Update on iPhone 3G

SingTel today said that since the launch of Apple iPhone 3G on 22 August 2008, it has sold tens of thousands of the trend-setting handset, making it one of SingTel's fastest selling handsets ever.

More than 40 per cent of our iPhone customers signed up with SingTel's new iFlexi plans, designed specially for them. These are high value customers who pay monthly subscriptions in excess of $50/month.

They also use more mobile data, chalking up 2.5 times more traffic than an average user, and still within their data bundle. By tailoring our data bundle to meet our customers' needs, we enable them to maximise their use of this revolutionary handset.

To date, we have not received any customer feedback on issues with roaming on iPhone 3G.

SingTel is pleased to note that interest in the iPhone 3G remains high.
