INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Metcircle Securities, LLC
103 East 84th Street, Suite 5B
New York, N.Y. 10028

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Metcircle Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2010. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the statement of financial condition based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial condition presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Metcircle Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2010, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Note 1- Nature of Business

Metcircle Securities, LLC (The "Company"), a Limited Liability Company, is a broker/dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. The Company earns consulting and advisory fees from providing investment banking services, through its participation in private placement offerings and providing merger and acquisition, financial advisory and general corporate consulting services to companies.

Note 2- Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

a) Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue from placement fees upon completion of the private placement offering and advisory fees, over the life of the underlying agreement, at the time work is performed and services are rendered.

b) Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers money market funds to be cash. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and does not believe it is exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents. For money market funds, no insurance is provided.

c) Income Taxes

Income taxes are not payable by, nor provided for, the Company, since the Company is a Single Member Limited Liability Company which is treated as a disregarded entity for tax purposes. At December 31, 2010, management has determined that the Company had no uncertain tax positions that would require financial statement recognition. The Company's member is no longer subject to income tax audits relating to the Company for periods prior to 2007.

d) Use of Estimates

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses.

Note 3- Net capital requirement

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 1500%. At December 31, 2010, the Company's net capital of $10,514 was $5,514 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000.
