We have audited the financial statements of Kalos Capital, Inc. (the "Company") as of and for the year ended December 31, 2011 and have issued our report thereon, dated February 21, 2012. As part of our audit, we made a study and evaluation of the Company's system of internal accounting control to the extent we considered necessary to evaluate the system as required by generally accepted auditing standards and Rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This study and evaluation included, in the accounting system, the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the periodic computations of net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11). Rule 17a-5 states that the scope of the study and evaluation should be sufficient to provide reasonable assurance that any material weakness existing at the date of our audit would be disclosed. The purposes of our study and evaluation were to determine the nature, timing and extent of the auditing procedures necessary for expressing an opinion on the Company's financial statements and to provide a basis of reporting material weaknesses in internal accounting control under Rule 17a-5. Our study and evaluation was more limited than would be necessary to express an opinion on the system of internal accounting control taken as a whole.

The Company claims exemption from the computation for determination of reserve requirements pursuant to Section (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 whereby all customer transactions are cleared through another broker dealer on a fully disclosed basis and therefore no transactions are cleared through the Company. We have reviewed the terms and conditions pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 and found the Company in compliance with the exemption requirements.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of internal accounting control. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of control procedures. The objectives of a system are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Because of inherent limitations in any system of internal accounting control, errors or irregularities may nevertheless, occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of the system to future periods is subject to the risk that procedures may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the degree of compliance with the procedures may deteriorate. Our study and evaluation, described in the first paragraph, would not necessarily disclose all material weaknesses in the system. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the system of internal accounting control of the Company taken as a whole. However, our study and evaluation did not disclose any conditions that we believe to be material weaknesses.

This report is intended solely for the use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission and other regulatory agencies pursuant to their requirements and should not be used for any other purpose.

Kalos Capital, Inc.
Atlanta, Georgia

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of Kalos Capital, Inc., at December 31, 2011, and the related statements of income, stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Kalos Capital, Inc. at December 31, 2011, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

KALOS CAPITAL, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2011

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

Kalos Capital, Inc. (the Company) was formed on September 26, 1997 under another corporate name. The Company became Kalos Capital, Inc. under a state certification of name change amendment on October 30, 1997. The Company is a registered broker and dealer in securities and operates under the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Basis of Accounting

The Company follows accounting standards set by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”). The FASB sets accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”).

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all cash and money market investments with maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents includes restricted cash of $50,000 at December 31, 2011 which is held on deposit with the Company’s clearing firm.

Investments

Investments consist of trading securities for which realized and unrealized gains/losses are recognized in the statement of income. As a result of the valuation of the investments requiring unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible on the measurement date for identical assets, the investments are considered Level 1 investments under the fair value hierarchy established by GAAP.

Accounts Receivable

The Company considers current accounts receivable to be fully collectible and historically has incurred insignificant bad debt losses. Accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts is provided in the accompanying financial statements. If amounts become uncollectible, they will be charged to operations when that determination is made.

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Income Taxes

The Company has elected to be taxed under the S corporation provision of the Internal Revenue Code. Under this provision the Company does not pay corporate income taxes on its taxable income. Instead, the stockholders are liable for individual income taxes on their respective shares of the Company's taxable income. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements do not include a provision or liability for income taxes.

In the normal course of business, the Company is subject to examination by the federal and state taxing authorities. In general, the Company is no longer subject to tax examinations for tax years ending before December 31, 2008.

The Company annually evaluates all federal and state income tax positions. This process includes an analysis of whether these income tax positions the Company takes meet the definition of an uncertain tax position under the Income Taxes Topic of the Financial Accounting Standards Codification.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company's financial instruments that are exposed to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash, cash equivalents, investments and accounts receivable. The Company places its cash with high quality credit institutions. At times, such cash balances may be in excess of federally insured limits. Management continually monitors accounts receivable balances and believes that its exposure to accounts receivable credit risk is limited. As a result of liquidity issues experienced in the global credit and capital markets, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in risks in the near term could occur which in turn could materially affect the amounts reported in the accompanying financial statements. Two customers represent 48% of accounts receivable at December 31, 2011.

Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through the date of this report which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

KALOS CAPITAL, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2011

NOTE 2 – NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commissions' Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1) which requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined in the Rule, shall not exceed one thousand percent of its net capital and shall at all times have and maintain net capital of not less than $5,000.

Net capital and the related aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio fluctuate on a daily basis; aggregate indebtedness totaled $602,546 at December 31, 2011 and the net capital was $216,026.

NOTE 3 – RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company shares various office expenses and salaries with a company under common ownership ("Affiliate"). Amounts paid to this Affiliate during 2011 for shared expenses were $1,260,000.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION

Board of Directors
Kalos Capital, Inc.
Atlanta, Georgia

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements of Kalos Capital, Inc. taken as a whole. The supplementary information presented hereinafter is presented for purposes of additional analysis and to meet specific requirements of the U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 17 of the Securities Act of 1934 and Rule 17a-5 thereunder, and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

The accompanying supplementary information (schedules) have been prepared solely for filing with regulatory agencies and are not intended for any other purpose. This supplementary information (schedules) has been prepared in conformity with the accounting practices by the U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 17 of the Securities Act of 1934 and Rule 17a-5 thereunder, and is not intended to be presented in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.
