REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Member of Shelter Bay Securities, LLC.

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial condition of Shelter Bay Securities, LLC, as of December 31, 2009, and the related statements of income, changes in member's capital, and changes in cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion such financial statements referred to above present fairly in all material respects, the financial position of Shelter Bay Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2009, and the results of its operations, changes in its member's capital and cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I, II, III, and IV is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Report on Internal Control

To the Managing Member
Shelter Bay Securities, LLC.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Shelter Bay Securities, LLC (the Company), for the year ended December 31, 2009, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5 (g) (1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5 (g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3.

Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls, and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants or the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above. We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31 2009, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Members, management, the SEC, FINRA, and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

The accompanying notes are an integral part of these financial statements.

1. Organization and Nature of Business

Shelter Bay Securities, LLC (hereinafter referred to as “the Company”) was formed as a Rhode Island Limited Liability Company on April 22, 2004, and commenced operations on August 30, 2004. The Company has a single member (owner) who operates the Company’s day to day business activities.

The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. The Company is not registered as a specialist on any national securities exchange.

The Company earns commissions from certain issuers of limited partnership interests with which the Company has a contractual agreement relating to the sales of such limited investment partnership interests by the Company to qualified investors. The Company’s revenue from such transactions is generally a percentage of the amount of net assets invested by its customers in such limited partnerships. Income is recognized as earned.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

Use of Estimates

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The preparation of these financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Basis of Presentation

The books of the Company are kept on the accrual basis. The Company is engaged in a single line of business as a securities broker-dealer, and the services of the Company have been limited to generating commissions from the sale of limited investment partnership interests on behalf of certain companies with which the Company has a contractual agreement.

Securities Transactions

The Company has not entered into any securities or commodities transactions. The Company sells limited partnership interests, but the customer funds are paid directly to the issuer, not to the Company.

Resale and Repurchase Agreements

The Company has not entered into any transactions involving the purchase of securities under agreements to resell (reverse repurchase agreements or reverse repos) or sales of securities under agreements to repurchase (repurchase agreements or repos).

Securities-Lending Activities

The Company has not entered into any securities borrowed and securities loaned transactions.

Investment Banking

The Company does not act as an underwriter or agent in investment banking transactions.

Commission Income

The Company earns commissions from certain issuers of limited investment partnership interests which with the Company has a contractual agreement relating to the sales of such limited investment partnership interests. The Company is entitled to such commission income as long as the customer retains an interest in the investment partnership. Income is recognized as earned. For the year ended December 31, 2009, the commission income was earned from three such issuers. Income earned in 2009 and paid in January 2010 would be included in accounts receivable. That amount is $10,000.

Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company. It is not subject to federal income taxes and passes its income and losses through to its member. As the Company has a single member (owner), it is disregarded for federal income tax purposes and an income tax return is not filed for the Company. The Company's profits and losses are reported on the tax return of the single owner as if the Company was a sole proprietorship. Rhode Island follows the federal income tax treatment of limited liability companies except that it imposes a $500 annual tax on limited liability companies.

Depreciation

There is no allowance for depreciation in the financial statements as the Company owned no depreciable fixed assets during the year ended December 31, 2009.

Accrued Expenses and Other Liabilities

The Company's financial statements include certain accrued expenses, including payroll taxes and miscellaneous other expenses that are fixed and determinable at December 31, 2009. Such accruals are reflected in the Statement of Financial Condition in the current liability section.

Statement of Cash Flows

For purposes of the Statement of Cash Flows, the Company has included all cash under the term "Cash." The Company's cash at December 31, 2009, consisted exclusively of checking account cash. No other cash equivalents were held by the Company at December 31, 2009.

3. Exemption from Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission

The Company has claimed exemption from Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section (k)(2)(i) of that Rule which provides an exemption to a Broker-Dealer because it carries no margin accounts, promptly transmits all customer funds and delivers all securities received in connection with its activities as a broker or dealer, does not hold funds or securities for customers, and effectuates all financial transactions with its customers through a special account for the exclusive benefit of customers. During the year ended December 31, 2009, the Company carried no margin accounts, did not hold or possess any customer funds and did not sell or execute any trades in securities. Therefore, no Cash has been segregated in a special reserve bank account for the benefit of customers under Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

4. Clearing through Another Broker-Dealer

The Company has not cleared any proprietary or customer transactions through another broker-dealer. No amount payable to a clearing broker is provided as a result.

5. Receivable from and Payable to Customers

The Company does not hold any securities owned by customers as collateral for receivables, and does not have any receivable from or payable to customers.

6. Retirement Plan

The Company has a 401(k)-Profit Sharing Plan and a Defined Benefit Plan to cover the Member (owner) and the Company's employees. Under the 401(k) plan, participants can elect to contribute an amount of their compensation, up to a statutorily determined limit, which, generally, is $22,000 per person for 2009 plan years, for persons age 50 or over. Contributions in the amount of $44,000 were contributed for 2009. This amount consisted of $22,000 for the Member and $22,000 for an employee. The Plan also has a Profit Sharing Plan component and a Defined Benefit Plan. The Company makes an actuarially determined contribution to the Defined Benefit Plan based on certain variables (such as life expectancy of the participant, earnings of the participant). In 2009, the amount contributed to the Defined Benefit Plan was $270,000. The Defined Benefit Plan does not have accounts with balances for each participant.

7. Scheduled Withdrawals

There were no scheduled withdrawals from the Company as of December 31, 2009. The single owner did not make any withdrawals in January, 2010.

8. Related Parties

The Company has no due to or due from related parties. The single owner of the Company also operates a fund of fund which invests, among other investments, in a certain limited partnership interest offered by the Lynx Fund, a party with which the Company has a commission agreement providing that the Company will be entitled to a commission based on the amount invested in limited partnership interests of the issuer by customers of the Company. The fund of funds had capital invested in the Lynx Fund #I, LP, but the Company earns no commissions from such investment.

9. Financial Instruments

No derivative financial instruments (futures, options, swaps, etc.) have been traded or entered into on behalf of the customers.

10. Financial Instruments with Off Balance Sheet Risk

The Company has not entered into transactions involving derivatives and other off balance sheet financial instruments.

The Company did not enter into certain other transactions which, in accordance with industry practice, would not be recorded on the Statement of Financial Condition, such as commitments to enter into future resale and repurchase agreements.

Further, the Company has not extended credit to its customers in marginal transactions, and has no secured financing (such as bank loans, or securities loaned) which might require it to pledge collateral in support thereof.

11. Quantitative Disclosures for Derivative Financial Instruments Used for Trading Purposes

As of December 31, 2009, the gross contractual or notional amounts of derivative financial instruments used for trading purposes was zero.

The fair value of derivative financial instruments held or issued for trading purposes as of December 31, 2009 was zero, and the average monthly fair value of the instruments for the year ended December 31, 2009 was zero.

Further, the Company has not entered into derivative contracts to economically hedge exposures or to modify the characteristics of financial instruments or transactions.

12. Commitments and Contingent Liabilities

The Company has no material contingent liabilities as of December 31, 2009.

The Company has agreements with various parties relating to the sale of certain limited partnership interests. These contracts are generally cancelable by either party with a specified number of days (generally 30 days) notice. In the event that the contracts are cancelled, the Company would continue to be entitled to receive commissions relating to any investment by investors who have subscribed to such limited partnerships through the Company.

The Company is not obligated under any operating leases.

Rent expense for 2009 was zero because the Company is utilizing facilities provided by the Company's single member (owner). For the year ended December 31, 2009, the member did not charge any rent for these premises as the member did not incur any additional costs for the Company's use of the facilities and the premises are not and will not be offered for rent to outside parties in the ordinary course of business.

The Company is not involved either as a plaintiff or as a defendant, in any litigation as of December 31, 2009.

The Company has determined that these commitments do not meet the definition of a derivative as defined by FASB Statement No. 133 as amended.

13. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Further, equity capital may not be withdrawn if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31 2009, the Company had net capital of $29,545 which was $24,545 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's net capital percentage was 18.5751%. A reconciliation of net capital per this report to net capital per the FOCUS report is also included in the supplemental information.

14. Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company. It is not subject to federal income taxes. As the Company has a single member (owner), it is disregarded for federal income tax purposes and a return is not filed for the Company. The Company's profits and losses are reported on the tax return of the single owner, as if the Company was a sole proprietorship. Rhode Island follows the federal income tax treatment of limited liability companies, except that it imposes a $500 annual tax on limited liability companies. The amount is reflected in the financial statements.

15. Collateral

The Company has not pledged any amounts as collateral. Therefore, there are no amounts pledged as collateral which are not reclassified and reported separately in the financial statements at December 31, 2009.

16. Credit Risk

The Company has not engaged in transactions with counterparties in which the counterparty is clearing a transaction. However, the Company is a party to various contracts in which the Company is entitled to a commission based on the amount of net funds its customers have invested in limited investment partnerships offered by the other party. In the event that such other parties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk, including risk of losing accrued but unpaid commissions. The amount of risk depends on the creditworthiness of the other party. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each party with which it deals.

17. Fair Value Measurements

Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (FASB Statement No. 157), requires that the valuation method used to value the Company's assets be disclosed. The Statement provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets (level one measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under FASB Statement No. 157 are:

Level 1

Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets in active markets, such as the New York stock exchange.

Level 2

Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;

Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;

Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3

Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The Company has only cash and commissions receivable which were collected in January, 2010.

18. Subsequent Events

The single member withdrew $30,000 in February, 2010.

To the Member of Shelter Bay Securities, LLC:

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have performed the procedures enumerated below with respect to the accompanying Schedule of Assessment and Payments, "Transitional Assessment Reconciliation, Form SIPC-7T," to the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) for the period from April 1, 2009 to December 31, 2009, which were agreed to by Shelter Bay Securities, LLC and the Securities and Exchange Commission, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc., and SIPC, solely to assist you and the other specified parties in evaluating Shelter Bay Securities, LLC's compliance with the applicable instructions of the "Transitional Assessment Reconciliation, Form SIPC-7T." Shelter Bay Securities, LLC's management is responsible for Shelter Bay Securities, LLC's compliance with those requirements. This agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose. The procedures we performed and our findings are as follows:

1. Compared the listed assessment payments in Form SIPC-7T with respective cash disbursement records entries, noting no differences;

$150	January, 2009
$87.47	July, 2009
$712.31	February, 2010

2. Compared the Total Revenue amounts of the audited Form X-17A-5 for the year ended December 31, 2009 less revenues reported on the FOCUS reports for the period from January 1, 2009 to March 31, 2009

Total Revenue per 2009 FOCUS Reports for all 4 quarters	1,517,483
First Quarter FOCUS Revenue	(1,147,570)
Total Revenue April 30 to December 31, per FOCUS Reports	369,913
Audit Adjustment to Revenue	10,000
Total Revenue, as adjusted, April 30 to December 31	379,913

The amounts have been compared with the amounts reported in Form SIPC-7T for the period from April 1, 2009 to December 31, 2009 noting no differences--

April 30 to December 31	379,913

3. Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7T with supporting schedules and working papers, noting no differences;

4. Proved the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7T and in the related schedules supporting the adjustments (there were no adjustments), noting no differences; and

5. Compared the amount of any overpayment applied to the current assessment with the Form SIPC-7T on which it was originally computed noting no differences

We were not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on compliance. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the specified parties listed above and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
