INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

February 24, 2010

Ms. Terri Hodges
ABAX BROKERAGE SERVICES, INC.
Houston, Texas

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of ABAX BROKERAGE SERVICES, INC. as of December 31, 2009, and the related statements of income, stockholder's equity and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of ABAX BROKERAGE SERVICES, INC. at December 31, 2009, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2009

NOTE 1: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

ABAX BROKERAGE SERVICES, INC. (the "Company"), was formed under the laws of the State of Texas on August 3, 1994. The Company commenced operations as a registered broker-dealer in October 1994, and is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission) pursuant to Rule 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The Company currently restricts its business to retailing mutual funds on subscription basis to its customers.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers cash and highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less when purchased to be cash and cash equivalents.

Revenue Recognition

Commission income on mutual fund transactions is recognized when distributed from mutual funds.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Company has elected S Corporation status for federal income tax purposes and as such does not pay any income taxes. Accordingly, the Company's net income is reported on the personal tax return of the stockholder.

Beginning January 1, 2007, the Company became subject to the Texas Gross Margin Tax. The Texas Gross Margin Tax generally is calculated as one percent of gross margin, as defined. The Company owes no Margin Tax for the year ended December 31, 2009.

ABAX BROKERAGE SERVICES, INC.

NOTE 2: LIABILITIES SUBORDINATED TO CLAIMS OF GENERAL CREDITORS

During 2009, there were no liabilities subordinated to claims of general creditors. Accordingly, a statement of changes in liabilities subordinated to claims of general creditors has not been included in these financial statements.

NOTE 3: NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the net capital rules adopted and administered by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The rules prohibit a member from engaging in securities transactions if the ratio of its aggregate indebtedness, as defined, to net capital exceeds 15 to 1. At December 31, 2009, the Company had aggregate indebtedness of $360 and net capital of $7,360, which does meet the minimum net capital requirement of $5,000.

NOTE 4: UNCERTAIN TAX POSITIONS

On January 1, 2009, the Company adopted ASC 740-10-25, which prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. ASC 740-10-25 also provides guidance on the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in the Company's financial statements, (prior authoritative literature: FIN 48) and on derecognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The adoption of ASC 740-10-25 did not have a material effect on the Company.

The Company did not have unrecognized tax benefits as of December 31, 2009 and does not expect this to change significantly over the next twelve months. In connection with the adoption of ASC 740-10-25, the Company will recognize interest and penalties accrued on any unrecognized tax benefits as a component of income tax expense. As of December 31, 2009, the Company has not accrued interest or penalties related to uncertain tax positions.

NOTE 5: SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company evaluated the period from January 1, 2010 to February 24, 2010, the date of the audit report, and noted no significant subsequent events.

ABAX BROKERAGE SERVICES, INC.

NOTE 6: NEW PRONOUNCEMENTS

In June 2009, the FASB issued FASB ASC 105-10-05 ("ASC 105-10-05") (Prior authoritative literature: SFAS No. 168, "The FASB Accounting Standards Codification TM and the Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles— a replacement of FASB Statement No. 162") which establishes the FASB Accounting Standards Codification TM (Codification) as the source of authoritative accounting principles recognized by the FASB to be applied by non-governmental entities in the preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP. Effective July 1, 2009, the Codification is the single source of authoritative accounting principles recognized by the FASB to be applied by non-governmental entities in the preparation of financial statements in accordance with GAAP. The guidance explicitly recognizes rules and interpretive releases of the SEC under federal securities laws as authoritative GAAP for SEC registrants. Adoption of the Codification did not materially impact the Company's financial statements.

In May 2009, FASB issued FASB ASC 855-10-05 ("ASC 855-10-05") (Prior authoritative literature: SFAS No. 165, "Subsequent Events"). ASC 855-10-05 sets forth the period after the balance sheet date during which management of a reporting entity should evaluate events or transactions that may occur for potential recognition or disclosure in the financial statements, the circumstances under which an entity should recognize events or transactions occurring after the balance sheet date in its financial statements, and disclosures that an entity should make about events or transactions that occurred after the balance sheet date. ASC 855-10-05 requires the disclosure of the date through which an entity has evaluated subsequent events and the basis for that date. This disclosure should alert all users of financial statements that an entity has not evaluated subsequent events after that date in the set of financial statements being presented. ASC 855-10-05 is effective for interim or annual periods ending after June 15, 2009. The Company adopted ASC 855-10-05 during year ended December 31, 2009 and it has not had a material impact on the financial statements. See Note 5.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL

February 24, 2010

Ms. Terri Hodges
ABAX BROKERAGE SERVICES, INC.
Houston, Texas

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of ABAX BROKERAGE SERVICES, INC. (the "Company") for the year ended December 31, 2009, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting ("internal control") as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13.
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that adversely affects the entity's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process, or report financial data reliably in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles such that there is more than a remote likelihood that a misstatement of the entity's financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

A material weakness is a significant deficiency, or combination of significant deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2009, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, the National Association of Securities Dealers, and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
