INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Bossio Financial Group, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Bossio Financial Group, Inc. as of December 31, 2010, and the related statements of operations, stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Bossio Financial Group, Inc. at December 31, 2010, and the results of its operations and its cash flow for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2010

NOTE A. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A summary of the significant accounting policies consistently applied, in the preparation of the accompanying financial statements follows:

Organization and Nature of Business

Bossio Financial Group, Inc. (the Company) was incorporated in Michigan and has membership in the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Pursuant to orders issued by the Securities Exchange Commission, the Company conducts a general securities business as a securities broker/dealer and as a registered investment advisor and must meet the requirements of the 1934 Securities Act and the 1940 Investment Advisors Act.

The client base of the Company is retail and institutional accounts located primarily in southeast Michigan. The Company introduces all of its customers' accounts to New York Stock Exchange, Inc. member firms on a fully disclosed basis. As such, the Company does not carry customer funds or customer securities and is exempt from certain provisions of SEC Rule 15c3-3 under exemptive provision (k)(2)(ii).

Advertising

The Company expenses advertising production costs as they are incurred and advertising communication costs the first time the advertising takes place.

Commissions and Investment Banking

Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis as securities transactions occur. Investment banking revenue includes fees from securities offerings and advisory services, and are recorded at the time the income is reasonably determinable.

Furniture, Fixtures and Equipment

Furniture, fixtures and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Maintenance and repairs are charged to operations as incurred. Depreciation and amortization is charged to operations over the useful lives of the assets, five years, using accelerated depreciation methods.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that effect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE B. FURNITURE, FIXTURES AND EQUIPMENT

Furniture, fixtures and equipment consist of the following at December 31, 2010:

Office Equipment	$ -
Less: Accumulated Depreciation	-
	$ -

NOTE C. INCOME TAXES

Pursuant to an election under Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code, the Stockholders' have elected to be taxed personally for income tax purposes and not as a corporation.

During the year ended December 31, 2010, the Company did not incur any interest or penalties on its income tax returns. The Company's tax returns are subject to possible examination by the taxing authorities. For federal income tax purposes the returns essentially remain open for possible examination for a period of three years after the respective filing deadlines of those returns. In evaluation of the Company's tax provisions and accruals, future taxable income, the reversal of temporary differences, and tax planning strategies are considered. The Company believes their estimates are appropriate based on current facts and circumstances.

NOTE D. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2010, the Company had net capital of $12, 730, which was $7,730 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .15 to 1.

NOTE E. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The company's management and administration is provided by A.J. Bossio & Co., P.C., a company related via common ownership. Management fees, administrative and occupancy expenses paid for the year ended December 31, 2010 was $15,162.

NOTE F. FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company's financial instruments are cash and cash equivalents. The recorded values of cash and cash equivalents approximate their fair value based on their short-term nature.
