Berkshire clone in India

Kala Vijayraghavan

MUMBAI

FUTURE Capital Holdings (FCH), the financial services arm of Future Group, is understood to be considering plans to set up an investment company on the lines of Warren Buffett's Berkshire Hathaway, people close to the situation said. The firm will have an initial corpus of Rs 2,000 crore and it will seek investment from both domestic and foreign institutional investors. The firm's aim will be to make long-term and strategic investment in listed companies.

Roopu Purushothaman

who heads Future Capital Research is expected to play an important role in the new entity. Future Capital has already roped in R Srinivasan, portfolio manager, Principal PNB Asset Management Company with two of his colleagues to be part of the core team.

Anil Kapur, a former MD with Goldman Sachs and earlier head of Indivision, Future Capital's private equity fund which invests in consumer-focused businesses will spearhead this initiative. Future Capital Holdings, 50.5 MD Sameer Saini declined to comment on the development.

In the early part of his career at Berkshire, Warren Buffett focused on long-term investments in publicly quoted stocks, but later turned to buying whole companies. Berkshire now owns a diverse range of businesses from candy production, retail, home furnishings, encyclopedias and insurance. Future Capital, which has just filed its prospectus for a public issue, already operates an asset advisory and private equity business. It manages an approximately $85 million domestic real estate fund Kshitij and advises international funds such as the $425 million Indivision and the $350 million Horizon realty fund. A $200 million hotel fund is also planned which has attracted investors like Lehman Brothers and Och-Ziff. The move is a bid by Future Capital to raise money for expanding the consumer finance outlets, unlock shareholder value and incentivise its talent through stock options. Pantaloon Retail has a 61% stake FCH. Other global investors also include Goldman Sachs Private Equity Fund. The consumer credit business, Future Money includes the personal lending business.

Betapharm blues drag DRL net by 4.5%

Beats St. Consensus of 40% Drop
On Tax Break, Forex Gains

Our Bureau
HYDERABAD

DR REDDY'S Laboratories reported a 4.5% drop in net profit despite a one-time tax gain in the July-September quarter while its sales fell 37% year-on-year on the back of supply woes in Germany. The fall in profits and sales had been anticipated by investors partly because the company had enjoyed the one-time gains of US marketing rights on a couple of generic drugs in the comparable quarter a year ago and those benefits were not available during the latest quarter.

NOT ON THE SHELF

Betapharm has been grappling with supply chain problems from January 2007 as German supplier Salutas could not meet the demands

"The drop in sales in Germany was due to the supply constraints and rupee appreciation. We hope to tide over the problem and bounce back in FY09," vice-chairman GV Prasad told reporters. Betapharm, the German company Dr Reddy's acquired in 2006, had been affecting the latter's performance. Betapharm's revenues in the fiscal second quarter fell as it grappled with supply constraints, officials said. Net profit eased to Rs 267 crore in the quarter. Revenues stood at Rs 1,267 crore. This was only a 4% growth even if a revenue gain of Rs 781 crore on account of authorised generic rights in the same quarter a year ago were to be ignored. Analysts had expected the company to report a 37% fall in revenues and a 40% fall in net profit. They had not factored in the tax gain. The company wrote in a benefit of Rs 145 crore following a drop in Germany's corporate tax rate by 10% to 29%.
