INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Board of Directors
Kingsbridge Capital Corp.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Kingsbridge Capital Corp. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2010, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, changes in liabilities subordinated to claims of general creditors, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Kingsbridge Capital Corp. as of December 31, 2010, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I and II is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Kingsbridge Capital Corp.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2010

1. Organization

Kingsbridge Capital Corp. ("the Company") is a registered broker dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). The Company is incorporated under the laws of the commonwealth of Virginia. It has agreed to limit its business to the sale of registered investment company shares and variable annuities. The Company, like other broker dealers, is directly affected by general economic and market conditions, including fluctuations in volume and price level of securities, changes in interest rates and securities brokerage services, all of which have an impact on the Company's liquidity.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The following are the significant accounting policies followed by the Company:

Revenue – Securities transactions (and related commission revenue and expense, if applicable) are recorded on a settlement date basis, generally the third business day following the transaction date. This is not materially different from trade date.

Income taxes – No provision has been made for income taxes since the Company has elected to be taxed under the provision of Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code and similar state provisions. The Company is not taxed at the entity level.

Cash and cash equivalents – The Company includes as cash and cash equivalents amounts maintained in an FDIC insured deposit account.

Use of estimates – The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates and assumptions.

Subsequent events - Management has evaluated the impact of all subsequent events through the date the financial statements were issued and has determined that there were no subsequent events requiring disclosure in these financial statements.

3. Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements

The Company will operate in accordance with the exemptive provisions of paragraph (k)(1) of SEC Rule 15c3-3. No customer accounts are maintained and transactions are limited to sales and redemption of shares of registered investment companies and/or variable annuities.

4. Net Capital Requirements

Pursuant to the net capital provisions of the SEC, the Company is required to maintain net capital as defined under such provision. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis. At December 31, 2010 the Company had net capital of $8,838 which was $3,838 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's net capital ratio was 1.43 to 1.

5. Related Parties

The two stockholders and officers of the Company are stockholders and officers of King George Capital MGMT, Inc., an investment advisor registered with the commonwealth of Virginia. As such, King George Capital MGMT, Inc. is an affiliate of the Company.

6. Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company is engaged in brokerage activities in which counterparties primarily include mutual fund companies and insurance companies. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counterparty or issuer of the financial product.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL

Board of Directors
Kingsbridge Capital Corp.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Kingsbridge Capital Corp. (the Company) as of and for the year ended December 31, 2010 in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC) we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

- 1) Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13.
- 2) Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls, and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the company's financial statements will not be prevented or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2010, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, FINRA, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Independent Accountants' Report on Applying Agreed-Upon Procedures Related to an Entity's Claim for Exclusion from Membership in SIPC

Board of Directors
Kingsbridge Capital Corp.

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, related to the Certification of have Exclusion From Membership (Form SIPC-3) filed by Kingsbridge Capital Corp. (the "Company") with the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC"), we have performed the procedures enumerated below for the year ended December 31, 2010, which were agreed to by the Company and the Securities and Exchange Commission, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc., and SIPC, solely to assist you and the other specified parties in evaluating the Company's claim for exclusion from membership in SIPC. The Company's management is responsible for the compliance with the exclusion requirements from membership in SIPC under section 78ccc(a)(2)(A)(ii) of the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970 ("SIPA") for the year ended December 31, 2010. This agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose.

The procedures we performed and our findings are as follows; compared the total revenues and each revenue classification in the Company's audited financial statements included on Form X-17A-5 for the year ended December 31, 2010 to Certification of Exclusion From Membership (Form SIPC -3) that the Company's business consisted exclusively of the distribution of shares of registered open end investment companies or unit investment trusts, the sale of variable annuities and the business of insurance.

We were not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on the Company's claim for exclusion from membership in SIPC. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the specified parties listed above and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
