NEAR EARTH, LLC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2008

Note 1- Nature of Business

Near Earth, LLC (The "Company"), a Limited Liability Company, is a broker/dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. The Company earns consulting and advisory fees, including compensation in the form of stock options, from providing investment banking services, through its participation in private placement offerings and providing merger and acquisition, financial advisory and general corporate consulting services to companies.

The Company operates under the provisions of Paragraph (k) (2) (ii) of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission and, accordingly, is exempt from the remaining provisions of that rule. Essentially, the requirements of Paragraph (k) (2) (ii) provide that the Company clears all transactions on behalf of customers on a fully disclosed basis with a clearing broker/dealer, and promptly transmits all customer funds and securities to the clearing broker/dealer. The clearing broker/dealer carries all of the accounts of the customers and maintains and preserves all related books and records as are customarily kept by a clearing broker/dealer.

Note 2- Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

a) Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue from placement fees upon completion of private placement offerings, merger and acquisition advisory success fees upon the successful consummation of such transactions, and strategic and financial advisory retainers and consulting fees over the life of the underlying agreements at the time work is performed and services are rendered.

b) Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers money market funds to be cash. The Company maintains cash in bank accounts which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. For money market funds no insurance is provided. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and does not believe it is exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

c) Income Taxes

Income taxes are not payable by, or provided for, the Company. Members are taxed individually on their share of Company earnings for federal and state income tax purposes. The accompanying financial statements have been adjusted to provide for unincorporated business tax based upon Company income, if applicable. Accordingly no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements.

d) Depreciation

Furniture and office equipment is carried at cost and is depreciated over a useful life of three and seven years using accelerated methods.

NEAR EARTH, LLC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2008

Note 2- Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

e) Use of Estimates

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses.

f) Investments - Other

Other investments are carried at estimated fair values and consist of preferred stock ownership in a privately held company, and as a member in a closely held Limited Liability Company.

Note 3- Other Investments

The Company is a member of a closely held Limited Liability Company. The fair value is based on the market value of the sole asset (marketable security) of the Limited liability Company.

The other investment of the Company consists of preferred stock ownership in a privately held company. The investment is carried at estimated fair value.

A summary of other investments held at December 31, 2008, are as follows:

	Fair Value
Limited liability Company investment	$22,524
Preferred stock	10,625
Balance, December 31, 2008	$33,149

Note 4- Commitments and Contingencies

Office Lease

The Company leases office space that automatically renews every three months, for a three month period, unless either party gives written notice thirty days in advance of the expiration period not to renew. The Company has not given, or received, written notice as of February 9, 2009, and as such, the current expiration period is April 30, 2009. The rent commitment for 2009 is $21,860.

Note 5- Net Capital Requirement

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 1500%. At December 31, 2008, the Company's net capital of $12,680 was $7,680 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's net capital ratio was 224.85%.

A copy of the Company's Statement of Financial Condition as of December 31, 2008, pursuant to SEC Rule 17a-5 is available for examination at the Company's office and at the regional office of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the office of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members of
Near Earth, LLC
945 West Road
New Canaan, CT 06840-2636

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Near Earth, LLC as of December 31, 2008. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the statement of financial condition based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial condition presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Near Earth, LLC as of December 31, 2008, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NEAR EARTH, LLC
INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL ACCOUNTING CONTROL

FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2008

LERNER & SIPKIN

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS LLP

To the Members of
Near Earth, LLC
945 West Road
New Canaan, CT 06840-2636

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Near Earth, LLC as of and for the year ended December 31, 2008, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered its internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion of the financial statements but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5 (g) (1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5 (g), in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3 (a) (11); and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons, and recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that adversely affects the entity's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process, or report financial data reliably in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles such that there is more than a remote likelihood that a misstatement of the entity's financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

A material weakness is a significant deficiency, or combination of significant deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures, as described in the second paragraph of this report, were adequate at December 31, 2008, to meet the SEC's objectives.

Further, that no material differences existed between our computations of your net capital, or determination of the reserve requirements, and your corresponding FOCUS Report Part IIA.

This report recognizes that it is not practicable in an organization the size of the Company to achieve all the divisions of duties and cross checks generally included in a system of internal accounting control and that alternatively greater reliance must be placed on surveillance by management.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, FINRA and other regulatory agencies, that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
