The Members
Moss Adams Capital LLC

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial condition of Moss Adams Capital LLC as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Moss Adams Capital LLC as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESS

Moss Adams Capital LLC (the Company) is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company is a Limited Liability Company formed in Washington State. Moss Adams Capital LLC provides investment banking services to middle-market companies located in the Western United States.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash equivalents - For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers overnight investment sweeps in mutual funds to be cash equivalents. Amounts in this account totaling $-0- and $334,717 at December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively, are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Credit risk - Credit risk is represented by unsecured trade accounts receivable. Bad debts are provided for using the allowance method based on historical experience and management's evaluation of outstanding accounts receivable at the end of each year.

Property and equipment - Property and equipment are carried at cost. Depreciation is provided using a method that approximates the straight-line method over estimated useful lives of five years.

Income taxes - The Company is not a taxpaying entity for federal income tax purposes, and thus no federal income tax expense has been recorded in the statements. Income of the Company is taxed to the members in their respective returns. The Company is subject to a limited liability company fee in California.

The Company adopted the new accounting for uncertainty in income taxes guidance on January 1, 2009. Management evaluates its income tax positions on a regular basis and believes it has taken no significant uncertain tax positions that could result in additional taxes to the Company. The Company has not recognized any interest or penalties associated with uncertain tax positions. All income tax returns filed after 2005 remain subject to examination by governmental agencies.

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Moss Adams LLP (the majority member) owns 65% of the member equity interest in the Company. Three partners of the Company own the remaining 35%.

Other advances includes $300,000 and $128,626 from the majority member at December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively. Other payables includes $36,413 to the majority member at December 31, 2009. Certain Company expenses are paid by the majority member on its behalf, and these items are charged against an intercompany accounts payable account.

As the Company and majority member are under common control, the Company's financial position and operating results may be significantly different from those that would have been obtained had the entities been autonomous.

4. DISTRIBUTIONS

The Company may distribute undistributed net earnings from prior years to the members in 2010. These distributions will be made in amounts that maintain the Company's net capital requirements at all times.

5. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

In preparing these financial statements, management has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through February 22, 2010, the date the financial statements were available for issue.
