REPORT OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT

Board of Directors
Centaurus Financial, Inc.
Anaheim, California

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Centaurus Financial, Inc. as of April 30, 2009 and 2008 and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity, changes in liabilities subordinated to claims of general creditors, and cash flows for the years then ended, that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Centaurus Financial, Inc. as of April 30, 2009 and 2008, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I, II, and III is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

THE COMPANY

Centaurus Financial, Inc., "the Company", is a registered securities broker-dealer and is a subsidiary of Federation of Financial Services, Inc. The Company sells financial products, primarily mutual funds and insurance, through independent registered representatives. The Company is registered to do business throughout the United States.

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The significant accounting policies and practices of the Company are as follows:

Accounting method - the Company uses the accrual method of accounting for both financial statement reporting and income tax return preparation.

Recognition of sales and income - securities transactions are recorded on a settlement basis, generally the third business day following the transaction date.

Fixed assets - fixed assets are stated at cost. Repairs and maintenance expenditures which do not extend the useful life of the assets owned are expensed as incurred. Depreciation is computed using both straight-line and accelerated methods, based upon the estimated useful lives of the assets ranging from three to five years.

Income taxes - a provision has been made for the estimated amount of income taxes which are payable currently and in the future (See Note 7). Deferred income taxes are computed annually in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes, when applicable.

Use of estimates - the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Comprehensive income – Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 130, Reporting Comprehensive Income, (SFAS 130), requires that total comprehensive income be reported in the financial statements. Comprehensive income was the same as net income for the years ended April 30, 2009 and 2008.

NOTE 2 - MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Company has marketable securities held at a brokerage firm. The securities are classified as available for sale and reported at their current market value.

NOTE 3 - FIXED ASSETS

Fixed assets are stated at cost and as of April 30, 2009 and 2008 consist of the following:

| | 2009 | 2008 |
|--------------------------------|------------|------------|
| Office furniture and fixtures | $ 431,996 | $ 223,364 |
| Office computers and equipment | 227,722 | 197,734 |
| Leasehold improvements | 14,594 | 37,268 |
| | 674,312 | 458,366 |
| Less accumulated depreciation | (336,443) | (330,555) |
| Net fixed assets | $ 337,869 | $ 127,811 |

Depreciation expense was $72,185 and $54,630 for the years ended April 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively. In September 2008, the Company retired various assets and leasehold improvement after moving to its new offices.

NOTE 4 - SUBORDINATED LOANS

The Company had a subordination loan agreement with Federation of Financial Services, Inc. in the amount of $250,000.

The subordinated borrowing and the accrued interest is covered by agreements approved by FINRA (formerly the National Association of Securities Dealers - NASD), and is available in computing net capital under the Securities and Exchange Commission uniform net capital rule. The terms of the subordinated loan agreement included certain covenants and restrictions as to the repayment of this loan. This note was repaid in full in March, 2008.

Independent Auditor's Report On Internal Control Structure Required
By SEC Rule 17a-5

Board of Directors
Centaurus Financial, Inc.
Anaheim, California

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Centaurus Financial, Inc. (the Company), as of and for the year ended April 30, 2009, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future period is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies that adversely affects the entity's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process, or report financial data reliably in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles such that there is more than a remote likelihood that a misstatement of the entity's financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

A material weakness is a significant deficiency, or combination of significant deficiencies that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures, as described in the second paragraph of this report, were adequate at April 30, 2009 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.
