Managing Director, Foster's Americas

Stephen Brauer is a senior drinks executive with over twenty years experience with leading global wine and spirits companies, including Seagram, Peak Wines, Beam and Pernod Ricard. His professional background includes general management, marketing, sales and new business development.

Stephen joins Foster's from Pernod Ricard U.S.A. where he served as General Manager for the U.S. Wine and Champagne business and was a member of the Pernod Ricard U.S.A Executive Committee. In this role, he created a dedicated Wine Division and directed the turnaround of the company's wine and champagne business.

Stephen joined Pernod Ricard from Beam Global Spirits & Wine, where he acted as Chief Marketing and Strategy Officer for Beam Wine Estates and President of Peak Wines. Brauer was part of the executive team that successfully integrated the former Peak Wines and Allied Domecq wine companies following Beam's acquisition of Allied Domecq's US Wine Portfolio in July 2005.

Prior to joining Beam Global, Brauer held a series of progressively responsible positions during his 14 years at Seagram in the Napa Valley, culminating in his role as Senior Vice President Marketing and Executive Committee Member of Seagram Chateau & Estate Wines Company.

Stephen started his career in consumer products in 1985 as a brand manager with Del Monte and Specialty Brands in San Francisco and served as a research analyst in strategy consulting for Strategic Planning Associates, a Washington D.C. based management consulting firm.

Stephen holds a Masters in Business Administration from Harvard Business School and received a Bachelor of Arts in German and History from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, where he was a Morehead Scholar.
