Notes to the interim accounts

For the period ended 4 July 2007

1. Basis of preparation of interim accounts

The financial information contained in this statement does not constitute statutory accounts as defined in section 240 of the Companies Act 1985. These unaudited interim accounts have been prepared on the basis of the accounting policies set out in the Company's statutory accounts for the year ended 2 September 2006 to determine if the proposed dividend payable on 4 July 2007 would be lawful under Companies Act.

2. Ongoing business

The directors have prepared forecasts, which reflect current performance, and these show the Company will continue to operate within its available resources for the foreseeable future. The directors therefore believe it is appropriate to prepare these interim accounts on a going concern basis.

3. Dividends

On 4 January 2007 the directors paid a final dividend in respect of the financial year ended 2 September 2006 of 2.4 pence per share, which absorbed £20.5 million of shareholders' funds.

The directors are proposing an interim dividend of 2.5 pence per share payable on 4 July 2007, which will absorb £21.5 million of shareholders' funds.
