CORPORATE COMMUNICATIONS15 February 2008

ASSA ABLOY has acquired 20% of Copiax, a leading Swedish locks and security distributor

ASSA ABLOY has acquired 20% of the shares in Copiax AB from Verdane Capital, a financial investor. With this acquisition ASSA ABLOY now owns close to 31% of the capital.

Copiax is a Swedish wholesaler of security product focusing on locksmith, security installers and builders merchants. The company operates with some 45 employees from the head office in Stockholm and is expected to reach a turnover exceeding SEK 400 M in 2008.

ASSA ABLOY is in a constructive dialog with the board of directors in Copiax AB regarding a bid on the remaining shares. An acquisition of Copiax has a strong industrial rationale by bringing efficiencies and value-added services to the supply chain between ASSA ABLOY and other producers and the end customer.

COMMENTS BY THE PRESIDENT AND CEO

"ASSA ABLOY made strong progress during the quarter and in 2007 as a whole. All divisions showed growth, increased profitability, increased return and strong cash flow. Measures to increase market coverage and the development and launch of new products give us a very strong base for good long-term advancement, even though the pace of growth on markets in Europe and North America slowed to some extent towards the end of the year. It was particularly gratifying that acquisition activities continued at a high level this quarter and contributed to increased growth in both mature and new markets as well as in the fast-growing electromechanical field," said Johan Molin, President and CEO.

FOURTH QUARTER

The Group's sales totaled SEK 8,721 M (8,059), an increase of 8% compared with 2006. In local currencies the increase amounted to 11% (14), of which organic growth for comparable units contributed 6% (9) while acquired units accounted for 5% (5) of the increase in volume. Exchange-rate effects had a negative impact of SEK 188 M on sales, i.e. 2%.
