PALADIN RESOURCES LTD
OFFER TO PURCHASE ALL OUTSTANDING ORDINARY SHARES OF SUMMIT RESOURCES LIMITED

INFORMATION FOR U.S. SHAREHOLDERS
OF SUMMIT RESOURCES LIMITED

APRIL 18, 2007

Your address shown in the register of members of Summit is in the United States. Paladin intends to rely on Rule 802 of the Securities Act of 1933 (US) to permit it to issue Paladin Shares in exchange for Summit Shares under its Offer to Summit shareholders with registered addresses in the United States. Accordingly, if you accept Paladin's Offer, you will not be treated as a Foreign Shareholder (as that term is defined in the Bidder's Statement) and Your Summit Shares will not be sold under the nominee process described in section 13.7 of the Bidder's Statement. You will receive Paladin Shares as consideration for Your Summit Shares.

This exchange offer or business combination is made for the securities of a foreign company. The offer is subject to disclosure requirements of a foreign country that are different from those of the United States. Financial statements included in the document, if any, have been prepared in accordance with foreign accounting standards that may not be comparable to the financial statements of United States companies.

It may be difficult for you to enforce your rights and any claim you may have arising under the federal securities laws, since the issuer is located in a foreign country, and some or all of its officers and directors may be residents of a foreign country. You may not be able to sue a foreign company or its officers or directors in a foreign court for violations of the U.S. securities laws. It may be difficult to compel a foreign company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a U.S. court's judgment.

You should be aware that the issuer may purchase securities otherwise than under the exchange offer, such as in open market or privately negotiated purchases.
