ISI CAPITAL, LLC
STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION
DECEMBER 31, 2008

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of
ISI Capital, LLC:

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of ISI Capital, LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2008. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of ISI Capital, LLC as of December 31, 2008, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

ISI CAPITAL, LLC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT
DECEMBER 31, 2008

NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION

ISI Capital, LLC (the "Company") was organized on October 21, 1998 in the State of New York as a limited liability company, the Operating agreement of which expires December 31, 2047. The Company, which began its operations in November 1999, became a registered general securities broker-dealer effective July 26, 1999 is subject to regulation by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA").

Under the Company's original Operating Agreement, there were three classes of members: Class A, Class B and Class C. Class A members consist of the original members who formed and capitalized the Company. The Operating Agreement was amended effective January 22, 2001, to provide for Class D members. As of December 31, 2008, there are no Class B, C or D members.

The Operating Agreement provides for Class A members to share profits and distributions in proportion to their membership interests. The Operating Agreement further provides that the Managers, who shall be elected by the vote of Class A members holding at least two-thirds of the membership interest, may allocated to themselves or any member, whether by formula or otherwise, in their sole and absolute discretion, an amount, either as a distribution of profits, an expense of the business, or both, that represents reasonable compensation for services rendered.

The Company transacts business with institutional customers primarily located in the United States of America.

NOTE 2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Revenue Recognition

Securities transactions and the related revenues and expenses are recorded on a trade date basis.

Fair value principles

As of January 1, 2008, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157, Fair Value Measurements ("SFAS No. 157) and has determined that it bears no material effect on the financial statements as presented.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United State of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Furniture and Equipment

Furniture and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation of furniture and equipment is computed using accelerated and straight-line methods over the estimated useful lives of the related assets which range from five to seven years.

NOTE 3. SIGNIFICANT GROUP CONCENTRATION OF RISK

In the normal course of its business, the Company enters into financial transactions where the risk of potential loss due to changes in market (market risk) or failures of the other party to a transaction to perform (counterparty risk) exceed the amounts recorded for the transaction.

The Company's policy is to continuously monitor its exposure to market and counterparty risk through the use of a variety of financial, position and credit exposure reporting and control procedures. In addition, the Company has a policy of reviewing the counterparty, primarily broker-dealers, banks and other financial institutions, with which it conducts business.

As of December 31, 2008, there were no material customer accounts having unsecured debit balances that presented any risk.

NOTE 4. SUBORDINATED BORROWING

At December 31, 2008 the Company had a borrowing from a member under a subordination agreement as follows:

Subordinated loan agreement bearing interest at 4.13% per annum, due December 31, 2016	$ 64,000
---	-----------

This borrowing is subordinated to the claims of general creditors, has been approved by FINRA and is available in computing adjusted net capital under the SEC net capital requirements. Subordinated borrowings may only be repaid if, after giving effect to such repayment, the Company meets the SEC's and FINRA's capital regulations governing the withdrawal of subordinated debt.

NOTE 5. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

As a registered broker-dealer, the Company is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 of the SEC which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital, as defined and that aggregate indebtedness, as defined, does not exceed fifteen times net capital. At December 31, 2008, the Company had net capital of $140,645 that exceeded their requirements by $40,645.

NOTE 6. COMMITMENTS

The Company has a line of credit with a total facility of $25,000 for direct borrowings. At December 31, 2008 there were no balances outstanding under the facility. Annual interest rate change at prime plus one percent and the line of credit is repaid each month in an amount equal 1/36 of the outstanding principal balance.

On October 4, 2004, the Company entered into an agreement to lease its office space. The lease expires on November 30, 2009. Future annual minimum rental payments are as follows:

Year ending December 31,	Amount
2009	67,127

NOTE 7. INCOME TAXES

No provision for federal or state income taxes has been made since the Company is not a taxable entity. The members are individually liable for the taxes on their share of the Company's income or loss. The Company is, however, subject to the New York City Unincorporated Business Tax ("UBT").
