INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Affina Brokerage Services, LLC
Rye, NY

To the Manager:

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Affina Brokerage Services, LLC (A wholly-owned subsidiary of USAlliance Federal Credit Union) as of December 31, 2008, that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. These standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Affina Brokerage Services, LLC as of December 31, 2008, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2008

1. Nature of Organization

Affina Brokerage Services, LLC (the Company) is a one-member limited liability company and a wholly-owned subsidiary of USAlliance Federal Credit Union (USAlliance). The Company receives commissions for executing and clearing trades for USAlliance, which acts as nominee for its members. Additionally, the Company receives commission from other customers for whom it acts as an introductory broker on a fully-disclosed basis. The Company also provides to USAlliance certain portfolio administrative functions for which the Company receives a monthly administrative fee of $5,000 and reimbursement for a percentage of its personnel costs and other costs.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

This summary of significant accounting policies of the Company is presented to assist in understanding the financial statements of the Company. These accounting policies conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and reflect practices appropriate to the industry in which the Company operates.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Although these estimates are based on management's knowledge of current and expected future events, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers cash and all highly liquid instruments with an original maturity of less than three months to be cash equivalents.

Securities Transactions

Securities transactions of customers are recorded on a settlement date basis, generally within three business days after trade date, with related transaction revenue recorded on a trade-date basis.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Investment Valuation

Securities owned are valued at market and unrealized gains and losses are reflected in income.

Income Taxes

The Company has elected disregarded -entity status for federal and state income tax purposes and, therefore, pays no income tax at the Company level.

3. Related Party Transactions

The statement of operations includes USAlliance administrative fees and commissions of $340,774.06 and $59,583.29, respectively. Such administrative fees paid to the Company by USAlliance are pursuant to "Support Services Agreement". The agreement became effective October 31, 2000, and can be terminated by either party upon giving 60 days' notice.

The agreement also provides that USAlliance provide the Company with accounting support, office space and furniture for a monthly fee of $1,370. During the year ended December 31, 2008, the Company paid USAlliance $16,440 in accordance with this provision of the agreement.

4. Net Capital Requirements

Pursuant to the basic uniform net capital provisions, the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital, as defined, under such provisions of $250,000. Further, the provisions require that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness, as defined, to net capital shall not exceed 15 to 1. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis. At December 31, 2008, the Company's net capital is $775,345, net capital requirement is $250,000, and ratio of aggregate indebtedness is 0.0411. to 1.

5. Employee Benefits

The Company's employees are allowed to participate in a 401(k) pension plan (sponsored by USAlliance) that allows the Company's employees to defer a portion of their salary into the 401(k) plan. The Company matches a portion of employees' wage reductions. Costs of the plan are accrued and funded on a current basis. The 401(k) plans cost for the year ended December 31, 2008 and 2007 were $9,096.21, and $10,780.12 respectively.

Effective December 31, 2007, a non-contributory, defined benefit pension plan sponsored by USAlliance was terminated. No further accruals were made for this plan in 2008. The defined benefit pension costs for the year ended December 31, 2008 and 2007 were $0 and $26,200.

6. Business Risk and Concentrations

In the normal course of business, the Company acts in the capacity of agent in executing and settling securities transactions. Business risk results from the possibility that a loss may occur from the failure of another party to perform according to the terms of settlement. The Company has control procedures regarding securities transactions with counterparties and the manner in which they are settled. The settlement of open transactions as of December 31, 2008, did not have a material adverse effect on the financial statements of the Company.

As of December 31, 2008, the Company provided its transaction services solely to USAlliance members. The Company is also reimbursed for certain expenses by USAlliance. As such, the Company's business is reliant upon its relationship with USAlliance.

7. Additional Information

In 2008, an officer for the Company was terminated. A subsequent review after the termination by the Company and by USAlliance (the parent company) revealed that this officer is alleged to have exploited a weakness in the internal controls within USAlliance.

After identification of this internal control issue in USAlliance, and knowledge of the alleged individual's actions within USAlliance, the Company performed an extended review of its internal controls and concluded that no similar internal control issue appears to exist in the Company.
