PRESS RELEASE

Milan, 30 April 2009 – A2A S.p.A. today received the tax office (Agenzia delle Entrate) notice of orders for the recovery of presumed government funding received in the period 1996-1999 and declared in contravention of European Union regulations.

Specifically, this relates to funding received in the form of tax concessions granted at the time to the municipalized companies that were being transformed into public limited companies (the so-called fiscal moratorium).

The amount in addition to the sum requested in recovery and paid in 2007, totals approximately 65 million euros including interest.

According to the applicable regulations on this matter, payment of the sum requested must be made irrevocably within thirty days of notification of the order.
