"Distributable Cash Flow" is defined in the Credit Agreement as EBITDA (as defined in the Credit Agreement) of the Partnership for a Testing Period plus, without duplication, releases of cash reserves or any cash flow of a Loan Party from a period prior to the Testing Period which has not formed part of a prior distribution and net proceeds of dispositions of assets by the Loan Parties permitted hereunder, all as determined on a consolidated basis in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles, minus sustaining capital expenditures of the Loan Parties incurred in such Testing Period, principal payments made or required to have been made on Funded Debt of a Loan Party in such Testing Period to the extent funded from cash flow, non-sustaining capital expenditures of the Loan Parties to the extent funded from cash flow, and the amount of any cash reserve established or increased by a Loan Party during such Testing Period.

"Funded Debt" is defined as the amount (calculated on a consolidated basis for the Partnership) equal to the aggregate of indebtedness for borrowed money, all other obligations of a Loan Party in respect of which interest charges are customarily paid, and all obligations secured by any security interest existing on property owned by a Loan Party subject to such security interest, whether or not the obligations secured thereby shall have been assumed, but excluding intercorporate debt.

B. Operating Facility Agreement dated as of May 30, 2003:

In paragraph 9 of the Operating Facility Agreement dated as of May 30, 2003 among the Corporation and the Partnership, as borrowers, and Royal Bank of Canada, as operating lender, the Corporation and the Partnership agree to comply with the covenants set forth in Article 9 of the Credit Agreement listed immediately above.

C. Note Agreement (2003):

Section 10.4 has a restriction on "Restricted Payments" equivalent to Section 10.4 of this Agreement.

D. Partnership Agreement:

Pursuant to Section 4.3 of the Partnership Agreement, the Partnership may not make any distributions to its partners without the consent of the Managing Partner, other than cash distributions made pursuant to Section 4.1 of the Partnership Agreement, and Liquidating Distributions made in accordance with Section 10.3 of the Partnership Agreement.

Pursuant to Section 6.2(c) of the Partnership Agreement, for so long as the partnership interest in the Partnership indirectly owned by the Fund is less than 50%, the affirmative vote of partners owning at least 75% of the partnership interest in the Partnership is required for the borrowing of funds by the Partnership in an aggregate amount exceeding $30 million (not including any amounts borrowed under any revolving credit facilities) and the pledging of any assets of the Partnership as collateral security for such borrowing.

FORM OF SERIES A SENIOR SECURED U.S. NOTE

THIS SECURITY HAS NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, OR ANY APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS AND MAY NOT BE SOLD OR TRANSFERRED WITHOUT COMPLIANCE WITH THE REGISTRATION OR QUALIFICATION PROVISIONS OF APPLICABLE FEDERAL AND STATE SECURITIES LAWS OR APPLICABLE EXEMPTIONS THEREFROM.

KEYSPAN ENERGY FACILITIES LIMITED

5.23% SERIES A SENIOR SECURED NOTE DUE OCTOBER 1, 2009

No. • September 30, 2004

Cdn. $• PPN •

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the undersigned, KEYSPAN ENERGY FACILITIES LIMITED (herein called the "Corporation"), a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Province of Alberta, hereby promises to pay to •, or registered assigns, the principal sum of • CANADIAN DOLLARS on October 1, 2009, with interest (computed on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months) (a) on the unpaid balance thereof at the rate of 5.23% per annum from the date hereof, payable semi-annually, on the 30th day of March and September in each year, commencing on March 30, 2005 (provided, the interest payment to be made on September 30, 2009 shall be made on, and shall include interest accrued to and including, October 1, 2009) until the principal hereof shall have become due and payable, and (b) to the extent permitted by law on any overdue payment (including any overdue prepayment) of principal, any overdue payment of interest and any overdue payment of any Make-Whole Amount (as defined in the Note Purchase Agreement referred to below), payable semi-annually as aforesaid (or, at the option of the registered holder hereof, on demand), at a rate per annum from time to time equal to the greater of (i) 7.23% or (ii) 2% over the rate of interest publicly announced by Royal Bank of Canada from time to time in Calgary, Alberta as its "base" or "prime" rate.

Payments of principal of, interest on and any Make-Whole Amount with respect to this Note are to be made in lawful money of Canada in Calgary, Alberta or at such other place as the Corporation shall have designated by written notice to the holder of this Note as provided in the Note Purchase Agreement referred to below.

This Note is one of a series of Senior Secured Notes (herein called the "Notes") issued or that may be issued pursuant to the Note Purchase Agreement dated as of September 30, 2004 (as from time to time amended or supplemented, the "Note Purchase Agreement"), among the Corporation, KeySpan Energy Canada Partnership and the respective Purchasers named therein and which Purchasers are entitled to the benefits thereof. Each holder of this Note will be deemed, by its acceptance hereof, (i) to have agreed to the confidentiality provisions set forth in Section 21 of the Note Purchase Agreement, and (ii) to have made the representations set forth in Section 6 of the Note Purchase Agreement. This Note is secured by the Senior Debt Security, the Partnership Guarantee and the Subsidiary Guarantees referred to in the Note Purchase Agreement.

This Note is a registered Note and, as provided in the Note Purchase Agreement, upon surrender of this Note for registration of transfer, duly endorsed, or accompanied by a written instrument of transfer duly executed, by the registered holder hereof or such holder's attorney duly authorized in writing, a new Note for a like principal amount will be issued to, and registered in the name of, the transferee. Prior to due presentment for registration of transfer, the Corporation may treat the person in whose name this Note is registered as the owner hereof for the purpose of receiving payment and for all other purposes, and the Corporation will not be affected by any notice to the contrary.

This Note is subject to optional pre-payment, in whole or from time to time in part, at the times and on the terms specified in the Note Purchase Agreement, but not otherwise.

If an Event of Default, as defined in the Note Purchase Agreement, occurs and is continuing, the principal of this Note may be declared or otherwise become due and payable in the manner, at the price (including any applicable Make-Whole Amount) and with the effect provided in the Note Purchase Agreement.

The Corporation and any and all endorsers, guarantors and sureties severally waive grace, demand, presentment for payment, notice of dishonour or default, notice of intent to accelerate, notice of acceleration (to the extent set forth in the Agreement), protest and diligence in collecting.

Should any indebtedness represented by this Note be collected at law or in equity, or in bankruptcy or other proceedings, or should this Note be placed in the hands of attorneys for collection, the Corporation agrees to pay, in addition to the principal, premium, if any, and interest due and payable hereon, all reasonable costs of collecting or attempting to collect this Note, including reasonable legal fees and expenses on a solicitor and his own client basis (including those incurred in connection with any appeal).

The Corporation, the Purchaser and the registered holder of this Note specifically intend and agree to limit contractually the amount of interest payable under this Note to the maximum amount of interest lawfully permitted to be charged under applicable law. Therefore, none of the terms of this Note shall ever be construed to create a contract to pay interest at a rate in excess of the maximum rate permitted to be charged under applicable law, and neither the Corporation nor any other party liable or to become liable hereunder shall ever be liable for interest in excess of the amount determined at such maximum rate, and the provisions of paragraph 24(b) of the Note Purchase Agreement shall control over any contrary provision of this Note.

Interest on this Note shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year of 12 30-day months. Solely for purposes of the Interest Act (Canada), the yearly rate of interest to which interest calculated for a period of less than one year on the basis of a year of 360 days consisting of 12 30-day periods is equivalent is such rate of interest multiplied by a fraction of which (i) the numerator is the product of (A) the actual number of days in the year commencing on the first day of such period, multiplied by (B) the sum of (y) the product of 30 multiplied by the number of complete months elapsed in such period and (z) the actual number of days elapsed in any incomplete month in such period; and (ii) the denominator is the product of (a) 360 multiplied by (b) the actual number of days in such period. All interest payable by the Corporation hereunder shall accrue from day to day, computed as described herein and shall be payable after as well as before maturity, demand, default and judgment. The theory of "deemed reinvestment" shall not apply to the computation of interest hereunder and no allowance, reduction or deduction shall be made for the deemed reinvestment of interest in respect of any payments hereunder. Calculation of interest hereunder shall be made using the nominal rate method, and not the effective rate method, of calculation.

THIS NOTE IS INTENDED TO BE PERFORMED IN THE PROVINCE OF ALBERTA AND SHALL BE CONSTRUED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW OF SUCH PROVINCE. The Corporation hereby submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of the Province of Alberta in connection herewith.

EXHIBIT 2.2(a)

FORM OF PARTNERSHIP GUARANTEE

GUARANTEE

THIS GUARANTEE is made as of the 30th day of September, 2004

BY:

KEYSPAN ENERGY CANADA PARTNERSHIP, an Alberta general partnership (the "Guarantor"),

IN FAVOUR OF:

The Persons who from time to time are holders of U.S. Notes under the Note Purchase Agreement (the "Noteholders" and each individually a "Noteholder")

RECITALS

The Guarantor has agreed to guarantee the payment and performance by KeySpan Energy Facilities Limited (the "Corporation") of the Guaranteed Obligations.

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration (the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged by the Guarantor), the Guarantor agrees with the Noteholders as follows:

ARTICLE 1
INTERPRETATION

1.1 Definitions

In this Guarantee, in addition to the definitions set out in any Section hereof:

"Corporation" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals;

"Guaranteed Obligations" means all indebtedness, obligations and liabilities, whether of payment or performance, present or future, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or not, in any currency, which the Corporation has from time to time incurred or may from time to time incur under or in connection with or relating to the U.S. Notes and the other Note Documents outstanding from time to time;

"Indemnified Amounts" means the amounts to be paid by the Guarantor under Section 2.2;

"Note Purchase Agreement" means the Note Purchase Agreement dated September 30, 2004 among the Guarantor, the Corporation and the purchasers of notes named in Schedule A attached thereto or to any Supplement, as the same may be modified, amended, supplemented, restated and replaced from time to time, including by any Supplement;

"Proceedings" means any voluntary or involuntary receivership, insolvency, proposal, bankruptcy, compromise, arrangement, reorganization, winding-up, dissolution or other similar proceedings, whether or not any of the foregoing is judicial in nature; and

"Tax" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the Note Purchase Agreement.

Unless the context otherwise requires, all other capitalized terms used herein not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Note Purchase Agreement.

1.2 References

As used herein, "this Guarantee", "hereto", "herein", "hereof", "hereby", "hereunder" and any similar expressions refer to this Guarantee as it may be supplemented, amended, restated or replaced from time to time, and not to any particular Article, Section or other portion hereof. Whenever in this Guarantee a particular Article, Section or other portion thereof is referred to, such reference pertains to the Article, Section or portion thereof contained herein unless otherwise indicated. In this Guarantee, unless the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa and words importing gender include all genders. The inclusion of headings in this Guarantee is for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation hereof.

1.3 Invalidity of Provisions

Each of the provisions contained in this Guarantee is distinct and severable and a declaration of invalidity or unenforceability of any such provision or part thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining part of such provision or any other provision hereof; and the invalidity of a particular provision or part thereof in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate such provision or part thereof in any other jurisdiction.

1.4 Entire Agreement

This Guarantee constitutes the entire agreement among the parties pertaining to the subject matter of this Guarantee. There are no warranties, representations or agreements, express, implied or statutory, between the parties in connection with such subject matter except as specifically set forth or referred to in this Guarantee.

1.5 Waiver, Amendment

No amendment or waiver of this Guarantee shall be valid or binding unless executed in writing by the parties to this Guarantee. A waiver of any provision of this Guarantee shall only constitute a waiver in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which it is given. A waiver of any provision of this Guarantee shall not constitute a continuing waiver unless expressly provided in writing. No failure or delay by the Noteholders in exercising any right or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof.

1.6 Governing Law, Attornment

This Guarantee shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and the laws of Canada applicable therein and the Guarantor hereby irrevocably attorns to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Alberta.

ARTICLE 2
GUARANTEE AND INDEMNITY

2.1 Guarantee

The Guarantor unconditionally, absolutely and irrevocably guarantees to and for the benefit of each of the Noteholders the due and punctual payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations. This Guarantee contained herein is an absolute, unconditional, present and continuing guarantee of payment. If, for any reason whatsoever, the Corporation shall fail or be unable to duly, punctually and fully pay or perform any Guaranteed Obligation as and when the same shall become due and payable, the Guarantor shall forthwith pay, cause to be paid or cause to be performed, such Guaranteed Obligation to the Noteholders.

2.2 Indemnity

The Guarantor shall indemnify and save harmless the Noteholders from and against any and all losses, costs and expenses which they may suffer in any way as a result of the occurrence of any event or circumstance which is, or is expressed to be, an Event of Default under or with respect to any U.S. Note becoming for any reason whatsoever in whole or in part:

(i) void, voidable, ultra vires, illegal, invalid, ineffective or otherwise unenforceable by the Noteholders in accordance with its terms, or

(ii) released, compromised or discharged by operation of law or otherwise,

(an "Indemnifiable Circumstance"). For greater certainty, the foregoing losses shall include without limitation all obligations hereby guaranteed which would have been payable by the Corporation but for the existence of an Indemnifiable Circumstance.

2.3 Reinstatement

The guarantee and indemnity herein shall be reinstated if at any time any payment of any Guaranteed Obligations or Indemnified Amounts is rendered unenforceable, is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by any Noteholder as a result of any Proceedings of or affecting any of the Corporation, the Guarantor or any other Person or for any other reason whatsoever, all as though such payment had not been made. Any Noteholder may concede or compromise any claim that such payment ought to be rescinded or otherwise returned, without discharging, diminishing or in any way affecting the liability and the obligation of the Guarantor under this Guarantee.

ARTICLE 3
ENFORCEMENT

3.1 Demand

Upon an Event of Default occurring under or with respect to a U.S. Note, the Guarantor shall, on demand by or on behalf of Noteholders, forthwith pay to the Noteholders, and/or perform or cause the performance of, all Guaranteed Obligations and Indemnified Amounts for which such demand was made.

3.2 Right to Immediate Payment or Performance

The Noteholders shall not be bound or obligated to make any demand on or to seek or exhaust its recourse against the Corporation or any other Person or any Senior Debt Security held by it or any other Secured Party, before being entitled to demand payment from or performance by the Guarantor and enforce its rights under this Guarantee, and the Guarantor hereby renounces all benefits of discussion and division.

3.3 Subordination

All liabilities and indebtedness, present and future, joint or several, absolute or contingent, of the Corporation to the Guarantor are hereby subordinated to the payment and performance in full of the Guaranteed Obligations, the Indemnified Amounts and all other amounts payable hereunder and, after the occurrence of an Event of Default, all such liabilities and indebtedness of the Corporation to the Guarantor are hereby postponed to the payment and performance in full of the Guaranteed Obligations, the Indemnified Amounts and all other amounts payable hereunder and, all monies received by the Guarantor in respect thereof after demand for payment and/or performance by the Noteholders hereunder shall be received in trust for the Noteholders and forthwith upon receipt shall be paid over to the Noteholders, the whole without in any way lessening or limiting the liability of the Guarantor under this Guarantee.

The Guarantor shall not have any right of subrogation to the Noteholders or be otherwise entitled to claim the benefit of any security now or hereafter held by any Noteholder in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts, until the Noteholders have received full and final payment and performance of all Guaranteed Obligations, all Indemnified Amounts and all other amounts payable hereunder.

If any amount shall be paid to the Guarantor in violation of the preceding sentence at any time prior to the full and final payment of the Guaranteed Obligations and the Indemnified Amounts, such amount shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Noteholders and shall forthwith be paid to the Noteholders to be credited and applied to the amounts due or to become due with respect to the U.S. Notes, whether matured or unmatured.

ARTICLE 4
PROTECTION OF HOLDERS OF U.S. NOTES

4.1 Defects in Creation of Guaranteed Obligations

No Noteholder shall be concerned to see or inquire into the capacity and powers of the Corporation or any partners, directors, officers, employees or agents acting or purporting to act on its or the Managing Partner's behalf. All obligations, liabilities and indebtedness purporting to be incurred by the Corporation in favour of the Noteholders shall be deemed to form part of the Guaranteed Obligations even though the Corporation may not be a legal entity or the incurring of such obligations, liabilities or indebtedness was irregularly, fraudulently, defectively or informally effected or in excess of the capacity or powers of the Corporation or any partners, directors, officers, employees or agents acting or purporting to act on its or the Managing Partner's behalf and notwithstanding that any Noteholder has specific notice of the capacity and powers of the Corporation or any partners, directors, officers, employees or agents acting or purporting to act on its or the Managing Partner's behalf.

4.2 Liability Absolute

This Guarantee shall be a continuing guarantee and the liability of the Guarantor hereunder shall be absolute, unconditional and irrevocable and shall not be discharged, diminished or in any way affected by:

(i) any amalgamation, merger, consolidation or reorganization of the Corporation or the Guarantor or any continuation of the Corporation or the Guarantor from the statute under which it now or hereafter exists to another statute whether under the laws of the same jurisdiction or another jurisdiction;

(ii) any change in the name, business, objects, capital structure, ownership, constating documents, by-laws, partnership agreements or resolutions of the Corporation or the Guarantor, as the case may be, including without limitation any transaction (whether by way of transfer, sale or otherwise) whereby all or any part of the undertaking, property and assets of the Corporation or the Guarantor becomes the property of any other Person;

(iii) any lack of validity, enforceability or value of any U.S. Note, any other Note Document or any other agreement or instrument relating thereto or to any security therefor;

(iv) any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other term of any U.S. Note, any other Note Document or any amendment or waiver thereof, or any consent to departure from any Note Document;

(v) any taking, exchange, release or non-perfection of any security, or any release or amendment or waiver of or consent to departure from any other guarantee for any U.S. Note or other Note Document;

(vi) any manner of application of any security or proceeds of realization thereof, or any manner of sale or other disposition of any collateral or any other assets of the Corporation or the Guarantor;

(vii) the voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation or dissolution of the Corporation or the Guarantor, or any other Person, and the occurrence of any other proceeding as a result of such bankruptcy or insolvency;

(viii) any amendment or modification of or supplement to or other change in any U.S. Note or other Note Document;

(ix) any failure, omission or delay on the part of any Person to conform or comply with any term of any U.S. Note or other Note Document;

(x) to the extent as may be waived under applicable law, the benefit of all principles or provisions of law, statutory or otherwise, which may be in conflict with the terms hereof; or which shall delay, interfere with, hinder or present, or in any way adversely affect, the performance by the Corporation or the Guarantor in its respective obligations under or in respect of the U.S. Notes or this Guarantee;

(xi) any failure or lack of diligence in collection or protection, failure in presentment or demand from payment, protest, notice of protest, notice of default and of nonpayment, any failure to give notice to the Guarantor of failure of the Corporation to keep and perform any obligation, covenant or agreement under the terms of the U.S. Notes or this Guarantee;

(xii) any attachment, claim, demand, charge, Lien, order, process encumbrance or any other happening or event or reason, similar or dissimilar to the foregoing, or any withholding or diminution at the source, by reason of any taxes, assessments, expenses, debt, obligations, or liabilities of any character, foreseen or unforeseen, and whether or not valid, incurred by or against either or the Corporation or the Guarantor or any claims, demands, charges or liens of any nature, foreseen or unforeseen, incurred by either the Corporation or the Guarantor, or against any sums payable in respect of the U.S. Notes or this Guarantee, so that such sums would be rendered inadequate or would be unavailable to make the payments herein provided; or provided that the specific enumeration of the above-mentioned acts, failures or omissions shall not be deemed to exclude any other acts, failure or omissions, though not specifically mentioned above, it being the purpose and intent of this Guarantee and the parties hereto that the obligations of the Guarantor shall be absolute and unconditional and shall not be discharged, impaired or varied except by the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations and Indemnified Amounts whenever the same shall become due and payable.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Guarantor agrees that repeated and successive demands may be made and recoveries may be had hereunder as and when, from time to time, there shall be an Event of Default under or with respect to any U.S. Note and that notwithstanding the recovery hereunder for or in respect thereof, this Guarantee shall remain in force and effect and shall apply to each and every subsequent Event of Default. If (i) an event permitting the exercise of remedies under any U.S. Note, as the case may be, shall at any time have occurred and be continuing and (ii) such exercise, or any consequences thereof provided in any U.S. Note, as the case may be, shall at any time be prevented by reason of the pendency against the Corporation of a Proceeding, the Guarantor agrees that, solely for purposes of this Guarantee and its obligations hereunder, such U.S. Note shall be deemed to have been declared in default and all amounts thereunder shall be deemed to be immediately due and payable, with all the attendant consequences as provided in such agreement as if declaration of default and the consequence thereof had been accomplished in accordance with the terms thereof, and the Guarantor shall forthwith pay and perform the Guaranteed Obligations.

4.3 Dealings by the Noteholders

The Noteholders may from time to time in their absolute discretion, without discharging, diminishing or in any way affecting the liability of the Guarantor hereunder:

(i) permit any increase or decrease, however significant, of the Guaranteed Obligations or supplement, amend, restate or substitute, in whole or in part, however significant, the Guaranteed Obligations, any U.S. Note or other Note Document or any other agreement relating to any of the foregoing or, in whole or in part demand payment of all or any Guaranteed Obligations and/or the Indemnified Amounts;

(ii) enforce or take action under or abstain from enforcing or taking action under any U.S. Note or other Note Document or any other guarantee of the Guaranteed Obligations or indemnity of the Indemnified Amounts;

(iii) receive, give up, subordinate, release or discharge any security; supplement, amend, restate, substitute, renew, abstain from renewing, perfect or abstain from perfecting or maintaining the perfection of any security; enforce, take action under or realize in any manner or abstain from enforcing, taking action under or realizing any security; deal with or abstain from dealing with all or any part of the undertaking, property and assets subject to any security; or allow or abstain from allowing the Corporation or other Persons to deal with all or any part of such undertaking, property and assets;

(iv) renew all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or grant extensions of time or any other indulgences to the Corporation or to any other guarantor or other Person liable directly or indirectly for all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or Indemnified Amounts;

(v) accept or make any compositions or arrangements with or release, discharge or otherwise deal with or abstain from dealing with the Corporation or any other guarantor or other Person liable directly or indirectly for all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or Indemnified Amounts;

(vi) in whole or in part prove or abstain from proving any claim of the Noteholders in any Proceedings of or affecting the Corporation or any other Person; and whether or not any of the matters described in paragraphs (i) to (vii) above occur alone or in connection with one or more other such matters.

(vii) agree with the Corporation, any other guarantor or any other Person to do anything described in paragraphs (i) to (vi) above;

No loss of or in respect of any security for the Guaranteed Obligations, the Indemnified Amounts or any part thereof, whether occasioned through the fault of any Noteholder or otherwise, shall discharge, diminish or in any way affect the liability of the Guarantor hereunder. Neither the Noteholders nor any of their directors, officers, employees or agents or any receiver or receiver-manager appointed by any of them or by a court shall have any liability, whether in tort, contract or otherwise, for any neglect or any act taken or omitted to be taken by them in connection with the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts or any part thereof or any security for the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts or any part thereof, including without limitation any of the matters described above in this Section 4.3.

4.4 Waiver of Notice

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Guarantor expressly waives any right to receive notice of the existence or creation of all or any of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts and presentment, demand, notice of dishonour, protest, notice of any of the events or circumstances described in Sections 4.1, 4.2 or 4.3 and all other notices whatsoever in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts. The Guarantor hereby acknowledges receipt of copies of the Note Documents and all guarantees and other documents referred to in the Note Purchase Agreement and of all the provisions therein contained and consents to and approves the same.

ARTICLE 5
MISCELLANEOUS

5.1 Expenses

The Guarantor shall pay on demand all reasonable out of pocket costs and expenses of the Noteholders (including, without limitation, the fees and expenses of counsel for the Noteholders on a solicitor and his own client full indemnity basis) incurred in connection with any enforcement of this Guarantee.

5.2 No Set-off by Guarantor

All amounts payable by the Guarantor under this Guarantee shall be paid without set-off or counterclaim and without any deduction or withholding whatsoever.

5.3 No Waiver

No delay on the part of the Noteholders in the exercise of any right, power or remedy hereunder or otherwise shall operate as a waiver thereof, and no single or partial exercise by the Noteholders of any right, power or remedy shall preclude other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy. No action of a Noteholder permitted hereunder shall in any way impair or affect its rights, powers or remedies under this Guarantee.

5.4 Additional Security

This Guarantee shall be in addition to, and shall not be in any way prejudiced by nor shall this Guarantee prejudice:

(i) any security or guarantee now or hereafter held by any Noteholder, and

(ii) the endorsement by the Guarantor of any notes or other documents, and rights of the Noteholders under this Guarantee shall not be merged in any such other security, guarantee or endorsement.

5.5 Assignment

The Guarantor shall not assign any of its obligations with respect to this Guarantee without the prior written consent of the Noteholders except to the extent permitted under all of the Note Documents in effect at such time.

5.6 Communication

Any notice, demand, consent, approval or other communication from the Guarantor to any Noteholder, or vice versa, will be in writing and will be sufficiently given or made if given in the manner prescribed in the Note Purchase Agreement. The address and telecopier number of the Guarantor and the contact person at the Guarantor shall be the same as that set forth in the Note Purchase Agreement.

5.7 Successors and Assigns

This Guarantee shall be binding upon the Guarantor and its successors and permitted assigns and enure to the benefit of the Noteholders and their respective successors and assigns.

5.8 Copy Received

The Guarantor acknowledges receipt of a copy of this Guarantee.

5.9 Time of the Essence

Time shall be of the essence.

5.10 Foreign Currency Obligations

The Guarantor will make payment relative to each Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount in the currency (the "Original Currency") in which the Corporation is required to pay such Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount. If the Guarantor makes payment relative to any Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount to the Noteholders in a currency (the "Other Currency") other than the Original Currency (whether voluntarily or pursuant to an order or judgment of a court or tribunal of any jurisdiction), such payment will constitute a discharge of the liability of the Guarantor hereunder in respect of such Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount only to the extent of the amount of the Original Currency which a Noteholder is able to purchase at Calgary, Alberta with the amount it receives on the date of receipt. If the amount of the Original Currency which any Noteholder is able to purchase is less than the amount of such currency originally due to it in respect to the relevant Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount, the Guarantor will indemnify and save such Noteholder harmless from and against any loss or damage arising as a result of such deficiency. This indemnity will constitute an obligation separate and independent from the other obligations contained in this Guarantee, will give rise to a separate and independent cause of action will apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by any Noteholder and will continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any judgment or order in respect of any amount due hereunder or under any judgment or order.

5.11 Taxes

(a) All payments by the Guarantor under any U.S. Note, whether in respect of principal, Make-Whole Amount (if any), interest, interest on overdue interest, fees or any other payment obligations, shall be made in full without any deduction or withholding on account of taxes or duties of whatsoever nature imposed or levied by or on behalf of Canada or any Governmental Authority in Canada having power to tax unless the Guarantor is prohibited by Applicable Law from doing so, in which event the Guarantor shall:

(i) forthwith pay to the Noteholder as additional interest on the principal amount of the U.S. Notes such additional amount (a "Tax Indemnity Amount") so that the net amount received by the Noteholder after payment of such deductions and withholdings will equal the full amount which would have been received by it had no such deduction or withholding been made;

(ii) pay to the relevant taxation or other authorities within the period for payment permitted by Applicable Law the full amount of the deduction or withholding (including the full amount of any deduction or withholding from any additional amount paid pursuant to this paragraph (a)); and

(iii) furnish to the Noteholder promptly, as soon as available, an official receipt of the relevant taxation or other authorities involved for all amounts deducted or withheld as aforesaid.

(b) If as a result of any payment by the Guarantor under any U.S. Note, whether in respect of principal, Make-Whole Amount (if any), interest, interest on overdue interest, fees or other payment obligations, any Noteholder is required to pay tax under Part XIII of the Tax Act, then the Guarantor will, upon demand by such Noteholder, indemnify such Noteholder for the payment of any such taxes, together with any interest, penalties and expenses in connection therewith. All such amounts shall be payable by the Guarantor on demand and shall bear interest at the Default Rate calculated from the date demanded by such Noteholder to the date paid by the Guarantor;

(c) If, following any payment made by the Guarantor to any Noteholder under paragraph (a)(i) above or any indemnity payment made by the Guarantor to any Noteholder under paragraph (b) above, such Noteholder shall determine in its sole discretion if it has received or has been granted a refund, credit, allowance or remission in respect of the taxes or duties resulting in the payment thereof and such Noteholder is able to identify such refund, credit, allowance or remission as being attributable to such taxes or duties, such Noteholder shall, to the extent that it can do so without prejudice to the retention of the amount of such refund, credit, allowance or remission and without prejudice to the right of such Noteholder to obtain any other relief or allowance which may be available to it, reimburse the Guarantor with such amount as such Noteholder, acting reasonably, determines to be the amount of money attributable to such refund, credit, allowance or remission that may be paid by such Noteholder to leave it (after such reimbursement) in no worse position than it would have been in had there been no such deduction or withholding or payment of tax which resulted in the payment under paragraph (a)(i) or (b) above. Such Noteholder may charge to the Guarantor (and may deduct from amounts reimbursable to the Guarantor hereunder) a fee reasonably determined by such Noteholder to compensate it for any additional effort expended or cost incurred in determining such credit or remission or allocating it to the Guarantor. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Noteholder shall be obligated to disclose to the Guarantor, or any of its agents, any computation made by such Noteholder in connection with this Section 5.11(c) or any information regarding such Noteholder's tax status or affairs;

Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 5.11 , no Tax Indemnity Amounts shall be payable (i) to any Noteholder which does not deal at arm's length (within the meaning of the Tax Act) with the Guarantor; (ii) to any Noteholder which is liable for any Tax by reason of it being or having been connected to Canada for any reason or in any capacity other than solely as a Noteholder; (iii) for or on account of any Tax that is imposed or withheld by reason of the failure of the Noteholder to complete, execute and deliver to the Guarantor any form or document to the extent applicable to such Noteholder that may be required by law or by reason of administration of such law and which is reasonably requested in writing to be delivered by the Guarantor in order to enable the Guarantor to make payments on the U.S. Notes without deduction or withholding for taxes, assessments or governmental charges, or with deduction of withholding of a lesser amount, which form or document shall be delivered within 60 days of a written request therefor by the Guarantor; provided that nothing in this clause (ii) shall require a Noteholder to disclose confidential or proprietary information; or (iv) in the case where such Noteholder is not a resident (within the meaning of the United States-Canada Income Tax Convention) of the United States of America, in excess of the amount which the Guarantor would have been obligated to pay hereunder if such Noteholder were resident in the United States of America for the purposes of such treaty.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Guarantor has executed this Guarantee as of the day and year first above written.

FORM OF CORPORATION GUARANTEE

GUARANTEE

THIS GUARANTEE is made as of the • day of •, 200•,

BY:

KEYSPAN ENERGY FACILITIES LIMITED, an Alberta corporation (the "Guarantor"),

IN FAVOUR OF:

The Persons who from time to time are holders of Canadian Notes under the Note Purchase Agreement (the "Noteholders" and each individually a "Noteholder")

RECITALS

The Guarantor has agreed to guarantee the payment and performance by KeySpan Energy Canada Partnership (the "Partnership") of the Guaranteed Obligations.

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration (the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged by the Guarantor), the Guarantor agrees with the Noteholders as follows:

ARTICLE 1
INTERPRETATION

1.1 Definitions

In this Guarantee, in addition to the definitions set out in any Section hereof:

"Guaranteed Obligations" means all indebtedness, obligations and liabilities, whether of payment or performance, present or future, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or not, in any currency, which the Partnership has from time to time incurred or may from time to time incur under or in connection with or relating to the Canadian Notes and the other Note Documents outstanding from time to time;

"Indemnified Amounts" means the amounts to be paid by the Guarantor under Section 2.2;

"Note Purchase Agreement" means the Note Purchase Agreement dated September 30, 2004 among the Guarantor, the Partnership and the purchasers of notes named in Schedule A attached thereto or to any Supplement, as the same may be modified, amended, supplemented, restated and replaced from time to time, including by any Supplement;

"Partnership" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the recitals;

"Proceedings" means any voluntary or involuntary receivership, insolvency, proposal, bankruptcy, compromise, arrangement, reorganization, winding-up, dissolution or other similar proceedings, whether or not any of the foregoing is judicial in nature; and

"Tax" has the meaning ascribed thereto in the Note Purchase Agreement.

Unless the context otherwise requires, all other capitalized terms used herein not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Note Purchase Agreement.

1.2 References

As used herein, "this Guarantee", "hereto", "herein", "hereof", "hereby", "hereunder" and any similar expressions refer to this Guarantee as it may be supplemented, amended, restated or replaced from time to time, and not to any particular Article, Section or other portion hereof. Whenever in this Guarantee a particular Article, Section or other portion thereof is referred to, such reference pertains to the Article, Section or portion thereof contained herein unless otherwise indicated. In this Guarantee, unless the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa and words importing gender include all genders. The inclusion of headings in this Guarantee is for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation hereof.

1.3 Invalidity of Provisions

Each of the provisions contained in this Guarantee is distinct and severable and a declaration of invalidity or unenforceability of any such provision or part thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining part of such provision or any other provision hereof; and the invalidity of a particular provision or part thereof in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate such provision or part thereof in any other jurisdiction.

1.4 Entire Agreement

This Guarantee constitutes the entire agreement among the parties pertaining to the subject matter of this Guarantee. There are no warranties, representations or agreements, express, implied or statutory, between the parties in connection with such subject matter except as specifically set forth or referred to in this Guarantee.

1.5 Waiver, Amendment

No amendment or waiver of this Guarantee shall be valid or binding unless executed in writing by the parties to this Guarantee. A waiver of any provision of this Guarantee shall only constitute a waiver in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which it is given. A waiver of any provision of this Guarantee shall not constitute a continuing waiver unless expressly provided in writing. No failure or delay by the Noteholders in exercising any right or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof.

1.6 Governing Law, Attornment

This Guarantee shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and the laws of Canada applicable therein and the Guarantor hereby irrevocably attorns to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Alberta.

ARTICLE 2
GUARANTEE AND INDEMNITY

2.1 Guarantee

The Guarantor unconditionally, absolutely and irrevocably guarantees to and for the benefit of each of the Noteholders the due and punctual payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations. This Guarantee contained herein is an absolute, unconditional, present and continuing guarantee of payment. If, for any reason whatsoever, the Partnership shall fail or be unable to duly, punctually and fully pay or perform any Guaranteed Obligation as and when the same shall become due and payable, the Guarantor shall forthwith pay, cause to be paid or cause to be performed, such Guaranteed Obligation to the Noteholders.

2.2 Indemnity

The Guarantor shall indemnify and save harmless the Noteholders from and against any and all losses, costs and expenses which they may suffer in any way as a result of the occurrence of any event or circumstance which is, or is expressed to be, an Event of Default under or with respect to any Canadian Note becoming for any reason whatsoever in whole or in part:

(i) void, voidable, ultra vires, illegal, invalid, ineffective or otherwise unenforceable by the Noteholders in accordance with its terms, or

(ii) released, compromised or discharged by operation of law or otherwise,

(an "Indemnifiable Circumstance"). For greater certainty, the foregoing losses shall include without limitation all obligations hereby guaranteed which would have been payable by the Partnership but for the existence of an Indemnifiable Circumstance.

2.3 Reinstatement

The guarantee and indemnity herein shall be reinstated if at any time any payment of any Guaranteed Obligations or Indemnified Amounts is rendered unenforceable, is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by any Noteholder as a result of any Proceedings of or affecting any of the Partnership, the Guarantor or any other Person or for any other reason whatsoever, all as though such payment had not been made. Any Noteholder may concede or compromise any claim that such payment ought to be rescinded or otherwise returned, without discharging, diminishing or in any way affecting the liability and the obligation of the Guarantor under this Guarantee.

ARTICLE 3
ENFORCEMENT

3.1 Demand

Upon an Event of Default occurring under or with respect to a Canadian Note, the Guarantor shall, on demand by or on behalf of Noteholders, forthwith pay to the Noteholders, and/or perform or cause the performance of, all Guaranteed Obligations and Indemnified Amounts for which such demand was made.

3.2 Right to Immediate Payment or Performance

The Noteholders shall not be bound or obligated to make any demand on or to seek or exhaust its recourse against the Partnership or any other Person or any Senior Debt Security held by it or any other Secured Party, before being entitled to demand payment from or performance by the Guarantor and enforce its rights under this Guarantee, and the Guarantor hereby renounces all benefits of discussion and division.

3.3 Subordination

All liabilities and indebtedness, present and future, joint or several, absolute or contingent, of the Partnership to the Guarantor are hereby subordinated to the payment and performance in full of the Guaranteed Obligations, the Indemnified Amounts and all other amounts payable hereunder and, after the occurrence of an Event of Default, all such liabilities and indebtedness of the Partnership to the Guarantor are hereby postponed to the payment and performance in full of the Guaranteed Obligations, the Indemnified Amounts and all other amounts payable hereunder and, all monies received by the Guarantor in respect thereof after demand for payment and/or performance by the Noteholders hereunder shall be received in trust for the Noteholders and forthwith upon receipt shall be paid over to the Noteholders, the whole without in any way lessening or limiting the liability of the Guarantor under this Guarantee.

The Guarantor shall not have any right of subrogation to the Noteholders or be otherwise entitled to claim the benefit of any security now or hereafter held by any Noteholder in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts, until the Noteholders have received full and final payment and performance of all Guaranteed Obligations, all Indemnified Amounts and all other amounts payable hereunder.

If any amount shall be paid to the Guarantor in violation of the preceding sentence at any time prior to the full and final payment of the Guaranteed Obligations and the Indemnified Amounts, such amount shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Noteholders and shall forthwith be paid to the Noteholders to be credited and applied to the amounts due or to become due with respect to the Canadian Notes, whether matured or unmatured.

ARTICLE 4
PROTECTION OF HOLDERS OF CANADIAN NOTES

4.1 Defects in Creation of Guaranteed Obligations

No Noteholder shall be concerned to see or inquire into the capacity and powers of the Partnership or any partners, directors, officers, employees or agents acting or purporting to act on its or the Managing Partner's behalf. All obligations, liabilities and indebtedness purporting to be incurred by the Partnership in favour of the Noteholders shall be deemed to form part of the Guaranteed Obligations even though the Partnership may not be a legal entity or the incurring of such obligations, liabilities or indebtedness was irregularly, fraudulently, defectively or informally effected or in excess of the capacity or powers of the Partnership or any partners, directors, officers, employees or agents acting or purporting to act on its or the Managing Partner's behalf and notwithstanding that any Noteholder has specific notice of the capacity and powers of the Partnership or any partners, directors, officers, employees or agents acting or purporting to act on its or the Managing Partner's behalf.

4.2 Liability Absolute

This Guarantee shall be a continuing guarantee and the liability of the Guarantor hereunder shall be absolute, unconditional and irrevocable and shall not be discharged, diminished or in any way affected by:

(i) any amalgamation, merger, consolidation or reorganization of the Partnership or the Guarantor or any continuation of the Partnership or the Guarantor from the statute under which it now or hereafter exists to another statute whether under the laws of the same jurisdiction or another jurisdiction;

(ii) any change in the name, business, objects, capital structure, ownership, constating documents, by-laws, partnership agreements or resolutions of the Partnership or the Guarantor, as the case may be, including without limitation any transaction (whether by way of transfer, sale or otherwise) whereby all or any part of the undertaking, property and assets of the Partnership or the Guarantor becomes the property of any other Person;

(iii) any lack of validity, enforceability or value of any Canadian Note, any other Note Document or any other agreement or instrument relating thereto or to any security therefor;

(iv) any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other term of any Canadian Note, any other Note Document or any amendment or waiver thereof, or any consent to departure from any Note Document;

(v) any taking, exchange, release or non-perfection of any security, or any release or amendment or waiver of or consent to departure from any other guarantee for any Canadian Note or other Note Document;

(vi) any manner of application of any security or proceeds of realization thereof, or any manner of sale or other disposition of any collateral or any other assets of the Partnership or the Guarantor;

(vii) the voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation or dissolution of the Partnership or the Guarantor, or any other Person, and the occurrence of any other proceeding as a result of such bankruptcy or insolvency;

(viii) any amendment or modification of or supplement to or other change in any Canadian Note or other Note Document;

(ix) any failure, omission or delay on the part of any Person to conform or comply with any term of any Canadian Note or other Note Document;

(x) to the extent as may be waived under applicable law, the benefit of all principles or provisions of law, statutory or otherwise, which may be in conflict with the terms hereof; or which shall delay, interfere with, hinder or present, or in any way adversely affect, the performance by either of the Partnership or the Guarantor in its respective obligations under or in respect of the Canadian Notes or this Guarantee;

(xi) any failure or lack of diligence in collection or protection, failure in presentment or demand from payment, protest, notice of protest, notice of default and of nonpayment, any failure to give notice to the Guarantor of failure of the Partnership to keep and perform any obligation, covenant or agreement under the terms of the Canadian Notes or this Guarantee;

(xii) any attachment, claim, demand, charge, Lien, order, process encumbrance or any other happening or event or reason, similar or dissimilar to the foregoing, or any withholding or diminution at the source, by reason of any taxes, assessments, expenses, debt, obligations, or liabilities of any character, foreseen or unforeseen, and whether or not valid, incurred by or against either the Partnership or the Guarantor or any claims, demands, charges or liens of any nature, foreseen or unforeseen, incurred by either of the Partnership or the Guarantor, or against any sums payable in respect of the Canadian Notes or this Guarantee, so that such sums would be rendered inadequate or would be unavailable to make the payments herein provided; or provided that the specific enumeration of the above-mentioned acts, failures or omissions shall not be deemed to exclude any other acts, failure or omissions, though not specifically mentioned above, it being the purpose and intent of this Guarantee and the parties hereto that the obligations of the Guarantor shall be absolute and unconditional and shall not be discharged, impaired or varied except by the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations and Indemnified Amounts whenever the same shall become due and payable.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Guarantor agrees that repeated and successive demands may be made and recoveries may be had hereunder as and when, from time to time, there shall be an Event of Default under or with respect to any Canadian Note and that notwithstanding the recovery hereunder for or in respect thereof, this Guarantee shall remain in force and effect and shall apply to each and every subsequent Event of Default. If (i) an event permitting the exercise of remedies under any Canadian Note, as the case may be, shall at any time have occurred and be continuing and (ii) such exercise, or any consequences thereof provided in any Canadian Note, as the case may be, shall at any time be prevented by reason of the pendency against the Partnership of a Proceeding, the Guarantor agrees that, solely for purposes of this Guarantee and its obligations hereunder, such Canadian Note shall be deemed to have been declared in default and all amounts thereunder shall be deemed to be immediately due and payable, with all the attendant consequences as provided in such agreement as if declaration of default and the consequence thereof had been accomplished in accordance with the terms thereof, and the Guarantor shall forthwith pay and perform the Guaranteed Obligations.

4.3 Dealings by the Noteholders

The Noteholders may from time to time in their absolute discretion, without discharging, diminishing or in any way affecting the liability of the Guarantor hereunder:

(i) permit any increase or decrease, however significant, of the Guaranteed Obligations or supplement, amend, restate or substitute, in whole or in part, however significant, the Guaranteed Obligations, any Canadian Note or other Note Document or any other agreement relating to any of the foregoing or, in whole or in part demand payment of all or any Guaranteed Obligations and/or the Indemnified Amounts;

(ii) enforce or take action under or abstain from enforcing or taking action under any Canadian Note or other Note Document or any other guarantee of the Guaranteed Obligations or indemnity of the Indemnified Amounts;

(iii) receive, give up, subordinate, release or discharge any security; supplement, amend, restate, substitute, renew, abstain from renewing, perfect or abstain from perfecting or maintaining the perfection of any security; enforce, take action under or realize in any manner or abstain from enforcing, taking action under or realizing any security; deal with or abstain from dealing with all or any part of the undertaking, property and assets subject to any security; or allow or abstain from allowing the Partnership or other Persons to deal with all or any part of such undertaking, property and assets;

(iv) renew all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or grant extensions of time or any other indulgences to the Partnership or to any other guarantor or other Person liable directly or indirectly for all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or Indemnified Amounts;

(v) accept or make any compositions or arrangements with or release, discharge or otherwise deal with or abstain from dealing with the Partnership or any other guarantor or other Person liable directly or indirectly for all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or Indemnified Amounts;

(vi) in whole or in part prove or abstain from proving any claim of the Noteholders in any Proceedings of or affecting the Partnership or any other Person; and whether or not any of the matters described in paragraphs (i) to (vii) above occur alone or in connection with one or more other such matters.

(vii) agree with the Partnership, any other guarantor or any other Person to do anything described in paragraphs (i) to (vi) above;

No loss of or in respect of any security for the Guaranteed Obligations, the Indemnified Amounts or any part thereof, whether occasioned through the fault of any Noteholder or otherwise, shall discharge, diminish or in any way affect the liability of the Guarantor hereunder. Neither the Noteholders nor any of their directors, officers, employees or agents or any receiver or receiver-manager appointed by any of them or by a court shall have any liability, whether in tort, contract or otherwise, for any neglect or any act taken or omitted to be taken by them in connection with the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts or any part thereof or any security for the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts or any part thereof, including without limitation any of the matters described above in this Section 4.3.

4.4 Waiver of Notice

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Guarantor expressly waives any right to receive notice of the existence or creation of all or any of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts and presentment, demand, notice of dishonour, protest, notice of any of the events or circumstances described in Sections 4.1, 4.2 or 4.3 and all other notices whatsoever in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts. The Guarantor hereby acknowledges receipt of copies of the Note Documents and all guarantees and other documents referred to in the Note Purchase Agreement and of all the provisions therein contained and consents to and approves the same.

ARTICLE 5
MISCELLANEOUS

5.1 Expenses

The Guarantor shall pay on demand all reasonable out of pocket costs and expenses of the Noteholders (including, without limitation, the fees and expenses of counsel for the Noteholders on a solicitor and his own client full indemnity basis) incurred in connection with any enforcement of this Guarantee.

5.2 No Set-off by Guarantor

All amounts payable by the Guarantor under this Guarantee shall be paid without set-off or counterclaim and without any deduction or withholding whatsoever.

5.3 No Waiver

No delay on the part of the Noteholders in the exercise of any right, power or remedy hereunder or otherwise shall operate as a waiver thereof, and no single or partial exercise by the Noteholders of any right, power or remedy shall preclude other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy. No action of a Noteholder permitted hereunder shall in any way impair or affect its rights, powers or remedies under this Guarantee.

5.4 Additional Security

This Guarantee shall be in addition to, and shall not be in any way prejudiced by nor shall this Guarantee prejudice:

(i) any security or guarantee now or hereafter held by any Noteholder, and

(ii) the endorsement by the Guarantor of any notes or other documents, and rights of the Noteholders under this Guarantee shall not be merged in any such other security, guarantee or endorsement.

5.5 Assignment

The Guarantor shall not assign any of its obligations with respect to this Guarantee without the prior written consent of the Noteholders except to the extent permitted under all of the Note Documents in effect at such time.

5.6 Communication

Any notice, demand, consent, approval or other communication from the Guarantor to any Noteholder, or vice versa, will be in writing and will be sufficiently given or made if given in the manner prescribed in the Note Purchase Agreement. The address and telecopier number of the Guarantor and the contact person at the Guarantor shall be the same as that set forth in the Note Purchase Agreement.

5.7 Successors and Assigns

This Guarantee shall be binding upon the Guarantor and its successors and permitted assigns and enure to the benefit of the Noteholders and their respective successors and assigns.

5.8 Copy Received

The Guarantor acknowledges receipt of a copy of this Guarantee.

5.9 Time of the Essence

Time shall be of the essence.

5.10 Foreign Currency Obligations

The Guarantor will make payment relative to each Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount in the currency (the "Original Currency") in which the Partnership is required to pay such Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount. If the Guarantor makes payment relative to any Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount to the Noteholders in a currency (the "Other Currency") other than the Original Currency (whether voluntarily or pursuant to an order or judgment of a court or tribunal of any jurisdiction), such payment will constitute a discharge of the liability of the Guarantor hereunder in respect of such Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount only to the extent of the amount of the Original Currency which a Noteholder is able to purchase at Calgary, Alberta with the amount it receives on the date of receipt. If the amount of the Original Currency which any Noteholder is able to purchase is less than the amount of such currency originally due to it in respect to the relevant Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount, the Guarantor will indemnify and save such Noteholder harmless from and against any loss or damage arising as a result of such deficiency. This indemnity will constitute an obligation separate and independent from the other obligations contained in this Guarantee, will give rise to a separate and independent cause of action will apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by any Noteholder and will continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any judgment or order in respect of any amount due hereunder or under any judgment or order.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Guarantor has executed this Guarantee as of the day and year first above written.

FORM OF SUBSIDIARY GUARANTEE

SUBSIDIARY GUARANTEE

THIS GUARANTEE is made as of the • day of •, 20•,

BY:

• (the "Guarantor"),

IN FAVOUR OF:

ROYAL BANK OF CANADA, as collateral agent (the "Collateral Agent") and includes such Person's successors and assigns as Collateral Agent pursuant to the Collateral Agency Agreement, including any replacement or substituted Collateral Agent contemplated by the Collateral Agency Agreement.

RECITALS

The Guarantor has agreed to guarantee the payment and performance by the Borrowers of the Guaranteed Obligations.

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration (the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged by the Guarantor), the Guarantor agrees with the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties as follows:

ARTICLE 1
INTERPRETATION

1.1 Definitions

In this Guarantee, in addition to the definitions set out in any Section hereof:

"Borrowers" mean KeySpan Energy Canada Partnership and KeySpan Energy Facilities Limited and their permitted successors and permitted assigns, and "Borrower" means either one of them;

"Collateral Agency Agreement" means the Amended and Restated Collateral Agency and Intercreditor Agreement made as of August 26, 2003 among KeySpan Energy Canada Partnership and KeySpan Energy Facilities Limited, as borrowers, Royal Bank of Canada as Operating Lender, Royal Bank of Canada, as agent for the lenders under the Credit Agreement, the Senior Noteholders party thereto, the Additional Lenders party thereto, and Royal Bank of Canada, as collateral agent, as the same may be modified, amended, supplemented, restated and replaced from time to time;

"Guaranteed Obligations" means all indebtedness, obligations and liabilities, whether of payment or performance, present or future, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or not, in any currency, in connection with or relating to any Senior Obligations outstanding from time to time;

"Indemnified Amounts" means the amounts to be paid by the Guarantor under Section 2.2;

"Proceedings" means any voluntary or involuntary receivership, insolvency, proposal, bankruptcy, compromise, arrangement, reorganization, winding-up, dissolution or other similar proceedings, whether or not any of the foregoing is judicial in nature; and

"Tax" means all present and future taxes, rates, levies, imposts, assessments, dues, government fees, stamp taxes, deductions, charges or withholdings, and all liabilities with respect thereto, and any interest, additions to tax and penalties imposed with respect thereto, excluding, with respect to a Secured Party, taxes imposed on its income or capital and franchise taxes imposed on it by any taxation authority.

Unless the context otherwise requires, all other capitalized terms used herein not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Collateral Agency Agreement

1.2 References

As used herein, "this Guarantee", "hereto", "herein", "hereof", "hereby", "hereunder" and any similar expressions refer to this Guarantee as it may be supplemented, amended, restated or replaced from time to time, and not to any particular Article, Section or other portion hereof. Whenever in this Guarantee a particular Article, Section or other portion thereof is referred to, such reference pertains to the Article, Section or portion thereof contained herein unless otherwise indicated. In this Guarantee, unless the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa and words importing gender include all genders. The inclusion of headings in this Guarantee is for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation hereof.

1.3 Invalidity of Provisions

Each of the provisions contained in this Guarantee is distinct and severable and a declaration of invalidity or unenforceability of any such provision or part thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining part of such provision or any other provision hereof; and the invalidity of a particular provision or part thereof in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate such provision or part thereof in any other jurisdiction.

1.4 Entire Agreement

This Guarantee constitutes the entire agreement among the parties pertaining to the subject matter of this Guarantee and cancels and supersedes any prior understandings and agreements between such parties with respect thereto. There are no warranties, representations or agreements, express, implied or statutory, between the parties in connection with such subject matter except as specifically set forth or referred to in this Guarantee.

1.5 Waiver, Amendment

No amendment or waiver of this Guarantee shall be valid or binding unless executed in writing by the parties to this Guarantee. A waiver of any provision of this Guarantee shall only constitute a waiver in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which it is given. A waiver of any provision of this Guarantee shall not constitute a continuing waiver unless expressly provided in writing. No failure or delay by the Collateral Agent or other Secured Party in exercising any right or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof.

1.6 Governing Law, Attornment

This Guarantee shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and the laws of Canada applicable therein and the Guarantor hereby irrevocably attorns to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Alberta.

ARTICLE 2
GUARANTEE AND INDEMNITY

2.1 Guarantee

The Guarantor unconditionally, absolutely and irrevocably guarantees to and for the benefit of each of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties the due and punctual payment and performance of all Guaranteed Obligations. This Guarantee contained herein is an absolute, unconditional, present and continuing guarantee of payment. If, for any reason whatsoever, either of the Borrowers shall fail or be unable to duly, punctually and fully pay or perform any Guaranteed Obligation as and when the same shall become due and payable, the Guarantor shall forthwith pay, cause to be paid or cause to be performed, such Guaranteed Obligation to the Collateral Agent for and on behalf of itself and the Secured Parties.

2.2 Indemnity

The Guarantor shall indemnify and save harmless the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties from and against any and all losses, costs and expenses which they may suffer in any way as a result of the occurrence of any event or circumstance which is, or is expressed to be, a Default or Event of Default under a Senior Credit Document, or any Senior Credit Document becoming for any reason whatsoever in whole or in part:

(i) void, voidable, ultra vires, illegal, invalid, ineffective or otherwise unenforceable by the Collateral Agent or the Secured Parties in accordance with its terms, or

(ii) released, compromised or discharged by operation of law or otherwise,

(an "Indemnifiable Circumstance"). For greater certainty, the foregoing losses shall include without limitation all obligations hereby guaranteed which would have been payable by any Borrower but for the existence of an Indemnifiable Circumstance.

2.3 Reinstatement

The guarantee and indemnity herein shall be reinstated if at any time any payment of any Guaranteed Obligations or Indemnified Amounts is rendered unenforceable, is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party as a result of any Proceedings of or affecting either of the Borrowers, the Guarantor or any other Person or for any other reason whatsoever, all as though such payment had not been made. The Collateral Agent or any Secured Party may concede or compromise any claim that such payment ought to be rescinded or otherwise returned, without discharging, diminishing or in any way affecting the liability and the obligation of the Guarantor under this Guarantee.

ARTICLE 3
ENFORCEMENT

3.1 Demand

Upon an Event of Default occurring under a Senior Credit Document, the Guarantor shall, on demand by or on behalf of the Collateral Agent, forthwith pay to the Collateral Agent, and/or perform or cause the performance of, all Guaranteed Obligations and Indemnified Amounts for which such demand was made.

3.2 Right to Immediate Payment or Performance

The Collateral Agent shall not be bound or obligated to make any demand on or to seek or exhaust its recourse against either of the Borrowers or any other Person or any Security Interest held by it or any Secured Party, before being entitled to demand payment from or performance by the Guarantor and enforce its rights under this Guarantee, and the Guarantor hereby renounces all benefits of discussion and division.

3.3 Subordination

All liabilities and indebtedness, present and future, joint or several, absolute or contingent, of the Borrowers to the Guarantor are hereby subordinated to the payment and performance in full of the Guaranteed Obligations, the Indemnified Amounts and all other amounts payable hereunder and, after the occurrence of an Event of Default, all such liabilities and indebtedness of the Borrowers to the Guarantor are hereby postponed to the payment and performance in full of the Guaranteed Obligations, the Indemnified Amounts and all other amounts payable hereunder and, all monies received by the Guarantor in respect thereof after demand for payment and/or performance by the Collateral Agent hereunder shall be received in trust for the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties and forthwith upon receipt shall be paid over to the Collateral Agent, the whole without in any way lessening or limiting the liability of the Guarantor under this Guarantee.

The Guarantor shall not have any right of subrogation to the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party or be otherwise entitled to claim the benefit of any Security Interest now or hereafter held by the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts, until the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties have received full and final payment and performance of all Guaranteed Obligations, all Indemnified Amounts and all other amounts payable hereunder.

If any amount shall be paid to the Guarantor in violation of the preceding sentence at any time prior to the full and final payment of the Guaranteed Obligations and the Indemnified Amounts, such amount shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties and shall forthwith be paid to the Collateral Agent to be credited and applied to the amounts due or to become due with respect to the Senior Credit Documents, whether matured or unmatured.

3.4 Enforcement Through Collateral Agent

The Guarantor acknowledges and agrees that the rights of any of the Secured Parties hereunder may be exercised in whole or in part by the Collateral Agent on behalf of such Secured Parties.

ARTICLE 4
PROTECTION OF COLLATERAL AGENT AND THE SECURED PARTIES

4.1 Defects in Creation of Guaranteed Obligations

None of the Collateral Agent or the Secured Parties shall be concerned to see or inquire into the capacity and powers of either of the Borrowers or any partners, directors, officers, employees or agents acting or purporting to act on their behalf. All obligations, liabilities and indebtedness purporting to be incurred by the Borrowers in favour of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties shall be deemed to form part of the Guaranteed Obligations even though the Borrowers may not be legal entities or the incurring of such obligations, liabilities or indebtedness was irregularly, fraudulently, defectively or informally effected or in excess of the capacity or powers of either of the Borrowers or any partners, directors, officers, employees or agents acting or purporting to act on their behalf and notwithstanding that the Collateral Agent or the Secured Parties have specific notice of the capacity and powers of either of the Borrowers or any partners, directors, officers, employees or agents acting or purporting to act on their behalf.

4.2 Liability Absolute

This Guarantee shall be a continuing guarantee and the liability of the Guarantor hereunder shall be absolute, unconditional and irrevocable and shall not be discharged, diminished or in any way affected by:

(i) any amalgamation, merger, consolidation or reorganization of either of the Borrowers or the Guarantor or any continuation of either of the Borrowers or the Guarantor from the statute under which it now or hereafter exists to another statute whether under the laws of the same jurisdiction or another jurisdiction;

(ii) any change in the name, business, objects, capital structure, ownership, constating documents, by-laws, partnership agreements or resolutions of either of the Borrowers or the Guarantor, as the case may be, including without limitation any transaction (whether by way of transfer, sale or otherwise) whereby all or any part of the undertaking, property and assets of either of the Borrowers or the Guarantor becomes the property of any other Person;

(iii) any lack of validity, enforceability or value of any Senior Credit Document or any other agreement or instrument relating thereto or to any Security Interest therefor;

(iv) any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other term of any Senior Credit Document or any amendment or waiver thereof, or any consent to departure from any Senior Credit Document;

(v) any taking, exchange, release or non-perfection of any Security Interest, or any release or amendment or waiver of or consent to departure from any other guarantee for any Senior Credit Document;

(vi) any manner of application of any Security Interest or proceeds of realization thereof, or any manner of sale or other disposition of any collateral or any other assets of either of the Borrowers or the Guarantor;

(vii) the voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation or dissolution of either of the Borrowers or the Guarantor, or any other Person, and the occurrence of any other proceeding as a result of such bankruptcy or insolvency;

(viii) any amendment or modification of or supplement to or other change in any Senior Credit Document;

(ix) any failure, omission or delay on the part of any Person to conform or comply with any term of any Senior Credit Document;

(x) to the extent as may be waived under applicable law, the benefit of all principles or provisions of law, statutory or otherwise, which may be in conflict with the terms hereof or which shall delay, interfere with, hinder or prevent, or in any way adversely affect, the performance by either of the Borrowers or the Guarantor in its respective obligations under or in respect of the Senior Credit Documents or this Guarantee;

(xi) any failure or lack of diligence in collection or protection, failure in presentment or demand from payment, protest, notice of protest, notice of default and of nonpayment, any failure to give notice to the Guarantor of failure of any Borrower to keep and perform any obligation, covenant or agreement under the terms of the Senior Credit Documents or this Guarantee;

(xii) any attachment, claim, demand, charge, lien, order, process encumbrance or any other happening or event or reason, similar or dissimilar to the foregoing, or any withholding or diminution at the source, by reason of any taxes, assessments, expenses, debt, obligations, or liabilities of any character, foreseen or unforeseen, and whether or not valid, incurred by or against either of the Borrowers or the Guarantor or any claims, demands, charges or liens of any nature, foreseen or unforeseen, incurred by either of the Borrowers or the Guarantor, or against any sums payable in respect of the Senior Security Documents or this Guarantee, so that such sums would be rendered inadequate or would be unavailable to make the payments herein provided; or provided that the specific enumeration of the above-mentioned acts, failures or omissions shall not be deemed to exclude any other acts, failures or omissions, though not specifically mentioned above, it being the purpose and intent of this Guarantee and the parties hereto that the obligations of the Guarantor shall be absolute and unconditional and shall not be discharged, impaired or varied except by the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations and Indemnified Amounts whenever the same shall become due and payable.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Guarantor agrees that repeated and successive demands may be made and recoveries may be had hereunder as and when, from time to time, there shall be an Event of Default under any Senior Credit Document and that notwithstanding the recovery hereunder for or in respect thereof, this Guarantee shall remain in force and effect and shall apply to each and every subsequent Default and Event of Default. If (i) an event permitting the exercise of remedies under any Senior Credit Document, as the case may be, shall at any time have occurred and be continuing and (ii) such exercise, or any consequences thereof provided in any Senior Credit Document, as the case may be, shall at any time be prevented by reason of the pendency against either of the Borrowers of a Proceeding, the Guarantor agrees that, solely for purposes of this Guarantee and its obligations hereunder, such Senior Credit Document shall be deemed to have been declared in default and all amounts thereunder shall be deemed to be immediately due and payable, with all the attendant consequences as provided in such agreement as if declaration of default and the consequence thereof had been accomplished in accordance with the terms thereof, and the Guarantor shall forthwith pay and perform the Guaranteed Obligations.

4.3 Dealings by the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties

The Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties may from time to time in their absolute discretion, without discharging, diminishing or in any way affecting the liability of the Guarantor hereunder:

(i) permit any increase or decrease, however significant, of the Guaranteed Obligations or supplement, amend, restate or substitute, in whole or in part, however significant, the Guaranteed Obligations, any Senior Credit Document or any other agreement relating to any of the foregoing or, in whole or in part demand payment of all or any Guaranteed Obligations and/or the Indemnified Amounts;

(ii) enforce or take action under or abstain from enforcing or taking action under any Senior Credit Document or any other guarantee of the Guaranteed Obligations or indemnity of the Indemnified Amounts;

(iii) receive, give up, subordinate, release or discharge any Security Interest; supplement, amend, restate, substitute, renew, abstain from renewing, perfect or abstain from perfecting or maintaining the perfection of any Security Interest; enforce, take action under or realize in any manner or abstain from enforcing, taking action under or realizing any Security Interest; deal with or abstain from dealing with all or any part of the undertaking, property and assets subject to any Security Interest; or allow or abstain from allowing either of the Borrowers or other Persons to deal with all or any part of such undertaking, property and assets;

(iv) renew all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or grant extensions of time or any other indulgences to either of the Borrowers or to any other guarantor or other Person liable directly or indirectly for all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or Indemnified Amounts;

(v) accept or make any compositions or arrangements with or release, discharge or otherwise deal with or abstain from dealing with either of the Borrowers or any other guarantor or other Person liable directly or indirectly for all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or Indemnified Amounts;

(vi) in whole or in part prove or abstain from proving any claim of the Collateral Agent or the Secured Parties in any Proceedings of or affecting either or both of the Borrowers or any other Person; and whether or not any of the matters described in paragraphs (i) to (vii) above occur alone or in connection with one or more other such matters.

(vii) agree with the Borrowers, any other guarantor or any other Person to do anything described in paragraphs (i) to (vii) above;

No loss of or in respect of any Security Interest for the Guaranteed Obligations, the Indemnified Amounts or any part thereof, whether occasioned through the fault of the Collateral Agent or any Secured Parties or otherwise, shall discharge, diminish or in any way affect the liability of the Guarantor hereunder. None of the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party nor any of their directors, officers, employees or agents or any receiver or receiver-manager appointed by any of them or by a court shall have any liability, whether in tort, contract or otherwise, for any neglect or any act taken or omitted to be taken by them in connection with the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts or any part thereof or any Security Interest for the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts or any part thereof including without limitation any of the matters described above in this Section 4.3.

4.4 Waiver of Notice

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Guarantor expressly waives any right to receive notice of the existence or creation of all or any of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts and presentment, demand, notice of dishonour, protest, notice of any of the events or circumstances described in Sections 4.1, 4.2 or 4.3 and all other notices whatsoever in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts. The Guarantor hereby acknowledges receipt of copies of the Senior Credit Documents and all guarantees and other documents referred to in the Collateral Agency Agreement and of all the provisions therein contained and consents to and approves the same.

ARTICLE 5
MISCELLANEOUS

5.1 Expenses

The Guarantor shall pay on demand all reasonable out of pocket costs and expenses of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties (including, without limitation, the fees and expenses of counsel for the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties on a solicitor and his own client full indemnity basis) incurred in connection with any enforcement of this Guarantee.

5.2 No Set-off by Guarantor

All amounts payable by the Guarantor under this Guarantee shall be paid without set-off or counterclaim and without any deduction or withholding whatsoever.

5.3 No Waiver

No delay on the part of the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party in the exercise of any right, power or remedy hereunder or otherwise shall operate as a waiver thereof, and no single or partial exercise by the Collateral Agent or the Secured Parties of any right, power or remedy shall preclude other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy. No action of the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party permitted hereunder shall in any way impair or affect its rights, powers or remedies under this Guarantee.

5.4 Additional Security

This Guarantee shall be in addition to, and shall not be in any way prejudiced by nor shall this Guarantee prejudice:

(i) any Security Interest or guarantee now or hereafter held by the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party, and

(ii) the endorsement by the Guarantor of any notes or other documents, and rights of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties under this Guarantee shall not be merged in any such other Security Interest, guarantee or endorsement.

5.5 Assignment

The Guarantor shall not assign any of its obligations with respect to this Guarantee without the prior written consent of the Secured Parties except to the extent permitted under all of the Senior Credit Documents in effect at such time.

5.6 Communication

Any demand, notice or other communication required or permitted to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given by hand-delivery and shall be deemed to have been received at the time it is delivered to the individual designated below as the person to whose attention demands, notices and other communications are to be given or to the addressee at the applicable address noted below to the attention of the individual designated below. Notice of change of address shall also be governed by this Section 5.6. Demands, notices and other communications shall be addressed as follows:

(a) Collateral Agent:

Royal Bank of Canada
11th Floor, Bankers Hall West
888 – 3rd Street S.W.
Calgary, Alberta T2P 5C5

5.7 Successors and Assigns

This Guarantee shall be binding upon the Guarantor and its partners and their respective successors and permitted assigns and enure to the benefit of the Collateral Agent, the Secured Parties and their respective successors and assigns.

5.8 Copy Received

The Guarantor acknowledges receipt of a copy of this Guarantee.

5.9 Time of the Essence

Time shall be of the essence.

5.10 Taxes

If any payment made by the Guarantor to the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party becomes subject to any withholding or deduction with respect to Taxes, the Guarantor shall also duly and punctually pay to the Collateral Agent or such Secured Party such additional amount (if any) as would have been payable by the applicable Borrower or Borrowers under the applicable Senior Credit Documents as a result of such withholding or deduction if such payment were being made by such Borrower or Borrowers, and for such purposes such additional amount shall be determined as if the applicable withholding tax provisions from the applicable Senior Credit Documents were incorporated herein mutatis mutandis. In any such circumstance, the Guarantor shall also promptly remit to the Collateral Agent the relevant official receipts or other evidence satisfactory to the Collateral Agent evidencing payment to the appropriate taxing authority of each such Tax by the Guarantor on behalf of the Collateral Agent or such Secured Party.

5.11 Foreign Currency Obligations

The Guarantor will make payment relative to each Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount in the currency (the "Original Currency") in which the applicable Borrower is required to pay such Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount. If the Guarantor makes payment relative to any Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount to the Collateral Agent in a currency (the "Other Currency") other than the Original Currency (whether voluntarily or pursuant to an order or judgment of a court or tribunal of any jurisdiction), such payment will constitute a discharge of the liability of the Guarantor hereunder in respect of such Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount only to the extent of the amount of the Original Currency which the Collateral Agent is able to purchase at Calgary, Alberta with the amount it receives on the date of receipt. If the amount of the Original Currency which the Collateral Agent is able to purchase is less than the amount of such currency originally due to it in respect to the relevant Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount, the Guarantor will indemnify and save the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties harmless from and against any loss or damage arising as a result of such deficiency. This indemnity will constitute an obligation separate and independent from the other obligations contained in this Guarantee, will give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, will apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by the Collateral Agent or the Secured Parties and will continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any judgment or order in respect of any amount due hereunder or under any judgment or order.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have executed this Guarantee as of the day and year first above written.

EXHIBIT 2.5

FORM OF SUBORDINATION AGREEMENT

SUBORDINATION AGREEMENT

This Agreement dated as of _____,

AMONG:

•, a [corporation] • under the law of • (referred to herein as the "Subordinated Party")

- and -

KEYSPAN ENERGY CANADA PARTNERSHIP, a general partnership formed under the laws of the Province of Alberta ("KECP")

- and -

KEYSPAN ENERGY FACILITIES LIMITED, a corporation formed under the laws of the Province of Alberta ("KEFL")

(each of KECP and KEFL are collectively referred to herein as the "Borrowers")

- and -

ROYAL BANK OF CANADA, in its capacity as Collateral Agent for and on behalf of itself and the Secured Parties (the "Collateral Agent")

WHEREAS:

A. The Borrowers are indebted to the Secured Parties under the Credit Agreement, the Senior Notes and the other Senior Credit Documents.

B. It is a condition precedent of the Secured Parties advancing or continuing to provide advances to the Borrowers under the Credit Documents that the Subordinated Party agrees to postpone and subordinate, in favour of the Secured Parties and the Collateral Agent, the Subordinated Obligations and all rights of the Subordinated Party with respect thereto, all on the terms and subject to the conditions herein contained, and the Subordinated Party has agreed to do so.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants herein contained and for other good and valuable consideration (the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged), the parties hereto covenant and agree as follows:

1. Definitions

In this Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires, terms defined in the identification of the parties, the recitals and the body hereof shall have those meanings, and the following terms shall have the following meanings:

"Agreement" means this subordination agreement, as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time;

"Capital Distribution" by a Person means:

(a) any declaration or payment by the Person of any dividend or other distribution on or in respect of any of the share capital of or partnership interests in such Person;

(b) any payment by the Person in respect of the redemption, retraction, purchase or other acquisition or retirement, in whole or in part, of any Voting Shares or any share or equity rights in or in relation to its capital or equity;

(c) any payment by the Person of any amount of principal, interest or other amounts in respect of any loan or other indebtedness which is owed to any of its Affiliates;

(d) any loan, advance, payment of management or consulting fees or reimbursement of costs which is made by the Person to or in favour of a holder of Voting Shares in respect of the Person or an Affiliate of such holder [in KECC and KCML Subordination Agreements, insert following proviso ", but excluding any payment pursuant to the indemnity and reimbursement obligations for employee remuneration and third party expenses incurred in the ordinary course of business in favour of the Subordinated Party pursuant to either the Administration Agreement dated as of May 30, 2003 among KECP, KeySpan Facilities Income Fund, KeySpan Facilities Commercial Trust, KeySpan Facilities Limited Partnership and KeySpan Canada Management Ltd. or the Administrative (Employee) Services Agreement entered into on May 30, 2003 among KeySpan Energy Canada Company, KECP and KeySpan Canada Management Ltd."]; or

(e) the transfer by such Person of any property or assets for consideration of less than its or their fair market value to any of its Affiliates.

"Collateral Agency Agreement" means the Amended and Restated Collateral Agency and Intercreditor Agreement made as of August 26, 2003 among, KECP, KEFL, as borrowers, Royal Bank of Canada as Operating Lender, Royal Bank of Canada, as agent for the lenders under the Credit Agreement, the Senior Noteholders party thereto, the Additional Lenders party thereto, and Royal Bank of Canada, as collateral agent, as the same may be modified, amended, supplemented, restated and replaced from time to time;

"Credit Agreement" means the credit agreement dated as of May 30, 2003 among KECP and KEFL, as borrowers, certain Secured Parties and the agent and the Collateral Agent, as amended, supplemented, restated or replaced from time to time;

"Default" means the occurrence and continuance of either (a) a Default or an Event of Default under and as defined in any of the Senior Credit Documents or (b) a default or event of default under any agreement or instrument governing the Subordinated Obligations; and

"Subordinated Obligations" means any right or entitlement the Subordinated Party has to receive Capital Distributions from the Loan Parties and any and all present and future indebtedness, liabilities and obligations of the Borrowers and the Loan Parties to the Subordinated Party.

Capitalized terms used in this Agreement and not otherwise defined herein shall have the same meanings as are attributed to such terms from time to time in the Collateral Agency Agreement.

2. Headings

The division of this Agreement into articles, sections and other subdivisions and the insertion of headings are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation hereof.

3. Interpretation

In this Agreement:

(a) the terms "hereof", "herein", "hereunder" and similar expressions refer, unless otherwise specified, to this Agreement taken as a whole and not to any particular article, section or subsection;

(b) words importing the singular number or masculine gender shall include the plural number or the feminine or neuter genders, and vice versa;

(c) all references to particular articles, sections or subsections refer, unless otherwise specified, to articles, sections or subsections of this Agreement, as the case may be; and

(d) words and terms denoting inclusiveness, whether or not so stated, are not limited by their context or by the words or phrases which precede or succeed them.

4. General Postponement and Subordination

Except for payments expressly permitted by Section 7 of this Agreement,

(a) the Subordinated Obligations shall be and are hereby expressly postponed and made fully subordinate in right of payment to the prior payment in full of the Senior Obligations, and the Subordinated Party shall not accept any payment, prepayment, repayment or other distribution or satisfaction of or with respect to all or any portion of the Subordinated Obligations (in each case, whether in cash, property, securities or otherwise) prior to the full and final payment of the Senior Obligations; and

(b) any and all claims arising in respect of the Subordinated Obligations shall be subordinate and rank subsequent to the Security Interests created by the Senior Security Documents.

Subject to Section 7 hereof, the foregoing postponement and subordination of the Subordinated Obligations shall apply in all events and circumstances. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the rights and priority of the Secured Parties and the postponement and subordination of the Subordinated Obligations pursuant hereto shall not be affected by: (i) the time, sequence or order of creating, granting, executing, delivering or registering or failing to register any security notice, caveat, financing statement or other notice in respect of the Senior Security Documents or any Subordinated Obligation; (ii) subject to Section 7, the date of any payments made to the Subordinated Party under or in respect of the Subordinated Obligations, (iii) the time or sequence of giving any notice or the making of any demand in respect of the Senior Obligations, the Senior Security Documents or the Subordinated Obligations or the attachment, perfection or crystallization of the security constituted by the Senior Security Documents; (iv) the taking of any collection, enforcement or realization proceedings pursuant to the Senior Security Documents or the Subordinated Obligations, (v) the date of obtaining any judgment or the order of any bankruptcy court or any court administering bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar proceedings as to the entitlement of either the Secured Parties or the Subordinated Party to any money or property of the Borrowers or any Loan Party, (vi) the giving or failing to give any notice, or the sequence of giving any notice to the Borrowers, any Loan Party, the Subordinated Party or any other person; (vii) the failure to exercise any power or remedy reserved to the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties under the Senior Security Documents or to insist upon a strict compliance with any of the terms thereof; (viii) any priority that would (but for this Agreement) be granted to the Subordinated Party or the Subordinated Obligations by any applicable principle of law or equity; and (ix) the failure by the applicable Loan Party to comply with any of the terms or conditions of the Subordinated Obligations.

5. Priority of Senior Obligations on Enforcement or Insolvency

In the event of any dissolution, winding up, liquidation, readjustment, reorganization, bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, creditor enforcement, realization or other similar creditor proceedings relating to the Borrowers or any Loan Party, or any of its or their respective property, assets or undertaking (whether voluntary or involuntary, partial or complete), or any other marshalling of the assets and liabilities of the Borrowers or any Loan Party, or (subject to obtaining the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent) any sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Borrowers or any Loan Party, the Senior Obligations shall first be paid in full before the Subordinated Party shall be entitled to receive or retain any payment or Capital Distribution in respect of the Subordinated Obligations. In order to implement the foregoing:

(a) in the course of realization of the Senior Security Documents, the Collateral Agent, the Secured Parties and/or a receiver or receiver-manager of all or part of the property, assets or undertaking of the Borrowers or any Loan Party or any other enforcement Collateral Agent may sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of the property, assets or undertaking of the Borrowers or any Loan Party in whole or in part in accordance with the provisions of the Senior Security Documents, free and clear of the Subordinated Obligations and without the approval of the Subordinated Party or any requirement to account to the Subordinated Party until after the full and final payment of all of the Senior Obligations. With respect to any such disposition of the property, assets or undertaking of the Borrowers or any Loan Party, each of the Subordinated Party and the Borrowers shall execute and deliver all such documents and instruments as may be requested by the Collateral Agent in connection therewith to give effect to such disposition of assets free and clear of the Subordinated Obligations, including quit claims and all such other documents and instruments as may be requested by the Collateral Agent from time to time confirming that the Subordinated Obligations as they pertain to the assets disposed of, or being disposed of, have terminated and that such assets are no longer subject to the Subordinated Obligations; and

(b) all Capital Distributions or other payments of any kind or character (whether in cash, securities or other property) in respect of the Subordinated Obligations to which the Subordinated Party would be entitled if the Subordinated Obligations were not subordinated pursuant to this Agreement shall be paid and delivered directly to the Collateral Agent for application (in the case of cash) to, or as collateral (in the case of non-cash property or securities) for the payment or repayment of, the Senior Obligations.

6. Receipt of Payments, Proceeds and Assets in Trust

If the Collateral Agent gives the Subordinated Party written notice that a Default has occurred and is continuing, any Capital Distribution or other payment from the Borrowers or any Loan Party received by the Subordinated Party in respect of the Subordinated Obligations after receipt of such notice shall be received and held in trust by the Subordinated Party for the exclusive benefit of the Secured Parties and shall be forthwith paid or delivered to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties. Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement, the Subordinated Party shall have no liability or obligation in connection with any Capital Distribution or other payment which it has received before receipt of such notice and no longer retains, provided that none of the Subordinated Party or any Person responsible for the management or administration of all or any part of the affairs of the Subordinated Party or any officer or director of the Subordinated Party or any such Person knew or ought reasonably to have known that a Default had occurred and was continuing at the time it received or ceased to retain the Capital Distribution.

7. Permitted Payments

The Borrowers and the Loan Parties shall be entitled to pay, and the Subordinated Party shall be entitled from time to time to receive, directly or indirectly, a Capital Distribution on account of the Subordinated Obligations in accordance with the terms of the Subordinated Obligations if and only if no Default shall have occurred and be continuing or will occur as a result of such Capital Distribution.

8. Prohibited Payments

Without limiting the generality of Sections 4, 5 and 6 above, the Subordinated Party acknowledges, covenants and agrees that, after the occurrence and during the continuance of a Default, none of the Borrowers or any Loan Party shall be entitled to make any Capital Distribution or other payment to the Subordinated Party and the Subordinated Party shall not be entitled to receive any Capital Distribution or other such payment of or with respect to any Subordinated Obligation, without the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent on behalf of the Secured Parties.

Any payments received by a Subordinated Party in contravention of this Section 8 shall be forthwith paid to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties. For greater certainty, nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted as permitting or authorizing or entitling (i) the Subordinated Party to receive any payment of or with respect to any of the Subordinated Obligations after the occurrence and during the continuance of a Default, or (ii) the Borrowers or any Loan Party to make any payment of or with respect to any of the Subordinated Obligations which is prohibited under this Agreement or any other Senior Credit Document.

9. Restriction on Subrogation

The Subordinated Party shall not exercise any rights which it may acquire by way of subrogation or contribution under this Agreement as a result of any payment made hereunder or otherwise until this Agreement has ceased to be effective in accordance with Section 15(a). If any amount is paid to the Subordinated Party on account of such subrogation or contribution rights at any time before this Agreement has ceased to be effective in accordance with Section 15(a), such amount shall be held in trust by the Subordinated Party for the benefit of the Secured Parties and shall be forthwith paid to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties.

10. Restricted Dealings by Subordinated Party with the Borrowers and Others

Except with the prior written consent of the Collateral Agent on behalf of all Secured Parties, the Subordinated Party shall not take any collateral security for all or any portion of the Subordinated Obligations.

11. Collateral Agent and Secured Parties Not Bound by Restrictions

Each of the Borrowers and the Subordinated Party hereby acknowledge, covenant and agree that the liabilities and obligations of the Borrowers and the other Loan Parties to the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties under or in respect of the Senior Obligations and the Senior Security Documents shall not be impaired, affected, reduced or limited by any failure by the Borrowers to comply with any restrictions on borrowing or granting security under the terms of any Subordinated Obligations, regardless of any knowledge thereof which the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party may have or be deemed to have or with which the Collateral Agent or the Secured Parties may be charged. Nothing contained in this Agreement or any other agreement or instrument relating to the Subordinated Obligations is intended to or shall prevent the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties from exercising at any time and from time to time all rights and remedies under or in respect of the Senior Security Documents and the Senior Obligations.

12. Dealings by the Collateral Agent and Secured Parties with the Borrowers

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement, the Subordinated Party acknowledges that the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties shall be entitled to:

(a) lend monies or otherwise extend credit or accommodations to the Borrowers as part of the Senior Obligations;

(b) change, amend, waive, or depart from any term of any Senior Credit Document or any Senior Security Document, including without limitation, any amendment, renewal, restatement or extension of any such agreement, or increase in the payment obligations of the Borrowers under any such documents;

(c) take any additional security from the Borrowers or any Loan Party;

(d) grant time, renewals, extensions, releases, discharges or other indulgences or forbearances to the Borrowers, any Loan Party and any other person in respect of the Senior Obligations;

(e) waive timely and strict compliance with or refrain from exercising any rights under or relating to the Senior Obligations;

(f) accept or make any compositions, arrangements, plans of reorganization or compromises with the Borrowers, any Loan Party or any other person as the Secured Parties (or any of them) may deem appropriate in connection with the Senior Obligations;

(g) change, whether by addition, substitution, renewal, succession, assignment, grant of participation, transfer or otherwise, any of the Secured Parties (including the Collateral Agent);

(h) acquire, give up, vary, exchange, release, discharge or otherwise deal with or fail to deal with any security interests relating to any Senior Security Documents, or allow the Borrowers, any Loan Party or any other person to deal with the property which is subject to such security interests, all as the Secured Parties may deem appropriate; and

(i) abstain from taking, protecting, securing, registering, filing, recording, renewing, perfecting, insuring or realizing upon any security interests for any Senior Obligations; and no loss in respect of any of the security interests received or held for and on behalf of the Secured Parties, whether occasioned by fault, omission or negligence of any kind (whether of the Collateral Agent or the Secured Parties or otherwise), shall in any way limit or impair the rights of the Secured Parties or the obligations of the Subordinated Party under this Agreement, all of which may be done without notice to or consent of the Subordinated Party and without impairing, releasing or otherwise affecting any rights or obligations of the Subordinated Party hereunder or any rights of the Secured Parties hereunder.

13. Enforcement of Subordinated Obligations

If the Subordinated Party shall become entitled to enforce any rights or remedies against the Borrowers or any Loan Party (including the right to accelerate the maturity of the Subordinated Obligations and to enforce the collection thereof) or any of their respective assets by reason of any default under any agreement or instrument relating to the Subordinated Obligations, the Subordinated Party shall promptly provide the Collateral Agent with written notice of any such default together with reasonable particulars thereof and the Subordinated Party shall not enforce any such rights or remedies prior to the full and final payment of the Senior Obligations. The Borrowers agree, for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties, that in the event that any Subordinated Obligation is declared due and payable before its expressed maturity because of the occurrence of a Default with respect thereto: (1) the Borrowers will give prompt notice in writing of such happening to the Collateral Agent; and (2) all Senior Obligations shall forthwith become immediately due and payable upon demand, regardless of the expressed maturity thereof; and (3) the Subordinated Party shall not be entitled to receive any payment or distribution until all Senior Obligations shall have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash.

14. Representations and Warranties

Each of the Subordinated Party and the Borrowers hereby represents and warrants to the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties that this Agreement constitutes a valid and legally binding obligation, enforceable against each of the Subordinated Party and the Borrowers in accordance with its terms, subject however, to limitations with respect to enforcement imposed by law in connection with bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other laws affecting creditors' rights generally and to the qualification that equitable remedies such as specific performance and injunction are available in the discretion of the court from which they are sought and general equitable principles.

15. Continuing Subordination

This Agreement shall create a continuing subordination and shall:

(a) remain in full force and effect until the Secured Parties have received full and final payment of the amount of the Senior Obligations, and the Senior Credit Documents to which any of the Secured Parties is a party have terminated in accordance with the terms thereof;

(b) be binding upon the Subordinated Party and the Borrowers and their respective successors and assigns (including any successor by reason of amalgamation); and

(c) enure, together with the rights and remedies of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties hereunder, to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties and their respective successors and assigns.

16. Acknowledgement of Documentation

The Subordinated Party hereby acknowledges that it has reviewed a copy of the terms of the Senior Credit Documents and the Senior Security Documents as currently in effect. The Subordinated Party hereby waives any entitlement they may have to receive copies of all amendments, modifications, supplements or restatements to any of the aforementioned documents (including the Senior Credit Documents) and of any other documents, instruments or agreements which are executed in the future pursuant to which Senior Obligations may arise or are guaranteed or secured. The Secured Parties shall have no obligation to ensure such receipt nor shall lack of receipt in any way affect the nature of the subordination and postponement of the Subordinated Obligations and the Subordinated Party's obligations hereunder in respect of the Senior Obligations thereby created or arising.

17. Other Rights Not Affected

The postponement and subordination provided for in this Agreement is in addition to and not in substitution for or limitation of any other agreement, right or other security by whomsoever given or at any time held by or for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties in respect of the Senior Obligations, and nothing in this Agreement shall limit or prejudice any of the contractual, common law or other rights of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties or the contractual, common law or other priority of the Senior Obligations insofar as such rights or priority arises or exists outside of this Agreement.

18. Additional Covenants

(a) [The Administrator, in its capacity as Administrator of the Fund, CT and LP, and not in its personal capacity, hereby acknowledges the subordination and postponement of the Subordinated Obligations to the Senior Obligations herein provided, and agrees that it shall not participate in any breach or violation of this Agreement.] [Insert if Fund, CT or LP is Subordinated Party.]

(b) The Subordinated Party shall not at any time challenge, dispute or contest the validity or enforceability of the Senior Obligations or the Senior Security Documents, nor shall the Subordinated Party at any time challenge, dispute or contest the validity or enforceability of the subordination and postponement provided for herein or take any action whereby the subordination and postponement contemplated hereby may be prejudiced.

(c) The Subordinated Party shall not at any time initiate a proceeding for bankruptcy or other similar proceeding relative to the Borrowers or any Loan Party.

19. Notices

All notices and other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and may be served (i) by delivering them to the recipient at the address for notice set forth below, provided that such delivery shall be during normal business hours of the recipient and shall be deemed received by the recipient once actually delivered as aforesaid, or (ii) by telecopier, or any other like method by which a written and recorded message may be sent, directed to the recipient at its telecopy number for notices set forth below, provided that such notices shall be deemed received by the recipient when actually received if sent within normal working hours of a business day of the recipient, or otherwise at the commencement of the next ensuing business day following transmission thereof, whichever is earlier, and (iii) as follows:

Attention: •
Facsimile: •

20. Amendments and Waivers

(a) No provision of this Agreement may be amended, waived, discharged or terminated orally nor may any breach of any of the provisions of this Agreement be waived or discharged orally, and any such amendment, waiver, discharge or termination may only be made in writing signed by the Collateral Agent (on behalf of the Secured Parties), the Subordinated Party and, solely if the obligations of the Borrowers hereunder are affected, the Borrowers.

(b) No failure on the part of the Secured Parties to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof unless specifically waived in writing, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

(c) Any waiver of any provision of this Agreement or consent to any departure by any party therefrom shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given and shall not in any way be or be construed as a waiver of any future requirement.

21. Assignment by Secured Parties and Subordinated Party

Each of the Subordinated Party and the Borrowers acknowledges and agrees that each of the Secured Parties shall have the right to assign, sell, participate or otherwise transfer all or any portion of their respective rights and benefits under this Agreement in connection with any assignment, sale, participation or other transfer of all or the corresponding portion of its rights and benefits under the Senior Credit Documents. The Subordinated Party shall not sell, assign, pledge, encumber or otherwise dispose of any of its Subordinated Obligations unless such sale, assignment, pledge, encumbrance or disposition is made expressly subject to the terms of this Agreement.

22. Acknowledgement [NTD: To be inserted if Fund, CT or LP is Subordinated Party]

The parties hereto acknowledge that the Administrator is entering into this Agreement in its capacity as authorized administrator on behalf of the [Fund, CT or LP] and as managing general partner of KECP and the obligations of the Subordinated Party hereunder shall not be personally binding upon the Administrator or any registered or beneficial holder of units of the Fund and that resort shall not be had to, nor shall recourse be sought from, any of the foregoing or the private property of any of the foregoing in any manner in respect of any indebtedness, obligation or liability of the Subordinated Party arising hereunder or arising in connection herewith or from the matters to which this Agreement relates, if any. Nothing in this Section 22 shall restrict or limit the liability or obligations of the Administrator in its own capacity when acting other than as Administrator of the [Fund, CT or LP] or other than as managing general partner of KECP.

23. Enurement

This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties and their respective successors and assigns, and be binding upon the Subordinated Party and the Borrowers and their respective successors and permitted assigns (including their successors by reason of amalgamation).

24. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and the laws of Canada applicable therein, and shall be treated in all respects as an Alberta contract. Each of the Subordinated Party and the Borrowers irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Alberta, without prejudice to the rights of the Secured Parties to take proceedings in any other jurisdiction.

25. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect in any jurisdiction, it shall not affect the validity, legality or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction or the validity, legality or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

26. Time of Essence

Time shall be of the essence of this Agreement.

27. Further Assurances

Each of the Subordinated Party and the Borrowers shall, at the request of the Collateral Agent but at the expense of the Borrowers, as applicable, from time to time do or cause to be done all such further acts and things and execute and deliver all such further documents as the Collateral Agent on behalf of the Secured Parties may reasonably require in order to give effect to and carry out the terms of this Agreement. The Subordinated Party undertakes and agrees for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties to execute, verify, deliver and file any proofs of claim within 30 days before the expiration of the time to file the same which the Collateral Agent may at any time require in order to prove and realize upon any rights or claims pertaining to the Subordinated Obligations and to effectuate the full benefit of the subordination contained herein; and upon failure of the Subordinated Party so to do, the Collateral Agent shall be deemed to be irrevocably appointed the agent and attorney-in-fact of the Subordinated Party to execute, verify, deliver and file any such proofs of claim.

[28. Amendment and Restatement

This Agreement amends and restates the Subordination Agreement dated as of August 26, 2003 among the parties hereto.]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by its duly authorized representatives.

To the Purchaser(s) named in Schedule A hereto

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This [Number] Supplement to Note Purchase Agreement (the "___ Supplement") is among KeySpan Energy Canada Partnership (the "Partnership"), KeySpan Energy Facilities Limited (the "Corporation") and the institutional investors named on Schedule A attached hereto (the "Purchasers").

Reference is hereby made to the Note Purchase Agreement dated as of September 30, 2004 (the "Note Purchase Agreement") among the Corporation, the Partnership and the Purchasers listed on Schedule A thereto. All capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the same meanings as specified in the Note Purchase Agreement. Reference is further made to Section 4.16 of the Note Purchase Agreement which requires that, prior to the delivery of any Additional Notes, the Corporation, the Partnership and each Additional Purchaser shall execute and deliver a Supplement.

The Corporation and the Partnership hereby agree with the Purchaser(s) as follows:

1. The [Corporation] [Partnership] has authorized the issue and sale of $____ aggregate principal amount of its _____% Series _____ Senior Secured Notes due _____ (the "Series___ Notes"). The Series ____ Notes are [if Corporation, "U.S. Notes"] [if Partnership, "Canadian Notes"], and together with the [U.S. Notes] [Canadian Notes] previously issued pursuant to the Note Purchase Agreement and each series of Additional Notes that are [U.S. Notes] [Canadian Notes] and which may from time to time hereafter be issued pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.6 of the Note Purchase Agreement, are collectively referred to as ["U.S. Notes"] ["Canadian Notes"] (such term shall also include any such notes issued in substitution therefor pursuant to Section 22 of the Note Purchase Agreement). The Series ____ Notes shall be substantially in the form set out in Exhibit 1 hereto with such changes therefrom, if any, as may be approved by the Purchaser(s) and the [Corporation] [Partnership].

2. Subject to the terms and conditions hereof and as set forth in the Note Purchase Agreement and on the basis of the representations and warranties hereinafter set forth, the [Corporation] [Partnership] agrees to issue and sell to each Purchaser, and each Purchaser agrees to purchase from the [Corporation] [Partnership], Series ___ Notes in the principal amount set forth opposite such Purchaser's name on Schedule A hereto at a price of 100% of the principal amount thereof on the closing date hereinafter mentioned.

3. The sale and purchase of the Series __ Notes to be purchased by each Purchaser shall occur at the offices of Macleod Dixon LLP, 3700 Canterra Tower, 400 Third Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta, at 10:00 a.m. Calgary time, at a closing (the "Closing") on _____ or on such other Business Day thereafter on or prior to _____, as may be agreed upon by the [Corporation] [Partnership] and the Purchasers. At the Closing, the [Corporation] [Partnership] will deliver to each Purchaser the Series _____ Notes to be purchased by such Purchaser in the form of a single Series ____ Notes (or such greater number of Series ___ Notes in denominations of at least $250,000 as such Purchaser may request) dated the date of the Closing and registered in such Purchaser's name (or in the name of such Purchaser's nominee), against delivery by such Purchaser to the [Corporation] [Partnership] or its order of immediately available funds in the amount of the purchase price therefor by wire transfer of immediately available funds for the account of the [Corporation] [Partnership] to account number [____] at _____ Bank, [Insert Bank address, ABA number for wire transfers, and any other relevant wire transfer information]. If, at the Closing, the [Corporation] [Partnership] shall fail to tender such Series ____ Notes to any Purchaser as provided above in this Section 3, or any of the conditions specified in Section 4 shall not have been fulfilled to any Purchaser's satisfaction, such Purchaser shall, at such Purchaser's election, be relieved of all further obligations under this Agreement, without thereby waiving any rights such Purchaser may have by reason of such failure or such nonfulfillment.

4. The obligation of each Purchaser to purchase and pay for the Series __ Notes to be sold to such Purchaser at the Closing is subject to the fulfillment to such Purchaser's satisfaction, prior to the Closing, of the conditions set forth in Section 4 of the Note Purchase Agreement (but adjusted to reflect the Series __ Notes to be purchased from the [Partnership] [Corporation] at the Closing) except that (i) the term "Closing" in Section 4 of the Note Purchase Agreement shall refer to the Closing hereunder, and (ii) the representations and warranties set forth in Section 5 of the Note Purchase Agreement shall be modified as set forth in Exhibit A hereto.

5. [Here insert special provisions for Series ___ Notes including prepayment provisions applicable to Series _____ Notes (including Make-Whole Amount), closing conditions applicable to Series _____ Notes, provisions related to payments on non-business days applicable to Series _____ Notes and provisions related to the Interest Act (Canada) applicable to Series _____ Notes].

6. Each Purchaser represents and warrants that the representations and warranties set forth in Sections 6.1 and 6.2 of the Note Purchase Agreement are true and correct on the date hereof with respect to the purchase of the Series ___ Notes by such Purchaser.

7. The Corporation, the Partnership and each Purchaser agree to be bound by and comply with the terms and provisions of the Note Purchase Agreement as fully and completely as if such Purchaser were an original signatory to the Note Purchase Agreement.

The execution hereof shall constitute a contract between the Corporation, the Partnership and the Purchaser(s) for the uses and purposes hereinabove set forth, and this agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each executed counterpart constituting an original by all together only one agreement.

EXHIBIT A TO ___ SUPPLEMENT

Supplemental Representations

Each of the Corporation and the Partnership represents and warrants to each Purchaser that except as hereinafter set forth in this Exhibit A, each of the representations and warranties set forth in Section 5 of the Note Purchase Agreement is true and correct as of the date hereof with respect to the Notes with the same force and effect as if each reference to the "Notes" set forth therein was modified to refer the "Series ____ Notes" and each reference to "this Agreement" therein was modified to refer to the Note Purchase Agreement as supplemented by the ___ Supplement. The Section references hereinafter set forth correspond to the similar sections of the Note Purchase Agreement which are supplemented hereby:

Section 5.3 Disclosure. The Issuers, through their placement agent, •, have delivered to each Purchaser a copy of a [Private Placement Memorandum] dated • (the "Memorandum"), relating to the transactions contemplated by the ___ Supplement. The Memorandum fairly describes, in all material respects, the general nature of the business and principal properties of the Issuers. The Note Documents, the Memorandum, the documents, certificates or other writings delivered to the Purchasers by or on behalf of each Issuer in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Note Purchase Agreement and the ___ Supplement and the financial statements listed in Schedule 5.5 to the ___ Supplement, taken as a whole, do not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in light of the circumstances under which they were made. Except as disclosed in the Memorandum, or in the financial statements listed in Schedule 5.5 to the ___ Supplement, since • there has been no change in the business, operations, affairs, financial condition, assets, properties or prospects of the Issuer Group except changes that individually or in the aggregate could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. There is no fact known to any Issuer Group Entity that could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect that has not been set forth herein or in the Memorandum.

Section 5.4 Organization and Ownership of Shares of Subsidiaries.

(a) Currently, the [Corporation and KECC] are the only Subsidiaries of the Partnership and [there are no Subsidiaries of the Corporation]. Schedule 5.4 to the ___ Supplement contains (except as noted therein) complete and correct lists of:

(i) Subsidiaries, showing, as to each Subsidiary, the correct name thereof, the jurisdiction of its organization, and the percentage of shares of each class of its capital shares or similar equity interests outstanding owned by the Partnership and each other Subsidiary;

(ii) Affiliates, other than Subsidiaries;

(iii) directors and officers of the Corporation; and

(iv) directors and officers of the Managing Partner of the Partnership.

(b) All of the outstanding shares or similar equity interests of each Subsidiary shown in Schedule 5.4 to the ___ Supplement as being owned by the Partnership have been validly issued, are fully paid and non-assessable and are owned by the Partnership and its Subsidiaries free and clear of any Lien except the Senior Debt Security.

(c) No Issuer Group Entity is a party to, or otherwise subject to any legal restriction or any agreement (other than the Note Documents, the Constating Documents which impose the restrictions specified in Schedule 5.4 to the ___ Supplement, the agreements associated with the Bank Facilities which impose the restrictions specified in Schedule 5.4 to the ___ Supplement, the Note Agreement (2003) which imposes the restrictions specified in Schedule 5.4 to the ___ Supplement, and customary limitations imposed by corporate law or legally equivalent statutes) restricting:

(i) its ability to pay dividends out of profits or make any other similar distributions of profits to its equity owners; or

(ii) its ability to create the Liens of the Senior Debt Security.

(d) No Issuer Group Entity is a party to any agreement or instrument that provides for the general management or administration of its business, property or affairs by any Person, except for the Constating Documents which provide for such matters.

(e) Each Subsidiary identified in Schedule 5.4 to the ___ Supplement is a corporation or other legal entity duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of organization, and is duly qualified as a foreign corporation or other legal entity and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which such qualification is required by law, other than those jurisdictions as to which the failure to be so qualified or in good standing could not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Each such Subsidiary has the corporate or other power and authority to own or hold under lease the properties it purports to own or hold under lease and to transact the business it transacts and proposes to transact.

Section 5.13 Private Offering by each of the Corporation and the Partnership.

(a) Neither the Issuers nor anyone acting on their behalf has offered the Notes or any similar securities for sale to, or solicited any offer to buy any of the same from, or otherwise approached or negotiated in respect thereof with, any person other than the Purchasers and not more than • other Institutional Investors, each of which has been offered the Notes at a private sale for investment. Neither the Issuers nor anyone acting on their behalf has taken, or will take, any action that would subject the issuance or sale of the Notes to the registration requirements of Section 5 of the U.S. Securities Act.

(b) Assuming the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Purchasers set forth in Section 6 of the Note Purchase Agreement, the sale of the Notes hereunder is exempt from the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the U.S. Securities Act. In the case of each offer or sale of the Notes, no form of general solicitation or general advertising was used by the Issuers, including advertisements, articles, notices or other communications published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio, or any seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by any general solicitation or general advertising.

(c) No securities similar to the Notes have been issued and sold by the Issuers within the six-month period immediately prior to the date hereof. None of the securities issued by the Issuers within such six-month period could be integrated with the issuance of the Notes as a single offering for purposes of the U.S. Securities Act, and the Issuers agree that they will not, nor will any authorized Person acting on their behalf, offer or sell any Notes, or any portion of them, if such offer or sale might bring the issuance and sale of the Notes to any Purchaser hereunder within the provisions of Section 5 of the U.S. Securities Act nor will the Issuers or any authorized Person acting on their behalf offer any similar securities for issuance or sale to, or solicit any offer to acquire any of the same from, or otherwise approach of negotiate with respect thereto, with anyone, if the sale of the Notes and any such securities could be integrated as a single offering for the purposes of the U.S. Securities Act, including Regulation D thereunder.

Section 5.14 Use of Proceeds; Margin Regulations.

(a) The Issuers will apply the proceeds of the sale of the Notes [to ____, and] for general corporate or partnership purposes.

(b) No part of the proceeds from the sale of the Notes hereunder will be used, directly or indirectly, for the purpose of buying or carrying any margin stock within the meaning of Regulation U of the Board of Governors of the U.S. Federal Reserve System (12 CFR 221), or for the purpose of buying or carrying or trading in any securities under such circumstances as to involve the Issuers in a violation of Regulation X of said Board (12 CFR 224) or to involve any broker or dealer in a violation of Regulation T of said Board (12 CFR 220). The Issuers do not own any margin stock. As used in this Section, the terms "margin stock" and "purpose of buying or carrying" shall have the meanings assigned to them in said Regulation U.

Section 5.15 Existing Debt; Future Liens.

(a) Schedule 5.15 to the ___ Supplement sets forth a complete and correct list of all outstanding Debt of the Issuer Group Entities as of the date specified therein, since which date there has been no Material change in the amounts, interest rates, sinking funds, installment payments or maturities of such Debt. No Issuer Group Entity is in default and no waiver of default is currently in effect, in the payment of any principal or interest on any Debt of any Issuer Group Entity and no event or condition exists with respect to any Debt of an Issuer that would permit (or that with notice or the lapse of time, or both, would permit) one or more Persons to cause such Debt to become due and payable before its stated maturity or before its regularly scheduled dates of payment.

(b) Schedule 5.15 to the ___ Supplement sets forth a complete and correct list of all Liens (other than the Senior Debt Security) securing Debt of each Issuer Group Entity as of the date of Closing.

(c) Except as disclosed in Schedule 5.15 to the ___ Supplement, no Issuer Group Entity has agreed or consented to cause or permit in the future (upon the happening of a contingency or otherwise) any of its property, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, to be subject to a Lien not permitted by Section 10.3 of the Note Purchase Agreement.

(d) No reserve fund or similar mechanism has been established, or agreed to be established under any circumstances, for the payment of any Debt of any Issuer Group Entity.

[Add any additional Sections as appropriate at the time the Series _____ Notes are issued.]

In addition to the foregoing, we have made such investigations, examined such certificates of public authorities, corporate records and other documents certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction and have considered such questions of law, as we have considered necessary and appropriate as a basis for providing the opinions expressed herein.

In particular, we have reviewed and relied upon:

(a) the Amended and Restated Partnership Agreement dated May 30, 2003 among the Managing Partner, KEDCO, KPL, KECC and KeySpan LP (by its general partner, KeySpan Canada (LP) Ltd. ("KLP")), as amended by Partnership

Agreement Amending Agreement dated July 2, 2004, forming the Partnership (the "Partnership Agreement");

(b) the Administration Agreement dated May 30, 2003 between the Fund, the Commercial Trust, KeySpan LP, the Partnership and the Managing Partner (the "Administration Agreement");

(c) the Limited Partnership Agreement dated May 26, 2003 between KLP, as the general partner, and the Trust, as the limited partner, forming KeySpan LP;

(d) the Declaration of Trust forming the Commercial Trust dated May 30, 2003;

(e) the Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust forming the Fund dated April 3, 2003;

(f) with respect to the Documents executed and delivered by the Partnership dated as of August 26, 2003, and as to matters of fact only, a certificate dated August 26, 2003 of an officer of the Managing Partner, as the managing partner of the Partnership and administrator of the Fund, the Commercial Trust and KeySpan LP (which certificate has been restated by the Partnership for the benefit of the Purchasers pursuant to a Consent and Acknowledgement dated September 30, 2004):

(i) attaching certified true copies of each of the following: the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the Managing Partner, the Partnership Agreement, the Declaration of Trust forming the Fund, the Declaration of Trust forming the Commercial Trust, the Partnership Agreement forming KeySpan LP, and the Administration Agreement;

(ii) certifying as to the incumbency of officers and directors of the Managing Partner; and

(iii) attaching resolutions of the board of directors of the Managing Partner approving:

(1) on behalf of the Partnership, the execution and delivery by the Partnership of the Intercreditor Agreement;

(2) on behalf of KeySpan LP, the borrowing of funds and pledging of Partnership assets (as per Section 6.2(c) of the Partnership Agreement), and the execution and delivery of its Subordination Agreement; and

(3) on behalf of the Managing Partner, the Fund and the Commercial Trust, the execution and delivery by each of its Subordination Agreements;

(g) with respect to the Documents executed and delivered by the Partnership dated as of September 30, 2004, and as to matters of fact only, a certificate dated September 30, 2004 of an officer of the Managing Partner, as managing partner of the Partnership:

(i) attaching certified true copies of each of the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the Managing Partner, and the Partnership Agreement;

(ii) certifying as to the incumbency of officers and directors of the Managing Partner; and

(iii) attaching resolutions of the board of directors of the Managing Partner approving, on behalf of the Partnership, its guarantee of the Corporation's obligations under the Series A Notes, the granting of the Partnership Supplemental Debenture, and its execution and delivery of the Note Agreement;

(h) with respect to the Documents executed and delivered by the Corporation dated as of August 26, 2003, and as to matters of fact only, a certificate dated August 26, 2003 of an officer of the Corporation certifying as to the incumbency of officers and directors of the Corporation, and attaching the articles of incorporation and by-laws of the Corporation, and a resolution of the Board of Directors of the Corporation authorizing the execution and delivery by the Corporation of the Intercreditor Agreement (which certificate has been restated by the Corporation for the benefit of the Purchasers pursuant to a Consent and Acknowledgement dated September 30, 2004);

(i) with respect to the Documents executed and delivered by the Corporation dated as of September 30, 2004, and as to matters of fact only, a certificate of an officer of the Corporation certifying as to the incumbency of officers and directors of the Corporation, and attaching the articles of incorporation and by-laws of the Corporation, and a resolution of the Board of Directors of the Corporation authorizing (i) its issuance of the Series A Notes, (ii) the granting of the Corporation Supplemental Debenture, and (iii) its execution and delivery of the Note Agreement;

(j) with respect to the Documents executed and delivered by KEDCO dated as of August 26, 2003, and as to matters of fact only, a certificate of an officer of KEDCO dated August 26, 2003 certifying as to the incumbency of officers and directors of KEDCO, and attaching the articles of incorporation and by-laws of KEDCO, and a resolution of the Board of Directors of KEDCO authorizing: (i) the borrowing of funds and pledging of Partnership assets (as per Section 6.2(c) of the Partnership Agreement), and (ii) its execution and delivery of its Subordination Agreement (which certificate has been restated by KEDCO for the benefit of the Purchasers pursuant to a Consent and Acknowledgement dated September 30, 2004);

(k) with respect to the Documents executed and delivered by KPL dated as of August 26, 2003, and as to matters of fact only, a certificate of an officer of KPL dated August 26, 2003 certifying as to the incumbency of officers and directors of KPL, and attaching the articles of incorporation and by-laws of KPL, and a resolution of the Board of Directors of KPL authorizing (i) the borrowing of funds and pledging of Partnership assets (as per Section 6.2(c) of the Partnership Agreement), and (ii) its execution and delivery of its Subordination Agreement (which certificate has been restated by KPL for the benefit of the Purchasers pursuant to a Consent and Acknowledgement dated September 30, 2004);

(l) with respect to the Documents executed and delivered by KECC dated as of August 26, 2003, and as to matters of fact only, a certificate of an officer of KECC dated August 26, 2003 certifying as to the incumbency of officers and directors of KECC, and attaching the articles of incorporation and by-laws of KECC, and a resolution of the Board of Directors of KECC authorizing its execution and delivery of its Subordination Agreement (which certificate has been restated by KECC for the benefit of the Purchasers pursuant to a Consent and Acknowledgement dated September 30, 2004);

(m) as to matters of fact only, a certificate of an officer of EnerPro dated September 30, 2004 certifying as to the incumbency of officers and directors of EnerPro, and attaching the articles of incorporation and by-laws of EnerPro, and a resolution of the Board of Directors of EnerPro authorizing its execution and delivery of its Subordination Agreement;

(n) the Certificate to Secured Parties dated September 30, 2004 executed in connection with the Supplemental Agreement;

(o) a copy of a proof of filing in respect of the Partnership filed with the Registrar of Corporations for the Province of Alberta confirming the registration of the Partnership on October 12, 1999;

(p) a limited partnership report dated September 29, 2004 in respect of the declaration filed for KeySpan LP under the Limited Partnership Act (Ontario), and a proof of filing dated September 29, 2004 in respect of the extra-provincial registration of KeySpan LP in the Province of Alberta;

(q) certificates of status dated September 29, 2004 for the Corporation, KPL, the Managing Partner, KLP and EnerPro issued by the Registrar of Corporations for the Province of Alberta; and

(r) the opinion dated August 26, 2003 from Stewart McKelvey Stirling & Scales as Nova Scotia counsel to KEDCO and KECC with respect to the Documents executed and delivered by them dated as of August 26, 2003 (the "SMSS Opinion") (which counsel has confirmed that such opinion may be relied upon by you and us in connection with the Note Agreement).

We have also examined the minute books of each of the Transaction Parties, or the partners, trustees or administrators thereof, as the case may be, and such other corporate proceedings, records, certificates and documents and have considered such questions of law and made such investigations and inquiries as we have considered necessary or advisable for the purpose of this opinion.

In providing the opinions in paragraph 2 below with respect to due registration and valid existence of the corporations referred to therein, we have relied exclusively and without independent investigation upon the applicable certificates set forth and described in paragraph (p) above. In providing the opinions in paragraph 3 below with respect to due registration and valid existence of KeySpan LP, we have relied exclusively and without independent investigation upon the applicable report set forth and described in paragraph (o) above.

Whenever an opinion or other statement in this opinion is qualified by the phrase "known to us" or "to our knowledge" with respect to the existence or absence of facts, it is intended to indicate that during the course of our representation of the Transaction Parties, the partners and employees of Macleod Dixon LLP who performed services for the Transaction Parties in the course of such representation have had no actual knowledge of the existence or absence of such facts. However, except as expressly set out in this letter, we have not undertaken any specific investigation or conducted any specific search to determine the existence or absence of such facts and any limited inquiry undertaken by us during the preparation of this opinion and of the transactions described herein should not be regarded as such an investigation.

Assumptions

In such examinations, we have assumed:

(a) the genuineness of all signatures (other than signing officers of the Transaction Parties) on all documents purporting to be originals and on the originals of all documents submitted to us as copies;

(b) the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals and of the originals of all documents submitted to us as copies;

(c) the conformity to originals of all documents submitted to us as copies;

(d) the legal capacity of all natural persons;

(e) the due authorization, execution and delivery of all documents by each party thereto other than the Transaction Parties, and the legal existence power and capacity of each such party;

(f) the Documents constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of each party thereto other than the Transaction Parties, enforceable against each such party in accordance with their respective terms; and

(g) that value has been given to the Partnership and the Corporation under the Security Documents, as applicable, that the parties to the Security Documents have not agreed to postpone the time for attachment of the security created thereby, that the Partnership and Corporation, as applicable, have rights in the assets and property subject to the provisions of the Personal Property Security Act (Alberta) (the "PPSA"), other than after-acquired collateral, which is subject to such security (the "Personal Property Collateral").

Applicable Law

We express no opinion as to the laws of any jurisdiction other than the existing laws of the Province of Alberta and the federal laws of Canada applicable in Alberta as of the date hereof. For the limited purpose of paragraph 3 below with respect to the power, capacity and authority of KeySpan LP to execute and deliver its Subordination Agreement, we herein also express our opinion as to the existing laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable in Ontario as of the date hereof. To the extent that this opinion relates to the laws of the Province of Nova Scotia, we have relied upon the SMSS Opinion.

Supporting Opinion

With respect to:

(a) the incorporation and valid subsistence of each of KEDCO and KECC in the Province of Nova Scotia;

(b) the corporate power and capacity of each of KEDCO and KECC to enter into the Subordination Agreement to which it is a party;

(c) the due authorization, execution and delivery by each of KEDCO and KECC of the Subordination Agreement to which it is a party;

(d) the opinions given in paragraphs 5 and 9 herein as they pertain to KEDCO and KECC; and

(e) any other matters of Nova Scotia law;

we have relied upon the SMSS Opinion and to that extent this opinion is subject to the assumptions, qualifications and other matters set out in that opinion.

Opinions

Based upon and subject to the foregoing and to the qualifications hereinafter expressed, we are of the opinion that:

1. The Partnership is a general partnership, duly formed, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the Province of Alberta and is up-to-date in all filings required under the laws of the Province of Alberta. The Partnership has the full power, capacity and authority to execute and perform its obligations under the Documents to which it is a party.

2. Each of the Corporation, the Managing Partner, KPL and EnerPro is a corporation, duly incorporated, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the Province of Alberta and is up-to-date in all filings required under the laws of the Province of Alberta. Each of the Corporation, the Managing Partner, KPL and EnerPro has the full corporate power, capacity and authority to execute and perform its obligations under the Documents to which each is a party, and the Corporation has the full corporate power, capacity and authority to issue the Series A Notes.

3. KeySpan LP has been duly formed and is a validly existing limited partnership under the laws of the Province of Ontario and is extra-provincially registered in the Province of Alberta.

4. Each of the Commercial Trust and the Fund has been created and is a validly existing unincorporated open-ended trust under the laws of the Province of Alberta.

5. Each of the Documents has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate, partnership or other action on the part of each Transaction Party that is a party thereto, has been duly executed and delivered by each Transaction Party that is a party thereto, and constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligations of that Transaction Party that is a party thereto, enforceable against such Transaction Party in accordance with its terms.

6. All of the issued and outstanding shares in the capital of each of the Corporation and KECC are registered in the name of the Partnership.

7. The execution, delivery and performance of the Documents to which the Corporation is a party have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Corporation, and each of such Documents has been duly executed and delivered by the Corporation and constitutes the legal, valid and binding contracts of the Corporation enforceable in accordance with its terms.

8. The execution, delivery and performance of the Documents to which the Partnership is a party have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of the Partnership, and each of such Documents has been duly executed and delivered by the Partnership and constitutes the legal, valid and binding contracts of the Partnership enforceable in accordance with its terms.

9. The execution, delivery and performance of the Documents to which any Subordinated Party is a party have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of each Subordinated Party, and each of such Documents has been duly executed and delivered by each such Subordinated Party and constitutes the legal, valid and binding contracts of such Subordinated Party enforceable in accordance with its terms.

10. The issuance and sale of the Series A Notes by the Corporation, and the execution, delivery and performance by the Corporation of the Documents to which the Corporation is a party, do not conflict with or result in any breach of: (i) the articles or by-laws of the Corporation, (ii) any resolution of the shareholders or directors of the Corporation or, to our knowledge, any material agreement or other instrument to which the Corporation is a party or by which it may be bound, or (iii) any law or regulation in force in Alberta applicable to the Corporation.

11. The execution, delivery and performance by the Partnership of the Documents to which the Partnership is a party, do not conflict with or result in any breach of (i) the constating documents of the Partnership, including the Partnership Agreement, (ii) to our knowledge, any material agreement or other instrument to which the Partnership is a party or by which it may be bound, or (iii) any law or regulation in force in Alberta applicable to the Partnership.

12. The execution, delivery and performance by each Subordinated Party of the Documents to which it is a party, do not conflict with or result in any breach of (i) the constating documents of such Subordinated Party, (ii) to our knowledge, any material agreement or other instrument to which such Subordinated Party is a party or by which it may be bound, or (iii) any law or regulation in force in the jurisdiction of organization of such Subordinated Party applicable to such Subordinated Party.

13. To our knowledge, there are no proceedings pending or threatened against or affecting the Corporation or the Partnership in any court or before any governmental authority which, if adversely determined, individually or in the aggregate, (a) could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, or (b) purports to affect the validity or enforceability of any Document to which the Corporation or the Partnership is a party.

14. To our knowledge, there are no proceedings pending or threatened against or affecting any Subordinated Party in any court or before any governmental authority which, if adversely determined, individually or in the aggregate, (a) could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, or (b) purports to affect the validity or enforceability of any Document to which such Subordinated Party is a party.

15. The issuance and sale of the Series A Notes by the Corporation, and the execution, delivery and performance by the Corporation of the Documents to which the Corporation is a party, do not result in the creation or imposition of any security interest upon any of the property of the Corporation (other than pursuant to the Documents).

16. The execution, delivery and performance by the Partnership of the Documents to which the Partnership is a party, do result in the creation or imposition of any security interest upon any of the property of the Partnership (other than pursuant to the Documents).

17. The Corporation, the Partnership and each Subordinated Party organized under the laws of the Province of Alberta, are subject to the relevant commercial law and civil law of Alberta and are generally subject to suit in Alberta, and none of the Corporation, the Partnership or such Subordinated Party, nor any of their property, enjoys any right of immunity from any judicial proceedings in Alberta.

18. Under the existing laws of Alberta and the federal laws of Canada applicable in Alberta as of the date hereof ("Applicable Law"), and based on our understanding of the current administrative practice and policies of the Canada Revenue Agency, and provided, at the Closing and throughout the term of the Series A Notes, that:

(a) the holder of a Series A Note (a "U.S. Holder") does not use the debt owing to it under the Documents in, or hold such debt in the course of, carrying on business in Canada, and is not deemed to use such debt in connection with a business carried on in Canada for the purposes of the Income Tax Act (Canada) (the "Tax Act"), and, where the U.S. Holder carries on an insurance business in Canada and elsewhere, it establishes that the debt is neither "designated insurance property" (as defined in subsection 138(12) of the Tax Act and Regulation 2401(1)) nor effectively connected with the insurance business it carries on in Canada;

(b) the U.S. Holder deals at arm's length with the Corporation for the purposes of the Tax Act; and

(c) the U.S. Holder is not resident in Canada and is not deemed to be resident in Canada for the purposes of the Tax Act:

then:

(i) the Corporation is presently permitted to make all payments on Series A Notes to the U.S. Holder of: (A) the principal amount of the Series A Notes; (B) interest on such principal amount; (C) interest on such interest; and (D) Make-Whole Amounts, free and clear of and without deduction for or on account of any taxes, levies, assessments, duties, governmental charges and withholdings of any nature imposed, levied, assessed or collected under Applicable Law (collectively, "Taxes"); and

(ii) any such amounts referred to in paragraph (i) above which are owing or payable, or which become owing or payable, by the Corporation to the U.S. Holder and which are paid by the Corporation to the U.S. Holder are not the subject of any Taxes to the U.S. Holder.

19. Neither the acquisition of the Series A Notes nor receipt of payment pursuant thereto or to any Guarantee or other Document will, of itself, constitute the carrying on of business in Canada or in the Province of Alberta.

20. The obligations of the Corporation under the Note Agreement, the Series A Notes and the other Documents to which the Corporation is a party rank at least pari passu in right of payment with all other unsecured Senior Debt (actual or contingent) of the Corporation.

21. The obligations of the Partnership under the Documents to which the Partnership is a party rank at least pari passu in right of payment with all other unsecured Senior Debt (actual or contingent) of the Partnership.

22. No stamp, documentary, registration, or similar taxes or duties are required to be paid under the laws of the Province of Alberta or the laws of Canada applicable in the Province of Alberta upon or in connection with the due execution and delivery of the Documents, the performance by the Corporation, the Partnership and the Subordinated Parties of their respective obligations thereunder or the enforcement by the Purchasers or the Collateral Agent of their rights thereunder.

23. It is not necessary, in connection with the offer, sale and delivery of the Series A Notes to the Purchasers in accordance with the Note Agreement, to qualify the distribution of the Series A Notes by way of a prospectus under the applicable securities laws of the Province of Alberta or any other province of Canada and such transactions are exempt from the registration requirements of such laws.

24. Except for the filing by the Corporation with the Alberta Securities Commission within ten days of the date of the sale of the Series A Notes of a report of the trade pursuant to the rules under the Securities Act (Alberta), no authorization, consent, license, approval or order from or filing with any court, government, governmental or regulatory agency, body or other authority having jurisdiction in Alberta is required in connection with the execution or delivery by the Corporation or the Partnership, as applicable, of Note Agreement and the other Documents, or the performance by the Corporation, the Partnership or any Subordinated Party of their respective obligations thereunder, or the issuance and delivery of the Series A Notes by the Corporation.

25. A holder of Series A Notes will generally not be precluded from suing as plaintiff in an Alberta court for the enforcement of its rights under the Note Agreement and other Documents, against the Corporation or the Partnership, and such access to Alberta courts is not subject to any conditions which are not of general application to residents of the Province of Alberta or a company incorporated in Alberta, except that (i) individuals or corporations who are not resident in the Province of Alberta may be required to post security for the cost of litigation initiated by them and (ii) corporations who carry on or have carried on business in the Province of Alberta may be required to register as an extra-provincial corporation.

26. To ensure the legality, validity, enforceability or admissibility into evidence of the Documents in the Province of Alberta, it is not necessary that the Documents or any other documents be registered, notarized, filed or recorded with any court or other authority or that any stamp or similar tax be paid with respect thereto.

27. Upon receipt by the Collateral Agent under the Intercreditor Agreement of the Supplemental Agreement executed by the Purchasers, the Purchasers shall be "Additional Lenders" for the purposes of the Intercreditor Agreement and each Purchaser shall be entitled to the benefits of the Intercreditor Agreement as if it were an original party thereto as a Secured Party, as provided in Section 2.06(2) of the Intercreditor Agreement.

Qualifications

The opinions expressed herein are subject to the following qualifications:

(a) the validity or enforceability of the Documents and the rights and remedies set out therein or any judgment arising out of or in connection therewith: (i) may be limited by any applicable bankruptcy, reorganization, winding-up, insolvency, arrangement, preference, moratorium or other similar laws and judicial decisions of general application affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights from time to time in effect, (ii) is subject to general principles of equity, whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law (including the equitable or statutory powers of the courts to stay proceedings before them, to stay the execution of judgments and to grant relief against forfeiture); and in particular no opinion is expressed as to the availability of the remedy of specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable or discretionary remedies in any particular instance, and (iii) may be affected by the discretion of which a court may reserve to itself to decline to hear an action if it is contrary to public policy for it to do so or if it is not the proper forum to hear that action;

(b) no opinion is expressed as to the enforceability of any provisions in any Document which: (i) provide that modifications, amendments or waivers that are not in writing will not be effective, (ii) provide for reaching agreement at a later date, (iii) purport to bind or affect, or confer a benefit upon, persons who are not parties to that Document (whether as a signatory or by or through an agent), (iv) purport to establish evidentiary standards, such as provisions stating that certain determinations, calculations or certificates will be conclusive or binding, (vi) provide for indemnification or contribution of a Person to the extent that the indemnification or the reimbursement sought relates to a failure of such Person to comply with its obligations in respect of which indemnification or contribution is sought, (vii) are found to constitute a penalty, or (viii) purport to prevent the exercise of a right of set-off or a defence by counterclaim;

(c) the enforcement of the Documents or any judgment arising out of or in connection therewith may be limited:

(i) by limitations upon the right of a party to the Documents to enforce the Documents on the basis of a default of a minor or non-substantive nature, such as the failure to produce a document in a timely manner;

(ii) by any provisions of the Documents that purport to establish evidentiary standards, such as provisions stating that certain calculations or certificates will be conclusive and binding, which provisions may not be enforceable or may be limited in their application;

(iii) by the discretion which a court may reserve to itself to decline to hear an action if it is contrary to public policy for it to do so, or if it is not the proper forum to hear such action;

(iv) by limitations which may be imposed by law on the effectiveness of terms exculpating a party from a liability; and

(v) by limitations upon the rights of the parties to choose Alberta (and applicable federal) law if, or to the extent it is determined that, such choice of law was made to evade mandatory provisions or public policy considerations of the law of another jurisdiction.

(d) without limiting the generality of the other qualifications set forth herein:

(i) the Collateral Agent and holders of Series A Notes from time to time may be required to exercise or discharge, in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, all rights, duties and obligations arising under the Documents, and

(ii) a court may not treat as conclusive those certificates and determinations which the Documents state are to be so treated;

(e) the Currency Act (Canada) precludes a court in Canada from giving a judgment in any currency other than Canadian currency and such judgment may be based on a rate of exchange in existence on a day other than the day of payment of such judgment;

(f) provisions in the Documents providing for recovery of fees and expenses may be restricted by a court to a reasonable amount and counsel fees are subject to taxation;

(g) Section 6 of the Judgment Interest Act (Alberta) governs the rate of interest which a judgment debt created by an order or judgment of an Alberta court bears, and we express no opinion as to the enforceability of paragraph 24(f) of the Note Agreement which purports to waive such section;

(h) the additional or increased rate of interest imposed upon the Partnership or the Corporation, as applicable, following a default under the Series A Notes, and the Make-Whole Amount payable by the Corporation pursuant to paragraph 8.7 of the Note Agreement, may be irrecoverable on the grounds that it contravenes Section 8 of the Interest Act (Canada) or otherwise constitutes a penalty, but such finding would not of itself prejudice the legality of any other provision of the Documents;

(i) determinations or demands made by the Collateral Agent, a holder of Series A Notes or any other Person in the exercise of a discretion purported to be given to it under or by any of the Documents may be unenforceable if made in an unreasonable or arbitrary fashion and may not be treated as conclusive notwithstanding contrary provisions in the Documents, and determinations or references based upon the publication or reporting of certain rates or yields may not be enforceable if the rates or yields are not ascertainable or are equivocal;

(j) provisions in the Documents which purport to restrict access to, or effect waivers of, the benefits or protection of doctrines, principles or statutory provisions viewed by a court as based on public policy, and provisions in the Documents which purport to exclude unwritten variations, amendments, waivers or consents, may not be enforceable;

(k) with regard to paragraph 27.3 of the Note Agreement and equivalent provisions in any of the other Documents (severability clauses), the question whether or not any provisions of the Documents which may be invalid, illegal or unenforceable may be severed from the other provisions thereof in order to save those other provisions would be determined by a court in its discretion;

(l) failure to exercise a right of action under the Documents within applicable limitation periods may act as a bar to the enforcement of such rights at any time thereafter;

(m) if any holder of a Series A Note was to declare the principal of the Series A Note to be forthwith due and payable by reason of the occurrence of an Event of Default, such holder may be required to demand payment of such indebtedness and to give the Partnership or Corporation, as applicable, a reasonable time to raise monies to repay such indebtedness prior to taking any action to enforce its right to repayment or before exercising any of the rights and remedies expressed to be exercisable by the holder or the Collateral Agent in any of the Documents as a result of the occurrence of such Event of Default;

(n) the effectiveness of provisions of the Documents which purport to relieve a Person from a liability or duty otherwise owed may be limited by applicable law;

(o) provisions of the Documents requiring indemnification or reimbursement may not be enforced by a court to the extent that they relate to the failure of such Person to have performed such duty or liability;

(p) certain provisions of the Documents which relate to the enforcement of the security interests created thereby may be held to be unenforceable due to a conflict between such provisions, an one hand, and the requirements created by statutes (including the PPSA) and the effect of judicial decisions pertaining to the enforcement of security interests, on the other hand, but such requirements and decisions, taken in the aggregate, would not adversely impair in a material way the effective realization thereon by the enforcing party if it or the receiver or receiver-manager exercises and discharges its rights, duties and obligations in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner;

(q) a receiver or receiver and manager appointed pursuant to any of the Documents or of any of its property which proposes to hold, administer, operate or dispose of part or all of such property may need to obtain consents or approvals of, or give notice to, one or more governmental agencies or officials, or third parties;

(r) no opinion is expressed as to the enforceability of provisions of any Document purporting to deem a receiver or receiver and manager to be the agent of the Partnership or the Corporation or to absolve the receiver or the holder from liability for its acts;

(s) no opinion is expressed as to the title or ownership of any party to any assets or property or the presence or effect of any contractual (other than contractual provisions in the Documents) or other restrictions affecting the valid creation of such security interests or the realization thereof;

(t) no opinion is expressed as to the registration, perfection, priority or ranking of the security interests or the uncrystallized floating charge created by the Documents; and

(u) no opinion is expressed as to any security interest with respect to: (i) any Personal Property Collateral (including proceeds) to the extent that it is not identifiable or traceable, (ii) any property or asset of the Partnership or the Corporation prior to the Partnership or the Corporation acquiring rights therein, (iii) any debt owing by the Crown in right of Canada or any province or agency thereof unless consented to by the applicable Governmental Authority in accordance with the applicable Financial Administration Act, (iv) the transferability or assignability of any permit, license, or authorization issued by a Governmental Authority, the transfer or assignment of which is subject to the consent or approval of any Governmental Authority pursuant to any requirement of applicable law, (v) debts, claims, demands and other rights which by their terms are not assignable or the assignment of which is subject to certain conditions under, or is specifically regulated by, any requirement of applicable law, or (vi) Personal Property Collateral to which the PPSA does not apply.

Reliance

This opinion relates exclusively to the transactions described above. This opinion is rendered solely for the use of the addressees hereof and permitted transferees in accordance with the provisions of the Note Agreement and may not be relied on by any other parties for any other purpose without our prior written consent.

Yours truly,

Macleod Dixon LLP

KEYS PAN ENERGY FACILITIES LIMITED

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as your special counsel in connection with your separate purchases on the date hereof of CDN $90 000 000 aggregate principal amount of 5.23% Series A Senior Secured Notes due October 1 , 2009 (the Notes of KeySpan Energy Facilities Limited , an Alberta corporation (the Company), issued under and pursuant to the Note Purchase Agreement, dated as of September 30 , 2004 (the Note Purchase Agreement), among the Company, KeySpan Energy Canada Partnership, an Alberta general partnership (the Partnership and each of you.

In that connection , we have examined the following:

(a) the Note Purchase Agreement;

(b) the opinion of Macleod Dixon LLP, special Canadian counsel to the Company and the Partnership, dated the date hereof and delivered responsive to Section 4(a) of the Note Purchase Agreement;

(c) the opinion of Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP, your special Canadian counsel, dated the date hereof and delivered Purchase Agreement;

(d) the Notes delivered on the date hereof;

(e) such certificates of officers of the Company and the Partnership and of public officials as we have deemed necessary to give the opinions hereinafter expressed; and

(f) such other documents and matters of law as we have deemed necessary to give the opinions hereinafter expressed.

Without passing on Canadian law , we believe that the opinions referred to in clauses (b) and (c) above are satisfactory in scope and form and nothing has come to our attention which would lead us to believe that you are not justified in relying thereon. We have also relied , as to certain factual matters , upon appropriate certificates of public Company and the Partnership and upon representations of the Company, the Partnership and you delivered in connection with the issuance and sale of the Notes.

Based upon the foregoing, we are of the opinion that the issuance, sale and delivery of the Notes under the circumstances contemplated by the Note Purchase Agreement does not, under existing law , require the registration of the Notes under the Securities Act of 1933 , as amended, or the qualification of an indenture under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended.

The opinion expressed above is limited to the Federal laws of the United States, and no opinion is given with respect to matters covered by the laws of Canada.

Respectfully submitted

CDN. $60,000,000 5.89% Series A Senior Guaranteed Notes due December 3, 2017

Cdn. $60,000,000 6.14% Series B Senior Guaranteed Notes due December 3, 2022

September 4, 2007

To Each of the Purchasers Listed in Schedule A Hereto:

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Keyera Energy Facilities Limited, an Alberta corporation (the "Company") and Keyera Facilities Income Fund, an Alberta trust (the "Fund") each agree with each of the purchasers whose names appear at the end hereof (each a "Purchaser" and collectively the "Purchasers") as follows:

1. AUTHORIZATION OF NOTES.

The Company will authorize the issue and sale of its 5.89% Cdn.$60,000,000 Series A Senior Guaranteed Notes due December 3, 2017 (the "Series A Notes"), and its 6.14% Cdn.$60,000,000 Series B Senior Guaranteed Notes due December 3, 2022 (the "Series B Notes") (the Series A Notes and Series B Notes collectively, the "Notes", such term to include any such notes issued in substitution therefor pursuant to Section 14). The Series A Notes shall be substantially in the form set out in Exhibit 1A and the Series B Notes shall be substantially in the form set out in Exhibit 1B. Certain capitalized and other terms used in this Agreement are defined in Schedule B; and references to a "Schedule" or an "Exhibit" are, unless otherwise specified, to a Schedule or an Exhibit attached to this Agreement. The Series A Notes and the Series B Notes are each herein sometimes referred to as Notes of a "series".

2. SALE AND PURCHASE OF NOTES.

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Company will issue and sell to each Purchaser and each Purchaser will purchase from the Company, at the First Closing or Second Closing, as applicable, provided for in Section 3, Notes in the principal amount and of the series specified opposite such Purchaser's name in Schedule A at the purchase price of 100% of the principal amount thereof. The Purchasers' obligations hereunder are several and not joint obligations and no Purchaser shall have any liability to any Person for the performance or non-performance of any obligation by any other Purchaser hereunder.

3. CLOSINGS.

(a) Cdn. $80,000,000 Funding on September 4, 2007. The sale and purchase of Cdn. $40,000,000 of Series A Notes and Cdn. $40,000,000 of Series B Notes to be purchased by each Purchaser at the First Closing (the "First Closing Notes") shall occur at the offices of Macleod Dixon LLP, 3700, 400-3rd Avenue S.W. Calgary, Alberta, at 8:00 A.M., Mountain Daylight Time, at a closing (the "First Closing") on September 4, 2007. At the First Closing the Company will deliver to each Purchaser the First Closing Notes of the series to be purchased by such Purchaser at the First Closing in the form of a single Note (or such greater number of Notes in denominations of at least Cdn.$300,000 as such Purchaser may request) dated the date of the First Closing and registered in such Purchaser's name (or in the name of its nominee), against delivery by such Purchaser to the Company or its order of immediately available funds in the amount of the purchase price therefor by wire transfer of immediately available funds for the account of the Company as follows:

TD Canada Trust
340-5th Avenue S.W.
Calgary, Alberta, Canada
T2P 0L3

Swift code: TDOMCATTTOR
Bank code: 004
Branch transit number: 08060
Account number: 00805 0319573

If at the First Closing the Company shall fail to tender such First Closing Notes to any Purchaser as provided above in this Section 3(a), or any of the conditions specified in Section 4 shall not have been fulfilled to such Purchaser's satisfaction, such Purchaser shall, at its election, be relieved of all further obligations under this Agreement, without thereby waiving any rights such Purchaser may have by reason of such failure or such nonfulfillment.

(b) Cdn. $40,000,000 Funding on December 3, 2007. The sale and purchase of Cdn. $20,000,000 of Series A Notes and Cdn. $20,000,000 of Series B Notes to be purchased by each Purchaser at the Second Closing (the "Second Closing Notes") shall occur at the offices of Macleod Dixon LLP, 3700, 400-3rd Avenue S.W. Calgary, Alberta, at 8:00 A.M., Mountain Daylight Time, at a closing (the "Second Closing") on December 3, 2007. At the Second Closing the Company will deliver to each Purchaser the Second Closing Notes of the series to be purchased by such Purchaser at the Second Closing in the form of a single Note (or such greater number of Notes in denominations of at least Cdn.$300,000 as such Purchaser may request) dated the date of the Second Closing and registered in such Purchaser's name (or in the name of its nominee), against delivery by such Purchaser to the Company or its order of immediately available funds in the amount of the purchase price therefor by wire transfer of immediately available funds for the account of the Company set out in Section 3(a). If at the Second Closing the Company shall fail to tender such Second Closing Notes to any Purchaser as provided above in this Section 3(b), or any of the conditions specified in Section 4 shall not have been fulfilled to such Purchaser's satisfaction, such Purchaser shall, at its election, be relieved of all further obligations under this Agreement, without thereby waiving any rights such Purchaser may have by reason of such failure or such nonfulfillment.

4. CONDITIONS TO CLOSINGS.

Each Purchaser's obligation to purchase and pay for the Notes to be sold to such Purchaser at the First Closing or the Second Closing, as applicable, is subject to the fulfillment to such Purchaser's satisfaction, prior to or at the First Closing or the Second Closing, as applicable, of the following conditions:

4.1. Representations and Warranties.

The representations and warranties of the Company and the Fund in this Agreement shall be correct when made and at the time of the First Closing or the Second Closing, as applicable.

4.2. Guarantees, Subordination Agreements and Collateral Agency Agreement.

(a) Subsidiary Guarantee. The Partnership and each other Person (if any) required to execute and deliver the Subsidiary Guarantee pursuant to Section 9.9 shall have executed and delivered to such Purchaser the Subsidiary Guarantee. The only Person executing and delivering the Subsidiary Guarantee at the First Closing is the Partnership. The Company and the Fund shall identify any additional Persons which are parties to the Subsidiary Guarantee and the Subordination Agreements at the Second Closing.

(b) Subordination Agreements and Collateral Agency Agreement. The Company, the Partnership and the Collateral Agent, as applicable, shall have executed the Collateral Agency Supplemental Documents as required in order to extend the benefit of the Collateral Agency Agreement and the Subordination Agreements to the holders.

4.3. Performance; No Default.

The Company and the Fund shall have performed and complied with all agreements and conditions contained in this Agreement required to be performed or complied with by each prior to or at the date of the First Closing or the Second Closing, as applicable, and after giving effect to the issue and sale of the First Closing Notes or the Second Closing Notes, as applicable (and the application of the proceeds thereof as contemplated by Section 5.14) no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing.

4.4. Compliance Certificates.

(a) Officer's Certificate - Closing Condition Matters. Each of the Company and the Fund shall have delivered to such Purchaser an Officer's Certificate, dated the date of the First Closing or the Second Closing, as applicable, certifying that the conditions specified in Sections 4.1, 4.3 and 4.10 have been fulfilled, and such certificate shall include any appropriate changes, if any, to Schedule 5.4 and Schedule 5.15 from the date hereof, and, in each such case, the Purchasers shall have determined, acting reasonably, that such changes individually or in the aggregate, have not had, and could not reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Officers Certificate - Corporate, Partnership and Trust Matters. The Company shall have delivered to such Purchaser a Certificate of Corporate, Partnership and Trust Authority and Incumbency of an Officer or Director of the Company, the Fund or the Partnership, or other appropriate person, dated the date of the First Closing or the Second Closing, as applicable, certifying the applicable governing corporate, partnership and trust Constating Documents, authorizing resolutions, copies of the Subordination Agreements, and incumbency of signing officers, as applicable, all relating to the authorization, execution and delivery of the Note Documents to which the Company, the Fund and the Partnership, as applicable, is a party.

4.5. Opinions of Counsel.

Each Purchaser shall have received opinions in form and substance satisfactory to such Purchaser, dated the date of the First Closing or the Second Closing, as applicable:

(a) from Macleod Dixon LLP, Canadian counsel for the Company, substantially in the form of Exhibit 4.5(a) and covering such other matters incident to the transactions contemplated hereby as the Purchasers or their counsel may reasonably request (and the Company hereby instructs its counsel to deliver such opinion to each Purchaser); and

(b) from Chapman and Cutler LLP, special United States counsel for the Purchasers in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit 4.5(b) and covering such other matters incident to such transactions as the Purchasers may reasonably request.

4.6. Purchase Permitted By Applicable Law, Etc.

On the date of the First Closing or the Second Closing, as applicable, such Purchaser's purchase of First Closing Notes or the Second Closing Notes, as applicable, shall (a) be permitted by the laws and regulations of each jurisdiction to which such Purchaser is subject, without recourse to provisions (such as section 1405(a)(8) of the New York Insurance Law) permitting limited investments by insurance companies without restriction as to the character of the particular investment, (b) not violate any applicable law or regulation (including, without limitation, Regulation T, U or X of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and Canadian federal and provincial securities laws) and (c) not subject such Purchaser to any tax, penalty or liability under or pursuant to any applicable law or regulation, which law or regulation was not in effect on the date hereof. If requested by such Purchaser, such Purchaser shall have received an Officer's Certificate certifying as to such matters of fact as such Purchaser may reasonably specify to enable such Purchaser to determine whether such purchase is so permitted.

4.7. Sale of Other Notes.

Contemporaneously with the First Closing or the Second Closing, as applicable, the Company shall sell to each other Purchaser and each other Purchaser shall purchase the First Closing Notes or the Second Closing Notes, as applicable, to be purchased by it at the applicable closing as specified in Schedule A.

4.8. Payment of Special Counsel Fees.

Without limiting the provisions of Section 16.1, the Company shall have paid on or before the First Closing or the Second Closing, as applicable, the fees, charges and disbursements of the Purchasers' special counsel referred to in Section 4.5(b) to the extent reflected in a statement of such counsel rendered to the Company at least one Business Day prior to the applicable closing.

4.9. Private Placement Numbers.

A Private Placement Number issued by Standard & Poor's CUSIP Service Bureau (in cooperation with the SVO) shall have been obtained for each series of Notes.

4.10. Changes in Corporate Structure.

The Company shall not have changed its jurisdiction of incorporation or organization, as applicable, or been a party to any merger or consolidation or succeeded to all or any substantial part of the liabilities of any other entity (other than of Wholly-Owned Subsidiaries of the Company which are wound-up by the Company), at any time following the date of the most recent financial statements referred to in Schedule 5.5, except as set out in Schedule 5.4.

4.11. Funding Instructions.

At least three Business Days prior to the date of First Closing or the Second Closing, as applicable, each Purchaser shall have received written instructions signed by a Responsible Officer on letterhead of the Company confirming the information specified in Section 3(a) including (a) the name and address of the transferee bank, (b) such transferee bank's swift code, bank code and transit number and (c) the account name and number into which the purchase price for the Notes is to be deposited.

4.12. Proceedings and Documents.

All corporate and other proceedings in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and all documents and instruments incident to such transactions shall be satisfactory to such Purchaser and its special counsel, and such Purchaser and its special counsel shall have received all such counterpart originals or certified or other copies of such documents as such Purchaser or such special counsel may reasonably request.

5. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY AND THE FUND.

The Company and the Fund each represent and warrant to each Purchaser that:

5.1. Organization; Power and Authority.

(a) The Company is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and, where legally applicable, in good standing under the laws of Alberta, and is duly qualified as a foreign corporation and, where legally applicable, is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which such qualification is required by law, other than those jurisdictions as to which the failure to be so qualified or in good standing would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. The Company has the corporate power and authority to own or hold under lease the properties it purports to own or hold under lease, to transact the business it transacts and proposes to transact, to execute and deliver this Agreement and the Notes and to perform the provisions hereof and thereof.

(b) The Fund is a trust duly organized, validly existing and, where legally applicable, in good standing under the laws of Alberta and, where legally applicable, is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which such qualification is required by law, other than those jurisdictions as to which the failure to be so qualified or in good standing would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. The Fund has the trust power and authority to own or hold its assets and to execute and deliver the Note Documents to which it is a party and to perform the provisions thereof. The Fund Trustee is the sole trustee of the Fund. Keyera Energy Management Ltd. is the duly appointed administrator of the Fund (in such capacity, the "Administrator") pursuant to the Fund Declaration of trust and the Fund Administration Agreement and as such is duly authorized to execute and deliver on behalf of the Fund and the Fund Trustee the Note Documents to which the Fund is a party.

(c) The Partnership is a general partnership duly organized, validly existing and, where legally applicable, in good standing under the laws of Alberta and, where legally applicable, is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which such qualification is required by law, other than those jurisdictions as to which the failure to be so qualified or in good standing would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. The Partnership has the partnership power and authority to own or hold under lease the properties it purports to own or hold under lease, to transact the business it transacts and proposes to transact, to execute and deliver the Subsidiary Guarantee and the other Note Documents to which it is a party and to perform the provisions thereof. The sole partners in the Partnership are Keyera Facilities Limited Partnership and Keyera Energy Management Ltd. Keyera Energy Management Ltd. is the duly appointed managing partner of the Partnership (in such capacity, the "Managing Partner") pursuant to the Partnership Agreement and as such is duly authorized to execute and deliver on behalf of the Partnership the Subsidiary Guarantee and any other Note Documents to which the Partnership is a party.

(d) Each other Subsidiary Guarantor, if any, is duly organized, validly existing and, where legally applicable, in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation and, where legally applicable, is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which such qualification is required by law, other than those jurisdictions as to which the failure to be so qualified or in good standing would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Each other Subsidiary Guarantor has the corporate, partnership or trust, as applicable, power and authority to own or hold under lease the properties it purports to own or hold under lease, to transact the business it transacts and proposes to transact, to execute and deliver the Subsidiary Guarantee and any other Note Documents to which it is a party and to perform the provisions thereof.

5.2. Authorization, Etc.

(a) This Agreement and the Notes have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Company, and this Agreement constitutes, and upon execution and delivery thereof each Note will constitute, a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Company enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by (i) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and (ii) general principles of equity (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(b) The Subsidiary Guarantee has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate or partnership action on the part of each Subsidiary Guarantor, as applicable, and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of each such Subsidiary Guarantor enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by (i) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and (ii) general principles of equity (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

5.3. Disclosure.

The Company, through its agents JP Morgan Securities Inc. and RBC Capital Markets Corporation, has delivered to each Purchaser a copy of a Private Placement Memorandum, dated July, 2007 (the "Memorandum"), relating to the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement, the Memorandum and the documents, certificates or other writings delivered to the Purchasers by or on behalf of the Company in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby and identified in Schedule 5.3, and the financial statements listed in Schedule 5.5 (this Agreement, the Memorandum and such documents, certificates or other writings and financial statements delivered to each Purchaser prior to July 19, 2007 being referred to, collectively, as the "Disclosure Documents"), taken as a whole, do not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in light of the circumstances under which they were made. Except as disclosed in the Disclosure Documents, since December 31, 2006 there has been no change in the financial condition, operations, business or properties of the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary except changes that individually or in the aggregate would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

5.4. Organization and Ownership of Shares of Subsidiaries.

(a) Schedule 5.4 (as it may be replaced pursuant to Section 4.10) contains a complete and correct list of the Fund's Subsidiaries as at the date of this Agreement, showing, as to each Subsidiary, the correct name thereof, the jurisdiction of its organization, and the percentage of shares of each class of its capital stock or similar equity interests outstanding owned by the Fund and each other Subsidiary.

(b) All of the outstanding shares of capital stock or similar equity interests of each Restricted Subsidiary shown in Schedule 5.4 (as it may be replaced pursuant to Section 4.10), as being owned by the Fund and its Subsidiaries have been validly issued, are fully paid and nonassessable and are owned by the Fund or another Subsidiary free and clear of any Lien (except as otherwise disclosed in such Schedule 5.4).

(c) Each Restricted Subsidiary identified in Schedule 5.4 (as it may be replaced pursuant to Section 4.10) is a corporation, partnership, trust or other legal entity duly organized, validly existing and, where legally applicable, in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of organization, and is duly qualified as a foreign corporation, partnership, trust or other legal entity and, where legally applicable, is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which such qualification is required by law, other than those jurisdictions as to which the failure to be so qualified or in good standing would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Each such Restricted Subsidiary has the corporate or other power and authority to own or hold under lease the properties it purports to own or hold under lease and to transact the business it transacts and proposes to transact.

(d) No Restricted Subsidiary is a party to, or otherwise subject to any legal, regulatory, contractual or other restriction (other than this Agreement, the agreements listed on Schedule 5.4 and customary limitations imposed by corporate law or similar statutes) restricting the ability of such Restricted Subsidiary to pay dividends out of profits or make any other similar distributions of profits to the Fund, the Company or any Subsidiary Guarantor.

5.5. Financial Statements; Material Liabilities.

The Company and the Fund have delivered to each Purchaser copies of the financial statements of the Fund and its Subsidiaries listed on Schedule 5.5. All of said financial statements (including in each case the related schedules and notes) fairly present in all material respects the consolidated financial position of the Fund and its Subsidiaries as of the respective dates specified in such Schedule and the consolidated results of their operations and cash flows for the respective periods so specified and have been prepared in accordance with GAAP consistently applied throughout the periods involved except as set forth in the notes thereto (subject, in the case of any interim financial statements, to normal year-end adjustments). The Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries do not have any Material liabilities that are not disclosed on such financial statements or otherwise disclosed in the Disclosure Documents.

5.6. Compliance with Laws, Other Instruments, Etc.

The execution, delivery and performance by the Company, the Fund and each Subsidiary Guarantor of each Note Document to which it is a party will not (a) contravene, result in any breach of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation of any Lien in respect of any property of the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary under, any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, loan, purchase or credit agreement, lease, corporate charter, memorandum and articles of association, regulations or by-laws, or any other agreement or instrument to which the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary is bound or by which the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary or any of their respective properties may be bound or affected, (b) conflict with or result in a breach of any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any order, judgment, decree, or ruling of any court, arbitrator or Governmental Authority applicable to the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary or (c) violate any provision of any statute or other rule or regulation of any Governmental Authority applicable to the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary.

5.7. Governmental Authorizations, Etc.

No consent, approval or authorization of, or registration, filing or declaration with, any Governmental Authority is required in connection with the execution, delivery or performance by the Company, the Fund or any Subsidiary Guarantor of any Note Document, including, without limitation, any thereof required in connection with the obtaining of Canadian Dollars to make payments under any Note Document and the payment of such Canadian Dollars to Persons resident in the United States of America. It is not necessary to ensure the legality, validity, enforceability or admissibility into evidence in Alberta of any Note Document that any thereof or any other document be filed, recorded or enrolled with any Governmental Authority, or that any such agreement or document be stamped with any stamp, registration or similar transaction tax.

5.8. Litigation; Observance of Statutes and Orders.

(a) There are no actions, suits, investigations or proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened against or affecting the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary or any property of the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary in any court or before any arbitrator of any kind or before or by any Governmental Authority that, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) None of the Company, the Fund nor any Restricted Subsidiary is in default under any term of any order, judgment, decree or ruling of any court, arbitrator or Governmental Authority or is in violation of any applicable law, ordinance, rule or regulation (including, without limitation, Environmental Laws or the USA Patriot Act) of any Governmental Authority, which default or violation, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

5.9. Taxes.

(a) The Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries have filed all tax returns that are required to have been filed in any jurisdiction, and have paid all taxes shown to be due and payable on such returns and all other taxes and assessments levied upon them or their properties, assets, income or franchises, to the extent such taxes and assessments have become due and payable and before they have become delinquent, except for any taxes and assessments (i) the amount of which is not individually or in the aggregate Material or (ii) the amount, applicability or validity of which is currently being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and with respect to which the Company, the Fund or a Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, has established adequate reserves in accordance with GAAP. None of the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary knows of any basis for any other tax or assessment that could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. The charges, accruals and reserves on the books of the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries in respect of federal, provincial or other taxes for all fiscal periods are adequate.

(b) The Company, the Fund and each Subsidiary Guarantor is permitted to make all payments of interest on, or in respect of, the principal amount of the Non-Canadian Held Notes and interest on such interest, Make-Whole Amounts, as applicable, and interest thereon, and the principal amount of the Non-Canadian Held Notes (in each case, a "Payment") to a holder free and clear of and without deduction for or on account of any Taxes imposed by Canada, Alberta or any other applicable Governmental Authority in any jurisdiction in which the Company, the Fund or such Subsidiary Guarantor carries on business or from which Payments are made, or by any taxing authority thereof (collectively, "Imposed Taxes"), and any such amounts as are owing or payable or which become owing or payable by and are paid to a holder will not presently be subject to any Imposed Taxes imposed, levied, assessed or collected by Canada or Alberta or any taxing authority thereof, provided in both cases that as of the time of such Payment:

(i) such holder does not use the Non-Canadian Held Notes in, or hold the Non-Canadian Held Notes in the course of, carrying on business in Canada, and is not deemed to use the Non-Canadian Held Notes in connection with a business carried on in Canada for the purposes of the Tax Act, and if such holder carries on an insurance business in Canada and elsewhere, it establishes that the debt evidenced by the Non-Canadian Held Note is neither "designated insurance property" (as defined in subsection 138(12) of the Tax Act and Regulation 2401(1)), as amended or substituted from time to time, nor effectively connected with the insurance business it carries on in Canada, and

(ii) the holder deals at arm's length with the Company for the purposes of the Tax Act.

(c) The Company, the Fund and each Subsidiary Guarantor is permitted to make all Payments on or in respect of Canadian Held Notes to a holder of Canadian Held Notes free and clear of and without deduction for or on account of any Imposed Taxes.

(d) For the purposes of this Section 5.9, all Notes that, at any relevant date of determination hereunder, are held by a Person that is resident or deemed to be a resident of Canada, or in the case of a Person that is a partnership, all partners of which are resident in Canada, in each case for the purposes of Part XIII of the Tax Act as at such date, are herein called "Canadian Held Notes", and all Notes that are not Canadian Held Notes are herein called "Non-Canadian Held Notes".

5.10. Title to Property; Leases.

The Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries have good and sufficient title to their respective Material properties, including all such properties reflected in the most recent audited balance sheet referred to in Section 5.5 or purported to have been acquired by the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary after said date (except as sold or otherwise disposed of in the ordinary course of business), in each case free and clear of Liens prohibited by this Agreement, except for those defects in title and Liens that, individually or in the aggregate, would not have a Material Adverse Effect. All Material leases are valid and subsisting and are in full force and effect in all material respects.

5.11. Licenses, Permits, Etc.

The Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries own or possess all licenses, permits, franchises, authorizations, patents, copyrights, proprietary software, service marks, trademarks and trade names, or rights thereto, that individually or in the aggregate are Material, without known conflict with the rights of others, except for those conflicts that, individually or in the aggregate, would not have a Material Adverse Effect.

5.12. Compliance with ERISA; Non-U.S. Plans.

(a) The Fund and each ERISA Affiliate have operated and administered each Plan in compliance with all applicable laws except for such instances of noncompliance as have not resulted in and could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. Neither the Fund nor any ERISA Affiliate has incurred any liability pursuant to Title I or IV of ERISA or the penalty or excise tax provisions of the Code relating to employee benefit plans (as defined in section 3 of ERISA), and no event, transaction or condition has occurred or exists that would reasonably be expected to result in the incurrence of any such liability by the Fund or any ERISA Affiliate, or in the imposition of any Lien on any of the rights, properties or assets of the Fund or any ERISA Affiliate, in either case pursuant to Title I or IV of ERISA or to such penalty or excise tax provisions or to section 401(a)(29) or 412 of the Code, other than such liabilities or Liens as would not be individually or in the aggregate Material.

(b) The present value of the aggregate benefit liabilities under each of the Plans (other than Multiemployer Plans), determined as of the end of such Plan's most recently ended plan year on the basis of the actuarial assumptions specified for funding purposes in such Plan's most recent actuarial valuation report, did not exceed the aggregate current value of the assets of such Plan allocable to such benefit liabilities. The present value of the accrued benefit liabilities (whether or not vested) under each Non-U.S. Plan that is funded, determined as of the end of the Fund's most recently ended fiscal year on the basis of reasonable actuarial assumptions, did not exceed the current value of the assets of such Non-U.S. Plan allocable to such benefit liabilities. The term "benefit liabilities" has the meaning specified in section 4001 of ERISA and the terms "current value" and "present value" have the meaning specified in section 3 of ERISA.

(c) The Fund and its ERISA Affiliates have not incurred (i) withdrawal liabilities (and are not subject to contingent withdrawal liabilities) under section 4201 or 4204 of ERISA in respect of Multiemployer Plans that individually or in the aggregate are Material or (ii) any obligation in connection with the termination of or withdrawal from any Non-U.S. Plan.

(d) The expected postretirement benefit obligation (determined as of the last day of the Fund's most recently ended fiscal year in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 106, without regard to liabilities attributable to continuation coverage mandated by section 4980B of the Code) of the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries is not Material.

(e) The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the issuance and sale of the Notes hereunder will not involve any transaction that is subject to the prohibitions of section 406 of ERISA or in connection with which a tax could be imposed pursuant to section 4975(c)(1)(A)-(D) of the Code. The representation by the Company to each Purchaser in the first sentence of this Section 5.12(e) is made in reliance upon and subject to the accuracy of such Purchaser's representation in Section 6.2 as to the sources of the funds used to pay the purchase price of the Notes to be purchased by such Purchaser.

(f) All Non-U.S. Plans have been established, operated, administered and maintained in compliance with all laws, regulations and orders applicable thereto, except where failure so to comply would not be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. All premiums, contributions and any other amounts required by applicable Non-U.S. Plan documents or applicable laws to be paid or accrued by the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries have been paid or accrued as required, except where failure so to pay or accrue would not be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

5.13. Private Offering by the Company.

(a) Neither the Company nor anyone acting on its behalf has offered the Notes or any similar securities for sale to, or solicited any offer to buy any of the same from, or otherwise approached or negotiated in respect thereof with, any person other than the Purchasers and not more than 27 other Institutional Investors, each of which has been offered the Notes at a private sale for investment. Neither the Company nor anyone acting on its behalf has taken, or will take, any action that would subject the issuance or sale of the Notes to the registration requirements of Section 5 of the Securities Act or to the registration requirements of any securities or blue sky laws of any applicable jurisdiction.

(b) In the case of each offer or sale of the Notes, no form of general solicitation or general advertising within the meaning of Rule 502(c) under the Securities Act was used in the United States by the Company nor anyone acting on its behalf, including advertisements, articles, notices or other communications published in any newspaper, magazine or similar medium or broadcast over television or radio, or any seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by any general solicitation or general advertising.

(c) No securities of the same class or series as the Notes have been issued and sold by the Company nor anyone acting on its behalf in the United States or to any U.S. person as such persons are defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act within the six-month period immediately prior to the date hereof.

5.14. Use of Proceeds; Margin Regulations.

The Company will apply or cause to be applied the proceeds of the sale of Notes to repay (but not permanently reduce) Debt under the Bank Facilities and other existing short-term Debt and for general corporate, trust or partnership purposes of the Fund taken as a whole. No part of the proceeds from the sale of the Notes hereunder will be used, directly or indirectly, for the purpose of buying or carrying any margin stock within the meaning of Regulation U of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (12 CFR 221), or for the purpose of buying or carrying or trading in any securities under such circumstances as to involve the Company in a violation of Regulation X of said Board (12 CFR 224) or to involve any broker or dealer in a violation of Regulation T of said Board (12 CFR 220). The Company does not own any margin stock. As used in this Section, the terms "margin stock" and "purpose of buying or carrying" shall have the meanings assigned to them in said Regulation U.

5.15. Existing Debt.

(a) Except as described therein, Schedule 5.15 sets forth a complete and correct list of all outstanding Debt of the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries (other than Debt owed to the Company, the Fund or another Restricted Subsidiary) as of July 31, 2007 (including a description of the obligors and obligees, principal amount outstanding and collateral therefor, if any, and Guarantee thereof, if any), since which date there has been no Material change in the amounts, interest rates, sinking funds, installment payments or maturities of the Debt of the Company, the Fund or its Restricted Subsidiaries. None of the Company, the Fund nor any Restricted Subsidiary is in default and no waiver of default is currently in effect, in the payment of any principal or interest on any Debt of the Company, the Fund or such Restricted Subsidiary and no event or condition exists with respect to any Debt of the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary the outstanding principal amount of which exceeds Cdn.$25,000,000 that would permit (or that with notice or the lapse of time, or both, would permit) one or more Persons to cause such Debt to become due and payable before its stated maturity or before its regularly scheduled dates of payment.

(b) None of the Company, the Fund nor any Restricted Subsidiary is a party to, or otherwise subject to any provision contained in, any instrument evidencing Debt of the Company, the Fund or such Restricted Subsidiary, any agreement relating thereto or any other agreement (including, but not limited to, its charter or other organizational document) which limits the amount of, or otherwise imposes restrictions on the incurring of, Debt of the Company, except as specifically indicated in Schedule 5.15.

5.16. Foreign Assets Control Regulations, Etc.

(a) Neither the sale of the Notes by the Company hereunder nor its use of the proceeds thereof will violate the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, or any of the foreign assets control regulations of the United States Treasury Department (31 CFR, Subtitle B, Chapter V, as amended) or any enabling legislation or executive order relating thereto.

(b) None of the Company, the Fund nor any Subsidiary (i) is a Person described or designated in the Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons List of the Office of Foreign Assets Control or in Section 1 of the Anti-Terrorism Order or (ii) knowingly engages in any dealings or transactions with any such Person. The Company, the Fund and its Subsidiaries are in compliance, in all material respects, with the USA Patriot Act.

(c) No part of the proceeds from the sale of the Notes hereunder will be used, directly or indirectly, for any payments to any governmental official or employee, political party, official of a political party, candidate for political office, or anyone else acting in an official capacity, in order to obtain, retain or direct business or obtain any improper advantage, in violation of the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977, as amended, assuming in all cases that such Act applies to the Company or the Fund.

5.17. Status under Certain Statutes.

None of the Company, the Fund nor any Restricted Subsidiary is required to register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, nor is subject to regulation under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 2005, as amended, the ICC Termination Act of 1995, as amended, or the Federal Power Act, as amended.

5.18. Ranking of Obligations.

The Company's payment obligations under this Agreement and the Notes will, upon issuance of the Notes, rank at least pari passu, without preference or priority, with its obligations under the Bank Facility and with all other unsecured and unsubordinated Debt of the Company. The Fund's payment obligations under the Fund Guarantee will, upon execution and delivery thereof in accordance with Section 9.12, rank at least pari passu, without preference or priority, with its obligations under its guarantee of the Bank Facility and with all other unsecured and unsubordinated Debt of the Fund. Each Subsidiary Guarantor's payment obligations under the Subsidiary Guarantee will, upon issuance thereof, rank at least pari passu, without preference or priority, with its obligations under, or under its guarantee of (as applicable) the Bank Facility and with all other unsecured and unsubordinated Debt of such Subsidiary Guarantor.

6. REPRESENTATIONS OF THE PURCHASERS.

6.1. Purchase for Investment.

Each Purchaser severally represents that it is purchasing the Securities for its own account or for one or more separate accounts maintained by such Purchaser or for the account of one or more pension or trust funds and not with a view to the distribution thereof, provided that the disposition of such Purchaser's or their property shall at all times be within such Purchaser's or their control. Each Purchaser understands that the Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act, and that the distribution of the Securities has not been qualified by a prospectus under Canadian federal or provincial securities laws, and may be transferred or resold (including by pledge or hypothecation) only if registered pursuant to the provisions of the Securities Act and a valid qualification under applicable state securities or "blue sky" laws, or if an exemption from registration or qualification is available, except under circumstances where neither such registration nor such an exemption is required by law, and may be transferred or resold (including by pledge or hypothecation) in Canada only in compliance with applicable Canadian federal and provincial securities laws and that the Company is not required to register the Securities or their distribution in the United States or Canada. Such Purchaser is knowledgeable, sophisticated and experienced in business and financial matters; it has previously invested in securities similar to the Securities (but issued by other Persons); and it (or, if it is purchasing for a managed account, such account on behalf of which such Purchaser is acting) is able to bear the economic risk of its investment in the Securities and is presently able to afford the complete loss of such investment; it (or, if it is purchasing for a managed account, such account on behalf of which such Purchaser is acting) is a resident of Canada or is an Institutional Accredited Investor; and it acknowledges it has been afforded sufficient access to information about the Company, the Fund and its Subsidiaries and the financial condition and business of each sufficient to enable it to evaluate its investment in the Securities.

If such Purchaser is a resident of Canada:

(a) it is purchasing the Notes as principal or for accounts on behalf of which its purchase is deemed to be as principal under applicable securities legislation, and it is an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in National Instrument 45-106;

(b) it acknowledges that the sale and delivery of the Notes to such Purchaser and (if applicable) to any purchaser on whose behalf such Purchaser is contracting hereunder, is conditional upon such sale being exempt from the prospectus and dealer registration requirements under applicable securities laws in the province of Canada in which such Purchaser is resident;

(c) it acknowledges that the Notes are subject to resale restrictions under applicable securities laws, and it has been advised to consult its own legal advisors with respect to applicable re sale restrictions; and

(d) it will comply with all relevant securities legislation concerning any resale of the Notes.

The Purchasers acknowledge that the Securities shall bear a legend substantially in the following form:

THIS SECURITY HAS NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE U.S. SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, OR ANY APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS AND MAY NOT BE SOLD OR TRANSFERRED WITHOUT COMPLIANCE WITH THE REGISTRATION OR QUALIFICATION PROVISIONS OF APPLICABLE U.S. FEDERAL AND STATE SECURITIES LAWS OR

APPLICABLE EXEMPTIONS THEREFROM. UNLESS PERMITTED UNDER CANADIAN SECURITIES LEGISLATION, THE HOLDER OF THIS SECURITY MUST NOT TRADE THE SECURITY BEFORE THE DATE THAT IS 4 MONTHS AND A DAY AFTER THE LATER OF (I) [DATE OF CLOSING], AND (II) THE DATE THE COMPANY BECAME A REPORTING ISSUER IN ANY PROVINCE OR TERRITORY OF CANADA.

6.2. Source of Funds.

Each Purchaser severally represents that at least one of the following statements is an accurate representation as to each source of funds (a "Source") to be used by such Purchaser to pay the purchase price of the Notes to be purchased by it hereunder:

(a) the Source is an "insurance company general account" (as the term is defined in the United States Department of Labor's Prohibited Transaction Exemption ("PTE") 95-60) in respect of which the reserves and liabilities (as defined by the annual statement for life insurance companies approved by the NAIC (the "NAIC Annual Statement")) for the general account contract(s) held by or on behalf of any employee benefit plan together with the amount of the reserves and liabilities for the general account contract(s) held by or on behalf of any other employee benefit plans maintained by the same employer (or affiliate thereof as defined in PTE 95-60) or by the same employee organization in the general account do not exceed 10% of the total reserves and liabilities of the general account (exclusive of separate account liabilities) plus surplus as set forth in the NAIC Annual Statement filed with such Purchaser's state of domicile; or

(b) the Source is a separate account that is maintained solely in connection with such Purchaser's fixed contractual obligations under which the amounts payable, or credited, to any employee benefit plan (or its related trust) that has any interest in such separate account (or to any participant or beneficiary of such plan (including any annuitant)) are not affected in any manner by the investment performance of the separate account; or

(c) the Source is either (i) an insurance company pooled separate account, within the meaning of PTE 90-1 or (ii) a bank collective investment fund, within the meaning of the PTE 91-38 and, except as disclosed by such Purchaser to the Company in writing pursuant to this clause (c), no employee benefit plan or group of plans maintained by the same employer or employee organization beneficially owns more than 10% of all assets allocated to such pooled separate account or collective investment fund; or

(d) the Source constitutes assets of an "investment fund" (within the meaning of Part V of PTE 84-14 (the "QPAM Exemption")) managed by a "qualified professional asset manager" or "QPAM" (within the meaning of Part V of the QPAM Exemption), no employee benefit plan's assets that are included in such investment fund, when combined with the assets of all other employee benefit plans established or maintained by the same employer or by an affiliate (within the meaning of Section V(c)(1) of the QPAM Exemption) of such employer or by the same employee organization and managed by such QPAM, exceed 20% of the total client assets managed by such QPAM, the conditions of Part I(c) and (g) of the QPAM Exemption are satisfied, as of the last day of its most recent calendar quarter, the QPAM does not own a 10% or more interest in the Company and no Person controlling or controlled by the QPAM (applying the definition of "control" in Section V(e) of the QPAM Exemption) owns a 20% or more interest in the Company (or less than 20% but greater than 10%, if such person exercises control over the management or policies of the Company by reason of its ownership interest) and (i) the identity of such QPAM and (ii) the names of all employee benefit plans whose assets are included in such investment fund have been disclosed to the Company in writing pursuant to this clause (d); or

(e) the Source constitutes assets of a "plan(s)" (within the meaning of Section IV of PTE 96-23 (the "INHAM Exemption")) managed by an "in-house asset manager" or "INHAM" (within the meaning of Part IV of the INHAM Exemption), the conditions of Part I(a), (g) and (h) of the INHAM Exemption are satisfied, neither the INHAM nor a person controlling or controlled by the INHAM (applying the definition of "control" in Section IV(d) of the INHAM Exemption) owns a 5% or more interest in the Company and (i) the identity of such INHAM and (ii) the name(s) of the employee benefit plan(s) whose assets constitute the Source have been disclosed to the Company in writing pursuant to this clause (e); or

(f) the Source is a governmental plan; or

(g) the Source is one or more employee benefit plans, or a separate account or trust fund comprised of one or more employee benefit plans, each of which has been identified to the Company in writing pursuant to this clause (g); or

(h) the Source does not include assets of any employee benefit plan, other than a plan exempt from the coverage of ERISA.

As used in this Section 6.2, the terms "employee benefit plan," "governmental plan," and "separate account" shall have the respective meanings assigned to such terms in section 3 of ERISA.

7. INFORMATION AS TO THE FUND.

7.1. Financial and Business Information

The Company shall deliver to each holder of Notes that is an Institutional Investor:

(a) Quarterly Statements - within 60 days after the end of each quarterly fiscal period in each fiscal year of the Fund (other than the last quarterly fiscal period of each such fiscal year), duplicate copies of unaudited consolidated financial statements for the Fund as at the end of such quarter setting forth in comparative form the figures for the corresponding periods in the previous fiscal year, all in reasonable detail, prepared in accordance with GAAP applicable to quarterly financial statements generally, and certified by a Senior Financial Officer of the Fund as fairly presenting, in all material respects, the financial position of the entities being reported on and their results of operations and cash flows, subject to changes resulting from year-end adjustments; provided that the Company shall be deemed to have made such delivery of such financial information if the Company shall have timely made such financial information available on "SEDAR" (at the date of this Agreement located on the worldwide web at: http//www.sedar.com) and on the Company's home page on the worldwide web (at the date of this Agreement located at: http//www.keyera.com) and shall have given each Purchaser prior notice (in accordance with the requirements of Section 19) of such availability on SEDAR and on the Company's home page specifically in connection with each delivery (such availability and notice thereof being referred to as "Electronic Delivery") and such certification is in accordance with Multilateral Instrument 52-109 (Certification of the Company's Annual and Interim Filings as adopted by the Canadian Securities Administrator);

(b) Annual Statements - within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year of the Fund, duplicate copies of audited consolidated financial statements of the Fund as at the end of such year, setting forth in comparative form the figures for the previous fiscal year, all in reasonable detail, prepared in accordance with GAAP, and accompanied by an opinion thereon of independent public accountants of recognized international standing, which opinion shall state that such financial statements present fairly, in all material respects the financial position of the entities being reported upon and their results of operations and cash flows and have been prepared in conformity with GAAP, and that the examination of such accountants in connection with such financial statements has been made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and that such audit provides a reasonable basis for such opinion in the circumstances; provided that the Company shall be deemed to have made such delivery of such financial information if the Company shall have timely made Electronic Delivery thereof;

(c) Alberta Securities Commission and Other Reports - promptly upon their becoming available, one copy of (i) each financial statement sent by the Fund to securities holders generally, and (ii) each regular or material periodic report, each registration statement (without exhibits except as expressly requested by such holder), and each prospectus and all amendments thereto filed by the Fund with any securities exchange, including the Alberta Securities Commission or the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission or any successor agency to any of the foregoing or any other Canadian or United States federal, state or provincial securities regulatory authority or with any Canadian provincial or United States stock exchange and of all press releases and other statements made available generally by the Fund to the public concerning developments that are Material; provided that the Company may make any delivery under clauses (i) or (ii) by Electronic Delivery;

(d) Notice of Default or Event of Default - promptly, and in any event within five Business Days after a Responsible Officer becoming aware of the existence of any Default or Event of Default or that any Person has given any notice or taken any action with respect to a claimed default hereunder or that any Person has given any notice or taken any action with respect to a claimed default of the type referred to in Section 11(f), a written notice specifying the nature and period of existence thereof and what action the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto;

(e) Employee Benefit Matters - promptly and in any event within five Business Days after a Responsible Officer becoming aware of any of the following, a written notice setting forth the nature thereof and the action, if any, that the Fund or an ERISA Affiliate proposes to take with respect thereto:

(i) with respect to any Plan, any reportable event, as defined in section 4043(c) of ERISA and the regulations thereunder, for which notice thereof has not been waived pursuant to such regulations as in effect on the date hereof; or

(ii) the taking by the PBGC of steps to institute, or the threatening by the PBGC of the institution of, proceedings under section 4042 of ERISA for the termination of, or the appointment of a trustee to administer, any Plan, or the receipt by the Fund or any ERISA Affiliate of a notice from a Multiemployer Plan that such action has been taken by the PBGC with respect to such Multiemployer Plan; or

(iii) any event, transaction or condition that could result in the incurrence of any liability by the Fund or any ERISA Affiliate pursuant to Title I or IV of ERISA or the penalty or excise tax provisions of the Code relating to employee benefit plans, or in the imposition of any Lien on any of the rights, properties or assets of the Fund or any ERISA Affiliate pursuant to Title I or IV of ERISA or such penalty or excise tax provisions, if such liability or Lien, taken together with any other such liabilities or Liens then existing, would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect; or

(iv) receipt of notice of the imposition of a Material financial penalty (which for this purpose shall mean any tax, penalty or other liability, whether by way of indemnity or otherwise) with respect to one or more Non-U.S. Plans;

(f) Notices from Governmental Authority - promptly, and in any event within 30 days of receipt thereof, copies of any notice to the Company, the Fund or a Restricted Subsidiary from any Governmental Authority relating to any order, ruling, statute or other law or regulation that could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;

(g) Unrestricted Subsidiaries – if and for so long as the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis (excluding Unrestricted Subsidiaries) contribute in the aggregate less than 90% of the consolidated revenue of the Fund and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, then the Company and the Fund shall be required, in addition to the requirements of and within the respective periods provided in Sections 7.1(a) and 7.1(b), to provide consolidated financial statements of the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis pursuant to Sections 7.1(a) and 7.1(b), without taking into consideration the financial statements pertaining to the Fund and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, together with a table reflecting eliminations or adjustments required to reconcile such financial statements to the financial statements of the Fund and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, with the effect and result that financial terms and definitions used in determining compliance with financial covenants herein contained shall be reported on the basis of financial statements pertaining to the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries only (excluding Unrestricted Subsidiaries), rather than the Fund and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis; and

(h) Requested Information - with reasonable promptness, such other data and information relating to the business, operations, affairs, financial condition, assets or properties of the Company, the Fund or any of its Restricted Subsidiaries or relating to the ability of the Company to perform its obligations under this Agreement and the Notes as from time to time may be reasonably requested by any such holder of Notes, including information readily available to the Company explaining the Company's financial statements if such information has been requested by the SVO in order to assign or maintain a designation of the Notes.

7.2. Officer's Certificate

Each set of financial statements delivered to a holder of Notes pursuant to Sections 7.1(a) or 7.1(b) hereof shall be accompanied by a certificate of a Senior Financial Officer of the Company setting forth (in addition to those matters stated in Sections 7.1(a) and 7.1(b)):

(a) Covenant Compliance - the information (including detailed calculations) required in order to establish whether the Company was in compliance with the requirements of Sections 10.5, 10.6 and 10.7 hereof during the quarterly or annual period covered by the statements then being furnished (including with respect to each such Section, where applicable, the calculations of the maximum or minimum amount, ratio or percentage, as the case may be, permissible under the terms of such Sections, and the calculation of the amount, ratio or percentage then in existence); and

(b) Event of Default - a statement that such officer has reviewed the relevant terms hereof and has made, or caused to be made, under his or her supervision, a review of the transactions and conditions of the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries from the beginning of the interim or annual period covered by the statements then being furnished to the date of the certificate and that such review shall not have disclosed the existence during such period of any condition or event that constitutes a Default or an Event of Default or, if any such condition or event existed or exists, specifying the nature and period of existence thereof and what action the Company shall have taken or proposes to take with respect thereto.

7.3. Visitation.

The Company shall permit the representatives of each holder of Notes that is an Institutional Investor:

(a) No Default — if no Default or Event of Default then exists, at the expense of such holder and upon reasonable prior notice to the Company, to visit the principal executive office of the Company, the Fund and the Restricted Subsidiaries to discuss the affairs, finances and accounts of the Company, the Fund and the Restricted Subsidiaries with the officers of the Company, the Fund and the Restricted Subsidiaries, and, with the consent of the Company (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld) to visit the other offices and properties of the Company, the Fund and the Restricted Subsidiaries, all at such reasonable times and during normal business hours (but in any event limited to once in each fiscal year); and

(b) Default — if a Default or Event of Default then exists, at the expense of the Company to visit and inspect any of the offices or properties of the Company, the Fund and the Restricted Subsidiaries, to examine all their respective books of account, records, reports and other papers, to make copies and extracts therefrom, and to discuss their respective affairs, finances and accounts with their respective officers and independent public accountants (and by this provision the Company authorizes said accountants to discuss the affairs, finances and accounts of the Company, the Fund and the Restricted Subsidiaries), all at such times and as often as may be requested.

7.4. Limitation on Disclosure Obligation.

The Company shall not be required to disclose the following information pursuant to Section 7.1(c), 7.1(h) or 7.3:

(a) information that the Company determines after consultation with counsel qualified to advise on such matters that, notwithstanding the confidentiality requirements of Section 21, it would be prohibited from disclosing by applicable law or regulations without making public disclosure thereof; or

(b) information that, notwithstanding the confidentiality requirements of Section 21, the Company is prohibited from disclosing by the terms of an obligation of confidentiality contained in any agreement with any non-Affiliate binding upon the Company and not entered into in contemplation of this clause 7.4(b), provided that the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain consent from the party in whose favor the obligation of confidentiality was made to permit the disclosure of the relevant information and provided further that the Company has received a written opinion of counsel confirming that disclosure of such information without consent from such other contractual party would constitute a breach of such agreement.

Promptly after a request therefor from any holder of Notes that is an Institutional Investor, the Company will provide such holder with a written opinion of counsel (which may be addressed to the Company) relied upon as to any requested information that the Company is prohibited from disclosing to such holder under circumstances described in this Section 7.4.

8. PAYMENT AND PREPAYMENT OF THE NOTES.

8.1. Maturity.

As provided therein, the entire unpaid principal balance of the Notes shall be due and payable on the stated maturity date thereof.

8.2. Optional Prepayments with Make-Whole Amount.

The Company may, at its option, upon notice as provided below, prepay at any time all, or from time to time any part of, the Notes then outstanding at 100% of the principal amount so prepaid, the Make-Whole Amount determined for the prepayment date with respect to such principal amount and any amount required to be paid by the Company pursuant to Section 8.8(c). The Company will give each holder of Notes written notice of each optional prepayment under this Section 8.2 not less than 30 days and not more than 60 days prior to the date fixed for such prepayment. Each such notice shall specify such date (which shall be a Business Day), the aggregate principal amount of the Notes to be prepaid on such date, the principal amount of each Note held by such holder to be prepaid (determined in accordance with Section 8.5), and the interest to be paid on the prepayment date with respect to such principal amount being prepaid, and shall be accompanied by a certificate of a Senior Financial Officer as to the estimated Make-Whole Amount due in connection with such prepayment (calculated as if the date of such notice were the date of the prepayment), setting forth the details of such computation. Two Business Days prior to such prepayment, the Company shall deliver to each holder of Notes a certificate of a Senior Financial Officer specifying the calculation of such Make-Whole Amount as of the specified prepayment date.

8.3. Prepayment for Tax Reasons Without Make-Whole Amount.

If at any time as a result of a Change in Tax Law (as defined below) the Company is or becomes obligated to make any Additional Payments (as defined below) in respect of any payment of interest on account of any of the Notes in an aggregate amount for all affected Notes equal to 5% or more of the aggregate amount of such interest payment on account of all of the Notes, the Company may give the holders of all affected Notes irrevocable written notice (each, a "Tax Prepayment Notice") of the prepayment of such affected Notes on a specified prepayment date (which shall be a Business Day not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days after the date of such notice) and the circumstances giving rise to the obligation of the Company to make any Additional Payments and the amount thereof and offering to prepay all of the affected Notes on the date of such prepayment at 100% of the principal amount so prepaid together with interest accrued thereon to the date of such prepayment plus any amount payable pursuant to Section 8.8(c) but, for certainty, without any Make-Whole Amount. Each holder of an affected Note that wishes to accept such prepayment in respect of all or any of the affected Notes held by it shall give written notice to that effect to the Company no more than 20 days after receipt of the Tax Prepayment Notice (each, a "Tax Prepayment Acceptance Notice"). The form of Tax Prepayment Acceptance Notice and a description in reasonable detail of the nature and date of the Change in Tax Law shall accompany the Tax Prepayment Notice. Failure to give a Tax Prepayment Acceptance Notice with respect to any affected Note within such 20 day period shall be deemed to be a rejection of the prepayment of such affected Note or affected Notes held by such holder, and shall operate as a permanent waiver of such holder's right to receive the Additional Payments arising as a result of the circumstances described in the Tax Prepayment Notice in respect of all future payments of interest on such Note or Notes (but not of such holder's right to receive any Additional Payments that arise out of circumstances not described in the Tax Prepayment Notice or which exceed the amount of the Additional Payment described in the Tax Prepayment Notice), which waiver shall be binding upon all subsequent transferees of such Notes. The principal amount of all Notes that are the subject of a Tax Prepayment Acceptance Notice together with interest accrued thereon to the date of such prepayment shall become due and payable on such prepayment date.

No prepayment of the Notes pursuant to this Section 8.3 shall affect the obligation of the Company to pay Additional Payments in respect of any payment made on or prior to the date of such prepayment. For purposes of this Section 8.3, any holder of more than one affected

Note may act separately with respect to each affected Note so held (with the effect that a holder of more than one affected Note may accept such offer with respect to one or more affected Notes so held and reject such offer with respect to one or more other affected Notes so held).

The Company may not offer to prepay or prepay Notes pursuant to this Section 8.3 (a) if a Default or Event of Default then exists, (b) until the Company shall have taken commercially reasonable steps to mitigate the requirement to make the related Additional Payments or (c) if the obligation to make such Additional Payments directly results or resulted from actions taken by the Company, the Fund or any Subsidiary (other than actions required to be taken under applicable law), and any Tax Prepayment Notice given pursuant to this Section 8.3 shall certify to the foregoing and describe such mitigation steps, if any.

For purposes of this Section 8.3: "Additional Payments" means additional amounts required to be paid to a holder of any Note pursuant to Section 13 by reason of a Change in Tax Law; and a "Change in Tax Law" means (individually or collectively with one or more prior changes) (i) an amendment to, or change in, any law, treaty, rule or regulation of Canada after the date of the Agreement, or an amendment to, or change in, an official interpretation or application of such law, treaty, rule or regulation after the date of the Agreement, which amendment or change is in force and continuing and meets the opinion and certification requirements described below or (ii) in the case of any other jurisdiction that becomes a Taxing Jurisdiction after the date of the Agreement, an amendment to, or change in, any law, treaty, rule or regulation of such jurisdiction, or an amendment to, or change in, an official interpretation or application of such law, treaty, rule or regulation, in any case after such jurisdiction shall have become a Taxing Jurisdiction, which amendment or change is in force and continuing and meets such opinion and certification requirements. No such amendment or change shall constitute a Change in Tax Law unless the same would in the opinion of the Company (which shall be evidenced by an Officer's Certificate of the Company and supported by a written opinion of counsel having recognized expertise in the field of taxation in the Taxing Jurisdiction, both of which shall be delivered to all holders of the Notes prior to or concurrently with the Tax Prepayment Notice in respect of such Change in Tax Law) affect the deduction or require the withholding of any Tax imposed by such Taxing Jurisdiction on any payment payable on the Notes.

8.4. Prepayment on Change of Control Without Make-Whole Amount.

The Company shall, within 5 Business Days after any Responsible Officer has knowledge of a Change of Control, give all holders of Notes written notice thereof (each, a "Change of Control Prepayment Notice"), which notice shall contain and constitute an offer to prepay the Notes on a specified prepayment date (which shall be a Business Day not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days after the date of such notice) at 100% of the principal amount so prepaid together with interest accrued thereon to the date of such prepayment plus any amount payable pursuant to Section 8.8(c) but, for certainty, without any Make-Whole Amount. Each holder of a Note that wishes to accept such prepayment in respect of all or any of the Notes held by it shall give written notice to that effect to the Company no more than 20 days after receipt of the Change of Control Prepayment Notice (each, a "Change of Control Prepayment Acceptance Notice"). The form of Change of Control Prepayment Acceptance Notice and a description in reasonable detail of the nature and date of the Change of Control shall accompany the Change of Control Prepayment Notice. Failure to give a Change of Control Prepayment Acceptance Notice with respect to any Note within such 20 day period shall be deemed to be a rejection of the prepayment of such Note or Notes held by such holder. The principal amount of all Notes that are the subject of a Change of Control Prepayment Acceptance Notice together with interest accrued thereon to the date of such prepayment shall become due and payable on such prepayment date.

For purposes of this Section 8.4, any holder of more than one Note may act separately with respect to each Note so held (with the effect that a holder of more than one Note may accept such offer with respect to one or more Notes so held and reject such offer with respect to one or more other Notes so held).

8.5. Allocation of Partial Prepayments.

In the case of each partial prepayment of the Notes pursuant to Section 8.2, (a) if a Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the principal amount of the Notes to be prepaid shall be allocated among all of the Notes (without distinction as to series) at the time outstanding in proportion, as nearly as practicable, to the respective unpaid principal amounts of all Notes not theretofore called for prepayment, and (b) if no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Company may, at its option, prepay one series of Notes without prepaying any other series, in proportion, as nearly as practicable, to the respective unpaid principal amounts of the Notes of the series being prepaid but not theretofore called for prepayment.

8.6. Maturity; Surrender, Etc.

In the case of each prepayment of Notes pursuant to this Section 8, the principal amount of each Note to be prepaid shall mature and become due and payable on the date fixed for such prepayment (which shall be a Business Day), together with interest on such principal amount accrued to such date and the applicable Make-Whole Amount, if any. From and after such date, unless the Company shall fail to pay such principal amount when so due and payable, together with the interest and Make-Whole Amount, if any, as aforesaid, interest on such principal amount shall cease to accrue. Any Note paid or prepaid in full shall be surrendered to the Company and cancelled and shall not be reissued, and no Note shall be issued in lieu of any prepaid principal amount of any Note.

8.7. Purchase of Notes.

The Company will not and will not permit any Affiliate to purchase, redeem, prepay or otherwise acquire, directly or indirectly, any of the outstanding series of Notes except (a) upon the payment or prepayment of the series of Notes in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Notes or (b) pursuant to an offer to purchase made by the Company or an Affiliate pro rata to the holders of all Notes of such series at the time outstanding upon the same terms and conditions. Any such offer shall provide each holder with sufficient information to enable it to make an informed decision with respect to such offer, and shall remain open for at least 5 Business Days. If the holders of more than 50% of the principal amount of the Notes then outstanding accept such offer, the Company shall promptly notify the remaining holders of such fact and the expiration date for the acceptance by holders of Notes of such offer shall be extended by the number of days necessary to give each such remaining holder at least 5 Business Days from its receipt of such notice to accept such offer. The Company will promptly cancel all Notes acquired by it or any Affiliate pursuant to any payment, prepayment or purchase of Notes pursuant to any provision of this Agreement and no Notes may be issued in substitution or exchange for any such Notes.

8.8. Make-Whole Amount.

(a) Non-Swapped Notes

The term "Make-Whole Amount" means, with respect to any Non-Swapped Notes, an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the Discounted Value of the Remaining Scheduled Payments with respect to the Called Principal of such Non-Swapped Note over the amount of such Called Principal, provided that the Make-Whole Amount may not in any event be less than zero. All payments of Make-Whole Amount in respect of any Non-Swapped Note shall be made in Canadian Dollars. For the purposes of determining the Make-Whole Amount with respect to any Non-Swapped Notes, the following terms have the following meanings:

"Applicable Percentage" means 0.50% (50 basis points).

"Called Principal" means, with respect to any Non-Swapped Note, the principal of such Non-Swapped Note that is to be prepaid pursuant to Section 8.2 or has become or is declared to be immediately due and payable pursuant to Section 12.1, as the context requires.

"Discounted Value" means, with respect to the Called Principal of any Non-Swapped Note, the amount obtained by discounting all Remaining Scheduled Payments with respect to such Called Principal from their respective scheduled due dates to the Settlement Date with respect to such Called Principal, in accordance with accepted financial practice and at a discount factor (applied on the same periodic basis as that on which interest on the Non-Swapped Note is payable) equal to the Reinvestment Yield with respect to such Called Principal.

"Non-Swapped Note" means any Note other than a Swapped Note.

"Reinvestment Yield" means, with respect to the Called Principal of any Non-Swapped Note, the sum of (x) the Applicable Percentage plus (y) (i) the yield to maturity, as of the third Business Day preceding the Settlement Date with respect to such Called Principal, as provided by two major Canadian investment dealers designated by the holders of at least 51% in principal amount of the Non-Swapped Notes (the "Designated Investment Dealers"), for a non callable Government of Canada bond in Canadian Dollars having a maturity equal to the Remaining Average Life of such Called Principal as of such Settlement Date, or (ii) if such yields are not reported as of such time or the yields reported as of such time are not ascertainable (including by way of interpolation), the average of the yields for such securities as determined by the Designated Investment Dealers.

In the case of each determination under the preceding paragraph, such implied yield will be determined, if necessary, by interpolating linearly between (1) the non-callable Government of Canada bond in Canadian Dollars with the maturity closest to and greater than the Remaining Average Life of such Called Principal and (2) the non-callable Government of Canada bond in Canadian Dollars with the maturity closest to and less than the Remaining Average Life of such Called Principal. The Reinvestment Yield shall be rounded to the number of decimal places as appears in the interest rate of such Non-Swapped Note.

"Remaining Average Life" means, with respect to any Called Principal of any Non-Swapped Note, the number of years (calculated to the nearest one-twelfth year) obtained by dividing (i) such Called Principal into (ii) the sum of the products obtained by multiplying (a) the principal component of each Remaining Scheduled Payment with respect to such Called Principal by (b) the number of years (calculated to the nearest one-twelfth year) that will elapse between the Settlement Date with respect to such Called Principal and the scheduled due date of such Remaining Scheduled Payment.

"Remaining Scheduled Payments" means, with respect to the Called Principal of any Non-Swapped Note, all payments of such Called Principal and interest thereon that would be due after the Settlement Date with respect to such Called Principal if no payment of such Called Principal were made prior to its scheduled due date, provided that if such Settlement Date is not a date on which an interest payment is due to be made under the terms of the Non-Swapped Notes, then the amount of the next succeeding scheduled interest payment will be reduced by the amount of interest accrued to such Settlement Date and required to be paid on such Settlement Date pursuant to Section 8.2 or Section 12.1.

"Settlement Date" means, with respect to the Called Principal of any Non-Swapped Note, the date on which such Called Principal is to be prepaid pursuant to Section 8.2 or has become or is declared to be immediately due and payable pursuant to Section 12.1, as the context requires.

(b) Swapped Notes

The term "Make-Whole Amount" means, with respect to any Swapped Note, an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the Swapped Note Discounted Value of the Swapped Note Remaining Scheduled Swap Payments with respect to the Swapped Note Called Notional Amount related to such Swapped Note over such Swapped Note Called Notional Amount, provided that the Make-Whole Amount may not in any event be less than zero. All payments of Make-Whole Amount in respect of any Swapped Note shall be made in U.S. Dollars. For the purposes of determining the Make-Whole Amount with respect to any Swapped Note, the following terms have the following meanings:

"Applicable Percentage" means 0.50% (50 basis points).

"Swap Agreement" means, with respect to any Swapped Note, (x) a transaction entered into pursuant to a cross currency swap agreement and annexes and schedules thereto (an "Initial Swap Transaction") that was entered into on an arm's length basis by the original purchaser of such Swapped Note (or any affiliate thereof) in connection with the execution of this Agreement and the issuance, sale and delivery of such Swapped Note, which relates to the scheduled payments by the Company of interest and principal on such Swapped Note and under which the holder of such Swapped Note will receive payments from the counterparty thereunder in U.S. Dollars and which is described on Schedule 8.8(b) and including any Initial Swap Transaction that has been assumed (without any waiver, amendment, deletion or replacement of any material economic term or provision thereof) by a holder of a Swapped Note in connection with a transfer of such Swapped Note and (y) any Replacement Swap Transaction; and "Replacement Swap Transaction" means, with respect to any Swapped Note, any transaction entered into pursuant to a cross-currency swap agreement and annexes and schedules thereto entered into with respect to such Swapped Note that is entered into on an arm's length basis in full or partial replacement (by amendment, modification or otherwise) of such Initial Swap Transaction (or any subsequent Replacement Swap Transaction) in a notional amount not exceeding the aggregate outstanding principal amount of such Swapped Note. Any holder that enters into, assumes or terminates an Initial Swap Transaction or Replacement Swap Transaction shall within a reasonable period of time following the request of the Company deliver to the Company a copy of the confirmation, assumption or termination related thereto.

"Swapped Note" means any Note that as of the date of the First Closing or Second Closing, as applicable, is subject to a Swap Agreement. A "Swapped Note" shall no longer be deemed a "Swapped Note" unless a Swap Agreement shall be in force in respect thereof.

"Swapped Note Called Notional Amount" means, with respect to any Swapped Note Called Principal of any Swapped Note, the payment in U.S. Dollars due to the holder of such Swapped Note under the terms of the Swap Agreement to which such holder is party, attributable to and in exchange for such Swapped Note Called Principal, assuming that such Swapped Note Called Principal were paid on its scheduled maturity date.

"Swapped Note Called Principal" means, with respect to any Swapped Note, the principal of such Swapped Note that is to be prepaid pursuant to Section 8.2 or has become or is declared to be immediately due and payable pursuant to Section 12.1, as the context requires.

"Swapped Note Discounted Value" means, with respect to the Swapped Note Called Notional Amount of any Swapped Note that is to be prepaid pursuant to Section 8.2 or has become or is declared to be immediately due and payable pursuant to Section 12.1, as the context requires, the amount obtained by discounting all Swapped Note Remaining Scheduled Swap Payments corresponding to the Swapped Note Called Notional Amount of such Swapped Note from their respective scheduled due dates to the Swapped Note Settlement Date with respect to such Swapped Note Called Notional Amount, in accordance with accepted financial practice and at a discount factor (applied on the same periodic basis as that on which interest on such Swapped Note is payable) equal to the Swapped Note Reinvestment Yield with respect to such Swapped Note Called Notional Amount.

"Swapped Note Reinvestment Yield" means, with respect to the Swapped Note Called Notional Amount of any Swapped Note, the sum of (x) the Applicable Percentage plus (y) the yield to maturity implied by (i) the yields reported as of 10:00 A.M. (New York City time) on the second Business Day preceding the Swapped Note Settlement Date with respect to such Swapped Note Called Notional Amount, on the display designated as "Page PX1" (or such other display as may replace Page PX1) on Bloomberg Financial Markets ("Bloomberg") for the most recently issued actively traded on the run U.S. Treasury securities having a maturity equal to the Swapped Note Remaining Average Life of such Swapped Note Called Notional Amount as of such Swapped Note Settlement Date, or (ii) if such yields are not reported as of such time or the yields reported as of such time are not ascertainable (including by way of interpolation), the Treasury Constant Maturity Series Yields reported, for the latest day for which such yields have been so reported as of the second Business Day preceding the Swapped Note Settlement Date with respect to such Swapped Note Called Notional Amount, in U.S. Federal Reserve Statistical Release H.15 (or any comparable successor publication) for U.S. Treasury securities having a constant maturity equal to the Swapped Note Remaining Average Life of such Swapped Note Called Notional Amount as of such Swapped Note Settlement Date. In the case of each determination under clause (i) or clause (ii), as the case may be, of this paragraph, such implied yield will be determined, if necessary, by (a) converting U.S. Treasury bill quotations to bond-equivalent yields in accordance with accepted financial practice and (b) interpolating linearly between (1) the applicable U.S. Treasury security with the maturity closest to and greater than the Swapped Note Remaining Average Life of such Swapped Note Called Notional Amount and (2) the applicable U.S. Treasury security with the maturity closest to and less than such Swapped Note Remaining Average Life. The Swapped Note Reinvestment Yield shall be rounded to the number of decimal places as appears in the interest rate of the applicable Swapped Note.

"Swapped Note Remaining Average Life" means, with respect to any Swapped Note Called Notional Amount, the number of years (calculated to the nearest one-twelfth year) obtained by dividing (x) such Swapped Note Called Notional Amount into (y) the sum of the products obtained by multiplying (1) the principal component of each Swapped Note Remaining Scheduled Swap Payment with respect to such Swapped Note Called Notional Amount by (2) the number of years (calculated to the nearest one-twelfth year) that will elapse between the Swapped Note Settlement Date with respect to such Swapped Note Called Notional Amount and the scheduled due date of such Swapped Note Remaining Scheduled Payment.

"Swapped Note Remaining Scheduled Swap Payments" means, with respect to the Swapped Note Called Notional Amount relating to any Swapped Note, the payments in U.S. Dollars due to the holder of such Swapped Note under the terms of the Swap Agreement to which such holder is party which correspond to all payments of the Swapped Note Called Principal of such Swapped Note corresponding to such Swapped Note Called Notional Amount and interest on such Swapped Note Called Principal (other than that portion of the payment due under such Swap Agreement corresponding to the interest accrued on the Swapped Note Called Principal to the Swapped Note Settlement Date) that would be due after the Swapped Note Settlement Date in respect of such Swapped Note Called Notional Amount assuming that no payment of such Swapped Note Called Principal were made prior to its scheduled maturity, provided that if such Swapped Note Settlement Date is not a date on which an interest payment is due to be made under the terms of such Swapped Note, then the amount of the next succeeding scheduled interest payment will be reduced by the amount of interest accrued to such Swapped Note Settlement Date and required to be paid on such Swapped Note Settlement Date pursuant to Section 8.2 or Section 12.1.

"Swapped Note Settlement Date" means, with respect to the Swapped Note Called Notional Amount of any Swapped Note Called Principal of any Swapped Note, the date on which such Swapped Note Called Principal is to be prepaid pursuant to Section 8.2 or has become or is declared to be immediately due and payable pursuant to Section 12.1, as the context requires.

(c) Swap Breakage

If any Swapped Note is prepaid pursuant to Section 8.2, 8.3, 8.4 or 10.9 or has become or is declared to be immediately due and payable pursuant to Section 12.1, then (a) any resulting Net Loss in connection therewith shall be reimbursed to the holder of such Swapped Note by the Company in U.S. Dollars upon any such prepayment or repayment of such Swapped Note and (b) any resulting Net Gain in connection therewith shall be deducted (i) from the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or any principal or interest to be paid to the holder of such Swapped Note by the Company upon any such prepayment of such Swapped Note pursuant to Section 8.2, 8.3, 8.4 or 10.9 or (ii) from the Make-Whole Amount, if any, to be paid to the holder of such Swapped Note by the Company upon any such repayment of such Swapped Note pursuant to Section 12.1, provided that, in either case, the Make-Whole Amount in respect of such Swapped Note may not be less than zero. Each holder of a Swapped Note shall be responsible for calculating its own Net Loss or Net Gain, as the case may be, and Swap Breakage Amount in U.S. Dollars upon the prepayment or repayment of all or any portion of such Swapped Note, and such calculations as reported to the Company in reasonable detail shall be binding on the Company absent demonstrable error.

As used in this Section 8.8 with respect to any Swapped Note that is prepaid or accelerated, the following terms have the following meanings:

"Net Loss" means the amount, if any, by which the Swapped Note Called Notional Amount exceeds the sum of (x) the Swapped Note Called Principal (for purposes of this Section 8.8(c), the reference to Section 8.2 in the definition of "Swapped Note Called Notional Amount" shall also include Sections 8.3, 8.4 and 10.9) plus (where the Swap Breakage Amount is positive) or minus (where the Swap Breakage Amount is negative) (y) the Swap Breakage Amount received (or paid) by the holder of such Swapped Note; and "Net Gain" means the amount, if any, by which the Swapped Note Called Notional Amount is exceeded by the sum of (x) the Swapped Note Called Principal plus (where the Swap Breakage Amount is positive) or minus (where the Swap Breakage Amount is negative) (y) the Swap Breakage Amount received (or paid) by the holder of such Swapped Note. For purposes of any determination of any "Net Loss" or "Net Gain," the Swapped Note Called Principal shall be determined by the holder of the affected Swapped Note by converting Canadian Dollars into U.S. Dollars at the current Canadian Dollar/U.S. Dollar exchange rate, as determined as of 10:00 A.M. (New York City time) on the day such Swapped Note is prepaid or accelerated as indicated on the applicable screen of Bloomberg and any such calculation shall be reported to the Company in reasonable detail and shall be binding on the Company absent demonstrable error.

"Swap Breakage Amount" means, with respect to the Swap Agreement associated with any Swapped Note, in determining the Net Loss or Net Gain, the amount that would be received (in which case the Swap Breakage Amount shall be positive) or paid (in which case the Swap Breakage Amount shall be negative) by the holder of such Swapped Note as if all or a portion of such Swap Agreement equal to the Swapped Note Called Principal Amount had terminated due to an event of default or an early termination (as applies under the associated Swap Agreement), which shall be an amount equal to the "Settlement Amount" (or equivalent term) as defined by the International Swap and Derivatives Association, Inc.'s ("ISDA") standard 1992 Multicurrency-Cross Border Master Agreement, the ISDA 2002 Master Agreement, or any ISDA agreement which is a successor to either of the foregoing (the "Master Agreement"), in each case, as applies under the associated Swap Agreement; provided, however, that if such holder (or its predecessor in interest with respect to such Swapped Note) was, but is not at the time, a party to an Initial Swap Transaction in respect of such Swapped Note but is a party to a Replacement Swap Transaction in respect of such Swapped Note, then the Swap Breakage Amount shall mean the lesser of (x) the gain or loss (if any) which would have been received or incurred (by payment, through off-set or netting or otherwise) by the holder of such Swapped Note under the terms of the Initial Swap Transaction (if any) in respect of such Swapped Note to which such holder (or any affiliate thereof) was a party (or if such holder was never a party to an Initial Swap Transaction in respect of such Swapped Note, then the Initial Swap Transaction in respect of such Swapped Note to which the applicable predecessor in interest to such holder as a holder of such Swapped Note was a party) and which would have arisen as a result of the payment of the Swapped Note Called Principal on the Swapped Note Settlement Date and (y) the gain or loss (if any) actually received or incurred by the holder of such Swapped Note, in connection with the payment of such Swapped Note Called Principal on the Swapped Note Settlement Date, under the terms of the Replacement Swap Transaction to which such holder (or any affiliate thereof) is a party. The holder of such Swapped Note will make all calculations related to the Swap Breakage Amount in good faith and in accordance with its customary practices for calculating such amounts under the Master Agreement pursuant to which such Swap Agreement shall have been entered into and assuming for the purpose of such calculation that there are no other transactions entered into pursuant to such Master Agreement (other than such Swap Agreement).

Amounts payable pursuant to this Section 8.8(c) shall be payable in U.S. Dollars.

9. AFFIRMATIVE COVENANTS.

The Company and the Fund jointly and severally covenant that so long as any of the Notes are outstanding:

9.1. Compliance with Law.

Without limiting Section 10.3, the Company and the Fund will, and will cause each Restricted Subsidiary to, comply with all laws, ordinances or governmental rules or regulations to which each of them is subject, including, without limitation, ERISA, the USA Patriot Act and Environmental Laws, and will obtain and maintain in effect all licenses, certificates, permits, franchises and other governmental authorizations necessary to the ownership of their respective properties or to the conduct of their respective businesses, in each case to the extent necessary to ensure that non-compliance with such laws, ordinances or governmental rules or regulations or failures to obtain or maintain in effect such licenses, certificates, permits, franchises and other governmental authorizations would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

9.2. Insurance.

The Company and the Fund will, and will cause each Restricted Subsidiary to, maintain, with financially sound and reputable insurers, insurance with respect to their respective properties and businesses against such casualties and contingencies, of such types, on such terms and in such amounts (including deductibles, co-insurance and self-insurance, if adequate reserves are maintained with respect thereto) as is customary in the case of entities of established reputations engaged in the same or a similar business and similarly situated.

9.3. Maintenance of Properties.

The Company and the Fund will, and will cause each Restricted Subsidiary to, maintain and keep, or cause to be maintained and kept, their respective properties in good repair, working order and condition (other than ordinary wear and tear), so that the business carried on in connection therewith may be properly conducted at all times, provided that this Section shall not prevent the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary from discontinuing the operation and the maintenance of any of its properties if such discontinuance is desirable in the conduct of its business and the Fund has concluded that such discontinuance would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

9.4. Payment of Taxes.

The Company will, and the Fund will, and will cause each Restricted Subsidiary to, file all tax returns required to be filed in any jurisdiction and to pay and discharge all taxes shown to be due and payable on such returns and all other taxes, assessments, governmental charges or levies payable by any of them to the extent the same have become due and payable and before they have become delinquent, provided that none of the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary need pay any such tax, assessment, charge or levy if (i) the amount, applicability or validity thereof is contested by the Company, the Fund or such Restricted Subsidiary on a timely basis in good faith and in appropriate proceedings, and the Company, the Fund or such Restricted Subsidiary has established adequate reserves therefor in accordance with GAAP on the books of the Company, the Fund or such Restricted Subsidiary or (ii) the nonpayment of all such taxes, assessments, charges and levies in the aggregate would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

9.5. Corporate, Partnership or Trust Existence, Etc.

Subject to Section 10.2 and 23.1, the Company will at all times preserve and keep in full force and effect its corporate existence. Subject to Sections 10.2, 10.9 and 23.1 the Fund will, and will cause the Restricted Subsidiaries to, at all times preserve and keep in full force and effect the corporate, partnership or trust existence of the Fund and each of its Restricted Subsidiaries (unless merged into the Fund, the Company or a Wholly-Owned Restricted Subsidiary) and all rights and franchises of the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries unless, in the good faith judgment of the Fund, the termination of or failure to preserve and keep in full force and effect such corporate existence, right or franchise would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect.

9.6. Books and Records.

The Company and the Fund will, and will cause each Restricted Subsidiary to, maintain proper books of record and account in conformity with GAAP and all applicable requirements of any Governmental Authority having legal or regulatory jurisdiction over the Company, the Fund or such Subsidiary, as the case may be.

9.7. Priority of Obligations.

The Company will ensure that its payment obligations under this Agreement and the Notes will at all times rank at least pari passu, without preference or priority, with its obligations under the Bank Facility and with all other unsecured and unsubordinated Debt of the Company. The Fund will ensure that its payment obligations under the Fund Guarantee will upon execution and delivery thereof in accordance with Section 9.12, at all times rank at least pari passu, without preference or priority, with its obligations under the Bank Facility and with all other unsecured and unsubordinated Debt of the Fund. The Company and the Fund will further ensure that each Subsidiary Guarantor's payment obligations under the Subsidiary Guarantee will at all times rank at least pari passu, without preference or priority, with its obligations under the Bank Facility and with all other unsecured and unsubordinated Debt of such Subsidiary Guarantor.

9.8. Securities Filings.

The Company and the Fund will within 10 days of the First Closing and Second Closing, as applicable, file a report of the sale of its Notes to the respective Purchasers prepared on Form 45-106F1 under National Instrument 45-106 (such report to be executed in accordance with that instrument) and any other forms required to be filed by the securities regulatory authorities of the provinces of Canada in connection with the issuance of such Notes, together with payment of the prescribed fee in connection therewith.

9.9. Subsidiary Guarantee.

(a) The Company and the Fund will cause each Subsidiary of the Fund that becomes a borrower or a guarantor under a Bank Facility to concurrently therewith enter into and become a party to a Subsidiary Guarantee, and within three Business Days thereafter, to deliver to the holders the following items:

(i) a Subsidiary Guarantee;

(ii) a certificate signed by the President, a Vice President or another authorized officer of such Subsidiary making representations and warranties to the effect of those contained in Sections 5.1(a), 5.2(a), 5.6 and 5.7 but with respect to such Subsidiary and its Subsidiary Guarantee;

(iii) such documents and evidence with respect to such Subsidiary as the Required Holders may reasonably request in order to establish the existence and good standing of such Subsidiary and the authorization of the transactions contemplated by the Subsidiary Guarantee; and

(iv) an opinion of independent counsel satisfactory to the Required Holders to the effect that the Subsidiary Guarantee has been duly authorized, executed and delivered and constitutes the legal, valid and binding contract and agreement of such Subsidiary enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject to customary exceptions and assumptions.

(b) If any Subsidiary Guarantor (other than the Partnership) is not or ceases to be a borrower or a guarantor under any Bank Facility, or if the Fund directly or indirectly sells or otherwise disposes of its entire interest in such Subsidiary Guarantor as permitted by this Agreement, or if such Subsidiary Guarantor disposes of all of its assets as permitted by this Agreement, then the Company may require the holders of Notes to release any Subsidiary Guarantee of such Subsidiary upon giving 5 Business Days written notice thereof to the holders of Notes together with confirmation of the foregoing reasonably satisfactory to the holders of Notes, whereupon such Subsidiary shall cease to be a Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder, provided that:

(i) at the time of such notice and the effective date of such release as provided below, and immediately after giving effect thereto, and to such Subsidiary ceasing to be a Subsidiary Guarantor, no Default or Event of Default exists (including, without limitation, under Sections 10.6 and 10.7, with any calculation of compliance therewith to be made as of the date of determination hereunder) or would exist, and the Company could incur at least an additional Cdn. $1.00 of Debt under Section 10.5; and

(ii) after giving effect thereto, and to such Subsidiary ceasing to be a Subsidiary Guarantor, all Debt that thereby becomes Priority Debt shall be permitted by Section 10.7 as if such Debt were incurred on the date of such release, and all Liens that immediately prior to such release are permitted pursuant to clause (s) of the definition of "Permitted Encumbrances" herein shall continue to be permitted immediately after such release, notwithstanding that any such Debt or Lien may have existed at on the date of this Agreement, and the Company shall have provided an Officer's Certificate to both such effects. The Subsidiary Guarantee of such Subsidiary shall be deemed to be released and terminated as at the expiry of such 5 Business Day period (unless sooner agreed by all holders of Notes).

(c) The Fund agrees that it will not, nor will it permit any Subsidiary or Affiliate which it controls, to directly or indirectly pay or cause to be paid any compensation or remuneration, whether by way of supplemental or additional interest, fee or otherwise or the delivery of any credit support as consideration for or as an inducement to obtain any release or discharge of any Subsidiary Guarantor in respect of any Debt due and owing to such Person under the Bank Facility, unless such compensation or remuneration is concurrently paid or delivered, on the same terms, ratably to the holders of the Notes.

9.10. Subordination Agreements; Release of Subordination.

(a) The Company and the Fund will cause each Subsidiary of the Fund (together with its successors and assigns, a "Subordinating Person") that hereafter subordinates any obligations owed to such Subordinating Person by any Subsidiary of the Fund in favour of any obligations owed by such Subsidiary under a Bank Facility, to concurrently therewith enter into the Subordination Agreement in favour of the holders of the Notes, and within three Business Days thereafter, the Company shall deliver to each holder of a Note the following:

(i) such Subordination Agreement (or an addition agreement to an existing Subordination Agreement);

(ii) a certificate signed by the President, the Chief Financial Officer, a Vice President or another authorized officer of such Subsidiary making representations and warranties to the effect of those contained in Sections 5.1, 5.2, 5.6 and 5.7, but with respect to such Subordinating Person and its Subordination Agreement;

(iii) such documents and evidence with respect to such Subordinating Person as the Required Holders may reasonably request in order to establish the existence and good standing of such Subordinating Person and the authorization of the transactions contemplated by its subordination agreement; and

(iv) an opinion of independent counsel satisfactory to the Required Holders, acting reasonably, to the effect that such subordination agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered and constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of such Subordinating Person enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as enforcement of such terms may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and by general equitable principles.

(b) If any Subordinating Person is not or ceases to be a subordinating party under a Bank Facility, then the Company may require the holders of Notes to release that Subordinating Person from its Subordination Agreement upon giving 5 Business Days written notice thereof to the holders of Notes together with confirmation of the foregoing reasonably satisfactory to the holders of Notes, provided that at the time of such notice and the effective date of such release as provided below, and immediately after giving effect thereto, and to such Person ceasing to be a Subordinating Person, no Default or Event of Default exists or would exist, and the Company could incur at least an additional Cdn. $1.00 of Debt under Section 10.5, and the Company shall have provided an Officer's Certificate to both such effects at the time it provides such notice with the information (including detailed calculations) required in order to establish same. The Subordinating Person shall be deemed to be released from such Subordination Agreement as at the expiry of such 5 Business Day period (unless sooner agreed by all holders of Notes).

(c) The Fund agrees that it will not, nor will it permit any Subsidiary or Affiliate which it controls, to directly or indirectly pay or cause to be paid any compensation or remuneration, whether by way of supplemental or additional interest, fee or otherwise or the delivery of any credit support as consideration for or as an inducement to obtain any release or discharge of any Subordinating Person in respect of any Debt due and owing to such Person under the Bank Facility, unless such compensation or remuneration is concurrently paid or delivered, on the same terms, ratably to the holders of the Notes.

9.11. Designation of Restricted Subsidiaries

The Company may designate or redesignate any Unrestricted Subsidiary as a Restricted Subsidiary and may designate or redesignate any Restricted Subsidiary as an Unrestricted Subsidiary by providing to the holders of Notes, a Notice of Designation in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 9.11; provided that:

(a) immediately after giving effect thereto, no Default or Event of Default would exist (including, without limitation, under Sections 10.6 and 10.7, with any calculation of compliance therewith to be made as of the date of determination hereunder) and the Company could incur at least an additional Cdn.$1.00 of Debt under Section 10.5;

(b) in the case of the designation of a Restricted Subsidiary as an Unrestricted Subsidiary and after giving effect thereto, such Unrestricted Subsidiary so designated shall not, directly or indirectly, own any Capital Stock of the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary;

(c) in the case of the designation of an Unrestricted Subsidiary as a Restricted Subsidiary and after giving effect thereto, all existing Liens and Debt of such Restricted Subsidiary so designated shall be permitted within the applicable limitations of Sections 10.4,

10.5 and 10.7 notwithstanding that any such Debt or Lien may have existed as of the date of this Agreement;

(d) any Restricted Subsidiary that was previously designated as an Unrestricted Subsidiary shall not be redesignated as a Restricted Subsidiary if a Default or Event of Default exists immediately prior to such designation; and

(e) any Unrestricted Subsidiary that was previously designated as an Restricted Subsidiary shall not be redesignated as a Unrestricted Subsidiary if a Default or Event of Default exists immediately prior to such designation.

9.12. Reorganization.

(a) The Company and the Fund agree that:

(i) with respect to each transaction forming part of the Reorganization to which Section 10.2 applies, the Company and the Fund shall be in compliance with its obligations hereunder;

(ii) the Fund shall deliver to each holder on or prior to the effective time of the Reorganization (or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable, but effective as of the effective date of the Reorganization):

(A) the Fund Guarantee,

(B) a certificate signed by the President, a Vice President or another authorized officer of the Administrator making representations and warranties to the effect of those contained in Sections 5.1(a), 5.2(a), 5.6 and 5.7 but with respect to the Fund and the Fund Guarantee,

(C) such documents and evidence with respect to the Fund as the Required Holders may reasonably request in order to establish the existence and good standing of the Fund and the authorization of the transactions contemplated by the Fund Guarantee, and

(D) an opinion of independent counsel satisfactory to the Required Holders to the effect that the Fund Guarantee has been duly authorized, executed and delivered and constitutes the legal, valid and binding contract and agreement of the Fund enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject to customary exceptions and assumptions;

(iii) the Company and the Fund shall deliver to each holder on or prior to the effective time of the Reorganization (or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable, but effective as of the effective date of the Reorganization) copies of:

(A) any amendments (including replacements) to the Bank Facility reflecting the impact of the Reorganization, and

(B) any amendments to the Note Purchase Agreements dated as of August 26, 2003 and September 30, 2004 reflecting the impact of the Reorganization; and

(iv) the Company and the Fund shall deliver to each holder on or prior to the effective time of the Reorganization (or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable, but effective as of the effective date of the Reorganization) a revised Schedule 5.4 to this Agreement containing a complete and correct list of the Fund's Subsidiaries after giving effect to the Reorganization, showing, as to each Subsidiary, the correct name thereof, the jurisdiction of its organization, and the percentage of shares of each class of its capital stock or similar equity interests outstanding owned by the Fund and each other Subsidiary;

(v) no adverse taxable event or consequence not covered by the indemnity in Section 13 will result to any holder solely by reason of the Reorganization; and

(vi) at the time of the Reorganization and immediately after giving effect thereto, no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing.

(b) After giving effect to the Reorganization the delivery of guarantees hereunder and under the Bank Facility, the 2003 Note Purchase Agreements and the 2004 Note Purchase Agreements in connection therewith, the Company and the Fund Covenant and agree that:

(i) the obligations of the successor to the Company under the Notes shall rank pari passu in right of payment with the obligations of the successor to the Company under the notes issued under the 2003 Note Purchase Agreements and the 2004 Note Purchase Agreements and the obligations of the successor to the Company under the Bank Facility;

(ii) the obligations of the successor to the Partnership under the Subsidiary Guarantee shall rank pari passu in right of payment with the obligations of the successor to the Partnership under the Bank Facility, the 2003 Note Purchase Agreements and the 2004 Note Purchase Agreements;

(iii) the obligations of each other Subsidiary Guarantor under the Subsidiary Guarantee shall rank pari passu in right of payment with the obligations of such Subsidiary Guarantors under the guarantees delivered by such Subsidiary Guarantors under the Bank Facility, the 2003 Note Purchase Agreements and the 2004 Note Purchase Agreements; and

(iv) the obligations of the Fund under the Fund Guarantee shall rank pari passu in right of payment with the obligations of the Fund under the guarantees delivered by the Fund under the Bank Facility, the 2003 Note Purchase Agreements and the 2004 Note Purchase Agreements.

(c) Effective as at the effective time of the Reorganization (or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable, but effective as of the effective date of the Reorganization) the holders agree to execute and deliver such documents (concurrently with delivery of documents of similar effect by the lenders under the Bank Facility and the holders of the notes under the 2003 Note Purchase Agreements and the 2004 Note Purchase Agreements) as are required to terminate the Collateral Agency Agreement and the Subordination Agreements, provided that simultaneously therewith, the lenders under the Bank Facility (or an authorized agent on their behalf), the holders of notes under the 2003 Note Purchase Agreements and the 2004 Note Purchase Agreements and the holders of the Notes enter into the Sharing Agreement in replacement of the Collateral Agency Agreement.

10. NEGATIVE COVENANTS.

The Company and the Fund jointly and severally covenant that so long as any of the Notes are outstanding:

10.1. Transactions with Affiliates.

The Company and the Fund will not, and will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, enter into directly or indirectly any Material transaction or Material group of related transactions (including without limitation the purchase, lease, sale or exchange of properties of any kind or the rendering of any service) with any Affiliate (other than the Company, the Fund or any Subsidiary of the Fund), except pursuant to the reasonable requirements of the Company's or such Subsidiary's business and upon fair and reasonable terms no less favorable to the Company, the Fund or such Restricted Subsidiary than would be obtainable in a comparable arm's-length transaction with a Person not an Affiliate.

10.2. Merger, Consolidation, Etc.

The Company and the Fund will not, and will not permit any Subsidiary Guarantor to, amalgamate, consolidate with or merge with any other Person or convey, transfer or lease all or substantially all of its assets in a single transaction or series of transactions to any Person unless:

(a) the successor formed by such amalgamation or consolidation or the survivor of such merger or the Person that acquires by conveyance, transfer or lease all or substantially all of the assets of the Company, the Fund or the Subsidiary Guarantor as an entirety, as the case may be, shall be a solvent corporation, partnership or trust organized and existing under the laws of the United States or any State thereof (including the District of Columbia), or Canada or any Province or Territory thereof (or in addition in the case of a Subsidiary Guarantor, its jurisdiction of formation immediately prior to such transaction) and (i) such corporation, partnership or trust shall have executed and delivered to each holder of any Notes its assumption of the due and punctual performance and observance of each covenant and condition of the Note Documents to which its predecessor was a party (unless such assumption occurs by operation of law in the applicable jurisdiction) (ii) such corporation, partnership or trust shall have caused to be delivered to each holder of any Notes an opinion of recognized independent counsel, or other independent counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Required Holders, to the effect that all agreements or instruments effecting such assumption are enforceable in accordance with their terms and comply with the terms hereof (or, if such assumption occurs by operation of law, an opinion to the effect) and (iii) each of the Subsidiary Guarantors and the Fund (in the case of the Fund, if at the time the Fund Guarantee shall have been delivered) shall have confirmed in writing all of its obligations and agreements contained in the Subsidiary Guarantee or Fund Guarantee, as applicable; and

(b) immediately before and immediately after giving effect to such transaction, no Default or Event of Default (including, without limitation, under Section 10.6 and 10.7, with any calculation of compliance therewith to be made as of the date of determination hereunder) shall have occurred and be continuing and the Company could incur at least an additional Cdn. $1.00 of Debt under Section 10.5.

For certainty, the holders expressly consent to the transactions to be effected pursuant to the Reorganization provided that the requirements in Sections 10.2(a) and 10.2(b) are satisfied.

No such conveyance, transfer or lease of substantially all of the assets of the Company, the Fund or Subsidiary Guarantor shall have the effect of releasing it or any other Person that shall theretofore have become such in the manner prescribed in this Section 10.2 from its liability under Note Documents to which it was a party.

10.3. Terrorism Sanctions Regulations.

The Company and the Fund will not, and will not permit any Subsidiary to, (a) become a Person described or designated in the Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons List of the Office of Foreign Assets Control or in Section 1 of the Anti-Terrorism Order or (b) knowingly engage in any dealings or transactions with any such Person.

10.4. Limitation on Liens.

Except for Permitted Encumbrances, the Company and the Fund will not, and will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly create, incur, assume or permit to exist (upon the happening of a contingency or otherwise) any Lien on or with respect to any property or asset (including any document or instrument in respect of goods or accounts receivable) of the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiaries, whether now owned or held or hereafter acquired, or upon any income or profits therefrom, or transfer any property for the purpose of subjecting the same to the payment of obligations in priority to the payment of its or their general creditors, or acquire or agree to acquire, or permit the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary to acquire, any property or assets upon conditional sales agreements or other title retention devices unless the Company makes or causes to be made effective provision whereby the Notes will be equally and rateably secured with any and all other obligations thereby secured, such security to be pursuant to agreements and documents reasonably satisfactory to the Required Holders and, in any such case, the Notes shall have the benefit, to the fullest extent that, and with such priority as, the holders of the Notes may be entitled under applicable law, of an equitable Lien on such property.

10.5. Limitation on Debt Incurrence.

The Company and the Fund will not, and will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, create, incur or assume any Debt if the ratio of Consolidated Debt (determined after giving effect to such creation, incurrence or assumption) to Consolidated EBITDA for the most recently completed period of four consecutive fiscal quarters (ending on the date of determination and taken as a single accounting period) would exceed 5.0:1.0.

10.6. Minimum Interest Coverage.

The Company and the Fund will not permit, as of the end of each fiscal quarter of the Fund, the ratio of Consolidated EBITDA to Consolidated Interest Charges for each period of four consecutive fiscal quarters (ending on the date of determination and taken as a single accounting period) to be less than 2.0 to 1.0.

10.7. Priority Debt.

The Company and the Fund will not permit Priority Debt to exceed 15% of Consolidated Total Assets as at the end of the most recently completed fiscal quarter of the Fund.

10.8. Prohibited Distributions.

The Company and the Fund will not, and will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, declare, authorize, make or give effect to any Distribution if at the time of doing so a Default or Event of Default exists (including, without limitation, under Sections 10.6 and 10.7, with any calculation of compliance therewith to be made as of the date of determination hereunder) and the Company could incur at least an additional Cdn.$1.00 of Debt under Section 10.5, or if making such Distribution would result in the occurrence of such a Default or Event of Default.

10.9. Sale of Assets.

Except as permitted by Section 10.2, the Company and the Fund will not, and will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, sell, lease, transfer or otherwise dispose of (collectively a "Disposition"), any assets, in one or a series of transactions, to any Person, other than:

(a) Dispositions in the ordinary course of business;

(b) Dispositions to the Company, the Fund or a Wholly-Owned Restricted Subsidiary;

(c) Dispositions not otherwise permitted by Sections 10.9(a) or 10.9(b) provided that (i) the aggregate net book value of all assets so disposed of in any fiscal year pursuant to this Section 10.9(c) does not exceed 15% of Consolidated Total Assets as of the last day of the most recently ended fiscal year and (ii) after giving effect to such transaction, no Default or Event of Default shall exist (including, without limitation, under Sections 10.6 and 10.7, with any calculation of compliance therewith to be made as of the date of determination hereunder) and the Company could incur at least an additional Cdn. $1.00 of Debt under Section 10.5.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company, the Trust or a Restricted Subsidiary may make a Disposition and the assets subject to such Disposition shall not be subject to or included in the foregoing limitation and computation contained in Section 10.9(c)(i) of the preceding sentence if, within 365 days before or after the date of such Disposition, an amount equal to the net proceeds from such Disposition is:

(A) reinvested in assets to be used in the business of the Fund, the Company or a Restricted Subsidiary; or

(B) applied or offered to be applied to the payment or prepayment of the Notes or any other outstanding Debt of the Company, the Fund or any Subsidiary Guarantor that is not subordinated in right of payment to the Notes.

For purposes of foregoing clause (B), the Company shall offer to prepay (on a Business Day not less than 30 or more than 60 days following such offer) the Notes on a pro rata basis with any such other Debt that the Company elects to include in such offer at a price of 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be prepaid (together with any amount payable pursuant to Section 8.8(c), but without any Make-Whole Amount) together with interest accrued to the date of prepayment; provided that if any holder of the Notes declines or rejects such offer, the proceeds that would have been paid to such holder may be used for general corporate purposes. A failure by a holder of Notes to respond in writing not later than 10 Business Days prior to the proposed prepayment date to an offer to prepay made pursuant to this Section 10.9 shall be deemed to constitute a rejection of such offer by such holder.

11. EVENTS OF DEFAULT.

An "Event of Default" shall exist if any of the following conditions or events shall occur and be continuing:

(a) the Company defaults in the payment of any principal or Make-Whole Amount, if any, on any Note when the same becomes due and payable, whether at maturity or at a date fixed for prepayment or by declaration or otherwise; or

(b) the Company defaults in the payment of any interest on any Note or any amount payable pursuant to Section 13 for more than five Business Days after the same becomes due and payable; or

(c) the Company defaults in the performance of or compliance with any term contained in Section 7.1(d) or Sections 10.5, 10.6 or 10.7 and such default is not remedied within 10 Business Days; or

(d) the Company, the Fund or any Subsidiary Guarantor defaults in the performance of or compliance with any term contained herein (other than those referred to in Sections 11(a), (b) and (c)) after the earlier of (i) a Responsible Officer obtaining actual knowledge of such default and (ii) the Company receiving written notice of such default from any holder of a Note (any such written notice to be identified as a "notice of default" and to refer specifically to this Section 11(d)); or

(e) any representation or warranty made in writing by or on behalf the Company, the Fund or any Subsidiary Guarantor or by any officer of the Company, the Fund or any Guarantor Subsidiary in any Note Document or in any writing furnished in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby proves to have been false or incorrect in any Material respect on the date as of which made, and the underlying facts or circumstances which caused such representation or warranty to be false or incorrect remain unremedied for 30 days after the earlier of (i) a Responsible Officer obtaining actual knowledge of such facts or circumstances and (ii) the Company receiving written notice of such facts or circumstances from any holder of a Note (any such written notice to be identified as a "notice of default" and to refer specifically to this Section 11(e)); or

(f) (i) the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary is in default (as principal or as guarantor or other surety) in the payment of any principal of or premium or make-whole amount or interest on any Debt that is outstanding in an aggregate principal amount of at least Cdn. $25,000,000 or 2% of Consolidated Total Assets, whichever is greater (or its equivalent in the relevant currency of payment) beyond any period of grace provided with respect thereto, or (ii) the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary is in default in the performance of or compliance with any term of any evidence of any Debt in an aggregate outstanding principal amount of at least Cdn. $25,000,000 or 2% of Consolidated Total Assets, whichever is greater (or its equivalent in the relevant currency of payment) or of any mortgage, indenture or other agreement relating thereto or any other condition exists, and as a consequence of such default or condition such Debt has become, or has been declared, due and payable before its stated maturity or before its regularly scheduled dates of payment; or

(g) the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary (i) is generally not paying, or admits in writing its inability to pay, its debts as they become due, (ii) files, or consents by answer or otherwise to the filing against it of, a petition for relief or reorganization or arrangement or any other petition in bankruptcy, for liquidation or to take advantage of any bankruptcy, receivership, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar law of any jurisdiction, (iii) makes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, (iv) consents to the appointment of a custodian, receiver, trustee or other officer with similar powers with respect to it or with respect to any substantial part of its property, (v) is adjudicated as insolvent or to be liquidated, or (vi) takes corporate action for the purpose of any of the foregoing; or

(h) a court or Governmental Authority of competent jurisdiction enters an order appointing, without consent by Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary, a custodian, receiver, trustee or other officer with similar powers with respect to it or with respect to any substantial part of its property, or constituting an order for relief or approving a petition for relief or reorganization or any other petition in bankruptcy or for liquidation or to take advantage of any bankruptcy or insolvency law of any jurisdiction, or ordering the dissolution, winding-up or liquidation of the Company, the Fund or any

Restricted Subsidiary, or any such petition shall be filed against the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary and such petition shall not be dismissed within 60 days; or

(i) any event occurs with respect to the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary which under the laws of any jurisdiction is analogous to any of the events described in Section 11(g) or 11(h), provided that the applicable grace period, if any, which shall apply shall be the one applicable to the relevant proceeding which most closely corresponds to the proceeding described in Section 11(g) or 11(h); or

(j) except to the extent released pursuant to Section 9.9, 9.10 or 9.12, any Note Document Agreement shall cease to be a legal, valid and binding agreement enforceable against the Company, the Fund or any Subsidiary which is a party thereto in accordance with the respective terms thereof in any material respect or shall in any way be terminated or become or be declared ineffective or inoperative or shall in any way whatsoever cease to give or provide in any material respect the respective rights, titles, interest, remedies, powers or privileges intended to be created thereby including, without limitation, a determination by any Governmental Authority or court that such Note Document is invalid, void or unenforceable in any material respect; or

(k) a final judgment or judgments for the payment of money aggregating in excess of Cdn. $25,000,000 or 2% of Consolidated Total Assets, whichever is greater (or its equivalent in the relevant currency of payment) are rendered against one or more of the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries and which judgments are not, within 60 days after entry thereof, bonded, discharged or stayed pending appeal, or are not discharged within 60 days after the expiration of such stay; or

(l) if (i) any Plan shall fail to satisfy the minimum funding standards of ERISA or the Code for any plan year or part thereof or a waiver of such standards or extension of any amortization period is sought or granted under section 412 of the Code, (ii) a notice of intent to terminate any Plan shall have been or is reasonably expected to be filed with the PBGC or the PBGC shall have instituted proceedings under ERISA section 4042 to terminate or appoint a trustee to administer any Plan or the PBGC shall have notified the Fund or any ERISA Affiliate that a Plan may become a subject of any such proceedings, (iii) the sum of (x) the aggregate "amount of unfunded benefit liabilities" (within the meaning of section 4001(a)(18) of ERISA) under all Plans (but including, in the case of Multiemployer Plans, only the Fund's and its ERISA Affiliates' share of such unfunded benefit liabilities), determined in accordance with Title IV of ERISA, plus (y) the amount (if any) by which the aggregate present value of accrued benefit liabilities under all funded Non-U.S. Plans exceeds the aggregate current value of the assets of such Non-U.S. Plans allocable to such liabilities, shall exceed Cdn. $25,000,000 or 2% of Consolidated Total Assets, whichever is greater, (iv) the Fund or any ERISA Affiliate shall have incurred or is reasonably expected to incur any liability pursuant to Title I or IV of ERISA or the penalty or excise tax provisions of the Code relating to employee benefit plans, (v) the Fund or any ERISA Affiliate withdraws from any Multiemployer Plan, (vi) the Fund or any Subsidiary establishes or amends any employee welfare benefit plan that provides post-employment welfare benefits in a manner that would increase the liability of the Fund or any Subsidiary thereunder, (vii)

the Fund or any Subsidiary fails to administer or maintain a Non-U.S. Plan in compliance with the requirements of any and all applicable laws, statutes, rules, regulations or court orders or any Non-U.S. Plan is involuntarily terminated or wound up or (viii) the Fund or any Subsidiary becomes subject to the imposition of a financial penalty (which for this purpose shall mean any tax, penalty or other liability, whether by way of indemnity or otherwise) with respect to one or more Non-U.S. Plans; and any such event or events described in clauses (i) through (viii) above, either individually or together with any other such event or events, would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

As used in Section 11(l), the terms "employee benefit plan" and "employee welfare benefit plan" shall have the respective meanings assigned to such terms in section 3 of ERISA.

12. REMEDIES ON DEFAULT, ETC.

12.1. Acceleration.

(a) If an Event of Default with respect to the Company or the Fund described in Section 11(g), 11(h) or 11(i) (other than an Event of Default described in clause (i) of Section 11(g) or described in clause (vi) of Section 11(g) by virtue of the fact that such clause encompasses clause (i) of Section 11(g)) has occurred, all the Notes then outstanding shall automatically become immediately due and payable.

(b) If any other Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Required Holders may at any time at their option, by notice or notices to the Company, declare all the Notes then outstanding to be immediately due and payable.

(c) If any Event of Default described in Section 11(a) or 11(b) has occurred and is continuing, any holder or holders of Notes at the time outstanding affected by such Event of Default may at any time, at its or their option, by notice or notices to the Company, declare all the Notes held by it or them to be immediately due and payable.

Upon any Notes becoming due and payable under this Section 12.1, whether automatically or by declaration, such Notes will forthwith mature and the entire unpaid principal amount of such Notes, plus (x) all accrued and unpaid interest thereon (including, without limitation, interest accrued thereon at the Default Rate) (y) the Make-Whole Amount determined in respect of such principal amount (to the full extent permitted by applicable law), and (z) any amount payable pursuant to Section 8.8(c), shall all be immediately due and payable, in each and every case without presentment, demand, protest or further notice, all of which are hereby waived. The Company acknowledges, and the parties hereto agree, that each holder of a Note has the right to maintain its investment in the Notes free from repayment by the Company (except as herein specifically provided for) and that the provision for payment of a Make-Whole Amount by the Company in the event that the Notes are prepaid or are accelerated as a result of an Event of Default, is intended to provide compensation for the deprivation of such right under such circumstances.

12.2. Other Remedies.

If any Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, and irrespective of whether any Notes have become or have been declared immediately due and payable under Section 12.1, the holder of any Note at the time outstanding may proceed to protect and enforce the rights of such holder by an action at law, suit in equity or other appropriate proceeding, whether for the specific performance of any agreement contained herein or in any Note, or for an injunction against a violation of any of the terms hereof or thereof, or in aid of the exercise of any power granted hereby or thereby or by law or otherwise.

12.3. Rescission.

At any time after any Notes have been declared due and payable pursuant to Section 12.1(b) or 12.1(c), the Required Holders, by written notice to the Company, may rescind and annul any such declaration and its consequences if (a) the Company has paid all overdue interest on the Notes, all principal of and Make-Whole Amount, if any, on any Notes that are due and payable and are unpaid other than by reason of such declaration, and all interest on such overdue principal and Make-Whole Amount, if any, and (to the extent permitted by applicable law) any overdue interest in respect of the Notes, at the Default Rate, (b) neither the Company nor any other Person shall have paid any amounts that have become due solely by reason of such declaration, (c) all Events of Default and Defaults, other than non-payment of amounts that have become due solely by reason of such declaration, have been cured or have been waived pursuant to Section 18, and (d) no judgment or decree has been entered for the payment of any monies due pursuant hereto or to the Notes. No rescission and annulment under this Section 12.3 will extend to or affect any subsequent Event of Default or Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

12.4. No Waivers or Election of Remedies, Expenses, Etc.

No course of dealing and no delay on the part of any holder of any Note in exercising any right, power or remedy shall operate as a waiver thereof or otherwise prejudice such holder's rights, powers or remedies. No right, power or remedy conferred by this Agreement or by any Note upon any holder thereof shall be exclusive of any other right, power or remedy referred to herein or therein or now or hereafter available at law, in equity, by statute or otherwise. Without limiting the obligations of the Company under Section 16, the Company will pay to the holder of each Note on demand such further amount as shall be sufficient to cover all costs and expenses of such holder incurred in any enforcement or collection under this Section 12, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, expenses and disbursements.

13. TAX INDEMNIFICATION.

All payments whatsoever under the Note Documents will be made by the Company, the Fund and the Subsidiary Guarantors free and clear of, and without liability for withholding or deduction for or on account of, any present or future Taxes of whatever nature imposed or levied by or on behalf of any jurisdiction (or any political subdivision or taxing authority of or in such jurisdiction) (hereinafter a "Taxing Jurisdiction"), unless the withholding or deduction of such Tax is compelled by law.

If any deduction or withholding for any Tax of a Taxing Jurisdiction shall at any time be required in respect of any amounts to be paid by the Company, the Fund or the Subsidiary Guarantors under the Note Documents, the Company, the Fund or the Subsidiary Guarantors, as applicable, will pay to the relevant Taxing Jurisdiction the full amount required to be withheld, deducted or otherwise paid before penalties attach thereto or interest accrues thereon and pay to each holder of a Note such additional amounts as may be necessary in order that the net amounts paid to such holder pursuant to the terms of the Note Documents after such deduction, withholding or payment (including, without limitation, any required deduction or withholding of Tax on or with respect to such additional amount), shall be not less than the amounts then due and payable to such holder under the terms of the Note Documents before the assessment of such Tax, provided that no payment of any additional amounts shall be required to be made for or on account of:

(a) any Tax that would not have been imposed but for the existence of any present or former connection between such holder (or a fiduciary, settlor, beneficiary, member of, shareholder of, or possessor of a power over, such holder, if such holder is an estate, trust, partnership or corporation or any Person other than the holder to whom the Notes or any amount payable thereon is attributable for the purposes of such Tax) and the Taxing Jurisdiction, other than the mere holding of the relevant Note or the receipt of payments thereunder or in respect thereof, including, without limitation, such holder (or such other Person described in the above parenthetical) being or having been a citizen or resident thereof, or being or having been present or engaged in trade or business therein or having or having had an establishment, office, fixed base or branch therein, provided that this exclusion shall not apply with respect to a Tax that would not have been imposed but for the Company, the Fund or the Subsidiary Guarantor, after the date of the Agreement, opening an office in, moving an office to, reincorporating in, or changing the Taxing Jurisdiction from or through which payments on account of the Note Documents are made to, the Taxing Jurisdiction imposing the relevant Tax;

(b) any Tax that would not have been imposed but for the delay or failure by such holder (following a written request by the Company) in the filing with the relevant Taxing Jurisdiction of Forms (as defined below) that are required to be filed by such holder to avoid or reduce such Taxes (including for such purpose any refilings or renewals of filings that may from time to time be required by the relevant Taxing Jurisdiction), provided that the filing of such Forms would not (in such holder's reasonable judgment) impose any unreasonable burden (in time, resources or otherwise) on such holder or result in any confidential or proprietary income tax return information being revealed, either directly or indirectly, to any Person and such delay or failure could have been lawfully avoided by such holder, and provided further that such holder shall be deemed to have satisfied the requirements of this clause (b) upon the good faith completion and submission of such Forms (including refilings or renewals of filings) as may be specified in a written request of the Company no later than 60 days after receipt by such holder of such written request (accompanied by copies of such Forms and related instructions, if any, all in the English language or with an English translation thereof);

(c) any amount in excess of the amount of tax that would be payable if the holder was a resident of the United States for the purpose of the Canada-U.S. Income Tax Convention (1980), as amended;

(d) any Tax that would not have been imposed but for the holder not dealing at arm's length with the Company for the purposes of the Tax Act; or

(e) any combination of clauses (a), (b), (c) or (d) above.

If as a result of any payment by the Fund, the Company or a Subsidiary Guarantor under the Note Documents, whether in respect of principal, Make-Whole Amount (if any), interest, interest on overdue interest, fees or other payment obligations, any holder of a Note is required to pay tax under Part XIII of the Tax Act, then the Fund, the Company or applicable Subsidiary Guarantor will, upon demand by such holder of any Note, indemnify the holder for the payment of any such amount, together with any interest, penalties and expenses in connection therewith, and for any Taxes on such indemnity payment provided that no indemnification payment shall be required to be made in respect of a Tax described in clauses (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) of the previous paragraph. All amounts payable under this paragraph shall be payable by the Fund, the Company or applicable Subsidiary Guarantor on demand, shall, if paid in respect of interest, be a payment of additional interest, and shall bear interest at the Default Rate, calculated from the date demanded by such holder to the date paid by the Fund, the Company or applicable Subsidiary Guarantor.

By acceptance of any Note, the holder of such Note agrees, subject to the limitations of clause (b) above, that it will from time to time with reasonable promptness (x) duly complete and deliver to or as reasonably directed by the Company all such forms, certificates, documents and returns provided to such holder by the Company (collectively, together with instructions for completing the same, "Forms") required to be filed by or on behalf of such holder in order to avoid or reduce any such Tax pursuant to the provisions of an applicable statute, regulation or administrative practice of the relevant Taxing Jurisdiction or of a tax treaty between the United States or Canada and such Taxing Jurisdiction and (y) provide the Company with such information with respect to such holder as the Company may reasonably request in order to complete any such Forms, provided that nothing in this Section 13 shall require any holder to provide information with respect to any such Form or otherwise if in the opinion of such holder such Form or disclosure of information would involve the disclosure of tax return or other information that is confidential or proprietary to such holder, and provided further that each such holder shall be deemed to have complied with its obligation under this paragraph with respect to any Form if such Form shall have been duly completed and delivered by such holder to the Company or mailed to the appropriate taxing authority (which in the case of a United Kingdom Inland Revenue Form FD13 or any similar Form shall be deemed to occur when such Form is submitted to the United States Internal Revenue Service in accordance with instructions contained in such Form), whichever is applicable, within 60 days following a written request of the Company (which request shall be accompanied by copies of such Form and English translations of any such Form not in the English language) and, in the case of a transfer of any Note, at least 90 days prior to the relevant interest payment date.

If any payment is made by the Company to or for the account of the holder of any Note after deduction for or on account of any Taxes, and increased payments are made by the Company pursuant to this Section 13, then, if such holder at its sole discretion determines that it has received or been granted a refund of such Taxes, such holder shall, to the extent that it can do so without prejudice to the retention of the amount of such refund, reimburse to the Company such amount as such holder shall, in its sole discretion, determine to be attributable to the relevant Taxes or deduction or withholding. Nothing herein contained shall interfere with the right of the holder of any Note to arrange its tax affairs in whatever manner it thinks fit and, in particular, no holder of any Note shall be under any obligation to claim relief from its corporate profits or similar tax liability in respect of such Tax in priority to any other claims, reliefs, credits or deductions available to it or (other than as set forth in clause (b) above) oblige any holder of any Note to disclose any information relating to its tax affairs or any computations in respect thereof.

The Company will furnish the holders of Notes, promptly and in any event within 60 days after the date of any payment by the Company of any Tax in respect of any amounts paid under the Note Documents, the original tax receipt issued by the relevant taxation or other authorities involved for all amounts paid as aforesaid (or if such original tax receipt is not available or must legally be kept in the possession of the Company, a duly certified copy of the original tax receipt or any other reasonably satisfactory evidence of payment), together with such other documentary evidence with respect to such payments as may be reasonably requested from time to time by any holder of a Note.

If the Company is required by any applicable law, as modified by the practice of the taxation or other authority of any relevant Taxing Jurisdiction, to make any deduction or withholding of any Tax in respect of which the Company would be required to pay any additional amount under this Section 13, but for any reason does not make such deduction or withholding with the result that a liability in respect of such Tax is assessed directly against the holder of any Note, and such holder pays such liability, then the Company will promptly reimburse such holder for such payment (including any related interest or penalties to the extent such interest or penalties arise by virtue of a default or delay by the Company) upon demand by such holder accompanied by an official receipt (or a duly certified copy thereof) issued by the taxation or other authority of the relevant Taxing Jurisdiction.

If the Company makes payment to or for the account of any holder of a Note and such holder is entitled to a refund of the Tax to which such payment is attributable upon the making of a filing (other than a Form described above), then such holder shall, as soon as practicable after receiving written request from the Company (which shall specify in reasonable detail and supply the refund forms to be filed) use reasonable efforts to complete and deliver such refund forms to or as directed by the Company, subject, however, to the same limitations with respect to Forms as are set forth above.

The obligations of the Company under this Section 13 shall survive the payment or transfer of any Note and the provisions of this Section 13 shall also apply to successive transferees of the Notes.

14. REGISTRATION; EXCHANGE; SUBSTITUTION OF NOTES.

14.1. Registration of Notes.

The Company shall keep at its principal executive office a register for the registration and registration of transfers of Notes. The name and address of each holder of one or more Notes, each transfer thereof and the name and address of each transferee of one or more Notes shall be registered in such register. Prior to due presentment for registration of transfer, the Person in whose name any Note shall be registered shall be deemed and treated as the owner and holder thereof for all purposes hereof, and the Company shall not be affected by any notice or knowledge to the contrary. The Company shall give to any holder of a Note that is an Institutional Investor promptly upon request therefor, a complete and correct copy of the names and addresses of all registered holders of Notes.

14.2. Transfer and Exchange of Notes.

Upon surrender of any Note to the Company at the address and to the attention of the designated officer (all as specified in Section 19(iii)) for registration of transfer or exchange (and in the case of a surrender for registration of transfer accompanied by a written instrument of transfer duly executed by the registered holder of such Note or such holder's attorney duly authorized in writing and accompanied by the relevant name, address and other details for notices of each transferee of such Note or part thereof) within ten Business Days thereafter the Company shall execute and deliver, at the Company's expense (except as provided below), one or more new Notes (as requested by the holder thereof) of the same series in exchange therefor, in an aggregate principal amount equal to the unpaid principal amount of the surrendered Note. Each such new Note shall be payable to such Person as such holder may request and shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit 1A, 1B or 1C, as applicable. Each such new Note shall be dated and bear interest from the date to which interest shall have been paid on the surrendered Note or dated the date of the surrendered Note if no interest shall have been paid thereon. The Company may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any stamp tax or governmental charge imposed in respect of any such transfer of Notes. Notes shall not be transferred in denominations of less than Cdn. $300,000, provided that if necessary to enable the registration of transfer by a holder of its entire holding of Notes, one Note may be in a denomination of less than Cdn. $300,000. Any transferee, by its acceptance of a Note registered in its name (or the name of its nominee), shall be deemed to have made the representation set forth in Section 6.2.

14.3. Replacement of Notes.

Upon receipt by the Company at the address and to the attention of the designated officer (all as specified in Section 19(iii)) of evidence reasonably satisfactory to it of the ownership of and the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of any Note (which evidence shall be, in the case of an Institutional Investor, notice from such Institutional Investor of such ownership and such loss, theft, destruction or mutilation), and

(a) in the case of loss, theft or destruction, of indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it (provided that if the holder of such Note is, or is a nominee for, an original Purchaser or another holder of a Note with a minimum net worth of at least U.S.

$50,000,000 or a Qualified Institutional Buyer, such Person's own unsecured agreement of indemnity shall be deemed to be satisfactory), or

(b) in the case of mutilation, upon surrender and cancellation thereof, within ten Business Days thereafter the Company at its own expense shall execute and deliver, in lieu thereof, a new Note, dated and bearing interest from the date to which interest shall have been paid on such lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated Note or dated the date of such lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated Note if no interest shall have been paid thereon.

15. PAYMENTS ON NOTES.

15.1. Place of Payment.

Subject to Section 15.2, payments of principal, Make-Whole Amount, if any (including amounts payable pursuant to Section 8.8(c)), and interest becoming due and payable on the Notes shall be made in Calgary, Alberta at the principal office of the Company in such jurisdiction. The Company may at any time, by notice to each holder of a Note, change the place of payment of the Notes so long as such place of payment shall be either the principal office of the Company in such jurisdiction or the principal office of a bank or trust company in such jurisdiction.

15.2. Home Office Payment.

So long as any Purchaser or its nominee shall be the holder of any Note, and notwithstanding anything contained in Section 15.1 or in such Note to the contrary, the Company will pay all sums becoming due on such Note for principal, Make-Whole Amount, if any (including amounts payable pursuant to Section 8.8(c)), and interest by the method and at the address specified for such purpose below such Purchaser's name in Schedule A, or by such other method or at such other address as such Purchaser shall have from time to time specified to the Company in writing for such purpose, without the presentation or surrender of such Note or the making of any notation thereon, except that upon written request of the Company made concurrently with or reasonably promptly after payment or prepayment in full of any Note, such Purchaser shall surrender such Note for cancellation, reasonably promptly after any such request, to the Company at its principal executive office or at the place of payment most recently designated by the Company pursuant to Section 15.1. Prior to any sale or other disposition of any Note held by a Purchaser or its nominee, such Purchaser will, at its election, either endorse thereon the amount of principal paid thereon and the last date to which interest has been paid thereon or surrender such Note to the Company in exchange for a new Note or Notes pursuant to Section 14.2. The Company will afford the benefits of this Section 15.2 to any Institutional Investor that is the direct or indirect transferee of any Note purchased by a Purchaser under this Agreement and that has made the same agreement relating to such Note as the Purchasers have made in this Section 15.2.

16. EXPENSES, ETC.

16.1. Transaction Expenses.

Whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, the Company will pay all costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees of a special counsel and, if reasonably required by the Required Holders, local or other counsel) incurred by the Purchasers and each other holder of a Note in connection with such transactions and in connection with any amendments, waivers or consents under or in respect of this Agreement or the Notes (whether or not such amendment, waiver or consent becomes effective), including, without limitation: (a) the costs and expenses incurred in enforcing or defending (or determining whether or how to enforce or defend) any rights under this Agreement or the Notes or in responding to any subpoena or other legal process or informal investigative demand issued in connection with this Agreement or the Notes, or by reason of being a holder of any Note, (b) the costs and expenses, including financial advisors' fees, incurred in connection with the insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company or any Subsidiary or in connection with any work-out or restructuring of the transactions contemplated hereby and by the Notes, (c) the costs and expenses of one special counsel to the holders of the Notes (and if reasonably required, their local Canadian counsel) in connection with the Company's compliance with the requirements of Sections 9.9, 9.10, 9.12 and 23.1(b), and (d) the costs and expenses incurred in connection with the initial filing of this Agreement and all related documents and financial information with the SVO, provided that such costs and expenses under this clause (d) shall not exceed $10,000. The Company will pay, and will save each Purchaser and each other holder of a Note harmless from, all claims in respect of any fees, costs or expenses, if any, of brokers and finders (other than those, if any, retained by a Purchaser or other holder in connection with its purchase of the Notes).

16.2. Certain Taxes.

The Company agrees to pay all stamp, documentary or similar taxes or fees which may be payable in respect of the execution and delivery or the enforcement of this Agreement or the execution and delivery (but not the transfer) or the enforcement of any of the Notes in the United States or Canada or of any amendment of, or waiver or consent under or with respect to, this Agreement or of any of the Notes, and to pay any value added tax due and payable in respect of reimbursement of costs and expenses by the Company pursuant to this Section 16, and will save each holder of a Note to the extent permitted by applicable law harmless against any loss or liability resulting from nonpayment or delay in payment of any such tax or fee required to be paid by the Company hereunder.

16.3. Survival.

The obligations of the Company under this Section 16 will survive the payment or transfer of any Note, the enforcement, amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or the Notes, and the termination of this Agreement.

17. SURVIVAL OF REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES; ENTIRE AGREEMENT.

All representations and warranties contained herein shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Notes, the purchase or transfer by any Purchaser of any Note or portion thereof or interest therein and the payment of any Note, and may be relied upon by any subsequent holder of a Note, regardless of any investigation made at any time by or on behalf of such Purchaser or any other holder of a Note. All statements contained in any certificate or other instrument delivered by or on behalf of the Company or the Fund pursuant to this Agreement shall be deemed representations and warranties of the Company and the Fund under this Agreement. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement and the Notes embody the entire agreement and understanding between each Purchaser, the Company and the Fund and supersede all prior agreements and understandings relating to the subject matter hereof.

18. AMENDMENT AND WAIVER.

18.1. Requirements.

This Agreement, the Notes and the other Note Documents may be amended, and the observance of any term hereof or of the Notes may be waived (either retroactively or prospectively), with (and only with) the written consent of the Company, the Fund, any Subsidiary of the Fund party to the applicable Note Document and the Required Holders, except that (a) no amendment or waiver of any of the provisions of Section 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 or 22, or any defined term (as it is used therein), will be effective as to any Purchaser unless consented to by such Purchaser in writing, and (b) no such amendment or waiver may, without the written consent of the holder of each Note at the time outstanding affected thereby, (i) subject to the provisions of Section 12 relating to acceleration or rescission, change the amount or time of any prepayment or payment of principal of, or reduce the rate or change the time of payment or method of computation of interest or of the Make-Whole Amount or other amounts payable pursuant to Section 8.8(c) on, the Notes, (ii) change the percentage of the principal amount of the Notes the holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment or waiver, (iii) amend Section 8, 11(a), 11(b), 12, 13, 18, 21 or 23.9, or (iv) except in accordance with Section 9.9, release the Partnership or any other Subsidiary Guarantor from its obligations under the Subsidiary Guarantee or release the Fund from its obligations under the Fund Guarantee (when delivered).

18.2. Solicitation of Holders of Notes.

(a) Solicitation. The Company will provide each holder of the Notes (irrespective of the amount of Notes then owned by it) with sufficient information, sufficiently far in advance of the date a decision is required, to enable such holder to make an informed and considered decision with respect to any proposed amendment, waiver or consent in respect of any of the provisions hereof, of the Notes or of any other Note Document. The Company will deliver executed or true and correct copies of each amendment, waiver or consent effected pursuant to the provisions of this Section 18 to each holder of outstanding Notes promptly following the date on which it is executed and delivered by, or receives the consent or approval of, the requisite holders of Notes.

(b) Payment. The Company will not directly or indirectly pay or cause to be paid any remuneration, whether by way of supplemental or additional interest, fee or otherwise, or grant any security or provide other credit support, to any holder of Notes as consideration for or as an inducement to the entering into by any holder of Notes of any waiver or amendment of any of the terms and provisions hereof or of any other Note Document unless such remuneration is concurrently paid, or security is concurrently granted or other credit support concurrently provided, on the same terms, ratably to each holder of Notes then outstanding even if such holder did not consent to such waiver or amendment.

(c) Consent in Contemplation of Transfer. Any consent made pursuant to this Section 18.2 by the holder of any Note that has transferred or has agreed to transfer such Note to the Company, any Subsidiary or any Affiliate of the Company and has provided or has agreed to provide such written consent as a condition to such transfer shall be void and of no force or effect except solely as to such holder, and any amendments effected or waivers granted or to be effected or granted that would not have been or would not be so effected or granted but for such consent (and the consents of all other holders of Notes that were acquired under the same or similar conditions) shall be void and of no force or effect except solely as to such transferring holder.

18.3. Binding Effect, Etc.

Any amendment or waiver consented to as provided in this Section 18 applies equally to all holders of Notes and is binding upon them and upon each future holder of any Note and upon the Company and the Fund without regard to whether such Note has been marked to indicate such amendment or waiver. No such amendment or waiver will extend to or affect any obligation, covenant, agreement, Default or Event of Default not expressly amended or waived or impair any right consequent thereon. No course of dealing among the Company, the Fund and the holder of any Note nor any delay in exercising any rights hereunder or under any Note shall operate as a waiver of any rights of any holder of such Note. As used herein, the term "this Agreement" and references thereto shall mean this Agreement as it may from time to time be amended or supplemented.

18.4. Notes Held by Company, Etc.

Solely for the purpose of determining whether the holders of the requisite percentage of the aggregate principal amount of Notes then outstanding approved or consented to any amendment, waiver or consent to be given under this Agreement or the Notes, or have directed the taking of any action provided herein or in the Notes to be taken upon the direction of the holders of a specified percentage of the aggregate principal amount of Notes then outstanding, Notes directly or indirectly owned by the Company or any of its Affiliates shall be deemed not to be outstanding.

19. NOTICES; ENGLISH LANGUAGE.

All notices and communications provided for hereunder shall be in writing and sent (a) by telecopy if the sender on the same day sends a confirming copy of such notice by a recognized international commercial delivery service (charges prepaid), or (b) by a recognized international commercial delivery service (with charges prepaid). Any such notice must be sent:

(i) if to a Purchaser or its nominee, to such Purchaser or nominee at the address specified for such communications in Schedule A, or at such other address as such Purchaser or nominee shall have specified to the Company in writing,

(ii) if to any other holder of any Note, to such holder at such address as such other holder shall have specified to the Company in writing, or

(iii) if to the Company or the Fund, to the Company at its address set forth at the beginning hereof to the attention of the Chief Financial Officer, or at such other address as the Company shall have specified to the holder of each Note in writing.

Notices under this Section 19 will be deemed given only when actually received.

The Purchaser acknowledges and confirms that it has requested that all documents evidencing or relating in any way to the sale of the Notes be drawn up in the English language only. L'investisseur reconnaît et confirme par les présentes avoir exigé que tous les documents faisant foi ou se rapportant de quelque manière à la vente des titres soient rédigés en anglais seulement.

20. REPRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS.

This Agreement and all documents relating thereto, including, without limitation, (a) consents, waivers and modifications that may hereafter be executed, (b) documents received by any Purchaser at the First Closing or Second Closing, as applicable (except the Notes themselves), and (c) financial statements, certificates and other information previously or hereafter furnished to any Purchaser, may be reproduced by such Purchaser by any photographic, photostatic, electronic, digital or other similar process and such Purchaser may destroy any original document so reproduced. Each of the Company and the Fund agrees and stipulates that, to the extent permitted by applicable law, any such reproduction shall be admissible in evidence as the original itself in any judicial or administrative proceeding (whether or not the original is in existence and whether or not such reproduction was made by such Purchaser in the regular course of business) and any enlargement, facsimile or further reproduction of such reproduction shall likewise be admissible in evidence. This Section 20 shall not prohibit the Company, the Fund or any other holder of Notes from contesting any such reproduction to the same extent that it could contest the original, or from introducing evidence to demonstrate the inaccuracy of any such reproduction.

21. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

For the purposes of this Section 21, "Confidential Information" means information delivered to any Purchaser by or on behalf of the Fund, the Company or any Subsidiary in connection with the transactions contemplated by or otherwise pursuant to this Agreement that is proprietary in nature and that was clearly marked or labeled or otherwise adequately identified when received by such Purchaser as being confidential information of the Fund, the Company or such Subsidiary, provided that such term does not include information that (a) was publicly known or otherwise known to such Purchaser prior to the time of such disclosure, (b) subsequently becomes publicly known through no act or omission by such Purchaser or any person acting on such Purchaser's behalf, (c) otherwise becomes known to such Purchaser other than through disclosure by the Fund, the Company or any Subsidiary or (d) constitutes financial statements delivered to such Purchaser under Section 7.1 that are otherwise publicly available. Each Purchaser will maintain the confidentiality of such Confidential Information in accordance with procedures adopted by such Purchaser in good faith to protect confidential information of third parties delivered to such Purchaser, provided that such Purchaser may deliver or disclose Confidential Information to (i) its directors, trustees, officers, employees, agents, attorneys and affiliates (to the extent such disclosure reasonably relates to the administration of the investment represented by its Notes), (ii) its financial advisors and other professional advisors who agree to hold confidential the Confidential Information substantially in accordance with the terms of this Section 21, (iii) any other holder of any Note, (iv) any Institutional Investor to which it sells or offers to sell such Note or any part thereof or any participation therein (if such Person has agreed in writing prior to its receipt of such Confidential Information to be bound by the provisions of this Section 21), (v) any Person from which it offers to purchase any security of the Company (if such Person has agreed in writing prior to its receipt of such Confidential Information to be bound by the provisions of this Section 21), (vi) any federal or state regulatory authority having jurisdiction over such Purchaser, (vii) the NAIC or the SVO or, in each case, any similar organization, or any nationally recognized rating agency that requires access to information about such Purchaser's investment portfolio, or (viii) any other Person to which such delivery or disclosure may be necessary or appropriate (w) to effect compliance with any law, rule, regulation or order applicable to such Purchaser, (x) in response to any subpoena or other legal process, (y) in connection with any litigation to which such Purchaser is a party or (z) if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, to the extent such Purchaser may reasonably determine such delivery and disclosure to be necessary or appropriate in the enforcement or for the protection of the rights and remedies under such Purchaser's Notes and this Agreement. Each holder of a Note, by its acceptance of a Note, will be deemed to have agreed to be bound by and to be entitled to the benefits of this Section 21 as though it were a party to this Agreement. On reasonable request by the Company in connection with the delivery to any holder of a Note of information required to be delivered to such holder under this Agreement or requested by such holder (other than a holder that is a party to this Agreement or its nominee), such holder will enter into an agreement with the Fund, the Company or applicable Subsidiary embodying the provisions of this Section 21.

22. SUBSTITUTION OF PURCHASER.

Each Purchaser shall have the right to substitute any one of its Affiliates as the purchaser of the Notes that it has agreed to purchase hereunder, by written notice to the Company, which notice shall be signed by both such Purchaser and such Affiliate, shall contain such Affiliate's agreement to be bound by this Agreement and shall contain a confirmation by such Affiliate of the accuracy with respect to it of the representations set forth in Section 6. Upon receipt of such notice, any reference to such Purchaser in this Agreement (other than in this Section 22), shall be deemed to refer to such Affiliate in lieu of such original Purchaser. In the event that such Affiliate is so substituted as a Purchaser hereunder and such Affiliate thereafter transfers to such original Purchaser all of the Notes then held by such Affiliate, upon receipt by the Company of notice of such transfer, any reference to such Affiliate as a "Purchaser" in this Agreement (other than in this Section 22), shall no longer be deemed to refer to such Affiliate, but shall refer to such original Purchaser, and such original Purchaser shall again have all the rights of an original holder of the Notes under this Agreement.

23. MISCELLANEOUS.

23.1. Successors and Assigns; Tax Reorganization Assignment.

(a) All covenants and other agreements contained in this Agreement by or on behalf of any of the parties hereto bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and assigns (including, without limitation, any subsequent holder of a Note) whether so expressed or not.

(b) In response to the enactment of legislation implementing the proposals announced by the Minister of Finance (Canada) on October 31, 2006 relating to the taxation of income trusts in Canada, the Company shall be entitled to assign (the "Assignment") its rights and obligations under the Note Documents to which it is a party to a Person that is (x) the ultimate parent entity emerging from a tax reorganization (the "Tax Reorganization"), or (y) a Person that would qualify to be designated as a Restricted Subsidiary (with necessary changes in context) of such entity under this Agreement, or (z) if such Person is a Subsidiary, then such Person is or becomes a Restricted Subsidiary (the "New Issuer") as part of any such Tax Reorganization, provided that:

(i) the New Issuer shall be a solvent Person organized and existing under the laws of Canada or any province thereof and shall have executed and delivered to each holder of any Notes its assumption of the due and punctual performance and observance of each covenant and condition of each respective Note Document by which it was bound, and shall have caused to be delivered to each holder of any Notes an opinion of Macleod Dixon LLP or other independent counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Required Holders to the effect that all agreements or instruments effecting such assumption are enforceable in accordance with their terms;

(ii) all Note Documents of each entity other than the New Issuer (other than the Fund if it does not continue to exist as part of the Tax Reorganization) shall be ratified and confirmed by the parties thereto;

(iii) no Default or Event of Default exists or would exist after the Assignment (in particular, guarantees and subordination agreements are in place as required by Sections 9.9, 9.10 and 9.12 with references to "Subsidiaries" or "Affiliates" therein being Subsidiaries or Affiliates of the ultimate parent entity emerging from the Tax Reorganization);

(iv) no adverse taxable event or consequence not covered by the indemnity in Section 13 will result to any holder solely by virtue of such Tax Reorganization and the assumption by the New Issuer of the obligations of the Company under this Agreement and the other Note Documents;

(v) the Tax Reorganization shall not have a Material Adverse Effect; and

(vi) the holders shall have received such other assurances, representations and warranties, copies of organizational documents, legal opinions and other documents with respect to the Assignment as they may reasonably request, including, without limitation, to preserve as against the New Issuer and the other entities emerging from the Tax Reorganization the substance of the reporting requirements, the positive covenants, the negative covenants and the events of default contained herein.

23.2. Payments Due on Non-Business Days.

Anything in this Agreement or the Notes to the contrary notwithstanding (but without limiting the requirement in Section 8.6 that notice of any optional prepayment specify a Business Day as the date fixed for such prepayment), any payment of principal of or Make-Whole Amount or interest on any Note that is due on a date other than a Business Day shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day without including the additional days elapsed in the computation of the interest payable on such next succeeding Business Day; provided that if the maturity date of any Note is a date other than a Business Day, the payment otherwise due on such maturity date shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day and shall include the additional days elapsed in the computation of interest payable on such next succeeding Business Day.

23.3. Accounting Terms; Determination of Financial Covenant Compliance.

(a) All accounting terms used herein which are not expressly defined in this Agreement have the meanings respectively given to them in accordance with GAAP. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all computations made pursuant to this Agreement shall be made in accordance with GAAP, and all financial statements shall be prepared in accordance with GAAP.

(b) The financial terms and definitions used in determining compliance with financial covenants herein contained are to be reported on the basis of the consolidated financial statements of the Fund (including any Unrestricted Subsidiaries) unless (i) the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis (excluding Unrestricted Subsidiaries) contribute in the aggregate less than 90% of the consolidated revenue of the Fund and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis or (ii) the Company chooses to provide consolidated financial statements of the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries to determine compliance with the financial covenants herein contained, with the effect and result that in either such case compliance with the financial covenants herein contained shall be determined on the basis of the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries.

23.4. Severability.

Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall (to the full extent permitted by law) not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

23.5. Construction, Etc.

Each covenant contained herein shall be construed (absent express provision to the contrary) as being independent of each other covenant contained herein, so that compliance with any one covenant shall not (absent such an express contrary provision) be deemed to excuse compliance with any other covenant. Where any provision herein refers to action to be taken by any Person, or which such Person is prohibited from taking, such provision shall be applicable whether such action is taken directly or indirectly by such Person.

For the avoidance of doubt, all Schedules and Exhibits attached to this Agreement shall be deemed to be a part hereof.

23.6. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original but all of which together shall constitute one instrument. Each counterpart may consist of a number of copies hereof, each signed by less than all, but together signed by all, of the parties hereto.

23.7. Governing Law.

This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and the rights of the parties shall be governed by, the law of the Province of Alberta excluding choice-of-law principles of the law of such Province that would permit the application of the laws of a jurisdiction other than such Province.

23.8. Jurisdiction and Process; Waiver of Jury Trial.

(a) Each of the Company and the Fund irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Alberta over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Note Documents. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each of the Company and the Fund irrevocably waives and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense or otherwise, any claim that it is not subject to the jurisdiction of any such court, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

(b) Each of the Company and the Fund agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, that a final judgment in any suit, action or proceeding of the nature referred to in Section 23.8(a) brought in any such court shall be conclusive and binding upon it subject to rights of appeal, as the case may be, and may be enforced in the courts of the Province of Alberta (or any other courts to the jurisdiction of which it or any of its assets is or may be subject) by a suit upon such judgment.

(c) Nothing in this Section 23.8 shall affect the right of any holder of a Note to serve process in any manner permitted by law, or limit any right that the holders of any of the Notes may have to bring proceedings against each of the Company and the Fund in the courts of any appropriate jurisdiction or to enforce in any lawful manner a judgment obtained in one jurisdiction in any other jurisdiction.

(d) THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION BROUGHT ON OR WITH RESPECT TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE NOTES OR ANY OTHER DOCUMENT EXECUTED IN CONNECTION HEREWITH OR THEREWITH.

23.9. Obligation to Make Payment.

(a) Any payment on account of an amount that is payable under the Note Documents in Canadian Dollars which is made to or for the account of any holder of Notes in any other currency, whether as a result of any judgment or order or the enforcement thereof or the realization of any security or the liquidation of the Company or the Fund, shall constitute a discharge of the obligation of the Company or the Fund, as applicable, under the Note Documents only to the extent of the amount of Canadian Dollars which such holder purchases or could purchase in the foreign exchange markets in New York, New York, with the amount of such other currency in accordance with normal banking procedures at the rate of exchange prevailing on the Business Day following receipt of the payment first referred to above. If the amount of Canadian Dollars so purchased or that could be purchased is less than the amount of Canadian Dollars originally due to such holder, the Company or the Fund, as applicable, agrees to the fullest extent permitted by law, to indemnify and save harmless such holder from and against all loss or damage arising out of or as a result of such deficiency. This indemnity shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, constitute an obligation separate and independent from the other obligations contained in the Note Documents, shall give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, shall apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by such holder from time to time and shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any judgment or order for a liquidated sum in respect of an amount due under the Note Documents or under any judgment or order.

(b) Any payment on account of an amount that is payable under the Note Documents in U.S. Dollars which is made to or for the account of any holder of Notes in any other currency, whether as a result of any judgment or order or the enforcement thereof or the realization of any security or the liquidation of the Company or the Fund, shall constitute a discharge of the obligation of the Company or the Fund, as applicable, under the Note Documents only to the extent of the amount of U.S. Dollars which such holder purchases or could purchase in the foreign exchange markets in New York, New York, with the amount of such other currency in accordance with normal banking procedures at the rate of exchange prevailing on the Business Day following receipt of the payment first referred to above. If the amount of U.S. Dollars so purchased or that could be purchased is less than the amount of U.S. Dollars originally due to such holder, the Company or the Fund, as applicable, agrees to the fullest extent permitted by law, to indemnify and save harmless such holder from and against all loss or damage arising out of or as a result of such deficiency. This indemnity shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, constitute an obligation separate and independent from the other obligations contained in the Note Documents, shall give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, shall apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by such holder from time to time and shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any judgment or order for a liquidated sum in respect of an amount due under the Note Documents or under any judgment or order.

23.10. Interest.

(a) In respect of any overdue amounts hereunder or under the Notes where no provision is made herein or therein for payment of interest thereon, the Company shall pay interest on such overdue amounts on demand, calculated from the date such unpaid amount is due until such unpaid amount is paid in full, at the Default Rate.

(b) In no event shall any interest or fee to be paid hereunder or under a Note exceed the maximum rate permitted by applicable law. In the event any such interest rate or fee exceeds such maximum rate, such rate shall be adjusted downward to the highest rate (expressed as a percentage per annum) or fee that the parties could validly have agreed to by contract on the date hereof under applicable law. It is further agreed that any excess actually received by a holder of a Note shall be credited against the principal of the Notes (or, if the principal shall have been or would thereby be paid in full, the remaining amount shall be credited or paid to the Company).

(c) All interest (including interest on overdue interest) payable by the Company hereunder and under the Notes shall accrue from day to day, computed as provided herein, and shall be payable after as well as before maturity, demand, default and judgment.

(d) Interest on the Notes shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year of 12 30-day months. Solely for purposes of the Interest Act (Canada), the yearly rate of interest to which interest calculated for a period of less than one year on the basis of a year of 360 days consisting of 12 30-day periods is equivalent is such rate of interest multiplied by a fraction of which (i) the numerator is the product of (A) the actual number of days in the year commencing on the first day of such period, multiplied by (B) the sum of (y) the product of 30 multiplied by the number of complete months elapsed in such period and (z) the actual number of days elapsed in any incomplete month in such period; and (ii) the denominator is the product of (a) 360 multiplied by (b) the actual number of days in such period.

(e) The theory of "deemed reinvestment" shall not apply to the computation of interest and no allowance, reduction or deduction shall be made for the deemed reinvestment of interest in respect of any payments. Calculation of interest shall be made using the nominal rate method, and not the effective rate method, of calculation.

(f) To the extent permitted by law, Section 6 of the Judgment Interest Act (Alberta) is hereby waived and shall not apply to this Agreement or the Notes.

23.11. Acknowledgement.

The parties hereto acknowledge that the Administrator, in executing this Agreement for and on behalf of the Fund, is doing so solely in its capacity as administrator of the Fund, and this Agreement is binding on the Fund Trustee in its capacity as trustee of the Fund only and not in its personal capacity. This Agreement is not personally binding upon the Administrator, the Fund Trustee or any unitholder of the Fund, and any recourse against the Administrator, the Fund Trustee or any unitholder of the Fund (in such capacity) or in any manner in respect of any indebtedness, obligation or liability of the Fund or the Fund Trustee in its capacity as trustee of the Fund arising hereunder or arising in connection herewith or from the matters to which this Agreement relates, if any, including claims based on negligence or otherwise tortious behaviour, shall be limited to, and satisfied only out of, the Trust Assets (as defined in the Fund Declaration of Trust).

SCHEDULE B

DEFINED TERMS

As used herein, the following terms have the respective meanings set forth below or set forth in the Section hereof following such term:

"Administrator" is defined in Section 5.1(b) and includes any successor administrator appointed in accordance with the terms of the Fund Declaration of Trust and the Fund Administration Agreement.

"Affiliate" means, at any time, and with respect to any Person, any other Person that at such time directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries Controls, or is Controlled by, or is under common Control with, such first Person. As used in this definition, "Control" means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise. Unless the context otherwise clearly requires, any reference to an "Affiliate" is a reference to an Affiliate of the Fund.

"Anti-Terrorism Order" means United States Executive Order No. 13,224 of September 24, 2001, Blocking Property and Prohibiting Transactions with Persons Who Commit, Threaten to Commit or Support Terrorism, 66 U.S. Fed. Reg. 49, 079 (2001), as amended.

"Assignment" is defined in Section 23.1(b).

"Bank Facility" means the Credit Agreement dated as of April 21, 2005 as amended on April 21, 2006, September 5, 2006 and April 16, 2007, among the Partnership and the Company, as borrowers, and the financial institutions party thereto as Lenders, with Royal Bank of Canada as Administrative Agent, as further amended or restated from time to time, or any replacement bank facility that is put in place by the Company, the Fund or any Restricted Subsidiary as the primary bank credit facility of the Fund as a whole (regardless of whether the Fund, the Company or the Partnership or any combination thereof is the borrower under such replacement facility).

"Business Day" means (a) for the purposes of Section 8.8 only, any day other than a Saturday, a Sunday or a day on which commercial banks in New York, New York are required or authorized to be closed, and (b) for the purposes of any other provision of this Agreement, any day other than a Saturday, a Sunday or a day on which commercial banks in New York, New York, U.S.A., Toronto, Ontario, Canada or Calgary, Alberta, Canada are required or authorized to be closed.

"Canadian Held Notes" is defined in Section 5.9(d).

"Canadian Dollars" or "Cdn. $" means lawful money of Canada in same day immediately available freely transferable funds, or, if such funds are not available, the form of money of Canada that is customarily used in the settlement of international banking transactions on the date payment is due hereunder.

"Capital Lease" means, at any time, a lease with respect to which the lessee is required concurrently to recognize the acquisition of an asset and the incurrence of a liability in accordance with GAAP.

"Change of Control" means any circumstances arising after the date of the First Closing (other than as contemplated in Section 23.1(b)) in which a Person or combination of Persons acting jointly or in concert within the meaning of the Securities Act (Alberta) acquires

(a) a majority of the Voting Equity Capital of the Company, or

(b) (i) if the Fund is the direct or indirect holder of all of the equity interests in the Company, beneficial or voting ownership of a majority of the trust units in the Fund, or (ii) if the Fund is not the direct or indirect holder of all of the equity interests of the Company, a majority of the Voting Equity Capital of any entity that then is the direct or indirect holder of all of the equity interests of the Company, provided that in any event it shall not be a Change of Control if, immediately following such acquisition the Fund, or the Fund's successor, or any other Person of which the Fund is a Subsidiary as a result of such acquisition and which has provided a Guarantee of the Company's obligations under this Agreement and the Notes, has a credit rating in respect of its senior unsecured long term indebtedness for borrowed money debt of at least BBB- by Standard & Poors Rating Services or Baa3 by Moody's Investors Service or an equivalent rating by another rating agency of recognized national standing.

"Change of Control Prepayment Acceptance Notice" is defined in Section 8.4.

"Change of Control Prepayment Notice" is defined in Section 8.4.

"Code" means the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder from time to time.

"Collateral Agency Agreement" means the Amended and Restated Collateral Agency and Intercreditor Agreement dated as of August 26, 2003 among the Company, the Partnership, the Collateral Agent, the "Representatives" (as defined therein) and the other Secured Parties from time to time entitled to the benefit thereof, as amended, supplemented, restated, renewed or replaced from time to time as permitted by this Agreement.

"Collateral Agency Supplemental Documents" means:

(a) a Supplemental Agreement with respect to the Collateral Agency Agreement whereby the holders become "Additional Lenders" (as defined in the Collateral Agency Agreement) and agree to be bound by the provisions thereof,

(b) a Representative Appointment Agreement pursuant to which the holders appoint Royal Bank of Canada as their Representative under the Collateral Agency Agreement, and

(c) a Certificate Regarding Permitted Senior Notes by the Company confirming certain matters pertaining to the holders becoming entitled to become parties to the Collateral Agency Agreement.

"Collateral Agent" means Royal Bank of Canada, as the holder of the Subordination Agreements for the benefit of the Secured Parties as provided in the Collateral Agency Agreement or any successor collateral agent appointed under such agreement.

"Company" means Keyera Energy Facilities Limited, an Alberta corporation or any successor that becomes such in the manner prescribed in Section 9.12, 10.2 or 23.1 or otherwise.

"Confidential Information" is defined in Section 21.

"Consolidated Debt" means, without duplication, at any time and subject to Section 23.3(b), all Debt of the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries, determined on a consolidated basis after eliminating inter-company items.

"Consolidated EBITDA" means, without duplication, for any period and subject to Section 23.3(b), Consolidated Net Income for such period plus any income actually received by the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries during such period in the form of cash dividends or similar cash distributions, plus (but only to the extent deducted in determining Consolidated Net Income for such period):

(a) Consolidated Interest Charges for such period,

(b) depreciation, depletion and amortization taken by the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries during such period,

(c) any provision for current and future income taxes taken by the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries for such period, determined on a consolidated basis, and

(d) all other non-cash charges taken by the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries for such period, and less (but only to the extent included in determining Consolidated Net Income for such period) any non-cash gains, all determined on a consolidated basis.

For the purposes of this definition, if any Person (or assets of any Person) is acquired by the Company, the Fund or a Restricted Subsidiary (whether by amalgamation, asset or stock acquisition or otherwise) at any time during the relevant period of calculation such that it becomes a Restricted Subsidiary (if such Person is acquired as aforesaid), such acquisition shall be deemed to have been made on and as of the first day of such calculation period; and if any Person (or assets of any Person) is disposed of by the Company, the Fund or a Restricted

Subsidiary (whether by asset or stock sale or otherwise) at any time during the relevant period of calculation such that it ceases to be a Restricted Subsidiary, or the assets cease to be owned by the Company, the Fund or a Restricted Subsidiary, such disposition shall be deemed to have been made on and as of the first day of such calculation period.

"Consolidated Interest Charges" means, without duplication, for any period and subject to Section 23.3(b), the sum of the following (in each case, eliminating all offsetting debits and credits among the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries and all other items required to be eliminated in the course of the preparation of consolidated financial statements of the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries in accordance with GAAP):

(a) all interest in respect of Debt of the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries (including (i) imputed interest on rentals in respect of Capital Lease, (ii) original issue discount and non-cash interest payments or accruals on any Debt, (iii) the interest portion of all deferred payment obligations, (iv) all commissions, discounts and other fees and charges owed with respect to bankers' acceptances and letters of credit financing and currency and interest swap and hedging obligations, in each case to the extent attributable to such period) and (v) the all-in cost of funds (equivalent to interest) of any Receivables Securitization Programs, deducted in determining Consolidated Net Income for such period, and

(b) all debt discount and expense amortized or required to be amortized in the determination of Consolidated Net Income for such period.

For the purposes of this definition, if any Person (or assets of any Person) is acquired by the Company, the Fund or a Restricted Subsidiary (whether by amalgamation, asset or stock acquisition or otherwise) at any time during the relevant period of calculation such that it becomes a Restricted Subsidiary (if such Person is acquired as aforesaid), Debt in respect of such acquisition shall be deemed to have been incurred on and as of the first day of such calculation period; and if any Person (or assets of any Person) is disposed of by the Company, the Fund or a Restricted Subsidiary (whether by asset or stock sale or otherwise) at any time during the relevant period of calculation such that it ceases to be a Restricted Subsidiary, or the assets cease to be owned by the Company, the Fund or a Restricted Subsidiary, Debt relating to the entity or assets disposed of shall be deemed to have been repaid on and as of the first day of such calculation period.

"Consolidated Net Income" means, without duplication, for any period and subject to Section 23.3(b), the consolidated net income of the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries for such period (taken as a cumulative whole), as determined in accordance with GAAP, after eliminating all offsetting debits and credits between the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries and all other items required to be eliminated in the course of the preparation of consolidated financial statements of the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries in accordance with GAAP, provided that there shall be excluded:

(a) the income (or loss) of any Person accrued prior to the date it becomes a Restricted Subsidiary or is amalgamated into or consolidated with the Company, the Fund or a Restricted Subsidiary, and the income (or loss) of any Person, substantially all of the assets of which have been acquired in any manner, realized by such other Person prior to the date of acquisition,

(b) the income (or loss) of any Person (other than the Company, the Fund or a Restricted Subsidiary) in which the Company, the Fund or a Restricted Subsidiary has an ownership interest except to the extent of the amount of any dividends or distributions actually paid in cash to the Company, the Fund or a Restricted Subsidiary during such period,

(c) any gains or losses on the sale or other disposition of investments or fixed or capital assets, any write-downs of assets, any charges associated with discontinued business activities, any excluded losses, or any tax expense associated with excluded gains,

(d) any net income or gains or net losses resulting from a change in accounting principles in accordance with GAAP;

(e) any non-cash charges relating to stock option expenses; and

(f) extraordinary gains or losses or prior period adjustments of the Company, the Fund or a Restricted Subsidiary as determined in accordance with GAAP.

For the purposes of this definition, if any Person (or assets of any Person) is acquired by the Company, the Fund or a Restricted Subsidiary (whether by amalgamation, asset or stock acquisition or otherwise) at any time during the relevant period of calculation such that it becomes a Restricted Subsidiary (if such Person is acquired as aforesaid), such acquisition shall be deemed to have been made on and as of the first day of such calculation period; and if any Person (or assets of any Person) is disposed of by the Company, the Fund or a Restricted Subsidiary (whether by asset or stock sale or otherwise) at any time during the relevant period of calculation such that it ceases to be a Restricted Subsidiary, or the assets cease to be owned by the Company, the Fund or a Restricted Subsidiary, such disposition shall be deemed to have been made on and as of the first day of such calculation period.

"Consolidated Total Assets" means, without duplication, at any time and subject to Section 23.3(b), the total assets of the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries as determined in accordance with GAAP on a consolidated basis.

"Constating Documents" means the following:

(a) the Partnership Agreement;

(b) the Fund Declaration of Trust; and

(c) the other constating documents, by-laws, unanimous shareholders agreements or other formation or constitution documents of the Company, the Fund and the Subsidiary Guarantors.

"Crown" means the federal government of Canada and the government of any of its provinces and territories.

"Current Debt" means, without duplication, at any time and subject to Section 23.3(b), all obligations for borrowed money of the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries that would be classified as current liabilities on a consolidated basis, as determined in accordance with GAAP, including for certainty the current portion of long term Debt.

"Debt" with respect to any Person means, at any time, without duplication,

(a) its liabilities for borrowed money determined in accordance with GAAP, and its liabilities under a bond, note or indenture, whether or not liabilities for borrowed money determined in accordance with GAAP; provided that for the purposes of determining the amount of such liabilities, any application of accounting principles to non-cash items relating to Swaps that would increase or decrease the principal amount of any liability for borrowed money shall be disregarded;

(b) its liabilities for the deferred purchase price of property acquired by such Person (excluding all trade payables and other accounts payable arising in the ordinary course of business but including all liabilities created or arising under any conditional sale or other title retention agreement with respect to any such property);

(c) its liabilities appearing on its balance sheet in accordance with GAAP in respect of Capital Leases;

(d) its liabilities for borrowed money secured by any Lien with respect to any property owned by such Person (whether or not such Person has assumed or otherwise become liable for such liabilities);

(e) its liabilities in respect of acceptances, letters of credit, credit enhancement, or instruments serving a function similar to the foregoing, issued or accepted for such Person's account by banks or other financial institutions;

(f) its liabilities in respect of any Receivables Securitization Program;

(g) the amount of Working Capital Deficit; provided that any Working Capital Surplus shall be deducted in the calculation of Debt; and

(h) any Guarantee of such Person with respect to liabilities of a type described in any of clauses (a) through (g) above;

excluding (i) except with respect to clause (g) above, all Current Debt of such Person and (ii) all Subordinated Debt of such Person, but including all obligations of such Person of the character described above to the extent such Person remains legally liable in respect thereof, notwithstanding that any such obligation is deemed to be extinguished under GAAP.

"Default" means an event or condition the occurrence or existence of which would, with the lapse of time or the giving of notice or both, become an Event of Default.

"Default Rate" means in respect of amounts in U.S. Dollars, 2% over the rate of interest publicly announced by Citibank, N.A. in New York, New York as its "base" or "prime" rate. In respect of amounts in Canadian Dollars, "Default Rate" means that rate of interest that is the greater of (i) 2% per annum above the rate of interest stated in clause (a) of the first paragraph of the Notes, and (ii) 2% over the rate of interest publicly announced by Royal Bank of Canada as its prime rate for determining the interest rate it will charge for Canadian Dollar loans made by it in Canada.

"Disposition" is defined in Section 10.9.

"Distribution" means, with respect to any Person:

(a) the declaration, payment or setting aside for payment of any distributions, dividends or similar payments on or in respect of any equity interests in the capital of the Person (including any return of capital);

(b) the redemption, retraction, purchase, retirement or other acquisition, in whole or in part, of any equity interests in the capital of the Person or any securities, instruments or contractual rights capable of being converted into, exchanged or exercised for equity interests in the capital of the Person, including, without limitation, options, warrants, conversion or exchange privileges and similar rights;

(c) the making of any loan or advance or any other provision of credit to any Affiliate of the Person; and

(d) the payment of any principal, interest, fees or other amounts on or in respect of Subordinated Debt owing at any time by the Person; and whether any of the foregoing is made, paid or satisfied in or for cash, property or both, provided that none of the following shall constitute a Distribution:

(i) any of the foregoing to the extent they are made to or for the account of the Fund, the Company, any Subsidiary Guarantor or any other wholly-owned Subsidiary of the Fund;

(ii) any dividends or distributions by a Person made in shares, units or other equity interests of that Person;

(iii) any payment in the ordinary course to the Administrator pursuant to the provisions of the Fund Administration Agreement, or for other administrative services rendered in the ordinary course to the Fund or its Subsidiaries; and

(iv) any transactions between or among the Fund and its Subsidiaries in the ordinary course which from time to time result from the transfer of funds or entries undertaken in accordance with the terms of a customary centralized banking agreement in effect among all or any of such entities.

"Dollars" or "$" or "U.S. Dollars" means lawful money of the United States of America.

"Electronic Delivery" is defined in Section 7.1(a).

"Environmental Laws" means any and all Canadian and United States federal, provincial, state, local, and foreign statutes, laws, regulations, ordinances, rules, judgments, orders, decrees, permits, concessions, grants, franchises, licenses, agreements or governmental restrictions relating to pollution and the protection of the environment or the release of any materials into the environment, including but not limited to those related to hazardous substances or wastes, air emissions and discharges to waste or public systems.

"ERISA" means the United States Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended from time to time, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder from time to time in effect.

(l) Liens created or incurred in favour of a third party under any joint venture agreement, partnership agreement, operating agreement or similar agreement affecting the property which is the subject of such agreement, provided that (i) such agreement is entered into in the ordinary course of its business, on arms' length commercial terms, not in connection with the borrowing of money and otherwise in accordance with industry practice, (ii) reciprocal Liens or equivalent remedies are provided by the other parties to such agreement for the benefit of the Company, Fund or Restricted Subsidiary in circumstances where the creditworthiness of such other parties is essentially equivalent to or less than that of the Fund and (iii) the Liens have not become the subject of realization actions under applicable law, or if they have: (1) such realization actions are being contested by the Company, Fund or Restricted Subsidiary, as applicable, diligently and in good faith by appropriate proceedings, and (2) the final outcome of any such realization action could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;

(m) Liens securing intercompany Debt owing to the Company, the Fund or any Wholly-Owned Restricted Subsidiary;

(n) Liens created or incurred after the date of this Agreement given to secure the payment of the purchase price incurred in connection with the acquisition or purchase or the cost of construction of property or of assets useful and intended to be used in carrying on the business of the affected Company, Fund or Restricted Subsidiary, including Liens existing on such property or assets at the time of acquisition thereof or at the time of completion of construction, as the case may be, whether or not such existing Liens were given to secure the payment of the acquisition or purchase price or cost of construction, as the case may be, of the property or assets to which they attach, provided that:

(i) the Lien shall attach solely to the property or assets acquired, purchased or constructed,

(ii) such Lien shall have been created or incurred within 180 days of the date of acquisition or purchase or completion of construction, as the case may be,

(iii) at the time of acquisition or purchase or of completion of construction of such property or assets, the aggregate amount remaining unpaid on all Debt secured by Liens on such property or assets, whether or not assumed by the affected Company, Fund or Restricted Subsidiary, shall not exceed an amount equal to 100% of the lesser of the total purchase price or fair market value at the time of acquisition or purchase (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company) or the cost of construction on the date of completion thereof, and

(iv) at the time of creation, issuance, assumption, guarantee or incurrence of the Debt secured by such Lien and after giving effect thereto and to the application of the proceeds thereof, no Default or Event of Default would exist (including, without limitation, under Sections 10.6 and 10.7, with any calculation of compliance therewith to be made as of the date of determination hereunder) and the Company could incur at least an additional Cdn.$1.00 of Debt under Section 10.5;

and any Lien renewing, extending or refunding any Lien permitted by this clause (o), provided that (i) the principal amount of Debt secured by such Lien immediately prior to such extension, renewal or refunding is not increased and (ii) such Lien is not extended to any other property;

(o) any Lien existing on property or assets of a Person at the time such Person is consolidated, merged or amalgamated with or into the affected Company, Fund or Restricted Subsidiary or its becoming the Company, the Fund or Restricted Subsidiary, or any Lien existing on any property or assets acquired by the affected Company, Fund or Restricted Subsidiary at the time such property or assets are so acquired (whether or not the Debt secured thereby shall have been assumed), provided that:

(i) each such Lien shall extend solely to the property or assets so acquired,

(ii) any such Lien shall not have been created or assumed in contemplation of such consolidation, amalgamation, merger or acquisition, and

(iii) at the time of creation, issuance, assumption, guarantee or incurrence of the Debt secured by such Lien and after giving effect thereto and to the application of the proceeds thereof, no Default or Event of Default would exist;

and any Lien renewing, extending or refunding any Lien permitted by this clause (o), provided that (i) the principal amount of Debt secured by such Lien immediately prior to such extension, renewal or refunding is not increased and (ii) such Lien is not extended to any other property;

(p) Liens on property or assets subject to a Receivables Securitization Program;

(q) any licenses, royalties, gross overriding royalties or other similar burdens affecting the Company's, the Fund's or any Restricted Subsidiary's properties which are granted on an arm's length basis to third parties in the ordinary course of business and not in connection with the borrowing of money;

(r) Liens existing on the date of this Agreement and securing the Debt of the Company, the Fund and the Restricted Subsidiaries referred to in Schedule 5.15 and any Lien renewing, extending or refunding any Lien permitted by this clause (r), provided that (i) the principal amount of Debt secured by such Lien immediately prior to such extension, renewal or refunding is not increased and (ii) such Lien is not extended to any other property;

(s) Liens created or incurred to secure Debt of the affected Company, Fund or Restricted Subsidiary in addition to the Liens permitted by the preceding clauses, provided that:

(i) all Debt secured by such Liens shall have been created or incurred within the limitation provided in Sections 10.5 and 10.7, and

(ii) at the time of creation or incurrence of the Debt secured by such Liens and after giving effect thereto and to the application of the proceeds thereof, no Default or Event of Default would exist.

"Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association, trust, unincorporated organization, business entity or Governmental Authority.

"Plan" means an "employee benefit plan" (as defined in section 3(3) of ERISA) subject to Title I of ERISA that is or, within the preceding five years, has been established or maintained, or to which contributions are or, within the preceding five years, have been made or required to be made, by the Company or any ERISA Affiliate or with respect to which the Company or any ERISA Affiliate may have any liability.

"Priority Debt" means, without duplication:

(a) all Debt of the Company, the Fund or a Subsidiary Guarantor secured by a Lien created, incurred or permitted to exist within the limitation in clause (s) of the definition of "Permitted Encumbrances", plus

(b) all Debt of any Restricted Subsidiary (but excluding Qualified Subsidiary Debt).

(as at the date hereof, Keyera Energy Management Ltd.), as "Subordinated Party", KeySpan Energy Canada Partnership (as at the date hereof, the Partnership), the Company and the Collateral Agent.

"Subsidiary" means, as to any Person, any corporation, association or other business entity in which such Person or one or more of its Subsidiaries or such Person and one or more of its Subsidiaries owns sufficient equity or voting interests to enable it or them (as a group) ordinarily, in the absence of contingencies, to elect a majority of the directors (or Persons performing similar functions) of such entity, and any partnership or joint venture if more than a 50% interest in the profits or capital thereof is owned by such Person or one or more of its Subsidiaries or such Person and one or more of its Subsidiaries (unless such partnership or joint venture can and does ordinarily take major business actions without the prior approval of such Person or one or more of its Subsidiaries). Notwithstanding the foregoing, a joint venture or other business association (other than a partnership) that is not a separate legal entity apart from the joint venturers or owners thereof under applicable governing law, and whose assets and liabilities are therefore those of its joint venturers or owners, shall not be a "Subsidiary" in and of itself. Unless the context otherwise clearly requires, any reference to a "Subsidiary" is a reference to a Subsidiary of the Fund.

"Subsidiary Guarantee" means a guarantee by the Partnership and any other Subsidiary of the Fund that becomes a party thereto pursuant to this Agreement, guaranteeing the obligations of the Company under this Agreement and the Notes to each holder of a Note, as amended, restated or replaced from time to time.

"Subsidiary Guarantor" means a Restricted Subsidiary of the Fund that has executed and delivered a Subsidiary Guarantee to the holders of Notes, and in respect of which the holders of Notes have received a favourable legal opinion of counsel to the Company as to the due authorization, execution, delivery, legality, validity and enforceability of its obligations to the holders of Notes under the Subsidiary Guarantee, and that such obligations do not violate or conflict with any law, Constating Document or agreement to which it is a party or by which its assets are bound, nor violate any restrictions, if any, governing financial assistance (or similar restrictions in the applicable jurisdiction).

"SVO" means the Securities Valuation Office of the NAIC or any successor to such Office.

"Swapped Note" is defined in Section 8.8(b).

"Swaps" means, with respect to any Person, payment obligations with respect to interest rate swaps, currency swaps, commodity swaps and similar obligations obligating such Person to make payments, whether periodically or upon the happening of a contingency; provided that such swap arrangements are non-speculative and are entered into in the ordinary course of business.

"Tax" means any tax (whether income, documentary, sales, stamp, registration, issue, capital, property, excise or otherwise), duty, assessment, levy, impost, fee, compulsory loan, charge or withholding.

"Tax Act" means the Income Tax Act (Canada).

"Tax Prepayment Acceptance Notice" is defined in Section 8.3.

"Tax Prepayment Notice" is defined in Section 8.3.

"Tax Reorganization" is defined in Section 23.1(b).

"Taxing Jurisdiction" is defined in Section 13.

"2003 Note Purchase Agreements" means the Note Purchase Agreements of the Company and the Partnership dated as of August 26, 2003, as amended, modified or restated from time to time.

"2004 Note Purchase Agreements" means the Note Purchase Agreements of the Company and the Partnership dated as of September 30, 2004, as amended, modified or restated from time to time.

"Unrestricted Subsidiary" means any Subsidiary of the Fund (other than the Company) that is not a Restricted Subsidiary.

"USA Patriot Act" means United States Public Law 107-56, Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism (USA PATRIOT ACT) Act of 2001, as amended from time to time, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder from time to time in effect.

"Voting Equity Capital" means, without duplication, equity interests of any class or classes, the holders of which are ordinarily, in the absence of contingencies, entitled to elect a majority of the corporate directors (or Persons performing similar functions).

"Wholly-Owned Restricted Subsidiary" means, at any time, any Restricted Subsidiary all of the equity interests (except directors' qualifying shares) and voting interests of which are directly or indirectly owned by any one or more of the Company, the Fund and other Wholly-Owned Restricted Subsidiaries at such time.

"Working Capital Deficit" means, without duplication, at any time and subject to Section 23.3(b), the amount, if any, by which the amount of current liabilities at such time exceeds the amount of current assets at such time, as determined in accordance with GAAP on a consolidated basis in respect of the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries.

"Working Capital Surplus" means, without duplication, at any time and subject to Section 23.3(b), the amount, if any, by which the amount of current assets at such time exceeds the amount of current liabilities at such time, as determined in accordance with GAAP on a consolidated basis in respect of the Company, the Fund and its Restricted Subsidiaries.

Cdn.$[_____] PPN C4931# AA7

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the undersigned, KEYERA ENERGY FACILITIES LIMITED (herein called the "Company"), a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Alberta, hereby promises to pay to [_____], or registered assigns, the principal sum of [_____] CANADIAN DOLLARS (or so much thereof as shall not have been prepaid) on December 3, 2017, with interest (computed on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months) (a) on the unpaid balance thereof at the rate of 5.89% per annum (i) payable on June 3, 2008 for the period from and including [September 4, 2007/December 3, 2007] to but not including June 3, 2008, and thereafter, (ii) payable semiannually, on the 3rd day of December and June in each year, commencing with December 3, 2008, until the principal hereof shall have become due and payable, and (b) to the extent permitted by law, on any overdue payment (including any overdue prepayment) of principal, any overdue payment of interest and any overdue payment of any Make-Whole Amount, payable semi-annually as aforesaid (or, at the option of the registered holder hereof, on demand), at a rate per annum from time to time equal to the greater of (i) 7.89% and (ii) 2% over the rate of interest publicly announced by Royal Bank of Canada as its prime rate for determining the interest rate it will charge for Canadian Dollar loans made by it in Canada.

Interest on this Series A Note shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year of 12 30-day months. Solely for purpose of the Interest Act (Canada), the yearly rate of interest to which interest calculated for a period of less than one year on the basis of a year of 360 days consisting of twelve 30-day periods is equivalent is such rate of interest multiplied by a fraction of which (i) the numerator is the product of (A) the actual number of days in the year commencing on the first day of such period, multiplied by (B) the sum of (y) the product of 30 multiplied by the number of complete months elapsed in such period and (z) the actual number of days elapsed in any incomplete month in such period; and (ii) the denominator is the product of (a) 360 multiplied by(b) the actual number of days in such period. All interest payable by the Company hereunder shall accrue from day to day, computed as described herein and shall be payable after as well as before maturity, demand, default and judgment. The theory of "deemed reinvestment" shall not apply to the computation of interest hereunder and no allowance, reduction or deduction shall be made for the deemed reinvestment of interest in respect of any payments hereunder. Calculation of interest hereunder shall be made using the nominal rate method, and not the effective rate method, of calculation.

Payments of principal of, interest on and any Make-Whole Amount with respect to this Series A Note are to be made in lawful money of Canada at the principal office of the Company in Calgary, Alberta or at such place as the Company shall have designated by written notice to the holder of this Series A Note as provided in the Note Purchase Agreement referred to below.

This Series A Note is one of the Senior Guaranteed Notes (herein called the "Notes") issued pursuant to the Note Purchase Agreement, dated as of September 4, 2007 (as from time to time amended, the "Note Purchase Agreement"), among the Company, Keyera Facilities Income Fund and the respective Purchasers named therein and is entitled to the benefits thereof. Each holder of this Series A Note will be deemed, by its acceptance hereof, to have (i) agreed to the confidentiality provisions set forth in Section 21 of the Note Purchase Agreement and (ii) made the representation set forth in Section 6.2 of the Note Purchase Agreement. Unless otherwise indicated, capitalized terms used in this Series A Note shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the Note Purchase Agreement.

This Series A Note is a registered Note and, as provided in the Note Purchase Agreement, upon surrender of this Series A Note for registration of transfer, accompanied by a written instrument of transfer duly executed by the registered holder hereof or such holder's attorney duly authorized in writing, a new Series A Note for a like principal amount will be issued to, and registered in the name of, the transferee. Prior to due presentment for registration of transfer, the Company may treat the person in whose name this Series A Note is registered as the owner hereof for the purpose of receiving payment and for all other purposes, and the Company will not be affected by any notice to the contrary.

This Series A Note is subject to optional prepayment, in whole or from time to time in part, at the times and on the terms specified in the Note Purchase Agreement, but not otherwise.

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the principal of this Series A Note may be declared or otherwise become due and payable in the manner, at the price (including any applicable Make-Whole Amount) and with the effect provided in the Note Purchase Agreement.

This Series A Note is guaranteed pursuant to the Subsidiary Guarantee and (upon execution and delivery thereof in accordance with Section 9.12 of the Note Purchase Agreement), the Fund Guarantee, and reference is hereby made to such guarantees.

This Series A Note shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and the rights of the Company and the holder of this Series A Note shall be governed by, the law of the Province of Alberta excluding choice-of-law principles of the law of such Province that would permit the application of the laws of a jurisdiction other than such Province.

[Form of Opinion of Canadian Counsel to the Company, the Fund and the Partnership]

[September 4, 2007 - First Closing]
[December 3, 2007 - Second Closing]

The Purchasers of the Notes under the Note Purchase Agreement referred to below

Dear Sirs:

Re: Keyera Energy Facilities Limited: 5.89% Cdn.$[•],000,000 Series A Senior Guaranteed Notes due December 3, 2017 and 6.14% Cdn.$[•],000,000 Series B Senior Guaranteed Notes due December 3, 2022 (collectively, the "Notes")

We have acted as general legal counsel to Keyera Energy Facilities Limited (the "Company"), Keyera Facilities Income Fund (the "Fund"), Keyera Energy Partnership (the "Partnership"), Keyera Energy Management Ltd. ("KEML") in its capacity as managing partner of the Partnership, and KEML in its capacity as Administrator of the Fund under the Fund Administration Agreement, all in connection with the Note Purchase Agreement dated as of September 4, 2007 among the Company, the Fund and the Purchasers party thereto (the "Note Agreement") and the transactions among such parties with respect thereto including, without limitation, the issuance and sale by the Company to the Purchasers of the Notes. This opinion is furnished to you pursuant to Section 4.5(a) of the Note Agreement and with the understanding that the Purchasers are purchasing the Notes in reliance hereon.

Documents Reviewed

We have participated in the preparation of and have examined original executed copies of:

1. the Note Agreement;

2. the Notes;

3. the Subsidiary Guarantee of the Partnership dated September 4, 2007;

4. the Collateral Agency Agreement dated as of August 26, 2003;

5. the Supplemental Agreement dated September 4, 2007 adding the Purchasers as "Additional Lenders" under the Collateral Agency Agreement;

6. the Representative Appointment Agreement dated as of September 4, 2007 among the Company, the Collateral Agent and the Noteholders Representative (as defined therein) and the Purchasers;

7. the Amended and Restated Subordination Agreement dated as of August 26, 2003 by KeySpan Facilities Commercial Trust (as at the date hereof, Keyera Facilities Commercial Trust), as "Subordinated Party" (the "Commercial Trust"), KeySpan Energy Canada Partnership (as at the date hereof, the Partnership), the Company and the Collateral Agent;

8. the Amended and Restated Subordination Agreement dated as of August 26, 2003 by KeySpan Facilities Limited Partnership (as at the date hereof, Keyera Facilities Limited Partnership), as "Subordinated Party" ("KFLP"), KeySpan Energy Canada Partnership (as at the date hereof, the Partnership), the Company and the Collateral Agent;

9. the Amended and Restated Subordination Agreement dated as of August 26, 2003 by the Fund, as "Subordinated Party", KeySpan Energy Canada Partnership (as at the date hereof, the Partnership), the Company and the Collateral Agent; and

10. the Amended and Restated Subordination Agreement dated as of August 26, 2003 by KeySpan Canada Management Ltd. (as at the date hereof, KEML), as "Subordinated Party", KeySpan Energy Canada Partnership (as at the date hereof, the Partnership), the Company and the Collateral Agent;

(the above documents are collectively called the "Documents").

Computershare Trust Company of Canada in its capacity as trustee of the Fund is herein referred to in such capacity as the "Fund Trustee". References herein to the Fund Trustee shall be interpreted as including the Fund.

The Company, the Fund, the Partnership, KEML, the Commercial Trust and KFLP and are herein collectively called the "Transaction Parties" and individually a "Transaction Party". Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined have the meanings set forth in the Note Agreement.

We have also reviewed and examined an original signed copy of a Certificate of Corporate, Partnership and Trust Authority relating to each of the Company, the Fund and the Partnership (the "Certificate"), dated [First Closing][Second Closing], copies of which have been provided to you, and we have relied on the same as to various matters of fact expressed therein.

In giving the opinion expressed in paragraph 1 below as to the valid subsistence of the Company and KEML in Alberta, we have relied on a Certificate of Status of recent date issued by the Registrar of Corporations (Alberta).

In giving the opinions expressed in paragraphs 7 and 8 below (insofar as the same pertain to the securities laws of Alberta), we have relied upon the representations and warranties of the Purchasers in Section 6.1 of the Note Agreement.

In giving the opinions expressed in paragraphs 9(d) and 9(e)(ii) below, we have relied upon the accuracy of the factual representations and warranties set out in Section 5.15 and paragraph B of Schedule 5.15 of the Note Agreement with respect to the identification of the instruments, contracts and agreements which limit the amount of, or otherwise impose restrictions on, the incurring of Debt, and we have reviewed those documents and the documents referred to in paragraph B of Schedule 5.15 of the Note Agreement (collectively, the "Listed Agreements").

In addition to the foregoing, we have made such investigations, examined such certificates of public authorities, corporate and trust records and other documents certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, and have considered such questions of law, as we have considered necessary and appropriate as a basis for providing the opinions expressed herein.

Assumptions

In such examinations we have assumed:

(a) the genuineness of all signatures, except those of signatories for the Transaction Parties, on all documents purporting to be originals and on the originals of all documents submitted to us as copies;

(b) the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals and of the originals of all documents submitted to us as copies;

(c) the conformity to originals of all documents submitted to us as copies;

(d) the due authorization, execution and delivery of all documents by each party thereto other than the Transaction Parties, the legal existence, power and capacity of each such party and the legal capacity of all individuals signing on behalf of each such party; and

(e) other than with respect to the Transaction Parties, that the Documents constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of each party thereto, enforceable against them in accordance with their respective terms.

When used herein, the phrase "our knowledge" means the actual knowledge of the solicitors in our firm who have given substantive attention to the transactions described above and the actual knowledge of the solicitors presently with our firm who have given substantive attention to matters relating to the Transaction Parties' affairs and does not include constructive knowledge of matters or information.

Applicable Law

We express no opinion as to the laws of any jurisdiction other than the laws of Alberta and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein.

Opinions

Based upon and subject to the foregoing and to the qualifications hereinafter expressed, we are of the opinion that:

1. Each of the Company and KEML has been duly incorporated and is validly subsisting as a corporation under the Business Corporations Act (Alberta) and has not been dissolved under that Act.

2. Each of the Fund and the Commercial Trust is a duly created and validly existing trust under the laws of Alberta, Computershare Trust Company of Canada is the trustee of the Fund, Keyera Energy (CT) Ltd. is the trustee of the Commercial Trust, and KEML, pursuant to the Fund Administration Agreement, is the administrator of each of the Fund and the Commercial Trust and as such KEML is duly authorized to execute and deliver the Documents to which the Fund and the Commercial Trust is a party.

3. The Partnership is a duly created and validly existing general partnership under the laws of Alberta, KFLP is a duly created and validly existing limited partnership under the laws of Ontario, KEML is the sole managing partner of the Partnership, and pursuant to the Fund Administration Agreement, is the administrator of KFLP, and as such KEML is duly authorized to execute and deliver the Documents to which the Partnership and the KFLP is a party.

4. Each Transaction Party has the corporate, trust or partnership (as applicable) power and capacity:

   (a) to own, hold or lease its property and conduct its business as now conducted;

   (b) in the case of the Company, to create, issue and sell the Notes;

   (c) in the case of the Partnership, to guarantee the Notes; and

   (d) to execute and deliver the Documents to which it is a party and incur and perform its obligations thereunder.

5. The Documents, the execution, delivery and performance thereof (and additionally in the case of the Notes, the creation, issuance and sale thereof), and the transactions contemplated therein, have been duly and properly authorized by all necessary corporate, trust or partnership (as applicable) action on the part of the Transaction Parties executing the same.

6. The Documents have been duly and properly executed and delivered by the Transaction Parties executing the same (which, in the case of the Documents to which each of the Fund, the Partnership, the Commercial Trust and KEFL is a party, includes the execution and delivery of such Documents by KEML on its behalf, and such Documents constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Transaction Parties executing the same enforceable against them in accordance with their respective terms.

7. The offering, issuance and sale of the Notes by the Company to the Purchasers is exempt from the prospectus and registration requirements of the Securities Act (Alberta) (the "Securities Act").

8. No authorization, consent, approval or exemption from, or filing, registration, recordation, notarization, declaration or qualification with, or before, or giving notice to, any governmental authority or regulatory body of Alberta or the federal government of Canada, or any agency, department or division of any thereof (including any securities authorities), is required to be obtained, given or made:

   (a) for the creation, execution, issuance and performance of the Notes or the due execution and delivery by each Transaction Party of the Documents to which it is a party or the performance of the terms of each such Document;

   (b) to permit the sale of the Notes to the Purchasers; or other than the filing of a Form 45-106F1 under National Instrument 45-106 within 10 days of the issuance of the Notes.

   (c) to ensure the validity and enforceability of the Documents;

9. The authorization, creation, execution, issuance and sale by the Company of the Notes and the authorization, execution and delivery by each Transaction Party of each Document to which it is a party and the performance of each such Transaction Party's obligations under each such Document:

   (a) do not and will not contravene or conflict with any applicable law, statute, rule or regulation in force in Alberta;

   (b) based upon the Certificate and our knowledge, do not and will not contravene or conflict with any judgment, order or decree of any court, tribunal or arbitrator, or any public, governmental or regulatory agency, authority or body to which it or any of its material assets is subject in Alberta;

   (c) do not and will not contravene or conflict with any provision of (i) the articles or by laws of the Company, (ii) the Fund Declaration of Trust, or (iii) the Partnership Agreement;

   (d) do not and will not:

      (i) result in the creation or imposition of any Lien on any asset of any Transaction Party pursuant to the provisions of any Listed Agreement;

      (ii) entitle any Person to call for any Lien under any Listed Agreement; or

(iii) entitle any Person, immediately or upon notice or lapse of time or both, to accelerate the payment of borrowed moneys under any Listed Agreement; and

(e) do not and will not contravene or conflict with:

(i) to our knowledge, any resolution or determination of the directors or shareholders or committees of any of the respective Transaction Parties; or

(ii) any Listed Agreement.

10. Based upon the Certificate and our knowledge, there is no litigation or judicial, arbitration or administrative proceedings against any Transaction Party subsisting, pending or threatened in Alberta which, if determined adversely to such Transaction Party, purports to challenge the legality, validity or enforceability of any of the Documents or the rights granted to the holders thereunder.

11. The holders will not be deemed or considered to have a permanent establishment in Alberta or to be carrying on any business in Alberta solely by reason of the Transaction Parties' execution, delivery and performance of the Documents or by the holders acquisition or holding of the Notes or receipt of payments thereunder or by their enforcement of their rights under the Documents.

12. Assuming that the holders are not otherwise required to be licensed, qualified or entitled to carry on business in Alberta, it is not necessary for the holders to become licensed, qualified or entitled to carry on business in Alberta, or that any approval, consent or permission be obtained from any regulatory or public authority therein:

(a) solely by reason of the execution, delivery or performance of the Documents or holding the Notes; or

(b) to enable the holders to commence an action or to otherwise enforce its rights under the Documents.

13. The Transaction Parties are subject to the relevant civil law of Alberta and are generally subject to suit in Alberta, and none of the Transaction Parties, nor any of their property, enjoys any right of immunity from any judicial proceedings in Alberta.

14. No stamp, documentary, registration, or similar taxes or duties are required to be paid under the laws of the Province of Alberta or the laws of Canada applicable in the Province of Alberta upon or in connection with the due execution and delivery of the Documents, the performance by the Transaction Parties of their respective obligations thereunder or the enforcement by the Purchasers of their rights thereunder.

15. Under the existing laws of Alberta and the federal laws of Canada applicable in Alberta as of the date hereof ("Applicable Law"), and based on our understanding of the current administrative practice and policies of the Canadian Revenue Agency, and provided, at the date of the issuance of the Notes and throughout the term of the Notes, that:

(a) a particular holder of a Note does not use the debt owing to it under the Documents in, or hold such debt in the course of, carrying on business in Canada, and is not deemed to use such debt in connection with a business carried on in Canada for the purposes of the Income Tax Act (Canada) (the "Tax Act"), and, where the holder carries on an insurance business in Canada and elsewhere, it establishes that the debt is neither "designated insurance property" (as defined in subsection 138(12) of the Tax Act and Regulation 2401(1) of the regulations to the Tax Act) nor effectively connected with the insurance business it carries on in Canada;

(b) the particular holder deals at arm's length with the Company for the purposes of the Tax Act; and

(c) the particular holder is not resident in Canada and is not deemed to be resident in Canada for the purposes of the Tax Act;

then:

(d) the Company is presently permitted to make all payments on the Notes to the particular holder of: (A) the principal amount of the Notes; (B) interest on such principal amount; (C) interest on such interest; and (D) the Make-Whole Amounts, free and clear of and without deduction for or on account of any taxes, levies, assessments, duties, governmental charges and withholdings of any nature imposed, levied, assessed or collected under Applicable Law (collectively, "Taxes"); and

(e) any such amounts referred to in paragraph (d) above which are owing or payable, or which become owing or payable, by the Company to the particular holder and which are paid by the Company to the particular holder are not the subject of any Taxes to the particular holder.

16. Based solely upon our examination of the registers maintained by the Transaction Parties, the Voting Equity Capital in each of the Company and the Partnership is indirectly wholly-owned by the Fund.

17. The payment obligations of the Transaction Parties under the Documents to which each is a party rank at least pari passu in right of payment with all other unsecured Debt (actual or contingent) which is (x) not subordinated to any other Debt of such Transaction Party, nor (y) entitled to any preference or priority under any laws to which creditors generally are subject or entitled.

Qualifications

The opinions expressed herein are subject to the following qualifications:

(a) the enforceability of the Documents and the rights and remedies set out therein or any judgment arising out of or in connection therewith may be limited by any applicable bankruptcy, reorganization, winding up, insolvency, arrangement, preference, moratorium or other laws and judicial decisions of general application affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights from time to time in effect, and is subject to general principles of equity, whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law (including the equitable or statutory powers of the courts to stay proceedings before them, to stay the execution of judgments and to grant relief against forfeiture), and in particular no opinion is expressed as to the availability of the remedy of specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable or discretionary remedies in any particular instance;

(b) provisions in the Documents providing for recovery of fees and expenses may be restricted by a court to a reasonable amount and counsel fees are subject to taxation;

(c) the Currency Act (Canada) precludes a court in Canada from giving a judgment in any currency other than Canadian currency and such judgment may be based on a rate of exchange in existence on a day other than the day of payment of such judgment;

(d) Section 6 of the Judgment Interest Act (Alberta) may limit the rate of interest which a judgment debt bears, and we express no opinion as to the enforceability of Section 23.10(f) of the Note Agreement which purports to waive Section 6 of the Judgment Interest Act (Alberta);

(e) the additional or increased rate of interest imposed upon the Company pursuant to Section 23.10(a) of the Note Agreement and the first paragraph of each Note, and the Make-Whole Amount payable by the Company pursuant to Section 8.8 of the Note Agreement, may not be enforceable if they are construed to be penalties, but such finding would not of itself prejudice the legality of any other provision of the Documents;

(f) determinations or calculations made by the holders in the exercise of a discretion purported to be given to them under or by any of the Documents may be unenforceable if made in an unreasonable or arbitrary fashion and may not be treated as conclusive notwithstanding contrary provisions in the Documents, and determinations or references based upon the practice of a certain Person or the publication or reporting of certain rates or yields may not be enforceable if the practice of such Person changes or the rates or yields are not ascertainable or are equivocal;

(g) provisions in the Documents which purport to effect waivers of the benefits or protection of doctrines, principles or statutory provisions viewed by a Court as based on public policy and provisions which purport to exclude unwritten variations, amendments, waivers or consents may not be enforceable;

(h) with regard to Section 23.4 (severability clause) and similar provisions of any of the other Documents, the question whether or not any provisions which may be invalid or unenforceable may be severed from the other provisions thereof in order to save those other provisions would be determined by a court in its discretion;

(i) failure to exercise a right of action under the Documents within applicable limitation periods may act as a bar to the enforcement of such rights at any time thereafter;

(j) if the holders were to declare the principal of the Notes to be forthwith due and payable by reason of the occurrence of an Event of Default, the holders may be required to give the Company a reasonable time to raise monies to repay such indebtedness prior to taking any action to enforce their right to repayment or before exercising any of the rights and remedies expressed to be exercisable by the holders in any of the Documents as a result of the occurrence of such Event of Default;

(k) with respect to the Listed Agreements, no opinion is expressed herein as to compliance with covenants containing financial ratios or tests contained therein;

(l) except as specifically provided in paragraphs 11 and 12, no opinion is expressed as to whether any activities carried on by a particular holder prior to, or in connection with, the purchase by such holder of the Notes or the negotiation of the Documents would result in such holder being deemed or considered to have a permanent establishment or to be carrying on any business in Alberta; and

(m) in respect of matters related to searches conducted by us, we have relied solely upon searches conducted at the public registries, which searches have been conducted, and reported on, by employees of such registries.

Reliance

This opinion relates exclusively to the transactions described above. This opinion is rendered solely for the use of the addressees hereof and transferees in accordance with the provisions of the Note Agreement and may not be relied on by any other parties for any other purpose without our prior written consent.

Yours truly,

Macleod Dixon LLP

WHEREAS:

The Borrowers, certain of the Existing Lenders, the Agent and others entered into the Prior Credit Agreement;

The Borrowers, the Lenders and the Agent have determined to enter into this Agreement to provide for a credit facility in replacement of the credit facilities made available to the Borrowers under the Prior Credit Agreement;

The Lenders require the Fund to execute this Agreement as Guarantor and Covenantor;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, the covenants herein contained and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by each of the parties hereto, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1
INTERPRETATION

1.1 Definitions

In this Agreement, including the recitals and the Schedules hereto and in all notices pursuant to this Agreement, unless something in the subject matter or context is inconsistent therewith, the following words and phrases shall have the following meanings:

"Acceleration Date" means the date of delivery of an Acceleration Notice by the Agent to the Borrowers;

"Acceleration Notice" means a written notice delivered by the Agent to the Borrowers pursuant to Section 10.2(b) declaring all Indebtedness of the Borrowers outstanding to the Agent and the Lenders hereunder to be due and payable;

"Accommodations" means the advance of Loans, the provision of Letter of Credit Advances, the acceptance of Bankers' Acceptances and, if applicable, the advance of BA Equivalent Advances;

"Accounts" means the accounts and records established by the Agent pursuant to Section 4.5 to record each Borrower's liability to each of the Lenders in respect of the Accommodations and other amounts outstanding by each Borrower to each of the Lenders and the Agent hereunder;

"Administrator" means KEML, in its capacity as administrator of the Fund;

"Affiliate" means any Person which, directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by or is under common control with another Person; and for the purposes of this definition, "control" (including, with correlative meanings, the terms "controlled by" or "under common control with") means the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of any Person, whether through the ownership of Voting Shares or by contract or otherwise;

"Agent" means RBC when acting in its capacity as administrative agent hereunder and includes any successor agent appointed pursuant to Section 12.16 and any successor entity to RBC;

"Agent's Account for Payments" means, with respect to payments made by a Borrower or a Lender in connection with the Credit Facility, such accounts maintained by the Agent at the Agent's Branch of Account referred to in the definition thereof as the Agent may from time to time advise the Borrowers or the Lenders, as applicable, in writing;

"Agent's Branch of Account" means the principal office of the Agent in Toronto, Ontario or such other office or branch of the Agent in Canada as the Agent may from time to time advise the Borrowers and the Lenders in writing;

"Conversion Notice" means a notice in the form of Schedule "C";

"Convertible Debentures" means:

(a) the Existing Convertible Debentures; and

(b) any other convertible subordinated debentures or notes issued by the Fund which have all of the following characteristics:

(i) an initial final maturity or due date in respect of repayment of principal extending beyond the latest Maturity Date of any Lender under this Agreement in effect at the time such debentures or notes are created, incurred, assumed or guaranteed;

(ii) no scheduled or mandatory payment or repurchase of principal thereunder (other than acceleration following an event of default in regard thereto or payments which can be satisfied by the delivery of units of the Fund as contemplated in (vi) below and other than on a change of control of the Fund where a change of control of the Fund as set out in Section 10.1(j)(C) also occurs) prior to the Maturity Date in effect at the time such debentures or notes are created, incurred, assumed or guaranteed;

(iii) all amounts payable in respect of principal, premium (if any) or interest under such debentures or notes are subordinate and junior in right of payment to all Indebtedness under this Agreement;

(iv) upon and during the continuance of an Event of Default or acceleration of the time for repayment of any of the Indebtedness under this Agreement which has not been rescinded, no enforcement steps or enforcement proceedings may be commenced in respect of such debentures or notes;

(v) upon distribution of the assets of the Fund on any dissolution, winding up, total liquidation or reorganization of the Fund (whether in bankruptcy, insolvency or receivership proceedings or upon an assignment for the benefit of creditors or any other marshalling of the assets and liabilities of such Person, or otherwise), all Indebtedness under this Agreement shall first be paid in full, or provisions made for such payment, before any payment is made on account of principal, premium (if any) or interest payable in regard to such debentures or notes;

(vi) the occurrence of a Default or Event of Default hereunder or the acceleration of the time for repayment of any of the Indebtedness under this Agreement or enforcement of the rights and remedies of the Agent and the Lenders hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall not in and of themselves:

(A) cause a default or event of default (with the passage of time or otherwise) under such debentures or notes or the indenture governing the same; or

(B) cause or permit the obligations under such debentures or notes to be due and payable prior to the stated maturity thereof; and

(vii) payments of interest or principal due and payable under such debentures or notes can be satisfied, at the option of the Fund, by delivering units of the Fund in accordance with the indenture or agreement governing such debentures or notes (whether such units of the Fund are received by the holders of such debentures or notes as payment or are sold by a trustee or representative under such indenture or agreement to provide cash for payment to holders of such debentures or notes);

"Credit Facility" means the credit facility made available to the Borrowers by the Lenders pursuant to this Agreement, for the purposes specified in Section 3.2;

"Currency Swap" means a financial arrangement entered into between a Person and a counterparty on a case by case basis in connection with a foreign exchange futures contract, currency swap, currency option or currency exchange or other similar currency related transactions, the purpose and effect of which is to mitigate or eliminate the exposure to fluctuations in exchange rates;

"Current Debt" means, at any particular date of determination, the Indebtedness of the Fund (determined on a consolidated basis) which constitutes current liabilities of the Fund (excluding Non-Restricted Subsidiaries) on a consolidated basis, as determined in accordance with GAAP;

"Debt" means, at any time and as determined in accordance with GAAP on a consolidated basis for the Fund (excluding Non-Restricted Subsidiaries), an amount equal to the aggregate of:

(a) all Indebtedness for Borrowed Money of the Loan Parties, excluding Current Debt;

(b) all other obligations of a Loan Party in respect of which interest charges are customarily paid, excluding Current Debt;

(c) all obligations secured by any Security Interest existing on property owned by a Loan Party, whether or not the obligations secured thereby shall have been assumed, excluding Current Debt;

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

2.1 Representations and Warranties

The Fund and each Borrower represents and warrants to each of the Lenders and the Agent for and on behalf of itself (provided that any representations and warranties by the Fund shall only be made to the extent such representations and warranties relate to the Fund), and each Borrower represents and warrants to each of the Lenders and the Agent for and on behalf of each other Loan Party (all of which representations and warranties the Fund and each Borrower hereby acknowledge are being relied upon by the Lenders and the Agent in entering into this Agreement) that:

(a) Partnership Existence: Each of KELP and Rimbey is a duly formed and validly existing limited partnership in good standing under the laws of the Province of Alberta and KELP is qualified to carry on business as a partnership under the laws of the Province of Saskatchewan and each other jurisdiction in Canada in which the nature of any material business transacted by it or the character of any material properties or assets owned or leased by it require such registration and qualification;

(b) Existence of other Loan Parties: Each other Loan Party is duly formed and validly existing, in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation, and is qualified to carry on business under the laws of each other jurisdiction in which the nature of any material business transacted by it or the character of any material properties and assets owned or leased by it requires such qualification;

(c) Fund Existence: The Fund is validly created and subsisting;

(d) Partnership Power: Each of KELP and Rimbey LP has full partnership power and capacity to own its properties and assets and conduct its business as presently conducted;

(e) Power: Each of KEFL and the other Loan Parties have full power and capacity to own its properties and assets and conduct its business as presently conducted;

(f) Authorization: the execution, delivery and performance by each Loan Party of each of the Loan Documents to which it is a party has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate or partnership action, as applicable, and are within its corporate, partnership or trust power and capacity, as applicable;

(g) Execution and Delivery: each Loan Document to which any Loan Party is a party has been duly executed and delivered by such Loan Party;

(h) Binding Obligations: each Loan Document to which any Loan Party is a party is a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Loan Party, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms except as enforceability may be limited by general principles of equity and by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization or similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally;

(i) No Legal Bar or Resultant Lien: the execution, delivery and performance by each Loan Party of each of the Loan Documents and the Material Contracts to which it is a party will not:

(i) violate any provision of Applicable Law (including financial assistance provisions), its articles or by-laws, the Partnership Agreement or any resolutions passed by the partners, directors or shareholders of such Loan Party; or

(ii) result in a breach of or constitute a default or require any consent under, or result in the creation of any Security Interest (other than Permitted Encumbrances) upon any of its property or assets; and the execution, delivery and performance by each Loan Party of each of the Loan Documents and the Material Contracts to which it is a party and the validity and enforceability thereof does not require any Governmental Authorization (other than such Governmental Authorizations which have been obtained) and does not and will not contravene any provision of any Governmental Authorization applicable to such Loan Party or any of its assets, properties or interests;

(j) Fund Assets: the material assets of the Fund are held as capital property;

(k) Use of Assets:

(i) each Loan Party (other than the Fund) owns, leases or has the lawful right to use all assets, rights and interests necessary for the conduct of its respective businesses, including all required Governmental Authorizations, all consents, authorizations and approvals of any other Person, and all licenses, trademarks, patents, copyrights or agreements with respect to the use of technology or intellectual property necessary for the ownership, operation or maintenance of such assets, rights or interests;

(ii) each Loan Party (other than the Fund) is using, occupying, operating and maintaining its assets and business in accordance with prudent industry practice;

(iii) the ownership, use, occupation, operation and maintenance by each Loan Party (other than the Fund) of its assets and businesses complies with all Applicable Laws and Governmental Authorizations and any required consents, authorizations and approvals of any other Person; and

(iv) no Loan Party has received any notice of any claim of infringement or any claim challenging or questioning the validity or effectiveness of any such Governmental Authorizations, consents, authorizations or approvals of any other Person, or any such licenses, trademarks, patents, copyrights or agreements with respect to the use or technology or intellectual property;

except to the extent that failure to have or maintain the same, or any such claim of infringement or claim challenging validity or effectiveness, could not, when taken in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have any Material Adverse Effect;

(l) Required Availability: all utilities, services, means of transportation, pipelines, facilities and other materials and equipment necessary or desirable for the operation of the Facilities (including, without limitation all necessary gas, electrical, water and sewage and other waste disposal services and facilities) are available to the Facilities, and, to the extent appropriate, arrangements have been made on commercially reasonable terms for such services, means of transportation, pipelines, facilities and other materials and equipment, except to the extent such availability could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;

(m) Land Rights: all material Land Rights necessary for owning and operating the Facilities are held by a Loan Party, in any circumstances where a Loan Party is the operator of a Facility, or where a Loan Party is not the operator by a Person holding such Land Rights as agent or trustee for or on behalf of the owners of such Facility, including the applicable Loan Party, and all of such Land Rights are in full force and effect and are not subject to any material default or material defect, other than Permitted Title Defects;

(n) Liens: as of the Effective Date, and except for Permitted Encumbrances, there are, with respect to the Facilities operated by any Loan Party, and to the best of the knowledge, information and belief of the Borrowers with respect to any Facilities not operated by a Loan Party, no:

(i) material payments overdue that would give rise to any mechanics, labourers, materialmen's, builders or other similar liens;

(ii) material payments overdue that would give rise to any Security Interests in favour of any Person, other than a Loan Party, conducting the operation of such Facilities in respect of the joint operation of any Facility;

(iii) material payments overdue that would give rise to any Security Interest in favour of any Person in respect of Taxes, assessments or water, sewer or other rents or charges; or

(iv) unsatisfied judgments or executions in any material amount;

(o) Litigation: there are no actions, suits or proceedings (whether or not purportedly on behalf of any Loan Party) pending or threatened against any Loan Party in which the amount claimed to be owing by the Loan Parties or any of them, or for which the Loan Parties or any of them are claimed to be liable, exceeds Cdn. $15,000,000, or against any of its business, assets or properties at law or in equity by or before any court, tribunal, governmental department, commission, board, bureau, agency or instrumentality, domestic or foreign, or before any arbitrator of any kind, and which actions, suits or proceedings if determined adversely to any Loan Party could, individually, or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect and no Loan Party is in default with respect to any material judgment, order, writ, injunction, decree, award, rule or regulation of any court, tribunal, governmental department commission, board, bureau, agency or instrumentality, domestic or foreign or any arbitrator of any kind;

(p) Accuracy of Information: all engineering data, production data, economic models, cash flow projections, capital expenditure requirements, budgets and other data provided to the Agent by the Loan Parties in respect of the properties, assets and undertakings of the Loan Parties was in respect of information delivered prior to the Effective Date, and is in respect of deliveries thereafter, as at the date of delivery, true and correct in all material respects and fairly and properly reflected or reflects the interests of each Loan Party therein and thereto;

(q) Financial Condition: all financial statements of the Loan Parties submitted to the Agent (including the audited consolidated financial statements of the Fund for the Fiscal Year

(r) Taxes:

(i) each Loan Party has filed all tax returns which were required to be filed, has paid or made provision for payment (in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles) of all Taxes which are due and payable, and has provided adequate reserves (in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles) for the payment of any Tax the payment of which is being contested, except to the extent that failure to do so could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;

(ii) all ad valorem, property, production, severance and similar taxes and assessment based on or measured by the ownership of assets or the processing of Petroleum Substances or the receipt of proceeds therefrom payable by any Loan Party in respect of or in relation to its assets have been properly paid and fully discharged, except to the extent that failure to do so could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect; and

(iii) no reassessment, appeal or material claim is, to the knowledge of any Loan Party, being asserted or processed with respect to Taxes against any Loan Party or in respect of any of its assets or properties which could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect if adversely determined;

(s) Insurance:

(i) each Loan Party has in full force and effect such policies of insurance in such amounts issued by insurers of recognized standing insuring its properties and operations, and providing such coverage as would be maintained by a prudent operator engaged in the same or similar business in the localities where its properties and operations are located, and in any event as required by Section 9.1(l);

(ii) there are no material outstanding insurance claims in respect of physical damage, or for liability in respect of the ownership or operation of any assets, properties or interests of any Loan Party, which are being disputed as to any material liability or amount by any of the insurers in respect thereof, except such as have been disclosed in writing to the Agent;

(t) Compliance with Laws and Material Contracts: each Loan Party is in compliance in all material respects with all Applicable Laws, including without limitation all material Governmental Authorizations required for operation of the Facilities, and with all contracts pertaining to the Assets, including without limitation all Material Contracts, except to the extent that such non-compliance (individually or in aggregate) could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;

(u) Environmental Laws:

(i) each Loan Party has obtained, and, to the best of the knowledge, information and belief of the Borrowers, each operator of any Facility not operated by a Loan Party has obtained (in respect of such Facility), all material permits, licenses and other Governmental Authorizations which are required under all Environmental Laws in respect of its material businesses, operations and assets and the acquisition, ownership and operation thereof,

(ii) each Loan Party is, and to the best of the knowledge, information and belief of the Borrowers, each operator of any Facility not operated by a Loan Party is (in respect of such Facility), in all material respects in compliance with Environmental Laws in relation to the material business, activities and assets of the Loan Parties and the operation thereof and in compliance in all material respects with all terms and conditions of all material permits, licenses and other Governmental Authorizations;

(iii) as of the Effective Date, no Loan Party has received any written notice under any Environmental Laws or Governmental Authorizations in respect of its businesses, operations or assets which could result in any material obligation or liability to any Loan Party; and

(iv) except as previously disclosed to the Agent in writing, no Loan Party has any knowledge of any facts which could give rise to any notice of non-compliance in any material respect with any Environmental Laws or Governmental Authorizations or any notice that any Loan Party is potentially responsible for any material clean-up, remedial action, decommissioning or other corrective action;

(v) Environmental Condition of Property: the properties and assets of each Loan Party, including each of the Facilities:

(i) are not the subject of any material outstanding orders, claims or charges from any government agency, department or commission or otherwise alleging violation of any Environmental Laws or, if subject to any such material claim, charge or order, the applicable Loan Party (or the operator of such asset or property if not operated by a Loan Party) is taking or causing to be taken all remedial, corrective or other action required under the claim, charge or order or is diligently and in good faith contesting the validity thereof; and

(ii) comply, with respect to their use and condition and in all material respects, with all Environmental Laws and all terms and conditions of all permits, licenses and other authorizations, which are required under all Environmental Laws;

(w) Hazardous Materials: the operations of the Assets which have generated, manufactured, refined, treated, transported, stored, handled, disposed, transferred, produced or processed Hazardous Materials have done so in compliance with all Environmental Laws and all permits, licenses and authorizations thereunder, except to the extent failure to so comply could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;

(x) Contingent Liability: except as set forth in Schedule "I", no Loan Party has any Contingent Liability except for (i) obligations, liabilities and indemnities incurred in the ordinary course of business not involving Indebtedness for Borrowed Money, (ii) obligations to pay royalties and license fees incurred in the ordinary course of business, and (iii) any other Contingent Liabilities of a Loan Party, provided however, that such Contingent Liabilities are only with respect to Indebtedness which is permitted to be incurred under the Credit Agreement;

(y) Expropriation: as of the Effective Date, no part of any real property owned, leased or used by any Loan Party, or any building or fixture located thereon, has been taken or expropriated by any Governmental Action, nor is any Loan Party aware that any written notice or proceeding in respect of an expropriation has been given or commenced and no Loan Party is aware of any intent or proposal to give any such notice or commence any such proceedings; and

(z) Default: no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing.

2.2 Deemed Representation and Warranty

(a) Each request by a Borrower for a Drawdown, Rollover or Conversion of Accommodations shall be deemed to be a representation and warranty by the Borrowers to the Lenders that, except as disclosed to the Agent in writing, the matters referred to in Section 2.1 are, as of the date of such request, and will be as of the applicable Drawdown Date, Conversion Date or Rollover Date, true and correct as of each such date and that as of the date of such request and as of the applicable Drawdown Date, Conversion Date or Rollover Date, there exists no Default or Event of Default, nor will any such event occur as a result of such Drawdown Date, Conversion Date or Rollover Date.

(b) If at the time of any Drawdown, Rollover or Conversion, the Borrowers cannot make the representation and warranty that the matters referred to in Section 2.1 are, as of the date of such request, and will be as of the applicable Drawdown Date, Conversion Date or Rollover Date, true and correct as of each such date except by reference to exceptions disclosed to the Agent in writing, then the Borrowers shall not be permitted to make a Drawdown and shall only be permitted to Rollover or Convert an existing Accommodation into a Libor Loan having a Libor Interest Period of thirty (30) days or a Bankers' Acceptance having a term of one month or to Convert an existing Accommodation into a Prime Loan or US Base Rate Loan.

(c) If at the time of any Drawdown, Rollover or Conversion, the Borrowers cannot make the representation and warranty that, as of the date of such request and as of the applicable Drawdown Date, Conversion Date or Rollover Date, there exists no Default or Event of Default, nor will any such event occur as a result of such Drawdown Date, Conversion Date or Rollover Date, then the Borrowers shall not be entitled to make a Drawdown and shall only be permitted to Convert an existing Accommodation denominated in Canadian dollars to a Prime Loan or to Convert an existing Accommodation denominated in US Dollars to a US Base Rate Loan.

ARTICLE 3
THE CREDIT FACILITY

3.1 Obligations of Each Lender

Relying on each of the representations and warranties set out in Article 2 and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each Lender agrees to make Accommodations available to the Borrowers up to the amount of its Commitment in each case commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the Maturity Date or sooner as herein provided, by way of:

(a) the advance of Loans by each such Lender;

(b) the making of Letter of Credit Advances; and

(c) either:

(i) the acceptance of Bankers' Acceptances or the making of a BA Equivalent Advance by such Lender and the delivery of the discounted proceeds of sale received by such Lender or the amount of BA Equivalent Advance (less the applicable Acceptance Fees payable by a Borrower to such Lender) pursuant to Section 5.4 in respect thereof for the account of a Borrower through the Agent at the Agent's Account for Payments; or

(ii) the purchase of Bankers' Acceptances or the making of a BA Equivalent Advance by such Lender and the delivery of the Discount Proceeds in respect of such Bankers' Acceptances or BA Equivalent Advance (less the applicable acceptance fees payable by a Borrower to such Lender pursuant to Section 5.4) for the account of a Borrower through the Agent at the Agent's Account for Payments.

The Credit Facility is a three (3) year revolving credit facility, unless the Revolving Period is extended as set forth in Section 3.4. Each Borrower shall be entitled to repay all or any portion of the Outstandings under the Credit Facility from time to time and obtain further Accommodations from time to time during the Revolving Period; provided that the principal amount of Outstandings at any time under the Credit Facility shall not exceed the Total Commitment at such time.

A Lender shall not have any obligation to make any Loans, Letter of Credit Advances or accept Bankers' Acceptances or make BA Equivalent Advances under the Credit Facility at any time if, after giving effect thereto, the Equivalent Amount in Canadian Dollars of Borrowings from such Lender would exceed the Commitment of such Lender.

3.2 Purpose

Accommodations under the Credit Facility shall be used for general business purposes, including without limitation, for acquisitions.

3.3 Outstanding Obligations Under the Existing Accommodations

Effective as of the Effective Date the Existing Accommodations shall continue to be outstanding as Accommodations under this Agreement, and the Prior Credit Agreement shall be restated in the form of this Agreement.

3.4 Extension of Revolving Period

(a) Request for Extension: Each Borrower may, from time to time, request an extension of the Revolving Period for a period of one (1) year or less by sending to the Agent at the Agent's Branch of Account a Request for Extension in duplicate not less than 45 days and not more than 90 days prior to each anniversary date of April 21 and the Agent shall forthwith notify the Lenders of such request and each Lender shall acknowledge receipt of such notification. Provided the Lenders have previously received the financial statements required by Sections 9.1(f) and 9.1(g) and the budget required by Section 9.1(i) each Lender shall advise the Agent as to whether it agrees with such request within 21 days of being notified of a Borrower's Request for Extension, provided that in the event a Lender does not so advise the Agent within such 21 day period, such Lender shall be deemed to have advised the Agent that it does not agree with such request.

(b) Extension: If, pursuant to Section 3.4(a), Lenders which do not constitute the Majority Lenders or which hold less than 51% of the Total Commitment agree to the request made in a Request for Extension, then the Agent shall, within five (5) Business Days after it has received the response or deemed response of such Lenders to the Request for Extension, advise the Borrowers and the Revolving Period shall not be extended and the further provisions of this Section 3.4 shall have no further application to such Request for Extension. If the Lenders holding more than 51%, but less than 100%, of the Total Commitment agree to a Request for an Extension, then the Agent shall advise the Borrowers within five (5) Business Days after it has received the response or deemed response of such Lenders to the Request for Extension, and the other provisions of this Section 3.4 shall be applicable.

(c) Request Refused: If any Lender receiving a Request for Extension does not agree or is deemed not to have agreed to such a request (such Lender being a "Non-Agreeing Lender"), each of the other Lenders which do agree to such request shall have the right (but not the obligation) to purchase the Commitment of the Non-Agreeing Lender. Each of the other Lenders (a "Purchasing Lender"), wishing to exercise its rights to purchase the Commitment of a Non-Agreeing Lender shall forthwith so notify the Borrowers, the Agent, the Non-Agreeing Lender and each of the other Lenders under the Credit Facility and such Purchasing Lender shall thereupon be obligated to purchase, and the Non-Agreeing Lender shall be obligated to sell, not less than six (6) Business Days prior to the then end of the then current Revolving Period that portion of such Commitment which is in the ratio that its Lender's Proportion bears to the aggregate of the Lender's Proportions of all Purchasing Lenders or as otherwise agreed to by the Borrowers and the Purchasing Lenders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and unless otherwise agreed at that time, the Non-Agreeing Lender shall not be obligated to sell to any Purchasing Lender unless (i) provision satisfactory to the Non-Agreeing Lender (acting reasonably) has been made for payment of any costs, losses, premiums or expenses incurred by the Non-Agreeing Lender by reason of any liquidation or re-deployment of deposits or other funds in respect of Libor Loans outstanding; and (ii) provision satisfactory to the Non-Agreeing Lender (acting reasonably) has been made for payment at maturity of outstanding Bankers' Acceptances accepted by it. The Non-Agreeing Lenders, the Purchasing Lenders, the Agent, the Borrowers and each of the other Lenders under the Credit Facility shall forthwith duly execute and deliver any necessary documentation to give effect to any purchase under this Section 3.4(c).

(d) Replacement: If a Non-Agreeing Lender's Commitment is not purchased pursuant to Section 3.4(c), at the option of the Borrowers:

(i) the Borrowers may arrange for a replacement lender (a "Replacement Lender") (which may but need not be one (1) of the Lenders) to purchase all or part of the Non-Agreeing Lender's Commitment on the same basis and subject to the same requirements and indemnities as specified in Section 3.4(c). Any such Replacement Lender shall require the approval of the Agent and any LC Fronting Lender, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, and no later than two (2) Business Days prior to the end of the then current Revolving Period, such Replacement Lender shall have purchased all or part of the Non-Agreeing Lender's Commitment by execution of all necessary documentation including, without limitation, execution and delivery of a Lender Transfer Agreement; or

(ii) so long as there exists no Default or Event of Default, the Borrowers shall have any amount not assumed by a Lender under subsection (i) above prepaid and cancelled and the Total Commitment shall be reduced accordingly.

(e) Extension: The Revolving Period shall only be extended pursuant to any Request for Extension if:

(i) each Lender agrees to the request made in such Request for Extension; or

(ii) Lenders who are not Non-Agreeing Lenders constitute the Majority Lenders and Non-Agreeing Lenders hold less than 50% of the Total Commitment and the Commitment of each such Non-Agreeing Lender is either:

(A) purchased pursuant to Section 3.4(c); or

(B) replaced or prepaid and cancelled by the Borrowers pursuant to Section 3.4(d);

(f) and, in any such case, the Revolving Period shall thereupon be extended for one (1) year or such other period of time as the Lenders may stipulate in their response to a Request for Extension. The Borrowers understand that consideration of any Request for Extension constitutes an independent credit decision which each Lender on its own behalf retains the absolute and unfettered discretion to make and that no commitment in this regard is hereby given by any Lender and that any extension of the Revolving Period may be on such terms and conditions in addition to those set out herein as the Lenders may stipulate and the Borrowers may agree to.

3.5 Increase of Total Commitment

The Borrowers may at any time and from time to time, add additional financial institutions hereunder as Lenders or, with the consent of the applicable Lender, increase the Commitment of a Lender and thereby increase the Total Commitment, provided that at the time of any such addition:

(a) no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing;

(b) the aggregate of the Commitments hereunder does not exceed Cdn. $150,000,000;

(c) the Agent and each LC Fronting Lender has consented to such financial institution becoming a Lender, if it is not already a Lender, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed;

(d) concurrently with the addition of a financial institution as an additional Lender or the increase of a Lender's Commitment, such financial institution or Lender, as the case may be, shall purchase from each Lender such portion of the Outstandings of and including therein such additional financial institution, are in accordance with the rateable share of all such Lenders (including the new financial institution) and such financial institution shall execute such documentation as is required by the Agent, acting reasonably, to novate such financial institution as a Lender hereunder; and

(e) the Borrowers have provided to the Agent a certified copy of a directors' resolution of each Borrower authorizing any such increase in the Total Commitment (which may be the original directors' resolution authorizing the Credit Facility) together with such other documents and legal opinions with respect thereto in substantially the same form as the documents and legal opinion in respect of the Borrowers delivered in connection with the initial closing of the Credit Facility.

3.6 Takeover Notification

In the event a Borrower wishes to utilize Accommodations to, or to provide funds to any Subsidiary to, offer to acquire (which shall include an offer to purchase securities, solicitation of an offer to sell securities, an acceptance of an offer to sell securities, whether or not the offer to sell was solicited, or any combination of the foregoing) outstanding securities of any Person (other than a private company as defined under the Securities Act (Alberta) or a corporation whose shares are directly or indirectly held by one (1) Person) where, as of the date of the offer to acquire, the securities that are subject to the offer to acquire, together with the securities of such Person that are beneficially owned, or over which control or direction is exercised, by such Borrower or its Subsidiaries and any Person acting jointly or in concert with any thereof on the date that the offer to acquire is made, constitute in the aggregate five percent (5%) or more of all of the outstanding securities of that class of securities of the Person or are likely to result in a change of the voting control of such Person if it is a publicly traded corporation, then such Borrower shall require the prior written consent of each Lender, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld before utilizing Accommodations for such purpose.

3.7 Accommodations

Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the Borrowers may borrow, repay and reborrow by way of Accommodations from each Lender up to such Lender's Commitment:

(a) Prime Loans: by way of Prime Loans from the Lenders in minimum aggregate amounts of Cdn. $1,000,000 and in integral multiples of Cdn. $100,000 thereafter, upon prior written notice of at least one (1) Business Day;

(b) Bankers' Acceptances and BA Equivalent Advances: by way of Bankers' Acceptances accepted by the Lenders (or by way of BA Equivalent Advances) in minimum aggregate amounts of Cdn. $5,000,000 and in multiples of Cdn. $1,000,000 thereafter upon prior written notice of at least one (1) Business Day;

(c) Letter of Credit Advance: by way of the issuance of a Letter of Credit by an LC Fronting Lender upon prior written notice of at least three (3) Banking Days;

(d) US Base Rate Loans: by way of US Base Rate Loans from the Lenders in minimum aggregate amounts of US $1,000,000 and in integral multiples of US$100,000 thereafter upon prior written notice of at least one (1) Business Day; and

(e) Libor Loans: by way of Libor Loans from the Lenders in minimum aggregate amounts of US $5,000,000 and in integral multiples of US $1,000,000 thereafter, upon prior written notice of at least three (3) Banking Days;

each such notice to be given to the Agent at the Agent's Branch of Account at or prior to 12:00 noon (Toronto time) on the last day on which such notice can be given pursuant to this Section 3.7 and to be substantially in the form of Schedule "A". Any such notice may be given by telephone and in such case shall be followed by delivery on the day of such telephone notice of written notice substantially in the form of Schedule "A".

The Credit Facility shall terminate on the Maturity Date and all Outstandings thereunder shall be repaid in full to the Lenders not later than the Maturity Date.

3.8 Selection of Libor Interest Periods

If a Borrower elects to borrow by way of a Libor Loan pursuant to Section 3.7, elects to convert an Accommodation into a Libor Loan pursuant to Section 3.21 or elects to Rollover a Libor Loan pursuant to Section 3.22, such Borrower shall, prior to the beginning of the Libor Interest Period applicable to such Libor Loan, in accordance with the same period of notice required for the initial drawdown of a Libor Loan as set forth in Section 3.7 select and notify the Agent at the Agent's Branch of Account in writing, of the Libor Interest Period (which shall begin and end on a Banking Day) applicable to such Libor Loan.

3.9 Conditions Applicable to Bankers' Acceptances and BA Equivalent Advances

(a) Purchase of Bankers' Acceptances by Lenders: Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each Lender hereby agrees to purchase at the applicable Discount Rate its Lender's Proportion of Bankers' Acceptances issued by a Borrower pursuant to Sections 3.7 and 3.21. Any Lender may at any time and from time to time hold, sell, rediscount or otherwise dispose of any or all Bankers' Acceptances purchased by it.

(b) Payment to Borrower:

(i) On the Drawdown Date relating to any issue of Bankers' Acceptances, each Lender shall deliver the Discount Proceeds (less the applicable acceptance fees pursuant to Section 5.4) to the Agent for the account of the applicable Borrower through the Agent's Account for Payments.

(ii) In the case of a Rollover of Bankers' Acceptances, the applicable Borrower shall be liable to each Lender for the principal amount of maturing Bankers' Acceptances accepted by such Lender. In order to satisfy the continuing liability of the applicable Borrower to each such Lender for the principal amount of the maturing Bankers' Acceptances, each such Lender shall receive and retain for its own account the Discount Proceeds of such new Bankers' Acceptances accepted by it and the applicable Borrower shall on the maturity date of the maturing Bankers' Acceptances pay to the Agent for the benefit of such Lender an amount equal to the difference between the principal amount of the maturing Bankers

Acceptances accepted by it and the Discount Proceeds from the new Bankers' Acceptances accepted by it together with the fee to which such Lender is entitled pursuant to Section 5.4.

(iii) In the case of a Conversion into Bankers' Acceptances, in order to satisfy the continuing liability of the applicable Borrower to each Lender for the amount of the converted Accommodation, each Lender shall receive for its own account the Discount Proceeds of the Bankers' Acceptances accepted by it and the applicable Borrower shall on the Conversion Date pay to the Agent for the benefit of such Lender the difference between the principal amount of the converted Accommodation and the Discount Proceeds from such Bankers' Acceptances accepted by it together with the fee to which such Lender is entitled to pursuant to Section 5.4.

(iv) In the case of a Conversion of Bankers' Acceptances, in order to satisfy the continuing liability of the applicable Borrower to each Lender for an amount equal to the principal amount of such Bankers' Acceptances, the Agent and each Lender shall record the obligation of such Borrower to each Lender of the type into which the maturing Bankers' Acceptance has been converted.

(c) Waiver of Presentment and Other Conditions: Each Borrower waives presentment for payment and, except to the extent of the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the Lenders referred to in the Power of Attorney - Bankers' Acceptances referred to in Section 3.9(e), any other defence to payment of any amounts due to a Lender in respect of a Bankers' Acceptance accepted by it pursuant to this Agreement which might exist solely by reason of such Bankers' Acceptance being held, at the maturity thereof, by such Lender in its own right and the applicable Borrower agrees not to claim any days of grace if such Lender as holder sues such Borrower on the Bankers' Acceptance for payment of the amount payable by such Borrower thereunder. On the specified maturity date of a Bankers' Acceptance, or such earlier date as may be required or permitted pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, the applicable Borrower shall pay the Agent on behalf of the Lender that has accepted such Bankers' Acceptance, the full Face Amount of such Bankers' Acceptance either through payment to the Agent's Branch of Account or conversion of such Bankers' Acceptance into a Prime Loan pursuant to Section 3.21.

(d) Terms of Each Bankers' Acceptance: Each Bankers' Acceptance shall:

(i) have a maturity date which shall be on a Business Day;

(ii) have a term of not less than one (1) month, and not more than (if available) six (6) months (excluding days of grace);

(iii) have an aggregate Face Amount of not less than Cdn. $5,000,000 and be in an integral multiple of Cdn. $1,000,000;

(iv) be in the standard form of each Lender accepting same, provided however, the Agent may require a Lender to use a generic form of Bankers' Acceptance, in a form satisfactory to the Borrowers and each Lender, each acting reasonably, provided by the Agent for such purpose in place of the Lender's own forms; and

(v) have a term which does not extend beyond the Maturity Date.

It is the intention of the parties that, pursuant to the Depository Bills and Notes Act (Canada) ("DBNA"), all Bankers' Acceptances accepted by the Lenders (other than Old System Lenders) under this Agreement shall be issued in the form of a "depository bill" (as defined in the DBNA), deposited with, and made payable to, a "clearing house" (as defined in the DBNA including, without limitation, The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited or its nominee, CDS & Co. ("CDS"). The Agent and the Lenders (other than Old System Lenders) shall, inter alia, effect the following and, subject to the approval of the Borrowers and the Majority Lenders, establish and notify the Borrowers and the Lenders of any additional procedures, consistent with the terms of this Agreement and the quarterly requirements of the DBNA, as are reasonably necessary to accomplish such intention including, without limitation:

(A) each Bankers' Acceptance accepted by a Lender (other than an Old System Lender) hereunder shall have marked prominently and legibly on its face a notation to the effect that it is issued subject to the DBNA;

(B) any reference to authentication of the Bankers' Acceptance will be removed; and

(C) such Bankers' Acceptance shall not be marked with any words prohibiting negotiation, transfer or assignment of it or of any interest in it.

(e) Power of Attorney - Bankers' Acceptances: As a condition precedent to each Lender's obligation to accept and purchase Bankers' Acceptances hereunder, and subject to the DBNA compliance requirements set forth in Section 3.9(d), the Borrowers agree to the Power of Attorney Terms - Bankers' Acceptances set out in Schedule "B".

(f) Failure to Give Notice of Repayment: If a Borrower fails to give notice to the Agent at the Agent's Branch of Account of the method of repayment of a Bankers' Acceptance prior to the date of maturity of such Bankers' Acceptance in accordance with the same period of notice required for the original acceptance of such Bankers' Acceptance as set forth in Section 3.7, the Face Amount of such Bankers' Acceptance shall be converted on its maturity to a Prime Loan pursuant to Section 3.21.

(g) BA Equivalent Advances: Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 3.9 a Non-Acceptance Lender shall, in lieu of accepting Bankers' Acceptances, make a BA Equivalent Advance. The amount of each BA Equivalent Advance shall be equal to the Discount Proceeds which would be realized from a hypothetical sale of those Bankers' Acceptances which, but for this Section 3.9(g), such Lender would otherwise be required to accept as part of such an Accommodation by way of Bankers' Acceptances. To determine the amount of such Discount Proceeds, the hypothetical sale shall be deemed to take place at the Non-Acceptance Discount Rate. Any BA Equivalent Advance shall be made on the relevant Drawdown Date, Conversion Date or Rollover Date, as the case may be, and shall remain outstanding for the term of the Bankers' Acceptances issued concurrently therewith. Concurrent with the making of a BA Equivalent Advance, a Non-Acceptance Lender shall be entitled to deduct therefrom an amount equal to the applicable acceptance fees pursuant to Section 5.4 which, but for this Section 3.9(g), such Lender would otherwise be entitled to receive as part of such issue of Bankers' Acceptances. The BA Equivalent Advance shall accrue interest at a rate per annum equal to the Non-Acceptance Discount Rate for such Bankers' Acceptance for the term of such BA Equivalent Advance. Upon the maturity date for such Bankers' Acceptances, the applicable Borrower shall pay to each Non-Acceptance Lender in satisfaction of the BA Equivalent Advance and accrued interest thereon an amount equal to the Face Amount of the Bankers' Acceptance which, but for this Section 3.9(g), such Lender would otherwise have been required to accept as part of such issue of Bankers' Acceptances, failing which such amount shall be converted to a Prime Loan.

All BA Equivalent Advances made by a Non-Acceptance Lender shall, if requested by such Lender, be evidenced by promissory notes of the applicable Borrower in form and substance satisfactory to such Lender, each acting reasonably.

All references herein to "Bankers' Acceptances" shall, unless otherwise expressly provided herein or unless the context otherwise required be deemed to include BA Equivalent Advances made by a Non-Acceptance Lender in conjunction with an Accommodation by way of Bankers' Acceptances.

3.10 Agent's Duties re Bankers' Acceptances

(a) Advice to the Lenders: The Agent, promptly following receipt of a Borrowing Notice by way of Bankers' Acceptance or Conversion Notice of an Accommodation to a Bankers' Acceptance, shall so advise the Lenders of the Face Amount of each Bankers' Acceptance to be purchased by it and the term thereof, which term shall be identical for all Lenders. By no later than 10:30 a.m. (Toronto time) on each Drawdown Date or Conversion Date on which the Lenders are required to purchase Bankers' Acceptances hereunder, the Agent shall determine the applicable CDOR Rate in respect of such Bankers' Acceptances and obtain quotations from each Schedule II Lender of the Discount Rate then applicable to Bankers' Acceptances accepted by such Lender.

(b) Agent's Confirmation of Bankers' Acceptance Issuance: On or prior to 11:30 a.m. (Toronto time) on the Drawdown Date or Conversion Date relating to all Bankers' Acceptances to be purchased by the Lenders on such date, the Agent shall provide written confirmation to each Borrower and each Lender with respect to such Bankers' Acceptances, and shall include reasonable particulars as to such Bankers' Acceptances.

(c) Completion of Bankers' Acceptance: Upon receipt of such written confirmation, each Lender is thereupon authorized to complete bankers' acceptances in the manner applicable pursuant to Section 3.9(e) in accordance with the particulars so advised by the Agent.

3.11 Letters of Credit

Upon timely fulfillment of all applicable conditions as set forth in this Agreement, but subject to the limitations in Section 3.12, each LC Fronting Lender (in its name but on behalf of the Lenders under the Credit Facility) agrees to issue Letters of Credit on any Banking Day for the account of the applicable Borrower. No Letter of Credit may have a maturity date that is either later than 365 days after it is issued or later than the Maturity Date.

3.12 LC Procedures and Limitations

The following provisions shall apply to Letter of Credit Advances:

(a) up to a maximum aggregate Face Amount of Cdn. $25,000,000 (or the U.S. Dollar equivalent) of Letters of Credit may be issued and outstanding under the Credit Facility;

(b) the applicable LC Fronting Lender shall not have any obligation to issue a Letter of Credit until such ancillary documents, including applications, as it normally requires for similar transactions have been executed and delivered to it, and all payments made by the applicable LC Fronting Lender to any Person pursuant to a Letter of Credit shall, unless the applicable Borrower reimburses the applicable LC Fronting Lender for each such payment on or before the date it is made, be deemed as and from the date of such payment to be a Prime Rate Advance for payments made by the applicable LC Fronting Lender in Canadian Dollars and U.S. Base Rate Advances for payments made by the applicable LC Fronting Lender in U.S. Dollars, with the proceeds of such Prime Rate Advance or U.S. Base Rate Advance, as the case may be, being applied against the applicable Borrower's obligations to reimburse the applicable LC Fronting Lender for payments made under the Letter of Credit.

3.13 Payment Under Letters of Credit

The Borrowers unconditionally and irrevocably authorize the applicable LC Fronting Lender to pay the amount of any draft or demand made on the applicable LC Fronting Lender under and in accordance with the terms of any Letter of Credit on demand without requiring proof of the Borrowers' agreement that the amount so demanded was due and notwithstanding that the Borrowers may dispute the validity of any such draft, demand or payment.

None of any LC Fronting Lender or any Lender shall have any responsibility or liability for, or any duty to inquire into, the authorization, execution, signature, endorsement, correctness, genuineness or legal effect of any certificate or other document presented to the applicable LC Fronting Lender pursuant to any Letter of Credit, and the Borrowers fully and unconditionally assume all risks with respect to the same and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, all risks of the acts or omissions of any beneficiary of any Letter of Credit with respect to the use by any beneficiary of any Letter of Credit. None of any LC Fronting Lender or any Lender shall be responsible for:

(a) the validity of certificates or other documents delivered under or in connection with any Letter of Credit that appear on their face to be in order, even if such certificates or other documents should in fact prove to be invalid, fraudulent or forged;

(b) errors, omissions, interruptions or delays in transmission or delivery of any messages by mail, cable, telegraph, telefax or otherwise, whether or not they are in code;

(c) errors in translation or for errors in the interpretation of technical terms or for errors in the calculation of amounts demanded under any Letter of Credit;

(d) any failure or inability of any LC Fronting Lender to make payment under any Letter of Credit as a result of any Applicable Laws or by reason of any control or restitution rightfully or wrongfully exercised by any Person asserting or exercising governmental or paramount powers; or

(e) any other consequences arising in respect of a failure by any LC Fronting Lender to honour a Letter of Credit due to causes beyond the control of such LC Fronting Lender; and none of the above shall affect or impair any of the rights or powers of the Lenders hereunder or the obligations of the Borrowers under Section 3.14. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it is agreed that any payment made by any LC Fronting Lender in good faith under and in accordance with the terms of a Letter of Credit shall be binding upon the Borrowers and shall not result in any liability of any LC Fronting Lender or any of the Lenders to the Borrowers and shall not lessen the obligations of the Borrowers under Section 3.14.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 3.13, the Borrowers shall not be responsible for, and none of any LC Fronting Lender or any Lender shall be relieved of responsibility for, any wilful misconduct or gross negligence of or by any LC Fronting Lender or any other Lender.

3.14 Reimbursement Obligations of the Borrowers

The Borrowers shall reimburse the applicable LC Fronting Lender on demand for any amounts paid by such LC Fronting Lender from time to time as contemplated by Section 3.13 and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Borrowers shall indemnify and save any LC Fronting Lender and the other Lenders harmless on demand from and against any and all other losses (other than lost profits), costs, damages, expenses, claims, demands or liabilities which any of them may suffer or incur arising in any manner whatsoever in connection with the making of any such payments (including, without limitation, in connection with proceedings to restrain any LC Fronting Lender from making, or to compel any LC Fronting Lender to make, any such payment).

3.15 Overdue Amounts and Indemnity

Without limiting any other provisions of this Agreement, if the Borrowers shall fail to reimburse the applicable LC Fronting Lender for any payments made by such LC Fronting Lender under a Letter of Credit as contemplated in Section 3.14, the amount that the Borrowers fail to reimburse such LC Fronting Lender shall be deemed to be a Prime Rate Advance for payments made by such LC Fronting Lender in Canadian Dollars and U.S. Base Rate Advances for payments made by the such LC Fronting Lender in U.S. Dollars to the Borrowers. Such LC Fronting Lender shall forthwith give notice of such Accommodation to the Borrowers and to the Agent, which shall promptly give notice to the other Lenders following which each Lender shall deliver its Lender's Proportion of such Accommodation to the Agent for the benefit of such LC Fronting Lender not later than 2:00 p.m. (Toronto time) on the next Banking Day after the day that such Accommodation is deemed to have been made. If a Letter of Credit is issued with a maturity date that is later than a Non-Agreeing Lender Maturity Date:

(a) the applicable Non-Agreeing Lender will continue to be obligated to provide its Lender's Proportion of any such Accommodation made on or before the Non-Agreeing Lender Maturity Date; and

(b) Lenders who are not Non-Agreeing Lenders will be obligated to provide its Lender's Proportion (for greater certainty, calculated by excluding the Commitments of any Non-Agreeing Lenders that have expired) of any such Accommodation made after the Non-Agreeing Lender Maturity Date.

Interest shall be payable on such deemed Prime Rate Advance or U.S. Base Rate Advance from the date of such deemed Prime Rate Advance or U.S. Base Rate Advance in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

3.16 Indemnification of LC Fronting Lender

Each Lender agrees to indemnify the applicable LC Fronting Lender (to the extent not reimbursed by the Borrowers), according to its Lender's Proportion of the Credit Facility from and against any and all liabilities and obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever which may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against any LC Fronting Lender in any way relating to or arising out of the issuance of a Letter of Credit in accordance with this Agreement, provided that no Lender shall be liable for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from any LC Fronting Lender's gross negligence or wilful misconduct.

3.17 Acceleration

Upon the Agent making a declaration under Section 10.2, the maximum amount of the contingent liability of any LC Fronting Lender and the Lenders under any Letter of Credit which is then outstanding shall immediately become due and payable to the Agent notwithstanding that the applicable LC Fronting Lender has not at such date been required to make payment under any such Letter of Credit. Any such amount paid to the Agent for the account of the Lenders shall be held by the Agent for the account of the Lenders in a separate collateral account of the Borrowers as security for the repayment of future indebtedness of the Borrower to the Lenders in respect of Letters of Credit which are drawn down and, pending the expiry of all outstanding Letters of Credit, any amounts paid to the Agent for the account of the Lenders shall bear interest at the rate established by the Agent from time to time as that payable in respect of 30 day certificates of deposit of the Agent for monies of like amount.

3.18 Conflict with Applications

To the extent that any provision of any application for the issuance of a Letter of Credit in the standard form of the applicable LC Fronting Lender or such other form as may be approved by the applicable LC Fronting Lender is inconsistent with the provisions of Sections 3.12, 3.13, 3.14, 3.15 or 3.16, the provisions of such Sections of this Agreement shall apply.

3.19 Notice of Repayment

Each Borrower shall give the Agent, at the Agent's Branch of Account, prior written notice of each repayment of Accommodations in accordance with the same period of notice required pursuant to Section 3.7, for the initial drawdown of the basis of the Accommodation being repaid, such notice to be substantially in the form of Schedule "A". Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Bankers' Acceptance shall only be repaid on its maturity date and a Libor Loan shall only be repaid prior to the last day of the Libor Interest Period applicable to such Libor Loan upon payment by the applicable Borrower of amounts payable in respect thereof pursuant to Sections 4.4 and 11.5. Such amounts deposited by the applicable Borrower shall belong to such Borrower and shall be held by the Agent in an interest bearing Cash Collateral Account with interest to be credited to such Borrower at rates prevailing at the time of deposit and shall be applied by the Agent in accordance with the provisions hereof to satisfy the obligations of such Borrower with respect to the outstanding Bankers' Acceptance or Libor Loan, as applicable. Such Cash Collateral Account shall be assigned to the Agent as security for the Indebtedness of the Borrowers hereunder and amounts held in such Cash Collateral Account may not be withdrawn by the applicable Borrower without the consent of the Agent; however, interest on such deposited amount shall be for the account of such Borrower and, provided no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, may be withdrawn from time to time by such Borrower. If after maturity of the Bankers' Acceptance or expiration of the Libor Interest Period, as applicable, for which such funds are held and application by the Agent of the amounts in such Cash Collateral Account to satisfy the Indebtedness of the Borrowers with respect to the Bankers' Acceptance or Libor Loan being repaid, any excess remains and no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, such excess shall be promptly paid by the Agent to the applicable Borrower.

3.20 Pro-Rata Treatment of Accommodations

(a) Pro-Rata Accommodations: Subject to Section 3.20(b), each Accommodation and each basis of Accommodation shall be made available by each Lender and all repayments and reductions in respect thereof shall be made and applied in a manner so that the Accommodations and each basis of Accommodation outstanding to each Lender will, to the extent possible, thereafter be in the same proportion as the Lender's Proportion of such Lender. The Agent is authorized by each Borrower and each Lender to determine, in its sole and unfettered discretion, the amount of Accommodations and each basis of Accommodation to be made available by each Lender and the application of repayments and reductions of Accommodations to give effect to the provisions of this Section 3.20(a) and Section 7.2; provided that, subject to Section 3.20(b), no Lender shall, as a result of any such determination, have Accommodations outstanding in an amount which is in excess of the amount of its Commitment.

(b) Agent's Discretion on Allocation: If it is not practicable to allocate Bankers' Acceptances to each Lender such that the aggregate amount of Bankers' Acceptances required to be purchased by such Lender hereunder is in a whole multiple of Cdn. $100,000 or such lesser amount as the Lenders and the Agent may agree, the Agent is authorized by each Borrower and each Lender to make such allocation as the Agent determines in its sole and unfettered discretion may be equitable in the circumstances. In no event shall the outstanding Accommodations of a Lender exceed its Commitment as a result of such exercise of discretion by the Agent. In the event it is not practicable to allocate each basis of Accommodation in accordance with Section 3.20(a) by reason of the occurrence of circumstances described in Sections 11.2, 11.3 or 11.4, the Agent is authorized by each Borrower and each Lender to make such allocation as the Agent determines in its sole and unfettered discretion may be equitable in the circumstances.

(c) Further Assurances by Borrower: Each Borrower and each Lender agrees to be bound by and to do all things necessary or appropriate to give effect to the provisions of this Section 3.20.

3.21 Conversion Option

A Borrower may, during the term of this Agreement, convert any basis of Accommodation in a currency to another basis of Accommodation in the same currency upon giving the Agent at the Agent's Branch of Account a Conversion Notice in accordance with the period of notice and other requirements set out in Section 3.7 applicable to the basis of Accommodation to which any Accommodation is being converted (other than delivery of a notice in the form of Schedule "A"), provided that:

(a) Bankers' Acceptances: a Bankers' Acceptance and BA Equivalent Advance may only be converted on its maturity date; and

(b) Libor Loans: a Libor Loan may be converted on the last day of the Libor Interest Period applicable to such Libor Loan or on any other day if the applicable Borrower pays all amounts payable in respect thereof pursuant to Section 11.5.

On each Conversion Date, the applicable Borrower shall be required to repay to the Agent for the account of the Lenders the basis of Accommodation which is being converted and, subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the Lenders shall be required to make available to such Borrower the Accommodations into which such basis of Accommodation is being converted.

3.22 Rollovers

A Borrower may, during the term of this Agreement, Rollover all or any portion of a Banker's Acceptance or BA Equivalent Advance on its maturity date or all or any portion of a Libor Loan for an additional Libor Interest Period subsequent to the initial or any subsequent Libor Interest Period where the amount of such continued Libor Loan will be equal to the amount of the existing Libor Loan, upon giving the Agent at the Agent's Branch of Account a Rollover Notice in accordance with the period of notice and other requirements set out in Section 3.7 applicable to Libor Loans, Bankers' Acceptances and BA Equivalent Advances (other than delivery of a notice in the form of Schedule "A"), unless immediately prior to the issuance of any such Bankers' Acceptance, the making of such BA Equivalent Advance or the commencement of any subsequent Libor Interest Period, a Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, in which event the applicable Borrower shall be deemed to have converted such Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Advance into a Prime Loan or such Libor Loan to a US Base Rate Loan pursuant to Section 3.21 and such Borrower shall not be entitled to continue such Libor Loan subsequent to the existing Libor Interest Period. In the event notice of a Rollover of an existing Bankers' Acceptance, BA Equivalent advance or an existing Libor Loan is not given pursuant to this Section 3.22 or notice of a Conversion of such existing Bankers' Acceptance, BA Equivalent Advance or such existing Libor Loan is not given pursuant to Section 3.21, such Bankers' Acceptance of BA Equivalent Advance shall be converted to a Prime Loan on the maturity date of such Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Advance, or such Libor Loan shall be converted to a US Base Rate Loan on the last day of the Libor Interest Period applicable to such existing Libor Loan.

3.23 Notices Irrevocable

All notices delivered or deemed to be delivered by a Borrower pursuant to this Article 3 shall be irrevocable and shall oblige such Borrower to take the action contemplated on the date specified therein.

3.24 Joint and Several Liability of the Borrowers

Each Borrower shall be jointly and severally indebted and liable to the Lenders and the Agent in respect of all Indebtedness, obligations and liabilities of either Borrower to the Agent or any of the Lenders hereunder.

ARTICLE 4
REPAYMENT AND PREPAYMENT

4.1 Repayment of Outstandings In Excess of Commitments

If the amount of Outstandings (determined in Canadian Dollars with all Accommodations denominated in US Dollars being converted to the Equivalent Amount of Canadian Dollars using the Bank of Canada noon (Toronto time) spot rate for converting US Dollars to Canadian Dollars on the first Business Day of the calendar month for any determination of the currency conversion in such month) outstanding to the Lenders is on any day in excess of the amount of the Total Commitment, the Borrowers shall within five (5) Business Days thereafter repay, provide cash cover to be held by the Agent on behalf of the Lenders in the same manner provided for in Section 10.3 or otherwise reduce a portion of such Accommodations to the extent of the amount of such excess.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the excess referred to above is as a result of exchange rate fluctuations and such excess does not exceed 105% of the Total Commitment, then the Borrowers shall not be obligated to provide the cash cover referred to above unless such excess continues for five (5) consecutive Business Days.

4.2 Repayment of Borrowings

Each Borrower shall repay all Accommodations then outstanding under the Credit Facility and the Commitment of each Lender shall be reduced to zero on the earliest of: (i) the Acceleration Date; and (ii) the Maturity Date. Each Borrower shall ensure that all Libor Loans, Letters of Credit, Bankers' Acceptances and BA Equivalent Advances mature on or prior to the Maturity Date and shall ensure that the maturities of all Bankers' Acceptances, Libor Loans, Letters of Credit and BA Equivalent Advances are such that the foregoing mandatory repayments can be effected.

4.3 Cancellation of Commitment and Prepayment

Each Borrower may, without penalty or premium, at any time upon three (3) Business Days' prior written notice substantially in the form of Schedule "A", prepay and/or cancel all of the Total Commitment or any portions thereof in minimum amounts of Cdn. $5,000,000 and whole multiples of Cdn. $1,000,000, provided that on or prior to the last day of such notice period, such Borrower has:

(a) identified in writing, the amount of reduction to be made to the Total Commitment;

(b) prepaid or otherwise reduced Outstandings outstanding to each Lender in an amount equal to the amount by which Outstandings outstanding to such Lender would otherwise be in excess of such Lender's Commitment immediately after the reduction of the Commitments provided for in such notice; and

(c) paid all accrued interest and other charges and fees in respect of the Outstandings being repaid or reduced as aforesaid.

Any such notice of cancellation or prepayment is irrevocable and the amount of the Total Commitment and the Commitment of each Lender so cancelled and reduced or prepaid may not be reinstated hereunder.

4.4 Early Repayment of Libor Loans and Bankers' Acceptances

The Borrowers shall not cancel all or any portion of the Total Commitment pursuant to Section 4.3 if the Accommodations required to be repaid to a Lender as a result thereof include Libor Loans with a Libor Interest Period falling subsequent to the date of such cancellation or Bankers' Acceptances accepted by such Lender with a maturity date falling subsequent to the date of such cancellation unless on the date of such cancellation, the applicable Borrower has paid to the Agent at the Agent's Account for Payments, for the account of such Lender, in respect of Libor Loans the amount required to be paid pursuant to Section 11.5, and has, in respect of Bankers' Acceptances, paid to each Lender the amount determined by such Lender, acting reasonably, (and advised to the Agent) to be the amount required to be paid on such date of cancellation in order to yield to the Lender the Face Amount of all such Bankers' Acceptances, as applicable, on the maturity date thereof.

4.5 Evidence of Indebtedness

The Agent shall open and maintain on the books of the Agent's Branch of Account, accounts and records evidencing the Borrowings and other amounts owing by the applicable Borrower to the Agent and each Lender under this Agreement. The Agent shall debit therein the amount of such Borrowings, and shall enter therein each payment of Borrowings and interest thereon and fees and other amounts payable pursuant to this Agreement and shall record the Bankers' Acceptances accepted by each Lender, Letters of Credit issued by the LC Fronting Lenders and all other amounts becoming due to the Agent and each such Lender under this Agreement. The Accounts constitute, in the absence of manifest error, prima facie evidence of the Indebtedness of the applicable Borrower to the Agent and each Lender pursuant to this Agreement, the date each Lender made each Borrowing available to the applicable Borrower and the amounts such Borrower has paid from time to time on account of the Borrowing and interest thereon and fees payable pursuant to this Agreement and other amounts owing hereunder. The Agent shall, from time to time, provide to a Borrower copies of such accounts and records upon such Borrower's reasonable request.

ARTICLE 5
PAYMENT OF INTEREST AND FEES

5.1 Interest on Prime Loans

The applicable Borrower shall pay to the Agent on behalf of each Lender interest on each Prime Loan in Canadian Dollars at the Agent's Account for Payments at a rate per 365 day period equal to the Prime Rate plus the Margin applicable to such Prime Loan. A change in the Prime Rate will simultaneously cause a corresponding change in the interest payable for a Prime Loan and a change in the Margin will cause a change in the interest payable as provided for in Section 5.11. Such interest is payable monthly in arrears on each Interest Date for the period commencing on and including the immediately prior Interest Date up to and including the last day prior to the Interest Date on which such interest is to be paid and shall be calculated on a daily basis and on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in a year of 365 days. The annual rates of interest to which the rates determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 5.1 are equivalent, are the rates so determined multiplied by the actual number of days in a period of one (1) year commencing on the first day of the period for which such interest is payable and divided by 365.

5.2 Interest on US Base Rate Loans

The applicable Borrower shall pay to the Agent on behalf of each Lender interest on each US Base Rate Loan in US Dollars at the Agent's Account for Payments at a rate per 365 day period equal to the US Base Rate plus the Margin applicable to such US Base Rate Loan. A change in the US Base Rate will simultaneously cause a corresponding change in the interest payable for a US Base Rate Loan and a change in the Margin will cause a change in the interest payable as provided for in Section 5.11. Such interest is payable monthly in arrears on each Interest Date for the period commencing on and including the immediately prior Interest Date up to and including the last day prior to the Interest Date on which such interest is to be paid and shall be calculated on a daily basis and on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in a year of 365 days. The annual rates of interest to which the rates determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 5.2 are equivalent, are the rates so determined multiplied by the actual number of days in a period of one (1) year commencing on the first day of the period for which such interest is payable and divided by 365.

5.3 Interest on Libor Loans

The applicable Borrower shall pay to the Agent on behalf of each Lender interest on each Libor Loan in US Dollars at the Agent's Account for Payments for the period commencing on and including the first day of the Libor Interest Period applicable to such Libor Loan up to but not including the last day of such Libor Interest Period at a rate per 360 day period, equal to the sum of Libor plus the Margin applicable to such Libor Loan. A change in the Libor Margin will cause a corresponding change in the interest payable for a Libor Loan as provided for in Section 5.11. Such interest shall be payable on each Libor Interest Date applicable to such Libor Interest Period and shall be calculated on a daily basis and on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in the period for which such interest is payable (including the first day of such period but excluding the date on which such interest is payable) divided by 360. The annual rates of interest to which the rates determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 5.3 are equivalent, are the rates so determined multiplied by the actual number of days in a period of one (1) year commencing on the first day of the period for which such interest is payable and divided by 360.

5.4 Bankers' Acceptance Fees

The applicable Borrower shall pay acceptance fees in Canadian Dollars to the Agent on behalf of the Lenders at the Agent's Account for Payments forthwith upon the acceptance by each Lender of each Bankers' Acceptance issued by such Borrower at a rate per 365 day period equal to the applicable Margin, calculated on the Face Amount of such Bankers' Acceptance and on the basis of the number of days in the term of such Bankers' Acceptance divided by 365. Acceptance fees payable to the Lenders pursuant to this Section 5.4 shall be paid in the manner specified in Section 3.9. All fees payable pursuant to this Section 5.4 on any date in respect of any issuance of Bankers' Acceptances shall be calculated by the Agent and payable by the applicable Borrower based on the applicable Margin in effect on such date as provided for in Section 5.11; provided that if during the term of any such Bankers' Acceptance a change in the Margin occurs, the fees paid by such Borrower in respect of such Bankers' Acceptance shall be adjusted effective at the beginning of the Fiscal Quarter next following the Fiscal Quarter in which the change in the Margin occurs pursuant to Section 5.11, to reflect the Margin for the remaining term (if any) of the Bankers' Acceptance and the applicable Borrower, in the case of an increase in the Margin, shall forthwith after receipt of a notice from the Agent make such payments to the Agent at the Agent's Account for Payments for the account of the Lenders as are necessary to reflect such change and the Lenders, in the case of a decrease in the Margin, shall credit any amount which would otherwise be refundable to such Borrower against amounts in respect of interest or fees accruing hereunder in relation to such Borrower.

5.5 Letter of Credit Fees

The Borrowers shall pay the applicable Letter of Credit Fee with respect to each Letter of Credit issued under the Credit Facility to the Agent for the account of the Lenders and the Letter of Credit Fronting Fee to the applicable LC Fronting Lender, for the period from and including the date of issuance of the Letter of Credit to and including the stated expiry date thereof, calculated on the Face Amount of the Letter of Credit and payable by the Borrowers quarterly in arrears on the third Banking Day after the end of each calendar quarter. Such Letter of Credit Fee and Letter of Credit Fronting Fee shall be payable in the currency in which the applicable Letter of Credit is denominated. In addition, the Borrowers shall pay to each LC Fronting Lender all usual and customary fees of the applicable LC Fronting Lender with respect to the administration of such Letter of Credit including any amendments to such Letter of Credit according to the then current fee schedule of the applicable LC Fronting Lender.

5.6 Interest on Overdue Amounts

Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, in the event that any amount due hereunder (including, without limitation, any interest payment) is not paid when due (whether by acceleration or otherwise), the applicable Borrower shall and hereby agrees to pay to the Lenders interest on such unpaid amount (including, without limitation, interest on interest), if and to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, from the date that such amount is due until the date that such amount is paid in full (but excluding the date of such payment if the payment is made before 10:00 a.m. at the place of payment on the date of such payment), and such interest shall accrue daily, be calculated and compounded on the last Business Day of each calendar month and be payable in the currency of the relevant Accommodation on demand, as well after as before maturity, default and judgment, at a rate per annum that is equal to:

(a) if such amount is payable in Canadian Dollars, the Prime Rate plus 2% per annum; and

(b) if such amount is payable in US Dollars, the US Base Rate plus 2% per annum.

The Borrowers hereby waive, to the fullest extent it may do so under Applicable Law, any provisions of Applicable Law, including specifically the Interest Act (Canada) or the Judgment Interest Act (Alberta) which may be inconsistent with this Agreement.

5.7 Commitment Fees

The applicable Borrower shall pay commitment fees to the Agent on behalf of each Lender at the Agent's Account for Payments calculated quarterly in arrears on the last Business Day of each calendar quarter commencing with the last Business Day of the calendar quarter in which the Effective Date occurs, and payable quarterly in arrears on the last Business Day of each calendar quarter thereafter and on the applicable Maturity Date. Each payment of commitment fees shall be calculated for the period commencing on and including the Effective Date or the last date on which such commitment fees were payable hereunder, as the case may be, up to and including the day immediately preceding the last day of the calendar quarter for which such commitment fees are to be paid and shall be in an amount equal to the Commitment Fee Rate in effect on each day during such period of calculation multiplied by the difference, if positive, obtained by subtracting the Accommodations outstanding from such Lender for each day in the period of the calculation from the amount of such Lender's Commitment in effect on each such day. Such commitment fees shall be calculated on a daily basis and on the basis of a 365 day year. For purposes of calculating commitment fees payable pursuant to this Section 5.7, the amount of Accommodations outstanding from time to time in US Dollars on each day during the period for which such commitment fees are payable shall, for the purposes of determining an Equivalent Amount on such day, be notionally converted to the Equivalent Amount in Canadian Dollars using the Bank of Canada noon (Toronto time) spot rate for converting US Dollars to Canadian Dollars in effect at the end of such day.

5.8 Agent's Fees

The Borrowers shall pay an agency fee to the Agent (for the Agent's sole account) at the Agent's Account for Payments, in the amount as from time to time agreed to between the Borrowers and the Agent, on the Effective Date and on each extension of the Revolving Period and such fees shall, for purposes of this Agreement, be deemed to be an amount payable pursuant to this Agreement.

5.9 Maximum Rate Permitted by Law

No interest or fee to be paid hereunder shall be paid at a rate exceeding the maximum rate permitted by Applicable Law. In the event any such interest or fee exceeds such maximum rate, such interest or fee shall be reduced or refunded, as the case may be, so as to be payable at the highest rate recoverable under Applicable Law.

5.10 Interest Generally

The theory of deemed reinvestment shall not apply to the calculation of interest or payment of fees or other amounts hereunder, notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement or in any other Loan Document now or hereafter granted to or taken by the Lender and all interest and fees payable by a Borrower to any Lender shall accrue from day to day and be computed as described herein in accordance with the "nominal rate" method of interest calculation.

5.11 Interest and Fee Adjustment

In the event of a change in the Margin as a result of a change in the Debt to EBITDA Ratio, such change shall become effective (except as provided in Section 5.4 for acceptance fees) on the day on which the Fund and the Borrowers deliver a Compliance Certificate in accordance with the requirements hereof evidencing the change in the Debt to EBITDA Ratio, or, if the Fund and the Borrowers have not delivered a Compliance Certificate as required by the terms hereof within 60 days of the end of any Fiscal Quarter, then such change in the Margin shall become effective on such 60th day and the determination of the Debt to EBITDA Ratio on such date shall be made by the Agent, in its sole discretion, and such determination shall be final and binding for all purposes hereof.

ARTICLE 6
RESTRICTED SUBSIDIARIES, RESTRICTED SUBSIDIARY GUARANTEES AND SECURITY

6.1 Restricted Subsidiaries and Restricted Subsidiary Guarantees

(a) The Fund, from time to time, by notice in writing to the Agent, entitled to designate that:

(i) a Subsidiary which is not a Restricted Subsidiary shall become a Restricted Subsidiary; or

(ii) a Restricted Subsidiary shall cease to be a Restricted Subsidiary; provided that the Fund shall not be entitled to designate that a Restricted Subsidiary shall cease to be a Restricted Subsidiary if a Default or an Event of Default would result from or exist immediately after such a designation.

(b) Within 30 days of a Subsidiary being designated a Restricted Subsidiary, the Fund shall cause such Subsidiary to execute and deliver (i) a Restricted Subsidiary Guarantee, (ii) a supplement or joinder to the Collateral Agency Agreement adding such Subsidiary to the Collateral Agency Agreement, and (iii) such supporting documents (including copies of constating documents, certificates and opinions) as the Agent may reasonably require.

(c) The Agent shall promptly release any Restricted Subsidiary Guarantee provided by a Restricted Subsidiary that ceases to be a Restricted Subsidiary in accordance with the provisions hereof.

6.2 Extensions, Etc.

The Lenders may directly, or through the Agent or other duly authorized representatives, grant extensions, take and give up securities, accept compositions, grant releases and discharges and otherwise deal with a Borrower, any other Loan Party or any other Persons, sureties or securities as the Lenders, in their sole discretion, may see fit, all without prejudice to the liability of the Borrowers or any other Loan Party under the Loan Documents or the rights of the Lenders under the Loan Documents.

ARTICLE 7
PAYMENT AND TAXES

7.1 Time, Place and Currency of Payment

Payments of principal, interest, fees and all other amounts payable by the Borrowers pursuant to this Agreement shall be paid in the currency in which it is due for value at or before 1:00 p.m. (Toronto time) on the day such payment is due. If any such day is not a Business Day, such amount shall be deemed for all purposes of this Agreement to be due on the Business Day next following such day and any such extension of time shall be included in the computation of the payment of any interest or fees payable under this Agreement. Unless otherwise specifically provided for herein, all payments required to be made by a Borrower or a Lender shall be made to the Agent's Account for Payments. Receipt by the Agent from the Borrowers of funds pursuant to this Agreement, as principal, interest, fees or otherwise, shall be deemed to be receipt of such funds by the Agent or Lenders, as the case may be.

7.2 Application of Payments Prior to an Event of Default

Except as otherwise agreed to by all of the Lenders in their sole discretion, all payments made by or on behalf of a Borrower pursuant to this Agreement, prior to the delivery of an Acceleration Notice or the occurrence of an Event of Default specified in Sections 10.1(e) or 10.1(f), shall be applied by the Agent rateably, in the case of payments made in respect of the Credit Facility, among the Lenders and the Agent in accordance with amounts owed to such Lenders and the Agent in respect of each category of amounts set forth below, each such application to be made in the following order with the balance remaining after application in respect of each category to be applied to the next succeeding category:

(a) Expenses: firstly, in payment of any amounts due and payable as and by way of recoverable expenses hereunder;

(b) Interest and Fees: secondly, in payment of any amounts due and payable as and by way of interest pursuant to Sections 5.1, 5.2 and 5.3, fees pursuant to Sections 5.4, 5.5,5.7 and 5.8 and interest on overdue amounts pursuant to Section 5.6; and

(c) Other Amounts (other than Accommodations): thirdly, in payment of any amounts (other than Accommodations) then due and payable by such Borrower hereunder other than amounts hereinbefore referred to in this Section 7.2; with the balance to be applied to repay or otherwise reduce Accommodations in a manner so that the Accommodations and each basis of Accommodation outstanding hereunder to each Lender will, to the extent possible, be in the same proportion as the Lender's Proportion of such Lender in respect of such Accommodations.

7.3 Taxes

The Borrowers shall make all payments to the Agent on behalf of the Lenders without set-off or counterclaim, free and clear of, and without deduction for or on account of, any Tax, other than tax withheld in respect of a Lender by reason of such Lender not being a resident of Canada within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada) ("Withholding Tax"). If any Tax is deducted or withheld from any payments, other than in respect of any Withholding Tax in respect of a Lender not a resident of Canada within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada), the applicable Borrower shall promptly remit to the Agent on behalf of the Lenders the equivalent of the amounts so deducted or withheld together with the relevant official receipts or other evidence satisfactory to the Agent evidencing payment to the appropriate taxing authority of each such Tax by such Borrower on behalf of the Lenders.

7.4 Account Debit Authorization

Each Borrower authorizes and directs the Agent, in its discretion, to automatically debit or credit, as applicable, by mechanical, electronic or manual means, the bank accounts of the applicable Borrower maintained with RBC (for so long as RBC is Agent hereunder) for all amounts payable under this Agreement, including but not limited, to the repayment of principal and the payment of interest, fees and all charges for the keeping of such bank accounts, and amounts becoming payable or reimbursable to such Borrower hereunder.

ARTICLE 8
CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO DISBURSEMENT OF THE ACCOMMODATIONS

8.1 Effectiveness and Conditions Precedent

This Agreement shall become effective at such time as the following conditions precedent have been satisfied to the satisfaction of the Agent and the Lenders:

(a) No Event of Default: as of such time, there exists no Default or Event of Default;

(b) Representations and Warranties True: the representations and warranties contained in Article 2 are true and correct as of such time;

(c) Receipt of Documentation: the Agent has received, in form and substance satisfactory to the Lenders, and with copies for the Agent and each of the Lenders, the following:

(i) a duly executed copy of this Agreement;

(ii) releases of Security Interests that are not Permitted Encumbrances;

(iii) the KELP Guarantee, the KEFL Guarantee and the Fund Guarantee;

(iv) a certified copy of the certificate of partnership and the Partnership Agreement, including all amendments thereto, of KELP;

(v) a certified copy of the Declaration of Trust for the Fund, including all amendments thereto;

(vi) a certified copy of the constitutional documents and by-laws, including all amendments thereto, of each Loan Party that is a corporation;

(vii) a certificate of status, certificate of compliance, good standing or similar certificate in respect of each Loan Party that is a corporation issued under the laws of the provinces in which any of them carries on any material business;

(viii) a certified copy of (A) a directors' resolution of the administrator of KELP, (B) directors' resolutions for each Loan Party that is a corporation, and (C) directors' resolution for the Administrator in its capacity as administrator of the Fund, in each case with respect to the Loan Documents to which it is a party, certified as of the Effective Date;

(ix) certificates of incumbency in respect of each Loan Party;

(x) an organizational chart accurately setting forth the structure of the Fund and its Subsidiaries;

(xi) an opinion of Macleod Dixon LLP, counsel to Loan Parties, addressed to the Agent and each Lender, relating to, inter alia, existence of the Loan Parties and the authorization, execution, delivery and enforceability of the Loan Documents to which each is a party;

(xii) an opinion of Fraser Milner Casgrain LLP, counsel to the Lenders, addressed to the Agent and each Lender;

(xiii) a duly completed Compliance Certificate;

(xiv) evidence of insurance in compliance with Section 9.1(l);

(xv) such other documents and documentation which the Agent may reasonably request;

(d) Fees: payment of all advisory, commitment and agency fees of the Agent and the Lenders;

(e) Reorganization:

(i) satisfactory review by the Lenders and the Agent of (i) the documents relating to the Reorganization, including without limitation the Information Circular, the plan of arrangement relating to the Reorganization, (ii) each Material Contract and (iii) the documents relating to the amendment of the Notes;

(ii) the Reorganization closes prior to the initial Accommodation hereunder, which shall be on or prior to January 2, 2008, without any material changes thereto which have not been consented to by the Lenders, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; and

(iii) since the date of the Information Circular, nothing has occurred and no fact or circumstance exists that would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect and the Agent shall have received a Certificate from a senior officer of the Administrator on behalf of the Fund to that effect; and

(f) Tax Ruling: the Agent has received, with copies for the Agent and each of the Lenders, a copy of the advance tax ruling issued by Canada Revenue Agency with respect to the steps undertaken as part of the Reorganization.

8.2 Continuing Conditions Precedent

Except as expressly provided in Section 2.2 with respect to Rollover and Conversions, the obligation of the Lenders to make available any Accommodations pursuant to Section 3.7 or to make any Conversion of Accommodations pursuant to Section 3.21 or to make a Rollover pursuant to Section 3.22, is subject to and conditional upon the condition precedent that, on each Drawdown Date, Conversion Date and Rollover Date there exists no Default or Event of Default, and after giving effect to the Drawdown, Conversion or Rollover, the aggregate Outstandings will not exceed the Total Commitment.

8.3 Waiver of a Condition Precedent

The terms and conditions of Sections 8.1 and 8.2 are inserted for the sole benefit of the Agent and the Lenders and may be waived by the Majority Lenders in whole or in part with or without terms or conditions, in respect of all or any portion of the Accommodations, without affecting the right of the Lenders to assert such terms and conditions in whole or in part in respect of any other Accommodations.

ARTICLE 9
COVENANTS

9.1 Positive Covenants

During the term of this Agreement, each of the Fund and the Borrowers covenants and agrees for and on behalf of itself and the Borrowers covenant and agree for and on behalf of each other Loan Party, that it shall, and the Borrowers shall cause each other Loan Party to:

(a) Payment and Performance of Indebtedness: the Borrowers shall, and as applicable shall cause each other Loan Party to, pay duly and punctually all Indebtedness as and when due by it hereunder and shall perform all other obligations on its part to be performed under the terms of the Loan Documents at the times and places and in the manner provided for therein;

(b) Partnership Existence: KELP and Rimbey LP shall maintain their partnership existence in good standing under the laws of Alberta and, in the case of KELP, under the laws of Saskatchewan and each shall be duly registered and qualified and remain duly registered and qualified as a partnership under the laws of Alberta and each other jurisdiction in Canada in which the nature of any material business transacted by it or the character of any material properties or assets owned or leased by it require such qualification;

(c) Corporate Existence of KEFL: KEFL shall maintain its corporate existence in good standing under the laws of Alberta and shall be duly registered and qualified and remain duly registered and qualified as a corporation under the laws of Alberta and as an extra provincial corporation under the laws of each jurisdiction in Canada in which the nature of any material business transacted by it or the character of any material properties or assets owned or leased by it requires such registration and qualification;

(d) Trust Existence of the Fund: the Fund shall maintain its trust existence in good standing under the laws of Alberta and shall be an unincorporated open ended trust under the laws of Alberta;

(e) Existence of other Loan Parties: the Borrowers shall cause each other Loan Party to maintain its existence in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation or creation, as the case may be, and shall cause each to duly register and qualify and remain duly registered and qualified under the laws of each jurisdiction in Canada in which the nature of any material business transacted by it or the character of any material properties or assets owned or leased by it requires such registration and qualification;

(f) Annual Financial Statements: the Fund shall furnish to the Agent (with a copy for the Agent and each Lender) as soon as available and in any event within 120 days after the end of each Fiscal Year for the Fund, its annual audited consolidated financial statements setting forth in comparative form the corresponding figures of the preceding Fiscal Year together with (i) an auditor's report confirming that its examinations of such consolidated financial statements were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests and other procedures as it considered necessary in the circumstances and that such consolidated financial statements present fairly in all material respects the consolidated financial position of the Fund and its Subsidiaries (if applicable) as of the close of such Fiscal Year and the results of their operations and the changes in their financial position for the Fiscal Year then ended, in accordance with GAAP: and (ii) a certificate of a senior officer of the Administrator on behalf of the Fund certifying that, except as disclosed in such financial statements, no Loan Party has had any liability, contingent or otherwise, or any unrealized or anticipated loss that singularly or in the aggregate, had, or could reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect, provided however, that the requirement to deliver the foregoing financial statements may be satisfied by notice to the Agent that such information has been posted on www.sedar.com;

(g) Quarterly Financial Statements: the Fund shall furnish to the Agent (with a copy for the Agent and each Lender), as soon as available and in any event within sixty (60) days after the end of each Fiscal Quarter (except for the last Fiscal Quarter of each Fiscal Year), the quarterly unaudited consolidated and unconsolidated financial statements for the Fund including unaudited consolidated statements of income, changes in financial position and balance sheet prepared in accordance with GAAP consistently applied and all material filings with securities regulatory authorities, subject to Section 13.2, provided however, that the requirement to deliver the foregoing financial statements may be satisfied by notice to the Agent that such information has been posted on www.sedar.com;

(h) Quarterly Compliance Certificate: the Fund shall furnish to the Agent (with a copy for the Agent and each Lender), as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event within sixty (60) days after the end of each Fiscal Quarter, and effective as of the last day of each Fiscal Quarter, a duly executed and completed Compliance Certificate, such Compliance Certificate to be substantially in the form of Schedule "E" hereto and providing, with detail and supporting calculations satisfactory to the Agent, the determination of the financial ratios set out in the financial covenants in Section 9.3;

(i) Annual Budget: the Fund shall furnish to the Agent (with a copy for the Agent and each Lender) as soon as available and in any event not later than 30 days after the end of each Fiscal Year and in form and substance satisfactory to the Agent, acting reasonably, an annual budget for the Fund for that Fiscal Year on a consolidated basis containing reasonable detail as to all budgeted capital expenditures, an operating business plan, a projection of revenues and expenses and cash flow forecast;

(j) Consolidated Total Assets: the Fund shall ensure that the Loan Parties collectively own at all times total assets (as the same would be shown on a balance sheet of the Fund consolidated with the Restricted Subsidiaries in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, but excluding Non-Restricted Subsidiaries) with a book value not less than 85% of Consolidated Total Assets;

(k) Payment of Taxes: the Fund and each Borrower shall and the Borrowers shall cause each other Loan Party to file all income tax returns which are required to be filed, pay or make provision for payment (in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles) of all Taxes which are due and payable. and provide adequate reserves (in accordance with GAAP) for the payment of any Tax, the payment of which is being contested, and shall provide the Agent upon request with evidence, in form and substance satisfactory to the Agent, of such payment or, in the case of a contestation, evidence that such contestation could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect if determined adversely to the applicable Loan Party;

(l) Insurance: the Fund and each Borrower shall and the Borrowers shall cause each other Loan Party to maintain in full force and effect such policies of insurance issued by insurers of recognized standing insuring such properties and operations of a Borrower and the Fund and its respective Subsidiaries, including all risks property insurance, wrap-up general liability insurance, employee's liability insurance, business interruption insurance, sudden and accidental pollution insurance and replacement cost insurance, and providing such coverages as would be maintained by a prudent oil and gas operator engaged in the same or similar business in the localities where such properties and operations are located, all with responsible and reputable insurance companies in such amounts, with such waivers of insurer's rights of subrogation and with such deductibles as are customary and consistent with prudent industry practice, and including the Agent as additional insured and first loss payee, and shall, if required, furnish the Agent with certificates or other evidence satisfactory to the Agent of compliance with the foregoing provisions;

(m) Defend Title: except as otherwise expressly provided for hereunder the Fund and each Borrower shall, and the Borrowers shall cause each other Loan Party to, maintain, protect and defend title to all of its material assets and take all such commercially reasonable acts and steps as are necessary or advisable at any time and from time to time to retain its ownership and that of any other Loan Party in all such material assets in good standing (other than Permitted Title Defects) and to cure any title defects in respect of all such material assets (other than Permitted Title Defects);

(n) Books and Records: the Fund and each Borrower shall and the Borrowers shall cause each other Loan Party to keep proper and adequate records and books of account (including lists of accounts receivable showing amounts owing on each account) in which true and complete entries will be made in a manner sufficient to enable the preparation of financial statements in accordance with GAAP as consistently applied to Loan Parties and, upon request of the Agent, make the same available for confidential inspection by the Agent and the Lenders and their respective employees at all reasonable times and for the purposes of obtaining copies of and abstracts therefrom;

(o) Notice of Certain Events: each Borrower shall, to the extent any Loan Party is or becomes aware, provide the Agent with prompt written notice of:

(i) (A) any Default or Event of Default; or (B) any circumstance or event which would constitute a default by any party to any contract relating to one or more Facilities if such default could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, together in each case with an officer's certificate describing in detail such Default, or Event of Default or other default and specifying the steps, if any, being taken to cure or remedy the same;

(ii) any actions, suits, litigation or other proceedings of which any Loan Party has knowledge which are commenced or threatened against or adversely affect any Loan Party and which involve a claim in excess of Cdn. $*;

[* Notice to Reader: the threshold amount has been marked to be unreadable]

(iii) the discovery of any Hazardous Material or of any material Release from or upon the land or property of any Loan Party which could reasonably be expected to result in liability to the Loan Parties in excess of Cdn. $* in the aggregate;

[* Notice to Reader: the threshold amount has been marked to be unreadable]

(iv) any Governmental Authorization that has been issued or made by any Governmental Authority to the effect that any Loan Party, or any operator of a property in which a Loan Party has an interest, has failed to comply in any material respect with any Environmental Laws or requiring any material remediation, stop work, cleanup or otherwise; and

(v) any event, circumstance or condition that has had, or could reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect;

(p) Maintenance of Assets: each Borrower shall, and the Borrowers shall cause each other Loan Party to, maintain in all material respects all of its material businesses, activities and operations in accordance with prudent industry practice, including the making of any necessary capital expenditures and the maintenance and renewal of all required permits, Land Rights, licenses, rights and privileges necessary to enable the applicable Loan Party to operate and conduct its respective businesses, activities and operations in accordance in all material respects with prudent industry practice;

(q) Additional Environmental Information: each Borrower shall, and the Borrowers shall cause each other Loan Party to, upon the request of the Agent (acting reasonably), make available for discussion with the Lenders at all reasonable times the senior officers of the applicable Loan Party primarily responsible for the environmental activities and affairs of such Loan Party;

(r) Compliance with Laws and Regulations: the Fund and each Borrower shall and the Borrowers shall cause each other Loan Party to:

(i) comply with all Applicable Laws including, without limitation, all Environmental Laws and obtain and maintain all necessary environmental permits, except to the extent failure to do so would not have a Material Adverse Effect; and

(ii) observe and conform in all material respects to all valid requirements of any governmental or municipal authority relative to any of its material assets and all material covenants, terms and conditions of all material agreements upon or under which any of its assets are held;

(s) Provide Copies: the Fund and each Borrower shall furnish to the Agent (with a copy for the Agent and each Lender), as soon as available, copies of (i) any material amendments, supplements, replacements or restatements to any Material Contract, and (ii) all written information made available generally to the Fund unit holders or filed (except on a confidential basis) with any Canadian securities regulatory authority; provided, however, that the foregoing may be satisfied by notice to the Agent that such information has been posted on www.sedar.com;

(t) Ranking of Debt: any availment under the Credit Facility will rank pari passu with all other Indebtedness for Borrowed Money of the Loan Parties;

(u) Regulatory Filings: make all material regulatory filings required by Governmental Authorities in respect of the Assets on a timely basis;

(v) Use of Funds: use all funds advanced hereunder solely for the purposes provided for herein;

(w) Further Assurances: the Fund and each Borrower shall, and the Borrowers shall cause the Fund's Subsidiaries to, furnish to the Agent any additional information regarding the business affairs, operations and financial condition of the Fund, the Borrowers or a Subsidiary of the Fund as the Agent shall reasonably request and each Borrower shall, within 30 days after notice thereof from the Agent, do all such further acts and things and execute and deliver all such further documents as shall be reasonably required by the Agent in order to ensure the terms and provisions of the Loan Documents are fully performed and carried out.

9.2 Negative Covenants

During the term of this Agreement, the Fund and each Borrower covenants with each of the Lenders and the Agent that it shall not, and the Borrowers shall ensure that each other Loan Party shall not without the prior written consent of the Majority Lenders:

(a) Negative Pledge: except for Permitted Encumbrances, create, incur, assume or suffer to exist any Security Interest upon or with respect to any of its undertaking, properties, rights or assets, whether now owned or hereafter acquired;

(b) Mergers, Etc.: not to merge, amalgamate, consolidate or otherwise enter into any other similar form of business combination with any other person, without the consent of the Lenders, not to be unreasonably withheld, provided that no such consent will be required if (i) the resulting entity is bound by the provisions of all of the applicable Loan Documents, as the case may be; (ii) the creditworthiness of resulting entity shall be at least as creditworthy as the applicable predecessor entities, in the determination of the Lenders, acting reasonably; and (iii) no Default or Event of Default will result therefrom or remain outstanding thereafter; provided further and notwithstanding the foregoing, any Loan Party may merge, amalgamate, consolidate or otherwise enter into a similar form of business combination with another Loan Party, provided that no Default or Event of Default has occurred that is continuing and no Default or Event of Default will result therefrom or remain outstanding thereafter;

(c) Restriction on Dispositions: except for Permitted Dispositions, sell, transfer, convey, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of its properties or assets having an aggregate value in respect of all Loan Parties in excess of 5% of Consolidated Total Assets (on a cumulative basis) in any Fiscal Year;

(d) Transactions with Affiliates: enter into material transactions with Affiliates (other than a Loan Party) except on arm's-length terms;

(e) Change of Fiscal Year: change its Fiscal Year or the basis on which its financial records are now maintained;

(f) Capital Distributions: directly or indirectly make or give effect to Capital Distributions in respect of any twelve (12) month period which exceed 105% (or 110% in the event that the Fund obtains an Investment Grade Rating) of the Distributable Cash Flow attributable to such twelve (12) month period, or directly or indirectly make any Capital Distribution if a Default or Event of Default has occurred, is continuing at the time of, or will exist after giving effect to, the making of such Capital Distribution, other than a Capital Distribution made to a Loan Party;

(g) Change of Business: make any material change in the nature of the business and operations of, or conduct any businesses or operations which are materially different from those conducted by, the Subsidiaries of the Fund, taken as a whole on the Effective Date;

(h) Risk Management: enter into or become subject to any Swap outside the ordinary course of its business or for speculative purposes, unless the aggregate Swap Indebtedness of all Loan Parties in respect of Swaps which would be so characterized does not at any time exceed Cdn. $1,000,000;

(i) Limitation on Indebtedness and Financial Assistance:

(i) permit any Non-Restricted Subsidiary to incur any Indebtedness (except to a Loan Party); and

(ii) provide or permit any Non-Restricted Subsidiary to provide Financial Assistance to any Person (other than a Loan Party); except to the extent that the aggregate of such Indebtedness and Financial Assistance does not exceed at any time 5% of Consolidated Total Assets.

9.3 Financial Covenants

The Fund agrees to maintain, on a consolidated basis, the financial ratios listed below:

(a) its Debt to EBITDA Ratio as of the last day of each Fiscal Quarter is not more than 3.50 to 1.00; provided, however, that in the event that, during any Fiscal Quarter, Debt has been incurred to finance a Material Acquisition, the foregoing ratio shall increase to 4:00 to 1 (the "Adjusted Ratio") for the two Fiscal Quarters immediately following the Fiscal Quarter in which such Debt was incurred; provided that if such Material Acquisition and all Material Acquisitions within the last three Fiscal Quarters had not occurred, the Debt to EBITDA Ratio for such Fiscal Quarter would not have been more than 3.50 to 1.00; and

(b) its Debt to Capitalization Ratio as at the last day of each Fiscal Quarter is not more than 0.55 to 1.00.

ARTICLE 10
EVENTS OF DEFAULT

10.1 Events of Default

The occurrence of any one (1) or more of the following events or circumstances constitutes an Event of Default under this Agreement:

(a) Payments: (i) the failure of any Borrower to pay or otherwise reduce the principal amount outstanding of any Accommodations or any portion thereof when due for payment or other reduction hereunder; or (ii) the failure to pay any interest or other amount due hereunder on the date upon which the same is due and payable, which failure to pay continues for two (2) Business Days after the date such amount is due;

(b) Covenants: if there is a breach or failure of due performance by any Loan Party of any covenant or provision of any of the Loan Documents (other than those otherwise dealt with in this Section 10.1), and such breach or failure is not capable of being remedied, or if capable of being remedied such breach or failure is not cured to the reasonable satisfaction of the Majority Lenders within 30 days after written notice thereof by the Agent to such Borrower;

(c) Representations and Warranties: if any representation or warranty made by any Loan Party in Article 2 or any other Loan Document or certificate or document delivered to the Agent or any Lender shall prove to have been incorrect in any material respect when made hereunder, or would be incorrect in any material particular if then made hereunder, and (if capable of being corrected, but without changing same) such representation or warranty continues to be incorrect for a period of 30 days after the Agent gives written notice of such incorrect representation and warranty to the Borrowers;

(d) Cross Default: if any Loan Party fails to pay principal or interest or is given a valid notice of a default under any term or provision of any agreement evidencing Indebtedness for Borrowed Money (including, without limitation, any Capital Lease), securing or evidencing Indebtedness in the aggregate in excess of Cdn. $30,000,000 and such breach or default shall not be remedied within the lesser of 30 days from the occurrence thereof and the cure period (if any) allowed in the relevant agreement, or if any Person shall demand repayment of any Indebtedness which is repayable on demand and is owing to it by such Loan Party and such Indebtedness shall not be paid within the time required by law, and the aggregate amount of all such Indebtedness outstanding at any one time to which all such defaults or demands relate is in excess of Cdn. $30,000,000 or the Equivalent Amount in any other currencies;

(e) Cease to Carry on Business: other than as permitted hereunder, if any Loan Party (other than the Fund) ceases or threatens to cease to carry on its business, or a substantial part thereof, or makes a bulk sale of its property;

(f) Voluntary Insolvency: if any Loan Party shall:

(i) apply for or consent to the appointment of a receiver, trustee or liquidator of itself or of all or a substantial part of its assets;

(ii) be unable, or admit in writing its inability or failure, to pay its debts generally as they become due;

(iii) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors;

(iv) commit or threaten to commit an act of bankruptcy under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) or any statute passed in substitution therefore, as amended from time to time;

(v) commence any cause, proceeding or other action under any existing or future law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or relief of debtors seeking to have an order for relief entered with respect to it, or seeking to adjudicate it a bankrupt or insolvent, or seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, winding up, liquidation, dissolution, composition or other relief with respect to it or its debts or an arrangement with creditors or taking advantage of any insolvency law or proceeding for the relief of debtors, or file an answer admitting the material allegations of a petition filed against it in any bankruptcy, reorganization or insolvency proceeding; or

(vi) take corporate action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing;

(g) Involuntary Insolvency: if any cause, proceeding or other action shall be instituted in any court of competent jurisdiction, against any Loan Party seeking in respect of such Loan Party an adjudication in bankruptcy, reorganization, dissolution, winding up, liquidation, a composition or arrangement with creditors, a readjustment of debts, the appointment of a trustee, receiver, liquidator or the like of any Loan Party or of all or any substantial part of its assets, or any other like relief in respect of any Loan Party under any bankruptcy or insolvency law, and if such cause, proceeding or other action results in an entry of an order for relief or any such adjudication or appointment, or if such case, proceeding or other action is being diligently contested by such Loan Party in good faith, the same shall continue undismissed or unstayed and in effect, for any period of 30 consecutive days;

(h) Writs of Execution: if writs of execution or attachment or similar process in respect of any judgements or claims which, in the aggregate, are in excess of Cdn. $30,000,000, are levied against property in the Loan Parties and such writs, execution, attachment or similar processes are not released, satisfied, discharged, vacated or stayed within thirty (30) days after their entry, commencement or levy;

(i) Encumbrancers: if an encumbrancer or lienor lawfully takes possession of or files a writ of execution against any property of any Loan Party having a fair market value in excess of, in aggregate, Cdn. $30,000,000;

(j) Change of Control: if, without the consent of the Majority Lenders, a Person other than the Fund or an Affiliate thereof acquires, directly or indirectly and together with its Affiliates, (A) a partnership interest in KELP exceeding 50%, (B) the right or power to appoint a majority of the members of the board of directors of KEFL, or (C) beneficial ownership of a majority of the units of the Fund;

(k) Invalid Documents: if any of the Loan Documents, the Material Contracts or any material provision thereof shall at any time for any reason cease to be in full force and effect in accordance with its terms, be declared to be void or voidable or shall be repudiated or claimed to be ineffective, or the validity or enforceability thereof shall at any time be contested by any party thereto (other than the Lenders); or if in respect of the Loan Documents (i) any Loan Party shall deny that it has any or any further liability or obligation thereunder, or (ii) at any time it shall be unlawful or impossible for any Loan Party to perform any of its material obligations under any such Loan Document; or

(l) Specified Events: if there is a breach of or default under any of the covenants specified in Sections 9.2(a), 9.2(b), 9.2(c), 9.2(f), 9.2(i)or 9.3; or

(m) Environmental Orders: if an order from a Governmental Authority is issued against any Loan Party or any material assets or businesses of any Loan Party alleging a material violation of any Environmental Laws or a failure to take remedial action concerning Hazardous Materials and within 30 days after such order is issued either:

(i) adequate accounting reserves have not been established in accordance with GAAP within a reasonable period of time after the order is issued; or

(ii) the order is not being diligently contested in good faith.

10.2 Acceleration and Demand

Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default the Agent may, if so required by the Majority Lenders:

(a) Terminate Commitment: by written notice to the Borrowers, declare the Total Commitment and each Lender's Commitment and the right of each Borrower to apply for further Accommodations to be terminated; and

(b) Acceleration Notice: by written notice to the Borrowers (an "Acceleration Notice"), declare all Indebtedness (whether matured or unmatured) of each Borrower outstanding to the Agent or any of the Lenders (including the Face Amount of all Bankers' Acceptances to be immediately due and payable (or to be due and payable at such later time as may be stated in such notice) without further demand, presentation, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are expressly waived by the Borrowers.

10.3 Cash Collateral Accounts

(a) Exchange Rate Fluctuations: Upon the receipt of cash cover by the Agent pursuant to Section 4.1 and in addition to any other rights or remedies of the Lenders hereunder, the Agent, for the benefit of the Lenders hereunder, shall thereafter be entitled to deposit and retain in a Cash Collateral Account, bearing interest (with interest to follow principal) at the Agent's prevailing rates for demand deposits of comparable amounts which are received by the Agent from the Borrowers until the next Business Day on which there has been no such excess under Section 4.1 for a period of five (5) consecutive Business Days, whereupon all such amounts (including interest) shall be immediately credited to the Prime Loans outstanding.

(b) Bankers' Acceptances and Libor Loans: Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default or delivery of an Acceleration Notice, each Borrower shall forthwith pay to the Agent, for deposit into a Cash Collateral Account, an amount equal to the Lenders' maximum potential liability under each Borrower's then outstanding Bankers' Acceptances and (unless a Borrower makes payment of the amount required pursuant to Section 11.5) Libor Loans (collectively, the "Escrow Funds"). The Escrow Funds shall be held by the Agent for set-off against future Indebtedness owing by the applicable Borrower to the Lenders in respect of such Bankers' Acceptances and Libor Loans and shall be held until repayment of such Outstandings in full, except to apply the amount represented thereby to the Outstandings or a portion thereof. Escrow Funds shall bear interest at the Agent's prevailing rates for demand deposits of comparable amounts, with interest to follow principal.

10.4 Remedies on Default

After an Event of Default:

(a) Majority Lenders Instructions: If the Majority Lenders do provide directions or instructions to the Agent, the Agent, on behalf of all Lenders shall, take such actions and commence such proceedings as the Majority Lenders in their sole discretion may determine, all without any obligation to marshall any Security Interests and without additional notice, presentation, demand or protest, all of which each Borrower hereby expressly waives (to the extent such rights may be waived under Applicable Law).

(b) General Remedies: The rights and remedies of the Agent and each Lender under the Loan Documents are cumulative and are in addition to and not in substitution for any rights or remedies provided by law. To the extent that the circumstances in paragraph (a) above are applicable, the Agent may on behalf of all Lenders and shall if so required by the Majority Lenders, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, bring suit at law, in equity or otherwise for any available relief or purpose including but not limited to:

(i) Specific Performance: the specific performance of any covenant or agreement contained in the Loan Documents;

(ii) Injunction: enjoining a violation of any of the terms of the Loan Documents;

(iii) Assistance: aiding in the exercise of any power granted by the Loan Documents or by law; or

(iv) Judgment: obtaining and recovering judgment for any and all amounts due in respect of the Accommodation or amounts otherwise due hereunder or under the Loan Documents.

10.5 Right of Set-Off

Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default, and in addition to any rights now or hereafter granted under Applicable Law and not by way of limitation of any such rights, the Agent and the Lenders are authorized at any time and from time to time thereafter, without notice to the Borrowers or to any other Person, (any such notice being expressly waived by the Borrowers) to set-off and to appropriate and to apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) and any other Indebtedness at any time held by or owing by the Agent or such Lender to or for the credit of or the account of a Borrower against and on account of the obligations and Indebtedness of such Borrower to the Agent or such Lender under this Agreement or under any of the Loan Documents (including the Face Amount of all Bankers' Acceptances) including without limitation, all claims of the Agent or any Lender of any nature or description arising out of or connected with this Agreement, irrespective of whether or not the Agent or any Lender has made any demand under this Agreement and although such obligations, liabilities or claims against the applicable Borrower are contingent or unmatured. Any exercise of such rights by any Lender shall be subject to the obligations of such Lender pursuant to Section 12.11.

10.6 Application and Sharing of Payments Following Acceleration

Except as otherwise agreed to by all the Lenders in their sole discretion, any sum received by the Agent at any time after delivery of an Acceleration Notice or the occurrence of an Event of Default specified in Sections 10.1(e) or 10.1(f), shall be applied by the Agent among the Lenders and the Agent in accordance with amounts owed to the Lenders and the Agent in respect of each category of amounts set forth below, each such application to be made in the following order with the balance remaining after application in respect of each category to be applied to the next succeeding category:

(a) firstly, in or towards payment of any fees or expenses then due and payable to the Agent hereunder or under any other Loan Document;

(b) secondly, Rateably among the Lenders in respect of amounts due and payable to such Lenders as and by way of recoverable expenses hereunder or under any Loan Document;

(c) thirdly, Rateably among the Lenders in respect of amounts due and payable to such Lenders by way of interest pursuant to Sections 5.1, 5.2 and 5.3, fees pursuant to Sections 5.4 and 5.5, interest on overdue amounts pursuant to Section 5.6, commitment fees pursuant to Section 5.7 and Agent's fees pursuant to Section 5.8; and

(d) fourthly, Rateably among the Lenders in respect of any other amount not hereinbefore referred to in this Section 10.6 which are then due and payable by any Borrower or any other Loan Party hereunder or under any other Loan Document.

10.7 Lenders May Perform Covenants

If any Loan Party shall fail to perform any of its obligations under any covenant contained in any of the Loan Documents within the time permitted for the performance of any such covenant or for the cure of any default thereof, the Agent may on behalf of the Lenders, on the instructions of the Majority Lenders, perform any such covenant capable of being performed by it and, if any such covenant requires the payment or expenditure of money, it may make such payment or expenditure with its own funds on behalf of the Lenders. If the Majority Lenders elect to effect such observance or performance, neither the Agent nor the Majority Lenders shall be liable for any failure or deficiency, apart from fraud, in effecting such observance or performance, nor for the payment of any bills, invoices or accounts incurred or rendered in connection therewith. All amounts so paid by the Agent hereunder shall be repaid by the Borrowers on demand therefor, and shall bear interest at the rate set forth in Section 5.6 from and including the date paid by the Agent hereunder to but excluding the date such amounts are repaid in full by the Borrowers.

10.8 Waiver of Default

Any single or partial exercise by any Lender, the Agent or by the Agent on behalf of any Lender of any right or remedy for a default or breach of any term, covenant, condition or agreement contained in the Loan Documents shall not be deemed to be a waiver of or to alter, affect or prejudice any other right or remedy to which the Agent or such Lender may be lawfully entitled for the same default or breach, and any waiver by any Lender, the Agent or by the Agent on behalf of any Lender of the strict observance, performance or compliance with any term, covenant, condition or agreement contained in the Loan Documents, and any indulgence granted thereby, shall be deemed not to be a waiver of any subsequent default. To the extent permitted by Applicable Law, each Borrower hereby waives any rights now or hereafter conferred by statute or otherwise which are inconsistent with the Agent's or a Lender's rights or remedies under the Loan Documents.

ARTICLE 11
EXPENSES AND INDEMNITIES

11.1 Reimbursement of Expenses

All statements, reports (including engineering reports and environmental reports), certificates, opinions and other documents or information required to be furnished to the Agent or the Lenders by any Loan Party under this Agreement shall be supplied by the Loan Parties without cost to the Agent or the Lenders. In addition, the Borrowers agree to pay promptly to the Agent on demand, all reasonable legal fees and other reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including travel, publicity and syndication expenses) incurred or which may hereafter be incurred from time to time by the Agent, the Lenders or the Arranger in respect of the documentation, preparation, registration, negotiation, execution and administration of the Loan Documents (including any stamp taxes or other Taxes payable in connection with the execution, delivery or enforcement of the Loan Documents) and all reasonable legal fees and other out-of-pocket expenses (on a solicitor and his own client basis) which are incurred from time to time by the Agent or the Lenders in respect of the enforcement of the Loan Documents.

Each Borrower acknowledges that the Agent's fees payable pursuant to Section 5.8 do not include any activities which the Agent may undertake hereunder in respect of any restructuring of the Credit Facility that may be required in the event of any adverse developments or circumstances affecting any Borrower and that in all such circumstances additional fees may be required by the Agent in respect of any such restructuring and in addition to any fees otherwise payable hereunder.

11.2 Increased Cost

If the introduction of, any change in or the implementation of any Applicable Law, (including any capital adequacy requirement but excluding any taxes on the overall net income of a Lender or upon the overall capital of a Lender), regulation, treaty or official directive now or hereafter in effect (whether or not having the force of law) or any change in the interpretation or application thereof by any court or by any judicial or Governmental Authority charged with the interpretation or administration thereof, or if compliance by any Lender with any request from any central bank or other fiscal, monetary or other authority (whether or not having the force of law) (individually, a "Circumstance"):

(a) subjects a Lender to any Tax, or changes the basis of taxation of payments due to a Lender or increases any existing Tax, on payments of principal, interest or other amounts payable by a Borrower to a Lender under this Agreement;

(b) imposes, modifies or deems applicable any reserve, special deposit, capital adequacy, regulatory or similar requirement against assets or liabilities held by a Lender, or deposits of or for the account of a Lender, or loans by a Lender, or any other acquisition of funds for loans by a Lender or commitments by a Lender to fund loans or obligations of a Lender in respect of Bankers' Acceptances accepted by such Lender; or

(c) imposes on a Lender any other condition with respect to this Agreement; and the result of (a), (b) or (c) is, in the sole determination of such Lender acting reasonably and in good faith, to increase the cost in respect of an Accommodation to such Lender or to reduce the income receivable by such Lender in respect of an Accommodation or commitment fees payable pursuant to Section 5.7, such Lender shall promptly notify the Agent. The Agent shall promptly notify the Borrowers and the applicable Borrower shall pay to the Agent for the benefit of such Lender that amount which compensates such Lender for such additional cost or reduction in income (except to the extent such increase in costs or reduction in income is reflected in or recovered by an increase in the Prime Rate or the US Base Rate) ("Additional Compensation") on the next Libor Interest Date in the case of a Libor Loan, on the next date on which commitment fees are payable under Section 5.7 in the case of commitment fees and the next date of issuance of any Bankers' Acceptances or on the next Interest Date in any other case (and each successive Libor Interest Date, or Interest Date, if applicable) unless such Lender knew, on the date of execution of this Agreement, of such Circumstance and the likely result thereof. The Borrowers shall not be obligated to pay any portion of such Additional Compensation accruing under this Section 11.2 for any period prior to the date which is three (3) months prior to the date on which the Agent, on behalf of such Lender, gives notice to the Borrowers that such Additional Compensation is so accruing. A photocopy of the relevant law, regulation, treaty, official directive or regulatory requirement (or, if it is impracticable to provide a photocopy, a written summary of the same) and a certificate by a duly authorized officer of such Lender (prepared in good faith) setting forth the amount of the Additional Compensation and the basis for it must be submitted by the Agent to the Borrowers and is conclusive evidence, in the absence of manifest error, of the amount of the Additional Compensation. If the Agent notifies the Borrowers that Additional Compensation is owed, the Borrowers shall pay such Additional Compensation to the Agent for the account of such Lender and the Borrowers shall have the right, upon written irrevocable prior notice of at least three (3) Business Days to the Agent at the Agent's Branch of Account, to make payment in full to the Agent for the account of such Lender in respect of the applicable Accommodation on the date specified in such notice together with accrued but unpaid interest and fees in respect of such Accommodation or to convert such Accommodation into another basis of Accommodation available under this Agreement.

11.3 Illegality

If the introduction of or any change in Applicable Law, regulation, treaty, official directive or regulatory requirement now or hereafter in effect (whether or not having the force of law) or any change in the interpretation or application thereof by any court or by any judicial or Governmental Authority charged with the interpretation or administration thereof, makes it unlawful or prohibited for a Lender (in its sole opinion acting reasonably and in good faith) to make, to fund or to maintain the Accommodations or a portion of the Accommodations or to perform its obligations under this Agreement, such Lender may by written notice to the Borrowers through the Agent terminate its obligations under this Agreement to make such Accommodations or perform such obligations and the applicable Borrower shall prepay such Accommodations within two (2) Business Days together with all accrued but unpaid interest and fees as may be applicable to the date of payment or Convert by notice to the Agent such Accommodation forthwith into another basis of Borrowing available under this Agreement.

11.4 Substitute Basis of Accommodation

If, on or prior to any Interest Determination Date in respect of a Libor Loan, a Lender determines acting reasonably and in good faith (which determination is final, conclusive and binding upon each Borrower) that:

(a) adequate and fair means do not exist for ascertaining the rate of interest on such Libor Loan;

(b) the cost to such Lender of making, funding or maintaining such Libor Loan does not accurately reflect the effective cost to such Lender thereof and the costs to such Lender are increased or the income receivable by such Lender is reduced in respect of such Libor Loan;

(c) the making or the continuation of such Libor Loan or a portion of such Libor Loan by such Lender has become impracticable by reason of circumstances which materially and adversely affect the London interbank market; or

(d) deposits in US Dollars are not available to such Lender in the London interbank market in sufficient amounts in the ordinary course of business for the applicable Libor Interest Period to make, fund or maintain such Libor Loan during such Libor Interest Period; then, such Lender shall promptly notify the Agent, and the Agent shall promptly notify the Borrowers in writing of such determination setting forth the basis of such determination and such Lender shall not thereafter be obligated to provide such Libor Loan. The applicable Borrower shall thereupon forthwith notify the Agent as to the substitute basis of Accommodation available under this Agreement which it has selected for such Libor Loan. If the applicable Borrower has not so notified the Agent, such Libor Loan shall automatically be converted to a US Base Rate Loan for all purposes under this Agreement on the date falling two (2) Banking Days subsequent to such Interest Determination Date.

11.5 Funding Indemnity

If, for any reason whatsoever and whether or not required or permitted pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, any Borrower repays, prepays, converts or cancels a Libor Loan other than on the last day of a Libor Interest Period applicable to such Libor Loan, or fails for any reason to borrow, Convert, Rollover or otherwise act in accordance with a notice given hereunder pursuant to Schedules "A", "C" or "D", such Borrower shall indemnify the Lender for any loss, cost or expense incurred by such Lender including, without limitation, any loss of profit or expenses such Lender incurs by reason of the liquidation or reemployment of deposits or other funds acquired by such Lender to maintain the Libor Loan or any increased interest or other charges payable to lenders of funds borrowed in order to maintain such Libor Loan together with any other out-of-pocket charges, costs or expenses incurred by such Lender relative thereto. A certificate of such Lender (acting reasonably and prepared in good faith) submitted by the Agent setting out the basis for the determination of the amount necessary to indemnify such Lender shall be, in the absence of manifest error, prima facie evidence thereof.

11.6 General Indemnity

Each Borrower hereby covenants with the Agent and each Lender that it shall at all times hereafter keep the Agent, each Lender and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, Affiliates, shareholders and assignees (the "Indemnified Persons") indemnified and held harmless from and against all suits (whether founded or unfounded), actions, proceedings, judgments, demands or claims instituted or made against any Indemnified Person, and all costs, losses, liabilities, damages and expenses (including all legal fees on a solicitor and his own client basis) incurred by any Indemnified Person in any way relating to, arising out of, or incidental to any default by the Borrower or any other Loan Party under any provision of any of the Loan Documents (unless any of the foregoing arise from the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of such Indemnified Person), including without limitation, any failure by any Loan Party to comply with its covenants in this Agreement or any other Loan Document. Provided there is no Default hereunder and for so long as there is no Default hereunder, each Borrower, or at its option another Loan Party, shall be entitled to conduct the defence of such suit, action or proceeding with the participation of and taking into account the best interests of the Indemnified Persons. If the Agent or such Lender shall determine in good faith that the defence of any such suit, action or proceeding is not being conducted in the best interests of the Indemnified Persons, the Agent or such Lender shall on notice to such Borrower and any such Loan Party be entitled to take over the sole conduct of the defence of such suit, action or proceeding and, unless the Agent or Lender advises that the basis of such determination is that counsel to a Loan Party has a material conflict of interest in representing both the Loan Party and the Indemnified Persons, such Borrower shall not be obligated to indemnify the Agent or such Lender in respect of any legal fees and disbursements thereafter incurred in respect of such suit, action or proceeding.

11.7 Environmental Indemnity

Each Borrower shall indemnify and hold harmless the Agent and the Lenders (including any receiver, receiver-manager or similar Person appointed under Applicable Law) and their respective Affiliates, officers, directors, employees and agents (the "Indemnitees") forthwith on demand by the Agent from and against any and all suits (whether founded or unfounded), actions, proceedings, judgments, demands or claims instituted or made against any Indemnitee, and all costs, losses, liabilities, damages and expenses (including all legal fees on a solicitor and his own client basis) of any nature whatsoever suffered or incurred by any Indemnitee with respect to any Environmental Liabilities (actual or alleged) related to any Loan Party's assets and properties or arising from its operations in respect thereof (or any predecessor in interest to any such Loan Party), except to the extent any thereof arise as a result of the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of such Indemnitee.

ARTICLE 12
THE AGENT AND THE LENDERS

12.1 Authorization of Agent

Each Lender irrevocably appoints and authorizes the Agent to exercise such powers, perform such duties, take such actions, make such decisions and determinations and give such consents under the Loan Documents as are required to be exercised, performed, taken, made, given or otherwise carried out by the Agent hereunder or under any other agreement between the Lenders, together with all powers reasonably incidental thereto. As to any matters not expressly required by this Agreement, the other Loan Documents or by any other agreement between the Lenders to be carried out by the Agent, the Agent is not required to exercise any discretion or take or to refrain from taking any action except upon the written instructions of the Majority Lenders. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Agent shall not be required to exercise any discretion or to take or to refrain from taking any action in any manner which is contrary to the Loan Documents, to any other agreement between the Lenders or to Applicable Law.

12.2 Responsibility of Agent

The Agent makes no representation or warranty and accepts no responsibility with respect to the due execution, legality, validity, sufficiency, enforceability or priority of any of the Loan Documents nor with respect to the due execution, legality, validity, sufficiency, enforceability, accuracy or authenticity of any documents, papers, materials or other information furnished by any Borrower (or any other person, including the Agent or any other Loan Party) in connection with the Loan Documents, whether provided before or after the date of this Agreement. The Agent shall incur no liability to the Lenders under or in respect of the Loan Documents with respect to anything which it may do or refrain from doing in the reasonable exercise of its judgment or which may seem to it to be necessary or desirable in the circumstances, except for its gross negligence or wilful misconduct. The Agent assumes no responsibility for the payment of any of the Accommodations or other amounts outstanding hereunder by any Borrower.

12.3 Acknowledgment of Lenders

Each Lender acknowledges to the Agent that it has been, and will continue to be solely responsible for making its own independent appraisal of and investigation into the financial condition, creditworthiness, environmental soundness, affairs, status and nature of each Borrower and each other Loan Party and accordingly each Lender confirms to the Agent that it has not relied, and will not hereafter rely on the Agent:

(a) Information: to check or inquire on its behalf into the adequacy, accuracy or completeness of any information provided by any Borrower or any other Loan Party or in connection with the Loan Documents (whether or not such information has been or is hereafter circulated to such Lender by the Agent);

(b) Performance: to inquire as to the performance by any Borrower or any other Loan Party of its obligations under the Loan Documents; or

(c) Credit Review: to assess or keep under review on its behalf the financial condition, creditworthiness, environmental soundness, affairs, status or nature of any Borrower or any other Loan Party.

12.4 Rights and Obligations of Each Lender

The rights and obligations of each Lender under this Agreement are several and no Lender shall be obligated to make Accommodations available to any Borrower in excess of the amount of such Lender's Commitment. The failure of a Lender to perform its obligations under this Agreement shall neither:

(a) No Liability to Other Lenders: result in any other Lender incurring any liability whatsoever; nor

(b) No Relief from Obligations: relieve any Borrower or any other Lender from their respective obligations under any Loan Document.

Nothing contained herein or in any other Loan Document nor any action taken pursuant hereto or thereto shall be deemed to constitute the Lenders a partnership, joint venture or any other similar entity.

12.5 Notice to Lenders

Unless otherwise specifically dealt with in this Agreement, in the event the Agent delivers a written notice to a Lender requesting advice from such Lender as to whether it consents or objects to any matter in connection with the Loan Documents, then, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, if such Lender does not deliver to the Agent its written consent or objection to such matter:

(a) where a time period is specified hereunder for the Agent or the Majority Lenders to provide any response, notice or other communication, not less than one (1) Business Day prior to the end of such period; or such Lender shall be deemed not to have consented thereto.

(b) where no such time period is specified hereunder, then within fifteen (15) Business Days of the delivery of such written notice by the Agent to such Lender;

12.6 Notices between the Lenders, the Agent and the Borrowers

All notices by the Lenders to the Agent shall be through the Agent's Branch of Account and all notices by the Agent to a Lender shall be through such Lender's Branch of Account. All notices or communications between the Borrowers and the Lenders which are required or contemplated pursuant to the Loan Documents shall be given or made through the Agent at the Agent's Branch of Account.

12.7 Agent's Duty to Deliver Documents Obtained from the Borrower

The Agent shall promptly deliver to each Lender, at its Branch of Account, such documents, papers, materials and other information as are furnished by any Borrower to the Agent on behalf of such Lender pursuant to this Agreement, and such Borrower shall provide the Agent with sufficient copies of all such information for such purpose.

12.8 Arrangements for Accommodations

The Agent shall promptly give written notice to each Lender at its Branch of Account upon receipt by the Agent of any notice given pursuant to Article 3 or Section 4.3. The Agent shall advise each Lender of the amount, date and details of each Accommodation and of such Lender's share in each Accommodation. At or before 1:00 p.m. (Toronto time) on each Drawdown Date, Conversion Date or Rollover Date:

(a) Loans: each Lender will make available to the applicable Borrower its share of Accommodations by way of Loans by forwarding to the Agent at the Agent's Account for Payments the amount of Loans required to be made available by such Lender; and

(b) Bankers' Acceptances: each Lender will make available to the applicable Borrower its share of Accommodations by way of Bankers' Acceptances and BA Equivalent Advances by forwarding to the Agent at the Agent's Account for Payments the amount of the Discount Proceeds (less the amount of applicable fees payable by such Borrower to such Lender pursuant to Section 5.4).

12.9 Arrangements for Repayment of Accommodations

(a) Prior to Demand or Acceleration: Prior to the delivery of an Acceleration Notice or the occurrence of an Event of Default specified in Section 10.1(e) or 10.1(f), upon receipt by the Agent of payments from any Borrower on account of principal, interest, fees or any other payment made to the Agent on behalf of the Lenders, the Agent shall pay over to each Lender at its Branch of Account the amount to which it is entitled under this Agreement and shall use its best efforts to make such payment to such Lender on the same Business Day on which such payment is received by the Agent. If the Agent does not remit any such payment to a Lender on the same Business Day as such payment is received by the Agent, the Agent shall pay interest thereon to such Lender until the date of payment at a rate determined by the Agent (such rate to be conclusive and binding on such Lender) in accordance with the Agent's usual banking practice in respect of deposits of amounts comparable to the amount of such payment which are received by the Agent at a time similar to the time at which such payment is received by the Agent, and no Loan Party will have any liability therefor.

(b) Subsequent to Acceleration: Following delivery of an Acceleration Notice or the occurrence of an Event of Default specified in Section 10.1(e) or 10.1(f), the Lenders shall share any payments subsequently received in accordance with Section 10.6 of this Agreement.

12.10 Repayment by Lenders to Agent

(a) Where a Borrower Fails to Pay: Unless the Agent has been notified in writing by the applicable Borrower at least one (1) Business Day prior to the date on which any payment to be made by such Borrower hereunder is due that such Borrower does not intend to remit such payment, the Agent may, in its discretion, assume that such Borrower has remitted such payment when so due and the Agent may, in its discretion and in reliance upon such assumption, make available to each Lender on such payment date an amount equal to the amount of such payment which is due to such Lender pursuant to this Agreement. If the applicable Borrower does not in fact remit such payment to the Agent, the Agent shall promptly notify each Lender and each such Lender shall forthwith on demand repay to the Agent the amount of such assumed payment made available to such Lender, together with interest thereon until the date of repayment thereof at a rate determined by the Agent (such rate to be conclusive and binding on such Lender) in accordance with the Agent's usual banking practice for similar advances to financial institutions of like standing to such Lender.

(b) Where a Lender Fails to Pay: Unless the Agent has been notified in writing by an Lender at least one (1) Business Day prior to a Drawdown Date or Conversion Date that such Lender does not intend to make available the amount required to be made available by such Lender pursuant to this Agreement on such Drawdown Date or Conversion Date, the Agent may, in its discretion, assume that such Lender has remitted funds to the Agent in an amount equal to the amount required to be made available by such Lender pursuant to this Agreement and the Agent may, in its discretion and in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the applicable Borrower on such Drawdown Date or Conversion Date an amount equal to the amount required to be made available by such Lender pursuant to this Agreement. If an Lender does not in fact remit such funds to the Agent, the Agent shall promptly notify such Lender and such Lender shall forthwith remit such funds to the Agent, failing which the applicable Borrower shall forthwith on demand repay to the Agent (without prejudice to such Borrower's rights against such Lender) the amount made available by the Agent on behalf of such Lender, in each case together with interest thereon until the date of repayment thereof at a rate determined by the Agent (such rate to be conclusive and binding on such Lender or such Borrower, as the case may be) in accordance with the Agent's usual banking practice for similar advances to financial institutions of like standing to such Lender.

12.11 Adjustments Among Lenders

(a) Adjustments to Outstanding Accommodations: Each Lender agrees that, after delivery of an Acceleration Notice or the occurrence of an Event of Default specified in Section 10.1(e) or 10.1(f), it will at any time and from time to time upon the request of the Agent purchase portions of the Accommodations made available by the other Lenders which remain outstanding and make any other adjustments which may be necessary or appropriate, in order that amount of Accommodations made available by each Lender which remain outstanding will be in the same proportion as the Lender's Proportion of each such Lender under the Credit Facility. Each Borrower agrees to do all things reasonably necessary or appropriate to give effect to any and all purchases and other adjustments by and between the Lenders pursuant to this Section 12.11.

(b) Application of Payments: The Lenders agree that, after delivery of an Acceleration Notice or the occurrence of an Event of Default specified in Section 10.1(e) or 10.1(f), the amount of any repayment made by the applicable Borrower in respect of Accommodations, and the amount of any proceeds from the exercise of any rights or remedies of the Lenders under the Loan Documents, which are to be applied against amounts owing hereunder, will be so applied in a manner so that to the extent possible the amount of Accommodations made available by a Lender which remain outstanding after giving effect to such application will be in the same proportion as the Lender's Proportion of each such Lender under the Credit Facility.

(c) Receipt of Payments other than Accommodations: Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 12.11, there shall not be taken into account for the purposes of computing any amount payable to any Lender pursuant to this Section 12.11, any amount which a Lender receives as a result of any payment (whether voluntary, involuntary, through the exercise of any right of set-off, or otherwise) on account of any monies owing by a Borrower to such Lender other than on account of liabilities under the Loan Documents; provided that, if at any time a Lender receives any payments (whether voluntary, involuntary through the exercise of any right of set-off, or otherwise) on account of any monies owing by any Loan Party to such Lender other than on account of liabilities arising under the Loan Documents; provided that, if at any time a Lender receives any payments (whether voluntary, involuntary, through the exercise of any right of set-off, or otherwise) on account of any monies owing or payable to it by any Loan Party in respect of liabilities of such Loan Party arising under the Loan Documents, such Lender shall purchase portions of the Accommodations made available by the other Lenders to the extent required pursuant to Section 12.11(a).

(d) Further Assurances: Each Borrower agrees to be bound by and, at the request of the Agent, to do all things necessary or appropriate to give effect to any and all purchases and other adjustments made by and between the Lenders pursuant to this Section 12.11 but shall incur no increased Indebtedness, in aggregate, by reason thereof.

12.12 Lenders' Consents to Waivers, Amendments, etc.

(a) Unanimous Consent of Lenders: Any waiver of or any amendment to a provision of the Loan Documents which relates to:

(i) a change in the types of Accommodations, interest rates, commitment fees, Letter of Credit Fees, the Margin, the Commitment Fee Rate, the Discount Rate, notice periods or the amount of any payments payable by the Borrower to any Lender under this Agreement including any waiver of the time of payment thereof,

(ii) an increase or decrease in the amount of the Credit Facility or deferral of payments thereof or an increase or decrease in the Commitment of any Lender other than as provided for herein;

(iii) a change in the definition of "Majority Lenders"

(iv) extending the term of the Credit Facility except as set forth herein;

(v) a change of any Borrower or an assignment or transfer of its rights or obligations under the Credit Facility;

(vi) a change in the types of Accommodations available;

(vii) any matter which, pursuant to the Loan Documents, specifically requires the consent or agreement of all of the Lenders rather than the consent or agreement of "the Lenders" or the "Majority Lenders" or the "Agent";

(viii) the provisions of this Section 12.12(a);

(ix) an Event of Default under Section 10.1; or

(x) any release or modification of the KELP Guarantee, KEFL Guarantee, the Fund Guarantee or any Restricted Subsidiary Guarantee except as expressly contemplated herein; shall bind the Lenders only if such waiver or amendment is agreed to in writing by all of the Lenders.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in the Loan Documents, including Section 12.12(a) hereof, any waiver of or any amendment to the provisions of the Loan Documents and any action, consent or other determination in connection with the Loan Documents shall bind all of the Lenders if such waiver, amendment, action, consent or other determination is agreed to in writing by the Majority Lenders.

(c) If a Lender (in this Section 12.12(c) called a "Dissenting Lender") withholds its consent or its approval to any amendment or waiver requiring unanimous consent pursuant to this Section 12.12, and, as a result, the consent of the required Lenders cannot be obtained, the Borrowers may, by giving notice to each Dissenting Lender and to the Agent, designate an alternate Lender to purchase an assignment in accordance with Section 13.1(b) of such Dissenting Lender's Commitment.

12.13 Reimbursement of Agent's Expenses or Lender's Costs

Each Lender agrees that it will indemnify the Agent for its Lender's Proportion of any and all costs, expenses and disbursements (including, without limitation, those costs and expenses referred to in Section 11.1) which may be incurred or made by the Agent in good faith in connection with the Loan Documents, and agrees that it will, on written demand detailing such costs, expenses and disbursements, reimburse the Agent for any such costs, expenses or disbursements for which the Agent is not promptly reimbursed at any time by the applicable Borrower. The Agent may refrain from exercising any right, power or discretion or taking any action to protect or enforce the rights of any Lender under the Loan Documents until it has been so reimbursed.

12.14 Reliance by Agent on Notices, etc.

The Agent shall be entitled:

(a) Reliance on Written Documents: to rely upon any writing, letter, written notice, certificate, telex, facsimile copy, cable, statement, order or other document believed by the Agent to be genuine and correct and to have been signed, sent or made by the proper person or persons; and

(b) Reliance on Legal Advice: with respect to legal matters, to act upon advice of legal advisors selected by the Agent concerning all matters pertaining to the Loan Documents and the Agent's duties thereunder; and the Agent shall assume no responsibility and shall incur no liability to any Borrower or any Lender by reason of relying on any such document or acting on any such advice.

12.15 Relations with Borrowers

Except for the transactions provided for in this Agreement, each Lender may deal with each Borrower in all transactions and generally do any banking business with or provide any financial services to such Borrower without having any liability to account to the other Lenders therefor. With respect to its Commitment and Lender's Proportion, RBC shall have the same rights and powers under this Agreement as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not the Agent.

12.16 Successor Agent

The Agent shall resign if at any time it is no longer a Lender hereunder by reason of an assignment of its rights and obligations under this Agreement and the Loan Documents pursuant to Article 13 and, in such event, it shall provide thirty (30) days prior written notice of any such intended assignment to each of the Lenders and each Borrower. The Agent may resign at any time by giving 30 days prior written notice thereof to each of the Lenders and each Borrower, and the Agent may be removed at any time for cause by the Lenders other than the Agent in its capacity as a Lender, (the "Remaining Lenders") provided that Remaining Lenders holding Commitments of 80% or more of the aggregate commitments of all the Remaining Lenders consent to such removal. Upon any such resignation or removal, the remaining Lenders (the "Remaining Lenders") shall have the right to appoint a successor agent. Any successor agent appointed under this Section 12.16 shall be a Lender which has offices in Calgary, Alberta and Toronto, Ontario. If no successor agent shall have been appointed by the Remaining Lenders and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days after the retiring agent's giving of notice of resignation, then the retiring agent may, on behalf of the Lenders appoint a successor agent. Upon the acceptance of any appointment as Agent by a successor agent, such successor agent shall thereupon succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring agent as Agent, and the retiring agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations under this Agreement as Agent. After any retiring agent's resignation hereunder as the Agent, the provisions of this Agreement shall continue in effect for its benefit and for the benefit of the Lenders in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by the retiring agent while it was acting as the Agent.

12.17 Indemnity of Agent

Each Lender hereby agrees to indemnify the Agent (to the extent not reimbursed by the Borrowers), as to its Lender's Proportion from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever which may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against the Agent in any way relating to or arising out of the Loan Documents or any action taken or omitted by Agent under or in respect of the Loan Documents; provided that the Lenders shall not be liable for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from the Agent's gross negligence or wilful misconduct. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Lender agrees to reimburse the Agent promptly upon demand for its Lender's Proportion of any out-of-pocket expenses (including counsel fees) incurred by the Agent in connection with the preservation of any rights of the Agent or the Lenders under, or the enforcement of, or legal advice in respect of rights or responsibilities under, the Loan Documents, but only to the extent that the Agent is not reimbursed for such expenses by the Borrowers.

12.18 Sharing of Information

Each Borrower authorizes the Agent and each Lender to share among each other and with any successor, assignee, or any potential assignee, any information possessed by it regarding the applicable Borrower, any other Loan Party or the Loan Documents. The Agent and each Lender agrees to keep all information provided by any Borrower or any other Loan Party confidential and shall not disclose such information other than as provided for herein and other than to employees and professional advisors in the necessary course of business.

12.19 Amendment to this Article 12

Save and except for the provisions of Sections 12.5 and 12.6, the provisions of this Article 12 may be amended or added to, from time to time, without the agreement of any Borrower provided such amendment or addition does not adversely affect the rights of any Borrower hereunder or increase, in the aggregate, the liabilities of any Borrower hereunder. A copy of the instrument evidencing such amendment or addition shall be forwarded by the Agent to each Borrower as soon as practicable following the execution thereof, provided that after an Event of Default a failure to do so by the Agent that has not been remedied as required hereunder or that has not been waived in writing by all of the Lenders, shall not render it liable in damages to the Borrowers.

ARTICLE 13
SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS AND JUDGMENT CURRENCY

13.1 Successors and Assigns

(a) Borrowers: The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that a Borrower may not (except pursuant to Section 9.2(b)) assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of each Lender (and any attempted assignment or transfer by each Borrower without such consent shall be null and void). Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Affiliates of each of the Agent and the Lenders) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement.

(b) Lender Assignment: Any Lender may assign to one (1) or more Eligible Assignees (as defined below) all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and the Accommodations at the time outstanding to it); provided that (i) such assignment and sale is to a financial institution which is resident in Canada for purposes of the Income Tax Act (Canada) unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, in which case the assignee is not required to be a financial institution which is a resident in Canada for purposes of the Income Tax Act (Canada), (ii) each Borrower and the Agent shall have consented to such assignment, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld; provided that if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, such consent of the Borrowers shall not be required, (iii) in the case of a partial assignment, such assignment shall be in a minimum amount of Cdn. $5,000,000 and no Lender shall, after giving effect to a partial assignment, hold less than Cdn. $5,000,000, (iv) each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, (v) unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Borrowers shall not be under any obligation to pay by way of withholding tax or otherwise any greater amount than it would have been obliged to pay if the Lender had not made an assignment, and (vi) the parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Agent a Lender Transfer Agreement, together with a processing and recordation fee of $3,500, payable by the assignor to the Agent, and the Eligible Assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver to the Agent an administrative questionnaire. Subject to such conditions, and acceptance and recording thereof by the Agent, from and after the effective date specified in each Lender Transfer Agreement, the Eligible Assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Lender Transfer Agreement, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement, and the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Lender Transfer Agreement, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of a Lender Transfer Agreement covering all of the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of the indemnities in this Agreement). Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this Section 13.1(b) shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with Section 13.1(c).

(c) Participation: Any Lender may, without the consent of, or notice to, the Borrowers (unless there is then no Default or Event of Default outstanding in which case with the consent of the Borrowers, not to be unreasonably withheld) or the Agent, sell participations to one (1) or more banks or other entities (a "Participant") in all or a portion of such Lender's rights and/or obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and/or the Accommodations to it); provided that (i) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (ii) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations, and (iii) the Borrowers, the Agent and the other Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement. Any agreement or instrument pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement; provided that such agreement or instrument may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, modification or waiver described in Section 12.12 that affects such Participant. Subject to Section 13.1(d), each Borrower agrees that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of the indemnities contained in this Agreement to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to Section 13.1(b).

(d) Participation Indemnity: A Participant shall not be entitled to receive from any Borrower or any Loan Party any greater payment under Section 13.1(c) than the applicable Lender would have been entitled to receive with respect to the participation sold to such Participant, had no participation been sold. A Participant that would be a foreign lender if it were a Lender shall not be entitled to the benefits of Section 7.3 unless such Borrower has requested the participation sold to such Participant and such Participant agrees, for the benefit of such Borrower, to comply with Section 7.3 as though it were a Lender.

(e) Lender Pledge: Without limiting any right of a Lender to pledge its rights under this Agreement to a third party, it is specifically acknowledged that any Lender may at any time pledge or grant a Security Interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank, and this Section 13.1 shall not apply to any such pledge or assignment of a security interest; provided that no such pledge or assignment of a security interest shall release a Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(f) Special Definitions: In this Article 13:

"Credit Event" has the meaning set forth in the 2003 ISDA Credit Derivatives Definitions as published by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc.

"Eligible Assignee" means (a) a Lender; (b) an Affiliate of a Lender; (c) a fund (whether a corporation, partnership, trust or other entity) or other financial institution that is engaged in making, purchasing or other investing in commercial loans in the ordinary course of its business and that has or has been structured to achieve an Investment Grade Rating for at least one (1) class of its securities provided that, unless a Credit Event with respect to the Borrower or, without limiting the foregoing, an Event of Default, has occurred and is continuing prior to the time any assignment is effected in accordance with Section 13.1(b), with the approval of the applicable Borrower, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed; and (d) any other Person approved by the Agent, and, unless a Credit Event with respect to any Borrower or, without limiting the foregoing, an Event of Default, has occurred and is continuing prior to the time any assignment is effected in accordance with Section 13.1(b), the Borrowers, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided, however, that neither any Borrower nor an Affiliate of such Borrower shall qualify as an Eligible Assignee and provided further that it is understood that such other Persons may, without limitation, include (i) commercial banks or savings and loan associations or savings banks in each case organized under the laws of the United States, or any State thereof or under the laws of any other country that is a member of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development or that has concluded special lending arrangements with the International Monetary Fund associated with its general arrangements to such Borrower, or a political subdivision of any such country, so long as such bank is acting through a branch or agency located in Canada; (ii) the central bank of any country that is a member of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development; (iii) a finance company; (iv) an insurance company; or (v) other fund or financial institution. If the consent of any party to an assignment or to an Eligible Assignee is required hereunder (including a consent to an assignment which does not meet the minimum assignment thresholds specified in Section 13.1(b)), such party shall be deemed to have given its consent five (5) Business Days after it has been requested by the assigning Lender (such request to refer to the five (5) day period) unless consent is expressly refused by such party prior to such fifth (5^{th}) Business Day.

13.2 Confidentiality

Each of the Agent and the Lenders agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the Information (as defined below), except that Information may be disclosed:

(a) to its and its Affiliates' directors, officers, employees and agents, including accountants, legal counsel and other advisors (it being understood that the Persons to whom such disclosure is made will be required by the Agent or such Lender to provide an acknowledgment to the applicable Borrower agreeing to be subject to the confidentiality restrictions of this Section 13.2);

(b) to the extent requested by any regulatory authority;

(c) to the extent required by applicable laws or regulations or by any subpoena or similar legal process;

(d) to any other party to this Agreement;

(e) in connection with the exercise of any remedies hereunder or any suit, action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or the enforcement of rights hereunder;

(f) subject to an agreement containing provisions substantially the same as those of this Section 13.2, to:

(i) any Eligible Assignee of or Participant in, or any prospective Eligible Assignee of or Participant in, any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement; or

(ii) any direct or indirect contractual counterparty in Swaps relating to the applicable Borrower or such contractual counterparty's professional advisor;

(g) with the written consent of a Loan Party; or

(h) to the extent such Information:

(i) becomes publicly available other than as a result of a breach of this Section 13.2; or

(ii) becomes available to the Agent or any Lender from a source other than the applicable Borrower and without a breach or default, to the knowledge of the Agent or such Lender, after due inquiry, in respect of a confidentiality obligation owed to the applicable Borrower by any other Person.

For the purposes of this Section 13.2, "Information" means all information received from a Loan Party relating to a Loan Party or its business, other than any such information that is available to the Agent or any Lender on a non-confidential basis prior to receipt from such Loan Party.

13.3 Judgment Currency

If for the purposes of obtaining judgment in any court in any jurisdiction with respect to this Agreement it becomes necessary to convert into the currency of such jurisdiction (herein called the "Judgment Currency") any amount due hereunder in any currency other than the Judgment Currency, then such conversion shall be made at the rate of exchange prevailing on the Business Day before the day on which judgment is given. For such purpose "rate of exchange" means the spot rate at which the Agent, on the relevant date at or about 12:00 o'clock noon (Toronto time), would be prepared to sell a similar amount of such currency in Toronto, Ontario against the Judgment Currency. In the event that there is a change in the rate of exchange prevailing between the Business Day before the day on which the judgment is given and the date of payment of the amount due, the applicable Borrower shall, on the date of payment, pay such additional amounts (if any) as may be necessary to ensure that the amount paid on such date is the amount in the Judgment Currency which when converted at the rate of exchange prevailing on the date of payment is the amount then due under this Agreement in such other currency. Any additional amount due from the applicable Borrower under this Section 13.3 shall be due as a separate debt and shall not be affected by judgment being obtained for any other sums due under or in respect of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 14
MISCELLANEOUS

14.1 Severability

Any provision of this Agreement which is or becomes prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction does not invalidate, affect or impair the remaining provisions hereof in such jurisdiction and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction does not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

14.2 Survival of Undertakings

All covenants, undertakings, agreements, representations and warranties made pursuant to this Agreement survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and continue in full force and effect until the full payment and satisfaction of all obligations of the Borrowers incurred pursuant to the Loan Documents and the termination of this Agreement.

14.3 Failure to Act

No failure, omission or delay on the part of the Agent or any Lender in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall impair such right, power or privilege or operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege preclude any further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

14.4 Waivers

No breach of any of the provisions of any of the Loan Documents may be waived or discharged verbally; any such waiver or discharge may only be made by way of an instrument in writing signed by either the Agent on behalf of the Lenders or the Majority Lenders, as applicable, or by the Lenders and, if required by the Agent, each Borrower, and such waiver or discharge will then be effective only in the specific instance, for the specific purpose and for the specific length of time for which it is given. Any such waiver or discharge which affects the rights of the Agent may only be made by way of an instrument in writing signed by the Agent.

14.5 Amendments

No provision of the Loan Documents may be amended verbally and any such amendment may only be made by way of an instrument in writing signed by the Borrowers, the Fund, the Agent and the Lenders required by Section 12.12.

14.6 Notice

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, all notices, advices, requests and demands hereunder shall be in writing (including facsimile transmissions) or, if by telephone, immediately confirmed in writing, and shall be given to or made upon the respective parties hereto at the address set forth opposite their names on the signature pages hereto or at such other address as any party shall designate for itself. All notices shall be effective upon actual receipt. In the event of any discrepancy between any telephone notice, advice, request or demand and the written confirmation thereof, the telephone version shall govern with respect to actions taken by the recipient thereof before such recipient has had a reasonable time to act after its receipt of the written confirmation.

14.7 Whole Agreement

This Agreement together with the other Loan Documents constitutes the whole and entire agreement between the parties and cancels and supersedes any prior agreements, undertakings, declarations and representations, written or verbal, in respect of the subject matter of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

14.8 Governing Law

The parties agree that this Agreement is conclusively deemed to be made under, and for all purposes to be governed by and construed in accordance with, the laws of the Province of Alberta and of Canada applicable therein. There shall be no application of any conflict of law or rules which would result in any laws other than internal laws in force in the Province of Alberta applying to this Agreement. The parties hereto do hereby irrevocably submit and attorn to the jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Alberta for all matters arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any of the transactions contemplated hereby or by any thereof, without prejudice to the rights of the Agent or any Lender to take proceedings in other jurisdictions in which any assets, property or undertakings secured by the Security may be situate.

14.9 Term of Agreement

The term of this Agreement is until the later of the termination of each Lender's Commitment and payment in full of all the obligations of the Borrowers incurred pursuant to this Agreement. Notwithstanding any such termination, all of the indemnities provided for hereunder shall survive any such termination.

14.10 Time of Essence

Time shall be of the essence of this Agreement.

14.11 Conflict with Loan Documents

In the event there is a conflict or inconsistency as to any matter between the provisions hereof and the provisions of any other Loan Document, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail to the extent of such conflict or inconsistency; provided, however, that for the purposes of this Section 14.11 there shall not be considered to be a conflict or inconsistency between any provision hereof and any provision of any other Loan Document merely because one of such Loan Documents does, and the other does not, deal with the particular matter.

14.12 Dealings with Agent

Subject to Section 12.12, each Borrower shall be entitled to accept the written advice, instruction or direction of the Agent on behalf of the Majority Lenders or the Lenders without further inquiry. Each Lender hereby agrees to be bound by any advice, instruction or direction in writing given to a Borrower by the Agent on behalf of the Majority Lenders or the Lenders, where it is authorized to do so in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof or under any other Loan Document, and each Lender hereby waives any right to contest or disaffirm any such advice, instruction, or direction in writing of the Agent, in the absence of manifest error.

14.13 Further Assurances

Each Borrower, the Fund, the Agent and each of the Lenders shall do all such further acts and things and execute and deliver all such further documents as shall be reasonably required in order to fully perform and carry out the terms of the Loan Documents.

14.14 The Administrator

The parties hereto acknowledge that the Administrator, in entering this Agreement as administrator of the Fund, is entering into this Agreement solely in its capacity as agent on behalf of the Fund and the obligations of the Fund hereunder shall not be personally binding upon the trustee of the Fund, the Administrator or any of the unitholders of the Fund and that any recourse against the Fund, the trustee of the Fund, the Administrator or any unitholder of the Fund in any manner in respect of any indebtedness, obligation or liability of the Fund arising hereunder or arising in connection herewith or from the matters to which this agreement relates, if any, including without limitation claims based on negligence or otherwise tortuous behaviour, shall be limited to, and satisfied only out of, the "Trust Assets" as defined in the Fund Declaration of Trust.

14.15 Counterpart Execution

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by different parties in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed as of the date and year first above written.

POWER OF ATTORNEY TERMS - BANKERS' ACCEPTANCES

In order to facilitate the acceptance of Bankers' Acceptances pursuant to the terms of the credit agreement dated as of January 2, 2008 between Keyera Energy Limited Partnership and Keyera Energy Facilities Limited (the "Borrowers"), Keyera Facilities Income Fund, as Guarantor and Covenantor, Royal Bank of Canada, as Agent, and the Lenders named therein and to which Royal Bank of Canada is a party as a Lender (as amended, supplemented and restated from time to time, the "Credit Agreement"), the Borrowers hereby appoint each Lender (hereinafter individually called the "Bank"), acting by an authorized signing officer (the "Attorney") for the time being of the Bank's Branch of Account, the attorney of each Borrower:

(a) to sign for and on behalf and in the name of each Borrower as drawer, drafts in the Bank's standard form which are "depository bills" under and as defined in the Depository Bills and Notes Act (the "DBNA") ("Drafts") drawn on the Bank payable to a "clearing house" under the DBNA or its nominee for deposit by the Bank with the "clearing house" after acceptance thereof by the Bank; and provided that such acts in each case are to be undertaken by the Bank in accordance with instructions given to the Bank by the applicable Borrower as provided in this power of attorney.

(b) to fill in the amount, date and maturity date of such Drafts;

Instructions to the Bank relating to the execution, completion, endorsement, discount, purchase and/or delivery by the Bank on behalf of a Borrower of Drafts which the applicable Borrower wishes to submit to the Bank for acceptance by the Bank shall be communicated by the Agent in writing to the Attorney at the Bank's Branch of Account concurrently with delivery by the applicable Borrower, pursuant to the provisions of (i) Section 3.7 of the Credit Agreement, a Borrowing Notice by way of Bankers' Acceptances in the form of Schedule "A" to the Credit Agreement, or (ii) Section 3.21 of the Credit Agreement, a Conversion Notice in the form of Schedule "C" to the Credit Agreement. The instructions to the Bank shall specify the following information:

(a) a Canadian Dollar amount, which shall be the aggregate face amount of the Drafts to be accepted by the Bank in respect of a particular Borrowing, Conversion or Rollover; and

(b) a specified period of time, as provided in the Credit Agreement, which shall be the number of months after the date of such Drafts that such Drafts are to be payable, and the dates of issues and maturity of such Drafts; and

(c) payment instructions specifying the account number of the applicable Borrower and the financial institution at which proceeds from the sale of such Drafts are to be credited.

The communication in writing to the Bank of the instructions referred to above shall constitute (a) the authorization and instruction of the applicable Borrower to the Bank to complete and endorse Drafts in accordance with such information as set out above and (b) the request of the applicable Borrower to the Bank to accept such Drafts and deposit the same with the "clearing house" against payment as set out in the instructions. The Borrowers acknowledge that the Bank shall not be obligated to accept any such Drafts except in accordance with the provisions of the Credit Agreement.

The Bank shall be and it is hereby authorized to act on behalf of each Borrower upon and in compliance with instructions communicated to the Bank as provided herein if the Bank reasonably believes them to be genuine. If the Bank accepts Drafts pursuant to any such instructions, the Bank shall confirm particulars of such instructions and advise the applicable Borrower that the Bank has complied therewith by notice in writing addressed to the applicable Borrower in accordance with the Credit Agreement. The Bank's actions confirmed and advised to the applicable Borrower by such notice shall be conclusively deemed to have been in accordance with the instructions of the applicable Borrower.

Each Borrower agrees to indemnify the Bank and its directors, officers, employees, affiliates and agents and to hold it and them harmless from and against any loss, liability, expense or claim of any kind or nature whatsoever incurred by any of them as a result of any action or inaction in any way relating to or arising out of this power of attorney or the acts contemplated hereby including the deposit of any draft with the "clearing house"; provided that this indemnity shall not apply to any such loss, liability, expense or claim which results from the negligence or willful misconduct of the Bank or any of its directors, officers, employees, affiliates or agents.

This power of attorney may be revoked at any time upon not less than 5 Business Days' written notice served upon the Bank at its Branch of Account, provided that (i) it may be replaced with another power of attorney forthwith in accordance with the requirements of Section 3.9 of the Credit Agreement; and (ii) no such revocation shall reduce, limit or otherwise affect the obligations of the applicable Borrower in respect of any Draft executed, completed, endorsed, discounted and/or delivered in accordance herewith prior to the time at which such revocation becomes effective. This power of attorney may be terminated by the Bank at any time upon not less than 5 Business Days written notice to the applicable Borrower in accordance with Section 14.6 of the Credit Agreement. Any revocation or termination of this power of attorney shall not affect the rights of the Bank and the obligations of the applicable Borrower with respect to the indemnities of the applicable Borrower above stated with respect to all matters arising prior in time to any such revocation or termination.

This power of attorney is in addition to and not in substitution for any agreement to which the Bank and the applicable Borrower are parties.

This power of attorney shall be governed in all respects by the laws of the Province of Alberta and the laws of Canada applicable therein and each of the Borrowers and the Bank hereby irrevocably attorns to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of such jurisdiction in respect of all matters arising out of this power of attorney.

In the event of a conflict between the provisions of this Power of Attorney and the Credit Agreement, the Credit Agreement shall prevail. Capitalized terms used and not defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the Credit Agreement.

Capitalized terms in this Lender Transfer Agreement shall have the meanings set out in the Credit Agreement.

1. [name of new lender] (the "Assignee") acknowledges that its proper officers have received and reviewed a copy of the Loan Documents and further acknowledges the provisions of the Loan Documents.

2. The Assignee desires to become a Lender under the Credit Agreement; [name of selling Lender] (the "Assignor") has agreed to and does hereby sell, assign and transfer to the Assignee an undivided ___% interest in its Commitment equal to its Commitment as calculated in paragraph 4 below; and, accordingly, the Assignee has agreed to execute this Lender Transfer Agreement.

3. The Assignee, by its execution and delivery of this Lender Agreement, agrees that from and after the date hereof it shall be a Lender under the Credit Agreement and agrees to be bound by and to perform all of the terms, conditions and covenants of the Credit Agreement applicable to a Lender including, without limitation, the liability to make available its Lender's Proportion of Accommodations made on or after the date hereof in accordance with its Commitment identified in paragraph 4 of this Lender Transfer Agreement.

4. The Assignee confirms that its Commitment under the Credit Agreement shall be $_____.

5. The Assignee agrees to assume, without recourse to the Assignor, all liabilities and obligations of the Assignor as Lender under the Credit Agreement arising after the date hereof to the extent of the Assignee's Commitment as provided for herein and the Assignor is hereby released and discharged from such obligations and liabilities to the same extent; provided that if any Bankers' Acceptances accepted by the Assignor remain outstanding on such date, such Bankers' Acceptances shall remain the liability and obligation of the Assignor and [the Assignor shall be entitled to all of the rights, titles and benefits arising out of the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents with respect to such Bankers' Acceptances (including reimbursement rights); and shall indemnify the Assignor and hold the Assignor harmless from and against any losses or costs paid or incurred by the Assignor in connection with such Bankers' Acceptances (other than losses or costs which arise out of the negligence or willful misconduct of the Assignor) to the extent of the Assignee's Commitment provided for herein, and shall be entitled to that percentage (as agreed to between the Assignee and the Assignor) of a proportionate amount of the fees paid in respect of such Bankers' Acceptances based upon the relative proportions of the Commitments of the Assignor and Assignee and the number of days remaining in the term of any such Bankers' Acceptances] or [the assignment contained herein shall exclude the obligation of the Borrower to repay or reimburse the Assignor the face amounts of outstanding Bankers' Acceptances which have been accepted by the Assignor prior to the date hereof ("Outstanding BAs") and if an Event of Default occurs prior to the Assignor being repaid or reimbursed in respect of Outstanding BAs, then until such repayment or reimbursement is made, for the purposes of voting under the Credit Agreement the Assignor shall be considered to have a Commitment increased by, and the Commitment of the Assignee shall be considered to be reduced by, the face amount of such Outstanding BAs].

6. The Assignee acknowledges and confirms that it has not relied upon and that the Assignor or the Agent or any of their respective directors, officers, employees or agents have not made any representation or warranty whatsoever as to the due execution, legality, effectiveness, validity or enforceability of any of the Loan Documents or any other documentation or information delivered by the Assignor or the Agent to the Assignee in connection therewith or for the performance thereof by any party thereto or of the financial condition of the Borrowers. All representations, warranties and conditions express or implied by law or otherwise are hereby excluded.

7. The Assignee represents and warrants that it is not a non-resident within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada) and that it has itself been, and will continue to be, solely responsible for making its own independent appraisal of and investigation into the financial condition, creditworthiness, affairs, status and nature of the Borrowers and has not relied and will not hereafter rely on the Assignor or the Agent or any of their respective directors, officers, employees or agents to appraise or keep under review on its behalf the financial condition, creditworthiness, affairs, status or nature of the Borrowers.

8. Each of the Assignor and the Assignee represents and warrants to the other, and to the Agent and the Lenders that it has the capacity and power to enter into this Lender Transfer Agreement in accordance with the terms hereof and to perform its obligations arising therefrom, and all actions required to authorize the execution and delivery hereof and the performance of such obligations have been duly taken.

9. This Lender Transfer Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta, Canada.

10. Notices shall be given to the Assignee in the manner provided for in the Credit Agreement as follows:

FORM OF RESTRICTED SUBSIDIARY GUARANTEE

THIS GUARANTEE is made as of the <> day of <>, 20<>,

BY:

<> (the "Guarantor"),

IN FAVOUR OF:

ROYAL BANK OF CANADA, as agent (the "Agent") and includes such Person's successors and assigns as Agent.

RECITALS:

The Guarantor has agreed to guarantee the payment and performance by the Borrowers of the Guaranteed Obligations.

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration (the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged by the Guarantor), the Guarantor agrees with the Agent and the other Guaranteed Parties as follows:

ARTICLE 1
INTERPRETATION

1.1 Definitions

In this Guarantee, in addition to the definitions set out in any Section hereof:

"Borrowers" mean Keyera Energy Limited Partnership and Keyera Energy Facilities Limited and their permitted successors and permitted assigns, and "Borrower" means either one of them;

"Credit Agreement" means the credit agreement dated as of January 2, 2008 among the Borrowers, as borrowers, Keyera Facilities Income Fund, as guarantor and covenantor, certain financial institutions party thereto from time to time as lenders (the "Lenders") and the Agent, as agent, as amended, restated or replaced from time to time;

"Credit Documents" mean the Credit Agreement, the Swaps to which a Swap Provider is a party, the other Loan Documents and all other documents delivered or to be delivered to or for the benefit of the Agent, the Lenders and each Swap Provider pursuant to the Credit Agreement and the Swaps to which a Swap Provider is a party;

"Default" means any event or condition which, with the giving of notice, lapse of time or upon a declaration or determination being made (or any combination thereof), would constitute an Event of Default;

"Event of Default" means (i) any Event of Default under and as defined in the Credit Agreement or (ii) with respect to Swaps, an event of default under any Swap to which a Swap Provider is a party which would entitle the Swap Provider to enforce any or all of its rights and remedies against the Borrowers pursuant to the Swap;

"Fund" means Keyera Facilities Income Fund, an unincorporated open-ended trust established under the laws of the Province of Alberta, and its successors and permitted assigns;

"Guaranteed Obligations" means all of the obligations, liabilities and indebtedness of the Fund, the Borrowers or any Restricted Subsidiary to the Agent, any Lender and any Swap Provider from time to time, whether present or future, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, matured or unmatured, extended or renewed, as principal or surety, alone or with others, of whatsoever nature or kind, in any currency, under or in respect of all or any of the Credit Documents;

"Guaranteed Parties" means the Agent, the Lenders and the Swap Providers, and "Guaranteed Party" means any one of them;

"Indemnified Amounts" means the amounts to be paid by the Guarantor under Section 2.2;

"Proceedings" means any voluntary or involuntary receivership, insolvency, proposal, bankruptcy, compromise, arrangement, reorganization, winding-up, dissolution or other similar proceedings, whether or not any of the foregoing is judicial in nature;

"Restricted Subsidiaries" means the Restricted Subsidiaries under and as defined in the Credit Agreement, other than the Guarantor;

"Swap Provider" means a Lender or any Affiliate of a Lender who has executed a Swap with a Loan Party;

"Tax" means all present and future taxes, rates, levies, imposts, assessments, dues, government fees, stamp taxes, deductions, charges or withholdings, and all liabilities with respect thereto, and any interest, additions to tax and penalties imposed with respect thereto, excluding, with respect to a Guaranteed Party, taxes imposed on its income or capital and franchise taxes imposed on it by any taxation authority.

Unless the context otherwise requires, all other capitalized terms used herein not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Credit Agreement.

1.2 References

As used herein, "this Guarantee", "hereto", "herein", "hereof", "hereby", "hereunder" and any similar expressions refer to this Guarantee as it may be supplemented, amended, restated or replaced from time to time, and not to any particular Article, Section or other portion hereof. Whenever in this Guarantee a particular Article, Section or other portion thereof is referred to, such reference pertains to the Article, Section or portion thereof contained herein unless otherwise indicated. In this Guarantee, unless the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa and words importing gender include all genders. The inclusion of headings in this Guarantee is for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation hereof.

1.3 Invalidity of Provisions

Each of the provisions contained in this Guarantee is distinct and severable and a declaration of invalidity or unenforceability of any such provision or part thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining part of such provision or any other provision hereof; and the invalidity of a particular provision or part thereof in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate such provision or part thereof in any other jurisdiction.

1.4 Entire Agreement

This Guarantee constitutes the entire agreement among the parties pertaining to the subject matter of this Guarantee and cancels and supersedes any prior understandings and agreements between such parties with respect thereto. There are no warranties, representations or agreements, express, implied or statutory, between the parties in connection with such subject matter except as specifically set forth or referred to in this Guarantee.

1.5 Waiver, Amendment

No amendment or waiver of this Guarantee shall be valid or binding unless executed in writing by the parties to this Guarantee. A waiver of any provision of this Guarantee shall only constitute a waiver in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which it is given. A waiver of any provision of this Guarantee shall not constitute a continuing waiver unless expressly provided in writing. No failure or delay by the Agent or other Guaranteed Party in exercising any right or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof.

1.6 Governing Law, Attornment

This Guarantee shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and the laws of Canada applicable therein and the Guarantor hereby irrevocably attorns to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Alberta.

ARTICLE 2
GUARANTEE AND INDEMNITY

2.1 Guarantee

The Guarantor unconditionally, absolutely and irrevocably guarantees to and for the benefit of each of the Agent and the other Guaranteed Parties the due and punctual payment and performance of all Guaranteed Obligations. This Guarantee contained herein is an absolute, unconditional, present and continuing guarantee of payment. If, for any reason whatsoever, the Fund, either of the Borrowers or any Restricted Subsidiary shall fail or be unable to duly, punctually and fully pay or perform any Guaranteed Obligation as and when the same shall become due and payable, the Guarantor shall forthwith pay, cause to be paid or cause to be performed, such Guaranteed Obligation to the Agent for and on behalf of itself and the other Guaranteed Parties.

2.2 Indemnity

The Guarantor shall indemnify and save harmless the Agent and the other Guaranteed Parties from and against any and all losses, costs and expenses which they may suffer in any way as a result of the occurrence of any event or circumstance which is, or is expressed to be, a Default or Event of Default under a Credit Document, or any Credit Document becoming for any reason whatsoever in whole or in part:

(a) void, voidable, ultra vires, illegal, invalid, ineffective or otherwise unenforceable by the Agent or the other Guaranteed Parties in accordance with its terms, or

(b) released, compromised or discharged by operation of law or otherwise,

(an "Indemnifiable Circumstance"). For greater certainty, the foregoing losses shall include without limitation all obligations hereby guaranteed which would have been payable by any Borrower but for the existence of an Indemnifiable Circumstance.

2.3 Reinstatement

The guarantee and indemnity herein shall be reinstated if at any time any payment of any Guaranteed Obligations or Indemnified Amounts is rendered unenforceable, is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by the Agent or any Guaranteed Party as a result of any Proceedings of or affecting the Fund, either of the Borrowers, any Restricted Subsidiary, the Guarantor or any other Person or for any other reason whatsoever, all as though such payment had not been made. The Agent or any Guaranteed Party may concede or compromise any claim that such payment ought to be rescinded or otherwise returned, without discharging, diminishing or in any way affecting the liability and the obligation of the Guarantor under this Guarantee.

ARTICLE 3
ENFORCEMENT

3.1 Demand

Upon an Event of Default occurring under a Credit Document, the Guarantor shall, on demand by or on behalf of the Agent, forthwith pay to the Agent, and/or perform or cause the performance of, all Guaranteed Obligations and Indemnified Amounts for which such demand was made.

3.2 Right to Immediate Payment or Performance

The Agent shall not be bound or obligated to make any demand on or to seek or exhaust its recourse against either of the Borrowers or any other Person or any Guaranteed Party, before being entitled to demand payment from or performance by the Guarantor and enforce its rights under this Guarantee, and the Guarantor hereby renounces all benefits of discussion and division.

3.3 Subordination

All liabilities and indebtedness, present and future, joint or several, absolute or contingent, of the Borrowers to the Guarantor are hereby subordinated to the payment and performance in full of the Guaranteed Obligations, the Indemnified Amounts and all other amounts payable hereunder and, after the occurrence of an Event of Default, all such liabilities and indebtedness of the Borrowers to the Guarantor are hereby postponed to the payment and performance in full of the Guaranteed Obligations, the Indemnified Amounts and all other amounts payable hereunder and, all monies received by the Guarantor in respect thereof after demand for payment and/or performance by the Agent hereunder shall be received in trust for the Agent and the other Guaranteed Parties and forthwith upon receipt shall be paid over to the Agent, the whole without in any way lessening or limiting the liability of the Guarantor under this Guarantee.

The Guarantor shall not have any right of subrogation to the Agent or any Guaranteed Party in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts, until the Agent and the other Guaranteed Parties have received full and final payment and performance of all Guaranteed Obligations, all Indemnified Amounts and all other amounts payable hereunder.

If any amount shall be paid to the Guarantor in violation of the preceding sentence at any time prior to the full and final payment of the Guaranteed Obligations and the Indemnified Amounts, such amount shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Agent and the other Guaranteed Parties and shall forthwith be paid to the Agent to be credited and applied to the amounts due or to become due with respect to the Credit Documents, whether matured or unmatured.

3.4 Enforcement Through Agent

The Guarantor acknowledges and agrees that the rights of any of the Guaranteed Parties hereunder may be exercised in whole or in part by the Agent on behalf of such Guaranteed Parties.

ARTICLE 4
PROTECTION OF AGENT AND THE GUARANTEED PARTIES

4.1 Defects in Creation of Guaranteed Obligations

None of the Agent or the other Guaranteed Parties shall be concerned to see or inquire into the capacity and powers of the Fund, either of the Borrowers, any Restricted Subsidiary or any partners, directors, officers, employees or agents acting or purporting to act on their behalf. All obligations, liabilities and indebtedness purporting to be incurred by the Fund, the Borrowers and the Restricted Subsidiaries in favour of the Agent and the other Guaranteed Parties shall be deemed to form part of the Guaranteed Obligations even though the Fund, the Borrowers and the Restricted Subsidiaries may not be legal entities or the incurring of such obligations, liabilities or indebtedness was irregularly, fraudulently, defectively or informally effected or in excess of the capacity or powers of either of the Borrowers or any partners, directors, officers, employees or agents acting or purporting to act on their behalf and notwithstanding that the Agent or the other Guaranteed Parties have specific notice of the capacity and powers of the Fund, the Borrowers, the Restricted Subsidiaries or any partners, directors, officers, employees or agents acting or purporting to act on their behalf.

4.2 Liability Absolute

This Guarantee shall be a continuing guarantee and the liability of the Guarantor hereunder shall be absolute, unconditional and irrevocable and shall not be discharged, diminished or in any way affected by:

(a) any amalgamation, merger, consolidation or reorganization of the Fund, either of the Borrowers, any Restricted Subsidiary or the Guarantor or any continuation of the Fund, either of the Borrowers, any Restricted Subsidiary or the Guarantor from the statute under which it now or hereafter exists to another statute whether under the laws of the same jurisdiction or another jurisdiction;

(b) any change in the name, business, objects, capital structure, ownership, constating documents, by-laws, partnership agreements or resolutions of the Fund, either of the Borrowers, any Restricted Subsidiary or the Guarantor, as the case may be, including without limitation any transaction (whether by way of transfer, sale or otherwise) whereby all or any part of the undertaking, property and assets of the Fund, either of the Borrowers, any Restricted Subsidiary or the Guarantor becomes the property of any other Person;

(c) any lack of validity, enforceability or value of any Credit Document or any other agreement or instrument relating thereto;

(d) any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other term of any Credit Document or any amendment or waiver thereof, or any consent to departure from any Credit Document;

(e) any release or amendment or waiver of or consent to departure from any other guarantee for any Credit Document;

(f) any manner of sale or other disposition of any collateral or any other assets of the Fund, either of the Borrowers, any Restricted Subsidiary or the Guarantor;

(g) the voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation or dissolution of the Fund, either of the Borrowers, any Restricted Subsidiary or the Guarantor, or any other Person, and the occurrence of any other proceeding as a result of such bankruptcy or insolvency;

(h) any amendment or modification of or supplement to or other change in any Credit Document;

(i) any failure, omission or delay on the part of any Person to conform or comply with any term of any Credit Document;

(j) to the extent as may be waived under applicable law, the benefit of all principles or provisions of law, statutory or otherwise, which may be in conflict with the terms hereof or which shall delay, interfere with, hinder or prevent, or in any way adversely affect, the performance by the Fund, either of the Borrowers, any Restricted Subsidiary or the Guarantor in its respective obligations under or in respect of the Credit Documents or this Guarantee;

(k) any failure or lack of diligence in collection or protection, failure in presentment or demand from payment, protest, notice of protest, notice of default and of nonpayment, any failure to give notice to the Guarantor of failure of the Fund, either of the Borrowers or any Restricted Subsidiary to keep and perform any obligation, covenant or agreement under the terms of the Credit Documents or this Guarantee;

(l) any attachment, claim, demand, charge, lien, order, process encumbrance or any other happening or event or reason, similar or dissimilar to the foregoing, or any withholding or diminution at the source, by reason of any taxes, assessments, expenses, debt, obligations, or liabilities of any character, foreseen or unforeseen, and whether or not valid, incurred by or against the Fund, either of the Borrowers, any Restricted Subsidiary or the Guarantor or any claims, demands, charges or liens of any nature, foreseen or unforeseen, incurred by the Fund, either of the Borrowers, any Restricted Subsidiary or the Guarantor, or against any sums payable in respect of the Credit Documents or this Guarantee, so that such sums would be rendered inadequate or would be unavailable to make the payments herein provided; or

(m) any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute in whole or in part a defence available to, or a discharge of, the Fund, either of the Borrowers, any Restricted Subsidiary or the Guarantor or any other Person in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations or the liability of the Guarantor; provided that the specific enumeration of the above-mentioned acts, failures or omissions shall not be deemed to exclude any other acts, failures or omissions, though not specifically mentioned above, it being the purpose and intent of this Guarantee and the parties hereto that the obligations of the Guarantor shall be absolute and unconditional and shall not be discharged, impaired or varied except by the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations and Indemnified Amounts whenever the same shall become due and payable.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Guarantor agrees that repeated and successive demands may be made and recoveries may be had hereunder as and when, from time to time, there shall be an Event of Default under any Credit Document and that notwithstanding the recovery hereunder for or in respect thereof, this Guarantee shall remain in force and effect and shall apply to each and every subsequent Default and Event of Default. If (i) an event permitting the exercise of remedies under any Credit Document, as the case may be, shall at any time have occurred and be continuing and (ii) such exercise, or any consequences thereof provided in any Credit Document, as the case may be, shall at any time be prevented by reason of the pendency against the Fund, either of the Borrowers or any Restricted Subsidiary of a Proceeding, the Guarantor agrees that, solely for purposes of this Guarantee and its obligations hereunder, such Credit Document shall be deemed to have been declared in default and all amounts thereunder shall be deemed to be immediately due and payable, with all the attendant consequences as provided in such agreement as if declaration of default and the consequence thereof had been accomplished in accordance with the terms thereof, and the Guarantor shall forthwith pay and perform the Guaranteed Obligations.

4.3 Dealings by the Agent and the Guaranteed Parties

The Agent and the other Guaranteed Parties may from time to time in their absolute discretion, without discharging, diminishing or in any way affecting the liability of the Guarantor hereunder:

(a) permit any increase or decrease, however significant, of the Guaranteed Obligations or supplement, amend, restate or substitute, in whole or in part, however significant, the Guaranteed Obligations, any Credit Document or any other agreement relating to any of the foregoing or, in whole or in part demand payment of all or any Guaranteed Obligations and/or the Indemnified Amounts;

(b) enforce or take action under or abstain from enforcing or taking action under any Credit Document or any other guarantee of the Guaranteed Obligations or indemnity of the Indemnified Amounts;

(c) renew all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or grant extensions of time or any other indulgences to the Fund, either of the Borrowers, any Restricted Subsidiary, the Guarantor, any other guarantor or other Person liable directly or indirectly for all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or Indemnified Amounts;

(d) accept or make any compositions or arrangements with or release, discharge or otherwise deal with or abstain from dealing with the Fund, either of the Borrowers, any Restricted Subsidiary, the Guarantor, any other guarantor or other Person liable directly or indirectly for all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or Indemnified Amounts;

(e) in whole or in part prove or abstain from proving any claim of the Agent or the other Guaranteed Parties in any Proceedings of or affecting the Fund, either or both of the Borrowers, any Restricted Subsidiary or any other Person; and whether or not any of the matters described in paragraphs (i) to (vii) above occur alone or in connection with one or more other such matters.

(f) agree with the Fund, either of the Borrowers, any Restricted Subsidiary, any other guarantor or any other Person to do anything described in paragraphs (i) to (vi) above;

None of the Agent or any Guaranteed Party nor any of their directors, officers, employees or agents or any receiver or receiver-manager appointed by any of them or by a court shall have any liability, whether in tort, contract or otherwise, for any neglect or any act taken or omitted to be taken by them in connection with the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts or any part thereof including without limitation any of the matters described above in this Section 4.3.

4.4 Waiver of Notice

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Guarantor expressly waives any right to receive notice of the existence or creation of all or any of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts and presentment, demand, notice of dishonour, protest, notice of any of the events or circumstances described in Sections 4.1, 4.2 or 4.3 and all other notices whatsoever in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations or the Indemnified Amounts. The Guarantor hereby acknowledges receipt of copies of the Credit Documents and all guarantees and other documents referred to in the Credit Agreement and of all the provisions therein contained and consents to and approves the same.

ARTICLE 5
MISCELLANEOUS

5.1 Expenses

The Guarantor shall pay on demand all reasonable out of pocket costs and expenses of the Agent and the other Guaranteed Parties (including, without limitation, the fees and expenses of counsel for the Agent and the other Guaranteed Parties on a solicitor and his own client full indemnity basis) incurred in connection with any enforcement of this Guarantee.

5.2 No Set-off by Guarantor

All amounts payable by the Guarantor under this Guarantee shall be paid without set-off or counterclaim and without any deduction or withholding whatsoever.

5.3 No Waiver

No delay on the part of the Agent or any Guaranteed Party in the exercise of any right, power or remedy hereunder or otherwise shall operate as a waiver thereof, and no single or partial exercise by the Agent or the other Guaranteed Parties of any right, power or remedy shall preclude other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy. No action of the Agent or any Guaranteed Party permitted hereunder shall in any way impair or affect its rights, powers or remedies under this Guarantee.

5.4 Additional Guarantee

This Guarantee shall be in addition to, and shall not be in any way prejudiced by nor shall this Guarantee prejudice:

(a) any guarantee now or hereafter held by the Agent or any Guaranteed Party, and

(b) the endorsement by the Guarantor of any notes or other documents, and rights of the Agent and the other Guaranteed Parties under this Guarantee shall not be merged in any such other guarantee or endorsement.

5.5 Assignment

The Guarantor shall not assign any of its obligations with respect to this Guarantee without the prior written consent of the Guaranteed Parties except to the extent permitted under all of the Credit Documents in effect at such time.

5.6 Communication

Any demand, notice or other communication required or permitted to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given by hand-delivery and shall be deemed to have been received at the time it is delivered to the individual designated below as the person to whose attention demands, notices and other communications are to be given or to the addressee at the applicable address noted below to the attention of the individual designated below. Notice of change of address shall also be governed by this Section 5.6. Demands, notices and other communications shall be addressed as follows:

(a) Agent:	(b) Guarantor:
Royal Bank of Canada	<>
11th Floor, Bankers Hall West	<>
888 – 3rd Street S.W.	<>

Fax: (403) 292-3890 Fax: (◇) ◇

5.7 Successors and Assigns

This Guarantee shall be binding upon the Guarantor and its partners and their respective successors and permitted assigns and enure to the benefit of the Agent, the other Guaranteed Parties and their respective successors and assigns.

5.8 Copy Received

The Guarantor acknowledges receipt of a copy of this Guarantee.

5.9 Time of the Essence

Time shall be of the essence.

5.10 Taxes

If any payment made by the Guarantor to the Agent or any Guaranteed Party becomes subject to any withholding or deduction with respect to Taxes, the Guarantor shall also duly and punctually pay to the Agent or such Guaranteed Party such additional amount (if any) as would have been payable by the applicable Borrower or Borrowers under the applicable Credit Documents as a result of such withholding or deduction if such payment were being made by such Borrower or Borrowers, and for such purposes such additional amount shall be determined as if the applicable withholding tax provisions from the applicable Credit Documents were incorporated herein mutatis mutandis. In any such circumstance, the Guarantor shall also promptly remit to the Agent the relevant official receipts or other evidence satisfactory to the Agent evidencing payment to the appropriate taxing authority of each such Tax by the Guarantor on behalf of the Agent or such Guaranteed Party.

5.11 Foreign Currency Obligations

The Guarantor will make payment relative to each Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount in the currency (the "Original Currency") in which the applicable Borrower is required to pay such Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount. If the Guarantor makes payment relative to any Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount to the Agent in a currency (the "Other Currency") other than the Original Currency (whether voluntarily or pursuant to an order or judgment of a court or tribunal of any jurisdiction), such payment will constitute a discharge of the liability of the Guarantor hereunder in respect of such Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount only to the extent of the amount of the Original Currency which the Agent is able to purchase at Calgary, Alberta with the amount it receives on the date of receipt. If the amount of the Original Currency which the Agent is able to purchase is less than the amount of such currency originally due to it in respect to the relevant Guaranteed Obligation or Indemnified Amount, the Guarantor will indemnify and save the Agent and the other Guaranteed Parties harmless from and against any loss or damage arising as a result of such deficiency. This indemnity will constitute an obligation separate and independent from the other obligations contained in this Guarantee, will give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, will apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by the Agent or the other Guaranteed Parties and will continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any judgment or order in respect of any amount due hereunder or under any judgment or order.

[SIGNATURE PAGES FOLLOWS]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Guarantor has executed this Guarantee as of the day and year first above written.

KEYERA

MESSAGE TO UNITHOLDERS

March 10, 2008

Dear Unitholders:

We are pleased to invite you to the upcoming annual meeting of the unitholders ("Unitholders") of Keyera Facilities Income Fund (the "Fund") to be held in the Sun Life Plaza Conference Centre, Plus 15 level, 144 – 4th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta on May 13, 2008 at 2:00 p.m. Calgary time (the "Meeting"). The Meeting will provide you with the opportunity to meet the proposed directors, as well as our management team.

The enclosed Proxy Statement and Information Circular describes in detail the formal business to be conducted at the Meeting. The business to be conducted will include the standard annual matters, namely the receipt of the audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2007 and the associated auditors' report thereon, the appointment of auditors and the election of directors.

Following the Meeting, there will be a presentation by management highlighting Keyera's accomplishments in 2007 and outlining what we see on the horizon for 2008 and 2009. This presentation will be followed by a question and answer session and refreshments.

Your participation at the Meeting is very important to us. If you are unable to attend in person, we encourage you to vote your units in the Fund by any of the means available to you as described in the enclosed Proxy Statement and Information Circular. If you have not already done so, we also encourage you to review the Fund's 2007 Annual Report, the 2007 annual financial statements and other public disclosure documents available on our website at www.keyera.com and on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

We look forward to seeing you at the Meeting.

Sincerely,

(signed) "James V. Bertram"

KEYERA FACILITIES INCOME FUND

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the annual meeting (the "Meeting") of the holders (the "Unitholders") of trust units (the "Units") of Keyera Facilities Income Fund (the "Fund") will be held in the Sun Life Plaza Conference Centre, Plus 15 level, 144 – 4th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta on May 13, 2008 at 2:00 p.m. (Calgary time) for the following purposes, which are described in more detail in the Proxy Statement and Information Circular of the Fund (the "Information Circular") accompanying this Notice, namely:

1. to receive the audited consolidated financial statements of the Fund for the year ended December 31, 2007 together with the report of the auditors thereon;

2. to appoint Deloitte & Touche LLP as auditors of the Fund for the ensuing year;

3. to consider and, if deemed advisable, to pass, with or without variation, an ordinary resolution to elect directors of Keyera Energy Management Ltd. (the "Administrator") to hold office until the next annual meeting of Unitholders or until their successors are elected or appointed; and

4. to transact such other business as may properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

Information relating to the foregoing is set forth in the Information Circular which forms part of this Notice of Annual Meeting. Only Unitholders of record at the close of business on March 18, 2008 will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

If you are unable to attend the Meeting in person, please follow the instructions on the voting instruction form provided by your broker or other intermediary to register your vote. Registered Unitholders may complete and sign the enclosed form of proxy and forward it in the enclosed self-addressed envelope, or otherwise deliver it to Computershare Investor Services Inc. at 9th Floor, 100 University Avenue, Toronto, Ontario, M5J 2Y1, Attention: Proxy Department, to reach the addressee no later than 24 hours before the commencement of the Meeting or, if the Meeting is adjourned, 24 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) before the commencement of any reconvened meeting.

KEYERA FACILITIES INCOME FUND
PROXY STATEMENT AND INFORMATION CIRCULAR
DATED MARCH 10, 2008

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON VOTING AND PROXIES

This Proxy Statement and Information Circular ("Information Circular") is being sent to the holders ("Unitholders") of trust units ("Units") of Keyera Facilities Income Fund ("Keyera" or the "Fund") in connection with the annual meeting of the Unitholders (the "Meeting") to be held on May 13, 2008 in the Sun Life Plaza Conference Centre, Plus 15 level, 144 – 4th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta on May 13, 2008 at 2:00 p.m. (Calgary time) for the purposes set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting (the "Notice") accompanying this Information Circular. Unless otherwise noted, the information provided in this Information Circular is given as of March 10, 2008.

Your participation at the Meeting is very important to Keyera. The following questions and answers provide guidance on how you can vote your Units.

1. Am I entitled to vote?

All Unitholders at the close of business on March 18, 2008 (the "Record Date") are entitled to vote at the Meeting, or at any adjournment of that Meeting, on the items of business set forth in the Notice. Even if you disposed of your Units after the Record Date, you are still entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Meeting. If you acquired Units after the Record Date, you are not entitled to receive notice of or vote at the Meeting.

2. What am I voting on?

As stated in the Notice, you are being asked to vote on the appointment of the auditors of the Fund for the ensuing year and the election of directors of Keyera Energy Management Ltd. (the "Administrator"), the administrator of the Fund.

Units may be voted for or withheld from voting on the appointment of auditors and the election of directors. As discussed in this Information Circular, management is recommending that Unitholders vote FOR the appointment of auditors and FOR the election of directors.

3. How will the votes be counted?

A simple majority of votes cast (50% plus one vote) by the Unitholders, in person or by proxy, will constitute approval of the appointment of auditors and the election of directors.

4. How many votes am I entitled to?

You are entitled to one vote for every Unit you hold as of the Record Date.

5. Am I a registered or beneficial Unitholder?

A registered Unitholder holds Units in his or her own name and such ownership is reflected in a Unit certificate or by other means of direct registration of the Units.

A beneficial Unitholder holds Units which are registered in the name of a nominee such as a bank, trust company, securities broker or other intermediary, and the holdings are recorded in an electronic system.

At present, the Fund utilizes a book-based system administered by CDS Clearing and Depository Services Inc. ("CDS"). In Canada, CDS acts as nominee for many banks, trust companies and brokerage firms through which beneficial Unitholders hold their Units. Consequently, all Units are registered under the name of CDS & Co. (the registration name for CDS) or its nominee. The Fund does not know for whose benefit the Units registered in the name of CDS & Co. are held.

Units registered in the name of CDS & Co. can only be voted at the direction of the beneficial Unitholder. Therefore, without specific instructions from you delivered through your broker or its nominee, your Units cannot be voted. Please refer to Question No. 7 for further information about how you, as a beneficial Unitholder, can vote your Units.

6. How do registered Unitholders vote?

Registered Unitholders can vote in person at the Meeting or by proxy. If you wish to vote in person at the Meeting, do not complete and return the form of proxy but simply attend the Meeting where your vote will be taken and counted. Be sure to register with Computershare Trust Company of Canada ("Computershare"), our registrar and transfer agent, when you arrive at the meeting. If you do not wish to attend the Meeting or do not wish to vote in person, you can vote by proxy. To vote by proxy, you can convey your voting instructions by mail, telephone, facsimile or internet and by doing so your units will be voted at the Meeting by James V. Bertram or David G. Smith, who are the appointees set forth in the form of proxy. Instructions as to how to convey your voting instructions by any of these means are set forth on the back of the form of proxy and should be carefully followed. A proxy must be in writing and must be signed by the Unitholder or by the Unitholder's attorney authorized in writing or, if the Unitholder is a corporation, by an officer or attorney thereof duly authorized. To ensure that your vote is recorded, your proxy must be received by Computershare Trust Company of Canada at 9th Floor, 100 University Avenue, Toronto, Ontario, M5J 2Y1, Attention: Proxy Department, by no later than 2:00 p.m. (Calgary time) on the business day (Monday, May 12, 2008) preceding the day of the Meeting, or any adjournment of that Meeting.

All Units represented by properly executed proxy forms received by Computershare prior to such time will be voted for or withheld from voting in accordance with your instructions as specified in the proxy form on any matter dealt with at the Meeting.

7. As a beneficial Unitholder, how do I vote?

As a beneficial Unitholder, your Units will likely be registered under the name CDS & Co. through the name of your broker or an agent of that broker. Your Units can only be voted if you provide voting instructions through your broker or intermediary. If you do not provide specific voting instructions, your broker or other intermediary (or their nominee) is prohibited from voting your Units.

As a beneficial Unitholder, applicable regulatory policy requires brokers/intermediaries to seek your voting instructions in advance of the Meeting. Every broker/intermediary has its own mailing procedures and provides its own return instructions which should be carefully followed in order to ensure that your Units are voted.

Often, brokers/intermediaries use voting instruction forms similar to the form of proxy provided to registered Unitholders; however, its purpose is limited to instructing the registered Unitholder on how to vote on behalf of the beneficial Unitholder. The majority of brokers now delegate responsibility for obtaining instructions from their clients to Broadridge (formerly ADP Investor Communications) which typically mails a voting instruction form in lieu of the form of proxy. Upon receipt of the voting instruction form, you will have the option of completing and returning it by mail or facsimile, or you may be given the option of following specific telephone, internet or other voting procedures to vote your Units. Broadridge then tabulates the results of all instructions received and provides appropriate instructions respecting the voting of Units to be represented at the Meeting. As discussed in Question 8 below, you cannot use the voting instruction form to vote Units directly at the Meeting as the voting instruction form must be returned as directed by Broadridge.

8. As a beneficial Unitholder can I vote in person at the Meeting?

As a beneficial Unitholder, you can only vote in person at the Meeting by making arrangements with your intermediary/broker well in advance of the Meeting in accordance with their procedures. The Fund does not know for whose benefit the Units registered in the name of CDS & Co. are held and cannot recognize you at the Meeting for purposes of voting your Units in person or by way of depositing a form of proxy unless you have made such arrangements.

If you wish to attend and vote at the Meeting, you should insert your name as a special appointment on the voting instruction form and carefully follow the instructions provided. Note that voting by telephone is not available if you wish to appoint yourself as a proxy. Once you have appointed yourself as a proxy, be sure to register with Computershare when you arrive at the Meeting.

9. Can I appoint someone other than the management nominees, James V. Bertram and David G. Smith, to act as my proxyholder at the Meeting?

Each of the persons named as proxyholders in the enclosed form of proxy is a director and/or officer of the Administrator. A registered Unitholder wishing to appoint some other person as his or her representative at the Meeting may do so either by inserting such person's name in the blank space provided in the form of proxy or by completing another proper form of proxy and, in either case, delivering the completed proxy to Computershare no later than 2:00 p.m. (Calgary time) on May 12, 2008 (or, in the event the Meeting is adjourned, at least 24 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, before the beginning of any reconvened meeting).

A beneficial Unitholder wishing to appoint someone other than the management nominees as proxyholder should insert the name of the person you wish to appoint as your proxy as a special appointment on the voting instruction form and carefully following the instructions provided. Note that voting by telephone is not available if you wish to appoint someone other than the management nominees as a proxy. It is important to ensure that any other person you appoint is attending the meeting and is aware that his or her appointment has been made to vote your Units. Be sure that your proxyholder registers with Computershare when he or she arrives at the Meeting.

Representatives appointed by a Unitholder as a proxy are not required to be Unitholders.

10. Who is soliciting my proxy?

Management of the Administrator, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Fund, is soliciting proxies to be used at the Meeting and at any adjournment or postponement thereof. Solicitation of proxies will be primarily by mail, but may also be solicited by personal interviews, telephone, facsimile or other means of communication by directors and officers of the Administrator, without special compensation. The cost of this solicitation will be borne by the Fund. Neither the Fund nor the Administrator will reimburse Unitholders, nominees or agents for the cost incurred in obtaining authorization to execute forms of proxy from their principals.

11. How will my proxy be voted?

The persons named in the proxy form must vote or withhold from voting your Units in accordance with your voting instructions. In the absence of specific instructions, your Units will be voted FOR the election of directors and the appointment of auditors.

12. What if there are amendments or variations to the items of business set forth in the Notice or other matters are brought before the Meeting?

The form of proxy confers discretionary authority upon the persons appointed with respect to amendments to the matters identified in the Notice and with respect to any other matters which may properly come before the Meeting. The Administrator knows of no matters to come before the Meeting other than the matters identified in the Notice of the Meeting. If any matters which are not known should properly come before the Meeting, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy will vote on such matters in accordance with their best judgment.

13. Can I change my mind once I have submitted my proxy or voting instructions?

Yes, you can revoke your proxy at any time before it is acted upon. For registered Unitholders, if your proxy was submitted by facsimile or mail, you can revoke it by instrument in writing executed by you, or by your attorney authorized in writing, or if the Unitholder is a corporation, under corporate seal or by an officer or attorney duly authorized, and deposit such instrument in writing with Computershare at Suite 710, 530 – 8th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 3S8 or at the business office of the Administrator at Suite 600, 144 – 4th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta. If you conveyed your voting instructions by telephone or internet, then conveying new instructions will revoke prior instructions.

Instructions can be revoked at any time up to and including 2:00 p.m. (Calgary time) on the business day preceding the Meeting (May 12, 2008), or any adjournment of that Meeting; or by depositing the revoking instrument with the Chair of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting, or any adjournment of that Meeting; or in any other manner permitted by law, including personal attendance at the Meeting, or any adjournment of that Meeting. If an instrument of revocation is deposited with the Chair, it will not be effective with respect to any item of business that has been voted upon prior to the deposit.

For beneficial Unitholders, you must follow the procedures established by your broker/intermediary if you wish to revoke voting instructions that you have given to them. Normally, brokers/intermediaries require written notice of a revocation well in advance of the Meeting. Therefore, if you wish to revoke a proxy or voting instructions that you have given to your broker/intermediary, you should consult the instructions on the voting instruction form and contact your intermediary/broker prior to the Meeting to determine how you can do so.

14. Who counts the votes and will my vote be confidential?

Computershare, as the Fund's transfer agent and registrar, will act as scrutineer at the Meeting and will count the votes. This is done independently to preserve the confidentiality of individual Unitholder votes. Proxies may be referred to the Fund and the Administrator in cases where a Unitholder clearly intends to communicate with management (such as by making a written statement on the proxy form), in the event of a proxy contest or when it is necessary to do so to meet the requirements of applicable law or meeting procedures. In addition, Computershare may, upon request, provide the Fund and the Administrator with a status report on the total number of proxies received and the votes in respect of each item of business to be considered at the Meeting.

15. How will my Units be voted if a ballot is called at the Meeting on any of the items of business?

Your units will be voted as you specified in your proxy. If no such specification is made, then your Units will be voted FOR the appointment of auditors and FOR the election of directors.

16. How many Units are outstanding?

As of the date of this Information Circular, the Fund had 61,306,919 issued and outstanding Units and, to the best of the knowledge of the Fund and the directors and executive officers of the Administrator, no person or company beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, or exercised control or direction over, more than 10% of the issued and outstanding Units.

17. Who can I contact if I have any further questions on voting at the Meeting?

For most questions about procedures for your voting instructions, you should contact your broker directly. You may also contact Computershare, our transfer agent and registrar:

ADMINISTRATION OF THE FUND

General

The Fund is an unincorporated open-ended trust established under the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to a declaration of trust, as amended and restated effective January 2, 2008 (the "Declaration of Trust"). The Fund does not directly carry on business; rather, it generates its income through investments in corporations, partnerships and other entities that are actively engaged in business activities. The Fund's primary investments are in Keyera Energy Limited Partnership (the "Partnership"), formerly known as Keyera Energy Partnership, and the Partnership's subsidiaries. The Fund is entirely dependent on the Partnership and subsidiaries of the Partnership for its income.

The Partnership is a limited partnership organized under the laws of the Province of Alberta. The Partnership's business consists of natural gas gathering and processing, as well as processing, transportation, storage and marketing of natural gas liquids and crude oil. The Partnership's facilities are primarily located in Alberta, but it also has facilities in British Columbia and Saskatchewan. In addition, a subsidiary of the Partnership owns four wholesale propane facilities in the United States. With the completion of an internal reorganization of the Fund and its subsidiaries on January 2, 2008, the Fund now directly owns all of the limited partnership interests in the Partnership and one of its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Keyera GP Ltd., is the general partner holding all the general partnership interests.

Trustee of the Fund

Computershare is the trustee of the Fund. In addition to acting as trustee, Computershare provides other services to the Fund, including acting as its registrar and transfer agent, acting as trustee under the Keyera Facilities Commercial Trust Note Indenture, providing administrative services for the Fund's convertible debentures, its distribution reinvestment and optional unit purchase plan and providing services in relation to Keyera's director equity participation plan and employee unit purchase plan. Computershare is also the Rights Agent under the Fund's Unitholder Rights Plan which was approved by the Unitholders in 2007.

The Declaration of Trust provides that Computershare may resign as trustee of the Fund by giving the Administrator not less than 90 days' prior written notice. Further, Computershare may be removed by ordinary resolution of the Unitholders and may also be removed by the Administrator in the event that (i) it fails to meet the qualifications specified in the Declaration of Trust; (ii) it declares bankruptcy or becomes insolvent; (iii) all or substantially all of its assets become subject to seizure or confiscation; or (iv) it otherwise becomes incapable of performing its responsibilities.

Computershare, in its capacity as trustee of the Fund, has delegated the administration of the Fund to the Administrator, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Fund, pursuant to the terms of the Declaration of Trust and an administration agreement, as amended and restated effective January 1, 2006 (the "Administration Agreement").

Administration of the Fund and the Partnership

Pursuant to the Declaration of Trust and the Administration Agreement, the Administrator provides administrative and support services to the Fund. Services provided by the Administrator to the Fund include those necessary to: (i) comply with continuous disclosure and other obligations under applicable securities legislation; (ii) provide investor relations services; (iii) provide Unitholders with annual audited and interim unaudited financial statements of the Fund and information with respect to income taxes; (iv) call and hold meetings of Unitholders; (v) attend to all administrative and other matters arising in connection with any redemption of Units; (vi) provide for the calculation of distributions to Unitholders; and (vii) comply with the Fund's limitations on non-resident ownership.

In connection with the Administrator's provision of services to the Fund, Computershare, as trustee, has delegated to the Administrator the power to approve, on behalf of the Fund, the interim and annual financial statements to be provided to Unitholders and all disclosure documentation required to be prepared by or on behalf of the Fund under securities legislation, including information or proxy circulars for meetings of Unitholders, annual information forms and prospectuses, and to make decisions relating to the timing and terms of the issuance of securities of the Fund.

The term of the Administration Agreement is the same as the term of the Fund. The Administration Agreement may be terminated in the event of the insolvency or receivership of another party, or in the case of default by one of the other parties in the performance of a material obligation of the Administration Agreement (other than as a result of the occurrence of a force majeure event) which is not remedied within 30 days. The Fund may at any time terminate or suspend the provision of any particular service by the Administrator.

The Administrator also provides administrative and management services to the Partnership and to certain subsidiaries of the Partnership pursuant to the terms of various management services agreements (collectively the "Management Services Agreements").

Pursuant to the terms of the Administration Agreement and the Management Services Agreements, the Administrator receives fees for providing these administrative and management services. However, because the Partnership, its subsidiaries and the Administrator are all wholly-owned by the Fund, any profit or loss arising from these fees indirectly accrues to the Fund.

MATTERS TO BE ACTED UPON AT THE MEETING

1. Financial Statements

The audited consolidated financial statements of the Fund for the year ended December 31, 2007, which are available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com and on the Fund's website at www.keyera.com, will be placed before the Unitholders at the Meeting. These financial statements have been audited by Deloitte & Touche LLP, Chartered Accountants, of Calgary, Alberta.

2. Appointment of Auditors

The Declaration of Trust provides that Unitholders are entitled to appoint the auditors of the Fund at each annual meeting of Unitholders. Unitholders will be asked at the Meeting to pass a resolution appointing Deloitte & Touche LLP as the auditors of the Fund for a term expiring at the close of the next annual meeting of Unitholders.

Deloitte & Touche LLP has served as auditors of the Fund since its inception on April 3, 2003 and is independent within the meaning of the Rules of Professional Conduct of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Alberta. In 2006 and 2007, fees billed for audit, audit-related, tax and other services provided to the Fund by Deloitte & Touche LLP were as follows:

Year Ended December 31	2007	2006
Audit Fees	$407,167.20	$348,500.00
Audit Related Fees	Nil	Nil
Tax Fees	$141,563.17	$209,570.56
Other Fees	Nil	Nil
Total	$548,730.37	$558,070.56

A description of the nature of the services provided under each category is as follows:

- Audit Fees: Fees for the annual audit and quarterly review of the Fund's financial statements and for audit services related to ongoing regulatory filings.
- Audit Related Fees: Fees for review and translation services related to acquisitions and non-routine regulatory filings.
- Tax Fees: Fees for advice and assistance in preparing income tax returns for the Fund and its subsidiaries and advice related to income tax and commodity taxes.
- Other Fees: No other fees were billed.

Pursuant to the Terms of Reference of the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee approves all audit plans and pre-approves significant non-audit engagements of the external auditors, including reviewing the fees paid for such engagements. The Audit Committee has delegated the responsibility for approving certain non-audit services to the Chair of the Audit Committee. All audit and non-audit services provided to Keyera for the year ended December 31, 2007 that were required to be pre-approved were pre-approved in accordance with the policies and Terms of Reference of the Audit Committee.

Unless otherwise directed, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy intend to vote FOR the reappointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as auditors of the Fund for a term expiring at the close of the next annual meeting of Unitholders. The resolution to reappoint Deloitte & Touche LLP as auditors of the Fund must be passed by a majority of the votes cast in person or by proxy at the Meeting.

3. Election of Directors of the Administrator

The nine nominees proposed for election as directors of the Administrator are James V. Bertram, Robert B. Catell, Michael B.C. Davies, Nancy M. Laird, Hon. E. Peter Lougheed, P.C., C.C., Q.C., Donald J. Nelson, H. Neil Nichols, William R. Stedman and Wesley R. Twiss. Further information about each of the nominees can be found under the heading "Nominees for Election to the Board of Directors of the Administrator". The directors are elected individually and not as a slate. All nominees have confirmed their eligibility and willingness to serve as directors.

Unless otherwise directed, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy intend to vote FOR the election of each of the proposed nominees set out above as directors of the Administrator. It is not contemplated that any of the proposed nominees will be unable to serve as a director but, if that should occur for any reason prior to the Meeting, the persons designated in the enclosed form of proxy reserve the right to vote for another nominee at the Meeting. Subject to the bylaws of the Administrator and applicable corporate law, each director elected will hold office until the next annual meeting of the Unitholders or until his or her successor is elected or appointed in accordance with the Declaration of Trust, the bylaws of the Administrator and applicable law.

NOMINEES FOR ELECTION TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE ADMINISTRATOR

Nominees

The Declaration of Trust provides for the election of the Board of Directors of the Administrator by the Unitholders. The articles of the Administrator provide that there shall be a minimum of one and a maximum of nine directors. The Board of Directors has determined that nine is an appropriate number of directors at the present time. The Unitholders will therefore be asked to individually elect nine directors of the Administrator.

The following table identifies all persons to be nominated for election as directors, and includes a brief biography of each proposed director, the number of Units held by each proposed director and a list of all other reporting issuers for which each proposed director currently serves as a director. All of the proposed directors of the Administrator, with the exception of Donald J. Nelson, have been directors of the Administrator since the Fund's inception in 2003. As of the date hereof, none of the proposed directors serve together on the boards of directors of other publicly traded issuers. A photograph of each incumbent director can be viewed on the Fund's website at www.keyera.com.

To the knowledge of the Fund, and based upon information provided to it by the nominees for election as directors, no such nominee has, within the last 10 years, (i) become bankrupt, made a proposal under legislation relating to bankruptcy or insolvency or become subject to any proceedings, arrangement or compromise with creditors, or had a receiver, receiver manager or trustee appointed to hold the assets of such nominee, or (ii) been a director or executive officer of any company or other entity that, while the nominee was acting in that capacity (or within a year of ceasing to act in that capacity), became bankrupt, made a proposal under any legislation relating to bankruptcy or insolvency, or became subject to or instituted any proceedings, arrangement or compromise with creditors or had a receiver, receiver manager or trustee appointed to hold the assets of such company or other entity, except for William Stedman who was a director of Efficient Energy Resources Ltd., a private company, when it declared bankruptcy in 2005. Further, to the knowledge of the Fund, and based upon information provided to it by the nominees for election as directors, no such nominee has, within the last 10 years, been a director, chief executive officer or chief financial officer of a company that, during the time the nominee was acting in such capacity or as a result of events that occurred while the nominee was acting in such capacity, was subject to a cease trade order, an order similar to a cease trade order or an order that denied the relevant company access to any exemption under securities laws that was in effect for a period of more than 30 consecutive days.

Director Independence and Interlocking Directorships

The Board of Directors has determined that all of the directors of the Administrator, other than Mr. Bertram, are independent of the Fund and its affiliates. Mr. Bertram is President and Chief Executive Officer of the Administrator and therefore is not independent.

The Board has established an Audit Committee, a Compensation and Governance Committee and a Health, Safety and Environment Committee. Each of these Committees is comprised of all independent directors, except the Health, Safety and Environment Committee on which Mr. Bertram sits. Further information about the committees and the governance practices and policies of the Fund, can be found under the heading "Report on Governance".

None of the directors of the Administrator serve together as directors or trustees of other public entities.

Meetings of the Independent Directors

The Board of Directors has adopted the practice of holding meetings of the independent directors following each Board of Directors meeting. Consistent with this policy, in 2007, the independent directors held ten (10) meetings at which members of management and the non-independent director were not in attendance.

Each of the committees of the Board of Directors has also adopted the practice of scheduling meetings of the independent committee members following each committee meeting. Each of the Compensation and Governance Committee and the Audit Committee held four (4) meetings of the independent committee members in 2007. The Health, Safety and Environment Committee held three (3) meetings of the independent committee members in 2007.

REPORT ON GOVERNANCE

Pursuant to the Declaration of Trust and the Administration Agreement, the Trustee has delegated to the Administrator responsibility for the management and operation of the Fund. In addition, the general partner of the Partnership has delegated to the Administrator responsibility for the management of the business of the Partnership.

The Board of Directors is responsible for developing the Fund's approach to governance issues and considers good governance to be important to the successful operation of the Fund and to building stakeholder confidence. Sound governance establishes the foundation for the transparency and direction of the Fund's objectives, strategy, controls and overall performance. A brief description of the Fund's approach to governance is set forth below.

Mandate of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has adopted a written mandate in which the Board of Directors explicitly assumes responsibility for providing effective, independent supervision of the management of the Fund, the Administrator and the Partnership. The written mandate recognizes that the fundamental objectives of the Board of Directors are (a) to advance the collective interests of the owners of the Fund and its affiliates, while recognizing that, in order for the enterprise to continue to be able to serve its owners' interests, the collective interests of employees, customers, suppliers, the communities in which it operates and the general public must also be taken into account; and (b) to promote the achievement of the long-term goals of the Fund to grow value responsibly in a sustainable manner.

The full text of the Mandate of the Board of Directors is attached as Schedule "A" hereto and can also be found on the Fund's website at www.keyera.com.

Committees of the Board of Directors

Subject to applicable law, the Board of Directors establishes and delegates powers, duties and responsibilities to committees. The Board of Directors has established three committees: an Audit Committee; a Compensation and Governance Committee; and a Health, Safety and Environment Committee. The written terms of reference for each committee were updated and amended by the Board of Directors in 2005 and the terms of reference for the Audit Committee were further amended in 2006 and 2008. The terms of reference for each committee are briefly described below. The full text of the terms of reference for each committee is available on the Fund's website at www.keyera.com. In addition, the full text of the terms of reference for the Audit Committee is disclosed in Keyera's 2007 Annual Information Form, which is available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

Audit Committee

The purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight role and other responsibilities in relation to, among other things:

- the audit of the financial statements of the Partnership and the Fund on a consolidated basis, managing the relationship with the auditors and meeting with the auditors as required in connection with the audit services provided by the auditors;
- the approval of any non-audit services that may be provided by the auditors, including the development of policies and recommendations regarding the engagement of the auditors and maintaining the auditors' independence;
- the distribution policy, financial structure and financing strategy for the Fund and its affiliates;
- the adequacy of disclosure controls, internal controls and accounting procedures of the Fund and its affiliates; and
- the financial risk assessment and management programs of the Fund and its affiliates.

The Audit Committee has an annual work plan which is reviewed from time to time. The following table generally outlines the Committee's anticipated schedule of activities during the year:

	TASK DESCRIPTION
Quarterly	• Review quarterly financial statements and financial releases, including a report on the external auditors' review • Review Terms of Reference • Internal controls and disclosure controls review • Legal report • Report on non-resident ownership of Units • Review of non-audit services provided by auditors • Open positions report • Whistleblowers' report • In camera meeting with the Auditors • In camera meeting with the Internal Auditor • In camera meeting of independent committee members
Annually	• Review annual financial statements and financial release, including the external auditors' report • Officer expense account review • Review annual information form • Financial risk management review • Internal audit program review • Corporate insurance review • Income tax review • External audit plan review • Accounting standards developments review

Compensation and Governance Committee

The purpose of the Compensation and Governance Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight role and other responsibilities in relation to, among other things:

- the adequacy and appropriateness of the compensation of directors and officers of the Administrator and its affiliates;
- the quality and effectiveness of the governance practices and policies of the Fund and its affiliates;
- the adoption of a strategic planning process and the review of strategic plans; and
- the identification and recommendation of nominees for election or appointment to the Board of Directors.

None of the members of the Compensation and Governance Committee are active chief executive officers with any publicly-traded entity. The Compensation and Governance Committee has developed an annual work plan which is reviewed from time to time. The following table generally outlines the Committee's anticipated activities during the year.

GOVERNANCE	COMPENSATION
• Review information circular • Review of directors and officers liability insurance • Review of Board strategic planning process and annual agenda • Review Board orientation, education and development programs • Review of Board composition and effectiveness • Review Board Mandate • Review CEO position description • Review management succession plans • Review unit ownership guidelines	• Review of report on executive compensation • Review of executive salary and wage recommendations • Make recommendations with respect to cash bonuses under the short-term incentive plan (the "STIP") • Review of incentive compensation programs (including the short-term and long-term incentive plans) in the context of total compensation objectives • Review of directors' compensation • Make recommendations with respect to grants under the long-term incentive plan (the "LTIP") • Review of compensation trends, considerations and strategies • Review of executive employment agreements

Health, Safety and Environment Committee

The purpose of the Health, Safety and Environment Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight role and other responsibilities in relation to, among other things:

- the review and assessment of the health, safety and environmental policies, practices and procedures of the Fund and its affiliates; and
- the implementation of the health, safety and environmental policies, practices and procedures of the Fund and its affiliates in light of regulatory requirements and industry standards.

In addition to its regularly scheduled meetings, the Health, Safety and Environment Committee tours various Keyera facilities throughout the year and participates in Keyera's annual safety symposium. The Health, Safety and Environment Committee has adopted an annual work plan which is reviewed from time to time. The following list generally outlines the Committee's anticipated activities during the year:

- Review of asset retirement obligations;
- Review of environmental performance and plans;
- Review of safety performance and strategies; and
- Review of risk mitigation strategies.

Position Descriptions

The Board of Directors has adopted written position descriptions for the Chair of the Board of Directors, the Chair of each committee and the Chief Executive Officer. A brief summary of each of these position descriptions is provided below.

The Chair of the Board of Directors is charged with providing leadership to the Board to enable it to act as an effective team. The Chair of the Board of Directors works with the Compensation and Governance Committee in monitoring the effectiveness, performance, composition, mandate and terms of reference of the Board and its committees.

The Chair of each of the committees is responsible for providing leadership to that committee, for facilitating the flow of information between the committee and the Board of Directors, managing any outside advisors retained by the committee, overseeing the planning and organization of meetings of the committee and consulting annually with the Chair of the Board of Directors with respect to the effectiveness, performance, composition and mandate of their respective committees. The Chair of the Compensation and Governance Committee has an additional role in consulting from time to time with the Chair of the Board of Directors with respect to the assessment of the effectiveness of the Board as a whole and the composition, mandate and terms of reference for each of the committees.

The fundamental responsibility of the Chief Executive Officer is the general direction and management of the business and affairs of the Fund and its affiliates, including the development and implementation of business goals, strategies and plans. The Chief Executive Officer also (i) acts as a liaison between the Board of Directors and management; (ii) works with the senior officers to identify material risks associated with operational and business matters; (iii) oversees the policies, procedures and practices in relation to such matters as governance, environmental, health and safety systems and control systems; (iv) is involved in succession planning, developing employee compensation packages and management development programs; and (v) participates in and oversees communications and reporting.

Selection and Nomination of Directors

In accordance with its Terms of Reference, the Compensation and Governance Committee has overall responsibility for identifying and recommending qualified individuals as nominees to be directors of the Administrator and has adopted a written procedure outlining the selection and nomination process.

Each year the Committee considers and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to the director nominees to be presented for election at the annual meeting of the Unitholders. The Board of Directors, acting on the advice of the Compensation and Governance Committee, then selects the director nominees to be nominated for election. In the event there is a vacancy prior to an annual meeting, the Compensation and Governance Committee may make a recommendation to the Board of Directors with respect to a replacement nominee to fill the vacancy.

The Committee reviews, from time to time, the size, composition and profile of the Board of Directors and, in conjunction with the Chair of the Board of Directors, periodically assesses the skills of current Board members to identify any additional skill sets from which the Board of Directors could benefit. In considering potential nominees for election as directors, the Committee reviews the qualifications of proposed director nominees in light of the foregoing and submits recommendations for nominees as directors to the Board of Directors. To assist the Committee in fulfilling its mandate, a list of potential director nominees is maintained.

A mandatory director retirement policy has not been adopted. The Board of Directors believes that any decision with respect to the retirement of a director should be dealt with on a case by case basis in light of all the circumstances.

Director Orientation and Education

The Board of Directors recognizes the importance of director orientation and education. The Compensation and Governance Committee is responsible for assisting the Board of Directors in the ongoing development of the orientation and education program. To this end, a formal orientation and education program has been approved by the Compensation and Governance Committee.

The goal of the orientation and education program is to assist directors in becoming knowledgeable about the business of Keyera and to build upon their understanding of the roles and responsibilities of directors in an evolving regulatory environment. The key elements of this program include: an orientation session for new directors, regular management presentations, an annual off-site strategy session, site tours, a Board of Directors manual (which is made available to directors in hard copy and on-line) and periodic presentations by internal or external experts on topical matters. Financial support is also available for directors to attend courses or conferences.

Director Assessment and Board Effectiveness

The Chair of the Board of Directors has primary responsibility for the assessment of director performance and the overall performance of the Board of Directors. To this end, the Board Chair meets individually with each of the directors from time to time throughout the year to discuss individual performance and overall Board performance. Based on these discussions, the Board Chair may share peer feedback with the entire Board of Directors or with individual directors as appropriate. In addition, the Chair of the Board of Directors consults from time to time with the Chair of the Compensation and Governance Committee with respect to the effectiveness, performance, composition, mandate and terms of reference for each committee and the Board of Directors.

Code of Business Conduct and Related Policies

Keyera is committed to conducting business ethically and legally. Directors, officers, employees, contractors and consultants are expected not only to comply with all applicable laws and regulations, but also to avoid situations where their personal interests conflict or appear to conflict with their duties and responsibilities to the Fund and its affiliates.

The Board of Directors has adopted a Code of Business Conduct which applies to all directors, employees and officers of the Fund and its affiliates. In support of the adoption and implementation of the Code of Business Conduct, Keyera has approved specific business conduct policies and procedures covering various matters. Directors, officers, employees and consultants are required to comply with these policies and procedures. Keyera's Insider Trading Procedure is one example of the policies and procedures that have been adopted. This procedure prescribes blackout periods and outlines the circumstances in which Keyera's directors, officers, employees and consultants will be restricted or prohibited from trading in Units or other securities. In accordance with this procedure, directors, officers and certain other employees and consultants are required to notify and obtain the permission of the Chief Financial Officer before buying or selling any Units.

An education program for employees was adopted in conjunction with the rollout of the Code of Business Conduct and the business conduct policies in 2005 and this training program continues to form the basis for the education of new employees. All employees are required to certify that they have reviewed the business conduct policies. In addition, employees are periodically asked to confirm their understanding of the business conduct policies and that they have complied with such policies.

In conjunction with the Code of Business Conduct, the Board of Directors has also established a whistleblower hotline to provide a forum for employees, officers, contractors and consultants who have reason to believe that something may have been done illegally or contrary to Keyera policy to report these concerns to a neutral third party on a confidential basis for investigation. Quarterly reports from the whistleblower hotline are provided to the Audit Committee. The Code of Business Conduct is available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com (filed on November 14, 2005) and on the Fund's website at www.keyera.com. Copies may also be obtained from the Director, Investor Relations of the Administrator at Suite 600, 144 – 4th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 3N4.

COMPENSATION OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE ADMINISTRATOR

The directors' compensation program is designed to attract and retain qualified people to serve on the Board of Directors. The compensation program is reviewed regularly and is set annually based on a year running from July 1 through June 30.

The compensation payable to each director, other than Mr. Bertram, for the year ended December 31, 2007 was calculated based on the following schedule of approved annual fees:

Basic annual retainer for each director including the Chair of the Board of Directors (the "Base Annual Retainer")	$65,000
Annual retainer for the Chair of the Board of Directors	$65,000
Annual retainer for each committee Chair (other than the Chair of the Audit Committee)	$30,000
Annual retainer for the Chair of the Audit Committee	$45,000
Annual retainer for each committee member	$15,000
Travel Fees	$750 for each flight over three hours taken by a director to attend a board or committee meeting up to a maximum of $1,500 per meeting.
"Extraordinary" meeting fees	If, in the opinion of the Chair of the Board of Directors, the Board or a Committee has been or will be experiencing unusually high levels of activity, designated directors are entitled to receive additional meeting fees of $1,500 per meeting.

The following table sets out the fees paid to Directors for their participation as members of the Board and on Board Committees during 2007 based on the approved schedule of fees.

Name	Base Annual Retainer	Chair of the Board Annual Retainer	Committee Chair Annual Retainer	Committee Member Annual Retainer	Travel Fees	Extra-ordinary Meeting Fees	Total Compen-sation
Robert B. Catell	$65,000	N/A	N/A	N/A	$4,500	Nil	$69,500
Michael B.C. Davies	$65,000	N/A	N/A	$15,000	$7,500	Nil	$87,500
Nancy M. Laird	$65,000	N/A	$30,000	$15,000	N/A	Nil	$110,000
Hon. E. Peter Lougheed	$65,000	$65,000	N/A	$15,000	N/A	Nil	$145,000
H. Neil Nichols	$65,000	N/A	N/A	$30,000	$9,000	Nil	$104,000
William R. Stedman	$65,000	N/A	$30,000	$15,000	N/A	Nil	$110,000
Wesley R. Twiss	$65,000	N/A	$45,000	N/A	N/A	Nil	$110,000

Directors may elect to receive their Board Retainer in cash, Units or a combination thereof. For those directors who elect to receive all or a portion of their Board Retainer in Units, the Units are acquired on behalf of each such director on the open market pursuant to Keyera's Director Equity Participation Plan administered by Computershare. Each director is also reimbursed for all out-of-pocket expenses incurred in respect of attending any board or committee meeting.

Unit Ownership Guidelines for Independent Directors

In 2003, Unit ownership guidelines were adopted for the directors. In accordance with these guidelines, each director is expected to own a number of Units with a value equivalent to 2.5 times their Base Annual Retainer and is expected to reach this Unit ownership level within five years of becoming a board member or five years of the adoption of the policy, whichever is later. The following table sets out the unit ownership levels of each independent director.

Name	Number of Units Beneficially Owned or Controlled[1]	Total Value of Units[2]	Value of Units as a Multiple of Base Annual Retainer[3]
Robert B. Catell	18,928	$376,856	5.8 times
Michael B.C. Davies	15,240	$303,428	4.7 times
Nancy M. Laird	19,242	$383,108	5.9 times
Hon. E. Peter Lougheed	14,425	$287,202	4.4 times
H. Neil Nichols	19,558	$389,400	6.0 times
William R. Stedman	35,327	$703,361	10.8 times
Wesley R. Twiss	15,551	$309,620	4.8 times

Notes:

(1) Number of Units beneficially owned or controlled as of March 7, 2008.

(2) Value based on the weighted average trading price of Units on March 7, 2008 which was $19.91/Unit.
(3) The multiples are arrived at by dividing the value of Units by $65,000 which is the amount of the Base Annual Retainer for each director.

Notes:

(1) The total compensation amounts shown are based on the total of the following categories of compensation shown in this table: salary, bonus, other annual compensation, LTIP payouts, former plan payouts and all other compensation.
(2) Perquisites and other personal benefits paid to each of the Named Executive Officers in 2007, 2006 and 2005 did not exceed in any case $50,000 and 10% of the total salary and bonus paid to such Named Executive Officer.
(3) Amounts shown represent the number of Units awarded to each Named Executive Officer pursuant to unit awards made under the LTIP each year.
(4) Amounts shown represent the dollar value of unit awards made under the LTIP based on: (i) one Unit being issued under each unit award (see "Long Term Incentive Plan – Description of Unit Awards"); (ii) for awards made in 2007, the closing market price of Units on the TSX of $18.48 on July 6, 2007; (iii) for awards made in 2006, the closing market price of the Units on the TSX of $21.70 on June 30, 2006; and (iv) for awards made in 2005, the closing market price of the Units on the TSX of $16.34 on June 30, 2005; each of which was the date upon which the applicable grants were made. Each grant was made effective as of July 1 of the year in which it was made.
(5) The amounts shown for 2005 represent the value of 87,500 Units and 40,000 Units (plus accumulated distributions and interest thereon), which Units were purchased by Keyspan Energy Development Co. ("KEDCO") in 2003 on behalf of Messrs. Bertram and Smith, respectively, pursuant to a former long-term incentive plan, to be held by KEDCO on behalf of such Named Executive Officers until the earlier of May 30, 2005 and the termination of their employment. The Units (plus accumulated interest and distributions thereon) were delivered to Messrs. Bertram and Smith on May 30, 2005.
(6) Amounts shown include annual contributions made by Keyera on behalf of the Named Executive Officers under Keyera's pension plan and the value of life insurance premiums paid by Keyera on behalf of the Named Executive Officers.

Long Term Incentive Plan

Purposes of the Incentive Plan

The principal purposes of the LTIP are: (a) to retain and attract qualified officers, employees and consultants which the Administrator, the Fund and their affiliates require; (b) to promote a proprietary interest in the Fund by such officers, employees and consultants and to encourage such persons to remain in the employ or service of the Administrator, the Fund and their affiliates and put forth maximum efforts for the success of the business of the Partnership; and (c) to focus management of the Administrator, the Fund and their affiliates on operating and financial performance and total long-term Unitholder return. While directors are eligible to participate in the LTIP, Keyera has made it a practice over the course of the past three years not to grant Unit Awards (as defined below) to directors under the LTIP.

Eligibility and Award Determination

Under the LTIP, two types of Unit awards ("Unit Awards") may be granted – Restricted Awards and Performance Awards. Unit Awards may only be granted to directors, officers and key employees and consultants of the Administrator, the Fund and their affiliates (collectively, the "Service Providers"). In determining the Service Providers to whom Unit Awards may be granted and the number of Units to be covered by each Unit Award, the Compensation and Governance Committee takes into account the following factors: (i) compensation data for comparable benchmark positions among comparable companies or trusts with whom the Administrator or its affiliates competes for human resources and which operate in the Canadian oil and gas sector (the "Peer Group"); (ii) the duties and seniority of the Service Provider; (iii) certain performance measures of the Fund compared with similar performance measures of members of the Peer Group for the most recently completed fiscal year; (iv) the individual contributions and potential contributions of the Service Provider to the success of the Fund and/or the Partnership; (v) any cash bonus payments paid or to be paid to the Service Provider in respect of his or her individual contributions and potential contributions to the success of the Fund and/or the Partnership; and (vi) such other factors as the Compensation and Governance Committee deems relevant in connection with accomplishing the purposes of the LTIP.

In the event of a change of control, the delivery dates for the Units and/or cash required to satisfy the Unit Awards are accelerated to the date of the change of control, provided that the Service Provider continues to make his or her services as an employee or consultant available for a period of 60 days following the date of the change of control. In the event an employee is terminated without cause, the delivery dates for the Units and/or cash required to satisfy the Unit Awards are accelerated to the date of termination and, in the case of Performance Awards, the Units and/or cash to be delivered are subject to adjustment depending on the date of termination in relation to the date the Performance Awards were granted.

No one Service Provider may be granted any Unit Award which, together with all Unit Awards then held by such Service Provider, would entitle him or her to receive a number of Units which exceeds 5% of the outstanding Units (calculated on an undiluted basis).

Description of Unit Awards

Restricted Awards are Unit Awards under which the recipient of the award is entitled to receive Units in three equal instalments on each of the first, second and third anniversaries of the granting of the award. Performance Awards are Unit Awards under which the recipient of the award is entitled to receive Units on the third anniversary of the granting of the award. The number of Units deliverable to the Service Provider under Restricted Awards and Performance Awards increases to reflect actual cash distributions of the Fund during the time from the grant of the award to the delivery of the Units. In addition, the number of Units deliverable under Performance Awards varies according to a formula approved from time to time by the Board of Directors. The formula is based on the average of the actual cash distributions per Unit during the time from the effective date of the award to the delivery of Units, and is zero if the average of the actual cash distributions during this period does not reach a specified threshold. The Board of Directors has discretion to revise from time to time the formula used to determine the payout multiplier applicable to Performance Awards, provided the following conditions are met: (i) the minimum threshold amount of average cash distributions per Unit to be achieved before a Performance Award vests cannot be less than $1.09 which is the amount previously approved by Unitholders and the TSX; and (ii) in no event can any formula approved by the Board of Directors result in a revised payout multiplier which is greater than the multiplier that would have been applicable using the original multiplier approved by Unitholders and the TSX. See "Report on Executive Compensation – LTIP".

Settlement of Unit Awards

Under the terms of the LTIP, there are two options available for the settlement of Unit Awards: (i) settlement by delivery of Units to the recipient of the Unit Awards or (ii) settlement by payment of cash to the recipient of the Unit Awards. The manner of settlement of the Unit Awards is at the discretion of the Board of Directors. If the Unit Awards are settled, in whole or in part, by payment of cash, the recipient of the Unit Award will be paid an amount equal to the aggregate current market value of the Units that would otherwise have been delivered on the delivery date (based on the closing price of the Units on the TSX on the day immediately preceding such delivery date) in consideration of the recipient surrendering the right to receive Units under the Unit Award. In accordance with the amendments to the LTIP implemented in November 2006, the Fund does not have the ability to issue Units from treasury to settle Unit Awards and therefore, if the Units Awards are settled by delivery of Units, those Units must be acquired in the open market for delivery to the recipient of the Unit Awards.

Administration of the Incentive Plan

Under the terms of the LTIP, the Compensation and Governance Committee has the authority to administer the LTIP and to exercise the power and authority granted to it or necessary or advisable in the administration of the LTIP, including, without limitation, the authority to make Unit Awards, to determine to whom and the times at which Unit Awards will be granted, to determine the number of Units to be covered by each Unit Award, to prescribe, amend and rescind rules relating to the LTIP and to make all other determinations necessary or advisable for the administration of the LTIP. The determinations of the Compensation and Governance Committee are subject to review and approval by the Board of Directors. The Administrator retains the right to amend from time to time or to terminate the terms and conditions of the LTIP by resolution of the Board of Directors, subject to applicable laws and any terms and conditions imposed by regulatory authorities, including the TSX. As the Units are not issued from treasury, the LTIP is not considered to be a "securities based compensation arrangement" under the rules of the TSX and therefore at present, Unitholder approval for amendments to the LTIP is not required.

Named Executive Officer	Effective date of Award	Restricted Awards[1]	Performance Awards[1]	Payout Date[2]
James V. Bertram	July 1, 2007	0	23,000	July 1, 2010
David G. Smith	July 1, 2007	0	19,000	July 1, 2010
Marzio Isotti	July 1, 2007	0	10,500	July 1, 2010
Bradley W. Lock	July 1, 2007	0	10,500	July 1, 2010
David A. Sentes	July 1, 2007	0	10,000	July 1, 2010

Notes:

(1) See "Long Term Incentive Plan - Description of the Unit Awards" for a description of the adjustments to the number of Units subject to Restricted Awards and Performance Awards.

(2) For Performance Awards, the Units are deliverable on the third anniversary of the effective date of the award.

As of December 31, 2007, there were a total of 485,105 Performance Awards and 92,275 Restricted Awards outstanding under the LTIP.

Employment Contracts

The Administrator has entered into employment agreements with each of James Bertram, David Smith, Marzio Isotti, Bradley Lock and David Sentes, as well as certain other senior officers. These agreements provide for the base salary, benefits, and participation in incentive compensation programs relating to each officer's employment with the Administrator. Each agreement also provides for severance payments if the officer is terminated without cause. For each of Messrs. Smith, Isotti, Lock and Sentes, the severance payment would be between 24 to 30 months' base salary and benefits (depending on length of service), plus an amount equal to two times the greater of the officer's target bonus under the STIP or his most recent annual bonus under the STIP. In the case of Mr. Bertram, the severance payment would be equal to 36 months' base salary and benefits, plus an amount equal to three times the greater of his target bonus under the STIP or his most recent annual bonus under the STIP. In addition, Mr. Bertram's agreement provides that he would be entitled to the same severance payment in the event of a change of control of the Administrator. In all cases, Unit Awards granted pursuant to the LTIP vest and are payable in accordance with the terms of the LTIP.

These agreements also provide that, in the event of termination for any reason, the officer will observe certain non-solicitation and non-disclosure obligations and will refrain from influencing or attempting to influence the management, Board of Directors or policies of the Administrator for a period of 18 months following the date of termination.

Unit Ownership Guidelines for Officers

To reinforce the alignment of the interests of the senior officers of the Administrator with Unitholders, the Administrator instituted unit ownership guidelines in 2003. Officers are given five years from the date of their appointment as officers in which to comply with the unit ownership guidelines.

The following table sets forth the Unit ownership guidelines and Unit holdings of the Named Executive Officers.

Named Executive Officer[1]	Minimum Unit Ownership Requirement	Number of Units Beneficially Owned or Controlled[2]	Total Value of Units[3]	Value of Units as a Multiple of Annual Base Salary[4]
James V. Bertram	3 x base salary	214,094	$4,262,612	11.8 times
David G. Smith	2 x base salary	108,994	$2,170,071	7.7 times
Marzio Isotti	1 x base salary	22,907	$456,078	2.3 times
Bradley W. Lock	1 x base salary	13,205	$262,912	1.3 times
David A. Sentes	1 x base salary	10,568	$210,409	1.2 times

Notes:

(1) Messrs. Bertram, Smith and Sentes have been officers of the Administrator since March 28, 2003 and Messrs. Isotti and Lock have been officers of the Administrator since July 2, 2004.

(2) Number of Units beneficially owned or controlled as of March 7, 2008.

(3) Value based on the weighted average trading price of Units on March 7, 2008 which was $19.91/Unit.

(4) Multiple calculated by dividing the total value of Units as of March 7, 2008 by the base salary for each Named Executive Officer as identified in the compensation table under the heading "Compensation of the Executive Officers of the Administrator - Executive Compensation".

Insurance and Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The directors and officers of the Administrator and its affiliates are covered under a directors' and officers' insurance policy. In addition, each director and officer of the Administrator and its affiliates is indemnified by the Fund, the Partnership and the Administrator pursuant to the Declaration of Trust, the partnership agreement of the Partnership and the bylaws of the Administrator. There are also formal indemnification agreements in place among the Fund, the Partnership and each director and officer of the Administrator and its affiliates. Pursuant to these indemnification agreements, each director and officer is indemnified against liability and costs in respect of any action or suit against him or her in connection with the execution of his or her duties of office, subject to certain usual limitations.

REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Program

The objectives of the compensation program for the executive officers are (i) to retain and attract qualified leaders and managers, (ii) to compensate them at a level that is competitive with similar positions among the Fund's peer group, and (iii) to appropriately recognize and reward their performance in achieving short-term and long-term objectives that are consistent with the objectives of the Unitholders. The compensation program is designed to create a performance-based culture by emphasizing compensation that is related to individual, business unit and organization-wide performance. The Compensation and Governance Committee reviews the executive compensation program on an annual basis, and recommends changes as appropriate so that the program can continue to meet these objectives.

The Compensation and Governance Committee has engaged an independent professional compensation advisor, Mercer Human Resource Consulting ("Mercer"), to provide advice on the design of the compensation package for the executive officers and to compare Keyera's program with its competitors' programs. Mercer has also been retained to provide research, advice and recommendations with respect to compensation of the directors and employees of the Administrator. Total compensation paid to Mercer in 2007 (including G.S.T.) was $25,972, of which $10,428 was for work initiated by the Compensation and Governance Committee, $8,660 was for work initiated by management, and $6,884 was related to Keyera's participation in two annual market surveys carried out by Mercer.

Total compensation and each component of the compensation package for each executive position are reviewed regularly and compared to compensation packages for similar positions within a peer group from an independent survey of energy industry compensation. The primary peer group used for comparative purposes includes 30 entities in the petroleum industry that range between approximately 15% and 200% of the Fund's market capitalization. Mercer provides assistance to the Compensation and Governance Committee by helping to identify the comparative peer groups and benchmark market data, as well as providing general observations with respect to market trends and issues. The Compensation and Governance Committee takes the analysis provided by Mercer into account in its review of compensation packages. Ultimately, however, the decisions of the Compensation and Governance Committee remain the responsibility of the Committee and may reflect factors and considerations other than the information and recommendations provided by Mercer.

The compensation program consists of four primary components: base salaries, the STIP, the LTIP and pensions and benefits. The following table briefly outlines each of these components.

Component	Eligibility	Performance Period	Determination
Base Salary	All employees	1 year	Salary ranges are based on market competitiveness and are annually reviewed and benchmarked against energy industry peer groups. Individual salaries are based on individual and corporate performance.

Component	Eligibility	Performance Period	Determination
STIP	All employees	1 year	The STIP design is based on market competitiveness and business objectives. Actual awards are based on organizational performance and individual performance.
LTIP	Directors, Officers, and certain key employees and consultants	1 year 3 years	The LTIP design is based on market competitiveness and organizational performance. Restricted Awards may be awarded annually based on individual and organizational performance. The actual payouts reflect the value of the Fund's Units and the reinvestment of notional distributions over the performance period. Performance Awards may be awarded annually based on individual and organizational performance. Actual payout reflects the value of the Fund's Units, the achievement of performance factors and the reinvestment of notional distributions over the performance period.
Pensions and Benefits	All employees	Continue through employment. Pensions continue post-retirement.	Pension and benefits plans are based on market competitiveness and are reviewed across the organization and compared with results received from an independent survey of energy industry benefits. Executive officers are eligible to receive benefits available to all employees and certain additional perquisites.

Base Salary

Base salaries for all employees are reviewed annually and adjusted, as appropriate, based on individual performance, competencies, responsibilities and competitive market data. The Compensation and Governance Committee reviews the salary ranges for all officers based on external salary surveys. The Committee determines and recommends for approval by the Board of Directors the actual base salary for the Chief Executive Officer. The Committee also reviews the compensation recommendations made by the Chief Executive Officer with respect to the other officers and makes recommendations for approval by the Board of Directors thereon.

STIP

The STIP is an annual cash bonus program. The amount of the bonus is based primarily on Keyera's annual financial performance, adjusted for achievements that are measured against specific business unit and individual objectives related to financial and operating measures, including safety. The annual performance targets are based on two components, individual and organizational performance, with organizational performance increasing in importance in more senior positions. Overall organizational performance is measured primarily on the basis of distributable cash flow per unit and individual performance is evaluated through Keyera's performance management system. For the Chief Executive Officer, organizational performance is weighted at 90 percent with the balance of 10 percent connected to individual performance. For the Executive Vice President, individual performance has a 20 percent weighting with organizational performance at 80 percent. For vice presidents, individual performance has a 30 percent weighting with organizational performance at 70 percent.

The STIP bonus is paid from a pool of funds generated from annual distributable cash flow (the size of the bonus pool is related to the level of distributable cash flow per unit). In 2007, the bonus range established for the executive group (other than the Chief Executive Officer) was 16 to 80 percent of base salary and the bonus range established for the Chief Executive Officer was 20 to 100 percent of base salary.

LTIP

The LTIP awards are granted on an annual basis and are designed to reward performance that is consistent with the objectives of Unitholders. Awards are determined as part of an overall total compensation package. At the executive level, all of the LTIP awards for 2007 were Performance Awards that vest at the end of three years. The adjustment ratio for Performance Awards increases the number of Units to be delivered to reflect the per unit cash distributions paid by the Fund to its Unitholders during the term that the Performance Award is outstanding. The number of Units that are issued pursuant to the Performance Awards depends upon the three-year average annual cash distributions per Unit for the three years following the effective date of the award. The table below describes the relationship between the three-year average annual cash distribution per Unit and the payout multiplier:

	Three-Year Average Annual Cash Distributions Per Unit
	July 1, 2005 Grant	July 1, 2006 Grant	July 1, 2007 Grant	Payout Multiplier
	Less than $1.32	Less than $1.42	Less than $1.44	Nil
First Range	$1.32 – $1.39	$1.42 – $1.51	$1.44 - $1.51	50% - 99%
Second Range	$1.40 - $1.55	$1.52 - $1.71	$1.52 - $1.67	100% - 199%
Third Range	$1.56 and greater	$1.72 and greater	$1.68 and greater	200%

The performance standards and thresholds for the Performance Awards are reviewed and determined on an annual basis. The performance standards and thresholds are adjusted by the Board of Directors each year to reflect the level of cash distributions per Unit achieved in the preceding year as well as anticipated performance.

Pension and Benefits

Keyera has a defined contribution pension plan which has the same provisions for all eligible employees, including the Named Executive Officers. Keyera makes pension contributions on behalf of all employees, based on a combination of an employee's age plus years of credited service. The contributions made on an employee's behalf into his or her choice of investment option are accumulated with investment earnings to provide a fund to be used at retirement to secure a monthly pension for the employee. The contribution rates are as follows: age plus years of credited service of less than 45 - 6% of base earnings, 45 or more but less than 55 - 8% of base earnings and 55 or more - 10% of base earnings. Keyera does not offer a defined benefit pension plan to any of its employees, including the Named Executive Officers.

In addition to participating in benefits programs that are available to all other employees, the Named Executive Officers are eligible for certain other benefits including additional life insurance, perquisite allowances and an executive medical program. The total value of these additional benefits is less than $50,000 and 10% of their respective annual salary and bonus.

Composition of the Compensation and Governance Committee

The Compensation and Governance Committee is comprised of four directors: Nancy M. Laird (Chair), E. Peter Lougheed, P.C., C.C., Q.C., H. Neil Nichols and William R. Stedman. No member of the Committee is an officer or employee of Keyera and each member satisfies the applicable independence and experience requirements of the laws governing Keyera, the stock exchanges on which the Fund's securities are listed and securities regulatory authorities having jurisdiction over Keyera.

The Compensation and Governance Committee is responsible for, among other things, reviewing and making recommendations in respect of executive compensation matters. The Compensation and Governance Committee confirms that it understands the executive employment and compensation arrangements, including the long-term implications thereof. The Committee is satisfied that these arrangements are aligned with Keyera's performance and reflect competitive market practices. The Chair of the Compensation and Governance Committee will be available to answer questions relating to Keyera's executive compensation policies and programs at the Meeting.

This report on executive compensation is respectfully submitted to the Unitholders by the Compensation and Governance Committee.

Nancy M. Laird (Chair)

SCHEDULE "A" BOARD MANDATE

Introduction

Keyera Energy Management Ltd. (the "Corporation") is the administrator of Keyera Facilities Income Fund (the "Fund") and is the Administrator of Keyera Energy Limited Partnership (the "Partnership"). In this Mandate, the Corporation, the Fund and the Partnership are collectively referred to as "Keyera".

Primary Responsibility and Authority

The Board of Directors (the "Board") of Keyera is responsible for the stewardship of Keyera by providing effective, independent supervision of the management of Keyera's business and affairs. The Board's responsibility is to foster the long-term success of Keyera by supervising the management of Keyera's business and affairs in a manner that:

a. is intended to advance the collective interests of the owners of Keyera while recognizing that, in order for the enterprise to continue to be able to serve its owners' interests, the collective interests of employees, customers, suppliers, the communities in which Keyera operates and the general public must also be taken into account; and

b. promotes the achievement of Keyera's long-term goals to grow value responsibly in a sustainable manner.

These responsibilities are primarily discharged through Board oversight of Keyera's officers and management who are responsible for the day-to-day conduct of the business. The Board delegates certain of its authority to management, while reserving certain powers to itself, and oversees management's actions and their utilization of the powers delegated to them. The Board fulfils some of its responsibilities by delegation to Board Committees. Each Committee's terms of reference contain the responsibilities that are permanently delegated to that Committee. Any responsibilities that are not specifically delegated to the Chief Executive Officer or a Board committee remain Board responsibilities.

Operations of the Board

The Board is responsible for managing its affairs, including:

a. planning its composition and size;

b. selecting its Chair;

c. seeing that an effective Board is maintained by nominating candidates for election to the Board;

d. establishing Board committees (including committees required by applicable securities requirements and policies), appointing directors to those committees, and establishing their terms of reference and position descriptions for the Committee Chairs;

e. establishing and modifying as necessary the Board's mandate and the position description for the Board Chair;

f. determining director compensation; and

g. assessing the effectiveness of the Board and its committees in fulfilling their responsibilities.

Management and Human Resources

The Board's management and human resources responsibilities are set out below.

1. Appoint the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and provide advice and counsel to the CEO in the execution of his or her duties.

2. Approve terms of reference for the CEO and delegate powers to the CEO in order to permit the effective management of Keyera's business.

3. Evaluate the CEO's performance regularly against agreed written objectives and, with only independent members of the Board present, determine and approve the CEO's compensation level based on this evaluation.

4. Approve certain decisions relating to senior management, including:

    a. the appointment and replacement of senior officers;

    b. senior officers' compensation and benefits; and

    c. employment, consulting, retirement and severance agreements for senior officers and other special arrangements for senior officers.

5. Oversee the establishment and maintenance of succession planning and management development programs for the CEO and the other senior officer positions.

6. Approve certain matters relating to all employees, including:

    a. the annual salary and incentive programs/policies;

    b. new pension and benefit programs or material changes to existing programs;

    c. material changes to retirement plans; and

    d. material benefits granted to retiring employees outside of benefits received under approved retirement and other benefit programs.

Strategy, Planning and Budgeting

The Board's strategic, planning and budgeting responsibilities are set out below.

1. Participate with management in the development of Keyera's strategic plan.

2. Approve annual capital and operating budgets and the business plans within the context of the strategic plan.

3. Approve expenditures, acquisitions and divestitures that are not within the authority delegated to the CEO.

4. Approve the entry into or withdrawal from lines of business that are (or are likely to be) material to Keyera.

5. Approve financial and operating objectives used in determining compensation.

6. Approve mergers and similar arrangements involving unaffiliated parties.

7. Participate with management in monitoring Keyera's progress toward its strategic objectives.

Financial and Corporate Issues

The Board's financial and corporate responsibilities are set out below.

1. Oversee the assessment by management of the integrity and effectiveness of Keyera's internal control and management information systems, including the evaluation and assessment of information provided by management and others (such as internal audit resources and external auditors) about the integrity and effectiveness of Keyera's internal control and management information.

2. Review operating and financial performance relative to budgets and objectives.

3. Approve annual financial statements and quarterly financial results and approve their release.

4. Declare distributions.

5. To the extent not delegated to the CEO, approve financings, changes in authorized capital, issuance and repurchase of units, issuance of debt securities, listing of shares and other securities, and related prospectuses and trust indentures.

6. Recommend appointment of external auditors and approve auditors' fees.

7. Approve banking resolutions and significant changes in banking relationships.

8. Approve appointments of or material changes in relationships with transfer agents and corporate trustees.

9. Approve significant contracts, transactions, and other arrangements or commitments that are not within the authority delegated to the CEO.

10. Approve the commencement or settlement of litigation that may be expected to have a material impact on Keyera.

11. Oversee the development by management of corporate financial strategy, including:

    a. capital structure management - the maintenance of reasonable financial flexibility and prudence while achieving an appropriate cost of capital; and

    b. distribution policy.

Risk Management

The Board's risk management responsibilities are set out below.

1. Understand the material risks associated with Keyera's business and review the balance between risk and return.

2. Review management's processes to identify the risks associated with Keyera's business and review management's implementation of appropriate systems to manage and mitigate those risks.

3. Review coverage, deductibles and key issues regarding corporate insurance policies.

4. Receive, at least annually, reports from management on matters relating to, among others, ethical conduct, environmental management, and employee health and safety.

Policies and Procedures

The Board's policy and procedures responsibilities are set out below.

1. Oversee the establishment and maintenance by management of a high standard of corporate governance and legal and ethical conduct for Keyera, by:

    a. establishing appropriate policies relating to corporate governance and legal and ethical conduct;

    b. taking reasonable steps to monitor compliance with applicable laws and regulations and Keyera's constitutional documents and policies and procedures;

    c. establishing systems for monitoring legal and ethical performance; and

    d. complying with legal, regulatory and stock exchange requirements.

2. Oversee the establishment and maintenance by management of appropriate environmental, health and safety policies.

3. Review compliance with key policies and procedures.

Compliance Reporting and Corporate Communications

The Board's compliance reporting and corporate communications responsibilities are set out below.

1. Oversee the establishment and maintenance of effective communication processes with unitholders, the investing public, other stakeholders and financial, regulatory and other institutions and agencies.

2. Approve formal interaction with unitholders on all items requiring unitholder approval.

3. Approve the content of Keyera's major communications to unitholders and the investing public, including information circulars, annual information forms, prospectuses, and significant information contained in documents incorporated by reference in prospectuses.

4. Take reasonable steps to oversee the accurate and fair reporting of the financial performance to unitholders, the investing public, other security holders and regulators on a timely and regular basis.

5. Oversee the establishment and maintenance of effective processes for timely reporting of other material developments or changes.

Independent Advisors

The Board and its committees have the right at any time to retain independent legal, financial or other advisors to advise the board independently on any matter. The Board shall have the sole authority (subject to its power to specifically delegate this power to a Committee or others as the Board considers reasonable) to retain and terminate such consultants or advisors, including sole authority to approve an advisor's fees and other retention terms.

Keyera Facilities Income Fund Announces March 2008 Distribution

CALGARY, March 18 /CNW/ - Keyera Facilities Income Fund (TSX:KEY.UN; KEY.DB) announced today a cash distribution for March 2008 of 13.5 cents per unit. The distribution will be payable on April 15, 2008 to unitholders of record on March 31, 2008. The ex-distribution date is March 27, 2008.

For tax purposes, Keyera currently expects that its 2008 distributions will be taxable for Canadian non-exempt unitholders. This outlook is subject to change. For non-resident unitholders, Keyera's distributions are subject to Canadian withholding tax.

This document contains forward-looking statements that involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond Keyera's control. The forward-looking statements are based on management's current expectations and assumptions relating to Keyera's business and the environment in which it operates. As the results or events predicted or implied in these forward-looking statements depend upon future events, actual results or events may differ materially from those predicted. Some of the factors which could cause actual results or events to differ materially include the ability of Keyera to successfully implement strategic initiatives, whether such initiatives yield the expected benefits, operating and other costs, future operating results and the components of those results, fluctuations in the demand for natural gas, NGLs and crude oil, changes in commodity prices, the activities of producers, competitors and others, the weather, overall economic conditions, proposed or actual legislative changes, including any further announcements by the federal government with respect to the tax treatment of income trusts and other known or unknown factors. There can be no assurance that the results or developments anticipated by Keyera will be realized or that they will have the expected consequences for or effects on Keyera.

For additional information on these and other factors, see Keyera's public filings on www.sedar.com. Unless otherwise required by applicable laws, Keyera does not intend to publicly update or revise forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Keyera Receives Approval to Extract Ethane at Rimbey Gas Plant

RECEIVED
OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL
CORPORATE FINANCE

CALGARY, March 26 /CNW/ - Keyera Facilities Income Fund (TSX:KEY.UN; KEY.DB) ("Keyera") announced today that it has received approval from the Alberta Energy Resources Conservation Board to construct facilities to extract ethane from the natural gas processed at its Rimbey gas plant in west central Alberta. This is the final approval necessary for the project and work is expected to begin in the second quarter of this year.

The project involves the modification of the existing natural gas liquids extraction process at the Rimbey gas plant and the installation of new compression equipment. In addition, a 32-kilometre pipeline to deliver the product to existing ethane gathering infrastructure in Alberta will be constructed. Assuming delivery of long-lead items has not changed significantly, the project is expected to be completed in mid 2009. When operational, Keyera will extract about 5,000 barrels per day of ethane, the majority of which will be incremental to existing supply in the province of Alberta.

About Keyera Facilities Income Fund

Keyera Facilities Income Fund (TSX:KEY.UN; KEY.DB) operates one of the largest natural gas midstream businesses in Canada. Its business consists of natural gas gathering and processing as well as the processing, transportation, storage and marketing of natural gas liquids (NGLs) and crude oil midstream activities.

Keyera's gas processing plants and associated facilities are strategically located in the west central and foothills natural gas production areas of the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin. Its NGL and crude oil infrastructure includes pipelines, terminals and processing and storage facilities in Edmonton and Fort Saskatchewan, Alberta, a major North American NGL hub. Keyera markets propane, butane and condensate to customers in Canada and the United States.

Keyera Increases Sour Gas Capacity with West Pembina Gas Plant Purchase

CORPORATE FINANCE

CALGARY, April 1 /CNW/ - Keyera Facilities Income Fund (TSX:KEY.UN; KEY.DB) ("Keyera") announced today that it has agreed to acquire a 35.6% ownership interest in the ATCO West Pembina gas plant from three plant owners for a purchase price of approximately $26 million. The plant has 145 million cubic feet per day of sour gas processing capacity, natural gas liquids extraction capability and significant sulphur handling capacity. The acquisition is subject to typical closing conditions and to waiver of rights of first refusal held by two third parties. The transaction is expected to close on May 1, 2008 and has an effective date of January 1, 2008.

The West Pembina gas plant is located approximately 12 kilometres north of Keyera's Brazeau River gas plant in the Pembina region of Alberta. The plant currently has unutilized sweet and sour processing capacity and "deep cut" natural gas liquids extraction capabilities. With 520 tonnes per day of licensed sulphur handling capacity, it is able to handle the highly sour raw gas streams in the area. The plant has approximately 70 kilometres of gathering pipelines, which provide an extensive reach into the gas producing areas of the Pembina region.

As part of the transaction, the plant's operations, maintenance and administrative staff will be joining Keyera. As the largest owner in the facility, Keyera will be submitting a proposal to the plant's operating committee to become operator of the plant.

"I am very pleased to be able to acquire a significant ownership interest in another sour gas processing facility in this important gas producing region" said Jim Bertram, President and CEO of Keyera. "This acquisition fits our strategy of expanding our gathering and processing presence in the foothills area of Alberta, where the geology is very prospective. As Producers continue to develop sweet and sour gas plays, including the Nisku formation, sour gas processing capacity is becoming more valuable. This facility will complement our existing five gas processing plants and extensive gathering systems in this region and allow us to expand the services we offer to gas producers in the area."

"In addition, we are delighted to have such a strong group of employees join the Keyera team" Bertram noted.

Keyera Completes $58 million of Facility Acquisitions

1998 JUL 31 P 1:25
CORPORATE FINANCE

CALGARY, May 1 /CNW/ - Keyera Facilities Income Fund (TSX:KEY.UN; KEY.DB) ("Keyera") announced today that it has closed two acquisitions announced earlier this year.

On May 1, Keyera closed the acquisition of a 35.6% ownership interest in the ATCO West Pembina gas plant from three plant owners for a purchase price of approximately $26 million. Keyera is now the operator of the plant. The West Pembina gas plant has 145 million cubic feet per day of sour gas processing capacity, "deep cut" natural gas liquids extraction capabilities and significant sulphur handling capacity. The plant currently has unutilized sweet and sour processing capacity and has approximately 70 kilometres of gathering pipelines, which provide an extensive reach into the gas producing areas of the Pembina region.

In late March, Keyera closed the acquisition of a distribution terminal in the Edmonton/Fort Saskatchewan energy hub for $32 million as part of a $50 million growth initiative. The facility, to be known as the Alberta Diluent Terminal ("ADT"), will be used primarily to handle condensate, for use as diluent in the oil sands sector. Keyera subsequently agreed to acquire an adjacent 8-acre parcel for an additional $3.3 million. The ADT will significantly increase Keyera's condensate import capacity in the Edmonton/Fort Saskatchewan hub and will enable Keyera to continue as a key diluent supplier in Alberta as bitumen production grows. Keyera intends to connect its Edmonton terminal and its Fort Saskatchewan fractionation and storage facility to enable product to be delivered to market on a number of pipelines, or to Keyera's storage facility in Fort Saskatchewan. The ADT will also significantly enhance the operational flexibility of Keyera's existing logistics and storage businesses in the area.

Keyera Facilities Income Fund - 2008 First Quarter Report

RECEIVED

Three months ended March 31, 2008

TSX:KEY.UN; KEY.DB

CALGARY, May 13 /CNW/ -

2008 FIRST QUARTER HIGHLIGHTS

- Keyera delivered strong first quarter financial results. Net earnings were $55.5 million and included a non-cash future tax recovery of $13.1 million and an unrealized gain of $12.8 million related to financial contracts. Excluding the effect of these non-cash items, net earnings were $3.9 million higher than the same period last year.

- First quarter cash flow from operating activities was $58.4 million, up slightly from the first quarter of 2007. Distributable cash flow(1) was $40.5 million ($0.66 per unit), 10% higher on a per unit basis than the same period last year. Distributions to unitholders totaled $25.7 million in the first quarter, or $0.42 per unit, including the special distribution of $0.02 paid on January 2, 2008. Excluding the special distribution, the payout ratio in the first quarter was 60%.

- Keyera announced an 8% distribution increase on February 12, its sixth distribution increase since inception. Beginning with the February distribution, payable on March 17, Keyera's cash distribution increased to 13.5 cents per unit per month, or $1.62 per unit annually.

- All business segments delivered strong first quarter results, driven by customer activity and growth capital projects completed in previous years. Contribution from Gathering and Processing of $29.0 million was particularly strong, up 35% from the first quarter of 2007. Contribution from NGL Infrastructure was $12.8 million, 4% higher than the same period last year. The Marketing business also had a strong quarter, delivering contribution of $27.1 million, including an unrealized gain from the change in fair value of financial contracts of $12.3 million.

- Keyera invested $49.8 million on growth capital projects and acquisitions in the first quarter and anticipates its 2008 capital expenditures will be between $150 and $200 million. This assumes that key projects proceed as planned and there is no material change in the economic or fiscal environment.

- In the first quarter, Keyera completed the construction of a 24 kilometre extension of the Caribou North gathering system, a truck terminal expansion at the Fort Saskatchewan facility and various smaller projects around its facilities. Keyera also acquired a diluent distribution terminal in the Edmonton/Fort Saskatchewan area and, in May, acquired a 35.6% ownership interest in the West Pembina gas plant.

Message to Unitholders

I am very pleased to announce another quarter of very strong financial and operating results. These results come from a combination of the execution of our business strategy, customer activity around our facilities and the investment we have made in strategic infrastructure over the past several years. I am proud to say that we continue to pursue our growth strategy by targeting internal growth projects and strategic acquisitions, and we completed a number of such projects in the first quarter.

Enhanced by the inclusion of $25.9 million of non-cash items related to future income tax and financial contracts, net earnings of $55.5 million were significantly higher than in first quarter of last year. First quarter cash flow from operating activities was $58.4 million and distributable cash flow was $40.5 million, or $0.66 per unit. This was 10% higher than the $0.60 per unit posted in the same period last year. Distributions to unitholders were $25.7 million in the first quarter, or $0.42 per unit, including the special distribution of $0.02 paid on January 2, 2008. This allowed us to utilize the remaining $14.8 million of cash to fund growth capital initiatives. Excluding the special distribution, the payout ratio for the quarter was 60%.

In February we announced an 8% increase in our distributions to 13.5 cents per unit per month, or $1.62 per unit annually, effective with the February distribution, payable to unitholders on March 17. This marks our second increase in the last ten months and our sixth distribution increase since inception. Since inception our unitholders have received an 8% compound annual growth rate in distributions per unit.

All three of our business lines contributed to these strong results. Significant producer activity around our gas plants resulted in contribution increasing again this quarter in the Gathering and Processing segment. First quarter contribution of $29.0 million was up 35% from the same period last year and another 4% higher than the fourth quarter of 2007. Our NGL Infrastructure also had a strong quarter, posting contribution of $12.8 million, a 4% increase from the same period last year. Marketing contribution of $27.1 million was significantly higher than the first quarter of 2007 due to very strong operational results and the recording of a $12.3 million non-cash unrealized gain for the quarter.

Keyera initiated and completed a number of internal projects and acquisitions in the first quarter. In the first quarter, we acquired a diluent distribution terminal in the Fort Saskatchewan/Edmonton area for $32 million, which will be used primarily to deliver condensate into Alberta for use as diluent in the oil sands sector. Known as the Alberta Diluent Terminal, the facility will significantly enhance the capability and flexibility of Keyera's existing logistics and storage businesses and will establish Keyera as a key supplier of diluent in the province. Subsequent to the ADT acquisition, we acquired an adjacent eight acre parcel of land for an additional $3.3 million. Over the next year, we anticipate spending an additional $18 million to integrate the facility with Keyera's NGL Infrastructure in the area.

On May 1, we closed the acquisition of a 35.6% ownership interest in the ATCO West Pembina gas plant for $26 million and became plant operator. The plant is located in an area of west central Alberta where the demand for sour gas processing is increasing. Its 145 million cubic feet per day of sour gas processing capacity, "deep cut" liquids extraction capability and 70 kilometres of gathering pipelines will allow us to provide a wide range of services to customers. This acquisition further solidifies our position as the leader in sour gas processing in Alberta.

At Fort Saskatchewan, we completed an expansion of our truck terminal and continued work on our storage expansion project. The first cavern well bore is expected to be drilled in the second quarter. In the North Central Region, we received regulatory approval from the Energy Resources Conservation Board to begin construction of the ethane extraction project at the Rimbey gas plant. We have commenced work on this project and expect it to be completed in mid 2009. In northeastern British Columbia, we completed construction of the Caribou North gas gathering system extension during the first quarter. This 24 kilometre pipeline project was completed on budget and on time and opens up access to approximately 500 square kilometres of geologically prospective lands north of the Caribou gas plant in the Trutch and Bougie areas. In conjunction with this pipeline extension, we have initiated a detailed engineering study to expand the Caribou gas plant capacity by about 60%, or 40 million cubic feet per day.

With the level of activity underway, Keyera now expects its 2008 growth capital spending to be between $150 million and $200 million, assuming key projects proceed as planned and there is no material change in the economic or fiscal environment.

On behalf of the Fund's directors and management team, I thank you for your continued support and look forward to continued success in 2008.

Jim V. Bertram

Contribution From Operating Segments

Keyera operates one of the largest natural gas midstream businesses in Canada with three major operating segments: Gathering and Processing, NGL Infrastructure and Marketing. The Gathering and Processing segment includes natural gas gathering systems and processing plants strategically located in the natural gas production areas on the western side of the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin. The NGL Infrastructure segment includes NGL and crude oil pipelines, terminals, processing and storage facilities in Edmonton and Fort Saskatchewan, Alberta, one of North America's major NGL hubs. The Marketing segment includes activities such as the marketing of propane, butane and condensate to customers in Canada and the United States, and crude oil midstream activities.

Keyera's Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure segments provide a large portion of the total contribution. Keyera benefits from the geographical diversity of its natural gas processing plants, NGL infrastructure facilities and associated assets. The revenues generated from these facilities are fee-for-service based, with minimal direct exposure to commodity prices. The remainder of Keyera's contribution is derived from its Marketing segment. Because of Keyera's integrated approach to its business, its infrastructure provides a significant competitive advantage in NGL marketing. Keyera also benefits from diversified sources of NGL supply and a diversified customer base across North America.

The following table shows the contribution from each of Keyera's operating segments and includes inter-segment transactions that are eliminated in the Fund's consolidated financial statements. Because contribution is not a standard measure under Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), it may not be comparable to similar measures reported by other entities. Contribution does not include the elimination of inter-segment transactions as required by GAAP and refers to operating revenues less operating expenses. Management believes contribution provides an accurate portrayal of operating profitability by segment. Keyera's Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure segments charge Keyera's Marketing segment for the use of facilities at market rates. Those charges are reflected in contribution, but are eliminated in GAAP segment measures. The most comparable GAAP measures are reported in note 17, Segmented Information, which is found in the financial statements.

Notes:

(1) Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure contribution includes revenues for processing, transportation and storage services provided to Keyera's Marketing business.

(2) The Marketing contribution is net of expenses for processing, transportation and storage services provided by Keyera's facilities and general and administrative costs directly attributable to the Marketing segment.

(3) Other expenses include corporate general and administrative, interest, depreciation and amortization, accretion and impairment expense. Corporate general and administrative costs exclude the direct Marketing general and administrative costs.

(4) Revenue and operating expenses before inter-segment eliminations as shown above are both non-GAAP measures and do not consider the elimination of inter-segment sales and expenses. Inter-segment transactions are eliminated upon consolidation of Keyera's financial results to arrive at external revenue and external operating expenses, both GAAP measures, as reported in note 17, Segmented Information.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

The following management's discussion and analysis ("MD&A") was prepared as of May 13, 2008 and is a review of the results of operations and the liquidity and capital resources of Keyera Facilities Income Fund (the "Fund") and its subsidiaries (collectively "Keyera"). It should be read in conjunction with the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements of the Fund for the quarter ended March 31, 2008 and the notes thereto as well as the consolidated financial statements of the Fund for the year ended December 31, 2007 and the related management's discussion and analysis. Additional information related to the Fund, including the Fund's Annual Information Form, is filed on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

This discussion and analysis refers to certain financial measures that are not determined in accordance with Canadian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("GAAP"). Measures such as operating margin (operating revenues minus operating expenses), distributable cash flow (cash flow from operating activities adjusted for changes in non-cash working capital, maintenance capital expenditures and the distributable cash flow attributable to any non-controlling interest) and EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) are not standard measures under GAAP and therefore may not be comparable to similar measures reported by other entities. Management believes that these supplemental measures facilitate the understanding of the Fund's results of operations, leverage, liquidity and financial position. Operating margin is used to assess the performance of specific segments before general and administrative expenses and other non-operating expenses. Distributable cash flow is used to assess the level of cash flow generated from ongoing operations and to evaluate the adequacy of internally generated cash flow to fund distributions. EBITDA is commonly used by management, investors and creditors in the calculation of ratios for assessing leverage and financial performance. Investors are cautioned, however, that these measures should not be construed as an alternative to net earnings determined in accordance with GAAP as an indication of the Fund's performance.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements contained in this MD&A and accompanying documents contain forward-looking statements. These statements relate to future events or the Fund's future performance. Such statements are predictions only and actual events or results may differ materially. The use of words such as "anticipate", "continue", "estimate", "expect", "may", "will", "project", "should", "plan", "intend", "believe", and similar expressions, including the negatives thereof, is intended to identify forward looking statements. All statements other than statements of historical fact contained in this document are forward looking statements, including, without limitation, statements regarding: the future financial position of Keyera; business strategy and plans of management; anticipated growth and proposed activities; budgets, including future capital, operating or other expenditures and projected costs; estimated utilization rates; objectives of or involving Keyera; impact of commodity prices; treatment of Keyera under governmental regulatory regimes; the existence, operation and strategy of the risk management program, including the approximate and maximum amount of forward sales and hedging to be employed; and expectations regarding Keyera's ability to raise capital and to add to its assets through acquisitions or internal growth opportunities.

The forward looking statements reflect management's current beliefs and assumptions with respect to such things as the outlook for general economic trends, industry trends, commodity prices, capital markets, and the governmental, regulatory and legal environment. In some instances, this MD&A and accompanying documents may also contain forward-looking statements attributed to third party sources. For example, the discussions with respect to possible amendments to federal legislation imposing taxes on the distributions of publicly traded income trusts and partnerships and the proposed changes in the Alberta royalty system are based solely on news releases and background information prepared by the federal and Alberta governments respectively. Management believes that its assumptions and analysis in this MD&A are reasonable and that the expectations reflected in the forward looking statements contained herein are also reasonable. However, Keyera cannot assure readers that these expectations will prove to be correct.

All forward looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results, events, levels of activity and achievements to differ materially from those anticipated in the forward looking statements. Such factors include but are not limited to: general economic, market and business conditions; operational matters, including potential hazards inherent in our operations; risks arising from co-ownership of facilities; activities of other facility owners; competitive action by other companies; activities of producers and other customers and overall industry activity levels; changes in gas composition; fluctuations in commodity prices and supply/demand trends; processing and marketing margins; effects of weather conditions; fluctuations in interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates; changes in operating and capital costs, including fluctuations in input costs; actions by governmental authorities; decisions or approvals of administrative tribunals; changes in environmental and other regulations; reliance on key personnel; competition for, among other things, capital, acquisition opportunities and skilled personnel; changes in tax laws relating to income trusts, including the effects that such changes may have on unitholders, and in particular any differential effects relating to unitholder's country of residence; and other factors, many of which are beyond the control of Keyera, some of which are discussed in this MD&A and in Keyera's Annual Information Form dated February 26, 2008 (the "Annual Information Form") filed on SEDAR and available on the Keyera website at www.keyera.com.

Readers are cautioned that they should not unduly rely on the forward looking statements in this MD&A and accompanying documents. Further, readers are cautioned that the forward looking statements in this MD&A speak only as of the date of this MD&A and Keyera does not undertake any obligation to publicly update or to revise any of the forward looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as may be required by applicable laws.

All forward looking statements contained in this MD&A and accompanying documents are expressly qualified by this cautionary statement. Further information about the factors affecting forward looking statements and management's assumptions and analysis thereof, is available in filings made by Keyera with Canadian provincial securities commissions, which can be viewed on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

INTRODUCTION

The statement of net earnings contained in the unaudited interim consolidated financial statements includes the results of operations of the Fund, Keyera Energy Limited Partnership (the "Partnership"), Keyera Energy Facilities Limited ("KEFL"), Keyera Energy Ltd. ("KEL"), Keyera Energy Management Ltd. ("KEML"), Keyera Energy Inc. ("KEI"), Rimbey Pipeline Limited Partnership ("RPLP") for the three months ended March 31, 2007 and the results of operations of each of those entities and Alberta Diluent Terminal Limited Partnership ("ADTLP") for the three months ended March 31, 2008. The Fund and its subsidiaries are collectively referred to as "Keyera". A diagram of Keyera's organizational structure and descriptions of the Fund and its subsidiaries can be found on Keyera's website at www.keyera.com.

BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

Industry Activity

In the first quarter of 2008, producers drilled approximately 5,161 wells in Canada, virtually the same as the 5,243 wells drilled in the fourth quarter of 2007, although down 15% from the first quarter last year. A number of factors contributed to the decline in wells drilled in 2008, including lower natural gas prices, and the announcement of changes to the Alberta royalty regime.

In the foothills front region of Alberta, the number of wells drilled in the first quarter declined by 16% compared to the same period in 2007. The average depth of wells drilled in the region during the first quarter was 2,420 metres, similar to the depth drilled in the first quarter of last year. In the central Alberta region, the number of wells drilled dropped by about 6% compared to the first quarter of 2007, with the average depth decreasing approximately 6% to 1,132 metres. British Columbia experienced a 19% drop in the number of wells drilled compared to the first quarter of last year. The average depth per well in British Columbia increased to just over 2,000 metres, 18% higher than the first quarter of last year.

Natural gas inventory levels in North America declined significantly over the winter months. At the end of the first quarter, gas inventories in the United States were at their lowest level in at least 36 months and were in line with the five year average for that time of year. This decline resulted from a number of factors, including increased use of natural gas for electrical generation, higher demand resulting from more normal winter weather in North America and lower imports of LNG. As a result of these factors, natural gas prices have strengthened significantly in 2008. At the end of the first quarter, the price of natural gas at the AECO hub in Alberta had increased to approximately $8.93 per mcf, about $1.78 per mcf higher than the same time last year. Over the same period, West Texas Intermediate oil has increased over $45 per barrel and, at quarter end, was trading at about $105 per barrel.

With natural gas supply and demand coming back into balance and an apparent reduction in drilling costs in western Canada, indications are that drilling activity may increase throughout the remainder of the year. The Petroleum Services Association of Canada has revised its 2008 forecast of wells drilled in Canada from 14,500 to 16,500.

Climate change regulations

Under Alberta's rules dealing with greenhouse gas emissions, facilities with large emissions of CO(2) equivalent ((greater than)100 kilotonnes per year) must reduce net emissions intensity to 88% of the average emissions intensity at that facility between 2003 and 2005. If the actual emissions intensity is above the target, the facility licensee may purchase "emissions offsets", or fund credits at a cost of $15/tonne of CO(2) equivalent, or emission "performance credits". Keyera operates three facilities which are subject to these requirements: the Strachan, Rimbey and Brazeau River gas plants. These requirements came into effect on July 1, 2007. The cost of these new rules for Keyera for the second half of 2007 was less than $200,000.

Keyera's management anticipates that a portion of these costs will be recoverable from customers as flow-through operating costs. Projects implemented since 2002 at Keyera's facilities could generate emissions offsets or performance credits; however, it is premature to determine what benefit, if any, could be realized from those actions. Keyera is in the process of preparing an application for emissions offsets from the acid gas injection project at its Brazeau River gas plant.

On March 10, 2008, the federal government released further details of its emissions reductions plan for larger emitters. Under the federal government's plan, existing facilities are expected to improve their emissions intensity (compared to 2006) by 18% in 2010 and an additional 2% each year thereafter. The March 10 announcement states that these expectations will apply to upstream oil and gas facilities that emit 3 kilotonnes per year or more of CO(2) equivalent. Keyera operates 30 facilities, including plants and compressors, with current emissions that exceed that threshold. The announcement also indicates that the emissions requirements will only apply to companies that are larger than a specified size - 10,000 barrels of oil equivalent per day. It is not clear how this threshold will apply to Keyera.

The primary compliance mechanisms available to comply with the proposed federal requirements will be emissions reductions, contributions to a technology fund and the purchase of credits through a trading market. Contributions to the technology fund will be limited and the contribution rate will be $15/tonne between 2010 and 2012 and $20/tonne thereafter. The federal government has predicted that carbon prices per tonne in this trading market will be $25/tonne in 2010, $50/tonne in 2016 and $65/tonne in 2020. Keyera's management anticipates that, if these requirements become applicable to Keyera, a portion of these costs will be recoverable from customers as flow-through operating costs. Alternative compliance mechanisms that will be available to a limited extent under the federal initiative include limited use of "clean development mechanism" credits under the Kyoto Protocol and limited credits for early action.

The federal government has stated that it is committed to achieving a common threshold and reporting regime in Alberta. The federal government has also announced that it "will continue discussion with the Government of Alberta on these issues, seeking a common practical approach to emissions coverage, including the phasing of thresholds and the identification of additional measures that could be implemented to address emissions in the rest of the sector." The effect of these initiatives on Keyera can not be determined until the federal and provincial governments provide additional information.

On April 3, 2008, the British Columbia government announced a cap and trade system that would establish an overall cap or limit on emissions with the trading system allowing regulated emitters to buy and sell emissions allowances or buy offset units. The cap and trade system will apply to industries designated by the B.C. government through regulations. The government has not released a draft of those regulations, but indications are that the cap and trade system will apply to the upstream oil and gas industry. The effect on Keyera can not be determined until the B.C. government provides additional information.

A more complete description of the environmental regulations that affect Keyera's businesses can be found in Keyera's Annual Information Form, which is available on SEDAR.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Keyera's midstream activities are conducted through three business segments. The Gathering and Processing segment provides natural gas gathering and processing services to producers. The NGL Infrastructure segment provides NGL processing, transportation and storage services to producers, marketers (including Keyera) and others. The services in both these segments are provided on a fee-for-service basis. The Marketing segment is focused on the marketing of by-products recovered from the processing of raw gas, primarily NGLs, and crude oil midstream activities. A more complete description of Keyera's businesses by segment can be found in the Fund's Annual Information Form, which is available at www.sedar.com.

Continuing strong performance in all segments of the business generated operating margin of $69.8 million in the first quarter of 2008, an increase of $26.7 million compared to last year. Included in the 2008 operating margin was $12.8 million of unrealized gain related to the change in fair value of financial contracts compared to an unrealized loss of $5.3 million contained in the 2007 results. Excluding the effect of unrealized gains and losses, operating margin in the first quarter of 2008 was $57.0 million, $8.6 million higher than the first quarter of 2007. This increase was due primarily to the tie-in of new sour gas volumes and NGL extraction activities in the Gathering and Processing segment and strong winter season results in the Marketing segment.

Net earnings before tax and non-controlling interest in the first quarter of 2008 were $44.3 million, an increase of $22.4 million compared to the first quarter of 2007. Of this increase, $18.1 million was attributable to the unrealized gains and losses. The remainder was due to the higher operating margin, partially offset by a $3.6 million increase in general and administrative expenses due primarily to higher incentive plan costs and $0.7 million of higher interest costs.

An income tax recovery of $11.2 million was recorded in the first quarter of 2008 bringing net earnings to $55.5 million, an increase of $36.5 million compared to the first quarter of 2007. The income tax recovery was due to a $13.1 million non-cash recovery related to a reduction in the future tax liability resulting from the internal reorganization completed in January 2008, partially offset by $1.9 million of current tax expense.

Gathering and Processing

First quarter Gathering and Processing operating margin of $27.7 million was 34% higher than the same period last year. This increase was due to higher revenues compared to the first quarter of 2007.

Gathering and Processing revenue for the first quarter of 2008 was $48.6 million, an increase of $6.6 million, or 16%, compared to the first quarter of 2007. The tie-in of new higher fee volumes at the Bigoray and Strachan gas plants, offsetting declines in lower priced volumes, and the revenue generated from NGL extraction activities at the Rimbey and Paddle River gas plants were significant contributors to the increase. The NGL extraction activities contributed approximately $2.3 million to operating margins in the first quarter of 2008 and are dependent upon favourable price differentials between the NGL products produced and natural gas. Therefore, these margins may not be permanently sustainable at current levels.

The favourable variances discussed above more than offset the decrease in throughput and revenue at the Brazeau River gas plant resulting from the curtailment of sour gas volumes during part of the first quarter of 2008. The curtailment was necessary due to the loss of acid gas processing capability as the old disposal reservoir approached its capacity. A new well was put into service in March 2008 and volumes are returning to previous levels.

Gathering and Processing operating expenses for the first quarter of 2008 were $20.9 million, a decrease of $0.4 million, compared to the first quarter of 2007. The decrease was primarily due to ongoing cost control efforts which more than offset rising costs from general price increases. As well, a significant amount of preventive maintenance work was completed last year at the Caribou gas plant, where breakdowns in the first quarter of 2007 contributed to higher operating costs in that period.

Average gross processing throughput in the first quarter of 2008 was 843 million cubic feet per day, down 4% from the fourth quarter of 2007 and about the same as the first quarter last year.

Gathering and Processing - North Central Region

The North Central Region delivered higher operating margin compared to the first quarter of last year primarily due to higher margins at the Rimbey and Caribou gas plants. Throughput for the quarter was 424 million cubic feet per day, 6% lower than the first quarter of last year. This decrease was primarily due to throughput declines at the Chinchaga and Rimbey gas plants.

In the first quarter, Keyera received regulatory approval to proceed with its ethane extraction project at the Rimbey gas plant. Final design work and bidding of equipment is underway and work is expected to begin in the second quarter. The cost of the project is now estimated at $28 million and project completion is expected to be in mid 2009. When operational, the project will produce approximately 5,000 barrels per day of ethane. The regulatory approvals were appealed by two energy industry participants in April and those appeals are expected to take several months to reach a conclusion. The appeals are not currently expected to affect project timing.

In the first quarter, Keyera installed a vapour recovery unit on the flare system at the Rimbey gas plant. The unit will recover gas that would otherwise be burned in the flare system and utilize it as fuel, thereby reducing greenhouse gas emissions and fuel gas consumption at the plant. The unit was commissioned in April and is currently being performance tested and optimized.

A regularly scheduled maintenance turnaround at the Gilby gas plant is planned to commence in May and last for ten days to two weeks. Some natural gas volumes will be diverted to the Rimbey gas plant during the Gilby shutdown. Costs associated with the turnaround will be fully recovered in 2008.

In December 2007, a number of land parcels in the areas around the Caribou North gas gathering system were posted and sold in one of the largest land sales in British Columbia's history. A number of producers conducted active winter drilling programs in the first quarter and some production from the winter drilling has been tied into the Caribou gas plant for processing. In April, a producer completed a pipeline crossing of the Buckinghorse River northwest of the plant and immediately began delivering significant gas volumes. As a result, the Caribou gas plant is now operating near its capacity of 65 million cubic feet per day.

In the first quarter, Keyera completed construction of a pipeline extension at the north end of the Caribou North gas gathering system. The new pipeline connects the Caribou gas plant with the Bougie gathering system and plant site acquired in the second quarter of 2007 and crosses a number of the sections of land that were posted in December.

As a result of the drilling activity in the area, Keyera has begun detailed engineering to expand the Caribou gas plant processing capacity by 40 million cubic feet per day, to 105 million cubic feet per day. A decision on whether to proceed with the expansion is expected in mid 2008.

Gathering and Processing - Foothills Region

The Foothills Region delivered significantly higher operating margin in the first quarter compared to the same period last year. Higher sour gas volumes at the Strachan and Bigoray gas plants contributed to the increase.

First quarter throughput in the Foothills Region was 418 million cubic feet per day, 7% higher than the first quarter of 2007, although down somewhat relative to the fourth quarter. Higher throughput at the Paddle River gas plant as a result of the NGL extraction activities initiated in the fourth quarter of 2007 also resulted in higher first quarter operating margins. However, temporary volume restrictions in the first quarter at the Brazeau River gas plant somewhat offset the throughput increases.

A new acid gas injection well was commissioned in February at the Brazeau River gas plant. This new well provides access to a depleted gas reservoir, replacing the previous reservoir which was approaching capacity. Despite redirecting volumes to other Keyera plants for processing, some restrictions on processing of sour gas volumes at Brazeau River were necessary for a short period until the new well became operational. Since February, Brazeau River has returned to previous processing levels. In April, construction was completed on a new gathering pipeline southwest of the Brazeau River gas plant and volumes in the area were redirected to Brazeau River for processing.

In the Pembina region, where Keyera's Brazeau River, Bigoray, Pembina North and the recently acquired West Pembina gas plants are located, producers continued to deliver sour Nisku gas at increasing levels. The delivery of these incremental gas volumes to Keyera facilities has resulted in sour gas handling nearing capacity in the area. Keyera is evaluating alternatives to enhance sour gas processing services in the area.

Throughput remained steady at the Strachan gas plant in the first quarter. A third, producer owned, field compressor is currently being installed in a producing region southwest of the Nordegg River gas plant, which is expected to deliver incremental volumes to the plant late in the second quarter.

In the first quarter, Keyera agreed to acquire a 35.6% interest in the ATCO West Pembina gas plant from three plant owners for a purchase price of approximately $26 million. The plant has 145 million cubic feet per day of sour gas processing capacity, "deep cut" natural gas liquids extraction capability, 520 tonnes per day of sulphur handling capacity and 70 kilometres of associated gathering pipelines. The transaction closed on May 1 and approximately 40 of the plant's operations, maintenance and administrative staff joined Keyera at that time. Concurrent with the closing, Keyera became operator of the facility.

The scheduled maintenance turnaround for the Easyford oil battery was completed in early May. The turnaround was approximately ten days and the costs will be fully recovered in 2008. A turnaround is scheduled for the Nordegg River gas plant in June. The turnaround is expected to last about 10 days and costs will be fully recoverable in the current year. During the Nordegg River outage, some volumes will be diverted to the Strachan gas plant for processing.

NGL Infrastructure

First quarter NGL Infrastructure operating margin of $5.5 million was 27% higher than the first quarter of 2007. This increase was the result of higher revenues compared to the first quarter of 2007.

NGL Infrastructure revenue for the first quarter of 2008 was $10.9 million, an increase of $1.2 million compared to the first quarter of 2007. The higher revenue was primarily the result of continued demand for storage at Fort Saskatchewan. Other contributors included higher volumes transported on the Rimbey and Fort Saskatchewan pipelines and higher volumes of propane moving through the rail rack at Edmonton. Somewhat offsetting these favourable variances was lower third party processing revenue at the Fort Saskatchewan fractionation plant.

NGL Infrastructure operating expenses for the first quarter of 2008 were $5.4 million, unchanged compared to the first quarter of 2007. Lower operating costs due to the reduction in fractionation volumes processed were offset by higher integrity program costs.

In January, a leak in one of the pipelines on the Fort Saskatchewan system resulted in the system being out of service for several days. Leakage was minimal and the repair was completed quickly.

Construction of the truck terminal expansion at the Fort Saskatchewan facility was completed in the first quarter and became operational in April. The expanded terminal has the ability to load propane and butane and to load or offload condensate. The new terminal enhances Keyera's service offering and provides Keyera and its customers with greater logistics flexibility.

The connections and tie-ins for the fourth pipeline between the Edmonton Terminal and the Fort Saskatchewan facility are under construction and are expected to be completed in the third quarter.

Work is continuing on the storage facility expansion at Fort Saskatchewan. Site preparation work is complete and the first well is expected to be drilled in June. Once the well is completed, the cavern washing process will begin. The cavern is expected to be put into service in mid 2010.

In late March, a subsidiary of Keyera acquired a diluent distribution terminal in Edmonton. Known as the Alberta Diluent Terminal ("ADT"), the terminal will enable the import and offload of over 50,000 barrels per day of condensate, for use in the oil sands sector as diluent. A key feature of the terminal is its ability to handle unit train deliveries, which consist of 100 rail cars. In addition to its rail handling and unloading capabilities, the terminal also has a truck loading rack and 435,000 barrels of product storage in above ground tanks. Subsequent to the acquisition of the ADT facility, the same subsidiary of Keyera acquired an 8 acre parcel of land adjacent to the ADT site for $3.3 million. Concurrent with the ADT announcement, Keyera announced plans to invest $18 million to integrate the terminal with Keyera's NGL infrastructure in the area, connecting the ADT facility by pipeline to Keyera's Edmonton and Fort Saskatchewan facilities. The acquisition of the terminal has generated significant interest from companies active in the oil sands sector and Keyera is currently evaluating new proprietary and third party business opportunities for the facility.

Marketing

Keyera's Marketing operating margin in the first quarter of 2008 was $36.6 million, $18.6 million higher than the first quarter of 2007. Virtually all of the variance was due to the unrealized gains related to the change in fair value of financial contracts that are included in the results. Excluding the unrealized gains and losses, operating margin in the first quarter of 2008 was $24.3 million, $0.8 million higher than in the first quarter of 2007.

Marketing revenue for the first quarter of 2008 was $493.3 million, an increase of $186 million compared to the first quarter of 2007. The increase was due to higher NGL sales volumes, higher prices and approximately $12.3 million of unrealized gains related to the change in fair value of financial contracts. The unrealized gain is discussed later in this section.

The table below outlines the composition of the revenues generated from Keyera's Marketing business.

Composition of Marketing Revenue (in thousands of dollars)	2008	2007
Physical sales	495,868	311,757
Financial instruments - realized	(14,834)	1,042
Financial instruments - unrealized	12,300	(5,457)
Marketing revenue	493,334	307,342

NGL sales volumes for the first quarter of 2008 averaged 66,100 barrels per day an increase of approximately 6,500 barrels per day compared to the first quarter of 2007. The increase was due primarily to the strong demand for propane and condensate during the winter season. Prices for all NGL products are generally correlated to crude oil and were strong throughout most of the first quarter of 2008.

Marketing operating expenses for the first quarter of 2008 were $456.8 million, an increase of $167.4 million compared to the first quarter of 2007. The $167.4 million increase is related to the growth in sales volumes and higher hydrocarbon prices.

Keyera's crude oil midstream business continued to meet expectations in the first quarter of 2008. Volumes delivered to field oil terminals remained steady and quality differentials remained favourable.

NGL product inventories were $36.7 million at the end of the first quarter, $23.4 million lower than the first quarter of 2007. This decrease was due primarily to lower volumes in storage, partially offset by higher prices. The 2007 inventories included a planned accumulation of product to meet contracted sales upcoming in future periods.

Financial contracts are used by Keyera to protect inventory from fluctuations in the prices of NGL products. To the extent these contracts are effective (i.e., the change in the market price of crude oil is correlated to the change in the prices of the underlying physical NGL products), gains and losses on these financial contracts will be offset by gains or losses in the proceeds that will be realized upon the sale of the products. The strategy of utilizing crude oil price swaps to hedge the commodity price risk related to NGL products is subject to basis risk between the price of crude oil and the prices of the NGL products. As a result, this strategy cannot be expected to fully offset future propane, butane and condensate price movements.

In the first quarter of 2008, most of the financial contracts held at December 31, 2007 matured. As the price of crude oil was higher than the contracted fixed price, Keyera was obligated to pay $14.8 million to the counterparties under the financial contracts. These payments were recorded in revenue as offsets to the actual proceeds received from the sale of physical products. As the financial contracts matured and no further obligation existed, previously accrued unrealized losses were reversed, generating most of the unrealized gain. The remainder of the unrealized gain was related to changes in the value of financial contracts entered into during the first quarter of 2008.

For a more complete discussion of the risks and trends that could affect the marketing performance and the steps that Keyera takes to mitigate these risks, readers are referred to the descriptions in this MD&A and to Keyera's Annual Information Form, which is available on SEDAR.

Non-operating expenses and other earnings

General and administrative expenses for the first quarter of 2008 were $8.9 million, up $3.6 million from the first quarter of 2007. Long term incentive plan costs accounted for $2.9 million of the variance, reflecting a higher unit price and the effect of the distribution increase implemented in February 2008. Excluding the effect of the incentive plan costs, general and administrative expenses were $0.7 million higher reflecting higher activity levels and staff costs.

Interest expense, net of interest revenue, was $5.3 million for the first quarter of 2008, $0.7 million greater than the first quarter of 2007. The increase was due to higher borrowings used to fund capital projects.

Depreciation and amortization expense was $10.5 million for the first quarter of 2008, virtually unchanged from the first quarter of 2007.

An income tax recovery of $11.2 million was recorded in the first quarter of 2008, compared to $2.6 million of income tax expense incurred in the first quarter of 2007. This recovery was due to a $13.1 million reduction in future income tax liabilities resulting from the internal reorganization completed in January 2008, offset by $1.9 million of current tax expense.

Critical Accounting Estimates

The Fund's consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP. Certain accounting policies require that management make appropriate decisions with respect to the formulation of estimates and assumptions that affect the recorded amounts of certain assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses. Management reviews its assumptions and estimates regularly, but new information and changes in circumstances may result in actual results or revised estimates that differ materially from current estimates. A description of the accounting estimates and the methodologies and assumptions underlying the estimates are described in management's discussion and analysis presented with the December 31, 2007 consolidated financial statements of the Fund. There have been no changes to the methodologies and assumptions. The most significant estimates are those indicated below:

Estimation of Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure revenues:

At March 31, 2008, operating revenues and accounts receivable for the Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure segments contained an estimate of $21.5 million for March 2008 operations.

Estimation of Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure operating expenses:

At March 31, 2008, operating expenses and accounts payable for the Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure segments contained an estimate of $7.8 million for March 2008 operations.

Estimation of Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure equalization adjustments:

Much of the revenue from the Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure assets is generated on a recovery of operating costs basis. Under this method, the operating component of the fee is a pro rata share of the operating costs for the facility, calculated based upon total throughput. Users of each facility are charged a fee per unit based upon estimated costs and throughput, with an adjustment to actual throughput completed after the end of the year. Each quarter, throughput volumes and operating costs are reviewed to determine whether the estimated unit fee charged during the quarter properly reflects the actual volumes and costs, and the allocations of revenues and operating costs to other plant owners are also reviewed. Appropriate adjustments to revenues and operating expenses are recognized in the quarter and allocations to other owners are recorded.

For the Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure segments, operating revenues and accounts receivable contained an estimated equalization adjustment of $6.6 million at March 31, 2008. Operating expenses and accounts payable contained an estimate of $9.5 million.

Estimation of Marketing revenues:

At March 31, 2008, the Marketing sales and accounts receivable contained an estimate for March 2008 revenues of $71.5 million.

Estimation of Marketing product purchases:

Marketing cost of goods sold, inventory and accounts payable contained an estimate of NGL product purchases of $96.0 million at March 31, 2008.

Estimation of Asset Retirement Obligation:

Keyera will be responsible for compliance with all applicable laws and regulations regarding the decommissioning, abandonment and reclamation of its facilities at the end of their economic life. The determination of the estimate of these obligations is based upon settlement between 2018 and 2038. Keyera utilizes a documented process to estimate the future liability and the anticipated cost of the decommissioning, abandonment and reclamation of its facilities.

The process, overseen by the Health, Safety and Environment Committee, is undertaken by professionals involved in activities that deal with the design, construction, operation and decommissioning of assets. Specialists with knowledge and assessment processes specific to environmental and decommissioning activities and costs are also utilized in the process.

The process requires Keyera to obtain third party environmental liability assessments for major sites, which are updated on a five year frequency. These assessments typically utilize a Monte Carlo statistical simulation to develop a liability cost range, from which the median is used. Next, the decommissioning and abandonment component is derived from a matrix of third-party cost quotations for a range of facilities then adjusted for known and pertinent factors at each site, such as construction style, plant processes and site condition. Ultimately, all medium and large facilities will be independently assessed in accordance with regulatory requirements.

At December 31, 2007, Keyera had estimated that the total undiscounted amount required to settle the asset retirement obligations was $183.0 million and a discounted net present value of this obligation was $37.8 million. In the first quarter of 2008, the asset retirement obligations were updated for acquisitions and there were no material changes to the assumptions used in the estimate prepared for December 31, 2007 asset retirement obligations. At March 31, 2008, the discounted net present value of this obligation was $39.4 million.

It is not possible to predict these costs with certainty since they will be a function of regulatory requirements at the time of decommissioning, abandonment and reclamation and the actual costs may exceed the current estimates which are the basis of the asset retirement obligation shown in Keyera's financial statements.

Additional information related to decommissioning, abandonment and reclamation costs is provided in Keyera's Annual Information Form, which is available on SEDAR.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Cash flow from operating activities

Cash flow from operating activities during the first quarter of 2008 was $58.4 million, of which $17.6 million was generated from a decrease in non-cash working capital. Before changes in non-cash working capital, cash flow from operating activities was $40.8 million, from which $23.8 million of distributions were paid to unitholders. Keyera received $0.8 million from the issuance of trust units under the distribution reinvestment plan ("DRIP"), $17.6 million from changes in non-cash working capital and $0.2 million of proceeds from the disposition of equipment, bringing cash available to $35.6 million. Capital expenditures required $44.7 million of cash, resulting in a net cash outflow of $9.1 million in the first quarter of 2008.

Cash and working capital were $56.1 million at March 31, 2008, compared to $75.7 million at December 31, 2007. The decline in working capital was primarily due to funding capital expenditures.

Keyera has no exposure to asset backed commercial paper. Surplus cash is held in interest bearing deposit accounts or invested in term deposits, guaranteed investment certificates, or Bankers' Acceptances issued by Canadian chartered banks.

Capital Expenditures

Capital Additions and Acquisitions (in millions of dollars)	Three months ended March 31, 2008	2007
Growth capital expenditures	49.5	3.2
Maintenance capital expenditures	0.3	0.4
Total capital additions and acquisitions	49.8	3.6

In the first quarter of 2008, additions to property, plant and equipment amounted to $49.8 million, consisting of $0.3 million of maintenance capital and $49.5 million of growth capital. In addition to maintenance capital expenditures, Keyera incurred maintenance and repair expenses of $1.1 million that were included in operating costs. The growth capital expenditures included $32 million related to the acquisition by a subsidiary of a distribution terminal in the Edmonton area.

Other significant growth capital expenditures during the first quarter were:

- $5.7 million for the construction of the North Trutch pipeline to expand the capture area of the Caribou gas plant
- $4.0 million related to the construction of acid gas injection facilities and other upgrades at the Brazeau River gas plant
- $2.1 million related to the expansion of the truck loading facility at Fort Saskatchewan to increase capacity
- $1.5 million for the acquisition of pipelines in the West Pembina region to expand the capture area of the Brazeau River gas plant
- $1.4 million for the construction of camp facilities at the Caribou gas plant
- $0.6 million related to the construction of the pipeline between the Edmonton and Fort Saskatchewan facilities to enhance deliverability and operational flexibility
- $0.5 million on the storage expansion project at Fort Saskatchewan
- $0.3 million for the construction of a truck loading facility at the Strachan gas plant

Growth capital expenditures for 2008 are expected to be between $150 and $200 million, assuming that there are no significant changes in plans and activities of producers and other customers and overall industry activity levels; no delays due to unusual weather conditions or due to decisions, approvals or delays by regulators; or material changes in general business, market or economic conditions. These growth capital expenditures could change if one or more acquisition opportunities become available.

Working capital requirements are strongly influenced by the volume of NGLs held in storage and their related commodity prices. NGL inventories are required to meet seasonal demand patterns and will vary depending on the time of year. Historically, the largest allocation of working capital to fund inventory has been approximately $84 million. If crude oil prices remain at current levels, Keyera expects that the working capital that will be used to fund inventory later this year will significantly exceed that amount. In addition to the working capital required for inventory, Keyera typically utilizes approximately $25 to $45 million to finance the other components of working capital.

For a discussion of the risks that could affect the liquidity and working capital of the Fund and the steps Keyera takes to mitigate these risks, as well as information relating to Keyera's commitments and contractual obligations, readers are referred to Keyera's 2007 MD&A and to Keyera's Annual Information Form which is available on SEDAR.

Debt covenants

Keyera has established credit facilities consisting of a $150 million committed unsecured revolving term facility that matures on April 21, 2011 and $30 million of unsecured revolving demand facilities. These credit facilities bear interest based on the lenders' rates for Canadian prime commercial loans, U.S. base rate loans, Libor loans or Bankers' Acceptances rates. As of March 31, 2008 there were no drawings under these credit facilities.

The bank credit facilities contain a covenant that the Fund and its subsidiaries will not distribute in any twelve month period more than 105% of the distributable cash flow attributable to that twelve month period. Those facilities are also subject to two major financial covenants: "Debt to EBITDA" and "Debt to Capitalization". The calculation for each ratio is based on specific definitions, is not in accordance with GAAP and cannot be readily replicated by referring to the Fund's financial statements. The definitions in the credit agreements provide for the deduction of net working capital items in the calculation of debt. The following are the ratios as calculated in accordance with the covenants as at March 31, 2008:

Covenant	Position as at March 31, 2008
Debt to EBITDA not to exceed 3.5	1.48
Debt to Capitalization not to exceed 0.55	0.33

Keyera has $335 million of long-term senior unsecured notes as follows: $20 million bearing interest at 5.42% and maturing in August 2008; $90 million bearing interest at 5.23% and maturing in October 2009; $52.5 million bearing interest at 5.79% and maturing in August 2010; $52.5 million bearing interest at 6.155% and maturing in August 2013; $60 million bearing interest at 5.89% and maturing in December 2017; and $60 million bearing interest at 6.14% and maturing in December 2022. These notes are subject to three major financial covenants: "Consolidated Debt to Consolidated EBITDA", "Consolidated EBITDA to Consolidated Interest Charges" and "Priority Debt to Consolidated Total Assets".

The calculations for each of these ratios are based on specified definitions. The following are the ratios calculated in accordance with the covenants as at March 31, 2008 for the notes maturing in 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2013:

Covenant	Position as at March 31, 2008
Debt to EBITDA not to exceed 3.5	2.08
EBITDA to Interest Charges not less than 3.0	9.69
Priority Debt to Total Assets not to exceed 15%	0%

The following are the ratios calculated in accordance with the covenants as at March 31, 2008 for the notes maturing in 2017 and 2022:

Covenant	Position as at March 31, 2008
Debt to EBITDA not to exceed 5.0	1.48
EBITDA to Interest Charges not less than 2.0	8.35
Priority Debt to Total Assets not to exceed 15%	0%

Failure to adhere to the covenants described above may impair Keyera's ability to pay distributions. Management expects that upon maturity of the credit facilities, adequate replacement facilities will be established.

Risk factors

Unitholder Distributions

Comparison of distributions paid to cash flow from operating activities and net earnings

The following table presents a comparison of distributions paid to net earnings and cash flow from operating activities:

(in thousands of dollars)	Three months ended March 31, 2008	2007
Cash flow from operating activities	58,412	57,591
Net earnings	55,502	19,012
Cash distributions paid	23,812	21,763
Excess (shortfall) of cash flow from operating activities over distributions paid	34,600	35,828
Excess (shortfall) of net earnings over distributions paid	31,690	(2,751)

For the first quarter of 2008, cash flow from operating activities was $58.4 million, $34.6 million greater than distributions paid. Included in the calculation of cash flow from operating activities was $17.6 million generated from a change in non-cash working capital primarily due to the reduction of inventory, partially offset by the use of funds to finance growth in accounts receivable. Cash flow from operating activities in the first quarter of 2008 was sufficient to fund cash distributions paid.

Changes in non-cash working capital are primarily the result of seasonal fluctuations in product inventories or other temporary changes and are generally funded with short-term debt. In general, cash flow from operating activities will be less than distributions paid during periods of inventory accumulation and will be in a surplus position during periods when inventories are drawn down and sold.

For the first quarter of 2008, net earnings of $55.5 million exceeded cash distributions paid for the first quarter of 2008 by $31.7 million. The strong operating margins earned in the first quarter of 2008 were augmented by non-cash items for future income tax recoveries ($13.1 million) and unrealized gains on financial instruments ($12.8 million) that more than offset the non-cash charges for depreciation, amortization and accretion ($11.2 million) in the calculation of net income.

Future income taxes can fluctuate from period to period as a result of changes in tax laws and rates (such as the enactment of income taxes on the distributions of flow-through entities or the reduction of income tax rates), the extent to which available tax deductions are utilized or changes in the operating results of the underlying operating entities of Keyera. These items do not affect cash flow generated in the current period.

Non-cash charges such as depreciation and amortization are based upon the historical cost of Keyera's property, plant and equipment and do not accurately represent the fair market value or the replacement cost of the assets in today's economic environment, nor do they affect cash flow generated in the current period.

Non-cash unrealized gains and losses on financial instruments result from Keyera's use of financial contracts, such as energy-related forward sales, price swaps, physical exchanges and options, to manage the commodity price risk inherent in the marketing business. Their fair value is determined based upon estimates of future prices. The change in fair value of these contracts during the current period has no effect on cash flow generated. Upon settlement in future periods, the unrealized estimate is reversed and the realized gain or loss is included in earnings.

Due to the inclusion of such non-cash charges in net earnings, distributions paid may exceed net earnings. Although non-cash charges do not affect current period cash generation, any excess of distributions over net earnings would be a return of unitholders' capital.

Distributable Cash Flow

Distributable cash flow is not a standard measure under GAAP and therefore may not be comparable to similar measures reported by other entities. Distributable cash flow is used to assess the level of cash flow generated from ongoing operations and to evaluate the adequacy of internally generated cash flow to fund distributions.

Following is a reconciliation of distributable cash flow to its most closely related GAAP measure, cash flow from operating activities:

Distributable Cash Flow (in thousands of dollars)	Three months ended March 31, 2008	2007
Cash flow from operating activities	58,412	57,591
Add (deduct):
Changes in non-cash working capital	(17,569)	(20,376)
Maintenance capital	(341)	(351)
Non-controlling interest distributable cash flow	-	(316)
Distributable cash flow	40,502	36,548
Distributions declared to unitholders	25,661	21,773

Distributable cash flow of $40.5 million in the first quarter of 2008 exceeded distributions declared to unitholders of $25.7 million. The distributions declared in the first quarter of $25.7 million included a special distribution of $1.4 million ($0.023529 per unit) as part of the internal reorganization, completed on January 2, 2008, of certain of the Fund's subsidiaries. This special distribution consisted of cash in the amount of $0.2 million ($0.003529 per unit) and securities of certain subsidiaries of the Fund having an aggregate value of $1.2 million ($0.02 per unit). Each security was redeemed for one special non-voting unit of the Fund ("Fund special units"). These Fund special units were then converted into regular units. The regular units were consolidated such that upon completion of the reorganization, each unitholder continued to hold the same number of units as was held immediately prior to the reorganization.

Changes in non-cash working capital are excluded from the determination of distributable cash flow because they are primarily the result of seasonal fluctuations in product inventories or other temporary changes and are generally funded with short-term debt. Also deducted from distributable cash flow are maintenance capital expenditures that are funded from current operating cash flow.

Distribution policy

In determining the level of cash distributions to unitholders, Keyera's Board of Directors takes into consideration current and expected future levels of distributable cash flow (including income tax), capital expenditures, borrowings and debt repayments, changes in working capital requirements and other factors.

Over the long-term, Keyera expects to pay distributions from distributable cash flow. Growth capital expenditures will be funded from retained operating cash flow, along with proceeds from additional debt or equity, as required. Although Keyera intends to continue to make regular monthly cash distributions to its unitholders, these distributions are not guaranteed.

The business of the Fund is subject to operational and commercial risks that could adversely affect future operating results, earnings, cash flow and distributions to unitholders. These risks include declines in throughput, operational problems and hazards, cost overruns, increased competition, regulatory intervention, environmental considerations, uncertainty of abandonment costs and dependence upon key personnel. These risks are identified and discussed in greater detail in Keyera's Annual Information Form, available on SEDAR, as well as in the "Business Environment", "Results of Operations - Marketing" and "Liquidity and Capital Resources" sections of this MD&A.

Standard and Poor's has assigned the Fund an SR-3 stability rating, indicating the expectation of a high level of stability in distributions.

Units and Convertible Debentures

During the first quarter of 2008, $0.5 million of convertible debentures (before adjustment for deferred financing costs) were converted into 45,164 trust units and 45,374 trust units were issued under the DRIP in consideration of $0.8 million, bringing the total units outstanding at March 31, 2008 to 61,354,910. Convertible debentures outstanding at March 31, 2008 were $21.3 million.

FUND REORGANIZATION AND TAXATION INFORMATION

In June 2007, unitholders approved an internal reorganization of Keyera's legal structure (the "Reorganization"). On January 2, 2008, upon receipt of a favourable advance ruling from the Canada Revenue Agency and the final order from the Alberta Court of Queen's Bench approving the plan of arrangement for the amended Reorganization, the Reorganization was completed. The Reorganization is described in detail in the Material Change Report as filed on SEDAR (www.sedar.com) on January 11, 2008.

The Reorganization streamlined Keyera's legal structure and simplified accounting, legal reporting and income tax compliance, all of which is expected to reduce the general and administrative costs associated with these activities. The new structure also permits Keyera to defer the utilization of some tax pools until after January 1, 2011. This enhanced tax planning flexibility should enable Keyera to minimize the amount of cash taxes payable in 2011, when Keyera is expected to become taxable under the SIFT Legislation.

While there were no significant immediate tax savings within Keyera's structure as a result of the Reorganization, our recent capital investment program and associated changes will have the added benefit of reducing cash taxes payable in the short term. As well, Keyera plans to reduce the use of its available tax deductions from 2008 through 2010, thereby increasing deductions available for the years after 2010. As at January 1, 2008, Keyera had approximately $325 million of unutilized tax pools and deductions, consisting mostly of class 41 undepreciated capital costs, available for deduction by the Fund's subsidiaries.

With the announcement that provincial income tax rates applicable to Keyera and other SIFTs will be harmonized with corporate income tax rates, it is not expected to be materially more costly for Keyera to remain an income trust after January 1, 2011. As a result of the recently completed Reorganization and the ability to preserve tax pools until 2011, Keyera will be able to minimize income taxes into the future, whether as an income trust or as a corporation. It is Keyera's intent to continue to grow by investing in long-life assets and thereby grow its distributions to unitholders, regardless of its structure. Although no decision has been made with respect to Keyera's future structure, Keyera is well positioned to continue as an income trust. However, if income trusts are no longer perceived as an attractive investment vehicle, Keyera is also well positioned to consider conversion to a corporate structure, at the appropriate time.

Accounting Matters and Controls

Critical accounting policies

Keyera's unaudited Interim Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian GAAP. The changes in accounting policies are described in Note 3 to the unaudited Interim Consolidated Financial Statements and Note 2 of the 2007 Annual Report.

Changes in accounting policies

Effective January 1, 2008, the Fund adopted the following accounting standards issued by the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants ("CICA"):

- Section 1535, Capital Disclosures;
- Section 3031, Inventories;
- Section 3862, Financial Instruments - Disclosures; and
- Section 3863, Financial Instruments - Presentation

Section 1535, Capital Disclosures, requires entities to provide users of financial statements with information to evaluate the entity's objectives, policies and processes for managing capital. Adoption of this new standard did not have an effect on the statements of financial position, net earnings or cash flows of the Fund. The new disclosure requirements have been included in the notes to the interim consolidated financial statements.

Section 3031, Inventories, requires the measurement of inventories at the lower of cost and net realizable value and the consistent use of either first-in, first-out or a weighted-average cost formula to measure cost. The reversal of previous net realizable value write-downs is required when there is a subsequent increase to the value of inventories. The Fund adopted this standard prospectively on January 1, 2008 in accordance with the transitional provisions. Inventory is measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value, less any costs to sell. Cost is determined on a weighted-average cost formula. There was no material impact upon adoption of this standard.

Section 3862, Financial Instruments - Disclosures, requires entities to provide disclosures in their financial statements that enable users to evaluate the significance of financial instruments to the entity's financial position and performance. It also requires that entities disclose the nature and extent of risks arising from financial instruments and how the entity manages those risks.

Section 3863, Financial Instruments - Presentation, establishes standards for presentation of financial instruments and non-financial derivatives and deals with the classification of financial instruments, from the perspective of the issuer, between liabilities and equity, the classification of related interest, dividends, losses and gains, and the circumstances in which financial assets and financial liabilities are offset.

Adoption of sections 3862 and 3863 did not have an effect on the statements of financial position, net earnings or cash flows of the Fund. The new disclosure requirements have been included in the notes to the interim consolidated financial statements.

Future changes in accounting policies

Convergence of Canadian GAAP with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs")

In April 2008, CICA published the exposure draft "Adopting IFRSs in Canada". The exposure draft proposes to incorporate IFRSs into the CICA Accounting Handbook effective for interim and annual financial statements relating to fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2011. At this date, publicly accountable enterprises will be required to prepare financial statements in accordance with IFRSs. The Fund is currently reviewing the standards to determine the potential impact on its consolidated financial statements.

Goodwill and Intangible Assets

In February 2008, the Accounting Standards Board ("AcSB") issued CICA Handbook Section 3064, Goodwill and Intangible Assets, replacing existing guidance (Sections 3062 and 3450) for these areas. This new section establishes standards for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of goodwill and intangible assets subsequent to their initial recognition. Standards concerning goodwill are unchanged from the standards included in the previous Section 3062. This new section will be effective for the Fund for periods ending after January 1, 2009. The Fund is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of this new section on its consolidated financial statements.

Internal control over financial reporting

No changes were made in Keyera's internal control over financial reporting during the interim period ended March 31, 2008 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, Keyera's internal control over financial reporting.

Investor Information

DISTRIBUTIONS TO UNITHOLDERS

Distributions to unitholders were $0.42 per unit in the first quarter. The Fund is focused on stable long-term distributions that grow over time. The Board of Directors will consider increasing the level of cash distributions when it is confident that such increase can be sustained.

TAXABILITY OF DISTRIBUTIONS

For income tax purposes, distributions paid and declared to Canadian residents in 2007 were 66.2% return of capital with the remainder ordinary income. Additional information is available on Keyera's website under "Investor Information". Both Canadian and non-resident unitholders should seek independent tax advice in respect of the consequences to them of acquiring, holding and disposing of units.

Keyera currently anticipates distributions will be largely or fully taxable for Canadian non-exempt unitholders in 2008. This outlook is affected by Keyera's organizational structure and is subject to change, depending on the levels of profitability and capital expenditures in each of Keyera's operating entities. Both Canadian and non-resident unitholders should seek independent tax advice in respect of the consequences to them of acquiring, holding and disposing of units. Factors that could affect the performance of the Fund and the taxability of the distributions are discussed in the Fund's Annual Information Form, which is available on SEDAR.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION

A breakdown of Keyera's operational and financial results, including volumetric and contribution information by major business unit, is available on our website at www.keyera.com under "Investor Information, Financial Information".

FIRST QUARTER 2008 RESULTS CONFERENCE CALL AND WEBCAST

Keyera will be conducting a conference call and webcast for investors, analysts, brokers and media representatives to discuss the first quarter 2008 results at 8:00 am MDT (10:00 am EDT) on May 14, 2008. Callers may participate by dialing either 800-732-6179 or 416-644-3416. A recording of the call will be available for replay until midnight, May 21, 2008 by dialing 877-289-8525 or 416-640-1917 and entering pass code 21268304 followed by the pound key.

Keyera Facilities Income Fund
Notes to Interim Consolidated Financial Statements
For Three Months Ended March 31, 2008
(All amounts expressed in thousands of Canadian dollars, except as otherwise noted)
(unaudited)

1. Structure of the Fund

Keyera Facilities Income Fund (the "Fund") is an unincorporated open-ended trust established under the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to the Fund Declaration of Trust dated April 3, 2003. The Fund has a 100% direct and indirect interest in Keyera Energy Limited Partnership (the "Partnership").

The Partnership is involved in the business of natural gas gathering and processing, as well as natural gas liquids ("NGLs") and crude oil processing, transportation, storage and marketing in Canada and the U.S. Its operating subsidiaries include Keyera Energy Facilities Ltd. ("KEFL"), Keyera Energy Ltd. ("KEL"), Keyera Energy Inc. ("KEI"), Rimbey Pipeline Limited Partnership ("RPLP") and Alberta Diluent Terminal Limited Partnership ("ADTLP").

The Fund makes monthly cash distributions to unitholders of record on the last business day of each month. The amount of the distributions per trust unit is equal to the pro rata share of the distribution received directly from the Partnership.

2. Basis of presentation

These unaudited interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared by management in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). The accounting policies applied are consistent with those disclosed in the Fund's consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended December 31, 2007 as included in the Fund's 2007 Annual Report to unitholders except for the changes made in adopting new accounting standards discussed in note 3.

These unaudited interim consolidated financial statements as at and for the three months ended March 31, 2008 do not include all disclosures required for the preparation of annual consolidated financial statements and should be read in conjunction with the Fund's consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended December 31, 2007.

Interim periods may not be representative of the results expected for the full year of operation due to seasonality.

3. Changes in accounting policies

Effective January 1, 2008, the Fund adopted the following accounting standards issued by the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants ("CICA"):

- Section 1535, Capital Disclosures;
- Section 3031, Inventories;
- Section 3862, Financial Instruments - Disclosures; and
- Section 3863, Financial Instruments - Presentation

Section 1535, Capital Disclosures, requires entities to provide users of financial statements with information to evaluate the entity's objectives, policies and processes for managing capital. Adoption of this new standard did not have an effect on the statements of financial position, net earnings or cash flows of the Fund. The new disclosure requirements have been included in these notes to the unaudited interim consolidated financial statements.

Section 3031, Inventories, requires the measurement of inventories at the lower of cost and net realizable value and the consistent use of either first-in, first-out or a weighted-average cost formula to measure cost. The reversal of previous net realizable value write-downs is permitted when there is a subsequent increase to the value of inventories. The Fund adopted this standard prospectively on January 1, 2008 in accordance with the transitional provisions. Inventory is measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value, less any costs to sell. Cost is determined on a weighted-average cost formula. There was no material impact upon adoption of this standard.

Section 3862, Financial Instruments - Disclosures, requires entities to provide disclosures in their financial statements that enable users to evaluate the significance of financial instruments to the entity's financial position and performance. It also requires that entities disclose the nature and extent of risks arising from financial instruments and how the entity manages those risks. Section 3863, Financial Instruments - Presentation, establishes standards for presentation of financial instruments and non-financial derivatives and deals with the classification of financial instruments, from the perspective of the issuer, between liabilities and equity, the classification of related interest, dividends, losses and gains, and the circumstances in which financial assets and financial liabilities are offset.

Adoption of sections 3862 and 3863 did not have an effect on the statements of financial positions, net earnings or cash flows of the Fund. The new disclosure requirements have been included in these notes to the unaudited interim consolidated financial statements.

Future accounting and reporting changes

Convergence of Canadian GAAP with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs")

In April 2008, the CICA published the exposure draft "Adopting IFRSs in Canada". The exposure draft proposes to incorporate IFRSs into the CICA Accounting Handbook effective for interim and annual financial statements relating to fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2011. At this date, publicly accountable enterprises will be required to prepare financial statements in accordance with IFRSs. The Fund is currently reviewing the standards to determine the potential impact on its consolidated financial statements.

Goodwill and Intangible Assets

In February 2008, the Accounting Standards Board ("AcSB") issued CICA Handbook Section 3064, Goodwill and Intangible Assets, replacing existing guidance (Sections 3062 and 3450) for these areas. This new section establishes standards for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of goodwill and intangible assets subsequent to their initial recognition. Standards concerning goodwill are unchanged from the standards included in the previous Section 3062. This new section will be effective for the Fund beginning January 1, 2009. The Fund is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of this new section on its consolidated financial statements.

4. Inventory

The total carrying amount and classification of inventory is as follows:

As at	March 31, 2008 $	December 31, 2007 $
NGLs	36,310	76,112
Natural gas	-	162
Other	391	320
Total inventory	36,701	76,594

For the period ended March 31, 2008, all inventory was carried at cost, and the cost of inventory expensed in the period was $451,666.

5. Credit facilities and long-term debt

As at	March 31, 2008 $	December 31, 2007 $

Bank credit facilities(a)	-	-
Total credit facilities	-	-
Current portion of long-term debt	20,000	20,000
Long-term debt(b)	315,000	315,000
Deferred financing costs	(1,702)	(1,757)
Total long-term debt	333,298	333,243

(a) The Partnership has a $150,000 unsecured revolving credit facility with certain Canadian financial institutions led by the Royal Bank of Canada. The facility has a three-year revolving term and matures on April 21, 2011, unless extended. In addition, the Royal Bank of Canada has provided a $15,000 revolving demand facility and the Toronto Dominion Bank has provided a $15,000 revolving demand facility. The revolving credit facilities bear interest based on the lenders' rates for Canadian prime commercial loans, U.S. Base rate loans, Libor loans, or Bankers' Acceptances rates. Interest expense for the three months ended March 31, 2008 included a fixed commitment fee resulting in a weighted average interest rate of 12.0% (three months ended March 31, 2007 - 5.42%). As at March 31, 2008, the balance outstanding on the bank credit facilities was $nil (December 31, 2007 - $nil).

(b) In 2003, $125,000 of unsecured senior notes were issued by the Partnership and KEFL in three parts: $20,000 due in 2008 bearing interest at 5.42%, $52,500 due in 2010 bearing interest at 5.79% and $52,500 due in 2013 bearing interest at 6.16%. Interest is payable monthly. Financing costs of $1,215 have been deferred and are amortized using the effective interest rate method over the remaining terms of the related debt. The effective interest rates for the three months ended March 31, 2008 were 3.63%, 5.94% and 6.28% for the notes due in 2008, 2010 and 2013 respectively (three months ended March 31, 2007- 5.63%, 5.95% and 6.29%).

In 2004, $90,000 of unsecured senior notes were issued by KEFL and guaranteed by the Partnership. The notes bear interest at 5.23% and mature on October 1, 2009. Interest is payable semi-annually. Financing costs of $568 have been deferred and are amortized using the effective interest rate method over the remaining term of the debt. The effective interest rate for the three months ended March 31, 2008 was 5.36% (three months ended March 31, 2007 - 5.37%).

In 2007, $120,000 of unsecured senior notes were issued by KEFL and guaranteed by the Partnership and the Fund in two tranches: $60,000 due in 2017 bearing interest at 5.89% and $60,000 due in 2022 bearing interest at 6.14%. Interest is payable semi-annually. Financing costs of $1,116 have been deferred and are amortized using the effective interest rate method over the remaining terms of the related debt. The effective interest rates for the three months ended March 31, 2008 were 6.03% and 6.26% for the notes due in 2017 and 2022 respectively.

6. Convertible debentures

In 2004, the Fund issued convertible unsecured subordinated debentures in the principal amount of $100,000. The convertible debentures bear interest at 6.75% per annum, payable semi-annually in arrears on June 30 and December 31 each year. Interest expense of $367 has been accrued for the three months ended March 31, 2008 (three months ended March 31, 2007 - $421). These debentures will mature on June 30, 2011 and are convertible into trust units of the Fund at the option of the holders at any time prior to maturity at a conversion price of $12.00 per unit. At March 31, 2008, $78,720 debentures had been converted to trust units (December 31, 2007 - $78,178).

Financing costs consisting of an underwriters' commission of $4,000 and issuance costs of $332 have been deferred, and when there are no conversions are being amortized over the term of the debt using the effective interest rate method. Upon conversion of the debentures, the financing cost related to the principal amount of debt converted is adjusted and is recognized as a charge to unitholders' equity. As a result of conversions to date at March 31, 2008, $2,881 has been reclassified to unitholders' equity (December 31, 2007 - $2,857). As at March 31, 2008, $299 of financing costs remain. The effective interest rate for the three months ended March 31, 2008 was 7.36% (three months ended March 31, 2007 - 7.36%).

7. Asset retirement obligation

The following table presents the reconciliation between the beginning and ending aggregate carrying amount of the obligation associated with the retirement of the Fund's facilities.

Balance, March 31, 2008	39,355

8. Income taxes

On June 22, 2007, Bill C-52 Budget Implementation Act, 2007 was enacted by the Canadian federal government. As a result of this legislation, a new tax will be applied to distributions from publicly traded trusts in Canada. The new tax is not expected to apply to the Fund until 2011 as the government has provided a transition period for publicly traded trusts that existed prior to November 1, 2006.

The following is a reconciliation of income taxes, calculated at the combined federal and provincial income tax rate, to the income tax provision included in the consolidated statements of net earnings.

Earnings before tax and non-controlling interest	44,348	21,860

For income tax purposes, the subsidiaries of the Fund have non-capital losses carried forward of approximately $2,834 at March 31, 2008 (December 31, 2007 - $2,981) which are available to offset income of specific entities of the consolidated group in future periods. The benefit of these losses has been recorded at March 31, 2008.

The future income tax (liabilities) assets relate to losses and to the (taxable) deductible temporary differences in the carrying values and tax bases as follows:

As at	March 31, 2008 $	December 31, 2007 $
Property, plant and equipment	(138,972)	(152,747)
Asset retirement obligation	9,381	9,992

Asset retirement obligation	80	78
Non-capital losses	770	832
Intangible assets	-	379
Future income tax assets	355	845

9. Unitholders' capital

The Declaration of Trust provides that an unlimited number of trust units may be authorized and issued. Each trust unit is transferable, and represents an equal undivided beneficial interest in any distribution from the Fund and in the net assets of the Fund in the event of termination or winding-up of the Fund. All trust units are of the same class with equal rights and privileges.

The Declaration of Trust also provides for the issuance of an unlimited number of special trust units that will be used solely for providing voting rights to persons holding securities that are directly or indirectly exchangeable for units and that, by their terms, have voting rights in the Fund.

The trust units are redeemable at the holder's option at an amount equal to the lesser of: (i) 90% of the weighted average price per unit during the period of the last 10 trading days during which the trust units were traded on the Toronto Stock Exchange; and (ii) an amount equal to (a) the closing market price of the units; (b) an amount equal to the average of the highest and lowest prices of units if there was trading on the date on which the units were tendered for redemption; or (c) the average of the last bid and ask prices if there was no trading on the date on which the units were tendered for redemption.

Redemptions are subject to a maximum of $50 cash redemptions in any particular month. Redemptions in excess of this amount will be paid by way of a distribution in specie of assets of the Fund that may include notes issued by the Fund.

The Fund has a Distribution Reinvestment and Optional Unit Purchase Plan ("DRIP") that permits unitholders to reinvest cash distributions for additional units. This plan allows eligible participants an opportunity to reinvest distributions into trust units at a 3% discount to a weighted average market price, so long as units are issued from treasury under the DRIP. The Fund has the right to notify participants that units will be acquired in the market, in which case units will be purchased at the weighted average market price. Eligible unitholders can also make optional unit purchases under the optional unit purchase component of the plan at the weighted average market price.

10. Net earnings per unit

Basic per unit calculations for the three months ended March 31, 2008 and 2007 were based on the weighted average number of units outstanding for the related period. Convertible debentures were in the money for the three months ended March 31, 2008 and 2007 and contributed to the increase in diluted weighted average number of units for these periods.

Three months ended March 31	2008 $	2007 $

Balance, March 31, 2008	333,855

Pursuant to the Fund Declaration of Trust dated April 3, 2003 and its subsequent amendments, the Fund makes monthly distributions to holders of record on the last day of each month. Payments are made on or about the 15th day of the following month.

Distributions are paid from "Cash Flow of the Trust", a term that is defined in the Fund Declaration of Trust dated April 3, 2003. The Board of Directors of the Fund's administrator may, on or before each Distribution Record Date, declare payable all or any part of the Cash Flow of the Trust for the Distribution Period. The amount and level of distributions to be made for each Distribution Period are determined at the discretion of the Board of Directors. In determining its distribution policy, the Board of Directors considers several factors, including the Fund's current and future cash flow, capital requirements, debt repayments and other factors.

12. Compensation plans

The Long Term Incentive Plan (the "LTIP" or the "Plan") compensates officers, directors, key employees and consultants by delivering units of the Fund or paying cash in lieu of units. Participants in the LTIP are granted rights ("unit awards") to receive units of the Fund on specified dates in the future. The Plan permits the Board of Directors to authorize the grant of unit awards from time to time. Units are acquired in the marketplace under the plan.

The Plan consists of two types of unit awards, which are described below. Unit awards and the delivery of units under the Plan are accounted for in accordance with the intrinsic value method of accounting for stock-based compensation. The aggregate compensation cost recorded for the Plan was $3,085 for the three months ended March 31, 2008 (three months ended March 31, 2007 - $1,136).

(a) Performance Unit Awards

The Performance Unit Awards will vest 100% on the third anniversary of the effective date of each award, July 1, 2005, July 1, 2006 and July 1, 2007. The number of units to be delivered will be determined by the financial performance of the Fund over the three-year period. The number of units to be delivered will be calculated by multiplying the number of unit awards by an adjustment ratio and a payout multiplier. The adjustment ratio adjusts the number of units to be delivered to reflect the per unit cash distributions paid by the Fund to its unitholders during the term that the unit award is outstanding. The payout multiplier is based upon the actual three-year average annual cash distributions per unit of the Fund. The table below describes the relationship between the three-year average annual cash distribution per unit and the payout multiplier.

	Three-year annual cash distributions per unit
	July 1, 2005 Grant	July 1, 2006 Grant	July 1, 2007 Grant	Payout Multiplier
	Less than 1.32	Less than 1.42	Less than 1.44	Nil
First range	1.32 - 1.39	1.42 - 1.51	1.44 - 1.51	50%- 99%
Second range	1.40 - 1.55	1.52 - 1.71	1.52 - 1.67	100% - 199%
Third range	1.56 and greater	1.72 and greater	1.68 or greater	200%

As of March 31, 2008, 482,155 Performance Unit Awards (485,105 at December 31, 2007) were outstanding: 162,730 effective July 1, 2005, 142,075 effective July 1, 2006 and 177,350 effective July 1, 2007. The compensation cost recorded for these units for the three months ended March 31, 2008 was $2,766, using the applicable closing market price of a unit of the Fund (three months ended March 31, 2007 - $954).

(b) Time Vested Unit Awards ("Restricted Unit Awards")

Restricted Unit Awards will vest automatically, over a three-year period from the effective date of the award on July 1, 2005, July 1, 2006 and July 1, 2007, regardless of the performance of the Fund. The number of units to be delivered will be modified by an adjustment ratio which reflects the per unit distributions paid by the Fund to its unitholders during the term that the unit award is outstanding.

As of March 31, 2008, 84,420 Restricted Unit Awards (92,275 at December 31, 2007) were outstanding: 9,692 effective July 1, 2005, 22,678 effective July 1, 2006 and 52,050 effective July 1, 2007. The compensation cost recorded for these units for the three months ended March 31, 2008 was $319, using the applicable closing market price of a unit of the Fund (three months ended March 31, 2007 - $182).

13. Financial instruments and risk management

Financial instruments include cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, distributions payable, credit facilities, long-term debt, convertible debentures and derivatives held for trading (derivative instruments such as foreign exchange contracts, oil price contracts, natural gas price contracts, power price contracts and physical fixed price commodity contracts).

Derivative instruments and cash and cash equivalents are classified as held for trading and are measured at fair value. Accounts receivable are classified as other receivables and are measured at amortized cost. With the exception of derivative instruments held for trading, all financial liabilities are classified as other financial liabilities and are recorded at amortized cost.

Market risk and derivative instruments

Subsidiaries of the Fund enter into contracts to purchase and sell natural gas, NGLs and crude oil. These contracts are exposed to commodity price risk between the times contracted volumes are purchased and sold and foreign currency risk for those sales denominated in U.S. dollars. These risks are actively managed by balancing physical and financial contracts which include energy related forwards, swaps and forward currency contracts and swaps. A risk management committee meets regularly to review and assess the risks inherent in existing contracts and the effectiveness of the risk management strategies. This is achieved by modeling future sales and purchase contracts to monitor the sensitivity of changing prices and volumes.

A significant amount of electricity is consumed by the operating entities at their facilities. Due to the fixed fee nature of some service contracts in place with customers, these entities are unable to flow the cost of electricity to customers in all situations. In order to mitigate this exposure to fluctuations in the price of electricity, price swap agreements may be used. These agreements are accounted for as derivative instruments.

Certain natural gas, NGL and crude oil contracts that require physical delivery at fixed prices are accounted for as derivative instruments.

On occasions, subsidiaries of the Fund will enter into NGL purchase and sale contracts that are settled in a currency other than the currency that is routinely denominated for such commercial transactions. In these instances, the Fund records these non-financial contracts as embedded derivatives. Embedded derivatives are accounted for as derivative instruments.

Derivative instruments held for trading are recorded on the consolidated statement of financial position at fair value. Changes in the fair value of these financial instruments are recognized in earnings in the period in which they arise.

As at March 31, 2008, $4,023 of assets held for trading were included in accounts receivable and $690 of liabilities held for trading were included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities (December 31, 2007 - $3,112 included in accounts receivable and $12,566 included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities). The change in fair value of derivative instruments is recorded in Marketing operating revenue and NGL Infrastructure operating expense.

The change in fair value relating to derivative instruments were as follows:

	Three months ended March 31,
	2008	2007
Unrealized gain (loss)	$	$
Marketing	12,300	(5,457)
NGL Infrastructure	487	112

As at March 31, 2008, derivative instruments held for trading were exposed to commodity price risk. The following table outlines the increase (decrease) to net earnings and comprehensive income attributable to derivative instruments if there was a 10% change in the price of the commodity:

As at	March 31, 2008 $

The estimated fair value of all derivatives held for trading is based on quoted market prices and, if not available, on estimates from third-party brokers or dealers.

Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk arises on financial instruments that are denominated in a foreign currency. The Fund's functional currency is the Canadian dollar. All of the Fund's debt is denominated in Canadian dollars and is therefore not exposed to foreign currency risk. The Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure segments are also not subject to foreign currency risk as all sales and virtually all purchases are denominated in Canadian dollars. In the Marketing business, approximately US$111,603 of sales were priced in U.S. dollars for the three months ended March 31, 2008 (three months ended March 31, 2007 - US$81,958). Foreign currency risk is actively managed by using forward currency contracts and swaps. Management monitors the exposure to foreign currency risk and regularly reviews its financial instrument activities and all outstanding positions.

The Fund recorded $802 of realized foreign currency gain relating to U.S. dollar denominated cash, accounts receivable and accounts payable in Marketing operating expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2008 (three months ended March 31, 2007 - $176 loss). A further $303 of unrealized foreign currency loss was recorded in Marketing operating expenses (three months ended March 31, 2007 - $154 gain).

As at March 31, 2008, portions of the Fund's cash, accounts receivable and accounts payable were denominated in U.S. dollars. Based on these U.S. dollar financial instrument balances, net earnings and comprehensive income for the period ended March 31, 2008 would have increased/decreased by approximately $210 for every $0.01 decrease/increase in the value of the U.S./Canadian dollar exchange rate.

Interest rate risk

The majority of the Fund's interest rate risk is attributed to its fixed and floating rate debt, which is used to finance operations. The Fund's remaining financial instruments are not significantly exposed to interest rate risk. The floating rate debt creates exposure to interest rate cash flow risk, whereas the fixed rate debt creates exposure to interest rate price risk. At March 31, 2008, fixed rate borrowings comprised 100% of total debt outstanding (December 31, 2007 - 100%). The fair value of future cash flows for fixed rate debt fluctuates with changes in market interest rates. It is the Fund's intention to not repay fixed rate debt until maturity and therefore future cash flows would not fluctuate.

The Fund's earnings are sensitive to changes in interest rates on floating rate borrowings. If the interest rates applicable to floating rate borrowings were to have increased/decreased by 1%, it is estimated that net earnings and comprehensive income for the period ended March 31, 2008 would have decreased/increased by approximately $30 based on weighted average debt balances.

Credit risk

The majority of accounts receivable are due from entities in the oil and gas industry and are subject to normal industry credit risks. Concentration of credit risk is mitigated by having a broad domestic and international customer base. The Fund evaluates and monitors the financial strength of its customers in accordance with its credit policy. Revenue from the two largest customers amounted to 17% of operating revenue for the period ended March 31, 2008 (three months ended March 31, 2007 - 12%).

The Fund's maximum exposure to credit risk, which is a worst case scenario and does not reflect results expected by the Fund, is $270,032 at March 31, 2008. The Fund does not typically renegotiate the terms of trade accounts receivable; however, if a renegotiation does take place, the outstanding balance is included in the accounts receivable analysis below based on the original payment terms. There were no significant renegotiated balances outstanding at March 31, 2008. With respect to counterparties for derivative financial instruments, the credit risk is managed through dealing primarily with recognized futures exchanges or investment grade financial institutions and by maintaining credit policies, which significantly reduce overall counter party credit risk.

The allowance for credit losses is reviewed on a monthly basis. An assessment is made whether an account is deemed impaired based on the number of days outstanding and the likelihood of collection from the counter party.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that suitable sources of funding for the Fund's business activities may not be available. The Fund manages liquidity risk by maintaining bank credit facilities, continuously managing forecast and actual cash flows and monitoring the maturity profiles of financial assets and financial liabilities. The Fund has access to a wide range of funding at competitive rates through capital markets and banks to meet the immediate and ongoing requirements of the business.

The following table shows the contractual maturities for financial liabilities of the Fund:

	Within 1 year $	2009 $	2010 $	2011 $	2012 $	2013 $	After 2013 $
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	234,600	-	-	-	-	-	-
Distributions payable	8,283	-	-	-	-	-	-
Long-term debt(1)	20,000	90,000	52,500	-	-	52,500	120,000
Convertible debentures(2)	-	-	-	21,280	-	-	-

(1) Amounts represent principal only and exclude accrued interest.

(2) Convertible debentures are convertible into trust units of the Fund at the option of the holders at any time prior to maturing (note 6).

Fair value

The carrying values of accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and distributions payable approximate their fair values because the instruments are near maturity or have no fixed repayment terms. The fair value of the credit facilities approximates fair value due to their floating rates of interest. The fair value of the senior fixed rate debt at March 31, 2008 was $333,136 (December 31, 2007 - $337,589) based on third party estimates. The fair value of the Fund's unsecured convertible debentures at March 31, 2008 was $35,112 (December 31, 2007 - $32,078) as determined by reference to quoted market price for the Fund's debentures.

14. Capital Management

The Fund's objectives when managing capital are:

- to safeguard the Fund's ability to continue as a going concern;
- to maintain financial flexibility in order to fund investment opportunities and meet financial obligations; and
- to distribute to unitholders a significant portion of its current cash flow, after
  - I. satisfaction of debt service obligations (principal and interest) and income tax expenses,
  - II. satisfaction of any reclamation funding requirements,
  - III. providing for maintenance capital expenditures and
  - IV. retaining reasonable reserves for administrative and other expense obligations and reasonable reserves for working capital and capital expenditures as may be considered appropriate.

The Fund defines its capital as follows:

- Unitholders' equity,
- long-term debt, including working capital;
- credit facilities; and
- cash.

The Fund manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Fund may adjust the amount of distributions paid to unitholders, issue new units, issue new debt or issue new debt to replace existing debt with different characteristics.

The Fund monitors its capital structure primarily based on its consolidated debt to consolidated earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA") ratio. This ratio is calculated as consolidated debt divided by a twelve-month trailing EBITDA, which are non-GAAP measures.

For the period ended March 31, 2008, the Fund's capital management strategy was unchanged from the prior year. The Fund currently intends to maintain a consolidated debt to consolidated EBITDA ratio of less than 3.5.

Consolidated Debt	March 31, 2008
As at	$
Bank credit facilities	-
Long-term debt	315,000
Working capital (surplus) deficit(1)	(56,099)
Consolidated debt	258,901

Consolidated EBITDA		March 31, 2008
Twelve months ended		$
Operating revenues(3)		1,672,935
Operating expenses(3)		(1,467,167)
Unrealized (gain) loss on derivative instruments(3)		(5,569)
General and administrative expenses(2)		(25,439)
Consolidated EBITDA		174,760
Consolidated debt to consolidated EBITDA	Guideline(1) (less than) 3.5	1.48

(1) The Fund currently intends to maintain a consolidated debt to consolidated EBITDA ratio of less than 3.5.

(2) Working capital is defined as current assets less current liabilities.

(3) Operating revenues, operating expenses unrealized (gain) loss on derivative instruments and general and administrative expenses shown above are on a trailing twelve-month basis and therefore can not be directly derived from the financial statements.

Consolidated debt to consolidated EBITDA is also a measure used as a financial covenant for the Fund's credit facilities and long-term debt agreements. The Fund is also subject to the following financial covenants:

- Debt to capitalization
- Consolidated EBITDA to consolidated interest charges
- Priority debt to consolidated total assets

The calculation for each financial covenant is based on specific definitions, is not in accordance with GAAP and cannot be directly derived from the financial statements. The Fund was in compliance with all financial covenants as at March 31, 2008.

As a result of the Canadian trust taxation legislation passed in June 2007, the Fund is subject to certain limitations on the issuance of new equity referred to as "normal growth" limitations. The amount of new equity that can be issued by the Fund for the current and following two years, based on the Fund's market capitalization on October 31, 2006, is approximately as follows:

Normal growth capital allowed in:	Annual $	Cumulative $
2008	262,000	786,000
2009	262,000	1,048,000
2010	262,000	1,310,000

If the normal growth limitations were exceeded, the Fund may be subject to taxation prior to 2011. As at March 31, 2008, the normal growth limitations have not been exceeded.

15. Commitments and contingencies

The Fund, through its operating entities, is involved in various contractual agreements in the normal course of its operations. The agreements range from one to eleven years and comprise the processing of a major oil and gas producer's natural gas and the purchase of NGL production in the areas specified in the agreements. The purchase prices are based on current period market prices.

There are operating lease commitments relating to railway tank cars, vehicles, computer hardware, office space, terminal lease space and natural gas transportation. The estimated annual minimum operating lease rental payments from these commitments are as follows:

2008	6,470
2009	7,965
2010	6,446
2011	5,157
2012	4,059
Thereafter	2,034
	32,131

There are legal actions for which the ultimate results cannot be ascertained at this time. Management does not expect the outcome of any of these proceedings to have a material effect on the financial position or results of operations.

17. Segmented information

The Fund has three reportable segments: Marketing, Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure. The Marketing business consists of marketing NGLs, sulphur and crude oil. Gathering and Processing includes natural gas gathering and processing. NGL Infrastructure includes NGL and crude oil processing, transportation and storage.

The accounting policies of the segments are the same as that described in the summary of significant accounting policies. Inter-segment sales and expenses are recorded at current market prices.

18. Non-controlling interest

In the first quarter of 2007, a subsidiary of the Fund purchased an additional ownership interest in Rimbey Pipe Line Co. Ltd. for a purchase price of $1,513. In the second quarter of 2007, Rimbey Pipe Line Co. Ltd. was converted to a limited partnership (RPLP) and a subsidiary of the Fund acquired the remaining interest in RPLP for a purchase price of $5,203 bringing the Fund's ownership in RPLP to 100%. The difference between the fair value of the transactions and the carrying value of RPLP's net assets resulted in a difference of $3,666, which was applied to property, plant and equipment. A future tax liability and corresponding increase to goodwill was recorded in the amount of $520. As a result, the non-controlling interest was removed from the consolidated statement of financial position.

19. Internal reorganization

On January 2, 2008, the Fund completed an internal reorganization of certain of its subsidiaries. As part of the reorganization, a special distribution in the aggregate amount of $1,441 ($0.023529 per unit) was declared. These special distributions consisted of cash in the amount of $216 ($0.003529 per unit) and securities of certain subsidiaries of the Fund having an aggregate value of $1,225 ($0.02 per unit). Each security was redeemed for one special non-voting unit of the Fund ("Fund special units"). These Fund special units were then converted into regular units. The regular units were consolidated such that upon completion of the reorganization, each unitholder continued to hold the same number of units as was held immediately prior to the reorganization.

After completion of the reorganization, the Partnership is now directly owned by the Fund, and Keyera Energy Management Ltd. ("KEML") no longer has an interest in the Partnership. The future income tax rate applicable to the Fund is 2.5% higher than that of KEML which resulted in a future income tax expense of approximately $3,500. As a result of the new organizational structure, the Fund is able to preserve tax shelter within its operating entities for the next three years. Based on current projections, taxable temporary differences relating to property, plant and equipment are expected to reverse at a 0% tax rate which resulted in an approximately $16,500 future income tax recovery. The net effect of the internal reorganization was an approximately $13,000 future income tax recovery.

20. Subsequent Event

On May 1, 2008, a subsidiary of the Fund purchased a 35.6% ownership interest in the ATCO West Pembina gas plant for a purchase price of approximately $26 million.

2008 First Quarter Report

Three months ended March 31, 2008

2008 JUL 31 P
OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL

2008 FIRST QUARTER HIGHLIGHTS

- Keyera delivered strong first quarter financial results. Net earnings were $55.5 million and included a non-cash future tax recovery of $13.1 million and an unrealized gain of $12.8 million related to financial contracts. Excluding the effect of these non-cash items, net earnings were $3.9 million higher than the same period last year.

- First quarter cash flow from operating activities was $58.4 million, up slightly from the first quarter of 2007. Distributable cash flow[1] was $40.5 million ($0.66 per unit), 10% higher on a per unit basis than the same period last year. Distributions to unitholders totaled $25.7 million in the first quarter, or $0.42 per unit, including the special distribution of $0.02 paid on January 2, 2008. Excluding the special distribution, the payout ratio in the first quarter was 60%.

- Keyera announced an 8% distribution increase on February 12, its sixth distribution increase since inception. Beginning with the February distribution, payable on March 17, Keyera's cash distribution increased to 13.5 cents per unit per month, or $1.62 per unit annually.

- All business segments delivered strong first quarter results, driven by customer activity and growth capital projects completed in previous years. Contribution from Gathering and Processing of $29.0 million was particularly strong, up 35% from the first quarter of 2007. Contribution from NGL Infrastructure was $12.8 million, 4% higher than the same period last year. The Marketing business also had a strong quarter, delivering contribution of $27.1 million, including an unrealized gain from the change in fair value of financial contracts of $12.3 million.

- Keyera invested $49.8 million on growth capital projects and acquisitions in the first quarter and anticipates its 2008 capital expenditures will be between $150 and $200 million. This assumes that key projects proceed as planned and there is no material change in the economic or fiscal environment.

- In the first quarter, Keyera completed the construction of a 24 kilometre extension of the Caribou North gathering system, a truck terminal expansion at the Fort Saskatchewan facility and various smaller projects around its facilities. Keyera also acquired a diluent distribution terminal in the Edmonton/Fort Saskatchewan area and, in May, acquired a 35.6% ownership interest in the West Pembina gas plant.

Message to Unitholders

I am very pleased to announce another quarter of very strong financial and operating results. These results come from a combination of the execution of our business strategy, customer activity around our facilities and the investment we have made in strategic infrastructure over the past several years. I am proud to say that we continue to pursue our growth strategy by targeting internal growth projects and strategic acquisitions, and we completed a number of such projects in the first quarter.

Enhanced by the inclusion of $25.9 million of non-cash items related to future income tax and financial contracts, net earnings of $55.5 million were significantly higher than in first quarter of last year. First quarter cash flow from operating activities was $58.4 million and distributable cash flow was $40.5 million, or $0.66 per unit. This was 10% higher than the $0.60 per unit posted in the same period last year. Distributions to unitholders were $25.7 million in the first quarter, or $0.42 per unit, including the special distribution of $0.02 paid on January 2, 2008. This allowed us to utilize the remaining $14.8 million of cash to fund growth capital initiatives. Excluding the special distribution, the payout ratio for the quarter was 60%.

In February we announced an 8% increase in our distributions to 13.5 cents per unit per month, or $1.62 per unit annually, effective with the February distribution, payable to unitholders on March 17. This marks our second increase in the last ten months and our sixth distribution increase since inception. Since inception our unitholders have received an 8% compound annual growth rate in distributions per unit.

All three of our business lines contributed to these strong results. Significant producer activity around our gas plants resulted in contribution increasing again this quarter in the Gathering and Processing segment. First quarter contribution of $29.0 million was up 35% from the same period last year and another 4% higher than the fourth quarter of 2007. Our NGL Infrastructure also had a strong quarter, posting contribution of $12.8 million, a 4% increase from the same period last year. Marketing contribution of $27.1 million was significantly higher than the first quarter of 2007 due to very strong operational results and the recording of a $12.3 million non-cash unrealized gain for the quarter.

Keyera initiated and completed a number of internal projects and acquisitions in the first quarter. In the first quarter, we acquired a diluent distribution terminal in the Fort Saskatchewan/Edmonton area for $32 million, which will be used primarily to deliver condensate into Alberta for use as diluent in the oil sands sector. Known as the Alberta Diluent Terminal, the facility will significantly enhance the capability and flexibility of Keyera's existing logistics and storage businesses and will establish Keyera as a key supplier of diluent in the province. Subsequent to the ADT acquisition, we acquired an adjacent eight acre parcel of land for an additional $3.3 million. Over the next year, we anticipate spending an additional $18 million to integrate the facility with Keyera's NGL Infrastructure in the area.

On May 1, we closed the acquisition of a 35.6% ownership interest in the ATCO West Pembina gas plant for $26 million and became plant operator. The plant is located in an area of west central Alberta where the demand for sour gas processing is increasing. Its 145 million cubic feet per day of sour gas processing capacity, "deep cut" liquids extraction capability and 70 kilometres of gathering pipelines will allow us to provide a wide range of services to customers. This acquisition further solidifies our position as the leader in sour gas processing in Alberta.

At Fort Saskatchewan, we completed an expansion of our truck terminal and continued work on our storage expansion project. The first cavern well bore is expected to be drilled in the second quarter. In the North Central Region, we received regulatory approval from the Energy Resources Conservation Board to begin construction of the ethane extraction project at the Rimbey gas plant. We have commenced work on this project and expect it to be completed in mid 2009. In northeastern British Columbia, we completed construction of the Caribou North gas gathering system extension during the first quarter. This 24 kilometre pipeline project was completed on budget and on time and opens up access to approximately 500 square kilometres of geologically prospective lands north of the Caribou gas plant in the Trutch and Bougie areas. In conjunction with this pipeline extension, we have initiated a detailed engineering study to expand the Caribou gas plant capacity by about 60%, or 40 million cubic feet per day.

With the level of activity underway, Keyera now expects its 2008 growth capital spending to be between $150 million and $200 million, assuming key projects proceed as planned and there is no material change in the economic or fiscal environment.

On behalf of the Fund's directors and management team, I thank you for your continued support and look forward to continued success in 2008.

Contribution From Operating Segments

Keyera operates one of the largest natural gas midstream businesses in Canada with three major operating segments: Gathering and Processing, NGL Infrastructure and Marketing. The Gathering and Processing segment includes natural gas gathering systems and processing plants strategically located in the natural gas production areas on the western side of the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin. The NGL Infrastructure segment includes NGL and crude oil pipelines, terminals, processing and storage facilities in Edmonton and Fort Saskatchewan, Alberta, one of North America's major NGL hubs. The Marketing segment includes activities such as the marketing of propane, butane and condensate to customers in Canada and the United States, and crude oil midstream activities.

Keyera's Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure segments provide a large portion of the total contribution. Keyera benefits from the geographical diversity of its natural gas processing plants, NGL infrastructure facilities and associated assets. The revenues generated from these facilities are fee-for-service based, with minimal direct exposure to commodity prices. The remainder of Keyera's contribution is derived from its Marketing segment. Because of Keyera's integrated approach to its business, its infrastructure provides a significant competitive advantage in NGL marketing. Keyera also benefits from diversified sources of NGL supply and a diversified customer base across North America.

The following table shows the contribution from each of Keyera's operating segments and includes inter-segment transactions that are eliminated in the Fund's consolidated financial statements. Because contribution is not a standard measure under Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), it may not be comparable to similar measures reported by other entities. Contribution does not include the elimination of inter-segment transactions as required by GAAP and refers to operating revenues less operating expenses. Management believes contribution provides an accurate portrayal of operating profitability by segment. Keyera's Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure segments charge Keyera's Marketing segment for the use of facilities at market rates. Those charges are reflected in contribution, but are eliminated in GAAP segment measures. The most comparable GAAP measures are reported in note 17, Segmented Information, which is found in the financial statements.

Notes:

[1] Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure contribution includes revenues for processing, transportation and storage services provided to Keyera's Marketing business.

[2] The Marketing contribution is net of expenses for processing, transportation and storage services provided by Keyera's facilities and general and administrative costs directly attributable to the Marketing segment.

[3] Other expenses include corporate general and administrative, interest, depreciation and amortization, accretion and impairment expense. Corporate general and administrative costs exclude the direct Marketing general and administrative costs.

[4] Revenue and operating expenses before inter-segment eliminations as shown above are both non-GAAP measures and do not consider the elimination of inter-segment sales and expenses. Inter-segment transactions are eliminated upon consolidation of Keyera's financial results to arrive at external revenue and external operating expenses, both GAAP measures, as reported in note 17, Segmented Information.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

The following management's discussion and analysis ("MD&A") was prepared as of May 13, 2008 and is a review of the results of operations and the liquidity and capital resources of Keyera Facilities Income Fund (the "Fund") and its subsidiaries (collectively "Keyera"). It should be read in conjunction with the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements of the Fund for the quarter ended March 31, 2008 and the notes thereto as well as the consolidated financial statements of the Fund for the year ended December 31, 2007 and the related management's discussion and analysis. Additional information related to the Fund, including the Fund's Annual Information Form, is filed on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

This discussion and analysis refers to certain financial measures that are not determined in accordance with Canadian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("GAAP"). Measures such as operating margin (operating revenues minus operating expenses), distributable cash flow (cash flow from operating activities adjusted for changes in non-cash working capital, maintenance capital expenditures and the distributable cash flow attributable to any non-controlling interest) and EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) are not standard measures under GAAP and therefore may not be comparable to similar measures reported by other entities. Management believes that these supplemental measures facilitate the understanding of the Fund's results of operations, leverage, liquidity and financial position. Operating margin is used to assess the performance of specific segments before general and administrative expenses and other non-operating expenses. Distributable cash flow is used to assess the level of cash flow generated from ongoing operations and to evaluate the adequacy of internally generated cash flow to fund distributions. EBITDA is commonly used by management, investors and creditors in the calculation of ratios for assessing leverage and financial performance. Investors are cautioned, however, that these measures should not be construed as an alternative to net earnings determined in accordance with GAAP as an indication of the Fund's performance.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements contained in this MD&A and accompanying documents contain forward-looking statements. These statements relate to future events or the Fund's future performance. Such statements are predictions only and actual events or results may differ materially. The use of words such as "anticipate", "continue", "estimate", "expect", "may", "will", "project", "should", "plan", "intend", "believe", and similar expressions, including the negatives thereof, is intended to identify forward looking statements. All statements other than statements of historical fact contained in this document are forward looking statements, including, without limitation, statements regarding: the future financial position of Keyera; business strategy and plans of management; anticipated growth and proposed activities; budgets, including future capital, operating or other expenditures and projected costs; estimated utilization rates; objectives of or involving Keyera; impact of commodity prices; treatment of Keyera under governmental regulatory regimes; the existence, operation and strategy of the risk management program, including the approximate and maximum amount of forward sales and hedging to be employed; and expectations regarding Keyera's ability to raise capital and to add to its assets through acquisitions or internal growth opportunities.

The forward looking statements reflect management's current beliefs and assumptions with respect to such things as the outlook for general economic trends, industry trends, commodity prices, capital markets, and the governmental, regulatory and legal environment. In some instances, this MD&A and accompanying documents may also contain forward-looking statements attributed to third party sources. For example, the discussions with respect to possible amendments to federal legislation imposing taxes on the distributions of publicly traded income trusts and partnerships and the proposed changes in the Alberta royalty system are based solely on news releases and background information prepared by the federal and Alberta governments respectively. Management believes that its assumptions and analysis in this MD&A are reasonable and that the expectations reflected in the forward looking statements contained herein are also reasonable. However, Keyera cannot assure readers that these expectations will prove to be correct.

All forward looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results, events, levels of activity and achievements to differ materially from those anticipated in the forward looking statements. Such factors include but are not limited to: general economic, market and business conditions; operational matters, including potential hazards inherent in our operations; risks arising from co-ownership of facilities; activities of other facility owners; competitive action by other companies; activities of producers and other customers and overall industry activity levels; changes in gas composition; fluctuations in commodity prices and supply/demand trends; processing and marketing margins; effects of weather conditions; fluctuations in interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates; changes in operating and capital costs, including fluctuations in input costs; actions by governmental authorities; decisions or approvals of administrative tribunals; changes in environmental and other regulations; reliance on key personnel; competition for, among other things, capital, acquisition opportunities and skilled personnel; changes in tax laws relating to income trusts, including the effects that such changes may have on unitholders, and in particular any differential effects relating to unitholder's country of residence; and other factors, many of which are beyond the control of Keyera, some of which are discussed in this MD&A and in Keyera's Annual Information Form dated February 26, 2008 (the "Annual Information Form") filed on SEDAR and available on the Keyera website at www.keyera.com.

Readers are cautioned that they should not unduly rely on the forward looking statements in this MD&A and accompanying documents. Further, readers are cautioned that the forward looking statements in this MD&A speak only as of the date of this MD&A and Keyera does not undertake any obligation to publicly update or to revise any of the forward looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as may be required by applicable laws.

All forward looking statements contained in this MD&A and accompanying documents are expressly qualified by this cautionary statement. Further information about the factors affecting forward looking statements and management's assumptions and analysis thereof, is available in filings made by Keyera with Canadian provincial securities commissions, which can be viewed on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

INTRODUCTION

The statement of net earnings contained in the unaudited interim consolidated financial statements includes the results of operations of the Fund, Keyera Energy Limited Partnership (the "Partnership"), Keyera Energy Facilities Limited ("KEFL"), Keyera Energy Ltd. ("KEL"), Keyera Energy Management Ltd. ("KEML"), Keyera Energy Inc. ("KEI"), Rimbey Pipeline Limited Partnership ("RPLP") for the three months ended March 31, 2007 and the results of operations of each of those entities and Alberta Diluent Terminal Limited Partnership ("ADTLP") for the three months ended March 31, 2008. The Fund and its subsidiaries are collectively referred to as "Keyera". A diagram of Keyera's organizational structure and descriptions of the Fund and its subsidiaries can be found on Keyera's website at www.keyera.com .

BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

Industry Activity

In the first quarter of 2008, producers drilled approximately 5,161 wells in Canada, virtually the same as the 5,243 wells drilled in the fourth quarter of 2007, although down 15% from the first quarter last year. A number of factors contributed to the decline in wells drilled in 2008, including lower natural gas prices, and the announcement of changes to the Alberta royalty regime.

In the foothills front region of Alberta, the number of wells drilled in the first quarter declined by 16% compared to the same period in 2007. The average depth of wells drilled in the region during the first quarter was 2,420 metres, similar to the depth drilled in the first quarter of last year. In the central Alberta region, the number of wells drilled dropped by about 6% compared to the first quarter of 2007, with the average depth decreasing approximately 6% to 1,132 metres. British Columbia experienced a 19% drop in the number of wells drilled compared to the first quarter of last year. The average depth per well in British Columbia increased to just over 2,000 metres, 18% higher than the first quarter of last year.

Natural gas inventory levels in North America declined significantly over the winter months. At the end of the first quarter, gas inventories in the United States were at their lowest level in at least 36 months and were in line with the five year average for that time of year. This decline resulted from a number of factors, including increased use of natural gas for electrical generation, higher demand resulting from more normal winter weather in North America and lower imports of LNG. As a result of these factors, natural gas prices have strengthened significantly in 2008. At the end of the first quarter, the price of natural gas at the AECO hub in Alberta had increased to approximately $8.93 per mcf, about $1.78 per mcf higher than the same time last year. Over the same period, West Texas Intermediate oil has increased over $45 per barrel and, at quarter end, was trading at about $105 per barrel.

With natural gas supply and demand coming back into balance and an apparent reduction in drilling costs in western Canada, indications are that drilling activity may increase throughout the remainder of the year. The Petroleum Services Association of Canada has revised its 2008 forecast of wells drilled in Canada from 14,500 to 16,500.

Climate change regulations

Under Alberta's rules dealing with greenhouse gas emissions, facilities with large emissions of CO_2 equivalent (>100 kilotonnes per year) must reduce net emissions intensity to 88% of the average emissions intensity at that facility between 2003 and 2005. If the actual emissions intensity is above the target, the facility licensee may purchase "emissions offsets", or fund credits at a cost of $15/tonne of CO_2 equivalent, or emission "performance credits". Keyera operates three facilities which are subject to these requirements: the Strachan, Rimbey and Brazeau River gas plants. These requirements came into effect on July 1, 2007. The cost of these new rules for Keyera for the second half of 2007 was less than $200,000.

Keyera's management anticipates that a portion of these costs will be recoverable from customers as flow-through operating costs. Projects implemented since 2002 at Keyera's facilities could generate emissions offsets or performance credits; however, it is premature to determine what benefit, if any, could be realized from those actions. Keyera is in the process of preparing an application for emissions offsets from the acid gas injection project at its Brazeau River gas plant.

On March 10, 2008, the federal government released further details of its emissions reductions plan for larger emitters. Under the federal government's plan, existing facilities are expected to improve their emissions intensity (compared to 2006) by 18% in 2010 and an additional 2% each year thereafter. The March 10 announcement states that these expectations will apply to upstream oil and gas facilities that emit 3 kilotonnes per year or more of CO_2 equivalent. Keyera operates 30 facilities, including plants and compressors, with current emissions that exceed that threshold. The announcement also indicates that the emissions requirements will only apply to companies that are larger than a specified size – 10,000 barrels of oil equivalent per day. It is not clear how this threshold will apply to Keyera.

The primary compliance mechanisms available to comply with the proposed federal requirements will be emissions reductions, contributions to a technology fund and the purchase of credits through a trading market. Contributions to the technology fund will be limited and the contribution rate will be $15/tonne between 2010 and 2012 and $20/tonne thereafter. The federal government has predicted that carbon prices per tonne in this trading market will be $25/tonne in 2010, $50/tonne in 2016 and $65/tonne in 2020. Keyera's management anticipates that, if these requirements become applicable to Keyera, a portion of these costs will be recoverable from customers as flow-through operating costs. Alternative compliance mechanisms that will be available to a limited extent under the federal initiative include limited use of "clean development mechanism" credits under the Kyoto Protocol and limited credits for early action.

The federal government has stated that it is committed to achieving a common threshold and reporting regime in Alberta. The federal government has also announced that it "will continue discussion with the Government of Alberta on these issues, seeking a common practical approach to emissions coverage, including the phasing of thresholds and the identification of additional measures that could be implemented to address emissions in the rest of the sector." The effect of these initiatives on Keyera can not be determined until the federal and provincial governments provide additional information.

On April 3, 2008, the British Columbia government announced a cap and trade system that would establish an overall cap or limit on emissions with the trading system allowing regulated emitters to buy and sell emissions allowances or buy offset units. The cap and trade system will apply to industries designated by the B.C. government through regulations. The government has not released a draft of those regulations, but indications are that the cap and trade system will apply to the upstream oil and gas industry. The effect on Keyera can not be determined until the B.C. government provides additional information.

A more complete description of the environmental regulations that affect Keyera's businesses can be found in Keyera's Annual Information Form, which is available on SEDAR.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Keyera's midstream activities are conducted through three business segments. The Gathering and Processing segment provides natural gas gathering and processing services to producers. The NGL Infrastructure segment provides NGL processing, transportation and storage services to producers, marketers (including Keyera) and others. The services in both these segments are provided on a fee-for-service basis. The Marketing segment is focused on the marketing of by-products recovered from the processing of raw gas, primarily NGLs, and crude oil midstream activities. A more complete description of Keyera's businesses by segment can be found in the Fund's Annual Information Form, which is available at www.sedar.com.

Continuing strong performance in all segments of the business generated operating margin of $69.8 million in the first quarter of 2008, an increase of $26.7 million compared to last year. Included in the 2008 operating margin was $12.8 million of unrealized gain related to the change in fair value of financial contracts compared to an unrealized loss of $5.3 million contained in the 2007 results. Excluding the effect of unrealized gains and losses, operating margin in the first quarter of 2008 was $57.0 million, $8.6 million higher than the first quarter of 2007. This increase was due primarily to the tie-in of new sour gas volumes and NGL extraction activities in the Gathering and Processing segment and strong winter season results in the Marketing segment.

Net earnings before tax and non-controlling interest in the first quarter of 2008 were $44.3 million, an increase of $22.4 million compared to the first quarter of 2007. Of this increase, $18.1 million was attributable to the unrealized gains and losses. The remainder was due to the higher operating margin, partially offset by a $3.6 million increase in general and administrative expenses due primarily to higher incentive plan costs and $0.7 million of higher interest costs.

An income tax recovery of $11.2 million was recorded in the first quarter of 2008 bringing net earnings to $55.5 million, an increase of $36.5 million compared to the first quarter of 2007. The income tax recovery was due to a $13.1 million non-cash recovery related to a reduction in the future tax liability resulting from the internal reorganization completed in January 2008, partially offset by $1.9 million of current tax expense.

Gathering and Processing

First quarter Gathering and Processing operating margin of $27.7 million was 34% higher than the same period last year. This increase was due to higher revenues compared to the first quarter of 2007.

Gathering and Processing revenue for the first quarter of 2008 was $48.6 million, an increase of $6.6 million, or 16%, compared to the first quarter of 2007. The tie-in of new higher fee volumes at the Bigoray and Strachan gas plants, offsetting declines in lower priced volumes, and the revenue generated from NGL extraction activities at the Rimbey and Paddle River gas plants were significant contributors to the increase. The NGL extraction activities contributed approximately $2.3 million to operating margins in the first quarter of 2008 and are dependent upon favourable price differentials between the NGL products produced and natural gas. Therefore, these margins may not be permanently sustainable at current levels.

The favourable variances discussed above more than offset the decrease in throughput and revenue at the Brazeau River gas plant resulting from the curtailment of sour gas volumes during part of the first quarter of 2008. The curtailment was necessary due to the loss of acid gas processing capability as the old disposal reservoir approached its capacity. A new well was put into service in March 2008 and volumes are returning to previous levels.

Gathering and Processing operating expenses for the first quarter of 2008 were $20.9 million, a decrease of $0.4 million, compared to the first quarter of 2007. The decrease was primarily due to ongoing cost control efforts which more than offset rising costs from general price increases. As well, a significant amount of preventive maintenance work was completed last year at the Caribou gas plant, where breakdowns in the first quarter of 2007 contributed to higher operating costs in that period.

Average gross processing throughput in the first quarter of 2008 was 843 million cubic feet per day, down 4% from the fourth quarter of 2007 and about the same as the first quarter last year.

Gathering and Processing - North Central Region

The North Central Region delivered higher operating margin compared to the first quarter of last year primarily due to higher margins at the Rimbey and Caribou gas plants. Throughput for the quarter was 424 million cubic feet per day, 6% lower than the first quarter of last year. This decrease was primarily due to throughput declines at the Chinchaga and Rimbey gas plants.

In the first quarter, Keyera received regulatory approval to proceed with its ethane extraction project at the Rimbey gas plant. Final design work and bidding of equipment is underway and work is expected to begin in the second quarter. The cost of the project is now estimated at $28 million and project completion is expected to be in mid 2009. When operational, the project will produce approximately 5,000 barrels per day of ethane. The regulatory approvals were appealed by two energy industry participants in April and those appeals are expected to take several months to reach a conclusion. The appeals are not currently expected to affect project timing.

In the first quarter, Keyera installed a vapour recovery unit on the flare system at the Rimbey gas plant. The unit will recover gas that would otherwise be burned in the flare system and utilize it as fuel, thereby reducing greenhouse gas emissions and fuel gas consumption at the plant. The unit was commissioned in April and is currently being performance tested and optimized.

A regularly scheduled maintenance turnaround at the Gilby gas plant is planned to commence in May and last for ten days to two weeks. Some natural gas volumes will be diverted to the Rimbey gas plant during the Gilby shutdown. Costs associated with the turnaround will be fully recovered in 2008.

In December 2007, a number of land parcels in the areas around the Caribou North gas gathering system were posted and sold in one of the largest land sales in British Columbia's history. A number of producers conducted active winter drilling programs in the first quarter and some production from the winter drilling has been tied into the Caribou gas plant for processing. In April, a producer completed a pipeline crossing of the Buckinghorse River northwest of the plant and immediately began delivering significant gas volumes. As a result, the Caribou gas plant is now operating near its capacity of 65 million cubic feet per day.

In the first quarter, Keyera completed construction of a pipeline extension at the north end of the Caribou North gas gathering system. The new pipeline connects the Caribou gas plant with the Bougie gathering system and plant site acquired in the second quarter of 2007 and crosses a number of the sections of land that were posted in December.

As a result of the drilling activity in the area, Keyera has begun detailed engineering to expand the Caribou gas plant processing capacity by 40 million cubic feet per day, to 105 million cubic feet per day. A decision on whether to proceed with the expansion is expected in mid 2008.

Gathering and Processing - Foothills Region

The Foothills Region delivered significantly higher operating margin in the first quarter compared to the same period last year. Higher sour gas volumes at the Strachan and Bigoray gas plants contributed to the increase.

First quarter throughput in the Foothills Region was 418 million cubic feet per day, 7% higher than the first quarter of 2007, although down somewhat relative to the fourth quarter. Higher throughput at the Paddle River gas plant as a result of the NGL extraction activities initiated in the fourth quarter of 2007 also resulted in higher first quarter operating margins. However, temporary volume restrictions in the first quarter at the Brazeau River gas plant somewhat offset the throughput increases.

A new acid gas injection well was commissioned in February at the Brazeau River gas plant. This new well provides access to a depleted gas reservoir, replacing the previous reservoir which was approaching capacity. Despite redirecting volumes to other Keyera plants for processing, some restrictions on processing of sour gas volumes at Brazeau River were necessary for a short period until the new well became operational. Since February, Brazeau River has returned to previous processing levels. In April, construction was completed on a new gathering pipeline southwest of the Brazeau River gas plant and volumes in the area were redirected to Brazeau River for processing.

In the Pembina region, where Keyera's Brazeau River, Bigoray, Pembina North and the recently acquired West Pembina gas plants are located, producers continued to deliver sour Nisku gas at increasing levels. The delivery of these incremental gas volumes to Keyera facilities has resulted in sour gas handling nearing capacity in the area. Keyera is evaluating alternatives to enhance sour gas processing services in the area.

Throughput remained steady at the Strachan gas plant in the first quarter. A third, producer owned, field compressor is currently being installed in a producing region southwest of the Nordegg River gas plant, which is expected to deliver incremental volumes to the plant late in the second quarter.

In the first quarter, Keyera agreed to acquire a 35.6% interest in the ATCO West Pembina gas plant from three plant owners for a purchase price of approximately $26 million. The plant has 145 million cubic feet per day of sour gas processing capacity, "deep cut" natural gas liquids extraction capability, 520 tonnes per day of sulphur handling capacity and 70 kilometres of associated gathering pipelines. The transaction closed on May 1 and approximately 40 of the plant's operations, maintenance and administrative staff joined Keyera at that time. Concurrent with the closing, Keyera became operator of the facility.

The scheduled maintenance turnaround for the Easyford oil battery was completed in early May. The turnaround was approximately ten days and the costs will be fully recovered in 2008. A turnaround is scheduled for the Nordegg River gas plant in June. The turnaround is expected to last about 10 days and costs will be fully recoverable in the current year. During the Nordegg River outage, some volumes will be diverted to the Strachan gas plant for processing.

NGL Infrastructure

First quarter NGL Infrastructure operating margin of $5.5 million was 27% higher than the first quarter of 2007. This increase was the result of higher revenues compared to the first quarter of 2007.

NGL Infrastructure revenue for the first quarter of 2008 was $10.9 million, an increase of $1.2 million compared to the first quarter of 2007. The higher revenue was primarily the result of continued demand for storage at Fort Saskatchewan. Other contributors included higher volumes transported on the Rimbey and Fort Saskatchewan pipelines and higher volumes of propane moving through the rail rack at Edmonton. Somewhat offsetting these favourable variances was lower third party processing revenue at the Fort Saskatchewan fractionation plant.

NGL Infrastructure operating expenses for the first quarter of 2008 were $5.4 million, unchanged compared to the first quarter of 2007. Lower operating costs due to the reduction in fractionation volumes processed were offset by higher integrity program costs.

In January, a leak in one of the pipelines on the Fort Saskatchewan system resulted in the system being out of service for several days. Leakage was minimal and the repair was completed quickly.

Construction of the truck terminal expansion at the Fort Saskatchewan facility was completed in the first quarter and became operational in April. The expanded terminal has the ability to load propane and butane and to load or offload condensate. The new terminal enhances Keyera's service offering and provides Keyera and its customers with greater logistics flexibility.

The connections and tie-ins for the fourth pipeline between the Edmonton Terminal and the Fort Saskatchewan facility are under construction and are expected to be completed in the third quarter.

Work is continuing on the storage facility expansion at Fort Saskatchewan. Site preparation work is complete and the first well is expected to be drilled in June. Once the well is completed, the cavern washing process will begin. The cavern is expected to be put into service in mid 2010.

In late March, a subsidiary of Keyera acquired a diluent distribution terminal in Edmonton. Known as the Alberta Diluent Terminal ("ADT"), the terminal will enable the import and offload of over 50,000 barrels per day of condensate, for use in the oil sands sector as diluent. A key feature of the terminal is its ability to handle unit train deliveries, which consist of 100 rail cars. In addition to its rail handling and unloading capabilities, the terminal also has a truck loading rack and 435,000 barrels of product storage in above ground tanks. Subsequent to the acquisition of the ADT facility, the same subsidiary of Keyera acquired an 8 acre parcel of land adjacent to the ADT site for $3.3 million. Concurrent with the ADT announcement, Keyera announced plans to invest $18 million to integrate the terminal with Keyera's NGL infrastructure in the area, connecting the ADT facility by pipeline to Keyera's Edmonton and Fort Saskatchewan facilities. The acquisition of the terminal has generated significant interest from companies active in the oil sands sector and Keyera is currently evaluating new proprietary and third party business opportunities for the facility.

Marketing

Keyera's Marketing operating margin in the first quarter of 2008 was $36.6 million, $18.6 million higher than the first quarter of 2007. Virtually all of the variance was due to the unrealized gains related to the change in fair value of financial contracts that are included in the results. Excluding the unrealized gains and losses, operating margin in the first quarter of 2008 was $24.3 million, $0.8 million higher than in the first quarter of 2007.

Marketing revenue for the first quarter of 2008 was $493.3 million, an increase of $186 million compared to the first quarter of 2007. The increase was due to higher NGL sales volumes, higher prices and approximately $12.3 million of unrealized gains related to the change in fair value of financial contracts. The unrealized gain is discussed later in this section.

The table below outlines the composition of the revenues generated from Keyera's Marketing business.

Composition of Marketing Revenue (in thousands of dollars)	2008	2007
Physical sales	495,868	311,757
Financial instruments - realized	(14,834)	1,042
Financial instruments - unrealized	12,300	(5,457)
Marketing revenue	493,334	307,342

NGL sales volumes for the first quarter of 2008 averaged 66,100 barrels per day an increase of approximately 6,500 barrels per day compared to the first quarter of 2007. The increase was due primarily to the strong demand for propane and condensate during the winter season. Prices for all NGL products are generally correlated to crude oil and were strong throughout most of the first quarter of 2008.

Marketing operating expenses for the first quarter of 2008 were $456.8 million, an increase of $167.4 million compared to the first quarter of 2007. The $167.4 million increase is related to the growth in sales volumes and higher hydrocarbon prices.

Keyera's crude oil midstream business continued to meet expectations in the first quarter of 2008. Volumes delivered to field oil terminals remained steady and quality differentials remained favourable.

NGL product inventories were $36.7 million at the end of the first quarter, $23.4 million lower than the first quarter of 2007. This decrease was due primarily to lower volumes in storage, partially offset by higher prices. The 2007 inventories included a planned accumulation of product to meet contracted sales upcoming in future periods.

Financial contracts are used by Keyera to protect inventory from fluctuations in the prices of NGL products. To the extent these contracts are effective (i.e., the change in the market price of crude oil is correlated to the change in the prices of the underlying physical NGL products), gains and losses on these financial contracts will be offset by gains or losses in the proceeds that will be realized upon the sale of the products. The strategy of utilizing crude oil price swaps to hedge the commodity price risk related to NGL products is subject to basis risk between the price of crude oil and the prices of the NGL products. As a result, this strategy cannot be expected to fully offset future propane, butane and condensate price movements.

In the first quarter of 2008, most of the financial contracts held at December 31, 2007 matured. As the price of crude oil was higher than the contracted fixed price, Keyera was obligated to pay $14.8 million to the counterparties under the financial contracts. These payments were recorded in revenue as offsets to the actual proceeds received from the sale of physical products. As the financial contracts matured and no further obligation existed, previously accrued unrealized losses were reversed, generating most of the unrealized gain. The remainder of the unrealized gain was related to changes in the value of financial contracts entered into during the first quarter of 2008.

For a more complete discussion of the risks and trends that could affect the marketing performance and the steps that Keyera takes to mitigate these risks, readers are referred to the descriptions in this MD&A and to Keyera's Annual Information Form, which is available on SEDAR.

Non-operating expenses and other earnings

General and administrative expenses for the first quarter of 2008 were $8.9 million, up $3.6 million from the first quarter of 2007. Long term incentive plan costs accounted for $2.9 million of the variance, reflecting a higher unit price and the effect of the distribution increase implemented in February 2008. Excluding the effect of the incentive plan costs, general and administrative expenses were $0.7 million higher reflecting higher activity levels and staff costs.

Interest expense, net of interest revenue, was $5.3 million for the first quarter of 2008, $0.7 million greater than the first quarter of 2007. The increase was due to higher borrowings used to fund capital projects.

Depreciation and amortization expense was $10.5 million for the first quarter of 2008, virtually unchanged from the first quarter of 2007.

An income tax recovery of $11.2 million was recorded in the first quarter of 2008, compared to $2.6 million of income tax expense incurred in the first quarter of 2007. This recovery was due to a $13.1 million reduction in future income tax liabilities resulting from the internal reorganization completed in January 2008, offset by $1.9 million of current tax expense.

Critical Accounting Estimates

The Fund's consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP. Certain accounting policies require that management make appropriate decisions with respect to the formulation of estimates and assumptions that affect the recorded amounts of certain assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses. Management reviews its assumptions and estimates regularly, but new information and changes in circumstances may result in actual results or revised estimates that differ materially from current estimates. A description of the accounting estimates and the methodologies and assumptions underlying the estimates are described in management's discussion and analysis presented with the December 31, 2007 consolidated financial statements of the Fund. There have been no changes to the methodologies and assumptions. The most significant estimates are those indicated below:

Estimation of Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure revenues:

At March 31, 2008, operating revenues and accounts receivable for the Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure segments contained an estimate of $21.5 million for March 2008 operations.

Estimation of Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure operating expenses:
At March 31, 2008, operating expenses and accounts payable for the Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure segments contained an estimate of $7.8 million for March 2008 operations.

Estimation of Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure equalization adjustments:
Much of the revenue from the Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure assets is generated on a recovery of operating costs basis. Under this method, the operating component of the fee is a pro rata share of the operating costs for the facility, calculated based upon total throughput. Users of each facility are charged a fee per unit based upon estimated costs and throughput, with an adjustment to actual throughput completed after the end of the year. Each quarter, throughput volumes and operating costs are reviewed to determine whether the estimated unit fee charged during the quarter properly reflects the actual volumes and costs, and the allocations of revenues and operating costs to other plant owners are also reviewed. Appropriate adjustments to revenues and operating expenses are recognized in the quarter and allocations to other owners are recorded.

For the Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure segments, operating revenues and accounts receivable contained an estimated equalization adjustment of $6.6 million at March 31, 2008. Operating expenses and accounts payable contained an estimate of $9.5 million.

Estimation of Marketing revenues:
At March 31, 2008, the Marketing sales and accounts receivable contained an estimate for March 2008 revenues of $71.5 million.

Estimation of Marketing product purchases:
Marketing cost of goods sold, inventory and accounts payable contained an estimate of NGL product purchases of $96.0 million at March 31, 2008.

Estimation of Asset Retirement Obligation:
Keyera will be responsible for compliance with all applicable laws and regulations regarding the decommissioning, abandonment and reclamation of its facilities at the end of their economic life. The determination of the estimate of these obligations is based upon settlement between 2018 and 2038. Keyera utilizes a documented process to estimate the future liability and the anticipated cost of the decommissioning, abandonment and reclamation of its facilities.

The process, overseen by the Health, Safety and Environment Committee, is undertaken by professionals involved in activities that deal with the design, construction, operation and decommissioning of assets. Specialists with knowledge and assessment processes specific to environmental and decommissioning activities and costs are also utilized in the process.

The process requires Keyera to obtain third party environmental liability assessments for major sites, which are updated on a five year frequency. These assessments typically utilize a Monte Carlo statistical simulation to develop a liability cost range, from which the median is used. Next, the decommissioning and abandonment component is derived from a matrix of third-party cost quotations for a range of facilities then adjusted for known and pertinent factors at each site, such as construction style, plant processes and site condition. Ultimately, all medium and large facilities will be independently assessed in accordance with regulatory requirements.

At December 31, 2007, Keyera had estimated that the total undiscounted amount required to settle the asset retirement obligations was $183.0 million and a discounted net present value of this obligation was $37.8 million.

In the first quarter of 2008, the asset retirement obligations were updated for acquisitions and there were no material changes to the assumptions used in the estimate prepared for December 31, 2007 asset retirement obligations. At March 31, 2008, the discounted net present value of this obligation was $39.4 million.

It is not possible to predict these costs with certainty since they will be a function of regulatory requirements at the time of decommissioning, abandonment and reclamation and the actual costs may exceed the current estimates which are the basis of the asset retirement obligation shown in Keyera's financial statements.

Additional information related to decommissioning, abandonment and reclamation costs is provided in Keyera's Annual Information Form, which is available on SEDAR.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Cash flow from operating activities

Cash flow from operating activities during the first quarter of 2008 was $58.4 million, of which $17.6 million was generated from a decrease in non-cash working capital. Before changes in non-cash working capital, cash flow from operating activities was $40.8 million, from which $23.8 million of distributions were paid to unitholders. Keyera received $0.8 million from the issuance of trust units under the distribution reinvestment plan ("DRIP"), $17.6 million from changes in non-cash working capital and $0.2 million of proceeds from the disposition of equipment, bringing cash available to $35.6 million. Capital expenditures required $44.7 million of cash, resulting in a net cash outflow of $9.1 million in the first quarter of 2008.

Cash and working capital were $56.1 million at March 31, 2008, compared to $75.7 million at December 31, 2007. The decline in working capital was primarily due to funding capital expenditures.

Keyera has no exposure to asset backed commercial paper. Surplus cash is held in interest bearing deposit accounts or invested in term deposits, guaranteed investment certificates, or Bankers' Acceptances issued by Canadian chartered banks.

Capital Expenditures

	Three months ended March 31,
Capital Additions and Acquisitions (in millions of dollars)	2008	2007
Growth capital expenditures	49.5	3.2
Maintenance capital expenditures	0.3	0.4
Total capital additions and acquisitions	49.8	3.6

In the first quarter of 2008, additions to property, plant and equipment amounted to $49.8 million, consisting of $0.3 million of maintenance capital and $49.5 million of growth capital. In addition to maintenance capital expenditures, Keyera incurred maintenance and repair expenses of $1.1 million that were included in operating costs. The growth capital expenditures included $32 million related to the acquisition by a subsidiary of a distribution terminal in the Edmonton area.

Other significant growth capital expenditures during the first quarter were:

- $5.7 million for the construction of the North Trutch pipeline to expand the capture area of the Caribou gas plant
- $4.0 million related to the construction of acid gas injection facilities and other upgrades at the Brazeau River gas plant
- $2.1 million related to the expansion of the truck loading facility at Fort Saskatchewan to increase capacity
- $1.5 million for the acquisition of pipelines in the West Pembina region to expand the capture area of the Brazeau River gas plant
- $1.4 million for the construction of camp facilities at the Caribou gas plant
- $0.6 million related to the construction of the pipeline between the Edmonton and Fort Saskatchewan facilities to enhance deliverability and operational flexibility
- $0.5 million on the storage expansion project at Fort Saskatchewan
- $0.3 million for the construction of a truck loading facility at the Strachan gas plant

Growth capital expenditures for 2008 are expected to be between $150 and $200 million, assuming that there are no significant changes in plans and activities of producers and other customers and overall industry activity levels; no delays due to unusual weather conditions or due to decisions, approvals or delays by regulators; or material changes in general business, market or economic conditions. These growth capital expenditures could change if one or more acquisition opportunities become available.

Working capital requirements are strongly influenced by the volume of NGLs held in storage and their related commodity prices. NGL inventories are required to meet seasonal demand patterns and will vary depending on the time of year. Historically, the largest allocation of working capital to fund inventory has been approximately $84 million. If crude oil prices remain at current levels, Keyera expects that the working capital that will be used to fund inventory later this year will significantly exceed that amount. In addition to the working capital required for inventory, Keyera typically utilizes approximately $25 to $45 million to finance the other components of working capital.

For a discussion of the risks that could affect the liquidity and working capital of the Fund and the steps Keyera takes to mitigate these risks, as well as information relating to Keyera's commitments and contractual obligations, readers are referred to Keyera's 2007 MD&A and to Keyera's Annual Information Form which is available on SEDAR.

Debt covenants

Keyera has established credit facilities consisting of a $150 million committed unsecured revolving term facility that matures on April 21, 2011 and $30 million of unsecured revolving demand facilities. These credit facilities bear interest based on the lenders' rates for Canadian prime commercial loans, U.S. base rate loans, Libor loans or Bankers' Acceptances rates. As of March 31, 2008 there were no drawings under these credit facilities.

The bank credit facilities contain a covenant that the Fund and its subsidiaries will not distribute in any twelve month period more than 105% of the distributable cash flow attributable to that twelve month period. Those facilities are also subject to two major financial covenants: "Debt to EBITDA" and "Debt to Capitalization". The calculation for each ratio is based on specific definitions, is not in accordance with GAAP and cannot be readily replicated by referring to the Fund's financial statements. The definitions in the credit agreements provide for the deduction of net working capital items in the calculation of debt. The following are the ratios as calculated in accordance with the covenants as at March 31, 2008:

Covenant	Position as at March 31, 2008
Debt to EBITDA not to exceed 3.5	1.48
Debt to Capitalization not to exceed 0.55	0.33

Keyera has $335 million of long-term senior unsecured notes as follows: $20 million bearing interest at 5.42% and maturing in August 2008; $90 million bearing interest at 5.23% and maturing in October 2009; $52.5 million bearing interest at 5.79% and maturing in August 2010; $52.5 million bearing interest at 6.155% and maturing in August 2013; $60 million bearing interest at 5.89% and maturing in December 2017; and $60 million bearing interest at 6.14% and maturing in December 2022. These notes are subject to three major financial covenants: "Consolidated Debt to Consolidated EBITDA", "Consolidated EBITDA to Consolidated Interest Charges" and "Priority Debt to Consolidated Total Assets".

The calculations for each of these ratios are based on specified definitions. The following are the ratios calculated in accordance with the covenants as at March 31, 2008 for the notes maturing in 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2013:

Covenant	Position as at March 31, 2008
Debt to EBITDA not to exceed 3.5	2.08
EBITDA to Interest Charges not less than 3.0	9.69
Priority Debt to Total Assets not to exceed 15%	0%

The following are the ratios calculated in accordance with the covenants as at March 31, 2008 for the notes maturing in 2017 and 2022:

Covenant	Position as at March 31, 2008
Debt to EBITDA not to exceed 5.0	1.48
EBITDA to Interest Charges not less than 2.0	8.35
Priority Debt to Total Assets not to exceed 15%	0%

Failure to adhere to the covenants described above may impair Keyera's ability to pay distributions. Management expects that upon maturity of the credit facilities, adequate replacement facilities will be established.

Risk factors

For a discussion of the risks and trends that could affect the financial performance of the Fund and the steps that Keyera takes to mitigate these risks, readers are referred to the descriptions in this MD&A and to Keyera's Annual Information Form, which is available on SEDAR.

Unitholder Distributions

Comparison of distributions paid to cash flow from operating activities and net earnings

The following table presents a comparison of distributions paid to net earnings and cash flow from operating activities:

	Three months ended March 31,
(in thousands of dollars)	2008	2007
Cash flow from operating activities	58,412	57,591
Net earnings	55,502	19,012
Cash distributions paid	23,812	21,763
Excess (shortfall) of cash flow from operating activities over distributions paid	34,600	35,828
Excess (shortfall) of net earnings over distributions paid	31,690	(2,751)

For the first quarter of 2008, cash flow from operating activities was $58.4 million, $34.6 million greater than distributions paid. Included in the calculation of cash flow from operating activities was $17.6 million generated from a change in non-cash working capital primarily due to the reduction of inventory, partially offset by the use of funds to finance growth in accounts receivable. Cash flow from operating activities in the first quarter of 2008 was sufficient to fund cash distributions paid.

Changes in non-cash working capital are primarily the result of seasonal fluctuations in product inventories or other temporary changes and are generally funded with short-term debt. In general, cash flow from operating activities will be less than distributions paid during periods of inventory accumulation and will be in a surplus position during periods when inventories are drawn down and sold.

For the first quarter of 2008, net earnings of $55.5 million exceeded cash distributions paid for the first quarter of 2008 by $31.7 million. The strong operating margins earned in the first quarter of 2008 were augmented by non-cash items for future income tax recoveries ($13.1 million) and unrealized gains on financial instruments ($12.8 million) that more than offset the non-cash charges for depreciation, amortization and accretion ($11.2 million) in the calculation of net income.

Future income taxes can fluctuate from period to period as a result of changes in tax laws and rates (such as the enactment of income taxes on the distributions of flow-through entities or the reduction of income tax rates), the extent to which available tax deductions are utilized or changes in the operating results of the underlying operating entities of Keyera. These items do not affect cash flow generated in the current period.

Non-cash charges such as depreciation and amortization are based upon the historical cost of Keyera's property, plant and equipment and do not accurately represent the fair market value or the replacement cost of the assets in today's economic environment, nor do they affect cash flow generated in the current period.

Non-cash unrealized gains and losses on financial instruments result from Keyera's use of financial contracts, such as energy-related forward sales, price swaps, physical exchanges and options, to manage the commodity price risk inherent in the marketing business. Their fair value is determined based upon estimates of future prices. The change in fair value of these contracts during the current period has no effect on cash flow generated. Upon settlement in future periods, the unrealized estimate is reversed and the realized gain or loss is included in earnings.

Due to the inclusion of such non-cash charges in net earnings, distributions paid may exceed net earnings. Although non-cash charges do not affect current period cash generation, any excess of distributions over net earnings would be a return of unitholders' capital.

Distributable Cash Flow

Distributable cash flow is not a standard measure under GAAP and therefore may not be comparable to similar measures reported by other entities. Distributable cash flow is used to assess the level of cash flow generated from ongoing operations and to evaluate the adequacy of internally generated cash flow to fund distributions.

Following is a reconciliation of distributable cash flow to its most closely related GAAP measure, cash flow from operating activities:

Distributable Cash Flow	Three months ended March 31,
(in thousands of dollars)	2008	2007
Cash flow from operating activities	58,412	57,591
Add (deduct):
Changes in non-cash working capital	(17,569)	(20,376)
Maintenance capital	(341)	(351)
Non-controlling interest distributable cash flow	—	(316)
Distributable cash flow	40,502	36,548
Distributions declared to unitholders	25,661	21,773

Distributable cash flow of $40.5 million in the first quarter of 2008 exceeded distributions declared to unitholders of $25.7 million. The distributions declared in the first quarter of $25.7 million included a special distribution of $1.4 million ($0.023529 per unit) as part of the internal reorganization, completed on January 2, 2008, of certain of the Fund's subsidiaries. This special distribution consisted of cash in the amount of $0.2 million ($0.003529 per unit) and securities of certain subsidiaries of the Fund having an aggregate value of $1.2 million ($0.02 per unit). Each security was redeemed for one special non-voting unit of the Fund ("Fund special units"). These Fund special units were then converted into regular units. The regular units were consolidated such that upon completion of the reorganization, each unitholder continued to hold the same number of units as was held immediately prior to the reorganization.

Changes in non-cash working capital are excluded from the determination of distributable cash flow because they are primarily the result of seasonal fluctuations in product inventories or other temporary changes and are generally funded with short-term debt. Also deducted from distributable cash flow are maintenance capital expenditures that are funded from current operating cash flow.

Distribution policy

In determining the level of cash distributions to unitholders, Keyera's Board of Directors takes into consideration current and expected future levels of distributable cash flow (including income tax), capital expenditures, borrowings and debt repayments, changes in working capital requirements and other factors.

Over the long-term, Keyera expects to pay distributions from distributable cash flow. Growth capital expenditures will be funded from retained operating cash flow, along with proceeds from additional debt or equity, as required. Although Keyera intends to continue to make regular monthly cash distributions to its unitholders, these distributions are not guaranteed.

The business of the Fund is subject to operational and commercial risks that could adversely affect future operating results, earnings, cash flow and distributions to unitholders. These risks include declines in throughput, operational problems and hazards, cost overruns, increased competition, regulatory intervention, environmental considerations, uncertainty of abandonment costs and dependence upon key personnel. These risks are identified and discussed in greater detail in Keyera's Annual Information Form, available on SEDAR, as well as in the "Business Environment", "Results of Operations – Marketing" and "Liquidity and Capital Resources" sections of this MD&A.

Standard and Poor's has assigned the Fund an SR-3 stability rating, indicating the expectation of a high level of stability in distributions.

Units and Convertible Debentures

During the first quarter of 2008, $0.5 million of convertible debentures (before adjustment for deferred financing costs) were converted into 45,164 trust units and 45,374 trust units were issued under the DRIP in consideration of $0.8 million, bringing the total units outstanding at March 31, 2008 to 61,354,910. Convertible debentures outstanding at March 31, 2008 were $21.3 million.

FUND REORGANIZATION AND TAXATION INFORMATION

In June 2007, unitholders approved an internal reorganization of Keyera's legal structure (the "Reorganization"). On January 2, 2008, upon receipt of a favourable advance ruling from the Canada Revenue Agency and the final order from the Alberta Court of Queen's Bench approving the plan of arrangement for the amended Reorganization, the Reorganization was completed. The Reorganization is described in detail in the Material Change Report as filed on SEDAR (www.sedar.com) on January 11, 2008.

The Reorganization streamlined Keyera's legal structure and simplified accounting, legal reporting and income tax compliance, all of which is expected to reduce the general and administrative costs associated with these activities. The new structure also permits Keyera to defer the utilization of some tax pools until after January 1, 2011. This enhanced tax planning flexibility should enable Keyera to minimize the amount of cash taxes payable in 2011, when Keyera is expected to become taxable under the SIFT Legislation.

While there were no significant immediate tax savings within Keyera's structure as a result of the Reorganization, our recent capital investment program and associated changes will have the added benefit of reducing cash taxes payable in the short term. As well, Keyera plans to reduce the use of its available tax deductions from 2008 through 2010, thereby increasing deductions available for the years after 2010. As at January 1, 2008, Keyera had approximately $325 million of unutilized tax pools and deductions, consisting mostly of class 41 undepreciated capital costs, available for deduction by the Fund's subsidiaries.

With the announcement that provincial income tax rates applicable to Keyera and other SIFTs will be harmonized with corporate income tax rates, it is not expected to be materially more costly for Keyera to remain an income trust after January 1, 2011. As a result of the recently completed Reorganization and the ability to preserve tax pools until 2011, Keyera will be able to minimize income taxes into the future, whether as an income trust or as a corporation. It is Keyera's intent to continue to grow by investing in long-life assets and thereby grow its distributions to unitholders, regardless of its structure. Although no decision has been made with respect to Keyera's future structure, Keyera is well positioned to continue as an income trust. However, if income trusts are no longer perceived as an attractive investment vehicle, Keyera is also well positioned to consider conversion to a corporate structure, at the appropriate time.

ACCOUNTING MATTERS AND CONTROLS

Critical accounting policies

Keyera's unaudited Interim Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian GAAP. The changes in accounting policies are described in Note 3 to the unaudited Interim Consolidated Financial Statements and Note 2 of the 2007 Annual Report.

Changes in accounting policies

Effective January 1, 2008, the Fund adopted the following accounting standards issued by the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants ("CICA"):

- Section 1535, Capital Disclosures;
- Section 3031, Inventories;
- Section 3862, Financial Instruments – Disclosures; and
- Section 3863, Financial Instruments – Presentation

Section 1535, Capital Disclosures, requires entities to provide users of financial statements with information to evaluate the entity's objectives, policies and processes for managing capital. Adoption of this new standard did not have an effect on the statements of financial position, net earnings or cash flows of the Fund. The new disclosure requirements have been included in the notes to the interim consolidated financial statements.

Section 3031, Inventories, requires the measurement of inventories at the lower of cost and net realizable value and the consistent use of either first-in, first-out or a weighted-average cost formula to measure cost. The reversal of previous net realizable value write-downs is required when there is a subsequent increase to the value of inventories. The Fund adopted this standard prospectively on January 1, 2008 in accordance with the transitional provisions. Inventory is measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value, less any costs to sell. Cost is determined on a weighted-average cost formula. There was no material impact upon adoption of this standard.

Section 3862, Financial Instruments – Disclosures, requires entities to provide disclosures in their financial statements that enable users to evaluate the significance of financial instruments to the entity's financial position and performance. It also requires that entities disclose the nature and extent of risks arising from financial instruments and how the entity manages those risks.

Section 3863, Financial Instruments – Presentation, establishes standards for presentation of financial instruments and non-financial derivatives and deals with the classification of financial instruments, from the perspective of the issuer, between liabilities and equity, the classification of related interest, dividends, losses and gains, and the circumstances in which financial assets and financial liabilities are offset.

Adoption of sections 3862 and 3863 did not have an effect on the statements of financial position, net earnings or cash flows of the Fund. The new disclosure requirements have been included in the notes to the interim consolidated financial statements.

Future changes in accounting policies

Convergence of Canadian GAAP with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs")

In April 2008, CICA published the exposure draft "Adopting IFRSs in Canada". The exposure draft proposes to incorporate IFRSs into the CICA Accounting Handbook effective for interim and annual financial statements relating to fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2011. At this date, publicly accountable enterprises will be required to prepare financial statements in accordance with IFRSs. The Fund is currently reviewing the standards to determine the potential impact on its consolidated financial statements.

Goodwill and Intangible Assets

In February 2008, the Accounting Standards Board ("AcSB") issued CICA Handbook Section 3064, Goodwill and Intangible Assets, replacing existing guidance (Sections 3062 and 3450) for these areas. This new section establishes standards for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of goodwill and intangible assets subsequent to their initial recognition. Standards concerning goodwill are unchanged from the standards included in the previous Section 3062. This new section will be effective for the Fund for periods ending after January 1, 2009. The Fund is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of this new section on its consolidated financial statements.

Internal control over financial reporting

No changes were made in Keyera's internal control over financial reporting during the interim period ended March 31, 2008 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, Keyera's internal control over financial reporting.

Investor Information

DISTRIBUTIONS TO UNITHOLDERS

Distributions to unitholders were $0.42 per unit in the first quarter. The Fund is focused on stable long-term distributions that grow over time. The Board of Directors will consider increasing the level of cash distributions when it is confident that such increase can be sustained.

TAXABILITY OF DISTRIBUTIONS

For income tax purposes, distributions paid and declared to Canadian residents in 2007 were 66.2% return of capital with the remainder ordinary income. Additional information is available on Keyera's website under "Investor Information". Both Canadian and non-resident unitholders should seek independent tax advice in respect of the consequences to them of acquiring, holding and disposing of units.

Keyera currently anticipates distributions will be largely or fully taxable for Canadian non-exempt unitholders in 2008. This outlook is affected by Keyera's organizational structure and is subject to change, depending on the levels of profitability and capital expenditures in each of Keyera's operating entities. Both Canadian and non-resident unitholders should seek independent tax advice in respect of the consequences to them of acquiring, holding and disposing of units. Factors that could affect the performance of the Fund and the taxability of the distributions are discussed in the Fund's Annual Information Form, which is available on SEDAR.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION

A breakdown of Keyera's operational and financial results, including volumetric and contribution information by major business unit, is available on our website at www.keyera.com under "Investor Information, Financial Information".

FIRST QUARTER 2008 RESULTS CONFERENCE CALL AND WEBCAST

Keyera will be conducting a conference call and webcast for investors, analysts, brokers and media representatives to discuss the first quarter 2008 results at 8:00 am MDT (10:00 am EDT) on May 14, 2008. Callers may participate by dialing either 800-732-6179 or 416-644-3416. A recording of the call will be available for replay until midnight, May 21, 2008 by dialing 877-289-8525 or 416-640-1917 and entering pass code 21268304 followed by the pound key.

Internet users can listen to the call live on Keyera's website at www.keyera.com under "Investor Information, Webcasts". Shortly after the call, an audio archive will be posted on the website for 90 days.

Keyera Facilities Income Fund
Notes to Interim Consolidated Financial Statements
For Three Months Ended March 31, 2008
(All amounts expressed in thousands of Canadian dollars, except as otherwise noted)
(unaudited)

1. Structure of the Fund

Keyera Facilities Income Fund (the "Fund") is an unincorporated open-ended trust established under the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to the Fund Declaration of Trust dated April 3, 2003. The Fund has a 100% direct and indirect interest in Keyera Energy Limited Partnership (the "Partnership").

The Partnership is involved in the business of natural gas gathering and processing, as well as natural gas liquids ("NGLs") and crude oil processing, transportation, storage and marketing in Canada and the U.S. Its operating subsidiaries include Keyera Energy Facilities Ltd. ("KEFL"), Keyera Energy Ltd. ("KEL"), Keyera Energy Inc. ("KEI"), Rimbey Pipeline Limited Partnership ("RPLP") and Alberta Diluent Terminal Limited Partnership ("ADTLP").

The Fund makes monthly cash distributions to unitholders of record on the last business day of each month. The amount of the distributions per trust unit is equal to the pro rata share of the distribution received directly from the Partnership.

2. Basis of presentation

These unaudited interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared by management in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). The accounting policies applied are consistent with those disclosed in the Fund's consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended December 31, 2007 as included in the Fund's 2007 Annual Report to unitholders except for the changes made in adopting new accounting standards discussed in note 3.

These unaudited interim consolidated financial statements as at and for the three months ended March 31, 2008 do not include all disclosures required for the preparation of annual consolidated financial statements and should be read in conjunction with the Fund's consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended December 31, 2007.

Interim periods may not be representative of the results expected for the full year of operation due to seasonality.

3. Changes in accounting policies

Effective January 1, 2008, the Fund adopted the following accounting standards issued by the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants ("CICA"):

- Section 1535, Capital Disclosures;
- Section 3031, Inventories;
- Section 3862, Financial Instruments – Disclosures; and
- Section 3863, Financial Instruments – Presentation

Section 1535, Capital Disclosures, requires entities to provide users of financial statements with information to evaluate the entity's objectives, policies and processes for managing capital. Adoption of this new standard did not have an effect on the statements of financial position, net earnings or cash flows of the Fund. The new disclosure requirements have been included in these notes to the unaudited interim consolidated financial statements.

Section 3031, Inventories, requires the measurement of inventories at the lower of cost and net realizable value and the consistent use of either first-in, first-out or a weighted-average cost formula to measure cost. The reversal of previous net realizable value write-downs is permitted when there is a subsequent increase to the value of inventories. The Fund adopted this standard prospectively on January 1, 2008 in accordance with the transitional provisions. Inventory is measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value, less any costs to sell. Cost is determined on a weighted-average cost formula. There was no material impact upon adoption of this standard.

Section 3862, Financial Instruments – Disclosures, requires entities to provide disclosures in their financial statements that enable users to evaluate the significance of financial instruments to the entity's financial position and performance. It also requires that entities disclose the nature and extent of risks arising from financial instruments and how the entity manages those risks.

Section 3863, Financial Instruments – Presentation, establishes standards for presentation of financial instruments and non-financial derivatives and deals with the classification of financial instruments, from the perspective of the issuer, between liabilities and equity, the classification of related interest, dividends, losses and gains, and the circumstances in which financial assets and financial liabilities are offset.

Adoption of sections 3862 and 3863 did not have an effect on the statements of financial positions, net earnings or cash flows of the Fund. The new disclosure requirements have been included in these notes to the unaudited interim consolidated financial statements.

Future accounting and reporting changes

Convergence of Canadian GAAP with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs")
In April 2008, the CICA published the exposure draft "Adopting IFRSs in Canada". The exposure draft proposes to incorporate IFRSs into the CICA Accounting Handbook effective for interim and annual financial statements relating to fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2011. At this date, publicly accountable enterprises will be required to prepare financial statements in accordance with IFRSs. The Fund is currently reviewing the standards to determine the potential impact on its consolidated financial statements.

Goodwill and Intangible Assets
In February 2008, the Accounting Standards Board ("AcSB") issued CICA Handbook Section 3064, Goodwill and Intangible Assets, replacing existing guidance (Sections 3062 and 3450) for these areas. This new section establishes standards for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of goodwill and intangible assets subsequent to their initial recognition. Standards concerning goodwill are unchanged from the standards included in the previous Section 3062. This new section will be effective for the Fund beginning January 1, 2009. The Fund is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of this new section on its consolidated financial statements.

4. Inventory

The total carrying amount and classification of inventory is as follows:

As at	March 31, 2008 $	December 31, 2007 $
NGLs	36,310	76,112
Natural gas	—	162
Other	391	320
Total inventory	36,701	76,594

For the period ended March 31, 2008, all inventory was carried at cost, and the cost of inventory expensed in the period was $451,666.

5. Credit facilities and long-term debt

As at	March 31, 2008 $	December 31, 2007 $
Bank credit facilities (a)	—	—
Total credit facilities	—	—
Current portion of long-term debt	20,000	20,000

Deferred financing costs	(1,702)	(1,757)
Total long-term debt	333,298	333,243

(a) The Partnership has a $150,000 unsecured revolving credit facility with certain Canadian financial institutions led by the Royal Bank of Canada. The facility has a three-year revolving term and matures on April 21, 2011, unless extended. In addition, the Royal Bank of Canada has provided a $15,000 revolving demand facility and the Toronto Dominion Bank has provided a $15,000 revolving demand facility. The revolving credit facilities bear interest based on the lenders' rates for Canadian prime commercial loans, U.S. Base rate loans, Libor loans, or Bankers' Acceptances rates. Interest expense for the three months ended March 31, 2008 included a fixed commitment fee resulting in a weighted average interest rate of 12.0% (three months ended March 31, 2007 – 5.42%). As at March 31, 2008, the balance outstanding on the bank credit facilities was $nil (December 31, 2007 - $nil).

(b) In 2003, $125,000 of unsecured senior notes were issued by the Partnership and KEFL in three parts: $20,000 due in 2008 bearing interest at 5.42%, $52,500 due in 2010 bearing interest at 5.79% and $52,500 due in 2013 bearing interest at 6.16%. Interest is payable monthly. Financing costs of $1,215 have been deferred and are amortized using the effective interest rate method over the remaining terms of the related debt. The effective interest rates for the three months ended March 31, 2008 were 3.63%, 5.94% and 6.28% for the notes due in 2008, 2010 and 2013 respectively (three months ended March 31, 2007- 5.63%, 5.95% and 6.29%).

In 2004, $90,000 of unsecured senior notes were issued by KEFL and guaranteed by the Partnership. The notes bear interest at 5.23% and mature on October 1, 2009. Interest is payable semi-annually. Financing costs of $568 have been deferred and are amortized using the effective interest rate method over the remaining term of the debt. The effective interest rate for the three months ended March 31, 2008 was 5.36% (three months ended March 31, 2007 – 5.37%).

In 2007, $120,000 of unsecured senior notes were issued by KEFL and guaranteed by the Partnership and the Fund in two tranches: $60,000 due in 2017 bearing interest at 5.89% and $60,000 due in 2022 bearing interest at 6.14%. Interest is payable semi-annually. Financing costs of $1,116 have been deferred and are amortized using the effective interest rate method over the remaining terms of the related debt. The effective interest rates for the three months ended March 31, 2008 were 6.03% and 6.26% for the notes due in 2017 and 2022 respectively.

6. Convertible debentures

In 2004, the Fund issued convertible unsecured subordinated debentures in the principal amount of $100,000. The convertible debentures bear interest at 6.75% per annum, payable semi-annually in arrears on June 30 and December 31 each year. Interest expense of $367 has been accrued for the three months ended March 31, 2008 (three months ended March 31, 2007 - $421). These debentures will mature on June 30, 2011 and are convertible into trust units of the Fund at the option of the holders at any time prior to maturity at a conversion price of $12.00 per unit. At March 31, 2008, $78,720 debentures had been converted to trust units (December 31, 2007 - $78,178).

Financing costs consisting of an underwriters' commission of $4,000 and issuance costs of $332 have been deferred, and when there are no conversions are being amortized over the term of the debt using the effective interest rate method. Upon conversion of the debentures, the financing cost related to the principal amount of debt converted is adjusted and is recognized as a charge to unitholders' equity. As a result of conversions to date at March 31, 2008, $2,881 has been reclassified to unitholders' equity (December 31, 2007 - $2,857). As at March 31, 2008, $299 of financing costs remain. The effective interest rate for the three months ended March 31, 2008 was 7.36% (three months ended March 31, 2007 - 7.36%).

7. Asset retirement obligation

The following table presents the reconciliation between the beginning and ending aggregate carrying amount of the obligation associated with the retirement of the Fund's facilities.

8. Income taxes

On June 22, 2007, Bill C-52 Budget Implementation Act, 2007 was enacted by the Canadian federal government. As a result of this legislation, a new tax will be applied to distributions from publicly traded trusts in Canada. The new tax is not expected to apply to the Fund until 2011 as the government has provided a transition period for publicly traded trusts that existed prior to November 1, 2006.

The following is a reconciliation of income taxes, calculated at the combined federal and provincial income tax rate, to the income tax provision included in the consolidated statements of net earnings.

For income tax purposes, the subsidiaries of the Fund have non-capital losses carried forward of approximately $2,834 at March 31, 2008 (December 31, 2007 - $2,981) which are available to offset income of specific entities of the consolidated group in future periods. The benefit of these losses has been recorded at March 31, 2008.

The future income tax (liabilities) assets relate to losses and to the (taxable) deductible temporary differences in the carrying values and tax bases as follows:

As at	March 31, 2008 $	December 31, 2007 $
Property, plant and equipment	(138,972)	(152,747)

9. Unitholders' capital

The Declaration of Trust provides that an unlimited number of trust units may be authorized and issued. Each trust unit is transferable, and represents an equal undivided beneficial interest in any distribution from the Fund and in the net assets of the Fund in the event of termination or winding-up of the Fund. All trust units are of the same class with equal rights and privileges.

The Declaration of Trust also provides for the issuance of an unlimited number of special trust units that will be used solely for providing voting rights to persons holding securities that are directly or indirectly exchangeable for units and that, by their terms, have voting rights in the Fund.

The trust units are redeemable at the holder's option at an amount equal to the lesser of: (i) 90% of the weighted average price per unit during the period of the last 10 trading days during which the trust units were traded on the Toronto Stock Exchange; and (ii) an amount equal to (a) the closing market price of the units; (b) an amount equal to the average of the highest and lowest prices of units if there was trading on the date on which the units were tendered for redemption; or (c) the average of the last bid and ask prices if there was no trading on the date on which the units were tendered for redemption.

Redemptions are subject to a maximum of $50 cash redemptions in any particular month. Redemptions in excess of this amount will be paid by way of a distribution in specie of assets of the Fund that may include notes issued by the Fund.

The Fund has a Distribution Reinvestment and Optional Unit Purchase Plan ("DRIP") that permits unitholders to reinvest cash distributions for additional units. This plan allows eligible participants an opportunity to reinvest distributions into trust units at a 3% discount to a weighted average market price, so long as units are issued from treasury under the DRIP. The Fund has the right to notify participants that units will be acquired in the market, in which case units will be purchased at the weighted average market price. Eligible unitholders can also make optional unit purchases under the optional unit purchase component of the plan at the weighted average market price.

10. Net earnings per unit

Basic per unit calculations for the three months ended March 31, 2008 and 2007 were based on the weighted average number of units outstanding for the related period. Convertible debentures were in the money for the three months ended March 31, 2008 and 2007 and contributed to the increase in diluted weighted average number of units for these periods.

Three months ended March 31	2008 $	2007 $
Net earnings - basic	55,502	19,012
Effect of convertible debentures (net of tax)	248	255

Pursuant to the Fund Declaration of Trust dated April 3, 2003 and its subsequent amendments, the Fund makes monthly distributions to holders of record on the last day of each month. Payments are made on or about the 15th day of the following month.

Distributions are paid from "Cash Flow of the Trust", a term that is defined in the Fund Declaration of Trust dated April 3, 2003. The Board of Directors of the Fund's administrator may, on or before each Distribution Record Date, declare payable all or any part of the Cash Flow of the Trust for the Distribution Period. The amount and level of distributions to be made for each Distribution Period are determined at the discretion of the Board of Directors. In determining its distribution policy, the Board of Directors considers several factors, including the Fund's current and future cash flow, capital requirements, debt repayments and other factors.

12. Compensation plans

The Long Term Incentive Plan (the "LTIP" or the "Plan") compensates officers, directors, key employees and consultants by delivering units of the Fund or paying cash in lieu of units. Participants in the LTIP are granted rights ("unit awards") to receive units of the Fund on specified dates in the future. The Plan permits the Board of Directors to authorize the grant of unit awards from time to time. Units are acquired in the marketplace under the plan.

The Plan consists of two types of unit awards, which are described below. Unit awards and the delivery of units under the Plan are accounted for in accordance with the intrinsic value method of accounting for stock-based compensation. The aggregate compensation cost recorded for the Plan was $3,085 for the three months ended March 31, 2008 (three months ended March 31, 2007 - $1,136).

(a) Performance Unit Awards

The Performance Unit Awards will vest 100% on the third anniversary of the effective date of each award, July 1, 2005, July 1, 2006 and July 1, 2007. The number of units to be delivered will be determined by the financial performance of the Fund over the three-year period. The number of units to be delivered will be calculated by multiplying the number of unit awards by an adjustment ratio and a payout multiplier. The adjustment ratio adjusts the number of units to be delivered to reflect the per unit cash distributions paid by the Fund to its unitholders during the term that the unit award is outstanding. The payout multiplier is based upon the actual three-year average annual cash distributions per unit of the Fund. The table below describes the relationship between the three-year average annual cash distribution per unit and the payout multiplier.

	Three-year annual cash distributions per unit
	July 1, 2005 Grant	July 1, 2006 Grant	July 1, 2007 Grant	Payout Multiplier
	Less than 1.32	Less than 1.42	Less than 1.44	Nil
First range	1.32 – 1.39	1.42 – 1.51	1.44 – 1.51	50%– 99%
Second range	1.40 – 1.55	1.52 – 1.71	1.52 – 1.67	100% – 199%
Third range	1.56 and greater	1.72 and greater	1.68 or greater	200%

As of March 31, 2008, 482,155 Performance Unit Awards (485,105 at December 31, 2007) were outstanding: 162,730 effective July 1, 2005, 142,075 effective July 1, 2006 and 177,350 effective July 1, 2007. The compensation cost recorded for these units for the three months ended March 31, 2008 was $2,766, using the applicable closing market price of a unit of the Fund (three months ended March 31, 2007 - $954).

(b) Time Vested Unit Awards ("Restricted Unit Awards")

Restricted Unit Awards will vest automatically, over a three-year period from the effective date of the award on July 1, 2005, July 1, 2006 and July 1, 2007, regardless of the performance of the Fund. The number of units to be delivered will be modified by an adjustment ratio which reflects the per unit distributions paid by the Fund to its unitholders during the term that the unit award is outstanding.

As of March 31, 2008, 84,420 Restricted Unit Awards (92,275 at December 31, 2007) were outstanding: 9,692 effective July 1, 2005, 22,678 effective July 1, 2006 and 52,050 effective July 1, 2007. The compensation cost recorded for these units for the three months ended March 31, 2008 was $319, using the applicable closing market price of a unit of the Fund (three months ended March 31, 2007 - $182).

13. Financial instruments and risk management

Financial instruments include cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, distributions payable, credit facilities, long-term debt, convertible debentures and derivatives held for trading (derivative instruments such as foreign exchange contracts, oil price contracts, natural gas price contracts, power price contracts and physical fixed price commodity contracts).

Derivative instruments and cash and cash equivalents are classified as held for trading and are measured at fair value. Accounts receivable are classified as other receivables and are measured at amortized cost. With the exception of derivative instruments held for trading, all financial liabilities are classified as other financial liabilities and are recorded at amortized cost.

Market risk and derivative instruments

Subsidiaries of the Fund enter into contracts to purchase and sell natural gas, NGLs and crude oil. These contracts are exposed to commodity price risk between the times contracted volumes are purchased and sold and foreign currency risk for those sales denominated in U.S. dollars. These risks are actively managed by balancing physical and financial contracts which include energy related forwards, swaps and forward currency contracts and swaps. A risk management committee meets regularly to review and assess the risks inherent in existing contracts and the effectiveness of the risk management strategies. This is achieved by modeling future sales and purchase contracts to monitor the sensitivity of changing prices and volumes.

A significant amount of electricity is consumed by the operating entities at their facilities. Due to the fixed fee nature of some service contracts in place with customers, these entities are unable to flow the cost of electricity to customers in all situations. In order to mitigate this exposure to fluctuations in the price of electricity, price swap agreements may be used. These agreements are accounted for as derivative instruments.

Certain natural gas, NGL and crude oil contracts that require physical delivery at fixed prices are accounted for as derivative instruments.

On occasions, subsidiaries of the Fund will enter into NGL purchase and sale contracts that are settled in a currency other than the currency that is routinely denominated for such commercial transactions. In these instances, the Fund records these non-financial contracts as embedded derivatives. Embedded derivatives are accounted for as derivative instruments.

Derivative instruments held for trading are recorded on the consolidated statement of financial position at fair value. Changes in the fair value of these financial instruments are recognized in earnings in the period in which they arise.

As at March 31, 2008, $4,023 of assets held for trading were included in accounts receivable and $690 of liabilities held for trading were included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities (December 31, 2007 - $3,112 included in accounts receivable and $12,566 included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities). The change in fair value of derivative instruments is recorded in Marketing operating revenue and NGL Infrastructure operating expense.

The change in fair value relating to derivative instruments were as follows:

Unrealized gain (loss)	**$	$
Marketing	12,300	(5,457)

The estimated fair value of all derivatives held for trading is based on quoted market prices and, if not available, on estimates from third-party brokers or dealers.

Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk arises on financial instruments that are denominated in a foreign currency. The Fund's functional currency is the Canadian dollar. All of the Fund's debt is denominated in Canadian dollars and is therefore not exposed to foreign currency risk. The Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure segments are also not subject to foreign currency risk as all sales and virtually all purchases are denominated in Canadian dollars. In the Marketing business, approximately US$111,603 of sales were priced in U.S. dollars for the three months ended March 31, 2008 (three months ended March 31, 2007 – US$81,958). Foreign currency risk is actively managed by using forward currency contracts and swaps. Management monitors the exposure to foreign currency risk and regularly reviews its financial instrument activities and all outstanding positions.

The Fund recorded $802 of realized foreign currency gain relating to U.S. dollar denominated cash, accounts receivable and accounts payable in Marketing operating expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2008 (three months ended March 31, 2007 - $176 loss). A further $303 of unrealized foreign currency loss was recorded in Marketing operating expenses (three months ended March 31, 2007 - $154 gain).

As at March 31, 2008, portions of the Fund's cash, accounts receivable and accounts payable were denominated in U.S. dollars. Based on these U.S. dollar financial instrument balances, net earnings and comprehensive income for the period ended March 31, 2008 would have increased/decreased by approximately $210 for every $0.01 decrease/increase in the value of the U.S./Canadian dollar exchange rate.

Interest rate risk

The majority of the Fund's interest rate risk is attributed to its fixed and floating rate debt, which is used to finance operations. The Fund's remaining financial instruments are not significantly exposed to interest rate risk. The floating rate debt creates exposure to interest rate cash flow risk, whereas the fixed rate debt creates exposure to interest rate price risk. At March 31, 2008, fixed rate borrowings comprised 100% of total debt outstanding (December 31, 2007 - 100%). The fair value of future cash flows for fixed rate debt fluctuates with changes in market interest rates. It is the Fund's intention to not repay fixed rate debt until maturity and therefore future cash flows would not fluctuate.

The Fund's earnings are sensitive to changes in interest rates on floating rate borrowings. If the interest rates applicable to floating rate borrowings were to have increased/decreased by 1%, it is estimated that net earnings and comprehensive income for the period ended March 31, 2008 would have decreased/increased by approximately $30 based on weighted average debt balances.

Credit risk

The majority of accounts receivable are due from entities in the oil and gas industry and are subject to normal industry credit risks. Concentration of credit risk is mitigated by having a broad domestic and international customer base. The Fund evaluates and monitors the financial strength of its customers in accordance with its credit policy. Revenue from the two largest customers amounted to 17% of operating revenue for the period ended March 31, 2008 (three months ended March 31, 2007 - 12%).

The Fund's maximum exposure to credit risk, which is a worst case scenario and does not reflect results expected by the Fund, is $270,032 at March 31, 2008. The Fund does not typically renegotiate the terms of trade accounts receivable; however, if a renegotiation does take place, the outstanding balance is included in the accounts receivable analysis below based on the original payment terms. There were no significant renegotiated balances outstanding at March 31, 2008. With respect to counterparties for derivative financial instruments, the credit risk is managed through dealing primarily with recognized futures exchanges or investment grade financial institutions and by maintaining credit policies, which significantly reduce overall counter party credit risk.

The allowance for credit losses is reviewed on a monthly basis. An assessment is made whether an account is deemed impaired based on the number of days outstanding and the likelihood of collection from the counter party.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that suitable sources of funding for the Fund's business activities may not be available. The Fund manages liquidity risk by maintaining bank credit facilities, continuously managing forecast and actual cash flows and monitoring the maturity profiles of financial assets and financial liabilities. The Fund has access to a wide range of funding at competitive rates through capital markets and banks to meet the immediate and ongoing requirements of the business.

The following table shows the contractual maturities for financial liabilities of the Fund:

	Within 1 year $	2009 $	2010 $	2011 $	2012 $	2013 $	After 2013 $
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	234,600	—	—	—	—	—	—
Distributions payable	8,283	—	—	—	—	—	—
Long-term debt[1]	20,000	90,000	52,500	—	—	52,500	120,000
Convertible debentures[2]	—	—	—	21,280	—	—	—

[1] Amounts represent principal only and exclude accrued interest.
[2] Convertible debentures are convertible into trust units of the Fund at the option of the holders at any time prior to maturing (note 6).

Fair value

The carrying values of accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and distributions payable approximate their fair values because the instruments are near maturity or have no fixed repayment terms. The fair value of the credit facilities approximates fair value due to their floating rates of interest. The fair value of the senior fixed rate debt at March 31, 2008 was $333,136 (December 31, 2007 - $337,589) based on third party estimates. The fair value of the Fund's unsecured convertible debentures at March 31, 2008 was $35,112 (December 31, 2007 - $32,078) as determined by reference to quoted market price for the Fund's debentures.

14. Capital Management

The Fund's objectives when managing capital are:

- to safeguard the Fund's ability to continue as a going concern;
- to maintain financial flexibility in order to fund investment opportunities and meet financial obligations; and
- to distribute to unitholders a significant portion of its current cash flow, after
  - I. satisfaction of debt service obligations (principal and interest) and income tax expenses,
  - II. satisfaction of any reclamation funding requirements,
  - III. providing for maintenance capital expenditures and
  - IV. retaining reasonable reserves for administrative and other expense obligations and reasonable reserves for working capital and capital expenditures as may be considered appropriate.

The Fund defines its capital as follows:

- Unitholders' equity,
- long-term debt, including working capital;
- credit facilities; and
- cash.

The Fund manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Fund may adjust the amount of distributions paid to unitholders, issue new units, issue new debt or issue new debt to replace existing debt with different characteristics.

The Fund monitors its capital structure primarily based on its consolidated debt to consolidated earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA") ratio. This ratio is calculated as consolidated debt divided by a twelve-month trailing EBITDA, which are non-GAAP measures.

For the period ended March 31, 2008, the Fund's capital management strategy was unchanged from the prior year. The Fund currently intends to maintain a consolidated debt to consolidated EBITDA ratio of less than 3.5.

Consolidated Debt As at	March 31, 2008 **$

General and administrative expenses[2]	(25,439)
Consolidated EBITDA	174,760

	Guideline[1]
Consolidated debt to consolidated EBITDA	< 3.5	1.48

[1] The Fund currently intends to maintain a consolidated debt to consolidated EBITDA ratio of less than 3.5.
[2] Working capital is defined as current assets less current liabilities.
[3] Operating revenues, operating expenses unrealized (gain) loss on derivative instruments and general and administrative expenses shown above are on a trailing twelve-month basis and therefore can not be directly derived from the financial statements.

Consolidated debt to consolidated EBITDA is also a measure used as a financial covenant for the Fund's credit facilities and long-term debt agreements. The Fund is also subject to the following financial covenants:

- Debt to capitalization
- Consolidated EBITDA to consolidated interest charges
- Priority debt to consolidated total assets

The calculation for each financial covenant is based on specific definitions, is not in accordance with GAAP and cannot be directly derived from the financial statements. The Fund was in compliance with all financial covenants as at March 31, 2008.

As a result of the Canadian trust taxation legislation passed in June 2007, the Fund is subject to certain limitations on the issuance of new equity referred to as "normal growth" limitations. The amount of new equity that can be issued by the Fund for the current and following two years, based on the Fund's market capitalization on October 31, 2006, is approximately as follows:

Normal growth capital allowed in:	Annual $	Cumulative $
2008	262,000	786,000
2009	262,000	1,048,000
2010	262,000	1,310,000

If the normal growth limitations were exceeded, the Fund may be subject to taxation prior to 2011. As at March 31, 2008, the normal growth limitations have not been exceeded.

15. Commitments and contingencies

The Fund, through its operating entities, is involved in various contractual agreements in the normal course of its operations. The agreements range from one to eleven years and comprise the processing of a major oil and gas producer's natural gas and the purchase of NGL production in the areas specified in the agreements. The purchase prices are based on current period market prices.

There are operating lease commitments relating to railway tank cars, vehicles, computer hardware, office space, terminal lease space and natural gas transportation. The estimated annual minimum operating lease rental payments from these commitments are as follows:

2008	6,470
2009	7,965
2010	6,446
2011	5,157
2012	4,059
Thereafter	2,034
	32,131

There are legal actions for which the ultimate results cannot be ascertained at this time. Management does not expect the outcome of any of these proceedings to have a material effect on the financial position or results of operations.

17. Segmented information

The Fund has three reportable segments: Marketing, Gathering and Processing and NGL Infrastructure. The Marketing business consists of marketing NGLs, sulphur and crude oil. Gathering and Processing includes natural gas gathering and processing. NGL Infrastructure includes NGL and crude oil processing, transportation and storage. The accounting policies of the segments are the same as that described in the summary of significant accounting policies. Inter-segment sales and expenses are recorded at current market prices.

18. Non-controlling interest

In the first quarter of 2007, a subsidiary of the Fund purchased an additional ownership interest in Rimbey Pipe Line Co. Ltd. for a purchase price of $1,513. In the second quarter of 2007, Rimbey Pipe Line Co. Ltd. was converted to a limited partnership (RPLP) and a subsidiary of the Fund acquired the remaining interest in RPLP for a purchase price of $5,203 bringing the Fund's ownership in RPLP to 100%. The difference between the fair value of the transactions and the carrying value of RPLP's net assets resulted in a difference of $3,666, which was applied to property, plant and equipment. A future tax liability and corresponding increase to goodwill was recorded in the amount of $520. As a result, the non-controlling interest was removed from the consolidated statement of financial position.

19. Internal reorganization

On January 2, 2008, the Fund completed an internal reorganization of certain of its subsidiaries. As part of the reorganization, a special distribution in the aggregate amount of $1,441 ($0.023529 per unit) was declared. These special distributions consisted of cash in the amount of $216 ($0.003529 per unit) and securities of certain subsidiaries of the Fund having an aggregate value of $1,225 ($0.02 per unit). Each security was redeemed for one special non-voting unit of the Fund ("Fund special units"). These Fund special units were then converted into regular units. The regular units were consolidated such that upon completion of the reorganization, each unitholder continued to hold the same number of units as was held immediately prior to the reorganization.

After completion of the reorganization, the Partnership is now directly owned by the Fund, and Keyera Energy Management Ltd. ("KEML") no longer has an interest in the Partnership. The future income tax rate applicable to the Fund is 2.5% higher than that of KEML which resulted in a future income tax expense of approximately $3,500. As a result of the new organizational structure, the Fund is able to preserve tax shelter within its operating entities for the next three years. Based on current projections, taxable temporary differences relating to property, plant and equipment are expected to reverse at a 0% tax rate which resulted in an approximately $16,500 future income tax recovery. The net effect of the internal reorganization was an approximately $13,000 future income tax recovery.

20. Subsequent Event

On May 1, 2008, a subsidiary of the Fund purchased a 35.6% ownership interest in the ATCO West Pembina gas plant for a purchase price of approximately $26 million.

Certification of Interim Filings of Keyera Facilities Income Fund

I, David G. Smith, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Keyera Energy Management Ltd., the Administrator of Keyera Facilities Income Fund, certify that:

1. I have reviewed the interim filings (as this term is defined in Multilateral Instrument 52-109 Certification of Disclosure in Issuers' Annual and Interim Filings) of Keyera Facilities Income Fund (the "issuer") for the interim period ending March 31, 2008;

2. Based on my knowledge, the interim filings do not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated or that is necessary to make a statement not misleading in light of the circumstances under which it was made, with respect to the period covered by the interim filings;

3. Based on my knowledge, the interim financial statements together with the other financial information included in the interim filings fairly present in all material respects the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the issuer, as of the date and for the periods presented in the interim filings;

4. The issuer's other certifying officers and I are responsible for establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting for the issuer, and we have:

    a. designed such disclosure controls and procedures, or caused them to be designed under our supervision, to provide reasonable assurance that material information relating to the issuer, including its consolidated subsidiaries, is made known to us by others within those entities, particularly during the period in which the filings are being prepared; and

    b. designed such internal control over financial reporting, or caused it to be designed under our supervision, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with the issuer's GAAP; and

5. I have caused the issuer to disclose in the interim MD&A any change in the issuer's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the issuer's most recent interim period that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect the issuer's internal control over financial reporting.

Attention Business/Financial Editors:
Keyera Facilities Income Fund Announces May 2008 Distribution

CALGARY, May 20 /CNW/ - Keyera Facilities Income Fund (TSX:KEY.UN; KEY.DB) announced today a cash distribution for May 2008 of 13.5 cents per unit. The distribution will be payable on June 16, 2008 to unitholders of record on May 30, 2008. The ex-distribution date is May 28, 2008.

For tax purposes, Keyera currently expects that its 2008 distributions will be taxable for Canadian non-exempt unitholders. This outlook is subject to change. For non-resident unitholders, Keyera's distributions are subject to Canadian withholding tax.

This document contains forward-looking statements that involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond Keyera's control. The forward-looking statements are based on management's current expectations and assumptions relating to Keyera's business and the environment in which it operates. As the results or events predicted or implied in these forward-looking statements depend upon future events, actual results or events may differ materially from those predicted. Some of the factors which could cause actual results or events to differ materially include the ability of Keyera to successfully implement strategic initiatives, whether such initiatives yield the expected benefits, operating and other costs, future operating results and the components of those results, fluctuations in the demand for natural gas, NGLs, crude oil and bitumen, changes in commodity prices, the activities of producers, competitors and others, the weather, overall economic conditions, proposed or actual legislative changes, including any further announcements by the federal government with respect to the tax treatment of income trusts and other known or unknown factors. There can be no assurance that the results or developments anticipated by Keyera will be realized or that they will have the expected consequences for or effects on Keyera.

For additional information on these and other factors, see Keyera's public filings on www.sedar.com. Unless otherwise required by applicable laws, Keyera does not intend to publicly update or revise forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
