Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Members
CRI Securities, LLC:

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of CRI Securities, LLC (the Company) as of December 31, 2010 and the related statements of operations, changes in members' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of CRI Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2010, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedule 1 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

CRI SECURITIES, LLC

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2010

(1) Basis of Presentation and Nature of Business

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). CRI Securities, LLC (the Company), is a joint venture between Enterprise Holding Corporation (Enterprise), and a certain outside owner, both of which are 50% owners. Enterprise is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Minnesota Life Insurance Company (Minnesota Life). The membership interests are ordinary membership interests of one class, without series and have rights provided by law subject to the member control agreement.

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, including reporting or disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, as of the statement of financial condition date and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The Company is a registered broker/dealer in securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Company is also a registered investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. The Company was formed for the purpose of selling mutual fund shares and certain annuity and life insurance products of Minnesota Life.

The Company's results of operations may not be indicative of the results that would be obtained had it operated independently. Historically, and in the foreseeable future, the Company is dependent solely on Enterprise to fund any operating losses.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Commission Income and Expense

Commission income on mutual funds and annuity and life insurance products is earned and recognized on the date of the sale. As commission income is recognized, the related commission expense due to sales agents is also recognized.

Securities

In the normal course of business, the Company periodically holds positions in its brokerage account. Ownership of these positions ultimately resides with, and is transferred to, customer accounts. The Company does not hold these positions for sale. The Company did not hold any positions at December 31, 2010.

Cash

The Company places its cash with high quality financial institutions and, at times, these balances may be in excess of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) insurance limit.

Variable Interest Entities

A variable interest entity (VIE) is an entity that either has investors that lack certain characteristics of a controlling financial interest or lacks sufficient equity to finance its own activities without financial support provided by other entities. The Company performs ongoing qualitative assessments of its VIEs to determine whether the Company has a controlling financial interest in the VIE and is therefore the primary beneficiary. The Company is deemed to have controlling financial interest when it has both the ability to direct the activities that most significantly impact the economic performance of the VIE and the obligation to absorb losses or right to receive benefits from the VIE that could potentially be significant to the VIE.

As of December 31, 2010, the Company had identified no investments or relationships that would be identified as a VIE.

(3) Risks

The following is a description of the significant risks facing the Company:

Credit Risk:

Certain financial instruments, consisting of cash, potentially subject the Company to concentration of credit risk. The Company places its cash with high quality financial institutions in order to limit the potential credit exposure.

Legal/Regulatory Risk:

The risk that changes in the legal or regulatory environment in which the Company operates will result in increased competition, reduced demand for the Company's products or services, or additional unanticipated expenses incurred. The Company mitigates this risk by employing compliance and operating practices that identify and minimize an adverse impact of this risk. The Company additionally attempts to minimize the adverse impact of this risk through a varied offering of products and services.

(4) New Accounting Pronouncements

In January 2010, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2010-06 (ASU 2010-06), Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (Topic 820): Improving Disclosures about Fair Value Measurements, which requires new disclosures related to fair value measurements and clarifies existing disclosure requirements about the level of disaggregation, inputs and valuation techniques. Additionally, this guidance requires disclosures about significant transfers between Level 1 and 2 measurement categories and separating the presentation of purchases, sales and settlements. This guidance was effective for periods beginning after December 15, 2009, except for the disclosures regarding the separation of the presentation of purchases, sales and settlements, which is effective for periods beginning after December 15, 2010. ASU 2010-06 was adopted by the Company effective January 1, 2010 with the exception of separating the presentation of purchases, sales and settlements. There was no impact to the Company's results of operations or financial position due to the adoption of this new guidance. The Company will adopt the required disclosure provisions of this new guidance relating to the separation of the presentation of purchases, sales and settlements effective January 1, 2011.

In August 2009, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2009-05 (ASU 2009-5), Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (Topic 820): Measuring Liabilities at Fair Value, which provides clarification for measuring the fair value in circumstances in which a quoted price in an active market for the identical liability is not available for periods beginning January 1, 2010. The Company had no material impact to its results of operations and financial position due to the adoption of ASU 2009-05.

In June 2009, the FASB issued guidance relating to special purpose entities changing the determination of the primary beneficiary of a variable interest entity (VIE) from a quantitative model to a qualitative model. Under the new qualitative model, the primary beneficiary must have both the ability to direct the activities of the VIE and the obligation to absorb either losses or gains that could be significant to the VIE. The guidance also changes when reassessment is needed, as well as requires enhanced disclosures, including the Company's involvement with VIEs on its financial statements for periods beginning after November 15, 2009. In February 2010, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2010-10 (ASU 2010-10), Consolidation, Amendments for Certain Investment Funds. This guidance indefinitely defers the consolidation requirements for reporting enterprises' interests in entities that have the characteristics of investment companies and regulated money market funds. The Company had no material impact to its results of operations and financial position due to the adoption of this new guidance.

In June 2009, the FASB issued guidance relating to the accounting for transfers of financial assets. This guidance eliminates the concept of a qualifying special purpose entity, eliminates the guaranteed mortgage securitization exception, changes the criteria for achieving sale accounting when transferring a financial asset and change the initial recognition of retained beneficial interest. The guidance also requires additional disclosures about a transferor's financial assets that have been accounted for as sales, the risks inherent in the transferred financial assets that have been retained, and the nature and financial effect of restrictions on the transferor's assets that continue to be reported in the statement of financial condition for periods beginning after November 15, 2009. The Company had no material impact to its results of operations or financial position due to the adoption of this guidance.

(5) Related Party Transactions

Under a management services agreement with Minnesota Life and Securian Financial Services, Inc. (SFS), an affiliated broker/dealer, the Company is charged expenses including allocations for occupancy costs, data processing, compensation, advertising and promotion and other administrative expenses, which Minnesota Life and SFS incur on behalf of the Company. For the year ended December 31, 2010, the Company was charged expenses totaling $2,049,815 of which $456,979 is included in due to affiliates and $22,329 is included in due from affiliates at December 31, 2010.

Under the joint venture agreement, fees (calculated as a percentage of commission revenue) are paid to a certain outside owner. For the year ended December 31, 2010, these fees totaled $608,636, of which $52,191 was included in accounts payable at December 31, 2010.

A company affiliated with the outside owner receives management and administrative fees from the Company. These reimbursable fees include occupancy cost, compensation, advertising and promotion and other administrative expenses are based on amounts billed to the Company. For the year ended December 31, 2010, these management and administrative fees were $3,790,133, of which $238,986 was included in accounts payable at December 31, 2010.

(6) Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company and is treated as a partnership for federal and state income tax purposes. Under this arrangement, taxes are not assessed at the partnership level, but any taxable income, expense, gain, loss, or credit is passed through to its members based on each member's distributive interest in accordance with the current membership agreement.

(7) Net Capital Requirements

Pursuant to the net capital provisions of Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital as defined under such provisions. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis. At December 31, 2010, the Company had net capital of $637,755, which was $587,755 in excess of its required net capital of $50,000. The Company's net capital ratio (ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital) was 1.13 to 1 at December 31, 2010.

(8) Rule 15c3-3

The Company clears all customer transactions on a fully disclosed basis with a clearing broker/dealer. The Company does not hold customer funds or safekeep customer securities and is therefore exempt from Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission under subsection (k)2(ii). Under this exemption, the "Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements" and "Information Relating to the Possession or Control Requirements" are not required.

(9) Member Contributions

During 2010, the Company received a $500,000 contribution from Enterprise. This contribution was made in the form of cash.

(10) Contingencies

The Company may be involved in various pending or threatened litigation arising out of the normal course of business. In the opinion of management, the ultimate resolution of such litigation will not have a material adverse effect on the financial position or the results of the Company.

CRI SECURITIES, LLC

(11) Subsequent Events

On January 28, 2011, the Company received a capital contribution of $750,000 from Enterprise. This contribution was made in the form of cash.

The Company evaluated subsequent events through February 23, 2011, the date these financial statements were issued. With the exception of the item noted above, there were no material subsequent events that required recognition or further disclosure in the Company's financial statements.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm on Internal Control Required by SEC Rule 17a-5

The Members of
CRI Securities, LLC:

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedule of CRI Securities, LLC (the Company), as of and for the year ended December 31, 2010, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g), in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13.
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's previously mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the company's financial statements will not be prevented or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined previously.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures, as described in the second paragraph of this report, were adequate at December 31, 2010, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Members, management, the SEC, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Members
CRI Securities, LLC
Minneapolis, Minnesota:

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have performed the procedures enumerated below with respect to the accompanying Schedule of Assessment and Payments [General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7)] to the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) for the year ended December 31, 2010, which were agreed to by CRI Securities, LLC (CRI) and the Securities and Exchange Commission, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc., and SIPC, solely to assist you and the other specified parties in evaluating CRI's compliance with the applicable instructions of the General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7). CRI management is responsible for CRI's compliance with those requirements. This agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose. The procedures we performed and our findings are as follows:

1. Compared the listed assessment payments in Form SIPC-7 with respective cash disbursement records entries in CRI's general ledger, noting no differences;
2. Compared the amounts reported of the audited Form X-17A-5 for the year ended December 31, 2010, as applicable, with the amounts reported in Form SIPC-7 for the year ended December 31, 2010, noting no differences;
3. Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7 with supporting schedules and working papers noting no differences;
4. Proved the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7 and in the related schedules and working papers supporting the adjustments noting no differences; and
5. Compared the amount of any overpayment applied to the current assessment with the Form SIPC-7 on which it was originally computed noting no differences.

We were not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on compliance. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the specified parties listed above and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
