Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Directors
FMK Financial Services, Inc.

I have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FMK Financial Services, Inc. as of December 31, 2008, and the related statements of income, retained earnings, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

I conducted my audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FMK Financial Services, Inc. at December 31, 2008, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

FMK Financial Services, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2008

Note 1: Entity

a. Nature of Operations:

FMK Financial Services, Inc. is incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with its principal office in New Castle, Pennsylvania. The Company operates as a broker-dealer in stocks, bonds and other securities. It began operations on February 21, 1988.

Note 2: Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

a. Operating Cycle:

b. Property, Plant and Equipment:

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is computed on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets. There was no depreciation expense for the year.

c. Income Taxes:

The Company, with the consent of its shareholders, has elected under the Internal Revenue Code to be an S corporation. In lieu of corporation income taxes, the shareholders of an S corporation are taxed on their proportionate share of the Company's taxable income. Therefore, no provision for federal income taxes has been included in these financial statements.

d. Use of Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect certain amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note 3: Lease

The Company has entered an arrangement with Frank M. Kasevic, a shareholder owning 100% of voting stock in the Company, to pay rental fees for the use of Mr. Kasevic's computers, office equipment, and satellite system, as well as his automobile. The rental fees are paid in the approximate amount of $ 2,000.00 per month. This amount depends on the Company's cash flow and financial situation at the time this amount is due. For the year ended December 31, 2008, the period covered by this financial statement, the amount paid for rent was $ 22,115.00.

Board of Directors
FMK Financial Services, Inc.

In planning and performing my audit of the financial statements of FMK Financial Services, Inc. for the year ended December 31, 2008, I considered the internal control structure, including procedures for safeguarding securities, in order to determine my auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing my opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

Also as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC), I have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that I considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers, or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, I did not review the practices followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons.
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13.
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of the Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control structures and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

My consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or irregularities in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, I noted no matters involving the internal control structures, including procedures for safeguarding securities that I consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

I understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on my study, I believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2008 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of the Board of Directors, management and the SEC, and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and should not be used for any other purposes.
