Heineken partners with Efes Breweries in Uzbekistan, Serbia and Kazakhstan

Amsterdam, 28 January 2008 – Heineken N.V. announced today that it has established a joint venture with Efes Breweries International N.V. (“EBI”) in order to invest in the Uzbek beer market through the acquisition of breweries.

Under the terms of the agreement, Heineken and EBI will hold 40% and 60% of the shares in the joint venture, respectively, with EBI responsible for operational management.

Uzbekistan has an estimated population of 27 million, a beer market showing double-digit growth and current estimated per capita beer consumption of 11 litres.

In addition, Heineken and EBI have also announced that they intend to combine their operations in the Kazakh and Serbian beer markets. Both of these transactions will be subject to the customary regulatory approvals and are expected to be completed in the first half of 2008.

In Kazakhstan, EBI is the second largest brewer with a 25% market share. The company operates two breweries with a total annual capacity of 2.1 million hectolitres. Heineken is the fifth largest brewer in the market with a 5% market share and an annual capacity of 400,000 hectolitres. Following the completion of the proposed transaction, Heineken and EBI would hold 28% and 72% respectively of the combined Kazakh business.

In Serbia, EBI is the third largest brewer in the market with 10% market share. The company operates two breweries with a total annual capacity of 1.4 million hectolitres. On December 5th 2007, Heineken announced that it intends to acquire the Rodic Brewery in Serbia, the country’s fourth largest brewer with a 7% market share and an annual capacity of 1.5 million hectolitres. Following the completion of the proposed transaction with EBI, Heineken and EBI would hold 72% and 28% respectively of the combined Serbian business.

Nico Nusmeier, Regional President Central and Eastern Europe, Heineken N.V., commented: “We are delighted to join forces with such a strong business partner as EBI. With the combined resources, skills and brands of our two businesses, we believe that we will be able to drive stronger, faster growth than would be possible separately. From a strategic Heineken perspective, this deal also leaves us well positioned to achieve leadership positions in three fast growing Central and Eastern European beer markets.”

“We are very excited to access the dynamic Uzbek market with Heineken as a strong ally. We believe this structure will enable us to best capitalize on the future growth potential of the Uzbek market”, said Mr. Alejandro Jimenez, Chairman of the Board of Management and Chief Executive Officer of EBI. Mr. Jimenez also added: “We are also happy to set-up a structure whereby we will command a much stronger competitive position in Kazakhstan and Serbia.”

EBI, listed on the London Stock Exchange (IOB: EBID), operates in Russia, Kazakhstan, Moldova and Serbia, where the company has ten breweries with a total annual brewing capacity of 24.6 million hectolitres as well as four malteries with 139,000 tons annual capacity. EBI is a majority owned subsidiary of Anadolu Efes Biracılık ve Malt Sanayii A.Ş. (“Anadolu Efes”), the leading beverage company in Turkey. Anadolu Efes, together with its direct and indirect subsidiaries and affiliates, produces, markets and sells beer, malt, soft drinks and bottled water across Turkey, Southeast Europe, Russia, the CIS countries and the Middle East.
