INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Shareholders
Oak Tree Securities, Inc.
Livermore, California

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Oak Tree Securities, Inc. as of April 30, 2010 and the related statements of operations, changes in Shareholders' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provided a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Oak Tree Securities, Inc. as of April 30, 2010, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedule I is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

1. General Information and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Description of Business

Oak Tree Securities, Inc. (the "Company"), is registered as a broker and dealer in securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). It transacts trades in equity securities through other brokers on a "fully disclosed" basis and receives commissions therefrom. In addition, commissions are earned on sales of limited partnership interests, mutual funds and other interests.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting wherein income is recognized as earned and expenses are recognized when incurred. Commission revenue and the related commission expense is recorded on the trade date of transactions.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid financial instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

The Company maintains cash in one bank and one savings institution with FDIC insurance of up to $250,000 each. An additional deposit was maintained with a clearing broker, which is insured by SPIC.

Investments

When the company has firm investments in various equity securities, they are carried at fair value.

Income taxes

When appropriate, deferred income tax assets and liabilities are provided for differences between the tax basis of an asset or liability and the reported amounts in the financial statements brought about because the Company files income tax returns on the cash basis.

Depreciation

Furniture and equipment were depreciated on a straight-line basis over five years and fully depreciated at April 30, 2010.

2. Net Capital Requirement

As a registered broker and dealer in Securities, the Company is subject to the Securities Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1).

The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital as defined in the Uniform Net Capital Rule was approximately 0.40 to 1 at April 30, 2010. Aggregate indebtedness and net capital change from day to day. The Company is required to maintain a ratio of less than 15 to 1.

At April 30, 2010, the Company had net capital as defined of $85,942, which exceeded the minimum requirement of $5,000. The Company must maintain a minimum net capital of 120% of the minimum required capital to avoid interim reporting requirements.

3. Exemption from Rule 15c3-3

The Company is exempt from certain provisions of Rule 15c3-3 since it does not clear transactions in securities or hold customer funds or securities. The Company carries no margin accounts and promptly transmits all customer funds, delivers all customer securities and will not otherwise hold funds or securities of customers.

4. Commitment

The Company has a two-year commitment of $5,000 per month, which began January 1, 2008, for management services. The total amounted to $62,164 for the fiscal year including expenses of $2,164.

5. Income Taxes

The Company reports its income on the cash method of accounting for income tax purposes; and uses the accrual method of accounting for financial statements. The statements include income and expenses generated by commissions receivable from investment companies and commissions payable to Company representatives, which is not reported for tax purposes until the cash is received or paid. These differences create "timing" differences between taxable income and financial statement income.

5. Income Taxes (continued)

The following is the computation of income tax expense:

Income Tax Expense	California	Federal	Total
Net income (loss) before income taxes	$ 23,184	$ 23,184
Less prior year California Franchise Tax	-	(800)

Deferred income tax provision	431	423	854
Total income tax expense, including deferred	$ 2,055	$ 2,717	$ 4,772

6. Common Stock

The Company has two classes of common stock. Class A shareholders (one) are entitled to vote for two directors and Class B shareholders (currently, 7) are entitled to vote for two directors.

In 2010, one shareholder's estate sold their shares back to the company.

7. Cash Deposit

Consistent with industry practice, the Company's clearing broker, Wedbush Morgan is holding $17,314 as a deposit for unpaid security transactions.

8. Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through June 25, 2010, the date on which the financial statements were available to be issued.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL ACCOUNTING CONTROL REQUIRED BY SEC RULE 17a-5

To the Shareholders
Oak Tree Securities, Inc.
Livermore, California

In planning and performing our audits of the financial statements and supplemental schedule of Oak Tree Securities, Inc. (the "Company"), for the year ended April 30, 2010, we considered its internal control structure, including procedures for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons.
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13.
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that adversely affects the entity's ability to initiate authorize, record, process, or report financial data reliably in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles such that there is more than a remote likelihood that a misstatement of the entity's financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

A material weakness is a significant deficiency, or combination of significant deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. However, we noted no matters involving the internal control structure, including procedures for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at April 30, 2010 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the shareholders and management of the Company, the SEC, FINRA and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

PROCEDURES RELATED TO AN ENTITY'S SIPC ASSESSMENT RECONCILIATION

To the Board of Directors
Oak Tree Securities, Inc.
Livermore, California

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have performed the procedures enumerated below with respect to the accompanying Schedule of Assessment and Payments Transitional Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7) to the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) for the year ended April 30, 2010, which were agreed to by Oak Tree Securities, Inc. and the Securities and Exchange Commission, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, and SIPC solely to assist you with the applicable instructions of the General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7). The Company's management is responsible for Oak Tree Securities, Inc.'s compliance with those requirements. This agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose. The procedures we performed and our findings are as follows:

1. Compared the listed assessment payments in form SIPC-7 with respective cash disbursement records entries noting no differences.
2. Compared the amounts reported on the audited Form X-17A-5 for the fiscal year May 1, through April 30, 2010, as applicable, with the amounts reported in Form SIPC-7 for that year noting no differences.
3. Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7 with supporting schedules and working papers noting no differences.
4. Proved the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7 and in the related schedules and working papers noting no differences.

We are not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion of compliance. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we preformed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the specified parties listed above and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
