INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors and Stockholder
W.J. Bradley Company Investment Banking/Capital Markets
Denver, Colorado

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of W.J. Bradley Company Investment Banking/Capital Markets (the "Company") as of December 31, 2011 and 2010, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholder's equity and, cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of W.J. Bradley Company Investment Banking/Capital Markets as of December 31, 2011 and 2010, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The accompanying information included in the computation of net capital and aggregate indebtedness, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the basic financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting or other records used in preparing the basic financial statements or to the basic financial statements themselves and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 1 - Description of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

W.J. Bradley Company Investment Banking/Capital Markets (the "Company"), a Colorado corporation, is a registered broker dealer formed on July 9, 2001. The Company received its approval as a broker dealer in February 2002. The Company is wholly owned by W.J. Bradley Company (the "Parent"). The Company's operations are headquartered in Denver, Colorado.

The Company is a registered broker dealer subject to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. The Company was formed to provide merger and acquisition advisory services in addition to private placement of debt and equity and private Direct Participation Programs to clients primarily in the residential mortgage banking industry. The Company does not hold customer funds or securities.

Investment Banking and Advisory Services

The Company earns substantially all of its revenue from investment banking and advisory services, which include private placement, merger and acquisition, and valuation assistance provided under contractual arrangements that generally require clients to pay a non-refundable deposit, service fees, or an agreed-upon fee upon the closing of a transaction. The Company recognizes non-refundable deposits as revenue when services are delivered or performed over the term of the arrangement (generally less than six months). The Company recognizes service and consulting fees as revenue when the related services are provided and recognizes transaction fees as revenue when the underlying transaction is complete.

The Company provided consulting and advisory services to and has received investment banking transaction fees from W.J. Bradley Company Merchant Partners, LLC ("Merchant Partners") in the amount of $30,000 for each of the years ended December 31, 2011 and 2010, respectively. The parent company of the Company has a minority investment in the parent company of Merchant Partners.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash

The Company considers all cash and temporary investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. The Company continually monitors its positions with, and the credit quality of, the financial institutions with which it invests. There were no cash equivalents as of the balance sheet date for 2011 and 2010.

Notes to Financial Statements

Income Taxes

The Company has elected to be treated as an S corporation for income tax purposes. Accordingly, taxable income and losses of the Company are reported on the income tax returns of the Company's stockholder, and no provision for federal income taxes has been recorded on the accompanying financial statements.

Fair Value Accounting

Financial Standards Accounting Board Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") Topic 820 establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under ASC Topic 820 are described below:

- Level 1: Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2: Quoted prices in active markets for similar assets and liabilities and inputs that are observable for the asset or liability; or
- Level 3: Unobservable inputs in which there is little or no market data, which requires the reporting entity to develop its own assumptions.

The determination of where assets and liabilities fall within this hierarchy is based upon the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

Prepaid Expenses

Prepaid expenses consist primarily of prepaid expenses to regulatory agencies.

Advertising Costs

The Company expenses advertising costs as incurred.

Note 2 - Net Capital Requirement

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule ("Rule 15c3-1"), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2011, the Company had a net capital of $26,254, which was $21,254 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000, and the Company had a percentage of aggregate indebtedness to net capital of 0%. There were no material differences between the Company's computation of net capital and the computation based on the audited financial statements.

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 3 - Concentrations

All of the Company's revenue for the years ending December 31, 2011 and 2010 is derived from Merchant Partners, a related party.

Note 4 - Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying amounts of financial instruments, which are primarily cash, approximate their fair value at December 31, 2011 and 2010.

Note 5 - Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through February 27, 2012, the date on which the financial statements were available to be issued.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL REQUIRED BY SEC RULE 17A-5

Board of Directors and Stockholder
W.J. Bradley Company Investment Banking/Capital Markets
Denver, Colorado

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of W.J. Bradley Company Investment Banking/Capital Markets (the "Company") as of and for the year ended December 31, 2011 in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting ("Internal Control") as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's Internal Control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's Internal Control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, and recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining Internal Control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of Internal Control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Board of Directors and Stockholder
W.J. Bradley Company Investment Banking/Capital Markets

Because of inherent limitations in Internal Control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

A material weakness is a deficiency or combination of deficiencies in Internal Control such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Company's financial statements will not be prevented or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

Our consideration of Internal Control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in Internal Control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in Internal Control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined previously.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures, as described in the second paragraph of this report, were adequate at December 31, 2011, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, stockholders, the SEC, the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON THE SIPC ANNUAL ASSESSMENT REQUIRED BY SEC RULE 17a-5

Board of Directors and Stockholder
W.J. Bradley Company Investment Banking/Capital Markets
Denver, Colorado

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have performed the procedures enumerated below with respect to the accompanying Schedule of Assessment and Payments (General Assessment Reconciliation [Form SIPC 7]) to the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC") for the year ended December 31, 2011, which were agreed to by W.J. Bradley Company Investment Banking/Capital Markets (the "Company") and the Securities and Exchange Commission, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc., and the SIPC, solely to assist you and the other specified parties in evaluating the Company's compliance with the applicable instructions of the General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7). The Company's management is responsible for the Company's compliance with those requirements. This agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose. The procedures we performed and our findings are as follows:

1. Compared the listed assessment payments in Form SIPC-7 with respective cash disbursement records entries noting no differences;
2. Compared the amounts reported on the audited Form X-17A-5 for the year ended December 31, 2011, as applicable, with the amounts reported in Form SIPC-7 for the year ended December 31, 2011, noting no differences;
3. Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7 with general ledger details and certain transaction testing noting no differences; and
4. Proved the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7 and in the related general ledger details and certain transaction testing supporting the adjustments noting no differences.

Board of Directors and Stockholder
W.J. Bradley Company Investment Banking/Capital Markets

We were not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on compliance. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the specified parties listed above and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
