We have audited the accompanying statements of financial condition of Welcome Life Securities, LLC at December 31, 2011 and 2010 and the related statements of operations, changes in member's equity and cash flows for each of the two years in the period ended December 31, 2011 that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Welcome Life Securities, LLC at December 31, 2011 and 2010 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the two years in the period ended December 31, 2011 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Note 1 Nature of Operations and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(A) Nature of Operations

Welcome Life Securities, LLC (“WLS”), a subsidiary of Welcome Life Financial Group, was incorporated in the state of Florida in March 2006 and is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). WLS is the first broker-dealer firm to exclusively serve the financial community as a variable life insurance settlement broker and provide a fully compliant, turn-key platform for firms and their clients. Welcome Life Securities specializes in products and services exclusively in the secondary market for life insurance, providing broker-dealers and their registered representatives and senior clients with the experience, knowledge and education required to reach fully-informed life settlement decisions.

Welcome Life Securities connects senior clients with institutional funds by navigating the complex secondary market, combining personalized negotiations with a proven auction based platform. The firm ensures the life settlement transaction meets demanding industry regulations and requirements in the rapidly growing life settlement industry, including:

- Suitability
- Compliance
- Due Diligence
- Best Execution
- Training and Education
- Transparency & Proper Disclosures
- Principal Supervision

(B) Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared pursuant to Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission Act of 1934. The classification and reporting of items appearing on the financial statements are consistent with that rule.

(C) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(D) Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the cash flow statement, WLS considers all highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents.

Welcome Life Securities, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
For the Years Ended December 31, 2011 and 2010

(E) Concentrations

Concentration of Credit Risk

WLS maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts. There were no bank deposits in excess of federally insured limits at December 31, 2011. WLS has not experienced any losses in such accounts through December 31, 2011.

Concentration of Vendors and Revenue

In 2011 and 2010, two “Providers” each represented over 10% of WLS settlement revenue and accounted for 100% of our settlement revenue.

In 2011 and 2010, four and two customers, respectively, each represented over 10% of WLS revenues and accounted for 100% of our total revenues.

(F) Property and Equipment

Property and Equipment is stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Expenditures for repairs and maintenance is charged to expense as incurred. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which is three years for computer equipment and software.

(G) Long-Lived Assets

WLS reviews long-lived assets and certain identifiable assets related to those assets for impairment recognition whenever circumstances and situations change such that there is an indication that the carrying amounts may not be recoverable. If the undiscounted future cash flows is less than the carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to fair value and an impairment loss is recognized.

(H) Revenue Recognition

WLS recognizes revenue when there is persuasive evidence of an arrangement, the service has been completed, the sales price is fixed or determinable, and collectability is reasonably assured. Specifically, WLS recognizes revenues when earned, which occurs after expiration of the rescission date discussed below. When the policy transfer is completed between an individual and the life settlement provider (the closing date), the provider’s escrow company forwards to WLS commission for services rendered. At this point, the individual seller of the policy has either 15 or 30 days (depending on the State) to rescind the transaction. During a rescission period, WLS will record any commissions received as deferred revenues.

(I) Advertising

In accordance with ASC 720-35 costs incurred for producing and communicating advertising of WLS, are charged to operations as incurred. WLS incurred advertising expense in each of the years ended December 31, 2011 and 2010 of $0.

Welcome Life Securities, LLC
Notes to Financial Statements
For the Years Ended December 31, 2011 and 2010

(J) Income Taxes

WLS has elected under the Internal Revenue Code to be taxed as a Limited Liability Corporation (“LLC”). In lieu of Corporation income taxes, members of a “LLC” Corporation are taxed on their proportionate share of WLS’s taxable income. Therefore, no provision or liability for federal or state income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements.

(K) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

ASC 820 requires disclosures of information about the fair value of certain financial instruments for which it is practicable to estimate that value. For purposes of this disclosure, the fair value of a financial instrument is the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced sale or liquidation. The carrying amounts of WLS’s short-term financial instruments, including accrued payroll and other liabilities approximate fair value due to the relatively short period to maturity for these instruments.

Note 2 Property and Equipment

Property and equipment for the years ended is as follows:

	December 31,
	2011	2010
Computer Equipment and Software	$ 4,341	4,341

Property and Equipment, net	$ -	-

Note 3 Member’s Equity

The Company entered into an operating agreement with Welcome Life Financial Group, LLC (the “Member”) which sets forth the rights, obligations, and duties with respect to WLS. The Member has the right, but is not required, to make capital contributions upon request of WLS. The Member may require WLS to make distributions of cash or property at such times and amounts as it determines, subject to regulatory limitations and approval.

During the year ended December 31, 2011 and 2010, the Member made capital contributions of $0, and $20,400, respectively. During the year ended December 31, 2010, the Company made distributions of $20,000 to the Member.

Note 4 Net Capital Requirements

WLS has been dependent upon its parent company for funding from inception in March 2006 through December 31, 2010.

SALBERG & COMPANY, P.A.

Certified Public Accountants and Consultants

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm on Internal Controls

To the Member of:

Welcome Life Securities, LLC

In planning and performing our audits of the financial statements of Welcome Life Securities, LLC (the "Company"), at and for the years ended December 31, 2011 and 2010 in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13.
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting that is less severe than a material weakness yet important enough to merit attention by those responsible for oversight of the company's financial reporting.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the company's annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures, as described in the second paragraph of this report, were adequate at December 31, 2011 and 2010, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Member, management, the SEC, and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
