FOSTER'S APPOINTS EXECUTIVE SEARCH FIRM

Foster's Group Limited (Foster's) today appointed executive search firm Heidrick & Struggles to conduct an international search for a Chief Executive Officer.

The search will commence immediately with a successful candidate expected to assume the role before the end of calendar 2008.

"We are a global drinks business with strong fundamentals", said Chairman, David Crawford. "We are searching for a person with the right mix of proven leadership qualities, international experience and strategic, marketing and commercial skills to drive our business forward."

An update on the search will be provided on 26 August at the release of Foster's 2008 financial results.
