REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Members
Sinclair & Company, LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Sinclair & Company, LLC, as of December 31, 2010, and the related statements of operations and members' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Sinclair & Company, LLC, as of December 31, 2010, and the results of its operations, and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedule I is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2010

Note 1 – Summary of significant accounting policies

Organization

Sinclair & Company, LLC (the “Company”), is a Delaware limited liability company organized on August 13, 2004. The Company is a broker/dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). The Company does not have any customers for which it clears transactions. Its primary source of income is from third-party marketing of Regulation D private placements to its clients.

As a Limited Liability Company (“LLC”), the Company has some of the attributes of a sole proprietorship, a partnership and a corporation. For tax purposes, it is treated as a partnership. It is essentially a business entity created by contract between the members, much as a partnership. The members are protected from personal liability for the acts of the LLC, much like shareholders of a corporation. An LLC also differs from a partnership by not imposing personal liability on members for participating in the management of the LLC.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ significantly from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Company is taxed as a partnership for federal and state income tax purposes. As such, the Company will not pay income taxes, as any income or loss will be included in the tax returns of the individual members. Accordingly, no provision is made for income taxes in the financial statements.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes commission and related expenses on a settlement-date basis as transactions occur.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company maintains all cash in bank accounts, which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced a loss in such accounts.

Note 1 – Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

Concentration of Customers

As of and for the year ended December 31, 2010, the Company had two customers who accounted for 79% of total revenues.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying value of cash, prepaid expenses and accounts payable approximates fair value because of the short maturity of these items.

Depreciation

The Company's fixed assets consist primarily of computers as the office rent includes furniture. Depreciation is computed by using the straight line method over the estimated useful life of five years. Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2010, was $1,155.

Note 2 – Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC uniform net capital rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2010, the Company had net capital of $17,816, which was in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 31% at December 31, 2010.

Note 3 – Regulatory Provisions

The Company is exempt from Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 15c3-3 under the provisions of Section (k)(2)(ii) and, therefore, is not required to make the periodic computation for determination of reserve requirements or information relating to the possession and control requirements under Rule 15c3-3.

Note 4 – Commitments

The Company leases office space from an unrelated party. Total rent expense for the year ended December 31, 2010, was $11,400. The Company is currently leasing the premises on a month-to-month basis.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 5 – Contingencies

The Company was involved in litigation as a joint plaintiff with Frey Capital Advisors, LLC, against Rockview Management, LLC, involving the payment of management fees by Rockview Management, LLC, to the Company. The Company entered into a Settlement and Release Agreement on December 31, 2009, wherein the Company received payments in connection with the management fee due. The Company, in turn, forwarded 90 percent of the Rockview Management, LLC, payments to Frey Capital Advisors, LLC, in accordance with the Registered Representative Agreement between the parties. Receipt of the amount of $68,611 from Rockview Management, LLC, was received in during 2010 and recorded as revenue in that year. The commission paid to Frey Capital Advisors, LLC, also occurred during 2010. All amounts in connection with the settlement have been received by the Company and commissions owed have been paid by the Company to Frey Capital Advisors, LLC.

The Company was involved in litigation as a plaintiff against an unrelated investment management entity involving the payment of investor referral fees. The Company entered into a Settlement Agreement on August 3, 2010, wherein the Company received $640,000 for investor referral fees due. The Company, in turn, forwarded 90 percent of the settlement amount, less legal fees, to its representative for commissions due.

Note 6 – Subsequent Events

Management of the Company has evaluated all subsequent transactions through the date the financial statements were available to be issued. It has been determined that there are no subsequent events that require disclosure.

There were no differences between the above calculation and the Company's calculation of net capital as reflected on the unaudited Form 17a-5, Part IIA.

Sinclair & Company, LLC
Schedule III – Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements and Information Relating to the Possession and Control
Requirements Under Rule 15c3-3
December 31, 2010

Sinclair & Company, LLC, operates pursuant to the Section K (2)(ii) exemption provision of the Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 15c3-3, of the customer protection rules, and does not hold customer funds or securities. Therefore, there are no reserve requirements and no possession and control requirements.

StarkSchenkein, LLP

BUSINESS ADVISORS & CPAs

To the Members of
Sinclair & Company, LLC

In planning and performing the audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedule of Sinclair & Company, LLC (the "Company"), as of and for the year ended December 31, 2010, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered its internal control over financial reporting, including control activities for safeguarding securities, as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17-a (5)(g) in the following: making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in the following:

1. Making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13.
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling the responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls, and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practice and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate. Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that adversely affects the entity's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process, or report financial data reliably in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, such that there is more than a remote likelihood that a misstatement of the entity's financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

A material weakness is a significant deficiency, or combination of significant deficiencies, that result in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purpose in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicates a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2010, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the members, management, the SEC, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than those specified parties.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON THE SIPC ANNUAL ASSESSMENT REQUIRED UNDER SEC RULE 17a-5(e)(4)

To the Members
Sinclair & Company, LLC

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, we have performed the following procedures with respect to the accompanying schedule of Securities Investor Protection Corporation assessments and payments (Form SIPC-7T) of Sinclair & Company, LLC, for the year ended December 31, 2010. These procedures were performed solely to assist in complying with Rule 17a-5(e)(4), and the report is not to be used for any other purpose. The procedures that were performed are as follows:

1. Compared listed assessment payments with respective cash disbursements record entries;
2. Compared amounts reported on Form X-17a-5 with the amounts reported in the General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7T) for the twelve months ended December 31, 2010;
3. Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7T with supporting schedules and working papers;
4. Proved the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7T and in the related schedules and working papers supporting adjustments; and
5. Compare the amount of any overpayment applied with the Form SIPC-7T on which it was compared.

Because the above procedures do not constitute an audit made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we do not express an opinion on the schedule referred to above. In connection with the procedures referred to above, nothing came to our attention that caused us to believe that the amounts shown on Form SIPC-7T were not determined in accordance with the applicable instructions and forms.

This report relates only to the schedule referred to above and does not extend to any financial statements of Sinclair & Company, LLC, taken as a whole.
