BRADFORD & BINGLEY RESPONDS TO RESOLUTION'S PROPOSAL

The Board of Bradford & Bingley plc (the "Company") notes this afternoon's announcement from Resolution, an investment vehicle backed by Clive Cowdery. The Board confirms that on 20th June 2008 it received an indicative non-binding funding proposal that would involve Resolution's taking effective control of the Company. The Board carefully considered this proposal and on 22nd June informed Resolution that it could not recommend the current form of the proposal to shareholders.

The Board continues to recommend the Restructured Rights Issue and TPG Investment to its shareholders and intends to publish a prospectus relating to the shares to be issued pursuant to the Restructured Rights Issue and TPG Investment this week. The shareholders' meeting to seek approval for the Restructured Rights Issue and TPG Investment will be held on 7 July 2008.

Terms used in this announcement have the meaning set out in the shareholder circular published by the Company on 10th June 2008.

BRADFORD & BINGLEY STATEMENT

The Board of Bradford & Bingley plc ("Bradford & Bingley" or the "Company") notes that Resolution Ltd ("Resolution") has withdrawn from further discussions with the Company.

The Board recognises its duty on behalf of all shareholders to fully consider at all times and respond promptly to such proposals, but has been concerned not to abandon its current fund raising without achieving a higher level of certainty than Resolution has provided.

The Board and its advisers have been actively engaged with Resolution and its advisers since an initial indicative proposal was received late on Friday 20 June; this initial proposal was rejected on Sunday 22 June. The Board responded to Resolution's revised indicative proposal, which was received late on Tuesday 24 June, during the afternoon of Wednesday 25 June.

The Board has consistently made clear to Resolution that it was prepared to allow due diligence should an acceptable indicative proposal be made.

Resolution's revised indicative proposal did not meet the Board's concerns relating to certainty, funding, clarity, change of control, and price.

The primary concerns of the Board were:

- The Board did not receive any definite details regarding the funding and ownership structure of Resolution's proposal
- The Board did not receive any detail regarding important elements of the proposal, including details of voting and non-voting shares and approvals required under the Takeover Code
- The Board was concerned that Resolution's proposal amounted to its taking effective control of the Company, but this was not reflected in the terms of its proposals

The Board continues to recommend to shareholders its clear plan for recapitalising the Company, comprising the Restructured Rights Issue and TPG Investment (each as defined in the announcement dated 2 June 2008). Shareholder approval for the capital raising will be sought at an Extraordinary General Meeting on 7 July 2008.
