CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT

To the Board of Directors
Todd & Company, Inc.

I have examined the accompanying statement of financial condition of Todd & Company, Inc. as of December 31, 2007 and the related statements of income (loss), cash flow, changes in financial condition, changes in stockholder's equity, changes in liabilities subordinated to claims to creditors, computation of net capital and the computation for determination of reserve requirements pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on the report based on my audit.

I conducted an audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States and the audit requirements prescribed by the Securities & Exchange Commission. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit included examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects the financial position of Todd & Company, Inc. and the results of their operations, cash flows, changes in financial condition, changes in stockholder's equity, changes in liabilities subordinated to claims to creditors, computation of net capital and the computation for determination of reserve requirements pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Securities and Exchange Commission
Washington, DC

I have examined the Focus Report (Form X-17A-5) of Todd & Company, Inc. as of December 31, 2007 and have issued my report thereon date February 13, 2008. As part of my examination, I have reviewed and tested the Company's accounting system, internal control system, procedures for safeguarding securities procedures and practices for resolving securities and money differences and computing capital and reserve requirements, to the extent that I considered necessary to evaluate the system a required by generally accepted auditing standards and the audit requirements as set forth in Form X-17A-5. Under these standards the purpose of such an evaluation is to establish a basis for reliance there in determining the nature, timing and extent of such other auditing procedures that are necessary for expressing an opinion on the financial statements.

The objective of internal control is to provide a reasonable, but not absolute assurance as to the safeguarding of assets against loss form unauthorized use or disposition, the reliability of the financial records for preparing financial statements and maintaining the accountability for assets. The concept of reasonable assurance recognizes the cost of a system on internal control should not exceed the benefits derives and also recognizes that the evaluation of those factors requires estimates and judgement by management.

There are inherent limitations that should be recognizes in considering the potential effectiveness of any system of internal control. in the performance of most control procedures. error can result for misunderstanding of instructions, mistakes in judgement, carelessness, or other personal factors. Control procedures whose effectiveness depends on the segregation f duties can be circumvented by collusion. Similarly, control procedures can be circumvented by management. Further, projection of any internal control to future periods is subject to the risk that the procedures may become inadequate because of changes in conditions and the degree of compliance may deteriorate.

My study of the Company's system of internal control for the year ended December 31, 2007, made for the purpose stated in the first paragraph, revealed the following:

A. Comments with Respect to Compliance with Rule 17A-13.

- a. The accounting system is adequate to maintain records of customer accounts and firm accounts. Todd & Company does not maintain any customer accounts, as they are handled by a clearing broker. The clearing broker handles all customer cash and securities transaction.
- b. The system of internal control is nonexistent as the Company has only one employee who handles all aspect of accounting, record keeping and cash funds. Accordingly, there is no separation of functions necessary to have any internal control.
- c. The Company employs the services of an outside CPA who is not the independent auditor or an employee of the Company to perform routine internal audit and verification procedures to insure the accuracy of the Company's records. The practices and procedures for discovering and resolving security and money differences are adequate.
- d. The practices employed for verifying compliance with the capital and reserve requirements are adequate. These procedures are performed by the outside CPA referred to in (d.) above.
- e. During the audit, I found no material accounting errors requiring adjustment of the Company's accounting records.

B. Comparison of Audited Focus Report to Client's Report.

There were no adjustments made to the accounts as a result of the examination. The audited report agrees with the accounts maintained by Todd & Company.

C. Internal Control Deficiencies.

See response to item A(b) above.
