Independent Auditors' Report

We have audited the accompanying statements on pages 3-12 in the Financial and Operational Combined Uniform Single Report Part IIA of Robbins Securities, Inc. (an Illinois S corporation) as of December 31, 2008 and for the year then ended. These statements are the responsibility of the management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statements on pages 3-10 are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly in all material respects, the information therein of Robbins Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2008 and for the year then ended in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

ROBBINS SECURITIES, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2008

NOTE A – ORGANIZATION

Robbins Securities, Inc., was incorporated in the state of Illinois in 1993. The corporation remained inactive until September 1, 2000 and began its operations as a registered securities dealer engaged in securities transactions during 2001.

NOTE B – SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Overall Accounting Method

The Corporation maintains its books using the accrual basis method of accounting.

Securities

All customer transactions are cleared through other broker-dealers. As a non-carrying, non-clearing dealer, the Corporation maintains no custody of any customer securities.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and revenue and expenses during the period reported. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Estimates are used when accounting for long-term contracts, allowances for uncollectable accounts receivable, taxes and contingencies among others.

NOTE C - INCOME TAXES

The Corporation's sole shareholder made an election under Internal Revenue Code section 1362, effective as of January 1, 2001, to be an S-corporation. As such, the shareholder is taxed on all the Company's taxable income. Therefore, no provision for federal income taxes has been included in these financial statements.

NOTE D – COMMON STOCK

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION

AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL

Board of Directors
Robbins Securities, Inc.
Chicago, Illinois

We have audited the statements on pages 3-10 in the Financial and Operational Combined Uniform Single Report Part IIA of Robbins Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2008 and for the year then ended, and have issued our report thereon dated February 23, 2009.

As part of our audit, we made a study evaluation of the internal control structure to the extent we considered necessary to evaluate the structure as required by generally accepted auditing standards. Under those standards, the purpose of such evaluations are to establish a basis for reliance thereon in determining the nature, timing and extent of other auditing procedures necessary for expressing an opinion on the financial statements and to assist the auditor in planning and performing the audit of the financial statements.

The objective of internal accounting control is to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance as to the safeguarding of assets against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and the reliability of financial records for preparing financial statements and maintaining accountability for assets. The concept of reasonable assurance recognizes that the cost of a system of internal control should not exceed the benefits derived and also recognizes that evaluation of these factors necessarily requires estimates and judgments by management.

There are inherent limitations that should be recognized in considering the potential effectiveness of any system of internal control. In the performance of most control procedures, errors can result from misunderstanding of instructions, mistakes of judgment, carelessness or other personal factors. Control procedures whose effectiveness depends upon segregation of duties can be circumvented by collusion.

Similarly, control procedures can be circumvented intentionally by management with respect either to the execution and recording of transactions or with respect to the estimates and judgments required in the preparation of financial statements. Further, projection of any evaluation of internal control to future periods is subject to the risk that the procedures may become inadequate because of changes in conditions and that the degree of compliance with the procedures may deteriorate.

Our audit of the financial statements made in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards, including the study and evaluation of the corporation's internal control structure that was made for the purpose set forth in the first paragraph of this report, would not necessarily disclose all weaknesses in the system because it was based on selective tests of accounting records and related data. During our review of the control structure we did not become aware of any material weaknesses.

The foregoing conditions were considered in determining the nature, timing and extent of audit tests to be applied in our audit of the financial statements, and this report of such conditions does not modify our report dated February 23, 2009 on such financial statements.
