Report Of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors and Stockholder
Bankers International Securities, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial condition of Bankers International Securities, Inc. (the Company) as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholder's equity and cash flows for the years then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Bankers International Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in the schedules on pages 13 through 15 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Note A - Operations And Summary Of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature Of Business

Bankers International Securities, Inc. (the Company) is a securities broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., and is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bankers Financial Corporation (Parent).

The Company does not hold customer funds or safe-keep customer securities, and its operations are limited to the private placement of securities.

The Company's primary source of revenue is service fees collected from two customers; one an unrelated third party and the other an affiliated company.

Related Party Transactions

The related party transactions included below are not necessarily indicative of the amounts and terms that would have been incurred had comparable transactions been entered into with independent parties.

The Company earned service fees of $4,000 in 2009 (none in 2008) from an affiliate and received an additional $4,000 from this affiliate in 2009 representing an advance payment of the 2010 service fees. These amounts are recorded as deferred revenue in the accompanying statement of financial condition for 2009.

The Company has management and cost sharing arrangements with its Parent and other related parties whereby costs are allocated based upon the scope of work and responsibilities performed by the Parent and other related parties for the benefit of the Company. In 2009 and 2008, the Company was charged approximately $22,125 and $18,400, respectively, under these agreements.

Income Taxes

The Company files a consolidated income tax return with its Parent and the Parent's subsidiaries. The method of allocation among the subsidiaries is subject to a written agreement, whereby allocation is made primarily on a separate return basis with the current credit for any net operating losses or other items utilized in the consolidated tax return. Accordingly, the amounts reflected in the accompanying statements of financial condition as income taxes receivable and payable actually represent amounts receivable and payable to other subsidiaries of the Parent.

The Company has adopted the accounting guidance for uncertainties in income taxes. The Company recognizes in the financial statements tax positions determined to be "more likely than not" of being sustained upon examination, based on the technical merits of the positions. Such tax positions are both initially and subsequently measured as the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon settlement with the tax authorities, assuming full knowledge of the position and all relevant facts. Interest and penalties on uncertain tax positions are recognized as part of income tax expense. The Company did not identify any uncertainties and therefore has not recorded a liability in the financial statements.

Use Of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through the report date, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Bankers International Securities, Inc.

Notes To Financial Statements

December 31, 2009 And 2008

Note B - Certificate Of Deposit

The Company held a certificate of deposit of $20,000 during 2009 and 2008 with a bank which is a related party of the Company. The stated rate of interest was 2.22% at December 31, 2008, with a maturity date of December 21, 2009. The Company sold the certificate of deposit during 2009.

During 2008, the Company purchased another certificate of deposit with an unaffiliated bank. The stated interest rate was 1.49% and 2.25% at December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively, with a maturity date of March 11, 2010.

Note C - Other Assets

Other assets primarily consist of accrued interest income and prepaid expenses.

Note D - Income Taxes

Income tax benefit was $4,691 and $2,631 for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively. Income benefit attributable to operations consists of the following for the years ended December 31:

	Current	Deferred	Total
2009
Federal	$ 4,005	$ -	$ 4,005
State	686	-	686
	$ 4,691	$ -	$ 4,691
2008
Federal	$ 2,247	$ -	$ 2,247
State	384	-	384
	$ 2,631	$ -	$ 2,631

The 2006, 2007, 2008, and 2009 tax years are open and subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service and the Florida Department of Revenue. The Company is not currently under audit by nor has it been contacted by these jurisdictions.

Note E - Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital, and requires that aggregate indebtedness, as defined by the Rule, shall not exceed 1500% of net capital as defined. In December 2002, the Company received approval from the NASD to reduce its required net capital to $5,000. The Company must maintain a minimum net capital equal to or greater than its required net capital.

The net capital amount, the excess net capital, and the percentage of aggregate indebtedness to net capital at December 31, 2009 are as follows:

Net capital	$ 26,131
Excess net capital	$ 21,131
Percentage of aggregate indebtedness to net capital	107%

Report Of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm
On Internal Control

To the Board of Directors and Stockholder
Bankers International Securities, Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Bankers International Securities, Inc. (the Company) as of and for the year ended December 31, 2009 in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13.
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the company's financial statements will not be prevented or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures, as described in the second paragraph of this report, were adequate at December 31, 2009, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the audit committee, the board of directors, management, the SEC, the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered broker-dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
