- Press release : Arkema awarded “ Fils d’Or 2008 “ Top Prize for best shareholder department

Colombes, October 15th 2008

Arkema awarded 'Fils d'Or 2008' Top Prize for best shareholder department

On October 14th 2008 Arkema was awarded the 'Fils d'Or' top prize for best individual shareholder department in the CAC-Mid100 category at a financial communication event organized by La Vie Financière, Les Echos and Synerfil.

This prize rewards the quality of service to shareholder provided by major French and euro-zone companies, on the basis of reactivity, reliability and conviviality criteria. Arkema is the first French chemical producer to be awarded this prize for the quality of its individual shareholder communication.

« This prize rewards the quality of the work and the tools we have put in place since our spin-off in May 2006 that enable us to deliver regular and transparent information to all our shareholders. We intend to continue developing this open dialogue approach with our individual shareholders, who account for over 9% of Arkema's capital » stated Thierry Le Hénaff, Arkema Chairman and CEO.
