors;
- focused growth strategy through a combination of internal, organic growth coupled with strategic accretive acquisitions; and
- tax effective trust structure which will facilitate access to capital that can be used for investments in equipment and strategic acquisitions.

Strategy

Petrowest's corporate strategy will be to develop a long-term business which delivers sustainable and increasing per Unit distributions by growing its Road and Lease Construction, Transportation and Hauling, Heavy Equipment Rentals and Civil Services divisions. Petrowest intends to achieve this by integrating the businesses conducted by the Acquired Companies and establishing Petrowest as the recognized pre-drilling and post-completion service provider to the northern region of the WCSB. Petrowest will consider expanding the number of businesses within the divisions and adding other businesses and divisions if acquisition candidates meet Petrowest's acquisition criteria. See "Strategy - Acquisitions."

Petrowest anticipates acquiring approximately $32 million of new equipment over the next twelve months. This expenditure will be funded by operating leases and $8.3 million of working capital. These expenditures will add equipment to each of Petrowest's divisions to allow for future growth. This equipment has been ordered and management anticipates that the majority of this equipment will be utilized by Petrowest later in the third quarter of 2006.

Petrowest intends to integrate the businesses conducted by the Acquired Companies and future acquisitions within the divisions. Further, Petrowest intends to capitalize on the track records of the Acquired Companies with respect to commitment to customer service, operational efficiency, health and safety and financial return and profitability.

Petrowest will operate in the northern region of the WCSB, principally from Grande Prairie, Alberta. At the present time, Petrowest does not intend to expand operations into eastern Canada, the United States or internationally.

Strategy – Organic Growth

Management expects Petrowest to continue to grow its operations organically in the pre-drilling and post-completion service sectors of the energy services business in the northern region of the WCSB. Management expects to achieve this organic growth through the following strategic plan:

- Petrowest will work within a framework emphasizing integrity, leadership, safety in the workplace and teamwork. Petrowest's management team will provide strategic leadership and performance targets for the divisions. Petrowest's compensation program will include competitive market salary, employee benefit programs and incentive programs. Management and Unitholder interests will be aligned through an incentive program, and a Unit option program and Unit ownership plan. Pursuant to the incentive program, incentive pools will be allocated to the divisions based on success in reaching consolidated business performance and profitability targets. Management, together with the general managers of the operating businesses, will allocate these incentive pools to staff and employees.

- Management believes the existence of long-term relationships between the Acquired Companies and its diversified client base will help to secure consistent demand for Petrowest's equipment and services and provide opportunities for complementary services across Petrowest's divisions. Petrowest will use its multiple businesses to enhance customer service and to provide greater service synergies.

- Petrowest will pursue its expanded scope of services to new clients.

- Petrowest will capitalize on the greater size of Petrowest's operations relative to the individual Acquired Companies to take on larger jobs and contracts.

- Preferred supplier relationships and a bulk purchasing program is expected to provide access to new equipment and consumables on a timely and cost-effective basis.

Strategy - Acquisitions

In addition to Petrowest's internal growth opportunities, management believes there are significant opportunities for Petrowest to make additional accretive acquisitions. Management believes that the western Canadian energy services industry currently includes many localized, privately-owned businesses that would benefit from a combination with Petrowest. Petrowest would provide these businesses with financial and management expertise, cost reduction opportunities, partial monetization, a lower cost of capital and opportunities for on-going growth and expansion.

Petrowest's acquisition strategy is founded on integrity, reliability, service delivery, safe operations and solid financial performance. All future acquisitions must satisfy these criteria. It is expected that businesses acquired by Petrowest will maintain their individual business identities. The selection of target acquisitions will be based on their:

- corporate culture and fit with Petrowest's vision and corporate strategic business plan;

- overlap of synergies with Petrowest's existing competencies, clients, industries and work activities;

- overlap of geographic region and synergy with Petrowest's existing business;

- existing proven management teams that are motivated and experienced;

- financial profitability; and

- accretive financial contribution.

Acquisition candidates must also meet Petrowest's added value criteria and will be expected to provide increased financial performance on a per Unit basis.

Strategy - Integration

Petrowest's integration plans will be specifically designed to allow the divisions to carry on the operations of the Acquired Companies with minimal disruption while ensuring management internal controls and reporting needs are properly developed and maintained.

Integration activities in the first six months after closing of the Concurrent Acquisitions will include:

- improving and enhancing management internal controls, financial reporting, key business indicator processes, credit risk analysis, and operating and capital budgets;
- establishing operating standards with respect to corporate governance, audit, compensation and safety and health, (including public company reporting and investor relation activities);
- instituting employee incentive and compensation strategies designed to retain and attract key personnel;
- convening regular management meetings with senior and middle management to create a model for effective cross-divisional and intra-company communication and business development;
- capitalizing on cross-divisional, intra-company and centralized marketing opportunities and developing strategies for bundling of services;
- consolidating overhead and evaluating other cost reduction measures; and
- executive management and general manager succession planning.

Strategy - Management of Divisions

The Acquired Companies are established businesses with experienced and proven management. Petrowest's management team will have significant involvement in all critical aspects of Petrowest's business and strategic plan, while at the same time allowing the management teams of the Acquired Companies to continue to pursue their respective operational plans within that strategic framework. Petrowest believes it will achieve maximum profitability by allowing each Acquired Company's management team to continue to direct its field operations and the affairs of that business.

Strategic business alignment and the bundling of available services will be encouraged both within and across divisions. Through effective communication, goal setting and incentives, Petrowest's management team will ensure that Petrowest's divisions identify and implement innovative ideas to advance Petrowest's strategic business plan.

Petrowest will have a corporate culture that will allow its general managers to develop their businesses within a strategic framework. A key to Petrowest's success will be to ensure capital is actively and properly employed in achieving and increasing sustainable cash flow generation.

Management

Petrowest's executive management team collectively has over 75 years of experience in the western Canadian oil and gas exploration and production, energy services and construction industries.

Customer Base

Assuming the completion of all of the Concurrent Acquisitions, the aggregate customer base of Petrowest will consist of over 500 entities from the oil and gas exploration and production industry, energy services sector, forestry industry, aggregates industry and government. Petrowest's clients range from large multi-national companies to small, private companies.

Employees

If all of the Acquired Companies are acquired pursuant to the Concurrent Acquisitions, Petrowest will have approximately 325 full-time employees and 85 sub-contract personnel. None of these employees are unionized and most of these employees will be located in Alberta.

Real Estate

At Closing, Petrowest's head office will operate out of owned office space at Suite 204, 10605 Westside Drive, Grande Prairie, Alberta T8V 8E6. Petrowest will operate field offices and out of rented locations in Grande Prairie, Alberta, Fort McMurray, Alberta, and Fort St. John, British Columbia. Petrowest's corporate office will operate out of rented office space in Calgary, Alberta.

The Purchase and Sale Agreements provide that certain real property owned by the Acquired Companies and used in their businesses will be sold by the Acquired Companies to their existing shareholders or their affiliates prior to closing under the Purchase and Sale Agreements and leased back to Petrowest on terms acceptable to Petrowest.

Safety Program

Each of the Acquired Companies has obtained a Certificate of Recognition ("COR") in Alberta. The COR program recognizes that these companies have a basic safety program in place that meets minimum provincial standards. An increasing number of oil and gas companies are requiring that companies that perform energy service work for them have a COR. Alberta Human Resources and Employment and the Petroleum Industry Training Service (the certifying partner for the petroleum industry) issue a COR to companies for achieving the provincial minimum standards for a health and safety program. Companies registered in the Alberta Workers' Compensation Board ("WCB") financial incentive program, Partners in Injury Reduction ("PIR"), are eligible to receive up to a 20% reduction in their WCB premiums for implementing successful health, safety and disability programs and for obtaining a COR. The COR program is part of an industry-wide effort to reduce the number of injuries and incidents. Programs such as the COR program have proved to be effective in reducing the number and severity of injury-related WCB claims. WCB statistics show for 2003, employers participating in the PIR had fewer lost time claims and lower claims costs than those that did not participate.

Petrowest will establish a safety program that will meet or exceed all legislated requirements.

ACQUISITION OF THE ACQUIRED COMPANIES

Purchase and Sale Agreements

Acquisitionco has entered into the Purchase and Sale Agreements providing for the purchase by Acquisitionco of the Acquired Companies for an aggregate base purchase price of $230,934,992, subject to post-closing adjustments. This represents a value of approximately five times the sum of aggregate EBITDA plus management bonuses and non-recurring items for the twelve months ended December 31, 2005 of the Acquired Companies, plus an estimate of adjustments for working capital ($15.7 million), plus amounts paid for equipment after December 31, 2005 ($6.7 million), less an estimate of long-term debt ($23.5 million). Management's estimate of the sum of EBITDA plus management bonuses and non-recurring items of the Acquired Companies was based on financial statements reviewed by the Acquired Companies' independent accountants for the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2005. The aggregate base purchase price will be paid by $103,284,052 in cash and the issuance by the Trust of an aggregate of 12,765,094 Trust Units. The shareholders of the Acquired Companies will enter into an escrow agreement pursuant to which the Units issued to such shareholders will be placed in escrow. See "Escrowed and Subordinated Securities".

Post-closing, an audit of the working capital, shareholder loans and long term debt of each of the Acquired Companies as at the closing date of the acquisition of the Acquired Companies will be performed. Subject to certain conditions the results of this audit will be used to determine whether a positive or negative cash adjustment will be made to the aggregate base purchase price for the Acquired Companies. The aggregate base purchase price and its allocation among cash and Units in respect of each of the Acquired Companies is set forth below.

Notes:

(1) For the purposes of calculation of the Aggregate, the Trust Units are attributed a value of $10.00 each.

Each of the Purchase and Sale Agreements contains representations and warranties in favour of Acquisitionco and each of the Acquired Companies customary for transactions of this nature including representations and warranties respecting the Acquired Companies corporate status, financial status, employees, assets, real property and the absence of environmental claims. Subject to the Acquisition Condition, each of the Concurrent Acquisitions is expected to close concurrently. Closing of the Concurrent Acquisitions is subject to customary mutual conditions and customary conditions for the benefit of Acquisitionco and for the benefit of the shareholders of the Acquired Companies. Certain specific mutual conditions include:

(a) the Trust Units shall have been approved for listing upon the TSX subject only to conditions which may reasonably be expected to be satisfied within the 10 business days following the closing date;

(b) the distribution of not less than 8.5 million Trust Units and not more than 16 million Trust Units at a price not less than $10.00 for aggregate gross proceeds of not less than $85 million and not more than $160 million shall have closed or be closing at the closing time;

(c) such of the Concurrent Acquisitions as have an aggregate base purchase price not less than $100 million shall have closed or be closing at the closing time; and

(d) certain officers and key personnel of the Acquired Companies shall have executed and delivered management agreements.

Subject to certain limited exceptions, all representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Purchase and Sale Agreements on the part of each of the parties survive the closing of the acquisition of the Acquired Companies, the execution and delivery under the Purchase and Sale Agreements of any share or security transfer instruments or other documents of title to any of the shares and the payment of the consideration for the shares.

Subject to certain limited exceptions, each of the vendors of the shares of the Acquired Companies have agreed, in their respective Purchase and Sale Agreement, to indemnify and save harmless each of Acquisitionco and the Trust and their affiliates from and against all losses, costs and damages and liabilities and obligations which they suffer, sustain, pay or incur, directly or indirectly as a consequence of or in connection with a breach of a representation or warranty made by any of the vendors or Acquired Companies in their respective Purchase and Sale Agreements or a breach by any such vendor or Acquired Company of any of the covenants made by any thereof in the Purchase and Sale Agreements; or as a consequence of or in connection with any environmental matter relating to the applicable Acquired Company or its assets prior to the closing time except any such losses, costs and damages as have been caused by or result from the negligence or wilful misconduct of any such indemnified person.

Purchasers of Trust Units pursuant to this offering may not have a direct statutory right of action against each vendor of the shares of the Acquired Companies for a misrepresentation in this prospectus in respect of the Acquired Companies. Purchasers are advised to review the terms of the Purchase and Sale Agreements for a complete description of the representations, warranties and indemnities and related liabilities of the vendors of the shares of the Acquired Companies. Copies of the Purchase and Sale Agreements may be inspected at Petrowest's head office during normal business hours during the period of distribution of the Trust Units.

Management Contracts

Thirteen principals of the Acquired Companies have agreed to enter into management employment agreements with the General Partner for terms ranging from two to five years. However, such agreements may be terminated by the employee on giving one month's notice. Each of these management employment agreements contains non-competition, confidentiality and indemnity provisions. The non-competition provisions continue until the later of the expiry of the term of the contract or two years from the date the employee ceases to be an employee of Petrowest.

Road and Lease Construction Division

The Road and Lease Construction Division of Petrowest will operate through the Construction Partnership and will consist of the businesses historically operated by Gordon Bros. Construction, Roy Larson Construction and Wales Contractors.

Gordon Bros. Construction

On May 23, 2006, Acquisitionco entered into an agreement with Gordon Bros. Construction and its shareholders to acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares of Gordon Bros. Construction for a base purchase price of $14,806,059, subject to post closing adjustments, to be paid by $5,922,429 in cash and by the issuance of an aggregate of 888,363 Trust Units.

Gordon Bros. Construction is based in Valleyview, Alberta and specializes in the construction of well site leases, road building and well site reclamation. In 2005, Gordon Bros. Construction built approximately 60 to 70 well site leases, constructed 15 kilometres of roads and performed 15 well site reclamations.

Gordon Bros. Construction was co-founded by Mr. Robert Gordon who has 40 years of experience in the energy services business and is managed by Mr. Troy Gordon who has 10 years of experience in the oilfield services business. It is a condition of the Purchase and Sale Agreement regarding Gordon Bros. Construction that Troy Gordon enter into a management agreement with Petrowest as a General Manager for a term of five years.

Gordon Bros. Construction has a current workforce of approximately 30 permanent and five contract employees who range from superintendents, truckers, equipment operators to labourers and have a collective average of ten years of industry experience.

Gordon Bros. Construction's clients include major oil and gas companies and oil and drilling rig companies.

Gordon Bros. Construction's major equipment has an average age of five years and can be configured to complete various types of work including major dirt moving, major restorations and high volume projects due to industry seasonality. Gordon Bros. Construction owns approximately 25 pieces of rolling stock and two camps to support well site lease building, road construction and well site reclamation activities, including amphibious track machines for access to muskeg and semi-frozen terrain and snow making equipment for constructing winter roads and crossing waterways.

On May 23, 2006, Acquisitionco entered into an agreement with Northern Tractor and its shareholders to acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares of Northern Tractor for a base purchase price of $23,747,475, subject to post closing adjustments, to be paid by $9,498,995 in cash and by the issuance of an aggregate of 1,424,848 Trust Units.

Northern Tractor is based in Grande Prairie, Alberta and specializes in heavy equipment sales and rentals to the northern Alberta, Fort McMurray and northeastern British Columbia oil and gas construction industries.

Northern Tractor is managed by Mr. Dan Fitzpatrick who has 30 years of industry experience.

Northern Tractor has a current workforce of approximately 10 permanent employees and one contract employee who have an average of 15 years of industry experience. Included in this group are supervisors, sales personnel and heavy equipment mechanics. Northern Tractor's clients include Alberta and British Columbia based major oil and gas companies, construction companies as well as private corporations.

Typical contract jobs undertaken by Northern Tractor involve single units to 15 pieces of heavy equipment per job site. In 2005, Northern Tractor supported 48 pieces of equipment for 10 months of the year.

Northern Tractor's equipment currently consists of approximately 30 pieces of heavy equipment with an approximate average age of three years, that can be configured to complete various types of work due to the changing seasons as well as specific job requirements. Northern Tractor equipment includes articulated haulers, earth compactors, crawler tractors and tracked excavators to support oil and gas construction jobs and construction company needs.

The following table presents a summary of historical financial data for Northern Tractor for each of its three fiscal years ended September 30, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and for the six month periods ended March 31, 2006 and 2005 derived from the financial statements of Northern Tractor at each of these dates and for the periods then ended. The following data should be read along with "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Northern Tractor Sales and Rentals" and the financial statements and related notes of Northern Tractor included in this prospectus.

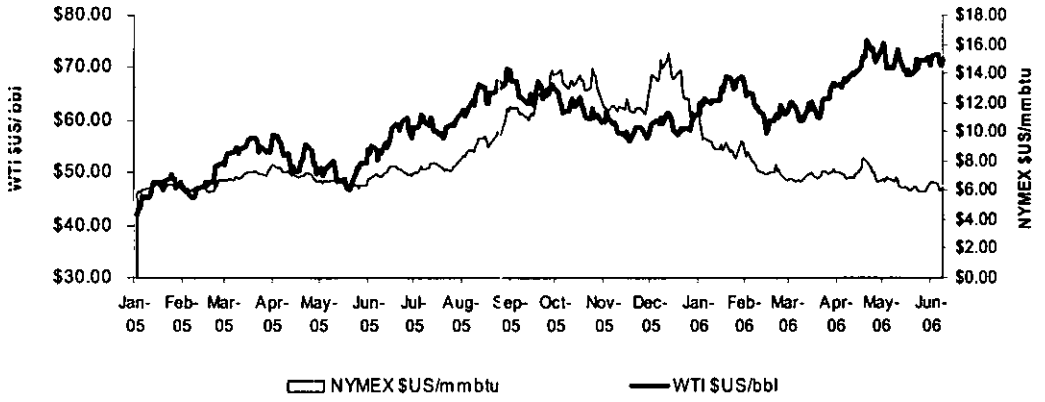
INDUSTRY CONDITIONS AND TRENDS

Petrowest provides energy services to assist oil and gas exploration and production companies in their efforts to find, develop and produce oil and gas reserves. In doing so, Petrowest offers its clients a variety of key pre-drilling and post-completion services.

General Oil and Gas Industry Conditions



The success of Petrowest's business is tied, in large part, to the general health of the oil and natural gas industry in Canada. Accordingly, in addition to the various federal, provincial and municipal laws which Petrowest will adhere to in its ongoing operations, the business will also be sensitive to the general industry conditions relating to the oil and natural gas industry, including land tenure, exploration, development, production, refining, transportation and marketing imposed by legislation enacted by various levels of government in Canada. The business is also sensitive to pricing and taxation of oil and natural gas by agreements among the governments of Canada, Alberta, Saskatchewan and British Columbia.

Petrowest's operations are conducted primarily in the WCSB that includes portions of the provinces of British Columbia and Alberta. The WCSB is one of the largest oil and gas exploration and producing regions in North America, with the majority of oil and natural gas production in Canada originating from this area. In addition to upstream oil and gas activities, other related industry activity occurs in this region, such as refining, processing and transportation of oil and gas.

Commodity Prices

Despite a recent decline in natural gas prices, the prices of both crude oil and natural gas have remained above historical levels for several years with the general industry consensus that prices are unlikely to decrease in the future. The recent current and forecast commodity prices have increased the projected cash flow forecasts of producing companies which has historically led to increased capital spending budgets and increased drilling and energy services activities. As a result of the progressing oil and gas market, energy services companies are reaping the rewards from a resource that is experiencing an extended cycle of increased demand.

Energy Supply / Demand

In spite of the continual increase in commodity prices and insufficient global energy infrastructure investment, it is expected that energy supply will need to grow substantially in the coming years. Given that OPEC (Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries) is up against its own production capacity, it is expected that drilling activity will need to follow a continuous growth curve if supply is to expand in the coming years. Moreover, since the success of Petrowest is directly tied to global energy activity, there will be an increase in demand for its services if OPEC plans to meet their supply targets.

Seasonality

In Canada, the level of activity in the energy service industry is partially influenced by seasonal weather patterns. On a monthly basis, drilling activity varies greatly. The annual drilling cycle can generally be viewed in four components:

- Mid-March through mid-May - spring break-up; the northern drilling locations thaw and southern lands become impractical for travel due to wet road conditions. Drilling activity is generally low with companies planning the summer drilling season.

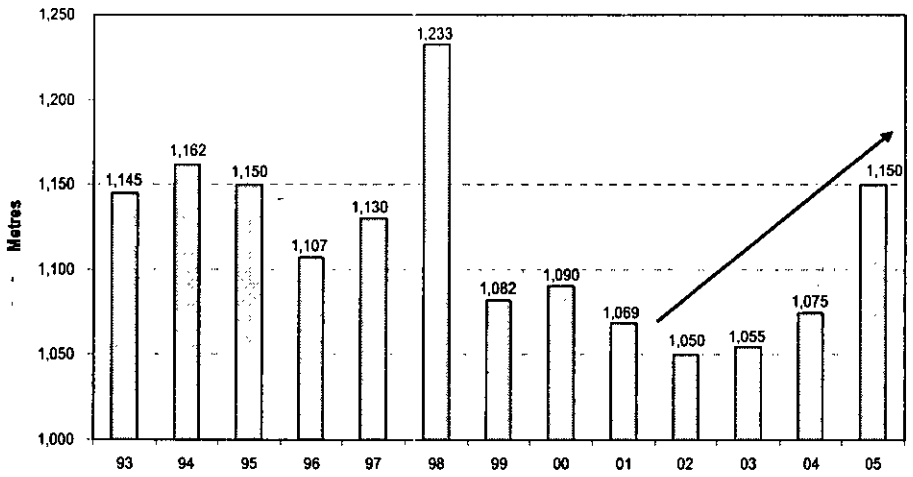
- Mid-May through mid-October - summer and fall drilling season; generally focused on non-northern areas that are accessible in the summer; summer drilling activity is medium to strong.

- Mid-October to mid-November - switchover to winter drilling season; characterized by lighter drilling activity when many companies are moving off summer drilling locations and preparing winter drilling leases for delivery of equipment.

- Mid-November through mid-March - winter drilling season; this is the period when the majority of rig activity takes place and exploration companies take advantage of the frozen landscape to access northern winter drilling locations.

Trends

Petrowest operates in various segments of the energy service industry that are heavily reliant on the level of drilling activity in western Canada. The following trends have contributed to the improved outlook for drilling and the services industry:



(i) The utilization of oil services companies has shifted increasingly toward re-completing old wells (i.e., using directional sidetracks out of existing well bores) and re-stimulating them (i.e., well fracturing) to enhance production, while minimizing costs and risk.

(ii) The industry has seen a shift to more remote areas in an attempt to capture new reserves such as in northeast British Columbia, the Northwest Territories and the Yukon. These remote locations are often accessible only during the winter months and require service companies to provide services over extended time frames.

(iii) Due to the low average productivity rates of coal bed methane wells and the emergence of coal bed methane as a viable source of gas, a large number of wells are required to economically develop a field and therefore more ancillary services will be required.

(iv) The current commodity price environment has improved the underlying economics of oil and gas prospects sufficiently enough to justify exploration and development in previously uneconomic areas. This ability to drill both deeper/higher cost wells and shallow/lower productivity rate wells at profitable levels has added to the current and anticipated higher activity levels in the WCSB.

Wells Drilled

The Canadian Association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors (CAODC) estimates 26,725 wells will be drilled in 2006, an 8% percent increase over 2005. The historical decline in average production rates per well of oil and natural gas has resulted in an increase in drilling activity over the same period in order to maintain current production levels. As shown below, there has been consistent growth in drilling activity in the WCSB in seven out of the past eight years.

Rig Counts

The number of drilling and service rigs necessary to drill and complete new wells have historically been under increasing demand. Since January 2000, some 225 new drilling rigs, including coiled tubing drilling rigs, have been built for service in Western Canada. Of the total 798 rigs that are currently available in Western Canada there was a 90% utilization rate during the first quarter of 2006; the first half of 2006 is on pace to record a 65% utilization rate in Western Canada.

Environmental Regulations

The oil and gas industry is subject to environmental regulations pursuant to a variety of provincial and federal legislation. Such legislation provides for restrictions and prohibitions on the release or emission of various substances produced in association with certain oil and gas industry operations. In addition, such legislation requires that well and facility sites be abandoned and reclaimed to the satisfaction of provincial authorities. Compliance with such legislation can require significant expenditures and a breach of such requirements may result in the imposition of material fines and penalties.

Competition

Petrowest provides energy services primarily to the field operation locations of oil and gas exploration and production companies that are located in the WCSB. The energy service business in which Petrowest operates is highly competitive and, in order to be successful, Petrowest must provide services that meet the specific needs of its clients ensuring competitive pricing and customer satisfaction.

In order to remain competitive, Petrowest will emphasize to its customer base that exceeds 500 clients, the cost efficiencies and value-added services that Petrowest can provide specifically in the pre-drilling and post-completion phases. Current industry trends indicate that oil and gas companies are increasingly using service providers that can offer more than one specific service. Petrowest will be able to provide this to an ever-growing industry through its four service divisions. The greatest benefits to oil and gas companies that utilize Petrowest's Services will include overall cost efficiencies, reduced invoicing, time savings in procuring services and stronger profitability as a result of using a grouped services approach.

The barriers to entry for new competitors include a high cost of capital in acquiring and operating a services company, access to a skilled and qualified workforce given current labour constraints in Alberta and B.C. and qualified and experienced management team that can properly assess and manage to full scale of operational and technical issues including safety, health and environmental liabilities.

The principal competitive factors in the markets in which Petrowest operates are quality of service, service availability, service reliability, quality of equipment used to perform its services, technical and operational knowledge, management experience and reputation, safety and pricing. Competitors offer similar services in the geographic regions in which Petrowest operates.

SUMMARY OF DISTRIBUTABLE CASH

Management has prepared the following summary of distributable cash generated by the Acquired Companies on the basis of information contained in this prospectus, and management's estimate of the amount of expenses that would have been incurred by the Acquired Companies and Petrowest had Petrowest been in existence for the three months ended April 30, 2006 and for the twelve-months ended December 31, 2005. The analysis is neither a forecast nor a projection of future results. The actual results of operations of Petrowest for any period, whether before or after the Closing, will vary from the amounts set forth in the following analysis and such variation may be material. Additionally, management believes the operations of Petrowest are subject to risks, and in reviewing the following summary of distributable cash, investors should review and consider the risks described under the heading "Risk Factors".

Management views distributable cash as an operating performance measure, as it is a measure generally used by Canadian income funds as an indicator of financial performance. As the Trust will distribute substantially all of its cash on an ongoing basis (after providing for certain amounts described below) and since EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA (as respectively defined in "Non-GAAP Measures") are metrics used by many investors to compare issuers on the basis of their ability to generate cash from operations, management believes that, in addition to net earnings, EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are useful supplemental measures from which to make adjustments to determine distributable cash. The estimate of distributable cash has been prepared using assumptions which management believes are reasonable and supportable, all of which reflect the Partnerships planned course of action given management's judgement about the most probable set of economic conditions.

Management believes that, upon completion of this offering and the Concurrent Acquisitions, Petrowest will incur lease expenses, management salaries, maintenance capital expenditures, general and administrative costs, and other expenses that will differ from those contained in the historical financial statements of each of the Acquired Companies that are included elsewhere in this prospectus. Although management does not have firm commitments for all of the aforementioned items and, accordingly, the complete financial effects of all of those items are not objectively determinable, management believes that the following represents a reasonable estimate of the distributable cash of the Trust that could have been available for distribution for the three months ended April 30, 2006 and for the twelve-months ended December 31, 2005 had the Trust been in existence during such time and had the Concurrent Acquisitions taken place at the beginning of such periods.

Summary of Distributable Cash

Adjusted EBITDA[1][2]	$ 15,795	$ 42,739
Management believes that cash available for distribution should be reduced by the following:
Incremental executive, board and public company costs[3]	$ 306	$ 1,223
Maintenance capital expenditures[4]	$ 825	$ 3,300
Interest expense[5]	$ 75	$ 300
Management believes that cash available for distribution should be increased by the following:
Adjustment for costs associated with non-recurring items, insurance, and office and administration consolidation[3]	$ 283	$ 1,132
Cash available for distribution	$ 14,872	$ 39,048
Cash holdback[6]	$ •	$ •
Cash holdback %	•%	•%
Distributable cash[7]	$ •	$ •
Estimated distributable cash per Unit[8]	$ •	$ •

Notes:

(1) Represents the pro forma consolidated Adjusted EBITDA of the Trust for the three months ended April 30, 2006 and the twelve months ended December 31, 2005 calculated as the sum of Earnings (loss) of $7,411,674 and $10,346,723, income taxes of $nil and $nil, other interest of $50,706 and $103,247 and amortization of $8,418,645 and $32,374,714 less interest and other revenue of $85,773 and $85,684, respectively. See "Selected Pro Forma Consolidated Financial Information" and the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements and related notes of the Trust included in Schedule "B" of this prospectus.

(2) Adjusted EBITDA is not a recognized measure under GAAP, does not have a standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP and may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other issuers. See "Non-GAAP Measures" and Schedule "C" - "Reconciliation of Net Earnings to EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA". As the Trust intends to distribute substantially all of its cash available for distribution (after satisfaction of administrative expenses and other amounts as may be considered appropriate by the Board of Directors) on an on-going basis, management believes that Adjusted EBITDA is an important measure in evaluating the Trust's performance and in determining whether to invest in the Trust.

(3) Management estimates that, subsequent to this offering, Petrowest will incur additional costs on an ongoing basis in connection with ongoing public disclosure requirements, investor relations, additional employee compensation, trustee and director fees, and other related matters. Also, management anticipates that, Petrowest will realize savings associated with general and administrative costs on an ongoing basis in connection with insurance, office administration and supplies and non-recurring items. These estimates are based on quotes provided by service providers, preliminary contractual arrangements, expenses in similar offering transactions and comparisons with historical expenses.

(4) Represents management's estimate of annual maintenance capital expenditures, including expenditures required to maintain the base fleet of equipment, inventory of equipment, equipment certification costs, leasehold and office improvements, and tools. Estimates are based on historical expenditures, consistent with management's plans for funding capital expenditures on an ongoing basis. See "Acquisition of the Acquired Companies".

(5) Represents estimated interest expense on proposed credit facilities that management intends to secure concurrent with the Closing. Management anticipates a credit facility will be in the form of a revolving line of credit. Management estimates that the facility will be utilized to fund seasonal working capital requirements. On an annualized basis, management anticipates that Petrowest will, on average, carry a balance of $5 million with an average interest rate of 6%.

(6) Management initially intends to reserve approximately •% of cash available for actual distribution.

(7) Distributable cash is not a recognized measure under GAAP and is typically used by Canadian income funds as an indicator of financial performance. The method of calculating the Trust's distributable cash may differ from similar computations as reported by other issuers and, accordingly, the distributable cash of the Trust may not be comparable to distributable cash as reported by other issuers. See "Non-GAAP Measures".

(8) Based on • Units outstanding on a fully diluted basis upon Closing.

CONSOLIDATED CAPITALIZATION OF THE TRUST

The following table sets forth the consolidated capitalization of the Trust both before and after giving effect to this offering. The table should be read in conjunction with the financial statements of the Trust included in Schedule "B" of this prospectus.

Designation	Outstanding as at July 6, 2006	Outstanding as at July 6, 2006 after giving effect to the Promoters' subscription, the Concurrent Acquisitions[1][2] and this offering
Long term debt[3]	$Nil	$Nil

Subordinated Units[4]	$1,510,000	$•
(authorized - unlimited)	(1,510,000 Subordinated Units)[4]	(1,510,000 Subordinated Units)

Notes:

(1) The Trust was settled on July 6, 2006 with $10 in cash and issued a single Trust Unit. The initial Trust Unit will be surrendered to the Trust immediately following the Closing on the payment of $10.
(2) Does not include the exercise of the Over-Allotment Option.
(3) The Trust intends to obtain a credit facility of approximately $50 million concurrent with the Closing. See "Debt Financing".
(4) See "Prior Issuances".

DEBT FINANCING

The Trust intends to implement a financing strategy that incorporates long-term secured and unsecured debt and maintains maximum flexibility to manage the short-term cash needs of the Trust. Petrowest intends to obtain a credit facility of approximately $50 million concurrent with the Closing and is currently in discussions with a number of financial institutions with respect to setting up such a facility.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Management's discussion and analysis for each of the Acquired Companies is set out in Schedule "A" of this prospectus. Each of the Acquired Companies is a privately held company which has not been required to meet public reporting regulations.

Upon completion of this offering and the Concurrent Acquisitions, the Directors and executive officers of the General Partner as a group will beneficially own, directly or indirectly, or exercise control or direction over • Units, representing approximately •% of the Units outstanding. Included in this amount owned, controlled or directed are • Trust Units and • Subordinated Units.

Kenneth N. Drysdale, President, Chief Executive Officer and Director

Mr. Drysdale has over 27 years of experience in the oil and gas industry. From 1979 to 1995 he took on various management roles in road building, pipeline construction, logging and environmental reclamation. Mr. Drysdale acted as Chief Construction Consultant for SNC-Lavalin Group Inc. and Shell Canada Limited on the Caroline Liquid Sulfur Line in 1991. From March 1994 to March 1996 Mr. Drysdale also managed a mid-sized diameter pipeline company in southern Alberta where he took the company to $30 million in revenues from $11 million in just two years. He then founded his own private pipeline construction company in 1996, which he grew from revenues of $5 million to $40 million until he sold its assets in 2005. Mr. Drysdale co-founded Acquisitionco in January 2006 with a view to forming a public, energy services income fund trust.

John B. Paul, CA, Chief Financial Officer

Mr. Paul has over 20 years of senior financial and operations management experience in a diverse range of businesses including oil and gas pipeline construction and maintenance, transportation, gravel crushing, asphalt, concrete construction and property management. Mr. Paul is also the former Controller and Chief Financial Officer of Skiing Louise Ltd., from 1986 to 1993. From 1993 to 2006, Mr. Paul held various senior roles in the construction services sector including being co-founder and Chief Financial Officer of Alberta Surface Systems Ltd., which later became part of Willbros MSI Canada Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Willbros Group (formerly MSI Energy Services Inc.), where Mr. Paul served in numerous senior management positions including Director, Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Manager of Special Projects.

Mr. Paul obtained his Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of Alberta and received the Chartered Accountant designation in 1987.

Gary Sweetman, Chief Operating Officer

Mr. Sweetman has over 25 years of experience in the oil and gas industry. Mr. Sweetman started his career in 1977 with British Gas in various roles including Welding Inspector and Project Supervisor of Engineering Research. In 1990, he began working for Husky Oil as a Project Technologist in the Rotary Equipment Quality and Assurance department. Mr. Sweetman provided project management for PanCanadian Petroleum Limited in the offshore oil sector from January 1996 to August 2000. From September 2000 to May 2004, General Manager/President of Neudorf Trenching Ltd. and NTL Projects Inc.; from May 2004 to present, Mr. Sweetman has been President of Sirah Consulting Ltd. and Neuwest Equipment Rentals. Mr. Sweetman co-founded Acquisitionco in January 2006 with a view to forming a public, energy services income fund trust.

D. Hugh Gillard, Chairman of the Board and Director

Mr. Gillard has over 34 years of business experience in the oil and gas industry and is the Principal of Saddleback Resources Ltd., a private company involved in equity investments and advisory roles in the energy sector. From June 2003 to March 2006, Mr. Gillard was President, Chief Executive Officer and remains a director of Kelso Energy Inc., a publicly traded junior oil and gas company. From 1999 to 2000, Mr. Gillard was President, Chief Operating Officer and a director of PrimeWest Energy Trust. From 1990 to 1998, Mr. Gillard was employed by CanWest Gas Marketing Inc., a private producer owned gas marketing company as President and Chief Executive Officer and prior to this, Vice President Gas Supply. From 1972 to 1989, Mr. Gillard held several senior positions with Ashland Oil Canada, Dome Petroleum and Amoco Canada.

Mr. Gillard is a graduate of the University of Calgary (Commerce) and the Stanford Business School Executive Program. Mr. Gillard currently serves as a director of COSTA Energy Inc. (formerly Kelso Energy Inc.), Crescent Point Energy Trust, Creststreet Power Income Fund and Point North Energy Limited, all publicly traded entities.

Rene Amirault, Director

Mr. Amirault has over 25 years experience in the energy industry. Mr. Amirault held various positions with Imperial Oil Ltd. from 1981 to 1994 including marketing, project management, finance and accounting capacities. Mr. Amirault held various roles at Canadian Crude Separators Inc. (CCS) and CCS Income Trust from August 1994 to January 2006, including Vice President roles in Sales and Marketing, Business Development and Corporate Development. Mr. Amirault was Vice President of Corporate Development of CCS Income Trust, or its predecessor companies, from September 2001 to January 2006, during which time his responsibilities included business development, acquisitions, strategic planning and investor relations. Mr. Amirault is a director of Arrowhead Water Products Ltd., a public company traded on the TSX Venture Exchange.

Mr. Amirault received a Certified General Accountant designation in June 1985.

Gerald A. Romanzin, CA, Director

Romanzin is an independent businessman and has served as a director of the administrator of each of Crescent Point Energy Trust from March 2004, Ketch Resources Trust from January 2005, Focus Energy Trust from August 2002, as a director of Kereco Energy Ltd. from January 2005 and as a trustee of Trimac Income Fund since February 2005. Mr. Romanzin graduated from the University of Calgary with a Bachelor of Commerce and is a Chartered Accountant.

Bradley D. Markel, Corporate Secretary

Mr. Markel is a Partner in the law firm of Bennett Jones LLP, a Canadian law firm that focuses on energy, corporate law, technology and litigation. Mr. Markel's practice includes mergers and acquisitions and corporate finance. Mr. Markel also provides advice relating to corporate governance in respect of mergers and acquisitions as well as corporate finance transactions. Mr. Markel joined Bennett Jones LLP in 1997. Prior to joining Bennett Jones LLP, Mr. Markel practiced with MacPherson Leslie & Tyerman in Regina, Saskatchewan. Mr. Markel received a Bachelor of Laws Degree from the University of Saskatchewan in 1990.

Governance

The Board of Directors will form such committees to fulfill the audit, governance and other committee functions of the Trust as they, in their discretion, determine. It is expected that initially the Board of Directors will have a Compensation Committee and an Audit Committee and that in the future the Board of Directors will form a Governance Committee and a Health and Safety Committee.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee consists of three Directors, Rene Amirault (Chair), Hugh Gillard and Gerald Romanzin, each of whom is independent in accordance with applicable Canadian securities legislation. Its mandate will be determined by the Board of Directors and is expected to include making recommendations as to the hiring, termination and compensation of executive officers.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee consists of three Directors, Gerald Romanzin (Chair), Rene Amirault and Hugh Gillard, each of whom is independent in accordance with applicable Canadian securities legislation. The primary purpose of the Audit Committee will be to assist the Directors in fulfilling their responsibilities of oversight and supervision of the accounting and financial reporting practices and procedures, the adequacy of internal accounting controls and procedures, and the quality and integrity of financial statements.

Disclosure Policy

The Board of Directors will be responsible for adopting and periodically reviewing and updating the Trust's written disclosure policy. This policy will, among other things:

- articulate the legal obligations of the Trust, its affiliates and their respective trustees, directors, officers and employees with respect to confidential information;
- identify spokespersons of the Trust who are the only persons authorized to communicate with third parties such as analysts, media and investors;
- provide guidelines on the disclosure of forward-looking information;
- require advance review by designated persons of the Trust of financial information to determine whether the information is material, to prevent the selective disclosure of material information and to ensure that, if selective disclosure does occur, a news release is issued immediately; and

- establish "black-out" periods immediately prior to and following the disclosure of quarterly and annual financial results and immediately prior to the disclosure of certain material changes, during which periods the Trust, its affiliates and their respective trustees, directors, officers, employees and consultants may not purchase or sell Units.

Remuneration of Directors

It is the intention of the General Partner to compensate the Chairman of the Board with an annual retainer of $30,000 per year, its other outside directors with an annual retainer of $20,000 per year, and an additional $5,000 per year for each committee chairman. In addition, outside directors will be paid $1,000 for each board meeting and each committee meeting if attended in person or $500 if participating by telephone. Outside directors will be entitled to participate in the Trust's option plan and the Trust intends to grant options to acquire 115,000 Trust Units to each of the outside directors following completion of this offering, one third of which will vest each year for three years following the Closing, and which will expire five years after the Closing. Outside directors have also subscribed for 20,000 Subordinated Units each at a price of $3.00 per unit.

Insurance Coverage for the Trust and Related Entities and Indemnification

The General Partner will obtain or cause to be obtained a policy of insurance for the directors and officers of the Trust's subsidiaries. The initial aggregate limit of liability applicable to the insured directors and officers under the policy will be $10 million. Under the policy, each entity will have reimbursement coverage to the extent that it has indemnified the directors and officers. The policy will include securities claims coverage, insuring against any legal obligation to pay on account of any securities claims brought against the Trust, Petrowest Business Trust, the Business Trustee, the Partnerships and the General Partner and any of their respective subsidiaries. The total limit of liability will be shared among the Trust, Petrowest Business Trust, the Partnership and the General Partners and any of their respective subsidiaries and their respective directors and officers so that the limit of liability will not be exclusive to any one of the entities or their respective trustees, directors and officers.

The by-laws of General Partner, Acquisitionco and the Business Trustee provide for the indemnification of their directors and officers from and against liability and costs in respect of any action or suit brought against them in connection with the execution of their duties of office, subject to certain limitations. The Deed of Trust and the Business Deed of Trust also provide for the indemnification of the Directors and the trustees of the Trust and Petrowest Business Trust, respectively, from and against liability and costs in respect of any action or suit brought against them in connection with the execution of their duties of office, subject to certain limitations.

SHAREHOLDERS AGREEMENT

In accordance with the terms of the Shareholders Agreement, the Unitholders, in their capacity as holders of Units of the Trust, will be entitled to direct the Trustee as to the appointment of the Board of Directors.

ADMINISTRATION AGREEMENT

The Trust has entered into the Administration Agreement with the General Partner pursuant to which the General Partner, which on or before the Closing Date will be a wholly-owned subsidiary of Petrowest Business Trust and the general partner of the Partnerships, has agreed to provide or arrange for the provision of services required in the administration and management of the Trust. At Closing, the Petrowest Business Trust will also enter into the Administration Agreement and the General Partner will agree to provide or arrange for the provision of services required in the management and administration of the Petrowest Business Trust. The General Partner will be responsible for overseeing and managing the affairs of the Trust and its subsidiaries.

The General Partner's duties with respect to the administration of the Trust and Petrowest Business Trust under the Administration Agreement will include (i) ensuring compliance by the Trust, its affiliates and subsidiaries with all continuous disclosure obligations under applicable securities legislation, including the preparation of financial statements; (ii) providing investor relations services; (iii) providing or causing to be provided to Unitholders all information that Unitholders are entitled to receive under the Deed of Trust, including relevant information with respect to income taxes; (iv) convening meetings of Unitholders and distributing required materials, including notices of meetings and information circulars, in respect of all such meetings; (v) attending to all administrative and other matters arising in connection with any redemptions of Units; (vi) monitoring the status of Units as qualified investments under the Tax Act for trusts governed by Plans; (vii) providing assistance in negotiating the terms of any financing required by the Trust; and (viii) generally providing all other services as may be necessary, or as requested by the Trustee, for the administration of the Trust. The General Partner will also provide similar services to Petrowest Business Trust.

The Administration Agreement will be for an initial term of ten years.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Each of Messrs. Drysdale and Sweetman entered into employment agreements with Petrowest effective January 6, 2006 and Mr. Paul entered into an employment agreement effective May 1, 2006 (Messrs. Drysdale, Sweetman, and Paul, collectively, the "Named Officers"). The annual base salaries and positions of these individuals will be as follows:

Name	Position	Salary	Term
Kenneth N. Drysdale	President and Chief Executive Officer	$200,000	5
Gary Sweetman	Chief Operating Officer	$200,000	5
John B. Paul	Chief Financial Officer	$200,000	5

The General Partner will review annual base salaries on an annual basis. Each of the Named Officers will be entitled to an annual bonus in an amount determined by and in the discretion of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors based upon performance. In addition, the General Partner has agreed to provide certain benefits, six weeks of vacation time and a vehicle allowance. Each of the Named Officers is required to give one month's written notice of resignation of his employment. In the event that employment is terminated by the General Partner for reasons other than just cause, the Named Officers are entitled to receive severance equal to compensation due to the date of ceasing to be employed plus one year of base salary in effect at the date of termination and an amount equal to 10% of such base salary in lieu of benefits. In the event that employment is terminated for cause, each Named Officer is entitled to receive severance equal to all accrued but unpaid base salary to the date of ceasing to be employed. The employment agreements contain customary confidentiality provisions.

ANNUAL INCENTIVE PLAN

The executive officers and employees will be eligible to participate in an annual cash incentive plan based on the degree to which financial and non-financial objectives of Petrowest have been met. The Compensation Committee will determine eligibility and set objectives and maximum incentive opportunities and will approve proposed payments.

LONG TERM INCENTIVE PLAN

The Trust intends to adopt a trust unit option plan (the "Option Plan") subject to the approval of the Option Plan by the Board of Directors, Unitholders and the TSX. The directors, officers, employees and consultants of the Trust and its subsidiaries are eligible to participate in the Option Plan. The purpose of the Option Plan will be to develop the interest of directors, officers and employees of and persons or companies who provide management or consulting services to the Trust and its subsidiaries in the growth and development of the Trust by providing them with the opportunity, through options, to acquire an increased proprietary interest in the Trust. The Option Plan will provide that the maximum number of Trust Units issuable upon the exercise of all options granted under the Option Plan, together with Trust Units as may be subject to options pursuant to other Unit compensation arrangements, shall not exceed 10% of the outstanding Units and any securities exchangeable into Units.

Subject to certain limitations set forth below, pursuant to the Option Plan, the number of options and the exercise price thereof will be set by the Board of Directors at the time of grant provided that the excess price shall not be less than the weighted average trading price of the Trust Units on the TSX for the five trading days immediately prior to the date of grant.

Pursuant to the Option Plan, no options shall be granted to any optionee if such grant, together with any other compensation or incentive mechanism involving the issuance of Units, could result, at any time, in the number of Units reserved for issuance pursuant to options granted to insiders of the Trust exceeding 10% of the outstanding Units and any securities exchangeable into Units.

Following Closing, the Trust intends to issue options to acquire an aggregate of approximately 1.2 million Units to directors and executive officers of the General Partner and options to acquire an aggregate of approximately 1.5 million Units to employees of the General Partner, each option having an exercise price equal to the offering price of the Units pursuant to this prospectus.

DISTRIBUTION REINVESTMENT AND OPTIONAL UNIT PURCHASE PLAN

The Trust may establish a distribution, distribution reinvestment and optional unit purchase plan (the "DRIP") at a future date determined by the Board of Directors. Generally, the DRIP will provide eligible holders of Units the opportunity to accumulate additional Units at a 5% discount to an average market price. Participants may also purchase additional Units by investing additional sums within the limits and subject to the terms of the DRIP (the "Optional Unit Purchase").

The DRIP is designed to provide an efficient and cost-effective way to issue additional equity to existing Unitholders. An eligible Unitholder may, by enrolling in the DRIP, direct that distributions in respect of all Units of such Unitholder enrolled in the DRIP be applied to the purchase of additional Units. The price of Units purchased with reinvested distributions will be approximately 95% of an average market price. Unitholders participating in the DRIP may also purchase additional Units under the DRIP with optional cash payments, subject to a maximum of $100,000 per participant per calendar year and a certain prescribed minimum per participant per remittance.

DESCRIPTION OF THE TRUST

The description below is a summary and is qualified entirely by the complete provisions of the Trust Deed. A copy of the Trust Deed will be available via the internet at www.sedar.com.

Trust Structure

The Trust is an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose mutual fund trust established under and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta and pursuant to the Deed of Trust. The head and principal office of the Trust is located at Suite 204, 10605 Westside Drive, Grande Prairie, Alberta, T8V 8E6. The Trust was created for, among other things, the following purposes:

- participating in the acquisition of energy services businesses;
- acquiring, investing in, holding, transferring, disposing of and otherwise dealing with, directly or indirectly, any of the securities issued by Petrowest Business Trust, Petrowest Business Trustee, or any of their respective associates, subsidiaries or affiliates thereof and the Business Notes and Business Units, and borrowing funds directly or indirectly for that purpose;
- acquiring, investing in, holding, transferring, disposing of and otherwise dealing with any other securities and in any other investments as the Trustee or the General Partner may determine and borrowing funds directly or indirectly for that purpose;
- temporarily holding cash and short term investments for the purposes of making investments, paying the expenses and liabilities of the Trust, paying amounts payable by the Trust in connection with the redemption of any Units or securities of the Trust, and making distributions to Unitholders;

- issuing Units and other securities of the Trust including securities convertible into, or exchangeable for Units or other securities, obtaining funds to conduct any of the activities of the Trust, completing any acquisition of securities or any other assets for the benefit of the Trust, implementing Unitholder rights plans, distribution reinvestment plans, Trust Unit purchase plans, incentive option plans or other compensation plans, if any, established by the Trustee for the benefit of the Trust; and making non-cash distributions to Unitholders as contemplated by the Deed of Trust including pursuant to distribution reinvestment plans or distribution reinvestment and Trust Unit purchase plans, if any, established by the Trust;

- issuing debt securities (including debt securities convertible into, or exchangeable for, Units or other securities of the Trust), provided recourse shall be limited to the Trust Assets, or otherwise borrowing and mortgaging, pledging, charging, granting a security interest in or otherwise encumbering any of the Trust Assets as security;

- guaranteeing (as guarantor, surety or co-principal obligor) the payment of any indebtedness, liability or obligation of the Petrowest Business Trust, the General Partner or any subsidiary or affiliate thereof, and mortgaging, pledging, charging, granting a security interest in or otherwise encumbering all or any part of the Trust Assets as security for that guarantee, and subordinating its rights under the Business Notes to other indebtedness;

- disposing of any part of the Trust Assets;

- issuing or redeeming rights and Units pursuant to any Unitholder rights plan adopted by the Trust;

- repurchasing, redeeming or otherwise acquiring securities of the Trust, including pursuant to any issuer bid made by the Trust;

- satisfying the obligations, liabilities or indebtedness of the Trust;

- performing all acts necessary, incidental or ancillary to any of the activities set forth above; and

- undertaking such other activities or taking such other actions as shall be approved by the Trustee from time to time, provided that the Trust shall not undertake any activity, take any action, or make or retain any investment which would result (or fail to take any action where that failure would result) in the Trust not being considered a "unit trust" or a "mutual fund trust" for purposes of the Tax Act.

The Trustee may declare payable to the Unitholders all or any part of the net income of the Trust less all expenses and liabilities of the Trust. It is currently anticipated that the only income to be received by the Trust will be from the securities of the Petrowest Business Trust.

Units

The Trust is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Trust Units, an unlimited number of Subordinated Units and an unlimited number of Special Voting Units.

Trust Units

Prior to the conversion of the Subordinated Units, holders of Trust Units will be entitled to receive per month, in priority to any payments on the Subordinated Units, distributions of $0.10 per Trust Unit per month and such distributions shall constitute Priority Distributions (as defined below).

Holders of Trust Units are entitled to notice of, and to attend and vote at, all meetings of holders of Units.

Upon the occurrence of a Capital Event (as defined below) or the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Trust or any other distribution of the assets of the Trust for the purpose of winding-up its affairs; (i) the holders of Trust Units will be entitled to receive, on a pro rata basis, from the applicable Capital Event Amount (as defined below) or the assets of the Trust, as applicable, before any distribution therefrom is made to the holders of Subordinated Units, any accumulated but unpaid Priority Distributions; and (ii) the holders of Subordinated Units shall be entitled to receive, on a pro rata basis, from the applicable Capital Event Amount of the assets of the Trust, as applicable after the holders of Trust Units have received a distribution therefrom in an amount equal to any accumulated but unpaid Priority Distributions but before any further distribution therefrom is made to the Priority Unitholder, any accumulated but unpaid Subordinated Distributions. Thereafter any further distributions from the applicable Capital Event Amount or the assets of the Trust, as applicable, to the holders of Units of either class shall be made pro rata and pari passu.

If a Capital Event occurs, the Priority Distributions and Subordinated Distributions will be adjusted as agreed to by the independent directors of the General Partner, using the definition of independence as provided in securities laws.

A "Capital Event" means the occurrence of any of the following events: (i) a sale of material assets of the Trust; (ii) the total or constructive total loss, or partial loss, of material assets of the Trust as a result of a casualty; (iii) a compulsory transfer or taking under threat of compulsory transfer by a governmental authority; or (iv) the occurrence of any event referred to in clauses (i) to (iii) above in relation to any person in which the Trust is a securityholder.

A "Capital Event Amount" means, in respect of a particular Capital Event, any amount received by the Trust in respect of such Capital Event, which the Trustee upon the recommendation of the Board of Directors, determines will not be re-deployed or reapplied by the Trust and shall be distributed to Unitholders.

Subordinated Units

Distributions on the Subordinated Units will be subordinated in favour of Trust Units. Distributions on the Subordinated Units will only be paid at the end of a fiscal quarter to the extent that: (i) the Trust has paid distributions per month of at least $0.10 per Trust Unit (the "Priority Distributions") to holders of Trust Units during that quarter, and (ii) any deficiency in such distributions to holders of Trust Units during the preceding 12 months has been satisfied, as described below. If these targets are not satisfied, any deficiency will be borne by holders of the Subordinated Units, distributions on which will be reduced to the extent necessary to support the continued payment of Priority Distributions on the Trust Units and any applicable deficiency in such distributions.

Distributions on the Trust Units will be cumulative, such that the amount of any deficiency in the Priority Distributions will accumulate for a period of 12 months. Payments of deficiencies in the Priority Distributions will be made in priority to distributions on the Subordinated Units. Any such accumulated deficiency not satisfied by a distribution by the Trust within 12 months of the date it arose will cease to be payable (i.e., distributions on the Subordinated Units will not be reduced to fund such accumulated deficiency to the extent that some or all of such accumulated deficiency arose more than 12 months before the date on which such payment is to be made).

Following payment of the Priority Distributions and any deficiency in the Priority Distributions accumulated during the preceding 12 months, holders of Subordinated Units will be entitled to a distribution in an amount equal to $0.10 per Subordinated Unit per month (the "Subordinated Distributions"), such amount to be accumulated and paid at the end of each fiscal quarter.

Deficiencies in payment of Subordinated Distributions shall be accumulated and paid in a subsequent quarter in respect of such Distribution Periods, but only after payment of the Priority Distributions in respect of such Distribution Periods, any deficiency in Priority Distributions accumulated during the preceding 12 months and the Subordinated Distributions in respect of such subsequent Distribution Periods, and provided that any accumulated unpaid portion or deficiency on Subordinated Distributions not satisfied by a distribution by the Trust within 12 months of the date such unpaid portion or deficiency arose shall cease to be payable.

After payment of all Priority Distributions and Subordinated Distributions (including any unpaid Priority Distributions and Subordinated Distributions accumulated during the preceding 12 months), distribution of Distributable Cash shall be made to Unitholders pro rata and pari passu.

Holders of Subordinated Units are entitled to notice of, and to attend and vote at, all meetings of holders of Units.

Special Voting Units

In order to allow the Trust flexibility in pursuing corporate acquisitions, the Deed of Trust allows for the creation of Special Voting Units which will enable the Trust to provide voting rights to holders of exchangeable securities that may be issued by the Corporation or other direct or indirect subsidiaries of the Trust in connection with exchangeable share transactions.

An unlimited number of Special Voting Units may be created and issued pursuant to the Deed of Trust. Holders of Special Voting Units shall not be entitled to any distributions of any nature whatsoever from the Trust and shall be entitled to such number of votes at meetings of Unitholders as may be prescribed by the Trustee or the Board of Directors in the resolution authorizing the issuance of any Special Voting Units. Except for the right to vote at meetings of the Unitholders, the Special Voting Units shall not confer upon the holders thereof any other rights.

Exchange Right

Holders of Subordinated Units will have the right to convert into Trust Units on a one-for-one basis at any time after (and the subordination provisions will only apply until) the end of the first fiscal year ending on or after December 31, 2008 where the Trust has earned EBITDA (derived from audited financial statements) of at least $47 million (the "EBITDA Target") and the Trust has paid distributions of at least $1.20 per Trust Unit (the "Distribution Target") for such fiscal year. For the purposes of the subordination provisions, EBITDA will be calculated and adjusted in a manner consistent with the definition of EBITDA set forth in this prospectus. See "Non-GAAP Measures".

Approvals

All Trust Unit Veto Matters (as defined below) and Subordinated Unit Veto Matters (as defined below) must be approved by a special resolution and by 66⅔% of the holders of Trust Units or Subordinated Units, as applicable, voted in respect of the matter.

A "Trust Unit Veto Matter" means a proposal to implement any of the following: (i) adding, changing or removing the rights, privileges, restrictions or conditions attaching to the Trust Units; unless such proposal makes a similar addition, change or removal to the rights, privileges, restrictions or conditions attaching to the Subordinated Units; and (ii) amending the Deed of Trust in any manner materially adverse to a holder of Trust Units that is not similarly adverse to a holder of Subordinated Units.

A "Subordinated Unit Veto Matter" means a proposal to implement any of the following: (i) adding, changing or removing the rights, privileges, restrictions or conditions attaching to the Subordinated Units; unless such proposal makes a similar addition, change or removal to the rights, privileges, restrictions or conditions attaching to the Trust Units; and (ii) amending the Deed of Trust in any manner materially adverse to a holder of Subordinated Units that is not similarly adverse to a holder of Trust Units.

The Deed of Trust will also provide that the Trust will not, subject to certain exceptions: (a) issue or distribute additional Trust Units or rights to subscribe therefore or other property or assets to all or substantially all of the holders of Trust Units, nor subdivide, reduce, consolidate, reclassify or otherwise change the rights, privileges or other terms of the Trust Units, unless the same or an equivalent distribution on, or change to, the Subordinated Units (or in the rights of the holders thereof) is made simultaneously; or (b) issue or distribute additional Subordinated Units or rights to subscribe therefore or other property or assets to all or substantially all of the holders of Subordinated Units, nor subdivide, reduce, consolidate, reclassify or otherwise change the rights, privileges or other terms of the Subordinated Units, unless the same or an equivalent distribution on, or change to the Trust Units (or in the rights of the holders thereof) is made simultaneously.

The Trust Units are not "deposits" within the meaning of the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation Act (Canada) and are not insured under the provisions of that Act or any other legislation. Furthermore, the Trust is not a trust company and, accordingly, is not registered under any trust and loan company legislation as it does not carry on or intend to carry on the business of a trust company.

Unitholder Limited Liability

The Deed of Trust provides that no Unitholder, in its capacity as such, shall incur or be subject to any liability, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, in contract or in tort or of any other kind to any Person in connection with: (i) the Trust Assets or the ownership, use, operation, acquisition or disposition thereof or exercise or enjoyment of the rights, privileges, conditions or benefits attached thereto, associated therewith or derived therefrom; (ii) the obligations or the activities or affairs of the Trust; (iii) any actual or alleged act or omission of the Trustee or by any other Person in respect of the activities or affairs of the Trust (whether or not authorized by or pursuant to the Deed of Trust); (iv) any act or omission of the Trustee or any other Person in the performance or exercise, or purported or attempted performance or exercise, of any obligation, power, discretion or authority conferred upon the Trustee or such other Person in respect of the activities or affairs of the Trust (whether or not authorized by or pursuant to the Deed of Trust); (v) any transaction entered into by the Trustee or by any other Person in respect of the activities or affairs of the Trust (whether or not authorized by or pursuant to the Deed of Trust); or (vi) except as provided in the Deed of Trust, any taxes, levies, imposts or charges or fines, penalties or interest in respect thereof payable by the Trust or by the Trustee or by any other Person on behalf of or in connection with the activities or affairs of the Trust. The Deed of Trust also provides that no Unitholder, in its capacity as a Unitholder, shall be liable to indemnify the Trustee or any other person with respect to any liabilities of the Trust. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that any Unitholder, in its capacity as such, is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be subject to or liable in respect of any such liability, the Deed of Trust provides that such liability shall be enforceable only against, and shall be satisfied only out of, that Unitholder's share of the Trust Assets represented by its Units.

The Deed of Trust further provides that all contracts signed by or on behalf of the Trust shall include a provision to the effect that such obligation will not be binding upon Unitholders personally. Notwithstanding the terms of the Deed of Trust, Unitholders may not be protected from liabilities of the Trust to the same extent a shareholder is protected from the liabilities of a corporation. Personal liability may also arise in respect of claims against the Trust (to the extent that claims are not satisfied by the Trust) that do not arise under contracts, including claims in tort, claims for taxes and possibly certain other statutory liabilities. The possibility of any personal liability to Unitholders of this nature arising is considered remote. In addition, the Income Trust Liability Act (Alberta) (the "ITLA") provides that the beneficiary of a trust that is (a) created by a trust instrument governed by the laws of Alberta, and (b) a reporting issuer, as defined in the Securities Act (Alberta), is not liable as a beneficiary for any act, default, obligation or liability of the Trust or any of its trustees.

Issuance of Units

The Deed of Trust provides that Units including installment receipts, subscription receipts, rights, warrants, special warrants or options to subscribe for Units or debt instruments that are convertible into or exchangeable for Units, may be created and issued on such terms and conditions and at such time or times as the Trustee or the Board of Directors may determine.

Cash Distributions

Subject to the subordination of the Subordinated Units the Trustee shall, upon the recommendation of the General Partner, on or before each Distribution Record Date, declare payable to the Unitholders of record on such Distribution Record Date, all of the Distributable Cash of the Trust for the Distribution Period. The proportionate share of each Unit of the amount of such Distributable Cash shall be determined by dividing such amount by the number of issued and outstanding Units on such Distribution Record Date. In addition, the Trustee may, upon the recommendation of the General Partner, declare to be payable and make distributions to Unitholders, from time to time, out of the income of the Trust, net realized capital gains, the capital of the Trust or otherwise.

The initial cash distribution for the period from the Closing Date to August 31, 2006 will be paid to Unitholders of record on August 31, 2006 and is expected to be paid on September 15, 2006. Thereafter, it is expected that Distributions will be made on the 15th day of each month to Unitholders of record on the immediately preceding Distribution Record Date.

Redemption Right

Each Unitholder is entitled to require the Trust to redeem, at any time and from time to time, at the demand of the Unitholder, all or any part of the Units registered in the name of the Unitholder, upon delivery to the Trust of the certificate or certificates representing such Units, accompanied by a duly completed and properly executed notice requiring redemption. If a global unit certificate has been issued by the Trust, notice must also be provided to the Canadian Depository for Securities Limited. Upon receipt by the Trust of the notice to redeem Units, the holder thereof shall cease to have any rights with respect to the Units tendered for redemption other than to receive a price per Unit equal to:

(a) in the case of a Trust Unit, the lesser of: (i) 95% of the "market price" of the Units on the principal exchange or market on which the Trust Units are quoted for trading during the 10 consecutive trading day period ending on the trading day immediately prior to the date on which the Units are tendered for redemption; and (ii) 100% of the "closing market price" on the principal exchange or market on which the Trust Units are quoted for trading on the date that the Trust Units are so tendered for redemption (the "Cash Redemption Price"); and

(b) in the case of a Subordinated Unit (i) prior to the date the holders of Subordinated Units have the right to convert to Trust Units, a portion of the Cash Redemption Price in respect of such Subordinated Unit (the "Subordinated Redemption Price") calculated pursuant to the following formula:

SRP=R*A/B

SRP means the Subordinated Redemption Price.

R = the Cash Redemption Price (determined as if the Subordinated unit was a Trust Unit);

A = the number of quarters in which the Trust has met the quarterly EBITDA Target and Distribution Target while the Subordinated Units have been outstanding;

B = for the period from the Closing Date until December 31, 2008: 10; and for the period after December 31, 2008: 10 plus the number that is 4 multiplied by the number of completed fiscal years after December 31, 2007, provided that if A = nil or the Subordinated Redemption Price as calculated above would be less than $3.00, the Subordinated Redemption Price shall be the lesser of $3.00 and the Cash Redemption Price; and (ii) following the date the holders of Subordinated Units have the right to convert to Trust Units, the Cash Redemption Price.

For the purposes of this calculation, "market price" will be an amount equal to the simple average of the closing price of the Trust Units on the principal exchange or market on which the Trust Units are listed and posted for trading for each of the trading days on which there was a closing price; provided that, if the applicable exchange or market does not provide a closing price; but only provides the highest and lowest prices of the Trust Units traded on a particular day, the market price shall be an amount equal to the simple average of the highest and lowest prices for each of the trading days on which there was a trade; provided further that if there was trading on the applicable exchange or market for fewer than five of the 10 trading days, the "market price" shall be the simple average of the following prices established for each of the 10 trading days: the average of the last bid and last ask prices for each day on which there was no trading; the closing price of the Trust Units for each day that there was trading if the exchange or market provides a closing price; and the average of the highest and lowest prices of the Trust Units for each day that there was trading, if the exchange or market provides only the highest and lowest prices of Trust Units traded on a particular day; and provided further that if, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, the trading activity of the Trust Units for the relevant period does not result in a trading price that represents the fair market value of a Trust Unit, the "market price" shall be an amount determined by the General Partner in good faith in its sole discretion and provided further that any such determination by the General Partner shall be conclusive and binding. The "closing market price" shall be an amount equal to the closing price of a Trust Unit on the applicable exchange or market if there was a trade on that date and the applicable exchange or market provides a closing price; an amount equal to the simple average of the highest and lowest trading prices of a Trust Unit if there was trading and the exchange or other market provides only the highest and lowest prices of a Trust Unit traded on a particular day; or the simple average of the last bid and last ask prices if there was no trading on the specified date.

The Cash Redemption Price or Subordinated Redemption Price payable in respect of any Units surrendered for redemption during any calendar month shall be paid by cheque no later than the last day of the calendar month following the month in which the Units were surrendered for redemption. The entitlement of Unitholders to receive a cheque upon the redemption of their Units is subject to the limitation that the total amount payable by the Trust in respect of such Units and all other Units tendered for redemption in the same calendar month shall not exceed $100,000 provided that, the Trustee may, in its sole discretion, waive such limitation in respect of any calendar month. If this limitation is not so waived, the Cash Redemption Price and Subordinated Redemption Price payable in respect of Units tendered for redemption in such calendar month shall be paid on the last day of the calendar month following such month as follows: (i) firstly, a cash payment by the Trust to the extent applicable; and (ii) secondly, by a distribution of Series 2 Business Notes in a principal amount equal to the remainder.

The entitlement of each Unitholder to require the Trust to redeem Units for cash will not be applicable to Units tendered for redemption where at the time the Trust Units are tendered for redemption, the outstanding Trust Units are not listed on any exchange or market which the General Partner considers in its sole discretion, provides representative fair market value prices for the Units or the normal trading of the outstanding Units is suspended or halted on the redemption date or for more than five trading days during the 10 consecutive trading day period ending on the trading day immediately prior to the redemption date.

It is anticipated that this redemption right will not be the primary mechanism for holders of Units to dispose of their Units. Securities held by the Trust which may be distributed in specie to Unitholders in connection with a redemption will not be listed on any stock exchange and no market is expected to develop in such securities. Securities held by the Trust may not be qualified investments for trusts governed by Plans.

Non-Resident Unitholders

At no time may Non-Residents be the beneficial owners of more than 49% of the Units, on a basic and fully-diluted basis, then outstanding. The Trustee or the General Partner may require declarations as to the jurisdictions in which beneficial owners of Units are resident. If the Trustee or the General Partner becomes aware that the beneficial owners of 49% of the Units (or rights to acquire Units) then outstanding are, or may be, Non-Residents or that such a situation is imminent, the Trustee or the General Partner may make a public announcement thereof and shall not accept a subscription for Units from or issue or register a transfer of Units to a Person unless the Person provides a declaration that the Person is not a Non-Resident. If, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustee or the General Partner determines that more than 49% of the Units are held by Non-Residents, the Trustee or the General Partner may send a notice to Non-Resident holders of Units, chosen in inverse order to the order of acquisition or registration or in such other manner as the Trustee or the General Partner may consider equitable and practicable, requiring such Non-Resident holders to sell their Units or a specified portion thereof within a specified period of not more than 60 days. If the Unitholders receiving such notice have not sold the specified number of Units or provided the Trustee or the General Partner with satisfactory evidence that they are not Non-Residents within such period, the Trustee may, on recommendation of the General Partner on behalf of such Unitholders, cause such Units to be sold and, in the interim, shall suspend the voting and distribution rights attached to such Units. Upon such sale, the affected Unitholders shall cease to be holders of the relevant Units and their rights shall be limited to receiving the net proceeds of sale upon surrender of the certificates representing such Units. No liability shall accrue to the Trust, the Trustee or the General Partner if the Units of Non-Resident Unitholders are sold at a loss to such Unitholder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustee and the General Partner, as the case may be, shall not enforce such restriction if a legal opinion, advanced tax ruling, Department of Finance comfort letter or any combination thereof has been received and based on such opinion and/or documentation the Trustee and/or the General Partner, as the case may be, is of the view, acting reasonably, that the failure to enforce such provisions will not result in the Trust ceasing to be a "mutual fund trust" for the purposes of the Tax Act.

Meetings of Unitholders

The Deed of Trust provides that annual meetings of Unitholders shall be called, commencing in 2006, on or before June 30 in each year or otherwise as required by applicable laws, at a time and at a place in Canada set by the General Partner. The business transacted at such meetings shall include the presentation of the consolidated audited financial statements of the Trust for the immediately preceding fiscal year, the authorizing and directing the passing of a Trust for the election of Directors for the ensuing year, the appointment of the auditors of the Trust for the ensuing year and the transaction of such other business as may be properly brought before the meeting.

A meeting of Unitholders may be convened at any time and for any purpose by the Trustee and must be convened, except in certain circumstances, upon a written request of the holders of not less than 5% of the Units then outstanding and entitled to be voted. A requisition must, among other things, specify in reasonable detail the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is to be called.

Unitholders may attend and vote at all meetings of voting Unitholders either in person or by proxy and a proxyholder need not be a Unitholder. Two or more individuals present in person either holding personally or representing as proxies not less in aggregate than 5% of the outstanding Units shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all such meetings.

The Deed of Trust contains provisions as to the notice required and other procedures with respect to the calling and holding of meetings of Unitholders in accordance with the requirements of applicable laws.

Reporting to Trust Unitholders

The financial statements of the Trust will be audited annually by an independent recognized firm of chartered accountants which has an office in Canada. The consolidated audited financial statements of the Trust, together with the comparative consolidated financial statements for the preceding year, if any, and the report of the auditors, will be mailed by the Trustee to Unitholders at least 21 days prior to the date of each annual meeting of Unitholders and, in any event, on or before any earlier date prescribed by applicable securities laws. The unaudited quarterly consolidated financial statements of the Trust for each fiscal quarter, together with comparative consolidated financial statements for the same fiscal quarter in the preceding fiscal year, if any, will be mailed by the Trustee to Unitholders within 45 days after the end of such fiscal quarter and, in any event, on or before any earlier date prescribed by applicable securities laws. The year-end of the Trust shall be December 31.

The Trust will be subject to the continuous disclosure obligations under all applicable securities laws.

Takeover Bids

The Deed of Trust contains provisions to the effect that if a takeover bid is made for the Units and not less than 90% of the Units (other than Units held at the date of the takeover bid by or on behalf of the offeror or associates or affiliates of the offeror) are taken up and paid for by the offeror, the offeror will be entitled to acquire the Units held by Trust Unitholders who did not accept the takeover bid on the terms offered by the offeror.

The Trustee

Valiant Trust Company is the initial trustee of the Trust. The Trustee is responsible for, among other things, accepting subscriptions for Units and issuing Units pursuant thereto and maintaining the books and records of the Trust and providing timely reports to Unitholders. The Deed of Trust provides that the Trustee shall exercise its powers and carry out its functions thereunder as Trustee honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Trust and the Unitholders and, in connection therewith, shall exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

The Trustee may resign on giving not less than 90 days' notice in writing to the General Partner (or such shorter notice as the General Partner may agree to). The Trustee may also be removed by ordinary resolution of the Unitholders. Such resignation or removal shall not become effective until (a) the approval by ordinary resolution at a meeting of Unitholders called for that purpose, (b) the appointment of, and acceptance of such appointment by, a new Trustee in the place of the resigning Trustee or the Trustee to be removed, and (c) an assumption by the new Trustee of all obligations of the Trustee related thereto in the same capacities as the resigning Trustee or the Trustee to be removed.

Delegation of Authority, Administration and Trust Governance

The Trust will not be managed by a third party manager. The Trust will be managed by the management of the General Partner. The Trustee, on behalf of the Trust, has entered into the Administration Agreement pursuant to which the General Partner will provide certain administrative services and facilities to the Trust.

The Trustee may grant broad discretion to the General Partner to administer and manage the day-to-day operations of the Trust, to act as agent for the Trust, to execute documents on behalf of the Trust and to make executive decisions for and on behalf of the Trust.

Liability of the Trustee

Neither the Trustee nor any of its directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents shall be liable to any Unitholder for any action taken or not taken in good faith in reliance on any documents that are, prima facie, properly executed; and depreciation of, or loss to, the Trust incurred by reason of the sale of any asset; the loss or disposition of monies or securities; or any other action or failure to act including, without limitation, the failure to compel in any way any former trustee to redress any breach of trust or any failure by the General Partner or any other Person to perform the duties delegated to it under the Deed of Trust or under the Administration Agreement or any failure by the General Partner to pay monies owed to the Trust, unless and to the extent such liabilities arise principally and directly the gross negligence, wilful default or fraud of the Trustee or any of its directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents or a breach by the Trustee of a restriction of the powers granted to it under the Deed of Trust. If the Trustee has retained an appropriate expert, advisor or legal counsel with respect to any matter connected with its duties under the Deed of Trust, the Trustee may act or refuse to act (provided it is done in good faith) based on the advice of such expert, advisor or legal counsel, and the Trustee shall not be liable for any action or refusal to act based on the advice of any such expert, advisor or legal counsel that it is reasonable to conclude is within the expertise of such expert, advisor or legal counsel to give. In the exercise of the powers, authorities or discretion conferred upon the Trustee under the Deed of Trust, the Trustee is and shall be conclusively deemed to be acting as trustee of the Trust Assets and shall not be subject to any personal liability for any debts, liabilities, obligations, claims, demands, judgments, costs, charges or expenses against or with respect to the Trust. In addition, the Deed of Trust contains other customary provisions limiting the liability of the Trustee.

Amendments to the Deed of Trust

The Deed of Trust may be amended or altered from time to time by special resolution of the Unitholders, provided that the Trustee may, without the consent, approval or ratification of any of the Unitholders or any other Person, amend the Deed of Trust prior to the Closing Date or at any time thereafter for the purpose of:

(a) ensuring the Trust's continuing compliance with applicable laws (including the Tax Act), regulations, requirements or policies of any governmental agency or authority having jurisdiction over the Trustee or the Trust;

(b) making amendments which, in the opinion of the Trustee, provides additional protection or added benefits for the Unitholders;

(c) removing any conflicts or inconsistencies in the Deed of Trust or making minor changes or corrections including the correction or rectification of any ambiguities, defective provisions, errors, mistakes or omissions, which are, in the opinion of the Trustee, necessary or desirable and not prejudicial to the Unitholders;

(d) making amendments which, in the opinion of the Trustee, are necessary or desirable in the interests of the Unitholders as a result of changes in taxation laws or policies of any governmental agency or authority having jurisdiction over the Trustee or the Trust;

(e) for any purpose (except one in respect of which a vote by Unitholders is specifically otherwise required) if the Trustee is of the opinion that the amendment is not prejudicial to Unitholders and is necessary or desirable; or

(f) to provide for the electronic delivery by the Trust to the Unitholders of documents relating to the Trust (including annual and quarterly reports and financial statements and proxy-related materials) in accordance with applicable laws from time to time, but, notwithstanding the foregoing, no such amendment shall be adopted which causes the Trust to fail to qualify as a "mutual fund trust" under the Tax Act, without the consent of the Unitholders given as set out above. In addition, no such amendment shall modify the right to one vote per Unit or reduce the undivided interest in the Trust Assets represented by any Unit without the consent of the holder of such Unit and no amendment shall reduce the percentage of votes required to be cast at a meeting of the Unitholders for the purpose of amending the Deed of Trust or altering the acquisition provisions of the Deed of Trust without the unanimous consent of the Unitholders.

Termination of the Trust

The Unitholders may vote to terminate the Trust by special resolution at any meeting of the Unitholders duly called for that purpose.

Unless the Trust is earlier terminated by vote of the Unitholders, the Trust shall continue for a term ending 21 years after the date of death of the last surviving issue of Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, alive on July 6, 2006. In the event that the Trust is wound-up, the Trustee will sell and convert into money all Trust Assets in one transaction or in a series of transactions at public or private sales and do all other acts appropriate to liquidate the Trust, and shall in all respects act in accordance with the directions, if any, of the Unitholders. If the Trustee is unable to sell all or any of the securities or other assets comprising the Trust Assets by the date set for termination, the Trustee may distribute the remaining securities or assets directly to the Unitholders. After paying, retiring or discharging or making provision for the payment, retirement or discharge of all known liabilities and obligations of the Trust and providing for indemnity against any other outstanding liabilities and obligations, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining part of the proceeds of the sale of the securities and other assets together with any cash forming part of the Trust Assets among the Unitholders in accordance with their pro rata share.

The Trustee may not under any circumstances whatsoever authorize:

(a) any amalgamation, arrangement or other merger of the Petrowest Business Trust, the Business Trustee, the General Partner or Acquisitionco or any subsidiary thereof with any other Person, other than any amalgamation, arrangement or other merger of the General Partner with one or more direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Trust or in conjunction with an internal reorganization with an affiliate or subsidiary of the General Partner;

(b) any sale or disposition of any common shares of the General Partner or Business Notes held by the Trust or any other sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the Trust Assets, except pursuant to an in specie redemption, pursuant to any security granted under the Deed of Trust, pursuant to any internal reorganization as a result of which the Trust has the same interest, whether direct or indirect, in the assets of the trust as the interest, whether direct or indirect, that it had prior to the reorganization or where any such sale, lease or exchange is effected between or among the Trust and any one or more of:

(i) the General Partner;

(ii) any other corporation, partnership, firm or other form of entity or organization that is directly or indirectly wholly-owned by the Trust;

(iii) any trust or trusts, the sole beneficiaries of which are the Trust and/or any of the Persons referred to above; and

(iv) any partnership, the only partners of which are Persons referred to above;

(c) any sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the assets of the General Partner or any subsidiary thereof, except pursuant to any security granted by the General Partner or the Partnerships, pursuant to any internal reorganization with an affiliate or subsidiary of the General Partner or the Partnerships, or where any such sale, lease or exchange is effected between or among any one or more of:

(i) the Trust;

(ii) the General Partner;

(iii) any other corporation, partnership, firm or other form of entity or organization that is directly or indirectly wholly-owned by the Trust;

(iv) any trust or trusts, the sole beneficiaries of which are the Trust and/or any of the Persons referred to above; and

(v) any partnership, the only partners of which are Persons referred to above;

(d) any amendment to the articles of the General Partner to change its authorized share capital or otherwise amend its constating documents in a manner which may be prejudicial to the Trust;

(e) for so long as there are any Subordinated Units outstanding, the issuance and distribution of additional Trust Units or rights to subscribe therefor or other property or assets to all or substantially all of the holders of Trust Units, or the subdivision, reduction, consolidation, reclassification of, or other change to, the rights, privileges or other terms of the Trust Units, unless the same or an equivalent distribution on, or change to the Subordinated Units (or in the rights of the holders thereof) is made simultaneously; or

(f) for so long as there are any Trust Units outstanding, the issuance and distribution of additional Subordinated Units or rights to subscribe therefor or other property or assets to all or substantially all of the Subordinated Unitholders, or the subdivision, reduction, consolidation, reclassification of, or other change to, the rights, privileges or other terms of the Subordinated Units, unless the same or an equivalent distribution on, or change to the Trust Units (or in the rights of the holders thereof) is made simultaneously;

in each case, without the approval of the Unitholders by special resolution at a meeting of Unitholders called for that purpose.

DESCRIPTION OF PETROWEST BUSINESS TRUST

The Business Deed of Trust will contain provisions substantially similar to those of the Trust Deed. The principal differences between the Petrowest Business Trust Deed and the Trust Deed will be those described below. The description below is a summary and is qualified entirely by the complete provisions of the Petrowest Business Trust Deed. A copy of the Petrowest Business Trust Deed will be available via the internet at www.sedar.com.

General

Petrowest Business Trust, when created, will be an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose mutual fund trust established under and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to the Business Deed of Trust. It will be a limited purpose trust and its activities will be restricted to, among other things:

(a) participating in the Concurrent Acquisitions;

(b) acquiring, investing in, holding, transferring, disposing of and otherwise dealing with, directly or indirectly, in any of securities issued by the Partnerships including investing in securities of the Partnerships' subsidiaries and borrowing funds for that purpose;

(c) investing in any other securities and in any other investments as the General Partner or Business Trustee may determine and borrowing funds for that purpose;

(d) temporarily holding cash in interest bearing accounts and short-term investments for the purposes of making investments, paying the expenses and the liabilities of the Petrowest Business Trust, paying amounts payable by the Petrowest Business Trust in connection with the redemption of any Business Units or other securities of the Petrowest Business Trust and making distributions to holders of Business Units;

(e) issuing Business Units or securities convertible into or exchangeable for Business Units for the purpose of obtaining funds to conduct any of the activities of the Petrowest Business Trust, completing any acquisition of securities or any other assets for the benefit of the Petrowest Business Trust;

(f) issuing debt securities, including the Business Notes, provided recourse shall be limited to the assets of the Petrowest Business Trust (including debt securities convertible into or exchangeable for Petrowest Business Trust Units or other securities of the Petrowest Business Trust) or otherwise borrowing and mortgaging, pledging, charging, granting a security interest in or otherwise encumbering any of the assets of the Petrowest Business Trust as security;

(g) guaranteeing (as guarantor, surety or co-principal obligor) the payment of any indebtedness, liability or obligation of the Partnerships or the General Partner, or any of their direct or indirect subsidiaries, and mortgaging, pledging, charging, granting a security interest in or otherwise encumbering all or any part of the assets of the Petrowest Business Trust, including securities issued by the Partnership or the General Partner or any direct or indirect subsidiary, as security for that guarantee;

(h) disposing of any part of the assets of the Petrowest Business Trust;

(i) repurchasing, redeeming or otherwise acquiring securities of the Petrowest Business Trust, including pursuant to any issuer bid made by the Petrowest Business Trust;

(j) satisfying the obligations, liabilities or indebtedness of the Petrowest Business Trust;

(k) performing all acts necessary, incidental, ancillary or related to any of the foregoing; and

(l) undertaking such other activities or taking such other actions to conduct the business of the Petrowest Business Trust as shall be approved by the Business Trustee from time to time.

As at the date of this prospectus, the Petrowest Business Trust does not intend to hold securities of any entities other than shares of Acquisitionco and the General Partner and partnership interests in the Partnerships, except in connection with its short-term cash management.

Exercise of Voting Rights Attached to Common Shares of the General Partner

The Business Deed of Trust provides that Unitholders will be entitled to pass a resolution directing the Business Trustee as to the persons to be elected to the Board of Directors for the ensuing year.

Restrictions on the Powers of the Trustee of Petrowest Business Trust

The Petrowest Business Trust Deed states that the Business Trustee may not, without approval by special resolution of the holders of Business Units, authorize or vote the securities held by it to authorize:

(a) any amalgamation, arrangement or other merger of the General Partner, Acquisitionco or the Partnerships with any other Person, except with one or more direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Petrowest Business Trust or the Trust or in conjunction with an internal reorganization with an affiliate or subsidiary of the Partnerships or the Petrowest Business Trust;

(b) the winding-up or dissolution of the Partnerships prior to the end of the term of the Petrowest Business Trust, except in conjunction with an internal reorganization with an affiliate or subsidiary of the Partnerships or the Petrowest Business Trust; or

(c) any sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the assets of the assets of the Petrowest Business Trust, except pursuant to any security granted by the Petrowest Business Trust, except pursuant to any internal reorganization of the direct or indirect assets of the Petrowest Business Trust as a result of which the Petrowest Business Trust has the same interest, whether direct or indirect, in the assets as the interest, whether direct or indirect, that it had prior to the reorganization or where any such sale, lease or exchange is effected between or among the Petrowest Business Trust and any one or more of:

(i) the Trust;

(ii) the Partnerships;

(iii) any other corporation, partnership, firm or other form of entity or organization that is directly or indirectly wholly-owned by the Petrowest Business Trust or the Trust;

(iv) any trust or trusts, the sole beneficiaries of which are the Trust and/or any of the Persons referred to in (i) through (iii) above; and

(v) any partnership, the only partners of which are Persons referred to in (i) through (iv) above; or

(d) any sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the assets of the Partnerships except pursuant to any security granted by the Partnerships, except pursuant to any internal reorganization with an affiliate or subsidiary of the Trust, the Petrowest Business Trust or the Partnerships, or where any such sale, lease or exchange is effected between or among any one or more of:

(i) the Trust;

(ii) the Petrowest Business Trust;

(iii) the Partnerships;

(iv) any other corporation, partnership, firm or other form of entity or organization that is directly or indirectly wholly-owned by the Trust, the Petrowest Business Trust or the Partnerships;

(v) any trust or trusts, the sole beneficiaries of which are the Petrowest Business Trust and/or any of the Persons referred to in (i) through (iv); and

(vi) any partnership, the only partners of which are Persons referred to in (i) through (v) above.

Redemption Right

The Business Units will be redeemable at any time on demand by the holders thereof upon delivery to the Petrowest Business Trust of a duly completed and properly executed notice requiring the Petrowest Business Trust to redeem the Business Units, in a form reasonably acceptable to the Business Trustee, together with the certificates representing the Business Units to be redeemed and written instructions as to the number of Business Units to be redeemed. Upon tender of Business Units by a holder thereof for redemption, the holder of the Business Units tendered for redemption will no longer have any rights with respect to such Business Units other than the right to receive the redemption price for such Business Units. The redemption price for each Business Unit tendered for redemption will be equal to:

$$\frac{(A \times B) - C}{D}$$

Where:

A = the cash redemption price per Unit calculated as of the close of business on the Redemption Date in accordance with the terms of the Deed of Trust;

B = the aggregate number of Units outstanding as of the close of business on the Redemption Date;

C = the aggregate unpaid principal amount and accrued interest thereon of the Business Notes and any other indebtedness of the Petrowest Business Trust held by or owed to the Trust and the fair market value of any other assets or investments held by the Trust (other than Business Notes or Business Units) as of the close of business on the Redemption Date; and

D = the aggregate number of Business Units outstanding held by the Unitholders as of the close of business on the Redemption Date.

The Business Trustee will also be entitled to call for redemption, at any time, all or part of the outstanding Business Units registered in the name of the holders thereof other than the initial unit of the Petrowest Business Trust at the same redemption price as described above for each Petrowest Business Trust Unit called for redemption, calculated with reference to the date the Business Trustee approved the redemption of Business Units.

Distributions

The Petrowest Business Trust intends to make monthly cash distributions to the Trust of its available cash, after satisfaction of its interest obligations, if any, and less any estimated cash amounts required for costs, expenses, liabilities, obligations or other amounts of the Petrowest Business Trust, any cash redemptions or repurchases of Business Units, Business Notes or other securities of the Petrowest Business Trust, amounts retained to comply with limits or restrictions in loan agreements, allowances for contingencies in working capital, investments or acquisitions, and income tax liability. Such distributions will be paid on or before the 15th day of the month following the end of the distribution paid and are intended to be received by the Trust prior to its related cash distribution to Trust Unitholders.

The distribution declared in respect of the month ending December 31 in each year will include such amount in respect of the taxable income and net realized capital gains, if any, of the Petrowest Business Trust for such year as is necessary to ensure that the Petrowest Business Trust will not be liable for ordinary income taxes under the Tax Act in such year.

If the Business Trustee determines that the Petrowest Business Trust does not have cash in an amount sufficient to make payment of the full amount of any distribution, the payment may include the issuance of additional Business Units having a value equal to the difference between the amount of such distribution and the amount of cash which has been determined by the trustee, to be available for the payment of such distribution. The value of each Petrowest Business Trust Unit so issued will be the redemption price thereof.

Any Business Units transferred to Unitholders pursuant to a distribution in specie may be subject to resale and transfer restrictions and cannot be resold or transferred except as permitted by applicable securities law.

Business Notes

The following is a summary of the material attributes and characteristics of the Business Notes which will be issued by the Petrowest Business Trust under the Note Indenture. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the provisions of the Note Indenture which contains a complete statement of those attributes and characteristics.

Business Notes will be issuable in Canadian currency. Business Notes are issuable in denominations of $100 and integral multiples of $100. No fractional Business Notes will be issued or distributed and where the number of Business Notes to be received by a Unitholder includes a fraction, such number shall be rounded to the next lowest whole number.

Series 2 Business Notes will be reserved by the Petrowest Business Trust to be issued exclusively to holders of Units as full or partial payment of the redemption price of Units, as the Trustees may decide or, in certain circumstances, be obliged to issue. Series 3 Business Notes will be reserved by the Petrowest Business Trust to be issued exclusively as full or partial payment of the redemption price of Series 1 Business Notes.

Interest and Maturity

The Series 1 Business Notes to be issued at Closing will be payable on demand, will mature on the 10th anniversary of the date of issuance and will bear a fixed rate of interest, payable monthly in arrears on the 10th day of each calendar month that such Series 1 Business Notes are outstanding. Each Series 2 Note will mature on a date which is no later than the first anniversary of the date of issuance thereof and bear interest at a market rate to be determined by the Business Trustee at the time of issuance thereof, payable monthly in arrears on the 10th day of each calendar month that such Series 2 Note is outstanding. Each Series 3 Note will mature on the same date as the Series 1 Business Notes and bear interest at a market rate to be determined by the Business Trustee at the time of issuance thereof, payable monthly in arrears on the 10th day of each calendar month that such Series 3 Note is outstanding.

Payment upon Maturity

On maturity, the Petrowest Business Trust will repay the Business Notes by paying to the trustee under the Note Indenture in cash an amount equal to the principal amount of the outstanding Business Notes which have then matured, together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon.

Redemption

The Business Notes will be redeemable in whole or in part (at a redemption price equal to the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, payable in cash or, in the case of a redemption of Series 1 Business Notes on an in specie payment of the Redemption Price, in Series 3 Business Notes) at the option of the Petrowest Business Trust prior to maturity.

Ranking and Postponement

The Business Notes will be direct, unsecured obligations of the Petrowest Business Trust ranking pari passu with all other unsecured obligations of the Petrowest Business Trust. Payment of the principal amount and interest on the Business Notes will be postponed in right of payment to the prior payment in full of the principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on, and all other amounts owing in respect of, all senior indebtedness which will be defined as all indebtedness, liabilities and obligations of the Petrowest Business Trust which, by the terms of the instrument creating or evidencing the same, will be expressed to rank in right of payment in priority to the indebtedness evidenced by the Note Indenture. The Note Indenture provides that upon any distribution of the assets of the Petrowest Business Trust in the event of any dissolution, liquidation, reorganization or other similar proceedings relative to the Petrowest Business Trust, the holders of all such senior indebtedness will be entitled to receive payment in full before the holders of the Business Notes are entitled to receive any payment.

Default

The Note Indenture provides that any of the following shall constitute an event of default:

- default in payment of the principal of the Business Notes when the same becomes due and the continuation of such default for a period of 30 days;
- default in payment of any interest due on any Business Notes and continuation of such default for a period of 90 days;
- default in the observance or performance of any other covenant or condition of the Note Indenture and continuance of such default for a period of 30 days after notice in writing has been given to the Business Trustee specifying such default and requiring the Petrowest Business Trust to rectify the same; and
- certain events of dissolution, liquidation, reorganization or other similar proceedings relative to the Petrowest Business Trust.

The provisions governing an event of default under the Note Indenture and remedies available thereunder do not provide protection to the holders of Business Notes which would be comparable to the provisions generally found in debt securities issued to the public.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PARTNERSHIPS

The following is a summary of the material attributes and characteristics of the Partnerships and the Partnership Agreements, and is qualified in its entirety by the provisions of the Partnership Agreements. A copy of the Partnership Agreements will be available via the internet at www.sedar.com. See "Material Contracts".

General

When created, the Partnerships will be limited partnerships formed under the laws of the Province of Alberta. The General Partner will be the general partner of the Partnership, and Acquisitionco and Petrowest Business Trust will be the only limited partners of the Partnerships. The Partnerships are authorized to issue an unlimited number of Partnership Units. Each Partnership Unit will entitle the holder to the same rights and obligations as a holder of any other Partnership Unit and no limited partner of a Partnership will be entitled to any privilege, priority or preference in relation to any other limited partner of a Partnership. Each limited partner of a Partnership will be entitled to one vote for each Partnership Unit held.

Distributions

The amount of cash or other property distributed, if any, by each of the Partnerships to the partners in respect of any period will be determined by the General Partner. Unless otherwise determined by the General Partner, all cash payments and other distributions made to partners will be made on the basis of (i) a payment to the General Partner in proportion to the General Partner's 0.001% interest; (ii) an amount to Acquisitionco in respect of its Class B Partnership Units; and (iii) the remainder to Petrowest Business Trust in respect of its Class A Partnership Units.

The Partnerships intend to make monthly cash distributions to the partners on or before the 10th day of each calendar month so that they are received by Petrowest Business Trust prior to its related cash distribution to holders of Business Units. The Partnerships may make distributions at any other time that the General Partner determines.

Allocation of Net Income and Losses

Net income, capital gains or income of the Partnerships for tax purposes and all other items of income, gain, proceeds of disposition and recapture of the Partnerships which are allocable for purposes of the Tax Act or any other relevant taxing statute for any fiscal year shall be allocated at the end of each fiscal year of the Partnerships in the following order or priority:

(a) to the General Partner to the extent of cash distributions paid to it in such fiscal year;

(b) to Acquisitionco as the holder of the Class B Partnership Units to the extent of the cash distributions paid to it in such fiscal year;

(c) to Petrowest Business Trust as the holder of the Class A Partnership Units to the extent of the cash distributions paid to it in such fiscal year; and

(d) as to the balance, to the General Partner.

Net losses, capital losses and other losses of the Partnerships for tax purposes and all other items of loss, deduction and credit of the Partnerships which are allocated for purposes of the Tax Act or any other relevant tax statute for any fiscal year shall be allocated to the General Partner.

The fiscal year end of the Partnerships is December 31.

Where a distribution of property other than cash results in income or the allocation of an amount to the partners for the purpose of computing the income, taxable income or loss or other amount of the partners under the Tax Act or other relevant taxing statute, the income or amount shall be allocated to the partner receiving the distribution.

Amendment

The Partnership Agreements may be amended only in writing and with the consent of the limited partners given by a resolution passed by not less than 66⅔% of the votes cast by partners entitled to vote at a duly convened meeting or a resolution in writing by partners entitled to vote who collectively hold not less than 66⅔% of the Partnership Units. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no amendment may be made that would have the effect of reducing a partner's share of the income or assets of the Partnership, reducing the interest in the Partnership of the partners (unless all of the partners consent thereto), changing in any manner any allocation for tax purposes, changing the liability of any limited partner, allowing any limited partner to exercise control over or management of the business of the Partnership, changing the right of a limited partner or the General Partner to vote at any meeting, or changing the Partnership from a limited partnership to a general partnership.

The General Partner may, without prior notice to or consent from any limited partner of the Partnership, amend from time to time any provision of the Partnership Agreement if such amendment is: (a) in the opinion of the General Partner, based on counsel's recommendation, for the protection or benefit of the limited partners or the Partnership or to cure an ambiguity or to correct or supplement any provision contained therein that may be defective or inconsistent with any other provision contained herein, and the amendment does not and will not, in the opinion of the General Partner, materially adversely affect the rights of any limited partner; (b) for the purpose of reflecting the admission, substitution, withdrawal or removal of limited partners in accordance with the Partnership Agreement; (c) a change that, in the sole discretion of the General Partner, is reasonable and necessary or appropriate to qualify or continue the qualification of the Partnership as a limited partnership in which the limited partners have limited liability under applicable legislation; or (d) a change that, in the sole discretion of the General Partner, is reasonable and necessary or appropriate to enable limited partners to take advantage of, or not be detrimentally affected by, changes in the Tax Act or other taxation laws.

DESCRIPTION OF THE GENERAL PARTNER

The General Partner is a corporation incorporated under the ABCA and will, on or before the Closing Date, be a direct wholly owned subsidiary of Petrowest Business Trust. The General Partner is Petrowest Energy Services Ltd. See "The Trust and its Subsidiaries".

The General Partner provides administrative and managerial services to the Trust, and will provide such services to Petrowest Business Trust, pursuant to the Administration Agreement. See "Administration Agreement".

The General Partner, in its capacity as general partner of the Partnerships, is responsible for the management of the Partnerships. See "Description of the Partnerships".

INFORMATION AND REPORTS

The Trust will agree to furnish to Unitholders, in accordance with and subject to applicable securities laws, such consolidated financial statements of the Trust (including quarterly and annual consolidated financial statements) and other reports as are from time to time required by applicable law, including prescribed forms needed for the completion of Unitholders' tax returns under the Tax Act and equivalent provincial legislation. Prior to each meeting of Unitholders, the Trust will provide the Unitholders (along with notice of such meeting) all such information as is required by applicable law and the Deed of Trust to be provided to such holders.

PRINCIPAL UNITHOLDERS

To the best of the knowledge of the Directors, with the exception of the initial unitholder of the Trust, no person directly or indirectly beneficially owns or exercises control or direction over more than 10% of any class or series of voting securities of the Trust as at the date hereof and after giving effect to this offering and the Concurrent Acquisitions.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Under an agreement dated •, 2006 (the "Underwriting Agreement"), among the Trust, Petrowest Business Trust, the General Partner, the Promoters and the Underwriters, the Trust has agreed to sell • Trust Units and the Underwriters have agreed to purchase, as principal, on the Closing Date, subject to the conditions stipulated in the Underwriting Agreement all but not less than all of such Trust Units at a price of $10.00 per Trust Unit. The Underwriting Agreement provides that the Underwriters will be paid a fee of $0.60 per Trust Unit purchased by the public in consideration for services performed in connection with this offering.

The Trust has granted to the Underwriters the Over-Allotment Option. The Underwriters will be paid a commission of $0.60 per Trust Unit purchased pursuant to the Over-Allotment Option.

There is currently no market through which the Units may be sold. The terms of this offering were established through negotiation between the Trust, the General Partner and the Underwriters.

The obligations of the Underwriters under the Underwriting Agreement are conditional and may be terminated at the discretion of the Underwriters on the basis of their assessment of the state of the financial markets. The Underwriting Agreement provides that the Underwriters may also terminate their obligations thereunder in certain stated circumstances and upon the occurrence of certain stated events. The Underwriters are, however, severally obligated to take up and pay for all offered Trust Units that they have agreed to purchase if any of the Trust Units are purchased under the Underwriting Agreement. The Underwriters may effect transactions intended to stabilize or maintain the price of the Units at levels other than those that might otherwise prevail in the open market. Such activities, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

Each of the Trust, Petrowest Business Trust, and the General Partner has agreed to indemnify the Underwriters and their directors, officers, employees and agents against certain liabilities, including, without restriction, civil liabilities under Canadian provincial and territorial securities legislation, or to contribute to any payments the Underwriters may be required to make in respect thereof.

Subscriptions for Units will be received subject to rejection or allotment in whole or in part, and the right is reserved to close the subscription books at any time without notice.

During a period ending 180 days from the Closing Date, the Trust has agreed not to sell or issue for sale or resale any Units or financial instruments or securities convertible into, or exercisable or exchangeable for, Units or agree to, or announce, any such offer, sale or issuance, without the prior written consent of the Lead Underwriters, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld.

The Units have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act or the securities laws of any states in the United States and, subject to certain exemptions, may not be offered or sold or otherwise transferred or disposed of in the United States, its territories, its possessions or other areas subject to its jurisdiction or to, or for the account or benefit of, a U.S. Person, except in accordance with the Underwriting Agreement. The Underwriting Agreement permits the Underwriters to offer and resell the Trust Units they have acquired pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement to (i) certain qualified institutional buyers in the United States, provided that such offers and sales are made in accordance with Rule 144A under the U.S. Securities Act; and (ii) certain institutional accredited investors that satisfy the requirements of Rule 501 (a)(1),(2),(3) or (7) under the U.S. Securities Act. In addition, the Underwriting Agreement provides that the Underwriters will offer and sell securities outside the United States to any U.S. person only in accordance with Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act. This prospectus does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any of the Units offered hereby in the United States. In addition, until 40 days after the commencement of this offering, an offer or sale of Units within the United States by a dealer (whether or not participating in this offering) may violate the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act if that offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with Rule 144A or in accordance with any other available exemption from registration under the U.S. Securities Act.

The Closing is expected to take place on •, 2006, or on any other date that may be agreed upon by the Trust and Underwriters, but no later than •, 2006.

ESCROWED AND SUBORDINATED SECURITIES

The shareholders of the Acquired Companies will enter into an escrow agreement on the Closing of this offering and the Concurrent Acquisitions (the "Escrow Agreement") pursuant to which Units issued to such shareholders in connection with the acquisition of the Acquired Companies will be placed in escrow. The Promoters will also enter into an escrow agreement on the same terms. In the event that all of the Acquired Companies are acquired upon the terms and conditions specified in the Purchase and Sale Agreements, an aggregate of 14,270,094 Units will be placed in such escrow (being •% of the outstanding Units assuming completion of this offering and all of the Concurrent Acquisitions). Pursuant to the Escrow Agreement, and subject to certain limited exceptions with respect to early release in the event of termination of employment or terminal illness (as determined by the Governance and Compensation Committee), one-quarter of the escrowed securities will be released on the first anniversary of the Closing Date and the remaining escrowed securities will be released on the second anniversary of the Closing Date. In the event that any of the escrowed securities are released within 180 days following the Closing Date, the shareholders of the Acquired Companies will agree not to sell any Units or sell or issue for sale or resale any financial instruments or securities convertible into, or exercisable or exchangeable for, Units or agree to, or announce, any such offer, sale or issuance, without the prior written consent of the Lead Underwriters, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld.

An aggregate of 1,510,000 Subordinated Units will be issued to the Promoters, the vendors of the Acquired Companies and certain other individuals for aggregate proceeds to the Trust of $4,530,000. The distributions in respect of such Subordinated Units are subordinated to the distributions in respect of the trust Units and will be paid by the Trust subsequent to Priority Distributions. See "Description of the Trust – Units" and "Prior Issuances".

PRIOR ISSUANCES

There have been no issuances of Units during the twelve-months preceding the date of this prospectus other than the issuance of one Trust Unit to the initial unitholder of the Trust (the "Initial Unit") in consideration for $10 and the issuance of an aggregate of 1,510,000 Subordinated Units at a price of $3.00 per Subordinated Unit ($4,530,000 in the aggregate to be satisfied by payment of $1.00 in cash and $2.00 by way of a three-year promissory note that will be forgiven over three years if the subscriber remains as a director, officer or employee of Petrowest. Of these Subordinated Units 500,000 were issued to Promoters, 210,000 were issued to Directors and Officers (other than the Promoters) and 800,000 were issued to vendors of the Acquired Companies (other than the Promoters). The Initial Unit will be redeemed immediately following the Closing.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The aggregate gross proceeds of this offering will be $• ($• if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full). The estimated net proceeds of this offering, after deducting $• representing fees payable to the Underwriters ($• if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full) and the estimated expenses of this offering of approximately $2.0 million will be approximately $• ($• if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full). The Trust will use the net proceeds to subscribe for Business Notes and Business Units. Petrowest Business Trust will, in turn, loan $103.3 million received from the Trust to Acquisitionco to fund the cash portion of the base purchase price of the Acquired Companies. The remaining $• million not required to fund the purchase of the Acquired Companies ($• if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full) will be used by the Petrowest Business Trust for growth capital ($8.3 million) and working capital ($• million) and, in the interim, to retire certain long-term debt of the Acquired Companies ($•, $• and $• million, respectively, if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full).

It is a condition of the Underwriting Agreement that at the time of the Closing of this offering, the Acquisition Condition shall have been satisfied.

CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

In the opinion of Bennett Jones LLP, counsel to the Trust, and Stikeman Elliott LLP, counsel to the Underwriters, the following is, as of the date hereof, a fair and adequate summary of the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations generally applicable under the Tax Act to a Unitholder who acquires Trust Units pursuant to this offering and who, for the purposes of the Tax Act and at all relevant times, is resident in Canada, deals at arm's length with and is not affiliated with the Trust and holds the Trust Units as capital property. Generally, Trust Units will be considered to be capital property to a Unitholder provided that the Unitholder does not hold the Trust Units in the course of carrying on a business and has not acquired them in one or more transactions considered to be an adventure or concern in the nature of trade. Certain Unitholders who might not otherwise be considered to hold their Trust Units as capital property may, in certain circumstances, be entitled to have them treated as capital property by making the irrevocable election permitted by subsection 39(4) of the Tax Act. This summary is not applicable to a Unitholder that is a "financial institution" (as defined in the Tax Act for the purposes of the mark-to-market rules) or a "specified financial institution" or a Unitholder an interest in which is a "tax shelter investment" (all as defined in the Tax Act).

This summary is based upon the provisions of the Tax Act in force as of the date hereof, counsels' understanding of the current published administrative and assessing practices of the Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") and certificates from the Trust as to certain factual matters. This summary takes into account all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act which have been publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance (Canada) prior to the date hereof. There can be no assurance that any tax proposals will be implemented in their current form or at all. This summary does not otherwise take into account or anticipate any changes in law, whether by legislative, governmental or judicial decision or action, and does not take into account provincial, territorial or foreign tax legislation or considerations, which may differ significantly from those discussed in this prospectus.

This summary is not exhaustive of all possible Canadian federal tax considerations applicable to an investment in Trust Units. This summary is of a general nature only and is not intended to be legal or tax advice to any prospective purchaser of Trust Units. Investors should consult their own tax advisors for advice with respect to the tax consequences of an investment in Trust Units based on their particular circumstances.

Status of the Trust

Mutual Fund Trust

This summary is based on the assumption that the Trust will qualify as a "unit trust" and as a "mutual fund trust" as defined in the Tax Act on the Closing, will elect to be deemed to be a mutual fund trust from the date it is established and will thereafter continuously qualify as a mutual fund trust at all relevant times.

In order for the Trust to qualify as a mutual fund trust at a particular time, in addition to being a unit trust resident in Canada, it must meet certain prescribed conditions ("minimum distribution requirement") relating to the number of Unitholders, the dispersal of ownership of Units and public distribution of Units at such time; its only undertaking must be the investing of its funds in property (other than real property); and it must not be established or maintained primarily for the benefit of non-residents of Canada. The sole undertaking of the Trust as described in this prospectus is the investing of its funds in property (other than real property) and this summary assumes that this will continue to be the case at all relevant times. This summary assumes that the Trust will satisfy the minimum distribution requirement on the completion of this offering, so that it may elect to be deemed to be a mutual fund trust from the date it was established until such time, and it so elects, and that it will continuously satisfy the minimum distribution requirement thereafter. This summary also assumes that the Trust was not established nor will it be maintained primarily for the benefit of non-residents of Canada, based on the restriction of ownership of Units by non-residents of Canada, which is contained in the Deed of Trust. See "Risk Factors – Risks relating to an Investment in the Trust – Income Tax Matters".

Should the Trust cease to qualify as a mutual fund trust, the income tax considerations respecting the Trust would be materially different from those described in this summary, and in particular the following adverse income tax consequences may result:

- The Trust Units would cease to be qualified investments for Plans with the result that a Plan may become subject to a penalty tax, the beneficiary of such Plan may be deemed to have received income therefrom or, in the case of an RESP, the RESP may have its tax exempt status revoked.

- The Trust and the Petrowest Business Trust may be required to pay a tax under Part XII.2 of the Tax Act. The payment of Part XII.2 tax by the Trust and the Petrowest Business Trust will affect the amount of cash available for distribution by the Trust and may have adverse consequences for Unitholders.

- The Trust will cease to be eligible for the capital gains refund mechanism available to mutual fund trusts.

Qualified Investment

The Trust Units will be qualified investments for trusts governed by Plans, subject to the specific provisions of any particular Plan. Plans should generally not be taxable on any distributions from the Trust or any gains realized on the disposition of Trust Units. If the Trust ceases to qualify as a mutual fund trust, the Trust Units no longer will be qualified investments under the Tax Act for Plans.

Business Notes or other securities received as a result of a redemption of Trust Units may not be qualified investments for a Plan, and this could give rise to adverse consequences to the Plan or the annuitant under the Plan. Accordingly, Plans that own Trust Units should consult their own tax advisors before deciding to exercise the redemption rights attached to the Trust Units.

Taxation of the Trust

The taxation year of the Trust is the calendar year. In each taxation year, the Trust will be subject to tax under Part I of the Tax Act on its income for tax purposes for the year, including net realized taxable capital gains, less the portion thereof that it deducts in respect of the amounts paid or payable in the year to Unitholders. An amount will be considered to be payable to a Unitholder in a taxation year if it is paid to the Unitholder in the year by the Trust or if the Unitholder is entitled in that year to enforce payment of the amount.

The Trust will include in its income for each taxation year such amount of the Petrowest Business Trust's income for tax purposes, including net taxable capital gains, as is paid or becomes payable by the Petrowest Business Trust to the Trust in the year in respect of the Business Units and all interest on the Business Notes that accrues to the Trust to the end of the year, or that becomes receivable or is received by it before the end of the year, except to the extent that such interest was included in computing its income for a preceding year. The Trust will not be subject to tax on any amount received as a payment of principal in respect of the Business Notes or any amount received as a return of capital from the Petrowest Business Trust (provided that the capital returned, if any, does not exceed the adjusted cost base of the Business Units held by the Trust).

A distribution by the Trust of its property upon a redemption of Trust Units will be treated as a disposition by the Trust of the property so distributed for proceeds of disposition equal to its fair market value. The Trust's proceeds of disposition of Business Notes will be reduced by any accrued but unpaid interest in respect thereof, which interest will generally be included in the Trust's income in the year of disposition to the extent that it was not included in the Trust's income in a previous year. The Trust will realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) on the property so distributed to the extent that the proceeds of disposition of such property exceed (or are less than) the adjusted cost base of the property and any reasonable costs of disposition.

In computing its income, the Trust may generally deduct reasonable administrative costs, interest and other expenses of a current nature, if any, incurred by it for the purpose of earning income. The Trust will be entitled to deduct expenses incurred by it in connection with the issuance of Trust Units, including expenses of this offering, on a five-year straight line basis (subject to pro-ration for short taxation years).

Under the Deed of Trust, an amount equal to all of the income (including taxable capital gains) of the Trust (determined without reference to subsection 104(6) of the Tax Act), together with the non-taxable portion of any net capital gain realized by the Trust, but excluding capital gains arising in connection with a distribution in specie on the redemption of Trust Units which are designated by the Trust to redeeming Unitholders, and capital gains the tax on which may be offset by capital losses carried forward from prior years or is recoverable by the Trust, will be payable in the year to Unitholders by way of cash distributions, subject to the exceptions described below. Where the income of the Trust in a taxation year exceeds the monthly cash distributions for that year, such excess income will be distributed to Unitholders in the form of additional Trust Units. Income of the Trust payable to Unitholders, whether in cash, additional Trust Units or otherwise, will generally be deductible by the Trust in computing its taxable income provided that the Trust deducts such amount in computing its income.

The Trust will be entitled for each taxation year to reduce (or receive a refund in respect of) its liability, if any, for tax on its net realized taxable capital gains by an amount determined under the Tax Act based on the redemption of Trust Units during the year (the "capital gains refund"). In certain circumstances, the capital gains refund in a particular taxation year may not completely offset the Trust's tax liability for that taxation year arising in connection with the distribution of its property on the redemption of Trust Units. The Deed of Trust provides that all or a portion of any income or taxable capital gain realized by the Trust as a result of that redemption may, at the discretion of the Trustee, be treated as income or taxable capital gain paid to, and designated as income or taxable capital gain of, the redeeming Unitholders, and thus deductible by the Trust in computing its income. In addition, accrued interest on Business Notes distributed to a redeeming Unitholder may be treated as an amount paid to the Unitholder and will be deductible by the Trust.

Counsel has been advised that the Trust intends to make sufficient distributions in each year of its net income for tax purposes and net realized capital gains so that the Trust will generally not be liable in that year for income tax under Part I of the Tax Act. Counsel can provide no opinion in this regard.

Taxation of the Petrowest Business Trust and the Partnerships

The taxation year of the Petrowest Business Trust is the calendar year. The Petrowest Business Trust will be taxable on its income determined under the Tax Act for each taxation year, which will include its allocated share of the income of the Partnerships for the fiscal periods ending on or before the year end of the Petrowest Business Trust, except to the extent such income is paid or payable in such year to the Trust and is deducted by the Petrowest Business Trust in computing its income for tax purposes. The Petrowest Business Trust will generally be entitled to deduct its expenses incurred to earn such income provided such expenses are reasonable and otherwise deductible, subject to the relevant provisions of the Tax Act. Under the Business Deed of Trust, all of the income of the Petrowest Business Trust for each year (determined without reference to subsection 104(6) of the Tax Act), together with the taxable and non-taxable portion of any capital gains realized by the Petrowest Business Trust in the year, will generally be payable in the year to the Trust and will generally be deductible by the Petrowest Business Trust in computing its taxable income. Counsel has been advised by the Trust that the Trust does not expect the Petrowest Business Trust to be liable for any material amount of tax under Part I of the Tax Act. Counsel can provide no opinion in this regard.

The Partnerships are not themselves liable to tax under the Tax Act. Each partner of the Partnerships, including the Petrowest Business Trust, is required to include in computing the partner's income for a particular taxation year the partner's share of the income or loss of the Partnership, as the case may be, for its fiscal year ending in, or coinciding with, the partner's taxation year, whether or not any of that income is distributed to the partner in the taxation year. For this purpose, the income or loss for each Partnership will be computed for each fiscal year as if such Partnership was a separate person resident in Canada. The net income or loss of the Partnership for a fiscal year will be allocated to the partners of such Partnership, in the manner set out in the relevant partnership agreement, subject to the detailed rules in the Tax Act in that regard.

If a Partnership does incur losses for tax purposes, the Petrowest Business Trust will be entitled to deduct in the computation of its income for tax purposes its share of any such losses for any fiscal year to the extent that the Petrowest Business Trust's investment is "at risk" within the meaning of the Tax Act. In general, the amount "at risk" for a limited partner in a limited partnership for any taxation year will be the adjusted cost base of the limited partner's partnership interest at the end of the year, plus any undistributed income allocated to the limited partner for the year, less any amount owing by the limited partner (or a person with whom the limited partner does not deal at arm's length) to the limited partnership (or a person with whom it does not deal at arm's length) and less the amount of any benefit that the limited partner (or a person with whom the limited partner does not deal at arm's length) is entitled to receive or obtain for the purpose of reducing, in whole or in part, any loss of the limited partner from the investment.

Taxation of Unitholders

Fund Distributions

A Unitholder will generally be required to include in income for a particular taxation year the portion of the net income for tax purposes of the Trust for a taxation year, including net realized taxable capital gains, that is paid or payable to the Unitholder in the particular taxation year, whether that amount is received in cash, additional Trust Units or otherwise. Any loss of the Trust for purposes of the Tax Act cannot be allocated to the Unitholders. Income of a Unitholder from the Trust Units will generally be considered income from property for the purposes of the Tax Act.

It is expected that most income (including income designated as taxable capital gains but excluding any portion designated as a taxable dividend) received or receivable by a Unitholder from the Trust will be investment income for the purposes of the additional refundable tax of 6⅔% payable by a corporation that is throughout the year a "Canadian-controlled private corporation" (as defined in the Tax Act) on certain investment income.

The non-taxable portion of any net realized capital gains of the Trust that is paid or payable to a Unitholder in a taxation year will not be included in computing the Unitholder's income for the year and will not reduce the adjusted cost base of the Unitholder's Trust Units. Any other amount in excess of the net income of the Trust that is paid or payable to a Unitholder in that year will not generally be included in the Unitholder's income for the year. However, where such an amount is paid or payable to a Unitholder (other than as proceeds in respect of the redemption of Trust Units), the Unitholder will be required to reduce the adjusted cost base of the Trust Units by that amount. To the extent that the adjusted cost base of a Trust Unit would otherwise be a negative amount, the negative amount will be deemed to be a capital gain and the adjusted cost base of the Trust Unit to the Unitholder will immediately thereafter be nil. The taxation of capital gains is described below.

Dispositions of Units

On the disposition or deemed disposition of a Trust Unit whether on a redemption or otherwise, the Unitholder will realize a capital gain (or capital loss) equal to the amount by which the Unitholder's proceeds of disposition exceed (or are less than) the aggregate of the adjusted cost base of the Trust Unit and any reasonable costs of disposition. Proceeds of disposition will not include an amount payable by the Trust that is otherwise required to be included in the Unitholder's income, including any capital gain realized by the Trust in connection with a redemption which has been designated by the Trust to the redeeming Unitholder. The taxation of capital gains and capital losses is described below.

The cost of a Unit acquired pursuant to this offering will be the subscription price thereof. The cost to a Unitholder of additional Trust Units received in lieu of a cash distribution of income will be the amount of income distributed by the issue of those Trust Units. For the purpose of determining the adjusted cost base to a Unitholder of Trust Units, when a Trust Unit is acquired, the cost of the newly acquired Trust Unit will be averaged with the adjusted cost base of all of the Trust Units owned by Unitholder as capital property immediately before that acquisition. The non-taxable portion of distributions (other than the non-taxable portion of any net capital gains) will generally reduce the adjusted cost base of a Trust Unit.

Where Trust Units are redeemed and the redemption price is paid by the delivery of Business Notes to the redeeming Unitholder, the proceeds of disposition to the Unitholder of the Trust Units will be equal to the fair market value of the Business Notes so distributed less any income or capital gain realized by the Trust in connection with the redemption of those Trust Units which has been designated by the Trust to the Unitholder. Where any income or capital gain realized by the Trust in connection with the distribution of Business Notes on the redemption of Trust Units has been designated by the Trust to a redeeming Unitholder, the Unitholder will be required to include in income the income or taxable portion of the capital gain so designated. The redeeming Unitholder will be required to include in income, interest on any Business Notes acquired (including interest that accrued prior to the date of the acquisition of such Business Notes by the Unitholder that is designated as income to the Unitholder by the Trust) in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act. The cost of any Business Notes distributed by the Trust to a Unitholder upon a redemption of Trust Units will be equal to the fair market value of those Business Notes at the time of the distribution less any accrued interest on such Business Notes. The Unitholder will thereafter be required to include in income interest on the Business Notes, in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act. To the extent that the Unitholder is required to include in income any interest accrued to the date of the acquisition of Business Notes by the Unitholder, an offsetting deduction may be available. Unitholders are advised to consult their own tax advisers prior to exercising their redemption rights.

The consolidation of Trust Units of the Trust will not be considered to result in a disposition of Trust Units by Unitholders. The aggregate adjusted cost base to a Unitholder of all of the Unitholder's Trust Units of the Trust will not change as a result of a consolidation of Trust Units; however, the adjusted cost base per Trust Unit will increase.

Capital Gains and Capital Losses

One-half of any capital gain realized by a Unitholder on a disposition or deemed disposition of Trust Units and the amount of any net taxable capital gains designated by the Trust in respect of a Unitholder generally will be included in the Unitholder's income as a taxable capital gain in the taxation year in which the disposition occurs or in respect of which a net taxable capital gains designation is made by the Trust. One-half of any capital loss realized by a Unitholder on a disposition or deemed disposition of Trust Units generally may be deducted only from taxable capital gains of the Unitholder in the year of disposition, in the three preceding taxation years or in any subsequent taxation year in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act.

A Unitholder that is a Canadian-controlled private corporation (as defined in the Tax Act) will also be liable for a refundable tax of 6⅔% computed with reference to its "aggregate investment income" for the year, which includes amounts in respect of taxable capital gains.

Where a Unitholder that is a corporation or trust (other than a mutual fund trust) disposes of a Trust Unit, the Unitholder's capital loss from the disposition will generally be reduced by the amount of dividends previously designated by the Trust to the Unitholder except to the extent that a loss on a previous disposition of a Trust Unit has been reduced by those dividends. Analogous rules apply where a corporation or trust (other than a mutual fund trust) is a member of a partnership that disposes of Trust Units.

Alternative Minimum Tax

In general terms, net income of the Trust paid or payable to a Unitholder who is an individual or a trust that is designated as taxable dividends or capital gains and capital gains realized on the disposition of Trust Units may increase the Unitholder's liability for alternative minimum tax.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the securities offered hereby should be considered speculative due to the nature of the Trust's business and its present stage of development. A prospective investor should consider carefully the risk factors set out below. In addition, prospective investors should carefully review and consider all other information contained in the prospectus before making an investment decision and consult their own experts where necessary. An investment in Units should only be made by Persons who can afford a significant or total loss of their investment.

Risks Relating to the Business

Absence of Current Business

The Trust has not carried on any business prior to the date hereof and does not hold any material assets, other than the right, via Acquisitionco, to acquire the Acquired Companies pursuant to the Purchase and Sale Agreements. Closing of this offering is conditional upon the satisfaction of the Acquisition Condition on or before October 31, 2006. Although the Trust is not aware of any material liabilities relating to any of the Acquired Companies, it is possible that liabilities may arise in the future which could have a material adverse effect on the Trust.

Absence of Operating History as a Public Trust

Although Petrowest's executive officers have substantial experience in the energy services industry, they have limited experience operating a public entity. To operate effectively, the Trust will be required to continue to implement changes in certain aspects of its business, improve and expand its information systems and develop, manage and train management level and other employees to comply with on-going public company requirements. Failure to take such actions, or delay in the implementation thereof, may have a material adverse effect on the Trust's business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Failure to Acquire all of the Acquired Companies

The Acquisition Condition does not require the acquisition of all of the Acquired Companies. There can be no assurance that the Trust will acquire all of the Acquired Companies and as a result, as of the date hereof, the Trust is not able to determine which businesses Petrowest will operate in following the Closing this offering. References in this prospectus to the Acquired Companies and the business of the Trust assume the acquisition of all of the Acquired Companies pursuant to the Concurrent Acquisitions. The pro forma financial statements contained herein also assume the acquisition of all of the Acquired Companies.

Failure to Realize Anticipated Benefits of Acquisitions

Achieving the benefits of the Concurrent Acquisitions and future acquisitions will depend in part on successfully consolidating functions and integrating operations, procedures and personnel of all of the Acquired Companies in a timely and efficient manner, as well as Petrowest's ability to realize the anticipated growth opportunities and synergies from integrating each of the acquired businesses. This integration will require the dedication of management effort, time and resources which may divert management's focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from operational matters during this process. The integration process may result in the disruption of ongoing business, customer and employee relationships that may adversely affect Petrowest's ability to achieve the anticipated benefits of the acquisitions.

Volatility of Industry Conditions

The demand, pricing and terms for energy services largely depend upon the level of industry activity for Canadian natural gas and, to a lesser extent, oil exploration and development. Industry conditions are influenced by numerous factors over which Petrowest will have no control, including: the level of oil and gas prices; expectations about future oil and gas prices; the cost of exploring for, producing and delivering oil and gas; the expected rates of declining current production; the discovery rates of new oil and gas reserves; available pipeline and other oil and gas transportation capacity; worldwide weather conditions; global political, military, regulatory and economic conditions; and the ability of oil and gas companies to raise equity capital or debt financing.

The level of activity in the Canadian oil and gas exploration and production industry is volatile. No assurance can be given that expected trends in oil and gas production activities will continue or that demand for energy services will reflect the level of activity in the industry. Any prolonged substantial reduction in oil and natural gas prices would likely affect oil and gas production levels and therefore affect the demand for services to oil and gas customers. A material decline in oil or gas prices or Canadian industry activity could have a material adverse effect on Petrowest's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributions to Unitholders.

Seasonality

In Canada, the level of activity in the energy services industry is influenced by seasonal weather patterns. Spring breakup during the second quarter leaves many secondary roads temporarily incapable of supporting the weight of heavy equipment, which results in severe restrictions in the level of energy services. The duration of this period will have a direct impact on the level of Petrowest's activities. Spring breakup occurs earlier in the year in southeastern Alberta than it does in northern Alberta and British Columbia. The timing and duration of spring breakup are dependant on weather patterns but it generally occurs in April and May. Additionally, if an unseasonably warm winter prevents sufficient freezing, Petrowest may not be able to access well sites and its operating results and financial condition may therefore be adversely affected. The demand for energy services may also be affected by the severity of the Canadian winters. In addition, during excessively rainy periods, equipment moves may be delayed, thereby adversely affecting revenues. The volatility in the weather and temperature can therefore create unpredictability in activity and utilization rates, which can have a material adverse effect on Petrowest's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Capital Expenditures

Petrowest will operate in a capital intensive business. There can be no assurance that the actual capital costs incurred by Petrowest will not be higher than anticipated. In particular, Petrowest will be subject to capital costs that it has little control over, including, but not limited to, the cost of the equipment required by Petrowest's business. Any material increase in capital costs may materially affect Petrowest's business, financial conditions, results of operations and cash flows, and therefore the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Alternatives to and Changing Demand for Petroleum Products

Fuel conservation measures, alternative fuel requirements, increasing consumer demand for alternatives to oil and gas, and technological advances in fuel economy and energy generation devices could reduce the demand for crude oil and other liquid hydrocarbons. The Trust cannot predict the impact of changing demand for oil and gas products, and any major changes may have a material adverse effect on Petrowest's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Sources, Pricing and Availability of Equipment and Equipment Parts

Petrowest will source its equipment and equipment parts from a variety of suppliers, most of whom are located in Canada and the United States. Should any suppliers of the Trust be unable to provide the necessary equipment or parts or otherwise fail to deliver products in the quantities required, any resulting delays in the provision of services or in the time required to find new suppliers could have an material adverse effect on Petrowest's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Economic Dependence

Several of the Acquired Companies are economically dependent on a limited number of key customers. Each of Wales Contractors, Gordon Bros. Construction, Neuwest Equipment Rentals, D&D Well Services and Roy Larson Construction had a significant amount of their sales concentrated with their three largest customers in their last completed fiscal year (90%, 84%, 86%, 42% and 80%, respectively). There can be no assurance that Petrowest's relationship with the Acquired Companies' customers will continue, and a significant reduction or total loss of the business from these customers, if not offset by sales to new or existing customers, could have a material adverse effect on the Trust's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Government Regulation

The operations of Petrowest will be subject to a variety of federal, provincial and local laws, regulations, and guidelines, including laws and regulations relating to health and safety, the conduct of operations, the protection of the environment, the operation of equipment used in its operations and the transportation of materials and equipment it provides for its clients. Petrowest believes that each of the Acquired Companies is currently in compliance with such laws and regulations. Petrowest intends to invest financial and managerial resources to ensure such compliance and will continue to do so in the future. Although such expenditures historically have not been material to each of the Acquired Companies, such laws or regulations are subject to change. Accordingly, it is impossible for Petrowest to predict the cost or impact of such laws and regulations on its future operations.

Kyoto Protocol

Canada is a signatory to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change and has adopted the Kyoto Protocol established thereunder to set legally binding targets to reduce nation-wide emissions of carbon dioxide, methane, nitrous oxide and other so-called "greenhouse gases". The Government of Canada has published Moving Forward on Climate Change: A Plan for Honouring our Kyoto Commitment which suggests further legislation will set greenhouse gases emission reduction requirements for various industrial activities, including oil and gas exploration and production. Future federal legislation, together with provincial emission reduction requirements, such as those in effect in Alberta's Climate Change and Emissions Management Act, may require the reduction of emissions or emissions intensity from Petrowest's operations and facilities. Mandatory emissions reductions may result in increased operating costs and capital expenditures for oil and gas producers, thereby decreasing the demand for Petrowest's services. The mandatory emissions reductions may also impair Petrowest ability to provide its services economically. Management is unable to predict the impact of the Kyoto Protocol on Petrowest and it is possible that it will adversely affect Petrowest's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Operating Risks and Insurance

Petrowest's operations will be subject to hazards inherent in the oil and gas industry, such as equipment defects, malfunction and failures, and natural disasters which result in fires, vehicle accidents, explosions and uncontrollable flows of natural gas or well fluids that can cause personal injury, loss of life, suspension of operations, damage to formations, damage to facilities, business interruption and damage to or destruction of property, equipment and the environment. These risks could expose the Trust to substantial liability for personal injury, wrongful death, property damage, loss of oil and gas production, pollution, and other environmental damages. The frequency and severity of such incidents will affect operating costs, insurability and relationships with customers, employees and regulators.

Petrowest will continuously monitor its activities for quality control and safety. However, there are no assurances that Petrowest safety procedures will always prevent such damages. Although Petrowest will maintain insurance coverage that it believes to be adequate and customary in the industry, there can be no assurance that such insurance will be adequate to cover the Petrowest's liabilities. In addition, there can be no assurance that Petrowest will be able to maintain adequate insurance in the future at rates it considers reasonable and commercially justifiable. The occurrence of a significant uninsured claim, a claim in excess of the insurance coverage limits maintained by the Trust, or a claim at a time when it is not able to obtain liability insurance, could have a material adverse effect on Petrowest's ability to conduct normal business operations and on its financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Agreements and Contracts

The business operations of Petrowest will depend on verbal, performance based agreements with its customer base that are cancelable at any time by either Petrowest or its customers. The key factors, which will determine whether a client continues to use Petrowest, are service quality and availability, reliability and performance of equipment used to perform its services, technical knowledge and experience, reputation for safety and competitive price. There can be no assurance that Petrowest's relationship with the Acquired Companies' customers will continue, and a significant reduction or total loss of the business from these customers, if not offset by sales to new or existing customers, could have a material adverse effect on Petrowest's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Personnel

The successful operation of Petrowest's business will depend upon the abilities, expertise, judgment, discretion, integrity and good faith of its executive officers, general managers, employees and consultants. Petrowest is particularly dependent on its Chief Executive Officer, Kenneth N. Drysdale. In addition, the ability of Petrowest to expand its services will depend upon the ability to attract qualified personnel as needed. The demand for skilled oilfield employees is high, and the supply is limited. The executive officers of Petrowest, including Mr. Drysdale, and the general managers of the businesses of the Acquired Companies have entered into management contracts with Petrowest. However, these agreements may be terminated by the employee on giving one month's notice. The unexpected loss of Petrowest key personnel, including Mr. Drysdale or the general managers of the businesses of the Acquired Companies, or the inability to retain or recruit skilled personnel could have a material adverse effect on Petrowest's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Competition

Petrowest will provide pre-drilling and post-completion services to the northern region of the WCSB, primarily to the field operation locations of oil and gas exploration and production companies located in western Canada. The oilfield service business in which Petrowest will operate is highly competitive. To be successful, Petrowest must provide services that meet the specific needs of its clients at competitive prices. The principal competitive factors in the markets in which Petrowest operates are quality of service and availability, reliability and performance of equipment used to perform its services, technical knowledge and experience and reputation for safety and price. Petrowest will compete with several regional competitors that are both smaller and larger than it is. These competitors offer similar services in all geographic regions in which Petrowest will operate. As a result of competition, Petrowest may be unable to continue to provide its present services or to acquire additional business opportunities, which may affect Petrowest's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Reduced levels of activity in the oil and natural gas industry can intensify competition and result in lower revenue to Petrowest. Variations in the exploration and development budgets of oil and natural gas companies which are directly affected by fluctuations in energy prices, the cyclical nature and competitiveness of the oil and natural gas industry and governmental regulation, will have an affect upon Petrowest's ability to generate revenue and earnings.

Credit Risk

A substantial portion of Petrowest's accounts receivable will be with customers involved in the oil and gas industry, whose revenues may be impacted by fluctuations in commodity prices. Collection of these receivables could be influenced by economic factors affecting the oil and gas industry.

Conflicts of Interest

Certain of the proposed directors and officers of the General Partner are also directors and officers of other oil and gas and energy service companies, and conflicts of interest may arise between their duties as officers and directors of the General Partner and as officers and directors of such other companies.

There may be situations in which the interests of the proposed directors and management of, and consultants to, the General Partner may conflict with those of the General Partner. Certain members of management are currently involved, and will continue to be involved, in other entities, businesses and activities, some of which are described herein and all of which will place varying and conflicting demands on their time and attention. Furthermore, some such conflicts may result in the individual being in a direct conflict of interest position in relation to the Trust. Any conflicts will be resolved in accordance with the provisions of applicable laws.

Foreign Exchange and Interest Rates

Petrowest incurs costs in United States dollars, particularly in relation to equipment parts purchased from the United States. Accordingly, Petrowest is subject to risk from fluctuations in the in the rates of currency exchange between the United States dollar and Canadian dollar, and such fluctuations may materially affect Petrowest's business, financial conditions, results of operations and cash flows, and therefore the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders. Therefore any increase in relevant interest rates will increase the amount Petrowest pays in relation to financing activities.

Disclosure and Internal Controls

Although Petrowest has and will continue to take actions to ensure appropriate internal control and disclosure measures, there are inherent limitations in Petrowest's ability to control all circumstances. Petrowest does not expect that its internal controls and disclosure controls will prevent all error and all fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. In addition, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints and the benefit of controls must be relative to their costs. There are always inherent limitations to a control system, which include, but are not limited to, faulty decision-making and simple errors or mistakes. Additionally, controls can be circumvented by individual acts, or by two or more persons acting together, or by management overriding controls. The design of any system of controls is based in part upon assumptions as to the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in avoiding all error and fraud that may occur under future conditions, particularly those that are unforeseeable.

Leverage and Restrictive Covenants

Petrowest intends to obtain a credit facility of approximately $50 million concurrent with the Closing. The degree to which Petrowest draws against such credit facility could have important consequences to Unitholders, including: (i) a portion of Petrowest's cash flow from operations will be dedicated to the repayment of principal of and interest on its indebtedness, thereby reducing funds available for distribution; (ii) certain of Petrowest's borrowings will be at variable rates of interest, which exposes Petrowest to the risk of increased interest rates. Petrowest's ability to make scheduled payments of principal and interest on, or to refinance, its indebtedness will depend on its future operating performance and cash flow, which are subject to prevailing economic conditions, prevailing interest rate levels, and financial, competitive, business and other factors, many of which are beyond its control.

The credit facility is expected to contain certain customary operating covenants that limit the discretion of management with respect to certain business matters. These covenants will place restrictions on, among other things, the ability of Petrowest to incur additional indebtedness, to create liens or other encumbrances, to pay distributions or make certain other payments, investments, loans and guarantees and to sell or otherwise dispose of assets and merge or consolidate with another entity. Failure to comply with the obligations in the agreements with respect to the credit facility could result in an event of default which, if not cured or waived, could permit acceleration of the relevant indebtedness.

Risks Relating to an Investment in the Trust

Investment Eligibility; Mutual Fund Trust Status

If the Trust ceases to qualify as a mutual fund trust, the Units will cease to be qualified investments for Plans. Where at the end of any month a Plan holds Units that are not qualified investments, the Plan must, in respect of that month, pay a tax under Part XI.1 of the Tax Act equal to 1% of the fair market value of the Units at the time such Units were acquired by the Plan. In addition, where a trust governed by a registered retirement savings plan or registered retirement income fund holds Units that are not qualified investments, the trust will become taxable on its income attributable to the Units while they are not qualified investments, including the full amount of any capital gain realized on a disposition of Units while they are not qualified investments. Where a trust governed by a registered education savings plan holds Units that are not qualified investments, the plan's registration may be revoked. In addition, if the Trust were to cease to qualify as a mutual fund trust, Units held by Unitholders that are not residents of Canada would become taxable Canadian property. These non-resident holders would be subject to Canadian income tax on any gains realized on a disposition of Units held by them, subject to the application of any exemption under an income tax convention.

Redemption of Units

It is anticipated that the redemption right associated with Units will not be the primary mechanism for holders of Units to dispose of their Units. Business Notes, which may be distributed in specie to Unitholders in connection with a redemption, will not be listed on any stock exchange and no market is expected to develop in such Business Notes. Business Notes will not be qualified investments for trusts governed by Plans.

Nature of Units

The Units do not represent a traditional investment in the energy services sector and should not be viewed by investors as units in the Partnerships or as a direct investment in the Partnerships' business or assets. The Units represent a fractional interest in the Trust. As holders of Units, Unitholders do not have the statutory rights normally associated with ownership of shares of a corporation including, for example, the right to bring "oppression" or "derivative" actions.

The Trust's primary assets are the Business Units and the Business Notes. The price per Unit is a function of the anticipated distributable income, the underlying assets of the Trust and the Partnerships' ability to effect long-term growth in the value of the business. The market price of Units will be sensitive to a variety of market conditions including, but not limited to, interest rates, commodity prices and the ability of Petrowest to acquire additional assets. Changes in market conditions may adversely affect the trading price of Units.

The Units are not "deposits" within the meaning of the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation Act (Canada) and are not insured under the provisions of that Act or any other legislation. Furthermore, the Trust is not a trust company and, accordingly, is not registered under any trust and loan company legislation as it does not carry on or intend to carry on the business of a trust company.

Unitholder Limited Liability

The Deed of Trust provides that no Unitholder will be subject to any liability in connection with the Trust or its obligations or affairs and, in the event that a court determines that Unitholders are subject to any such liabilities, the liabilities will be enforceable only against, and will be satisfied only out of, the Unitholder's share of the Trust's assets.

The Deed of Trust provides that all written instruments signed by or on behalf of the Trust must contain a provision to the effect that such obligation will not be binding upon Unitholders personally. Personal liability may also arise in respect of claims against the Trust that do not arise under contracts, including claims in tort, claims for taxes and possibly certain other statutory liabilities. The possibility of any personal liability of this nature arising is considered unlikely by the Trust.

The operations of the Trust will be conducted, upon the advice of counsel, in such a way and in such jurisdiction as to avoid as far as possible any material risk of liability on Unitholders for claims against the Trust.

Restrictions on Non-Resident Ownership

The Deed of Trust contains a number of provisions designed to protect the status of the Trust as a "mutual fund trust" under the Tax Act which, inter alia, requires that a mutual fund trust cannot be established or maintained primarily for the benefit of persons who are not resident in Canada for purposes of the Tax Act. Under the Proposed Amendments, the requirement would be changed, effective January 1, 2005, to a requirement that not more than 50% (by value) of the outstanding Units may at any time be held by non-residents. If, in the future, Petrowest determines that a risk of losing its mutual fund trust status exists, it is entitled to take a number of actions under the Deed of Trust, including to require Unitholders that it believes are non-residents of Canada to sell their Units, which action may have an adverse effect on the market price of the Units. In addition, there can be no assurances that the Tax Act will not be amended in the future in a manner that would have a material adverse impact on the mutual fund trust status of the Trust.

Dependence on Operating Entities

The Trust is an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose mutual fund trust established under and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to the Deed of Trust that is entirely dependent upon the operations and assets of the Partnerships through the direct and indirect ownership of the Business Units, the Business Notes and the Partnerships Units, respectively. Accordingly, the cash distributions to Unitholders will be dependent upon the ability of Petrowest Business Trust and the Partnerships to pay their interest obligations under the Business Notes and Business Units, respectively.

Return of Capital

Cash distributions do not represent a "yield" in the traditional sense as they may represent both return of capital and return on investment.

Changes in Legislation

There can be no assurance that income tax laws and other governmental programs relating to the oil and gas industry and the energy services industry, such as the status of mutual fund trusts, will not be changed in a manner which adversely affects Unitholders.

Delay in Cash Distributions

In addition to the usual delays in payment by purchasers of the Trust's services, payments between any of such parties may also be delayed by restrictions imposed by lenders, delay in the sale of services or other delays. Such delays may have an impact on distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Additional Financing

There is no guarantee that the Trust will be able to secure additional financing for future costs of operations or expansion. Additional financing may not be available, or may not be available on favorable terms. Where additional financing is raised by the issuance of Units or securities convertible into Units, control of the Trust may change and Unitholders may suffer dilution to their investment. The Trust's activities may also be financed partially or wholly with debt, which may increase the Trust's debt levels above industry standards. The level of the Trust's indebtedness from time to time could impair the Trust's ability to obtain additional financing in the future on a timely basis to take advantage of business opportunities that may arise.

Absence of Prior Public Market

Prior to this offering there has been no public market for the Units. The offering price has been determined by negotiation between the General Partner, on behalf of the Trust and the Underwriters and may bear no relationship to the price at which the Units will trade in the public market subsequent to this offering.

Income Tax Matters

There can be no assurance that Canadian federal or provincial income tax laws and administrative policies respecting the treatment of mutual fund trusts will not be changed in a manner which adversely affects the holders of Units. If the Trust ceases to qualify as a "mutual fund trust" under the Tax Act, the income tax considerations described herein under the heading "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations" would be materially and adversely different in certain respects, including that Units would cease to be qualified investments for Plans. The Tax Act imposes penalties for the acquisition or holding of non-qualified investments.

The Budget Proposals included proposed amendments to the Tax Act to restrict direct and indirect holdings in certain "business income trusts" (as defined in the Budget Proposals) by certain tax-exempt entities. On May 18, 2004, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced that the application of the Budget Proposals relating to business income trusts was suspended to allow further consultation with interested parties. This position was reiterated by the Minister of Finance (Canada) in the press release that accompanied the release of the draft amendments for the Budget Proposals dated September 16, 2004. As part of the release of the 2005 Federal Budget, the Minister of Finance (Canada) issued further statements in respect of the Budget Proposals advising that the Department of Finance (Canada) would continue to consult stakeholders on tax issues related to business income trusts and other flow-through entities. On September 8, 2005, the Department of Finance (Canada) released a consultation paper on tax and other issues related to publicly listed flow-through entities such as income trusts and limited partnerships and invited interested parties to make submissions prior to December 31, 2005. In addition, on September 19, 2005, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced that the Government would postpone providing advance tax rulings respecting flow-through entity structures pending these consultations. On November 23, 2005, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced that the public consultation process had ended and tabled in the House of Commons a Notice of Ways and Means Motion to implement a reduction in personal income tax on dividends paid by public corporations with a view to establishing a better balance between the treatment of large corporations and that of income trusts. No measures were announced with respect to the taxation of flow-through entities and their investors. No assurance may be given that further review of the tax treatment of flow-through entities will not be undertaken or that Canadian federal income tax laws and/or provincial income tax laws respecting flow-through entities will not be changed in a manner which adversely affects the Trust and the Unitholders. To the extent that changes are made, such changes could result in the income tax considerations described under the heading "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations" being materially different in certain respects.

Currently, subject to certain exemptions, a trust will not be considered to be a mutual fund trust if it is established or maintained primarily for the benefit of non-residents. On September 16, 2004, the Minister of Finance (Canada) released draft amendments to the Tax Act. Under the draft amendments, a trust would lose its status as a mutual fund trust if the aggregate fair market value of all units issued by the trust held by one or more non-resident persons or partnerships that are not Canadian partnerships is more than 50% of the aggregate fair market value of all the units issued by the trust where more than 10% (based on fair market value) of the trust's property is taxable Canadian property or certain other types of property. If the draft amendments are enacted as proposed, and if, at any time, more than 50% of the aggregate fair market value of Units of the Trust were held by non-residents and partnerships other than Canadian partnerships, the Trust would, unless an exemption were applicable, thereafter cease to be a mutual fund trust. The draft amendments do not currently provide any means of rectifying a loss of mutual fund trust status. On December 6, 2004, the Department of Finance tabled a Notice of Ways and Means Motion which did not include these proposed changes. The Department of Finance indicated that the implementation of the proposed changes would be suspended pending further consultation with interested parties.

Interest on the Business Notes will accrue at the Trust level for Canadian federal income tax purposes, whether or not actually paid. The Deed of Trust provides that a sufficient amount of the Trust's net income and net realized capital gains will be distributed each year to Unitholders in order to eliminate the Trust's liability for tax under Part I of the Tax Act. Where such amount of net income (including interest on the Business Notes) and net realized capital gains of the Trust in a taxation year exceeds the cash available for distribution in the year, such excess net income and net realized capital gains will be distributed to Unitholders in the form of additional Units. Unitholders will generally be required to include an amount equal to the fair market value of those Units in their taxable income, in circumstances when they do not directly receive a cash distribution.

Statutory Remedies

The Trust is not a legally recognized entity within the relevant definitions of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada), the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (Canada) and in some cases, the Winding Up and Restructuring Act (Canada). As a result, in the event a restructuring of the Trust were necessary, the Trust and its stakeholders would not be able to access the remedies and procedures available thereunder.

MATERIAL CONTRACTS

The only contracts entered into by the Trust or any of its subsidiaries within the past two years that can reasonably be regarded as material to an investor in the Units, other than contract entered into in the ordinary course of business, are as follows:

- the Deed of Trust described under "Description of the Trust";
- the Business Deed of Trust described under "Description of Petrowest Business Trust";
- the Partnership Agreements described under "Description of the Partnerships";
- the Administration Agreement described under "Administration Agreement";
- the Underwriting Agreement described under "Plan of Distribution";
- the Shareholders Agreement described under "Shareholders Agreement";
- the Purchase and Sale Agreements described under "Acquisition of the Acquired Companies";
- the Note Indenture described under "Description of Petrowest Business Trust"; and
- the Escrow Agreement described under "Escrowed and Subordinated Securities".

Copies of these contracts may be inspected during normal business hours at the Calgary office of the Trust at • during the period of distribution and at the Toronto office of the Trust's counsel at Suite 3400, 1 First Canadian Place, Toronto, Ontario.

EXPERTS

Certain legal matters relating to the Units will be passed upon on behalf of the Trust by Bennett Jones LLP and on behalf of the Underwriters by Stikeman Elliott LLP. None of Bennett Jones LLP, Stikeman Elliott LLP or any associate or partner thereof has received or will receive a direct or indirect interest in the property of the Trust. The partners and associates of Bennett Jones LLP, as a group and the partners and associates of Stikeman Elliott LLP, as a group, own, directly or indirectly, less than 1% of the securities of the Trust, except for Bradley D. Markel, a partner of Bennett Jones LLP and Corporate Secretary of the General Partner, who is the settlor of the Trust and currently owns the Initial Trust Unit.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Management is not aware of any material litigation outstanding, threatened or pending by or against the Trust, Petrowest Business Trust, the Partnerships, Acquisitionco or the General Partner.

INTERESTS OF MANAGEMENT AND OTHERS IN MATERIAL TRANSACTIONS

Other than as disclosed elsewhere in this prospectus, none of the Directors, officers or principal shareholders of the Trust or the General Partner, and no associate or affiliate of any of them, has or has had any material interest in any transaction which materially affects the Trust, the General Partner, Acquisition or the Partnerships. Kenneth N. Drysdale and Gary Sweetman are principals of Neuwest Equipment which has entered into an acquisition agreement with Acquisitionco. See "Acquisition of the Acquired Companies".

PROMOTERS

Messrs. Ken N. Drysdale and Gary Sweetman may be considered promoters of the Trust (collectively, the "Promoters"). The number and percentage of Units each of the Promoters will hold at Closing is outlined in the following table:

Name	Number of Units[1][2]	Percentage of Outstanding Units[1]
Kenneth N. Drysdale	561,505[3]	•
Gary Sweetman	561,505[4]	•

Notes:

(1) After giving effect to this offering and the Concurrent Acquisitions and including Subordinated Units.

(2) Disclosed Units include, in certain circumstances, Units to be held by members of the named person's immediate family.

(3) Mr. Drysdale acquired 250,000 Subordinated Units pursuant to a subscription agreement between Mr. Drysdale and the Trust dated July 6, 2006 and will acquire 311,505 Trust Units pursuant to the Purchase and Sale Agreement among Messrs. Drysdale and Sweetman, Neuwest Equipment and Acquisitionco.

(4) Mr. Sweetman acquired 250,000 Subordinated Units pursuant to a subscription agreement between Mr. Sweetman and the Trust dated July 6, 2006 and will acquire 311,505 Trust Units pursuant to the Purchase and Sale Agreement among Messrs. Drysdale and Sweetman, Neuwest Equipment and Acquisitionco.

In certain circumstances, payments of distributions on the Subordinated Units held by the Promoters will be subordinate to the prior payment of distributions to public Unitholders holding Trust Units. See "Description of the Trust – Units" and "Escrowed and Subordinated Securities".

AUDITOR

The auditor of the Trust is PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, Chartered Accountants, 3100, 111 - 5th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta.

TRANSFER AGENT AND REGISTRAR

The registrar and transfer agent for the Units is Valiant Trust Company at its offices in Calgary, Alberta and its co-agent in Toronto, Ontario is BNY Trust Company of Canada.

PURCHASERS' STATUTORY RIGHTS

Securities legislation in certain provinces of Canada provides purchasers with the right to withdraw from an agreement to purchase securities. This right may be exercised within two business days after receipt or deemed receipt of a prospectus and any amendment. In several of the provinces, the securities legislation further provides a purchaser with remedies for rescission or, in some jurisdictions, damages if the prospectus and any amendment contains a misrepresentation or is not delivered to the purchaser, provided that such remedies for rescission or damages are exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the purchaser's province. The purchaser should refer to any applicable provisions of the securities legislation of the purchaser's province for the particulars of these rights or consult with a legal adviser.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Gordon Bros. Construction

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF 332691 ALBERTA LTD. and GORDON BROS. CONSTRUCTION LTD.

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements of Gordon Bros. Construction Ltd. as at and for the years ended September 30, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the unaudited consolidated financial statements of Gordon Bros. Construction Ltd. as at and for the three and six months ended March 31, 2006 and 2005 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

Overview and Net Earnings

Gordon Bros. Construction maintains a fleet of rolling stock equipment specializing in oil and gas lease building and road construction in the Valleyview area of Northern Alberta.

Gordon Bros. Construction's results are directly impacted by the overall health of the Alberta oil and gas industry. The recent strength in the commodity market has steadily increased demand for Gordon Bros. Construction's services.

The effects of weather usually have a direct impact on Gordon Bros. Construction. Oil and gas drilling activity is generally stronger November through March. Wet weather in the spring and early summer months hinder the activity, which regains strength in July and August. Therefore, a longer, colder winter and drier spring and summer enhances Gordon Bros. Construction's results.

Revenue for the six months ended March 31, 2006 was $6,607,050 compared to $5,390,779 for the six months ended March 31, 2005 (22.6% growth). Revenue for the year ended September 30, 2005 was $8,604,638 compared to $7,779,706 for the year ended September 30, 2004 (10.6% growth). The growth is primarily a function of the increased activity in the Alberta oil and gas industry and an increased equipment fleet and team to meet additional demand.

Gordon Bros. Construction's net earnings have steadily increased over the past three years in conjunction with the growth in revenue. Primarily to reduce taxable income to the small business limit, Gordon Bros. Construction pays management bonuses to its management. A portion of the management bonus has been reinvested back into the business.

* The terms EBITDA and ADJUSTED EBITDA are not measures recognized by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. ADJUSTED EBITDA is a Non-GAAP measure that in management's opinion represents a better measure of cash liquidity than EBITDA since the bonuses were primarily paid to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

ADJUSTED EBITDA has increased by 36.3% over the past three years.

Revenue

Revenue for the six months ended March 31, 2006 was $6,607,050 compared to $5,390,779 for the six months ended March 31, 2005 (22.6% growth). Gordon Bros. Construction has also increased its revenue by 29.8% over the period from 2003 to 2005. The growth is primarily a result of:

- Increased demand. The demand for lease construction in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin has increased with the increase of wells drilled. There were 21,841, 22,729, 24,800, and 26,725 (estimated by the CAPP) rig-released wells drilled in Western Canada for 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006E respectively. This growth in drilling activity reflects a 13.5% increase over the period from 2003 to 2005.

- Increased job rates. The increased demand has driven an increase in rates.

- Increased equipment fleet and personnel. Gordon Bros. Construction has undertaken a conservative growth strategy with respect to expansion of its fleet of equipment and personnel since 2003. Annual capital additions since 2003 have been made at a rate of between 4%-8% of annual revenue.

Operating and Administrative Expenses

Gordon Bros. Construction's operating and administrative expenses increased by 20.3% for the six months ending March 31, 2006 over the six months ending March 31, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased number of jobs performed. The increase in operating and administrative expenses did outpace the increase in revenue, however, due to escalating fuel costs, wages, safety costs, insurance costs, and equipment rental costs, management believes that escalating costs can be passed on to clients and the current shortfall reflects short term timing differences and not a general decline in margins. Operating and administrative expenses increased 32.9% over the years from 2003 to 2005 as compared to a 29.8% increase in revenue. Thus, Gordon Bros. Construction has been able to maintain is cost structure over the past three years.

Earnings After Operating and Administrative Expenses

Gordon Bros. Construction's earnings percentage for the six months ending March 31, 2006 was 33.9%, which was fairly consistent with the earnings percentage achieved for the six months ending March 31, 2005 of 32.7%. Over the three year period from 2003 to 2005 the earnings percentage has held constant in the 22%-28% range.

Amortization

The steady increase in amortization expense is related to the continued growth in the equipment fleet.

Interest

The interest expense has remained fairly constant during the past three year period. The capital leases outstanding have been $2,051,433, $2,717,879, and $2,451,076 for the periods ending March 31, 2006, September 30, 2005, and September 30, 2004 respectively.

Liquidity

Operating Cash Flow

Gordon Bros. Construction's cash flow from operating activities for the six months ending March 31, 2006 increased by $307,555 from the six months ending March 31, 2005. The increase is associated with a small decline in net earnings and changes in operating working capital.

Gordon Bros. Construction's cash flow from operating activities in 2005 increased by $41,158 over 2004. Although net earnings increased over the same two periods, changes in non-cash working capital and the non-cash gain on the disposal of assets more than offset the difference.

Gordon Bros. Construction pays management bonuses annually to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. A portion of the bonus is loaned back to Gordon Bros. Construction resulting in an increase to the shareholder advances and a portion remains on the balance sheet as payables. Thus, there is a downward impact on working capital from both the shareholder advances and the accrued management bonus accounts; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Financing

Gordon Bros. Construction's primary sources of financing are from two sources: capital leases and shareholder advances.

As at March 31, 2006, Gordon Bros. Construction had $2,051,433 in capital leases. The leases are secured by the related capital assets. The leases bear interest at various fixed rates ranging from 0.0% to 7.8% and differing maturities up to May 2009.

Shareholder advances increased by $275,811 from September 30, 2005 to March 31, 2006. These advances have been used for working capital purposes and to partially fund capital asset additions. These advances are unsecured, interest free, and repayable on demand.

Financial Instruments

Fair Value

The carrying value of cash, accounts receivable, note receivable, bank overdraft, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management bonus, approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair values of shareholder advances and obligations under capital lease are not practicably determinable.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

As at March 31, 2005, the Company had 90% of accounts receivable (unaudited) (September 30, 2005 – 71%; 2004 – 50%) from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk in respect of the obligations under capital lease which bear fixed and fluctuating rates of interest.

Related Party Transactions

The Company is related to 1103710 Alberta Ltd. which is owned by a relative of one of the shareholders of the Company. During the six month period ended March 31, 2006, the Company had property and equipment rental expense of $nil (unaudited) (years ended September 30, 2004 - $20,000; 2004 - $nil) to the related company. During the six month period ended March 31, 2006, the Company expensed $60,000 (unaudited) related to management fees (September 30, 2005 - $140,000; 2004) of which $60,000 (unaudited) was included in accrued liabilities as at March 31, 2006 (September 30, 2005 - $120,000).

These transactions are measured at the exchange amount, which are estimated to equal market values.

Critical Accounting Estimates and Accounting Policies

Critical Accounting Estimates

As a normal part of the financial statement preparation process, management is required to make estimates and assumptions based on information available as at the financial statement date. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the possible disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amount of revenue and expense reported for the period.

Although estimates and assumptions must be made during the financial statement preparation process, it is management's opinion that none of the estimates or assumptions were highly uncertain at the time they were made. The most significant estimate in Gordon Bros. Construction's financial statements is the amortization period for capital equipment.

Accounting Policies

Gordon Bros. Construction prepares its financial statements in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Accounting policies have been applied consistently during all periods included in the financial statements. There were no new accounting policies implemented during the periods presented.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Roy Larson Construction

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF ROY LARSON CONSTRUCTION LTD.

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements of Roy Larson Construction as at and for the years ended May 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the unaudited financial statements of Roy Larson Construction as at and for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2006 and 2005 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

Overview and Net Earnings

Roy Larson Construction maintains a fleet of rolling stock equipment specializing in oil and gas lease building and road construction and private subdivision grading in the Grande Prairie area of Northern Alberta. Roy Larson Construction's results are directly impacted by the overall health of the Alberta oil and gas industry. The recent strength in the commodity market has steadily increased demand for Roy Larson Construction's services.

The effects of weather usually have a direct impact on the company. Oil and gas drilling activity is generally stronger November through March. Wet weather in the spring and early summer months hinder the activity, which regains strength in July and August. Therefore, a longer, colder winter and drier spring and summer enhances Roy Larson Construction's results.

Revenue for the nine months ended February 28, 2006 was $17,011,548 compared to $14,766,618 for the nine months ended February 28, 2005 (15.2% growth). Revenue for the year ended May 31, 2005 was $18,442,453 compared to $13,280,703 for the year ended May 31, 2004 (38.9% growth). The growth is primarily a function of the increased activity in the Alberta oil and gas industry and an increased equipment fleet to meet additional demand.

Roy Larson Construction's net earnings have not fluctuated significantly from year to year because Roy Larson Construction pays management bonuses to its management primarily to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. A significant portion of such bonuses are reinvested back into Roy Larson Construction by way of shareholder advances.

* The terms EBITDA and ADJUSTED EBITDA are not measures recognized by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. ADJUSTED EBITDA is a Non-GAAP measure that in management's opinion represents a better measure of cash liquidity than EBITDA since the bonuses were primarily paid to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

ADJUSTED EBITDA has increased by 144% since 2003.

Revenue

Revenue for the nine months ended February 28, 2006 was $17,011,548 compared to $14,766,618 for the nine months ended February 28, 2005 (15.2% growth). Roy Larson Construction has also increased its revenue by 50.3% over the period from 2003 to 2005. The growth is primarily a result of:

- Increased demand. The demand for lease construction in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin has increased with the increase of wells drilled. There were 21,841, 22,729, 24,800, and 26,725 (estimated by the CAPP) rig-released wells drilled in Western Canada for 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006E respectively. This growth in drilling activity reflects a 13.5% increase over the period from 2003 to 2005.

- Additional equipment. Roy Larson Construction increased its equipment fleet throughout 2004 and 2005, including an additional camp brought on toward the end of 2004. This expansion represents an aggressive growth strategy with respect to expansion of its fleet of equipment and personnel since 2003. Annual capital additions since 2003 have been made at a rate of between 10%-15% of annual revenue.

- Increased number of jobs performed. The increase in the fleet has allowed Roy Larson Construction to meet the increase in demand.

- Increased job rates. The increased demand has driven an increase in rates.

Operating and Administrative Expenses

Roy Larson Construction's operating and administrative expenses increased by 22.6% in the nine months ending February 28, 2006 over the nine months ending February 28, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased number of jobs performed. The increase in operating costs did outpace the increase in revenue, however, due to escalating fuel costs, wages, safety costs, insurance costs, and equipment rental costs. Management believes that escalating costs can be passed on to clients and the current differential reflects short term timing differences and not a general decline in margins. Operating and administrative expenses only increased 28.9% over the years from 2003 to 2005 as compared to a 50.3% increase in revenue.

Earnings after Operating and Administrative Expenses

Roy Larson Construction's earnings percentage for the nine months ending February 28, 2006 fell from 37.0% for the nine months ending February 28, 2005 to 33.0%. The decrease was primarily a result of the sharp increase of operating costs such as fuel, wages, safety, insurance, and equipment rentals. In the long run, however, Roy Larson Construction has been able to expand its earnings percentage (19.3% in 2003 to 30.8% in 2005). The recovery of the oil and gas industry began in 2003 and the sector activity has accelerated at a heightened pace since.

	4,315	4,931	5,321	3,062	2,343

Amortization

The increase in amortization expense is related to capital asset purchases including assets purchased through capital leases of $2,555,158 in 2003, $4,103,152 in 2004, $5,240,481 in 2005, and $4,753,772 for the nine months ending February 28, 2006. Amortization is applied on a declining balance basis at various rates as described in the financial statements.

Interest

The increase in interest expense relates to additional net debt of $1,465,642 in 2005 and $1,373,812 in the nine months ending February 28, 2006.

Management Bonus

Management bonuses are paid to the management of Roy Larson Construction primarily to eliminate taxable income over the small business limit.

Capital expenditures	1,608	926	2,020	2,044	1,233

Roy Larson Construction has invested in additional pieces of rolling stock equipment since 2003 to meet the increased demand for services. Annual capital additions since 2003 have been made at a rate of between 10%-15% of annual revenue. Consequently, as a result of this aggressive expansion, a large portion of Roy Larson Construction's equipment is relatively new. Management expects to continue to expand rolling stock to meet industry demand in such a way as to maximize equipment utilization.

Operating Cash Flow

Roy Larson Construction's cash flow from operating activities for the nine months ending February 28, 2006 decreased by $1,504,903 from the nine months ending February 28, 2005. Although net earnings to February 28, 2006 were greater by $637,139 than the net earnings for the same period in 2005 changes in non-cash working capital more than offset the increase.

Roy Larson Construction's cash flow from operating activities in 2005 increased by $1,102,186 over 2004.

Roy Larson Construction pays management bonuses annually primarily to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. Thus, there is a downward impact on working capital from the accrued management bonus account; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Financing

Roy Larson Construction's primary sources of financing are from three sources: long-term debt, capital leases, and shareholder advances.

As at February 28, 2006, Roy Larson Construction had $1,854,151 in long-term debt. The debt is broken down into two term loans and secured by related capital assets. The debt is primarily used to finance equipment purchases and range in maturity and rates.

As at February 28, 2006, Roy Larson Construction had $4,689,288 in capital leases. The leases are secured by the related capital assets. The rates range from 0.0% to 6.59% and differing maturities up to September 2009.

Shareholder advances increased by $1,585,484 from May 31, 2005 to February 28, 2006. These advances have been used for working capital purposes and to partially fund capital asset additions. These advances are unsecured, interest free, and repayable on demand.

Financial Instruments

Fair Value

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management bonus approximate their fair value due to the relatively short term to maturity of the instruments. The fair value of shareholder advances and capital lease obligations are not practicably determinable. The fair value of long-term debt approximates carrying values as the interest rates approximates the market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the account receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include an analysis of the financial position of its customer and the regular review of their credit limits.

As at February 28, 2006, 65% (unaudited) (May 31, 2005 – 73%; May 31, 2004 – 83%) of the accounts receivable of the Company were from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of the long-term debt which bears fixed and floating rates of interest.

Related Party Transactions

Roy Larson Construction pays an annual bonus to its shareholders to reduce the taxable income to the small business limit.

Critical Accounting Estimates and Accounting Policies

Critical Accounting Estimates

As a normal part of the financial statement preparation process, management is required to make estimates and assumptions based on information available as at the financial statement date. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the possible disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amount of revenue and expense reported for the period.

Although estimates and assumptions must be made during the financial statement preparation process, it is management's opinion that none of the estimates or assumptions were highly uncertain at the time they were made. The most significant estimate in Roy Larson Construction's financial statements is the amortization period for capital equipment.

Accounting Policies

Roy Larson Construction prepares its financial statements in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Accounting policies have been applied consistently during all periods included in the financial statements. There were no new accounting policies implemented during the periods presented.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF 310423 ALBERTA LTD. and WALES CONTRACTORS LTD.

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements of Wales Contractors as at and for the years ended August 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the unaudited consolidated financial statements of Wales Contractors as at and for the three and six months ended February 28, 2006 and 2005 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

Overview and Net Earnings

Wales Contractors maintains a fleet of rolling stock equipment specializing in oil and gas lease building and road construction and private subdivision grading in the Grande Prairie area of Northern Alberta. Wales Contractors' results are directly impacted by the overall health of the Alberta oil and gas industry. The recent strength in the commodity market has steadily increased demand for Wales Contractors' services.

Weather has a direct impact on Wales Contractors. Oil and gas drilling activity is generally stronger November through March. Wet weather in the spring and early summer months hinder the activity, which regains strength in July and August. Therefore, a longer, colder winter and drier spring and summer generally enhances Wales Contractors' results.

Revenue for the six months ended February 28, 2006 was $10,767,981 compared to $10,703,652 for the six months ended February 28, 2005. Revenue for the year ended August 31, 2005 was $19,088,080 compared to $11,021,096 for the year ended August 31, 2004 (73.2% growth). The growth is primarily a function of the increased activity in the Alberta oil and gas industry and an increased equipment fleet to meet additional demand.

Wales Contractors' net earnings have not fluctuated significantly from year to year because Wales Contractors pays management bonuses to its management primarily to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

* The terms EBITDA and ADJUSTED EBITDA are not measures recognized by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. ADJUSTED EBITDA is a Non-GAAP measure that in management's opinion represents a better measure of cash liquidity than EBITDA since the bonuses were primarily paid to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

ADJUSTED EBITDA has increased by 116% since 2003.

Revenue

Revenue for the six months ended February 28, 2006 was $10,767,981 compared to $10,703,652 for the six months ended February 28, 2005. In the years ended August 31, 2003 to August 31, 2005, Wales Contractors has also increased its revenue by 118.9%. The growth is primarily a result of:

- Increased demand. The demand for lease construction in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin has increased with the increase of wells drilled. There were 21,841, 22,729, 24,800, and 26,725 (estimated by the Canadian Association of Petroleum Producers ("CAPP")) rig-released wells drilled in Western Canada for 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006E respectively. This growth in drilling activity reflects a 13.5% increase over the period from 2003 to 2005.

- Greater Utilization. The increased activity in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin has forced oil and gas companies to commit to contracts for a string of lease construction jobs as opposed to one job at a time. This has resulted in less down time for crews and greater utilization of manpower and equipment.

- Increased job rates. The increased demand has driven an increase in rates.

- Increased number of crews. Wales Contractors has increased its number of crews from six to eight to meet the increased demand.

Operating and Administrative Expenses

Wales Contractors' operating and administrative expenses increased by 3.1% for the six months ending February 28, 2006 over the six months ending February 28, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased number of jobs performed. The increase in operating costs did outpace the increase in revenue, however, due to escalating fuel costs, wages, safety costs, repairs and maintenance costs, and equipment rental costs. Management believes that escalating costs can be passed on to clients and the current shortfall reflects short term timing differences and not a general decline in margins. Operating and administrative expenses increased 126.0% over the years from 2003 to 2005 as compared to a 118.9% increase in revenue. The decline in margin occurred in 2005, and this reflects the extremely wet weather in the Grande Prairie area in the summer of 2005, and the cost escalations described above.

Earnings after Operating and Administrative Expenses

Wales Contractors' earnings percentage for the six months ending February 28, 2006 was 32.0%, which was fairly consistent with the earnings percentage achieved for the six months ending February 28, 2005 of 33.6%. Over the three year period from 2003 to 2005 the earnings percentage has held constant in the 31.5% to 34.3% range. Management believes that current declines are the result of escalating costs that will ultimately be able to be passed on to clients in the way of rate increases.

	3,182	3,238	5,705	3,389	2,662

Amortization

The steady increase in amortization expense is related to the continued growth in the equipment fleet as new crews were added. Amortization of contractor's equipment is applied on a five year straight-line basis. Automobiles and automotive equipment are amortized using a 20% to 30% declining balance method. Other equipment is amortized using a 10% to 30% declining balance method.

Interest

The decrease in interest expense relates to the reduction of the average cost of capital leases. Wales Contractors had $3,623,020 as at February 28, 2006 versus $3,677,765 in capital leases outstanding as at August 31, 2004.

Management Bonus

Management bonuses are paid to the management of Wales Contractors primarily to eliminate taxable income over the small business limit.

Wales Contractors has invested in additional pieces of rolling stock equipment since 2003 to meet the increased demand for services. Annual capital additions since 2003 have been made at a rate of between 9%-14% of annual revenue. Consequently, as a result of the expansion, a large portion of Wales equipment is relatively new. Management expects to continue to expand rolling stock to meet industry demand in such a way as to maximize equipment utilization. Expansion in 2006 has been delayed due to delays in delivery on new equipment. Delivery is anticipated in the third quarter of 2006.

Operating Cash Flow

Wales Contractors' cash flow from operating activities for the six months ending February 28, 2006 increased by $305,073 from the six months ending February 28, 2005. Although net earnings decreased, the gain on disposal of property was a $374,309 non-cash item in the six months ending February 28, 2005. There was no such item for the same period in 2006.

Wales Contractors' cash flow from operating activities in 2005 increased by $244,037 over 2004. Although net earnings decreased over the same two periods, changes in non-cash working capital more than offset the difference.

Wales Contractors pays management bonuses annually to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. Thus, there is a downward impact on working capital from both the shareholder advances and the accrued management bonus accounts; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Financing

Wales Contractors' primary sources of financing are from two sources: capital leases, and shareholder advances.

As at February 28, 2006, Wales Contractors had $3,623,020 in capital leases. The leases are secured by the related capital assets. The leases bear interest at various fixed rates ranging from 0.00% to 5.65% and differing maturities up to 2008.

Shareholder advances increased by $44,592 from August 31, 2005 to February 28, 2006. These advances have been used for working capital purposes and to partially fund capital asset additions. These advances are unsecured, interest free, and repayable on demand.

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management bonus approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of amounts due from related company, shareholder advance and obligations under capital leases are not practicably determinable.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the account receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of financial position of its customer and the regular review of their credit limits.

As at February 28, 2006, 70% (unaudited) (August 31, 2005 – 89%; 2004 – 83%) of the accounts receivable of the Company was from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk which bears fixed rates of interest, primarily through its capital lease obligations.

Related Party Transactions

The Company paid $60,000 (unaudited) during the six month periods ended February 28, 2006 (2005 - $80,439) (unaudited) (years ended August 31, 2005 - $114,000; 2004 - $72,000; 2003 - $72,000) to a company related by virtue of common ownership, for equipment rental expenses and $12,708 (unaudited) during the six months ended February 28, 2006 (year ended August 31, 2005 - $82,666; 2004 - $nil; 2003 - $nil) for freight expense. The Company also sold assets with the net book value of $nil (unaudited) during the six months ended February 28, 2006 and 2005 (years ended August 31, 2005 - $140,712; 2004 - $1,606; 2003 - $nil) to a related party. All related party transactions have been recorded at the exchange amount.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF 404434 ALBERTA CORPORATION (D&D WELL SERVICES), 756171 ALBERTA CORPORATION AND 756169 ALBERTA CORPORATION

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited combined financial statements of D&D Well Services as at and for the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the unaudited combined financial statements of D&D Well Services as at and for the three months ended March 31, 2006 and 2005 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

These financial statements have been prepared on a combined basis, commencing in 2005 when 756171 Alberta Corporation and 756169 Alberta Corporation were incorporated, as they are under common control and managed by a common company. The balances are presented after elimination of inter-company transactions and balances.

Overview and Net Earnings

D&D Well Services maintains a fleet of rolling stock equipment specializing in drilling rig, service rig and heavy equipment relocation services in the Grande Prairie area of Northern Alberta. D&D Well Services' results are directly impacted by the overall economic condition of the Western Canadian oil and gas industry. The recent strength in the oil and gas industry has rapidly increased demand for D&D Well Services' rig relocation and assembly services.

D&D Well Services' business is affected by the seasonality of oil and gas industry. Oil and gas drilling activity is most active November through March. During which time D&D Well Services is busy with rig relocation and assembly. The summer season is also moderately active for drilling; the slowest period of the year is spring when Northern Alberta experiences ground break-up in the muskeg. Thus, D&D Well Services' results are strongest during years of longer, colder winters and drier springs and summers.

D&D Well Services' revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2006 was $16,258,758 compared to $9,809,891 for the three months ended March 31, 2005 (65.7% growth). In addition, revenue for the year ended December 31, 2005 was $30,601,395 compared to $20,913,219 for the year ended December 31, 2004 (46.3% growth). The growth is primarily a function of the increased activity in the Western Canadian oil and gas industry, increased rates, and increased staff and truck fleet.

Net earnings increased to $1,208,833 in 2005 from $620,398 in 2004 (94.8% growth). D&D Well Services has historically paid out management salaries, primarily to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

Revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2006 was $16,258,758 compared to $9,809,891 for the three months ended March 31, 2005 (65.7% growth). D&D Well Services has also increased its revenue by 110.1% over the period from 2003 to 2005. The growth is primarily a result of:

- Increased demand. D&D Well Services works almost entirely for the Western Canadian oil and gas industry. Thus, its results are directly correlated to the activity in the sector. There were 21,841, 22,729, 24,800, and 26,725 (estimated by the CAPP) rig-released wells drilled in Western Canada for 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006E respectively. This growth in drilling activity reflects a 13.5% increase over the period from 2003 to 2005.

- Additional units and staff. D&D Well Services has increased its trucking fleet and staff, including additional drivers, to service the growth This expansion represents an aggressive growth strategy with respect to expansion of its fleet of equipment and personnel since 2003. Annual capital additions since 2003 have been made at a rate of between 6%-18% of annual revenue.

- Increased job rates. The increased demand has driven an increase in rates.

Operating and Administrative Expenses

D&D Well Services' operating and administrative expenses increased by 77.2% in the three months ending March 31, 2006 over the three months ending March 31, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased number of jobs performed. The increase in operating costs, however, outpaced the increase in revenue as D&D Well Services experienced rapid increases in rental rates, fuel costs, wages, insurance costs, and equipment costs. Management believes that escalating costs can be passed on to clients and the current differential reflects short term timing differences and not a general decline in margins. Operating and administrative expenses increased by 76.9% over the years from 2003 to 2005 as compared to a 110.1% increase in revenue. Thus, D&D Well Services has been able to achieve greater cost efficiencies in its long-term growth program.

Earnings after Operating and Administrative Expenses

D&D Well Services' earnings percentage for the three months ending March 31, 2006 decreased from 36.0% for the three months ending March 31, 2005 to 31.6%. This is a result of the rapid increase in rental rates, fuel costs, wages, insurance costs, and equipment costs. D&D Well Services has improved its earnings percentage, by 12.0% over the period from 2003 to 2005 from 24.0% to 36.0%.

Amortization

Amortization has increased steadily from 2003 to 2005 as D&D Well Services has increased the number of units it has in its fleet.

Interest

Interest has steadily increased over the period from 2003 to 2005 as D&D Well Services has increased its capital leases. Callable debt has decreased slightly over the same period. The callable debt bears interest at prime plus 1.75% to 2.00% and matures at various dates to August 31, 2010. The capital leases are with various lenders and secured by the related equipment; they bear different rates of interest in the 0.0% to 10.5% range and mature at various dates to September 1, 2009.

Management Bonus

Management bonuses are paid to the management primarily to eliminate taxable income over the small business limit.

D&D Well Services has increased its trucking and equipment fleet by capital acquisitions to service the growth in demand. This expansion represents an aggressive growth strategy with respect to expansion of its fleet of equipment since 2003. Annual capital additions since 2003 have been made at a rate of between 6%-18% of annual revenue.

Liquidity

Operating Cash Flow

D&D Well Services' cash flow from operating activities for the three months ending March 31, 2006 decreased by $199,978 from the three months ending March 31, 2005. This was a result of a slight decrease in net earnings and a significantly greater increase in accounts receivable.

D&D Well Services' cash flow from operating activities in 2005 increased by $1,812,981 over 2004. An increase in net earnings and accrued management bonus were primarily responsible for the increase.

Working Capital

D&D Well Services pays management bonuses annually to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. Thus, there is a downward impact on working capital from both the shareholder advances account and the accrued management bonus account; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Financing

D&D Well Services' primary sources of financing are from two sources: callable debt and capital leases.

As at March 31, 2006, D&D Well Services had $1,595,539 in callable debt. The current debt amount is comprised of several callable loans that are repayable in monthly payments ranging in size from $3,500 to $13,250 including interest (prime plus 1.75% to 2.00%). The loans are callable on demand and mature at various dates to August 31, 2010.

As at March 31, 2006, D&D Well Services had capital leases for an aggregate outstanding balance of $918,827. The leases are secured by the underlying equipment. The rates range from 0.0% to 10.5% and differing maturities up to September 1, 2009.

Financial Instruments

Fair Value

The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, accrued management bonus and callable debt, approximate their fair values due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of shareholder advances are not practicably determinable.

The fair values of long-term debt and capital lease obligations approximates carrying values as the interest rateds approximate market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

As at March 31, 2006, the Company had accounts receivable of 55% (December 31, 2005 – 47%; 2004 – 39%) from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of the long-term debt which bears fixed and floating rates of interest.

Related Party Transactions

The Company paid $99,000 (unaudited) for the three months ended March 31, 2006 (March 31, 2005 - $25,000 (unaudited)) (year ended December 31, 2005 - $126,500; 2004 - $66,000) in rent to the shareholders. This transaction has been measured at the exchange amount.

Critical Accounting Estimates and Accounting Policies

Critical Accounting Estimates

As a normal part of the financial statement preparation process, management is required to make estimates and assumptions based on information available as at the financial statement date. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the possible disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amount of revenue and expense reported for the period.

Although estimates and assumptions must be made during the financial statement preparation process, it is management's opinion that none of the estimates or assumptions were highly uncertain at the time they were made. The most significant estimate in D&D Well Services' financial statements is the amortization period for capital equipment.

Accounting Policies

D&D Well Services prepares its financial statements in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Accounting policies have been applied consistently during all periods included in the financial statements. There were no new accounting policies implemented during the periods presented.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF MURTRON HAULING LTD. AND 815431 ALBERTA LTD.

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited combined financial statements of Murtron Hauling Ltd. as at and for the years ended October 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the unaudited combined financial statements of Murtron Hauling Ltd. as at and for the six months ended April 30, 2006 and 2005 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

These financial statements have been prepared on a combined basis, as they are under common control and managed by a common company. The balances are presented after elimination of inter-company transactions and balances.

Overview and Net Earnings

Murtron Hauling maintains a fleet of rolling stock equipment specializing oil and gas sector equipment relocation, log hauling and gravel hauling in the Grande Prairie area of Northern Alberta. Murtron Hauling's results are directly impacted by the overall health of the Western Canadian oil and gas, logging, and aggregates industries. The recent strength in the oil and gas and aggregates industries has steadily increased demand for Murtron Hauling's services.

Murtron Hauling's business is affected by the seasonality of the three aforementioned industries. Oil and gas drilling activity is most active November through March. During which time Murtron Hauling is busy moving equipment to and from well sites. Winter is also the most active period for the logging industry, which heightens the demand for log hauling. Murtron Hauling's services are occupied throughout the summer with hauling gravel for the aggregates industry as well moving well-site equipment for the moderately active summer drilling season. The slowest period of the year is spring when Northern Alberta experiences ground break-up in the muskeg; drilling, logging, and aggregate activities are slowest during this period. Thus, Murtron Hauling's results are strongest during years of longer, colder winters and drier springs and summers.

Revenue for the six months ended April 30, 2006 was $8,366,646 compared to $5,142,120 for the six months ended April 30, 2005 (62.7% growth). Revenue for the year ended October 31, 2005 was $12,278,395 compared to $10,664,509 for the year ended October 31, 2004 (15.1% growth). The growth is primarily a function of the increased activity in the Alberta oil and gas and aggregates industries and increased rates.

Murtron Hauling's earnings from operations have decreased as a percentage of revenue over the past three years due to the rapid increase of operating costs, such as wages, fuel, insurance, and sub-contractors. Furthermore, Murtron Hauling's earnings are weakest during the winter months of each year because operating costs are highest during that period. For the six-month period ending April 30, 2005 Murtron Hauling recognized revenue of $5,142,120, which represented 41.9% of the annual revenue. For the same period, Murtron Hauling recognized operating costs of $4,360,988 which represented 43.6% of the annual operating costs. It is management's belief that high demand for services will allow Murtron Hauling to successfully compete with higher rates for services. Management believes that higher rates will offset recent escalations in operating costs and margins can be prevented from further slides.

* The terms EBITDA and ADJUSTED EBITDA are not measures recognized by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. ADJUSTED EBITDA is a Non-GAAP measure that in management's opinion represents a better measure of cash liquidity than EBITDA since the bonuses were primarily paid to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

ADJUSTED EBITDA has increased by 43.2% since 2003.

Revenue

Revenue for the six months ended April 30, 2006 was $8,366,646 compared to $5,142,120 for the six months ended April 30, 2005 (62.7% growth). Murtron Hauling also increased its revenue by 62.4% over the period from 2003 to 2005. This growth is primarily a result of:

- Increased demand. The demand for lease construction in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin has increased with the increase of wells drilled. There were 21,841, 22,729, 24,800, and 26,725 (estimated by the Canadian Association of Petroleum Producers) rig-released wells drilled in Western Canada for 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006E respectively. This growth in drilling activity reflects a 13.5% increase over the period from 2003 to 2005.

- Decreased down time. While the summer in Grande Prairie was one of the wettest on record, the spring breakup period was fairly short and good winter weather resulted in reduced overall down time for Murtron Hauling's various operations and thus increasing the amount of revenue-generating work days.

- Increased job rates. The increased demand has driven an increase in rates.

Operating Expenses

Murtron Hauling's operating and administrative expenses increased by 49.2% in the six months ending April 30, 2006 over the six months ending April 30, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased number of jobs performed. The increase in revenue outpaced the increase in expenses as Murtron Hauling realized savings due to volume increases. Operating expenses increased by 66.0% over the years from 2003 to 2005 as compared to a 62.4% increase in revenue. The difference is primarily a result of the rapid increase in fuel costs, wages, insurance costs, and sub-contractor costs, which were not entirely accounted for by increased charge rates.

Earnings After Operating and Administrative Expenses

Murtron Hauling's earnings percentage for the six months ending April 30, 2006 increased to 22.2% from 15.2% for the six months ending April 30, 2005.

Amortization

Amortization expenses have remained fairly constant from 2003 to 2005 as a result of little fluctuation in property, equipment, and capital leases. Capital expenditures have predominantly been dedicated to replacing older automotive equipment, trailers, and other equipment rather than to increase the fleet size.

Interest

Interest expense has fluctuated over the period from 2003 to 2005. Murtron Hauling has reduced its level of callable debt and bank overdraft, which bear interest at prime plus 0.75%. Murtron Hauling's capital leases, which bear interest a rates ranging from 3.0% to 6.5%, have increased throughout the same period.

Management Bonus

Management bonuses are paid to the management to eliminate taxable income over the small business limit.

Capital expenditures	199	392	721	982	611

Murtron Hauling has invested in rolling stock equipment since 2003 primarily to replace older units. Annual capital additions since 2003 have been made at a rate of between 5%-10% of annual revenue. Management expects to continue to expand rolling stock to meet industry demand in such a way as to maximize equipment utilization.

Liquidity

Operating Cash Flow

Murtron Hauling's cash flow from operating activities for the six months ending April 30, 2006 decreased by $487,371 from the six months ending April 30, 2005. This was primarily the result of a decrease in net earnings and an increase in prepaid expenses.

Murtron Hauling's cash flow from operating activities in 2005 increased by $364,274 over 2004. A decrease in net earnings, accounts payable, accrued liabilities, and bonuses payable was more than offset by the decrease in accounts receivable and lesser non-cash gain on disposal of equipment.

Murtron Hauling pays management bonus annually to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. Thus, there is a downward impact on working capital from both the shareholder advances account and the accrued management bonus account; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Financing

Murtron Hauling's primary sources of financing are from two sources: callable debt and capital leases.

As at April 30, 2006 Murtron Hauling had $33,750 in callable debt. Murtron Hauling has three bank loans secured but is currently only drawn on one. The current debt amount is repayable in monthly payments of $2,250 to $5,000 plus interest at a rate of prime plus 0.75% and matures in August 2007.

As at April 30, 2006 Murtron Hauling had $504,270 in capital leases. The rates range from 3.0% to 6.5% and differing maturities up to September 2008.

Murtron Hauling also has a bank overdraft, which is not drawn, that bears interest at prime plus 0.75%.

The company has issued preferred shares redeemable at $2,000. They have been recorded as a liability.

Financial Instruments

Fair Value

The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, bank indebtedness, accrued management bonus and callable debt approximate their fair values due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of shareholder advances is not practicably determinable, since there are no specific terms.

The fair value of callable debt and obligations under capital lease approximate carrying values as the interest rate approximates the market value.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies which include the analysis of financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

During the period ended April 30, 2006 – 78.2% (unaudited) (April 30, 2005 – 83.7%) (unaudited) (years ended October 31, 2005 – 47% (each customer at 37% and 10%); October 31, 2004 – 41% (each customer at 31% and 10%); October 31, 2003 – 57% (each customer at 47% and 10%)) of the Company's sales were to two customers. As at April 30, 2006, 51.7% (unaudited) (October 31, 2005 – 38%; October 31, 2004 – 54%) of the accounts receivable of the Company were from two customers.

Related Party Transactions

During the year ended October 31, 2005, the Company sold equipment for $16,050 (2004 - $6,420; 2003 - $nil) to companies controlled by the shareholders or by family members of the shareholders. In 2004, the Company advanced $40,000 to the related party and was repaid prior to October 31, 2004.

The related party transactions have been recorded at exchange amounts.

The due from related party is unsecured, interest free and repayable on demand. The companies are related, as they are controlled by common shareholders.

Critical Accounting Estimates and Accounting Policies

Critical Accounting Estimates

As a normal part of the financial statement preparation process, management is required to make estimates and assumptions based on information available as at the financial statement date. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the possible disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amount of revenue and expense reported for the period.

Although estimates and assumptions must be made during the financial statement preparation process, it is management's opinion that none of the estimates or assumptions were highly uncertain at the time they were made. The most significant estimate in Murtron Hauling's financial statements is the amortization period for capital equipment.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF R BEE CRUSHING LTD., BERNET VENTURES LTD., AND DAL FINN HOLDINGS LTD.

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited combined financial statements of R Bee Crushing as at and for the years ended April 30, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the unaudited combined financial statements of R Bee Crushing as at and for the three and nine months ended January 31, 2006 and 2005 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

These financial statements have been prepared on a combined basis, as they are under common control and managed by a common owner. The balances are presented after elimination of inter-company transactions and balances.

Overview and Net Earnings

R Bee Crushing's results are directly impacted by the overall health of northern Alberta economic development. The company's rock crushing services are employed predominantly by five to six major clients involved in road and infrastructure development in the north. In turn, the overall health of the Western Canadian oil and gas and aggregates industries has an indirect impact on R Bee Crushing as they drive the development in the region. The recent strength in the oil and gas and aggregates industries has steadily increased demand for R Bee Crushing's services.

R Bee Crushing has an upgraded, modern equipment fleet that has contributed to greater productivity and capacity to service the rapidly increasing demand for northern development. As a result of the recent economic trends in the region and R Bee Crushing's ability to capitalize on them, revenue has steadily increased over the past three years. Revenue for the nine months ended January 31, 2006 was $19,740,786 compared to $16,516,711 for the nine months ended January 31, 2005 (19.5% growth). Revenue for the year ended April 30, 2005 was $22,836,900 compared to $14,829,085 for the year ended April 30, 2004 (54.0% growth).

For the nine-month period ending January 31, 2006, R Bee Crushing recognized net earnings of $1,921,511, which represented 9.7% of the period's revenue. For the same period last year, however, R Bee Crushing recognized net earnings of $2,498,355 which represented 15.1% of the period's revenue. The decrease in net margin is primarily the result of significant increases in amortization cost due the increase in capital assets in 2005. Included in the margin decrease is also the effects of rapidly increasing costs, including wages, fuel costs, and insurance costs. Management believes that escalating costs can be passed on to clients and the current differential reflects short-term timing differences and not a general decline in margins. Historically, R Bee Crushing increased its net earnings as a percentage of revenue to 8.5% in 2005 from (3.5%) in 2003.

* The terms EBITDA and ADJUSTED EBITDA are not measures recognized by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. ADJUSTED EBITDA is a Non-GAAP measure that in management's opinion represents a better measure of cash liquidity than EBITDA since the bonuses were primarily paid to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

ADJUSTED EBITDA has increased by 197.8% since 2003.

Revenue

Revenue for the nine months ended January 31, 2006 was $19,740,786 compared to $16,516,711 for the nine months ended January 31, 2005 (19.5% growth). R Bee Crushing also increased its revenue by 136.5% over the period from 2003 to 2005. This growth is primarily a result of:

- Upgraded equipment. An upgraded equipment fleet has allowed R Bee Crushing to increase its productivity and capitalize on the economic expansion in Northern Alberta.

- Increased job rates. The increased demand has driven an increase in rates.

Operating and Administrative Expenses

R Bee Crushing's operating and administrative expenses increased by 18.3% in the nine months ending January 31, 2006 over the nine months ending January 31, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased number of jobs performed. The increase in revenue slightly outpaced the increase in operating costs as R Bee Crushing achieved greater cost efficiencies. Operating expenses increased by 125.7% over the years from 2003 to 2005 as compared to a 136.5% increase in revenue.

Earnings after Operating and Administrative Expenses

R Bee Crushing's earnings percentage for the nine months ending January 31, 2006 increased to 29.4% from 28.7% for the nine months ending January 31, 2005. This is consistent with the gradual increase in earnings percentage that R Bee Crushing has been able to achieve over the three years from April 30, 2003 to April 30, 2005.

Amortization

Amortization expenses have gradually increased from 2003 to 2005 as a result of upgrading to new equipment.

Interest

Interest has steadily increased over the three-year period and into 2006 as capital leases, long-term debt, and bank indebtedness have increased in conjunction with new equipment purchases.

Management Bonus

Management bonuses are paid to the management to eliminate taxable income over the small business limit.

Income Taxes

Capital expenditures	6,486	4,243	5,451	1,397	2,516

R Bee Crushing has invested in additional pieces of equipment since 2003 to meet the increased demand for services. Annual capital additions between 2003 and 2005 have been made at a rate of between 9%-26% of annual revenue. Consequently, as a result of this aggressive expansion, a large portion of R Bee Crushing's equipment is relatively new. Management expects to continue to expand equipment to meet industry demand in such a way as to maximize equipment utilization.

Liquidity

Operating Cash Flow

R Bee Crushing's cash flow from operating activities for the nine months ending January 31, 2006 decreased by $825,598 from the nine months ending January 31, 2005. This was a result of a decrease in net earnings.

R Bee Crushing's cash flow from operating activities in 2005 increased by $1,666,091 over 2004. Although net earnings only increased by $772,681, changes in non-cash working capital had a strong upward impact.

Working capital before accrued management bonus and shareholder advances has steadily increased from April 30, 2004 to January 31, 2006. However, there is a downward impact on working capital from both the shareholder advances account and the accrued management bonus account; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Financing

R Bee Crushing's primary sources of financing are from four sources: bank indebtedness, long-term debt, capital leases, and shareholder advances.

As at January 31, 2006, R Bee Crushing had $2,425,457 in bank indebtedness. This amount includes $480,000 drawn on the company's overdraft and $1,945,457 drawn on a $2,000,000 operating line of credit, which bears interest at prime plus 1.75%.

As at January 31, 2006, R Bee Crushing had $6,896,373 in long-term debt. The debt is comprised of various bank loans that are secured by heavy equipment and bear interest at various variable and fixed rates (bank prime plus 1.5% to 8.9% fixed).

As at January 31, 2006, R Bee Crushing had $4,390,357 in capital leases. The leases are secured by specific assets of the company. The rates range from 5.8% (fixed) to prime plus 3.0%.

As at January 31, 2006, R Bee Crushing had $1,764,491 due to shareholder outstanding.

Financial Instruments

Fair Value

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, income tax receivable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management bonus, approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of amount shareholder advances is not practicably determinable. The fair value of long-term debt and capital lease obligations approximate carrying values as the interest rates approximate market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

During the nine month period ended January 31, 2006, the Company had sales of 74% (unaudited) (year ended April 30, 2005 – 52% (each customer at 24%, 17% and 11%); 2004 – 41% (each customer at 17%, 12% and 12%); 2003 – 50% (each customer at 25%, 18% and 7%)) to three customers. As at January 31, 2006, the Company had accounts receivable of 75% (2005 – 74%; 2004 – 74%) from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of the long-term debt, which bears a fixed rate of interest.

Related Party Transactions

The Company incurred general and administrative expenses of $239,413 and $256,749 (unaudited) with a company under common control during the nine month periods ended January 31, 2006 and 2005, respectively (year ended April 30, 2005 - $341,853; 2004 - $281,999; 2003 - $182,865).

The Company generated rental income of $39,000 (unaudited) with a company under common control during the nine month period ended January 31, 2006 (year ended April 30, 2005 – $nil; 2004 - $nil; 2003 - $nil).

The Company generated interest income of $1,855 (unaudited) with a company under common control during the nine month period ended January 31, 2006 (year ended April 30, 2005 – $1,969; 2004 - $nil; 2003 - $nil).

The related party transactions are in the normal course of operations and are measured at the exchange amount.

Critical Accounting Estimates and Accounting Policies

Critical Accounting Estimates

As a normal part of the financial statement preparation process, management is required to make estimates and assumptions based on information available as at the financial statement date. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the possible disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amount of revenue and expense reported for the period.

Although estimates and assumptions must be made during the financial statement preparation process, it is management's opinion that none of the estimates or assumptions were highly uncertain at the time they were made. The most significant estimate in R Bee Crushing's financial statements is the amortization period for capital equipment and recoverability of accounts receivable.

Accounting Policies

R Bee Crushing prepares its financial statements in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Accounting policies have been applied consistently during all periods included in the financial statements. There were no new accounting policies implemented during the periods presented.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF SAFETYMASTER RENTALS CORPORATION.

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements of Safetymaster Rentals Corporation as at and for the years ended August 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the unaudited financial statements of Safetymaster Rentals Corporation as at and for the three and six months ended February 28, 2006 and 2005 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

Overview and Net Earnings

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety provides safety equipment rental services and safety services to the oil and gas industry including the supply of air trailers and equipment for use with sour gas wells. Accordingly, the company's results are directly impacted by the overall health of the Western Canadian oil and gas industry. The recent strength in the commodity market has steadily increased demand for S.O.S. Oilfield Safety's equipment.

Since the operations of S.O.S. Oilfield Safety are directly effected by the oil and gas industry, weather can have a direct impact on the company. Oil and gas drilling activity is generally stronger November through March. Wet weather in the spring and early summer months hinder the activity, which regains strength in July and August. As a result, S.O.S. Oilfield Safety typically runs at greater utilization rates during the winter, summer, and fall and at weaker utilization rates for spring and early summer. Therefore, a longer, colder winter and drier spring and summer enhances S.O.S. Oilfield Safety's results.

Revenue for the six months ended February 28, 2006 was $3,610,389 compared to $2,680,084 for the six months ended February 28, 2005 (34.7% growth). Revenue for the year ended August 31, 2005 was $4,612,493 compared to $3,274,653 for the year ended August 31, 2004 (40.9% growth). The growth is primarily a function of the increased activity in the Alberta oil and gas industry, an increased sales staff, increased rates, and an increased equipment fleet to meet additional demand.

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety's net earnings have steadily increased over the past 3 years as a result of increased sales from $151,380 in 2003 to $319,082 in 2005. S.O.S. Oilfield Safety pays management bonuses to its management, however, primarily to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. A portion of such bonuses are reinvested in Safetymaster Rentals (S.O.S.) by way of shareholder advances.

ADJUSTED EBITDA has increased by 260% since 2003.

Revenue

Revenue for the six months ended February 28, 2006 was $3,610,389 compared to $2,680,084 for the six months ended February 28, 2005 (34.7% growth). S.O.S. Oilfield Safety has also increased its revenue by 104.3% over the period from 2003 to 2005. The growth is primarily a result of:

- Increased demand. The demand for safety supervision services and equipment rentals in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin has increased with the increase of wells drilled. There were 21,841, 22,729, 24,800, and 26,725 (estimated by the CAPP) rig-released wells drilled in Western Canada for 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006E respectively. This growth in drilling activity reflects a 13.5% increase over the period from 2003 to 2005.

- Additional equipment. S.O.S. Oilfield Safety increased its equipment fleet throughout 2004 and 2005.

- Increased rates. The increased demand has driven an increase in rates.

- Increased sales force. S.O.S. Oilfield Safety expanded its sales staff in 2005.

Cost of Rentals

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety's operating and administrative expenses increased by 39.5% in the six months ending February 28, 2006 over the six months ending February 28, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased rental sales. As a percentage of revenue, however, operating and administrative expenses is increasing due to rising wages and fuel costs. Management believes that escalating costs can be passed on to clients and the current differential reflects short term timing differences and not a general decline in margins. Operating and administrative expenses increased 64.3% over the years from 2003 to 2005 as compared to a 104.3% increase in revenue.

Earnings After Operating and Administrative Expenses

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety's earnings percentage for the six months ending February 28, 2006 was 37.2%, which was fairly consistent with the earnings percentage for the six months ending February 28, 2005 of 39.4%. Over the three-year period S.O.S. Oilfield Safety has been able to expand its earnings percentage from 15.3% in 2003 to 31.9% in 2005.

Amortization

Amortization has fluctuated over the three-year period as S.O.S. Oilfield Safety has sold and acquired new equipment. S.O.S. Oilfield Safety uses both operating leases and cash purchases to acquire new equipment. The equipment is amortized using the declining balance method over the estimated useful lives of the equipment at a 15% rate.

Interest

The interest expense has remained fairly constant throughout the three year period. S.O.S. Oilfield Safety pays interest on a line of credit, callable debt, and two long-term loans. The line of credit bears interest at prime plus 1.0% and there was an outstanding balance of $484,909 as at February 28, 2006. The callable debt bears interest at prime plus 1.25% and there was an outstanding balance of $16,219 as at February 28, 2006. S.O.S. Oilfield Safety has a long-term loan that bears interest at prime plus 1.5% and there was an outstanding balance of $250,000 as at February 28, 2006. S.O.S. Oilfield Safety has secured another long-term loan that bears interest at prime plus 2.5% and there was no outstanding balance as at February 28, 2006.

Operating Cash Flow

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety's cash flow from operating activities for the six months ending February 28, 2006 decreased by $235,845 from the six months ending February 28, 2005. Although net earnings actually increased, changes in non-cash working capital more than offset the change.

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety's cash flow from operating activities in 2005 increased by $135,296 from 2004. An increase and net earnings and changes in non-cash working capital were responsible for the change.

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety pays management bonuses to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. A portion of this bonus is loaned back to S.O.S. Oilfield Safety resulting in an increase to shareholder advances. Thus, there is a downward impact on working capital from both the shareholder advance account and the accrued management bonus account; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Working capital before shareholder advances, accrued management bonuses, and due to related parties has steadily improved since August 31, 2004.

Financing

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety's primary sources of financing are from four sources: operating line of credit, long-term debt, callable debt, and shareholder loans.

As at February 28, 2006, S.O.S. Oilfield Safety had $484,909 outstanding on its operating line of credit. The operating line of credit is secured by a general security agreement covering all the assets of the company. The operating line bears interest at prime plus 1.0% and has maximum borrowings of $600,000.

The long-term debt is comprised of two loans from a company controlled by a family member of a shareholder of S.O.S. Oilfield Safety. As at February 28, 2006, S.O.S. Oilfield Safety has an outstanding balance of $250,000 on one of the two loans, which bears interest at prime plus 1.5% (the other loan, which has no outstanding balance, bears interest at prime plus 2.5%). The outstanding balance is repayable in monthly installments of $11,108, which include interest.

As at February 28, 2006, S.O.S. Oilfield Safety had $16,219 outstanding in callable debt. The callable debt bears interest at a rate of prime plus 1.25% and is repayable in monthly installments of $900.

Fair Value

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, accrued management remuneration, callable debt and long-term debt, approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of amounts due to (from) related parties and shareholder advances are not practicably determinable since they do not have any specified terms.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies which include the analysis of financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

Critical Accounting Estimates and Accounting Policies

Critical Accounting Estimates

As a normal part of the financial statement preparation process, management is required to make estimates and assumptions based on information available as at the financial statement date. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the possible disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amount of revenue and expense reported for the period.

Although estimates and assumptions must be made during the financial statement preparation process, it is management's opinion that none of the estimates or assumptions were highly uncertain at the time they were made. The most significant estimate in S.O.S. Oilfield Safety's financial statements is the amortization period for capital equipment.

Accounting Policies

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety prepares its financial statements in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Accounting policies have been applied consistently during all periods included in the financial statements. There were no new accounting policies implemented during the periods presented.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Neuwest Equipment

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF NEUWEST EQUIPMENT RENTALS INC.

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements of Neuwest Equipment Rentals Inc. as at and for the years ended October 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the unaudited financial statements of Neuwest Equipment Rentals Inc. as at and for the six months ended April 30, 2006 and 2005 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

These financial statements are prepared on the going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. The Company expects to continue normal operations with continued shareholder support, the Company receiving future financing[1] and the Company renting equipment to a related party.[2] The outcome of these events is uncertain at this time. These financial statements do not include any adjustments to the amounts and classification of assets and liabilities that may be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. These adjustments may be material.

Note:

(1) Subsequent events are described under Note 16 to the October 30, 2005 financial statements.

(2) Related Party disclosure is described under Note 13 to the October 31, 2005 financial statements.

Overview and Net Earnings

Neuwest Rentals' provides a fleet of heavy construction equipment to the Grande Prairie area oil and gas and construction sector. Its results are directly impacted by the overall health of the Western Canadian oil and gas industry. The recent strength in the commodity market has steadily increased demand for Neuwest Rentals' equipment.

The effects of weather usually have a direct impact on Neuwest Rentals. Oil and gas drilling activity is generally stronger November through March. Wet weather in the spring and early summer months hinder the activity, which regains strength in July and August. As a result, Neuwest Rentals typically runs at close to 100% utilization eight months of the year (winter, summer, and fall) and at approximately 50% utilization for four months of the year (spring and early summer). Therefore, a longer, colder winter and drier spring and summer enhances Neuwest Rentals' results. Revenue for the six months ended April 30, 2006 was $2,625,592 compared to $797,933 for the six months ended April 30, 2005 (229.1% growth). Revenue for the year ended October 31, 2005 was $2,081,517 compared to $1,376,210 for the year ended October 31, 2004 (51.2% growth). The growth is primarily a function of the increased activity in the Alberta oil and gas industry and an increased equipment fleet to meet additional demand.

While Neuwest Rentals' net earnings have steadily increased over the past 3 years as a result of increased sales, the company pays management bonuses via its employee profit sharing plan to its shareholders to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. A significant portion of such bonuses are reinvested back into Neuwest Rentals by way of shareholder advances.

* The terms EBITDA and ADJUSTED EBITDA are not measures recognized by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. ADJUSTED EBITDA is a Non-GAAP measure that in management's opinion represents a better measure of cash liquidity than EBITDA since the bonuses were primarily paid to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

ADJUSTED EBITDA expense has drastically increased over the past three years.

Revenue

Revenue for the six months ended April 30, 2006 was $2,625,592 compared to $797,933 for the six months ended April 30, 2005 (229.1% growth). Neuwest Rentals has also increased its revenue by 51.2% over the years from 2004 to 2005. The growth is primarily a result of:

- Increased demand. The demand for equipment rentals in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin has increased with the increase of wells drilled. There were 21,841, 22,729, 24,800, and 26,725 (estimated by the CAPP) rig-released wells drilled in Western Canada for 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006E respectively. This growth in drilling activity reflects a 13.5% increase over the period from 2003 to 2005.

- Additional equipment. Neuwest Rentals increased its equipment fleet throughout 2004 and 2005 by way of operating and capital leases on the equipment. As at 2005 year end Neuwest Rentals has a fleet size of 31 pieces.

- Increased rental rates. The increased demand has driven rental rates up modestly over the three-year period.

Cost of Rentals

Neuwest Rentals' cost of rentals increased by 179.0% in the six months ending April 30, 2006 over the six months ending April 30, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased rental sales. As a percentage of revenue, however, cost of rentals is decreasing due to greater utilization rates and an increase in capital leases as opposed to operating leases. Cost of rentals only increased 171% over the years from 2003 to 2005 as compared to a 389.1% increase in revenue. Cost of rentals also remains very low because most equipment is covered by manufacturer's warranty for defects, and most repairs and maintenance are paid by the customer. Due to the nature of the business, rentals are generally required to be late model equipment, and therefore older machinery that would normally incur higher costs associated with maintenance are not usually retained in the business. This equipment is typically disposed of when hour usage on the equipment reaches certain utilization levels that maximize the return on ultimate sale.

Gross Margin

Neuwest Rentals' gross margin for the six months ending April 30, 2006 increased to 54.8% from 46.6% over the same period in 2005. The increase was primarily a result of higher utilization rates and a greater use of capital leases as opposed to operating leases. Over the three-year period Neuwest Rentals has been able to drastically increase its gross margin (5.6% in 2003 to 47.7% in 2005).

Administrative Expenses

Administrative Expenses	175	64	168	266	27

Administrative expenses remain very low as a percentage of revenue because Neuwest employs only a small number of sales and maintenance personnel to service the equipment. Addition of more equipment does not require the proportionate increase in manpower that is normally associated with the operation of that equipment. The only major other administrative expense that has increased in-line with sales is insurance for the equipment fleet.

Other Expenses

Loss (Gain) on disposal of equipment	-	(11)	(11)	-	-
Employee profit plan expense	-	-	375	-	-
	332	(10)	560	7	6

Amortization

Amortization began to increase in 2005 due to the increased use of capital leases as opposed to operating leases. Neuwest Rentals added nine capital leases during 2005 and the first quarter of 2006. As at April 30, 2006, Neuwest

Rentals had $2,302,270 in outstanding capital leases versus $0 outstanding as at October 31, 2004. Also, Neuwest Rentals made capital asset purchases of $44,427 during 2005 and $191,173 during the first six months of 2006.

Interest

The increase in interest expense relates primarily to the increase in capital leases in 2005. The capital leases bear interest at rates between 5.9% and 6.7%. Neuwest Rentals also has a long-term loan used for the purchase of equipment, the loan bears interest at 7.5% and the outstanding balance as at April 30, 2006 was $21,291.

Management Bonus

Employee profit plan expenses are paid by way of bonuses to the management of Neuwest Rentals primarily to eliminate taxable income over the small business limit.

Income Taxes

Current Income Taxes	190	50	63	23	-
Future Income Taxes	(40)	-	(29)	-	-
	150	50	34	23	-

Current income taxes have increased due to the growth in revenue, but have been impacted due to management bonuses, which reduces taxable income under the small business limit for the three-year period.

Capital Expenditures

Capital expenditures	191	5	44	19	-

Neuwest Rentals capital expansion in the past has primarily been financed by way of leases on its rental equipment. The company has financed this expansion by using both operating and capital leases, however the majority of expansions has been by way of operating leases. Its capital expenditures have therefore remained very low throughout the past three years.

Operating Cash Flow

Neuwest Rentals' cash flow from operating activities for the six months ending April 30, 2006 increased by $411,542 from the six months ending April 30, 2005. This is primarily a result of an increase in net earnings.

Neuwest Rentals' cash flow from operating activities in 2005 decreased by $308,281 from 2004. Although net earnings and EBITDA increased over the same period, a large increase in accounts receivable more than offset the increase.

Neuwest Rentals pays bonuses via its employee profit sharing plan annually to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. A significant portion of these bonuses are reinvested in Neuwest Rentals resulting in an increase to the shareholder advances. Thus, there is a downward impact on working capital from the shareholder advances and management bonuses account; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Working capital has fluctuated over the past three years due to large changes in capital leases and accounts receivable associated with the growth in the operation.

Financing

Neuwest Rentals' primary sources of financing are from three sources: capital leases, long-term debt, and shareholder advances.

As at April 30, 2006, Neuwest Rentals had $2,302,270 in capital leases. The leases are secured by the related capital assets. The rates range from 5.9% to 6.7% and differing maturities up to December 31, 2010.

As at April 30, 2006, Neuwest Rentals had $21,191 in long-term debt. The debt is a 24-month loan used for equipment purchases, which bears interest at a rate of 7.5%.

Shareholder advances increased by $125,000 from October 31, 2005 to April 30, 2006. These advances have been used for working capital purposes and to partially fund capital asset additions. These advances are unsecured, interest free, and repayable on demand.

Fair Value

The carrying value of cash, accounts receivable, interest receivable and accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments. The fair value of shareholder advance and due to employee profit sharing plan is not practicably determinable since it does not have any specified terms. The fair value of long-term debt, capital lease obligation and deposit in trust approximates carrying value as the interest rates applicable to these loans approximate market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of financial position of its customer and the regular review of their credit limits.

As at April 30, 2006, 92% (unaudited) (October 31, 2005 – 81%; October 31, 2004 – 73%) of the accounts receivable of the Company was from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of its capital long-term debt, which bear fixed rates of interest.

Related Party Transactions

The Company entered into a number of related party transactions with companies controlled by the shareholders or companies controlled by family members of the shareholders, which were a part of the normal course of operations. Such transactions included revenues of $nil for the interim period ending April 30, 2006 (unaudited) (years ending October 31, 2005 - $951,082; 2004 - $1,247,666; 2003 - $394,899). For the period of April 30, 2006, there were not related party revenues earned.

The Company also entered into incurred consulting fees with a related party for the amount of $58,166 and $36,000 for the six month period ending April 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively (unaudited) (years ending October 31, 2005 - $96,000; 2004 - $nil).

As at October 31, 2005, outstanding accounts receivable from related parties amounted to $288,424 (2004 - $27,147). No amounts are outstanding at April 30, 2006.

All related party transactions have been recorded at the exchange amount.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FITZPATRICK CO. LTD. AND NORTHERN TRACTOR SALES & RENTAL CO. LTD. OPERATED AS "NORTHERN TRACTOR SALES & RENTAL"

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited combined financial statements of Northern Tractor Sales & Rental as at and for the years ended September 30, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the unaudited combined financial statements of Northern Tractor Sales & Rental as at and for the three and six months ended March 31, 2006 and 2005 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

These financial statements have been prepared on a combined basis, as they are under common control and managed by a common owner. The balances are presented after elimination of inter-company transactions and balances.

These combined financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. The Company expects to continue normal operations with continued shareholder support and assuming the bank indebtedness not being demanded by the lender, the Company receiving future financing.(1) The lender demanding repayment may result in the Company selling property and equipment to settle the debt, which would alter current operations. The lender has not presently indicated any intention to demand repayment. The outcome of these events is uncertain at this time. These combined financial statements do not include any adjustments to the amounts and classification of assets and liabilities that may be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. These adjustments may be material.

The Company's business is considered to have some seasonality, with peak levels generally in the first and fourth calendar year quarters.

Note:
(1) Subsequent events are describe under Note 15 to the September 30, 2005 combined Financial Statements.

Overview and Net Earnings

Northern Tractor provides a fleet of heavy construction equipment to the Grande Prairie area oil and gas and construction sector. Consequently its results are directly impacted by the overall health of the Western Canadian oil and gas industry. The recent strength in the commodity market has steadily increased demand for Northern Tractor's equipment.

The effects of weather usually have a direct impact on Northern Tractor. Northern Tractor has an extensive equipment fleet; a good portion of which is comprised of earth moving equipment. Thus, Northern Tractor's high season is summer, when its utilization rates are boosted by the summer drilling season and earth moving equipment rentals. Northern Tractor is also busy in the winter, which is the peak drilling season in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin. Wet weather in the spring and equipment relocation in the fall hinders the activity during those periods. Therefore, a longer, colder winter and drier spring and summer enhances Northern Tractor's results.

Revenue for the six months ended March 31, 2006 was $5,102,565 compared to $3,156,346 for the six months ended March 31, 2005 (61.7% growth). Revenue for the year ended September 30, 2005 was $6,432,768 compared to $5,365,723 for the year ended September 30, 2004 (19.9% growth). The growth is primarily a function of the increased activity in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin, the Athabasca oil sands, and an increased equipment fleet to meet additional demand.

Northern Tractor's net earnings have steadily increased over the past 3 years as a result of increased sales. Northern Tractor pays management bonuses to its management, however, to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. A portion of such bonuses are reinvested in Northern Tractor by way of shareholder advances.

* The terms EBITDA and ADJUSTED EBITDA are not measures recognized by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. ADJUSTED EBITDA is a Non-GAAP measure that in management's opinion represents a better measure of cash liquidity than EBITDA since the bonuses was primarily paid to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

ADJUSTED EBITDA has steadily increased over the past three years.

Revenue

Revenue for the six months ended March 31, 2006 was $5,102,565 compared to $3,156,346 for the six months ended March 31, 2005 (61.7% growth). Northern Tractor has also increased its revenue by 23.5% over the period from 2003 to 2005. The growth is primarily a result of:

- Increased demand and utilization. The demand for equipment rentals in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin has increased with the increase of wells drilled. There were 21,841, 22,729, 24,800, and 26,725 (estimated by the CAPP) rig-released wells drilled in Western Canada for 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006E respectively. This growth in drilling activity reflects a 13.5% increase over the period from 2003 to 2005.

- Additional equipment. Northern Tractor increased its equipment fleet throughout 2004 and 2005. As at March 31, 2006, Northern Tractor had increased its fleet to 53 pieces up from 40 at of September 30, 2005.

- Increased rental rates. The increased demand has driven rental rates up approximately 10% over the past year.

Operating and Administrative Expenses

Northern Tractor's operating and administrative expenses increased by 62.4% for the six months ending March 31, 2006 over the six months ending March 31, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased rental sales although costs of labor, and supplies have gone up. As a percentage of revenue, however, operating and administrative expenses is decreasing due to greater utilization rates and greater economies of scale. Operating and administrative expenses increased 17.4% over the years from 2003 to 2005 as compared to a 23.5% increase in revenue. Operating and administrative expenses also remain very low as most equipment is covered by manufacturer's warranty for defects. Moreover, repairs and maintenance are paid by the customer. Due to the nature of the business, rentals are generally required to be late model equipment, and therefore older machinery that would normally incur higher costs associated with maintenance are not usually retained in the business. This equipment is typically disposed of when hour usage on the equipment reaches certain utilization levels that maximize the return on ultimate sale.

Earnings After Operating and Administrative Expenses

Northern Tractor's earnings percentage for the six months ending March 31, 2006 decreased from 74.9% for the six months ending March 31, 2005 to 74.7%. The decrease was primarily a result cost increases associated with labor and supplies. Over the three year period Northern Tractor has had a fairly stable earnings percentage in the 58% to 62% range. This is primarily because Northern Tractor pays its sales force commission as opposed to salary.

Other Expenses

	2,549	1,024	2,175	1,872	1,976

Amortization

Amortization has remained fairly constant from 2003 through 2005 additions reflecting rotation of equipment without significant increases in capacity. While Northern Tractor added 13 new pieces of equipment above its normal levels during 2005 and the first half of 2006, most additions occurred so late in year end 2005 that the impact was minimal. The amortization expense for March 31, 2006 increased over the same period last year as a result of the new additions.

Interest

The increase in interest expense relates primarily to the increase in capital leases in 2005 and the first half of 2006 when Northern Tractor added 13 pieces of equipment to its fleet. The capital leases bear interest at 1.25%. Northern Tractor also has a mortgage for its land, office, and shop, which bears interest at prime plus 1.0%. The outstanding principal at March 31, 2006 was $840,745.

Management Bonus

Management bonuses are paid to the management of Northern Tractor primarily to eliminate taxable income over the small business limit.

Liquidity

Operating Cash Flow

Northern Tractor's cash flow from operating activities for the six months ending March 31, 2006 increased by $830,266 from the six months ending March 31, 2005. Northern Tractor's cash flow from operating activities in 2005 increased by $438,001 from 2004. The increase was primarily a result of an increase in net earnings.

Shareholder advances	(335)	(355)	(438)
Working capital	(9,099)	(9,268)	(5,673)

A large amount of bank indebtedness has caused a negative working capital amount over the three periods. Northern Tractor uses its operating line for a significant amount of its capital acquisitions. In addition, Northern Tractor pays a management bonus annually to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. Thus, there is a downward impact on working capital from the accrued management bonus and shareholder advances account; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Financing

Northern Tractor's primary sources of financing are from four sources: bank indebtedness, capital leases, long-term debt, and shareholder advances.

As at March 31, 2006, Northern Tractor had $7,541,000 in bank indebtedness. The demand loan is secured by a general security agreement and other guarantees. The demand loan is limited to 75% of the net book value of saleable assets up to $10,000,000. The demand loan bears interest at prime plus 0.5%.

As at March 31, 2006, Northern Tractor had $3,536,953 in capital leases. The leases are secured by the related equipment. The leases bear interest at 1.25% and have maturities up to 2008.

As at March 31, 2006, Northern Tractor had $840,745 in long-term debt. The long-term debt is a mortgage secured by a registered first mortgage on specific land. The mortgage bears interest at prime plus 1.0% and matures in 2010.

Shareholder advances are unsecured, interest free, and repayable on demand.

Share Capital

$	As at March 31, 2006	As at September 30, 2005	As at September 30, 2004

1,000 Class D preferred shares	2	2	2
Common shares	161,077	161,077	161,077

The preferred shares are retractable at the option of the holder for $999,998 and are included in current liabilities.

Financial Instruments

Fair Value

The carrying value of cash, accounts receivable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management remuneration approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of shareholder advances is not practicably determinable.

The fair value of long-term debt and capital lease obligations approximates carrying values as the interest rates approximate market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

During the six months ended March 31, 2006 - 23% (unaudited) (March 31, 2005 – 15% (unaudited)); and the year ended September 30, 2005 – 23% (September 30, 2004 – 38%) of the Company's sales were to three customers. As at March 31, 2006 – 48% (unaudited) (September 30, 2005 – 33%; 2004 – 38%) of the accounts receivable of the Company were from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of the long-term debt which bears fixed and floating rates of interest.

Related Party Transactions

Northern Tractor pays management bonus to its management to reduce the taxable income to the small business limit.

Northern Tractor has an unsecured, no interest, no fixed payment loan receivable outstanding to a company owned by a controlling shareholder. As at March 31, 2006, the outstanding balance was $2,380,849 (September 30, 2005 - $3,437,608; September 30, 2004 - $1,880,000).

Critical Accounting Estimates and Accounting Policies

Critical Accounting Estimates

As a normal part of the financial statement preparation process, management is required to make estimates and assumptions based on information available as at the financial statement date. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the possible disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amount of revenue and expense reported for the period.

Although estimates and assumptions must be made during the financial statement preparation process, it is management's opinion that none of the estimates or assumptions were highly uncertain at the time they were made. The most significant estimate in Northern Tractor's financial statements is the amortization period for capital equipment and the going concern assumption.

Accounting Policies

Northern Tractor prepares its financial statements in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Accounting policies have been applied consistently during all periods included in the financial statements. There were no new accounting policies implemented during the periods presented.

Auditors' Report

To the Board of Directors of
Petrowest Energy Services General Partner Ltd.

We have audited the balance sheet of Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") as at July 6, 2006. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Trust's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, the balance sheet presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Trust as at July 6, 2006 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Petrowest Energy Services Trust

Notes to Balance Sheet
July 6, 2006

1 The Trust

Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") is an open-ended unincorporated mutual fund trust established under the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to the deed of trust (the "Deed of Trust") dated July 6, 2006. The Trust has been created to invest in Fitzpatrick Co. Ltd., Northern Tractor Sales and Rentals Co. Ltd., Neuwest Equipment Rentals Inc., 404434 Alberta Corporation, 756171 Alberta Ltd., 756169 Alberta Ltd., Roy Larson Construction Ltd., Murtron Hauling Ltd., 815431 Alberta Ltd., Safetymaster Rentals Corp., 332691 Alberta Ltd., Gordon Bros. Construction Ltd., R. Bee Crushing Ltd., Bernet Venture Ltd., Dal Finn Holdings Ltd. and 310423 Alberta Ltd. (collectively, the "Acquired Companies") and such other investments as the Trustee may determine. Income tax obligations related to the distributions of the Trust are the obligations of the unitholder.

2 Unitholder's Equity

Units

The Trust is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Trust Units, an unlimited number of Subordinated Units and an unlimited number of Special Voting Units.

Outstanding

Trust Units

The Trust issued 1 Trust Unit at $10 per unit at formation.

Subordinated Units

Balance – July 6, 2006	-
Issued for cash	1,510,000
Issued for promissory notes (note 3)	3,020,000
Less: Amount issued for promissory notes	(3,020,000)
	1,510,000

The Trust issued 1,510,000 subordinated units at $3 per subordinated unit, to directors, employees and officers of the Trust. The subordinated unit holders paid $1 per subordinated unit and the remaining $2 per subordinated unit will be settled through the issuance of a forgivable promissory note (see note 3).

Trust Units

Prior to the conversion of the Subordinated Units, holders of Trust Units will be entitled to receive per month, in priority to any payments on the Subordinated Units, distributions of $0.10 per Trust Unit per month and such distributions shall constitute Priority Distributions (as defined below).

Upon the occurrence of a Capital Event (as defined below) or the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Trust or any other distribution of the assets of the Trust for the purpose of winding-up its affairs; (i) the holders of Trust Units will be entitled to receive, on a pro rata basis, from the applicable Capital Event Amount (as defined below) or the assets of the Trust, as applicable, before any distribution therefrom is made to the holders of Subordinated Units, any accumulated but unpaid Priority Distributions; and (ii) the holders of Subordinated Units shall be entitled to receive, on a pro rata basis, from the applicable Capital Event Amount of the assets of the Trust, as applicable after the holders of Trust Units have received a distribution therefrom in an amount equal to any accumulated but unpaid Priority Distributions but before any further distribution therefrom is made to the Priority Unitholder, any accumulated but unpaid Subordinated Distributions. Thereafter any further distributions from the applicable Capital Event Amount or the assets of the Trust, as applicable, to the holders of Units of either class shall be made pro rata and pari passu.

If a Capital Event occurs, the Priority Distributions and Subordinated Distributions will be adjusted as agreed to by the independent directors of the General Partner, using the definition of independence as provided in securities laws.

A "Capital Event" means the occurrence of any of the following events: (i) a sale of material assets of the Trust; (ii) the total or constructive total loss, or partial loss, of material assets of the Trust as a result of a casualty; (iii) a compulsory transfer or taking under threat of compulsory transfer by a governmental authority; or (iv) the occurrence of any event referred to in clauses (i) to (iii) above in relation to any person in which the Trust is a securityholder.

A "Capital Event Amount" means, in respect of a particular Capital Event, any amount received by the Trust in respect of such Capital Event, which the Trustee upon the recommendation of the board of directors of the General Partner, determines will not be re-deployed or reapplied by the Trust and shall be distributed to holders of units.

Subordinated Units

Distributions on the Subordinated Units will be subordinated in favour of Trust Units. Distributions on the Subordinated Units will only be paid by the Trust at the end of a fiscal quarter to the extent that: (i) the Trust has paid distributions per month of at least $0.10 per Trust Unit (the "Priority Distributions") to holders of Trust Units during that quarter, and (ii) any deficiency in such distributions to holders of Trust Units during the preceding 12 months has been satisfied, as described below. If these targets are not satisfied, any deficiency will be borne by holders of the Subordinated Units, distributions on which will be reduced to the extent necessary to support the continued payment of Priority Distributions on the Trust Units and any applicable deficiency in such distributions.

Distributions on the Trust Units will be cumulative, such that the amount of any deficiency in the Priority Distributions will accumulate for a period of 12 months. Payments of deficiencies on the Priority Distributions will be made in priority to distributions on the Subordinated Units. Any such accumulated deficiency not satisfied by a distribution by the Trust within 12 months of the date it arose will cease to be payable (i.e., distributions on the Subordinated Units will not be reduced to fund accumulated deficiency to the extent that some or all of such accumulated deficiency arose more than 12 months before the date on which such payment is to be made).

Following payment of the Priority Distributions and any deficiency in the Priority Distributions accumulated during the preceding 12 months, holders of Subordinated Units will be entitled to a distribution in an amount equal to $0.10 per Subordinated Unit per month (the "Subordinated Distributions"), such to be accumulated and paid at the end of each fiscal quarter.

Deficiencies in payment of Subordinated Distributions shall be accumulated and paid in a subsequent quarter in respect of such Distribution Periods, after payment of the Priority Distributions in respect of such Distribution Periods, any deficiency in Priority Distributions accumulated during the preceding 12 months and the Subordinated Distributions in respect of subsequent Distribution Periods, and provided that any accumulated unpaid portion or deficiency on Subordinated Distributions not satisfied by a distribution by the Trust within 12 months of the date such unpaid portion or deficiency arose shall cease to be payable.

After payment of all Priority Distributions and Subordinated Distributions (including any unpaid Priority Distributions and Subordinated Distributions accumulated during the preceding 12 months), distributions of Distributable Cash shall be made to Unitholders pro-rata and pari passu.

Holders of Trust Units, Subordinated Units and Special Voting Units are entitled to notice of, and to attend and vote at, all meetings of holders of units.

Exchange Right

Holders of Subordinated Units will have the right to convert into Trust Units on a one-for-one basis at any time after (and the subordination provisions will only apply until) the end of the first fiscal year ending on or after December 31, 2008 where the Trust has earnings before income taxes, depreciation and amortization (derived from audited financial statements) of at least $47 million and the Trust has paid distributions of at least $1.20 per Trust Unit for such fiscal year.

Redemption Right

Each Unitholder is entitled to require the Trust to redeem, at any time and from time to time, at the demand of the Unitholder, all or any part of the Units registered in the name of the Unitholder, upon delivery to the Trust of the certificate or certificates representing such Units, accompanied by a duly completed and properly executed notice requiring redemption. Upon receipt by the Trust of the notice to redeem Units, the holder thereof shall cease to have any rights with respect to the Units tendered for redemption other than to receive a price per Unit equal to a predetermined calculation.

3 Promissory notes receivable

The promissory notes are intended to be forgiven over three years if the subscriber remains a director, officer or employee of the Trust. The notes are to be repaid one-third on each July 6, 2007, 2008 and 2009. The forgiveness of these notes will be accounted for as compensation expense based on the market value of the Units at the time of forgiveness.

4 Subsequent events

The Trust filed a prospectus dated • relating to the initial public offering of Trust Units (the "Offering"). The Offering will be completed for gross proceeds of $ • million. The expected expenses and agent commission, relating to the Offering, are estimated to be $ • million which will be paid by the Trust.

Concurrent with the closing of the Offering, the following transactions occur:

- Four limited partnerships will be formed with Petrowest Energy Services General Partner Ltd. ("General Partner") as the general partner. An unincorporated, open-ended limited purpose trust (the "Business Trust") will be created to hold the limited partnership interest for the Trust. The limited partnerships will be involved in the construction, transportation, civil services and rentals industries.
- The Trust will use the proceeds from the issuance of the Trust Units to subscribe for units and notes of Business Trust and Business Trust will use a portion of those proceeds to subscribe for limited partnership units of the various limited partnerships.
- The Business Trust, will then loan the cash necessary to complete the cash portion of the acquisitions of the Acquired Companies to Petrowest Services Ltd. ("Acquisitionco") on an interest bearing basis. In addition, Acquisitionco will acquire the necessary number of Units from the Trust in exchange for an additional interest bearing note.
- Acquisitionco will complete the purchase of the Acquired Companies by delivering cash and Units of the Trust as contemplated in the purchase and sale agreements. As a consequence, Acquisitionco will own all the shares of the Acquired Companies.
- A short form vertical amalgamation of the respective Acquired Companies and Acquisitionco will be completed such that the assets and liabilities of each entity will become assets and liabilities of the merged entity ("Mergeco"). The shares of the Acquired Companies will cease to exist and the shares of Acquisitionco will become the share capital of Mergeco.
- Mergeco will transfer certain of its assets (representing the assets and business operations of certain of the various Acquired Companies) to each of the four limited partnerships in exchange for an assumption of certain of the liabilities that are related to the business, a note and limited partnership units of the various partnerships.
- All debt and capital lease obligations assumed by the Trust will be settled. Certain capital assets and related debt will be retained by existing shareholders and not transferred by the acquired companies into the Trust.

A pro forma financial statement is based on management assumptions and adjustments which are inherently subjective. The foregoing procedures are substantially less than either an audit or a review, the objective of which is the expression of assurance with respect to management's assumptions, the pro forma adjustments, and the application of the adjustments to the historical financial information. Accordingly, we express no such assurance. The foregoing procedures would not necessarily reveal matters of significance to the pro forma financial statements, and we therefore make no representation about the sufficiency of the procedures for the purposes of a reader of such statements.

1 The Trust and the proposed transaction

Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") is an open-ended unincorporated mutual fund trust established under and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to the Deed of Trust dated July 6, 2006.

The Trust has initially been created to hold, indirectly, controlling limited partner interests, hold the common shares in the general partner and invest in the businesses noted below. The Trust will be a business trust operating an energy services business through its indirect subsidiaries. Unitholders will hold Units of the Trust, which in turn will hold a 100% beneficial interest in the Petrowest Business Trust (the "Business Trust"). The Petrowest Business Trust will, via four limited partnerships, hold the assets of the businesses historically operated by the Acquired Companies noted below. The Trust, pursuant to a prospectus dated • , 2006 (the "Prospectus") will issue units of the Trust and use the proceeds to acquire 100% of the outstanding shares of the following companies:

Northern Tractor Sales and Rental Co. Ltd. and Fitzpatrick Co. Ltd. ("Northern Tractor")
Neuwest Equipment Rentals Inc. ("Neuwest")
404434 Alberta Corporation, 756171 Alberta Corp. and 756169 Alberta Corp. ("D&D")
Roy Larson Construction Ltd. ("Roy Larson")
Murtron Hauling Ltd. and 815431 Alberta Ltd. ("Murtron")
Safetymaster Rentals Corp. ("Safetymaster")
Gordon Bros. Construction Ltd. and 332691 Alberta Ltd. ("332691")
R. Bee Crushing Ltd., Bernet Venture Ltd. and Dal Finn Holding Ltd. ("R. Bee")
310423 Alberta Ltd. ("310423")

(collectively, the "Acquired Companies").

Income tax obligations related to the distributions of the Trust are obligations of the Unitholders.

The Trust has filed a prospectus (the "Prospectus") for an initial public offering of its trust units (the "Offering"). Concurrent with the closing of the Offering four limited partnerships will be formed with Petrowest Energy Services General Partner Ltd. ("Energy Services") as the general partner. A business trust will be created to hold the partnership interests for the Trust. The partnerships will be involved in the construction, transportation, civil services and rentals industries. Petrowest Services Ltd. ("Acquisitionco") has the right to acquire the Acquired Companies. The Trust will use a portion of the proceeds from the issuance of the Units to subscribe for limited partnership units of the various partnerships. The Business Trust will also loan a portion of cash necessary to complete the cash portion of the various acquisitions to Acquisitionco on an interest bearing basis. In addition, Acquisitionco will acquire the necessary number of units of the Trust from the Trust in exchange for an additional interest bearing note. Acquisitionco will complete the purchase of the Acquired Companies by delivering cash and units of the Trust as contemplated in the purchase and sale agreements. As a consequence, Acquisitionco will own all the shares of the various Acquired Companies. A short form vertical amalgamation of the respective Acquired Companies and Acquisitionco will be completed such that the assets and liabilities of each entity will become assets and liabilities of the merged entity ("Mergeco"). The shares of the Acquired Companies will cease to exist and the shares of Acquisitionco will become the share capital of Mergeco. Mergeco will transfer certain of its assets (representing the assets and business operations of certain of the various Acquired Companies that were acquired by Acquisitionco) to each of the four partnerships in exchange for an assumption of certain of the liabilities that are related to the business, a note and units in the partnerships.

Acquisitionco has entered into several Purchase and Sale Agreements pursuant to which it agreed to acquire the shares and shareholder loans of the Acquired Companies for an aggregate base purchase price of $230,934,992, subject to closing adjustments. The purchase price will be funded by payment of $103,284,052 in cash and the issuance of units by the Trust for proceeds of $127,650,940. The Trust will also settle long-term debt and capital lease obligations and loans of $29,987,533.

2 Basis of presentation

The accompanying unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet and the unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income (collectively, the "pro forma consolidated financial statements") have been prepared by the management of the Trust using the accounting principles disclosed in the notes to the audited financial statements of the Acquired Companies.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements may not be indicative of the financial position and results of operations that would have occurred if the transactions had taken place on the dates indicated or of the financial position or operating results which may be obtained in the future. The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements are not a forecast or projection of future results. The actual financial position and results of operations of the Trust for any period following the closing of the transactions contemplated by this prospectus will likely vary from the amounts set forth in the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements and such variation may be material. In the opinion of management, these unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements include all adjustments necessary for fair presentation of the acquisitions described above in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet of the Trust and the unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of income of the Trust have been prepared with information derived from the audited and unaudited financial statements of the Acquired Companies and the adjustments and assumptions listed below.

The unaudited statements of income of the Acquired Companies for the three-month period ending April 30, 2006 was constructed for purposes of preparing the unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of income for the three-month period and was derived from the financial statements of the respective companies. The unaudited statement of income of certain of the Acquired Companies for the twelve-month periods were constructed for purposes of preparing the unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of income for the twelve-month periods and were derived from, but do not conform to, the financial statements of the respective companies.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited and unaudited financial statements of the Trust and Acquired Companies included in the Prospectus.

The following describes the financial statements of the Acquired Companies included in the Prospectus and the method for constructing the unaudited pro forma consolidated income statement for the twelve-month period ended to December 31, 2005.

The prospectus includes the combined balance sheets of R. Bee as at April 30, 2005 and 2004 and the combined statements of earnings (loss) and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three year period ended April 30, 2005.

The pro-forma unaudited twelve-month consolidated statement of income to December 31, 2005 is constructed from R. Bee combined financial statements by adding the six month period ended October 31, 2005 to the year end April 30, 2005 and deducting the six month period ended October 31, 2004. The six month periods ended October 31, 2005 and 2004 are constructed from the deducting the respective three month period ended January 31, 2006 and 2005 from the nine month period ended January 31, 2006 and 2005.

310423 Alberta Ltd.
The prospectus includes consolidated balance sheets of 310423 as at August 31, 2005 and 2004 and the consolidated statements of earnings and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three year period ended August 31, 2005.

The pro-forma unaudited twelve-month consolidated statement of income to December 31, 2005 is constructed from 310423 consolidated financial statements by adding the three month period ended November 30, 2005 to the year end August 31, 2005 and deducting the three month period ended November 30, 2004. The three month periods ended November 30, 2005 and 2004 are constructed from the deducting the respective three month period ended February 28, 2006 and 2005 from the six month period ended February 28, 2006 and 2005.

3 Unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet assumptions and adjustments

The following assumptions and adjustments have been made to reflect the proposed transactions described in note 1 as if the transactions had occurred on April 30, 2006:

a) The issuance of • million Units for total gross proceeds of $ • million on the closing of the Offering and the payment of the underwriters fee and other costs of the Offering, estimated to be $ • million.

b) The additional payment for equipment to be purchased by the Trust subsequent to the date of closing. These assets were treated as available for use and therefore the related revenue and amortization have not been recorded as it is management's intent not to put the assets into use until such time as they have contracts available.

c) Removal of certain capital assets and related debt and other assets that will be transferred to existing shareholders of the Acquired Companies and will not be owned by the Acquired Companies when purchased by the Trust. Reclassification of deposits held as security for debt financing associated with the assets and repayment of bank indebtedness.

d) Purchase accounting – Acquisition of shares, shareholder and related party loans and accrued bonuses payable

The Acquisition will be accounted for using the purchase method with the assets acquired and liabilities assumed recorded at preliminary estimates of fair value. The final allocation of the purchase price will be based on the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the effective date of the Acquisition based upon internal and/or independent asset valuations. A preliminary allocation of the consideration is as follows:

Net assets acquired
Net working capital	34,882,951
Value of working capital adjustment on pro forma	(11,916,388)
Property and equipment	96,185,695
Intangibles	48,596,484
Goodwill	92,716,122
Investments	86,785
Cash surrender value of insurance policy	272,639
Notes and interest receivable	98,237
	260,922,525
Consideration given for value of shares and shareholder loans of acquired companies
Units	127,650,940
Cash to vendors on closing	103,284,052
Aggregate base purchase price	230,934,992
Retirement of long-term debt and capital lease obligation	23,538,782
Retirement of additional debt on pro forma	6,448,751
	260,922,525

Net working capital acquired on the Acquisition includes cash, short-term investments, accounts receivable, inventory, prepaid expenses, current portion of note receivable, income taxes recoverable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and income taxes payable. The purchase price is affected by the changes in working capital, shareholder loans and long-term debt from the date specified in the purchase and sale agreement to the date of closing. Changes in the balances for these items will affect the net consideration paid by the Trust to the owners. These adjustments may be material. An estimated value of working capital adjustments as at April 30, 2006 is noted in the table above.

In conjunction with acquisitions, all debt and capital lease obligations will be repaid by the Trust through the use of proceeds from the offering.

Goodwill is the cost of an acquisition less the fair value of identifiable assets and liabilities and will be tested for impairment at least annually. Intangibles relate to customer contracts, non compete clauses and trade names and are amortized over their expected lives on a straight-line basis between 5 and 10 years.

4 Unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income assumptions and adjustments

The unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income of the Trust for the three-month period ended April 30, 2006 and for the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2005 have been prepared assuming that the Trust was in operation during the three-month period and the twelve-month period, respectively and as if the proposed transaction described in note 1 had occurred on January 1, 2005. The Trust will incur additional annual administrative expenses in connection with reporting to shareholders, investor relations, directors' and officers' insurance and other expenses as a result of the proposed transactions and the effects of these costs have not been reflected in the unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of income. The unaudited pro-forma consolidated statement of income of the Trust reflects the following assumptions and adjustments to the income and expenses of the Trust:

a) The reduction in interest expense for the three-month period and for the twelve-month period to reflect interest expense on the bank indebtedness, callable debt, long-term debt and capital lease obligations that will be settled by the Trust.

b) Additional amortization expense on property and equipment and intangible assets for the three-month period and the twelve-month period resulting from the fair value allocation described in note 3(d).

c) The reversal of management compensation for the three-month period and for the twelve-month period, included in management fees and bonuses relating to existing owner/manager compensation arrangements that will be terminated in connection with the Offering.

d) The reversal of current income taxes for the three-month period for the twelve-month period reflecting that income tax obligations related to the distributions of the Trust are obligations of the ultimate Unitholders. It is assumed that income tax obligations of the General Partner and Acquisitionco will be nominal.

Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders of 332691 Alberta Ltd.

We have audited the consolidated balance sheets of 332691 Alberta Ltd. (operating as Gordon Bros. Construction Ltd.) as at September 30, 2005 and 2004 and the consolidated statements of earnings and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended September 30, 2005. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at September 30, 2005 and 2004 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended September 30, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of business

Gordon Bros. Construction Ltd. and 332691 Alberta Ltd. (the "Company") are privately owned and incorporated under the laws of the province of Alberta. The companies provide well site construction, road building and well site reclamation services in northern Alberta.

The Company's business is considered to have some seasonality, with peak levels generally in the first and fourth calendar year quarters.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

These consolidated financial statements are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Principles of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary, Gordon Bros. Construction Ltd. Intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated on consolidation.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Amortization is provided using the declining balance method at rates intended to amortize the cost of assets over their estimated useful lives.

Buildings	5%
Equipment	20%
Automotive	30%
Computer equipment	30%
Contractors mobile equipment	30%
Portable camp equipment	30%

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate a potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a writedown to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period.

Long-term investments

Other long-term investments are portfolio investments recorded at cost, less any write-down for other than temporary impairment.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of income tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and income tax bases of assets and liabilities, and measured using the substantively enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Inventory

Inventory is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined by the first-in, first-out method.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of property and equipment and the recoverability of accounts receivable. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Revenue recognition

The Company's services are generally sold based upon purchase orders with the customer that include fixed or determinable prices. Revenue is recognized when services are rendered and when collectibility is reasonably assured.

8 Shareholder advances

Shareholder advances are unsecured, interest free and are repayable on demand.

9 Financial instruments

Fair values

The carrying value of cash, accounts receivable, note receivable, bank overdraft, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management bonus, approximate their fair values due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair values of shareholder advances and obligations under capital lease are not practicably determinable.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

As at March 31, 2005, the Company had 90% of accounts receivable (unaudited) (September 30, 2005 – 71%; 2004 – 50%) from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk in respect of the obligations under capital lease which bear fixed and fluctuating rates of interest.

10 Income taxes

The income tax provision recorded differs from the income tax obtained by applying the statutory income tax rates to the income for the period and is reconciled as follows:

	Three months ended December 31,		Six months ended March 31,		Years ended September 30,

Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders of
Roy Larson Construction Ltd.

We have audited the balance sheets of Roy Larson Construction Ltd. as at May 31, 2005 and 2004, and the statements of earnings and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three year period ended May 31, 2005. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at May 31, 2005 and 2004, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three year period ended May 31, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of business

Roy Larson Construction Ltd. (the "Company") is a privately owned company, that operates a well site construction, site restoration and road building business whose predecessors were incorporated under the Alberta Business Corporations Act in 1986.

The Company's business is considered to have some seasonality, with peak levels generally in the first and fourth calendar year quarters.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

The financial statements are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Cash and cash equivalents

Included in cash and cash equivalents are bank overdrafts.

Investments

The Company accounts for investments on a cost basis. Investments are written down to their net realizable value should a decline in value occur that is not considered temporary.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Rates of amortization applied on a declining balance basis to write off the cost of property and equipment over their estimated useful lives are as follows:

Buildings	4%
Generating equipment	8%
Equipment	20%
Furniture and fixtures	20%
Contractors moveable equipment	30%
Automotive equipment	30% – 40%
Computer equipment	30%

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate a potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a writedown to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of income tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and income tax bases of assets and liabilities, and are measured using the substantively enacted income tax rates and laws that will be effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of the revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of property and equipment and recoverability of accounts receivable. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Revenue recognition

The Company' services are generally sold based on purchase orders with a customer that includes fixed or determinable prices. Revenue is recognized when services are rendered and when collectibility is reasonably assured.

Subsequent to February 28, 2006, the Company restructured two lease agreements. As a result, these leases changed from being accounted for as capital leases to operating leases. As at February 28, 2006, the assets had a net book value of $744,871, with related loans outstanding of $671,421.

10 Financial instruments

Fair value

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalent, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management bonus approximate their fair value due to the relatively short term to maturity of the instruments. The fair value of shareholder advances and capital lease obligations are not practicably determinable. The fair value of long-term debt approximates carrying values as the interest rates approximates the market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include an analysis of the financial position of its customers and a regular review of their credit limits.

As at February 28, 2006, 65% (unaudited) (May 31, 2005 – 73%; May 31, 2004 – 83%) of the accounts receivable of the Company were from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of the long-term debt which bears fixed and floating rates of interest.

11 Income taxes

Reconciliation of effective tax rate to the Canadian federal tax rate

The income tax provision recorded differs from the income tax obtained by applying the statutory income tax rates to earnings for the year and is reconciled as follows:

12 Segmented information

In the opinion of management, the Company has only one business segment, which is the business of oil field and road construction.

13 Economic dependence

During the nine-month period ended February 28, 2006, 75% (unaudited) (February 28, 2005 –79% (unaudited)) and the year ended May 31, 2005 – 80% (each customer at 34%, 24% and 22%; May 31, 2004 – 73% (each customer at 30%, 23% and 20%); May 31, 2003 – 84% (each customer at 64%, 10% and 10%)) of the Company's sales were to three customers.

14 Subsequent events

Initial public offering

On _____, Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") filed a prospectus relating to the initial public offering of up to • million trust units for $10 per unit (the "Offering"). Costs of the Offering are estimated to be $2.7 million and fees payable to the agents are estimated to be $ • , resulting in net proceeds of $ • million.

Auditors' Report

310423 Alberta Ltd.

We have audited the consolidated balance sheets of 310423 Alberta Ltd. (operating as Wales Contractors Ltd.) as at August 31, 2005 and 2004 and the consolidated statements of earnings and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended August 31, 2005. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at August 31, 2005 and 2004 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the each of the years in the three-year period ended August 31, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of business

310423 Alberta Ltd. (the "Company") was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act of the Province of Alberta on January 16, 1984. The Company provides wellsite construction, road building and well site reclamation to oil and gas companies.

The Company's business is considered to have some seasonality, with peak levels generally in the first and fourth calendar year quarters.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

The consolidated financial statements of 310423 Alberta Ltd. and its wholly owned subsidiary Wales Contracting Ltd., are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Cash and cash equivalents

Included in cash and cash equivalents are bank overdrafts.

Inventory

Inventory is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value, with cost being determined on a first-in, first-out basis.

Principles of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary, Wales Contractors Ltd. Intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated on consolidation.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Amortization is provided at cost less estimated salvage value using the following methods and rates:

Contractors' equipment	5 years straight-line
Contractors' equipment under capital lease	5 years straight-line
Automobiles and automotive equipment	20% – 30% declining balance
Automobiles and automotive equipment under capital lease	20% – 30% declining balance
Equipment	10% – 30% declining balance

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a writedown to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period. No impairment loss has been recorded to date.

Investments

Investments are recorded at cost. Investments are written down to their fair value if their fair value is less than their carrying value.

Marketable securities

Marketable securities are recorded at amortized cost. Marketable securities are written down to their net realizable value should a decline in value occur that is not considered temporary.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of income tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and income tax bases of assets and liabilities, and measured using the substantively enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of property and equipment and recoverability of accounts receivable. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Revenue recognition

The Company's services are generally based upon purchase orders with the customer that include fixed or determinable prices. Revenue is recognized when services are rendered and when collectability is reasonably assured.

9 Related party transactions

The Company paid $60,000 (unaudited) during the six-month periods ended February 28, 2006 (2005 – $80,439) (unaudited) (years ended August 31, 2005 – $114,000; 2004 – $72,000; 2003 – $72,000) to a company related by virtue of common ownership, for equipment rental expenses and $12,708 (unaudited) during the six-months ended February 28, 2006 (year ended August 31, 2005 – $82,666; 2004 – $nil; 2003 – $nil) for freight expense. The Company also sold assets with the net book value of $nil (unaudited) during the six-month ended February 28, 2006 and 2005 (years ended August 31, 2005 – $140,712; 2004 – $1,606; 2003 – $nil) to a related party. All related party transactions have been recorded at the exchange amount.

10 Line of credit

The Company has a line of credit that has an available credit facility of $900,000 that has not been drawn on as at August 31, 2005. The line of credit security is provided by a general assignment of accounts receivable and guarantees amounting to $900,000 by the Company, a related company and the shareholders.

11 Financial instruments

Fair value

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management bonus approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of amounts due from related company, shareholder advances and obligations under capital leases are not practicably determinable.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

As at February 28, 2006, 70% (unaudited) (August 31, 2005 – 89%; 2004 – 83%) of the accounts receivable of the Company was from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk which bears fixed rates of interest, primarily through its capital lease obligations.

12 Income taxes

The income tax provision recorded differs from the income taxes obtained by applying the statutory income tax rate below:

Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders of
404434 Alberta Corporation,
756171 Alberta Corporation and 756169 Alberta Corporation

We have audited the combined balance sheets of D&D Well Services as at December 31, 2005 and 2004 and the combined statements of earnings and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2005. These combined financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these combined financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at December 31, 2005 and 2004 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of business

401434 Alberta Corporation, 756171 Alberta Corporation and 756169 Alberta Corporation (collectively, the "Company" and "D & D Well Services") are privately-owned companies; they operate rig moving and transportation services and are incorporated under the laws of the Province of Alberta. These financial statements are prepared on a combined basis, commencing in 2005 when 756171 Alberta Corporation and 755169 Alberta Corporation were incorporated, as they are under common control and managed by a common owner. The combined balances are presented after elimination of inter-company transactions and balances.

The Company's business is considered to have some seasonality, with peak levels generally in the first and fourth calendar year quarters.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

These combined financial statements are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Cash and cash equivalents

Included in cash and cash equivalents are bank overdrafts.

Inventory

Inventory is valued at cost and net realizable value, with cost being determined on a first-in, first-out basis.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization. Amortization is provided using the declining balance method at the following rates, intended to amortize the cost of assets over their estimated useful lives:

Buildings	10%
Equipment	20%
Office equipment	20%
Motor vehicles	30%
Contracting equipment	30%
Computer equipment	45%

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate a potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a writedown to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period.

Revenue recognition

The Company's services are generally based upon purchase orders that include fixed prices. Revenue is recognized when services are rendered and when collectibility is reasonably assured.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of income tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and income tax bases of assets and liabilities, and measured using the substantively enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of property and equipment and recoverability of accounts receivable. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

9 Related party transactions

The Company paid $99,000 (unaudited) for the three months ended March 31, 2006 (March 31, 2005 – $25,000 (unaudited)) (year ended December 31, 2005 – $126,500; 2004 – $66,000) in rent to the shareholders. This transaction has been measured at the exchange amount.

10 Financial instruments

Fair value

The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, accrued management bonus and callable debt, approximate their fair values due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of shareholder advances are not practicably determinable.

The fair values of long-term debt and capital lease obligations approximates carrying values as the interest rates approximate market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

As at March 31, 2006, the Company had accounts receivable of 55% (December 31, 2005 – 47%; 2004 – 39%) from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of the long-term debt which bears fixed and floating rates of interest.

11 Income taxes

The income tax provision recorded differs from the income taxes obtained by applying the statutory income tax rates to the income for the period and is reconciled as follows:

Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders of
Murtron Hauling Ltd. and 815431 Alberta Ltd.

We have audited the combined balance sheets of Murtron Hauling (the "Company") as at October 31, 2005 and 2004 and the combined statements of earnings (loss) and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three year-period ended October 31, 2005. These combined financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these combined financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at October 31, 2005 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended October 31, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of business

Murtron Hauling Ltd. and 815431 Alberta Ltd. (collectively the "Company" and "Murtron Hauling") are privately-owned companies incorporated under the Alberta Corporations Act which operate a log hauling, gravel hauling and heavy equipment moving business. These financial statements are prepared on a combined basis as they are under common control and managed by a common owner. The combined balances are presented after elimination of intercompany transactions and balances.

The Company's business is considered to have some seasonality, with peak levels generally in the first and fourth calendar year quarters.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

These financial statements are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Cash and cash equivalents

Included in cash and cash equivalents are bank overdrafts.

Inventory

Inventory consists of crushed gravel and is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value with the cost being determined on a first-in, first-out basis.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Amortization is provided at cost less estimated salvage value using the following rates:

Buildings	4% declining balance
Fence	10% declining balance
Equipment	20% declining balance
Automotive equipment and trailers	30% - 40% declining balance
Equipment under capital lease	Straight line over lease term
Computer equipment	30% declining balance
Trailers	30% declining balance

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate a potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a writedown to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period.

Revenue recognition

Revenue from hauling and trucking is recognized when the services have been provided and ultimate collection is reasonably assured.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of income tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities, and measured using the substantively enacted income tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of capital assets and recoverability of accounts receivable. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

9 Commitments

The Company has committed to supply 100,000 tonnes of gravel per annum, at $6.10 per tonne, from February 2006 until December 31, 2010.

10 Financial instruments

Fair value

The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, bank indebtedness, accrued management bonus and callable debt approximate their fair values due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of shareholder advances is not practicably determinable, since there are no specific terms.

The fair values of callable debt and obligations under capital lease approximate carrying values as the interest rate approximates the market value.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies which include the analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

During the three month period ended April 30, 2006 – 78% (unaudited) (April 30, 2005 – 84%) (unaudited) (years ended October 31, 2005 – 47% (each customer at 37% and 10%; October 31, 2004 – 41% (each customer at 31% and 10%); October 31, 2003 – 57% (each customer at 47% and 10%)) of the Company's sales were to two customer. As at April 30, 2006, 52% (unaudited) (October 31, 2005 – 38%; October 31, 2004 – 54%) of the accounts receivable of the Company were from two customers.

11 Income taxes

The income tax provision recorded differs from the income taxes obtained by applying the statutory income tax rates to the earnings (loss) for the period and is reconciled as follows:

Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders of
R Bee Crushing Ltd., Bernet Ventures Ltd. and Dal Finn Holdings Ltd.

We have audited the combined balance sheets of R Bee Crushing as at April 30, 2005 and 2004 and the combined statements of earnings (loss) and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended April 30, 2005. These combined financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these combined financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at April 30, 2005 and 2004 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the each of the years in the three-year period ended April 30, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of business

R Bee Crushing Ltd., Bernet Ventures Ltd. and Dal Finn Holdings Ltd. (collectively, the "Company" and "R. Bee Crushing") are incorporated under the laws of British Columbia, are extra-provincially registered in Alberta and are engaged in the gravel crushing business. These financial statements have combined the operations of these three companies as they are under common control and managed by a common owner. The combined balances are presented after elimination of intercompany transactions and balances.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

These financial statements are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of short-term deposits with maturities of three months or less.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization. Amortization is provided using the declining balance method at the following rates intended to amortize the cost of assets over their estimated useful lives.

Buildings	4%
Heavy equipment	30%
Equipment	30%
Vehicles	30%
Trailers	30%
Radios	20%
Computer hardware and software	30% – 100%

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate a potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a writedown to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized as services are provided and performance of the service has occurred, price to the customer is fixed or determinable and collectibility is reasonably assured.

Investments

Investments are accounted for on a cost basis and are written down to their net recoverable amount should a decline in value occur that is not considered temporary.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of income tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and income tax bases of assets and liabilities, and measured using the substantively enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of property and equipment and recoverability of accounts receivable. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Inventory

Inventory consists of spare parts and is measured at the lower of cost and market on a first-in first-out basis.

3 Short-term investments

These funds are held at one chartered bank and up to $354,000 has been pledged as security for the operating loan.

11 Financial instruments

Fair value

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, income taxes receivable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management bonus, approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of amount shareholder advances is not practicably determinable. The fair value of long-term debt and capital lease obligations approximate carrying values as the interest rates approximate market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

During the nine-month period ended January 31, 2006, the Company had sales of 74% (unaudited) (year ended April 30, 2005 – 52% (each customer at 24%, 17% and 11%); 2004 – 41% (each customer at 17%, 12% and 12%; 2003 – 50% (each customer at 25%, 18% and 7%)) to three customers. As at January 31, 2006, the Company had accounts receivable of 75% (2005 – 74%; 2004 – 74%) from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of the long-term debt, which bears a fixed rate of interest.

12 Income taxes

The income tax provision recorded differs from the income tax obtained by applying the statutory income tax rates as follows:

Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders of
Safetymaster Rentals Corporation

We have audited the balance sheets of Safetymaster Rentals Corporation as at August 31, 2005 and 2004, and the statements of earnings and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended August 31, 2005. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at August 31, 2005 and 2004, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended August 31, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of business

Safetymaster Rentals Corporation (the "Company") was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (Alberta) on January 22, 1997. Its principal focus is on the supply of safety equipment rentals.

The Company's business is considered to have some seasonality, with peak levels generally in the first and fourth calendar year quarters.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

The financial statements are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Cash and cash equivalents

Included in cash and cash equivalents are bank overdrafts.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization. Equipment is amortized using the declining balance method over their estimated useful lives at the following rates:

Airplane	15%
Equipment rentals and airplane	15%
Trailers rentals	15%
Vehicles	15%

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate a potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a writedown to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of income tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and income tax bases of assets and liabilities, and measured using the substantively enacted income tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of property and equipment and recoverability of accounts receivable. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized over the equipment rental period and when collectibility is reasonably assured.

12 Financial instruments

Fair value

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, accrued management remuneration, callable debt and long-term debt, approximate their fair value due to the relatively short term to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of amounts due to (from) related parties and shareholder advances are not practicably determinable since they do not have any specified terms.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies which include the analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

During the period ended February 28, 2006, 35% (unaudited) (February 28, 2005 – 36% (unaudited); August 31, 2005 – 32%; August 31, 2004 – 22%; August 31, 2003 – 35%) of the Company's sales were to two customers. As at February 28, 2006, the Company had accounts receivable of 45% (August 31, 2005 –31%; 2004 – 41%) from two customers.

13 Income taxes

The income tax provision recorded differs from the income tax obtained by applying the statutory income tax rates to the earnings for the period and is reconciled as follows:

Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders of Neuwest Equipment Rentals Incorporated

We have audited the balance sheets of Neuwest Equipment Rentals Incorporated as at October 31, 2005 and 2004 and the statements of earnings (loss) and retained earnings (deficit) and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended October 31, 2005. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at October 31, 2005 and 2004 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended October 31, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of operations and basis of presentation

Neuwest Equipment Rentals Incorporated (the "Company") is incorporated under the laws of the Province of Nova Scotia. Its principal business activity is heavy equipment rentals.

These financial statements are prepared on the going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. The Company expects to continue normal operations with continued shareholder support, the company receiving future financing and the Company renting equipment to the related party as described in note 13. The outcome of these events is uncertain at this time. These financial statements do not include any adjustments to the amounts and classification of assets and liabilities that may be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. These adjustments may be material.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

These financial statements are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Cash and cash equivalent

Included in cash and cash equivalents are bank overdrafts.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized over the rental period and when collection is reasonably assured.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Amortization is provided using the declining balance method at rates intended to amortize the cost of assets over their estimated useful lives.

Containers	30%
Furniture	20%
Heavy rental equipment	30%
Rental equipment	20%
Vehicle equipment	30%

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate a potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a write-down to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities, and measured using the substantially enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of property and equipment, recoverability of accounts receivable and the going concern assumption. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

The two shareholders have placed personal guarantees to the amount of $1,136,250 (unaudited) (December 31, 2005 – $350,000; 2004 – $nil) each. The leases obligations security is provided by the related leased assets.

7 Shareholder advances

The amounts due to the shareholder are unsecured, interest free and repayable on demand.

8 Employee profit sharing plan

During 2005, the Company established a formal employee profit sharing plan, whereby accumulated undistributed profits of Neuwest Equipment Rentals Incorporated and companies owned by the shareholders may be distributed to a trust. For the fiscal year of 2005, there was a distribution of profits of $375,000 under this plan (2004 – $nil), which was then loaned back to the Company with no set repayment terms. In the first half of 2006, a payment of $nil was distributed under the plan.

Shareholders placed personal guarantees to the amount of $2,095,044 (2005 –$117,175), in order to obtain the equipment under the operating lease agreements with various vendors.

11 Financial instruments

Fair value

The carrying value of cash, accounts receivable, interest receivable and accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments. The fair value of shareholder advance and due to employee profit sharing plan is not practicably determinable since it does not have any specified terms. The fair value of long-term debt, capital lease obligations and deposit in trust approximates carrying value as the interest rates applicable to these loans approximate market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies, that include the analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

As at April 30, 2006, 92% (unaudited) (October 31, 2005 – 81%; October 31, 2004 – 73%) of the accounts receivable of the Company were from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of its capital leases and long-term debt, which bear fixed rates of interest.

12 Income taxes

The income tax provision recorded differs from the income tax obtained by applying the statutory income tax rate as follows:

	Three months ended April 30,		Six months ended April 30,		Years ended October 31,

13 Related party disclosure

The Company entered into a number of related party transactions with companies controlled by the shareholders or companies controlled by family members of the shareholders, which were a part of the normal course of operations. Such transactions included revenues of $nil for the interim period ending April 30, 2006 (unaudited) (years ending October 31, 2005 – $951,082; 2004 – $1,247,666; 2003 – $394,899). For the interim period of April 30, 2006 there were no related party revenues earned. See note 15 for further details.

The Company also entered into incurred consulting fees with a related party for the amount of $58,166 and $36,000 for the six month period ending April 30, 2006 and 2005 respectively (unaudited) (years ending October 31, 2005 – $96,000; 2004 – $186,291; 2003 – $nil).

As at October 31, 2005, outstanding accounts receivables from related parties amounted to $288,424 (2004 – $27,147). No amounts are outstanding at April 30, 2006.

All related party transactions have been recorded at the exchange amount.

14 Segmented information

In the opinion of management, the Company has only one business segment, which is the business of equipment rentals and sales in Canada.

15 Economic dependence

During the six-month period ended April 30, 2006, 94% (April 30, 2005 – 89%) (unaudited) (year ended October 31, 2005 – 86% (each customer at 46%, 21% and 19%); October 31, 2004 – 94% (each customer at 54%, 37% and 3%)) of the Company's sales were to three customers. For the year ended October 31, 2003 revenue from one customer totalled 93%. A portion of these sales were to related parties (note 13).

16 Subsequent events

Initial public offering

On _____, Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") filed a prospectus relating to the initial public offering of up to • million trust units for $10 per unit (the "Offering"). Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders of
Fitzpatrick Co. Ltd. and Northern Tractor Sales and Rental Co. Ltd.

We have audited the combined balance sheets of Northern Tractor Sales and Rental as at September 30, 2005 and 2004, and the combined statements of earnings and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended September 30, 2005. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these combined financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at September 30, 2005 and 2004, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended September 30, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of business

Fitzpatrick Co. Ltd. and Northern Tractor Sales & Rental Co. Ltd. (collectively the "Company" and "Northern Tractor Sales and Rental") are privately owned and were incorporated under the Business Corporations Act of the Province of Alberta. The Company provides heavy equipment rentals in northern Alberta and north eastern British Columbia. These financial statements are prepared on a combined basis as they are under common control and managed by a common owner. The combined balances are presented after elimination of intercompany transactions and balances.

These combined financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. The Company expects to continue normal operations with continued shareholder support and assuming the bank indebtedness not being demanded by the lender, the company receiving future financing. The lender demanding repayment may result in the Company selling property and equipment to settle the debt, which would alter current operations. The lender has not presently indicated any intention to demand repayment. The outcome of these events is uncertain at this time. These combined financial statements do not include any adjustments to the amounts and classification of assets and liabilities that may be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. These adjustments may be material.

The Company's business is considered to have some seasonality, with peak levels generally in the first and fourth calendar year quarters.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

The combined financial statements are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Inventory

Parts inventory is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined by the first-in first-out method.

Investments

Investments are portfolio investments recorded at cost, less any provisions for other than temporary impairment.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Amortization is provided using methods and rates intended to amortize the cost of the assets over their estimated useful lives.

Buildings	4-5%	declining balance
Automotive	30%	declining balance
Contractors moveable rental equipment	8 years	straight-line
Equipment	20%	declining balance
Fences	10%	declining balance
Furniture and fixtures	20%	declining balance
Leasehold improvements	5 years	straight-line

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate a potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a writedown to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities, and are measured using the substantively enacted tax rates and laws that will be effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of combined financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the combined financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of property and equipment and recoverability of accounts receivable. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Revenue recognition

Merchandise is rented to customers pursuant to rental agreements, which provide for weekly or monthly rental terms with non-refundable rental payments. The rental agreements may be terminated at any time by the customer without further obligation or cost upon return of the merchandise. Revenue from rental agreements is recognized over the rental period as services are provided.

12 Financial instruments

Fair value

The carrying value of cash, accounts receivable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management remuneration approximate their fair value due to the relatively short term to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of the shareholder advances is not practicably determinable.

The fair value of long-term debt and capital lease obligations approximates carrying values as the interest rates approximate market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies which include an analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

During the six-months ended March 31, 2006 23% (unaudited) (March 31, 2005 – 15% (unaudited)); and the year ended September 30 2005 23%, (September 30, 2004 – 38%) of the Company's sales were to three customers. As at March 31, 2006 48% (unaudited) (September 30, 2005 – 33%; 2004 – 38%) of the accounts receivable of the Company were from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of the long-term debt which bears fixed and floating rates of interest.

13 Contingency

The Company has been named as defendant in a lawsuit on behalf of a former employee seeking to recover damages allegedly sustained as a result of a dispute over the employment contract. This lawsuit remains at an early stage, and as litigation is subject to many uncertainties, it is not possible to predict the ultimate outcome of this lawsuit or to estimate the loss, if any, which may result. In the opinion of management, based on the advice and information provided by its legal counsel, final determination of these other litigations will not materially affect the Company's financial position or results of operations.

14 Segmented information

In the opinion of management, the Company has only one business segment, which is the business of heavy equipment rentals and sales.

15 Subsequent event

Initial public offering

On _____, Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") filed a prospectus relating to the initial public offering of up to • million trust units for $10 per unit (the "Offering"). Costs of the Offering are estimated to be $2.7 million and fees payable to the agents are estimated to be $ •, resulting in net proceeds of $ • million.

The Trust, through a subsidiary, will acquire 100% of the shares of the Company and all outstanding shareholder loans for $9,498,995 and 1,424,858 Trust units at a deemed price of $10 per unit. The cash payment will be adjusted post-closing for changes in working capital, long-term debt and shareholder loans to the date of closing.

SCHEDULE "C"
RECONCILIATION OF NET EARNINGS TO EBITDA AND ADJUSTED EBITDA

Management believes that EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are useful measures in evaluating the performance of the Acquired Companies and/or the Trust and in determining whether to invest in the Trust Units. However, EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are not recognized earnings measures under GAAP and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. Therefore, EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA may not be comparable to similarly titled measures presented by other issuers.

Investors are cautioned that EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA should not be construed as an alternative to net income or loss determined in accordance with GAAP as indicators of the Acquired Companies' or the Trust's performance or cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities as measures of liquidity and cash flows. The Acquired Companies define and have computed EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA as described under "Non-GAAP Measures". The following tables reconcile EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA to net earnings (loss) for each of the Acquired Companies based on the historical financial information of the Acquired Companies. The historical financial information used for this purpose was, in respect of D&D Well Services, Murtron Hauling and Neuwest Equipment Rentals, the audited combined income statements for the twelve-month periods ended December 31, 2005, October 31, 2005, October 31, 2005, respectively, and in respect of Wales Contractors, Roy Larson Construction, Gordon Bros. Construction, R Bee Crushing, S.O.S. Oilfield Safety and Northern Tractor the unaudited income statements for the twelve-month periods ended November 30, 2005, November 30, 2005, December 31, 2005, October 31, 2005, November 30, 2005 and December 31, 2005, respectively, constructed for the purpose of preparing the unaudited Pro-forma Consolidated Statement of Income of the Trust for the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2005. Initial Public Offering

August 28, 2006

$140,000,000

14,000,000 Trust Units

This prospectus qualifies the distribution of 14,000,000 trust units (the "Trust Units") of Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust"). The Trust is an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose mutual fund trust established under and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta.

The Trust intends to make monthly distributions of its available cash to holders of Units ("Unitholders"). The initial cash distribution, which will be for the period from Closing to October 31, 2006, is expected to be paid on November 15, 2006 to Unitholders of record on October 31, 2006, and is estimated to be approximately $4,995,267 in the aggregate, representing $0.17667 per Unit. As results of operations may vary, the distribution of cash is not assured. See "Summary of Distributable Cash".

The price of the Trust Units has been determined by negotiation between the Trust, Petrowest Energy Services General Partner Ltd. (the "General Partner") and Westwind Partners Inc. and Sprott Securities Inc. (together, the "Lead Underwriters"), Lightyear Capital Inc., Blackmont Capital Inc. and Dundee Securities Corporation (collectively with the Lead Underwriters, the "Underwriters"). Westwind Partners Inc., Westwind Partners (UK) Limited and Sprott Securities Inc. are financial advisors to Petrowest.

The Toronto Stock Exchange (the "TSX") has conditionally approved the listing of the Trust Units on the TSX. Listing is subject to the Trust fulfilling all of the listing requirements of the TSX on or before November 14, 2006.

Price: $10.00 per Trust Unit

	Price to the Public	Underwriters' Fee	Net Proceeds to the Trust[1]
Per Trust Unit	$10.00	$0.60	$9.40
Total Offering	$140,000,000	$8,400,000	$131,600,000

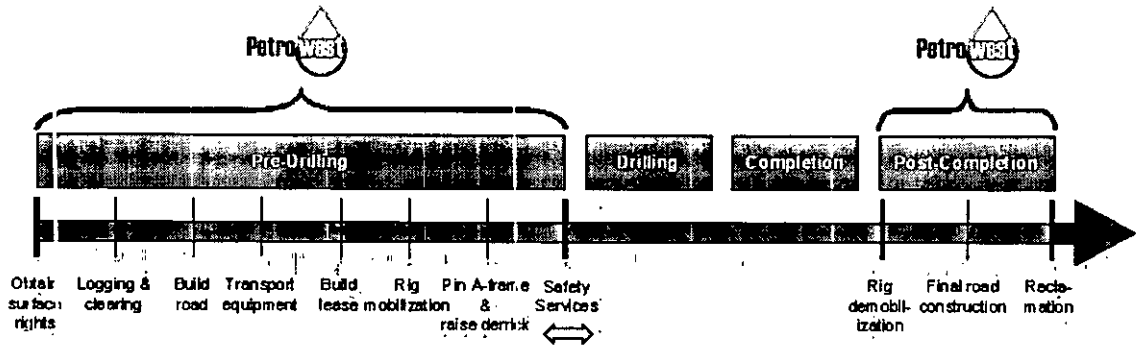
Notes:

(1) After deducting the Underwriters' fee but before deducting the estimated expenses of this offering of $2 million, which expenses, together with the Underwriters' fee, will be paid from the proceeds of this offering.

(2) The Trust has granted to the Underwriters an option (the "Over-Allotment Option") to purchase up to an additional 1,400,000 Trust Units on the same terms as set forth above, exercisable in whole or in part from time to time for a period of 30 days following the date of closing solely to cover over-allotments, if any. This prospectus also qualifies the distribution of these additional Trust Units. If the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full, the price to the public, Underwriters' fee and net proceeds to the Trust (before deducting the expenses of this offering) will be $154,000,000, $9,240,000 and $144,760,000, respectively. See "Plan of Distribution".

The Trust does not currently carry on any active business. Closing of this offering is conditional upon the satisfaction of the Acquisition Condition (as herein defined). An investment in these securities should be considered speculative due to the nature of Petrowest's (as herein defined) business and its present stage of development and is subject to a number of risks. There is currently no market through which the Trust Units may be sold and purchasers may not be able to resell the Trust Units purchased under this prospectus. An investment in Trust Units should only be made by persons who can afford a significant or total loss of their investment. See "Risk Factors".

The Underwriters, as principals, conditionally offer the Trust Units, subject to prior sale, if, as and when issued by the Trust and accepted by the Underwriters in accordance with the conditions contained in the Underwriting Agreement referred to under "Plan of Distribution" and subject to the approval of certain legal matters on behalf of the Trust and its subsidiaries by Bennett Jones LLP and on behalf of the Underwriters by Stikeman Elliott LLP. Subscriptions for Trust Units will be received subject to rejection or allotment in whole or in part and the right is reserved to close the subscription books at any time without notice. One or more certificates representing the Trust Units issued pursuant to this offering will be issued in registered form to The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited ("CDS") or its nominee and will be deposited with CDS on the date of the Closing, which is expected to occur on or about September 7, 2006, but in any event not later than October 6, 2006. A purchaser of Trust Units will receive only a customer confirmation from a registered dealer that is a CDS participant from or through which Trust Units are purchased.



Although the Trust intends to make distributions of its available cash to Unitholders, these cash distributions are not assured. The actual amount distributed will depend on numerous factors including the Trust's and its subsidiaries' financial performance, debt covenants and obligations, working capital requirements and future capital requirements. The market value of the Trust Units may deteriorate if the Trust is unable to meet its cash distribution targets in the future, and that deterioration may be material. The Trust does not have a stability rating. See "Risk Factors".

The after-tax return to Unitholders subject to Canadian federal income tax from an investment in Trust Units will depend, in part, on the composition for tax purposes of distributions paid by the Trust, portions of which may be fully taxable or constitute non-taxable returns of capital, which are not included in a Unitholder's income but which reduce the adjusted cost base of the Trust Units to the Unitholder. The composition for tax purposes of those distributions may change over time, thus affecting the after-tax return to Unitholders. The estimated portion of a subscriber's investment that initially will be taxed as a return on capital is 85% and the estimated portion that initially will be taxed as a return of capital is 15%. Returns on capital are generally taxed as ordinary income or as dividends in the hands of a Unitholder resident in Canada. Returns of capital are generally non-taxable to a Unitholder resident in Canada (but reduce the holder's adjusted cost base of the Trust Units for tax purposes). See "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations" and "Description of the Trust — Cash Distributions".

The Trust Units are not "deposits" within the meaning of the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation Act (Canada) and are not insured under the provisions of that Act or any other legislation. Furthermore, the Trust is not a trust company and, accordingly, it is not registered under any trust and loan company legislation and it does not carry on or intend to carry on the business of a trust company.

PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

The following is a summary of the principal features of this offering and should be read together with the more detailed information and financial data and statements contained elsewhere in this prospectus. Please refer to the Glossary for an explanation of certain terms used in this prospectus and in this summary.

On Closing of this offering, the Trust will be a business trust operating an energy services business through its indirect subsidiaries. Unitholders will hold Units of the Trust, which in turn will hold a 100% beneficial interest in the Petrowest Business Trust. The Petrowest Business Trust will, via the four Partnerships (corresponding with four business divisions), hold the assets of the businesses historically operated by the Acquired Companies. See "The Trust and its Subsidiaries".

Business of Petrowest

Petrowest will be a diversified oilfield services trust that will provide pre-drilling and post-completion services to the northern region of the WCSB. Petrowest will service the region via its head and operational office in Grande Prairie, Alberta and nine full-service locations throughout northern Alberta and British Columbia, each with a staging area, shop area, and sales and service personnel. Petrowest's corporate office will be in Calgary, Alberta.

Petrowest will acquire the Acquired Companies, which are all established, private Grande Prairie-based pre-drilling and post-completion service providers. The nine Acquired Companies are complementary to one another and will have the ability to provide clients with a full-range of services, cost competitive pricing, the capability to service large-scale contracts, and a modern and well-maintained equipment fleet. Petrowest intends to expand and improve on the aforementioned benefits as it executes its growth strategy of further integration, organic expansion, and complementary acquisitions.

Petrowest's business will be operated in four divisions corresponding to the four Partnerships as follows:

- Road and Lease Construction Division – will provide oilfield well site lease preparation, road construction, earth moving, reclamation, commercial projects and other lease construction services. The Road and Lease Construction Division will have four camps and approximately 90 pieces of major equipment (average age: four years) and 130 full-time employees (average industry experience: nine years);
- Transportation and Hauling Division – will provide general oilfield hauling, rig mobilization and demobilization, equipment transportation, log loading and hauling, gravel hauling, pipe hauling and other transportation services. The Transportation and Hauling Division will have approximately 80 pieces of major equipment (average age: five years) and 100 full-time employees (average industry experience: 10 years);
- Civil Services Division – will provide general rock and gravel crushing and oilfield safety services and rentals. The Civil Services Division will have approximately 120 pieces of major equipment (average age: five years) and 80 full-time employees (average industry experience: eight years); and

- Heavy Equipment Rentals Division – will provide oilfield and construction heavy equipment rentals. The Heavy Equipment Rentals Division will have approximately 60 pieces of major equipment (average age: three years) and 10 full-time employees (average industry experience: 15 years).

See "Business of Petrowest" and "Divisional Structure".

The following table illustrates selected historical financial performance of the Acquired Companies, organized by Petrowest's operating divisions, for the periods indicated.

Operational Strengths

Petrowest intends to become the leader in pre-drilling and post-completion services to the northern region of the WCSB. Petrowest intends to achieve this by capitalizing on the operational strengths of the Acquired Companies, which combined provide the following advantages:

- Ability to Provide a "One-Stop-Shop" Service Approach – As a result of the broad spectrum of energy services businesses which will comprise Petrowest, oil and gas clients will have access to a full range of pre-drilling and post-completion services. Industry trends suggest that oil and gas companies prefer to utilize a services company that can provide a full range of services as opposed to procuring the same services from a host of sources. Benefits to the client include reduced overhead costs, a reduction in invoicing and accounting procedures, reduced wait times for services and increased efficiency in procuring pre-drilling and post-completion services. This model allows clients to meet the shorter time frames demanded by an environment where it is becoming increasingly difficult to engage services in a timely manner due to the general robustness of the energy sector coupled with labour challenges.

- Intra-Company Synergies – Each operating division within Petrowest will possess the ability to provide services to other divisions to facilitate its customers' specific pre-drilling and post-completion needs. Petrowest's clients will benefit from Petrowest's cross-company utilization strategies that otherwise would be absent. For example, the Civil Services Division can take advantage of the Transportation and Hauling Division's ability to provide hauling needs resulting in increased utilization rates due to reduced down time.

- Ability to Service Large Scale Contracts – Petrowest's combined divisions will be positioned to take advantage of larger contract jobs as a result of its increased capacity to provide a full range of pre-drilling and post-completion services at competitive rates and in geographic areas that are comparatively difficult to access for smaller service companies. In northern Alberta and British Columbia, where well site lease-building costs are much greater than at conventional locations with relatively easy year-round access, this advantage will become increasingly strategic.

- Competitive Pricing – Petrowest intends to provide its customers with high-quality services using competitive pricing in an environment where costs are becoming increasingly high. By offering clients a full range of pre-drilling and post-completion services, Petrowest will have the ability to meet customer price points with greater flexibility and customer satisfaction.

- Quality Equipment Fleet – With the acquisition of a fleet of equipment with an average age of approximately 4.5 years and an increased access to growth capital, Petrowest will utilize an equipment fleet that is new and well-maintained. This will result in greater safety standards and reduced down times due to equipment breakdowns. As a result, clients will benefit from greater reliability in the performance of Petrowest's full range of pre-drilling and post-completion services.

- People – The key operating and technical people that comprise the four divisions within Petrowest will represent a valuable and important component of Petrowest's operational strengths. Given the current labour shortages in western Canada combined with senior management attrition in the energy services industry generally, it is important to understand that the key managers of the Acquired Companies have been in place with the Acquired Companies for an average of 17 years. Additionally, the respective middle management and employees of the Acquired Companies are dedicated to their businesses and have proven their commitment and loyalty by their long-term employment tenures. Petrowest's human resource assets will be key in its overall profitability and customer satisfaction, both near and long term.

See "Business of Petrowest - Operational Strengths".

Strategy for Growth

Petrowest's strategy will be to develop a long-term business which delivers sustainable and increasing per Unit distributions by growing its Road and Lease Construction, Transportation and Hauling, Civil Services and Heavy Equipment Rentals divisions. Petrowest will achieve this by integrating the businesses conducted by the Acquired Companies and establishing Petrowest as the recognized pre-drilling and post-completion service provider to the northern region of the WCSB. Petrowest will consider expanding the number of businesses within the divisions and adding other businesses and divisions if acquisition candidates meet Petrowest's acquisition criteria. See "Strategy – Acquisitions."

Petrowest anticipates acquiring approximately $32 million of new equipment over the next twelve months. This expenditure will be funded by operating leases and $8.3 million of working capital. These expenditures will add equipment to each of Petrowest's divisions to allow for future growth. This equipment has been ordered and management anticipates that the majority of this equipment will be utilized by Petrowest later in the third quarter of 2006.

Petrowest intends to integrate the businesses conducted by the Acquired Companies and future acquisitions within the divisions. Petrowest intends to capitalize on the track records of the Acquired Companies with respect to commitment to customer service, operational efficiency, health and safety and financial return.

Petrowest will operate in the northern region of the WCSB, principally from Grande Prairie, Alberta. At the present time, Petrowest does not intend to expand operations into eastern Canada, the United States or internationally.

See "Business of Petrowest - Strategy".

Investment Opportunity

Petrowest intends to sustain and increase its cash flow and distributions through both organic growth and acquisitions of other energy services businesses that have similar characteristics to the Acquired Companies.

Management expects Petrowest to have the following notable attributes:

- ownership of established businesses that provide the full-range of pre-drilling and post-completion services to the northern region of the WCSB;
- alignment of management and Unitholder interests through the subordination of management's equity interest and structured escrow terms on the Units acquired by the founding Unitholders as well as structured escrow terms on the Trust Units acquired by the shareholders of each of the Acquired Companies. See "Escrowed and Subordinated Securities";
- strong balance sheet with financial flexibility to balance between internal growth and payout of distributions to investors;
- high historic profitability of the Acquired Companies with average Adjusted EBITDA margins over 30%;
- an initial monthly distribution of $0.10 per Unit. See "Summary of Distributable Cash";
- well positioned to capitalize on robust industry activity levels and future northern development opportunities through internal growth and acquisition opportunities;
- modern and well-maintained major equipment with an average age of approximately 4.5 years, providing a solid, cost-effective foundation from which growth can occur;
- focused and experienced executive management team and board of directors;

- focused growth strategy through a combination of internal, organic growth coupled with strategic accretive acquisitions; and

- tax effective trust structure which will facilitate access to capital that can be used for investments in equipment and strategic acquisitions.

See "Business of Petrowest - Investment Opportunity".

Selected Pro Forma Financial Information

The following table presents a summary of the unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet of the Trust as at May 31, 2006, the unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income of the Trust for the period ended December 31, 2005 and for the three months ended May 31, 2006. The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet was prepared as if the Concurrent Acquisitions were completed by way of the payment of $103,284,052 in cash and the issuance of 12,765,094 Units, the subscription for 1,510,000 Subordinated Units was completed for proceeds of $4,530,000 ($1,510,000 in cash and $3,020,000 in notes receivable) and 14,000,000 Trust Units were issued pursuant to this offering on May 31, 2006. The unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income for the period ended December 31, 2005 and the three month period ended May 31, 2006 were prepared as if such transactions had occurred on January 1, 2005.

The unaudited pro forma information should be read together with the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements and related notes of the Trust included in Schedule "B" of this prospectus.

Acquisition Agreements

Acquisitionco has entered into the Purchase and Sale Agreements providing for the purchase by Acquisitionco of the Acquired Companies for an aggregate base purchase price of $230,934,992, subject to post-closing adjustments. This represents a value of approximately five times the sum of aggregate EBITDA plus management bonuses and non-recurring items for the twelve months ended December 31, 2005 of the Acquired Companies, plus an estimate of adjustments for working capital ($15.7 million), plus amounts paid for equipment after December 31, 2005 ($6.7 million), less an estimate of long-term debt ($23.5 million). Management's estimate of the sum of EBITDA plus management bonuses and non-recurring items of the Acquired Companies was based on financial statements reviewed by the Acquired Companies' independent accountants for the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2005. In respect of Neuwest, the adjustments for non-recurring items included adjustments that were considered reasonable by management to reflect that relative to the other Acquired Companies Neuwest had a shorter operating history and that its future financial performance would substantially improve. The shareholders of Neuwest are Mr. Kenneth N. Drysdale and Mr. Gary Sweetman, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer of the General Partner, respectively. See "Heavy Equipment Rentals Division – Neuwest Equipment". The aggregate base purchase price will be paid by $103,284,052 in cash and the issuance by the Trust of an aggregate of 12,765,094 Trust Units. Post-closing an audit of the working capital, shareholder loans and long term debt of each of the Acquired Companies as at the date of closing of the acquisition of the Acquired Companies will be performed. Subject to certain conditions, the results of this audit will be used to determine whether a positive or negative cash adjustment will be made to the aggregate base purchase price of the Acquired Companies. Petrowest will also retire term and capital lease debt associated with the Acquired Companies.

The Purchase and Sale Agreements contain representations and warranties in favour of Acquisitionco including representations and warranties respecting the Acquired Companies' corporate status, financial status, employees, assets, real property and the absence of environmental claims. Subject to certain limited exceptions, all representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Purchase and Sale Agreements on the part of each of the parties will survive the closing of the acquisition of the Acquired Companies, the execution and delivery under the Purchase and Sale Agreements of any share or security transfer instruments or other documents of title to any of the shares and the payment of the consideration for the shares.

In addition, it is a condition of the Purchase and Sale Agreements that 13 key personnel of the Acquired Companies shall have executed and delivered management employment agreements with the General Partner prior to closing. See "Acquisition of the Acquired Companies – Management Contracts."

Purchasers of Trust Units pursuant to this offering may not have a direct statutory right of action against each vendor of the shares of the Acquired Companies for a misrepresentation in this prospectus in respect of the Acquired Companies. Purchasers are advised to review the terms of the Purchase and Sale Agreements for a complete description of the representations, warranties and indemnities and related liabilities of the vendors of the shares of the Acquired Companies. Copies of the Purchase and Sale Agreements may be inspected at Petrowest's corporate office in Calgary during normal business hours during the period of distribution of the Trust Units.

Summary of Distributable Cash

Management has prepared the following summary of distributable cash generated by the Acquired Companies on the basis of information contained in this prospectus, and management's estimate of the amount of expenses that would have been incurred by the Acquired Companies and Petrowest had Petrowest been in existence for the three months ended May 31, 2006 and for the twelve-months ended December 31, 2005. The analysis is neither a forecast nor a projection of future results. The actual results of operations of Petrowest for any period, whether before or after the Closing, will vary from the amounts set forth in the following analysis and such variation may be material. Additionally, management believes the operations of Petrowest are subject to risks, and in reviewing the following summary of distributable cash, investors should review and consider the risks described under the heading "Risk Factors".

Management views distributable cash as an operating performance measure, as it is a measure generally used by Canadian income funds as an indicator of financial performance. As the Trust will distribute substantially all of its cash on an ongoing basis (after providing for certain amounts described below) and since EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA (as respectively defined in "Non-GAAP Measures") are metrics used by many investors to compare issuers on the basis of their ability to generate cash from operations, management believes that, in addition to net earnings, EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are useful supplemental measures from which to make adjustments to determine distributable cash. The estimate of distributable cash has been prepared using assumptions which management believes are reasonable and supportable, all of which reflect the Partnerships planned course of action given management's judgement about the most probable set of economic conditions.

Management believes that, upon completion of this offering and the Concurrent Acquisitions, Petrowest will incur lease expenses, management salaries, maintenance capital expenditures, general and administrative costs, and other expenses that will differ from those contained in the historical financial statements of each of the Acquired Companies that are included elsewhere in this prospectus. Although management does not have firm commitments for all of the aforementioned items and, accordingly, the complete financial effects of all of those items are not objectively determinable, management believes that the following represents a reasonable estimate of the distributable cash of the Trust that could have been available for distribution for the three months ended May 31, 2006 and for the twelve-months ended December 31, 2005 had the Trust been in existence during such time and had the Concurrent Acquisitions taken place at the beginning of such periods.

Summary of Distributable Cash

(in thousands of dollars, except cash holdback % and per Unit amounts)	Three Months Ended May 31, 2006	Twelve-Months Ended December 31, 2005
Adjusted EBITDA[1][2]	$ 15,430	$ 42,739
Management believes that cash available for distribution should be reduced by the following:
Incremental executive, board and public company costs[3]	$ 306	$ 1,223
Maintenance capital expenditures[4]	$ 825	$ 3,300
Interest expense[5]	$ 75	$ 300
Management believes that cash available for distribution should be increased by the following:
Adjustment for costs associated with non-recurring items, insurance, and office and administration consolidation[3]	$ 283	$ 1,132
Cash available for distribution	$ 14,507	$ 39,048
Cash holdback[6]	$ 6,024	$ 5,118
Cash holdback %	42%	13%
Distributable cash[7]	$ 8,483	$ 33,930
Estimated distributable cash per Unit[8]	$ 0.30	$ 1.20

Notes:

(1) Represents the pro forma consolidated Adjusted EBITDA of the Trust for the three months ended May 31, 2006 and the twelve months ended December 31, 2005 calculated as the sum of earnings (loss) of $7,256,243 and $10,346,723, income taxes of $nil and $nil, other interest of $40,149 and $103,247 and amortization of $8,173,777 and $32,374,714 less interest and other revenue of $40,336 and $85,684, respectively. See "Selected Pro Forma Consolidated Financial Information" and the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements and related notes of the Trust included in Schedule "B" of this prospectus.

(2) Adjusted EBITDA is not a recognized measure under GAAP, does not have a standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP and may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other issuers. See "Non-GAAP Measures" and Schedule "C" - "Reconciliation of Net Earnings to EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA". As the Trust intends to distribute substantially all of its cash available for distribution (after satisfaction of administrative expenses and other amounts as may be considered appropriate by the Board of Directors) on an on-going basis, management believes that Adjusted EBITDA is an important measure in evaluating the Trust's performance and in determining whether to invest in the Trust.

(3) Management estimates that, subsequent to this offering, Petrowest will incur additional costs on an ongoing basis in connection with ongoing public disclosure requirements, investor relations, additional employee compensation, trustee and director fees, and other related matters. Also, management anticipates that Petrowest will realize savings associated with general and administrative costs on an ongoing basis in connection with insurance, office administration and supplies and non-recurring items. These estimates are based on quotes provided by service providers, preliminary contractual arrangements, expenses in similar offering transactions and comparisons with historical expenses.

(4) Represents management's estimate of annual maintenance capital expenditures, including expenditures required to maintain the base fleet of equipment, inventory of equipment, equipment certification costs, leasehold and office improvements, and tools. Estimates are based on historical expenditures, consistent with management's plans for funding capital expenditures on an ongoing basis. See "Acquisition of the Acquired Companies".

(5) Represents estimated interest expense on proposed credit facilities that management intends to secure concurrent with the Closing. Management anticipates a credit facility will be in the form of a revolving line of credit. Management estimates that the facility will be utilized to fund seasonal working capital requirements. On an annualized basis, management estimates that Petrowest will, on average, carry a balance of $5 million with an average interest rate of 6%.

(6) Management initially intends to reserve approximately 55% - 65% of cash available for actual distribution.

(7) Distributable cash is not a recognized measure under GAAP and is typically used by Canadian income funds as an indicator of financial performance. The method of calculating the Trust's distributable cash may differ from similar computations as reported by other issuers and, accordingly, the distributable cash of the Trust may not be comparable to distributable cash as reported by other issuers. See "Non-GAAP Measures".

(8) Based on 28,275,094 Units outstanding upon Closing.

The Offering

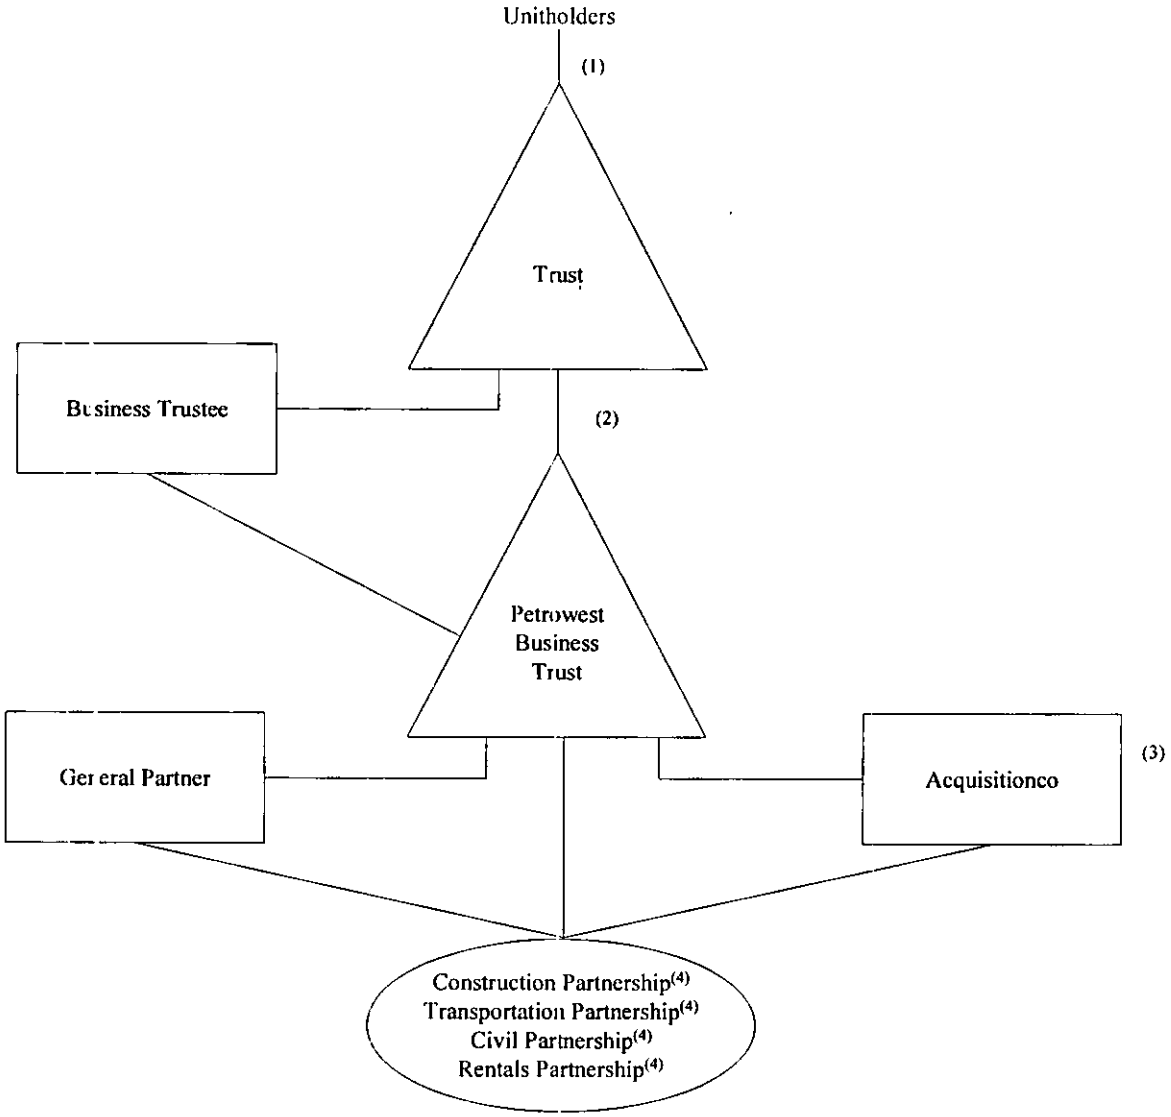
Offering:	14,000,000 Trust Units of the Trust.
Over-Allotment Option:	The Trust has granted to the Underwriters the Over-Allotment Option to purchase up to an additional 1,400,000 Trust Units. See "Plan of Distribution".
Amount:	$140 million ($154 million if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full).
Price:	$10.00 per Trust Unit.
Closing:	The Closing of this offering is anticipated to occur on or about September 7, 2006, and in any event not later than October 6.
Units:	An unlimited number of Trust Units and Subordinated Units may be issued pursuant to the Deed of Trust. In certain circumstances Subordinated Units are subordinate to Trust Units in respect of distributions of the Trust. The Subordinated Units will automatically convert into Trust Units on a one-for-one basis at (and the subordination provisions will only apply until) the end of the first fiscal year ending on or after December 31, 2008 where the Trust satisfies its EBITDA Target and Distribution Target for such fiscal year. Each Unit represents an equal undivided beneficial interest in the Trust and, subject to the subordination of the Subordinated Units, any distributions from the Trust. Each Trust Unit is transferable and entitles the registered holder thereof to an equal participation in distributions of the Trust, rights of redemption and one vote at all meetings of Unitholders. See "Description of the Trust".
Use of Proceeds:	The aggregate gross proceeds of this offering will be $140 million ($154 million if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full). The estimated net proceeds of this offering, after deducting $8.4 million representing fees payable to the Underwriters ($9.24 million if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full) and the estimated expenses of this offering of $2.0 million, will be $129.6 million ($142.76 million if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full). The Trust will use the net proceeds to subscribe for Business Notes and Business Units. Petrowest Business Trust is anticipated to use the offering proceeds as follows: approximately $103.3 to pay the cash portion of the base purchase price for the Acquired Companies, $8.3 million for growth capital, $7.1 million to retire certain long-term debt of the Acquired Companies and $10.9 million for working capital ($103.3, $8.3, $7.1 and $24.06 million, respectively, if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full). See "Use of Proceeds" and "Acquisition of the Acquired Companies".
Distribution Policy of the Trust:	The Trust expects to make monthly distributions of its available cash to Unitholders which are expected to be paid on or about the 15th day following the end of each month. These distributions will represent all cash received from the Trust's indirect interest in the Partnerships, less cash amounts required for expenses and other obligations of the Trust, cash redemptions of Units, any tax liability, reserves determined by the General Partner and certain other amounts. The Trust expects to make its initial cash distribution for the period from Closing to October 31, 2006 on November 15, 2006 to Unitholders of record on October 31, 2006 in the estimated aggregate amount of approximately $4,995,267, representing $0.17667 per Unit. See "Summary of Distributable Cash".

	Cash distributions are not guaranteed and Distributable Cash will fluctuate with, among other things, Petrowest's performance. See "Risk Factors - Risks Related to the Business".
Eligibility for Investment:	In the opinion of Bennett Jones LLP, counsel to the Trust, and Stikeman Elliott LLP, counsel to the Underwriters, based upon the assumptions set out under "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations" and certificates as to factual matters given by the Trust, the Trust Units, on Closing, will be qualified investments under the Tax Act for trusts governed by Plans.
Risk Factors:	An investment in these securities should be considered speculative due to the nature of Petrowest's business and its present stage of development. There are additional risks associated with an investment in these securities relating to: absence of any current business; absence of operating history; failure to acquire all of the Acquired Companies; failure to realize anticipated benefits of the Concurrent Acquisitions and/or future acquisitions; volatility of industry conditions; seasonality; capital expenditures; alternatives to and changing demand for petroleum products; sources, pricing and availability of equipment and equipment parts; government regulation; Kyoto Protocol; operating risks and insurance; agreements and contracts; personnel; competition; credit risk; conflicts of interest; foreign exchange and interest rates; disclosure and internal controls; investment eligibility; mutual fund trust status; redemption of Units; nature of Units; Unitholder limited liability; restrictions on non-resident ownership; dependence on operating entities; return of capital; changes in legislation; delay in cash distributions; additional financing; absence of prior market; income tax matters; and statutory remedies. In assessing the risks of an investment in the Units, subscribers must rely upon the ability and integrity of the management of Petrowest. Subscribers should consult their own professional advisors to assess the income tax, legal and other aspects of an investment in the Units. See "Risk Factors".

Petrowest Energy Services Trust and its Subsidiaries

The Trust is an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose mutual fund trust established under and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to the Deed of Trust that was created on July 6, 2006. The registered office of the Trust is 4500 855- 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta and the head office of the Trust is located at Suite 204, 10605 Westside Drive, Grande Prairie, Alberta. The Trust was established to hold Business Notes and a 100% beneficial interest in the Petrowest Business Trust. The trustee of the Trust is the Trustee. The General Partner will be responsible for overseeing and managing the Trust and Petrowest Business Trust. The General Partner is a corporation that was incorporated under the ABCA on July 6, 2006, all of the outstanding shares of which will be held by the Petrowest Business Trust.

When established, the Petrowest Business Trust will be an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose mutual fund trust established under and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to the Business Deed of Trust. The trustee of the Business Trust will be Business Trustee, a corporation incorporated under the ABCA, al of the outstanding shares of which will be held by the Trust.



The Petrowest Business Trust, directly and indirectly, will hold a 100% interest in the Construction Partnership, the Transportation Partnership, the Civil Partnership and the Rentals Partnership (collectively, the "Partnerships") through which Petrowest's Road and Lease Construction Division, Transportation and Hauling Division, Civil Services Division and Heavy Equipment Rentals Division, respectively, will operate upon completion of the Concurrent Acquisitions and the Reorganization. Each of the Partnerships is a limited partnership formed under the laws of Alberta. The general partner of the Partnerships is the General Partner and the limited partners of the partnerships will be the Petrowest Business Trust and Acquisitionco.

Acquisitionco is a corporation, all of the common shares of which will be held by the Petrowest Business Trust. Acquisitionco has entered into the Share Purchase Agreements pursuant to which Acquisitionco has the right, subject to certain conditions, to acquire all of the outstanding shares of the Acquired Companies, each of which is involved in the energy services business. Concurrent with the Closing of this offering, Acquisitionco will acquire all of the outstanding shares of each of the Acquired Companies following which each of the Acquired Companies will be amalgamated with Acquisitionco. Acquisitionco will then transfer the businesses historically operated by the Acquired Companies, including all of their assets, undertaking, intellectual property and liabilities, into the Partnerships.

The General Partner and Acquisitionco have not carried on any business prior to the date hereof and do not hold any material assets other than the right of Acquisitionco to acquire the Acquired Companies pursuant to the Purchase and Sale Agreements. All of the outstanding shares of the General Partner and Acquisitionco are currently held by the Trust. Prior to Closing, all of the outstanding shares of the General Partner and Acquisitionco will be transferred to the Business Trust.

See "The Trust and its Subsidiaries".

Following completion of this offering, the Concurrent Acquisitions and the Reorganization, Petrowest's business will operate as follows:

Notes:

(1) Unitholders hold Trust Units and Subordinated Units of the Trust. Immediately following the Closing of this offering and the Concurrent Acquisitions, the shareholders of the Acquired Companies will hold 45.15%, the subscribers under this offering will hold 49.51% and the holders of Subordinated Units will hold 5.34%, of the outstanding Units, respectively.

(2) The Trust will hold the Business Notes and a 100% beneficial interest in the Petrowest Business Trust.

(3) Acquisitionco will amalgamate with the Acquired Companies immediately following the completion of the Concurrent Acquisitions.

(4) Pursuant to the Reorganization, the Partnerships will acquire the businesses historically carried on by the Acquired Companies.

NON-GAAP MEASURES

Throughout this prospectus, the Trust uses the term "Distributable Cash" to refer to the amount of cash that is expected to be available for distributions to Unitholders; the term "EBITDA" to refer to earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization; the term "Adjusted EBITDA" to refer to EBITDA before management bonuses; the term "Adjusted EBITDA Margin" to refer to a fraction, the numerator of which is Adjusted EBITDA and the denominator of which is revenue; and the term "Earning percentage" to refer to a fraction, the numerator of which is Net Earnings for the period and the denominator of which is revenue. The terms Distributable Cash, EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA Margin and Earnings percentage are not measures recognized by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. Distributable Cash is an amount calculated in accordance with the terms of the Deed of Trust. Distributable Cash, EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA Margin and Earnings percentage may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other issuers, and investors are cautioned that Distributable Cash, EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA Margin and Earnings percentage should not be considered as alternatives to net earnings, cash flow from operating activities or other measures of financial performance calculated in accordance with GAAP. See also "Management's Discussion and Analysis – Reconciliation of Net Earnings to EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis – Reconciliation of EBITDA to Cash Flow from Operations" and Schedule "C" - "Reconciliation of Net Earnings to EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA".

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements contained in this prospectus constitute forward-looking statements. When used in this document, the words "may", "would", "could", "will", "intend", "plan", "anticipate", "believe", "seek", "propose", "estimate", "expect" and similar expressions, as they relate to the Trust, the Partnerships, the Petrowest Business Trust and other subsidiaries, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect Petrowest's current views with respect to future events and are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions, including, without limitation, those described in this prospectus under the heading "Risk Factors", "Business of Petrowest" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis". Many factors could cause the Trust's actual results, performance or achievements to vary from those described in this prospectus. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should assumptions underlying forward-looking statements prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those described in this prospectus as intended, planned, anticipated, believed, estimated or expected. Neither the Trust nor the Underwriters intend, and do not assume any obligation, to update these forward-looking statements, except as required by law. These forward-looking statements are made as of the date of this prospectus and are expressly qualified in their entirety by these cautionary statements.

With respect to forward-looking statements contained in this prospectus, the Trust has made assumptions regarding, among other things:

- the Trust's ability to market successfully to current and new customers;
- the Trust's ability to obtain equipment from suppliers;
- the impact of increasing competition; and
- the Trust's ability to obtain additional financing on satisfactory terms.

In particular, this prospectus contains forward-looking statements pertaining to the following:

- completion of the acquisition of each of the Acquired Companies;
- anticipated benefits to be realized from the Acquired Companies;
- the timing and amount of the payment of the initial and subsequent distributions of the Trust;

- capital expenditure programs;
- projections of market prices and costs;
- supply and demand for energy services;
- expectations regarding the Trust's ability to raise capital;
- amounts to be retained for capital expenditures;
- treatment under governmental regulatory regimes; and
- commodity prices.

The Trust's actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of the risk factors set forth below and elsewhere in this prospectus:

- general economic conditions in Canada;
- the demand for energy services during drilling and completion of oil and gas wells;
- volatility in market prices for oil and natural gas and the effect of this volatility on the demand for energy services generally;
- regional competition;
- liabilities and risks, including environmental liabilities and risks, inherent in oil and gas operations;
- sourcing, pricing and availability of raw materials, component parts, equipment, suppliers, facilities, and skilled personnel;
- the ability to integrate technological advances and match advances of competition;
- the availability of capital;
- uncertainties in weather and temperature affecting the duration of the service periods and the activities that can be completed;
- changes in legislation and the regulatory environment, including uncertainties with respect to implementing the Kyoto Protocol; and
- the other factors considered under "Risk Factors".

ELIGIBILITY FOR INVESTMENT

In the opinion of Bennett Jones LLP, counsel to the Trust, Petrowest Business Trust, the Partnerships, Acquisitionco and the General Partner, and Stikeman Elliott LLP, counsel to the Underwriters, based upon the assumptions set out under "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations" below and certificates as to factual matters given by the Trust, the Units on Closing, will be qualified investments under the Tax Act for trusts governed by Plans.

The Trust will be a "business income trust" and the Units will constitute "restricted investment property" as described in proposed amendments to the Tax Act announced by the Minister of Finance (Canada) on March 23,

2004 (the "Budget Proposals"). Under the Budget Proposals, certain investors, including trusts governed by registered pension plans and pension corporations, would have been liable for a penalty tax commencing in 2005 if they held restricted investment property or units of a business income trust in excess of the limits described in the Budget Proposals. The Budget Proposals did not propose that Plans would be subject to this penalty tax. On May 18, 2004, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced that the Budget Proposals relating to business income trusts would be suspended to allow consultations with representatives of the pension fund industry, the investment industry, provincial governments and other interested parties and that legislative proposals would be released following such consultations. This position was reiterated by the Minister of Finance (Canada) in the press release that accompanied the release of the draft amendments for the Budget Proposals dated September 16, 2004. As part of the release of the 2005 federal budget, the Minister of Finance (Canada) issued further statements in respect of the Budget Proposals advising that the Department of Finance (Canada) would continue to consult stakeholders on tax issues related to business income trusts and other flow-through entities. On September 8, 2005, the Minister of Finance (Canada) released a consultation paper on flow-through entities and requested submissions from stakeholders by December 31, 2005. On November 23, 2005, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced that the public consultation process had ended and tabled in the House of Commons a Notice of Ways and Means Motion to implement a reduction in personal income tax on dividends paid by public corporations with a view to establishing a better balance between the treatment of large corporations and that of income trusts. No measures were announced with respect to the taxation of flow-through entities and their investors. No assurance can be given that further review of the tax treatment of flow-through entities will not be undertaken or that Canadian federal or provincial income tax laws respecting flow-through entities will not be changed in a manner which adversely affects the Trust and the Unitholders. To the extent that changes are made, such changes could result in the income tax considerations described under the heading "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations" being materially different in certain respects. See "Risk Factors — Risks Relating to an Investment in the Trust — Income Tax Matters".

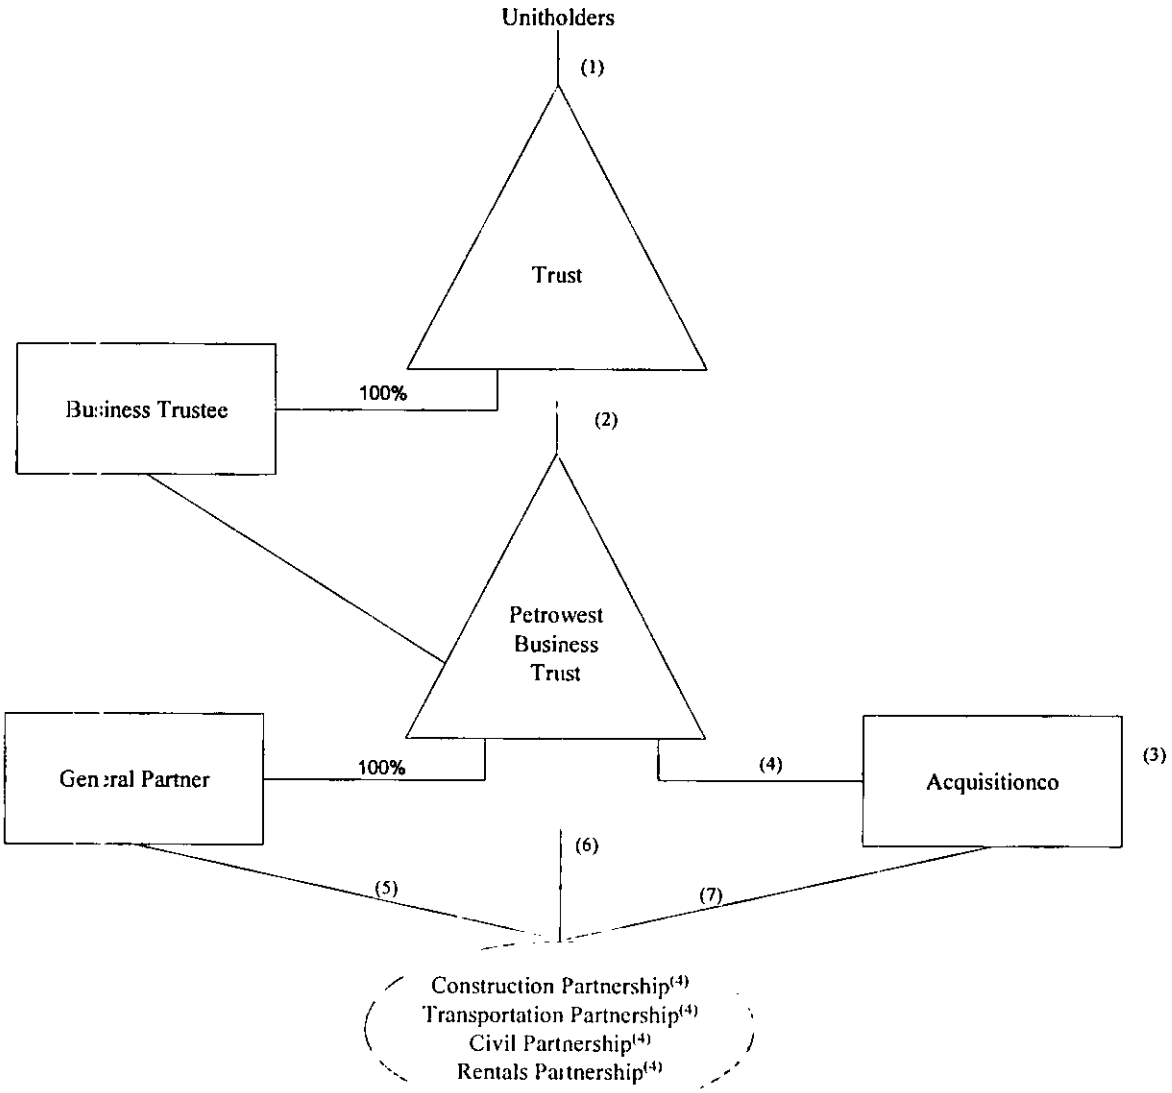
The Trust was established to hold Business Notes and a 100% beneficial interest in the Petrowest Business Trust. The trustee of the Trust will be the Trustee. The General Partner will be responsible for overseeing and managing the Trust and Petrowest Business Trust. The General Partner is a corporation that was incorporated under the ABCA on July 6, 2006, all of the outstanding shares of which will be held by the Petrowest Business Trust.

When established, the Petrowest Business Trust will be an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose mutual fund trust established under and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to the Deed of Trust. The trustee of the Petrowest Business Trust will be the Business Trustee, a corporation incorporated under the ABCA, all of the outstanding shares of which will be held by the Trust.

The Petrowest Business Trust will, directly and indirectly, hold a 100% interest in the Construction Partnership, the Transportation Partnership, the Civil Partnership and the Rentals Partnership through which Petrowest's Road and Lease Construction Division, Transportation and Hauling Division, Civil Services Division and Heavy Equipment Rentals Division, respectively, will operate upon completion of the Concurrent Acquisitions and the Reorganization. Each of the Partnerships is a limited partnership formed under the laws of the Province of Alberta. Each Partnership will be authorized to issue Class A GP Units, Class B Common LP Units and Class C Preferred LP Units. The Class A GP Units will represent the General Partner's 0.001% undivided interest in the Partnership, the Class B Common LP Units will represent an undivided interest in a Partnership and the Class C Preferred LP Units will represent an entitlement to a fixed preferential interest in a Partnership's income. The general partner of the Partnerships will be the General Partner (which will hold Class A GP Units) and the limited partners of the partnerships will be the Petrowest Business Trust (which will hold Class B Common LP Units) and Acquisitionco (which will hold Class C Preferred LP Units).

Acquisitionco is a corporation all of the common shares of which will be held by the Petrowest Business Trust. Acquisitionco has entered into the Share Purchase Agreements pursuant to which Acquisitionco has the right, subject to certain conditions, to acquire all of the outstanding shares of the Acquired Companies, each of which is involved in the energy services business. Concurrent with the closing of this offering, Acquisitionco will acquire all of the outstanding shares of each of the Acquired Companies following which each of the Acquired Companies will be amalgamated with Acquisitionco. Acquisitionco will then transfer the businesses historically operated by the Acquired Companies, including all of their assets, undertaking, intellectual property and liabilities, into the Partnerships in consideration for notes and Class C Preferred LP Units of each of the Partnerships.

The General Partner and Acquisitionco have not carried on any business prior to the date hereof and do not hold any material assets other than the right of Acquisitionco to acquire the Acquired Companies pursuant to the Purchase and Sale Agreements. All of the outstanding shares of the General Partner and Acquisitionco are currently held by the Trust. Prior to the Closing, all of the outstanding shares of the General Partner and Acquisitionco will be transferred to the Petrowest Business Trust.



The Deed of Trust requires the Trustee, on or before each Distribution Record Date, to declare payable to the Unitholders all or any part of the Cash Flow of the Trust for the Distribution Period which includes such Distribution Record Date. It is currently anticipated that the only income to be received by the Trust will be from securities of Petrowest Business Trust.

The net proceeds of this offering will be invested by the Trust in Business Notes and Business Units of Petrowest Business Trust. Petrowest Business Trust will then loan a portion of such funds to Acquisitionco to pay the cash portion of the purchase price of the Acquired Companies and to repay certain indebtedness of the Acquired Companies, and Acquisitionco will issue a note to Petrowest Business Trust to evidence this indebtedness. The Trust will issue 12,765,094 Units to Acquisitionco and Acquisitionco will issue a note to the Trust in consideration therefor The Trust will contribute this note to the Business Trust for additional Business Notes and Business Units. Petrowest Business Trust will use the remaining portion of the net proceeds of this offering to acquire Class B Common LP Partnership Units of each of the Partnerships. Following the Amalgamation, Acquisitionco will transfer the businesses historically operated by the Acquired Companies, including all their assets, undertaking and intellectual property and liabilities, to the Partnerships pursuant to the Reorganization, in consideration for notes and Class C Preferred LP Units of each of the Partnerships. The notes issued to Acquisitionco pursuant to the Reorganization will be assigned by Acquisitionco to Petrowest Business Trust in repayment of a portion of the debt owing by Acquisitionco to Petrowest Business Trust. Petrowest Business Trust will then contribute these notes to each of the Partnerships for additional Class B Common LP Units.

See the "Description of the Trust".

Following completion of this offering, the Concurrent Acquisitions and the Reorganization, Petrowest's business will operate as follows:

Notes:

(1) Unitholders hold Trust Units and Subordinated Units of the Trust. Immediately following the Closing of this offering and the Concurrent Acquisitions, the shareholders of the Acquired Companies will hold 45.15%, the subscribers under this offering will hold 49.51% and the holders of Subordinated Units will hold 5.34%, of the outstanding Units, respectively.

(2) The Trust will hold Business Notes and a 100% beneficial interest in the Petrowest Business Trust.

(3) Acquisitionco will amalgamate with the Acquired Companies immediately following the completion of the Concurrent Acquisitions.

(4) Acquisitionco will borrow the cash portion of the purchase price ($103.3 million) and will be indebted to Petrowest Business Trust for the purchase price of 12,765,094 Units ($127,650,970), less the amount assigned to Petrowest Business Trust equal to the tax basis of the assets transferred by Acquisitionco to the Partnerships less certain liabilities associated therewith.

(5) The General Partner will hold a 0.001% interest in the Partnerships.

(6) Petrowest Business Trust will hold Class B Common LP Units of the Partnerships.

(7) Pursuant to the Reorganization, the Partnerships will acquire the businesses historically carried on by the Acquired Companies, and the consideration therefor will be paid by the issuance of Class C Preferred LP Units and notes to Acquisitionco.

BUSINESS OF PETROWEST

The Trust will be a diversified oilfield services trust that will provide pre-drilling and post-completion services to the northern region of the WCSB. Petrowest will service the region via its head and operational office in Grande Prairie, Alberta and nine full-service locations throughout northern Alberta and British Columbia, each with a staging area, shop area, and sales and service personnel. The Trust's corporate office will be in Calgary, Alberta.

Petrowest will acquire the Acquired Companies, which are all established, private Grande Prairie-based pre-drilling and post-completion service providers. The nine Acquired Companies are complementary to one another and will allow Petrowest to benefit from their ability to provide clients with a full-range of services, cost competitive pricing, capabilities to service large-scale contracts and a modern and well-maintained equipment fleet. Petrowest will continue to expand and improve on the aforementioned benefits as it executes its growth strategy of further integration, organic expansion and complementary acquisitions.

Petrowest's business will be operated in four divisions corresponding to the four Partnerships as follows:

- Road and Lease Construction Division - includes oilfield well site lease preparation, road construction, earth moving, reclamation, commercial projects, four camps and other lease construction services. The Road and Lease Construction Division will have approximately 90 pieces of major equipment (average age: four years) and 130 full-time employees (average industry experience: nine years);
- Transportation and Hauling Division - includes general oilfield hauling, rig mobilization and demobilization, equipment transportation, log loading and hauling, gravel hauling, pipe hauling and other transportation services. The Transportation and Hauling Division will have approximately 80 pieces of major equipment (average age: five years) and 100 full-time employees (average industry experience: 10 years);
- Civil Services Division - includes general rock and gravel crushing and oilfield safety services and rentals. The Civil Services Division will have approximately 120 pieces of major equipment (average age: five years) and 80 full-time employees (average industry experience: eight years); and

- Heavy Equipment Rentals Division - includes oilfield and construction heavy equipment rentals. The Heavy Equipment Rentals Division will have approximately 60 pieces of major equipment (average age: three years) and 10 full-time employees (average industry experience: 15 years).

The following table illustrates selected historical financial performance of the Acquired Companies, organized by Petrowest's operating divisions, for the periods indicated.

Road and Lease Construction Division

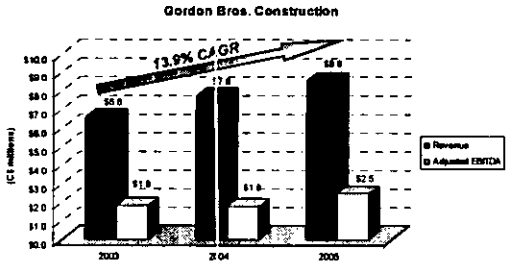
Pursuant to the Reorganization, Petrowest's Construction Partnership will acquire the businesses historically conducted by Wales Contractors, Roy Larson Construction and Gordon Bros. Construction and will operate these businesses under those names as the Road and Lease Construction Division. In 2005, contract jobs undertaken by those Acquired Companies included approximately 410 to 470 well site leases built for drilling activity including over 85 kilometers of combined road construction. The Road and Lease Construction Division will own over 90 pieces of major equipment with an average age of four years and four camps to support its road and well site lease building operations. The Road and Lease Construction Division, utilizing modern equipment, may be configured to complete earth moving, reclamation, commercial projects and other lease construction services The Road and Lease Construction Division will acquire from the Acquired Companies master service agreements and preferred agreements with key customers including repeat customers.



The following charts illustrate the financial performance of the Acquired Companies whose assets are to be transferred to the Road and Lease Construction Division for the periods indicated:

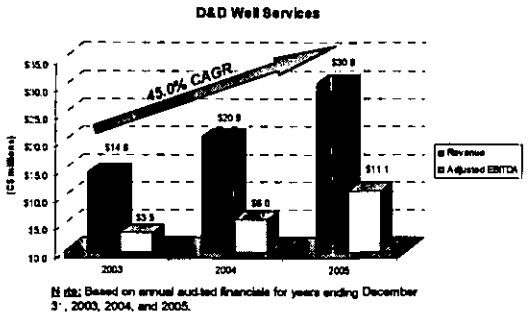
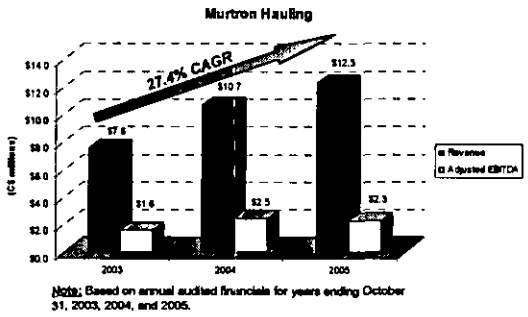
See "Non-GAAP Measures" and Schedule "C" - "Reconciliation of Net Earnings to EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA".



Transportation and Hauling Division

Pursuant to the Reorganization, Petrowest's Transportation Partnership will acquire the businesses historically conducted by D&D Well Services and Murtron Hauling and will operate these businesses under those names as the Transportation and Hauling Division. The services provided by the Transportation and Hauling Division will include hauling to the well site, rig mobilization, gravel hauling and hauling of drill pipe, supplies and equipment to well sites along with rig mobilization and demobilization for both coil tubing and conventional drilling rigs via the use of special equipment and procedures. In 2005, the Acquired Companies which will comprise the Transportation and Hauling Division transported approximately 700 pieces of heavy equipment.



The Transportation and Hauling Division will also provide gravel and log hauling throughout northern Alberta and British Columbia. In 2005, the Acquired Companies which will comprise the Transportation and Hauling Division hauled approximately 350,000 cubic meters of timber and approximately 400,000 tonnes of gravel.

The Transportation and Hauling Division will acquire from the Acquired Companies several preferred supplier agreements with major Alberta-based oil and gas companies, oil and gas drilling rig companies, western Canadian logging companies and aggregate companies.

The following charts illustrate the financial performance of the Acquired Companies whose assets are to be transferred to the Transportation and Hauling Division for the periods indicated:

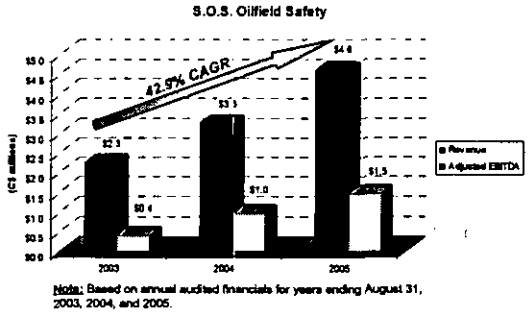
Civil Services Division

Pursuant to the Reorganization, Petrowest's Civil Partnership will acquire the businesses historically conducted by R Bee Crushing and S.O.S. Oilfield Safety and will operate these businesses under those names as the Civil Services Division. The Civil Services Division will provide rock and gravel crushing, safety supervision and safety equipment rentals services.



The Civil Services Division will have approximately 120 pieces of modern, large capacity equipment with an average age of five years to support its rock and gravel crushing services. Typical rock and gravel crushing jobs have been between 100,000 to 500,000 tonnes. The largest single project completed to date by R Bee Crushing was 1,100,000 tonnes. In 2005, total rock crushing was estimated to be in the order 5,500,000 tonnes. The Civil Services Division will also be capable of stripping pits, clearing pits, pit run crushing, large screening and quarry crushing. The Civil Services Division will manufacture highway base aggregates, asphalt aggregates, concrete aggregates and general crushed products.

The Civil Services Division will also provide safety supervision to well sites and safety unit rentals throughout northern Alberta and British Columbia. Safety supervision and rentals will be complementary to Petrowest's other divisions and to external companies.

The following charts illustrate the financial performance of the Acquired Companies whose assets are to be transferred to the Civil Services Division for the periods indicated:

Note: Based on annual audited financials for years ending April 30, 2004, 2005, and 2006.

Heavy Equipment Rentals Division

Pursuant to the Reorganization, Petrowest's Rentals Partnership will acquire the businesses historically conducted by Northern Tractor and Neuwest Equipment and will operate these businesses under those names as the Heavy Equipment Rentals Division. Typical rental contracts undertaken by these companies have ranged from a single piece of equipment to 15 pieces of heavy equipment per job site. The Heavy Equipment Rentals Division's equipment will be modern and in a variety of sizes that can be configured to complete various types of work due to the changing seasons as well as specific job requirements. The Heavy Equipment Rentals Division will have approximately 60 pieces of major equipment with an average age of three years including articulated haulers, tracked excavators, crawler dozers, sidebooms, and earth compactors to support oil and gas construction jobs as well as commercial construction company needs. The rentals will be provided from offices in Grande Prairie and Fort McMurray, Alberta. The Heavy Equipment Rentals Division will acquire from the Acquired Companies renewable contracts with key customers and repeat customers. The Heavy Equipment Rentals Division will provide rentals both internally amongst Petrowest's divisions and externally to other companies involved in the western Canadian oil and gas industry.

The following charts illustrate the financial performance of the Acquired Companies whose assets are to be transferred to the Heavy Equipment Rentals Division for the periods indicated:

Note: Based on annual audited financials for years ending September 30, 2003, 2004, and 2005.

Operational Strengths

As a result of its focused "first and last line of services" approach in providing key services to the oil and gas industry in the pre-drilling and post-completion phases, Petrowest will enjoy several operational strengths that will benefit customers. Petrowest's major operational strengths include:

- Ability to Provide a "One-Stop-Shop" Service Approach – As a result of the broad spectrum of energy services businesses which will comprise Petrowest's oil and gas clients will have access to a full range of pre-drilling and post-completion services. Industry trends suggest that oil and gas companies prefer to utilize a services company that can provide a full range of services as opposed to procuring the same services from a host of sources. Benefits to the client include reduced overhead costs, a reduction in invoicing and accounting procedures, reduced wait times for services and increased efficiency in procuring pre-drilling and post-completion services. This model allows clients to meet the shorter time frames demanded by an environment where it is becoming increasingly difficult to engage services in a timely manner due to the general robustness of the energy sector coupled with labour challenges.

- Intra-Company Synergies – Each operating division within Petrowest will possess the ability to provide services to other divisions to facilitate its customers' specific pre-drilling and post-completion needs. Petrowest's clients will benefit from Petrowest's cross-company utilization strategies that otherwise would be absent. For example, the Civil Services Division can take advantage of the Transportation and Hauling Division's ability to provide hauling needs resulting in increased utilization rates due to reduced down time.

- Ability to Service Large Scale Contracts – Petrowest's combined divisions will be positioned to take advantage of larger contract jobs as a result of its increased capacity to provide a full range of pre-drilling and post-completion services at competitive rates and in geographic areas that are comparatively difficult to access for smaller service companies. In northern Alberta and British Columbia, where well site lease-building costs are much greater than at conventional locations with relatively easy year-round access, this advantage will become increasingly strategic.

- Competitive Pricing – Petrowest intends to provide its customers with high-quality services using competitive pricing in an environment where costs are becoming increasingly high. By offering clients a full range of pre-drilling and post-completion services, Petrowest will have the ability to meet customer price points with greater flexibility and customer satisfaction.

- Quality Equipment Fleet – With the acquisition of a fleet of equipment with an average age of 4.5 years and an increased access to growth capital, Petrowest will utilize an equipment fleet that is new and well-maintained. This will result in greater safety standards and reduced down times due to equipment breakdowns. As a result, clients will benefit from greater reliability in the performance of Petrowest's full range of pre-drilling and post-completion services.

- People – The key operating and technical people that comprise the four divisions within Petrowest will represent a valuable and important component of Petrowest's operational strengths. Given the current labour shortages in western Canada combined with senior management attrition in the energy services industry generally, it is important to understand that the key managers of the Acquired Companies have been in place with the Acquired Companies for an average of 17 years. Additionally, the respective middle management and employees of the Acquired Companies are dedicated to their businesses and have proven their commitment and loyalty by their long-term employment tenures. Petrowest's human resource assets will be key in its overall profitability and customer satisfaction, both near and long term.

Investment Opportunity

Petrowest intends to sustain and increase its cash flow and distributions through both organic growth and acquisitions of other energy services businesses that have similar characteristics to the Acquired Companies.

Management expects Petrowest to have the following notable attributes:

- ownership of established businesses that provide the full-range of pre-drilling and post-completion services to the northern region of the WCSB;

- alignment of management and Unitholder interests through the subordination of management's equity interest and structured escrow terms on the Units acquired by the founding Unitholders as well as structured escrow terms on the Trust Units acquired by the shareholders of each of the Acquired Companies. See "Escrowed and Subordinated Securities";

- strong balance sheet with financial flexibility to balance between internal growth and payout of distributions to investors;
- high historic profitability of the Acquired Companies with average Adjusted EBITDA margins over 30%;
- an initial monthly distribution of $0.10 per Unit. See "Summary of Distributable Cash";
- well positioned to capitalize on robust industry activity levels and future northern development opportunities through internal growth and acquisition opportunities;
- modern and well-maintained major equipment with an average age of approximately 4.5 years, providing a solid, cost-effective foundation from which growth can occur;
- focused and experienced executive management team and board of directors;
- focused growth strategy through a combination of internal, organic growth coupled with strategic accretive acquisitions; and
- tax effective trust structure which will facilitate access to capital that can be used for investments in equipment and strategic acquisitions.

Strategy

Petrowest's corporate strategy will be to develop a long-term business which delivers sustainable and increasing per Unit distributions by growing its Road and Lease Construction, Transportation and Hauling, Heavy Equipment Rentals and Civil Services divisions. Petrowest intends to achieve this by integrating the businesses conducted by the Acquired Companies and establishing Petrowest as the recognized pre-drilling and post-completion service provider to the northern region of the WCSB. Petrowest will consider expanding the number of businesses within the divisions and adding other businesses and divisions if acquisition candidates meet Petrowest's acquisition criteria. See "Strategy - Acquisitions."

Petrowest anticipates acquiring approximately $32 million of new equipment over the next twelve months. This expenditure will be funded by operating leases and $8.3 million of working capital. These expenditures will add equipment to each of Petrowest's divisions to allow for future growth. This equipment has been ordered and management anticipates that the majority of this equipment will be utilized by Petrowest later in the third quarter of 2006.

Petrowest intends to integrate the businesses conducted by the Acquired Companies and future acquisitions within the divisions. Further, Petrowest intends to capitalize on the track records of the Acquired Companies with respect to commitment to customer service, operational efficiency, health and safety and financial return and profitability.

Petrowest will operate in the northern region of the WCSB, principally from Grande Prairie, Alberta. At the present time, Petrowest does not intend to expand operations into eastern Canada, the United States or internationally.

Strategy – Organic Growth

Management expects Petrowest to continue to grow its operations organically in the pre-drilling and post-completion service sectors of the energy services business in the northern region of the WCSB. Management expects to achieve this organic growth through the following strategic plan:

- Petrowest will work within a framework emphasizing integrity, leadership, safety in the workplace and teamwork. Petrowest's management team will provide strategic leadership and performance targets for the divisions. Petrowest's compensation program will include competitive market salary, employee benefit programs and incentive programs. Management and Unitholder interests will be aligned through an incentive program, and a Unit option program and Unit ownership plan. Pursuant to the incentive program, incentive pools will be allocated to the divisions based on success in reaching consolidated business performance and profitability targets. Management, together with the general managers of the operating businesses, will allocate these incentive pools to staff and employees.

- Management believes the existence of long-term relationships between the Acquired Companies and its diversified client base will help to secure consistent demand for Petrowest's equipment and services and provide opportunities for complementary services across Petrowest's divisions. Petrowest will use its multiple businesses to enhance customer service and to provide greater service synergies.

- Petrowest will pursue its expanded scope of services to new clients.

- Petrowest will capitalize on the greater size of Petrowest's operations relative to the individual Acquired Companies to take on larger jobs and contracts.

- Preferred supplier relationships and a bulk purchasing program is expected to provide access to new equipment and consumables on a timely and cost-effective basis.

Strategy - Acquisitions

In addition to Petrowest's internal growth opportunities, management believes there are significant opportun ties for Petrowest to make additional accretive acquisitions. Management believes that the western Canadian energy services industry currently includes many localized, privately-owned businesses that would benefit from a combination with Petrowest. Petrowest would provide these businesses with financial and management expertise. cost reduction opportunities, partial monetization, a lower cost of capital and opportunities for on-going growth and expansion.

Petrowest's acquisition strategy is founded on integrity, reliability, service delivery, safe operations and solid financial performance. All future acquisitions must satisfy these criteria. It is expected that businesses acquired by Petrowest will maintain their individual business identities. The selection of target acquisitions will be based on their:

- corporate culture and fit with Petrowest's vision and corporate strategic business plan;

- overlap of synergies with Petrowest's existing competencies, clients, industries and work activities;

- overlap of geographic region and synergy with Petrowest's existing business;

- existing proven management teams that are motivated and experienced;

- financial profitability; and

- accretive financial contribution.

Acquisition candidates must also meet Petrowest's added value criteria and will be expected to provide increased financial performance on a per Unit basis.

Strategy - Integration

Petrowest's integration plans will be specifically designed to allow the divisions to carry on the operations of the Acquired Companies with minimal disruption while ensuring management internal controls and reporting needs are properly developed and maintained.

Integration activities in the first six months after closing of the Concurrent Acquisitions will include:

- improving and enhancing management internal controls, financial reporting, key business indicator processes, credit risk analysis, and operating and capital budgets;
- establishing operating standards with respect to corporate governance, audit, compensation and safety and health, (including public company reporting and investor relation activities);
- instituting employee incentive and compensation strategies designed to retain and attract key personnel;
- convening regular management meetings with senior and middle management to create a model for effective cross-divisional and intra-company communication and business development;
- capitalizing on cross-divisional, intra-company and centralized marketing opportunities and developing strategies for bundling of services;
- consolidating overhead and evaluating other cost reduction measures; and
- executive management and general manager succession planning.

Strategy - Management of Divisions

The Acquired Companies are established businesses with experienced and proven management. Petrowest's management team will have significant involvement in all critical aspects of Petrowest's business and strategic plan, while at the same time allowing the management teams of the Acquired Companies to continue to pursue their respective operational plans within that strategic framework. Petrowest believes it will achieve maximum profitability by allowing each Acquired Company's management team to continue to direct its field operations and the affairs of that business.

Strategic business alignment and the bundling of available services will be encouraged both within and across divisions. Through effective communication, goal setting and incentives, Petrowest's management team will ensure that Petrowest's divisions identify and implement innovative ideas to advance Petrowest's strategic business plan.

Petrowest will have a corporate culture that will allow its general managers to develop their businesses within a strategic framework. A key to Petrowest's success will be to ensure capital is actively and properly employed in achieving and increasing sustainable cash flow generation.

Management

Petrowest's executive management team collectively has over 75 years of experience in the western Canadian oil and gas exploration and production, energy services and construction industries.

Customer Base

Assuming the completion of all of the Concurrent Acquisitions, the aggregate customer base of Petrowest will consist of over 500 entities from the oil and gas exploration and production industry, energy services sector, forestry industry, aggregates industry and government. Petrowest's clients range from large multi-national companies to small, private companies.

Employees

If all of the Acquired Companies are acquired pursuant to the Concurrent Acquisitions, Petrowest will have approximately 325 full-time employees and 85 sub-contract personnel. None of these employees are unionized and most of these employees will be located in Alberta.

Real Estate

At Closing, Petrowest's head office will operate out of owned office space at Suite 204, 10605 Westside Drive, Grande Prairie, Alberta T8V 8E6. Petrowest will operate field offices and out of rented locations in Grande Prairie, Alberta, Fort McMurray, Alberta, and Fort St. John, British Columbia. Petrowest's corporate office will operate out of rented office space in Calgary, Alberta.

The Purchase and Sale Agreements provide that certain real property owned by the Acquired Companies and used in their businesses will be sold by the Acquired Companies to their existing shareholders or their affiliates prior to closing under the Purchase and Sale Agreements and leased back to Petrowest on terms acceptable to Petrowest.

Safety Program

Each of the Acquired Companies has obtained a Certificate of Recognition ("COR") in Alberta. The COR program recognizes that these companies have a basic safety program in place that meets minimum provincial standards. An increasing number of oil and gas companies are requiring that companies that perform energy service work for them have a COR. Alberta Human Resources and Employment and the Petroleum Industry Training Service (the certifying partner for the petroleum industry) issue a COR to companies for achieving the provincial minimum standards for a health and safety program. Companies registered in the Alberta Workers' Compensation Board ("WCB") financial incentive program, Partners in Injury Reduction ("PIR"), are eligible to receive up to a 20% reduction in their WCB premiums for implementing successful health, safety and disability programs and for obtaining a COR. The COR program is part of an industry-wide effort to reduce the number of injuries and incidents. Programs such as the COR program have proved to be effective in reducing the number and severity of injury-related WCB claims. WCB statistics show for 2003, employers participating in the PIR had fewer lost time claims and lower claims costs than those that did not participate.

Petrowest will establish a safety program that will meet or exceed all legislated requirements.

ACQUISITION OF THE ACQUIRED COMPANIES

Purchase and Sale Agreements

Acquisitionco has entered into the Purchase and Sale Agreements providing for the purchase by Acquisitionco of the Acquired Companies for an aggregate base purchase price of $230,934,992, subject to post-closing adjustments. This represents a value of approximately five times the sum of aggregate EBITDA plus management bonuses and non-recurring items for the twelve months ended December 31, 2005 of the Acquired Companies, plus an estimate of adjustments for working capital ($15.7 million), plus amounts paid for equipment after December 31, 2005 ($6.7 million), less an estimate of long-term debt ($23.5 million). Management's estimate of the sum of EBITDA plus management bonuses and non-recurring items of the Acquired Companies was based on financial statements reviewed by the Acquired Companies' independent accountants for the twelve month period ended December 31, 2005 (with the exception of Neuwest which used the twelve month period ended January 31, 2006). In respect of Neuwest, the adjustments for non-recurring items included adjustments that were considered reasonable by management to reflect that relative to the other Acquired Companies Neuwest had a shorter operating history and that its future financial performance would substantially improve. The shareholders of Neuwest are Mr. Kenneth N. Drysdale and Mr. Gary Sweetman, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer of the General Partner, respectively. See "Heavy Equipment Rentals Division – Neuwest Equipment". The aggregate base purchase price will be paid by $103,284,052 in cash and the issuance by the Trust of an aggregate of 12,765,094 Trust Units. The shareholders of the Acquired Companies will enter into an escrow agreement pursuant to which the Units issued to such shareholders will be placed in escrow. See "Escrowed and Subordinated Securities".

Post-closing, an audit of the working capital, shareholder loans and long term debt of each of the Acquired Companies as at the closing date of the acquisition of the Acquired Companies will be performed. Subject to certain conditions the results of this audit will be used to determine whether a positive or negative cash adjustment will be made to the aggregate base purchase price for the Acquired Companies. The aggregate base purchase price and its allocation among cash and Units in respect of each of the Acquired Companies is set forth below.

Base Purchase Price

Notes:

(1) For the purposes of calculation of the Aggregate, the Trust Units are attributed a value of $10.00 each.

Each of the Purchase and Sale Agreements contains representations and warranties in favour of Acquisitionco and each of the Acquired Companies customary for transactions of this nature including representations and warranties respecting the Acquired Companies corporate status, financial status, employees, assets, real property and the absence of environmental claims. Subject to the Acquisition Condition, each of the Concurrent Acquisitions is expected to close concurrently. Closing of the Concurrent Acquisitions is subject to customary mutual conditions and customary conditions for the benefit of Acquisitionco and for the benefit of the shareholders of the Acquired Companies. Certain specific mutual conditions include (or will include at the closing of the Concurrent Acquisitions upon the execution of certain expected amendments):

(a) the Trust Units shall have been approved for listing upon the TSX subject only to conditions which may reasonably be expected to be satisfied within the 10 business days following the closing date;

(b) the distribution of not less than 8.5 million Trust Units and not more than 16 million Trust Units at a price not less than $10.00 for aggregate gross proceeds of not less than $85 million and not more than $160 million shall have closed or be closing at the closing time;

(c) such of the Concurrent Acquisitions as have an aggregate base purchase price not less than $100 million shall have closed or be closing at the closing time; and

(d) certain officers and key personnel of the Acquired Companies shall have executed and delivered management agreements.

Subject to certain limited exceptions, all representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Purchase and Sale Agreements on the part of each of the parties survive the closing of the acquisition of the Acquired Companies, the execution and delivery under the Purchase and Sale Agreements of any share or security transfer instruments or other documents of title to any of the shares and the payment of the consideration for the shares.

Subject to certain limited exceptions, each of the vendors of the shares of the Acquired Companies have agreed, in their respective Purchase and Sale Agreement, to indemnify and save harmless each of Acquisitionco and the Trust and their affiliates from and against all losses, costs and damages and liabilities and obligations which they suffer, sustain, pay or incur, directly or indirectly as a consequence of or in connection with a breach of a representation or warranty made by any of the vendors or Acquired Companies in their respective Purchase and Sale Agreements or a breach by any such vendor or Acquired Company of any of the covenants made by any thereof in the Purchase and Sale Agreements; or as a consequence of or in connection with any environmental matter relating to the applicable Acquired Company or its assets prior to the closing time except any such losses, costs and damages as have been caused by or result from the negligence or wilful misconduct of any such indemnified person.

Purchasers of Trust Units pursuant to this offering may not have a direct statutory right of action against each vendor of the shares of the Acquired Companies for a misrepresentation in this prospectus in respect of the Acquired Companies. Purchasers are advised to review the terms of the Purchase and Sale Agreements for a complete description of the representations, warranties and indemnities and related liabilities of the vendors of the shares of the Acquired Companies. Copies of the Purchase and Sale Agreements may be inspected at Petrowest's head office during normal business hours during the period of distribution of the Trust Units.

Management Contracts

Thirteen principals of the Acquired Companies have agreed to enter into management employment agreements with the General Partner for terms ranging from two to five years. However, such agreements may be terminated by the employee on giving one month's notice. Each of these management employment agreements contains non-competition, confidentiality and indemnity provisions. The non-competition provisions continue until the later of the expiry of the term of the contract or two years from the date the employee ceases to be an employee of Petrowest.

Murtron Hauling

On May 23, 2006, Acquisitionco entered into an agreement with Murtron Hauling and its shareholders to acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares of Murtron Hauling for a base purchase price of $15,264,190, subject to post closing adjustments, to be paid by $6,105,680 in cash and by the issuance of an aggregate of 915,851 Trust Units.

Murtron Hauling is based in Grande Prairie, Alberta and specializes in the transportation of gravel, heavy equipment and logs for the civil construction, energy services and forestry industries.

Murtron Hauling is managed by Mr. Murray Head who is assisted by Mr. Ron Head who have 22 and 27 years of experience in the transportation sector, respectively. It is a condition of the Purchase and Sale Agreement regarding Murtron Hauling that Murray Head and Ron Head enter into management agreements with Petrowest as General Manager and Operations Manager, respectively, for terms of five years.

Murtron Hauling has a current workforce of approximately 30 permanent employees, with an average industry experience of ten years, and 25 contract employees ranging from truckers, equipment operators and labourers.

Murtron Hauling's clients include Alberta based all-wood processing mills, various counties and private corporations. Typical logging contract jobs undertaken have been between 300,000 to 400,000 cubic meters of timber loaded and hauled. In 2005, Murtron Hauling loaded and hauled approximately 500,000 cubic meters of logs, and transported 400,000 tonnes of gravel-based products and approximately 700 pieces of heavy equipment.

Murtron Hauling's major equipment can be configured to complete various types of work due to seasonality. There are approximately 20 pieces of heavy equipment to support the log loading and hauling, gravel moving and heavy equipment moving functions with an average age of five years. Murtron Hauling enjoys several preferred supplier agreements.

The following table presents a summary of historical financial data for Murtron Hauling for each of its three fiscal years ended October 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and for the six month periods ended April 30, 2006 and 2005 derived from the financial statements of Murtron Hauling at each of these dates and for the periods then ended. INDUSTRY CONDITIONS AND TRENDS

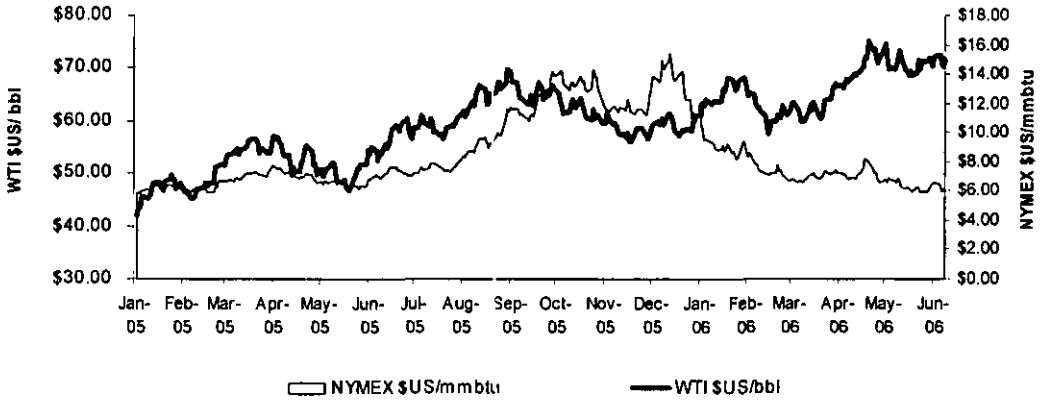
Petrowest provides energy services to assist oil and gas exploration and production companies in their efforts to find, develop and produce oil and gas reserves. In doing so, Petrowest offers its clients a variety of key pre-drilling and post-completion services.

General Oil and Gas Industry Conditions



The success of Petrowest's business is tied, in large part, to the general health of the oil and natural gas industry in Canada. Accordingly, in addition to the various federal, provincial and municipal laws which Petrowest will adhere to in its ongoing operations, the business will also be sensitive to the general industry conditions relating to the oil and natural gas industry, including land tenure, exploration, development, production, refining, transportation and marketing imposed by legislation enacted by various levels of government in Canada. The business is also sensitive to pricing and taxation of oil and natural gas by agreements among the governments of Canada, Alberta, Saskatchewan and British Columbia.

Petrowest's operations are conducted primarily in the WCSB that includes portions of the provinces of British Columbia and Alberta. The WCSB is one of the largest oil and gas exploration and producing regions in North America, with the majority of oil and natural gas production in Canada originating from this area. In addition to upstream oil and gas activities, other related industry activity occurs in this region, such as refining, processing and transportation of oil and gas.

Commodity Prices

Despite a recent decline in natural gas prices, the prices of both crude oil and natural gas have remained above historical levels for several years with the general industry consensus that prices are unlikely to decrease in the future. The recent current and forecast commodity prices have increased the projected cash flow forecasts of producing companies which has historically led to increased capital spending budgets and increased drilling and energy services activities. As a result of the progressing oil and gas market, energy services companies are reaping the rewards from a resource that is experiencing an extended cycle of increased demand.

Energy Supply / Demand

In spite of the continual increase in commodity prices and insufficient global energy infrastructure investment, it is expected that energy supply will need to grow substantially in the coming years. Given that OPEC (Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries) is up against its own production capacity, it is expected that drilling activity will need to follow a continuous growth curve if supply is to expand in the coming years. Moreover, since the success of Petrowest is directly tied to global energy activity, there will be an increase in demand for its services if OPEC plans to meet their supply targets.

Seasonality

In Canada, the level of activity in the energy service industry is partially influenced by seasonal weather patterns. On a monthly basis, drilling activity varies greatly. The annual drilling cycle can generally be viewed in four components:

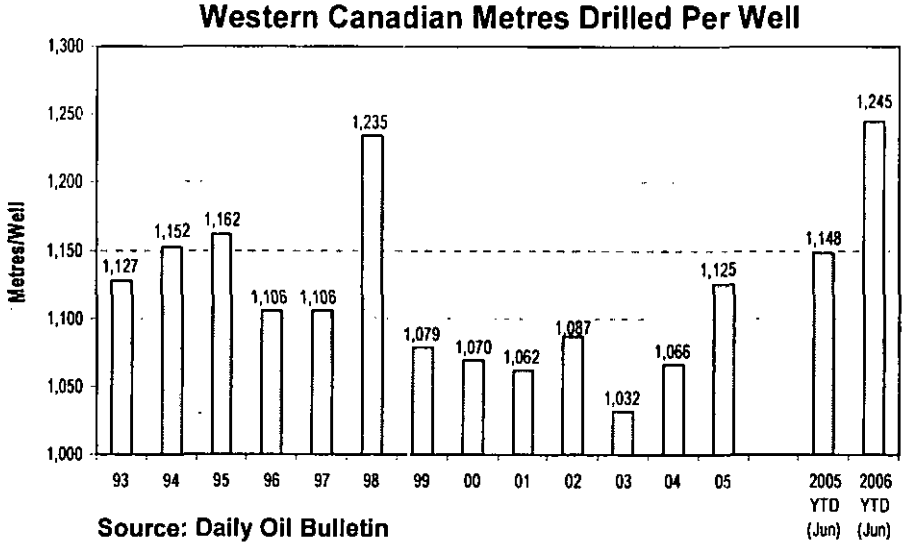
- Mid-March through mid-May - spring break-up; the northern drilling locations thaw and southern lands become impractical for travel due to wet road conditions. Drilling activity is generally low with companies planning the summer drilling season.

- Mid-May through mid-October - summer and fall drilling season; generally focused on non-northern areas that are accessible in the summer; summer drilling activity is medium to strong.

- Mid-October to mid-November - switchover to winter drilling season; characterized by lighter drilling activity when many companies are moving off summer drilling locations and preparing winter drilling leases for delivery of equipment.

- Mid-November through mid-March - winter drilling season; this is the period when the majority of rig activity takes place and exploration companies take advantage of the frozen landscape to access northern winter drilling locations.

Trends

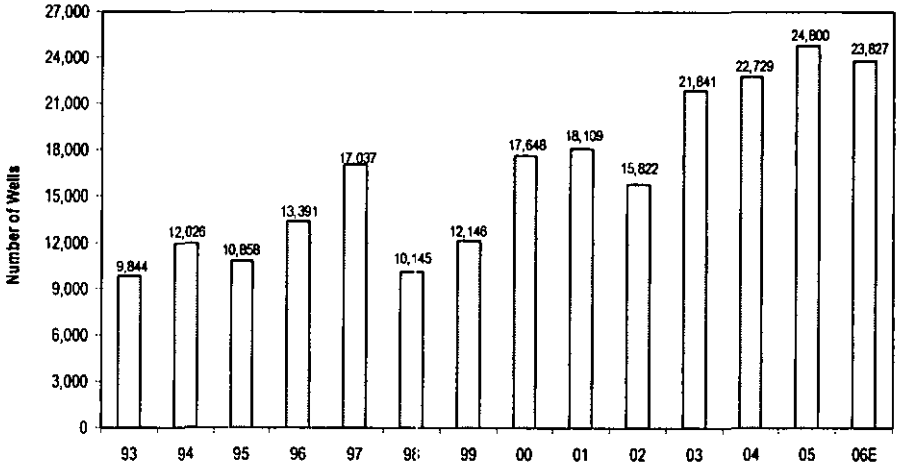


Petrowest operates in various segments of the energy service industry that are heavily reliant on the level of drilling activity in western Canada. The following trends have contributed to the improved outlook for drilling and the services industry:

(i) The utilization of oil services companies has shifted increasingly toward re-completing old wells (i.e., using directional sidetracks out of existing well bores) and re-stimulating them (i.e., well fracturing) to enhance production, while minimizing costs and risk.

(ii) The industry has seen a shift to more remote areas in an attempt to capture new reserves such as in northeast British Columbia, the Northwest Territories and the Yukon. These remote locations are often accessible only during the winter months and require service companies to provide services over extended time frames.

(iii) Due to the low average productivity rates of coal bed methane wells and the emergence of coal bed methane as a viable source of gas, a large number of wells are required to economically develop a field and therefore more ancillary services will be required.



(iv) The current commodity price environment has improved the underlying economics of oil and gas prospects sufficiently enough to justify exploration and development in previously uneconomic areas. This ability to drill both deeper/higher cost wells and shallow/lower productivity rate wells at profitable levels has added to the current and anticipated higher activity levels in the WCSB.

Wells Drilled

The Canadian Association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors (CAODC) estimates 23,827 wells will be drilled in 2006, almost identical to the number drilled in 2005. The historical decline in average production rates per well of oil and natural gas has resulted in an increase in drilling activity to maintain current production levels. As shown below, there has been consistent growth in drilling activity in the WCSB over the past eight years.

Rig Counts

The number of drilling and service rigs necessary to drill and complete new wells have historically been under increasing demand. Since January 2000, some 225 new drilling rigs, including coiled tubing drilling rigs, have been built for service in Western Canada. Of the total 813 drilling rigs that are currently available in Western Canada there was a 90% utilization rate during the first quarter of 2006; the first half of 2006 recorded a 66% utilization rate in Western Canada.

Environmental Regulations

The oil and gas industry is subject to environmental regulations pursuant to a variety of provincial and federal legislation. Such legislation provides for restrictions and prohibitions on the release or emission of various substances produced in association with certain oil and gas industry operations. In addition, such legislation requires that well and facility sites be abandoned and reclaimed to the satisfaction of provincial authorities. Compliance with such legislation can require significant expenditures and a breach of such requirements may result in the imposition of material fines and penalties.

Competition

Petrowest provides energy services primarily to the field operation locations of oil and gas exploration and production companies that are located in the WCSB. The energy service business in which Petrowest operates is highly competitive and, in order to be successful, Petrowest must provide services that meet the specific needs of its clients ensuring competitive pricing and customer satisfaction.

In order to remain competitive, Petrowest will emphasize to its customer base that exceeds 500 clients, the cost efficiencies and value-added services that Petrowest can provide specifically in the pre-drilling and post-completion phases. Current industry trends indicate that oil and gas companies are increasingly using service providers that can offer more than one specific service. Petrowest will be able to provide this to an ever-growing industry through its four service divisions. The greatest benefits to oil and gas companies that utilize Petrowest's Services will include overall cost efficiencies, reduced invoicing, time savings in procuring services and stronger profitability as a result of using a grouped services approach.

The barriers to entry for new competitors include a high cost of capital in acquiring and operating a services company, access to a skilled and qualified workforce given current labour constraints in Alberta and B.C. and qualified and experienced management team that can properly assess and manage to full scale of operational and technical issues including safety, health and environmental liabilities.

The principal competitive factors in the markets in which Petrowest operates are quality of service, service availability, service reliability, quality of equipment used to perform its services, technical and operational knowledge, management experience and reputation, safety and pricing. Competitors offer similar services in the geographic regions in which Petrowest operates.

SELECTED PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following table presents a summary of the unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet of the Trust as at May 31, 2006, the unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income of the Trust for the year ended December 31, 2005 and for the three months ended May 31, 2006. The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet was prepared as if the Concurrent Acquisitions were completed by way of the payment of $103,284,052 in cash and the issuance of 12,765,094 Trust Units, the subscription for 1,510,000 Subordinated Units was completed for proceeds of $4,530,000 ($1,510,000 in cash and $3,020,000 in notes receivable) and 14,000,000 Trust Units were issued pursuant to this offering on May 31, 2006. The unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income for the year ended December 31, 2005 and the three month period ended May 31, 2006 were prepared as if such transactions had occurred on January 1, 2005.

The unaudited pro forma information should be read together with the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements and related notes of the Trust included in Schedule "B" of this prospectus.

SUMMARY OF DISTRIBUTABLE CASH

Management has prepared the following summary of distributable cash generated by the Acquired Companies on the basis of information contained in this prospectus, and management's estimate of the amount of expenses that would have been incurred by the Acquired Companies and Petrowest had Petrowest been in existence for the three months ended May 31, 2006 and for the twelve-months ended December 31, 2005. The analysis is neither a forecast nor a projection of future results. The actual results of operations of Petrowest for any period, whether before or after the Closing, will vary from the amounts set forth in the following analysis and such variation may be material. Additionally, management believes the operations of Petrowest are subject to risks, and in reviewing the following summary of distributable cash, investors should review and consider the risks described under the heading "Risk Factors".

Management views distributable cash as an operating performance measure, as it is a measure generally used by Canadian income funds as an indicator of financial performance. As the Trust will distribute substantially all of its cash on an ongoing basis (after providing for certain amounts described below) and since EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA (as respectively defined in "Non-GAAP Measures") are metrics used by many investors to compare issuers on the basis of their ability to generate cash from operations, management believes that, in addition to net earnings, EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are useful supplemental measures from which to make adjustments to determine distributable cash. The estimate of distributable cash has been prepared using assumptions which management believes are reasonable and supportable, all of which reflect the Partnerships planned course of action given management's judgement about the most probable set of economic conditions.

Management believes that, upon completion of this offering and the Concurrent Acquisitions, Petrowest will incur lease expenses, management salaries, maintenance capital expenditures, general and administrative costs, and other expenses that will differ from those contained in the historical financial statements of each of the Acquired Companies that are included elsewhere in this prospectus. Although management does not have firm commitments for all of the aforementioned items and, accordingly, the complete financial effects of all of those items are not objectively determinable, management believes that the following represents a reasonable estimate of the distributable cash of the Trust that could have been available for distribution for the three months ended May 31, 2006 and for the twelve-months ended December 31, 2005 had the Trust been in existence during such time and had the Concurrent Acquisitions taken place at the beginning of such periods.

Summary of Distributable Cash

(in thousands of dollars, except cash holdback % and per Unit amounts)	Three Months Ended May 31, 2006	Twelve-Months Ended December 31, 2005
Adjusted EBITDA[1][2]	$ 15,430	$ 42,739
Management believes that cash available for distribution should be reduced by the following:
Incremental executive, board and public company costs[3]	$ 306	$ 1,223
Maintenance capital expenditures[4]	$ 825	$ 3,300
Interest expense[5]	$ 75	$ 300
Management believes that cash available for distribution should be increased by the following:
Adjustment for costs associated with non-recurring items, insurance, and office and administration consolidation[3]	$ 283	$ 1,132
Cash available for distribution	$ 14,507	$ 39,048
Cash holdback[6]	$ 6,024	$ 5,118
Cash holdback %	42%	13%
Distributable cash[7]	$ 8,483	$ 33,930
Estimated distributable cash per Unit[8]	$ 0.30	$ 1.20

Notes:

(1) Represents the pro forma consolidated Adjusted EBITDA of the Trust for the three months ended May 31, 2006 and the twelve months ended December 31, 2005 calculated as the sum of Earnings (loss) of $7,256,243 and $10,346,723, income taxes of $nil and $nil, other interest of $40,149 and $103,247 and amortization of $8,173,777 and $32,374,714 less interest and other revenue of $40,336 and $85,684, respectively. See "Selected Pro Forma Consolidated Financial Information" and the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements and related notes of the Trust included in Schedule "B" of this prospectus.

(2) Adjusted EBITDA is not a recognized measure under GAAP, does not have a standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP and may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other issuers. See "Non-GAAP Measures" and Schedule "C" - "Reconciliation of Net Earnings to EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA". As the Trust intends to distribute substantially all of its cash available for distribution (after satisfaction of administrative expenses and other amounts as may be considered appropriate by the Board of Directors) on an on-going basis, management believes that Adjusted EBITDA is an important measure in evaluating the Trust's performance and in determining whether to invest in the Trust.

(3) Management estimates that, subsequent to this offering, Petrowest will incur additional costs on an ongoing basis in connection with ongoing public disclosure requirements, investor relations, additional employee compensation, trustee and director fees, and other related matters. Also, management anticipates that, Petrowest will realize savings associated with general and administrative costs on an ongoing basis in connection with insurance, office administration and supplies and non-recurring items. These estimates are based on quotes provided by service providers, preliminary contractual arrangements, expenses in similar offering transactions and comparisons with historical expenses.

(4) Represents management's estimate of annual maintenance capital expenditures, including expenditures required to maintain the base fleet of equipment, inventory of equipment, equipment certification costs, leasehold and office improvements, and tools. Estimates are based on historical expenditures, consistent with management's plans for funding capital expenditures on an ongoing basis. See "Acquisition of the Acquired Companies".

(5) Represents estimated interest expense on proposed credit facilities that management intends to secure concurrent with the Closing. Management anticipates a credit facility will be in the form of a revolving line of credit. Management estimates that the facility will be utilized to fund seasonal working capital requirements. On an annualized basis, management anticipates that Petrowest will, on average, carry a balance of $5 million with an average interest rate of 6%.

(6) Management initially intends to reserve approximately 55% to 65% of cash available for actual distribution.

(7) Distributable cash is not a recognized measure under GAAP and is typically used by Canadian income funds as an indicator of financial performance. The method of calculating the Trust's distributable cash may differ from similar computations as reported by other issuers and, accordingly, the distributable cash of the Trust may not be comparable to distributable cash as reported by other issuers. See "Non-GAAP Measures".

(8) Based on 28,275,094 Units outstanding upon Closing.

CONSOLIDATED CAPITALIZATION OF THE TRUST

The following table sets forth the consolidated capitalization of the Trust both before and after giving effect to this offering. The table should be read in conjunction with the financial statements of the Trust included in Schedule "B" of this prospectus.

Designation	Outstanding as at July 6, 2006	Outstanding as at July 6, 2006 after giving effect to the Promoters' subscription, the Concurrent Acquisitions[1][2] and this offering
Long term debt[3]	$Nil	$Nil
Unitholders' Equity
Trust Units	$10	$267,650,940
(authorized - unlimited)	(1 Trust Unit)[1]	(26,765,094 Trust Units)
Subordinated Units[4]	$1,510,000	$1,510,000
(authorized - unlimited)	(1,510,000 Subordinated Units)[4]	(1,510,000 Subordinated Units)

Notes:

(1) The Trust was settled on July 6, 2006 with $10 in cash and issued a single Trust Unit. The initial Trust Unit will be surrendered to the Trust immediately following the Closing on the payment of $10.
(2) Does not include the exercise of the Over-Allotment Option.
(3) The Trust intends to obtain a credit facility of approximately $60 million concurrent with the Closing. See "Debt Financing".
(4) See "Prior Issuances".

DEBT FINANCING

The Trust intends to implement a financing strategy that incorporates long term secured and unsecured debt and maintains maximum flexibility to manage the short-term cash needs of the Trust. Petrowest intends to obtain a credit facility of approximately $60 million following Closing and is currently in discussions with a number of financial institutions with respect to obtaining such a facility.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Management's discussion and analysis for each of the Acquired Companies is set out in Schedule "A" of this prospectus. Each of the Acquired Companies is a privately held company which has not been required to meet public reporting regulations.

Upon completion of this offering and the Concurrent Acquisitions, the Directors and executive officers of the General Partner as a group will beneficially own, directly or indirectly, or exercise control or direction over 1,434,010 Units, representing approximately 4.8% of the Units outstanding. Included in this amount owned, controlled or directed are 769,010 Trust Units and 665,000 Subordinated Units.

Kenneth N. Drysdale, President, Chief Executive Officer and Director

Mr. Drysdale has over 27 years of experience in the oil and gas industry. From 1979 to 1995 he took on various management roles in road building, pipeline construction, logging and environmental reclamation. Mr. Drysdale acted as Chief Construction Consultant for SNC-Lavalin Group Inc. and Shell Canada Limited on the Caroline Liquid Sulfur Line in 1991. From March 1994 to March 1996 Mr. Drysdale also managed a mid-sized diameter pipeline company in southern Alberta where he took the company to $30 million in revenues from $11 million in just two years. He then founded his own private pipeline construction company in 1996, which he grew from revenues of $5 million to $40 million until he sold its assets in 2005. Mr. Drysdale co-founded Acquisitionco in January 2006 with a view to forming a public, energy services income fund trust.

John B. Paul, CA, Chief Financial Officer

Mr. Paul has over 20 years of senior financial and operations management experience in a diverse range of businesses including oil and gas pipeline construction and maintenance, transportation, gravel crushing, asphalt, concrete construction and property management. Mr. Paul is also the former Controller and Chief Financial Officer of Skiing Louise Ltd., from 1986 to 1993. From 1993 to 2006, Mr. Paul held various senior roles in the construction services sector including being co-founder and Chief Financial Officer of Alberta Surface Systems Ltd., which later became part of Willbros MSI Canada Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Willbros Group (formerly MSI Energy Services Inc.), where Mr. Paul served in numerous senior management positions including Director, Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Manager of Special Projects.

Mr. Paul obtained his Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of Alberta and received the Chartered Accountant designation in 1987.

Gary Sweetman, Chief Operating Officer

Mr. Sweetman has over 25 years of experience in the oil and gas industry. Mr. Sweetman started his career in 1977 with British Gas in various roles including Welding Inspector and Project Supervisor of Engineering Research. In 1990, he began working for Husky Oil as a Project Technologist in the Rotary Equipment Quality and Assurance department. Mr. Sweetman provided project management for PanCanadian Petroleum Limited in the offshore oil sector from January 1996 to August 2000. From September 2000 to May 2004, General Manager/President of Neudorf Trenching Ltd. and NTL Projects Inc.; from May 2004 to present, Mr. Sweetman has been President of Sirah Consulting Ltd. and Neuwest Equipment Rentals. Mr. Sweetman co-founded Acquisitionco in January 2006 with a view to forming a public, energy services income fund trust.

D. Hugh Gillard, Chairman of the Board and Director

Mr. Gillard has over 34 years of business experience in the oil and gas industry and is the Principal of Saddleback Resources Ltd., a private company involved in equity investments and advisory roles in the energy sector. From June 2003 to March 2006, Mr. Gillard was President, Chief Executive Officer and remains a director of Kelso Energy Inc., a publicly traded junior oil and gas company (now COSTA Energy Inc.). From 1999 to 2000, Mr. Gillard was President, Chief Operating Officer and a director of PrimeWest Energy Trust. From 1990 to 1998, Mr. Gillard was employed by CanWest Gas Marketing Inc., a private producer owned gas marketing company as President and Chief Executive Officer and prior to this, Vice President Gas Supply. From 1972 to 1989, Mr. Gillard held several senior positions with Ashland Oil Canada, Dome Petroleum and Amoco Canada.

Mr. Gillard is a graduate of the University of Calgary (Commerce) and the Stanford Business School Executive Program. Mr. Gillard currently serves as a director of COSTA Energy Inc. (formerly Kelso Energy Inc.), Crescent Point Energy Trust, Creststreet Power Income Fund and Point North Energy Limited, all publicly traded entities.

Rene Amirault, Director

Mr. Amirault has over 25 years experience in the energy industry. Mr. Amirault held various positions with Imperial Oil Ltd. from 1981 to 1994 including marketing, project management, finance and accounting capacities. Mr. Amirault held various roles at Canadian Crude Separators Inc. (CCS) and CCS Income Trust from August 1994 to January 2006, including Vice President roles in Sales and Marketing, Business Development and Corporate Development. Mr. Amirault was Vice President of Corporate Development of CCS Income Trust, or its predecessor companies, from September 2001 to January 2006, during which time his responsibilities included business development, acquisitions, strategic planning and investor relations. Mr. Amirault is a director of Arrowhead Water Products Ltd., a public company traded on the TSX Venture Exchange.

Mr. Amirault received a Certified General Accountant designation in June 1985.

Gerald A. Romanzin, CA, Director

Gerald A. Romanzin is an independent businessman and has served as a director of the administrator of each of Crescent Point Energy Trust from March 2004, Ketch Resources Trust from January 2005, Focus Energy Trust from August 2002, as a director of Kereco Energy Ltd. from January 2005 and as a trustee of Trimac Income Fund since February 2005. Mr. Romanzin graduated from the University of Calgary with a Bachelor of Commerce and is a Chartered Accountant.

Bradley D. Markel, Corporate Secretary

Mr. Markel is a Partner in the law firm of Bennett Jones LLP, a Canadian law firm that focuses on energy, corporate law, technology and litigation. Mr. Markel's practice includes mergers and acquisitions and corporate finance. Mr. Markel also provides advice relating to corporate governance in respect of mergers and acquisitions as well as corporate finance transactions. Mr. Markel joined Bennett Jones LLP in 1997. Prior to joining Bennett Jones LLP, Mr. Markel practiced with MacPherson Leslie & Tyerman in Regina, Saskatchewan. Mr. Markel received a Bachelor of Laws Degree from the University of Saskatchewan in 1990.

Governance

The Board of Directors will form such committees to fulfill the audit, governance and other committee functions of the Trust as they, in their discretion, determine. It is expected that initially the Board of Directors will have a Compensation Committee and an Audit Committee and that in the future the Board of Directors will form a Governance Committee and a Health and Safety Committee.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee consists of three Directors, Rene Amirault (Chair), Hugh Gillard and Gerald Romanzin, each of whom is independent in accordance with applicable Canadian securities legislation. Its mandate will be determined by the Board of Directors and is expected to include making recommendations as to the hiring, termination and compensation of executive officers.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee consists of three Directors, Gerald Romanzin (Chair), Rene Amirault and Hugh Gillard, each of whom is independent in accordance with applicable Canadian securities legislation. The primary purpose of the Audit Committee will be to assist the Directors in fulfilling their responsibilities of oversight and supervision of the accounting and financial reporting practices and procedures, the adequacy of internal accounting controls and procedures, and the quality and integrity of financial statements.

Disclosure Policy

The Board of Directors will be responsible for adopting and periodically reviewing and updating the Trust's written disclosure policy. This policy will, among other things:

- articulate the legal obligations of the Trust, its affiliates and their respective trustees, directors, officers and employees with respect to confidential information;
- identify spokespersons of the Trust who are the only persons authorized to communicate with third parties such as analysts, media and investors;
- provide guidelines on the disclosure of forward-looking information;
- require advance review by designated persons of the Trust of financial information to determine whether the information is material, to prevent the selective disclosure of material information and to ensure that, if selective disclosure does occur, a news release is issued immediately; and

- establish "black-out" periods immediately prior to and following the disclosure of quarterly and annual financial results and immediately prior to the disclosure of certain material changes, during which periods the Trust, its affiliates and their respective trustees, directors, officers, employees and consultants may not purchase or sell Units.

Remuneration of Directors

It is the intention of the General Partner to compensate the Chairman of the Board with an annual retainer of $30,000 per year, its other outside directors with an annual retainer of $20,000 per year, and an additional $5,000 per year for each committee chairman. In addition, outside directors will be paid $1,000 for each board meeting and each committee meeting if attended in person or $500 if participating by telephone. Outside directors will be entitled to participate in the Trust's option plan and the Trust intends to grant options to acquire 115,000 Trust Units to each of the outside directors following completion of this offering, one third of which will vest each year for three years following the Closing, and which will expire five years after the Closing. Outside directors have also subscribed for 20,000 Subordinated Units each at a price of $3.00 per unit.

Insurance Coverage for the Trust and Related Entities and Indemnification

The General Partner will obtain or cause to be obtained a policy of insurance for the directors and officers of the Trust's subsidiaries. The initial aggregate limit of liability applicable to the insured directors and officers under the policy will be $10 million. Under the policy, each entity will have reimbursement coverage to the extent that it has indemnified the directors and officers. The policy will include securities claims coverage, insuring against any legal obligation to pay on account of any securities claims brought against the Trust, Petrowest Business Trust, the Business Trustee, the Partnerships and the General Partner and any of their respective subsidiaries. The total limit of liability will be shared among the Trust, Petrowest Business Trust, the Partnership and the General Partners and any of their respective subsidiaries and their respective directors and officers so that the limit of liability will not be exclusive to any one of the entities or their respective trustees, directors and officers.

The by-laws of General Partner, Acquisitionco and the Business Trustee provide for the indemnification of their directors and officers from and against liability and costs in respect of any action or suit brought against them in connection with the execution of their duties of office, subject to certain limitations. The Deed of Trust and the Business Deed of Trust also provide for the indemnification of the Directors and the trustees of the Trust and Petrowest Business Trust, respectively, from and against liability and costs in respect of any action or suit brought against them in connection with the execution of their duties of office, subject to certain limitations.

SHAREHOLDERS AGREEMENT

In accordance with the terms of the Shareholders Agreement, the Unitholders, in their capacity as holders of Units of the Trust, will be entitled to direct the Trustee as to the appointment of the Board of Directors.

ADMINISTRATION AGREEMENT

The Trust has entered into the Administration Agreement with the General Partner pursuant to which the General Partner, which on or before the Closing Date will be a wholly-owned subsidiary of Petrowest Business Trust and the general partner of the Partnerships, has agreed to provide or arrange for the provision of services required in the administration and management of the Trust and the Business Trust. At Closing, the Petrowest Business Trust will also enter into the Administration Agreement and the General Partner will agree to provide or arrange for the provision of services required in the management and administration of the Trust and the Business Trust. The General Partner will be responsible for overseeing and managing the affairs of the Trust and its subsidiaries.

The General Partner's duties with respect to the administration of the Trust and Petrowest Business Trust under the Administration Agreement will include (i) ensuring compliance by the Trust, its affiliates and subsidiaries with all continuous disclosure obligations under applicable securities legislation, including the preparation of financial statements; (ii) providing investor relations services; (iii) providing or causing to be provided to Unitholders all information that Unitholders are entitled to receive under the Deed of Trust, including relevant information with respect to income taxes; (iv) convening meetings of Unitholders and distributing required materials, including notices of meetings and information circulars, in respect of all such meetings; (v) attending to all administrative and other matters arising in connection with any redemptions of Units; (vi) monitoring the status of Units as qualified investments under the Tax Act for trusts governed by Plans; (vii) providing assistance in negotiating the terms of any financing required by the Trust; and (viii) generally providing all other services as may be necessary, or as requested by the Trustee, for the administration of the Trust. The General Partner will also provide similar services to Petrowest Business Trust.

The Administration Agreement will be for an initial term of ten years.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Each of Messrs. Drysdale and Sweetman entered into employment agreements with Petrowest effective January 6, 2006 and Mr. Paul entered into an employment agreement effective May 1, 2006 (Messrs. Drysdale, Sweetman, and Paul, collectively, the "Named Officers"). The annual base salaries and positions of these individuals will be as follows:

Name	Position	Salary	Term
Kenneth N. Drysdale	President and Chief Executive Officer	$200,000	5
Gary Sweetman	Chief Operating Officer	$200,000	5
John B. Paul	Chief Financial Officer	$200,000	5

The General Partner will review annual base salaries on an annual basis. Each of the Named Officers will be entitled to an annual bonus in an amount determined by and in the discretion of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors based upon performance. In addition, the General Partner has agreed to provide certain benefits, six weeks of vacation time and a vehicle allowance. Each of the Named Officers is required to give one month's written notice of resignation of his employment. In the event that employment is terminated by the General Partner for reasons other than just cause, the Named Officers are entitled to receive severance equal to compensation due to the date of ceasing to be employed plus one year of base salary in effect at the date of termination and an amount equal to 10% of such base salary in lieu of benefits. In the event that employment is terminated for cause, each Named Officer is entitled to receive severance equal to all accrued but unpaid base salary to the date of ceasing to be employed. The employment agreements contain customary confidentiality provisions.

ANNUAL INCENTIVE PLAN

The executive officers and employees will be eligible to participate in an annual cash incentive plan based on the degree to which financial and non-financial objectives of Petrowest have been met. The Compensation Committee will determine eligibility and set objectives and maximum incentive opportunities and will approve proposed payments.

LONG TERM INCENTIVE PLAN

The Trust intends to adopt a trust unit option plan (the "Option Plan") subject to the approval of the Option Plan by the Board of Directors, Unitholders and the TSX. The directors, officers, employees and consultants of the Trust and its subsidiaries are eligible to participate in the Option Plan. The purpose of the Option Plan will be to develop the interest of directors, officers and employees of and persons or companies who provide management or consulting services to the Trust and its subsidiaries in the growth and development of the Trust by providing them with the opportunity, through options, to acquire an increased proprietary interest in the Trust. The Option Plan will provide that the maximum number of Trust Units issuable upon the exercise of all options granted under the Option Plan, together with Trust Units as may be subject to options pursuant to other Unit compensation arrangements, shall not exceed 10% of the outstanding Units and any securities exchangeable into Units.

Subject to certain limitations set forth below, pursuant to the Option Plan, the number of options and the exercise price thereof will be set by the Board of Directors at the time of grant provided that the excess price shall not be less than the weighted average trading price of the Trust Units on the TSX for the five trading days immediately prior to the date of grant.

Pursuant to the Option Plan, no options shall be granted to any optionee if such grant, together with any other compensation or incentive mechanism involving the issuance of Units, could result, at any time, in the number of Units reserved for issuance pursuant to options granted to insiders of the Trust exceeding 10% of the outstanding Units and any securities exchangeable into Units.

Following Closing, the Trust intends to issue options to acquire an aggregate of approximately 1.2 million Units to directors and executive officers of the General Partner and options to acquire an aggregate of approximately 1.5 million Units to employees of the General Partner, each option having an exercise price equal to the offering price of the Units pursuant to this prospectus.

DISTRIBUTION REINVESTMENT AND OPTIONAL UNIT PURCHASE PLAN

The Trust may establish a distribution, distribution reinvestment and optional unit purchase plan (the "DRIP") at a future date determined by the Board of Directors. Generally, the DRIP will provide eligible holders of Units the opportunity to accumulate additional Units at a 5% discount to an average market price. Participants may also purchase additional Units by investing additional sums within the limits and subject to the terms of the DRIP (the "Optional Unit Purchase").

The DRIP is designed to provide an efficient and cost-effective way to issue additional equity to existing Unitholders. An eligible Unitholder may, by enrolling in the DRIP, direct that distributions in respect of all Units of such Unitholder enrolled in the DRIP be applied to the purchase of additional Units. The price of Units purchased with reinvested distributions will be approximately 95% of an average market price. Unitholders participating in the DRIP may also purchase additional Units under the DRIP with optional cash payments, subject to a maximum of $100,000 per participant per calendar year and a certain prescribed minimum per participant per remittance.

DESCRIPTION OF THE TRUST

The description below is a summary and is qualified entirely by the complete provisions of the Deed of Trust. A copy of the Deed of Trust will be available via the internet at www.sedar.com.

Trust Structure

The Trust is an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose mutual fund trust established under and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta and pursuant to the Deed of Trust. The head and principal office of the Trust is located at Suite 204, 10605 Westside Drive, Grande Prairie, Alberta, T8V 8E6. The Trust was created for, among other things, the following purposes:

- participating in the acquisition of energy services businesses;
- acquiring, investing in, holding, transferring, disposing of and otherwise dealing with, directly or indirectly, any of the securities issued by Petrowest Business Trust, Petrowest Business Trustee, or any of their respective associates, subsidiaries or affiliates thereof and the Business Notes and Business Units, and borrowing funds directly or indirectly for that purpose;
- acquiring, investing in, holding, transferring, disposing of and otherwise dealing with any other securities and in any other investments as the Trustee or the General Partner may determine and borrowing funds directly or indirectly for that purpose;
- temporarily holding cash and short term investments for the purposes of making investments, paying the expenses and liabilities of the Trust, paying amounts payable by the Trust in connection with the redemption of any Units or securities of the Trust, and making distributions to Unitholders;

- issuing Units and other securities of the Trust including securities convertible into, or exchangeable for Units or other securities, obtaining funds to conduct any of the activities of the Trust, completing any acquisition of securities or any other assets for the benefit of the Trust, implementing Unitholder rights plans, distribution reinvestment plans, Trust Unit purchase plans, incentive option plans or other compensation plans, if any, established by the Trustee for the benefit of the Trust; and making non-cash distributions to Unitholders as contemplated by the Deed of Trust including pursuant to distribution reinvestment plans or distribution reinvestment and Trust Unit purchase plans, if any, established by the Trust;

- issuing debt securities (including debt securities convertible into, or exchangeable for, Units or other securities of the Trust), provided recourse shall be limited to the Trust Assets, or otherwise borrowing and mortgaging, pledging, charging, granting a security interest in or otherwise encumbering any of the Trust Assets as security;

- guaranteeing (as guarantor, surety or co-principal obligor) the payment of any indebtedness, liability or obligation of the Petrowest Business Trust, the General Partner or any subsidiary or affiliate thereof, and mortgaging, pledging, charging, granting a security interest in or otherwise encumbering all or any part of the Trust Assets as security for that guarantee, and subordinating its rights under the Business Notes to other indebtedness;

- disposing of any part of the Trust Assets;

- issuing or redeeming rights and Units pursuant to any Unitholder rights plan adopted by the Trust;

- repurchasing, redeeming or otherwise acquiring securities of the Trust, including pursuant to any issuer bid made by the Trust;

- satisfying the obligations, liabilities or indebtedness of the Trust;

- performing all acts necessary, incidental or ancillary to any of the activities set forth above; and

- undertaking such other activities or taking such other actions as shall be approved by the Trustee from time to time, provided that the Trust shall not undertake any activity, take any action, or make or retain any investment which would result (or fail to take any action where that failure would result) in the Trust not being considered a "unit trust" or a "mutual fund trust" for purposes of the Tax Act.

The Trustee may declare payable to the Unitholders all or any part of the net income of the Trust less all expenses and liabilities of the Trust. It is currently anticipated that the only income to be received by the Trust will be from the securities of the Petrowest Business Trust.

Units

The Trust is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Trust Units, an unlimited number of Subordinated Units and an unlimited number of Special Voting Units.

Trust Units

Prior to the conversion of the Subordinated Units, holders of Trust Units will be entitled to receive per month, in priority to any payments on the Subordinated Units, distributions of $0.10 per Trust Unit per month and such distributions shall constitute Priority Distributions (as defined below).

Holders of Trust Units are entitled to notice of, and to attend and vote at, all meetings of holders of Units.

Upon the occurrence of a Capital Event (as defined below) or the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Trust or any other distribution of the assets of the Trust for the purpose of winding-up its affairs; (i) the holders of Trust Units will be entitled to receive, on a pro rata basis, from the applicable Capital Event Amount (as defined below) or the assets of the Trust, as applicable, before any distribution therefrom is made to the holders of Subordinated Units, any accumulated but unpaid Priority Distributions; and (ii) the holders of Subordinated Units shall be entitled to receive, on a pro rata basis, from the applicable Capital Event Amount of the assets of the Trust, as applicable after the holders of Trust Units have received a distribution therefrom in an amount equal to any accumulated but unpaid Priority Distributions but before any further distribution therefrom is made to the Priority Unitholder, any accumulated but unpaid Subordinated Distributions. Thereafter any further distributions from the applicable Capital Event Amount or the assets of the Trust, as applicable, to the holders of Units of either class shall be made pro rata and pari passu.

If a Capital Event occurs, the Priority Distributions and Subordinated Distributions will be adjusted as agreed to by the independent directors of the General Partner, using the definition of independence as provided in securities laws.

A "Capital Event" means the occurrence of any of the following events: (i) a sale of material assets of the Trust; (ii) the total or constructive total loss, or partial loss, of material assets of the Trust as a result of a casualty; (iii) a compulsory transfer or taking under threat of compulsory transfer by a governmental authority; or (iv) the occurrence of any event referred to in clauses (i) to (iii) above in relation to any person in which the Trust is a securityholder.

A "Capital Event Amount" means, in respect of a particular Capital Event, any amount received by the Trust in respect of such Capital Event, which the Trustee upon the recommendation of the Board of Directors, determines will not be re-deployed or reapplied by the Trust and shall be distributed to Unitholders.

Subordinated Units

Distributions on the Subordinated Units will be subordinated in favour of Trust Units. Distributions on the Subordinated Units will only be paid at the end of a fiscal quarter to the extent that: (i) the Trust has paid distributions per month of at least $0.10 per Trust Unit (the "Priority Distributions") to holders of Trust Units during that quarter, and (ii) any deficiency in such distributions to holders of Trust Units during the preceding 12 months has been satisfied, as described below. If these targets are not satisfied, any deficiency will be borne by holders of the Subordinated Units, distributions on which will be reduced to the extent necessary to support the continued payment of Priority Distributions on the Trust Units and any applicable deficiency in such distributions.

Distributions on the Trust Units will be cumulative, such that the amount of any deficiency in the Priority Distributions will accumulate for a period of 12 months. Payments of deficiencies in the Priority Distributions will be made in priority to distributions on the Subordinated Units. Any such accumulated deficiency not satisfied by a distribution by the Trust within 12 months of the date it arose will cease to be payable (i.e., distributions on the Subordinated Units will not be reduced to fund such accumulated deficiency to the extent that some or all of such accumulated deficiency arose more than 12 months before the date on which such payment is to be made).

Following payment of the Priority Distributions and any deficiency in the Priority Distributions accumulated during the preceding 12 months, holders of Subordinated Units will be entitled to a distribution in an amount equal to $0.10 per Subordinated Unit per month (the "Subordinated Distributions"), such amount to be accumulated and paid at the end of each fiscal quarter.

Deficiencies in payment of Subordinated Distributions shall be accumulated and paid in a subsequent quarter in respect of such Distribution Periods, but only after payment of the Priority Distributions in respect of such Distribution Periods, any deficiency in Priority Distributions accumulated during the preceding 12 months and the Subordinated Distributions in respect of such subsequent Distribution Periods, and provided that any accumulated unpaid portion or deficiency on Subordinated Distributions not satisfied by a distribution by the Trust within 12 months of the date such unpaid portion or deficiency arose shall cease to be payable.

After payment of all Priority Distributions and Subordinated Distributions (including any unpaid Priority Distributions and Subordinated Distributions accumulated during the preceding 12 months), distribution of Distributable Cash shall be made to Unitholders pro rata and pari passu.

Holders of Subordinated Units are entitled to notice of, and to attend and vote at, all meetings of holders of Units.

Special Voting Units

In order to allow the Trust flexibility in pursuing corporate acquisitions, the Deed of Trust allows for the creation of Special Voting Units which will enable the Trust to provide voting rights to holders of exchangeable securities that may be issued by the Corporation or other direct or indirect subsidiaries of the Trust in connection with exchangeable share transactions.

An unlimited number of Special Voting Units may be created and issued pursuant to the Deed of Trust. Holders of Special Voting Units shall not be entitled to any distributions of any nature whatsoever from the Trust and shall be entitled to such number of votes at meetings of Unitholders as may be prescribed by the Trustee or the Board of Directors in the resolution authorizing the issuance of any Special Voting Units. Except for the right to vote at meetings of the Unitholders, the Special Voting Units shall not confer upon the holders thereof any other rights.

Exchange Right

Holders of Subordinated Units will have the right to convert into Trust Units on a one-for-one basis at any time after (and the subordination provisions will only apply until) the end of the first fiscal year ending on or after December 31, 2008 where the Trust has earned EBITDA (derived from audited financial statements) of at least $47 million (the "EBITDA Target") and the Trust has paid distributions of at least $1.20 per Trust Unit (the "Distribution Target") for such fiscal year. For the purposes of the subordination provisions, EBITDA will be calculated and adjusted in a manner consistent with the definition of EBITDA set forth in this prospectus. See "Non-GAAP Measures".

Approvals

All Trust Unit Veto Matters (as defined below) and Subordinated Unit Veto Matters (as defined below) must be approved by a special resolution and by 66⅔% of the holders of Trust Units or Subordinated Units, as applicable, voted in respect of the matter.

A "Trust Unit Veto Matter" means a proposal to implement any of the following: (i) adding, changing or removing the rights, privileges, restrictions or conditions attaching to the Trust Units; unless such proposal makes a similar addition, change or removal to the rights, privileges, restrictions or conditions attaching to the Subordinated Units; and (ii) amending the Deed of Trust in any manner materially adverse to a holder of Trust Units that is not similarly adverse to a holder of Subordinated Units.

A "Subordinated Unit Veto Matter" means a proposal to implement any of the following: (i) adding, changing or removing the rights, privileges, restrictions or conditions attaching to the Subordinated Units; unless such proposal makes a similar addition, change or removal to the rights, privileges, restrictions or conditions attaching to the Trust Units; and (ii) amending the Deed of Trust in any manner materially adverse to a holder of Subordinated Units that is not similarly adverse to a holder of Trust Units.

The Deed of Trust will also provide that the Trust will not, subject to certain exceptions: (a) issue or distribute additional Trust Units or rights to subscribe therefore or other property or assets to all or substantially all of the holders of Trust Units, nor subdivide, reduce, consolidate, reclassify or otherwise change the rights, privileges or other terms of the Trust Units, unless the same or an equivalent distribution on, or change to, the Subordinated Units (or in the rights of the holders thereof) is made simultaneously; or (b) issue or distribute additional Subordinated Units or rights to subscribe therefore or other property or assets to all or substantially all of the holders of Subordinated Units, nor subdivide, reduce, consolidate, reclassify or otherwise change the rights, privileges or other terms of the Subordinated Units, unless the same or an equivalent distribution on, or change to the Trust Units (or in the rights of the holders thereof) is made simultaneously.

The Trust Units are not "deposits" within the meaning of the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation Act (Canada) and are not insured under the provisions of that Act or any other legislation. Furthermore, the Trust is not a trust company and, accordingly, is not registered under any trust and loan company legislation as it does not carry on or intend to carry on the business of a trust company.

Unitholder Limited Liability

The Deed of Trust provides that no Unitholder, in its capacity as such, shall incur or be subject to any liability, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, in contract or in tort or of any other kind to any Person in connection with: (i) the Trust Assets or the ownership, use, operation, acquisition or disposition thereof or exercise or enjoyment of the rights, privileges, conditions or benefits attached thereto, associated therewith or derived therefrom; (ii) the obligations or the activities or affairs of the Trust; (iii) any actual or alleged act or omission of the Trustee or by any other Person in respect of the activities or affairs of the Trust (whether or not authorized by or pursuant to the Deed of Trust); (iv) any act or omission of the Trustee or any other Person in the performance or exercise, or purported or attempted performance or exercise, of any obligation, power, discretion or authority conferred upon the Trustee or such other Person in respect of the activities or affairs of the Trust (whether or not authorized by or pursuant to the Deed of Trust); (v) any transaction entered into by the Trustee or by any other Person in respect of the activities or affairs of the Trust (whether or not authorized by or pursuant to the Deed of Trust); or (vi) except as provided in the Deed of Trust, any taxes, levies, imposts or charges or fines, penalties or interest in respect thereof payable by the Trust or by the Trustee or by any other Person on behalf of or in connection with the activities or affairs of the Trust. The Deed of Trust also provides that no Unitholder, in its capacity as a Unitholder, shall be liable to indemnify the Trustee or any other person with respect to any liabilities of the Trust. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that any Unitholder, in its capacity as such, is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be subject to or liable in respect of any such liability, the Deed of Trust provides that such liability shall be enforceable only against, and shall be satisfied only out of, that Unitholder's share of the Trust Assets represented by its Units.

The Deed of Trust further provides that all contracts signed by or on behalf of the Trust shall include a provision to the effect that such obligation will not be binding upon Unitholders personally. Notwithstanding the terms of the Deed of Trust, Unitholders may not be protected from liabilities of the Trust to the same extent a shareholder is protected from the liabilities of a corporation. Personal liability may also arise in respect of claims against the Trust (to the extent that claims are not satisfied by the Trust) that do not arise under contracts, including claims in tort, claims for taxes and possibly certain other statutory liabilities. The possibility of any personal liability to Unitholders of this nature arising is considered remote. In addition, the Income Trust Liability Act (Alberta) (the "ITLA") provides that the beneficiary of a trust that is (a) created by a trust instrument governed by the laws of Alberta, and (b) a reporting issuer, as defined in the Securities Act (Alberta), is not liable as a beneficiary for any act, default, obligation or liability of the Trust or any of its trustees.

Issuance of Units

The Deed of Trust provides that Units including installment receipts, subscription receipts, rights, warrants, special warrants or options to subscribe for Units or debt instruments that are convertible into or exchangeable for Units, may be created and issued on such terms and conditions and at such time or times as the Trustee or the Board of Directors may determine.

Cash Distributions

Subject to the subordination of the Subordinated Units the Trustee shall, upon the recommendation of the General Partner, on or before each Distribution Record Date, declare payable to the Unitholders of record on such Distribution Record Date, all of the Distributable Cash of the Trust for the Distribution Period. The proportionate share of each Unit of the amount of such Distributable Cash shall be determined by dividing such amount by the number of issued and outstanding Units on such Distribution Record Date. In addition, the Trustee may, upon the recommendation of the General Partner, declare to be payable and make distributions to Unitholders, from time to time, out of the income of the Trust, net realized capital gains, the capital of the Trust or otherwise.

The initial cash distribution for the period from the Closing Date to October 31, 2006 will be paid to Unitholders of record on October 31, 2006 and is expected to be paid on November 15, 2006. Thereafter, it is expected that Distributions will be made on the 15th day of each month to Unitholders of record on the immediately preceding Distribution Record Date.

Redemption Right

Each Unitholder is entitled to require the Trust to redeem, at any time and from time to time, at the demand of the Unitholder, all or any part of the Units registered in the name of the Unitholder, upon delivery to the Trust of the certificate or certificates representing such Units, accompanied by a duly completed and properly executed notice requiring redemption. If a global unit certificate has been issued by the Trust, notice must also be provided to the Canadian Depository for Securities Limited. Upon receipt by the Trust of the notice to redeem Units, the holder thereof shall cease to have any rights with respect to the Units tendered for redemption other than to receive a price per Unit equal to:

(a) in the case of a Trust Unit, the lesser of: (i) 95% of the "market price" of the Units on the principal exchange or market on which the Trust Units are quoted for trading during the 10 consecutive trading day period ending on the trading day immediately prior to the date on which the Units are tendered for redemption; and (ii) 100% of the "closing market price" on the principal exchange or market on which the Trust Units are quoted for trading on the date that the Trust Units are so tendered for redemption (the "Cash Redemption Price"); and

(b) in the case of a Subordinated Unit (i) prior to the date the holders of Subordinated Units have the right to convert to Trust Units, a portion of the Cash Redemption Price in respect of such Subordinated Unit (the "Subordinated Redemption Price") calculated pursuant to the following formula:

SRP=R*A/B

SRP means the Subordinated Redemption Price.

R = the Cash Redemption Price (determined as if the Subordinated unit was a Trust Unit);

A = the number of quarters in which the Trust has met the quarterly EBITDA Target and Distribution Target while the Subordinated Units have been outstanding;

B = for the period from the Closing Date until December 31, 2008: 10; and

for the period after December 31, 2008: 10 plus the number that is 4 multiplied by the number of completed fiscal years after December 31, 2007,

provided that if A = nil or the Subordinated Redemption Price as calculated above would be less than $3.00, the Subordinated Redemption Price shall be the lesser of $3.00 and the Cash Redemption Price; and (ii) following the date the holders of Subordinated Units have the right to convert to Trust Units, the Cash Redemption Price.

For the purposes of this calculation, "market price" will be an amount equal to the simple average of the closing price of the Trust Units on the principal exchange or market on which the Trust Units are listed and posted for trading for each of the trading days on which there was a closing price; provided that, if the applicable exchange or market does not provide a closing price; but only provides the highest and lowest prices of the Trust Units traded on a particular day, the market price shall be an amount equal to the simple average of the highest and lowest prices for each of the trading days on which there was a trade; provided further that if there was trading on the applicable exchange or market for fewer than five of the 10 trading days, the "market price" shall be the simple average of the following prices established for each of the 10 trading days: the average of the last bid and last ask prices for each day on which there was no trading; the closing price of the Trust Units for each day that there was trading if the exchange or market provides a closing price; and the average of the highest and lowest prices of the Trust Units for each day that there was trading, if the exchange or market provides only the highest and lowest prices of Trust Units traded on a particular day; and provided further that if, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, the trading activity of the Trust Units for the relevant period does not result in a trading price that represents the fair market value of a Trust Unit, the "market price" shall be an amount determined by the General Partner in good faith in its sole discretion and provided further that any such determination by the General Partner shall be conclusive and binding. The "closing market price" shall be an amount equal to the closing price of a Trust Unit on the applicable exchange or market if there was a trade on that date and the applicable exchange or market provides a closing price; an amount equal to the simple average of the highest and lowest trading prices of a Trust Unit if there was trading and the exchange or other market provides only the highest and lowest prices of a Trust Unit traded on a particular day; or the simple average of the last bid and last ask prices if there was no trading on the specified date.

The Cash Redemption Price or Subordinated Redemption Price payable in respect of any Units surrendered for redemption during any calendar month shall be paid by cheque no later than the last day of the calendar month following the month in which the Units were surrendered for redemption. The entitlement of Unitholders to receive a cheque upon the redemption of their Units is subject to the limitation that the total amount payable by the Trust in respect of such Units and all other Units tendered for redemption in the same calendar month shall not exceed $100,000 provided that, the Trustee may, in its sole discretion, waive such limitation in respect of any calendar month. If this limitation is not so waived, the Cash Redemption Price and Subordinated Redemption Price payable in respect of Units tendered for redemption in such calendar month shall be paid on the last day of the calendar month following such month as follows: (i) firstly, a cash payment by the Trust to the extent applicable; and (ii) secondly, by a distribution of Series 2 Business Notes in a principal amount equal to the remainder.

The entitlement of each Unitholder to require the Trust to redeem Units for cash will not be applicable to Units tendered for redemption where at the time the Trust Units are tendered for redemption, the outstanding Trust Units are not listed on any exchange or market which the General Partner considers in its sole discretion, provides representative fair market value prices for the Units or the normal trading of the outstanding Units is suspended or halted on the redemption date or for more than five trading days during the 10 consecutive trading day period ending on the trading day immediately prior to the redemption date.

It is anticipated that this redemption right will not be the primary mechanism for holders of Units to dispose of their Units. Securities held by the Trust which may be distributed in specie to Unitholders in connection with a redemption will not be listed on any stock exchange and no market is expected to develop in such securities. Securities held by the Trust may not be qualified investments for trusts governed by Plans.

Non-Resident Unitholders

At no time may Non-Residents be the beneficial owners of more than 49% of the Units, on a basic and fully-diluted basis, then outstanding. The Trustee or the General Partner may require declarations as to the jurisdictions in which beneficial owners of Units are resident. If the Trustee or the General Partner becomes aware that the beneficial owners of 49% of the Units (or rights to acquire Units) then outstanding are, or may be, Non-Residents or that such a situation is imminent, the Trustee or the General Partner may make a public announcement thereof and shall not accept a subscription for Units from or issue or register a transfer of Units to a Person unless the Person provides a declaration that the Person is not a Non-Resident. If, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustee or the General Partner determines that more than 49% of the Units are held by Non-Residents, the Trustee or the General Partner may send a notice to Non-Resident holders of Units, chosen in inverse order to the order of acquisition or registration or in such other manner as the Trustee or the General Partner may consider equitable and practicable, requiring such Non-Resident holders to sell their Units or a specified portion thereof within a specified period of not more than 60 days. If the Unitholders receiving such notice have not sold the specified number of Units or provided the Trustee or the General Partner with satisfactory evidence that they are not Non-Residents within such period, the Trustee may, on recommendation of the General Partner on behalf of such Unitholders, cause such Units to be sold and, in the interim, shall suspend the voting and distribution rights attached to such Units. Upon such sale, the affected Unitholders shall cease to be holders of the relevant Units and their rights shall be limited to receiving the net proceeds of sale upon surrender of the certificates representing such Units. No liability shall accrue to the Trust, the Trustee or the General Partner if the Units of Non-Resident Unitholders are sold at a loss to such Unitholder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustee and the General Partner, as the case may be, shall not enforce such restriction if a legal opinion, advanced tax ruling, Department of Finance comfort letter or any combination thereof has been received and based on such opinion and/or documentation the Trustee and/or the General Partner, as the case may be, is of the view, acting reasonably, that the failure to enforce such provisions will not result in the Trust ceasing to be a "mutual fund trust" for the purposes of the Tax Act.

Meetings of Unitholders

The Deed of Trust provides that annual meetings of Unitholders shall be called, commencing in 2006, on or before June 30 in each year or otherwise as required by applicable laws, at a time and at a place in Canada set by the General Partner. The business transacted at such meetings shall include the presentation of the consolidated audited financial statements of the Trust for the immediately preceding fiscal year, the authorizing and directing the passing of a Trust for the election of Directors for the ensuing year, the appointment of the auditors of the Trust for the ensuing year and the transaction of such other business as may be properly brought before the meeting.

A meeting of Unitholders may be convened at any time and for any purpose by the Trustee and must be convened, except in certain circumstances, upon a written request of the holders of not less than 5% of the Units then outstanding and entitled to be voted. A requisition must, among other things, specify in reasonable detail the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is to be called.

Unitholders may attend and vote at all meetings of voting Unitholders either in person or by proxy and a proxyholder need not be a Unitholder. Two or more individuals present in person either holding personally or representing as proxies not less in aggregate than 5% of the outstanding Units shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all such meetings.

The Deed of Trust contains provisions as to the notice required and other procedures with respect to the calling and holding of meetings of Unitholders in accordance with the requirements of applicable laws.

Reporting to Trust Unitholders

The financial statements of the Trust will be audited annually by an independent recognized firm of chartered accountants which has an office in Canada. The consolidated audited financial statements of the Trust, together with the comparative consolidated financial statements for the preceding year, if any, and the report of the auditors, will be mailed by the Trustee to Unitholders at least 21 days prior to the date of each annual meeting of Unitholders and, in any event, on or before any earlier date prescribed by applicable securities laws. The unaudited quarterly consolidated financial statements of the Trust for each fiscal quarter, together with comparative consolidated financial statements for the same fiscal quarter in the preceding fiscal year, if any, will be mailed by the Trustee to Unitholders within 45 days after the end of such fiscal quarter and, in any event, on or before any earlier date prescribed by applicable securities laws. The year-end of the Trust shall be December 31.

The Trust will be subject to the continuous disclosure obligations under all applicable securities laws.

Takeover Bids

The Deed of Trust contains provisions to the effect that if a takeover bid is made for the Units and not less than 90% of the Units (other than Units held at the date of the takeover bid by or on behalf of the offeror or associates or affiliates of the offeror) are taken up and paid for by the offeror, the offeror will be entitled to acquire the Units held by Trust Unitholders who did not accept the takeover bid on the terms offered by the offeror.

The Trustee

Valiant Trust Company is the initial trustee of the Trust. The Trustee is responsible for, among other things, accepting subscriptions for Units and issuing Units pursuant thereto and maintaining the books and records of the Trust and providing timely reports to Unitholders. The Deed of Trust provides that the Trustee shall exercise its powers and carry out its functions thereunder as Trustee honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Trust and the Unitholders and, in connection therewith, shall exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

The Trustee may resign on giving not less than 90 days' notice in writing to the General Partner (or such shorter notice as the General Partner may agree to). The Trustee may also be removed by ordinary resolution of the Unitholders. Such resignation or removal shall not become effective until (a) the approval by ordinary resolution at a meeting of Unitholders called for that purpose, (b) the appointment of, and acceptance of such appointment by, a new Trustee in the place of the resigning Trustee or the Trustee to be removed, and (c) an assumption by the new Trustee of all obligations of the Trustee related thereto in the same capacities as the resigning Trustee or the Trustee to be removed.

Delegation of Authority, Administration and Trust Governance

The Trust will not be managed by a third party manager. The Trust will be managed by the management of the General Partner. The Trustee, on behalf of the Trust, has entered into the Administration Agreement pursuant to which the General Partner will provide certain administrative services and facilities to the Trust.

The Trustee may grant broad discretion to the General Partner to administer and manage the day-to-day operations of the Trust, to act as agent for the Trust, to execute documents on behalf of the Trust and to make executive decisions for and on behalf of the Trust.

Liability of the Trustee

Neither the Trustee nor any of its directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents shall be liable to any Unitholder for any action taken or not taken in good faith in reliance on any documents that are, prima facie, properly executed; and depreciation of, or loss to, the Trust incurred by reason of the sale of any asset; the loss or disposition of monies or securities; or any other action or failure to act including, without limitation, the failure to compel in any way any former trustee to redress any breach of trust or any failure by the General Partner or any other Person to perform the duties delegated to it under the Deed of Trust or under the Administration Agreement or any failure by the General Partner to pay monies owed to the Trust, unless and to the extent such liabilities arise principally and directly the gross negligence, wilful default or fraud of the Trustee or any of its directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents or a breach by the Trustee of a restriction of the powers granted to it under the Deed of Trust. If the Trustee has retained an appropriate expert, advisor or legal counsel with respect to any matter connected with its duties under the Deed of Trust, the Trustee may act or refuse to act (provided it is done in good faith) based on the advice of such expert, advisor or legal counsel, and the Trustee shall not be liable for any action or refusal to act based on the advice of any such expert, advisor or legal counsel that it is reasonable to conclude is within the expertise of such expert, advisor or legal counsel to give. In the exercise of the powers, authorities or discretion conferred upon the Trustee under the Deed of Trust, the Trustee is and shall be conclusively deemed to be acting as trustee of the Trust Assets and shall not be subject to any personal liability for any debts, liabilities, obligations, claims, demands, judgments, costs, charges or expenses against or with respect to the Trust. In addition, the Deed of Trust contains other customary provisions limiting the liability of the Trustee.

Amendments to the Deed of Trust

The Deed of Trust may be amended or altered from time to time by special resolution of the Unitholders, provided that the Trustee may, without the consent, approval or ratification of any of the Unitholders or any other Person, amend the Deed of Trust prior to the Closing Date or at any time thereafter for the purpose of:

(a) ensuring the Trust's continuing compliance with applicable laws (including the Tax Act), regulations, requirements or policies of any governmental agency or authority having jurisdiction over the Trustee or the Trust;

(b) making amendments which, in the opinion of the Trustee, provides additional protection or added benefits for the Unitholders;

(c) removing any conflicts or inconsistencies in the Deed of Trust or making minor changes or corrections including the correction or rectification of any ambiguities, defective provisions, errors, mistakes or omissions, which are, in the opinion of the Trustee, necessary or desirable and not prejudicial to the Unitholders;

(d) making amendments which, in the opinion of the Trustee, are necessary or desirable in the interests of the Unitholders as a result of changes in taxation laws or policies of any governmental agency or authority having jurisdiction over the Trustee or the Trust;

(e) for any purpose (except one in respect of which a vote by Unitholders is specifically otherwise required) if the Trustee is of the opinion that the amendment is not prejudicial to Unitholders and is necessary or desirable; or

(f) to provide for the electronic delivery by the Trust to the Unitholders of documents relating to the Trust (including annual and quarterly reports and financial statements and proxy-related materials) in accordance with applicable laws from time to time, but, notwithstanding the foregoing, no such amendment shall be adopted which causes the Trust to fail to qualify as a "mutual fund trust" under the Tax Act, without the consent of the Unitholders given as set out above. In addition, no such amendment shall modify the right to one vote per Unit or reduce the undivided interest in the Trust Assets represented by any Unit without the consent of the holder of such Unit and no amendment shall reduce the percentage of votes required to be cast at a meeting of the Unitholders for the purpose of amending the Deed of Trust or altering the acquisition provisions of the Deed of Trust without the unanimous consent of the Unitholders.

Termination of the Trust

The Unitholders may vote to terminate the Trust by special resolution at any meeting of the Unitholders duly called for that purpose.

Unless the Trust is earlier terminated by vote of the Unitholders, the Trust shall continue for a term ending 21 years after the date of death of the last surviving issue of Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, alive on July 6, 2006. In the event that the Trust is wound-up, the Trustee will sell and convert into money all Trust Assets in one transaction or in a series of transactions at public or private sales and do all other acts appropriate to liquidate the Trust, and shall in all respects act in accordance with the directions, if any, of the Unitholders. If the Trustee is unable to sell all or any of the securities or other assets comprising the Trust Assets by the date set for termination, the Trustee may distribute the remaining securities or assets directly to the Unitholders. After paying, retiring or discharging or making provision for the payment, retirement or discharge of all known liabilities and obligations of the Trust and providing for indemnity against any other outstanding liabilities and obligations, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining part of the proceeds of the sale of the securities and other assets together with any cash forming part of the Trust Assets among the Unitholders in accordance with their pro rata share.

Restrictions on Trustee's Powers

The Trustee may not under any circumstances whatsoever authorize:

(a) any amalgamation, arrangement or other merger of the Petrowest Business Trust, the Business Trustee, the General Partner or Acquisitionco or any subsidiary thereof with any other Person, other than any amalgamation, arrangement or other merger of the General Partner with one or more direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Trust or in conjunction with an internal reorganization with an affiliate or subsidiary of the General Partner;

(b) any sale or disposition of any common shares of the General Partner or Business Notes held by the Trust or any other sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the Trust Assets, except pursuant to an in specie redemption, pursuant to any security granted under the Deed of Trust, pursuant to any internal reorganization as a result of which the Trust has the same interest, whether direct or indirect, in the assets of the trust as the interest, whether direct or indirect, that it had prior to the reorganization or where any such sale, lease or exchange is effected between or among the Trust and any one or more of:

(i) the General Partner;

(ii) any other corporation, partnership, firm or other form of entity or organization that is directly or indirectly wholly-owned by the Trust;

(iii) any trust or trusts, the sole beneficiaries of which are the Trust and/or any of the Persons referred to above; and

(iv) any partnership, the only partners of which are Persons referred to above;

(c) any sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the assets of the General Partner or any subsidiary thereof, except pursuant to any security granted by the General Partner or the Partnerships, pursuant to any internal reorganization with an affiliate or subsidiary of the General Partner or the Partnerships, or where any such sale, lease or exchange is effected between or among any one or more of:

(i) the Trust;

(ii) the General Partner;

(iii) any other corporation, partnership, firm or other form of entity or organization that is directly or indirectly wholly-owned by the Trust;

(iv) any trust or trusts, the sole beneficiaries of which are the Trust and/or any of the Persons referred to above; and

(v) any partnership, the only partners of which are Persons referred to above;

(d) any amendment to the articles of the General Partner to change its authorized share capital or otherwise amend its constating documents in a manner which may be prejudicial to the Trust;

(e) for so long as there are any Subordinated Units outstanding, the issuance and distribution of additional Trust Units or rights to subscribe therefor or other property or assets to all or substantially all of the holders of Trust Units, or the subdivision, reduction, consolidation, reclassification of, or other change to, the rights, privileges or other terms of the Trust Units, unless the same or an equivalent distribution on, or change to the Subordinated Units (or in the rights of the holders thereof) is made simultaneously; or

(f) for so long as there are any Trust Units outstanding, the issuance and distribution of additional Subordinated Units or rights to subscribe therefor or other property or assets to all or substantially all of the Subordinated Unitholders, or the subdivision, reduction, consolidation, reclassification of, or other change to, the rights, privileges or other terms of the Subordinated Units, unless the same or an equivalent distribution on, or change to the Trust Units (or in the rights of the holders thereof) is made simultaneously;

in each case, without the approval of the Unitholders by special resolution at a meeting of Unitholders called for that purpose.

DESCRIPTION OF PETROWEST BUSINESS TRUST

The Business Deed of Trust will contain provisions substantially similar to those of the Deed of Trust. The principal differences between the Petrowest Business Deed of Trust and the Deed of Trust will be those described below. The description below is a summary and is qualified entirely by the complete provisions of the Petrowest Business Deed of Trust. A copy of the Petrowest Business Deed of Trust will be available via the internet at www.sedar.com.

General

Petrowest Business Trust, when created, will be an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose mutual fund trust established under and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to the Business Deed of Trust. It is a limited purpose trust and its activities will be restricted to, among other things:

(a) participating in the acquisition of energy service businesses, including the Concurrent Acquisitions;

(b) acquiring, investing in, holding, transferring, disposing of and otherwise dealing with, directly or indirectly, in any of securities issued by the Partnerships including investing in securities of the Partnerships' subsidiaries and borrowing funds for that purpose;

(c) investing in any other securities and in any other investments as the General Partner or Business Trustee may determine and borrowing funds for that purpose;

(d) temporarily holding cash in interest bearing accounts and short-term investments for the purposes of making investments, paying the expenses and the liabilities of the Petrowest Business Trust, paying amounts payable by the Petrowest Business Trust in connection with the redemption of any Business Units or other securities of the Petrowest Business Trust and making distributions to holders of Business Units;

(e) issuing Business Units or securities convertible into or exchangeable for Business Units for the purpose of obtaining funds to conduct any of the activities of the Petrowest Business Trust, completing any acquisition of securities or any other assets for the benefit of the Petrowest Business Trust;

(f) issuing debt securities, including the Business Notes, provided recourse shall be limited to the assets of the Petrowest Business Trust (including debt securities convertible into or exchangeable for Petrowest Business Trust Units or other securities of the Petrowest Business Trust) or otherwise borrowing and mortgaging, pledging, charging, granting a security interest in or otherwise encumbering any of the assets of the Petrowest Business Trust as security;

(g) guaranteeing (as guarantor, surety or co-principal obligor) the payment of any indebtedness, liability or obligation of the Partnerships or the General Partner, or any of their direct or indirect subsidiaries, and mortgaging, pledging, charging, granting a security interest in or otherwise encumbering all or any part of the assets of the Petrowest Business Trust, including securities issued by the Partnerships or the General Partner or any direct or indirect subsidiary, as security for that guarantee;

(h) disposing of any part of the assets of the Petrowest Business Trust;

(i) repurchasing, redeeming or otherwise acquiring securities of the Petrowest Business Trust, including pursuant to any issuer bid made by the Petrowest Business Trust;

(j) satisfying the obligations, liabilities or indebtedness of the Petrowest Business Trust;

(k) performing all acts necessary, incidental, ancillary or related to any of the foregoing; and

(l) undertaking such other activities or taking such other actions to conduct the business of the Petrowest Business Trust as shall be approved by the Business Trustee from time to time.

As at the date of this prospectus, the Petrowest Business Trust does not intend to hold securities of any entities other than shares of Acquisitionco and the General Partner and partnership interests in the Partnerships, except in connection with its short-term cash management.

Exercise of Voting Rights Attached to Common Shares of the General Partner

The Business Deed of Trust provides that Unitholders will be entitled to pass an ordinary resolution directing the Business Trustee as to the persons to be elected to the Board of Directors for the ensuing year.

Restrictions on the Powers of the Trustee of Petrowest Business Trust

The Petrowest Business Deed of Trust states that the Business Trustee may not, without approval by special resolution of the holders of Business Units, authorize or vote the securities held by it to authorize:

(a) any amalgamation, arrangement or other merger of the General Partner, Acquisitionco or the Partnerships with any other Person, except with one or more direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Petrowest Business Trust or the Trust or in conjunction with an internal reorganization with an affiliate or subsidiary of the Partnerships or the Petrowest Business Trust;

(b) the winding-up or dissolution of the Partnerships prior to the end of the term of the Petrowest Business Trust, except in conjunction with an internal reorganization with an affiliate or subsidiary of the Partnerships or the Petrowest Business Trust; or

(c) any sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the assets of the Petrowest Business Trust, except pursuant to any security granted by the Petrowest Business Trust or to any internal reorganization of the direct or indirect assets of the Petrowest Business Trust as a result of which the Petrowest Business Trust has the same interest, whether direct or indirect, in the assets as the interest, whether direct or indirect, that it had prior to the reorganization or where any such sale, lease or exchange is effected between or among the Petrowest Business Trust and any one or more of:

  (i) the Trust;

  (ii) the Partnerships;

  (iii) any other corporation, partnership, firm or other form of entity or organization that is directly or indirectly wholly-owned by the Petrowest Business Trust or the Trust;

  (iv) any trust or trusts, the sole beneficiaries of which are the Trust and/or any of the Persons referred to in (i) through (iii) above; and

  (v) any partnership, the only partners of which are Persons referred to in (i) through (iv) above; or

(d) any sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the assets of the Partnerships except pursuant to any security granted by the Partnerships, except pursuant to any internal reorganization with an affiliate or subsidiary of the Trust, the Petrowest Business Trust or the Partnerships, or where any such sale, lease or exchange is effected between or among any one or more of:

  (i) the Trust;

  (ii) the Petrowest Business Trust;

  (iii) the Partnerships;

  (iv) any other corporation, partnership, firm or other form of entity or organization that is directly or indirectly wholly-owned by the Trust, the Petrowest Business Trust or the Partnerships;

(v) any trust or trusts, the sole beneficiaries of which are the Petrowest Business Trust and/or any of the Persons referred to in (i) through (iv); and

(vi) any partnership, the only partners of which are Persons referred to in (i) through (v) above.

Redemption Right

The Business Units will be redeemable at any time on demand by the holders thereof upon delivery to the Petrowest Business Trust of a duly completed and properly executed notice requiring the Petrowest Business Trust to redeem the Business Units, in a form reasonably acceptable to the Business Trustee, together with the certificates representing the Business Units to be redeemed and written instructions as to the number of Business Units to be redeemed. Upon tender of Business Units by a holder thereof for redemption, the holder of the Business Units tendered for redemption will no longer have any rights with respect to such Business Units other than the right to receive the redemption price for such Business Units. The redemption price for each Business Unit tendered for redemption will be equal to:

$$\frac{(A \times B) - C}{D}$$

Where:

A = the cash redemption price per Unit calculated as of the close of business on the Redemption Date in accordance with the terms of the Deed of Trust;

B = the aggregate number of Units outstanding as of the close of business on the Redemption Date;

C = the aggregate unpaid principal amount and accrued interest thereon of the Business Notes and any other indebtedness of the Petrowest Business Trust held by or owed to the Trust and the fair market value of any other assets or investments held by the Trust (other than Business Notes or Business Units) as of the close of business on the Redemption Date; and

D = the aggregate number of Business Units outstanding held by the Unitholders as of the close of business on the Redemption Date.

The Business Trustee will also be entitled to call for redemption, at any time, all or part of the outstanding Business Units registered in the name of the holders thereof other than the initial unit of the Petrowest Business Trust at the same redemption price as described above for each Petrowest Business Trust Unit called for redemption, calculated with reference to the date the Business Trustee approved the redemption of Business Units.

Distributions

The Petrowest Business Trust intends to make monthly cash distributions to the Trust of its available cash, after satisfaction of its interest obligations, if any, and less any estimated cash amounts required for costs, expenses, liabilities, obligations or other amounts of the Petrowest Business Trust, any cash redemptions or repurchases of Business Units, Business Notes or other securities of the Petrowest Business Trust, amounts retained to comply with limits or restrictions in loan agreements, allowances for contingencies in working capital, investments or acquisitions, any amount determined to be appropriate to retain for a reserve to stabilize distributions and income tax liability. Such distributions will be paid on or before the 15th day of the month following the end of the distribution period and are intended to be received by the Trust prior to its related cash distribution to Trust Unitholders.

The distribution declared in respect of the month ending December 31 in each year will include such amount in respect of the taxable income and net realized capital gains, if any, of the Petrowest Business Trust for such year as is necessary to ensure that the Petrowest Business Trust will not be liable for ordinary income taxes under the Tax Act in such year.

If the Business Trustee determines that the Petrowest Business Trust does not have cash in an amount sufficient to make payment of the full amount of any distribution, the payment may include the pro rata issuance of additional Business Units having a value equal to the difference between the amount of such distribution and the amount of cash which has been determined by the trustee, to be available for the payment of such distribution. The value of each Petrowest Business Trust Unit so issued will be the redemption price thereof.

Any Business Units transferred to Unitholders pursuant to a distribution in specie may be subject to resale and transfer restrictions and cannot be resold or transferred except as permitted by applicable securities law.

Business Notes

The following is a summary of the material attributes and characteristics of the Business Notes which will be issued by the Petrowest Business Trust under the Note Indenture. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the provisions of the Note Indenture which contains a complete statement of those attributes and characteristics.

Business Notes will be issuable in Canadian currency. Business Notes are issuable in denominations of $100 and integral multiples of $100. No fractional Business Notes will be issued or distributed and where the number of Business Notes to be received by a Unitholder includes a fraction, such number shall be rounded to the next lowest whole number.

Series 2 Business Notes will be reserved by the Petrowest Business Trust to be issued exclusively to holders of Units as full or partial payment of the redemption price of Units, as the Trustees may decide or, in certain circumstances, be obliged to issue. Series 3 Business Notes will be reserved by the Petrowest Business Trust to be issued exclusively as full or partial payment of the redemption price of Series 1 Business Notes.

Interest and Maturity

The Series 1 Business Notes to be issued at Closing will be payable on demand, will mature on the 10th anniversary of the date of issuance and will bear a fixed rate of interest, payable monthly in arrears on the 10th day of each calendar month that such Series 1 Business Notes are outstanding. Each Series 2 Note will mature on a date which is no later than the first anniversary of the date of issuance thereof and bear interest at a market rate to be determined by the Business Trustee at the time of issuance thereof, payable monthly in arrears on the 10th day of each calendar month that such Series 2 Note is outstanding. Each Series 3 Note will mature on the same date as the Series 1 Business Notes and bear interest at a market rate to be determined by the Business Trustee at the time of issuance thereof, payable monthly in arrears on the 10th day of each calendar month that such Series 3 Note is outstanding.

Payment upon Maturity

On maturity, the Petrowest Business Trust will repay the Business Notes by paying to the trustee under the Note Indenture in cash an amount equal to the principal amount of the outstanding Business Notes which have then matured, together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon.

Redemption

The Business Notes will be redeemable in whole or in part (at a redemption price equal to the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, payable in cash or, in the case of a redemption of Series 1 Business Notes in cash, in specie payment of the Redemption Price in Series 3 Business Notes or a combination thereof) at the option of the Petrowest Business Trust prior to maturity.

Ranking and Postponement

The Business Notes will be direct, unsecured obligations of the Petrowest Business Trust ranking pari passu with all other unsecured obligations of the Petrowest Business Trust other than senior indebtedness. Payment of the principal amount and interest on the Business Notes will be postponed in right of payment to the prior payment in full of the principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on, and all other amounts owing in respect of, all senior indebtedness which will be defined as all indebtedness, liabilities and obligations of the Petrowest Business Trust which, by the terms of the instrument creating or evidencing the same, will be expressed to rank in right of payment in priority to the indebtedness evidenced by the Note Indenture. The Note Indenture provides that upon any distribution of the assets of the Petrowest Business Trust in the event of any dissolution, liquidation, reorganization or other similar proceedings relative to the Petrowest Business Trust, the holders of all such senior indebtedness will be entitled to receive payment in full before the holders of the Business Notes are entitled to receive any payment.

Default

The Note Indenture provides that any of the following shall constitute an event of default:

- default in payment of the principal of the Business Notes when the same becomes due and the continuation of such default for a period of 30 days;
- default in payment of any interest due on any Business Notes and continuation of such default for a period of 90 days;
- default in the observance or performance of any other covenant or condition of the Note Indenture and continuance of such default for a period of 30 days after notice in writing has been given to the Business Trustee specifying such default and requiring the Petrowest Business Trust to rectify the same; and
- certain events of dissolution, liquidation, reorganization or other similar proceedings relative to the Petrowest Business Trust.

The provisions governing an event of default under the Note Indenture and remedies available thereunder do not provide protection to the holders of Business Notes which would be comparable to the provisions generally found in debt securities issued to the public.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PARTNERSHIPS

The following is a summary of the material attributes and characteristics of the Partnerships and the Partnership Agreements, and is qualified in its entirety by the provisions of the Partnership Agreements. A copy of the Partnership Agreements will be available via the internet at www.sedar.com. See "Material Contracts".

General

The Partnerships are limited partnerships formed under the laws of the Province of Alberta. The General Partner will be the general partner of the Partnerships, and Acquisitionco and Petrowest Business Trust will be the only limited partners of the Partnerships. The Partnerships will be authorized to issue an unlimited number of Class A GP Units, which may only be issued to the General Partner, as well as an unlimited number of Class B Common LP Units and Class C Preferred LP Units. The units of the Partnerships will have the right to receive distributions as described below. Each limited partner of a Partnership will be entitled to one vote for each Partnership unit held.

Distributions

The amount of cash or other property distributed, if any, by each of the Partnerships to the partners in respect of any period will be determined by the General Partner. Unless otherwise determined by the General Partner, all cash payments and other distributions made to partners will be made on the basis of (i) an amount to Acquisitionco in respect of its Class C Preferred LP Units; and (ii) the remaining net income to Petrowest Business Trust in respect of its Class B Common LP Units (or 99.999% of the remaining net income if the General Partner declares payable to the holders of Class A GP Units, 0.001% of such net income) after the deduction of the amount payable to the holders of the Class C Preferred LP Units; and (iii) in the sole discretion of the General Partner, 0.001% of the remaining net income in respect of its Class A GP Units.

The Partnerships intend to make monthly cash distributions to the partners on or before the 10th day of each calendar month so that they are received by Petrowest Business Trust prior to its related cash distribution to holders of Business Units. The Partnerships may make distributions at any other time that the General Partner determines.

Allocation of Net Income and Losses

Net income, capital gains or income of the Partnerships for tax purposes and all other items of income, gain, proceeds of disposition and recapture of the Partnerships which are allocable for purposes of the Tax Act or any other relevant taxing statute for any fiscal year shall be allocated at the end of each fiscal year of the Partnerships in the following order or priority:

(a) to the General Partner as the holder of the Class A GP Units to the extent of cash distributions paid to it in such fiscal year;

(b) to Acquisitionco as the holder of the Class C Preferred LP Units to the extent of the cash distributions paid to it in such fiscal year;

(c) to Petrowest Business Trust as the holder of the Class B Common LP Units to the extent of the cash distributions paid to it in such fiscal year; and

(d) as to the balance, to the General Partner.

Net losses, capital losses and other losses of the Partnerships for tax purposes and all other items of loss, deduction and credit of the Partnerships which are allocated for purposes of the Tax Act or any other relevant tax statute for any fiscal year shall be allocated to the General Partner.

The fiscal year end of the Partnerships is December 31.

Where a distribution of property other than cash results in income or the allocation of an amount to the partners for the purpose of computing the income, taxable income or loss or other amount of the partners under the Tax Act or other relevant taxing statute, the income or amount shall be allocated to the partner receiving the distribution.

Amendment

After Closing, the Partnership Agreements may be amended only in writing and with the consent of the limited partners given by a resolution passed by not less than 66⅔% of the votes cast by partners entitled to vote at a duly convened meeting or a resolution in writing by partners entitled to vote who collectively hold not less than 66⅔% of the Partnership Units. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no amendment may be made that would have the effect of reducing a partner's share of the income or assets of the Partnership, reducing the interest in the Partnership of the partners (unless all of the partners consent thereto), changing in any manner any allocation for tax purposes, changing the liability of any limited partner, allowing any limited partner to exercise control over or management of the business of the Partnership, changing the right of a limited partner or the General Partner to vote at any meeting, or changing the Partnership from a limited partnership to a general partnership.

After Closing, the General Partner may, without prior notice to or consent from any limited partner of the Partnership, amend from time to time any provision of the Partnership Agreement if such amendment is: (a) in the opinion of the General Partner, based on counsel's recommendation, for the protection or benefit of the limited partners or the Partnership or to cure an ambiguity or to correct or supplement any provision contained therein that may be defective or inconsistent with any other provision contained herein, and the amendment does not and will not, in the opinion of the General Partner, materially adversely affect the rights of any limited partner; (b) for the purpose of reflecting the admission, substitution, withdrawal or removal of limited partners in accordance with the Partnership Agreement; (c) a change that, in the sole discretion of the General Partner, is reasonable and necessary or appropriate to qualify or continue the qualification of the Partnership as a limited partnership in which the limited partners have limited liability under applicable legislation; or (d) a change that, in the sole discretion of the General Partner, is reasonable and necessary or appropriate to enable limited partners to take advantage of, or not be detrimentally affected by, changes in the Tax Act or other taxation laws.

DESCRIPTION OF THE GENERAL PARTNER

The General Partner is a corporation incorporated under the ABCA and will, on or before the Closing Date, be a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Petrowest Business Trust. The General Partner is Petrowest Energy Services Ltd. See "The Trust and its Subsidiaries".

The General Partner provides administrative and managerial services to the Trust and will provide such services to Petrowest Business Trust, pursuant to the Administration Agreement. See "Administration Agreement".

The General Partner, in its capacity as general partner of the Partnerships, is responsible for the management of the Partnerships. See "Description of the Partnerships".

INFORMATION AND REPORTS

The Trust will agree to furnish to Unitholders, in accordance with and subject to applicable securities laws, such consolidated financial statements of the Trust (including quarterly and annual consolidated financial statements) and other reports as are from time to time required by applicable law, including prescribed forms needed for the completion of Unitholders' tax returns under the Tax Act and equivalent provincial legislation. Prior to each meeting of Unitholders, the Trust will provide the Unitholders (along with notice of such meeting) all such information as is required by applicable law and the Deed of Trust to be provided to such holders.

PRINCIPAL UNITHOLDERS

To the best of the knowledge of the Directors, with the exception of the initial unitholder of the Trust, no person directly or indirectly beneficially owns or exercises control or direction over more than 10% of any class or series of voting securities of the Trust as at the date hereof and after giving effect to this offering and the Concurrent Acquisitions.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Under an agreement dated August 28, 2006 (the "Underwriting Agreement"), among the Trust, the General Partner, the Promoters and the Underwriters, the Trust has agreed to sell 14,000,000 Trust Units and the Underwriters have agreed to purchase, as principal, on the Closing Date, subject to the conditions stipulated in the Underwriting Agreement all but not less than all of such Trust Units at a price of $10.00 per Trust Unit. The Underwriting Agreement provides that the Underwriters will be paid a fee of $0.60 per Trust Unit purchased by the public in consideration for services performed in connection with this offering.

The Trust has granted to the Underwriters the Over-Allotment Option. The Underwriters will be paid a commission of $0.60 per Trust Unit purchased pursuant to the Over-Allotment Option.

The TSX has conditionally approved the listing of the Trust Units on the TSX. Listing is subject to the Trust fulfilling all of the listing requirements of the TSX on or before November 14, 2006.

There is currently no market through which the Units may be sold. The terms of this offering were established through negotiation between the Trust, the General Partner and the Underwriters.

The obligations of the Underwriters under the Underwriting Agreement are conditional and may be terminated at the discretion of the Underwriters on the basis of their assessment of the state of the financial markets. The Underwriting Agreement provides that the Underwriters may also terminate their obligations thereunder in certain stated circumstances and upon the occurrence of certain stated events. The Underwriters are, however, severally obligated to take up and pay for all offered Trust Units that they have agreed to purchase if any of the Trust Units are purchased under the Underwriting Agreement. The Underwriters may effect transactions intended to stabilize or maintain the price of the Units at levels other than those that might otherwise prevail in the open market. Such activities, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

Each of the Trust, Petrowest Business Trust, and the General Partner has agreed to indemnify the Underwriters and their directors, officers, employees and agents against certain liabilities, including, without restriction, civil liabilities under Canadian provincial and territorial securities legislation, or to contribute to any payments the Underwriters may be required to make in respect thereof.

Subscriptions for Units will be received subject to rejection or allotment in whole or in part, and the right is reserved to close the subscription books at any time without notice.

During a period ending 180 days from the Closing Date, the Trust has agreed not to sell or issue for sale or resale any Units or financial instruments or securities convertible into, or exercisable or exchangeable for, Units or agree to, or announce, any such offer, sale or issuance, without the prior written consent of the Lead Underwriters, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld.

The Units have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act or the securities laws of any states in the United States and, subject to certain exemptions, may not be offered or sold or otherwise transferred or disposed of in the United States, its territories, its possessions or other areas subject to its jurisdiction or to, or for the account or benefit of, a U.S. Person, except in accordance with the Underwriting Agreement. The Underwriting Agreement permits the Underwriters to offer and resell the Trust Units they have acquired pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement to (i) certain qualified institutional buyers in the United States, provided that such offers and sales are made in accordance with Rule 144A under the U.S. Securities Act; and (ii) certain institutional accredited investors that satisfy the requirements of Rule 501 (a)(1),(2),(3) or (7) under the U.S. Securities Act. In addition, the Underwriting Agreement provides that the Underwriters will offer and sell securities outside the United States to any U.S. person only in accordance with Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act. This prospectus does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any of the Units offered hereby in the United States. In addition, until 40 days after the commencement of this offering, an offer or sale of Units within the United States by a dealer (whether or not participating in this offering) may violate the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act if that offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with Rule 144A or in accordance with any other available exemption from registration under the U.S. Securities Act.

The Closing is expected to take place on September 7, 2006, or on any other date that may be agreed upon by the Trust and Underwriters, but no later than October 6, 2006.

ESCROWED AND SUBORDINATED SECURITIES

The shareholders of the Acquired Companies will enter into an escrow agreement on the Closing of this offering and the Concurrent Acquisitions (the "Escrow Agreement") pursuant to which Units issued to such shareholders in connection with the acquisition of the Acquired Companies will be placed in escrow. The Promoters will also enter into an escrow agreement on the same terms. In the event that all of the Acquired Companies are acquired upon the terms and conditions specified in the Purchase and Sale Agreements, an aggregate of 14,275,094 Units (comprised of 12,765,094 Trust Units and 1,510,000 Subordinated Units) will be placed in such escrow (being 50.49% of the outstanding Units assuming completion of this offering and all of the Concurrent Acquisitions). Pursuant to the Escrow Agreement, and subject to certain limited exceptions with respect to early release in the event of termination of employment or terminal illness (as determined by the Governance and Compensation Committee), one-quarter of the escrowed securities will be released on the first anniversary of the Closing Date and the remaining escrowed securities will be released on the second anniversary of the Closing Date. In the event that any of the escrowed securities are released within 180 days following the Closing Date, the shareholders of the Acquired Companies will agree not to sell any Units or sell or issue for sale or resale any financial instruments or securities convertible into, or exercisable or exchangeable for, Units or agree to, or announce, any such offer, sale or issuance, without the prior written consent of the Lead Underwriters, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld.

An aggregate of 1,510,000 Subordinated Units will be issued to the Promoters, the vendors of the Acquired Companies and certain other individuals for aggregate proceeds to the Trust of $4,530,000. The distributions in respect of such Subordinated Units are subordinated to the distributions in respect of the trust Units and will be paid by the Trust subsequent to Priority Distributions. See "Description of the Trust – Units" and "Prior Issuances".

PRIOR ISSUANCES

There have been no issuances of Units during the twelve-months preceding the date of this prospectus other than the issuance of one Trust Unit to the initial unitholder of the Trust (the "Initial Unit") in consideration for $10 and the issuance of an aggregate of 1,510,000 Subordinated Units at a price of $3.00 per Subordinated Unit ($4,530,000 in the aggregate to be satisfied by payment of $1.00 in cash and $2.00 by way of a three-year promissory note that will be forgiven over three years if the subscriber remains as a director, officer or employee of Petrowest. Of these Subordinated Units 500,000 were issued to Promoters, 210,000 were issued to Directors and Officers (other than the Promoters) and 800,000 were issued to vendors of the Acquired Companies (other than the Promoters). The Initial Unit will be redeemed immediately following the Closing.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The aggregate gross proceeds of this offering will be $140,000,000 ($154,000,000 if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full). The estimated net proceeds of this offering, after deducting $8,400,000 representing fees payable to the Underwriters ($9,240,000 if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full) and the estimated expenses of this offering of approximately $2.0 million will be approximately $129,600,000 ($142,760,000 if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full). The Trust will use the net proceeds to subscribe for Business Notes and Business Units. Petrowest Business Trust will, in turn, loan $103.3 million received from the Trust to Acquisitionco to fund the cash portion of the base purchase price of the Acquired Companies. The remaining $26.3 million not required to fund the purchase of the Acquired Companies will be used by the Petrowest Business Trust for growth capital ($8.3 million), to retire certain long-term debt of the Acquired Companies ($7.1 million) and working capital ($10.9 million) ($39.46, $8.3, $7.1 and $24.06 million, respectively, if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full).

It is a condition of the Underwriting Agreement that at the time of the Closing of this offering, the Acquisition Condition shall have been satisfied.

CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

In the opinion of Bennett Jones LLP, counsel to the Trust, and Stikeman Elliott LLP, counsel to the Underwriters, the following is, as of the date hereof, a fair and adequate summary of the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations generally applicable under the Tax Act to a Unitholder who acquires Trust Units pursuant to this offering and who, for the purposes of the Tax Act and at all relevant times, is resident in Canada, deals at arm's length with and is not affiliated with the Trust and holds the Trust Units as capital property. Generally, Trust Units will be considered to be capital property to a Unitholder provided that the Unitholder does not hold the Trust Units in the course of carrying on a business and has not acquired them in one or more transactions considered to be an adventure or concern in the nature of trade. Certain Unitholders who might not otherwise be considered to hold their Trust Units as capital property may, in certain circumstances, be entitled to have them treated as capital property by making the irrevocable election permitted by subsection 39(4) of the Tax Act. This summary is not applicable to a Unitholder that is a "financial institution" (as defined in the Tax Act for the purposes of the mark-to-market rules) or a "specified financial institution" or a Unitholder an interest in which is a "tax shelter investment" (all as defined in the Tax Act).

This summary is based upon the provisions of the Tax Act in force as of the date hereof, counsels' understanding of the current published administrative and assessing practices of the Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") and certificates from the Trust as to certain factual matters. This summary takes into account all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act which have been publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance (Canada) prior to the date hereof. There can be no assurance that any tax proposals will be implemented in their current form or at all. This summary does not otherwise take into account or anticipate any changes in law, whether by legislative, governmental or judicial decision or action, and does not take into account provincial, territorial or foreign tax legislation or considerations, which may differ significantly from those discussed in this prospectus.

This summary is not exhaustive of all possible Canadian federal tax considerations applicable to an investment in Trust Units. This summary is of a general nature only and is not intended to be legal or tax advice to any prospective purchaser of Trust Units. Investors should consult their own tax advisors for advice with respect to the tax consequences of an investment in Trust Units based on their particular circumstances.

Status of the Trust

Mutual Fund Trust

This summary is based on the assumption that the Trust will qualify as a "unit trust" and as a "mutual fund trust" as defined in the Tax Act on the Closing, will elect to be deemed to be a mutual fund trust from the date it is established and will thereafter continuously qualify as a mutual fund trust at all relevant times.

In order for the Trust to qualify as a mutual fund trust at a particular time, in addition to being a unit trust resident in Canada, it must meet certain prescribed conditions ("minimum distribution requirement") relating to the number of Unitholders, the dispersal of ownership of Units and public distribution of Units at such time; its only undertaking must be the investing of its funds in property (other than real property); and it must not be established or maintained primarily for the benefit of non-residents of Canada. The sole undertaking of the Trust as described in this prospectus is the investing of its funds in property (other than real property) and this summary assumes that this will continue to be the case at all relevant times. This summary assumes that the Trust will satisfy the minimum distribution requirement on the completion of this offering, so that it may elect to be deemed to be a mutual fund trust from the date it was established until such time, and it so elects, and that it will continuously satisfy the minimum distribution requirement thereafter. This summary also assumes that the Trust was not established nor will it be maintained primarily for the benefit of non-residents of Canada, based on the restriction of ownership of Units by non-residents of Canada, which is contained in the Deed of Trust. See "Risk Factors – Risks relating to an Investment in the Trust – Income Tax Matters".

Should the Trust cease to qualify as a mutual fund trust, the income tax considerations respecting the Trust would be materially different from those described in this summary, and in particular the following adverse income tax consequences may result:

- The Trust Units would cease to be qualified investments for Plans with the result that a Plan may become subject to a penalty tax, the beneficiary of such Plan may be deemed to have received income therefrom or, in the case of an RESP, the RESP may have its tax exempt status revoked.

- The Trust and the Petrowest Business Trust may be required to pay a tax under Part XII.2 of the Tax Act. The payment of Part XII.2 tax by the Trust and the Petrowest Business Trust will affect the amount of cash available for distribution by the Trust and may have adverse consequences for Unitholders.

- The Trust will cease to be eligible for the capital gains refund mechanism available to mutual fund trusts.

Qualified Investment

The Trust Units will be qualified investments for trusts governed by Plans, subject to the specific provisions of any particular Plan. Plans should generally not be taxable on any distributions from the Trust or any gains realized on the disposition of Trust Units. If the Trust ceases to qualify as a mutual fund trust, the Trust Units no longer will be qualified investments under the Tax Act for Plans.

Business Notes or other securities received as a result of a redemption of Trust Units may not be qualified investments for a Plan, and this could give rise to adverse consequences to the Plan or the annuitant under the Plan. Accordingly, Plans that own Trust Units should consult their own tax advisors before deciding to exercise the redemption rights attached to the Trust Units.

Taxation of the Trust

The taxation year of the Trust is the calendar year. In each taxation year, the Trust will be subject to tax under Part I of the Tax Act on its income for tax purposes for the year, including net realized taxable capital gains, less the portion thereof that it deducts in respect of the amounts paid or payable in the year to Unitholders. An amount will be considered to be payable to a Unitholder in a taxation year if it is paid to the Unitholder in the year by the Trust or if the Unitholder is entitled in that year to enforce payment of the amount.

The Trust will include in its income for each taxation year such amount of the Petrowest Business Trust's income for tax purposes, including net taxable capital gains, as is paid or becomes payable by the Petrowest Business Trust to the Trust in the year in respect of the Business Units and all interest on the Business Notes that accrues to the Trust to the end of the year, or that becomes receivable or is received by it before the end of the year, except to the extent that such interest was included in computing its income for a preceding year. The Trust will not be subject to tax on any amount received as a payment of principal in respect of the Business Notes or any amount received as a return of capital from the Petrowest Business Trust (provided that the capital returned, if any, does not exceed the adjusted cost base of the Business Units held by the Trust).

A distribution by the Trust of its property upon a redemption of Trust Units will be treated as a disposition by the Trust of the property so distributed for proceeds of disposition equal to its fair market value. The Trust's proceeds of disposition of Business Notes will be reduced by any accrued but unpaid interest in respect thereof, which interest will generally be included in the Trust's income in the year of disposition to the extent that it was not included in the Trust's income in a previous year. The Trust will realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) on the property so distributed to the extent that the proceeds of disposition of such property exceed (or are less than) the adjusted cost base of the property and any reasonable costs of disposition.

In computing its income, the Trust may generally deduct reasonable administrative costs, interest and other expenses of a current nature, if any, incurred by it for the purpose of earning income. The Trust will be entitled to deduct expenses incurred by it in connection with the issuance of Trust Units, including expenses of this offering, on a five-year straight line basis (subject to pro-ration for short taxation years).

Under the Deed of Trust, an amount equal to all of the income (including taxable capital gains) of the Trust (determined without reference to subsection 104(6) of the Tax Act), together with the non-taxable portion of any net capital gain realized by the Trust, but excluding capital gains arising in connection with a distribution in specie on the redemption of Trust Units which are designated by the Trust to redeeming Unitholders, and capital gains the tax on which may be offset by capital losses carried forward from prior years or is recoverable by the Trust, will be payable in the year to Unitholders by way of cash distributions, subject to the exceptions described below. Where the income of the Trust in a taxation year exceeds the monthly cash distributions for that year, such excess income will be distributed to Unitholders in the form of additional Trust Units. Income of the Trust payable to Unitholders, whether in cash, additional Trust Units or otherwise, will generally be deductible by the Trust in computing its taxable income provided that the Trust deducts such amount in computing its income.

The Trust will be entitled for each taxation year to reduce (or receive a refund in respect of) its liability, if any, for tax on its net realized taxable capital gains by an amount determined under the Tax Act based on the redemption of Trust Units during the year (the "capital gains refund"). In certain circumstances, the capital gains refund in a particular taxation year may not completely offset the Trust's tax liability for that taxation year arising in connection with the distribution of its property on the redemption of Trust Units. The Deed of Trust provides that all or a portion of any income or taxable capital gain realized by the Trust as a result of that redemption may, at the discretion of the Trustee, be treated as income or taxable capital gain paid to, and designated as income or taxable capital gain of, the redeeming Unitholders, and thus deductible by the Trust in computing its income. In addition, accrued interest on Business Notes distributed to a redeeming Unitholder may be treated as an amount paid to the Unitholder and will be deductible by the Trust.

Counsel has been advised that the Trust intends to make sufficient distributions in each year of its net income for tax purposes and net realized capital gains so that the Trust will generally not be liable in that year for income tax under Part I of the Tax Act. Counsel can provide no opinion in this regard.

Taxation of the Petrowest Business Trust and the Partnerships

The taxation year of the Petrowest Business Trust is the calendar year. The Petrowest Business Trust will be taxable on its income determined under the Tax Act for each taxation year, which will include its allocated share of the income of the Partnerships for the fiscal periods ending on or before the year end of the Petrowest Business Trust, except to the extent such income is paid or payable in such year to the Trust and is deducted by the Petrowest Business Trust in computing its income for tax purposes. The Petrowest Business Trust will generally be entitled to deduct its expenses incurred to earn such income provided such expenses are reasonable and otherwise deductible, subject to the relevant provisions of the Tax Act. Under the Business Deed of Trust, all of the income of the Petrowest Business Trust for each year (determined without reference to subsection 104(6) of the Tax Act), together with the taxable and non-taxable portion of any capital gains realized by the Petrowest Business Trust in the year, will generally be payable in the year to the Trust and will generally be deductible by the Petrowest Business Trust in computing its taxable income. Counsel has been advised by the Trust that the Trust does not expect the Petrowest Business Trust to be liable for any material amount of tax under Part I of the Tax Act. Counsel can provide no opinion in this regard.

The Partnerships are not themselves liable to tax under the Tax Act. Each partner of the Partnerships, including the Petrowest Business Trust, is required to include in computing the partner's income for a particular taxation year the partner's share of the income or loss of the Partnership, as the case may be, for its fiscal year ending in, or coinciding with, the partner's taxation year, whether or not any of that income is distributed to the partner in the taxation year. For this purpose, the income or loss for each Partnership will be computed for each fiscal year as if such Partnership was a separate person resident in Canada. The net income or loss of the Partnership for a fiscal year will be allocated to the partners of such Partnership, in the manner set out in the relevant partnership agreement, subject to the detailed rules in the Tax Act in that regard.

If a Partnership does incur losses for tax purposes, the Petrowest Business Trust will be entitled to deduct in the computation of its income for tax purposes its share of any such losses for any fiscal year to the extent that the Petrowest Business Trust's investment is "at risk" within the meaning of the Tax Act. In general, the amount "at risk" for a limited partner in a limited partnership for any taxation year will be the adjusted cost base of the limited partner's partnership interest at the end of the year, plus any undistributed income allocated to the limited partner for the year, less any amount owing by the limited partner (or a person with whom the limited partner does not deal at arm's length) to the limited partnership (or a person with whom it does not deal at arm's length) and less the amount of any benefit that the limited partner (or a person with whom the limited partner does not deal at arm's length) is entitled to receive or obtain for the purpose of reducing, in whole or in part, any loss of the limited partner from the investment.

Taxation of Unitholders

Fund Distributions

A Unitholder will generally be required to include in income for a particular taxation year the portion of the net income for tax purposes of the Trust for a taxation year, including net realized taxable capital gains, that is paid or payable to the Unitholder in the particular taxation year, whether that amount is received in cash, additional Trust Units or otherwise. Any loss of the Trust for purposes of the Tax Act cannot be allocated to the Unitholders. Income of a Unitholder from the Trust Units will generally be considered income from property for the purposes of the Tax Act.

It is expected that most income (including income designated as taxable capital gains but excluding any portion designated as a taxable dividend) received or receivable by a Unitholder from the Trust will be investment income for the purposes of the additional refundable tax of 6⅔% payable by a corporation that is throughout the year a "Canadian-controlled private corporation" (as defined in the Tax Act) on certain investment income.

The non-taxable portion of any net realized capital gains of the Trust that is paid or payable to a Unitholder in a taxation year will not be included in computing the Unitholder's income for the year and will not reduce the adjusted cost base of the Unitholder's Trust Units. Any other amount in excess of the net income of the Trust that is paid or payable to a Unitholder in that year will not generally be included in the Unitholder's income for the year. However, where such an amount is paid or payable to a Unitholder (other than as proceeds in respect of the redemption of Trust Units), the Unitholder will be required to reduce the adjusted cost base of the Trust Units by that amount. To the extent that the adjusted cost base of a Trust Unit would otherwise be a negative amount, the negative amount will be deemed to be a capital gain and the adjusted cost base of the Trust Unit to the Unitholder will immediately thereafter be nil. The taxation of capital gains is described below.

Dispositions of Units

On the disposition or deemed disposition of a Trust Unit whether on a redemption or otherwise, the Unitholder will realize a capital gain (or capital loss) equal to the amount by which the Unitholder's proceeds of disposition exceed (or are less than) the aggregate of the adjusted cost base of the Trust Unit and any reasonable costs of disposition. Proceeds of disposition will not include an amount payable by the Trust that is otherwise required to be included in the Unitholder's income, including any capital gain realized by the Trust in connection with a redemption which has been designated by the Trust to the redeeming Unitholder. The taxation of capital gains and capital losses is described below.

The cost of a Unit acquired pursuant to this offering will be the subscription price thereof. The cost to a Unitholder of additional Trust Units received in lieu of a cash distribution of income will be the amount of income distributed by the issue of those Trust Units. For the purpose of determining the adjusted cost base to a Unitholder of Trust Units, when a Trust Unit is acquired, the cost of the newly acquired Trust Unit will be averaged with the adjusted cost base of all of the Trust Units owned by Unitholder as capital property immediately before that acquisition. The non-taxable portion of distributions (other than the non-taxable portion of any net capital gains) will generally reduce the adjusted cost base of a Trust Unit.

Where Trust Units are redeemed and the redemption price is paid by the delivery of Business Notes to the redeeming Unitholder, the proceeds of disposition to the Unitholder of the Trust Units will be equal to the fair market value of the Business Notes so distributed less any income or capital gain realized by the Trust in connection with the redemption of those Trust Units which has been designated by the Trust to the Unitholder. Where any income or capital gain realized by the Trust in connection with the distribution of Business Notes on the redemption of Trust Units has been designated by the Trust to a redeeming Unitholder, the Unitholder will be required to include in income the income or taxable portion of the capital gain so designated. The redeeming Unitholder will be required to include in income, interest on any Business Notes acquired (including interest that accrued prior to the date of the acquisition of such Business Notes by the Unitholder that is designated as income to the Unitholder by the Trust) in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act. The cost of any Business Notes distributed by the Trust to a Unitholder upon a redemption of Trust Units will be equal to the fair market value of those Business Notes at the time of the distribution less any accrued interest on such Business Notes. The Unitholder will thereafter be required to include in income interest on the Business Notes, in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act. To the extent that the Unitholder is required to include in income any interest accrued to the date of the acquisition of Business Notes by the Unitholder, an offsetting deduction may be available. Unitholders are advised to consult their own tax advisers prior to exercising their redemption rights.

The consolidation of Trust Units of the Trust will not be considered to result in a disposition of Trust Units by Unitholders. The aggregate adjusted cost base to a Unitholder of all of the Unitholder's Trust Units of the Trust will not change as a result of a consolidation of Trust Units; however, the adjusted cost base per Trust Unit will increase.

Capital Gains and Capital Losses

One-half of any capital gain realized by a Unitholder on a disposition or deemed disposition of Trust Units and the amount of any net taxable capital gains designated by the Trust in respect of a Unitholder generally will be included in the Unitholder's income as a taxable capital gain in the taxation year in which the disposition occurs or in respect of which a net taxable capital gains designation is made by the Trust. One-half of any capital loss realized by a Unitholder on a disposition or deemed disposition of Trust Units generally may be deducted only from taxable capital gains of the Unitholder in the year of disposition, in the three preceding taxation years or in any subsequent taxation year in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act.

A Unitholder that is a Canadian-controlled private corporation (as defined in the Tax Act) will also be liable for a refundable tax of 6⅔% computed with reference to its "aggregate investment income" for the year, which includes amounts in respect of taxable capital gains.

Where a Unitholder that is a corporation or trust (other than a mutual fund trust) disposes of a Trust Unit, the Unitholder's capital loss from the disposition will generally be reduced by the amount of dividends previously designated by the Trust to the Unitholder except to the extent that a loss on a previous disposition of a Trust Unit has been reduced by those dividends. Analogous rules apply where a corporation or trust (other than a mutual fund trust) is a member of a partnership that disposes of Trust Units.

Alternative Minimum Tax

In general terms, net income of the Trust paid or payable to a Unitholder who is an individual or a trust that is designated as taxable dividends or capital gains and capital gains realized on the disposition of Trust Units may increase the Unitholder's liability for alternative minimum tax.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the securities offered hereby should be considered speculative due to the nature of the Trust's business and its present stage of development. A prospective investor should consider carefully the risk factors set out below. In addition, prospective investors should carefully review and consider all other information contained in the prospectus before making an investment decision and consult their own experts where necessary. An investment in Units should only be made by Persons who can afford a significant or total loss of their investment.

Risks Relating to the Business

Absence of Current Business

The Trust has not carried on any business prior to the date hereof and does not hold any material assets, other than the right, via Acquisitionco, to acquire the Acquired Companies pursuant to the Purchase and Sale Agreements. Closing of this offering is conditional upon the satisfaction of the Acquisition Condition on or before October 31, 2006. Although the Trust is not aware of any material liabilities relating to any of the Acquired Companies, it is possible that liabilities may arise in the future which could have a material adverse effect on the Trust.

Absence of Operating History as a Public Trust

Although Petrowest's executive officers have substantial experience in the energy services industry, they have limited experience operating a public entity. To operate effectively, the Trust will be required to continue to implement changes in certain aspects of its business, improve and expand its information systems and develop, manage and train management level and other employees to comply with on-going public company requirements. Failure to take such actions, or delay in the implementation thereof, may have a material adverse effect on the Trust's business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Failure to Acquire all of the Acquired Companies

The Acquisition Condition does not require the acquisition of all of the Acquired Companies. There can be no assurance that the Trust will acquire all of the Acquired Companies and as a result, as of the date hereof, the Trust is not able to determine which businesses Petrowest will operate in following the Closing this offering. References in this prospectus to the Acquired Companies and the business of the Trust assume the acquisition of all of the Acquired Companies pursuant to the Concurrent Acquisitions. The pro forma financial statements contained herein also assume the acquisition of all of the Acquired Companies.

Failure to Realize Anticipated Benefits of Acquisitions

Achieving the benefits of the Concurrent Acquisitions and future acquisitions will depend in part on successfully consolidating functions and integrating operations, procedures and personnel of all of the Acquired Companies in a timely and efficient manner, as well as Petrowest's ability to realize the anticipated growth opportunities and synergies from integrating each of the acquired businesses. This integration will require the dedication of management effort, time and resources which may divert management's focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from operational matters during this process. The integration process may result in the disruption of ongoing business, customer and employee relationships that may adversely affect Petrowest's ability to achieve the anticipated benefits of the acquisitions.

Volatility of Industry Conditions

The demand, pricing and terms for energy services largely depend upon the level of industry activity for Canadian natural gas and, to a lesser extent, oil exploration and development. Industry conditions are influenced by numerous factors over which Petrowest will have no control, including: the level of oil and gas prices; expectations about future oil and gas prices; the cost of exploring for, producing and delivering oil and gas; the expected rates of declining current production; the discovery rates of new oil and gas reserves; available pipeline and other oil and gas transportation capacity; worldwide weather conditions; global political, military, regulatory and economic conditions; and the ability of oil and gas companies to raise equity capital or debt financing.

The level of activity in the Canadian oil and gas exploration and production industry is volatile. No assurance can be given that expected trends in oil and gas production activities will continue or that demand for energy services will reflect the level of activity in the industry. Any prolonged substantial reduction in oil and natural gas prices would likely affect oil and gas production levels and therefore affect the demand for services to oil and gas customers. A material decline in oil or gas prices or Canadian industry activity could have a material adverse effect on Petrowest's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributions to Unitholders.

Seasonality

In Canada, the level of activity in the energy services industry is influenced by seasonal weather patterns. Spring breakup during the second quarter leaves many secondary roads temporarily incapable of supporting the weight of heavy equipment, which results in severe restrictions in the level of energy services. The duration of this period will have a direct impact on the level of Petrowest's activities. Spring breakup occurs earlier in the year in southeastern Alberta than it does in northern Alberta and British Columbia. The timing and duration of spring breakup are dependant on weather patterns but it generally occurs in April and May. Additionally, if an unseasonably warm winter prevents sufficient freezing, Petrowest may not be able to access well sites and its operating results and financial condition may therefore be adversely affected. The demand for energy services may also be affected by the severity of the Canadian winters. In addition, during excessively rainy periods, equipment moves may be delayed, thereby adversely affecting revenues. The volatility in the weather and temperature can therefore create unpredictability in activity and utilization rates, which can have a material adverse effect on Petrowest's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Capital Expenditures

Petrowest will operate in a capital intensive business. There can be no assurance that the actual capital costs incurred by Petrowest will not be higher than anticipated. In particular, Petrowest will be subject to capital costs that it has little control over, including, but not limited to, the cost of the equipment required by Petrowest's business. Any material increase in capital costs may materially affect Petrowest's business, financial conditions, results of operations and cash flows, and therefore the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Alternatives to and Changing Demand for Petroleum Products

Fuel conservation measures, alternative fuel requirements, increasing consumer demand for alternatives to oil and gas, and technological advances in fuel economy and energy generation devices could reduce the demand for

crude oil and other liquid hydrocarbons. The Trust cannot predict the impact of changing demand for oil and gas products, and any major changes may have a material adverse effect on Petrowest's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Sources, Pricing and Availability of Equipment and Equipment Parts

Petrowest will source its equipment and equipment parts from a variety of suppliers, most of whom are located in Canada and the United States. Should any suppliers of the Trust be unable to provide the necessary equipment or parts or otherwise fail to deliver products in the quantities required, any resulting delays in the provision of services or in the time required to find new suppliers could have an material adverse effect on Petrowest's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Economic Dependence

Several of the Acquired Companies are economically dependent on a limited number of key customers. Each of Wales Contractors, Gordon Bros. Construction, Neuwest Equipment Rentals, D&D Well Services and Roy Larson Construction had a significant amount of their sales concentrated with their three largest customers in their last completed fiscal year (90%, 84%, 86%, 42% and 80%, respectively). There can be no assurance that Petrowest's relationship with the Acquired Companies' customers will continue, and a significant reduction or total loss of the business from these customers, if not offset by sales to new or existing customers, could have a material adverse effect on the Trust's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Government Regulation

The operations of Petrowest will be subject to a variety of federal, provincial and local laws, regulations, and guidelines, including laws and regulations relating to health and safety, the conduct of operations, the protection of the environment, the operation of equipment used in its operations and the transportation of materials and equipment it provides for its clients. Petrowest believes that each of the Acquired Companies is currently in compliance with such laws and regulations. Petrowest intends to invest financial and managerial resources to ensure such compliance and will continue to do so in the future. Although such expenditures historically have not been material to each of the Acquired Companies, such laws or regulations are subject to change. Accordingly, it is impossible for Petrowest to predict the cost or impact of such laws and regulations on its future operations.

Kyoto Protocol

Canada is a signatory to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change and has adopted the Kyoto Protocol established thereunder to set legally binding targets to reduce nation-wide emissions of carbon dioxide, methane, nitrous oxide and other so-called "greenhouse gases". The Government of Canada has published Moving Forward on Climate Change: A Plan for Honouring our Kyoto Commitment which suggests further legislation will set greenhouse gases emission reduction requirements for various industrial activities, including oil and gas exploration and production. Future federal legislation, together with provincial emission reduction requirements, such as those in effect in Alberta's Climate Change and Emissions Management Act, may require the reduction of emissions or emissions intensity from Petrowest's operations and facilities. Mandatory emissions reductions may result in increased operating costs and capital expenditures for oil and gas producers, thereby decreasing the demand for Petrowest's services. The mandatory emissions reductions may also impair Petrowest ability to provide its services economically. Management is unable to predict the impact of the Kyoto Protocol on Petrowest and it is possible that it will adversely affect Petrowest's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Operating Risks and Insurance

Petrowest's operations will be subject to hazards inherent in the oil and gas industry, such as equipment defects, malfunction and failures, and natural disasters which result in fires, vehicle accidents, explosions and uncontrollable flows of natural gas or well fluids that can cause personal injury, loss of life, suspension of operations, damage to formations, damage to facilities, business interruption and damage to or destruction of property, equipment and the environment. These risks could expose the Trust to substantial liability for personal injury, wrongful death, property damage, loss of oil and gas production, pollution, and other environmental damages. The frequency and severity of such incidents will affect operating costs, insurability and relationships with customers, employees and regulators.

Petrowest will continuously monitor its activities for quality control and safety. However, there are no assurances that Petrowest safety procedures will always prevent such damages. Although Petrowest will maintain insurance coverage that it believes to be adequate and customary in the industry, there can be no assurance that such insurance will be adequate to cover the Petrowest's liabilities. In addition, there can be no assurance that Petrowest will be able to maintain adequate insurance in the future at rates it considers reasonable and commercially justifiable. The occurrence of a significant uninsured claim, a claim in excess of the insurance coverage limits maintained by the Trust, or a claim at a time when it is not able to obtain liability insurance, could have a material adverse effect on Petrowest's ability to conduct normal business operations and on its financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Agreements and Contracts

The business operations of Petrowest will depend on verbal, performance based agreements with its customer base that are cancelable at any time by either Petrowest or its customers. The key factors, which will determine whether a client continues to use Petrowest, are service quality and availability, reliability and performance of equipment used to perform its services, technical knowledge and experience, reputation for safety and competitive price. There can be no assurance that Petrowest's relationship with the Acquired Companies' customers will continue, and a significant reduction or total loss of the business from these customers, if not offset by sales to new or existing customers, could have a material adverse effect on Petrowest's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Personnel

The successful operation of Petrowest's business will depend upon the abilities, expertise, judgment, discretion, integrity and good faith of its executive officers, general managers, employees and consultants. Petrowest is particularly dependent on its Chief Executive Officer, Kenneth N. Drysdale. In addition, the ability of Petrowest to expand its services will depend upon the ability to attract qualified personnel as needed. The demand for skilled oilfield employees is high, and the supply is limited. The executive officers of Petrowest, including Mr. Drysdale and the general managers of the businesses of the Acquired Companies have entered into management contracts with Petrowest. However, these agreements may be terminated by the employee on giving one month's notice. The unexpected loss of Petrowest key personnel, including Mr. Drysdale or the general managers of the businesses of the Acquired Companies, or the inability to retain or recruit skilled personnel could have a material adverse effect on Petrowest's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and therefore on the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Competition

Petrowest will provide pre-drilling and post-completion services to the northern region of the WCSB, primarily to the field operation locations of oil and gas exploration and production companies located in western Canada. The oilfield service business in which Petrowest will operate is highly competitive. To be successful, Petrowest must provide services that meet the specific needs of its clients at competitive prices. The principal competitive factors in the markets in which Petrowest operates are quality of service and availability, reliability and performance of equipment used to perform its services, technical knowledge and experience and reputation for safety and price. Petrowest will compete with several regional competitors that are both smaller and larger than it is. These competitors offer similar services in all geographic regions in which Petrowest will operate. As a result of competition, Petrowest may be unable to continue to provide its present services or to acquire additional business opportunities, which may affect Petrowest's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Reduced levels of activity in the oil and natural gas industry can intensify competition and result in lower revenue to Petrowest. Variations in the exploration and development budgets of oil and natural gas companies which are directly affected by fluctuations in energy prices, the cyclical nature and competitiveness of the oil and natural gas industry and governmental regulation, will have an affect upon Petrowest's ability to generate revenue and earnings.

Credit Risk

A substantial portion of Petrowest's accounts receivable will be with customers involved in the oil and gas industry, whose revenues may be impacted by fluctuations in commodity prices. Collection of these receivables could be influenced by economic factors affecting the oil and gas industry.

Conflicts of Interest

Certain of the proposed directors and officers of the General Partner are also directors and officers of other oil and gas and energy service companies, and conflicts of interest may arise between their duties as officers and directors of the General Partner and as officers and directors of such other companies.

There may be situations in which the interests of the proposed directors and management of, and consultants to, the General Partner may conflict with those of the General Partner. Certain members of management are currently involved, and will continue to be involved, in other entities, businesses and activities, some of which are described herein and all of which will place varying and conflicting demands on their time and attention. Furthermore, some such conflicts may result in the individual being in a direct conflict of interest position in relation to the Trust. Any conflicts will be resolved in accordance with the provisions of applicable laws.

Foreign Exchange and Interest Rates

Petrowest incurs costs in United States dollars, particularly in relation to equipment parts purchased from the United States. Accordingly, Petrowest is subject to risk from fluctuations in the in the rates of currency exchange between the United States dollar and Canadian dollar, and such fluctuations may materially affect Petrowest's business, financial conditions, results of operations and cash flows, and therefore the distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders. Therefore any increase in relevant interest rates will increase the amount Petrowest pays in relation to financing activities.

Disclosure and Internal Controls

Although Petrowest has and will continue to take actions to ensure appropriate internal control and disclosure measures, there are inherent limitations in Petrowest's ability to control all circumstances. Petrowest does not expect that its internal controls and disclosure controls will prevent all error and all fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. In addition, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints and the benefit of controls must be relative to their costs. There are always inherent limitations to a control system, which include, but are not limited to, faulty decision-making and simple errors or mistakes. Additionally, controls can be circumvented by individual acts, or by two or more persons acting together, or by management overriding controls. The design of any system of controls is based in part upon assumptions as to the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in avoiding all error and fraud that may occur under future conditions, particularly those that are unforeseeable.

Leverage and Restrictive Covenants

Petrowest intends to obtain a credit facility of approximately $60 million following the Closing. The degree to which Petrowest draws against such credit facility could have important consequences to Unitholders, including: (i) a portion of Petrowest's cash flow from operations will be dedicated to the repayment of principal of and interest on its indebtedness, thereby reducing funds available for distribution; (ii) certain of Petrowest's borrowings will be at variable rates of interest, which exposes Petrowest to the risk of increased interest rates. Petrowest's ability to make scheduled payments of principal and interest on, or to refinance, its indebtedness will depend on its future operating performance and cash flow, which are subject to prevailing economic conditions, prevailing interest rate levels, and financial, competitive, business and other factors, many of which are beyond its control.

The credit facility is expected to contain certain customary operating covenants that limit the discretion of management with respect to certain business matters. These covenants will place restrictions on, among other things, the ability of Petrowest to incur additional indebtedness, to create liens or other encumbrances, to pay distributions or make certain other payments, investments, loans and guarantees and to sell or otherwise dispose of assets and merge or consolidate with another entity. Failure to comply with the obligations in the agreements with respect to the credit facility could result in an event of default which, if not cured or waived, could permit acceleration of the relevant indebtedness.

Risks Relating to an Investment in the Trust

Investment Eligibility; Mutual Fund Trust Status

If the Trust ceases to qualify as a mutual fund trust, the Units will cease to be qualified investments for Plans. Where at the end of any month a Plan holds Units that are not qualified investments, the Plan must, in respect of that month, pay a tax under Part XI.1 of the Tax Act equal to 1% of the fair market value of the Units at the time such Units were acquired by the Plan. In addition, where a trust governed by a registered retirement savings plan or registered retirement income fund holds Units that are not qualified investments, the trust will become taxable on its income attributable to the Units while they are not qualified investments, including the full amount of any capital gain realized on a disposition of Units while they are not qualified investments. Where a trust governed by a registered education savings plan holds Units that are not qualified investments, the plan's registration may be revoked. In addition, if the Trust were to cease to qualify as a mutual fund trust, Units held by Unitholders that are not residents of Canada would become taxable Canadian property. These non-resident holders would be subject to Canadian income tax on any gains realized on a disposition of Units held by them, subject to the application of any exemption under an income tax convention.

Redemption of Units

It is anticipated that the redemption right associated with Units will not be the primary mechanism for holders of Units to dispose of their Units. Business Notes, which may be distributed in specie to Unitholders in connection with a redemption, will not be listed on any stock exchange and no market is expected to develop in such Business Notes. Business Notes will not be qualified investments for trusts governed by Plans.

Nature of Units

The Units do not represent a traditional investment in the energy services sector and should not be viewed by investors as units in the Partnerships or as a direct investment in the Partnerships' business or assets. The Units represent a fractional interest in the Trust. As holders of Units, Unitholders do not have the statutory rights normally associated with ownership of shares of a corporation including, for example, the right to bring "oppression" or "derivative" actions.

The Trust's primary assets are the Business Units and the Business Notes. The price per Unit is a function of the anticipated distributable income, the underlying assets of the Trust and the Partnerships' ability to effect long-term growth in the value of the business. The market price of Units will be sensitive to a variety of market conditions including, but not limited to, interest rates, commodity prices and the ability of Petrowest to acquire additional assets. Changes in market conditions may adversely affect the trading price of Units.

The Units are not "deposits" within the meaning of the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation Act (Canada) and are not insured under the provisions of that Act or any other legislation. Furthermore, the Trust is not a trust company and, accordingly, is not registered under any trust and loan company legislation as it does not carry on or intend to carry on the business of a trust company.

Unitholder Limited Liability

The Deed of Trust provides that no Unitholder will be subject to any liability in connection with the Trust or its obligations or affairs and, in the event that a court determines that Unitholders are subject to any such liabilities, the liabilities will be enforceable only against, and will be satisfied only out of, the Unitholder's share of the Trust's assets.

The Deed of Trust provides that all written instruments signed by or on behalf of the Trust must contain a provision to the effect that such obligation will not be binding upon Unitholders personally. Personal liability may also arise in respect of claims against the Trust that do not arise under contracts, including claims in tort, claims for taxes and possibly certain other statutory liabilities. The possibility of any personal liability of this nature arising is considered unlikely by the Trust.

The operations of the Trust will be conducted, upon the advice of counsel, in such a way and in such jurisdiction as to avoid as far as possible any material risk of liability on Unitholders for claims against the Trust.

Restrictions on Non-Resident Ownership

The Deed of Trust contains a number of provisions designed to protect the status of the Trust as a "mutual fund trust" under the Tax Act which, inter alia, requires that a mutual fund trust cannot be established or maintained primarily for the benefit of persons who are not resident in Canada for purposes of the Tax Act. Under the Proposed Amendments, the requirement would be changed, effective January 1, 2005, to a requirement that not more than 50% (by value) of the outstanding Units may at any time be held by non-residents. If, in the future, Petrowest determines that a risk of losing its mutual fund trust status exists, it is entitled to take a number of actions under the Deed of Trust, including to require Unitholders that it believes are non-residents of Canada to sell their Units, which action may have an adverse effect on the market price of the Units. In addition, there can be no assurances that the Tax Act will not be amended in the future in a manner that would have a material adverse impact on the mutual fund trust status of the Trust.

Dependence on Operating Entities

The Trust is an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose mutual fund trust established under and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to the Deed of Trust that is entirely dependent upon the operations and assets of the Partnerships through the direct and indirect ownership of the Business Units, the Business Notes and the Partnerships Units, respectively. Accordingly, the cash distributions to Unitholders will be dependent upon the ability of Petrowest Business Trust and the Partnerships to pay their interest obligations under the Business Notes and Business Units, respectively.

Return of Capital

Cash distributions do not represent a "yield" in the traditional sense as they may represent both return of capital and return on investment.

Changes in Legislation

There can be no assurance that income tax laws and other governmental programs relating to the oil and gas industry and the energy services industry, such as the status of mutual fund trusts, will not be changed in a manner which adversely affects Unitholders.

Delay in Cash Distributions

In addition to the usual delays in payment by purchasers of the Trust's services, payments between any of such parties may also be delayed by restrictions imposed by lenders, delay in the sale of services or other delays. Such delays may have an impact on distributable income to be distributed to Unitholders.

Additional Financing

There is no guarantee that the Trust will be able to secure additional financing for future costs of operations or expansion. Additional financing may not be available, or may not be available on favorable terms. Where additional financing is raised by the issuance of Units or securities convertible into Units, control of the Trust may change and Unitholders may suffer dilution to their investment. The Trust's activities may also be financed partially or wholly with debt, which may increase the Trust's debt levels above industry standards. The level of the Trust's indebtedness from time to time could impair the Trust's ability to obtain additional financing in the future on a timely basis to take advantage of business opportunities that may arise.

Absence of Prior Public Market

Prior to this offering there has been no public market for the Units. The offering price has been determined by negotiation between the General Partner, on behalf of the Trust and the Underwriters and may bear no relationship to the price at which the Units will trade in the public market subsequent to this offering.

Income Tax Matters

There can be no assurance that Canadian federal or provincial income tax laws and administrative policies respecting the treatment of mutual fund trusts will not be changed in a manner which adversely affects the holders of Units. If the Trust ceases to qualify as a "mutual fund trust" under the Tax Act, the income tax considerations described herein under the heading "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations" would be materially and adversely different in certain respects, including that Units would cease to be qualified investments for Plans. The Tax Act imposes penalties for the acquisition or holding of non-qualified investments.

The Budget Proposals included proposed amendments to the Tax Act to restrict direct and indirect holdings in certain "business income trusts" (as defined in the Budget Proposals) by certain tax-exempt entities. On May 18, 2004, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced that the application of the Budget Proposals relating to business income trusts was suspended to allow further consultation with interested parties. This position was reiterated by the Minister of Finance (Canada) in the press release that accompanied the release of the draft amendments for the Budget Proposals dated September 16, 2004. As part of the release of the 2005 Federal Budget, the Minister of Finance (Canada) issued further statements in respect of the Budget Proposals advising that the Department of Finance (Canada) would continue to consult stakeholders on tax issues related to business income trusts and other flow-through entities. On September 8, 2005, the Department of Finance (Canada) released a consultation paper on tax and other issues related to publicly listed flow-through entities such as income trusts and limited partnerships and invited interested parties to make submissions prior to December 31, 2005. In addition, on September 19, 2005, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced that the Government would postpone providing advance tax rulings respecting flow-through entity structures pending these consultations. On November 23, 2005, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced that the public consultation process had ended and tabled in the House of Commons a Notice of Ways and Means Motion to implement a reduction in personal income tax on dividends paid by public corporations with a view to establishing a better balance between the treatment of large corporations and that of income trusts. No measures were announced with respect to the taxation of flow-through entities and their investors. No assurance may be given that further review of the tax treatment of flow-through entities will not be undertaken or that Canadian federal income tax laws and/or provincial income tax laws respecting flow-through entities will not be changed in a manner which adversely affects the Trust and the Unitholders. To the extent that changes are made, such changes could result in the income tax considerations described under the heading "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations" being materially different in certain respects.

Currently, subject to certain exemptions, a trust will not be considered to be a mutual fund trust if it is established or maintained primarily for the benefit of non-residents. On September 16, 2004, the Minister of Finance (Canada) released draft amendments to the Tax Act. Under the draft amendments, a trust would lose its status as a mutual fund trust if the aggregate fair market value of all units issued by the trust held by one or more non-resident persons or partnerships that are not Canadian partnerships is more than 50% of the aggregate fair market value of all the units issued by the trust where more than 10% (based on fair market value) of the trust's property is taxable Canadian property or certain other types of property. If the draft amendments are enacted as proposed, and if, at any time, more than 50% of the aggregate fair market value of Units of the Trust were held by non-residents and partnerships other than Canadian partnerships, the Trust would, unless an exemption were applicable, thereafter cease to be a mutual fund trust. The draft amendments do not currently provide any means of rectifying a loss of mutual fund trust status. On December 6, 2004, the Department of Finance tabled a Notice of Ways and Means Motion which did not include these proposed changes. The Department of Finance indicated that the implementation of the proposed changes would be suspended pending further consultation with interested parties.

Interest on the Business Notes will accrue at the Trust level for Canadian federal income tax purposes, whether or not actually paid. The Deed of Trust provides that a sufficient amount of the Trust's net income and net realized capital gains will be distributed each year to Unitholders in order to eliminate the Trust's liability for tax under Part I of the Tax Act. Where such amount of net income (including interest on the Business Notes) and net realized capital gains of the Trust in a taxation year exceeds the cash available for distribution in the year, such excess net income and net realized capital gains will be distributed to Unitholders in the form of additional Units. Unitholders will generally be required to include an amount equal to the fair market value of those Units in their taxable income, in circumstances when they do not directly receive a cash distribution.

Statutory Remedies

The Trust is not a legally recognized entity within the relevant definitions of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada), the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (Canada) and in some cases, the Winding Up and Restructuring Act (Canada). As a result, in the event a restructuring of the Trust were necessary, the Trust and its stakeholders would not be able to access the remedies and procedures available thereunder.

MATERIAL CONTRACTS

The only contracts entered into by the Trust or any of its subsidiaries within the past two years that can reasonably be regarded as material to an investor in the Units, other than contract entered into in the ordinary course of business, are as follows:

- the Deed of Trust described under "Description of the Trust";
- the Business Deed of Trust described under "Description of Petrowest Business Trust";
- the Partnership Agreements described under "Description of the Partnerships";
- the Administration Agreement described under "Administration Agreement";
- the Underwriting Agreement described under "Plan of Distribution";
- the Shareholders Agreement described under "Shareholders Agreement";
- the Purchase and Sale Agreements described under "Acquisition of the Acquired Companies";
- the Note Indenture described under "Description of Petrowest Business Trust"; and
- the Escrow Agreement described under "Escrowed and Subordinated Securities".

Copies of these contracts may be inspected during normal business hours at the Calgary office of the Trust's counsel at 4500, 855-2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta and at the Toronto office of the Trust's counsel at Suite 3400, 1 First Canadian Place, Toronto, Ontario during the period of distribution.

EXPERTS

Certain legal matters relating to the Units will be passed upon on behalf of the Trust by Bennett Jones LLP and on behalf of the Underwriters by Stikeman Elliott LLP. None of Bennett Jones LLP, Stikeman Elliott LLP or any associate or partner thereof has received or will receive a direct or indirect interest in the property of the Trust. The partners and associates of Bennett Jones LLP, as a group and the partners and associates of Stikeman Elliott LLP, as a group, own, directly or indirectly, less than 1% of the securities of the Trust, except for Bradley D. Markel, a partner of Bennett Jones LLP and Corporate Secretary of the General Partner, who is the settlor of the Trust and currently owns the Initial Trust Unit.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Management is not aware of any material litigation outstanding, threatened or pending by or against the Trust, Petrowest Business Trust, the Partnerships, Acquisitionco or the General Partner.

INTERESTS OF MANAGEMENT AND OTHERS IN MATERIAL TRANSACTIONS

Other than as disclosed elsewhere in this prospectus, none of the Directors, officers or principal shareholders of the Trust or the General Partner, and no associate or affiliate of any of them, has or has had any material interest in any transaction which materially affects the Trust, the General Partner, Acquisition or the Partnerships. Kenneth N. Drysdale and Gary Sweetman are principals of Neuwest Equipment which has entered into an acquisition agreement with Acquisitionco. See "Acquisition of the Acquired Companies".

PROMOTERS

Messrs. Ken N. Drysdale and Gary Sweetman may be considered promoters of the Trust (collectively, the "Promoters"). The number and percentage of Units each of the Promoters will hold at Closing is outlined in the following table:

Name	Number of Units[1][2]	Percentage of Outstanding Units[1]
Kenneth N. Drysdale	561,505[3]	2.0
Gary Sweetman	561,505[4]	2.0

Notes:

(1) After giving effect to this offering and the Concurrent Acquisitions and including Subordinated Units.
(2) Disclosed Units include, in certain circumstances, Units to be held by members of the named person's immediate family.
(3) Mr. Drysdale acquired 250,000 Subordinated Units pursuant to a subscription agreement between Mr. Drysdale and the Trust dated July 6, 2006 and will acquire 311,505 Trust Units pursuant to the Purchase and Sale Agreement among Messrs. Drysdale and Sweetman, Neuwest Equipment and Acquisitionco.
(4) Mr. Sweetman acquired 250,000 Subordinated Units pursuant to a subscription agreement between Mr. Sweetman and the Trust dated July 6, 2006 and will acquire 311,505 Trust Units pursuant to the Purchase and Sale Agreement among Messrs. Drysdale and Sweetman, Neuwest Equipment and Acquisitionco.

In certain circumstances, payments of distributions on the Subordinated Units held by the Promoters will be subordinate to the prior payment of distributions to public Unitholders holding Trust Units. See "Description of the Trust - Units" and "Escrowed and Subordinated Securities".

AUDITOR

The auditor of the Trust is PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, Chartered Accountants, 3100, 111 - 5th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta.

TRANSFER AGENT AND REGISTRAR

The registrar and transfer agent for the Units is Valiant Trust Company at its offices in Calgary, Alberta and its co-agent in Toronto, Ontario is BNY Trust Company of Canada.

PURCHASERS' STATUTORY RIGHTS

Securities legislation in certain provinces of Canada provides purchasers with the right to withdraw from an agreement to purchase securities. This right may be exercised within two business days after receipt or deemed receipt of a prospectus and any amendment. In several of the provinces, the securities legislation further provides a purchaser with remedies for rescission or, in some jurisdictions, damages if the prospectus and any amendment contains a misrepresentation or is not delivered to the purchaser, provided that such remedies for rescission or damages are exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the purchaser's province. The purchaser should refer to any applicable provisions of the securities legislation of the purchaser's province for the particulars of these rights or consult with a legal adviser.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF 332691 ALBERTA LTD. and GORDON BROS. CONSTRUCTION LTD.

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements of Gordon Bros. Construction Ltd. as at and for the years ended September 30, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the unaudited consolidated financial statements of Gordon Bros. Construction Ltd. as at and for the three and six months ended March 31, 2006 and 2005 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

Overview and Net Earnings

Gordon Bros. Construction maintains a fleet of rolling stock equipment specializing in oil and gas lease building and road construction in the Valleyview area of Northern Alberta.

Gordon Bros. Construction's results are directly impacted by the overall health of the Alberta oil and gas industry. The recent strength in the commodity market has steadily increased demand for Gordon Bros. Construction's services.

The effects of weather usually have a direct impact on Gordon Bros. Construction. Oil and gas drilling activity is generally stronger November through March. Wet weather in the spring and early summer months hinder the activity, which regains strength in July and August. Therefore, a longer, colder winter and drier spring and summer enhances Gordon Bros. Construction's results.

Revenue for the six months ended March 31, 2006 was $6,607,050 compared to $5,390,779 for the six months ended March 31, 2005 (22.6% growth). Revenue for the year ended September 30, 2005 was $8,604,638 compared to $7,779,706 for the year ended September 30, 2004 (10.6% growth). The growth is primarily a function of the increased activity in the Alberta oil and gas industry and an increased equipment fleet and team to meet additional demand.

Gordon Bros. Construction's net earnings have steadily increased over the past three years in conjunction with the growth in revenue. Primarily to reduce taxable income to the small business limit, Gordon Bros. Construction pays management bonuses to its management. A portion of the management bonus has been reinvested back into the business.

* The terms EBITDA and ADJUSTED EBITDA are not measures recognized by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. ADJUSTED EBITDA is a Non-GAAP measure that in management's opinion represents a better measure of cash liquidity than EBITDA since the bonuses were primarily paid to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

ADJUSTED EBITDA has increased by 36.3% over the past three years.

Earnings percentage	33.9%	32.7%	26.1%	22.6%	27.9%

Revenue

Revenue for the six months ended March 31, 2006 was $6,607,050 compared to $5,390,779 for the six months ended March 31, 2005 (22.6% growth). Gordon Bros. Construction has also increased its revenue by 29.8% over the period from 2003 to 2005. The growth is primarily a result of:

- Increased demand. The demand for lease construction in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin has increased with the increase of wells drilled. There were 21,841, 22,729, 24,800, and 26,725 (estimated by the CAPP) rig-released wells drilled in Western Canada for 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006E respectively. This growth in drilling activity reflects a 13.5% increase over the period from 2003 to 2005.

- Increased job rates. The increased demand has driven an increase in rates.

- Increased equipment fleet and personnel. Gordon Bros. Construction has undertaken a conservative growth strategy with respect to expansion of its fleet of equipment and personnel since 2003. Annual capital additions since 2003 have been made at a rate of between 4%-8% of annual revenue.

Operating and Administrative Expenses

Gordon Bros. Construction's operating and administrative expenses increased by 20.3% for the six months ending March 31, 2006 over the six months ending March 31, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased number of jobs performed. The increase in operating and administrative expenses did outpace the increase in revenue, however, due to escalating fuel costs, wages, safety costs, insurance costs, and equipment rental costs, management believes that escalating costs can be passed on to clients and the current shortfall reflects short term timing differences and not a general decline in margins. Operating and administrative expenses increased 32.9% over the years from 2003 to 2005 as compared to a 29.8% increase in revenue. Thus, Gordon Bros. Construction has been able to maintain is cost structure over the past three years.

Earnings After Operating and Administrative Expenses

Gordon Bros. Construction's earnings percentage for the six months ending March 31, 2006 was 33.9%, which was fairly consistent with the earnings percentage achieved for the six months ending March 31, 2005 of 32.7%. Over the three year period from 2003 to 2005 the earnings percentage has held constant in the 22%-28% range.

Liquidity

Operating Cash Flow

Gordon Bros. Construction's cash flow from operating activities for the six months ending March 31, 2006 increased by $307,555 from the six months ending March 31, 2005. The increase is associated with a small decline in net earnings and changes in operating working capital.

Gordon Bros. Construction's cash flow from operating activities in 2005 increased by $41,158 over 2004. Although net earnings increased over the same two periods, changes in non-cash working capital and the non-cash gain on the disposal of assets more than offset the difference.

Gordon Bros. Construction pays management bonuses annually to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. A portion of the bonus is loaned back to Gordon Bros. Construction resulting in an increase to the shareholder advances and a portion remains on the balance sheet as payables. Thus, there is a downward impact on working capital from both the shareholder advances and the accrued management bonus accounts; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Financing

Gordon Bros. Construction's primary sources of financing are from two sources: capital leases and shareholder advances.

As at March 31, 2006, Gordon Bros. Construction had $2,051,433 in capital leases. The leases are secured by the related capital assets. The leases bear interest at various fixed rates ranging from 0.0% to 7.8% and differing maturities up to May 2009.

Shareholder advances increased by $275,811 from September 30, 2005 to March 31, 2006. These advances have been used for working capital purposes and to partially fund capital asset additions. These advances are unsecured, interest free, and repayable on demand.

Financial Instruments

Fair Value

The carrying value of cash, accounts receivable, note receivable, bank overdraft, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management bonus, approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity

of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair values of shareholder advances and obligations under capital lease are not practicably determinable.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

As at March 31, 2006 the Company had 90% of accounts receivable (unaudited) (September 30, 2005 – 71%; 2004 – 50%) from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk in respect of the obligations under capital lease which bear fixed and fluctuating rates of interest.

Related Party Transactions

The Company is related to 1103710 Alberta Ltd. which is owned by a relative of one of the shareholders of the Company. During the six month period ended March 31, 2006, the Company had property and equipment rental expense of $nil (unaudited) (years ended September 30, 2004 - $20,000; 2004 - $nil) to the related company. During the six month period ended March 31, 2006, the Company expensed $60,000 (unaudited) related to management fees (September 30, 2005 - $140,000; 2004) of which $60,000 (unaudited) was included in accrued liabilities as at March 31, 2006 (September 30, 2005 - $120,000).

These transactions are measured at the exchange amount, which are estimated to equal market values.

Critical Accounting Estimates and Accounting Policies

Critical Accounting Estimates

As a normal part of the financial statement preparation process, management is required to make estimates and assumptions based on information available as at the financial statement date. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the possible disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amount of revenue and expense reported for the period.

Although estimates and assumptions must be made during the financial statement preparation process, it is management's opinion that none of the estimates or assumptions were highly uncertain at the time they were made. The most significant estimate in Gordon Bros. Construction's financial statements is the amortization period for capital equipment.

Accounting Policies

Gordon Bros. Construction prepares its financial statements in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Accounting policies have been applied consistently during all periods included in the financial statements. There were no new accounting policies implemented during the periods presented.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF ROY LARSON CONSTRUCTION LTD.

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements of Roy Larson Construction as at and for the years ended May 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the unaudited financial statements of Roy Larson Construction as at and for the three and nine months ended February 28, 2006 and 2005 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

Overview and Net Earnings

Roy Larson Construction maintains a fleet of rolling stock equipment specializing in oil and gas lease building and road construction and private subdivision grading in the Grande Prairie area of Northern Alberta. Roy Larson Construction's results are directly impacted by the overall health of the Alberta oil and gas industry. The recent strength in the commodity market has steadily increased demand for Roy Larson Construction's services.

The effects of weather usually have a direct impact on the company. Oil and gas drilling activity is generally stronger November through March. Wet weather in the spring and early summer months hinder the activity, which regains strength in July and August. Therefore, a longer, colder winter and drier spring and summer enhances Roy Larson Construction's results.

Revenue for the nine months ended February 28, 2006 was $17,011,548 compared to $14,766,618 for the nine months ended February 28, 2005 (15.2% growth). Revenue for the year ended May 31, 2005 was $18,442,453 compared to $13,280,703 for the year ended May 31, 2004 (38.9% growth). The growth is primarily a function of the increased activity in the Alberta oil and gas industry and an increased equipment fleet to meet additional demand.

Roy Larson Construction's net earnings have not fluctuated significantly from year to year because Roy Larson Construction pays management bonuses to its management primarily to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. A significant portion of such bonuses are reinvested back into Roy Larson Construction by way of shareholder advances.

* The terms EBITDA and ADJUSTED EBITDA are not measures recognized by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. ADJUSTED EBITDA is a Non-GAAP measure that in management's opinion represents a better measure of cash liquidity than EBITDA since the bonuses were primarily paid to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

ADJUSTED EBITDA has increased by 144% since 2003.

During the nine months ended February 28, 2006 cash flow from operations declined by $3,558,653 from the year ended May 31, 2005. The decline in cash flow is primarily attributed to an increase in accounts receivable of $2,367,074 and a reduction in accrued management bonuses of $448,902.

Revenue

Revenue for the nine months ended February 28, 2006 was $17,011,548 compared to $14,766,618 for the nine months ended February 28, 2005 (15.2% growth). Roy Larson Construction has also increased its revenue by 50.3% over the period from 2003 to 2005. The growth is primarily a result of:

- Increased demand. The demand for lease construction in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin has increased with the increase of wells drilled. There were 21,841, 22,729, 24,800, and 26,725 (estimated by the CAPP) rig-released wells drilled in Western Canada for 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006E respectively. This growth in drilling activity reflects a 13.5% increase over the period from 2003 to 2005.

- Additional equipment. Roy Larson Construction increased its equipment fleet throughout 2004 and 2005, including an additional camp brought on toward the end of 2004. This expansion represents an aggressive growth strategy with respect to expansion of its fleet of equipment and personnel since 2003. Annual capital additions since 2003 have been made at a rate of between 10%-15% of annual revenue.

- Increased number of jobs performed. The increase in the fleet has allowed Roy Larson Construction to meet the increase in demand.

- Increased job rates. The increased demand has driven an increase in rates.

Operating and Administrative Expenses

Roy Larson Construction's operating and administrative expenses increased by 22.6% in the nine months ending February 28, 2006 over the nine months ending February 28, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased number of jobs performed. The increase in operating costs did outpace the increase in revenue, however, due to escalating fuel costs, wages, safety costs, insurance costs, and equipment rental costs. Management believes that escalating costs can be passed on to clients and the current differential reflects short term timing differences and not a general decline in margins. Operating and administrative expenses only increased 28.9% over the years from 2003 to 2005 as compared to a 50.3% increase in revenue.

Earnings after Operating and Administrative Expenses

Roy Larson Construction's earnings percentage for the nine months ending February 28, 2006 fell from 37.0% for the nine months ending February 28, 2005 to 33.0%. The decrease was primarily a result of the sharp increase of operating costs such as fuel, wages, safety, insurance, and equipment rentals. In the long run, however, Roy Larson Construction has been able to expand its earnings percentage (19.3% in 2003 to 30.8% in 2005). The recovery of the oil and gas industry began in 2003 and the sector activity has accelerated at a heightened pace since.

	4,315	4,931	5,321	3,062	2,343

Amortization

The increase in amortization expense is related to capital asset purchases including assets purchased through capital leases of $2,555,158 in 2003, $4,103,152 in 2004, $5,240,481 in 2005, and $4,753,772 for the nine months ending February 28, 2006. Amortization is applied on a declining balance basis at various rates as described in the financial statements.

Interest

The increase in interest expense relates to additional net debt of $1,465,642 in 2005 and $1,373,812 in the nine months ending February 28, 2006.

Management Bonus

Management bonuses are paid to the management of Roy Larson Construction primarily to eliminate taxable income over the small business limit.

Capital expenditures	1,608	926	2,020	2,044	1,233

Roy Larson Construction has invested in additional pieces of rolling stock equipment since 2003 to meet the increased demand for services. Annual capital additions since 2003 have been made at a rate of between 10%-15% of annual revenue. Consequently, as a result of this aggressive expansion, a large portion of Roy Larson Construction's equipment is relatively new. Management expects to continue to expand rolling stock to meet industry demand in such a way as to maximize equipment utilization.

Operating Cash Flow

Roy Larson Construction's cash flow from operating activities for the nine months ending February 28, 2006 decreased by $1,504,903 from the nine months ending February 28, 2005. Although net earnings to February 28, 2006 were greater by $637,139 than the net earnings for the same period in 2005 changes in non-cash working capital more than offset the increase.

Roy Larson Construction's cash flow from operating activities in 2005 increased by $1,102,186 over 2004.

Roy Larson Construction pays management bonuses annually primarily to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. Thus, there is a downward impact on working capital from the accrued management bonus account; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Financing

Roy Larson Construction's primary sources of financing are from three sources: long-term debt, capital leases, and shareholder advances.

As at February 28, 2006, Roy Larson Construction had $1,854,151 in long-term debt. The debt is broken down into two term loans and secured by related capital assets. The debt is primarily used to finance equipment purchases and range in maturity and rates.

As at February 28, 2006, Roy Larson Construction had $4,689,288 in capital leases. The leases are secured by the related capital assets. The rates range from 0.0% to 6.59% and differing maturities up to September 2009.

Shareholder advances increased by $1,585,484 from May 31, 2005 to February 28, 2006. These advances have been used for working capital purposes and to partially fund capital asset additions. These advances are unsecured, interest free, and repayable on demand.

Critical Accounting Estimates and Accounting Policies

Critical Accounting Estimates

As a normal part of the financial statement preparation process, management is required to make estimates and assumptions based on information available as at the financial statement date. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the possible disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amount of revenue and expense reported for the period.

Although estimates and assumptions must be made during the financial statement preparation process, it is management's opinion that none of the estimates or assumptions were highly uncertain at the time they were made. The most significant estimate in Roy Larson Construction's financial statements is the amortization period for capital equipment.

Accounting Policies

Roy Larson Construction prepares its financial statements in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Accounting policies have been applied consistently during all periods included in the financial statements. There were no new accounting policies implemented during the periods presented.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF 310423 ALBERTA LTD. and WALES CONTRACTORS LTD.

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements of Wales Contractors as at and for the years ended August 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the unaudited consolidated financial statements of Wales Contractors as at and for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2006 and 2005 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

Overview and Net Earnings

Wales Contractors maintains a fleet of rolling stock equipment specializing in oil and gas lease building and road construction and private subdivision grading in the Grande Prairie area of Northern Alberta. Wales Contractors' results are directly impacted by the overall health of the Alberta oil and gas industry. The recent strength in the commodity market has steadily increased demand for Wales Contractors' services.

Weather has a direct impact on Wales Contractors. Oil and gas drilling activity is generally stronger November through March. Wet weather in the spring and early summer months hinder the activity, which regains strength in July and August. Therefore, a longer, colder winter and drier spring and summer generally enhances Wales Contractors' results.

Revenue for the nine months ended May 31, 2006 was $14,273,861 compared to $13,828,755 for the nine months ended May 31, 2005. Revenue for the year ended August 31, 2005 was $19,088,080 compared to $11,021,096 for the year ended August 31, 2004 (73.2% growth). The growth is primarily a function of the increased activity in the Alberta oil and gas industry and an increased equipment fleet to meet additional demand.

Wales Contractors' net earnings have not fluctuated significantly from year to year because Wales Contractors pays management bonuses to its management primarily to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

* The terms EBITDA and ADJUSTED EBITDA are not measures recognized by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. ADJUSTED EBITDA is a Non-GAAP measure that in management's opinion represents a better measure of cash liquidity than EBITDA since the bonuses were primarily paid to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

ADJUSTED EBITDA has increased by 116% since 2003.

Revenue

Revenue for the nine months ended May 31, 2006 was $14,273,861 compared to $13,828,755 for the nine months ended May 31, 2005. In the years ended August 31, 2003 to August 31, 2005, Wales Contractors has also increased its revenue by 118.9%. The growth is primarily a result of:

- Increased demand. The demand for lease construction in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin has increased with the increase of wells drilled. There were 21,841, 22,729, 24,800, and 26,725 (estimated by the Canadian Association of Petroleum Producers ("CAPP")) rig-released wells drilled in Western Canada for 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006E respectively. This growth in drilling activity reflects a 13.5% increase over the period from 2003 to 2005.

- Greater Utilization. The increased activity in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin has forced oil and gas companies to commit to contracts for a string of lease construction jobs as opposed to one job at a time. This has resulted in less down time for crews and greater utilization of manpower and equipment.

- Increased job rates. The increased demand has driven an increase in rates.

- Increased number of crews. Wales Contractors has increased its number of crews from six to eight to meet the increased demand.

Operating and Administrative Expenses

Wales Contractors' operating and administrative expenses increased by 8.4% for the nine months ending May 31, 2006 over the nine months ending May 31, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased number of jobs performed. The increase in operating costs did outpace the increase in revenue, however, due to escalating fuel costs, wages, safety costs, repairs and maintenance costs, and equipment rental costs. Management believes that escalating costs can be passed on to clients and the current shortfall reflects short term timing differences and not a general decline in margins. Operating and administrative expenses increased 126.0% over the years from 2003 to 2005 as compared to a 118.9% increase in revenue. The decline in margin occurred in 2005, and this reflects the extremely wet weather in the Grande Prairie area in the summer of 2005, and the cost escalations described above.

Earnings after Operating and Administrative Expenses

Wales Contractors' earnings percentage for the nine months ending May 31, 2006 was 28.9%, which was fairly consistent with the earnings percentage achieved for the nine months ending May 31, 2005 of 32.3%. One-time legal and accounting fees relating to the potential sale of the business caused the majority of the margin decline. Over the three year period from 2003 to 2005 the earnings percentage has held constant in the 31.5% to 34.3% range. Management believes that current declines are the result of escalating costs that will ultimately be able to be passed on to clients in the way of rate increases.

	3,529	3,229	5,705	3,389	2,662

Amortization

The steady increase in amortization expense is related to the continued growth in the equipment fleet as new crews were added. Amortization of contractor's equipment is applied on a five year straight-line basis. Automobiles and automotive equipment are amortized using a 20% to 30% declining balance method. Other equipment is amortized using a 10% to 30% declining balance method.

Interest

The decrease in interest expense relates to the reduction of the average cost of capital leases. Wales Contractors had $3,268,515 as at May 31, 2006 versus $3,677,765 in capital leases outstanding as at August 31, 2004.

Management Bonus

Management bonuses are paid to the management of Wales Contractors primarily to eliminate taxable income over the small business limit.

Capital expenditures	65	960	2,569	1,200	814

Wales Contractors has invested in additional pieces of rolling stock equipment since 2003 to meet the increased demand for services. Annual capital additions since 2003 have been made at a rate of between 9%-14% of annual revenue. Consequently, as a result of the expansion, a large portion of Wales equipment is relatively new. Management expects to continue to expand rolling stock to meet industry demand in such a way as to maximize equipment utilization. Expansion in 2006 has been delayed due to delays in delivery on new equipment. Delivery is anticipated in the fourth quarter of 2006.

Liquidity

Operating Cash Flow

Wales Contractors' cash flow from operating activities for the nine months ending May 31, 2006 decreased by $2,291,091 from the nine months ending May 31, 2005. In addition to the decrease in net earnings, the management bonus was drawn down versus an accrual in the same period last year. This was offset by an increase in accounts payable.

Wales Contractors' cash flow from operating activities in 2005 increased by $82,728 over 2004. Although net earnings decreased over the same two periods, changes in non-cash working capital more than offset the difference.

Wales Contractors pays management bonuses annually to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. Thus, there is a downward impact on working capital from both the shareholder advances and the accrued management bonus accounts; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Financing

Wales Contractors' primary sources of financing are from two sources: capital leases, and shareholder advances.

As at May 31, 2006, Wales Contractors had $3,268,515 in capital leases. The leases are secured by the related capital assets. The leases bear interest at various fixed rates ranging from 0.00% to 5.65% and differing maturities up to 2008.

Shareholder advances increased by $750,157 from August 31, 2005 to May 31, 2006. These advances have been used for working capital purposes and to partially fund capital asset additions. These advances are unsecured, interest free, and repayable on demand.

Financial Instruments

Fair Value

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management bonus approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of amounts due from related company, shareholder advance and obligations under capital leases are not practicably determinable.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the account receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of financial position of its customer and the regular review of their credit limits.

As at May 31, 2006, 87% (unaudited) (August 31, 2005 – 89%; 2004 – 83%) of the accounts receivable of the Company was from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk which bears fixed rates of interest, primarily through its capital lease obligations.

Related Party Transactions

The Company paid $100,000 (unaudited) during the nine month periods ended May 31, 2006 (2005 - $90,000) (unaudited) (years ended August 31, 2005 - $114,000; 2004 - $72,000; 2003 - $72,000) to a company related by virtue of common ownership, for equipment rental expenses and $29,515 (unaudited) during the nine months ended May 31, 2006 (year ended August 31, 2005 - $82,666; 2004 - $nil; 2003 - $nil) for freight expense. The Company also sold assets with the net book value of $nil (unaudited) during the nine months ended May 31, 2006 and 2005 (years ended August 31, 2005 - $140,712; 2004 - $1,606; 2003 - $nil) to a related party. All related party transactions have been recorded at the exchange amount.

Critical Accounting Estimates and Accounting Policies

Critical Accounting Estimates

As a normal part of the financial statement preparation process, management is required to make estimates and assumptions based on information available as at the financial statement date. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the possible disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amount of revenue and expense reported for the period.

Although estimates and assumptions must be made during the financial statement preparation process, it is management's opinion that none of the estimates or assumptions were highly uncertain at the time they were made. The most significant estimate in Wales Contractors' financial statements is the amortization period for capital equipment.

Accounting Policies

Wales Contractors prepares its financial statements in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Accounting policies have been applied consistently during all periods included in the financial statements. There were no new accounting policies implemented during the periods presented.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF 404434 ALBERTA CORPORATION (D&D WELL SERVICES), 756171 ALBERTA CORPORATION AND 756169 ALBERTA CORPORATION

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited combined financial statements of D&D Well Services as at and for the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the unaudited combined financial statements of D&D Well Services as at and for the three months ended March 31, 2006 and 2005 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

These financial statements have been prepared on a combined basis, commencing in 2005 when 756171 Alberta Corporation and 756169 Alberta Corporation were incorporated, as they are under common control and managed by a common company. The balances are presented after elimination of inter-company transactions and balances.

Overview and Net Earnings

D&D Well Services maintains a fleet of rolling stock equipment specializing in drilling rig, service rig and heavy equipment relocation services in the Grande Prairie area of Northern Alberta. D&D Well Services' results are directly impacted by the overall economic condition of the Western Canadian oil and gas industry. The recent strength in the oil and gas industry has rapidly increased demand for D&D Well Services' rig relocation and assembly services.

D&D Well Services' business is affected by the seasonality of oil and gas industry. Oil and gas drilling activity is most active November through March. During which time D&D Well Services is busy with rig relocation and assembly. The summer season is also moderately active for drilling; the slowest period of the year is spring when Northern Alberta experiences ground break-up in the muskeg. Thus, D&D Well Services' results are strongest during years of longer, colder winters and drier springs and summers.

D&D Well Services' revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2006 was $16,258,758 compared to $9,809,891 for the three months ended March 31, 2005 (65.7% growth). In addition, revenue for the year ended December 31, 2005 was $30,601,395 compared to $20,913,219 for the year ended December 31, 2004 (46.3% growth). The growth is primarily a function of the increased activity in the Western Canadian oil and gas industry, increased rates, and increased staff and truck fleet.

Net earnings increased to $1,208,833 in 2005 from $620,398 in 2004 (94.8% growth). D&D Well Services has historically paid out management salaries, primarily to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

ADJUSTED EBITDA has increased by 218.5% since 2003.

Revenue

Revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2006 was $16,258,758 compared to $9,809,891 for the three months ended March 31, 2005 (65.7% growth). D&D Well Services has also increased its revenue by 110.1% over the period from 2003 to 2005. The growth is primarily a result of:

- Increased demand. D&D Well Services works almost entirely for the Western Canadian oil and gas industry. Thus, its results are directly correlated to the activity in the sector. There were 21,841, 22,729, 24,800, and 26,725 (estimated by the CAPP) rig-released wells drilled in Western Canada for 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006E respectively. This growth in drilling activity reflects a 13.5% increase over the period from 2003 to 2005.

- Additional units and staff. D&D Well Services has increased its trucking fleet and staff, including additional drivers, to service the growth This expansion represents an aggressive growth strategy with respect to expansion of its fleet of equipment and personnel since 2003. Annual capital additions since 2003 have been made at a rate of between 6%-18% of annual revenue.

- Increased job rates. The increased demand has driven an increase in rates.

Operating and Administrative Expenses

D&D Well Services' operating and administrative expenses increased by 77.2% in the three months ending March 31, 2006 over the three months ending March 31, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased number of jobs performed. The increase in operating costs, however, outpaced the increase in revenue as D&D Well Services experienced rapid increases in rental rates, fuel costs, wages, insurance costs, and equipment costs. Management believes that escalating costs can be passed on to clients and the current differential reflects short term timing differences and not a general decline in margins. Operating and administrative expenses increased by 76.9% over the years from 2003 to 2005 as compared to a 110.1% increase in revenue. Thus, D&D Well Services has been able to achieve greater cost efficiencies in its long-term growth program.

Earnings after Operating and Administrative Expenses

D&D Well Services' earnings percentage for the three months ending March 31, 2006 decreased from 36.0% for the three months ending March 31, 2005 to 31.6%. This is a result of the rapid increase in rental rates, fuel costs, wages, insurance costs, and equipment costs. D&D Well Services has improved its earnings percentage, by 12.0% over the period from 2003 to 2005 from 24.0% to 36.0%.

Amortization

Amortization has increased steadily from 2003 to 2005 as D&D Well Services has increased the number of units it has in its fleet.

Interest

Interest has steadily increased over the period from 2003 to 2005 as D&D Well Services has increased its capital leases. Callable debt has decreased slightly over the same period. The callable debt bears interest at prime plus 1.75% to 2.00% and matures at various dates to August 31, 2010. The capital leases are with various lenders and secured by the related equipment; they bear different rates of interest in the 0.0% to 10.5% range and mature at various dates to September 1, 2009.

D&D Well Services has increased its trucking and equipment fleet by capital acquisitions to service the growth in demand. This expansion represents an aggressive growth strategy with respect to expansion of its fleet of equipment since 2003. Annual capital additions since 2003 have been made at a rate of between 6%-18% of annual revenue.

Liquidity

Operating Cash Flow

D&D Well Services' cash flow from operating activities for the three months ending March 31, 2006 decreased by $199,978 from the three months ending March 31, 2005. This was a result of a slight decrease in net earnings and a significantly greater increase in accounts receivable.

D&D Well Services' cash flow from operating activities in 2005 increased by $1,812,981 over 2004. An increase in net earnings and accrued management bonus were primarily responsible for the increase.

Working Capital

Working capital	(1,783)	(2,898)	(3,466)

D&D Well Services pays management bonuses annually to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. Thus, there is a downward impact on working capital from both the shareholder advances account and the accrued management bonus account; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Financing

D&D Well Services' primary sources of financing are from two sources: callable debt and capital leases.

As at March 31, 2006, D&D Well Services had $1,595,539 in callable debt. The current debt amount is comprised of several callable loans that are repayable in monthly payments ranging in size from $3,500 to $13,250 including interest (prime plus 1.75% to 2.00%). The loans are callable on demand and mature at various dates to August 31, 2010.

As at March 31, 2006, D&D Well Services had capital leases for an aggregate outstanding balance of $918,827. The leases are secured by the underlying equipment. The rates range from 0.0% to 10.5% and differing maturities up to September 1, 2009.

Financial Instruments

Fair Value

The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, accrued management bonus and callable debt, approximate their fair values due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of shareholder advances are not practicably determinable.

The fair values of long-term debt and capital lease obligations approximates carrying values as the interest rates approximate market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

As at March 31, 2006, the Company had accounts receivable of 55% (December 31, 2005 – 47%; 2004 – 39%) from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of the long-term debt which bears fixed and floating rates of interest.

Related Party Transactions

The Company paid $99,000 (unaudited) for the three months ended March 31, 2006 (March 31, 2005 - $25,000 (unaudited)) (year ended December 31, 2005 - $126,500; 2004 - $66,000) in rent to the shareholders. This transaction has been measured at the exchange amount.

Critical Accounting Estimates and Accounting Policies

Critical Accounting Estimates

As a normal part of the financial statement preparation process, management is required to make estimates and assumptions based on information available as at the financial statement date. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the possible disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amount of revenue and expense reported for the period.

Although estimates and assumptions must be made during the financial statement preparation process, it is management's opinion that none of the estimates or assumptions were highly uncertain at the time they were made. The most significant estimate in D&D Well Services' financial statements is the amortization period for capital equipment.

Accounting Policies

D&D Well Services prepares its financial statements in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Accounting policies have been applied consistently during all periods included in the financial statements. There were no new accounting policies implemented during the periods presented.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Murtron Hauling

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF MURTRON HAULING LTD. AND 815431 ALBERTA LTD.

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited combined financial statements of Murtron Hauling Ltd. as at and for the years ended October 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the unaudited combined financial statements of Murtron Hauling Ltd. as at and for the six months ended April 30, 2006 and 2005 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

These financial statements have been prepared on a combined basis, as they are under common control and managed by a common company. The balances are presented after elimination of inter-company transactions and balances.

Overview and Net Earnings

Murtron Hauling maintains a fleet of rolling stock equipment specializing oil and gas sector equipment relocation, log hauling and gravel hauling in the Grande Prairie area of Northern Alberta. Murtron Hauling's results are directly impacted by the overall health of the Western Canadian oil and gas, logging, and aggregates industries. The recent strength in the oil and gas and aggregates industries has steadily increased demand for Murtron Hauling's services.

Murtron Hauling's business is affected by the seasonality of the three aforementioned industries. Oil and gas drilling activity is most active November through March. During which time Murtron Hauling is busy moving equipment to and from well sites. Winter is also the most active period for the logging industry, which heightens the demand for log hauling. Murtron Hauling's services are occupied throughout the summer with hauling gravel for the aggregates industry as well moving well-site equipment for the moderately active summer drilling season. The slowest period of the year is spring when Northern Alberta experiences ground break-up in the muskeg; drilling, logging, and aggregate activities are slowest during this period. Thus, Murtron Hauling's results are strongest during years of longer, colder winters and drier springs and summers.

Revenue for the six months ended April 30, 2006 was $8,366,646 compared to $5,142,120 for the six months ended April 30, 2005 (62.7% growth). Revenue for the year ended October 31, 2005 was $12,278,395 compared to $10,664,509 for the year ended October 31, 2004 (15.1% growth). The growth is primarily a function of the increased activity in the Alberta oil and gas and aggregates industries and increased rates.

Murtron Hauling's earnings from operations have decreased as a percentage of revenue over the past three years due to the rapid increase of operating costs, such as wages, fuel, insurance, and sub-contractors. Furthermore, Murtron Hauling's earnings are weakest during the winter months of each year because operating costs are highest during that period. For the six-month period ending April 30, 2005 Murtron Hauling recognized revenue of $5,142,120, which represented 41.9% of the annual revenue. For the same period, Murtron Hauling recognized operating costs of $4,360,988 which represented 43.6% of the annual operating costs. It is management's belief that high demand for services will allow Murtron Hauling to successfully compete with higher rates for services. Management believes that higher rates will offset recent escalations in operating costs and margins can be prevented from further slides.

* The terms EBITDA and ADJUSTED EBITDA are not measures recognized by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. ADJUSTED EBITDA is a Non-GAAP measure that in management's opinion represents a better measure of cash liquidity than EBITDA since the bonuses were primarily paid to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

ADJUSTED EBITDA has increased by 43.2% since 2003.

Revenue

Revenue for the six months ended April 30, 2006 was $8,366,646 compared to $5,142,120 for the six months ended April 30, 2005 (62.7% growth). Murtron Hauling also increased its revenue by 62.4% over the period from 2003 to 2005. This growth is primarily a result of:

- Increased demand. The demand for lease construction in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin has increased with the increase of wells drilled. There were 21,841, 22,729, 24,800, and 26,725 (estimated by the Canadian Association of Petroleum Producers) rig-released wells drilled in Western Canada for 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006E respectively. This growth in drilling activity reflects a 13.5% increase over the period from 2003 to 2005.

- Decreased down time. While the summer in Grande Prairie was one of the wettest on record, the spring breakup period was fairly short and good winter weather resulted in reduced overall down time for Murtron Hauling's various operations and thus increasing the amount of revenue-generating work days.

- Increased job rates. The increased demand has driven an increase in rates.

Operating Expenses

Murtron Hauling's operating and administrative expenses increased by 49.2% in the six months ending April 30, 2006 over the six months ending April 30, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased number of jobs performed. The increase in revenue outpaced the increase in expenses as Murtron Hauling realized savings due to volume increases. Operating expenses increased by 66.0% over the years from 2003 to 2005 as compared to a 62.4% increase in revenue. The difference is primarily a result of the rapid increase in fuel costs, wages, insurance costs, and sub-contractor costs, which were not entirely accounted for by increased charge rates.

Earnings After Operating and Administrative Expenses

Murtron Hauling's earnings percentage for the six months ending April 30, 2006 increased to 22.2% from 15.2% for the six months ending April 30, 2005.

Management bonus	1412	-	910	827	211
	1,734	418	1,813	1,589	901

Amortization

Amortization expenses have remained fairly constant from 2003 to 2005 as a result of little fluctuation in property, equipment, and capital leases. Capital expenditures have predominantly been dedicated to replacing older automotive equipment, trailers, and other equipment rather than to increase the fleet size.

Interest

Interest expense has fluctuated over the period from 2003 to 2005. Murtron Hauling has reduced its level of callable debt and bank overdraft, which bear interest at prime plus 0.75%. Murtron Hauling's capital leases, which bear interest at rates ranging from 3.0% to 6.5%, have increased throughout the same period.

Management Bonus

Management bonuses are paid to the management to eliminate taxable income over the small business limit.

Capital expenditures	199	392	721	982	611

Murtron Hauling has invested in rolling stock equipment since 2003 primarily to replace older units. Annual capital additions since 2003 have been made at a rate of between 5%-10% of annual revenue. Management expects to continue to expand rolling stock to meet industry demand in such a way as to maximize equipment utilization.

Liquidity

Operating Cash Flow

Murtron Hauling's cash flow from operating activities for the six months ending April 30, 2006 decreased by $487,37[illegible] from the six months ending April 30, 2005. This was primarily the result of a decrease in net earnings and an increase in prepaid expenses.

Murtron Hauling's cash flow from operating activities in 2005 increased by $364,274 over 2004. A decrease in net earnings, accounts payable, accrued liabilities, and bonuses payable was more than offset by the decrease in accounts receivable and lesser non-cash gain on disposal of equipment.

Murtron Hauling pays management bonus annually to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. Thus, there is a downward impact on working capital from both the shareholder advances account and the accrued management bonus account; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Financing

Murtron Hauling's primary sources of financing are from two sources: callable debt and capital leases.

As at April 30, 2006 Murtron Hauling had $33,750 in callable debt. Murtron Hauling has three bank loans secured but is currently only drawn on one. The current debt amount is repayable in monthly payments of $2,250 to $5,000 plus interest at a rate of prime plus 0.75% and matures in August 2007.

As at April 30, 2006 Murtron Hauling had $504,270 in capital leases. The rates range from 3.0% to 6.5% and differing maturities up to September 2008.

Murtron Hauling also has a bank overdraft, which is not drawn, that bears interest at prime plus 0.75%.

The company has issued preferred shares redeemable at $2,000. They have been recorded as a liability.

Financial Instruments

Fair Value

The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, bank indebtedness, accrued management bonus and callable debt approximate their fair values due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of shareholder advances is not practicably determinable, since there are no specific terms.

The fair value of callable debt and obligations under capital lease approximate carrying values as the interest rate approximates the market value.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies which include the analysis of financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

During the period ended April 30, 2006 – 78.2% (unaudited) (April 30, 2005 – 83.7%) (unaudited) (years ended October 31, 2005 – 47% (each customer at 37% and 10%); October 31, 2004 – 41% (each customer at 31% and 10%); October 31, 2003 – 57% (each customer at 47% and 10%)) of the Company's sales were to two customers. As at April 30, 2006, 51.7% (unaudited) (October 31, 2005 – 38%; October 31, 2004 – 54%) of the accounts receivable of the Company were from two customers.

Related Party Transactions

During the year ended October 31, 2005, the Company sold equipment for $16,050 (2004 - $6,420; 2003 - $nil) to companies controlled by the shareholders or by family members of the shareholders. In 2004, the Company advanced $40,000 to the related party and was repaid prior to October 31, 2004.

The related party transactions have been recorded at exchange amounts.

The due from related party is unsecured, interest free and repayable on demand. The companies are related, as they are controlled by common shareholders.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF R BEE CRUSHING LTD., BERNET VENTURES LTD., AND DAL FINN HOLDINGS LTD.

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited combined financial statements of R Bee Crushing as at and for the years ended April 30, 2006, 2005 and 2004 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

These financial statements have been prepared on a combined basis, as they are under common control and managed by a common owner. The balances are presented after elimination of inter-company transactions and balances.

Overview and Net Earnings

R Bee Crushing's results are directly impacted by the overall health of northern Alberta economic development. The company's rock crushing services are employed predominantly by five to six major clients involved in road and infrastructure development in the north. In turn, the overall health of the Western Canadian oil and gas and aggregates industries has an indirect impact on R Bee Crushing as they drive the development in the region. The recent strength in the oil and gas and aggregates industries has steadily increased demand for R Bee Crushing's services.

R Bee Crushing has an upgraded, modern equipment fleet that has contributed to greater productivity and capacity to service the rapidly increasing demand for northern development. As a result of the recent economic trends in the region and R Bee Crushing's ability to capitalize on them, revenue has steadily increased over the past three years. Revenue for the year ended April 30, 2006 was $26,166,042 compared to $22,836,900 for the year ended April 30, 2005 (14.1% growth). Revenue for the year ended April 30, 2005 was $22,836,900 compared to $14,829,085 for the year ended April 30, 2004 (54.0% growth).

For the year ending April 30, 2006, R Bee Crushing recognized net earnings of $2,445,348, which represented 9.3% of the period's revenue. For the year ended April 30, 2005, R Bee Crushing recognized net earnings of $1,939,002 which represented 8.5% of the period's revenue. Margins have steadily improved over the past three years with operating efficiencies and rate increases outpacing increasing input costs.

ADJUSTED EBITDA is a Non-GAAP measure that in management's opinion represents a better measure of cash liquidity than EBITDA since the bonuses were primarily paid to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

ADJUSTED EBITDA has increased by 98.2% since 2004.

Revenue

Revenue for the year ended April 30, 2006 was $26,166,042 compared to $22,836,900 for the year ended April 30, 2005 (14.6% growth). R Bee Crushing also increased its revenue by 76.5% over the period from 2004 to 2006. This growth is primarily a result of:

- Upgraded equipment. An upgraded equipment fleet has allowed R Bee Crushing to increase its productivity and capitalize on the economic expansion in Northern Alberta.

- Increased job rates. The increased demand has driven an increase in rates.

Operating and Administrative Expenses

R Bee Crushing's operating and administrative expenses increased by 14.9% in the year ending April 30, 2006 over the year ending April 30, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased number of jobs performed. The increase in operating costs slightly outpaced the increase in revenue as one time accounting and legal fees offset operational efficiencies. Operating expenses increased by 66.1% over the years from 2004 to 2006 as compared to a 76.5% increase in revenue.

Earnings after Operating and Administrative Expenses

R Bee Crushing's earnings percentage for the year ending April 30, 2006 decreased to 30.1% from 30.3% for the year ending April 30, 2005.

Amortization

Amortization expense has increased each year as a result of upgrading to new equipment. 2006 capital additions of $5,825,255 by way of cash and additional capital acquisitions of $3,100,839 by way of capital leases resulted in an increase in amortization of 49.3% over 2005.

Interest

Interest has steadily increased over the three-year period and into 2006 as capital leases, long-term debt, and bank indebtedness have increased in conjunction with new equipment purchases.

Management Bonus

Management bonuses are paid to the management to eliminate taxable income over the small business limit.

R Bee Crushing has invested in additional pieces of equipment since 2004 to meet the increased demand for services. Annual capital additions between 2004 and 2006 have been made at a rate of between 9%-26% of annual revenue. Consequently, as a result of this aggressive expansion, a large portion of R Bee Crushing's equipment is relatively new. Management expects to continue to expand equipment to meet industry demand in such a way as to maximize equipment utilization.

Operating Cash Flow

R Bee Crushing's cash flow from operating activities in 2006 decreased by $840,130 from 2005. Although net earnings increased by $506,346, changes in non-cash working capital items, primarily an accounts receivable increase, had a negative impact on cash flow for operating activities.

Working capital before accrued management bonus and shareholder advances has increased from April 30, 2005 to April 30, 2006. However, there is a downward impact on working capital from both the shareholder advances account and the accrued management bonus account; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Financing

R Bee Crushing's primary sources of financing are from four sources: bank indebtedness, long-term debt, capital leases, and shareholder advances.

As at April 30, 2006, R Bee Crushing had $1,607,572 in bank indebtedness. This amount includes $497,572 drawn on the company's overdraft and $1,110,000 drawn on a $2,000,000 operating line of credit, which bears interest at prime plus 1.75%.

As at April 30, 2006, R Bee Crushing had $7,410,753 in long-term debt. The debt is comprised of various bank loans that are secured by heavy equipment and bear interest at various variable and fixed rates (bank prime plus 2.85% to 7.25% fixed).

As at April 30, 2006, R Bee Crushing had $5,003,124 in capital leases. The leases are secured by specific assets of the company. The rates range from 5.8% (fixed) to prime plus 3.0%.

As at April 30, 2006, R Bee Crushing had $1,644,990 due to shareholder outstanding.

Financial Instruments

Fair Value

The carrying value of cash, short term investments, accounts receivable, income tax receivable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management bonus, approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of amount shareholder advances is not practicably determinable. The fair value of long-term debt and capital lease obligations approximate carrying values as the interest rates approximate market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

During the year ended April 30, 2006, the Company had sales of 60% (year ended April 30, 2005 – 52% (each customer at 24%, 17% and 11%); 2004 – 41% (each customer at 17%, 12% and 12%); 2003 – 50% (each customer at 25%, 18% and 7%)) to three customers. As at April 30, 2006, the Company had accounts receivable of 79% (2005 – 74%; 2004 – 74%) from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of the long-term debt, which bears a fixed rate of interest.

Related Party Transactions

The Company incurred general and administrative expenses of $369,000 with a company under common control during the year ended April 30, 2006 (year ended April 30, 2005 - $341,853; 2004 - $281,999).

The Company generated rental income of $53,625 with a company under common control during the year ended April 30, 2006 (year ended April 30, 2005 – $nil; 2004 - $nil; 2003 - $nil).

The Company generated interest income of $1,855 with a company under common control during the year ended April 30, 2006 (year ended April 30, 2005 – $1,969; 2004 - $nil; 2003 - $nil).

The related party transactions are in the normal course of operations and are measured at the exchange amount.

Critical Accounting Estimates and Accounting Policies

Critical Accounting Estimates

As a normal part of the financial statement preparation process, management is required to make estimates and assumptions based on information available as at the financial statement date. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the possible disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amount of revenue and expense reported for the period.

Although estimates and assumptions must be made during the financial statement preparation process, it is management's opinion that none of the estimates or assumptions were highly uncertain at the time they were made. The most significant estimate in R Bee Crushing's financial statements is the amortization period for capital equipment and recoverability of accounts receivable.

Accounting Policies

R Bee Crushing prepares its financial statements in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Accounting policies have been applied consistently during all periods included in the financial statements. There were no new accounting policies implemented during the periods presented.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF SAFETYMASTER RENTALS CORPORATION.

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements of Safetymaster Rentals Corporation as at and for the years ended August 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the unaudited financial statements of Safetymaster Rentals Corporation as at and for the three and nine months ended May 31, 2006 and 2005 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

Overview and Net Earnings

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety provides safety equipment rental services and safety services to the oil and gas industry including the supply of air trailers and equipment for use with sour gas wells. Accordingly, the company's results are directly impacted by the overall health of the Western Canadian oil and gas industry. The recent strength in the commodity market has steadily increased demand for S.O.S. Oilfield Safety's equipment.

Since the operations of S.O.S. Oilfield Safety are directly effected by the oil and gas industry, weather can have a direct impact on the company. Oil and gas drilling activity is generally stronger November through March. Wet weather in the spring and early summer months hinder the activity, which regains strength in July and August. As a result, S.O.S. Oilfield Safety typically runs at greater utilization rates during the winter, summer, and fall and at weaker utilization rates for spring and early summer. Therefore, a longer, colder winter and drier spring and summer enhances S.O.S. Oilfield Safety's results.

Revenue for the nine months ended May 31, 2006 was $5,262,734 compared to $3,548,956 for the nine months ended May 31, 2005 (48.3% growth). Revenue for the year ended August 31, 2005 was $4,612,493 compared to $3,274,653 for the year ended August 31, 2004 (40.9% growth). The growth is primarily a function of the increased activity in the Alberta oil and gas industry, an increased sales staff, increased rates, and an increased equipment fleet to meet additional demand.

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety's net earnings have steadily increased over the past 3 years as a result of increased sales from $151,330 in 2003 to $319,082 in 2005. S.O.S. Oilfield Safety pays management bonuses to its management, however, primarily to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. A portion of such bonuses are reinvested in Safetymaster Rentals (S.O.S.) by way of shareholder advances.

* The terms EBITDA and ADJUSTED EBITDA are not measures recognized by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. ADJUSTED EBITDA is a Non-GAAP measure that in management's opinion represents a better measure of cash liquidity than EBITDA since the bonuses were primarily paid to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

ADJUSTED EBITDA has increased by 260% since 2003.

Revenue

Revenue for the nine months ended May 31, 2006 was $5,262,734 compared to $3,548,956 for the nine months ended May 31, 2005 (48.3% growth). S.O.S. Oilfield Safety has also increased its revenue by 104.3% over the period from 2003 to 2005. The growth is primarily a result of:

- Increased demand. The demand for safety supervision services and equipment rentals in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin has increased with the increase of wells drilled. There were 21,841, 22,729, 24,800, and 26,725 (estimated by the CAPP) rig-released wells drilled in Western Canada for 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006E respectively. This growth in drilling activity reflects a 13.5% increase over the period from 2003 to 2005.

- Additional equipment. S.O.S. Oilfield Safety increased its equipment fleet throughout 2004 and 2005.

- Increased rates. The increased demand has driven an increase in rates.

- Increased sales force. S.O.S. Oilfield Safety expanded its sales staff in 2005.

Cost of Rentals

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety's operating and administrative expenses increased by 50.6% in the nine months ending May 31, 2006 over the nine months ending May 31, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased rental sales. As a percentage of revenue, however, operating and administrative expenses is increasing due to rising wages and fuel costs. Management believes that escalating costs can be passed on to clients and the current differential reflects short term timing differences and not a general decline in margins. Operating and administrative expenses increased 64.3% over the years from 2003 to 2005 as compared to a 104.3% increase in revenue.

Earnings After Operating and Administrative Expenses

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety's earnings percentage for the nine months ending May 31, 2006 was 32.9%, which was fairly consistent with the earnings percentage for the nine months ending May 31, 2005 of 34.0%. Over the three-year period S.O.S. Oilfield Safety has been able to expand its earnings percentage from 15.3% in 2003 to 31.9% in 2005.

	1,478	935	1,078	748	149

Amortization

Amortization has fluctuated over the three-year period as S.O.S. Oilfield Safety has sold and acquired new equipment. S.O.S. Oilfield Safety uses both operating leases and cash purchases to acquire new equipment. The equipment is amortized using the declining balance method over the estimated useful lives of the equipment at a 15% rate.

Interest

The interest expense has remained fairly constant throughout the three year period. S.O.S. Oilfield Safety pays interest on a line of credit, callable debt, and two long-term loans. The line of credit bears interest at prime plus 1.0% and there was an outstanding balance of nil as at May 31, 2006. The callable debt bears interest at prime plus 1.25% and there was an outstanding balance of $15,615 as at May 31, 2006. S.O.S. Oilfield Safety has a long-term loan that bears interest at prime plus 1.5% and there was an outstanding balance of $250,000 as at May 31, 2006. S.O.S. Oilfield Safety has secured another long-term loan that bears interest at prime plus 2.5% and there was no outstanding balance as at May 31, 2006.

Operating Cash Flow

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety's cash flow from operating activities for the nine months ending May 31, 2006 decreased by $168,619 from the nine months ending May 31, 2005. Although net earnings were almost identical, changes in non-cash working capital more than caused the change.

S.O.S. O lfield Safety's cash flow from operating activities in 2005 increased by $135,296 from 2004. An increase and net e rnings and changes in non-cash working capital were responsible for the change.

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety pays management bonuses to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. A portion of this bonus is loaned back to S.O.S. Oilfield Safety resulting in an increase to shareholder advances. Thus, there is a downward impact on working capital from both the shareholder advance account and the accrued management bonus account; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Working capital before shareholder advances, accrued management bonuses, and due to related parties has steadily improved since August 31, 2004.

Financing

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety's primary sources of financing are from four sources: operating line of credit, long-term debt, callable debt, and shareholder loans.

As at May 31, 2006, S.O.S. Oilfield Safety had $nil outstanding on its operating line of credit. The operating line of credit is secured by a general security agreement covering all the assets of the company. The operating line bears interest at prime plus 1.0% and has maximum borrowings of $600,000.

The long-term debt is comprised of two loans from a company controlled by a family member of a shareholder of S.O.S. Oi field Safety. As at May 31, 2006, S.O.S. Oilfield Safety has an outstanding balance of $250,000 on one of the two loans, which bears interest at prime plus 1.5% (the other loan, which has no outstanding balance, bears interest at prime plus 2.5%). The outstanding balance is repayable in monthly installments of $11,108, which include interest.

As at May 31, 2006, S.O.S. Oilfield Safety had $15,615 outstanding in callable debt. The callable debt bears interest at a rate of prime plus 1.25% and is repayable in monthly installments of $900.

Fair Value

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, accrued management remuneration, callable debt and long-term debt, approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of amounts due to (from) related parties and shareholder advances are not practicably determinable since they do not have any specified terms.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies which include the analysis of financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

During the period ended May 31, 2006, 32% (unaudited) (May 31, 2005 – 40%; (unaudited); August 31, 2005 – 32%; August 31, 2004 – 22%; August 31, 2003 – 35%) of the Company's sales were to two customers. As at February 28, 2006, the Company had accounts receivable of 48% (August 31, 2005 – 31%; 2004 – 41%) from two customers.

Critical Accounting Estimates and Accounting Policies

Critical Accounting Estimates

As a normal part of the financial statement preparation process, management is required to make estimates and assumptions based on information available as at the financial statement date. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the possible disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amount of revenue and expense reported for the period.

Although estimates and assumptions must be made during the financial statement preparation process, it is management's opinion that none of the estimates or assumptions were highly uncertain at the time they were made. The most significant estimate in S.O.S. Oilfield Safety's financial statements is the amortization period for capital equipment.

Accounting Policies

S.O.S. Oilfield Safety prepares its financial statements in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Accounting policies have been applied consistently during all periods included in the financial statements. There were no new accounting policies implemented during the periods presented.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Neuwest Equipment

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF NEUWEST EQUIPMENT RENTALS INC.

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements of Neuwest Equipment Rentals Inc. as at and for the years ended October 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the unaudited financial statements of Neuwest Equipment Rentals Inc. as at and for the six months ended April 30, 2006 and 2005 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

These financial statements are prepared on the going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. The Company expects to continue normal operations with continued shareholder support, the Company receiving future financing[1] and the Company renting equipment to a related party.[2] The outcome of these events is uncertain at this time. These financial statements do not include any adjustments to the amounts and classification of assets and liabilities that may be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. These adjustments may be material.

Note:
(1) Subsequent events are described under Note 16 to the October 30, 2005 financial statements.
(2) Related Party disclosure is described under Note 13 to the October 31, 2005 financial statements.

Overview and Net Earnings

Neuwest Rentals' provides a fleet of heavy construction equipment to the Grande Prairie area oil and gas and construction sector. Its results are directly impacted by the overall health of the Western Canadian oil and gas industry. The recent strength in the commodity market has steadily increased demand for Neuwest Rentals' equipment.

The effects of weather usually have a direct impact on Neuwest Rentals. Oil and gas drilling activity is generally stronger November through March. Wet weather in the spring and early summer months hinder the activity, which regains strength in July and August. As a result, Neuwest Rentals typically runs at close to 100% utilization eight months of the year (winter, summer, and fall) and at approximately 50% utilization for four months of the year (spring and early summer). Therefore, a longer, colder winter and drier spring and summer enhances Neuwest Rentals' results. Revenue for the six months ended April 30, 2006 was $2,625,592 compared to $797,933 for the six months ended April 30, 2005 (229.1% growth). Revenue for the year ended October 31, 2005 was $2,081,517 compared to $1,376,210 for the year ended October 31, 2004 (51.2% growth). The growth is primarily a function of the increased activity in the Alberta oil and gas industry and an increased equipment fleet to meet additional demand.

While Neuwest Rentals' net earnings have steadily increased over the past 3 years as a result of increased sales, the company pays management bonuses via its employee profit sharing plan to its shareholders to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. A significant portion of such bonuses are reinvested back into Neuwest Rentals by way of shareholder advances.

* The terms EBITDA and ADJUSTED EBITDA are not measures recognized by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. ADJUSTED EBITDA is a Non-GAAP measure that in management's opinion represents a better measure of cash liquidity than EBITDA since the bonuses were primarily paid to reduce taxable income to the small business limit.

ADJUSTED EBITDA expense has drastically increased over the past three years.

Revenue

Revenue for the six months ended April 30, 2006 was $2,625,592 compared to $797,933 for the six months ended April 30, 2005 (229.1% growth). Neuwest Rentals has also increased its revenue by 51.2% over the years from 2004 to 2005. The growth is primarily a result of:

- Increased demand. The demand for equipment rentals in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin has increased with the increase of wells drilled. There were 21,841, 22,729, 24,800, and 26,725 (estimated by the CAPP) rig-released wells drilled in Western Canada for 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006E respectively. This growth in drilling activity reflects a 13.5% increase over the period from 2003 to 2005.

- Additional equipment. Neuwest Rentals increased its equipment fleet throughout 2004 and 2005 by way of operating and capital leases on the equipment. As at 2005 year end Neuwest Rentals has a fleet size of 31 pieces.

- Increased rental rates. The increased demand has driven rental rates up modestly over the three-year period.

Cost of Rentals

Neuwest Rentals' cost of rentals increased by 179.0% in the six months ending April 30, 2006 over the six months ending April 30, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased rental sales. As a percentage of revenue, however, cost of rentals is decreasing due to greater utilization rates and an increase in capital leases as opposed to operating leases. Cost of rentals only increased 171% over the years from 2003 to 2005 as compared to a 389.1% increase in revenue. Cost of rentals also remains very low because most equipment is covered by manufacturer's warranty for defects, and most repairs and maintenance are paid by the customer. Due to the nature of the business, rentals are generally required to be late model equipment, and therefore older machinery that would normally incur higher costs associated with maintenance are not usually retained in the business. This equipment is typically disposed of when hour usage on the equipment reaches certain utilization levels that maximize the return on ultimate sale.

Gross Margin

Neuwest Rentals' gross margin for the six months ending April 30, 2006 increased to 54.8% from 46.6% over the same period in 2005. The increase was primarily a result of higher utilization rates and a greater use of capital leases as opposed to operating leases. Over the three-year period Neuwest Rentals has been able to drastically increase its gross margin (5.6% in 2003 to 47.7% in 2005).

Administrative Expenses

Administrative Expenses	175	64	168	266	27

Administrative expenses remain very low as a percentage of revenue because Neuwest employs only a small number of sales and maintenance personnel to service the equipment. Addition of more equipment does not require the proportionate increase in manpower that is normally associated with the operation of that equipment. The only major other administrative expense that has increased in-line with sales is insurance for the equipment fleet.

Other Expenses

Employee profit plan expense	-	-	375	-	-
	332	(10)	560	7	6

Amortization

Amortization began to increase in 2005 due to the increased use of capital leases as opposed to operating leases. Neuwest Rentals added nine capital leases during 2005 and the first quarter of 2006. As at April 30, 2006, Neuwest

Rentals had $2,302,270 in outstanding capital leases versus $0 outstanding as at October 31, 2004. Also, Neuwest Rentals made capital asset purchases of $44,427 during 2005 and $191,173 during the first six months of 2006.

Interest

The increase in interest expense relates primarily to the increase in capital leases in 2005. The capital leases bear interest at rates between 5.9% and 6.7%. Neuwest Rentals also has a long-term loan used for the purchase of equipment, the loan bears interest at 7.5% and the outstanding balance as at April 30, 2006 was $21,291.

Management Bonus

Employee profit plan expenses are paid by way of bonuses to the management of Neuwest Rentals primarily to eliminate taxable income over the small business limit.

Income Taxes

$000s	Six months ended April 30, 2006	Six months ended April 30, 2005	Year ended October 31, 2005	Year ended October 31, 2004	Year ended October 31, 2003

Future Income Taxes	(40)	-	(29)	**-	**-
	150	50	34	23	**-

Current income taxes have increased due to the growth in revenue, but have been impacted due to management bonuses, which reduces taxable income under the small business limit for the three-year period.

Capital Expenditures

Capital expenditures	191	5	44	19	-

Neuwest Rentals capital expansion in the past has primarily been financed by way of leases on its rental equipment. The company has financed this expansion by using both operating and capital leases, however the majority of expansions has been by way of operating leases. Its capital expenditures have therefore remained very low throughout the past three years.

Liquidity

Operating Cash Flow

Neuwest Rentals' cash flow from operating activities for the six months ending April 30, 2006 increased by $411,542 from the six months ending April 30, 2005. This is primarily a result of an increase in net earnings.

Neuwest Rentals' cash flow from operating activities in 2005 decreased by $308,281 from 2004. Although net earnings and EBITDA increased over the same period, a large increase in accounts receivable more than offset the increase.

Working Capital

Neuwest Rentals pays bonuses via its employee profit sharing plan annually to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. A significant portion of these bonuses are reinvested in Neuwest Rentals resulting in an increase to the shareholder advances. Thus, there is a downward impact on working capital from the shareholder advances and management bonuses account; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Working capital has fluctuated over the past three years due to large changes in capital leases and accounts receivable associated with the growth in the operation.

Financing

Neuwest Rentals' primary sources of financing are from three sources: capital leases, long-term debt, and shareholder advances.

As at April 30, 2006, Neuwest Rentals had $2,302,270 in capital leases. The leases are secured by the related capital assets. The rates range from 5.9% to 6.7% and differing maturities up to December 31, 2010.

As at April 30, 2006, Neuwest Rentals had $21,191 in long-term debt. The debt is a 24-month loan used for equipment purchases, which bears interest at a rate of 7.5%.

Shareholder advances increased by $125,000 from October 31, 2005 to April 30, 2006. These advances have been used for working capital purposes and to partially fund capital asset additions. These advances are unsecured, interest free, and repayable on demand.

Financial Instruments

Fair Value

The carrying value of cash, accounts receivable, interest receivable and accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments. The fair value of shareholder advance and due to employee profit sharing plan is not practicably determinable since it does not have any specified terms. The fair value of long-term debt, capital lease obligation and deposit in trust approximates carrying value as the interest rates applicable to these loans approximate market rates.

Credit risk:

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of financial position of its customer and the regular review of their credit limits.

As at April 30, 2006, 92% (unaudited) (October 31, 2005 – 81%; October 31, 2004 – 73%) of the accounts receivable of the Company was from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of its capital long-term debt, which bear fixed rates of interest.

Related Party Transactions

The Company entered into a number of related party transactions with companies controlled by the shareholders or companies controlled by family members of the shareholders, which were a part of the normal course of operations. Such transactions included revenues of $nil for the interim period ending April 30, 2006 (unaudited) (years ending October 31, 2005 - $951,082; 2004 - $1,247,666; 2003 - $394,899). For the period of April 30, 2006, there were not related party revenues earned.

The Company also entered into incurred consulting fees with a related party for the amount of $58,166 and $36,000 for the six month period ending April 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively (unaudited) (years ending October 31, 2005 - $96,000; 2004 - $nil).

As at October 31, 2005, outstanding accounts receivable from related parties amounted to $288,424 (2004 - $27,147). No amounts are outstanding at April 30, 2006.

All related party transactions have been recorded at the exchange amount.

Critical Accounting Estimates and Accounting Policies

Critical Accounting Estimates

As a normal part of the financial statement preparation process, management is required to make estimates and assumptions based on information available as at the financial statement date. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the possible disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amount of revenue and expense reported for the period.

Although estimates and assumptions must be made during the financial statement preparation process, it is management's opinion that none of the estimates or assumptions were highly uncertain at the time they were made. The most significant estimate in Neuwest Rentals' financial statements is the amortization period for capital equipment and the going concern assumption.

Accounting Policies

Neuwest Rentals prepares its financial statements in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Accounting policies have been applied consistently during all periods included in the financial statements. There were no new accounting policies implemented during the periods presented.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FITZPATRICK CO. LTD. AND NORTHERN TRACTOR SALES & RENTAL CO. LTD. OPERATED AS "NORTHERN TRACTOR SALES & RENTAL"

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the audited combined financial statements of Northern Tractor Sales & Rental as at and for the years ended September 30, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the unaudited combined financial statements of Northern Tractor Sales & Rental as at and for the three and six months ended March 31, 2006 and 2005 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

These financial statements have been prepared on a combined basis, as they are under common control and managed by a common owner. The balances are presented after elimination of inter-company transactions and balances.

These combined financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. The Company expects to continue normal operations with continued shareholder support and assuming the bank indebtedness not being demanded by the lender, the Company receiving future financing.(1) The lender demanding repayment may result in the Company selling property and equipment to settle the debt, which would alter current operations. The lender has not presently indicated any intention to demand repayment. The outcome of these events is uncertain at this time. These combined financial statements do not include any adjustments to the amounts and classification of assets and liabilities that may be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. These adjustments may be material.

The Company's business is considered to have some seasonality, with peak levels generally in the first and fourth calendar year quarters.

Note:
(1) Subsequent events are describe under Note 15 to the September 30, 2005 combined Financial Statements.

Overview and Net Earnings

Northern Tractor provides a fleet of heavy construction equipment to the Grande Prairie area oil and gas and construction sector. Consequently its results are directly impacted by the overall health of the Western Canadian oil and gas industry. The recent strength in the commodity market has steadily increased demand for Northern Tractor's equipment.

The effects of weather usually have a direct impact on Northern Tractor. Northern Tractor has an extensive equipment fleet; a good portion of which is comprised of earth moving equipment. Thus, Northern Tractor's high season is summer, when its utilization rates are boosted by the summer drilling season and earth moving equipment rentals. Northern Tractor is also busy in the winter, which is the peak drilling season in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin. Wet weather in the spring and equipment relocation in the fall hinders the activity during those periods. Therefore, a longer, colder winter and drier spring and summer enhances Northern Tractor's results.

Revenue for the six months ended March 31, 2006 was $5,102,565 compared to $3,156,346 for the six months ended March 31, 2005 (61.7% growth). Revenue for the year ended September 30, 2005 was $6,432,768 compared to $5,365,723 for the year ended September 30, 2004 (19.9% growth). The growth is primarily a function of the increased activity in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin, the Athabasca oil sands, and an increased equipment fleet to meet additional demand.

Northern Tractor's net earnings have steadily increased over the past 3 years as a result of increased sales. Northern Tractor pays management bonuses to its management, however, to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. A portion of such bonuses are reinvested in Northern Tractor by way of shareholder advances.

Revenue

Revenue for the six months ended March 31, 2006 was $5,102,565 compared to $3,156,346 for the six months ended March 31, 2005 (61.7% growth). Northern Tractor has also increased its revenue by 23.5% over the period from 2003 to 2005. The growth is primarily a result of:

- Increased demand and utilization. The demand for equipment rentals in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin has increased with the increase of wells drilled. There were 21,841, 22,729, 24,800, and 26,725 (estimated by the CAPP) rig-released wells drilled in Western Canada for 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006E respectively. This growth in drilling activity reflects a 13.5% increase over the period from 2003 to 2005.

- Additional equipment. Northern Tractor increased its equipment fleet throughout 2004 and 2005. As at March 31, 2006, Northern Tractor had increased its fleet to 53 pieces up from 40 at of September 30, 2005.

- Increased rental rates. The increased demand has driven rental rates up approximately 10% over the past year.

Operating and Administrative Expenses

Northern Tractor's operating and administrative expenses increased by 62.4% for the six months ending March 31, 2006 over the six months ending March 31, 2005. This increase is primarily as a result of the increased rental sales although costs of labor, and supplies have gone up. As a percentage of revenue, however, operating and administrative expenses is decreasing due to greater utilization rates and greater economies of scale. Operating and administrative expenses increased 17.4% over the years from 2003 to 2005 as compared to a 23.5% increase in revenue. Operating and administrative expenses also remain very low as most equipment is covered by manufacturer's warranty for defects. Moreover, repairs and maintenance are paid by the customer. Due to the nature of the business, rentals are generally required to be late model equipment, and therefore older machinery that would normally incur higher costs associated with maintenance are not usually retained in the business. This equipment is typically disposed of when hour usage on the equipment reaches certain utilization levels that maximize the return on ultimate sale.

Earnings After Operating and Administrative Expenses

Northern Tractor's earnings percentage for the six months ending March 31, 2006 decreased from 74.9% for the six months ending March 31, 2005 to 74.7%. The decrease was primarily a result cost increases associated with labor and supplies. Over the three year period Northern Tractor has had a fairly stable earnings percentage in the 58% to 62% range. This is primarily because Northern Tractor pays its sales force commission as opposed to salary.

Amortization

Amortization has remained fairly constant from 2003 through 2005 additions reflecting rotation of equipment without significant increases in capacity. While Northern Tractor added 13 new pieces of equipment above its normal levels during 2005 and the first half of 2006, most additions occurred so late in year end 2005 that the impact was minimal. The amortization expense for March 31, 2006 increased over the same period last year as a result of the new additions.

Interest

The increase in interest expense relates primarily to the increase in capital leases in 2005 and the first half of 2006 when Northern Tractor added 13 pieces of equipment to its fleet. The capital leases bear interest at 1.25%. Northern Tractor also has a mortgage for its land, office, and shop, which bears interest at prime plus 1.0%. The outstanding principal at March 31, 2006 was $840,745.

Management Bonus

Management bonuses are paid to the management of Northern Tractor primarily to eliminate taxable income over the small business limit.

Liquidity

Operating Cash Flow

Northern Tractor's cash flow from operating activities for the six months ending March 31, 2006 increased by $830,266 from the six months ending March 31, 2005. Northern Tractor's cash flow from operating activities in 2005 increased by $438,001 from 2004. The increase was primarily a result of an increase in net earnings.

Shareholder advances	(335)	(355)	(438)
Working capital	(9,099)	(9,268)	(5,673)

A large amount of bank indebtedness has caused a negative working capital amount over the three periods. Northern Tractor uses its operating line for a significant amount of its capital acquisitions. In addition, Northern Tractor pays a management bonus annually to reduce taxable income to the small business limit. Thus, there is a downward impact on working capital from the accrued management bonus and shareholder advances account; a normalized business structure would therefore have a greater working capital amount.

Financing

Northern Tractor's primary sources of financing are from four sources: bank indebtedness, capital leases, long-term debt, and shareholder advances.

As at March 31, 2006, Northern Tractor had $7,541,000 in bank indebtedness. The demand loan is secured by a general security agreement and other guarantees. The demand loan is limited to 75% of the net book value of saleable assets up to $10,000,000. The demand loan bears interest at prime plus 0.5%.

As at March 31, 2006, Northern Tractor had $3,536,953 in capital leases. The leases are secured by the related equipment. The leases bear interest at 1.25% and have maturities up to 2008.

As at March 31, 2006, Northern Tractor had $840,745 in long-term debt. The long-term debt is a mortgage secured by a registered first mortgage on specific land. The mortgage bears interest at prime plus 1.0% and matures in 2010.

Shareholder advances are unsecured, interest free, and repayable on demand.

Share Capital

$	As at March 31, 2006	As at September 30, 2005	As at September 30, 2004
1,040Class A common shares	161,075	161,075	161,075
1,000 Class D preferred shares	2	2	2
Common shares	161,077	161,077	161,077

The preferred shares are retractable at the option of the holder for $999,998 and are included in current liabilities.

Financial Instruments

Fair Value

The carrying value of cash, accounts receivable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management remuneration approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of shareholder advances is not practicably determinable.

The fair value of long-term debt and capital lease obligations approximates carrying values as the interest rates approximate market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

During the six months ended March 31, 2006 - 23% (unaudited) (March 31, 2005 – 15% (unaudited)); and the year ended September 30, 2005 – 23% (September 30, 2004 – 38%) of the Company's sales were to three customers. As at March 31, 2006 – 48% (unaudited) (September 30, 2005 – 33%; 2004 – 38%) of the accounts receivable of the Company were from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of the long-term debt which bears fixed and floating rates of interest.

Related Party Transactions

Northern Tractor pays management bonus to its management to reduce the taxable income to the small business limit.

Northern Tractor has an unsecured, no interest, no fixed payment loan receivable outstanding to a company owned by a controlling shareholder. As at March 31, 2006, the outstanding balance was $2,380,849 (September 30, 2005 - $3,437,608; September 30, 2004 - $1,880,000).

Critical Accounting Estimates and Accounting Policies

Critical Accounting Estimates

As a normal part of the financial statement preparation process, management is required to make estimates and assumptions based on information available as at the financial statement date. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the possible disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amount of revenue and expense reported for the period.

Although estimates and assumptions must be made during the financial statement preparation process, it is management's opinion that none of the estimates or assumptions were highly uncertain at the time they were made. The most significant estimate in Northern Tractor's financial statements is the amortization period for capital equipment and the going concern assumption.

Accounting Policies

Northern Tractor prepares its financial statements in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Accounting policies have been applied consistently during all periods included in the financial statements. There were no new accounting policies implemented during the periods presented.

Auditors' Report

To the Board of Directors of
Petrowest Energy Services General Partner Ltd.

We have audited the balance sheet of Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") as at July 6, 2006. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Trust's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, the balance sheet presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Trust as at July 6, 2006 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Notes to Balance Sheet

July 6, 2006

1 The Trust

Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") is an open-ended unincorporated mutual fund trust established under the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to the deed of trust (the "Deed of Trust") dated July 6, 2006. The Trust has been created to invest in Fitzpatrick Co. Ltd., Northern Tractor Sales and Rentals Co. Ltd., Neuwest Equipment Rentals Inc., 404434 Alberta Corporation, 756171 Alberta Ltd., 756169 Alberta Ltd., Roy Larson Construction Ltd., Murtron Hauling Ltd., 815431 Alberta Ltd., Safetymaster Rentals Corp., 332691 Alberta Ltd., Gordon Bros. Construction Ltd., R. Bee Crushing Ltd., Bernet Venture Ltd., Dal Finn Holdings Ltd. and 310423 Alberta Ltd. (collectively, the "Acquired Companies") and such other investments as the Trustee may determine. Income tax obligations related to the distributions of the Trust are the obligations of the unitholder.

2 Unitholder's Equity

Units

The Trust is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Trust Units, an unlimited number of Subordinated Units and an unlimited number of Special Voting Units.

Outstanding

Trust Units

The Trust issued 1 Trust Unit at $10 per unit at formation.

Subordinated Units

Balance – July 6, 2006	-
Issued for cash	1,510,000
Issued for promissory notes (note 3)	3,020,000
Less: Amount issued for promissory notes	(3,020,000)
	1,510,000

The Trust issued 1,510,000 subordinated units at $3 per subordinated unit, to directors, employees and officers of the Trust. The subordinated unit holders paid $1 per subordinated unit and the remaining $2 per subordinated unit will be settled through the issuance of a forgivable promissory note (see note 3).

Trust Units

Prior to the conversion of the Subordinated Units, holders of Trust Units will be entitled to receive per month, in priority to any payments on the Subordinated Units, distributions of $0.10 per Trust Unit per month and such distributions shall constitute Priority Distributions (as defined below).

Upon the occurrence of a Capital Event (as defined below) or the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Trust or any other distribution of the assets of the Trust for the purpose of winding-up its affairs; (i) the holders of Trust Units will be entitled to receive, on a pro rata basis, from the applicable Capital Event Amount (as defined below) or the assets of the Trust, as applicable, before any distribution therefrom is made to the holders of Subordinated Units, any accumulated but unpaid Priority Distributions; and (ii) the holders of Subordinated Units shall be entitled to receive, on a pro rata basis, from the applicable Capital Event Amount of the assets of the Trust, as applicable after the holders of Trust Units have received a distribution therefrom in an amount equal to any accumulated but unpaid Priority Distributions but before any further distribution therefrom is made to the Priority Unitholder, any accumulated but unpaid Subordinated Distributions. Thereafter any further distributions from the applicable Capital Event Amount or the assets of the Trust, as applicable, to the holders of Units of either class shall be made pro rata and pari passu.

If a Capital Event occurs, the Priority Distributions and Subordinated Distributions will be adjusted as agreed to by the independent directors of the General Partner, using the definition of independence as provided in securities laws.

A "Capital Event" means the occurrence of any of the following events: (i) a sale of material assets of the Trust; (ii) the total or constructive total loss, or partial loss, of material assets of the Trust as a result of a casualty; (iii) a compulsory transfer or taking under threat of compulsory transfer by a governmental authority; or (iv) the occurrence of any event referred to in clauses (i) to (iii) above in relation to any person in which the Trust is a securityholder.

A "Capital Event Amount" means, in respect of a particular Capital Event, any amount received by the Trust in respect of such Capital Event, which the Trustee upon the recommendation of the board of directors of the General Partner, determines will not be re-deployed or reapplied by the Trust and shall be distributed to holders of units.

Subordinated Units

Distributions on the Subordinated Units will be subordinated in favour of Trust Units. Distributions on the Subordinated Units will only be paid by the Trust at the end of a fiscal quarter to the extent that: (i) the Trust has paid distributions per month of at least $0.10 per Trust Unit (the "Priority Distributions") to holders of Trust Units during that quarter, and (ii) any deficiency in such distributions to holders of Trust Units during the preceding 12 months has been satisfied, as described below. If these targets are not satisfied, any deficiency will be borne by holders of the Subordinated Units, distributions on which will be reduced to the extent necessary to support the continued payment of Priority Distributions on the Trust Units and any applicable deficiency in such distributions.

Distributions on the Trust Units will be cumulative, such that the amount of any deficiency in the Priority Distributions will accumulate for a period of 12 months. Payments of deficiencies on the Priority Distributions will be made in priority to distributions on the Subordinated Units. Any such accumulated deficiency not satisfied by a distribution by the Trust within 12 months of the date it arose will cease to be payable (i.e., distributions on the Subordinated Units will not be reduced to fund accumulated deficiency to the extent that some or all of such accumulated deficiency arose more than 12 months before the date on which such payment is to be made).

Following payment of the Priority Distributions and any deficiency in the Priority Distributions accumulated during the preceding 12 months, holders of Subordinated Units will be entitled to a distribution in an amount equal to $0.10 per Subordinated Unit per month (the "Subordinated Distributions"), such to be accumulated and paid at the end of each fiscal quarter.

Deficiencies in payment of Subordinated Distributions shall be accumulated and paid in a subsequent quarter in respect of such Distribution Periods, after payment of the Priority Distributions in respect of such Distribution Periods, any deficiency in Priority Distributions accumulated during the preceding 12 months and the Subordinated Distributions in respect of subsequent Distribution Periods, and provided that any accumulated unpaid portion or deficiency on Subordinated Distributions not satisfied by a distribution by the Trust within 12 months of the date such unpaid portion or deficiency arose shall cease to be payable.

After payment of all Priority Distributions and Subordinated Distributions (including any unpaid Priority Distributions and Subordinated Distributions accumulated during the preceding 12 months), distributions of Distributable Cash shall be made to Unitholders pro-rata and pari passu.

Holders of Trust Units, Subordinated Units and Special Voting Units are entitled to notice of, and to attend and vote at, all meetings of holders of units.

Exchange Right

Holders of Subordinated Units will have the right to convert into Trust Units on a one-for-one basis at any time after (and the subordination provisions will only apply until) the end of the first fiscal year ending on or after December 31, 2008 where the Trust has earnings before income taxes, depreciation and amortization (derived from audited financial statements) of at least $47 million and the Trust has paid distributions of at least $1.20 per Trust Unit for such fiscal year.

Redemption Right

Each Unitholder is entitled to require the Trust to redeem, at any time and from time to time, at the demand of the Unitholder, all or any part of the Units registered in the name of the Unitholder, upon delivery to the Trust of the certificate or certificates representing such Units, accompanied by a duly completed and properly executed notice requiring redemption. Upon receipt by the Trust of the notice to redeem Units, the holder thereof shall cease to have any rights with respect to the Units tendered for redemption other than to receive a price per Unit equal to a predetermined calculation.

3 Promissory notes receivable

The promissory notes are intended to be forgiven over three years if the subscriber remains a director, officer or employee of the Trust. The notes are to be repaid one-third on each July 6, 2007, 2008 and 2009. The forgiveness of these notes will be accounted for as compensation expense based on the market value of the Units at the time of forgiveness.

4 Subsequent events

The Trust filed a prospectus dated August 28, 2006 relating to the initial public offering of Trust Units (the "Offering"). The Offering will be completed for gross proceeds of $140 million. The expected expenses and underwriters commission, relating to the Offering, are estimated to be $10.4 million which will be paid by the Trust. The Trust has also granted to the Underwriters, an over-allotment option to purchase up to an additional 1.4 million units at $10 per unit.

Concurrent with the closing of the Offering, the following transactions occur:

- Four limited partnerships will be formed with Petrowest Energy Services General Partner Ltd. ("General Partner") as the general partner. An unincorporated, open-ended limited purpose trust (the "Business Trust") will be created to hold the limited partnership interest for the Trust. The limited partnerships will be involved in the construction, transportation, civil services and rentals industries.

- The Trust will use the proceeds from the issuance of the Trust Units to subscribe for units and notes of Business Trust and Business Trust will use a portion of those proceeds to subscribe for limited partnership units of the various limited partnerships.

- The Business Trust, will then loan the cash necessary to complete the cash portion of the acquisitions of the Acquired Companies to Petrowest Services Ltd. ("Acquisitionco") on an interest bearing basis. In addition, Acquisitionco will acquire the necessary number of Units from the Trust in exchange for an additional interest bearing note.

- Acquisitionco will complete the purchase of the Acquired Companies by delivering cash and Units of the Trust as contemplated in the purchase and sale agreements. As a consequence, Acquisitionco will own all the shares of the Acquired Companies.

- A short form vertical amalgamation of the respective Acquired Companies and Acquisitionco will be completed such that the assets and liabilities of each entity will become assets and liabilities of the merged entity ("Mergeco"). The shares of the Acquired Companies will cease to exist and the shares of Acquisitionco will become the share capital of Mergeco.

- Mergeco will transfer certain of its assets (representing the assets and business operations of certain of the various Acquired Companies) to each of the four limited partnerships in exchange for an assumption of certain of the liabilities that are related to the business, a note and limited partnership units of the various partnerships.

- All debt and capital lease obligations assumed by the Trust will be settled. Certain capital assets and related debt will be retained by existing shareholders and not transferred by the acquired companies into the Trust.

A pro forma financial statement is based on management assumptions and adjustments which are inherently subjective. The foregoing procedures are substantially less than either an audit or a review, the objective of which is the expression of assurance with respect to management's assumptions, the pro forma adjustments, and the application of the adjustments to the historical financial information. Accordingly, we express no such assurance. The foregoing procedures would not necessarily reveal matters of significance to the pro forma financial statements, and we therefore make no representation about the sufficiency of the procedures for the purposes of a reader of such statements.

1 The Trust and the proposed transaction

Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") is an open-ended unincorporated mutual fund trust established under and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to the Deed of Trust dated July 6, 2006.

The Trust has initially been created to hold, indirectly, controlling limited partner interests, hold the common shares in the general partner and invest in the businesses noted below. The Trust will be a business trust operating an energy services business through its indirect subsidiaries. Unitholders will hold Units of the Trust, which in turn will hold a 100% beneficial interest in the Petrowest Business Trust (the "Business Trust"). The Petrowest Business Trust will, via four limited partnerships, hold the assets of the businesses historically operated by the Acquired Companies noted below. The Trust, pursuant to a prospectus dated August 28, 2006 (the "Prospectus") will issue units of the Trust and use the proceeds to acquire 100% of the outstanding shares of the following companies:

Northern Tractor Sales and Rental Co. Ltd. and Fitzpatrick Co. Ltd. ("Northern Tractor")
Neuwest Equipment Rentals Inc. ("Neuwest")
404434 Alberta Corporation, 756171 Alberta Corp. and 756169 Alberta Corp. ("D&D")
Roy Larson Construction Ltd. ("Roy Larson")
Murtron Hauling Ltd. and 815431 Alberta Ltd. ("Murtron")
Safetymaster Rentals Corp. ("Safetymaster")
Gordon Bros. Construction Ltd. and 332691 Alberta Ltd. ("332691")
R. Bee Crushing Ltd., Bernet Venture Ltd. and Dal Finn Holding Ltd. ("R. Bee")
310423 Alberta Ltd. ("310423")

(collectively, the "Acquired Companies").

Income tax obligations related to the distributions of the Trust are obligations of the Unitholders.

The Trust has filed a prospectus (the "Prospectus") for an initial public offering of its trust units (the "Offering"). Concurrent with the closing of the Offering four limited partnerships will be formed with Petrowest Energy Services General Partner Ltd. ("Energy Services") as the general partner. A business trust will be created to hold the partnership interests for the Trust. The partnerships will be involved in the construction, transportation, civil services and rentals industries. Petrowest Services Ltd. ("Acquisitionco") has the right to acquire the Acquired Companies. The Trust will use a portion of the proceeds from the issuance of the Units to subscribe for limited partnership units of the various partnerships. The Business Trust will also loan a portion of cash necessary to complete the cash portion of the various acquisitions to Acquisitionco on an interest bearing basis. In addition, Acquisitionco will acquire the necessary number of units of the Trust from the Trust in exchange for an additional interest bearing note. Acquisitionco will complete the purchase of the Acquired Companies by delivering cash and units of the Trust as contemplated in the purchase and sale agreements. As a consequence, Acquisitionco will own all the shares of the various Acquired Companies. A short form vertical amalgamation of the respective Acquired Companies and Acquisitionco will be completed such that the assets and liabilities of each entity will become assets and liabilities of the merged entity ("Mergeco"). The shares of the Acquired Companies will cease to exist and the shares of Acquisitionco will become the share capital of Mergeco. Mergeco will transfer certain of its assets (representing the assets and business operations of certain of the various Acquired Companies that were acquired by Acquisitionco) to each of the four partnerships in exchange for an assumption of certain of the liabilities that are related to the business, a note and units in the partnerships.

Acquisitionco has entered into several Purchase and Sale Agreements pursuant to which it agreed to acquire the shares and shareholder loans of the Acquired Companies for an aggregate base purchase price of $230,934,992, subject to closing adjustments. The purchase price will be funded by payment of $103,284,052 in cash and the issuance of units by the Trust for proceeds of $127,650,940. The Trust will also settle long-term debt and capital lease obligations and loans of $30,759,571.

2 Basis of presentation

The accompanying unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet and the unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income (collectively, the "pro forma consolidated financial statements") have been prepared by the management of the Trust using the accounting principles disclosed in the notes to the audited financial statements of the Acquired Companies.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements may not be indicative of the financial position and results of operations that would have occurred if the transactions had taken place on the dates indicated or of the financial position or operating results which may be obtained in the future. The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements are not a forecast or projection of future results. The actual financial position and results of operations of the Trust for any period following the closing of the transactions contemplated by this prospectus will likely vary from the amounts set forth in the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements and such variation may be material. In the opinion of management, these unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements include all adjustments necessary for fair presentation of the acquisitions described above in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet of the Trust and the unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of income of the Trust have been prepared with information derived from the audited and unaudited financial statements of the Acquired Companies and the adjustments and assumptions listed below.

The unaudited statements of income of the Acquired Companies for the three-month period ending May 31, 2006 was constructed for purposes of preparing the unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of income for the three-month period and was derived from the financial statements of the respective companies. The unaudited statement of income of certain of the Acquired Companies for the twelve-month periods were constructed for purposes of preparing the unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of income for the twelve-month periods and were derived from, but do not conform to, the financial statements of the respective companies.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited and unaudited financial statements of the Trust and Acquired Companies included in the Prospectus.

The following describes the financial statements of the Acquired Companies included in the Prospectus and the method for constructing the unaudited pro forma consolidated income statement for the twelve-month period ended to December 31, 2005.

The three month periods ended November 30, 2005 and 2004 are constructed from the deducting the respective three month period ended February 28, 2006 and 2005 from the six month period ended February 28, 2006 and 2005.

3 Unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet assumptions and adjustments

The following assumptions and adjustments have been made to reflect the proposed transactions described in note 1 as if the transactions had occurred on May 31, 2006:

a) The issuance of 14 million Units for total gross proceeds of $140 million on the closing of the Offering and the payment of the underwriters fee and other costs of the Offering, estimated to be $10.4 million. The Trust has also granted to the underwriters, an over-allotment option to purchase up to an additional 1.4 million trust units for total gross proceeds of $14 million. If exercised the cash and trust equity would be increased by $14 million less issuance costs.

b) The additional payment for equipment to be purchased by the Trust subsequent to the date of closing. These assets were treated as available for use and therefore the related revenue and amortization have not been recorded as it is management's intent not to put the assets into use until such time as they have contracts available.

c) Removal of certain capital assets and related debt and other assets that will be transferred to existing shareholders of the Acquired Companies and will not be owned by the Acquired Companies when purchased by the Trust. Reclassification of deposits held as security for debt financing associated with the assets and repayment of bank indebtedness.

d) Purchase accounting – Acquisition of shares, shareholder and related party loans and accrued bonuses payable

The Acquisition will be accounted for using the purchase method with the assets acquired and liabilities assumed recorded at preliminary estimates of fair value. The final allocation of the purchase price will be based on the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the effective date of the Acquisition based upon internal and/or independent asset valuations. A preliminary allocation of the consideration is as follows:

Net assets acquired
Net working capital	35,609,521
Value of working capital adjustment on pro forma	(11,916,398)
Property and equipment	96,161,047
Intangibles	48,596,484
Goodwill	92,783,870
Investments	86,785
Cash surrender value of insurance policy	275,017
Notes and interest receivable	98,237
	261,694,563
Consideration given for value of shares and shareholder loans of acquired companies
Units	127,650,940
Cash to vendors on closing	103,284,052
Aggregate base purchase price	230,934,992
Retirement of long-term debt and capital lease obligation	23,538,782
Retirement of additional debt on pro forma	7,220,789
	261,694,563

Net working capital acquired on the Acquisition includes cash, short-term investments, accounts receivable, inventory, prepaid expenses, current portion of note receivable, income taxes recoverable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and income taxes payable. The purchase price is affected by the changes in working capital, shareholder loans and long-term debt from the date specified in the purchase and sale agreement to the date of closing. Changes in the balances for these items will affect the net consideration paid by the Trust to the owners. These adjustments may be material. An estimated value of working capital adjustments as at May 31, 2006 is noted in the table above.

In conjunction with acquisitions, all debt and capital lease obligations will be repaid by the Trust through the use of proceeds from the offering.

Goodwill is the cost of an acquisition less the fair value of identifiable assets and liabilities and will be tested for impairment at least annually. Intangibles relate to customer contracts, non compete clauses and trade names and are amortized over their expected lives on a straight-line basis between 5 and 10 years.

4 Unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income assumptions and adjustments

The unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income of the Trust for the three-month period ended May 31, 2006 and for the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2005 have been prepared assuming that the Trust was in operation during the three-month period and the twelve-month period, respectively and as if the proposed transaction described in note 1 had occurred on January 1, 2005. The Trust will incur additional annual administrative expenses in connection with reporting to shareholders, investor relations, directors' and officers' insurance and other expenses as a result of the proposed transactions and the effects of these costs have not been reflected in the unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of income. The unaudited pro-forma consolidated statement of income of the Trust reflects the following assumptions and adjustments to the income and expenses of the Trust:

a) The reduction in interest expense for the three-month period and for the twelve-month period to reflect interest expense on the bank indebtedness, callable debt, long-term debt and capital lease obligations that will be settled by the Trust.

b) Additional amortization expense on property and equipment and intangible assets for the three-month period and the twelve-month period resulting from the fair value allocation described in note 3(d).

c) The reversal of management compensation for the three-month period and for the twelve-month period, included in management fees and bonuses relating to existing owner/manager compensation arrangements that will be terminated in connection with the Offering.

d) The reversal of current income taxes for the three-month period for the twelve-month period reflecting that income tax obligations related to the distributions of the Trust are obligations of the ultimate Unitholders. It is assumed that income tax obligations of the General Partner and Acquisitionco will be nominal.

Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders of 332691 Alberta Ltd.

We have audited the consolidated balance sheets of 332691 Alberta Ltd. (operating as Gordon Bros. Construction Ltd.) as at September 30, 2005 and 2004 and the consolidated statements of earnings and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended September 30, 2005. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at September 30, 2005 and 2004 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended September 30, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of business

Gordon Bros. Construction Ltd. and 332691 Alberta Ltd. (the "Company") are privately owned and incorporated under the laws of the province of Alberta. The companies provide well site construction, road building and well site reclamation services in northern Alberta.

The Company's business is considered to have some seasonality, with peak levels generally in the first and fourth calendar year quarters.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

These consolidated financial statements are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Principles of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary, Gordon Bros. Construction Ltd. Intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated on consolidation.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Amortization is provided using the declining balance method at rates intended to amortize the cost of assets over their estimated useful lives.

Buildings	5%
Equipment	20%
Automotive	30%
Computer equipment	30%
Contractors mobile equipment	30%
Portable camp equipment	30%

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate a potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a writedown to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period.

Long-term investments

Other long-term investments are portfolio investments recorded at cost, less any write-down for other than temporary impairment.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of income tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and income tax bases of assets and liabilities, and measured using the substantively enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Inventory

Inventory is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined by the first-in, first-out method.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of property and equipment and the recoverability of accounts receivable. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Revenue recognition

The Company's services are generally sold based upon purchase orders with the customer that include fixed or determinable prices. Revenue is recognized when services are rendered and when collectibility is reasonably assured.

9 Financial instruments

Fair values

The carrying value of cash, accounts receivable, note receivable, bank overdraft, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management bonus, approximate their fair values due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair values of shareholder advances and obligations under capital lease are not practicably determinable.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

As at March 31, 2006, the Company had 90% of accounts receivable (unaudited) (September 30, 2005 – 71%; 2004 - 50%) from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk in respect of the obligations under capital lease which bear fixed and fluctuating rates of interest.

10 Income taxes

The income tax provision recorded differs from the income tax obtained by applying the statutory income tax rates to the income for the period and is reconciled as follows:

11 Segmented information

In the opinion of management, the Company has only one business segment, which is the business of oilfield construction services in Canada.

12 Economic dependence

During the six months ended March 31, 2006, the Company had sales of 80% (unaudited) (years ended September 30, 2005 – 84% (each customer at 62%, 12% and 10%); 2004 – 89% (each customer at 41%, 35% and 13%); 2003 – 93% (each customer at 53%, 30% and 10%)) to three customers.

13 Subsequent event

Initial public offering

On August 28, 2006, Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") filed a prospectus relating to the initial public offering of up to 14 million trust units for $10 per unit (the "Offering"). Costs of the Offering are estimated to be $2.0 million, and fees payable to the underwriters are estimated to be $8.4 million, resulting in net proceeds of $129.6 million.

The Trust, through a subsidiary, acquired 100% of the shares of the Company and all outstanding shareholders loans for $5,922,429 and 888,363 Trust units at a deemed price of $10 per unit. The cash payment will be adjusted post-closing for changes in working capital, long-term debt and shareholder loans to the date of closing.

Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders of
Roy Larson Construction Ltd.

We have audited the balance sheets of Roy Larson Construction Ltd. as at May 31, 2005 and 2004, and the statements of earnings and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three year period ended May 31, 2005. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at May 31, 2005 and 2004, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three year period ended May 31, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of business

Roy Larson Construction Ltd. (the "Company") is a privately owned company, that operates a well site construction, site restoration and road building business whose predecessors were incorporated under the Alberta Business Corporations Act in 1986.

The Company's business is considered to have some seasonality, with peak levels generally in the first and fourth calendar year quarters.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

The financial statements are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Cash and cash equivalents

Included in cash and cash equivalents are bank overdrafts.

Investments

The Company accounts for investments on a cost basis. Investments are written down to their net realizable value should a decline in value occur that is not considered temporary.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Rates of amortization applied on a declining balance basis to write off the cost of property and equipment over their estimated useful lives are as follows:

Buildings	4%
Generating equipment	8%
Equipment	20%
Furniture and fixtures	20%
Contractors moveable equipment	30%
Automotive equipment	30% – 40%
Computer equipment	30%

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate a potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a writedown to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of income tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and income tax bases of assets and liabilities, and are measured using the substantively enacted income tax rates and laws that will be effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of the revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of property and equipment and recoverability of accounts receivable. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Revenue recognition

The Company' services are generally sold based on purchase orders with a customer that includes fixed or determinable prices. Revenue is recognized when services are rendered and when collectibility is reasonably assured.

10 Financial instruments

Fair value

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalent, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management bonus approximate their fair value due to the relatively short term to maturity of the instruments. The fair value of shareholder advances and capital lease obligations are not practicably determinable. The fair value of long-term debt approximates carrying values as the interest rates approximates the market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include an analysis of the financial position of its customers and a regular review of their credit limits.

As at February 28, 2006, 65% (unaudited) (May 31, 2005 – 73%; May 31, 2004 – 83%) of the accounts receivable of the Company were from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of the long-term debt which bears fixed and floating rates of interest.

Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders of 310423 Alberta Ltd.

We have audited the consolidated balance sheets of 310423 Alberta Ltd. (operating as Wales Contractors Ltd.) as at August 31, 2005 and 2004 and the consolidated statements of earnings and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended August 31, 2005. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at August 31, 2005 and 2004 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended August 31, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of business

310423 Alberta Ltd. (the "Company") was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act of the Province of Alberta on January 16, 1984. The Company provides wellsite construction, road building and well site reclamation to oil and gas companies.

The Company's business is considered to have some seasonality, with peak levels generally in the first and fourth calendar year quarters.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

The consolidated financial statements of 310423 Alberta Ltd. and its wholly owned subsidiary Wales Contracting Ltd., are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Cash and cash equivalents

Included in cash and cash equivalents are bank overdrafts.

Inventory

Inventory is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value, with cost being determined on a first-in, first-out basis.

Principles of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary, Wales Contractors Ltd. Intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated on consolidation.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Amortization is provided at cost less estimated salvage value using the following methods and rates:

Contractors' equipment	5 years straight-line
Contractors' equipment under capital lease	5 years straight-line
Automobiles and automotive equipment	20% – 30% declining balance
Automobiles and automotive equipment under capital lease	20% – 30% declining balance
Equipment	10% – 30% declining balance

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a writedown to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period. No impairment loss has been recorded to date.

Investments

Investments are recorded at cost. Investments are written down to their fair value if their fair value is less than their carrying value.

Marketable securities

Marketable securities are recorded at amortized cost. Marketable securities are written down to their net realizable value should a decline in value occur that is not considered temporary.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of income tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and income tax bases of assets and liabilities, and measured using the substantively enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of property and equipment and recoverability of accounts receivable. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Revenue recognition

The Company's services are generally based upon purchase orders with the customer that include fixed or determinable prices. Revenue is recognized when services are rendered and when collectability is reasonably assured.

9 Related party transactions

The Company paid $100,000 (unaudited) during the nine-month periods ended May 31, 2006 (2005 – $90,000) (unaudited) (years ended August 31, 2005 – $114,000; 2004 – $72,000; 2003 – $72,000) to a company related by virtue of common ownership, for equipment rental expenses and $29,515 (unaudited) during the nine-months ended May 31, 2006 (2005 – $51,655)(unaudited) (year ended August 31, 2005 – $82,666; 2004 – $nil; 2003 – $nil) for freight expense. The Company also sold assets with the net book value of $nil (unaudited) during the nine-month ended May 31, 2006 and 2005 (years ended August 31, 2005 – $140,712; 2004 – $1,606; 2003 – $nil) to a related party. All related party transactions have been recorded at the exchange amount.

10 Line of credit

The Company has a line of credit that has an available credit facility of $900,000 that has not been drawn on as at August 31, 2005. The line of credit security is provided by a general assignment of accounts receivable and guarantees amounting to $900,000 by the Company, a related company and the shareholders.

11 Financial instruments

Fair value

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management bonus approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of amounts due from related company, shareholder advances and obligations under capital leases are not practicably determinable.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

As at May 31, 2006, 87% (unaudited) (August 31, 2005 – 89%; 2004 – 83%) of the accounts receivable of the Company was from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate risk which bears fixed rates of interest, primarily through its capital lease obligations.

13 Segmented information

In the opinion of management, the Company has only one business segment, which is the business of road and oilfield construction in Canada.

14 Economic dependence

During the periods ended May 31, 2006, 76% (unaudited) (May 31, 2005 – 89%) (unaudited) (year ended August 31, 2005 – 90% (each customer at 42%, 34% and 14%)); August 31, 2004 – 84% (each customer at 54%, 20% and 10%); 2003 – 74% (each customer at 39%, 19% and 16%)); of the Company's sales were to three customers.

15 Subsequent events

Initial public offering

On August 28, 2006, Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") filed a prospectus relating to the initial public offering of up to 14 million trust units for $10 per unit (the "Offering"). Costs of the Offering are estimated to be $2.0 million and fees payable to the underwriters are estimated to be $8.4 million, resulting in net proceeds of $129.6 million.

The Trust, through a subsidiary, acquired 100% of the shares of the Company and all outstanding shareholder loans for $13,918,380 and 1,391,838 Trust units at a deemed price of $10 per unit. The cash payment will be adjusted post-closing for changes in working capital, long-term debt and shareholder loans to the date of closing.

Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders of
404434 Alberta Corporation,
756171 Alberta Corporation and 756169 Alberta Corporation

We have audited the combined balance sheets of D&D Well Services as at December 31, 2005 and 2004 and the combined statements of earnings and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2005. These combined financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these combined financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at December 31, 2005 and 2004 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of business

404434 Alberta Corporation, 756171 Alberta Corporation and 756169 Alberta Corporation (collectively, the "Company" and "D & D Well Services") are privately-owned companies; they operate rig moving and transportation services and are incorporated under the laws of the Province of Alberta. These financial statements are prepared on a combined basis, commencing in 2005 when 756171 Alberta Corporation and 756169 Alberta Corporation were incorporated, as they are under common control and managed by a common owner. The combined balances are presented after elimination of inter-company transactions and balances.

The Company's business is considered to have some seasonality, with peak levels generally in the first and fourth calendar year quarters.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

These combined financial statements are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Cash and cash equivalents

Included in cash and cash equivalents are bank overdrafts.

Inventory

Inventory is valued at cost and net realizable value, with cost being determined on a first-in, first-out basis.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization. Amortization is provided using the declining balance method at the following rates, intended to amortize the cost of assets over their estimated useful lives:

Buildings	10%
Equipment	20%
Office equipment	20%
Motor vehicles	30%
Contracting equipment	30%
Computer equipment	45%

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate a potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a writedown to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period.

Revenue recognition

The Company's services are generally based upon purchase orders that include fixed prices. Revenue is recognized when services are rendered and when collectibility is reasonably assured.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of income tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and income tax bases of assets and liabilities, and measured using the substantively enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of property and equipment and recoverability of accounts receivable. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

10 Financial instruments

Fair value

The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, accrued management bonus and callable debt, approximate their fair values due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of shareholder advances are not practicably determinable.

The fair values of long-term debt and capital lease obligations approximates carrying values as the interest rates approximate market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

As at March 31, 2006, the Company had accounts receivable of 55% (December 31, 2005 – 47%; 2004 – 39%) from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of the long-term debt which bears fixed and floating rates of interest.

11 Income taxes

The income tax provision recorded differs from the income taxes obtained by applying the statutory income tax rates to the income for the period and is reconciled as follows:

	Three months ended March 31,		Years ended December 31,
	2006 $ (Unaudited)	2005 $ (Unaudited)	2005 $	2004 $	2003 $

13 Segmented information

In the opinion of management, the Company has only one business segment, which is the business of oil and gas rig moving and trucking.

14 Economic independence

During the three month periods ended March 31, 2006, the Company had sales of 49% (unaudited) (March 31, 2005 – 65% (unaudited)) and the year ended December 31, 2005 – 42% (each customer at 18%, 14% and 10%; December 31, 2004 – 30% (each customer at 10%, 10% and 10%); December 31, 2003 – 32% (each customer at 12%, 10% and 10%)) to three customers.

15 Subsequent events

Initial public offering

On August 28, 2006, Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") filed a prospectus relating to the initial public offering of up to 14 million trust units for $10 per unit (the "Offering"). Costs of the Offering are estimated to be $2.0 million and fees payable to the underwriters are estimated to be $8.4 million, resulting in net proceeds of $129.6 million.

The Trust, through a subsidiary, acquired 100% of the shares of the Company and all outstanding shareholder loans for $28,721,958 and 2,872,194 Trust units at a deemed price of $10 per unit. The cash payment will be adjusted post-closing for changes in working capital, long-term debt and shareholder loans to the date of closing.

Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders of
Murtron Hauling Ltd. and 815431 Alberta Ltd.

We have audited the combined balance sheets of Murtron Hauling (the "Company") as at October 31, 2005 and 2004 and the combined statements of earnings (loss) and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three year-period ended October 31, 2005. These combined financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these combined financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at October 31, 2005 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended October 31, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of business

Murtron Hauling Ltd. and 815431 Alberta Ltd. (collectively the "Company" and "Murtron Hauling") are privately-owned companies incorporated under the Alberta Corporations Act which operate a log hauling, gravel hauling and heavy equipment moving business. These financial statements are prepared on a combined basis as they are under common control and managed by a common owner. The combined balances are presented after elimination of intercompany transactions and balances.

The Company's business is considered to have some seasonality, with peak levels generally in the first and fourth calendar year quarters.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

These financial statements are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Cash and cash equivalents

Included in cash and cash equivalents are bank overdrafts.

Inventory

Inventory consists of crushed gravel and is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value with the cost being determined on a first-in, first-out basis.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Amortization is provided at cost less estimated salvage value using the following rates:

Buildings	4% declining balance
Fence	10% declining balance
Equipment	20% declining balance
Automotive equipment and trailers	30% - 40% declining balance
Equipment under capital lease	Straight line over lease term
Computer equipment	30% declining balance
Trailers	30% declining balance

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate a potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a writedown to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period.

Revenue recognition

Revenue from hauling and trucking is recognized when the services have been provided and ultimate collection is reasonably assured.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of income tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities, and measured using the substantively enacted income tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of capital assets and recoverability of accounts receivable. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

	2006 $ (Unaudited)	2005 $	2004 $
100 Class A voting common shares	100	100	100

The preferred shares are redeemable for $2,000 at the company's and shareholders' options and have been recorded as a liability.

9 Commitments

The Company has committed to supply 100,000 tonnes of gravel per annum, at $6.10 per tonne, from February 2006 until December 31, 2010.

10 Financial instruments

Fair value

The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, bank indebtedness, accrued management bonus and callable debt approximate their fair values due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of shareholder advances is not practicably determinable, since there are no specific terms.

The fair values of callable debt and obligations under capital lease approximate carrying values as the interest rate approximates the market value.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies which include the analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

During the three month period ended April 30, 2006 – 78% (unaudited) (April 30, 2005 – 84%) (unaudited) (years ended October 31, 2005 – 47% (each customer at 37% and 10%; October 31, 2004 – 41% (each customer at 31% and 10%); October 31, 2003 – 57% (each customer at 47% and 10%)) of the Company's sales were to two customer. As at April 30, 2006, 52% (unaudited) (October 31, 2005 – 38%; October 31, 2004 – 54%) of the accounts receivable of the Company were from two customers.

11 Income taxes

The income tax provision recorded differs from the income taxes obtained by applying the statutory income tax rates to the earnings (loss) for the period and is reconciled as follows:

	Three months ended April 30,		Six months ended April 30,		Years ended October 31,

12 Related party disclosure

During the year ended October 31, 2005, the Company sold equipment for $16,050 (2005 – $6,420; 2004 – $nil) to companies controlled by the shareholders or by family members of the shareholders. In 2004, the Company advanced $40,000 to the related party and was repaid prior to October 31, 2004.

The related party transactions have been recorded at exchange amounts.

13 Segmented information

In the opinion of management, the Company has only one business segment, which is the business of hauling logs, gravel and heavy equipment in Canada.

14 Subsequent event

Initial public offering

On August 28, 2006, Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") filed a prospectus relating to the initial public offering of up to 14 million trust units for $10 per unit (the "Offering"). Costs of the Offering are estimated to be $2.0 million, and fees payable to the underwriters are estimated to be $8.4 million, resulting in net proceeds of $129.6 million.

The Trust, through a subsidiary, acquired 100% of the shares of the Company and all outstanding shareholder loans for $6,105,680 and 915,851 Trust units at a deemed price of $10 per unit. The cash payment will be adjusted post-closing for changes in working capital, long-term debt and shareholder loans to the date of closing.

Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders of
R Bee Crushing Ltd., Bernet Ventures Ltd. and Dal Finn Holdings Ltd.

We have audited the combined balance sheets of R Bee Crushing as at April 30, 2006 and 2005 and the combined statements of earnings (loss) and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended April 30, 2006. These combined financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these combined financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at April 30, 2006 and 2005 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended April 30, 2006 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of business

R. Bee Crushing Ltd., Bernet Ventures Ltd. and Dal Finn Holdings Ltd. (collectively, the "Company" and "R. Bee Crushing") are incorporated under the laws of British Columbia, are extra-provincially registered in Alberta and are engaged in the gravel crushing business. These financial statements have combined the operations of these three companies as they are under common control and managed by a common owner. The combined balances are presented after elimination of intercompany transactions and balances.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

These financial statements are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of short-term deposits with maturities of three months or less.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization. Amortization is provided using the declining balance method at the following rates intended to amortize the cost of assets over their estimated useful lives.

Buildings	4%
Heavy equipment	30%
Equipment	30%
Vehicles	30%
Trailers	30%
Radios	20%
Computer hardware and software	30% – 100%

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate a potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a writedown to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized as services are provided and performance of the service has occurred, price to the customer is fixed or determinable and collectibility is reasonably assured.

Investments

Investments are accounted for on a cost basis and are written down to their net recoverable amount should a decline in value occur that is not considered temporary.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of income tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and income tax bases of assets and liabilities, and measured using the substantively enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of property and equipment and recoverability of accounts receivable. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Inventory

Inventory consists of spare parts and is measured at the lower of cost and market on a first-in first-out basis.

3 Short-term investments

These funds are held at one chartered bank and up to $354,000 has been pledged as security for the operating loan.

11 Financial instruments

Fair value

The carrying value of cash, short-term investments, accounts receivable, income taxes receivable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management bonus, approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of amount shareholder advances is not practicably determinable. The fair value of long-term debt and capital lease obligations approximate carrying values as the interest rates approximate market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies that include the analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

During the nine-month period ended January 31, 2006, the Company had sales of 74% (unaudited) (year ended April 30, 2006 – 60% (each customer at 29%, 16% and 14%); April 30, 2005 – 52% (each customer at 24%, 17% and 11%); 2004 – 41% (each customer at 17%, 12% and 12%) to three customers. As at January 31, 2006, the Company had accounts receivable of 75% (2006 – 79%; 2005 – 74%; 2004 – 74%) from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of the long-term debt, which bears a fixed rate of interest.

Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders of
Safetymaster Rentals Corporation

We have audited the balance sheets of Safetymaster Rentals Corporation as at August 31, 2005 and 2004 and the statements of earnings and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended August 31, 2005. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at August 31, 2005 and 2004, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended August 31, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of business

Safetymaster Rentals Corporation (the "Company") was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (Alberta) on January 22, 1997. Its principal focus is on the supply of safety equipment rentals.

The Company's business is considered to have some seasonality, with peak levels generally in the first and fourth calendar year quarters.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

The financial statements are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Cash and cash equivalents

Included in cash and cash equivalents are bank overdrafts.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization. Equipment is amortized using the declining balance method over their estimated useful lives at the following rates:

Airplane	15%
Equipment rentals and airplane	15%
Trailers rentals	15%
Vehicles	15%

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate a potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a writedown to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of income tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and income tax bases of assets and liabilities, and measured using the substantively enacted income tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of property and equipment and recoverability of accounts receivable. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized over the equipment rental period and when collectibility is reasonably assured.

12 Financial instruments

Fair value

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, accrued management remuneration, callable debt and long-term debt, approximate their fair value due to the relatively short term to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of amounts due to (from) related parties and shareholder advances are not practicably determinable since they do not have any specified terms.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies which include the analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

During the period ended May 31, 2006, 32% (unaudited) (May 31, 2005 – 40% (unaudited); August 31, 2005 – 32%; August 31, 2004 – 22%; August 31, 2003 – 35%) of the Company's sales were to two customers. As at May 31, 2006, the Company had accounts receivable of 48% (August 31, 2005 –31%; 2004 – 41%) from two customers.

13 Income taxes

The income tax provision recorded differs from the income tax obtained by applying the statutory income tax rates to the earnings for the period and is reconciled as follows:

14 Segmented information

In the opinion of management, the Company has only one business segment, which is the business of safety equipment rentals.

15 Subsequent events

Initial public offering

On August 28, 2006, Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") filed a prospectus relating to the initial public offering of up to 14 million trust units for $10 per unit (the "Offering"). Costs of the Offering are estimated to be $2.0 million, and fees payable to the underwriters are estimated to be $8.4 million, resulting in net proceeds of $129.6 million.

The Trust, through a subsidiary, acquired 100% of the shares of the Company and all outstanding shareholder loans for $3,480,855 and 522,128 Trust units at a deemed price of $10 per unit. The cash payment will be adjusted post-closing for changes in working capital, long-term debt and shareholder loans to the date of closing.

Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders of Neuwest Equipment Rentals Inc.

We have audited the balance sheets of Neuwest Equipment Rentals Inc. as at October 31, 2005 and 2004 and the statements of earnings (loss) and retained earnings (deficit) and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended October 31, 2005. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at October 31, 2005 and 2004 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended October 31, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of operations and basis of presentation

Neuwest Equipment Rentals Inc. (the "Company") is incorporated under the laws of the Province of Nova Scotia. Its principal business activity is heavy equipment rentals.

These financial statements are prepared on the going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. The Company expects to continue normal operations with continued shareholder support, the company receiving future financing and the Company renting equipment to the related party as described in note 13. The outcome of these events is uncertain at this time. These financial statements do not include any adjustments to the amounts and classification of assets and liabilities that may be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. These adjustments may be material.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

These financial statements are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Cash and cash equivalent

Included in cash and cash equivalents are bank overdrafts.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized over the rental period and when collection is reasonably assured.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Amortization is provided using the declining balance method at rates intended to amortize the cost of assets over their estimated useful lives.

Containers	30%
Furniture	20%
Heavy rental equipment	30%
Rental equipment	20%
Vehicle equipment	30%

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate a potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a write-down to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities, and measured using the substantially enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of property and equipment, recoverability of accounts receivable and the going concern assumption. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

4 Deposit in trust

The Company was required to place $250,000 in trust to a vendor in order to obtain leases. The deposit will earn interest at the prime rate for 36 months.

5 Long-term debt

During the year, the Company purchased equipment through a twenty-four month loan at an interest rate of 7.5%. Future amounts repayable are as follows:

2006	9,678
2007	11,613
	21,291

The Company currently has a demand operating loan available to the amount of $105,000 at the bank's prime lending rate plus 1.50%. As at October 31, 2005, the Company had not drawn on this credit facility.

The two shareholders have placed personal guarantees to the amount of $1,136,250 (unaudited) (December 31, 2005 – $350,000; 2004 – $nil) each. The leases obligations security is provided by the related leased assets.

7 Shareholder advances

The amounts due to the shareholder are unsecured, interest free and repayable on demand.

8 Employee profit sharing plan

During 2005, the Company established a formal employee profit sharing plan, whereby accumulated undistributed profits of Neuwest Equipment Rentals Inc. and companies owned by the shareholders may be distributed to a trust. For the fiscal year of 2005, there was a distribution of profits of $375,000 under this plan (2004 – $nil), which was then loaned back to the Company with no set repayment terms. In the first half of 2006, a payment of $nil was distributed under the plan.

	3,288,632

Shareholders placed personal guarantees to the amount of $2,095,044 (2005 –$117,175), in order to obtain the equipment under the operating lease agreements with various vendors.

11 Financial instruments

Fair value

The carrying value of cash, accounts receivable, interest receivable and accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximate their fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity of the instruments. The fair value of shareholder advance and due to employee profit sharing plan is not practicably determinable since it does not have any specified terms. The fair value of long-term debt, capital lease obligations and deposit in trust approximates carrying value as the interest rates applicable to these loans approximate market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies, that include the analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

As at April 30, 2006, 92% (unaudited) (October 31, 2005 – 81%; October 31, 2004 – 73%) of the accounts receivable of the Company were from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of its capital leases and long-term debt, which bear fixed rates of interest.

12 Income taxes

The income tax provision recorded differs from the income tax obtained by applying the statutory income tax rate as follows:

	Three months ended April 30,		Six months ended April 30,		Years ended October 31,

13 Related party disclosure

The Company entered into a number of related party transactions with companies controlled by the shareholders or companies controlled by family members of the shareholders, which were a part of the normal course of operations. Such transactions included revenues of $nil for the interim period ending April 30, 2006 (unaudited) (years ending October 31, 2005 – $951,082; 2004 – $1,247,666; 2003 – $394,899). For the interim period of April 30, 2006 there were no related party revenues earned. See note 15 for further details.

The Company also entered into incurred consulting fees with a related party for the amount of $58,166 and $36,000 for the six month period ending April 30, 2006 and 2005 respectively (unaudited) (years ending October 31, 2005 – $96,000; 2004 – $186,291; 2003 – $nil).

As at October 31, 2005, outstanding accounts receivables from related parties amounted to $288,424 (2004 – $27,147). No amounts are outstanding at April 30, 2006.

All related party transactions have been recorded at the exchange amount.

14 Segmented information

In the opinion of management, the Company has only one business segment, which is the business of equipment rentals and sales in Canada.

15 Economic dependence

During the six-month period ended April 30, 2006, 94% (April 30, 2005 – 89%) (unaudited) (year ended October 31, 2005 – 86% (each customer at 46%, 21% and 19%); October 31, 2004 – 94% (each customer at 54%, 37% and 3%)) of the Company's sales were to three customers. For the year ended October 31, 2003 revenue from one customer totalled 93%. A portion of these sales were to related parties (note 13).

16 Subsequent events

Initial public offering

On August 28, 2006, Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") filed a prospectus relating to the initial public offering of up to 14 million trust units for $10 per unit (the "Offering"). Costs of the Offering are estimated to be $2.0 million, and fees payable to the underwriters are estimated to be $8.4 million, resulting in net proceeds of $129.6 million.

The Trust, through a subsidiary, acquired 100% of the shares of the Company and all outstanding shareholder loans for $4,153,405 and 623,010 Trust units at a deemed price of $10 per unit. The cash payment will be adjusted post-closing for changes in working capital, long-term debt and shareholder loans to the date of closing.

Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders of
Fitzpatrick Co. Ltd. and Northern Tractor Sales and Rental Co. Ltd.

We have audited the combined balance sheets of Northern Tractor Sales and Rental as at September 30, 2005 and 2004, and the combined statements of earnings and retained earnings and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended September 30, 2005. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these combined financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at September 30, 2005 and 2004, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended September 30, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1 Nature of business

Fitzpatrick Co. Ltd. and Northern Tractor Sales & Rental Co. Ltd. (collectively the "Company" and "Northern Tractor Sales and Rental") are privately owned and were incorporated under the Business Corporations Act of the Province of Alberta. The Company provides heavy equipment rentals in northern Alberta and north eastern British Columbia. These financial statements are prepared on a combined basis as they are under common control and managed by a common owner. The combined balances are presented after elimination of intercompany transactions and balances.

These combined financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. The Company expects to continue normal operations with continued shareholder support and assuming the bank indebtedness not being demanded by the lender, the company receiving future financing. The lender demanding repayment may result in the Company selling property and equipment to settle the debt, which would alter current operations. The lender has not presently indicated any intention to demand repayment. The outcome of these events is uncertain at this time. These combined financial statements do not include any adjustments to the amounts and classification of assets and liabilities that may be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. These adjustments may be material.

The Company's business is considered to have some seasonality, with peak levels generally in the first and fourth calendar year quarters.

2 Summary of significant accounting policies

The combined financial statements are stated in Canadian dollars and have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Inventory

Parts inventory is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined by the first-in first-out method.

Investments

Investments are portfolio investments recorded at cost, less any provisions for other than temporary impairment.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Amortization is provided using methods and rates intended to amortize the cost of the assets over their estimated useful lives.

Buildings	4-5%	declining balance
Automotive	30%	declining balance
Contractors moveable rental equipment	8 years	straight-line
Equipment	20%	declining balance
Fences	10%	declining balance
Furniture and fixtures	20%	declining balance
Leasehold improvements	5 years	straight-line

Management assesses the carrying amount of property and equipment for impairment when facts and circumstances indicate a potential impairment. If it is determined that the estimated net recoverable amount is less than the net carrying amount, a writedown to the asset's fair value is recognized during the period.

Future income taxes

The Company uses the liability method of tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities, and are measured using the substantively enacted tax rates and laws that will be effect when the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of combined financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the combined financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates include providing amortization of property and equipment and recoverability of accounts receivable. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Revenue recognition

Merchandise is rented to customers pursuant to rental agreements, which provide for weekly or monthly rental terms with non-refundable rental payments. The rental agreements may be terminated at any time by the customer without further obligation or cost upon return of the merchandise. Revenue from rental agreements is recognized over the rental period as services are provided.

12 Financial instruments

Fair value

The carrying value of cash, accounts receivable, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and accrued management remuneration approximate their fair value due to the relatively short term to maturity of the instruments and interest rates attached to the instruments. The fair value of the shareholder advances is not practicably determinable.

The fair value of long-term debt and capital lease obligations approximates carrying values as the interest rates approximate market rates.

Credit risk

The Company is exposed to credit risk on the accounts receivable from its customers. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company has adopted credit policies which include an analysis of the financial position of its customers and the regular review of their credit limits.

During the six-months ended March 31, 2006 23% (unaudited) (March 31, 2005 – 15% (unaudited)); and the year ended September 30 2005 23%, (September 30, 2004 – 38%) of the Company's sales were to three customers. As at March 31, 2006 48% (unaudited) (September 30, 2005 – 33%; 2004 – 38%) of the accounts receivable of the Company were from three customers.

Interest rate risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate price risk in respect of the long-term debt which bears fixed and floating rates of interest.

13 Contingency

The Company has been named as defendant in a lawsuit on behalf of a former employee seeking to recover damages allegedly sustained as a result of a dispute over the employment contract. This lawsuit remains at an early stage, and as litigation is subject to many uncertainties, it is not possible to predict the ultimate outcome of this lawsuit or to estimate the loss, if any, which may result. In the opinion of management, based on the advice and information provided by its legal counsel, final determination of these other litigations will not materially affect the Company's financial position or results of operations.

14 Segmented information

In the opinion of management, the Company has only one business segment, which is the business of heavy equipment rentals and sales.

15 Subsequent event

Initial public offering

On August 28, 2006, Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") filed a prospectus relating to the initial public offering of up to 14 million trust units for $10 per unit (the "Offering"). Costs of the Offering are estimated to be $2.0 million and fees payable to the underwriters are estimated to be $8.4 million resulting in net proceeds of $129.6 million.

The Trust, through a subsidiary, acquired 100% of the shares of the Company and all outstanding shareholder loans for $9,498,995 and 1,424,848 Trust units at a deemed price of $10 per unit. The cash payment will be adjusted post-closing for changes in working capital, long-term debt and shareholder loans to the date of closing.

SCHEDULE "C"
RECONCILIATION OF NET EARNINGS TO EBITDA AND ADJUSTED EBITDA

Management believes that EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are useful measures in evaluating the performance of the Acquired Companies and/or the Trust and in determining whether to invest in the Trust Units. However, EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are not recognized earnings measures under GAAP and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. Therefore, EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA may not be comparable to similarly titled measures presented by other issuers.

Investors are cautioned that EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA should not be construed as an alternative to net income or loss determined in accordance with GAAP as indicators of the Acquired Companies' or the Trust's performance or cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities as measures of liquidity and cash flows. The Acquired Companies define and have computed EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA as described under "Non-GAAP Measures". The following tables reconcile EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA to net earnings (loss) for each of the Acquired Companies based on the historical financial information of the Acquired Companies. The historical financial information used for this purpose was, in respect of D&D Well Services, Murtron Hauling and Neuwest Equipment Rentals, the audited combined income statements for the twelve-month periods ended December 31, 2005, October 31, 2005, October 31, 2005, respectively, and in respect of Wales Contractors, Roy Larson Construction, Gordon Bros. Construction, R Bee Crushing, S.O.S. Oilfield Safety and Northern Tractor the unaudited income statements for the twelve-month periods ended November 30, 2005, November 30, 2005, December 31, 2005, October 31, 2005, November 30, 2005 and December 31, 2005, respectively, constructed for the purpose of preparing the unaudited Pro-forma Consolidated Statement of Income of the Trust for the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2005. Dear Sirs/Mesdames:

Re: Petrowest Energy Services Trust - Final Prospectus

We refer to the (final) prospectus dated August 28, 2006 (the "Prospectus") of Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") relating to the qualification for distribution of up to 14,000,000 trust units of the Trust.

We hereby consent to the references to this firm on the cover page and under the headings "Prospectus Summary – The Offering – Eligibility for Investment", "Eligibility for Investment", "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations", and "Experts" in the Prospectus and to the reference to our opinions under the headings "Prospectus Summary – The Offering – Eligibility for Investment", "Eligibility for Investment" and "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations" in the Prospectus.

We confirm that we have read the Prospectus and have no reason to believe that there are any misrepresentations in the information contained in the Prospectus that is derived from our opinions referred to above or that is within our knowledge as a result of services we have performed to render such opinions.

This letter is solely for the private information of the addressees and is not to be used, quoted or referred to, in whole or in part, in the Prospectus or any other document or to any other person or company, nor should it be relied upon by any other person.

Yours truly,

RE: Prospectus dated August 28, 2006 (the "Prospectus")

To the extent that the securities legislation in some jurisdictions is ambiguous regarding certain matters set forth in NP 41-201, and in connection with the filing of the Prospectus, Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") hereby undertakes as follows:

(i) in complying with its reporting issuer obligations, the Trust will treat Petrowest Energy Services General Partner Ltd. ("Petrowest") as a subsidiary of the Trust; however, if generally accepted accounting principles prohibit the consolidation of financial information of Petrowest and the Trust, for as long as Petrowest (and any of its significant business interests) represents a significant asset of the Trust, the Trust will provide unitholders with separate financial statements for Petrowest (including information about any of its significant business interests),

(ii) for so long as the Trust is a reporting issuer, the Trust will take appropriate, measures to require each person who would be an insider of Petrowest if Petrowest were a reporting issuer to file insider reports about trades in trust units of the Trust (including securities which are exchangeable into trust units of the Trust); and comply with statutory prohibitions against insider trading, and

(iii) the Trust will annually certify that it has complied with this undertaking and file the certificate on SEDAR concurrently with the filing of its annual financial statements.

DATED this 28th day of August, 2006.

Dear Sirs:

Re: Initial Public Offering of Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust")

Westwind Partners Inc. and Sprott Securities Inc. (together, the "Lead Underwriters") and Lightyear Capital Inc., Blackmont Capital Inc. and Dundee Securities Corporation (collectively with the Lead Underwriters, the "Underwriters") understand that the Trust proposes to complete its initial public offering (the "Offering") of Trust Units (as herein defined) pursuant to a prospectus whereby the Trust will issue and sell 14,000,000 Trust Units (the "Firm Units").

Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the Underwriters hereby severally, and not jointly, agree to purchase from the Trust the Firm Units at the Closing Time (as herein defined) in the respective percentages set forth in section 24 hereof, and the Trust hereby agrees to issue and sell to the Underwriters at the Closing Time all, but not less than all, of the Firm Units at a purchase price of $10.00 per Firm Unit.

The Trust also hereby grants to the Underwriters an option (the "Over-Allotment Option"), to purchase on the terms set forth herein up to 1,400,000 additional Trust Units (the "Over-Allotment Units" and, collectively with the Firm Units, the "Offered Units"), at the Underwriters' election, exercisable, in whole or in part, at any time prior to 30 days after the Closing Date (as herein defined) for the purpose of covering over-allotments, if any. The Over-Allotment Option shall be exercisable on written notice by the Lead Underwriters, on behalf of the Underwriters, to the Trust not later than two Business Days (as herein defined) prior to an Additional Closing Date (as herein defined), specifying the number of Over-Allotment Units to be purchased and the date for delivery of the purchase price for the Over-Allotment Units.

The Underwriters understand that the Trust has filed the Original Preliminary Prospectus and the Amended Preliminary Prospectus (both as herein defined) and will prepare and file, in accordance with the terms hereof, the Prospectus and all other necessary documents in order to qualify the Offered Units for distribution to the public in each of the Qualifying Jurisdictions.

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the underwriters propose (1) to distribute the Offered Units in Canada pursuant to the Prospectus and (2) offer the Offered Units in the United States pursuant to exemptions from registration under the U.S. Securities Act (as defined herein) through their respective U.S. Placement Agents (a) for sale by the Underwriters or their affiliates to persons who are Qualified Institutional Buyers (as defined herein) or (b) for sale by the Trust to Institutional Accredited Investors (as defined herein), all in the manner contemplated by this Agreement.

The Underwriters shall be entitled (but not obligated) in connection with the offering and sale of the Offered Units to retain as sub-agents other registered securities dealers and may receive subscriptions for Offered Units from subscribers from other registered dealers. The fee payable to any such sub-agent shall be for the account of the Underwriters.

2. Interpretation

(a) Unless otherwise stated, any reference in this Agreement to any section, subsection, paragraph or schedule shall refer to a section, subsection or schedule of this Agreement.

(b) Headings have been inserted for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement.

(c) Words importing the singular number only shall include the plural and vice versa, and words importing the use of any gender shall include all genders (including the neuter).

3. Underwriting Fee

In consideration for their services in offering the Offered Units to the public in the Qualifying Jurisdictions and, in accordance with Schedule "A" in the United States, the Trust agrees to pay the Underwriters at the Closing Time a fee of $0.60 per Firm Unit (for an aggregate amount of $8,400,000) and at an Additional Closing Time a fee of $0.60 per Over-Allotment Unit in respect of which the Over-Allotment Option is exercised (for an aggregate amount of $9,240,000, if the Over-Allotment Option is exercised in full).

For greater certainty, the services provided by the Underwriters in connection herewith will not be subject to GST and taxable supplies provided will be incidental to the exempt financial services provided; however, in the event that Canada Revenue Agency determines that GST is exigible on the fees payable to the Underwriters hereunder, the Trust agrees to pay the amount of GST exigible on the fees payable to the Underwriters hereunder, forthwith upon the request of the Underwriters.

4. Distribution and Certain Obligations of the Underwriters

(a) During the course of the distribution of the Offered Units by or through the Underwriters, the Underwriters will offer and sell the Offered Units only in those jurisdictions where they may be lawfully offered for sale or sold. For the purposes of this section 4, the Underwriters shall be entitled to assume that the Offered Units may be lawfully offered for sale and sold to the public in the Qualifying Jurisdictions if a final MRRS Decision Document has been issued evidencing that a receipt for the Prospectus has been issued by the Securities Commissions of each of the Qualifying Jurisdictions, provided the Underwriters have not been notified in writing by the Trust of any circumstance that would legally prohibit such distribution. The Underwriters will comply with applicable laws, including the Canadian Securities Laws, in connection with the offer to sell or distribution of the Offered Units. Except in the Qualifying Jurisdictions, the Underwriters will not, directly or indirectly, solicit offers to purchase or sell the Offered Units or deliver the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus or any Supplementary Material so as to require registration of the Offered Units or filing of a prospectus with respect to the Offered Units under the laws of any jurisdiction, including, without limitation, the United States and the United Kingdom. The Underwriters may offer Offered Units for sale in the United States through their respective U.S. Placement Agents to Qualified Institutional Buyers pursuant to Rule 144A or may arrange for the sale of Offered Units by the Trust to Institutional Accredited Investors as substituted purchasers pursuant to Rule 506 of Regulation D, all in accordance with Schedule "A" of this Agreement entitled "Terms and Conditions for United States Offers and Sales", which is incorporated by reference in and shall form part of this Agreement. The Underwriters' commitment to purchase Offered Units pursuant to this Agreement is reduced to the extent that Offered Units are sold to Institutional Accredited Investors as substituted purchasers in compliance with Schedule "A". Each Underwriter will cause similar undertakings to be contained in any agreements among the members of any Selling Dealer Group formed for the distribution of the Offered Units and will require any member of the Selling Dealer Group formed for the distribution of the Offered Units to comply with Canadian Securities Laws and U.S. Securities Laws, as applicable.

(b) The Underwriters will use their reasonable efforts to complete and to cause members of the Selling Dealer Group (if any) to complete the distribution of the Offered Units promptly after the Closing Time or the Additional Closing Time, as the case may be. The Lead Underwriters will promptly notify the Trust when, in the Underwriters' opinion, the Underwriters and the members of the Selling Dealer Group (if any) have ceased distribution of the Offered Units and, as soon as practicable after completion of the distribution, will provide the Trust, in writing, with a breakdown of the number of Offered Units distributed in each of the Qualifying Jurisdictions and the U.S.

(c) No Underwriter will be liable to the Trust under this section 4, with respect to a default by any of the other Underwriters.

5. Qualification for Sale

(a) The Trust shall elect and comply in all material respects with the MRRS and in connection therewith:

(i) has:

(A) prepared and filed under the MRRS the Preliminary Prospectus and related documents required under the Canadian Securities Laws with the Securities Commissions and designated the ASC as the principal regulator; and

(B) obtained the preliminary MRRS Decision Document from the ASC, evidencing that a receipt has been issued for the Preliminary Prospectus in each Qualifying Jurisdiction; and

(ii) forthwith after any comments with respect to the Preliminary Prospectus have been received from the Securities Commissions, but not later than 5:00 p.m. (Calgary time) on August 28, 2006, shall:

(A) prepare and file the Prospectus and related documents required under the Canadian Securities Laws with the Securities Commissions; and

(B) use its best efforts to obtain a final MRRS Decision Document from the ASC evidencing that a receipt for the Prospectus in each of the Qualifying Jurisdictions has been issued.

(b) Prior to the filing of the Prospectuses and during the period of distribution of the Offered Units and prior to the filing with any Securities Commissions of any Supplementary Material, the Trust, Petrowest and the Promoters shall allow the Underwriters and the Underwriters' counsel to participate fully in the preparation of, and to approve the form of, such documents.

(c) The Trust will at all times prior to the completion of the distribution of the Offered Units, provide to the Underwriters for review by the Underwriters and Underwriters' Counsel, before filing or dissemination of the same any press release, and any press release issued by the Trust concerning the Offering shall not be released or disseminated in the United States (including by e-mail to U.S. shareholders or dealers) or distribution to United States news services and shall include a legend substantially the same as: "NOT FOR DISTRIBUTION TO UNITED STATES NEWSWIRE SERVICES OR FOR DISSEMINATION IN THE UNITED STATES" and include in the body thereof the words: "These securities have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended or the securities laws of any state, and may not be offered or sold in the United States unless an exemption from registration is available".

(d) During the period from the date hereof until completion of the distribution of the Offered Units, the Trust, Petrowest and the Promoters shall allow the Underwriters to participate fully in the preparation of the Prospectuses, the U.S. Placement Memorandum and any Supplementary Material and to conduct all due diligence which they may reasonably require in order to fulfil their obligations as underwriters and in order to enable the Underwriters responsibly to execute the certificates required to be executed by them in the Prospectuses or in any Supplementary Material. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trust, Petrowest and the Promoters shall make available the trustees, directors, senior management, counsel and auditors, as applicable, of each of the Trust and the Acquired Companies to answer any questions which the Underwriters may have and to participate in one or more due diligence sessions to be held prior to the Closing Time (collectively, the "Due Diligence Session"). The Underwriters shall distribute a list of written questions to be answered in advance of such Due Diligence Session and the Trust shall provide written responses to such questions and shall use reasonable commercial efforts to have the auditors and the management of the Acquired Companies provide written responses to such questions in advance of the Due Diligence Session.

(e) Until the completion of the distribution of the Offered Units, the Trust, Petrowest and the Promoters shall promptly take all additional steps and proceedings that from time to time may be required under the Canadian Securities Laws to continue to qualify the Offered Units for distribution or, in the event that the Offered Units have, for any reason, ceased to be so qualified, to again qualify the Offered Units for distribution.

(f) The Trust, Petrowest and the Promoters shall take or cause to be taken all other steps and proceedings as may be necessary to enable the Offered Units to be offered and sold to the public in all of the Qualifying Jurisdictions through the Underwriters or any other registrant who complies with the relevant provisions of Canadian Securities Laws.

6. Delivery of Prospectus, U.S. Placement Memorandum and Related Documents

The Trust, Petrowest and the Promoters shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Underwriters the documents set out below at the respective times indicated:

(a) as soon as they are available, and in any event no later than August 29, 2006, copies of the Prospectus, signed as required by Canadian Securities Laws;

(b) as soon as they are available, copies of the U.S. Placement Memorandum prepared as contemplated herein including copies of any documents incorporated by reference therein which have not previously been delivered to the Underwriters;

(c) as soon as they are available, copies of any Supplementary Materials required to be filed under Canadian Securities Laws or U.S. Securities Laws, as applicable, signed as required by Canadian Securities Laws or applicable U.S. Securities Laws;

(d) prior to the filing of the Prospectus with the Securities Commissions, a "comfort letter" from the auditors of the Trust and each of the Acquired Companies dated the date of the Prospectus, addressed to the Board of Directors of Petrowest and the Underwriters and satisfactory in form and substance to the Underwriters, acting reasonably, to the effect that they have carried out certain procedures performed for the purposes of comparing certain specified financial information and percentages appearing in the Prospectus with indicated amounts in the financial statements or accounting records of the Trust and the Acquired Companies and have found such information and percentages to be in agreement, which comfort letter shall be based on a review having a cut-off date of not more than two Business Days prior to the date of the Prospectus;

(e) comfort letters similar to the foregoing shall be provided to the Underwriters with respect to any amendment to the Prospectus and any other relevant document or Supplementary Material at the time the same is presented to the Underwriters for their signature or, if the Underwriters' signature is not required, at the time the same is filed; and

(f) prior to the filing of the Prospectus, evidence satisfactory to the Underwriters of the approval of the listing and posting for trading on the Exchange of the Trust Units (including the Offered Units) subject only to satisfaction by the Trust of customary post-closing conditions imposed by the Exchange for conditional listing approval, and such deliveries shall also constitute the Trust's, Petrowest's and each of the Promoter's consent to the use by the Underwriters and other members of the Selling Dealer Group of the Prospectus and any amendment to the Prospectus in connection with the offering and sale of the Offered Units in the Qualifying Jurisdictions. Each delivery of the U.S. Placement Memorandum shall constitute consent by the Trust, Petrowest and each of the Promoters to the use of the U.S. Placement Memorandum and any Supplementary Material required to be prepared and/or filed under U.S. Securities Laws by the U.S. Placement Agents for the distribution of the Offered Units for sale by them in the United States in accordance with this Agreement.

7. Commercial Copies

(a) The Trust, Petrowest and the Promoters shall, as soon as possible but in any event not later than noon (local time at the place of delivery) on August 29, 2006 in Toronto and on August 30, 2006 in other places of delivery cause to be delivered to the Underwriters, without charge, commercial copies of the Prospectus in such numbers and in such locations as the Underwriters may reasonably request by written instructions to the printer thereof given no later than the later of the time when the Trust authorizes the printing of the commercial copies of such documents. Commercial copies of any amendment to the Prospectus or other Supplementary Material shall be delivered within similar time periods on the next Business Day following the date of filing such amendment in the Qualifying Jurisdictions in such numbers and in such locations in as the Underwriters may reasonably request.

(b) The Trust shall cause to be delivered to the Underwriters, contemporaneously with the deliveries contemplated by clause (a), at those delivery points that the Underwriters may reasonably request, commercial copies of a U.S. Placement Memorandum and any Supplementary Material required to be delivered to purchasers or prospective purchasers of the Offered Units.

8. Material Change

(a) During the period of distribution of the Offered Units, the Trust, Petrowest and the Promoters will promptly inform the Underwriters of the full particulars of:

(i) any material change (actual, anticipated, contemplated or threatened) in the business, affairs, operations, capital or condition (financial or otherwise) of the Trust, the Trust Subsidiaries or the Acquired Companies or their respective properties, assets or liabilities (absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise) or results of operations of the Trust, the Trust Subsidiaries or the Acquired Companies or affecting the ability of Petrowest to manage or provide advisory services to the Trust and the Trust Subsidiaries;

(ii) any change in any material fact contained or referred to in the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum or any Supplementary Material; and

(iii) the occurrence of a material fact or any event, which, in any such case, is, or may be, of such a nature as to:

(A) render the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum or any Supplementary Material untrue, false or misleading in any material respect,

(B) result in a misrepresentation in the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum or any Supplementary Material,

(C) result in the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum or any Supplementary Material not complying with Canadian Securities Laws and, with respect to the U.S. Placement Memorandum, U.S. Securities Laws, as applicable, or

(D) reasonably be expected to have a significant effect on the market price or value of the Units, provided that if the Trust, Petrowest or the Promoters is uncertain as to whether a material change, change, occurrence or event of the nature referred to in this paragraph has occurred, the Trust, Petrowest or the Promoters shall promptly inform the Underwriters of the full particulars of the occurrence giving rise to the uncertainty and shall consult with the Underwriters as to whether the occurrence is of such nature.

(b) During the period of distribution of the Offered Units, the Trust, Petrowest and the Promoters will promptly inform the Underwriters of the full particulars of:

(i) any request of any Securities Commission or any similar regulatory authority for any amendment to the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum, any Supplementary Material or any other part of the Public Record or for any additional information;

(ii) the issuance by any Securities Commission, the Exchange or any similar regulatory authority of any order to cease or suspend trading of any securities of the Trust (including the distribution of the Offered Units) or of the institution or threat of institution of any proceedings for that purpose;

(iii) the receipt of any communication from any Securities Commission or similar regulatory authority or the Exchange relating to the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum, any Supplementary Material or any other part of the Public Record or the distribution of the Offered Units; and except as otherwise agreed by the Underwriters, each of the Trust and Petrowest will use its best efforts to prevent the issuance of any such cease trading order or suspension order and, if issued, to obtain the withdrawal thereof as soon as possible;

(c) Each of the Trust, Petrowest and the Promoters will promptly comply to the reasonable satisfaction of the Underwriters and the Underwriters' Counsel with Canadian Securities Laws and U.S. Securities Laws, as applicable, with respect to any material change, change, occurrence or event of the nature referred to in sections 8(a) and (b) above and will prepare and file promptly at the Underwriters' request, and in any event within any time limit prescribed by Canadian Securities Laws or U.S. Securities Laws, any Supplementary Material or amended U.S. Placement Memorandum which in the Underwriters' opinion, acting reasonably, may be necessary or advisable to comply with Canadian Securities Laws or U.S. Securities Laws, as applicable; provided that the Trust, Petrowest and the Promoters shall have allowed the Underwriters and the Underwriters' Counsel to participate fully in the preparation of any Supplementary Material or amended U.S. Placement Memorandum and to conduct all due diligence investigations which the Underwriters may reasonably require in order to fulfill their obligations as underwriters and in order to enable the Underwriters responsibly to execute the certificate required to be executed by them in, or in connection with, any Supplementary Material, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld and to be provided in a timely manner.

(d) During the period of distribution of the Offered Units, the Trust and Petrowest will promptly provide to the Underwriters, for review by the Underwriters and the Underwriters' Counsel, prior to filing or issuance:

(i) any financial statement of the Trust or the Acquired Companies;

(ii) any press release of the Trust;

(iii) any other documents to be filed with any Securities Commission or similar regulatory authority or the Exchange; and

(iv) any document or information to be sent to Unitholders.

9. Covenants of the Trust and Petrowest

(a) The Trust and Petrowest hereby jointly and severally covenant and agree with the Underwriters and undertake that:

(i) the Trust will use the net proceeds from the sale of the Offered Units in accordance with the disclosure in the Prospectus;

(ii) the Trust will use its best efforts to obtain, prior to the Closing Time, all necessary approvals of the Exchange for the issuance and listing on the Exchange of the Trust Units (including the Offered Units), subject only to filing of required documents and will comply with all requirements of the Exchange in connection with the issuance and listing of the Trust Units (including the Offered Units) on the Exchange including filing of all necessary documentation in accordance with the requirements of the Exchange and will thereafter maintain its listing on the Exchange;

(iii) the Trust will timely file all necessary forms and reports in connection with the issuance of the Offered Units hereunder with the appropriate Securities Commissions and other regulatory authorities;

(iv) the Trust will invest its assets and maintain its investment portfolio so that, at all times, the Trust qualifies and continues to qualify as a registered investment within the meaning of the Tax Act; and

(v) the Trust and Petrowest will duly, punctually and faithfully perform all of the obligations to be performed by them under this Agreement.

10. Representations and Warranties of the Trust, Petrowest and the Promoters

(a) Each delivery of the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum and any Supplementary Material pursuant to section 6 shall constitute a joint and several representation and warranty to the Underwriters by the Trust, Petrowest and each of the Promoters that:

(i) all of the information and statements (except information and statements furnished by and relating solely to the Underwriters) contained in the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum and any Supplementary Material, as the case may be:

(A) are at the respective dates of such documents, true and correct in all material respects;

(B) contain no misrepresentation; and

(C) constitute full, true and plain disclosure of all material facts relating to the Trust, the Trust Subsidiaries, the Offered Units and the Acquired Companies;

(ii) the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus and any Supplementary Material comply in all material respects with the Canadian Securities Laws, and the U.S. Placement Memorandum and any related Supplementary Material comply in all material respects with U.S. Securities Laws; and

(iii) except as is disclosed in the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum or any Supplementary Materials, there has been no intervening material change (actual, proposed or prospective, whether financial or otherwise), from the date of the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum and any Supplementary Material to the time of delivery thereof, in the business, operations, capital, properties, assets, liabilities (absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise), condition (financial or otherwise) or results of operations of the Trust, the Trust Subsidiaries or the Acquired Companies.

(b) In addition to the representations and warranties contained in section 10(a) hereof, the Trust, Petrowest and the Promoters jointly and severally represent and warrant to the Underwriters, and acknowledge that each of the Underwriters is relying upon such representations and warranties in entering into this Agreement, that:

(i) the Trust is, and at the Closing Time Business Trust will be, a valid and subsisting trust established under the laws of the Province of Alberta, and, pursuant to its respective declaration of trust has or will have, as the case may be, at the Closing Time, all requisite power and authority to invest as set out in the Prospectus and to conduct its business as currently conducted and as presently proposed to be conducted and to own its properties and assets;

(lv) at or before the Closing Time or the Additional Closing Time, as applicable, each of the Trust, the Trust Subsidiaries, the Acquired Companies and the Promoters shall have complied with and fulfilled all of the terms and conditions of the Material Agreements to be complied with by it pursuant thereto at or before such time, and the representations and warranties therein will be true and correct as of such time; and

(lvi) the Trust and Petrowest make the representations, warranties and covenants applicable to them in Schedule "A" hereto.

11. Covenants, Representations and Warranties of the Promoters

Each of the Promoters hereby severally, but not jointly, covenants, represents and warrants as follows to each of the Underwriters and acknowledge that each of the Underwriters is relying upon such representations, warranties and covenants in connection with its execution and delivery of this Agreement:

(a) he has the necessary capacity to enter into this Agreement and to carry out his obligations hereunder;

(b) there are no legal or governmental actions, proceedings or investigations pending to which he is a party or to which any of his property is subject or, to the best of his knowledge, contemplated or threatened, at law or in equity or before or by any federal, provincial, municipal or other governmental department, commission, board or agency, domestic or foreign, which (i) could result in an adverse material change to the Trust; or (ii) questions the validity of the issuance, sale or delivery of the Offered Units, Purchase Price Units or Subordinated Units or the validity of any action taken or to be taken in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the Acquisition Agreements or the Prospectus except as disclosed to the Underwriters (and in the disclosed cases the Promoter represents such actions, proceedings or investigations are not reasonably likely to succeed); and

(c) he has executed the certificate set forth in the Prospectus as a promoter and is subject to the liabilities under Applicable Securities Laws as a consequence thereof.

12. Indemnity

(a) The Trust (solely out of the Trust Assets) and Petrowest (each an "Indemnitor") agree that they shall, jointly and severally, indemnify and save each of the Underwriters, and each of the Underwriter's affiliates, agents, directors, officers, shareholders, partners, employees and agents (collectively, the "Indemnified Persons" and individually an "Indemnified Person"), harmless against and from all actual or threatened claims, actions, suits, investigations and proceedings and all demands, losses (other than losses of profit in connection with the distribution of the Offered Units), costs, damages, obligations, payments, expenses, fines, penalties, taxes, interest, fees and liabilities, joint or several, including the aggregate amount paid in reasonable settlement of any actions, suits, investigations, proceedings or claims and the fees, disbursements and expenses of the Indemnified Persons' counsel on a solicitor and his own client basis that may be incurred in advising with respect to or defending any action, suit, proceeding, investigation or claim that may be made or threatened against any indemnified person or in enforcing this Indemnity (collectively, the "Claims") to which any Indemnified Person may be or become subject or otherwise involved or which may now or at any time hereafter suffer or incur, whether under the provisions of any statute or otherwise, in any way caused by, or arising directly or indirectly from or in consequence of:

(i) any information or statement contained in the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum, any Supplementary Material or in any other document or material filed or delivered pursuant hereto (other than any information or statement relating solely to the Underwriters and furnished to the Trust by the Underwriters expressly for inclusion in the Preliminary Prospectus, Prospectus, U.S. Placement Memorandum or Supplementary Materials) which is or is alleged to be untrue or any omission or alleged omission to provide any information or state any fact the omission of which makes or is alleged to make any such information or statement untrue or misleading in light of the circumstances in which it was made;

(ii) any misrepresentation or alleged misrepresentation (except a misrepresentation which is based upon information relating solely to the Underwriters and furnished to the Trust by the Underwriters expressly for inclusion in the Preliminary Prospectus, Prospectus, U.S. Placement Memorandum or Supplementary Materials) contained in the Preliminary Prospectus, Prospectus, U.S. Placement Memorandum or any Supplementary Materials or in any other document filed with a Securities Commission by or on behalf of the Trust or any other part of the Public Record filed by or on behalf of the Trust;

(iii) any prohibition or restriction of trading in the securities of the Trust or any prohibition or restriction affecting the distribution of the Offered Units imposed by any competent authority if such prohibition or restriction is based on any misrepresentation or alleged misrepresentation of a kind referred to in section 12(a)(ii);

(iv) any order made or any inquiry, investigation (whether formal or informal) or other proceeding commenced or threatened by any one or more competent authorities in connection with the transactions contemplated herein (not based upon the activities or the alleged activities of the Underwriters or their Selling Dealer Group members, if any), relating to or materially affecting the trading or distribution of the Offered Units or the Trust Units;

(v) any breach of, default under or non-compliance by the Indemnitor or a Promoter with any requirements of the Canadian Securities Laws, applicable U.S. Securities Laws, the by-laws, rules or regulations of the Exchange or any representation, warranty, term or condition of this Agreement provided by the Trust or in any certificate or other document delivered by or on behalf of the Trust hereunder or pursuant hereto; or

(vi) the Trust not complying (or an allegation of non-compliance) with any requirement of Canadian Securities Laws or applicable U.S. Securities Laws in connection with the transactions contemplated herein, including the Trust's non-compliance with any statutory requirement to make any document available for inspection.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 12(a), no party who has engaged in any fraud, wilful misconduct or gross negligence shall be entitled, to the extent that the Claims were caused by such activity, to claim indemnification from any person who has not engaged in such fraud, fraudulent misrepresentation, wilful default or gross negligence.

(c) If any Claim contemplated by section 12(a) shall be brought, instituted or threatened against any of the Indemnified Persons, or if any potential Claim contemplated by section 12(a) shall come to the knowledge of any Indemnified Party, the Indemnified Party concerned shall notify the Indemnitors as soon as possible of the nature of such claim (provided that failure to so notify the Indemnitors of the nature of such claim in a timely fashion shall relieve the Indemnitors of liability hereunder only if and to the extent that such failure materially prejudices such Indemnitor's ability to defend such claim) and the Indemnitors shall be entitled (but not required) to assume the defence of any suit brought to enforce such claim, provided however, that the defence shall be through legal counsel selected by an Indemnitor and acceptable to the Indemnified Person acting reasonably and that no settlement may be made by an Indemnitor or the Indemnified Person without the prior written consent of the Indemnitors and such Indemnified Person, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld.

(d) The Indemnified Person shall have the right to retain its own separate or additional counsel in any proceeding relating to a claim contemplated by section 12(a), provided that the fees and disbursements of such counsel shall be paid by the Indemnified Party unless:

(i) the Indemnified Person has been advised by counsel that there may be a reasonable legal defence available to the Indemnified Person which is different from or in addition to a defence available to an Indemnitor or that a conflict of interest exists which makes representation by counsel chosen by the Trust not advisable (in which case the Indemnitors shall not have the right to assume the defence of such proceedings on the Indemnified Person's behalf);

(ii) an Indemnitor shall not have taken the defence of such proceedings and employed counsel within ten days after receipt of notice of commencement of such proceedings; or

(iii) the employment of such counsel has been authorized by the Indemnitors in writing in connection with the defence of such proceeding; and, in any such event, the reasonable fees and expenses of such Indemnified Person's counsel (on a solicitor and his client basis) shall be paid by the Indemnitors provided that the Indemnitors shall not, in connection with any one such action or separate but substantially similar or related actions in the same jurisdiction arising out of the same general allegations or circumstances, be liable for the fees and expenses of more than one separate law firm (in addition to any local counsel) for all such Indemnified Persons.

(e) The Indemnitors hereby waive any right to recover contribution from the Underwriters with respect to any liability of the Indemnitors by reason of or arising out of any misrepresentation in the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum or any Supplementary Material, provided, however, that such waiver shall not apply in respect of liability caused or incurred by reason of any misrepresentation which is based upon information relating solely to the Underwriters contained in such document and furnished to the Trust by the Underwriters or Underwriters' Counsel expressly for inclusion in the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum or such Supplementary Material.

(f) If any claim, action, suit, investigation or proceeding shall be instituted against an Indemnitor in respect of the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum or any Supplementary Material or the offering of Offered Units, or if any regulatory authority or stock exchange shall carry out an investigation of the Indemnitor in respect of the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum or any Supplementary Material or the offering of Offered Units and, in any such case, any Indemnified Person is required to testify, or respond to procedures designed to discover information, in connection with or by reason of the services performed by the Underwriters hereunder, the Indemnified Person may employ their own legal counsel and the Indemnitors shall pay and reimburse the Indemnified Person for the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements (on a full indemnity basis) of such legal counsel, the other expenses reasonably incurred by the Indemnified Person in connection with such proceedings or investigation and a fee at the normal per diem rate for any director, officer or employee of the Underwriters involved in the preparation for or attendance at such proceedings or investigation.

(g) The rights and remedies of the Indemnified Persons set forth in sections 12, 13 and 15 hereof are to the fullest extent possible in law cumulative and not alternative and the election by any Underwriter or other Indemnified Person to exercise any such right or remedy shall not be, and shall not be deemed to be, a waiver of any other rights and remedies.

(h) The Indemnitors hereby acknowledge that the Underwriters are acting as agents for the Underwriters' respective agents, directors, officers, shareholders and employees under this section 12 and under section 13 with respect to all such agents, directors, officers, shareholders and employees.

(i) The Indemnitors hereby waive any right they may have of first requiring an Indemnified Person to proceed against or enforce any other right, power, remedy or security or claim or to claim payment from any other person before claiming under this indemnity. It is not necessary for an Indemnified Person to incur expense or make payment before enforcing such indemnity;

(j) The Underwriters' rights of indemnity contained in this section 12 shall not apply if the Trust has complied with the provisions of sections 5, 6 and 7 and the person asserting any claim contemplated by this section 12 was not provided with a copy of the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum or any Supplemental Material or amendment to the U.S. Placement Memorandum or other document which corrects any misrepresentation or alleged misrepresentation which is the basis of such claim and which was required, under Canadian Securities Laws and U.S. Securities Laws, as applicable, to be delivered to such person by the Underwriters.

(k) If an Indemnitor has assumed the defense of any suit brought to enforce a claim hereunder, the Indemnified Person shall provide the Indemnitors with copies of all documents and information in its possession pertaining to the claim, take all reasonable actions necessary to preserve its rights to object to or defend against the claim, consult and reasonably cooperate with the Indemnitors in determining whether the claim and any legal proceeding resulting therefrom should be resisted, compromised or settled and reasonably cooperate and assist in any negotiations to compromise or settle, or in any defense of, a claim undertaken by the Indemnitor, provided that such Indemnified Person shall be reimbursed as contemplated by section 12(f).

13. Contribution

(a) In order to provide for just and equitable contribution in circumstances in which the indemnification provided for in this Agreement is due in accordance with its terms but is, for any reason, held by a court to be unavailable from the Indemnitors on grounds of policy or otherwise, the Indemnitors and the party or parties seeking indemnification shall contribute to the aggregate demands, losses (other than losses of profit in connection with the distribution of the Offered Units), costs, damages, obligations, payments, expenses, fees and liabilities to which they may be subject or which they may suffer or incur:

(i) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefit received by the Indemnitors, on the one hand, and by the party or parties seeking indemnity on the other hand, from the offering of the Offered Units; or

(ii) if the allocation provided by section 13(a)(i) above is not permitted by applicable law, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits referred to in section 13(a)(i) above but also to reflect the relative fault of the party or parties seeking indemnity, on the one hand, and the Indemnitors, on the other hand, in connection with the statements, commissions or omissions or other matters which resulted in such liabilities, claims, demands, losses, costs, damages or expenses as well as any other relevant equitable considerations.

(b) The relative benefits received by the Indemnitors on the one hand, and the Underwriters, on the other hand, shall be deemed to be in the same proportion that the total proceeds of the Offering received by the Trust (net of fees but before deducting expenses) bear to the fees received by the Underwriters. In the case of liability arising out of the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum or any Supplementary Material, the relative fault of the Indemnitors on the one hand, and of the Underwriters, on the other hand, shall be determined by reference, among other things, to whether the misrepresentation or alleged misrepresentation, order, inquiry, investigation or other matter or thing referred to in section 12 relates to information supplied or which ought to have been supplied by, or steps or actions taken or done on behalf of or which ought to have been taken or done on behalf of the Indemnitors or the Underwriters and the party's relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such misrepresentation or alleged misrepresentation, order, inquiry, investigation or other matter or thing referred to in section 12.

(c) The amount paid or payable by an Indemnified Person as a result of demands, losses (other than losses of profit in connection with the distribution of the Offered Units), costs, damages, obligations, payments, expenses, fees and liabilities referred to above shall, without limitation, include any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by the Indemnified Person in connection with investigating or defending such demands, losses, costs, damages, obligations, payments, expenses, fees and liabilities (or claims, actions, suits, investigations and proceedings in respect thereof) whether or not resulting in any action, suit, proceeding or claim.

(d) The Indemnitors agree that it would not be just and equitable if contributions pursuant to this Agreement were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation which does not take into account the equitable considerations referred to in the immediately preceding paragraphs. The rights to contribution provided in this section 13 shall be in addition to, and without prejudice to, any other right to contribution which the Underwriters or any other Indemnified Person may have.

(e) Any liability of the Underwriters under this section 13 shall be limited to the amount actually received by the Underwriters under section 2.

14. Expenses

Whether or not the transactions contemplated herein shall be completed, all costs and expenses of or incidental to the distribution of the Offered Units shall be borne by the Trust including, without limitation: (i) all costs and expenses of or incidental to the preparation, filing and reproduction of the Preliminary Prospectus, the Prospectus, the U.S. Placement Memorandum, any Supplementary Materials, the fees and expenses of the Trust's counsel, the costs relating to road show meetings and presentations (including all printing and travel costs for employees of the Trust), listing fees, the fees and expenses of agent counsel retained by the Trust's counsel, the fees and expenses of the Trust's auditors, translation costs and the fees and expenses related to any newspaper advertisements and the road show expenses; (ii) the out-of-pocket expenses of the Underwriters, including, but not limited to, travel and communication expenses, database service expenses, courier charges and the Underwriters' reasonable legal fees and expenses, and the reasonable fees and expenses of any other advisors retained by the Underwriters with the prior consent of the Trust, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld (provided that the aggregate of all such expenses forming part of this section 14(ii) which shall be paid by the Trust shall not exceed $250,000); and (iii) all other costs and expenses relating to the transactions contemplated herein.

15. Termination

(a) The obligation of the Underwriters to purchase the Offered Units will be subject to the accuracy as of the Closing Time of the representations and warranties of each of the Trust, any Trust Subsidiary and each Promoter contained herein or in any certificate or document delivered pursuant to or contemplated by the Material Agreements and the due fulfilment and compliance by each of the Trust, the Trust Subsidiaries and the Promoters of and with their respective covenants herein and therein contained.

(b) Each of the Underwriters may, without any liability on the Underwriter's part, terminate its obligations hereunder, by written notice to the Trust and the Promoters, in the event that after the date hereof and at or prior to the Closing Time:

(i) there should develop, occur or come into effect or existence any event, action, state, condition or major financial occurrence of national or international consequence, acts of hostilities, civil insurrection or terrorist action or like event or escalation thereof or other calamity or crisis or any change or development involving a prospective change in national or international political, financial or economic conditions or any governmental action, law, regulation, inquiry or other occurrence of any nature whatsoever which, in the sole opinion of the Underwriter, acting reasonably, seriously adversely affects or involves, or may seriously adversely affect or involve, the financial markets in Canada or the United States or the business, financial condition, operations or affairs (actual or as contemplated in the Prospectus) of the Trust or the Trust Subsidiaries or the Acquired Companies or the ability of Petrowest to manage the affairs of the Trust or provide administrative services to the Trust and the Trust Subsidiaries, or prevents or materially restricts the trading in or the distribution of the Units in any of the Qualifying Jurisdictions;

(ii) any order to cease or suspend trading in any securities of the Trust or prohibiting or restricting the distribution of the Offered Units is made, or any proceedings are announced, commenced or threatened for the making of any such order, by any stock exchange, Securities Commission or similar regulatory or judicial authority, and the same has not been rescinded, revoked or withdrawn;

(iii) the Underwriter determines that any or all of the Trust, Petrowest, or any Promoter is in breach or non-performance of or default under a covenant, representation, warranty, term or condition of the Trust or Petrowest, as the case may be, contained herein in any material respect (or in any respect where such a covenant, representation, warranty, term or condition contains a materiality threshold or qualification);

(iv) any inquiry, action, suit, investigation or other proceeding (whether formal or informal) in relation to the Trust, Petrowest, the Promoters or the Acquired Companies (or any of them) or any of their respective trustees, directors or senior officers, as applicable, is announced, commenced or threatened by any stock exchange, Securities Commission or similar regulatory or judicial authority, or any order or ruling has been issued under or pursuant to any statute of Canada or of any province of Canada or of any other jurisdiction, or any other applicable law or regulatory authority (unless based solely on the activities or alleged activities of the Underwriters), or there is any change in law, regulation or policy or the interpretation or administration thereof, if, in the sole opinion of the Underwriter, acting reasonably, the inquiry, action, suit, investigation or other proceeding, change, announcement, commencement or threatening thereof materially adversely affects the Trust on a consolidated basis or materially prevents or restricts or may materially prevent or restrict the trading, marketability or distribution of the Offered Units or would be expected to have a material adverse effect on the market price or value of the Offered Units;

(v) there should occur any material change (actual, contemplated or threatened), change in any material fact, occurrence or event of the nature referred to in section 8(a) or any development that could result in such a material change (actual, contemplated or threatened), which, in the sole opinion of the Underwriter, could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the market price or value of the Offered Units or the marketability of the Offered Units;

(vi) the Underwriter shall become aware, as a result of its due diligence review or otherwise, of any adverse material change (actual, contemplated or threatened) or adverse material fact with respect to the Trust, the Trust Subsidiaries, the Promoters or the Acquired Companies which has not been publicly disclosed or disclosed in writing to the Underwriters at or prior to the date hereof;

(vii) there is announced any change or proposed change in the income tax laws of Canada or the interpretation or administration thereof and such change would, in the opinion of any Underwriter, acting reasonably, be expected to have a significant adverse effect on the market price or value of the Offered Units; or

(viii) the state of the financial markets is such that, in the Underwriter's reasonable opinion, the Units cannot be profitably marketed.

(c) The Underwriters, or any of them, may exercise any or all of the rights provided for in section 15(a) or section 16 or section 21 notwithstanding any material change, change, event or state of facts and notwithstanding any act or thing taken or done by the Underwriters or any inaction by the Underwriters, whether before or after the occurrence of any material change, change, event or state of facts including, without limitation, any act of the Underwriters related to the offering or continued offering of the Offered Units for sale and any act taken by the Underwriters in connection with any amendment to the Prospectus (including the execution of any amendment) and the Underwriters shall only be considered to have waived or be estopped from exercising or relying upon any of their rights under or pursuant to section 15(a) or section 16 or 21 if such waiver or estoppel is in writing and specifically waives or estops such exercise or reliance.

(d) Any termination pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall be effected by notice in writing delivered to the Trust, provided that no termination shall discharge or otherwise affect any obligation of the Trust under sections 10(b)(lii), 13, 14 or 21. The rights of the Underwriters to terminate their obligations hereunder are in addition to, and without prejudice to, any other remedies they may have.

16. Closing

The following are conditions precedent to the obligations of the Underwriters to complete the transactions contemplated in this Agreement:

(a) there shall be delivered to the Underwriters legal opinions of the Trust's Counsel addressed to the Underwriters and the Underwriters' Counsel, in form and substance satisfactory to the Underwriters, acting reasonably, with respect to such matters as the Underwriters may reasonably request relating to the offering of the Offered Units, including, without limitation:

(i) the formation or incorporation, as the case may be, of each of the Trust and the Trust Subsidiaries under the laws of its governing jurisdiction and the due qualification of each of the Trust and the Trust Subsidiaries to own their assets and to carry on their business as described in the Prospectus;

(ii) the authorized and outstanding capital of the Trust and each of the Trust Subsidiaries;

(iii) each of the Trust and the Trust Subsidiaries has full corporate, trust or partnership authority, as the case may be, to enter into Material Agreements to which it is a party and the Material Agreements to which it is a party have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Trust and the Trust Subsidiaries, as applicable, and constitute (subject to usual qualifications) a legal, valid and binding obligation of each of the Trust and the Trust Subsidiaries, as the case may be, enforceable in accordance with its terms;

(iv) the execution and delivery of the Material Agreements, the performance and compliance with the terms of the Material Agreements to which it is a party, the prior issuance by the Trust of 1,510,000 Subordinated Units and the issue and sale of the Offered Units, as applicable, by the Trust do not and will not result in a breach of, or constitute a default under, and do not and will not create a state of facts which, after notice or lapse of time or both, will result in a breach (whether after notice or lapse of time or both) of or constitute a default under: (A) any applicable laws of the Province of Alberta; (B) any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any of the constating documents of any of the Trust or the Trust Subsidiaries, the Material Agreements or, as applicable, any resolution of the directors, trustees, partners, shareholders or unitholders of the Trust or any Trust Subsidiary; (C) to the knowledge of counsel, any mortgage, note, indenture, contract, agreement (written or oral), instrument, lease or other document to which the Trust or any Trust Subsidiary is a party or by which the Trust or any Trust Subsidiary is bound on the Closing Date; or (D) any statute, rule or regulation or, to the knowledge of counsel, any judgement, decree or order applicable to the Trust or any Trust Subsidiary, which breach or default might reasonably be expected to materially adversely affect the business, operations, capital or condition (financial or otherwise) of the Trust and the Trust Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis;

(v) all necessary action has been taken by the Trust and Petrowest to validly allot and issue the Offered Units and Purchase Price Units and the Firm Units and Purchase Price Units and, if applicable, the Over-Allotment Units have been duly and validly created and issued as fully paid Trust Units;

(vi) the form and terms of the certificates representing the Trust Units have been approved by the Trust and Petrowest and comply with all legal requirements relating thereto (including all applicable requirements of the Exchange);

(vii) no consent, approval, authorization or order of or qualification with any governmental or regulatory body or agency in the Province of Alberta (or pursuant to the federal laws of Canada applicable therein) is required to be obtained by the Trust for the issue, offer and sale of the Offered Units and Purchase Price Units by the Trust in the manner contemplated hereby, except such as have been obtained;

(viii) Petrowest has the necessary corporate power and authority to execute and deliver the Prospectuses on behalf of the Trust and to deliver the U.S. Placement Memorandum and all necessary trust and corporate action has been taken by the Trust and Petrowest respectively, to authorize the execution and delivery by Petrowest on behalf of the Trust of the Prospectuses and to authorize the delivery by Petrowest on behalf of the Trust of the U.S. Placement Memorandum in accordance with Canadian Securities Laws and applicable securities laws in the United States;

(ix) the attributes and characteristics of the securities of the Trust and the Trust Subsidiaries (including, without limitation, the Trust Units, Special Voting Units and Subordinated Units) conform in all material respects with the description thereof in the Prospectuses;

(x) all necessary documents have been filed, all necessary proceedings have been taken and all legal requirements have been fulfilled as required under the Canadian Securities Laws in order to qualify the Offered Units for distribution and sale to the public in each of the Qualifying Jurisdictions by or through investment dealers and brokers duly registered under the applicable laws of such provinces who have complied with the relevant provisions of such Canadian Securities Laws;

(xi) the Offered Units are qualified investments as set out under the heading "Eligibility for Investment" in the Prospectuses;

(xii) the summary under the heading "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations" in the Prospectus is a summary of the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations generally applicable to the acquisition, holding and disposition of Trust Units by a holder thereof who acquires Trust Units pursuant to the Prospectus, subject to the qualifications, assumptions, limitations and understandings set out in such summary;

(xiii) the Trust is a "reporting issuer" in each of the Qualifying Jurisdictions and is not included in the list of defaulting reporting issuers maintained by the Securities Regulatory Authorities in each of the Qualifying Jurisdictions where such concept exists;

(xiv) as far as such counsel is aware, no order, ruling or determination having the effect of ceasing or suspending the trading of the Offered Units, the Over-Allotment Units or any other securities of the Trust or any Trust Subsidiary or the Acquired Companies has been issued or made by any Securities Commission or the Exchange and no proceedings for that purpose have been instituted or are pending or contemplated;

(xv) the Offered Units, Purchase Price Units and Trust Units issuable pursuant to the terms of the Subordinated Units have been conditionally accepted for listing on the Exchange subject to any applicable filing requirements and, upon notification to the Exchange of the issuance thereof, will be posted for trading on the Exchange; and

(xvi) Valiant Trust Company, at its principal office in Calgary and, through its agent, BNY Trust Company of Canada, in Toronto, has been duly appointed the transfer agent and registrar for the Offered Units; and as to all other legal matters, including compliance with Canadian Securities Laws, in any way connected with the issuance, sale and delivery of the Offered Units and Purchase Price Units as the Underwriters may reasonably request; provided that it is understood that the Trust's counsel may rely on the opinions of local counsel acceptable to them as to matters governed by the laws of jurisdictions other than Alberta, Ontario or Canada and on certificates of officers of the Trust, the transfer agent and the auditors of the Trust as to relevant matters of fact;

(b) there shall be delivered to the Underwriters a certificate dated the Closing Date and the Additional Closing Date, addressed to the Underwriters and signed by Petrowest and by Petrowest on behalf of the Trust in each case by any two senior officers of Petrowest satisfactory to the Underwriters, acting reasonably, certifying that:

(i) each of the Trust and Petrowest have complied with and satisfied all terms and conditions of this Agreement on its part to be complied with or satisfied at or prior to the Closing Time or the Additional Closing Time, as the case may be;

(ii) the representations and warranties of each of the Trust and Petrowest set forth in this Agreement are true and correct at the Closing Time, as if made at such time;

(iii) no event of a nature referred to in sections 8(a), 8(b) or 15(b)(ii), (iii), (iv) or (v) has occurred or to the knowledge of such officers is pending, contemplated or threatened, excluding with respect to section 15(b)(iv) and (v) any obligation of the Underwriters to make a determination as to whether or not any event or change has, in the Underwriters' opinion, occurred;

(iv) the Trust has made and/or obtained on or prior to the Closing Time all necessary filings, approvals, consents and acceptances under Canadian Securities Laws, of applicable regulatory authorities and under any applicable agreement or document to which the Trust is a party or by which it is bound, required for the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the other Material Agreements, the offering and sale of the Offered Units and the consummation of the other transactions contemplated hereby (subject to completion of filings with certain regulatory authorities following the Closing Time);

(v) none of the Material Agreements have been amended (and no amendments are contemplated) and no condition therein have been waived or are unsatisfied by any of the parties thereto; and

(vi) since the respective dates as to which information is given in the Prospectus and any Supplementary Material, no transaction material to the Trust, the Trust Subsidiaries, the Acquired Companies or the Promoters has been entered into or is pending by any of such entities which is not disclosed therein, and the Underwriters shall have no knowledge to the contrary;

(c) the Underwriters shall have received at the Closing Time a certificate or certificates dated the Closing Date, addressed to the Underwriters and counsel to the Underwriters from each of the Promoters, certifying, that:

(i) the Promoter has complied with and satisfied in all material respects the covenants, terms and conditions of this Agreement on his part to be complied with and satisfied up to the Closing Time, and

(ii) the representations and warranties of the Promoter contained in this Agreement are true and correct in all material respects at the Closing Time as if made at such time;

(d) there shall be delivered to the Underwriters comfort letters of the auditors referred to in section 6(d) addressed to the Underwriters and dated the Closing Date and the Additional Closing Date, in the format satisfactory to the Underwriters, acting reasonably, bringing the information contained in the comfort letter referred to in section 6(d) hereof up to the Closing Time or the Additional Closing Time, as the case may be, which updated comfort letters shall be based on a review having a cut off date not more than two Business Days prior to the Closing Date or Additional Closing Date, as the case may be;

(e) there shall be delivered to the Underwriters evidence satisfactory to the Underwriters that the Trust has obtained all necessary approvals of the Exchange for the listing of the

Offered Units, Purchase Price Units and Trust Units issuable pursuant to the terms of the Subordinated Units subject only to the filing of documents which may be required by the Exchange;

(f) there shall be delivered to the Underwriters copies of the Material Agreements duly executed and delivered by the parties thereto, all such Material Agreements shall be, on the date thereof, in form and substance satisfactory to the Underwriters, acting reasonably, none of such Material Agreements shall have been amended, supplemented or modified in any way and no condition or provision in any such Material Agreement shall have been waived by any party without the prior express written consent of the Underwriters, acting reasonably, and each of the parties thereto shall have performed such of their obligations thereunder which are to be performed or completed at or prior to the Closing Time to the satisfaction of the Underwriters, acting reasonably;

(g) there shall be delivered to the Underwriters a certificate dated the Closing Date and the Additional Closing Date, addressed to the Underwriters and signed by Petrowest and by Petrowest on behalf of the Trust, in each case by any two senior officers of Petrowest satisfactory to the Underwriters, acting reasonably, in form and content satisfactory to the Underwriters, acting reasonably, with respect to:

(i) the articles, by-laws or other constating documents of the Trust and each of the Trust Subsidiaries;

(ii) resolutions of the board of directors of Petrowest, on its own behalf and on behalf of the Trust, relevant to the approval of the Prospectus and the signing and filing thereof, the issuance and sale of the Offered Units and the authorization of this Agreement and the other agreements (including the Material Agreements) and transactions contemplated herein and in the Prospectus;

(iii) the resolutions of the trustees, partners and boards of directors, as applicable, of each of the Trust Subsidiaries relating to the authorization of the Material Agreements to which each Trust Subsidiary is or will be a party and the completion of the transactions contemplated in the Prospectus; and

(iv) the incumbency and signatures of signing officers of Petrowest and the Trust;

(h) the Underwriters, acting reasonably, shall be satisfied that the transactions described in the Prospectus as being transactions that will occur or be completed on the Closing Date, have been or will concurrently be completed and that the Trust is capable of being deemed to be a "mutual fund trust" within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada) from inception upon the filing of an election under subsection 132(6.1) of the Income Tax Act (Canada);

(i) the Underwriters and their counsel shall be included as addressees and be entitled to rely upon any legal opinions delivered with respect to the Acquisition Agreements;

(j) the Acquisition Condition shall have been satisfied, but for the payment of some or all of the net proceeds from the Offering to the vendors of the Acquired Companies and the issuance of the Purchase Price Units;

(k) the Underwriters shall have obtained satisfactory results of all due diligence investigations relating to any Supplementary Material;

(l) each of the Escrowed Unitholders shall have entered into and continue to be bound by the Escrow Agreement;

(m) a legal opinion of Dorsey & Whitney, LLP, United States counsel to the Trust, addressed to the Underwriters and Underwriters' Counsel, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Underwriters and Underwriters' Counsel, to the effect that the offering and sale of the Offered Units in the manner contemplated by this Agreement and the Prospectus do not require registration of the Offered Units under the U.S. Securities Act; and

(n) there shall be delivered to the Underwriters such other certificates and documents as the Underwriters may request, acting reasonably.

17. Deliveries

(a) The sale of the Firm Units if any, shall be completed at the Closing Time at the offices of the Trust's Counsel in Calgary, Alberta or at such other place as the Trust and the Underwriters may agree. Subject to the conditions set forth in section 16, the Underwriters, at the Closing Time, shall deliver by wire transfer(s) to the Trust, in immediately available Canadian funds, the amount of $10.00 per Firm Unit sold against delivery by the Trust and the Promoters of:

(i) the opinions, certificates and documents referred to in section 16;

(ii) definitive certificates representing, in the aggregate, all of the Firm Units registered in such name or names as the Underwriters shall notify the Trust in writing not less than 24 hours prior to the Closing Time; and

(iii) certified cheques or bank drafts payable to the Lead Underwriters representing the fee provided for in section 2 in respect of the Firm Units; provided however that the payment to the Lead Underwriters pursuant to paragraph (iii) may be made by way of set-off against the payments to be made by the Underwriters to the Trust in this section 17(a).

(b) The sale of the Over-Allotment Units, if any, shall be completed at the offices of the Trust's Counsel in Calgary, Alberta or at such other place as the Trust and the Underwriters may agree, on the date (the "Additional Closing Date") and at the time ("Additional Closing Time") specified by the Underwriters in the written notice given by the Underwriters pursuant to their election to purchase such Over-Allotment Units provided that in no event shall such time be earlier than the Closing Time or earlier than two or later than ten Business Days after the date of the written notice of the Underwriters to the Trust in respect of the Over-Allotment Units, and further provided that the Additional Closing Date shall not be later than 30 days after the Closing Date, or at such other time and date as the Underwriters and the Trust may agree upon in writing. Subject to the conditions set forth in section 16, the Underwriters, at the Additional Closing Time, shall deliver by wire transfer to the Trust, in immediately available Canadian funds, the amount of $10.00 per Over-Allotment Unit agreed to be sold by the Underwriters pursuant to their exercise of the Over-Allotment Option, against delivery by the Trust and the Promoters, of:

(i) to the extent applicable, the opinions, certificates and documents referred to in section 16;

(ii) definitive certificates representing, in the aggregate, all of the Over-Allotment Units agreed to be sold by the Underwriters registered in such name or names as the Underwriters shall notify the Trust in writing not less than 24 hours prior to the Additional Closing Time;

(iii) certified cheques or bank drafts of the Trust payable to the Lead Underwriters representing in aggregate the fee provided for in section 2 in respect of the Over-Allotment Units;

provided however that the payment to the Lead Underwriters pursuant to paragraph (iii) may be made by way of set-off against the payment to be made by the Underwriters to the Trust, in this section 17(b).

18. Restrictions on Offerings

During the period commencing on the date hereof and ending on the day that is 180 days following the Closing Date, the Trust shall not, without the prior written consent of the Lead Underwriters, on behalf of the Underwriters, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, directly or indirectly, issue, offer or sell, contract to sell or otherwise dispose of directly or indirectly, any Units or financial instruments or securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Units or to agree to or publicly disclose any intention to do any of the forgoing.

19. Offering in the United States

To the extent that any Offered Units are sold in the United States pursuant to Regulation D, the Trust shall file or cause to be filed a notice with the SEC on Form D in accordance with Rule 503 under the U.S. Securities Act forthwith upon being notified by the Underwriters that such has occurred.

or to such other address as the party may designate by notice given to the other. Each communication shall be personally delivered to the addressee or sent by fax transmission to the address, and:

(a) a communication which is personally delivered shall, if delivered before 4:00 p.m. (local time) on a Business Day, be deemed to be given and received on that day and, in any other case, be deemed to be given and received on the first Business Day following the day on which it is delivered; and

(b) a communication which is sent by fax transmission shall, if sent on a Business Day before 4:00 p.m. (local time), be deemed to be given and received on that day and, in any other case, be deemed to be given and received on the first Business Day following the day on which it is sent.

21. Conditions

(a) All representations, warranties, terms and conditions of this Agreement to be performed by the Trust, any Trust Subsidiary or any Promoter shall be construed as conditions for the benefit of the Underwriters, and any breach of, default under or failure to comply with any such representation, warranty, term or condition by any of the Trust, any Trust Subsidiary or any Promoter shall entitle any of the Underwriters, without limiting any of the other remedies of the Underwriters, to terminate their obligations to offer the Offered Units by written notice to that effect given to the Trust on or prior to the Closing Date. The Underwriters may waive in whole or in part any breach of, default under or non-compliance with any representation, warranty, term or condition hereof, or extend the time for compliance therewith, without prejudice to any of their rights in respect of any other representation, warranty, term or condition hereof or any other breach of, default under or non-compliance with any other representation, warranty, term or condition hereof, provided that any such waiver or extension shall be binding on the Underwriters only if the same is in writing.

(b) All representations, warranties, terms and conditions of this Agreement to be performed by the Underwriters shall be construed as conditions for the benefit of the Trust and any breach or failure to comply with any material terms and conditions shall entitle the Trust to terminate its obligation to issue and sell the Firm Units and Over-Allotment Units by written notice to that effect given to the Underwriters on or prior to the Closing Date or Additional Closing Date, as applicable. The Trust may waive in whole or in part any breach of, default under or non-compliance with any representation, warranty, term or condition hereof, or extend the time for compliance therewith, without prejudice to any of its rights in respect of any other representation, warranty, term or condition hereof or any other breach of, default under or non-compliance with any other representation, warranty, term or condition hereof, provided that any such waiver or extension shall be binding on the Trust only if the same is in writing.

22. Survival of Representations and Warranties

It is understood that all warranties, representations, covenants and agreements herein contained or contained in certificates or documents submitted pursuant to or in connection with the transaction provided for herein shall survive the issuance and sale of the Offered Units and the termination of this Agreement and shall continue in full force and effect for the benefit of the Trust and the Underwriters regardless of any investigation by or on behalf of the Underwriters with respect thereto and regardless of whether transactions contemplated herein have been completed.

23. Market Stabilization

In connection with the distribution of the Offered Units, the Underwriters and members of their selling group, if any, may over-allot or affect transactions which stabilize or maintain the market price of the Offered Units at levels above those which might otherwise prevail in the open market in compliance with Canadian Securities Laws. Such stabilizing transactions, if any, may be discontinued at any time.

24. Several Liability of Underwriters

The Underwriters' rights and obligations under this agreement are several and not joint and several including, without limitation, that:

(a) each of the Underwriters shall be obligated to purchase only the percentage of the total number of Firm Units set forth opposite their names set forth in this section 24; and

(b) if one or more of the Underwriters shall not purchase its applicable percentage of the Firm Units at the Closing Time, then the other Underwriters shall have the right, but shall not be obligated, to purchase all of the percentage of the Offered Units, which would otherwise have been purchased by such Underwriter or Underwriters at such time. In the event such right is not exercised, the Underwriters which are not in default shall be entitled by written notice to the Trust to terminate this agreement without liability.

The applicable percentage of the total number of Firm Units which each of the Underwriters shall be separately obligated to purchase is as follows:

Westwind Partners Inc.	35.0%

Sprott Securities Inc.	35.0%
Lightyear Capital Inc.	15.0%
Blackmont Capital Inc.	7.5%
Dundee Securities Corporation	7.5%

Nothing in this agreement shall obligate the Trust to sell the Underwriters less than all of the Firm Units or shall relieve any Underwriter in default from liability to the Trust or any non-defaulting Underwriter in respect of the defaulting Underwriter's default hereunder. In the event of a termination by the Trust of its obligations under this agreement, there shall be no further liability on the part of the Trust to the Underwriters except in respect of any liability which may have arisen or may thereafter arise under section 11, section 12 and section 13.

25. Authority to Bind Underwriters

The Trust shall be entitled to and shall act on any notice or other communication given by or on behalf of the Underwriters by the Lead Underwriters, which shall represent the Underwriters and which has the authority to bind the Underwriters except in respect of a notice of termination given pursuant to section 15, which notice may be given by any Underwriter, an agreement of settlement given under section 10(b)(iii), which may be given only by the Underwriter affected thereby. The Lead Underwriters shall consult with the other Underwriters with respect to any such notice or other communication. Acceptance of this offer by the Trust shall constitute its authority for accepting notification of any such matters from the Lead Underwriters.

26. Severance

If one or more of the provisions contained herein shall, for any reason, be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement, but this Agreement shall be construed as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision or provisions had never been contained herein.

27. Relationships of the Underwriters

Each of the Trust and Petrowest: (i) acknowledge and agree that the Underwriters have certain statutory obligations as registrants under the Canadian Securities Laws and applicable U.S. Securities Laws and have fiduciary relationships with their clients; and (ii) consent to the Underwriters acting hereunder while continuing to act for their clients. To the extent that the Underwriters' statutory obligations (or those of their U.S. Placement Agents) as registrants under Canadian Securities Laws or as registered broker-dealers under applicable U.S. Securities Laws or fiduciary relationships with their clients conflict with their obligations hereunder, the Underwriters and their U.S. Placement Agents shall be entitled to fulfil their statutory obligations as registrants under Canadian Securities Laws and applicable U.S. Securities Laws and their duties to their clients. Nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted to prevent the Underwriters or their U.S. Placement Agents from fulfilling their statutory obligations as registrants under Canadian Securities Laws or as registered broker-dealers under applicable U.S. Securities Laws or to act as a fiduciary of their clients.

28. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein. Each of the Parties hereto hereby attorn to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Alberta.

29. Time of the Essence

Time shall be of the essence of this Agreement.

30. Further Assurances

Each party to this Agreement covenants and agrees that, from time to time, it will, at the request of the requesting party, execute and deliver all such documents and do all such other acts and things as any party hereto, acting reasonably, may from time to time request be executed or done in order to better evidence or perfect or effectuate any provision of this Agreement or of any agreement or other document executed pursuant to this Agreement or any of the respective obligations intended to be created hereby or thereby.

31. Distributions

The Trust agrees that it will not prior to the Closing Date declare or pay out any distributions to unitholders of the Trust or set any record date in respect thereof.

32. Limitation of Liability

The parties hereto acknowledge that Petrowest is entering into this agreement solely in its capacity as administrator on behalf of the Trust and the obligations of the Trust hereunder shall not be personally binding upon the Trustee, Petrowest or any registered or beneficial holder of trust units of the Trust or any beneficiary under a plan of which a holder of trust units acts as a trustee or carrier, and that resort shall not be had to, nor shall recourse be sought from, any of the foregoing or the private property of any of the foregoing in respect of any indebtedness, obligation or liability of the Trust arising hereunder or arising in connection herewith or from the matters to which this agreement relates, if any, including without limitation claims based on negligence or otherwise tortuous behaviour, and recourse shall be limited to, and satisfied only out of, the "Trust Assets" as defined in the Deed of Trust of the Trust dated as of July 6, 2006, as amended from time to time.

33. Entire Agreement

It is understood that the terms and conditions of this Agreement supersede any previous verbal or written agreement between or among any or all of the Underwriters, Petrowest, the Promoters and the Trust.

34. Counterpart Execution

This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts and by facsimile each of which so executed shall constitute an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same agreement.

If the foregoing is in accordance with your understanding and is agreed to by you, please confirm your acceptance by signing the enclosed copies of this letter at the place indicated and by returning the same to the Lead Underwriters.

SCHEDULE "A"

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR UNITED STATES OFFERS AND SALES

1. As used in this Schedule "A", capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the underwriting agreement to which this Schedule "A" is annexed and the following terms shall have the meanings indicated:

"Directed Selling Efforts" means directed selling efforts as that term is defined in Regulation S; without limiting the foregoing, but for greater clarity in this Schedule, it means, subject to the exclusions from the definition of directed selling efforts contained in Regulation S, any activity undertaken for the purpose of, or that could reasonably be expected to have the effect of, conditioning the market in the United States for any of the Units and includes the placement of any advertisement in a publication with a general circulation in the United States that refers to the offering of the Trust Units;

"Foreign Issuer" shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in Regulation S; without limiting the foregoing, but for greater clarity in this Schedule "A", it means any issuer which is i) a foreign government; ii) a national of any foreign country; or iii) a corporation or other organization incorporated or organized under the laws of any foreign country;

"Foreign Private Issuer" means any Foreign Issuer other than a foreign government except an issuer meeting the following conditions: i) more than 50 percent of the issuer's outstanding voting securities are directly or indirectly held of record by residents of the United States; and ii) any of the following: 1. the majority of the executive officers or directors of the issuer are United States citizens or residents, or 2. more than 50 percent of the assets of the issuer are located in the United States, or 3. the business of the issuer is administered principally in the United States;

"General Solicitation or General Advertising" means "general solicitation" or "general advertising" as used in Rule 502(c) under the U.S. Securities Act, including advertisements, articles, notices or other communications published in any newspaper, magazine or similar media or broadcast over radio or television, or any seminar or meeting whose attendees had been invited by "general solicitation" or "general advertising";

"Institutional Accredited Investor" means those institutional "accredited investors" that satisfies the requirements of Rule 501(a)(1), (2), (3) or (7) of Regulation D;

"Qualified Institutional Buyer" means a "qualified institutional buyer" as that term is defined in Rule 144A;

"Regulation D" means Regulation D adopted by the SEC under the U.S. Securities Act;

"Regulation S" means Regulation S adopted by the SEC under the U.S. Securities Act;

"Rule 144A" means Rule 144A adopted by the SEC under the U.S. Securities Act;

"SEC" means the United States Securities and Exchange Commission;

"Selling Firm" means the dealers and brokers other than the Underwriters who participate in the offer and sale of the Trust Units pursuant to the Agreement to which this Schedule "A" is attached;

"Substantial U.S. Market Interest" means "substantial U.S. market interest" as that term is defined in Regulation S;

"U.S. Exchange Act" means the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended;

"U.S. Placement Agent" means, in the case of each Underwriter, their respectively duly registered broker-dealer affiliates in the United States; and

"U.S. Securities Act" means the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended; and

"United States" means the United States of America, its territories and possessions, any state of the United States, and the District of Columbia.

All other capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in this Schedule "A" shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement to which this Schedule "A" is attached.

Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Underwriters

2. The Underwriters severally but not jointly:

(a) acknowledge that the Trust Units have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act and are being offered and sold pursuant to a prospectus under Canadian Securities Laws and

(i) outside the United States pursuant to the exclusion from registration afforded by Regulation S; and

(ii) in the United States pursuant to the exemptions from registration afforded by Rule 144A and Rule 506 of Regulation D.

(b) represent, warrant and agree that neither they, nor any member of the Selling Dealer Group, nor any of their respective Affiliates nor any person acting on behalf of any of the foregoing:

(i) have engaged or will engage in any Directed Selling Efforts with respect to the Offered Units;

(ii) except to the extent permitted by section 3 of this Schedule "A", have made or will make (A) any offer to sell or solicitation of an offer to buy any of the Offered Units to any person in the United States, or (B) any sale of the Offered Units to any person unless (1) the Underwriter and its U.S. Placement Agent and any person acting on its or their behalf reasonably believe that, at the time such person placed the order to purchase Offered Units, such person was outside the United States, and (2) such sale is made in an "off-shore transaction" as defined in Regulation S, and otherwise in compliance with the applicable requirements of Regulation S;

(iii) have taken or will take, directly or indirectly, any action which would constitute a violation of Regulation M under the U.S. Exchange Act; or

(iv) have solicited or will solicit offers to buy, or made offers to sell the Offered Units by means of any form of General Solicitation or General Advertising or in any manner involving a public offering within the meaning of section 4(2) of the U.S. Securities Act.

3. It is understood and severally agreed by the Underwriters that:

(a) the Offered Units may be offered in the United States only through their respective U.S. Placement Agents, each of which was and will be on the dates of such offers duly registered as a broker-dealer pursuant to section 15(b) of the U.S. Exchange Act and under the securities laws of each state in which such offers and sales were made (unless exempted from their respective state's broke-dealer registration requirements) and is a member in good standing with the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.;

(b) the Offered Units may be sold in the United States only either (i) by the Underwriters or their respective U.S. Placement Agents as principals, pursuant to the provisions of Rule 144A to persons who are or are reasonably believed by them to be Qualified Institutional Buyers in transactions meeting the requirements of Rule 144A or (ii) by the Trust, pursuant to the provisions of Rule 506 of Regulation D to persons who are or are reasonably believed by the Trust and any person acting on its behalf, including the Underwriters and their U.S. Placement Agents, to be Institutional Accredited Investors;

(c) all offers and sales of the Offered Units in the United States shall be in compliance with any applicable state securities laws of the United States and all United States state and federal laws governing the registration and conduct of securities brokers and dealers;

(d) prior to any sale of Offered Units in the United States, each purchaser thereof shall have been provided with a copy of the U.S. Private Placement Memorandum (and all amendments and supplements thereto and final forms thereof) and each purchaser purchasing pursuant to Rule 506 of Regulation D shall have executed and delivered a Subscription Agreement in the form of Exhibit 1 to the U.S. Placement Memorandum;

(e) prior to Closing, the Underwriters will provide the Trust with a list of all purchasers of the Offered Units that are in the United States, and in each case indicate whether such purchaser is an Institutional Accredited Investor purchasing pursuant to Rule 506 of Regulation D or is a Qualified Institutional Buyer purchasing pursuant to Rule 144A and the state or other jurisdiction in which the Offered Units were offered or sold to such purchaser and it will provide the Trust with copies of all Subscription Agreements; and

(f) at Closing, each Underwriter, together with its U.S. Placement Agents, will provide a certificate, substantially in the form of Exhibit A to this Schedule "A" relating to the manner of the offer and sale of the Offered Units in the United States or will be deemed to have represented that neither it nor its U.S. Placement Agents has offered or sold Offered Units in the United States.

4. The Underwriters agree that they have caused or will promptly cause each member of the Selling Dealer Group to acknowledge in writing its awareness of and agreements to be bound by the provisions of this Schedule "A" in connection with all offers and sales of the Offered Units.

5. The Underwriters have not entered, and will not enter, into any contractual arrangement without the prior written consent of Trust with respect to the Distribution of Trust Units, except:

   (a) with their Affiliates, or

   (b) with members of the Selling Dealer Group in accordance with section 4 of this Schedule "A".

Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Trust and Petrowest

The Trust and Petrowest jointly and severally represent, warrant, covenant and agree that:

1. the Trust is a Foreign Private Issuer and reasonably believes that there is no Substantial U.S. Market Interest in the Trust Units;

2. the Trust is not now and as a result of the sale of the Trust Units contemplated hereby will not be required to be registered as an "investment company" under the United States Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended;

3. except with respect to offers and sales to Institutional Accredited Investors in reliance upon an exemption from registration available under Section 4(2) of the U.S. Securities Act or Qualified Institutional Buyers in reliance upon the exemption from registration provided by Rule 144A, neither the Trust, any Trust Subsidiary nor any of their respective affiliates, nor any person acting on its or their behalf (other than the Underwriters, the U.S. Placement Agents, their respective affiliates or any person acting on their behalf, in respect of which no representation is made), has made or will make: (a) any offer to sell, or any solicitation of an offer to buy, any Trust Units to a person in the United States; or (b) any sale of Trust Units unless, at the time the buy order was or will have been originated, (i) the purchaser is outside the United States or (ii) the Trust, its affiliates, and any person acting on their behalf reasonably believe that the purchaser is outside the United States;

4. during the period in which the Trust Units are offered for sale, neither it nor any of its affiliates, nor any person acting on its or their behalf (other than the Underwriters, the U.S. Placement Agents, their respective affiliates or any person acting on their behalf, in respect of which no representation is made) has engaged in or will engage in any Directed Selling Efforts in the United States or has taken or will take any action that would cause the exemption afforded by Section 4(2) of the U.S. Securities Act to be unavailable for offers and sales of the Trust Units in the United States in accordance with this Schedule "A", or the exclusion from registration afforded by Rule 903 of Regulation S to be unavailable for offers and sale of the Trust Units outside the United States;

5. none of the Trust, any Trust Subsidiary, any of their affiliates or any person acting on its or their behalf (other than the Underwriters, the U.S. Placement Agents, their respective affiliates or any person acting on their behalf, in respect of which no representation is made) has offered or will offer to sell, or has solicited or will solicit offers to buy, any Trust Units in the United States by means of any form of General Solicitation or General Advertising or in any manner involving a public offering within the meaning of Section 4(2) of the U.S. Securities Act;

6. the Trust Units are not, and as of the Closing Time will not be, and no securities of the same class as the Trust Units are or will be, (a) listed on a national securities exchange in the United States registered under Section 6 of the U.S. Exchange Act, quoted in an "automated inter-dealer quotation system", as such term is used in the U.S. Exchange Act, or convertible or exchangeable at an effective conversion premium (calculated as specified in paragraph (a)(6) of Rule 144A) of less than ten percent for securities so listed or quoted;

7. they will notify its transfer agent as soon as practicable upon it becoming a "domestic issuer" (as that term is defined in Regulation S);

8. for so long as any of the Trust Units are outstanding and are "restricted securities" within the meaning of Rule 144(a)(3) under the U.S. Securities Act, and if the Trust is not subject to and in compliance with the reporting requirements of Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the U.S. Exchange Act or exempt from such reporting requirements pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) thereunder, the Trust will provide to any holder of such Trust Units, or to any prospective purchaser of such Trust Units designated by such holder, upon the request of such holder or prospective purchaser, at or prior to the time of resale, the information required to be provided by Rule 144A(d)(4);

9. except with respect to the offer and sale of the Trust Units offered hereby, the Trust has not, for a period of six months prior to the date hereof sold, offered for sale or solicited any offer to buy any of its securities in the United States in a manner that would be integrated with the offer and sale of the Trust Units and would cause the applicable exemptions from registration to become unavailable with respect to the offer and sale of the Trust Units;

10. the Trust will not offer or sell the Trust Units except through the Underwriters in connection with this Agreement, nor will it pay or agree to pay any person any compensation for soliciting another to purchase the Offered Units (except as contemplated by this Agreement);

11. neither the Trust, its Affiliates nor any person acting on its behalf (other than the Underwriters or a member of the Selling Dealer Group, and their respective Affiliates, in respect of which no representation is made) will take, directly or indirectly, any action which would constitute a violation of Regulation M under the U.S. Exchange Act in connection with the offer and sale of the Trust Units;

12. neither the Trust nor any of its predecessors or its Affiliates has been subject to any order, judgment or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction temporarily, preliminarily or permanently enjoining such person for failure to comply with Rule 503 of Regulation D concerning the filing of notice of sales on Form D; and

13. the Trust will at the Closing Date be a Foreign Issuer.

EXHIBIT A
UNDERWRITERS' CERTIFICATE

In connection with the private placement in the United States of trust units (the "Securities") of Petrowest Energy Services Trust (the "Trust") to one or more U.S. institutional investors, the undersigned [name of Underwriter], and [name of U.S. broker-dealer affiliate of Underwriter], who has signed below in its capacity as placement agent in the United States (the "U.S. Placement Agent"), do hereby certify that:

(a) the U.S. Placement Agent is a duly registered broker-dealer with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission and is a member of and in good standing with the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. on the date hereof and under the securities laws of each state in which such offers and sales were made (unless exempted from the respective state's broker-dealer registration requirements), and all offers and sales of the Securities in the United States have been and will be effected by the U.S. Placement Agent in accordance with all U.S. broker-dealer requirements;

(b) each offeree that or was in the United States at the time of such offer (as such term is defined in Regulation S under the United States U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "U.S. Securities Act")) was provided with a copy of the U.S. Placement Memorandum, including the Prospectus dated August 28, 2006, and no other written material has been used by us in connection with the offering of the Securities;

(c) (i) immediately prior to our transmitting such U.S. Placement Memorandum to such offerees, we had reasonable grounds to believe and did believe that (A) if the offer was made by us as principal, pursuant to Rule 144A, such offeree was a Qualified Institutional Buyer, and (B) if the offer was made by us as agents on behalf of the Trust, pursuant to Rule 506 of Regulation D, such offeree was an Institutional Accredited Investor, and (ii) we have reasonable grounds to believe and do believe that (X) each person in the United States purchasing Offered Units from us is a Qualified Institutional Buyer, and (Y) each person in the United States that we have arranged to purchase Offered Units from the Trust is an Institutional Accredited Investor;

(d) we have obtained a subscription agreement as appended as Exhibit 1 to the U.S. Placement Memorandum from each person in the United States that we have arranged to purchase Offered Units from the Trust as an Institutional Accredited Investor;

(e) neither we nor our representatives have utilized, and neither we nor our representatives will utilize, any form of general solicitation or general advertising (as those terms are used in Regulation D under the U.S. Securities Act); and

(f) the offering of the Securities in the United States has been conducted by us in accordance with the terms of the Underwriting Agreement.

Terms used in this certificate have the meanings given to them in the Underwriting Agreement unless otherwise defined herein.

Dated this _____ day of ●, 2006.

1.2 Certain Rules of Interpretation

In this Agreement and the Schedules:

(a) Time - time is of the essence in the performance of the Parties' respective obligations;

(b) Currency - unless otherwise specified, all references to money amounts are to Canadian currency;

(c) Headings - the descriptive headings of Articles and Sections are inserted solely for convenience of reference and are not intended as complete or accurate descriptions of the content of such Articles or Sections;

(d) Singular, etc. - the use of words in the singular or plural, or with a particular gender, shall not limit the scope or exclude the application of any provision of this Agreement to such person or persons or circumstances as the context otherwise permits;

(e) Consent - whenever a provision of this Agreement requires an approval or consent by a Party to this Agreement and notification of such approval or consent is not delivered within the applicable time limited, then, unless otherwise specified, the Party whose consent or approval is required shall be conclusively deemed to have withheld its approval or consent;

(f) Calculation of Time - unless otherwise specified, time periods within or following which any payment is to be made or act is to be done shall be calculated by excluding the day on which the period commences and including the day on which the period ends and by extending the period to the next business day following if the last day of the period is not a business day; and

(g) Business Day - whenever any payment is to be made or action to be taken under this Agreement is required to be made or taken on a day other than a business day, such payment shall be made or action taken on the next business day following such day.

1.3 Knowledge

Any reference to the knowledge of the Parties shall mean to the best of the knowledge, information and belief of such Party after making all reasonable enquiries.

1.4 Statute References

A reference in this Agreement to a statute shall be a reference to the statute and the regulations made pursuant thereto, as amended or superseded from time to time, either before or after the date hereof, unless otherwise stated or the context otherwise requires.

1.5 Accounting Principles

All reference to "GAAP" means to principles recommended, from time to time, in the Handbook of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants and all accounting terms not otherwise defined in this Agreement have the meanings assigned to them in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1.7 Conflicts

Where any provision of any Schedule to this Agreement conflicts or is at variance with any provision in the body of this Agreement, the latter shall prevail.

ARTICLE 2
PURCHASE AND SALE

2.1 Purchase and Sale

The Shareholders hereby jointly and severally agree to sell the Shares and the Shareholder Loans to Petrowest at the Effective Time in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Petrowest hereby agrees to purchase the Shares and the Shareholder Loans from the Shareholders at the Effective Time in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

2.2 Base Purchase Price

As consideration for the sale of the Shares and the Shareholder Loans by the Shareholders pursuant hereto, at the Effective Time, Petrowest agrees to deliver and pay to the Shareholders the aggregate amount of $27,836,760 (calculated as $30,436,760 plus the Estimated Working Capital, plus the Estimated Shareholder Loans and minus the Estimated Long Term Debt) (the "Base Purchase Price"), comprised of:

(a) $13,918,380; and

(b) 1,391,838 Units (at an ascribed value of $10.00 each).

The Shareholders shall provide notice to Petrowest of their allocation of the Base Purchase Price between the Shares and the Shareholder Loans on or prior to Closing, which, with the consent of Petrowest, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, shall be the agreed upon allocation. The Base Purchase Price shall first be allocated to the Shareholder Loans, in the amount thereof, and thereafter to the Shares.

2.3 Transfer and Delivery of the Shares

At the Closing Time with effect as of the Effective Time, the Shareholders shall transfer and deliver to Petrowest share certificates representing the Shares duly endorsed in blank for transfer, or accompanied by irrevocable security transfer powers of attorney duly executed in blank, in either case by the holders of record, and shall take such steps as shall be necessary to cause the Corporation to enter Petrowest or its nominee(s) upon the books of the Corporation as the holder of the respective Shares and to issue share certificates to Petrowest or its nominee(s) representing the Shares. At the Closing Time, effective as of the Effective Time, the Shareholders shall also make the deliveries specified in Section 6.2.

2.4 Tender

Any payment of money may be made by official bank draft drawn upon a Canadian chartered bank or by negotiable cheque payable in Canadian funds and certified by a Canadian chartered bank or trust company or, with the consent of the party entitled to payment, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account specified by that party. Any payment of Units may be made by delivery of certificates representing such Units, registered in the name of the payor or such other name as the payor, not less than two business days prior to the payment due date, gives by written notice to Petrowest.

2.5 Post-Closing Adjustments

(a) Within 90 days following the Closing Date, Petrowest shall cause the Auditors to provide an audit of the Working Capital, Shareholder Loans and Long Term Debt as at the Closing Date and based thereon, Petrowest shall make a good faith calculation of the Adjustment Amount using the amount of Working Capital, Shareholder Loans and Long Term Debt established by the Auditors. Petrowest shall prepare and deliver to the Shareholders a statement setting forth, in reasonable detail, such calculation of the Adjustment Amount and any other amount for which adjustment is provided herein and shall assist the Shareholders in verifying the amounts set forth in such statement (including, without limitation, providing access to the Auditors and any working papers in respect of the calculation of any component of the Adjustment Amount).

(b) The Shareholders may dispute all or any portion of the calculation of the Adjustment Amount by written notice to Petrowest within 30 days of the date of receipt of the statement referred to in Section 2.5(a) setting forth, in reasonable detail, the basis for the dispute. If Petrowest and the Shareholders do not agree on the calculation of the Adjustment Amount within 30 days of any notice of dispute by the Shareholders, the dispute shall be referred to arbitration pursuant to Article 9. If the Adjustment Amount as agreed to by the Petrowest and the Shareholders, or determined by arbitration, as the case may be:

(i) is a positive amount, Petrowest shall pay the overage in cash, together with simple interest thereon at the Prime Rate from the Closing Date until paid, to the Shareholders or as they may direct within 15 days of receipt of confirmation of the amount of Working Capital, Shareholder Loans, Long Term Debt and any other amounts that affect the Adjustment Amount established by the Auditors; or

(ii) is a negative amount, the Shareholders shall pay the shortfall in cash, together with simple interest thereon at the Prime Rate from the Closing Date until paid, to Petrowest within 15 days of receipt of confirmation of the amount of Working Capital, Shareholder Loans, Long Term Debt and any other amounts that affect the Adjustment Amount established by the Auditors,

ARTICLE 3
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

3.1 Representation and Warranties of Shareholders

Each of the Shareholders represents and warrants to Petrowest that:

(a) if it is a corporation, it is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation and has the corporate power to own or lease its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted by it;

(b) it has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder;

(c) if it is a corporation, the execution and delivery of this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto, the performance of the terms hereof and thereof and the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein and therein do not and will not result in the breach of or violate any term or provision of the charter, by-laws or governing documents of the Shareholder;

(d) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered on behalf of the Shareholder and constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Shareholder, enforceable against the Shareholder in accordance with its terms, subject to the general qualifications that:

(i) enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization or other similar laws of general application affecting creditors' rights generally;

(ii) equitable remedies, including the remedies of specific performance and injunctive relief, are available only in the discretion of the applicable court;

(iii) the equitable or statutory powers of the courts in Canada having jurisdiction to stay proceedings before them and the execution of judgments; and

(iv) rights to indemnity hereunder may be limited under applicable law;

(i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) being, collectively, "Creditors' Rights"; and, at the Closing, all documents required hereunder to be executed and delivered by the Shareholder will have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Shareholder and will constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Shareholder, enforceable in accordance with their terms, subject to Creditors' Rights;

(e) the Shareholder is not required to give any notice to, make any filing with, or obtain any authorization, consent or approval of any Governmental Authority in order to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and except for notices, filings, authorizations, consents or approvals which (i) if not made or obtained, would not adversely affect the Shareholder's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement on the terms set forth herein, or (ii) which have been previously obtained and are currently in force;

(f) the Shareholder has not incurred any obligation or liability, contingent or otherwise, for brokerage fees, finder's fees, agent's commission or other similar forms of compensation with respect to the transaction contemplated herein which will be or may become the responsibility of the Corporation, Petrowest or the Trust;

(g) all of the Shares set forth opposite the name of the Shareholder in Schedule 3.1 will be owned by the Shareholder as the beneficial owner of record, with good and marketable title, and there are no actions, suits, proceedings or claims pending or, to the best of the knowledge of the Shareholder, threatened with respect to or in any manner challenging the ownership or disposition of such securities or the exercise of any rights which are derived or attached thereto;

(h) except pursuant to this Agreement, as at the Closing Time, no person will have any agreement or option or any right or privilege (whether by law, pre-emptive right, contract or otherwise) capable of becoming an agreement, option, right or privilege for the purchase or other acquisition from the Shareholder of any of the Shares set forth opposite the name of the Shareholder in Schedule 3.1 or any interest therein;

(i) such of the Shareholder Loans as are indicated as being payable to the Shareholder are validly due and payable to the Shareholder without any right of set off or counterclaim;

(j) the Shareholder has not received notice of any Claim and is not aware of any Claim, actual or threatened, which prevents or could reasonably be expected to prevent the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and

(k) the Shareholder is not a non-resident of Canada for the purposes of the Canadian Tax Act.

3.2 Representations and Warranties of Shareholders

Each of the Shareholders jointly and severally represents and warrants to Petrowest that:

Corporation's Status

(a) the Corporation is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation, and has the corporate power to own or lease its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted by it;

(b) the Corporation has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder;

(c) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered on behalf of the Corporation and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Corporation, enforceable against the Corporation in accordance with its terms, subject to Creditors' Rights and, at the Closing, all documents required hereunder to be executed and delivered by the Corporation will have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Corporation and will constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Corporation, enforceable in accordance with their terms, subject to Creditors' Rights,

(d) the execution and delivery of this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto, the performance of the terms hereof and thereof and the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein and therein do not and will not:

(i) result in the breach of or violate any term or provision of the charter, by-laws or governing documents of the Corporation; or

(ii) except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(d) hereto, conflict with, result in a breach of, constitute a default under, or accelerate or permit the acceleration of the performance required by, any material agreement, instrument, licence, permit or authority to which the Corporation is a party or by which it is bound or to which any of its property is subject or result in the creation of any Encumbrance upon any of the Corporation Assets or the Shares or give to others any material interest or right, including any right of purchase, termination, cancellation or acceleration under any such agreement, instrument, license, permit or authority; or

(iii) violate any provision of law or administrative regulation or any judicial or administrative order, award, judgment or decree applicable to the Corporation or the Corporation Assets;

(e) to the best of their knowledge, the Corporation is, in all material respects, in compliance with all Laws;

(f) the Corporation holds all valid licenses, permits and similar rights and privileges, and has made all filings, applications and reports, that are required or necessary under any Laws to operate its business as currently conducted, the failure to hold which, individually or in the aggregate, would have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations or business of the Corporation and the present uses by the Corporation of its assets do not materially violate the terms of any such licenses, permits, rights or privileges or any such Laws;

(g) the Corporation has not incurred any obligation or liability, contingent or otherwise, for brokerage fees, finder's fees, agent's commission or other similar forms of compensation with respect to the transaction contemplated herein;

(h) all contracts of insurance maintained by the Corporation are listed in Schedule 3.2(h) and are in full force and effect and all premiums due and owing in connection with such policies have been paid; there exists no state or event of default under any insurance policy and there has been no notice or advice of withdrawal of any policy or any notice of conditions for continuation of any coverage that has not been complied with; and the Corporation has given notice or has otherwise presented every material claim known by the Corporation or the Shareholders to be covered by insurance under its insurance policies or contracts in a timely fashion;

(i) the Corporation does not have any Subsidiaries other than Wales, which is a wholly-owned Subsidiary of 310423; and the Corporation does not have any agreements of any nature to acquire any Subsidiary, or to acquire or lease any other business operations other than as disclosed in Schedule 1.1(e);

(j) as at the Closing Time, the Corporation will not be a party to any agreements of any nature to acquire any securities of any person or to acquire, capitalize or invest in any business;

(k) at the Closing Time, the minute books, stock certificate books and stock transfer ledgers of the Corporation will be true and correct and the minute books will contain the minutes of all meetings, and all resolutions, of the directors and shareholders of the Corporation;

Capitalization

(l) the authorized capital of the Corporation and the issued and outstanding Shares of the Corporation are as set forth in Schedule 3.2(l) and all of the Shares set forth as issued are duly and validly issued and are fully paid and non-assessable and are registered as set forth in such Schedule;

(m) no person other than the Shareholders has any agreement or option or any right or privilege (whether by law, pre-emptive right, contract or otherwise) capable of becoming an agreement, option, right or privilege, including, without limitation, any convertible security, warrant or convertible obligation of any nature, for the purchase, subscription, allotment or issuance of any of the unissued shares of the Corporation;

(n) there are no restrictions in either the constating documents or the by-laws of the Corporation, nor in any unanimous shareholders' agreement or voting trust agreement or other similar collateral agreement, which would affect the transferability of Shares from the Shareholders to Petrowest and which will not have been waived prior to Closing;

Financial Status

(o) all of the Books and Records whether of a financial or accounting nature or otherwise have been made available to Petrowest and, have been maintained in accordance with prudent business practices;

(p) the Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP applicable in Canada applied on a basis consistent with that of prior periods (except as stated therein) and present fairly the financial position of the Corporation as of the date provided therein and the results of operations and the changes in financial position for the periods then ended. As at the date of the Financial Statements, the Corporation did not have any debt or liabilities of any kind whatsoever (whether accrued, contingent, absolute or otherwise) required to be included in such Financial Statements, including, without limitation, any Liabilities and any liabilities for Taxes or pursuant to any capital lease, except for debt or liabilities as set forth in such financial statements;

(q) except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(q) or as contemplated by this Agreement or Approved Capital Commitments, since the date of the last audited financial year of the Corporation or consented to in writing by Petrowest, the Corporation has:

(i) not incurred, assumed or become subject to any Liability, except in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(ii) not granted, suffered or assumed any Encumbrance on or in respect of any of the Corporation Assets, other than Permitted Encumbrances;

(iii) not amended its charter, by-laws or other governing documents;

(iv) not conducted its business other than in all material respects in the Ordinary Course of Business and, without limitation, has not entered into, assumed or become subject to any contract out of the Ordinary Course of Business or any Material Contract;

(v) not amended or terminated any Material Contract;

(vi) not directly or indirectly, declared or paid any dividends, or declared or made any other distribution of its securities, or directly or indirectly, redeemed, purchased or otherwise acquired any of its shares, or agreed to do so, or reduced its stated capital in any manner or purchased, acquired, cancelled or redeemed, or agreed to purchase, acquire, cancel or redeem, any outstanding shares;

(vii) has not forgiven any debt or otherwise triggered or permitted to be triggered any of the provisions of the Canadian Tax Act respecting debt forgiveness including, for greater certainty, Section 79 or Sections 80 to 80.04 of such act, and has not cancelled or released any debts or claims or waived any right pertaining to the Corporation Assets;

(viii) not entered into or amended any employment or consulting agreements, other than in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(ix) not increased the salaries, benefits or other compensation payable to any of its directors, officers or employees, other than in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(x) not made any payment whatsoever to, or entered into any agreement with, any person not dealing at arm's length with the Corporation;

(xi) not entered into or amended any Employee Plan;

(xii) used its reasonable commercial efforts to maintain its business organization and preserve its relationships with suppliers, customers and others having business relations with it;

(xiii) not suffered any material adverse change, financial or otherwise, in business, financial condition, assets, properties, liabilities or operations of the Corporation or any occurrences or circumstances which have resulted or might reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse change thereto;

(xiv) not sold any material amounts of inventory or (other than, after the date hereof and prior to the Closing Date, Approved Capital Dispositions) other assets, nor increased its indebtedness other than in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(xv) maintained the Corporation Assets in a proper and prudent manner in accordance with good Canadian oilfield practices; and

(xvi) not made any change in its accounting principles and practices as theretofore applied including, without limitation, the basis upon which its assets and liabilities are recorded on its books and its earnings, profits and losses are ascertained;

(r) there is no suit, action, litigation, investigation, claim, complaint, grievance or proceeding, including appeals and applications for review, in progress, or, to the knowledge of the Shareholders, pending or threatened against or relating to the

Corporation before any Governmental Authority which, if determined adversely to the Corporation, would,

(i) materially and adversely affect the properties, business, future prospects or financial condition of the Corporation,

(ii) enjoin, restrict or prohibit the transfer of all or any part of the Shares as contemplated by this Agreement, or

(iii) prevent the Shareholders or the Corporation from fulfilling all of their obligations set out in this Agreement or arising from this Agreement, and the Shareholders and the Corporation have no knowledge of any existing ground on which any such action, suit, litigation or proceeding might be commenced with any reasonable likelihood of success;

(s) except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(s), (i) there are no judgments unsatisfied against the Corporation or any judgment, injunction, order, decree, ruling or charge of any Governmental Authority to which the Corporation or any of the Corporation Assets is subject, (ii) there are no Claims in existence to which the Corporation is a party or any of the Corporation Assets may be bound or (to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation) threatened against the Corporation or any of the Corporation Assets and (iii) to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, there is no basis upon which a material Claim could reasonably expected to be made against the Corporation;

(t) other than the fuel tax audit which has been disclosed to Petrowest and other than amendments to filed tax returns relating to pre-Closing transactions disclosed to Petrowest, the Corporation has duly and timely (i) filed with the appropriate Governmental Authority or agency in the manner prescribed by Law all Tax Returns required to be filed by it and such Tax Returns are true, complete and accurate in all material respects; (ii) paid all Taxes (including instalments) due and payable by it and made adequate provision in the Financial Statements and accounts thereof for all Taxes payable for the periods reflected therein for which Tax Returns are not yet required to be filed and will make adequate provision in the books and records of the Corporation (including in the materials provided to the auditors in connection with the determination of the Adjustment Amount) for all Taxes payable in respect of the period then ended on the assumption that the Corporation had a taxation year ending on that date; (iii) withheld and remitted to the appropriate Governmental Authorities all amounts required to be withheld by it in respect of the Tax liability of any other person; and (iv) withheld from any amount paid to or credited by it to or for the account or benefit of any person, including any of its officers and directors and any non-resident person, the amount of all Taxes and other deductions required by any Law to be withheld from any such amount and has duly and timely remitted the same to the appropriate taxing or other governmental authority or agency. Notices of assessment of Canadian federal and provincial income tax liabilities of the Corporation have been issued for all taxation years ending on or prior to date of last completed financial year ended more than six months prior to this Agreement, and the Corporation is current with respect to its filing of returns for goods and services taxes payable pursuant to the Excise Tax Act (Canada). There are no claims, actions, suits, audits, proceedings, investigations or other actions pending or, to the knowledge of any of the Shareholders, threatened in respect of Taxes;

(u) all filings made by any of the Shareholders or the Corporation under which the Corporation has received or is entitled to government incentives, have been made in accordance, in all material respects, with all Laws and contain no misrepresentations which could cause any amount previously paid to, or credited to, or previously accrued on the accounts of the Corporation to be recovered or disallowed;

(v) the Corporation is not a party to any current agreement or other arrangement with any taxation authority and there are no waivers or objections extending the statutory period or providing for an extension of time with respect to the assessment or reassessment or payment of Taxes payable by the Corporation or Tax Returns required to be filed by the Corporation;

(w) the Corporation is not engaged in any discussions or negotiations with any taxation authorities in respect of its Taxes;

(x) except for reserves for income taxes accruing in the current fiscal year, the reserves and accrued liabilities disclosed on or reflected in the Financial Statements and the Books and Records are sufficient in all respects to provide for the liabilities in respect of which they have been established;

(y) (except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(y), each of which will be discharged without liability to the Corporation on or prior to the Closing Date) the Corporation has not guaranteed, endorsed, assumed or indemnified, contingently or otherwise, the obligations or indebtedness of any other person;

Employees

(z) except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(z), the Corporation is not a party to any written employment contract, consulting agreement, collective bargaining agreement or employee association agreement; the Corporation has not conducted and is not now conducting any negotiations with any labour unions or employee associations; the Corporation has complied with all of its obligations in respect of employment insurance programs, Canada Pension Plan payments and Worker's Compensation payments;

(aa) the only employees of the Corporation are listed in Schedule 3.2(z);

(bb) all Employee Plans are listed in Schedule 3.2(z) and:

(i) the Corporation has paid or provided for all liabilities for wages, vacation pay, salaries, bonuses, pensions and all other amounts payable under the Employee Plans;

(ii) each of the Employee Plans complies with and has been administered in substantial compliance with the terms thereof and Laws; and

(iii) have been, or will by Closing be, terminated with no further Liability of the Corporation or Petrowest, provided that Petrowest has provided for a replacement plan the terms of which are satisfactory to the Shareholders acting reasonably;

(cc) no Affiliate, director, officer or employee of the Corporation (past or present) or any person not dealing at "arm's length" (within the meaning of the Canadian Tax Act) with any such person is indebted to the Corporation and (other than the Shareholder Loans) the Corporation is not indebted to any such person. All transactions between the Corporation and any person not dealing at arm's length were undertaken for fair market value consideration;

Assets

(dd) the Corporation is the sole beneficial and (where its interests are registrable) the sole registered owner of all of the Corporation Assets, with good and valid title, free and clear of all Encumbrances other than Permitted Encumbrances. In particular, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, there has been no assignment, subletting or granting of any licence (of occupation or otherwise) of or in respect of any of the Corporation Assets or any granting of any agreement or right capable of becoming an agreement or option for the purchase of any of the Corporation Assets;

(ee) the Corporation has no material assets except as set forth in Schedule 1.1(u), the Corporation Assets are in good working order for the prudent pursuit of the Corporation's business except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(ee) and the Corporation owns or leases all the assets necessary for the conduct of its business as now conducted by it;

(ff) the accounts receivable of the Corporation in all material respects are good and collectible at the aggregate recorded amounts, except to the extent of any reserves provided for such accounts in the Books and Records for the Corporation, and are not subject to any defence, counterclaim or set off;

(gg) the Corporation has made available to Petrowest a correct and complete copy of each Material Contract (as amended to date), all of which are listed in Schedule 3.2(gg). The Corporation is not in breach of any such Material Contracts in any material respect nor has any circumstance occurred or does any circumstance exist that with the passage of time, notice or both, constitute such a breach, and, to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, no third party to any of such Material Contracts is in breach of any such Material Contracts;

(hh) the Corporation has not received any notice alleging its default under any Material Contract, which default has not been rectified as of the date hereof;

(ii) the Corporation is not a party to or bound or affected by any commitment, agreement or document containing any covenant expressly limiting the freedom of the Corporation to compete in any line of business, transfer or move any of its assets or operations or which materially or adversely affects the business practices, operations or conditions of the Corporation or the continued operation of its business after the Closing Date;

(jj) to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, the Corporation has not interfered with, infringed upon, misappropriated or otherwise come into conflict with any patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret or other intellectual property rights of any person or received notice of any Claim of any person that they have done so;

Environmental

(kk) except as disclosed in Schedule 3.2(kk),

(i) to the knowledge of the Shareholders, all Environmental Approvals required to be held by the Corporation have been obtained, are listed in Schedule 3.2(kk), are valid and in full force and effect, have been and are being complied with in all material respects, and there have been and are no proceedings commenced, applications for proceedings made, nor to the knowledge of the Shareholders have there been any proceedings or applications for proceedings threatened to revoke or amend any Environmental Approvals;

(ii) to the knowledge of the Shareholders, any Release by the Corporation of any Hazardous Substance into the Environment complied and complies with all Environmental Laws;

(iii) the Corporation has not entered into an agreement that may require it to pay, reimburse, guarantee, pledge, defer, indemnify or hold harmless any person from or against any liability or cost relating to any Release of Hazardous Substance or environmental condition or arising from any non-compliance with any Environmental Law;

(iv) the Corporation has not been prosecuted for or convicted of any offence under Environmental Laws or found liable in any proceeding to pay any fine or judgment to any person as a result of any Release or threatened Release of any Hazardous Substance into the Environment or the breach of any Environmental Law and there are no proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, threatened relating to the foregoing and, to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, there is no basis for any such proceedings; and

(v) to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, there is no above-ground or underground storage tank, urea formaldehyde foam insulation, friable asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls ("PCBs") or radioactive substance in, on or under the property covered by any Real Property Leases;

Real Property

(ll) Schedule 3.2(ll) sets forth a complete list of all of the Real Property and a legal description for such Real Property. The Corporation is the legal and beneficial owner of the Real Property (as set forth in Schedule 3.2(11)) in fee simple, with good and marketable title thereto, free and clear of all Encumbrances other than Permitted Encumbrances. All accounts for work and services performed or materials placed or furnished upon or in respect of the construction and completion of any of the buildings, improvements or other structures constructed on the Real Property have been fully paid and no one is entitled to claim a lien under the Builders' Lien Act (Alberta) or other similar legislation for such work performed by or on behalf of the Corporation. There are no matters affecting the right, title and interest of the Corporation in and to the Real Property (as set forth in Schedule 3.2(11)), which in the aggregate, would materially and adversely affect the ability of the Corporation to carry on its business upon the Real Property (as set forth in Schedule 3.2(11);

(mm) the Corporation is not a party to any Real Property Leases other than those listed in Schedule 3.2(mm). The Corporation is not in breach of any such Real Property Leases in any material respect nor has any circumstance occurred or does any circumstance exist that with the passage of time, notice or both, constitute such a breach, and, to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, no third party to any of such Real Property Leases is in breach of any such Real Property Leases;

Miscellaneous

(nn) Schedule 3.2(nn) sets forth a complete list of every financial institution in which the Corporation maintains any depository or other account or safety deposit box and the names of all persons authorized to draw on or who have access to such accounts or safety deposit box; and

(oo) the information provided by or on behalf of the Shareholders or the Corporation with respect to the Corporation constitutes full, plain and true disclosure of all material facts relating to the Corporation, its business, operations and capital, there are no misrepresentations in any written information provided by or on behalf of the Shareholders or the Corporation to Petrowest and none of the Shareholders or the Corporation has knowingly withheld from Petrowest any information, documents or agreements relevant to the Corporation Assets or the Corporation which might reasonably be expected to be material to a purchaser of the Shares or Corporation Assets.

3.3 Representations and Warranties of Petrowest and the Trust

Each of Petrowest and the Trust jointly and severally represents and warrants to each of the Shareholders that:

(a) Petrowest is duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction of its incorporation and has the corporate power to own or lease its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted by it and is duly licensed or qualified to carry on business in each jurisdiction as the nature of its business requires and, at the Closing Date, will have such power and be so licensed or qualified as is required by its business as proposed to be conducted;

(b) at Closing, the Trust will be duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction of its formation and have the power to own or lease its property and assets and to carry on its business as proposed to be conducted by it and will be duly licensed or qualified to carry on business in each jurisdiction as the nature of its business requires;

(c) Petrowest has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder;

(d) at Closing, the Trust will have all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder;

(e) the execution and delivery of this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto, the performance of the terms hereof and thereof and the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein and therein do not and will not:

(i) result in the breach of or violate any term or provision of the charter, by-laws or governing documents of Petrowest or the declaration of trust of the Trust; or

(ii) conflict with, result in a breach of, constitute a default under, or accelerate or permit the acceleration of the performance required by, any material agreement, instrument, licence, permit or authority to which Petrowest or the Trust is a party or by which it is bound or to which any of its property is subject or result in the creation of any Encumbrance upon any of the assets of Petrowest or the Trust or give to others any material interest or right, including any right of purchase, termination, cancellation or acceleration under any such agreement, instrument, license, permit or authority; or

(iii) violate any provision of law or administrative regulation or any judicial or administrative order, award, judgment or decree applicable to Petrowest or the Trust;

(f) each of the Trust and Petrowest is, in all material respects, in compliance with all Laws;

(g) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Petrowest and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Petrowest enforceable in accordance with its terms and all documents to be delivered by Petrowest or the Trust, as the case may be, pursuant hereto will be duly executed and delivered by Petrowest and will constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of Petrowest and the Trust, respectively, enforceable in accordance with their respective terms;

(h) neither Petrowest nor the Trust have or will have carried on any active business other than the organization of, and preparation for the consummation of, the Concurrent Acquisitions, the Concurrent Financing and related matters;

(i) the authorized capital of Petrowest is comprised of an unlimited number of common shares and, as of the Closing Date, all of the issued and outstanding common shares will be held by the Trust;

(j) at Closing, the authorized capital of the Trust will be comprised of an unlimited number of Units of which, prior to the Closing, the closing of the Concurrent Acquisitions and the closing of the Concurrent Financing, not more than 1,500,000 Units (including subordinated units) will be issued and outstanding, each fully paid and non-assessable and, after the closing of the Concurrent Acquisitions and the closing of the Concurrent Financing, not more than 1,500,000 Units (including subordinated units) will be issued and outstanding, each fully paid and non-assessable;

(k) the Trust will, on the Closing Date, be a mutual fund trust under the Canadian Tax Act;

(l) each of the agreements relating to the Concurrent Acquisitions is substantially the same as this Agreement (other than price);

(m) the Units to be issued pursuant to Section 2.2 will be duly and validly issued and delivered as fully paid and non-assessable trust units of the Trust and, other than the escrow contemplated by section 5.2(d), will not be subject to any escrow or restriction on trading;

(n) at Closing, the prospectus filed in connection with the Concurrent Financing will contain full, true and plain disclosure of all material facts relating to the Trust and Petrowest, their prospective businesses, operations and capital (excluding the business, operations and capital of the Corporation);

(o) other than the fee payable to Westwind Partners Inc., Petrowest has not incurred any obligation or liability, contingent or otherwise, for brokerage fees, finder's fees, agent's commission or other similar forms of compensation with respect to the transactions contemplated herein;

(p) there is no suit, action, litigation, investigation, claim, complaint, grievance or proceeding, including appeals and applications for review, in progress, or, to the knowledge of Petrowest, pending or threatened against or relating to Petrowest or the Trust before any court, Governmental Authority, commission, board, bureau, agency or arbitration panel which, if determined adversely to Petrowest, would,

(i) materially and adversely affect the properties, business, future prospects or financial condition of Petrowest or the Trust,

(ii) enjoin, restrict or prohibit the transfer of all or any part of the Shares or the issue of Units as contemplated by this Agreement; or

(iii) prevent Petrowest from fulfilling all of its obligations set out in this Agreement or arising from this Agreement, and Petrowest has no knowledge of any existing ground on which any such action, suit, litigation or proceeding might be commenced with any reasonable likelihood of success. There is not presently outstanding against Petrowest any judgement, decree, injunction, rule or order of Governmental Authority; and

(q) Petrowest is not a "non Canadian" within the meaning of the Investment Canada Act.

3.4 Non-Waiver

No investigations made by or on behalf of Petrowest or the Shareholders at any time shall have the effect of waiving, diminishing the scope or otherwise affecting any representation or warranty made by the Shareholders or Petrowest, as the case may be, in or pursuant to this Agreement. No waiver of any condition or other provisions, in whole or in part, shall constitute as a waiver of any other condition or provision (whether or not similar) nor shall such waiver constitute a continuing waiver unless otherwise expressly provided.

3.5 Nature and Survival

All representations, warranties and covenants contained in this Agreement on the part of each of the Parties shall survive the Closing, the execution and delivery under this Agreement of any share or security transfer instruments or other documents of title to any of the Shares and the payment of the consideration for the Shares.

ARTICLE 4
COVENANTS

4.1 Covenants of the Shareholders and the Corporation

(a) From the date hereof to and until the Closing Date, the Shareholders and the Corporation shall permit Petrowest, Petrowest's Counsel and Petrowest's authorized representatives to have full access to all files, premises, properties, personnel, books, records (including Tax Records), auditors, contracts and documents of or pertaining to the Corporation and any predecessor corporations or entities prior to Closing for purposes of performing due diligence with respect to the Corporation and its assets and affairs. The provisions of the Confidentiality and Non-disclosure Agreement shall continue to be applicable to any information made available by such parties pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

(b) Each of the Shareholders and the Corporation who is a party to or bound by the Unanimous Shareholders Agreement hereby agrees and consents to the termination of such agreement immediately prior to the Closing Time and, subject to Closing occurring, hereby irrevocably waives and releases each of the others from and in respect of any and all obligations thereunder, whether due on, prior to or after the date hereof.

(c) Upon any restructuring or reorganization of the Corporation resulting in any person, other than the Shareholders, acquiring any of the Shares, the Shareholders shall cause such person to execute a counterpart signature page to this Agreement.

4.2 Efforts to Satisfy Conditions

Each Party shall use all reasonable commercial efforts and shall proceed diligently, honestly and in good faith to cause the conditions set forth in Section 5.1, Section 5.2 and Section 5.3 which are within its reasonable control to be satisfied. Each Party shall provide such information and cooperation to the other Party as it may reasonably request in connection with the satisfaction of such conditions.

4.3 Tax Returns

(a) The Shareholders shall cause the Corporation to prepare and file in a timely manner (at its cost and in consultation with the Shareholders) all Tax Returns required to be filed by the Corporation for any period that ends on or before the Closing Date and for which Tax Returns have not been filed as of the Closing Date. Petrowest shall obtain the consent of Shareholders to any Tax Returns filed in respect of any period ending on or prior to the Closing Date, which consent shall be deemed received unless the Shareholders advises otherwise within 10 business days following receipt of the return and request for consent. The Shareholders and Petrowest shall co-operate fully with each other and none of the Parties will unreasonably withhold its consent to a request made by any other Party with respect to such Tax Returns. Such Tax Returns will be prepared in accordance with reasonable business practices and the Corporation's past practices. The Parties agree that an election shall be made by the Corporation in its Tax Return filed for its taxation year ending immediately before the acquisition of control by Petrowest not to have subsection 256(9) of the Canadian Tax Act apply, with the result that the taxation year of the Corporation shall end immediately before the Closing Time.

(b) No Tax Returns shall be filed by any of the Shareholders between the date hereof and the Closing Date except with the prior written consent of Petrowest, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

4.4 Covenant of Petrowest

Upon the organization and formation of the Trust, Petrowest shall cause the Trust to execute an agreement, in a form acceptable to the Shareholders acting reasonably, whereby the Trust agrees to be bound by its representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities hereunder.

ARTICLE 5
CONDITIONS TO CLOSING

5.1 Mutual Conditions

The obligations of Petrowest, the Shareholders and the Corporation pursuant hereto are subject to the following conditions being satisfied in all respects at or prior to the Closing Time, or such earlier time as is specified below:

(a) there shall not be any suit, action or other proceeding that shall, at Closing, be pending against any of the Parties before any Governmental Authority and no law, regulation or policy shall have been proposed, enacted or applied: (i) making illegal or seeking to restrain, prohibit or obtain damages or other relief in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; (ii) prohibiting or materially limiting the ownership or operation by Petrowest of a material portion of the business or assets thereof or requiring Petrowest to dispose of or hold separately any such portion of any Shares or Corporation Assets, as applicable; or (iii) making the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement materially more costly to Petrowest or materially reducing the value of the Shares;

(b) all Required Approvals shall have been obtained on terms acceptable to the Shareholders and Petrowest, acting reasonably, at or prior to the Closing Time;

(c) the commercial terms of the Trust are satisfactory to the Shareholders and Petrowest, in each case, acting reasonably, including:

(i) the Concurrent Financing shall have closed or be closing at the Closing Time; and

(ii) such of the Concurrent Acquisitions as have an aggregate Base Purchase Price not less than $100 million shall have closed or be closing at the Closing Time; and

(d) Petrowest and each of the persons listed in Schedule 5.1(e) hereto shall have executed and delivered a management agreement in the form set forth in such Schedule.

5.2 Conditions for the Benefit of Petrowest

The obligations of Petrowest to buy the Shares and Shareholder Loans from the Shareholders pursuant hereto are subject to the following conditions (which are for the exclusive benefit of Petrowest) being satisfied in all respects at or prior to the Closing Time, or such earlier time as is specified below:

(a) the representations and warranties of the Shareholders in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects at the Closing Time with the same force and effect as if made at and as of such time;

(b) the Shareholders and the Corporation shall have performed or complied in all material respects with all of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Agreement to be performed or complied with by the Shareholders and the Corporation at or prior to the Closing Time pursuant hereto;

(c) on or before May 23, 2006, Petrowest shall have completed its due diligence review and, in its sole discretion, been satisfied with the results of such review;

(d) at Closing, the Shareholders shall have delivered all items which they are required to deliver pursuant to Section 6.2 and shall have duly executed and delivered an agreement to escrow the Units to be issued pursuant to Section 2.2 for release as to one quarter thereof on the Closing Date and on each of the 6 month, 12 month and 18 month anniversaries of the Closing Date in form and substance satisfactory to Petrowest, acting reasonably;

(e) the Shareholders shall have delivered opinions of the Shareholders' Counsel as to the matters in Section 3.1(a), (b), (c) and (d) and Section 3.2(a), (b), (c) and (d)(i), in form and substance satisfactory to Petrowest, acting reasonably;

(f) each of the Shareholders shall have delivered, on the Closing Date, a certificate of such Shareholder dated the Closing Date, addressed to Petrowest and signed by the Shareholder or, in the case of a Shareholder that is a corporation, signed on the Shareholder's behalf by its President or such other officer or director satisfactory to Petrowest, acting reasonably, certifying that to the knowledge of the Shareholders the representations and warranties of the Shareholder set forth in this Agreement are true and correct at the Closing Time, as if made at such time and the Shareholder has not breached, or failed to comply with, in any material respect, any of its covenants or other obligations under this Agreement;

(g) Petrowest shall have obtained all applicable governmental, regulatory and contractual approvals to complete the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and

(h) the Leaseback Equipment shall be transferred by Wales and 310423 to GE Canada Leasing Services Company and CMP – Classic Automotive Ltd. and the Corporation shall have entered into a lease of the Leaseback Equipment with GE Canada Leasing Services Company and CMP – Classic Automotive Ltd. on terms acceptable to Petrowest.

5.3 Conditions for the Benefit of the Shareholders

The Shareholders' obligations to Petrowest pursuant hereto are subject to the following conditions (which are for the exclusive benefit of the Shareholders) being satisfied in all respects at or prior to the Closing Time or such earlier time as is specified below:

(a) the representations and warranties of Petrowest in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects at the Closing Time with the same force and effect as if made at and as of such time;

(b) Petrowest shall have performed or complied in all material respects with all of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Agreement to be performed or complied with by Petrowest at or prior to the Closing Time pursuant hereto;

(c) at Closing, Petrowest shall have delivered all items they are required to deliver pursuant to Section 6.3;

(d) Petrowest shall have delivered, on the Closing Date, a certificate of Petrowest dated the Closing Date, addressed to the Shareholders and signed on Petrowest's behalf by its President or such other officer or director satisfactory to the Shareholders, acting reasonably, certifying that the representations and warranties of Petrowest set forth in this Agreement are true and correct at the Closing Time, as if made at such time and Petrowest has not breached, or failed to comply with, in any material respect, any of its covenants or other obligations under this Agreement; and

(e) Petrowest shall have delivered an opinion of Petrowest's Counsel as to the matters set forth in Section 3.3(a), (b), (c), (d), (e)(i), (e)(iii), (g), (i), (j), (k) and (m) in form and substance satisfactory to the Shareholders, acting reasonably; and

(f) Petrowest shall have agreed to indemnify Gerry Wales and Laurie Wales in respect of liabilities thereof pursuant to their guarantees of the obligations of the Corporation to the Bank of Montreal and/or secured their release therefrom, in either case in form and substance satisfactory to Gerry Wales and Laurie Wales, acting reasonably.

ARTICLE 6
CLOSING

6.1 Closing

The Closing shall take place at the Closing Time at the offices of Petrowest' Counsel located at 4500, 855 – 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 4K7, or at such other place as may be agreed upon by the Shareholders and Petrowest.

6.2 Deliveries by the Shareholders at Closing

At Closing, the Shareholders shall deliver to Petrowest:

(a) an updated version of Schedule 3.1 indicating the beneficial owners of record of all of the Shares;

(b) an updated version of Schedule 3.2 indicating the authorized capital of the Corporation and the issued and outstanding shares of the Corporation;

(c) the certificates representing the Shares duly endorsed for transfer by the Shareholders and new share certificates issued in the name of Petrowest in respect of the Shares;

(d) certificates of the appropriate government officials, dated the Closing Date, evidencing the existence and good standing of each of the Shareholders, if a corporation and the Corporation in the jurisdiction of its organization;

(e) the minute books, corporate seals and all corporate records of the Corporation;

(f) resignations and releases of all directors and officers of the Corporation and reciprocal releases of such directors and officers by the Corporation, each in form and substance satisfactory to Petrowest;

(g) certified copies of directors' resolutions of the Corporation confirming approval of the transfer of the Shares to Petrowest in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement;

(h) such other documents and instruments as Petrowest's Counsel may reasonably require; and

(i) transfers in respect of Shareholders' Loans.

6.3 Deliveries by Petrowest at Closing

At Closing, Petrowest shall pay the Base Purchase Price to the Shareholders, including delivering certificates to the Shareholders representing the Units issuable to the Shareholders pursuant to Section 2.2(b).

6.4 Closing Escrow

The items tabled at Closing pursuant to Section 6.2 and Section 6.3 shall be held in escrow until all of such items have been tabled and then shall remain in escrow until the Effective Time. At the Effective Time, provided all conditions in Article 5 have been satisfied or waived, such escrow shall be terminated and the items described in Section 6.2 shall be delivered to Petrowest and the items described in Section 6.3 shall be delivered to the Shareholders and the Closing shall have occurred. If such escrow is not released on or before 4:00 p.m. (Calgary Time) on October 31, 2006 and the Parties do not agree to an extension of the escrow, the Closing shall be deemed not to have occurred and the documents and certificates tabled by a Party pursuant to this Article 6 shall be returned to that Party.

ARTICLE 7
INDEMNITIES

7.1 Shareholders Indemnity

After Closing but subject to Section 7.4, each of the Shareholders jointly and severally agrees to indemnify and save harmless each of Petrowest, the Trust and their Affiliates from and against all Losses and Obligations which they suffer, sustain, pay or incur, directly or indirectly:

(i) as a consequence of or in connection with a breach of a representation or warranty made by any of the Shareholders or the Corporation in this Agreement or a breach by any of the Shareholders or the Corporation of any of the covenants made by any thereof in this Agreement; or

(ii) as a consequence of or in connection with any environmental matter relating to the Corporation or the Corporations Assets prior to the Closing Time;

except any such Losses and Obligations as have been caused by or result from the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of any such indemnified person. The Parties agree that for the purposes of Section 7.1(i), in the case of any breach of representation or warranty of any of the Shareholders, the measure of Losses and Obligations in respect thereof will be, dollar for dollar, the difference in what would have been the position (financial and otherwise) of the Corporation had such representation been true or the warranty not breached and the actual position (financial and otherwise) of the Corporation (given such misrepresentation or breach of warranty).

7.2 Petrowest Indemnity

After Closing, Petrowest and the Trust agree to indemnify and save harmless each of the Shareholders and their Affiliates from and against all Losses and Obligations which they suffer, sustain, pay or incur, directly or indirectly, as a consequence of or in connection with:

(i) a breach of a representation or warranty made by Petrowest or the Trust in this Agreement or a breach by Petrowest or the Trust of a covenant made by it in this Agreement; or

(ii) subject to the Shareholders' obligations in respect of the indemnity contained in Section 7.1, any matter or circumstance relating to Corporation Assets or the operation thereof which occurs after the Closing Time or which relates to the Corporation and occurs after the Closing Time;

except any such Losses and Obligations as have been caused by or result from the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of any such indemnified person.

7.3 Tax Indemnity

(a) After Closing, the Shareholders shall be jointly and severally liable to and agree to indemnify and save harmless the Corporation (which in this Section 7.3 includes the Corporation's successors and assigns) in respect of all Losses and Obligations which the Corporation may suffer, sustain, pay or incur as a consequence of or in connection with any breach of any of the representations and warranties in Section 3.2(t) to (x) inclusive.

(b) Any person entitled to indemnification as herein set forth (the "Indemnified Parties") shall give prompt written notice to the Shareholders whenever it becomes aware that a Claim has been or may be made for which the Shareholders may be liable pursuant to this Section 7.3 (the "Tax Indemnity"). Unless the Shareholders notify the Indemnified Parties that it elects not to have carriage and control of a Claim the Shareholders shall, at their own expense and employing counsel of their own choice, have full carriage and control of the contestation of any such Claim, provided that if the Claim does not relate solely to matters to which the Tax Indemnity may apply, the Indemnified Parties shall, at its own expense and employing counsel of its own choice, have full carriage and control of the contestation of the portion of the Claims relating to matters to which the Tax Indemnity does not relate; and further provided that where the Shareholders have carriage and control of a Claim neither the Indemnified Parties nor the Corporation will agree to any compromise or settlement of such Claim to which the Tax Indemnity may apply without the consent of the Shareholders which will not be unreasonably withheld. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Shareholders' right to have carriage and control of the contestation of any such Claim shall only apply and continue to apply after payment of the amount of such Claim or the provision of such security as is necessary to avoid a lien being placed on the property of the Corporation in respect of such Claim. Where the Shareholders have carriage and control of a Claim, if the Indemnified Parties does not consent to a settlement of a Claim to which the Tax Indemnity may apply following a request from the Shareholders to do so, the obligation of the Shareholders to indemnify the Indemnified Parties for the Claim shall be limited to the amount that the Shareholders would have been required to pay pursuant hereto in respect of the Claim if the settlement had been accepted and the Shareholders shall forthwith transfer carriage of the contestation of the Claim to the Indemnified Parties or its nominee. The Indemnified Parties, the Corporation and the Shareholders shall cooperate with each other and allow each other reasonable access to documents and records in any defence of any such Claims and shall keep each other reasonably informed of the conduct thereof. If the Shareholders elect not to have carriage and control of the contestation of the Claim, the Indemnified Parties and the Corporation shall be under no obligation to contest, settle or compromise the Claim and such failure to contest, settle or compromise the Claim shall not prejudice its rights pursuant to this Indemnity.

(c) The Parties undertake to inform each other of any audit inquiries with respect to issues to which the Tax Indemnity may apply and to cooperate with each other in making any representations prior to any assessment to which those indemnities may apply.

(d) The amounts payable in respect of the Tax Indemnity shall constitute and be treated by the parties as an adjustment to the Base Purchase Price.

7.4 Limitations on Indemnities

(a) No Claim for performance of an indemnity or in respect of a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty made in this Agreement (other than pursuant to Section 7.3) shall be made or be enforceable, whether by legal proceedings or otherwise, unless written notice of such Claim is given by the party seeking redress to the party or parties from whom redress is sought on or before: (i) in respect of a breach of Section 3.2(kk), the expiry of the statutory period in which a Claim, assessment or reassessment may be brought or effected against the Corporation in respect thereof; (ii) in respect of a breach of any of Section 3.2(t) to (x), the expiry of ninety days after the relevant Governmental Authorities shall no longer be entitled to assess liability for tax against the Corporation for any particular taxation year ended on or prior to the Closing Date, having regard without limitation, to any waivers given by the Shareholders of the Corporation in respect of any taxation year; and (iii) otherwise, the expiry of eighteen months from the Closing Date;

(b) The maximum cumulative liability of the Shareholders in respect of indemnities and breaches of the representations, warranties and covenants made by the Shareholders in this Agreement (other than pursuant to Section 7.3) shall not exceed the Adjusted Purchase Price;

(c) Except as otherwise set out herein, the parties' sole remedy for a misrepresentation or breach of a warranty or other agreement contained in this Agreement is limited to the indemnities contained in Article 7 and is limited by the provisions of this Section 7.4;

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, the Shareholder shall have no liability to Petrowest for any specific matter or claim for which Petrowest has received an adjustment to the Purchase Price to the extent of such adjustment;

(e) Petrowest shall not be entitled to make a Claim against the Shareholders for indemnity pursuant to this Agreement unless and until the aggregate amount of all Losses and Obligations with respect to all Claims asserted by Petrowest under this Agreement (other than pursuant to Section 7.3) exceeds 1% of the Base Purchase Price. Once such minimum threshold in Losses and Obligations has been sustained by Petrowest, the entirety of all Losses and Obligations sustained by Petrowest shall be compensable under this Section 7.4, subject to the other provisions of this Section. Claims pursuant to Section 7.3 shall not be included in claims for the purposes of this Section 7.4(e);

(f) Petrowest' Losses hereunder shall be deemed reduced by the amount of any insurance proceeds and any tax benefits received by Petrowest with respect to such Losses; and

(g) Petrowest shall not be entitled to indemnity under both Section 7.3 and Section 7.1 for the same Loss.

7.5 Indemnification Procedure

(a) For purposes of this Section 7.5, the term "Indemnifying Party" when used in connection with a Claim shall mean the Person having an obligation to indemnify the other Party with respect to such Claim pursuant to this Agreement (other than under Section 7.3), and the term "Indemnified Party" when used in connection with a particular Claim shall mean the Person having the right to be indemnified with respect to such Claim by the other Party pursuant to this Agreement (other than under Section 7.3)

(b) To make claim for indemnification, an Indemnified Party shall notify the Indemnifying Party of its claim under this Section 7.5, including the specific details of and specific basis under this Agreement for its claim (the "Claim Notice"). In the event that the claim for indemnification is based upon a claim by a third party against the Indemnified Party (a "Third Party Claim"), the Indemnified Party shall provide its Claim Notice promptly after the Indemnified Party has actual knowledge of the Third Party Claim and shall enclose a copy of all papers (if any) served with respect to the Third Party Claim; provided that the failure of any Indemnified Party to give notice of a Third Party Claim as provided in this Section 7.5 shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations under this Agreement except to the extent such failure results in insufficient time being available to permit the Indemnifying Party to effectively defend against the Third Party Claim or otherwise materially prejudices the Indemnifying Party's ability to defend against the Third Party Claim. In the event that the claim for indemnification is based upon an inaccuracy or breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or agreement, the Claim Notice shall specify the representation, warranty, covenant or agreement which was inaccurate or breached.

(c) In the case of a claim for indemnification based upon a Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party shall have 30 days from its receipt of the Claim Notice to notify the Indemnified Party whether it admits or denies its liability to defend the Indemnified Party against such Third Party Claim at the sole cost and expense of the Indemnifying Party. The Indemnified Party is authorized, prior to and during such 30-day period, to file any motion, answer or other pleading that it shall deem necessary or appropriate to protect its interests or those of the Indemnifying Party and that is not prejudicial to the Indemnifying Party.

(d) If the Indemnifying Party admits its liability, it shall have the right and obligation to diligently defend, at its sole cost and expense, the Third Party Claim. The Indemnifying Party shall have full control of such defense and proceedings, including any compromise or settlement thereof. If requested by the Indemnifying Party, the Indemnified Party agrees to cooperate, at the cost and expense of the Indemnifying Party, in contesting any Third Party Claim which the Indemnifying Party elects to contest. The Indemnified Party may participate in, but not control, any defense or settlement of any Third Party Claim controlled by the Indemnifying Party pursuant to this Section 7.5(d). An Indemnifying Party shall not, without the written consent of the Indemnified Party, (i) settle any Third Party Claim or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect thereto which does not include an unconditional written release of the Indemnified Party from all liability in respect of such Third Party Claim or (ii) settle any Third Party Claim or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect thereto in any manner that may materially and adversely affect the Indemnified Party (other than as a result of money damages covered by the indemnity).

(e) If the Indemnifying Party does not admit its liability or admits its liability but fails to diligently prosecute or settle the Third Party Claim, then the Indemnified Party shall have the right to defend against the Third Party Claim at the sole cost and expense of the Indemnifying Party, with counsel of the Indemnified Party's choosing, subject to the right of the Indemnifying Party to admit its liability and assume the defense of the Third Party Claim at any time prior to settlement or final determination thereof. If the Indemnifying Party has not yet admitted its liability for a Third Party Claim, the Indemnified Party shall send written notice to the Indemnifying Party of any proposed settlement and the Indemnifying Party shall have the option for 10 days following receipt of such notice to (i) admit in writing its liability for the Third Party Claim and (ii) if liability is so admitted, reject, in its reasonable judgment, the proposed settlement.

(f) In the case of a claim for indemnification not based upon a Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party shall have 30 days from its receipt of the Claim Notice to (i) cure the Losses and Obligations complained of; (ii) admit its liability for such Losses or (iii) dispute the claim for such Losses and Obligations. If the Indemnifying Party does not notify the Indemnified Party within such 30-day period that it has cured the Losses and Obligations or that it disputes the claim for such Losses and Obligations, the amount of such Losses and Obligations shall conclusively be deemed a liability of the Indemnifying Party hereunder.

7.6 Materiality

For the purposes of calculating Losses and Obligations in conjunction with any breach of a representation, warranty or covenant pursuant to Sections 7.1, 7.2 or 7.3, any standard or threshold of materiality relating to such breached representation, warranty or covenant shall be ignored.

ARTICLE 8
TERMINATION

8.1 Termination

If this Agreement is terminated prior to the Closing occurring pursuant to Section 5.1, Section 5.2 or Section 5.3, the Parties shall be released from all obligations under this Agreement except the Confidentiality and Non-disclosure Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms, and each Party shall remain liable for breaches by it of this Agreement occurring prior to such termination. Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Section, following such termination, each Party shall be responsible for the costs and expenses incurred by it in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

8.2 Survival

Subject to the limitations and provisions set forth in this Agreement, notwithstanding the occurrence of Closing and the items delivered at Closing pursuant hereto, the representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities contained in this Agreement shall survive the Closing and the delivery of the items delivered at Closing pursuant hereto for the benefit of the Parties in accordance with terms hereof. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, no limitation in respect of the survival of any provision of this Agreement or the period in respect of which any Claims or other recourse may be made shall apply insofar as the breach of the provision or the matter in respect of which recourse is sought involves fraud on the part of the Party or Parties against whom the provision is sought to be enforced or from whom such recourse is sought. If any document executed at or after Closing, pursuant hereto is inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail unless the Parties expressly and explicitly agree to the contrary.

ARTICLE 9
ARBITRATION

9.1 Procedure

Any controversy submitted to arbitration pursuant to this Agreement shall be subject to the following principles:

(a) Upon written demand of a Party, representatives of the Parties shall meet and attempt to appoint a single arbitrator. If such representatives are unable to agree on a single arbitrator within five (5) days of such demand, then upon written demand by any Party, any Shareholder and Petrowest shall, within ten (10) days of such demand, each name an arbitrator and the two arbitrators so named shall promptly thereafter choose a third. If a Party shall fail to name an arbitrator within ten (10) days from such demand, then the arbitrator for that Party shall be appointed by any Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta upon application by the other Party. If the two arbitrators shall fail within ten (10) days from their appointment to agree upon and appoint the third arbitrator, then such third arbitrator shall be appointed by any Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta upon request of either Party.

(b) The arbitrator or arbitrators selected to act hereunder shall be qualified by education, experience and training to pass upon the particular question in dispute.

(c) The arbitrator or arbitrators chosen as aforesaid shall proceed immediately to hear and determine the question or questions in dispute. The decision of the single arbitrator shall be made within forty-five (45) days after his or her appointment, subject to any reasonable delay due to unforeseen circumstances. Where there are three arbitrators, the decision of the arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall be made within forty-five (45) days after the appointment of the third arbitrator, subject to any reasonable delay due to unforeseen circumstances. In the event the single arbitrator or the arbitrators, or a majority of them, fail to make a decision within the period herein prescribed, then either Party may elect to have a new single arbitrator or arbitrators chosen in the manner herein prescribed, as if none had previously been selected.

(d) The decision of the single arbitrator or the decision of the arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall be drawn up in writing and signed by the single arbitrator or by the arbitrators, or a majority of them, and shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto.

(e) The liability between the Parties hereto for the payment of the compensation and expenses of the single arbitrator or the arbitrators shall be determined by the arbitrator or arbitrators, as the case may be.

(f) Arbitration pursuant hereto shall be governed in all respects not addressed herein by the provisions of the Arbitration Act (Alberta) and regulations thereunder.

ARTICLE 10
NOTICES

10.1 Notices

Any notice, consent, waiver, direction or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Agreement by a party to any other party shall be in writing and shall be delivered by hand delivery, facsimile transmission or (provided that the mailing party does not know and should not reasonably have known of any disruption or anticipated disruption of postal service which might affect delivery of the mail) by registered mail (postage prepaid), addressed to the party to whom the notice is to be given, at its address for service herein. Any notice, consent, waiver, direction or other communication aforesaid shall, if hand delivered or delivered by facsimile transmission, be deemed to have been given and received on the date on which it was hand delivered or delivered by facsimile transmission to the address provided herein (if a business day and, if not, the next succeeding business day) and if sent by registered mail be deemed to have been given and received on the third business day at the point of delivery following the date on which it was so sent.

ARTICLE 11
MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 Further Assurances

Each Party shall, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, at the request of another Party, but without further consideration, do all such further acts and execute and deliver all such further documents and instruments as shall be reasonably required in order to fully perform and carry out the terms and intent hereof.

11.2 Time of the Essence

Time shall be of the essence of this Agreement.

11.3 Public Announcements

Until Closing has occurred, no public announcement or press release concerning the sale and purchase of the Shares shall be made by a Party or its Affiliates without the prior written consent and joint approval of the other Party, which consent and approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided that nothing contained herein shall prevent either Party at any time furnishing any information to any governmental agency or regulatory authority (including applicable stock exchanges) or to the public if required by Laws or the rule of a stock exchange.

11.4 Amendments and Waiver

No modification of or amendment to this Agreement shall be valid or binding unless set forth in writing and duly executed by both Parties and no waiver of any breach of any term or provisions of this Agreement shall be effective or binding unless made in writing and signed by the Party purporting to give the same and, unless otherwise provided, shall be limited to the specific breach waived. No failure on the part of any Party in exercising any right or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or remedy preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or remedy in law or in equity or by statute or otherwise conferred.

11.5 Entire Agreement

This Agreement together with the Confidentiality and Non-disclosure Agreement and the agreements and other documents to be delivered pursuant to this Agreement, constitute the entire agreement between the Parties pertaining to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede all prior agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the Parties, including the Letter of Intent and there are no warranties, representations or other agreements between the Parties in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, and any document delivered pursuant to this Agreement. No supplement, modification or waiver or termination of this Agreement shall be binding unless executed in writing by the Party to be bound thereby.

11.6 Applicable Law

This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and the laws of Canada applicable therein and shall be treated, in all respects, as an Alberta contract.

11.7 Amendments

This Agreement may only be amended by a written instrument signed by the Parties.

11.8 Severability

If any one or more of the provisions or parts thereof contained in this Agreement should be or become invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect in any jurisdiction, the remaining provisions or parts thereof contained herein shall be and shall be conclusively deemed to be, as to such jurisdiction, severable therefrom and:

(a) the validity, legality or enforceability of such remaining provisions or parts thereof shall not in any way be affected or impaired by the severance of the provisions or parts thereof severed; and

(b) the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of any provision or part thereof contained in this Agreement in any jurisdiction shall not affect or impair such provision or part thereof or any other provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction.

11.9 Execution in Counterpart

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts with the same effect as if all signatories to the counterparts had signed one document, all such counterparts shall together constitute, and be construed as, one instrument and each of such counterparts shall, notwithstanding the date of its execution, be deemed to bear the date first above written. Delivery of counterparts may be effected by facsimile transmission.

11.10 Benefit of the Agreement

This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns of the Parties. No person other than the Parties and their successors and permitted assigns shall be entitled to any rights or benefits hereunder.

11.11 Assignment

This Agreement may not be assigned by any Party without the prior consent of the other Parties, provided that: (i) Petrowest may assign its rights and obligations under this agreement to an Affiliate of Petrowest if, contemporaneous therewith, such Affiliate of Petrowest agrees to be bound by all representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities of Petrowest hereunder; and (ii) any Shareholder may assign its rights and obligations under this agreement to a person, wholly-owned by one or more Shareholders, that has, subsequent to the date hereof, become a shareholder of the Corporation if, contemporaneous therewith, such person agrees to be bound by all representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities of such Shareholder. For greater certainty, it is agreed that prior to the Closing Time and as a condition of Closing, the Trust shall execute a joinder agreement satisfactory to the Shareholders, acting reasonably, pursuant to which the Trust shall agree to be bound by all representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities of Petrowest hereunder.

11.12 No Partnership

It is not the intent or purpose of the Agreement to create, and this Agreement shall not be construed as creating, any association, partnership or syndicate.

11.13 Reliance

The Parties acknowledge and agree that they have entered into this Agreement in reliance upon each of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements herein of the other party hereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

1.2 Certain Rules of Interpretation

In this Agreement and the Schedules:

(a) Time - time is of the essence in the performance of the Parties' respective obligations;

(b) Currency - unless otherwise specified, all references to money amounts are to Canadian currency;

(c) Headings - the descriptive headings of Articles and Sections are inserted solely for convenience of reference and are not intended as complete or accurate descriptions of the content of such Articles or Sections;

(d) Singular, etc. - the use of words in the singular or plural, or with a particular gender, shall not limit the scope or exclude the application of any provision of this Agreement to such person or persons or circumstances as the context otherwise permits;

(e) Consent - whenever a provision of this Agreement requires an approval or consent by a Party to this Agreement and notification of such approval or consent is not delivered within the applicable time limited, then, unless otherwise specified, the Party whose consent or approval is required shall be conclusively deemed to have withheld its approval or consent;

(f) Calculation of Time - unless otherwise specified, time periods within or following which any payment is to be made or act is to be done shall be calculated by excluding the day on which the period commences and including the day on which the period ends and by extending the period to the next business day following if the last day of the period is not a business day; and

(g) Business Day - whenever any payment is to be made or action to be taken under this Agreement is required to be made or taken on a day other than a business day, such payment shall be made or action taken on the next business day following such day.

1.3 Knowledge

Any reference to the knowledge of the Parties shall mean to the best of the knowledge, information and belief of such Party after making all reasonable enquiries.

1.4 Statute References

A reference in this Agreement to a statute shall be a reference to the statute and the regulations made pursuant thereto, as amended or superseded from time to time, either before or after the date hereof, unless otherwise stated or the context otherwise requires.

1.5 Accounting Principles

All reference to "GAAP" means to principles recommended, from time to time, in the Handbook of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants and all accounting terms not otherwise defined in this Agreement have the meanings assigned to them in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1.7 Conflicts

Where any provision of any Schedule to this Agreement conflicts or is at variance with any provision in the body of this Agreement, the latter shall prevail.

ARTICLE 2
PURCHASE AND SALE

2.1 Purchase and Sale

The Shareholders hereby jointly and severally agree to sell the Shares and the Shareholder Loans to Petrowest at the Effective Time in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Petrowest hereby agrees to purchase the Shares and the Shareholder Loans from the Shareholders at the Effective Time in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

2.2 Base Purchase Price

As consideration for the sale of the Shares and the Shareholder Loans by the Shareholders pursuant hereto, at the Effective Time, Petrowest agrees to deliver and pay to the Shareholders the aggregate amount of $8,702,135 (calculated as $8,502,135 plus the Estimated Working Capital, plus the Estimated Shareholder Loans and minus the Estimated Long Term Debt) (the "Base Purchase Price"), comprised of:

(a) $3,480,855; and

(b) 522,128 Units (at an ascribed value of $10.00 each).

The Shareholders shall provide notice to Petrowest of their allocation of the Base Purchase Price between the Shares and the Shareholder Loans on or prior to Closing, which, with the consent of Petrowest, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, shall be the agreed upon allocation. The Base Purchase Price shall first be allocated to the Shareholder Loans, in the amount thereof, and thereafter to the Shares.

2.3 Transfer and Delivery of the Shares

At the Closing Time with effect as of the Effective Time, the Shareholders shall transfer and deliver to Petrowest share certificates representing the Shares duly endorsed in blank for transfer, or accompanied by irrevocable security transfer powers of attorney duly executed in blank, in either case by the holders of record, and shall take such steps as shall be necessary to cause the Corporation to enter Petrowest or its nominee(s) upon the books of the Corporation as the holder of the respective Shares and to issue share certificates to Petrowest or its nominee(s) representing the Shares. At the Closing Time, effective as of the Effective Time, the Shareholders shall also make the deliveries specified in Section 6.2.

2.4 Tender

Any payment of money may be made by official bank draft drawn upon a Canadian chartered bank or by negotiable cheque payable in Canadian funds and certified by a Canadian chartered bank or trust company or, with the consent of the party entitled to payment, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account specified by that party. Any payment of Units may be made by delivery of certificates representing such Units, registered in the name of the payor or such other name as the payor, not less than two business days prior to the payment due date, gives by written notice to Petrowest.

2.5 Post-Closing Adjustments

(a) Within 90 days following the Closing Date, Petrowest shall cause the Auditors to provide an audit of the Working Capital, Shareholder Loans and Long Term Debt as at the Closing Date and based thereon, Petrowest shall make a good faith calculation of the Adjustment Amount using the amount of Working Capital, Shareholder Loans and Long Term Debt established by the Auditors. Petrowest shall prepare and deliver to the Shareholders a statement setting forth, in reasonable detail, such calculation of the Adjustment Amount and any other amount for which adjustment is provided herein and shall assist the Shareholders in verifying the amounts set forth in such statement (including, without limitation, providing access to the Auditors and any working papers in respect of the calculation of any component of the Adjustment Amount).

(b) The Shareholders may dispute all or any portion of the calculation of the Adjustment Amount by written notice to Petrowest within 30 days of the date of receipt of the statement referred to in Section 2.5(a) setting forth, in reasonable detail, the basis for the dispute. If Petrowest and the Shareholders do not agree on the calculation of the Adjustment Amount within 30 days of any notice of dispute by the Shareholders, the dispute shall be referred to arbitration pursuant to Article 9. If the Adjustment Amount as agreed to by the Petrowest and the Shareholders, or determined by arbitration, as the case may be:

(i) is a positive amount, Petrowest shall pay the overage in cash, together with simple interest thereon at the Prime Rate from the Closing Date until paid, to the Shareholders or as they may direct within 15 days of receipt of confirmation of the amount of Working Capital, Shareholder Loans, Long Term Debt and any other amounts that affect the Adjustment Amount established by the Auditors; or

(ii) is a negative amount, the Shareholders shall pay the shortfall in cash, together with simple interest thereon at the Prime Rate from the Closing Date until paid, to Petrowest within 15 days of receipt of confirmation of the amount of Working Capital, Shareholder Loans, Long Term Debt and any other amounts that affect the Adjustment Amount established by the Auditors, and Petrowest will cause the Corporation to remit to the appropriate Governmental Authority any amount withheld as Taxes in respect of any Shareholder Loan.

(c) Petrowest and the Shareholders agree that a bonus, consistent with the Corporation's past practice, will be declared by the Corporation payable to Ted Moug effective as at the Effective Time in an amount, in aggregate, equal to the taxable income of the Corporation for the period ended at the Effective Time in excess of the small business deduction under the Income Tax Act (Canada) which bonus shall (i) for greater certainty constitute an increase in Shareholder Loans in the calculation of the Adjustment Amount, (ii) be paid, together with interest at the Prime Rate from the Effective Time until paid (less any required withholdings), within 15 days of receipt of confirmation of the amounts referred to in (b)(i) above.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

3.1 Representation and Warranties of Shareholders

Each of the Shareholders represents and warrants to Petrowest that:

(a) if it is a corporation, it is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation and has the corporate power to own or lease its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted by it;

(b) it has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder;

(c) if it is a corporation, the execution and delivery of this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto, the performance of the terms hereof and thereof and the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein and therein do not and will not result in the breach of or violate any term or provision of the charter, by-laws or governing documents of the Shareholder;

(d) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered on behalf of the Shareholder and constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Shareholder, enforceable against the Shareholder in accordance with its terms, subject to the general qualifications that:

(i) enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization or other similar laws of general application affecting creditors' rights generally;

(ii) equitable remedies, including the remedies of specific performance and injunctive relief, are available only in the discretion of the applicable court;

(iii) the equitable or statutory powers of the courts in Canada having jurisdiction to stay proceedings before them and the execution of judgments; and

(iv) rights to indemnity hereunder may be limited under applicable law;

(i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) being, collectively, "Creditors' Rights"; and, at the Closing, all documents required hereunder to be executed and delivered by the Shareholder will have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Shareholder and will constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Shareholder, enforceable in accordance with their terms, subject to Creditors' Rights;

(e) the Shareholder is not required to give any notice to, make any filing with, or obtain any authorization, consent or approval of any Governmental Authority in order to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and except for notices, filings, authorizations, consents or approvals which (i) if not made or obtained, would not adversely affect the Shareholder's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement on the terms set forth herein, or (ii) which have been previously obtained and are currently in force;

(f) the Shareholder has not incurred any obligation or liability, contingent or otherwise, for brokerage fees, finder's fees, agent's commission or other similar forms of compensation with respect to the transaction contemplated herein which will be or may become the responsibility of the Corporation, Petrowest or the Trust;

(g) all of the Shares set forth opposite the name of the Shareholder in Schedule 3.1 will be owned by the Shareholder as the beneficial owner of record, with good and marketable title, and there are no actions, suits, proceedings or claims pending or, to the best of the knowledge of the Shareholder, threatened with respect to or in any manner challenging the ownership or disposition of such securities or the exercise of any rights which are derived or attached thereto;

(h) except pursuant to this Agreement, as at the Closing Time, no person will have any agreement or option or any right or privilege (whether by law, pre-emptive right, contract or otherwise) capable of becoming an agreement, option, right or privilege for the purchase or other acquisition from the Shareholder of any of the Shares set forth opposite the name of the Shareholder in Schedule 3.1 or any interest therein;

(i) such of the Shareholder Loans as are indicated as being payable to the Shareholder are validly due and payable to the Shareholder without any right of set off or counterclaim;

(j) the Shareholder has not received notice of any Claim and is not aware of any Claim, actual or threatened, which prevents or could reasonably be expected to prevent the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and

(k) the Shareholder is not a non-resident of Canada for the purposes of the Canadian Tax Act.

3.2 Representations and Warranties of Shareholders

Each of the Shareholders jointly and severally represents and warrants to Petrowest that:

Corporation's Status

(a) the Corporation is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation, and has the corporate power to own or lease its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted by it;

(b) the Corporation has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder;

(c) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered on behalf of the Corporation and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Corporation, enforceable against the Corporation in accordance with its terms, subject to Creditors' Rights and, at the Closing, all documents required hereunder to be executed and delivered by the Corporation will have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Corporation and will constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Corporation, enforceable in accordance with their terms, subject to Creditors' Rights,

(d) the execution and delivery of this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto, the performance of the terms hereof and thereof and the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein and therein do not and will not:

(i) result in the breach of or violate any term or provision of the charter, by-laws or governing documents of the Corporation; or

(ii) except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(d) hereto, conflict with, result in a breach of, constitute a default under, or accelerate or permit the acceleration of the performance required by, any material agreement, instrument, licence, permit or authority to which the Corporation is a party or by which it is bound or to which any of its property is subject or result in the creation of any Encumbrance upon any of the Corporation Assets or the Shares or give to others any material interest or right, including any right of purchase, termination, cancellation or acceleration under any such agreement, instrument, license, permit or authority; or

(iii) violate any provision of law or administrative regulation or any judicial or administrative order, award, judgment or decree applicable to the Corporation or the Corporation Assets;

(e) to the best of their knowledge, the Corporation is, in all material respects, in compliance with all Laws;

(f) the Corporation holds all valid licenses, permits and similar rights and privileges, and has made all filings, applications and reports, that are required or necessary under any Laws to operate its business as currently conducted, the failure to hold which, individually or in the aggregate, would have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations or business of the Corporation and the present uses by the Corporation of its assets do not materially violate the terms of any such licenses, permits, rights or privileges or any such Laws;

(g) the Corporation has not incurred any obligation or liability, contingent or otherwise, for brokerage fees, finder's fees, agent's commission or other similar forms of compensation with respect to the transaction contemplated herein;

(h) all contracts of insurance maintained by the Corporation are listed in Schedule 3.2(h) and are in full force and effect and all premiums due and owing in connection with such policies have been paid; there exists no state or event of default under any insurance policy and there has been no notice or advice of withdrawal of any policy or any notice of conditions for continuation of any coverage that has not been complied with; and the Corporation has given notice or has otherwise presented every material claim known by the Corporation or the Shareholders to be covered by insurance under its insurance policies or contracts in a timely fashion;

(i) the Corporation does not have any Subsidiaries; and the Corporation does not have any agreements of any nature to acquire any Subsidiary, or to acquire or lease any other business operations other than as disclosed in Schedule 1.1(e);

(j) as at the Closing Time, the Corporation will not be a party to any agreements of any nature to acquire any securities of any person or to acquire, capitalize or invest in any business;

(k) at the Closing Time, the minute books, stock certificate books and stock transfer ledgers of the Corporation will be true and correct and the minute books will contain the minutes of all meetings, and all resolutions, of the directors and shareholders of the Corporation;

Capitalization

(l) the authorized capital of the Corporation and the issued and outstanding Shares of the Corporation are as set forth in Schedule 3.2(l) and all of the Shares set forth as issued are duly and validly issued and are fully paid and non-assessable and are registered as set forth in such Schedule;

(m) no person other than the Shareholders has any agreement or option or any right or privilege (whether by law, pre-emptive right, contract or otherwise) capable of becoming an agreement, option, right or privilege, including, without limitation, any convertible security, warrant or convertible obligation of any nature, for the purchase, subscription, allotment or issuance of any of the unissued shares of the Corporation;

(n) there are no restrictions in either the constating documents or the by-laws of the Corporation, nor in any unanimous shareholders' agreement or voting trust agreement or other similar collateral agreement, which would affect the transferability of Shares from the Shareholders to Petrowest and which will not have been waived prior to Closing;

Financial Status

(o) all of the Books and Records whether of a financial or accounting nature or otherwise have been made available to Petrowest and, have been maintained in accordance with prudent business practices;

(p) the Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP applicable in Canada applied on a basis consistent with that of prior periods (except as stated therein) and present fairly the financial position of the Corporation as of the date provided therein and the results of operations and the changes in financial position for the periods then ended. As at the date of the Financial Statements, the Corporation did not have any debt or liabilities of any kind whatsoever (whether accrued, contingent, absolute or otherwise) required to be included in such Financial Statements, including, without limitation, any Liabilities and any liabilities for Taxes or pursuant to any capital lease, except for debt or liabilities as set forth in such financial statements;

(q) except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(q) or as contemplated by this Agreement or Approved Capital Commitments, since the date of the last audited financial year of the Corporation or consented to in writing by Petrowest, the Corporation has:

(i) not incurred, assumed or become subject to any Liability, except in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(ii) not granted, suffered or assumed any Encumbrance on or in respect of any of the Corporation Assets, other than Permitted Encumbrances;

(iii) not amended its charter, by-laws or other governing documents;

(iv) not conducted its business other than in all material respects in the Ordinary Course of Business and, without limitation, has not entered into, assumed or become subject to any contract out of the Ordinary Course of Business or any Material Contract;

(v) not amended or terminated any Material Contract;

(vi) not directly or indirectly, declared or paid any dividends, or declared or made any other distribution of its securities, or directly or indirectly, redeemed, purchased or otherwise acquired any of its shares, or agreed to do so, or reduced its stated capital in any manner or purchased, acquired, cancelled or redeemed, or agreed to purchase, acquire, cancel or redeem, any outstanding shares;

(vii) has not forgiven any debt or otherwise triggered or permitted to be triggered any of the provisions of the Canadian Tax Act respecting debt forgiveness including, for greater certainty, Section 79 or Sections 80 to 80.04 of such act, and has not cancelled or released any debts or claims or waived any right pertaining to the Corporation Assets;

(viii) not entered into or amended any employment or consulting agreements, other than in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(ix) not increased the salaries, benefits or other compensation payable to any of its directors, officers or employees, other than in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(x) not made any payment whatsoever to, or entered into any agreement with, any person not dealing at arm's length with the Corporation;

(xi) not entered into or amended any Employee Plan;

(xii) used its reasonable commercial efforts to maintain its business organization and preserve its relationships with suppliers, customers and others having business relations with it;

(xiii) not suffered any material adverse change, financial or otherwise, in business, financial condition, assets, properties, liabilities or operations of the Corporation or any occurrences or circumstances which have resulted or might reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse change thereto;

(xiv) not sold any material amounts of inventory or (other than, after the date hereof and prior to the Closing Date, Approved Capital Dispositions) other assets, nor increased its indebtedness other than in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(xv) maintained the Corporation Assets in a proper and prudent manner in accordance with good Canadian oilfield practices; and

(xvi) not made any change in its accounting principles and practices as theretofore applied including, without limitation, the basis upon which its assets and liabilities are recorded on its books and its earnings, profits and losses are ascertained;

(r) there is no suit, action, litigation, investigation, claim, complaint, grievance or proceeding, including appeals and applications for review, in progress, or, to the knowledge of the Shareholders, pending or threatened against or relating to the Corporation before any Governmental Authority which, if determined adversely to the Corporation, would,

(i) materially and adversely affect the properties, business, future prospects or financial condition of the Corporation,

(ii) enjoin, restrict or prohibit the transfer of all or any part of the Shares as contemplated by this Agreement, or

(iii) prevent the Shareholders or the Corporation from fulfilling all of their obligations set out in this Agreement or arising from this Agreement, and the Shareholders and the Corporation have no knowledge of any existing ground on which any such action, suit, litigation or proceeding might be commenced with any reasonable likelihood of success;

(s) except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(s), (i) there are no judgments unsatisfied against the Corporation or any judgment, injunction, order, decree, ruling or charge of any Governmental Authority to which the Corporation or any of the Corporation Assets is subject, (ii) there are no Claims in existence to which the Corporation is a party or any of the Corporation Assets may be bound or (to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation) threatened against the Corporation or any of the Corporation Assets and (iii) to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, there is no basis upon which a material Claim could reasonably expected to be made against the Corporation;

(t) other than the fuel tax audit which has been disclosed to Petrowest and other than amendments to filed tax returns relating to pre-Closing transactions disclosed to Petrowest, the Corporation has duly and timely (i) filed with the appropriate Governmental Authority or agency in the manner prescribed by Law all Tax Returns required to be filed by it and such Tax Returns are true, complete and accurate in all material respects; (ii) paid all Taxes (including instalments) due and payable by it and made adequate provision in the Financial Statements and accounts thereof for all Taxes payable for the periods reflected therein for which Tax Returns are not yet required to be filed and will make adequate provision in the books and records of the Corporation (including in the materials provided to the auditors in connection with the determination of the Adjustment Amount) for all Taxes payable in respect of the period then ended on the assumption that the Corporation had a taxation year ending on that date; (iii) withheld and remitted to the appropriate Governmental Authorities all amounts required to be withheld by it in respect of the Tax liability of any other person; and (iv) withheld from any amount paid to or credited by it to or for the account or benefit of any person, including any of its officers and directors and any non-resident person, the amount of all Taxes and other deductions required by any Law to be withheld from any such amount and has duly and timely remitted the same to the appropriate taxing or other governmental authority or agency. Notices of assessment of Canadian federal and provincial income tax liabilities of the Corporation have been issued for all taxation years ending on or prior to date of last completed financial year ended more than six months prior to this Agreement, and the Corporation is current with respect to its filing of returns for goods and services taxes payable pursuant to the Excise Tax Act (Canada). There are no claims, actions, suits, audits, proceedings, investigations or other actions pending or, to the knowledge of any of the Shareholders, threatened in respect of Taxes;

(u) all filings made by any of the Shareholders or the Corporation under which the Corporation has received or is entitled to government incentives, have been made in accordance, in all material respects, with all Laws and contain no misrepresentations which could cause any amount previously paid to, or credited to, or previously accrued on the accounts of the Corporation to be recovered or disallowed;

(v) the Corporation is not a party to any current agreement or other arrangement with any taxation authority and there are no waivers or objections extending the statutory period or providing for an extension of time with respect to the assessment or reassessment or payment of Taxes payable by the Corporation or Tax Returns required to be filed by the Corporation;

(w) the Corporation is not engaged in any discussions or negotiations with any taxation authorities in respect of its Taxes;

(x) except for reserves for income taxes accruing in the current fiscal year, the reserves and accrued liabilities disclosed on or reflected in the Financial Statements and the Books and Records are sufficient in all respects to provide for the liabilities in respect of which they have been established;

(y) (except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(y), each of which will be discharged without liability to the Corporation on or prior to the Closing Date) the Corporation has not guaranteed, endorsed, assumed or indemnified, contingently or otherwise, the obligations or indebtedness of any other person;

Employees

(z) except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(z), the Corporation is not a party to any written employment contract, consulting agreement, collective bargaining agreement or employee association agreement; the Corporation has not conducted and is not now conducting any negotiations with any labour unions or employee associations; the Corporation has complied with all of its obligations in respect of employment insurance programs, Canada Pension Plan payments and Worker's Compensation payments;

(aa) the only employees of the Corporation are listed in Schedule 3.2(z);

(bb) all Employee Plans are listed in Schedule 3.2(z) and:

(i) the Corporation has paid or provided for all liabilities for wages, vacation pay, salaries, bonuses, pensions and all other amounts payable under the Employee Plans;

(ii) each of the Employee Plans complies with and has been administered in substantial compliance with the terms thereof and Laws; and

(iii) have been, or will by Closing be, terminated with no further Liability of the Corporation or Petrowest, provided that Petrowest has provided for a replacement plan the terms of which are satisfactory to the Shareholders acting reasonably;

(cc) no Affiliate, director, officer or employee of the Corporation (past or present) or any person not dealing at "arm's length" (within the meaning of the Canadian Tax Act) with any such person is indebted to the Corporation and (other than the Shareholder Loans) the Corporation is not indebted to any such person. All transactions between the Corporation and any person not dealing at arm's length were undertaken for fair market value consideration;

Assets

(dd) the Corporation is the sole beneficial and (where its interests are registrable) the sole registered owner of all of the Corporation Assets, with good and valid title, free and clear of all Encumbrances other than Permitted Encumbrances. In particular, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, there has been no assignment, subletting or granting of any licence (of occupation or otherwise) of or in respect of any of the Corporation Assets or any granting of any agreement or right capable of becoming an agreement or option for the purchase of any of the Corporation Assets;

(ee) the Corporation has no material assets except as set forth in Schedule 1.1(u), the Corporation Assets are in good working order for the prudent pursuit of the Corporation's business except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(ee) and the Corporation owns or leases all the assets necessary for the conduct of its business as now conducted by it;

(ff) the accounts receivable of the Corporation in all material respects are good and collectible at the aggregate recorded amounts, except to the extent of any reserves provided for such accounts in the Books and Records for the Corporation, and are not subject to any defence, counterclaim or set off;

(gg) the Corporation has made available to Petrowest a correct and complete copy of each Material Contract (as amended to date), all of which are listed in Schedule 3.2(gg). The Corporation is not in breach of any such Material Contracts in any material respect nor has any circumstance occurred or does any circumstance exist that with the passage of time, notice or both, constitute such a breach, and, to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, no third party to any of such Material Contracts is in breach of any such Material Contracts;

(hh) the Corporation has not received any notice alleging its default under any Material Contract, which default has not been rectified as of the date hereof;

(ii) the Corporation is not a party to or bound or affected by any commitment, agreement or document containing any covenant expressly limiting the freedom of the Corporation to compete in any line of business, transfer or move any of its assets or operations or which materially or adversely affects the business practices, operations or conditions of the Corporation or the continued operation of its business after the Closing Date;

(jj) to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, the Corporation has not interfered with, infringed upon, misappropriated or otherwise come into conflict with any patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret or other intellectual property rights of any person or received notice of any Claim of any person that they have done so;

Environmental

(kk) except as disclosed in Schedule 3.2(kk),

(i) to the knowledge of the Shareholders, all Environmental Approvals required to be held by the Corporation have been obtained, are listed in Schedule 3.2(kk), are valid and in full force and effect, have been and are being complied with in all material respects, and there have been and are no proceedings commenced, applications for proceedings made, nor to the knowledge of the Shareholders have there been any proceedings or applications for proceedings threatened to revoke or amend any Environmental Approvals;

(ii) to the knowledge of the Shareholders, any Release by the Corporation of any Hazardous Substance into the Environment complied and complies with all Environmental Laws;

(iii) the Corporation has not entered into an agreement that may require it to pay, reimburse, guarantee, pledge, defer, indemnify or hold harmless any person from or against any liability or cost relating to any Release of Hazardous Substance or environmental condition or arising from any non-compliance with any Environmental Law;

(iv) the Corporation has not been prosecuted for or convicted of any offence under Environmental Laws or found liable in any proceeding to pay any fine or judgment to any person as a result of any Release or threatened Release of any Hazardous Substance into the Environment or the breach of any Environmental Law and there are no proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, threatened relating to the foregoing and, to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, there is no basis for any such proceedings; and

(v) to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, there is no above-ground or underground storage tank, urea formaldehyde foam insulation, friable asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls ("PCBs") or radioactive substance in, on or under the property covered by any Real Property Leases;

Real Property

(ll) Schedule 3.2(ll) sets forth a complete list of all of the Real Property and a legal description for such Real Property. The Corporation is the legal and beneficial owner of the Real Property (as set forth in Schedule 3.2(11)) in fee simple, with good and marketable title thereto, free and clear of all Encumbrances other than Permitted Encumbrances. All accounts for work and services performed or materials placed or furnished upon or in respect of the construction and completion of any of the buildings, improvements or other structures constructed on the Real Property have been fully paid and no one is entitled to claim a lien under the Builders' Lien Act (Alberta) or other similar legislation for such work performed by or on behalf of the Corporation. There are no matters affecting the right, title and interest of the Corporation in and to the Real Property (as set forth in Schedule 3.2(11)), which in the aggregate, would materially and adversely affect the ability of the Corporation to carry on its business upon the Real Property (as set forth in Schedule 3.2(11);

(mm) the Corporation is not a party to any Real Property Leases other than those listed in Schedule 3.2(mm). The Corporation is not in breach of any such Real Property Leases in any material respect nor has any circumstance occurred or does any circumstance exist that with the passage of time, notice or both, constitute such a breach, and, to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, no third party to any of such Real Property Leases is in breach of any such Real Property Leases;

Miscellaneous

(nn) Schedule 3.2(nn) sets forth a complete list of every financial institution in which the Corporation maintains any depository or other account or safety deposit box and the names of all persons authorized to draw on or who have access to such accounts or safety deposit box; and

(oo) the information provided by or on behalf of the Shareholders or the Corporation with respect to the Corporation constitutes full, plain and true disclosure of all material facts relating to the Corporation, its business, operations and capital, there are no misrepresentations in any written information provided by or on behalf of the Shareholders or the Corporation to Petrowest and none of the Shareholders or the Corporation has knowingly withheld from Petrowest any information, documents or agreements relevant to the Corporation Assets or the Corporation which might reasonably be expected to be material to a purchaser of the Shares or Corporation Assets.

3.3 Representations and Warranties of Petrowest and the Trust

Each of Petrowest and the Trust jointly and severally represents and warrants to each of the Shareholders that:

(a) Petrowest is duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction of its incorporation and has the corporate power to own or lease its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted by it and is duly licensed or qualified to carry on business in each jurisdiction as the nature of its business requires and, at the Closing Date, will have such power

and be so licensed or qualified as is required by its business as proposed to be conducted;

(b) at Closing, the Trust will be duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction of its formation and have the power to own or lease its property and assets and to carry on its business as proposed to be conducted by it and will be duly licensed or qualified to carry on business in each jurisdiction as the nature of its business requires;

(c) Petrowest has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder;

(d) at Closing, the Trust will have all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder;

(e) the execution and delivery of this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto, the performance of the terms hereof and thereof and the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein and therein do not and will not:

(i) result in the breach of or violate any term or provision of the charter, by-laws or governing documents of Petrowest or the declaration of trust of the Trust; or

(ii) conflict with, result in a breach of, constitute a default under, or accelerate or permit the acceleration of the performance required by, any material agreement, instrument, licence, permit or authority to which Petrowest or the Trust is a party or by which it is bound or to which any of its property is subject or result in the creation of any Encumbrance upon any of the assets of Petrowest or the Trust or give to others any material interest or right, including any right of purchase, termination, cancellation or acceleration under any such agreement, instrument, license, permit or authority; or

(iii) violate any provision of law or administrative regulation or any judicial or administrative order, award, judgment or decree applicable to Petrowest or the Trust;

(f) each of the Trust and Petrowest is, in all material respects, in compliance with all Laws;

(g) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Petrowest and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Petrowest enforceable in accordance with its terms and all documents to be delivered by Petrowest or the Trust, as the case may be, pursuant hereto will be duly executed and delivered by Petrowest and will constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of

Petrowest and the Trust, respectively, enforceable in accordance with their respective terms;

(h) neither Petrowest nor the Trust have or will have carried on any active business other than the organization of, and preparation for the consummation of, the Concurrent Acquisitions, the Concurrent Financing and related matters;

(i) the authorized capital of Petrowest is comprised of an unlimited number of common shares and, as of the Closing Date, all of the issued and outstanding common shares will be held by the Trust;

(j) at Closing, the authorized capital of the Trust will be comprised of an unlimited number of Units of which, prior to the Closing, the closing of the Concurrent Acquisitions and the closing of the Concurrent Financing, not more than 1,500,000 Units (including subordinated units) will be issued and outstanding, each fully paid and non-assessable and, after the closing of the Concurrent Acquisitions and the closing of the Concurrent Financing, not more than 1,500,000 Units (including subordinated units) will be issued and outstanding, each fully paid and non-assessable;

(k) the Trust will, on the Closing Date, be a mutual fund trust under the Canadian Tax Act;

(l) each of the agreements relating to the Concurrent Acquisitions is substantially the same as this Agreement (other than price);

(m) the Units to be issued pursuant to Section 2.2 will be duly and validly issued and delivered as fully paid and non-assessable trust units of the Trust and, other than the escrow contemplated by section 5.2(d), will not be subject to any escrow or restriction on trading;

(n) at Closing, the prospectus filed in connection with the Concurrent Financing will contain full, true and plain disclosure of all material facts relating to the Trust and Petrowest, their prospective businesses, operations and capital (excluding the business, operations and capital of the Corporation);

(o) other than the fee payable to Westwind Partners Inc., Petrowest has not incurred any obligation or liability, contingent or otherwise, for brokerage fees, finder's fees, agent's commission or other similar forms of compensation with respect to the transactions contemplated herein;

(p) there is no suit, action, litigation, investigation, claim, complaint, grievance or proceeding, including appeals and applications for review, in progress, or, to the knowledge of Petrowest, pending or threatened against or relating to Petrowest or the Trust before any court, Governmental Authority, commission, board, bureau, agency or arbitration panel which, if determined adversely to Petrowest, would,

(i) materially and adversely affect the properties, business, future prospects or financial condition of Petrowest or the Trust,

(ii) enjoin, restrict or prohibit the transfer of all or any part of the Shares or the issue of Units as contemplated by this Agreement; or

(iii) prevent Petrowest from fulfilling all of its obligations set out in this Agreement or arising from this Agreement, and Petrowest has no knowledge of any existing ground on which any such action, suit, litigation or proceeding might be commenced with any reasonable likelihood of success. There is not presently outstanding against Petrowest any judgement, decree, injunction, rule or order of Governmental Authority; and

(q) Petrowest is not a "non Canadian" within the meaning of the Investment Canada Act.

3.4 Non-Waiver

No investigations made by or on behalf of Petrowest or the Shareholders at any time shall have the effect of waiving, diminishing the scope or otherwise affecting any representation or warranty made by the Shareholders or Petrowest, as the case may be, in or pursuant to this Agreement. No waiver of any condition or other provisions, in whole or in part, shall constitute as a waiver of any other condition or provision (whether or not similar) nor shall such waiver constitute a continuing waiver unless otherwise expressly provided.

3.5 Nature and Survival

All representations, warranties and covenants contained in this Agreement on the part of each of the Parties shall survive the Closing, the execution and delivery under this Agreement of any share or security transfer instruments or other documents of title to any of the Shares and the payment of the consideration for the Shares.

ARTICLE 4
COVENANTS

4.1 Covenants of the Shareholders and the Corporation

(a) From the date hereof to and until the Closing Date, the Shareholders and the Corporation shall permit Petrowest, Petrowest's Counsel and Petrowest's authorized representatives to have full access to all files, premises, properties, personnel, books, records (including Tax Records), auditors, contracts and documents of or pertaining to the Corporation and any predecessor corporations or entities prior to Closing for purposes of performing due diligence with respect to the Corporation and its assets and affairs. The provisions of the Confidentiality and Non-disclosure Agreement shall continue to be applicable to any information made available by such parties pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

(b) Each of the Shareholders and the Corporation who is a party to or bound by the Unanimous Shareholders Agreement hereby agrees and consents to the termination of such agreement immediately prior to the Closing Time and, subject to Closing occurring, hereby irrevocably waives and releases each of the others from and in respect of any and all obligations thereunder, whether due on, prior to or after the date hereof.

(c) Upon any restructuring or reorganization of the Corporation resulting in any person, other than the Shareholders, acquiring any of the Shares, the Shareholders shall cause such person to execute a counterpart signature page to this Agreement.

4.2 Efforts to Satisfy Conditions

Each Party shall use all reasonable commercial efforts and shall proceed diligently, honestly and in good faith to cause the conditions set forth in Section 5.1, Section 5.2 and Section 5.3 which are within its reasonable control to be satisfied. Each Party shall provide such information and cooperation to the other Party as it may reasonably request in connection with the satisfaction of such conditions.

4.3 Tax Returns

(a) The Shareholders shall cause the Corporation to prepare and file in a timely manner (at its cost and in consultation with the Shareholders) all Tax Returns required to be filed by the Corporation for any period that ends on or before the Closing Date and for which Tax Returns have not been filed as of the Closing Date. Petrowest shall obtain the consent of Shareholders to any Tax Returns filed in respect of any period ending on or prior to the Closing Date, which consent shall be deemed received unless the Shareholders advises otherwise within 10 business days following receipt of the return and request for consent. The Shareholders and Petrowest shall co-operate fully with each other and none of the Parties will unreasonably withhold its consent to a request made by any other Party with respect to such Tax Returns. Such Tax Returns will be prepared in accordance with reasonable business practices and the Corporation's past practices. The Parties agree that an election shall be made by the Corporation in its Tax Return filed for its taxation year ending immediately before the acquisition of control by Petrowest not to have subsection 256(9) of the Canadian Tax Act apply, with the result that the taxation year of the Corporation shall end immediately before the Closing Time.

(b) No Tax Returns shall be filed by any of the Shareholders between the date hereof and the Closing Date except with the prior written consent of Petrowest, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

4.4 Covenant of Petrowest

Upon the organization and formation of the Trust, Petrowest shall cause the Trust to execute an agreement, in a form acceptable to the Shareholders acting reasonably, whereby the Trust agrees to be bound by its representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities hereunder.

ARTICLE 5
CONDITIONS TO CLOSING

5.1 Mutual Conditions

The obligations of Petrowest, the Shareholders and the Corporation pursuant hereto are subject to the following conditions being satisfied in all respects at or prior to the Closing Time, or such earlier time as is specified below:

(a) there shall not be any suit, action or other proceeding that shall, at Closing, be pending against any of the Parties before any Governmental Authority and no law, regulation or policy shall have been proposed, enacted or applied: (i) making illegal or seeking to restrain, prohibit or obtain damages or other relief in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; (ii) prohibiting or materially limiting the ownership or operation by Petrowest of a material portion of the business or assets thereof or requiring Petrowest to dispose of or hold separately any such portion of any Shares or Corporation Assets, as applicable; or (iii) making the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement materially more costly to Petrowest or materially reducing the value of the Shares;

(b) all Required Approvals shall have been obtained on terms acceptable to the Shareholders and Petrowest, acting reasonably, at or prior to the Closing Time;

(c) the commercial terms of the Trust are satisfactory to the Shareholders and Petrowest, in each case, acting reasonably, including:

  (i) the Concurrent Financing shall have closed or be closing at the Closing Time; and

  (ii) such of the Concurrent Acquisitions as have an aggregate Base Purchase Price not less than $100 million shall have closed or be closing at the Closing Time; and

(d) Petrowest and each of the persons listed in Schedule 5.1(e) hereto shall have executed and delivered a management agreement in the form set forth in such Schedule.

5.2 Conditions for the Benefit of Petrowest

The obligations of Petrowest to buy the Shares and Shareholder Loans from the Shareholders pursuant hereto are subject to the following conditions (which are for the exclusive benefit of Petrowest) being satisfied in all respects at or prior to the Closing Time, or such earlier time as is specified below:

(a) the representations and warranties of the Shareholders in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects at the Closing Time with the same force and effect as if made at and as of such time;

(b) the Shareholders and the Corporation shall have performed or complied in all material respects with all of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Agreement to be performed or complied with by the Shareholders and the Corporation at or prior to the Closing Time pursuant hereto;

(c) on or before May 23, 2006, Petrowest shall have completed its due diligence review and, in its sole discretion, been satisfied with the results of such review;

(d) at Closing, the Shareholders shall have delivered all items which they are required to deliver pursuant to Section 6.2 and shall have duly executed and delivered an agreement to escrow the Units to be issued pursuant to Section 2.2 for release as to one quarter thereof on the Closing Date and on each of the 6 month, 12 month and 18 month anniversaries of the Closing Date in form and substance satisfactory to Petrowest, acting reasonably;

(e) the Shareholders shall have delivered opinions of the Shareholders' Counsel as to the matters in Section 3.1(a), (b), (c) and (d) and Section 3.2(a), (b), (c) and (d)(i), in form and substance satisfactory to Petrowest, acting reasonably;

(f) each of the Shareholders shall have delivered, on the Closing Date, a certificate of such Shareholder dated the Closing Date, addressed to Petrowest and signed by the Shareholder or, in the case of a Shareholder that is a corporation, signed on the Shareholder's behalf by its President or such other officer or director satisfactory to Petrowest, acting reasonably, certifying that to the knowledge of the Shareholders the representations and warranties of the Shareholder set forth in this Agreement are true and correct at the Closing Time, as if made at such time and the Shareholder has not breached, or failed to comply with, in any material respect, any of its covenants or other obligations under this Agreement; and

(g) Petrowest shall have obtained all applicable governmental, regulatory and contractual approvals to complete the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

5.3 Conditions for the Benefit of the Shareholders

The Shareholders' obligations to Petrowest pursuant hereto are subject to the following conditions (which are for the exclusive benefit of the Shareholders) being satisfied in all respects at or prior to the Closing Time or such earlier time as is specified below:

(a) the representations and warranties of Petrowest in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects at the Closing Time with the same force and effect as if made at and as of such time;

(b) Petrowest shall have performed or complied in all material respects with all of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Agreement to be performed or complied with by Petrowest at or prior to the Closing Time pursuant hereto;

(c) at Closing, Petrowest shall have delivered all items they are required to deliver pursuant to Section 6.3;

(d) Petrowest shall have delivered, on the Closing Date, a certificate of Petrowest dated the Closing Date, addressed to the Shareholders and signed on Petrowest's behalf by its President or such other officer or director satisfactory to the Shareholders, acting reasonably, certifying that the representations and warranties of Petrowest set forth in this Agreement are true and correct at the Closing Time, as if made at such time and Petrowest has not breached, or failed to comply with, in any material respect, any of its covenants or other obligations under this Agreement; and

(e) Petrowest shall have delivered an opinion of Petrowest's Counsel as to the matters set forth in Section 3.3(a), (b), (c), (d), (e)(i), (e)(iii), (g), (i), (j), (k) and (m) in form and substance satisfactory to the Shareholders, acting reasonably.

ARTICLE 6
CLOSING

6.1 Closing

The Closing shall take place at the Closing Time at the offices of Petrowest' Counsel located at 4500, 855 – 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 4K7, or at such other place as may be agreed upon by the Shareholders and Petrowest.

6.2 Deliveries by the Shareholders at Closing

At Closing, the Shareholders shall deliver to Petrowest:

(a) an updated version of Schedule 3.1 indicating the beneficial owners of record of all of the Shares;

(b) an updated version of Schedule 3.2 indicating the authorized capital of the Corporation and the issued and outstanding shares of the Corporation;

(c) the certificates representing the Shares duly endorsed for transfer by the Shareholders and new share certificates issued in the name of Petrowest in respect of the Shares;

(d) certificates of the appropriate government officials, dated the Closing Date, evidencing the existence and good standing of each of the Shareholders, if a corporation and the Corporation in the jurisdiction of its organization;

(e) the minute books, corporate seals and all corporate records of the Corporation;

(f) resignations and releases of all directors and officers of the Corporation and reciprocal releases of such directors and officers by the Corporation, each in form and substance satisfactory to Petrowest;

(g) certified copies of directors' resolutions of the Corporation confirming approval of the transfer of the Shares to Petrowest in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement; and

(h) such other documents and instruments as Petrowest's Counsel may reasonably require.

6.3 Deliveries by Petrowest at Closing

At Closing, Petrowest shall pay the Base Purchase Price to the Shareholders, including delivering certificates to the Shareholders representing the Units issuable to the Shareholders pursuant to Section 2.2(b).

6.4 Closing Escrow

The items tabled at Closing pursuant to Section 6.2 and Section 6.3 shall be held in escrow until all of such items have been tabled and then shall remain in escrow until the Effective Time. At the Effective Time, provided all conditions in Article 5 have been satisfied or waived, such escrow shall be terminated and the items described in Section 6.2 shall be delivered to Petrowest and the items described in Section 6.3 shall be delivered to the Shareholders and the Closing shall have occurred. If such escrow is not released on or before 4:00 p.m. (Calgary Time) on October 31, 2006 and the Parties do not agree to an extension of the escrow, the Closing shall be deemed not to have occurred and the documents and certificates tabled by a Party pursuant to this Article 6 shall be returned to that Party.

ARTICLE 7
INDEMNITIES

7.1 Shareholders Indemnity

After Closing but subject to Section 7.4, each of the Shareholders jointly and severally agrees to indemnify and save harmless each of Petrowest, the Trust and their Affiliates from and against all Losses and Obligations which they suffer, sustain, pay or incur, directly or indirectly:

(i) as a consequence of or in connection with a breach of a representation or warranty made by any of the Shareholders or the Corporation in this Agreement or a breach by any of the Shareholders or the Corporation of any of the covenants made by any thereof in this Agreement; or

(ii) as a consequence of or in connection with any environmental matter relating to the Corporation or the Corporations Assets prior to the Closing Time;

except any such Losses and Obligations as have been caused by or result from the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of any such indemnified person. The Parties agree that for the purposes of Section 7.1(i), in the case of any breach of representation or warranty of any of the Shareholders, the measure of Losses and Obligations in respect thereof will be, dollar for dollar, the difference in what would have been the position (financial and otherwise) of the Corporation had such representation been true or the warranty not breached and the actual position (financial and otherwise) of the Corporation (given such misrepresentation or breach of warranty).

7.2 Petrowest Indemnity

After Closing, Petrowest and the Trust agree to indemnify and save harmless each of the Shareholders and their Affiliates from and against all Losses and Obligations which they suffer, sustain, pay or incur, directly or indirectly, as a consequence of or in connection with:

(i) a breach of a representation or warranty made by Petrowest or the Trust in this Agreement or a breach by Petrowest or the Trust of a covenant made by it in this Agreement; or

(ii) subject to the Shareholders' obligations in respect of the indemnity contained in Section 7.1, any matter or circumstance relating to Corporation Assets or the operation thereof which occurs after the Closing Time or which relates to the Corporation and occurs after the Closing Time;

except any such Losses and Obligations as have been caused by or result from the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of any such indemnified person.

7.3 Tax Indemnity

(a) After Closing, the Shareholders shall be jointly and severally liable to and agree to indemnify and save harmless the Corporation (which in this Section 7.3 includes the Corporation's successors and assigns) in respect of all Losses and Obligations which the Corporation may suffer, sustain, pay or incur as a consequence of or in connection with any breach of any of the representations and warranties in Section 3.2(t) to (x) inclusive.

(b) Any person entitled to indemnification as herein set forth (the "Indemnified Parties") shall give prompt written notice to the Shareholders whenever it becomes aware that a Claim has been or may be made for which the Shareholders may be liable pursuant to this Section 7.3 (the "Tax Indemnity"). Unless the Shareholders notify the Indemnified Parties that it elects not to have carriage and control of a Claim the Shareholders shall, at their own expense and employing counsel of their own choice, have full carriage and control of the contestation of any such Claim, provided that if the Claim does not relate solely to matters to which the Tax Indemnity may apply, the Indemnified Parties shall, at its own expense and employing counsel of its own choice, have full carriage and control of the contestation of the portion of the Claims relating to matters to which the Tax Indemnity does not relate; and further provided that where the Shareholders have carriage and control of a Claim neither the Indemnified Parties nor the Corporation will agree to any compromise or settlement of such Claim to which the Tax Indemnity may apply without the consent of the Shareholders which will not be unreasonably withheld. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Shareholders' right to have carriage and control of the contestation of any such Claim shall only apply and continue to apply after payment of the amount of such Claim or the provision of such security as is necessary to avoid a lien being placed on the property of the Corporation in respect of such Claim. Where the Shareholders have carriage and control of a Claim, if the Indemnified Parties does not consent to a settlement of a Claim to which the Tax Indemnity may apply following a request from the Shareholders to do so, the obligation of the Shareholders to indemnify the Indemnified Parties for the Claim shall be limited to the amount that the Shareholders would have been required to pay pursuant hereto in respect of the Claim if the settlement had been accepted and the Shareholders shall forthwith transfer carriage of the contestation of the Claim to the Indemnified Parties or its nominee. The Indemnified Parties, the Corporation and the Shareholders shall cooperate with each other and allow each other reasonable access to documents and records in any defence of any such Claims and shall keep each other reasonably informed of the conduct thereof. If the Shareholders elect not to have carriage and control of the contestation of the Claim, the Indemnified Parties and the Corporation shall be under no obligation to contest, settle or compromise the Claim and such failure to contest, settle or compromise the Claim shall not prejudice its rights pursuant to this Indemnity.

(c) The Parties undertake to inform each other of any audit inquiries with respect to issues to which the Tax Indemnity may apply and to cooperate with each other in making any representations prior to any assessment to which those indemnities may apply.

(d) The amounts payable in respect of the Tax Indemnity shall constitute and be treated by the parties as an adjustment to the Base Purchase Price.

7.4 Limitations on Indemnities

(a) No Claim for performance of an indemnity or in respect of a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty made in this Agreement (other than pursuant to Section 7.3) shall be made or be enforceable, whether by legal proceedings or otherwise, unless written notice of such Claim is given by the party seeking redress to the party or parties from whom redress is sought on or before: (i) in respect of a breach of Section 3.2(kk), the expiry of the statutory period in which a Claim, assessment or reassessment may be brought or effected against the Corporation in respect thereof; (ii) in respect of a breach of any of Section 3.2(t) to (x), the expiry of ninety days after the relevant Governmental Authorities shall no longer be entitled to assess liability for tax against the Corporation for any particular taxation year ended on or prior to the Closing Date, having regard without limitation, to any waivers given by the Shareholders of the Corporation in respect of any taxation year; and (iii) otherwise, the expiry of eighteen months from the Closing Date;

(b) The maximum cumulative liability of the Shareholders in respect of indemnities and breaches of the representations, warranties and covenants made by the Shareholders in this Agreement (other than pursuant to Section 7.3) shall not exceed the Adjusted Purchase Price;

(c) Except as otherwise set out herein, the parties' sole remedy for a misrepresentation or breach of a warranty or other agreement contained in this Agreement is limited to the indemnities contained in Article 7 and is limited by the provisions of this Section 7.4;

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, the Shareholder shall have no liability to Petrowest for any specific matter or claim for which Petrowest has received an adjustment to the Purchase Price to the extent of such adjustment;

(e) Petrowest shall not be entitled to make a Claim against the Shareholders for indemnity pursuant to this Agreement unless and until the aggregate amount of all Losses and Obligations with respect to all Claims asserted by Petrowest under this Agreement (other than pursuant to Section 7.3) exceeds 1% of the Base Purchase Price. Once such minimum threshold in Losses and Obligations has been sustained by Petrowest, the entirety of all Losses and Obligations sustained by Petrowest shall be compensable under this Section 7.4, subject to the other provisions of this Section. Claims pursuant to Section 7.3 shall not be included in claims for the purposes of this Section 7.4(e);

(f) Petrowest' Losses hereunder shall be deemed reduced by the amount of any insurance proceeds and any tax benefits received by Petrowest with respect to such Losses; and

(g) Petrowest shall not be entitled to indemnity under both Section 7.3 and Section 7.1 for the same Loss.

7.5 Indemnification Procedure

(a) For purposes of this Section 7.5, the term "Indemnifying Party" when used in connection with a Claim shall mean the Person having an obligation to indemnify the other Party with respect to such Claim pursuant to this Agreement (other than under Section 7.3), and the term "Indemnified Party" when used in connection with a particular Claim shall mean the Person having the right to be indemnified with respect to such Claim by the other Party pursuant to this Agreement (other than under Section 7.3)

(b) To make claim for indemnification, an Indemnified Party shall notify the Indemnifying Party of its claim under this Section 7.5, including the specific details of and specific basis under this Agreement for its claim (the "Claim Notice"). In the event that the claim for indemnification is based upon a claim by a third party against the Indemnified Party (a "Third Party Claim"), the Indemnified Party shall provide its Claim Notice promptly after the Indemnified Party has actual knowledge of the Third Party Claim and shall enclose a copy of all papers (if any) served with respect to the Third Party Claim; provided that the failure of any Indemnified Party to give notice of a Third Party Claim as provided in this Section 7.5 shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations under this Agreement except to the extent such failure results in insufficient time being available to permit the Indemnifying Party to effectively defend against the Third Party Claim or otherwise materially prejudices the Indemnifying Party's ability to defend against the Third Party Claim. In the event that the claim for indemnification is based upon an inaccuracy or breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or agreement, the Claim Notice shall specify the representation, warranty, covenant or agreement which was inaccurate or breached.

(c) In the case of a claim for indemnification based upon a Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party shall have 30 days from its receipt of the Claim Notice to notify the Indemnified Party whether it admits or denies its liability to defend the Indemnified Party against such Third Party Claim at the sole cost and expense of the Indemnifying Party. The Indemnified Party is authorized, prior to and during such 30-day period, to file any motion, answer or other pleading that it shall deem necessary or appropriate to protect its interests or those of the Indemnifying Party and that is not prejudicial to the Indemnifying Party.

(d) If the Indemnifying Party admits its liability, it shall have the right and obligation to diligently defend, at its sole cost and expense, the Third Party Claim. The Indemnifying Party shall have full control of such defense and proceedings, including any compromise or settlement thereof. If requested by the Indemnifying Party, the Indemnified Party agrees to cooperate, at the cost and expense of the Indemnifying Party, in contesting any Third Party Claim which the Indemnifying Party elects to contest. The Indemnified Party may participate in, but not control, any defense or settlement of any Third Party Claim controlled by the Indemnifying Party pursuant to this Section 7.5(d). An Indemnifying Party shall not, without the written consent of the Indemnified Party, (i) settle any Third Party Claim or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect thereto which does not include an unconditional written release of the Indemnified Party from all liability in respect of such Third Party Claim or (ii) settle any Third Party Claim or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect thereto in any manner that may materially and adversely affect the Indemnified Party (other than as a result of money damages covered by the indemnity).

(e) If the Indemnifying Party does not admit its liability or admits its liability but fails to diligently prosecute or settle the Third Party Claim, then the Indemnified Party shall have the right to defend against the Third Party Claim at the sole cost and expense of the Indemnifying Party, with counsel of the Indemnified Party's choosing, subject to the right of the Indemnifying Party to admit its liability and assume the defense of the Third Party Claim at any time prior to settlement or final determination thereof. If the Indemnifying Party has not yet admitted its liability for a Third Party Claim, the Indemnified Party shall send written notice to the Indemnifying Party of any proposed settlement and the Indemnifying Party shall have the option for 10 days following receipt of such notice to (i) admit in writing its liability for the Third Party Claim and (ii) if liability is so admitted, reject, in its reasonable judgment, the proposed settlement.

(f) In the case of a claim for indemnification not based upon a Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party shall have 30 days from its receipt of the Claim Notice to (i) cure the Losses and Obligations complained of; (ii) admit its liability for such Losses or (iii) dispute the claim for such Losses and Obligations. If the Indemnifying Party does not notify the Indemnified Party within such 30-day period that it has cured the Losses and Obligations or that it disputes the claim for such Losses and Obligations, the amount of such Losses and Obligations shall conclusively be deemed a liability of the Indemnifying Party hereunder.

7.6 Materiality

For the purposes of calculating Losses and Obligations in conjunction with any breach of a representation, warranty or covenant pursuant to Sections 7.1, 7.2 or 7.3, any standard or threshold of materiality relating to such breached representation, warranty or covenant shall be ignored.

ARTICLE 8
TERMINATION

8.1 Termination

If this Agreement is terminated prior to the Closing occurring pursuant to Section 5.1, Section 5.2 or Section 5.3, the Parties shall be released from all obligations under this Agreement except the Confidentiality and Non-disclosure Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms, and each Party shall remain liable for breaches by it of this Agreement occurring prior to such termination. Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Section, following such termination, each Party shall be responsible for the costs and expenses incurred by it in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

8.2 Survival

Subject to the limitations and provisions set forth in this Agreement, notwithstanding the occurrence of Closing and the items delivered at Closing pursuant hereto, the representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities contained in this Agreement shall survive the Closing and the delivery of the items delivered at Closing pursuant hereto for the benefit of the Parties in accordance with terms hereof. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, no limitation in respect of the survival of any provision of this Agreement or the period in respect of which any Claims or other recourse may be made shall apply insofar as the breach of the provision or the matter in respect of which recourse is sought involves fraud on the part of the Party or Parties against whom the provision is sought to be enforced or from whom such recourse is sought. If any document executed at or after Closing, pursuant hereto is inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail unless the Parties expressly and explicitly agree to the contrary.

ARTICLE 9
ARBITRATION

9.1 Procedure

Any controversy submitted to arbitration pursuant to this Agreement shall be subject to the following principles:

(a) Upon written demand of a Party, representatives of the Parties shall meet and attempt to appoint a single arbitrator. If such representatives are unable to agree on a single arbitrator within five (5) days of such demand, then upon written demand by any Party, any Shareholder and Petrowest shall, within ten (10) days of such demand, each name an arbitrator and the two arbitrators so named shall promptly thereafter choose a third. If a Party shall fail to name an arbitrator within ten (10) days from such demand, then the arbitrator for that Party shall be appointed by any Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta upon application by the other Party. If the two arbitrators shall fail within ten (10) days from their appointment to agree upon and appoint the third arbitrator, then such third arbitrator shall be appointed by any Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta upon request of either Party.

(b) The arbitrator or arbitrators selected to act hereunder shall be qualified by education, experience and training to pass upon the particular question in dispute.

(c) The arbitrator or arbitrators chosen as aforesaid shall proceed immediately to hear and determine the question or questions in dispute. The decision of the single arbitrator shall be made within forty-five (45) days after his or her appointment, subject to any reasonable delay due to unforeseen circumstances. Where there are three arbitrators, the decision of the arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall be made within forty-five (45) days after the appointment of the third arbitrator, subject to any reasonable delay due to unforeseen circumstances. In the event the single arbitrator or the arbitrators, or a majority of them, fail to make a decision within the period herein prescribed, then either Party may elect to have a new single arbitrator or arbitrators chosen in the manner herein prescribed, as if none had previously been selected.

(d) The decision of the single arbitrator or the decision of the arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall be drawn up in writing and signed by the single arbitrator or by the arbitrators, or a majority of them, and shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto.

(e) The liability between the Parties hereto for the payment of the compensation and expenses of the single arbitrator or the arbitrators shall be determined by the arbitrator or arbitrators, as the case may be.

(f) Arbitration pursuant hereto shall be governed in all respects not addressed herein by the provisions of the Arbitration Act (Alberta) and regulations thereunder.

ARTICLE 10
NOTICES

10.1 Notices

Any notice, consent, waiver, direction or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Agreement by a party to any other party shall be in writing and shall be delivered by hand delivery, facsimile transmission or (provided that the mailing party does not know and should not reasonably have known of any disruption or anticipated disruption of postal service which might affect delivery of the mail) by registered mail (postage prepaid), addressed to the party to whom the notice is to be given, at its address for service herein. Any notice, consent, waiver, direction or other communication aforesaid shall, if hand delivered or delivered by facsimile transmission, be deemed to have been given and received on the date on which it was hand delivered or delivered by facsimile transmission to the address provided herein (if a business day and, if not, the next succeeding business day) and if sent by registered mail be deemed to have been given and received on the third business day at the point of delivery following the date on which it was so sent.

10.2 Address for Service

ARTICLE 11
MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 Further Assurances

Each Party shall, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, at the request of another Party, but without further consideration, do all such further acts and execute and deliver all such further documents and instruments as shall be reasonably required in order to fully perform and carry out the terms and intent hereof.

11.2 Time of the Essence

Time shall be of the essence of this Agreement.

11.3 Public Announcements

Until Closing has occurred, no public announcement or press release concerning the sale and purchase of the Shares shall be made by a Party or its Affiliates without the prior written consent and joint approval of the other Party, which consent and approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided that nothing contained herein shall prevent either Party at any time furnishing any information to any governmental agency or regulatory authority (including applicable stock exchanges) or to the public if required by Laws or the rule of a stock exchange.

11.4 Amendments and Waiver

No modification of or amendment to this Agreement shall be valid or binding unless set forth in writing and duly executed by both Parties and no waiver of any breach of any term or provisions of this Agreement shall be effective or binding unless made in writing and signed by the Party purporting to give the same and, unless otherwise provided, shall be limited to the specific breach waived. No failure on the part of any Party in exercising any right or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or remedy preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or remedy in law or in equity or by statute or otherwise conferred.

11.5 Entire Agreement

This Agreement together with the Confidentiality and Non-disclosure Agreement and the agreements and other documents to be delivered pursuant to this Agreement, constitute the entire agreement between the Parties pertaining to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede all prior agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the Parties, including the Letter of Intent and there are no warranties, representations or other agreements between the Parties in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, and any document delivered pursuant to this Agreement. No supplement, modification or waiver or termination of this Agreement shall be binding unless executed in writing by the Party to be bound thereby.

11.6 Applicable Law

This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and the laws of Canada applicable therein and shall be treated, in all respects, as an Alberta contract.

11.7 Amendments

This Agreement may only be amended by a written instrument signed by the Parties.

11.8 Severability

If any one or more of the provisions or parts thereof contained in this Agreement should be or become invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect in any jurisdiction, the remaining provisions or parts thereof contained herein shall be and shall be conclusively deemed to be, as to such jurisdiction, severable therefrom and:

(a) the validity, legality or enforceability of such remaining provisions or parts thereof shall not in any way be affected or impaired by the severance of the provisions or parts thereof severed; and

(b) the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of any provision or part thereof contained in this Agreement in any jurisdiction shall not affect or impair such provision or part thereof or any other provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction.

11.9 Execution in Counterpart

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts with the same effect as if all signatories to the counterparts had signed one document, all such counterparts shall together constitute, and be construed as, one instrument and each of such counterparts shall, notwithstanding the date of its execution, be deemed to bear the date first above written. Delivery of counterparts may be effected by facsimile transmission.

11.10 Benefit of the Agreement

This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns of the Parties. No person other than the Parties and their successors and permitted assigns shall be entitled to any rights or benefits hereunder.

11.11 Assignment

This Agreement may not be assigned by any Party without the prior consent of the other Parties, provided that: (i) Petrowest may assign its rights and obligations under this agreement to an Affiliate of Petrowest if, contemporaneous therewith, such Affiliate of Petrowest agrees to be bound by all representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities of Petrowest hereunder; and (ii) any Shareholder may assign its rights and obligations under this agreement to a person, wholly-owned by one or more Shareholders, that has, subsequent to the date hereof, become a shareholder of the Corporation if, contemporaneous therewith, such person agrees to be bound by all representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities of such Shareholder. For greater certainty, it is agreed that prior to the Closing Time and as a condition of Closing, the Trust shall execute a joinder agreement satisfactory to the Shareholders, acting reasonably, pursuant to which the Trust shall agree to be bound by all representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities of Petrowest hereunder.

11.12 No Partnership

It is not the intent or purpose of the Agreement to create, and this Agreement shall not be construed as creating, any association, partnership or syndicate.

11.13 Reliance

The Parties acknowledge and agree that they have entered into this Agreement in reliance upon each of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements herein of the other party hereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

1.2 Certain Rules of Interpretation

In this Agreement and the Schedules:

(a) Time - time is of the essence in the performance of the Parties' respective obligations;

(b) Currency - unless otherwise specified, all references to money amounts are to Canadian currency;

(c) Headings - the descriptive headings of Articles and Sections are inserted solely for convenience of reference and are not intended as complete or accurate descriptions of the content of such Articles or Sections;

(d) Singular, etc. - the use of words in the singular or plural, or with a particular gender, shall not limit the scope or exclude the application of any provision of this Agreement to such person or persons or circumstances as the context otherwise permits;

(e) Consent - whenever a provision of this Agreement requires an approval or consent by a Party to this Agreement and notification of such approval or consent is not delivered within the applicable time limited, then, unless otherwise specified, the Party whose consent or approval is required shall be conclusively deemed to have withheld its approval or consent;

(f) Calculation of Time - unless otherwise specified, time periods within or following which any payment is to be made or act is to be done shall be calculated by excluding the day on which the period commences and including the day on which the period ends and by extending the period to the next business day following if the last day of the period is not a business day; and

(g) Business Day - whenever any payment is to be made or action to be taken under this Agreement is required to be made or taken on a day other than a business day, such payment shall be made or action taken on the next business day following such day.

1.3 Knowledge

Any reference to the knowledge of the Parties shall mean to the best of the knowledge, information and belief of such Party after making all reasonable enquiries.

1.4 Statute References

A reference in this Agreement to a statute shall be a reference to the statute and the regulations made pursuant thereto, as amended or superseded from time to time, either before or after the date hereof, unless otherwise stated or the context otherwise requires.

1.5 Accounting Principles

All reference to "GAAP" means to principles recommended, from time to time, in the Handbook of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants and all accounting terms not otherwise defined in this Agreement have the meanings assigned to them in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1.7 Conflicts

Where any provision of any Schedule to this Agreement conflicts or is at variance with any provision in the body of this Agreement, the latter shall prevail.

ARTICLE 2
PURCHASE AND SALE

2.1 Purchase and Sale

The Shareholders hereby jointly and severally agree to sell the Shares and the Shareholder Loans to Petrowest at the Effective Time in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Petrowest hereby agrees to purchase the Shares and the Shareholder Loans from the Shareholders at the Effective Time in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

2.2 Base Purchase Price

As consideration for the sale of the Shares and the Shareholder Loans by the Shareholders pursuant hereto, at the Effective Time, Petrowest agrees to deliver and pay to the Shareholders the aggregate amount of $23,747,475 (calculated as $20,289,475 plus the Estimated Working Capital, plus the Estimated Shareholder Loans and minus the Estimated Long Term Debt) (the "Base Purchase Price"), comprised of:

(a) $9,498,995; and

(b) 1,424,848 Units (at an ascribed value of $10.00 each).

The Shareholders shall provide notice to Petrowest of their allocation of the Base Purchase Price between the Shares and the Shareholder Loans on or prior to Closing, which, with the consent of Petrowest, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, shall be the agreed upon allocation. The Base Purchase Price shall first be allocated to the Shareholder Loans, in the amount thereof, and thereafter to the Shares.

2.3 Transfer and Delivery of the Shares

At the Closing Time with effect as of the Effective Time, the Shareholders shall transfer and deliver to Petrowest share certificates representing the Shares duly endorsed in blank for transfer, or accompanied by irrevocable security transfer powers of attorney duly executed in blank, in either case by the holders of record, and shall take such steps as shall be necessary to cause the Corporation to enter Petrowest or its nominee(s) upon the books of the Corporation as the holder of the respective Shares and to issue share certificates to Petrowest or its nominee(s) representing the Shares. At the Closing Time, effective as of the Effective Time, the Shareholders shall also make the deliveries specified in Section 6.2.

2.4 Tender

Any payment of money may be made by official bank draft drawn upon a Canadian chartered bank or by negotiable cheque payable in Canadian funds and certified by a Canadian chartered bank or trust company or, with the consent of the party entitled to payment, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account specified by that party. Any payment of Units may be made by delivery of certificates representing such Units, registered in the name of the payor or such other name as the payor, not less than two business days prior to the payment due date, gives by written notice to Petrowest.

2.5 Post-Closing Adjustments

(a) Within 90 days following the Closing Date, Petrowest shall cause the Auditors to provide an audit of the Working Capital, Shareholder Loans and Long Term Debt as at the Closing Date and based thereon, Petrowest shall make a good faith calculation of the Adjustment Amount using the amount of Working Capital, Shareholder Loans and Long Term Debt established by the Auditors. Petrowest shall prepare and deliver to the Shareholders a statement setting forth, in reasonable detail, such calculation of the Adjustment Amount and any other amount for which adjustment is provided herein and shall assist the Shareholders in verifying the amounts set forth in such statement (including, without limitation, providing access to the Auditors and any working papers in respect of the calculation of any component of the Adjustment Amount).

(b) The Shareholders may dispute all or any portion of the calculation of the Adjustment Amount by written notice to Petrowest within 30 days of the date of receipt of the statement referred to in Section 2.5(a) setting forth, in reasonable detail, the basis for the dispute. If Petrowest and the Shareholders do not agree on the calculation of the Adjustment Amount within 30 days of any notice of dispute by the Shareholders, the dispute shall be referred to arbitration pursuant to Article 9. If the Adjustment Amount as agreed to by the Petrowest and the Shareholders, or determined by arbitration, as the case may be:

(i) is a positive amount, Petrowest shall pay the overage in cash, together with simple interest thereon at the Prime Rate from the Closing Date until paid, to the Shareholders or as they may direct within 15 days of receipt of confirmation of the amount of Working Capital, Shareholder Loans, Long Term Debt and any other amounts that affect the Adjustment Amount established by the Auditors; or

(ii) is a negative amount, the Shareholders shall pay the shortfall in cash, together with simple interest thereon at the Prime Rate from the Closing Date until paid, to Petrowest within 15 days of receipt of confirmation of the amount of Working Capital, Shareholder Loans, Long Term Debt and any other amounts that affect the Adjustment Amount established by the Auditors, and Petrowest will cause the Corporation to remit to the appropriate Governmental Authority any amount withheld as Taxes in respect of any Shareholder Loan.

(c) Petrowest and the Shareholders agree that a bonus, consistent with the Corporation's past practice, will be declared by the Corporation payable to Dan Fitzpatrick effective as at the Effective Time in an amount, in aggregate, equal to the taxable income of the Corporation for the period ended at the Effective Time in excess of the small business deduction under the Income Tax Act (Canada) which bonus shall (i) for greater certainty constitute an increase in Shareholder Loans in the calculation of the Adjustment Amount, (ii) be paid, together with interest at the Prime Rate from the Effective Time until paid (less any required withholdings), within 15 days of receipt of confirmation of the amounts referred to in (b)(i) above.

ARTICLE 3
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

3.1 Representation and Warranties of Shareholders

Each of the Shareholders represents and warrants to Petrowest that:

(a) if it is a corporation, it is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation and has the corporate power to own or lease its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted by it;

(b) it has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder;

(c) if it is a corporation, the execution and delivery of this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto, the performance of the terms hereof and thereof and the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein and therein do not and will not result in the breach of or violate any term or provision of the charter, by-laws or governing documents of the Shareholder;

(d) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered on behalf of the Shareholder and constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Shareholder, enforceable against the Shareholder in accordance with its terms, subject to the general qualifications that:

(i) enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization or other similar laws of general application affecting creditors' rights generally;

(ii) equitable remedies, including the remedies of specific performance and injunctive relief, are available only in the discretion of the applicable court;

(iii) the equitable or statutory powers of the courts in Canada having jurisdiction to stay proceedings before them and the execution of judgments; and

(iv) rights to indemnity hereunder may be limited under applicable law;

(i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) being, collectively, "Creditors' Rights"; and, at the Closing, all documents required hereunder to be executed and delivered by the Shareholder will have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Shareholder and will constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Shareholder, enforceable in accordance with their terms, subject to Creditors' Rights;

(e) the Shareholder is not required to give any notice to, make any filing with, or obtain any authorization, consent or approval of any Governmental Authority in order to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and except for notices, filings, authorizations, consents or approvals which (i) if not made or obtained, would not adversely affect the Shareholder's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement on the terms set forth herein, or (ii) which have been previously obtained and are currently in force;

(f) the Shareholder has not incurred any obligation or liability, contingent or otherwise, for brokerage fees, finder's fees, agent's commission or other similar forms of compensation with respect to the transaction contemplated herein which will be or may become the responsibility of the Corporation, Petrowest or the Trust;

(g) all of the Shares set forth opposite the name of the Shareholder in Schedule 3.1 will be owned by the Shareholder as the beneficial owner of record, with good and marketable title, and there are no actions, suits, proceedings or claims pending or, to the best of the knowledge of the Shareholder, threatened with respect to or in any manner challenging the ownership or disposition of such securities or the exercise of any rights which are derived or attached thereto;

(h) except pursuant to this Agreement, as at the Closing Time, no person will have any agreement or option or any right or privilege (whether by law, pre-emptive right, contract or otherwise) capable of becoming an agreement, option, right or privilege for the purchase or other acquisition from the Shareholder of any of the Shares set forth opposite the name of the Shareholder in Schedule 3.1 or any interest therein;

(i) such of the Shareholder Loans as are indicated as being payable to the Shareholder are validly due and payable to the Shareholder without any right of set off or counterclaim;

(j) the Shareholder has not received notice of any Claim and is not aware of any Claim, actual or threatened, which prevents or could reasonably be expected to prevent the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and

(k) the Shareholder is not a non-resident of Canada for the purposes of the Canadian Tax Act.

3.2 Representations and Warranties of Shareholders

Each of the Shareholders jointly and severally represents and warrants to Petrowest that:

Corporation's Status

(a) the Corporation is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation, and has the corporate power to own or lease its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted by it;

(b) the Corporation has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder;

(c) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered on behalf of the Corporation and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Corporation, enforceable against the Corporation in accordance with its terms, subject to Creditors' Rights and, at the Closing, all documents required hereunder to be executed and delivered by the Corporation will have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Corporation and will constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Corporation, enforceable in accordance with their terms, subject to Creditors' Rights,

(d) the execution and delivery of this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto, the performance of the terms hereof and thereof and the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein and therein do not and will not:

(i) result in the breach of or violate any term or provision of the charter, by-laws or governing documents of the Corporation; or

(ii) except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(d) hereto, conflict with, result in a breach of, constitute a default under, or accelerate or permit the acceleration of the performance required by, any material agreement, instrument, licence, permit or authority to which the Corporation is a party or by which it is bound or to which any of its property is subject or result in the creation of any Encumbrance upon any of the Corporation Assets or the Shares or give to others any material interest or right, including any right of purchase, termination, cancellation or acceleration under any such agreement, instrument, license, permit or authority; or

(iii) violate any provision of law or administrative regulation or any judicial or administrative order, award, judgment or decree applicable to the Corporation or the Corporation Assets;

(e) to the best of their knowledge, the Corporation is, in all material respects, in compliance with all Laws;

(f) the Corporation holds all valid licenses, permits and similar rights and privileges, and has made all filings, applications and reports, that are required or necessary under any Laws to operate its business as currently conducted, the failure to hold which, individually or in the aggregate, would have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations or business of the Corporation and the present uses by the Corporation of its assets do not materially violate the terms of any such licenses, permits, rights or privileges or any such Laws;

(g) the Corporation has not incurred any obligation or liability, contingent or otherwise, for brokerage fees, finder's fees, agent's commission or other similar forms of compensation with respect to the transaction contemplated herein;

(h) all contracts of insurance maintained by the Corporation are listed in Schedule 3.2(h) and are in full force and effect and all premiums due and owing in connection with such policies have been paid; there exists no state or event of default under any insurance policy and there has been no notice or advice of withdrawal of any policy or any notice of conditions for continuation of any coverage that has not been complied with; and the Corporation has given notice or has otherwise presented every material claim known by the Corporation or the Shareholders to be covered by insurance under its insurance policies or contracts in a timely fashion;

(i) the Corporation does not have any Subsidiaries; and the Corporation does not have any agreements of any nature to acquire any Subsidiary, or to acquire or lease any other business operations other than as disclosed in Schedule 1.1(e);

(j) as at the Closing Time, the Corporation will not be a party to any agreements of any nature to acquire any securities of any person or to acquire, capitalize or invest in any business;

(k) at the Closing Time, the minute books, stock certificate books and stock transfer ledgers of the Corporation will be true and correct and the minute books will contain the minutes of all meetings, and all resolutions, of the directors and shareholders of the Corporation;

Capitalization

(l) the authorized capital of the Corporation and the issued and outstanding Shares of the Corporation are as set forth in Schedule 3.2(l) and all of the Shares set forth as issued are duly and validly issued and are fully paid and non-assessable and are registered as set forth in such Schedule;

(m) no person other than the Shareholders has any agreement or option or any right or privilege (whether by law, pre-emptive right, contract or otherwise) capable of becoming an agreement, option, right or privilege, including, without limitation, any convertible security, warrant or convertible obligation of any nature, for the purchase, subscription, allotment or issuance of any of the unissued shares of the Corporation;

(n) there are no restrictions in either the constating documents or the by-laws of the Corporation, nor in any unanimous shareholders' agreement or voting trust agreement or other similar collateral agreement, which would affect the transferability of Shares from the Shareholders to Petrowest and which will not have been waived prior to Closing;

Financial Status

(o) all of the Books and Records whether of a financial or accounting nature or otherwise have been made available to Petrowest and, have been maintained in accordance with prudent business practices;

(p) the Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP applicable in Canada applied on a basis consistent with that of prior periods (except as stated therein) and present fairly the financial position of the Corporation as of the date provided therein and the results of operations and the changes in financial position for the periods then ended. As at the date of the Financial Statements, the Corporation did not have any debt or liabilities of any kind whatsoever (whether accrued, contingent, absolute or otherwise) required to be included in such Financial Statements, including, without limitation, any Liabilities and any liabilities for Taxes or pursuant to any capital lease, except for debt or liabilities as set forth in such financial statements;

(q) except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(q) or as contemplated by this Agreement or Approved Capital Commitments, since the date of the last audited financial year of the Corporation or consented to in writing by Petrowest, the Corporation has:

(i) not incurred, assumed or become subject to any Liability, except in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(ii) not granted, suffered or assumed any Encumbrance on or in respect of any of the Corporation Assets, other than Permitted Encumbrances;

(iii) not amended its charter, by-laws or other governing documents;

(iv) not conducted its business other than in all material respects in the Ordinary Course of Business and, without limitation, has not entered into, assumed or become subject to any contract out of the Ordinary Course of Business or any Material Contract;

(v) not amended or terminated any Material Contract;

(vi) not directly or indirectly, declared or paid any dividends, or declared or made any other distribution of its securities, or directly or indirectly, redeemed, purchased or otherwise acquired any of its shares, or agreed to do so, or reduced its stated capital in any manner or purchased, acquired, cancelled or redeemed, or agreed to purchase, acquire, cancel or redeem, any outstanding shares;

(vii) has not forgiven any debt or otherwise triggered or permitted to be triggered any of the provisions of the Canadian Tax Act respecting debt forgiveness including, for greater certainty, Section 79 or Sections 80 to 80.04 of such act, and has not cancelled or released any debts or claims or waived any right pertaining to the Corporation Assets;

(viii) not entered into or amended any employment or consulting agreements, other than in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(ix) not increased the salaries, benefits or other compensation payable to any of its directors, officers or employees, other than in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(x) not made any payment whatsoever to, or entered into any agreement with, any person not dealing at arm's length with the Corporation;

(xi) not entered into or amended any Employee Plan;

(xii) used its reasonable commercial efforts to maintain its business organization and preserve its relationships with suppliers, customers and others having business relations with it;

(xiii) not suffered any material adverse change, financial or otherwise, in business, financial condition, assets, properties, liabilities or operations of the Corporation or any occurrences or circumstances which have resulted or might reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse change thereto;

(xiv) not sold any material amounts of inventory or (other than, after the date hereof and prior to the Closing Date, Approved Capital Dispositions) other assets, nor increased its indebtedness other than in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(xv) maintained the Corporation Assets in a proper and prudent manner in accordance with good Canadian oilfield practices; and

(xvi) not made any change in its accounting principles and practices as theretofore applied including, without limitation, the basis upon which its assets and liabilities are recorded on its books and its earnings, profits and losses are ascertained;

(r) there is no suit, action, litigation, investigation, claim, complaint, grievance or proceeding, including appeals and applications for review, in progress, or, to the knowledge of the Shareholders, pending or threatened against or relating to the

Corporation before any Governmental Authority which, if determined adversely to the Corporation, would,

(i) materially and adversely affect the properties, business, future prospects or financial condition of the Corporation,

(ii) enjoin, restrict or prohibit the transfer of all or any part of the Shares as contemplated by this Agreement, or

(iii) prevent the Shareholders or the Corporation from fulfilling all of their obligations set out in this Agreement or arising from this Agreement, and the Shareholders and the Corporation have no knowledge of any existing ground on which any such action, suit, litigation or proceeding might be commenced with any reasonable likelihood of success;

(s) except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(s), (i) there are no judgments unsatisfied against the Corporation or any judgment, injunction, order, decree, ruling or charge of any Governmental Authority to which the Corporation or any of the Corporation Assets is subject, (ii) there are no Claims in existence to which the Corporation is a party or any of the Corporation Assets may be bound or (to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation) threatened against the Corporation or any of the Corporation Assets and (iii) to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, there is no basis upon which a material Claim could reasonably expected to be made against the Corporation;

(t) other than the fuel tax audit which has been disclosed to Petrowest and other than amendments to filed tax returns relating to pre-Closing transactions disclosed to Petrowest, the Corporation has duly and timely (i) filed with the appropriate Governmental Authority or agency in the manner prescribed by Law all Tax Returns required to be filed by it and such Tax Returns are true, complete and accurate in all material respects; (ii) paid all Taxes (including instalments) due and payable by it and made adequate provision in the Financial Statements and accounts thereof for all Taxes payable for the periods reflected therein for which Tax Returns are not yet required to be filed and will make adequate provision in the books and records of the Corporation (including in the materials provided to the auditors in connection with the determination of the Adjustment Amount) for all Taxes payable in respect of the period then ended on the assumption that the Corporation had a taxation year ending on that date; (iii) withheld and remitted to the appropriate Governmental Authorities all amounts required to be withheld by it in respect of the Tax liability of any other person; and (iv) withheld from any amount paid to or credited by it to or for the account or benefit of any person, including any of its officers and directors and any non-resident person, the amount of all Taxes and other deductions required by any Law to be withheld from any such amount and has duly and timely remitted the same to the appropriate taxing or other governmental authority or agency. Notices of assessment of Canadian federal and provincial income tax liabilities of the Corporation have been issued for all taxation years ending on or prior to date of last completed financial year ended more than six months prior to this Agreement, and the Corporation is current with respect to its filing of returns for goods and services taxes payable pursuant to the Excise Tax Act (Canada). There are no claims, actions, suits, audits, proceedings, investigations or other actions pending or, to the knowledge of any of the Shareholders, threatened in respect of Taxes;

(u) all filings made by any of the Shareholders or the Corporation under which the Corporation has received or is entitled to government incentives, have been made in accordance, in all material respects, with all Laws and contain no misrepresentations which could cause any amount previously paid to, or credited to, or previously accrued on the accounts of the Corporation to be recovered or disallowed;

(v) the Corporation is not a party to any current agreement or other arrangement with any taxation authority and there are no waivers or objections extending the statutory period or providing for an extension of time with respect to the assessment or reassessment or payment of Taxes payable by the Corporation or Tax Returns required to be filed by the Corporation;

(w) the Corporation is not engaged in any discussions or negotiations with any taxation authorities in respect of its Taxes;

(x) except for reserves for income taxes accruing in the current fiscal year, the reserves and accrued liabilities disclosed on or reflected in the Financial Statements and the Books and Records are sufficient in all respects to provide for the liabilities in respect of which they have been established;

(y) (except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(y), each of which will be discharged without liability to the Corporation on or prior to the Closing Date) the Corporation has not guaranteed, endorsed, assumed or indemnified, contingently or otherwise, the obligations or indebtedness of any other person;

Employees

(z) except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(z), the Corporation is not a party to any written employment contract, consulting agreement, collective bargaining agreement or employee association agreement; the Corporation has not conducted and is not now conducting any negotiations with any labour unions or employee associations; the Corporation has complied with all of its obligations in respect of employment insurance programs, Canada Pension Plan payments and Worker's Compensation payments;

(aa) the only employees of the Corporation are listed in Schedule 3.2(z);

(bb) all Employee Plans are listed in Schedule 3.2(z) and:

(i) the Corporation has paid or provided for all liabilities for wages, vacation pay, salaries, bonuses, pensions and all other amounts payable under the Employee Plans;

(ii) each of the Employee Plans complies with and has been administered in substantial compliance with the terms thereof and Laws; and

(iii) have been, or will by Closing be, terminated with no further Liability of the Corporation or Petrowest, provided that Petrowest has provided for a replacement plan the terms of which are satisfactory to the Shareholders acting reasonably;

(cc) no Affiliate, director, officer or employee of the Corporation (past or present) or any person not dealing at "arm's length" (within the meaning of the Canadian Tax Act) with any such person is indebted to the Corporation and (other than the Shareholder Loans) the Corporation is not indebted to any such person. All transactions between the Corporation and any person not dealing at arm's length were undertaken for fair market value consideration;

Assets

(dd) the Corporation is the sole beneficial and (where its interests are registrable) the sole registered owner of all of the Corporation Assets, with good and valid title, free and clear of all Encumbrances other than Permitted Encumbrances. In particular, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, there has been no assignment, subletting or granting of any licence (of occupation or otherwise) of or in respect of any of the Corporation Assets or any granting of any agreement or right capable of becoming an agreement or option for the purchase of any of the Corporation Assets;

(ee) the Corporation has no material assets except as set forth in Schedule 1.1(u), the Corporation Assets are in good working order for the prudent pursuit of the Corporation's business except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(ee) and the Corporation owns or leases all the assets necessary for the conduct of its business as now conducted by it;

(ff) the accounts receivable of the Corporation in all material respects are good and collectible at the aggregate recorded amounts, except to the extent of any reserves provided for such accounts in the Books and Records for the Corporation, and are not subject to any defence, counterclaim or set off;

(gg) the Corporation has made available to Petrowest a correct and complete copy of each Material Contract (as amended to date), all of which are listed in Schedule 3.2(gg). The Corporation is not in breach of any such Material Contracts in any material respect nor has any circumstance occurred or does any circumstance exist that with the passage of time, notice or both, constitute such a breach, and, to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, no third party to any of such Material Contracts is in breach of any such Material Contracts;

(hh) the Corporation has not received any notice alleging its default under any Material Contract, which default has not been rectified as of the date hereof;

(ii) the Corporation is not a party to or bound or affected by any commitment, agreement or document containing any covenant expressly limiting the freedom of the Corporation to compete in any line of business, transfer or move any of its assets or operations or which materially or adversely affects the business practices, operations or conditions of the Corporation or the continued operation of its business after the Closing Date;

(jj) to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, the Corporation has not interfered with, infringed upon, misappropriated or otherwise come into conflict with any patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret or other intellectual property rights of any person or received notice of any Claim of any person that they have done so;

Environmental

(kk) except as disclosed in Schedule 3.2(kk),

(i) to the knowledge of the Shareholders, all Environmental Approvals required to be held by the Corporation have been obtained, are listed in Schedule 3.2(kk), are valid and in full force and effect, have been and are being complied with in all material respects, and there have been and are no proceedings commenced, applications for proceedings made, nor to the knowledge of the Shareholders have there been any proceedings or applications for proceedings threatened to revoke or amend any Environmental Approvals;

(ii) to the knowledge of the Shareholders, any Release by the Corporation of any Hazardous Substance into the Environment complied and complies with all Environmental Laws;

(iii) the Corporation has not entered into an agreement that may require it to pay, reimburse, guarantee, pledge, defer, indemnify or hold harmless any person from or against any liability or cost relating to any Release of Hazardous Substance or environmental condition or arising from any non-compliance with any Environmental Law;

(iv) the Corporation has not been prosecuted for or convicted of any offence under Environmental Laws or found liable in any proceeding to pay any fine or judgment to any person as a result of any Release or threatened Release of any Hazardous Substance into the Environment or the breach of any Environmental Law and there are no proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, threatened relating to the foregoing and, to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, there is no basis for any such proceedings; and

(v) to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, there is no above-ground or underground storage tank, urea formaldehyde foam insulation, friable asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls ("PCBs") or radioactive substance in, on or under the property covered by any Real Property Leases;

Real Property

(ll) Schedule 3.2(ll) sets forth a complete list of all of the Real Property and a legal description for such Real Property. The Corporation is the legal and beneficial owner of the Real Property (as set forth in Schedule 3.2(11)) in fee simple, with good and marketable title thereto, free and clear of all Encumbrances other than Permitted Encumbrances. All accounts for work and services performed or materials placed or furnished upon or in respect of the construction and completion of any of the buildings, improvements or other structures constructed on the Real Property have been fully paid and no one is entitled to claim a lien under the Builders' Lien Act (Alberta) or other similar legislation for such work performed by or on behalf of the Corporation. There are no matters affecting the right, title and interest of the Corporation in and to the Real Property (as set forth in Schedule 3.2(11)), which in the aggregate, would materially and adversely affect the ability of the Corporation to carry on its business upon the Real Property (as set forth in Schedule 3.2(11);

(mm) the Corporation is not a party to any Real Property Leases other than those listed in Schedule 3.2(mm). The Corporation is not in breach of any such Real Property Leases in any material respect nor has any circumstance occurred or does any circumstance exist that with the passage of time, notice or both, constitute such a breach, and, to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, no third party to any of such Real Property Leases is in breach of any such Real Property Leases;

Miscellaneous

(nn) Schedule 3.2(nn) sets forth a complete list of every financial institution in which the Corporation maintains any depository or other account or safety deposit box and the names of all persons authorized to draw on or who have access to such accounts or safety deposit box; and

(oo) the information provided by or on behalf of the Shareholders or the Corporation with respect to the Corporation constitutes full, plain and true disclosure of all material facts relating to the Corporation, its business, operations and capital, there are no misrepresentations in any written information provided by or on behalf of the Shareholders or the Corporation to Petrowest and none of the Shareholders or the Corporation has knowingly withheld from Petrowest any information, documents or agreements relevant to the Corporation Assets or the Corporation which might reasonably be expected to be material to a purchaser of the Shares or Corporation Assets.

3.3 Representations and Warranties of Petrowest and the Trust

Each of Petrowest and the Trust jointly and severally represents and warrants to each of the Shareholders that:

(a) Petrowest is duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction of its incorporation and has the corporate power to own or lease its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted by it and is duly licensed or qualified to carry on business in each jurisdiction as the nature of its business requires and, at the Closing Date, will have such power and be so licensed or qualified as is required by its business as proposed to be conducted;

(b) at Closing, the Trust will be duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction of its formation and have the power to own or lease its property and assets and to carry on its business as proposed to be conducted by it and will be duly licensed or qualified to carry on business in each jurisdiction as the nature of its business requires;

(c) Petrowest has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder;

(d) at Closing, the Trust will have all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder;

(e) the execution and delivery of this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto, the performance of the terms hereof and thereof and the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein and therein do not and will not:

(i) result in the breach of or violate any term or provision of the charter, by-laws or governing documents of Petrowest or the declaration of trust of the Trust; or

(ii) conflict with, result in a breach of, constitute a default under, or accelerate or permit the acceleration of the performance required by, any material agreement, instrument, licence, permit or authority to which Petrowest or the Trust is a party or by which it is bound or to which any of its property is subject or result in the creation of any Encumbrance upon any of the assets of Petrowest or the Trust or give to others any material interest or right, including any right of purchase, termination, cancellation or acceleration under any such agreement, instrument, license, permit or authority; or

(iii) violate any provision of law or administrative regulation or any judicial or administrative order, award, judgment or decree applicable to Petrowest or the Trust;

(f) each of the Trust and Petrowest is, in all material respects, in compliance with all Laws;

(g) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Petrowest and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Petrowest enforceable in accordance with its terms and all documents to be delivered by Petrowest or the Trust, as the case may be, pursuant hereto will be duly executed and delivered by Petrowest and will constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of Petrowest and the Trust, respectively, enforceable in accordance with their respective terms;

(h) neither Petrowest nor the Trust have or will have carried on any active business other than the organization of, and preparation for the consummation of, the Concurrent Acquisitions, the Concurrent Financing and related matters;

(i) the authorized capital of Petrowest is comprised of an unlimited number of common shares and, as of the Closing Date, all of the issued and outstanding common shares will be held by the Trust;

(j) at Closing, the authorized capital of the Trust will be comprised of an unlimited number of Units of which, prior to the Closing, the closing of the Concurrent Acquisitions and the closing of the Concurrent Financing, not more than 1,500,000 Units (including subordinated units) will be issued and outstanding, each fully paid and non-assessable and, after the closing of the Concurrent Acquisitions and the closing of the Concurrent Financing, not more than 1,500,000 Units (including subordinated units) will be issued and outstanding, each fully paid and non-assessable;

(k) the Trust will, on the Closing Date, be a mutual fund trust under the Canadian Tax Act;

(l) each of the agreements relating to the Concurrent Acquisitions is substantially the same as this Agreement (other than price);

(m) the Units to be issued pursuant to Section 2.2 will be duly and validly issued and delivered as fully paid and non-assessable trust units of the Trust and, other than the escrow contemplated by section 5.2(d), will not be subject to any escrow or restriction on trading;

(n) at Closing, the prospectus filed in connection with the Concurrent Financing will contain full, true and plain disclosure of all material facts relating to the Trust and Petrowest, their prospective businesses, operations and capital (excluding the business, operations and capital of the Corporation);

(o) other than the fee payable to Westwind Partners Inc., Petrowest has not incurred any obligation or liability, contingent or otherwise, for brokerage fees, finder's fees, agent's commission or other similar forms of compensation with respect to the transactions contemplated herein;

(p) there is no suit, action, litigation, investigation, claim, complaint, grievance or proceeding, including appeals and applications for review, in progress, or, to the knowledge of Petrowest, pending or threatened against or relating to Petrowest or the Trust before any court, Governmental Authority, commission, board, bureau, agency or arbitration panel which, if determined adversely to Petrowest, would,

(i) materially and adversely affect the properties, business, future prospects or financial condition of Petrowest or the Trust,

(ii) enjoin, restrict or prohibit the transfer of all or any part of the Shares or the issue of Units as contemplated by this Agreement; or

(iii) prevent Petrowest from fulfilling all of its obligations set out in this Agreement or arising from this Agreement, and Petrowest has no knowledge of any existing ground on which any such action, suit, litigation or proceeding might be commenced with any reasonable likelihood of success. There is not presently outstanding against Petrowest any judgement, decree, injunction, rule or order of Governmental Authority; and

(q) Petrowest is not a "non Canadian" within the meaning of the Investment Canada Act.

3.4 Non-Waiver

No investigations made by or on behalf of Petrowest or the Shareholders at any time shall have the effect of waiving, diminishing the scope or otherwise affecting any representation or warranty made by the Shareholders or Petrowest, as the case may be, in or pursuant to this Agreement. No waiver of any condition or other provisions, in whole or in part, shall constitute as a waiver of any other condition or provision (whether or not similar) nor shall such waiver constitute a continuing waiver unless otherwise expressly provided.

3.5 Nature and Survival

All representations, warranties and covenants contained in this Agreement on the part of each of the Parties shall survive the Closing, the execution and delivery under this Agreement of any share or security transfer instruments or other documents of title to any of the Shares and the payment of the consideration for the Shares.

ARTICLE 4
COVENANTS

4.1 Covenants of the Shareholders and the Corporation

(a) From the date hereof to and until the Closing Date, the Shareholders and the Corporation shall permit Petrowest, Petrowest's Counsel and Petrowest's authorized representatives to have full access to all files, premises, properties, personnel, books, records (including Tax Records), auditors, contracts and documents of or pertaining to the Corporation and any predecessor corporations or entities prior to Closing for purposes of performing due diligence with respect to the Corporation and its assets and affairs. The provisions of the Confidentiality and Non-disclosure Agreement shall continue to be applicable to any information made available by such parties pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

(b) Each of the Shareholders and the Corporation who is a party to or bound by the Unanimous Shareholders Agreement hereby agrees and consents to the termination of such agreement immediately prior to the Closing Time and, subject to Closing occurring, hereby irrevocably waives and releases each of the others from and in respect of any and all obligations thereunder, whether due on, prior to or after the date hereof.

(c) Upon any restructuring or reorganization of the Corporation resulting in any person, other than the Shareholders, acquiring any of the Shares, the Shareholders shall cause such person to execute a counterpart signature page to this Agreement.

4.2 Efforts to Satisfy Conditions

Each Party shall use all reasonable commercial efforts and shall proceed diligently, honestly and in good faith to cause the conditions set forth in Section 5.1, Section 5.2 and Section 5.3 which are within its reasonable control to be satisfied. Each Party shall provide such information and cooperation to the other Party as it may reasonably request in connection with the satisfaction of such conditions.

4.3 Tax Returns

(a) The Shareholders shall cause the Corporation to prepare and file in a timely manner (at its cost and in consultation with the Shareholders) all Tax Returns required to be filed by the Corporation for any period that ends on or before the Closing Date and for which Tax Returns have not been filed as of the Closing Date. Petrowest shall obtain the consent of Shareholders to any Tax Returns filed in respect of any period ending on or prior to the Closing Date, which consent shall be deemed received unless the Shareholders advises otherwise within 10 business days following receipt of the return and request for consent. The Shareholders and Petrowest shall co-operate fully with each other and none of the Parties will unreasonably withhold its consent to a request made by any other Party with respect to such Tax Returns. Such Tax Returns will be prepared in accordance with reasonable business practices and the Corporation's past practices. The Parties agree that an election shall be made by the Corporation in its Tax Return filed for its taxation year ending immediately before the acquisition of control by Petrowest not to have subsection 256(9) of the Canadian Tax Act apply, with the result that the taxation year of the Corporation shall end immediately before the Closing Time.

(b) No Tax Returns shall be filed by any of the Shareholders between the date hereof and the Closing Date except with the prior written consent of Petrowest, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

4.4 Covenant of Petrowest

Upon the organization and formation of the Trust, Petrowest shall cause the Trust to execute an agreement, in a form acceptable to the Shareholders acting reasonably, whereby the Trust agrees to be bound by its representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities hereunder.

ARTICLE 5
CONDITIONS TO CLOSING

5.1 Mutual Conditions

The obligations of Petrowest, the Shareholders and the Corporation pursuant hereto are subject to the following conditions being satisfied in all respects at or prior to the Closing Time, or such earlier time as is specified below:

(a) there shall not be any suit, action or other proceeding that shall, at Closing, be pending against any of the Parties before any Governmental Authority and no law, regulation or policy shall have been proposed, enacted or applied: (i) making illegal or seeking to restrain, prohibit or obtain damages or other relief in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; (ii) prohibiting or materially limiting the ownership or operation by Petrowest of a material portion of the business or assets thereof or requiring Petrowest to dispose of or hold separately any such portion of any Shares or Corporation Assets, as applicable; or (iii) making the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement materially more costly to Petrowest or materially reducing the value of the Shares;

(b) all Required Approvals shall have been obtained on terms acceptable to the Shareholders and Petrowest, acting reasonably, at or prior to the Closing Time;

(c) the commercial terms of the Trust are satisfactory to the Shareholders and Petrowest, in each case, acting reasonably, including:

(i) the Concurrent Financing shall have closed or be closing at the Closing Time; and

(ii) such of the Concurrent Acquisitions as have an aggregate Base Purchase Price not less than $100 million shall have closed or be closing at the Closing Time; and

(d) Petrowest and each of the persons listed in Schedule 5.1(e) hereto shall have executed and delivered a management agreement in the form set forth in such Schedule.

5.2 Conditions for the Benefit of Petrowest

The obligations of Petrowest to buy the Shares and Shareholder Loans from the Shareholders pursuant hereto are subject to the following conditions (which are for the exclusive benefit of Petrowest) being satisfied in all respects at or prior to the Closing Time, or such earlier time as is specified below:

(a) the representations and warranties of the Shareholders in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects at the Closing Time with the same force and effect as if made at and as of such time;

(b) the Shareholders and the Corporation shall have performed or complied in all material respects with all of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Agreement to be performed or complied with by the Shareholders and the Corporation at or prior to the Closing Time pursuant hereto;

(c) on or before May 23, 2006, Petrowest shall have completed its due diligence review and, in its sole discretion, been satisfied with the results of such review;

(d) at Closing, the Shareholders shall have delivered all items which they are required to deliver pursuant to Section 6.2 and shall have duly executed and delivered an agreement to escrow the Units to be issued pursuant to Section 2.2 for release as to one quarter thereof on the Closing Date and on each of the 6 month, 12 month and 18 month anniversaries of the Closing Date in form and substance satisfactory to Petrowest, acting reasonably;

(e) the Shareholders shall have delivered opinions of the Shareholders' Counsel as to the matters in Section 3.1(a), (b), (c) and (d) and Section 3.2(a), (b), (c) and (d)(i), in form and substance satisfactory to Petrowest, acting reasonably;

(f) each of the Shareholders shall have delivered, on the Closing Date, a certificate of such Shareholder dated the Closing Date, addressed to Petrowest and signed by the Shareholder or, in the case of a Shareholder that is a corporation, signed on the Shareholder's behalf by its President or such other officer or director satisfactory to Petrowest, acting reasonably, certifying that to the knowledge of the Shareholders the representations and warranties of the Shareholder set forth in this Agreement are true and correct at the Closing Time, as if made at such time and the Shareholder has not breached, or failed to comply with, in any material respect, any of its covenants or other obligations under this Agreement;

(g) Petrowest shall have obtained all applicable governmental, regulatory and contractual approvals to complete the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and

(h) the Leaseback Real Property shall be transferred by the Corporation to Fitzpatrick Enterprises Ltd. and the Corporation shall have entered into a lease of the Leaseback Real Property with Fitzpatrick Enterprises Ltd. on terms acceptable to Petrowest; and

(i) the Leaseback Equipment shall be transferred by the Corporation to Fitzpatrick Enterprises Ltd. and the Corporation shall have entered into a lease of the Leaseback Equipment with Fitzpatrick Enterprises Ltd. on terms acceptable to Petrowest.

5.3 Conditions for the Benefit of the Shareholders

The Shareholders' obligations to Petrowest pursuant hereto are subject to the following conditions (which are for the exclusive benefit of the Shareholders) being satisfied in all respects at or prior to the Closing Time or such earlier time as is specified below:

(a) the representations and warranties of Petrowest in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects at the Closing Time with the same force and effect as if made at and as of such time;

(b) Petrowest shall have performed or complied in all material respects with all of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Agreement to be performed or complied with by Petrowest at or prior to the Closing Time pursuant hereto;

(c) at Closing, Petrowest shall have delivered all items they are required to deliver pursuant to Section 6.3;

(d) Petrowest shall have delivered, on the Closing Date, a certificate of Petrowest dated the Closing Date, addressed to the Shareholders and signed on Petrowest's behalf by its President or such other officer or director satisfactory to the Shareholders, acting reasonably, certifying that the representations and warranties of Petrowest set forth in this Agreement are true and correct at the Closing Time, as if made at such time and Petrowest has not breached, or failed to comply with, in any material respect, any of its covenants or other obligations under this Agreement;

(e) Petrowest shall have delivered an opinion of Petrowest's Counsel as to the matters set forth in Section 3.3(a), (b), (c), (d), (e)(i), (e)(iii), (g), (i), (j), (k) and (m) in form and substance satisfactory to the Shareholders, acting reasonably; and

(f) Petrowest shall have agreed to indemnify Dan Fitzpatrick in respect of liabilities thereof pursuant to his guarantee of the obligations of the Corporation to the Royal Bank of Canada and/or secured their release therefrom, in either case in form and substance satisfactory to Mr. Fitzpatrick, acting reasonably.

ARTICLE 6
CLOSING

6.1 Closing

The Closing shall take place at the Closing Time at the offices of Petrowest' Counsel located at 4500, 855 – 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 4K7, or at such other place as may be agreed upon by the Shareholders and Petrowest.

6.2 Deliveries by the Shareholders at Closing

At Closing, the Shareholders shall deliver to Petrowest:

(a) an updated version of Schedule 3.1 indicating the beneficial owners of record of all of the Shares;

(b) an updated version of Schedule 3.2 indicating the authorized capital of the Corporation and the issued and outstanding shares of the Corporation;

(c) the certificates representing the Shares duly endorsed for transfer by the Shareholders and new share certificates issued in the name of Petrowest in respect of the Shares;

(d) certificates of the appropriate government officials, dated the Closing Date, evidencing the existence and good standing of each of the Shareholders, if a corporation and the Corporation in the jurisdiction of its organization;

(e) the minute books, corporate seals and all corporate records of the Corporation;

(f) resignations and releases of all directors and officers of the Corporation and reciprocal releases of such directors and officers by the Corporation, each in form and substance satisfactory to Petrowest;

(g) certified copies of directors' resolutions of the Corporation confirming approval of the transfer of the Shares to Petrowest in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement;

(h) such other documents and instruments as Petrowest's Counsel may reasonably require; and

(i) transfers in respect of Shareholders' Loans.

6.3 Deliveries by Petrowest at Closing

At Closing, Petrowest shall pay the Base Purchase Price to the Shareholders, including delivering certificates to the Shareholders representing the Units issuable to the Shareholders pursuant to Section 2.2(b).

6.4 Closing Escrow

The items tabled at Closing pursuant to Section 6.2 and Section 6.3 shall be held in escrow until all of such items have been tabled and then shall remain in escrow until the Effective Time. At the Effective Time, provided all conditions in Article 5 have been satisfied or waived, such escrow shall be terminated and the items described in Section 6.2 shall be delivered to Petrowest and the items described in Section 6.3 shall be delivered to the Shareholders and the Closing shall have occurred. If such escrow is not released on or before 4:00 p.m. (Calgary Time) on October 31, 2006 and the Parties do not agree to an extension of the escrow, the Closing shall be deemed not to have occurred and the documents and certificates tabled by a Party pursuant to this Article 6 shall be returned to that Party.

ARTICLE 7
INDEMNITIES

7.1 Shareholders Indemnity

After Closing but subject to Section 7.4, each of the Shareholders jointly and severally agrees to indemnify and save harmless each of Petrowest, the Trust and their Affiliates from and against all Losses and Obligations which they suffer, sustain, pay or incur, directly or indirectly:

(i) as a consequence of or in connection with a breach of a representation or warranty made by any of the Shareholders or the Corporation in this Agreement or a breach by any of the Shareholders or the Corporation of any of the covenants made by any thereof in this Agreement; or

(ii) as a consequence of or in connection with any environmental matter relating to the Corporation or the Corporations Assets prior to the Closing Time;

except any such Losses and Obligations as have been caused by or result from the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of any such indemnified person. The Parties agree that for the purposes of Section 7.1(i), in the case of any breach of representation or warranty of any of the Shareholders, the measure of Losses and Obligations in respect thereof will be, dollar for dollar, the difference in what would have been the position (financial and otherwise) of the Corporation had such representation been true or the warranty not breached and the actual position (financial and otherwise) of the Corporation (given such misrepresentation or breach of warranty).

7.2 Petrowest Indemnity

After Closing, Petrowest and the Trust agree to indemnify and save harmless each of the Shareholders and their Affiliates from and against all Losses and Obligations which they suffer, sustain, pay or incur, directly or indirectly, as a consequence of or in connection with:

(i) a breach of a representation or warranty made by Petrowest or the Trust in this Agreement or a breach by Petrowest or the Trust of a covenant made by it in this Agreement; or

(ii) subject to the Shareholders' obligations in respect of the indemnity contained in Section 7.1, any matter or circumstance relating to Corporation Assets or the operation thereof which occurs after the Closing Time or which relates to the Corporation and occurs after the Closing Time;

except any such Losses and Obligations as have been caused by or result from the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of any such indemnified person.

7.3 Tax Indemnity

(a) After Closing, the Shareholders shall be jointly and severally liable to and agree to indemnify and save harmless the Corporation (which in this Section 7.3 includes the Corporation's successors and assigns) in respect of all Losses and Obligations which the Corporation may suffer, sustain, pay or incur as a consequence of or in connection with any breach of any of the representations and warranties in Section 3.2(t) to (x) inclusive.

(b) Any person entitled to indemnification as herein set forth (the "Indemnified Parties") shall give prompt written notice to the Shareholders whenever it becomes aware that a Claim has been or may be made for which the Shareholders may be liable pursuant to this Section 7.3 (the "Tax Indemnity"). Unless the Shareholders notify the Indemnified Parties that it elects not to have carriage and control of a Claim the Shareholders shall, at their own expense and employing counsel of their own choice, have full carriage and control of the contestation of any such Claim, provided that if the Claim does not relate solely to matters to which the Tax Indemnity may apply, the Indemnified Parties shall, at its own expense and employing counsel of its own choice, have full carriage and control of the contestation of the portion of the Claims relating to matters to which the Tax Indemnity does not relate; and further provided that where the Shareholders have carriage and control of a Claim neither the Indemnified Parties nor the Corporation will agree to any compromise or settlement of such Claim to which the Tax Indemnity may apply without the consent of the Shareholders which will not be unreasonably withheld. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Shareholders' right to have carriage and control of the contestation of any such Claim shall only apply and continue to apply after payment of the amount of such Claim or the provision of such security as is necessary to avoid a lien being placed on the property of the Corporation in respect of such Claim.

Where the Shareholders have carriage and control of a Claim, if the Indemnified Parties does not consent to a settlement of a Claim to which the Tax Indemnity may apply following a request from the Shareholders to do so, the obligation of the Shareholders to indemnify the Indemnified Parties for the Claim shall be limited to the amount that the Shareholders would have been required to pay pursuant hereto in respect of the Claim if the settlement had been accepted and the Shareholders shall forthwith transfer carriage of the contestation of the Claim to the Indemnified Parties or its nominee. The Indemnified Parties, the Corporation and the Shareholders shall cooperate with each other and allow each other reasonable access to documents and records in any defence of any such Claims and shall keep each other reasonably informed of the conduct thereof. If the Shareholders elect not to have carriage and control of the contestation of the Claim, the Indemnified Parties and the Corporation shall be under no obligation to contest, settle or compromise the Claim and such failure to contest, settle or compromise the Claim shall not prejudice its rights pursuant to this Indemnity.

(c) The Parties undertake to inform each other of any audit inquiries with respect to issues to which the Tax Indemnity may apply and to cooperate with each other in making any representations prior to any assessment to which those indemnities may apply.

(d) The amounts payable in respect of the Tax Indemnity shall constitute and be treated by the parties as an adjustment to the Base Purchase Price.

7.4 Limitations on Indemnities

(a) No Claim for performance of an indemnity or in respect of a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty made in this Agreement (other than pursuant to Section 7.3) shall be made or be enforceable, whether by legal proceedings or otherwise, unless written notice of such Claim is given by the party seeking redress to the party or parties from whom redress is sought on or before: (i) in respect of a breach of Section 3.2(kk), the expiry of the statutory period in which a Claim, assessment or reassessment may be brought or effected against the Corporation in respect thereof; (ii) in respect of a breach of any of Section 3.2(t) to (x), the expiry of ninety days after the relevant Governmental Authorities shall no longer be entitled to assess liability for tax against the Corporation for any particular taxation year ended on or prior to the Closing Date, having regard without limitation, to any waivers given by the Shareholders of the Corporation in respect of any taxation year; and (iii) otherwise, the expiry of eighteen months from the Closing Date;

(b) The maximum cumulative liability of the Shareholders in respect of indemnities and breaches of the representations, warranties and covenants made by the Shareholders in this Agreement (other than pursuant to Section 7.3) shall not exceed the Adjusted Purchase Price;

(c) Except as otherwise set out herein, the parties' sole remedy for a misrepresentation or breach of a warranty or other agreement contained in this Agreement is limited to the indemnities contained in Article 7 and is limited by the provisions of this Section 7.4;

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, the Shareholder shall have no liability to Petrowest for any specific matter or claim for which Petrowest has received an adjustment to the Purchase Price to the extent of such adjustment;

(e) Petrowest shall not be entitled to make a Claim against the Shareholders for indemnity pursuant to this Agreement unless and until the aggregate amount of all Losses and Obligations with respect to all Claims asserted by Petrowest under this Agreement (other than pursuant to Section 7.3) exceeds 1% of the Base Purchase Price. Once such minimum threshold in Losses and Obligations has been sustained by Petrowest, the entirety of all Losses and Obligations sustained by Petrowest shall be compensable under this Section 7.4, subject to the other provisions of this Section. Claims pursuant to Section 7.3 shall not be included in claims for the purposes of this Section 7.4(e);

(f) Petrowest' Losses hereunder shall be deemed reduced by the amount of any insurance proceeds and any tax benefits received by Petrowest with respect to such Losses; and

(g) Petrowest shall not be entitled to indemnity under both Section 7.3 and Section 7.1 for the same Loss.

7.5 Indemnification Procedure

(a) For purposes of this Section 7.5, the term "Indemnifying Party" when used in connection with a Claim shall mean the Person having an obligation to indemnify the other Party with respect to such Claim pursuant to this Agreement (other than under Section 7.3), and the term "Indemnified Party" when used in connection with a particular Claim shall mean the Person having the right to be indemnified with respect to such Claim by the other Party pursuant to this Agreement (other than under Section 7.3)

(b) To make claim for indemnification, an Indemnified Party shall notify the Indemnifying Party of its claim under this Section 7.5, including the specific details of and specific basis under this Agreement for its claim (the "Claim Notice"). In the event that the claim for indemnification is based upon a claim by a third party against the Indemnified Party (a "Third Party Claim"), the Indemnified Party shall provide its Claim Notice promptly after the Indemnified Party has actual knowledge of the Third Party Claim and shall enclose a copy of all papers (if any) served with respect to the Third Party Claim; provided that the failure of any Indemnified Party to give notice of a Third Party Claim as provided in this Section 7.5 shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations under this Agreement except to the extent such failure results in insufficient time being available to permit the Indemnifying Party to effectively defend against the Third Party Claim or otherwise materially prejudices the Indemnifying Party's ability to defend against the Third Party Claim. In the event that the claim for indemnification is based upon an inaccuracy or breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or agreement, the Claim Notice shall specify the representation, warranty, covenant or agreement which was inaccurate or breached.

(c) In the case of a claim for indemnification based upon a Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party shall have 30 days from its receipt of the Claim Notice to notify the Indemnified Party whether it admits or denies its liability to defend the Indemnified Party against such Third Party Claim at the sole cost and expense of the Indemnifying Party. The Indemnified Party is authorized, prior to and during such 30-day period, to file any motion, answer or other pleading that it shall deem necessary or appropriate to protect its interests or those of the Indemnifying Party and that is not prejudicial to the Indemnifying Party.

(d) If the Indemnifying Party admits its liability, it shall have the right and obligation to diligently defend, at its sole cost and expense, the Third Party Claim. The Indemnifying Party shall have full control of such defense and proceedings, including any compromise or settlement thereof. If requested by the Indemnifying Party, the Indemnified Party agrees to cooperate, at the cost and expense of the Indemnifying Party, in contesting any Third Party Claim which the Indemnifying Party elects to contest. The Indemnified Party may participate in, but not control, any defense or settlement of any Third Party Claim controlled by the Indemnifying Party pursuant to this Section 7.5(d). An Indemnifying Party shall not, without the written consent of the Indemnified Party, (i) settle any Third Party Claim or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect thereto which does not include an unconditional written release of the Indemnified Party from all liability in respect of such Third Party Claim or (ii) settle any Third Party Claim or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect thereto in any manner that may materially and adversely affect the Indemnified Party (other than as a result of money damages covered by the indemnity).

(e) If the Indemnifying Party does not admit its liability or admits its liability but fails to diligently prosecute or settle the Third Party Claim, then the Indemnified Party shall have the right to defend against the Third Party Claim at the sole cost and expense of the Indemnifying Party, with counsel of the Indemnified Party's choosing, subject to the right of the Indemnifying Party to admit its liability and assume the defense of the Third Party Claim at any time prior to settlement or final determination thereof. If the Indemnifying Party has not yet admitted its liability for a Third Party Claim, the Indemnified Party shall send written notice to the Indemnifying Party of any proposed settlement and the Indemnifying Party shall have the option for 10 days following receipt of such notice to (i) admit in writing its liability for the Third Party Claim and (ii) if liability is so admitted, reject, in its reasonable judgment, the proposed settlement.

(f) In the case of a claim for indemnification not based upon a Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party shall have 30 days from its receipt of the Claim Notice to (i) cure the Losses and Obligations complained of; (ii) admit its liability for such Losses or (iii) dispute the claim for such Losses and Obligations. If the Indemnifying Party does not notify the Indemnified Party within such 30-day period that it has cured the Losses and Obligations or that it disputes the claim for such Losses and Obligations, the amount of such Losses and Obligations shall conclusively be deemed a liability of the Indemnifying Party hereunder.

7.6 Materiality

For the purposes of calculating Losses and Obligations in conjunction with any breach of a representation, warranty or covenant pursuant to Sections 7.1, 7.2 or 7.3, any standard or threshold of materiality relating to such breached representation, warranty or covenant shall be ignored.

ARTICLE 8
TERMINATION

8.1 Termination

If this Agreement is terminated prior to the Closing occurring pursuant to Section 5.1, Section 5.2 or Section 5.3, the Parties shall be released from all obligations under this Agreement except the Confidentiality and Non-disclosure Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms, and each Party shall remain liable for breaches by it of this Agreement occurring prior to such termination. Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Section, following such termination, each Party shall be responsible for the costs and expenses incurred by it in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

8.2 Survival

Subject to the limitations and provisions set forth in this Agreement, notwithstanding the occurrence of Closing and the items delivered at Closing pursuant hereto, the representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities contained in this Agreement shall survive the Closing and the delivery of the items delivered at Closing pursuant hereto for the benefit of the Parties in accordance with terms hereof. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, no limitation in respect of the survival of any provision of this Agreement or the period in respect of which any Claims or other recourse may be made shall apply insofar as the breach of the provision or the matter in respect of which recourse is sought involves fraud on the part of the Party or Parties against whom the provision is sought to be enforced or from whom such recourse is sought. If any document executed at or after Closing, pursuant hereto is inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail unless the Parties expressly and explicitly agree to the contrary.

ARTICLE 9
ARBITRATION

9.1 Procedure

Any controversy submitted to arbitration pursuant to this Agreement shall be subject to the following principles:

(a) Upon written demand of a Party, representatives of the Parties shall meet and attempt to appoint a single arbitrator. If such representatives are unable to agree on a single arbitrator within five (5) days of such demand, then upon written demand by any Party, any Shareholder and Petrowest shall, within ten (10) days of such demand, each name an arbitrator and the two arbitrators so named shall promptly thereafter choose a third. If a Party shall fail to name an arbitrator within ten (10) days from such demand, then the arbitrator for that Party shall be appointed by any Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta upon application by the other Party. If the two arbitrators shall fail within ten (10) days from their appointment to agree upon and appoint the third arbitrator, then such third arbitrator shall be appointed by any Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta upon request of either Party.

(b) The arbitrator or arbitrators selected to act hereunder shall be qualified by education, experience and training to pass upon the particular question in dispute.

(c) The arbitrator or arbitrators chosen as aforesaid shall proceed immediately to hear and determine the question or questions in dispute. The decision of the single arbitrator shall be made within forty-five (45) days after his or her appointment, subject to any reasonable delay due to unforeseen circumstances. Where there are three arbitrators, the decision of the arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall be made within forty-five (45) days after the appointment of the third arbitrator, subject to any reasonable delay due to unforeseen circumstances. In the event the single arbitrator or the arbitrators, or a majority of them, fail to make a decision within the period herein prescribed, then either Party may elect to have a new single arbitrator or arbitrators chosen in the manner herein prescribed, as if none had previously been selected.

(d) The decision of the single arbitrator or the decision of the arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall be drawn up in writing and signed by the single arbitrator or by the arbitrators, or a majority of them, and shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto.

(e) The liability between the Parties hereto for the payment of the compensation and expenses of the single arbitrator or the arbitrators shall be determined by the arbitrator or arbitrators, as the case may be.

(f) Arbitration pursuant hereto shall be governed in all respects not addressed herein by the provisions of the Arbitration Act (Alberta) and regulations thereunder.

ARTICLE 10
NOTICES

10.1 Notices

Any notice, consent, waiver, direction or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Agreement by a party to any other party shall be in writing and shall be delivered by hand delivery, facsimile transmission or (provided that the mailing party does not know and should not reasonably have known of any disruption or anticipated disruption of postal service which might affect delivery of the mail) by registered mail (postage prepaid), addressed to the party to whom the notice is to be given, at its address for service herein. Any notice, consent, waiver, direction or other communication aforesaid shall, if hand delivered or delivered by facsimile transmission, be deemed to have been given and received on the date on which it was hand delivered or delivered by facsimile transmission to the address provided herein (if a business day and, if not, the next succeeding business day) and if sent by registered mail be deemed to have been given and received on the third business day at the point of delivery following the date on which it was so sent.

ARTICLE 11
MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 Further Assurances

Each Party shall, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, at the request of another Party, but without further consideration, do all such further acts and execute and deliver all such further documents and instruments as shall be reasonably required in order to fully perform and carry out the terms and intent hereof.

11.2 Time of the Essence

Time shall be of the essence of this Agreement.

11.3 Public Announcements

Until Closing has occurred, no public announcement or press release concerning the sale and purchase of the Shares shall be made by a Party or its Affiliates without the prior written consent and joint approval of the other Party, which consent and approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided that nothing contained herein shall prevent either Party at any time furnishing any information to any governmental agency or regulatory authority (including applicable stock exchanges) or to the public if required by Laws or the rule of a stock exchange.

11.4 Amendments and Waiver

No modification of or amendment to this Agreement shall be valid or binding unless set forth in writing and duly executed by both Parties and no waiver of any breach of any term or provisions of this Agreement shall be effective or binding unless made in writing and signed by the Party purporting to give the same and, unless otherwise provided, shall be limited to the specific breach waived. No failure on the part of any Party in exercising any right or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or remedy preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or remedy in law or in equity or by statute or otherwise conferred.

11.5 Entire Agreement

This Agreement together with the Confidentiality and Non-disclosure Agreement and the agreements and other documents to be delivered pursuant to this Agreement, constitute the entire agreement between the Parties pertaining to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede all prior agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the Parties, including the Letter of Intent and there are no warranties, representations or other agreements between the Parties in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, and any document delivered pursuant to this Agreement. No supplement, modification or waiver or termination of this Agreement shall be binding unless executed in writing by the Party to be bound thereby.

11.6 Applicable Law

This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and the laws of Canada applicable therein and shall be treated, in all respects, as an Alberta contract.

11.7 Amendments

This Agreement may only be amended by a written instrument signed by the Parties.

11.8 Severability

If any one or more of the provisions or parts thereof contained in this Agreement should be or become invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect in any jurisdiction, the remaining provisions or parts thereof contained herein shall be and shall be conclusively deemed to be, as to such jurisdiction, severable therefrom and:

(a) the validity, legality or enforceability of such remaining provisions or parts thereof shall not in any way be affected or impaired by the severance of the provisions or parts thereof severed; and

(b) the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of any provision or part thereof contained in this Agreement in any jurisdiction shall not affect or impair such provision or part thereof or any other provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction.

11.9 Execution in Counterpart

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts with the same effect as if all signatories to the counterparts had signed one document, all such counterparts shall together constitute, and be construed as, one instrument and each of such counterparts shall, notwithstanding the date of its execution, be deemed to bear the date first above written. Delivery of counterparts may be effected by facsimile transmission.

11.10 Benefit of the Agreement

This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns of the Parties. No person other than the Parties and their successors and permitted assigns shall be entitled to any rights or benefits hereunder.

11.11 Assignment

This Agreement may not be assigned by any Party without the prior consent of the other Parties, provided that: (i) Petrowest may assign its rights and obligations under this agreement to an Affiliate of Petrowest if, contemporaneous therewith, such Affiliate of Petrowest agrees to be bound by all representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities of Petrowest hereunder; and (ii) any Shareholder may assign its rights and obligations under this agreement to a person, wholly-owned by one or more Shareholders, that has, subsequent to the date hereof, become a shareholder of the Corporation if, contemporaneous therewith, such person agrees to be bound by all representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities of such Shareholder. For greater certainty, it is agreed that prior to the Closing Time and as a condition of Closing, the Trust shall execute a joinder agreement satisfactory to the Shareholders, acting reasonably, pursuant to which the Trust shall agree to be bound by all representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities of Petrowest hereunder.

11.12 No Partnership

It is not the intent or purpose of the Agreement to create, and this Agreement shall not be construed as creating, any association, partnership or syndicate.

11.13 Reliance

The Parties acknowledge and agree that they have entered into this Agreement in reliance upon each of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements herein of the other party hereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

1.2 Certain Rules of Interpretation

In this Agreement and the Schedules:

(a) Time - time is of the essence in the performance of the Parties' respective obligations;

(b) Currency - unless otherwise specified, all references to money amounts are to Canadian currency;

(c) Headings - the descriptive headings of Articles and Sections are inserted solely for convenience of reference and are not intended as complete or accurate descriptions of the content of such Articles or Sections;

(d) Singular, etc. - the use of words in the singular or plural, or with a particular gender, shall not limit the scope or exclude the application of any provision of this Agreement to such person or persons or circumstances as the context otherwise permits;

(e) Consent - whenever a provision of this Agreement requires an approval or consent by a Party to this Agreement and notification of such approval or consent is not delivered within the applicable time limited, then, unless otherwise specified, the Party whose consent or approval is required shall be conclusively deemed to have withheld its approval or consent;

(f) Calculation of Time - unless otherwise specified, time periods within or following which any payment is to be made or act is to be done shall be calculated by excluding the day on which the period commences and including the day on which the period ends and by extending the period to the next business day following if the last day of the period is not a business day; and

(g) Business Day - whenever any payment is to be made or action to be taken under this Agreement is required to be made or taken on a day other than a business day, such payment shall be made or action taken on the next business day following such day.

1.3 Knowledge

Any reference to the knowledge of the Parties shall mean to the best of the knowledge, information and belief of such Party after making all reasonable enquiries.

1.4 Statute References

A reference in this Agreement to a statute shall be a reference to the statute and the regulations made pursuant thereto, as amended or superseded from time to time, either before or after the date hereof, unless otherwise stated or the context otherwise requires.

1.5 Accounting Principles

All reference to "GAAP" means to principles recommended, from time to time, in the Handbook of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants and all accounting terms not otherwise defined in this Agreement have the meanings assigned to them in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

ARTICLE 2
PURCHASE AND SALE

2.1 Purchase and Sale

The Shareholders hereby jointly and severally agree to sell the Shares and the Shareholder Loans to Petrowest at the Effective Time in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Petrowest hereby agrees to purchase the Shares and the Shareholder Loans from the Shareholders at the Effective Time in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

2.2 Base Purchase Price

As consideration for the sale of the Shares and the Shareholder Loans by the Shareholders pursuant hereto, at the Effective Time, Petrowest agrees to deliver and pay to the Shareholders the aggregate amount of $10,383,505 (calculated as $9,383,505 plus the Estimated Working Capital, plus the Estimated Shareholder Loans and minus the Estimated Long Term Debt) (the "Base Purchase Price"), comprised of:

(a) $4,153,405; and

(b) 623,010 Units (at an ascribed value of $10.00 each).

The Shareholders shall provide notice to Petrowest of their allocation of the Base Purchase Price between the Shares and the Shareholder Loans on or prior to Closing, which, with the consent of Petrowest, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, shall be the agreed upon allocation. The Base Purchase Price shall first be allocated to the Shareholder Loans, in the amount thereof, and thereafter to the Shares.

2.3 Transfer and Delivery of the Shares

At the Closing Time with effect as of the Effective Time, the Shareholders shall transfer and deliver to Petrowest share certificates representing the Shares duly endorsed in blank for transfer, or accompanied by irrevocable security transfer powers of attorney duly executed in blank, in either case by the holders of record, and shall take such steps as shall be necessary to cause the Corporation to enter Petrowest or its nominee(s) upon the books of the Corporation as the holder of the respective Shares and to issue share certificates to Petrowest or its nominee(s) representing the Shares. At the Closing Time, effective as of the Effective Time, the Shareholders shall also make the deliveries specified in Section 6.2.

2.4 Tender

Any payment of money may be made by official bank draft drawn upon a Canadian chartered bank or by negotiable cheque payable in Canadian funds and certified by a Canadian chartered bank or trust company or, with the consent of the party entitled to payment, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account specified by that party. Any payment of Units may be made by delivery of certificates representing such Units, registered in the name of the payor or such other name as the payor, not less than two business days prior to the payment due date, gives by written notice to Petrowest.

2.5 Post-Closing Adjustments

(a) Within 90 days following the Closing Date, Petrowest shall cause the Auditors to provide an audit of the Working Capital, Shareholder Loans and Long Term Debt as at the Closing Date and based thereon, Petrowest shall make a good faith calculation of the Adjustment Amount using the amount of Working Capital, Shareholder Loans and Long Term Debt established by the Auditors. Petrowest shall prepare and deliver to the Shareholders a statement setting forth, in reasonable detail, such calculation of the Adjustment Amount and any other amount for which adjustment is provided herein and shall assist the Shareholders in verifying the amounts set forth in such statement (including, without limitation, providing access to the Auditors and any working papers in respect of the calculation of any component of the Adjustment Amount).

(b) The Shareholders may dispute all or any portion of the calculation of the Adjustment Amount by written notice to Petrowest within 30 days of the date of receipt of the statement referred to in Section 2.5(a) setting forth, in reasonable detail, the basis for the dispute. If Petrowest and the Shareholders do not agree on the calculation of the Adjustment Amount within 30 days of any notice of dispute by the Shareholders, the dispute shall be referred to arbitration pursuant to Article 9. If the Adjustment Amount as agreed to by the Petrowest and the Shareholders, or determined by arbitration, as the case may be:

(i) is a positive amount, Petrowest shall pay the overage in cash, together with simple interest thereon at the Prime Rate from the Closing Date until paid, to the Shareholders or as they may direct within 15 days of receipt of confirmation of the amount of Working Capital, Shareholder Loans, Long Term Debt and any other amounts that affect the Adjustment Amount established by the Auditors; or

(ii) is a negative amount, the Shareholders shall pay the shortfall in cash, together with simple interest thereon at the Prime Rate from the Closing Date until paid, to Petrowest within 15 days of receipt of confirmation of the amount of Working Capital, Shareholder Loans, Long Term Debt and any other amounts that affect the Adjustment Amount established by the Auditors, and Petrowest will cause the Corporation to remit to the appropriate Governmental Authority any amount withheld as Taxes in respect of any Shareholder Loan.

(c) Petrowest and the Shareholders agree that a bonus, consistent with the Corporation's past practice, will be declared by the Corporation payable to Gary Sweetman and Ken Drysdale effective as at the Effective Time in an amount, in aggregate, equal to the taxable income of the Corporation for the period ended at the Effective Time in excess of the small business deduction under the Income Tax Act (Canada) which bonus shall (i) for greater certainty constitute an increase in Shareholder Loans in the calculation of the Adjustment Amount, (ii) be paid, together with interest at the Prime Rate from the Effective Time until paid (less any required withholdings), within 15 days of receipt of confirmation of the amounts referred to in (b)(i) above.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

3.1 Representation and Warranties of Shareholders

Each of the Shareholders represents and warrants to Petrowest that:

(a) if it is a corporation, it is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation and has the corporate power to own or lease its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted by it;

(b) it has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder;

(c) if it is a corporation, the execution and delivery of this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto, the performance of the terms hereof and thereof and the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein and therein do not and will not result in the breach of or violate any term or provision of the charter, by-laws or governing documents of the Shareholder;

(d) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered on behalf of the Shareholder and constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Shareholder, enforceable against the Shareholder in accordance with its terms, subject to the general qualifications that:

(i) enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization or other similar laws of general application affecting creditors' rights generally;

(ii) equitable remedies, including the remedies of specific performance and injunctive relief, are available only in the discretion of the applicable court;

(iii) the equitable or statutory powers of the courts in Canada having jurisdiction to stay proceedings before them and the execution of judgments; and

(iv) rights to indemnity hereunder may be limited under applicable law;

(i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) being, collectively, "Creditors' Rights"; and, at the Closing, all documents required hereunder to be executed and delivered by the Shareholder will have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Shareholder and will constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Shareholder, enforceable in accordance with their terms, subject to Creditors' Rights;

(e) the Shareholder is not required to give any notice to, make any filing with, or obtain any authorization, consent or approval of any Governmental Authority in order to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and except for notices, filings, authorizations, consents or approvals which (i) if not made or obtained, would not adversely affect the Shareholder's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement on the terms set forth herein, or (ii) which have been previously obtained and are currently in force;

(f) the Shareholder has not incurred any obligation or liability, contingent or otherwise, for brokerage fees, finder's fees, agent's commission or other similar forms of compensation with respect to the transaction contemplated herein which will be or may become the responsibility of the Corporation, Petrowest or the Trust;

(g) all of the Shares set forth opposite the name of the Shareholder in Schedule 3.1 will be owned by the Shareholder as the beneficial owner of record, with good and marketable title, and there are no actions, suits, proceedings or claims pending or, to the best of the knowledge of the Shareholder, threatened with respect to or in any manner challenging the ownership or disposition of such securities or the exercise of any rights which are derived or attached thereto;

(h) except pursuant to this Agreement, as at the Closing Time, no person will have any agreement or option or any right or privilege (whether by law, pre-emptive right, contract or otherwise) capable of becoming an agreement, option, right or privilege for the purchase or other acquisition from the Shareholder of any of the Shares set forth opposite the name of the Shareholder in Schedule 3.1 or any interest therein;

(i) such of the Shareholder Loans as are indicated as being payable to the Shareholder are validly due and payable to the Shareholder without any right of set off or counterclaim;

(j) the Shareholder has not received notice of any Claim and is not aware of any Claim, actual or threatened, which prevents or could reasonably be expected to prevent the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and

(k) the Shareholder is not a non-resident of Canada for the purposes of the Canadian Tax Act.

3.2 Representations and Warranties of Shareholders

Each of the Shareholders jointly and severally represents and warrants to Petrowest that:

Corporation's Status

(a) the Corporation is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation, and has the corporate power to own or lease its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted by it;

(b) the Corporation has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder;

(c) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered on behalf of the Corporation and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Corporation, enforceable against the Corporation in accordance with its terms, subject to Creditors' Rights and, at the Closing, all documents required hereunder to be executed and delivered by the Corporation will have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Corporation and will constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Corporation, enforceable in accordance with their terms, subject to Creditors' Rights,

(d) the execution and delivery of this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto, the performance of the terms hereof and thereof and the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein and therein do not and will not:

(i) result in the breach of or violate any term or provision of the charter, by-laws or governing documents of the Corporation; or

(ii) except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(d) hereto, conflict with, result in a breach of, constitute a default under, or accelerate or permit the acceleration of the performance required by, any material agreement, instrument, licence, permit or authority to which the Corporation is a party or by which it is bound or to which any of its property is subject or result in the creation of any Encumbrance upon any of the Corporation Assets or the Shares or give to others any material interest or right, including any right of purchase, termination, cancellation or acceleration under any such agreement, instrument, license, permit or authority; or

(iii) violate any provision of law or administrative regulation or any judicial or administrative order, award, judgment or decree applicable to the Corporation or the Corporation Assets;

(e) to the best of their knowledge, the Corporation is, in all material respects, in compliance with all Laws;

(f) the Corporation holds all valid licenses, permits and similar rights and privileges, and has made all filings, applications and reports, that are required or necessary under any Laws to operate its business as currently conducted, the failure to hold which, individually or in the aggregate, would have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations or business of the Corporation and the present uses by the Corporation of its assets do not materially violate the terms of any such licenses, permits, rights or privileges or any such Laws;

(g) the Corporation has not incurred any obligation or liability, contingent or otherwise, for brokerage fees, finder's fees, agent's commission or other similar forms of compensation with respect to the transaction contemplated herein;

(h) all contracts of insurance maintained by the Corporation are listed in Schedule 3.2(h) and are in full force and effect and all premiums due and owing in connection with such policies have been paid; there exists no state or event of default under any insurance policy and there has been no notice or advice of withdrawal of any policy or any notice of conditions for continuation of any coverage that has not been complied with; and the Corporation has given notice or has otherwise presented every material claim known by the Corporation or the Shareholders to be covered by insurance under its insurance policies or contracts in a timely fashion;

(i) the Corporation does not have any Subsidiaries; and the Corporation does not have any agreements of any nature to acquire any Subsidiary, or to acquire or lease any other business operations other than as disclosed in Schedule 1.1(e);

(j) as at the Closing Time, the Corporation will not be a party to any agreements of any nature to acquire any securities of any person or to acquire, capitalize or invest in any business;

(k) at the Closing Time, the minute books, stock certificate books and stock transfer ledgers of the Corporation will be true and correct and the minute books will contain the minutes of all meetings, and all resolutions, of the directors and shareholders of the Corporation;

Capitalization

(l) the authorized capital of the Corporation and the issued and outstanding Shares of the Corporation are as set forth in Schedule 3.2(l) and all of the Shares set forth as issued are duly and validly issued and are fully paid and non-assessable and are registered as set forth in such Schedule;

(m) no person other than the Shareholders has any agreement or option or any right or privilege (whether by law, pre-emptive right, contract or otherwise) capable of becoming an agreement, option, right or privilege, including, without limitation, any convertible security, warrant or convertible obligation of any nature, for the purchase, subscription, allotment or issuance of any of the unissued shares of the Corporation;

(n) there are no restrictions in either the constating documents or the by-laws of the Corporation, nor in any unanimous shareholders' agreement or voting trust agreement or other similar collateral agreement, which would affect the transferability of Shares from the Shareholders to Petrowest and which will not have been waived prior to Closing;

Financial Status

(o) all of the Books and Records whether of a financial or accounting nature or otherwise have been made available to Petrowest and, have been maintained in accordance with prudent business practices;

(p) the Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP applicable in Canada applied on a basis consistent with that of prior periods (except as stated therein) and present fairly the financial position of the Corporation as of the date provided therein and the results of operations and the changes in financial position for the periods then ended. As at the date of the Financial Statements, the Corporation did not have any debt or liabilities of any kind whatsoever (whether accrued, contingent, absolute or otherwise) required to be included in such Financial Statements, including, without limitation, any Liabilities and any liabilities for Taxes or pursuant to any capital lease, except for debt or liabilities as set forth in such financial statements;

(q) except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(q) or as contemplated by this Agreement or Approved Capital Commitments, since the date of the last audited financial year of the Corporation or consented to in writing by Petrowest, the Corporation has:

(i) not incurred, assumed or become subject to any Liability, except in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(ii) not granted, suffered or assumed any Encumbrance on or in respect of any of the Corporation Assets, other than Permitted Encumbrances;

(iii) not amended its charter, by-laws or other governing documents;

(iv) not conducted its business other than in all material respects in the Ordinary Course of Business and, without limitation, has not entered into, assumed or become subject to any contract out of the Ordinary Course of Business or any Material Contract;

(v) not amended or terminated any Material Contract;

(vi) not directly or indirectly, declared or paid any dividends, or declared or made any other distribution of its securities, or directly or indirectly, redeemed, purchased or otherwise acquired any of its shares, or agreed to do so, or reduced its stated capital in any manner or purchased, acquired, cancelled or redeemed, or agreed to purchase, acquire, cancel or redeem, any outstanding shares;

(vii) has not forgiven any debt or otherwise triggered or permitted to be triggered any of the provisions of the Canadian Tax Act respecting debt forgiveness including, for greater certainty, Section 79 or Sections 80 to 80.04 of such act, and has not cancelled or released any debts or claims or waived any right pertaining to the Corporation Assets;

(viii) not entered into or amended any employment or consulting agreements, other than in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(ix) not increased the salaries, benefits or other compensation payable to any of its directors, officers or employees, other than in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(x) not made any payment whatsoever to, or entered into any agreement with, any person not dealing at arm's length with the Corporation;

(xi) not entered into or amended any Employee Plan;

(xii) used its reasonable commercial efforts to maintain its business organization and preserve its relationships with suppliers, customers and others having business relations with it;

(xiii) not suffered any material adverse change, financial or otherwise, in business, financial condition, assets, properties, liabilities or operations of the Corporation or any occurrences or circumstances which have resulted or might reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse change thereto;

(xiv) not sold any material amounts of inventory or (other than, after the date hereof and prior to the Closing Date, Approved Capital Dispositions) other assets, nor increased its indebtedness other than in the Ordinary Course of Business;

(xv) maintained the Corporation Assets in a proper and prudent manner in accordance with good Canadian oilfield practices; and

(xvi) not made any change in its accounting principles and practices as theretofore applied including, without limitation, the basis upon which its assets and liabilities are recorded on its books and its earnings, profits and losses are ascertained;

(r) there is no suit, action, litigation, investigation, claim, complaint, grievance or proceeding, including appeals and applications for review, in progress, or, to the knowledge of the Shareholders, pending or threatened against or relating to the Corporation before any Governmental Authority which, if determined adversely to the Corporation, would,

(i) materially and adversely affect the properties, business, future prospects or financial condition of the Corporation,

(ii) enjoin, restrict or prohibit the transfer of all or any part of the Shares as contemplated by this Agreement, or

(iii) prevent the Shareholders or the Corporation from fulfilling all of their obligations set out in this Agreement or arising from this Agreement, and the Shareholders and the Corporation have no knowledge of any existing ground on which any such action, suit, litigation or proceeding might be commenced with any reasonable likelihood of success;

(s) except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(s), (i) there are no judgments unsatisfied against the Corporation or any judgment, injunction, order, decree, ruling or charge of any Governmental Authority to which the Corporation or any of the Corporation Assets is subject, (ii) there are no Claims in existence to which the Corporation is a party or any of the Corporation Assets may be bound or (to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation) threatened against the Corporation or any of the Corporation Assets and (iii) to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, there is no basis upon which a material Claim could reasonably expected to be made against the Corporation;

(t) other than the fuel tax audit which has been disclosed to Petrowest and other than amendments to filed tax returns relating to pre-Closing transactions disclosed to Petrowest, the Corporation has duly and timely (i) filed with the appropriate Governmental Authority or agency in the manner prescribed by Law all Tax Returns required to be filed by it and such Tax Returns are true, complete and accurate in all material respects; (ii) paid all Taxes (including instalments) due and payable by it and made adequate provision in the Financial Statements and accounts thereof for all Taxes payable for the periods reflected therein for which Tax Returns are not yet required to be filed and will make adequate provision in the books and records of the Corporation (including in the materials provided to the auditors in connection with the determination of the Adjustment Amount) for all Taxes payable in respect of the period then ended on the assumption that the Corporation had a taxation year ending on that date; (iii) withheld and remitted to the appropriate Governmental Authorities all amounts required to be withheld by it in respect of the Tax liability of any other person; and (iv) withheld from any amount paid to or credited by it to or for the account or benefit of any person, including any of its officers and directors and any non-resident person, the amount of all Taxes and other deductions required by any Law to be withheld from any such amount and has duly and timely remitted the same to the appropriate taxing or other governmental authority or agency. Notices of assessment of Canadian federal and provincial income tax liabilities of the Corporation have been issued for all taxation years ending on or prior to date of last completed financial year ended more than six months prior to this Agreement, and the Corporation is current with respect to its filing of returns for goods and services taxes payable pursuant to the Excise Tax Act (Canada). There are no claims, actions, suits, audits, proceedings, investigations or other actions pending or, to the knowledge of any of the Shareholders, threatened in respect of Taxes;

(u) all filings made by any of the Shareholders or the Corporation under which the Corporation has received or is entitled to government incentives, have been made in accordance, in all material respects, with all Laws and contain no misrepresentations which could cause any amount previously paid to, or credited to, or previously accrued on the accounts of the Corporation to be recovered or disallowed;

(v) the Corporation is not a party to any current agreement or other arrangement with any taxation authority and there are no waivers or objections extending the statutory period or providing for an extension of time with respect to the assessment or reassessment or payment of Taxes payable by the Corporation or Tax Returns required to be filed by the Corporation;

(w) the Corporation is not engaged in any discussions or negotiations with any taxation authorities in respect of its Taxes;

(x) except for reserves for income taxes accruing in the current fiscal year, the reserves and accrued liabilities disclosed on or reflected in the Financial Statements and the Books and Records are sufficient in all respects to provide for the liabilities in respect of which they have been established;

(y) (except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(y), each of which will be discharged without liability to the Corporation on or prior to the Closing Date) the Corporation has not guaranteed, endorsed, assumed or indemnified, contingently or otherwise, the obligations or indebtedness of any other person;

Employees

(z) except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(z), the Corporation is not a party to any written employment contract, consulting agreement, collective bargaining agreement or employee association agreement; the Corporation has not conducted and is not now conducting any negotiations with any labour unions or employee associations; the Corporation has complied with all of its obligations in respect of employment insurance programs, Canada Pension Plan payments and Worker's Compensation payments;

(aa) the only employees of the Corporation are listed in Schedule 3.2(z);

(bb) all Employee Plans are listed in Schedule 3.2(z) and:

(i) the Corporation has paid or provided for all liabilities for wages, vacation pay, salaries, bonuses, pensions and all other amounts payable under the Employee Plans;

(ii) each of the Employee Plans complies with and has been administered in substantial compliance with the terms thereof and Laws; and

(iii) have been, or will by Closing be, terminated with no further Liability of the Corporation or Petrowest, provided that Petrowest has provided for a replacement plan the terms of which are satisfactory to the Shareholders acting reasonably;

(cc) no Affiliate, director, officer or employee of the Corporation (past or present) or any person not dealing at "arm's length" (within the meaning of the Canadian Tax Act) with any such person is indebted to the Corporation and (other than the Shareholder Loans) the Corporation is not indebted to any such person. All transactions between the Corporation and any person not dealing at arm's length were undertaken for fair market value consideration;

Assets

(dd) the Corporation is the sole beneficial and (where its interests are registrable) the sole registered owner of all of the Corporation Assets, with good and valid title, free and clear of all Encumbrances other than Permitted Encumbrances. In particular, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, there has been no assignment, subletting or granting of any licence (of occupation or otherwise) of or in respect of any of the Corporation Assets or any granting of any agreement or right capable of becoming an agreement or option for the purchase of any of the Corporation Assets;

(ee) the Corporation has no material assets except as set forth in Schedule 1.1(u), the Corporation Assets are in good working order for the prudent pursuit of the Corporation's business except as set forth in Schedule 3.2(ee) and the Corporation owns or leases all the assets necessary for the conduct of its business as now conducted by it;

(ff) the accounts receivable of the Corporation in all material respects are good and collectible at the aggregate recorded amounts, except to the extent of any reserves provided for such accounts in the Books and Records for the Corporation, and are not subject to any defence, counterclaim or set off;

(gg) the Corporation has made available to Petrowest a correct and complete copy of each Material Contract (as amended to date), all of which are listed in Schedule 3.2(gg). The Corporation is not in breach of any such Material Contracts in any material respect nor has any circumstance occurred or does any circumstance exist that with the passage of time, notice or both, constitute such a breach, and, to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, no third party to any of such Material Contracts is in breach of any such Material Contracts;

(hh) the Corporation has not received any notice alleging its default under any Material Contract, which default has not been rectified as of the date hereof;

(ii) the Corporation is not a party to or bound or affected by any commitment, agreement or document containing any covenant expressly limiting the freedom of the Corporation to compete in any line of business, transfer or move any of its assets or operations or which materially or adversely affects the business practices, operations or conditions of the Corporation or the continued operation of its business after the Closing Date;

(jj) to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, the Corporation has not interfered with, infringed upon, misappropriated or otherwise come into conflict with any patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret or other intellectual property rights of any person or received notice of any Claim of any person that they have done so;

Environmental

(kk) except as disclosed in Schedule 3.2(kk),

(i) to the knowledge of the Shareholders, all Environmental Approvals required to be held by the Corporation have been obtained, are listed in Schedule 3.2(kk), are valid and in full force and effect, have been and are being complied with in all material respects, and there have been and are no proceedings commenced, applications for proceedings made, nor to the knowledge of the Shareholders have there been any proceedings or applications for proceedings threatened to revoke or amend any Environmental Approvals;

(ii) to the knowledge of the Shareholders, any Release by the Corporation of any Hazardous Substance into the Environment complied and complies with all Environmental Laws;

(iii) the Corporation has not entered into an agreement that may require it to pay, reimburse, guarantee, pledge, defer, indemnify or hold harmless any person from or against any liability or cost relating to any Release of Hazardous Substance or environmental condition or arising from any non-compliance with any Environmental Law;

(iv) the Corporation has not been prosecuted for or convicted of any offence under Environmental Laws or found liable in any proceeding to pay any fine or judgment to any person as a result of any Release or threatened Release of any Hazardous Substance into the Environment or the breach of any Environmental Law and there are no proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, threatened relating to the foregoing and, to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, there is no basis for any such proceedings; and

(v) to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, there is no above-ground or underground storage tank, urea formaldehyde foam insulation, friable asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls ("PCBs") or radioactive substance in, on or under the property covered by any Real Property Leases;

Real Property

(ll) Schedule 3.2(ll) sets forth a complete list of all of the Real Property and a legal description for such Real Property. The Corporation is the legal and beneficial owner of the Real Property (as set forth in Schedule 3.2(11)) in fee simple, with good and marketable title thereto, free and clear of all Encumbrances other than Permitted Encumbrances. All accounts for work and services performed or materials placed or furnished upon or in respect of the construction and completion of any of the buildings, improvements or other structures constructed on the Real Property have been fully paid and no one is entitled to claim a lien under the Builders' Lien Act (Alberta) or other similar legislation for such work performed by or on behalf of the Corporation. There are no matters affecting the right, title and interest of the Corporation in and to the Real Property (as set forth in Schedule 3.2(11)), which in the aggregate, would materially and adversely affect the ability of the Corporation to carry on its business upon the Real Property (as set forth in Schedule 3.2(11);

(mm) the Corporation is not a party to any Real Property Leases other than those listed in Schedule 3.2(mm). The Corporation is not in breach of any such Real Property Leases in any material respect nor has any circumstance occurred or does any circumstance exist that with the passage of time, notice or both, constitute such a breach, and, to the knowledge of the Shareholders and the Corporation, no third party to any of such Real Property Leases is in breach of any such Real Property Leases;

Miscellaneous

(nn) Schedule 3.2(nn) sets forth a complete list of every financial institution in which the Corporation maintains any depository or other account or safety deposit box and the names of all persons authorized to draw on or who have access to such accounts or safety deposit box; and

(oo) the information provided by or on behalf of the Shareholders or the Corporation with respect to the Corporation constitutes full, plain and true disclosure of all material facts relating to the Corporation, its business, operations and capital, there are no misrepresentations in any written information provided by or on behalf of the Shareholders or the Corporation to Petrowest and none of the Shareholders or the Corporation has knowingly withheld from Petrowest any information, documents or agreements relevant to the Corporation Assets or the Corporation which might reasonably be expected to be material to a purchaser of the Shares or Corporation Assets.

3.3 Representations and Warranties of Petrowest and the Trust

Each of Petrowest and the Trust jointly and severally represents and warrants to each of the Shareholders that:

(a) Petrowest is duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction of its incorporation and has the corporate power to own or lease its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted by it and is duly licensed or qualified to carry on business in each jurisdiction as the nature of its business requires and, at the Closing Date, will have such power

and be so licensed or qualified as is required by its business as proposed to be conducted;

(b) at Closing, the Trust will be duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the law of the jurisdiction of its formation and have the power to own or lease its property and assets and to carry on its business as proposed to be conducted by it and will be duly licensed or qualified to carry on business in each jurisdiction as the nature of its business requires;

(c) Petrowest has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and all documents to be delivered pursuant hereto and to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder;
