GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Federal:

Who Must File: All issuers making an offering of securities in reliance on an exemption under Regulation D or Section 4(6), 17 CFR 230.501 et seq. or 15 U.S.C. 77d(6).

When To File: A notice must be filed no later than 15 days after the first sale of securities in the offering. A notice is deemed filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on the earlier of the date it is received by the SEC at the address given below or, if received at that address after the date on which it is due, on the date it was mailed by United States registered or certified mail to that address.

Where To File: U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549.

Copies Required: Five (5) copies of this notice must be filed with the SEC, one of which must be manually signed. Any copies not manually signed must be photocopies of the manually signed copy or bear typed or printed signatures.

Information Required: A new filing must contain all information requested. Amendments need only report the name of the issuer and offering, any changes thereto, the information requested in Part C, and any material changes from the information previously supplied in Parts A and B. Part E and the Appendix need not be filed with the SEC.

Filing Fee: There is no federal filing fee.

State:

This notice shall be used to indicate reliance on the Uniform Limited Offering Exemption (ULOE) for sales of securities in those states that have adopted ULOE and that have adopted this form. Issuers relying on ULOE must file a separate notice with the Securities Administrator in each state where sales are to be, or have been made. If a state requires the payment of a fee as a precondition to the claim for the exemption, a fee in the proper amount shall accompany this form. This notice shall be filed in the appropriate states in accordance with state law. The Appendix to the notice constitutes a part of this notice and must be completed.

ATTENTION

Failure to file notice in the appropriate states will not result in a loss of the federal exemption. Conversely, failure to file the appropriate federal notice will not result in a loss of an available state exemption unless such exemption is predicated on the filing of a federal notice.

FORM D

Of

HIGH VALE PARTNERS G, LLC

Statement 1

May 30, 2007

High Vale Partners G, LLC, a Maine limited liability company (the "Company"), is offering on a private basis to a limited group of landowners in the Upper Valley, Maine area the Class B Membership Interests of the Company. A maximum of 10 investors may participate in this offering.

Each participating investor must contribute to the Company an option (the investor's "Option") to acquire an exclusive easement in certain real estate of the investor, to be used for the development of wind electric generation facilities. The initial purchasers of the Class B Membership Interests shall not be required to contribute any cash to the Company.

As of the date of this Form D, a single individual had purchased Class B Membership Interests, for which he committed to grant to the Company his Option.

The Company does not know the value of the Option to be granted by the single investor in dollar terms. For this reason, the Company's Form D uses the dollar value of $0.00 and refers to "Statement 1" in the portions of the Form where such value would be shown if known, including specifically:

Item B.2 – the minimum investment is the value of the investor's commitment to grant an Option, which the Company does not know in dollar terms. There is no cash investment.

Item C.1 – the aggregate offering price per investor is the value of the investor's commitment to grant an Option, which the Company does not know in dollar terms. The amount already sold is the value of the single initial investor's commitment to grant his Option. The amount in cash terms is zero.

Item C.2 – the sole investor did not specify whether he is accredited, so the Company has assumed that he is unaccredited. The aggregate amount of purchases to date from unaccredited investors is the value of his commitment to grant an Option, which the Company does not know in dollar terms. There has been no cash investment.

Item C.4.b – the Company has not incurred any expenses for this offering. Therefore, the adjusted gross proceeds to the issuer is the value of the single investor's commitment to grant an Option, which the Company does not know in dollar terms. There have been no cash proceeds.

Item C.5 – the Company does not plan to make any payments from the proceeds to officers, directors, affiliates or third parties. Rather, the Company plans to use the proceeds (i.e., the single investor's Option) to develop wind electric generation facilities.
