COBHAM ACQUIRES MMI RESEARCH FOR UP TO £16.6 MILLION

Cobham plc ('Cobham') is pleased to announce that it has completed the acquisition of MMI Research ('MMI'), a privately owned company based in Hampshire, UK for £13.6 million payable on completion on a debt and cash free basis, comprising cash of £12.2 million and loan notes of £1.4 million. Additional cash consideration of up to £3.0 million is payable by 2010, contingent on future performance. MMI employs 20 people and will become part of the Cobham Avionics and Surveillance Division.

MMI is a leading technology company in the Law Enforcement and National Security (LENS) markets providing specialist cellular telecommunications capabilities to law enforcement, military and intelligence agency customers world-wide. It is an excellent technological fit with Cobham's existing LENS capabilities and provides equipment to a number of Cobham's existing customers as well as broadening the customer base.

Allan Cook, Cobham Chief Executive, said:

"We are very pleased to have MMI join the Cobham team with its distinctive technologies and specialist customer base. The combination of MMI's complementary technologies and Cobham's scale and market reach will strengthen our capabilities in the growing surveillance market."
