REPORT OF INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

To the Board of Directors of
Omega Securities, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition for noncarrying, nonclearing and certain other brokers or dealers of Omega Securities, Inc. (the Company) as of December 31, 2007, and the related statements of operations and comprehensive income, changes in stockholder's equity and cash flows for the year then ended, that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2007, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in the supplemental schedules on pages 16 and 17 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

OMEGA SECURITIES, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2007

1. BUSINESS

Omega Securities, Inc. (the Company) was organized as a corporation on November 11, 1974, under the laws of the State of Texas. The Company is a registered member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. as a broker/dealer, and with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) under the Federal Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act").

The Company acts as a dealer/investment advisor for certain offerings and does not maintain discretionary accounts for its customers. All customer transactions are cleared through a third party clearing firm, Southwest Securities, Inc. ("SWS"), on a fully disclosed basis. Accordingly, the Company is exempt from Rule 15c3-3 of the Act under Section (k)(2)(i) of this rule. Based on the agreement between SWS and the Company, the Company pays a clearing fee to SWS for handling all trades for the Company.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are maintained at quality financial institutions. However, at times during the year, certain cash balances in bank accounts exceed federally insured limits (FDIC). At December 31, 2007, cash in banks exceeded FDIC limits by $73,792.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable consist primarily of commissions earned during the year but not received as of year-end. Commissions are earned through quality financial institutions and reputable mutual fund companies. Receivables are recorded only when substantial evidential matter is obtained as to the validity of the receivable. Accordingly, the Company does not record an allowance for doubtful accounts. As collectibility of receivables is reasonably assured, the Company does not maintain a policy for determining reserves for past due or delinquent receivables.

Furniture, Equipment, and Leasehold Improvements

Furniture, equipment and leasehold improvements are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation on furniture and equipment is provided in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of the assets to operations over their estimated service lives ranging from three to five years using the straight-line method. Depreciation on leasehold improvements is calculated using the straight-line method over the lesser of the lease term or the useful life of the improvements.

Major repairs or replacements of furniture and equipment are capitalized. Maintenance repairs and minor replacements are charged to operations as incurred. Furniture and equipment retirements are removed from the records at their cost and related accumulated depreciation and any resulting gain or loss is included in operations.

OMEGA SECURITIES, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2007

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Investments in Mutual Funds and Stocks

The Company's investments in mutual funds and stocks are classified as available-for-sale securities. Marketable securities are valued at market value based on quoted market prices. The unrealized gains and losses, net of related deferred income taxes, are reported as a separate component of stockholder's equity. The realized gain or loss on the sale of securities is calculated using the average cost method

Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c 3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed certain limits. At December 31, 2007, the Company had a net capital of $442,652 which was $342,652 in excess of its minimal net capital requirement at that date. At December 31, 2007, the Company had aggregate indebtedness of $77,415.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes pursuant to SFAS No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes," which uses the asset and liability method to calculate deferred income taxes. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the expected tax consequences of temporary differences between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and their reported amounts. The realization of deferred tax assets is based on historical tax positions and expectations about future taxable income. The liability method also requires the recognition of future tax benefits such as net operating loss carry forwards, to the extent that realization of such benefits is more likely than not.

Cash Flow Reporting

For the purposes of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist primarily of money market funds with original maturities of three months or less.

Concentration of Credit Risks

Concentrations of credit and market risk consist of cash, accounts receivable and mutual funds. The Company places its cash with quality financial institutions and by policy, limits the amount of exposure to any one financial institution. Accounts receivable relates to commissions earned from the sale of investment products of insurance companies and numerous mutual funds. The Company has not experienced problems in collecting commissions due from these entities. The Company's investments in mutual funds are diversified among issuers with various investment strategies that minimize overall market risk.

OMEGA SECURITIES, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2007

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Substantially all of the Company's financial assets and liabilities are carried at market value or at amounts which, because of their short-term nature, approximate current fair value.

Use of Estimates and Assumptions

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported sales and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were used.

Advertising

Non-direct advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Total advertising expenses for the year ended December 31, 2007 were $24,767.

3. INVESTMENTS IN MUTUAL FUNDS

Investments are classified as available-for-sale, and are carried at market value. Unrealized appreciation (devaluation) relating to the investments as of December 31, 2007 is shown as a separate component of stockholder's equity in the accompanying financial statements, net of the effect of deferred income taxes.

Investments in mutual funds at December 31, 2007 consisted of the following:

	Cost	Market
AMCAP Fund	$ 40,287	$ 44,789

OMEGA SECURITIES, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2007

3. INVESTMENTS IN MUTUAL FUNDS (CONTINUED)

The Company purchased shares in NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc. in 2005 and 2006. The stock certificates are considered available-for-sale marketable equity securities. At this time, however, there are certain restrictions on trading the certificates and the Company believes they will not trade them over the next twelve months. Accordingly, the stock is carried at market value and listed as a long term investment on the Company's financial statements. Unrealized appreciation relating to the NASDAQ stock is included with the unrealized appreciation (devaluation) on the investments listed above.

Investments in NASDAQ stock at December 31, 2007 consisted of the following:

	Cost	Market
1,200 Shares (cost per share of $29)	$ 34,800	$ 59,388
300 Shares (cost per share $26)	7,800	14,847
1,500 Shares (cost per share $16)	24,000	74,235
Investment in NASDAQ stock	$ 66,600	$ 148,470

The change in unrealized appreciation (devaluation) for the year ended December 31, 2007 is as follows:

	Mutual Funds	NASDAQ Stock	Total Investments
Unrealized appreciation at January 1, 2007	$ 61,696	$ 25,770	$ 87,466

To the Board of Directors
Omega Securities, Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Omega Securities, Inc. (the Company), for the year ended December 31, 2007, we considered its internal control structure, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons.
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13.
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control, and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to previously in this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2007, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management and the SEC and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.
