Re: BTG Ventures, Inc. Federal Securities Exemption

To Whom It May Concern:

The purpose of this letter is to provide additional details to the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") requested on Form D. The issuer in this transaction, BTG Ventures, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "Corporation"), is a small business enterprise and sold corporate securities, in the form of common stock equity, to raise "seed capital." All the securities sold in this transaction were sold to accredited investors, who were corporate Board of Directors ("Board") and officers (hereinafter referred to as "accredited investors").

The offer and sale of securities in this transaction was exempt under California State Law, California Corporations Code § 25102(f). The applicable provision is not self-executing. California requires an electronic filing to be made on behalf of the Corporation.

The following is a detailed explanation of the offer and sale of the Corporation's securities. First, the Corporation operates its business as a C Corporation. The Corporation owns and operates an importer of promotional, premium, and packaging items. On December 1, 2007, the Corporation adopted a 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan ("Plan"). The Plan is a qualified standardized prototype that is a traditional profit sharing plan with individual account Plans (hereinafter referred to as "IAP(s)"). All investments in this Plan are participant directed/controlled and not Trustee directed/controlled. The Plan Trustee established a master brokerage account with individual participant directed sub-accounts in the name of each employee seeking to exercise the rights, benefits, and features of the Plan.

The Plan has a provision that allows employees, who may not yet qualify to participate in the Plan, the right to make rollover contributions. A rollover contribution is the distribution of assets from one qualified retirement account to another qualified retirement account, i.e. 401(k)s, IRAs, 403(b)s, 457s, etc. Under this provision, if an employee, who is not yet qualified to participate in the Plan, wants to rollover contributions to the Corporation's Plan, the employee may do so and then invest freely under the provisions of the Plan. Under ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC"), the securities sold by an employer to a Plan are known as Qualified Employer Securities (hereinafter referred to as "QES"). Additionally, under IRC § 401(a)(4) and its corresponding regulations (1) the rights, benefits and features of a Plan cannot discriminate in favor of highly compensated employees; and (2) the option to purchase QES when offered by the employer is a right under the Plan. Under IRC § 401(a), a profit sharing plan created by an employer must be offered for the exclusive benefit of his employees; otherwise the plan can be disqualified. IRC § 3121(d) defines an employee as any officer of a corporation and any individual under the usual common law.

On May 29, 2008, the Board resolved to raise seed capital by selling securities to the Plan. Specifically, the Board sought to sell QES to the Plan so accredited investors with assets in their Plan accounts could purchase QES in the Corporation. The Corporation has four (4) employees, including its officers. However, only Ralph B. Berry III, the Corporation's president, is an accredited investor as defined by Federal securities laws. The remaining three (3) employees are non-accredited investors as defined by Federal securities laws. In an effort to comply with IRC § 401(a)(4), the Corporation disclosed in writing to all employees the Board's offer to sell QES to the Plan ("QES Disclosure"). Along with the QES Disclosure, the Corporation provided all employees with copies of the Corporation's Plan documents. See Exhibit A: QES Disclosure to Employees; Exhibit B: Plan Documents. The QES Disclosure to Employees contains a document titled Notice to Employer. The Notice to Employer informs the Corporation as to whether the employee intends to purchase QES via the Plan. Each employee completed a Notice to Employer and declined to purchase QES via the Plan. If an employee had opted to purchase QES via the Plan, the Corporation would have provided the employee corporate financial statements including cash flows and/or a private placement memorandum. Though the Corporation did not discourage any employee from exercising their right to purchase QES under IRC § 401(a)(4), the Corporation did not want any employee to purchase QES because the securities are a risky investment.

No employee other than Ralph B. Berry III purchased Corporation QES using Plan assets contained in his individual account Plan. All other employees acknowledged their right to purchase QES using Plan assets, but declined to do so. Therefore, it was not necessary to prepare financial statements or a private placement memorandum for the employees. Again, at no time was it ever the Board's intention to raise seed capital via the offer/sale of securities to the general public or its non-highly compensated employees, but to allow the Corporation's President, Ralph B. Berry III, to purchase QES using his Plan assets.

The accompanying Form D discloses the information for the actual sale of securities, all of which were purchased by Ralph B. Berry III via his individual account Plan.

If you have further questions regarding this transaction please contact Emily Sharp Rains, the Corporation's Tax/ERISA attorney who assisted us with this transaction, at (206) 283-5593.

Sincerely,

Ralph B. Berry III, President
