INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Stockholders
Reef Securities, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Reef Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2009, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, changes in liabilities subordinated to claims of general creditors, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Reef Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2009, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I and II is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

REEF SECURITIES, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2009

Note 1 - Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Reef Securities, Inc., (the "Company"), was incorporated on February 18, 1993 in the State of Texas as a direct participation broker-dealer in securities. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). The Company operates under SEC Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(i).

The Company acts as a selling agent for Reef Exploration, LP and Reef Oil & Gas Partners, LP ("Reef") in the offering and selling of interests in oil and gas development programs. All of the Company's revenue is derived from this single activity. All of the Company's stock is owned by Paul Mauceli, the brother of Michael Mauceli who serves as the chief executive officer of Reef Exploration, LP, and manager of the general partner of Reef Oil & Gas Partners, LP.

Under a sales agreement, Reef agreed to provide the Company with office space, office furniture and computers, as well as secretarial and other general and administrative support and help for which the Company, in conjunction with its performance of services as selling agent, shall pay Reef a sum of $2,000 per month. Reef will provide the Company all offering materials to be used in conjunction with the offer and sale of interest in Reef programs at no cost. Had this agreement not been in place, the operating results and financial position of the Company might have been significantly different from that if the Company were autonomous.

Commissions' revenue is recognized as follows:

Prior to the funding of programs reaching certain specified minimum amounts, all proceeds from investors are retained by an escrow agent. Upon minimum funding being achieved, the Company reflects commissions' revenue for capital raised through that period.

After the funding of program minimums are met, the Company reflects commissions' revenue for capital raised in the period received by the program sponsor.

Commissions' expense is reflected when related commissions revenue is earned.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP") requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due plus deferred taxes related primarily to temporary differences between financial and income tax reporting. The deferred tax asset or liability, as applicable, represents the future tax return consequences of those differences, which will either be taxable or deductible when the asset or liability is recovered or settled. When applicable, deferred taxes are recognized for operating losses that are available to offset future taxable income.

On December 30, 2008, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Staff Position ("FSP") No. FIN 48-3, "Effective Date of FASB Interpretation No. 48 for Certain Nonpublic Entities," which permitted the Company to defer the implementation of FASB Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes" ("FIN 48") until its fiscal year beginning January 1, 2009. FIN 48 clarifies that management is expected to evaluate an income tax position taken, or expected to be taken, for likelihood of realization, before recording any amounts for such position in the financial statements. FIN 48 also requires expanded disclosure with respect to income tax positions taken that are not certain to be realized. The Company adopted FIN 48 for its year ended December 31, 2009. The adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

Note 2 - Net Capital Requirements

Pursuant to the net capital provisions of Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital, as defined under such provisions. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis. At December 31, 2009, the Company had net capital of approximately $21,873 and net capital requirements of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .45 to 1. The Securities and Exchange Commission permits a ratio of no greater than 15 to 1.

REEF SECURITIES, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2009

Note 3 - Possession or Control Requirements

The Company holds no customer funds or securities. There were no material inadequacies in the procedures followed in adhering to the exemptive provisions of (SEC) Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(i).

Note 4 - Income Taxes

The provision for income taxes consists of the following:

Benefit of loss carryforward fully reserved in prior year	$ 2,725
Federal income tax expense	(2,725)
State income taxes	(2,302)
Total	$ (2,302)
Current	$ (2,302)
Deferred	-
Total	$ (2,302)

The Company had incurred income tax losses in prior years of approximately $36,782, of which $9,000 was used during 2009. The remaining $27,782 is available to offset future Federal taxable income through 2027. The Company's resultant deferred tax asset of $3,060 was fully reserved during 2009 based on management's determination of the Company's expectations for utilizing the loss carryforward.

The components of the Company's net deferred tax asset is as follows:

Deferred tax asset	$ 3,060
Valuation allowance	(3,060)
	$ -0-

Note 5 - Concentration Risk

At various times throughout the year, the Company have had cash balances in excess of Federally insured limits.

REEF SECURITIES, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2009

Note 6 - Related Party Transaction

During the year ended December 31, 2009, the Company's stockholder withdrew funds as commissions to be re-paid. The amount due to the Company at December 31, 2009, was $88,007. This amount was reflected as a reduction of stockholder equity.

Note 7 - Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The FASB issued Statement No. 168, The FASB Accounting Standards Codification and the Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("SFAS 168") (FASB ASC 105-10). SFAS 168 replaces all previously issued accounting standards and establishes the FASB Accounting Standards Codification ("FASB ASC" or the "Codification") as the source of authoritative accounting principles recognized by the FASB to be applied by nongovernmental entities in the preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP. SFAS 168 is effective for all annual periods ending after September 15, 2009. The FASB ASC is not intended to change existing U.S. GAAP. The adoption of this pronouncement only resulted in changes to the Company's financial statement disclosure references. As such, the adoption of this pronouncement had no effect on the Company's financial statements.

In May 2009, the FASB issued Statement No. 165, Subsequent Events ("SFAS 165"), included in the Codification under FASB ASC 855, which establishes general standards of accounting for and disclosure of events occurring after the balance sheet date, but before the financial statements are issued or available to be issued. SFAS 165 also requires entities to disclose the date through which it has evaluated subsequent events and the basis for that date. The Company adopted SFAS 165 for its year ended December 31, 2009. The adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

See Note 8 for more information regarding the Company's evaluation of subsequent events.

Note 8 - Subsequent Events

In preparing the accompanying financial statements, the Company has reviewed events that have occurred after December 31, 2009, through February 18, 2010, the date the financial statements were available for issuance. During this period, the Company did not have any material subsequent events.

Independent Auditor's Report

On Internal Control

Required By SEC Rule 17a-5

For the Year Ended

December 31, 2009

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL REQUIRED BY SEC RULE 17a-5

To the Board of Directors of
Reef Securities, Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental information of Reef Securities, Inc. (the "Company"), as of and for the year ended December 31, 2009 in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that adversely affects the entity's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process, or report financial data reliably in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles such that there is more than a remote likelihood that a misstatement of the entity's financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

A material weakness is a significant deficiency, or combination of significant deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures, as described in the second paragraph of this report, were adequate at December 31, 2008, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON THE SIPC ANNUAL ASSESSMENT REQUIRED BY SEC RULE 17a-5

To the Board of Directors of
Reef Securities, Inc.

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have performed the procedures enumerated below with respect to the accompanying Schedule of Assessment and Payments [Transitional Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7T)] to the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) for the year ended December 31, 2009, which were agreed to by Reef Securities, Inc. and the Securities and Exchange Commission, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. and SIPC, solely to assist you and the other specified parties in evaluating Reef Securities, Inc.'s compliance with the applicable instructions of the Transitional Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7T). Management is responsible for Reef Securities, Inc.'s compliance with those requirements. This agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose.

The procedures we performed and our findings are as follows:

1. Compared the listed assessment payments in Form SIPC-7T with respective cash disbursements records entries (cash disbursements journal) noting no differences;
2. Compared the amounts reported on the audited Form X-17A-5 for the year ended December 31, 2009 with the amounts reported in Form SIPC-7T for the year ended December 31, 2009 noting no differences;
3. Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7T with supporting schedules and working papers noting no differences; and
4. Proved the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7T and in the related schedules and working papers supporting the adjustments noting no differences.

We were not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on compliance. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the specified parties listed above and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
