Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Directors
Nations Financial Group, Inc.
Cedar Rapids, Iowa

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Nations Financial Group, Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2011, that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial condition presentation. We believe that our audit of the statement of financial condition provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Nations Financial Group, Inc. as of December 31, 2011, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

Note 1. Nature of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of business: Nations Financial Group, Inc. (the "Company") is a securities broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) with 49 offices located throughout the United States.

The Company operates under the provisions of Paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and, accordingly, is exempt from the remaining provisions of that Rule. Essentially, the requirements of Paragraph (k)(2)(ii) provide that the Company clear all transactions on behalf of customers on a fully disclosed basis with a clearing broker-dealer, and promptly transmit all customer funds and securities to the clearing broker-dealer. The clearing broker-dealer carries all of the accounts of the customers and maintains and preserves all related books and records as are customarily kept by a clearing broker-dealer.

Accounting estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

A summary of the Company's significant accounting policies follows:

Cash equivalents: For purposes of reporting cash flows, the Company has defined cash equivalents as short-term, highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less.

Recognition of revenue: Customers' securities transactions are reported on a trade date basis with related commission income and expenses reported on a trade date basis. Income from advisory fees and related correspondent charges are typically earned in accordance with the fee arrangements.

Note 2. Transactions with Clearing Broker

The agreement with the clearing broker provides for clearing charges at a rate multiplied by the number of tickets introduced by the Company. The agreement also requires the Company to maintain a minimum of $100,000 as a deposit in an account with the clearing broker.

Note 3. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. The Rule also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. As of December 31, 2011, the Company had net capital of $455,354 which was $405,354 in excess of its required net capital of $50,000. The Company's net capital ratio (aggregate indebtedness to net capital) was .78 to 1.

Note 4. Off-Balance-Sheet Risk and Concentration of Credit Risk

As discussed in Note 1, the Company's customers' securities transactions are introduced on a fully disclosed basis with its clearing broker-dealer. The clearing broker-dealer carries all of the accounts of the customers of the Company and is responsible for execution, collection of and payment of funds and receipt and delivery of securities relative to customer transactions. Off-balance-sheet risk exists with respect to these transactions due to the possibility that customers may be unable to fulfill their contractual commitments, wherein the clearing broker-dealer may charge any losses it incurs to the Company. The Company seeks to minimize this risk through procedures designed to monitor the credit worthiness of its customers and that customer transactions are executed properly by the clearing broker-dealer.

Commissions receivable represent amounts due the Company from its clearing broker relating to customer securities transactions introduced by the Company.

The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

The Company is involved in various pending or threatened legal proceedings arising from the normal course of its business operations. Management of the Company, after consultation with counsel and a review of available facts, believes the resolution of these various proceedings will have no material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

Note 5. Related Party Transactions

The Company leases office space from a company affiliated through common ownership on a month-to-month basis. Total rental expense with the affiliate was $73,075 for the year ended December 31, 2011. The Company also leases three employees to a separate company also affiliated through common ownership. The total amount received from the affiliate for the leased employees was $123,393 for the year ended December 31, 2011.

Note 6. Income Tax Status

The Company, with the consent of its stockholders, has elected to be taxed under sections of federal and state income tax law, which provide that, in lieu of corporation income taxes, the stockholders separately account for their pro rata shares of the Company's items of income, deductions, losses and credits. As a result of this election, no income taxes have been recognized in the accompanying financial statements.

When tax returns are filed, it is highly certain that some positions taken would be sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities, while others are subject to uncertainty about the merits of the position taken or the amount of the position that would be ultimately sustained. The benefit of a tax position is recognized in the financial statements in the period during which, based on all available evidence, management believes it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including the resolution of appeals or litigation processes, if any. As of and for the year ended December 31, 2011, the Company had no material uncertain tax positions that are required to be recorded as a liability.

The Company files income tax returns in U.S. federal jurisdiction and various states. With a few exceptions, the Company is no longer subject to US federal, state and local tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2008.

Note 7. Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through February 22, 2012, the date on which the financial statements were available to be issued, and has determined that no events or transactions have occurred through that date that require recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.
