REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Board of Directors
TradeSpot Markets Inc.:

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of TradeSpot Markets Inc., ("the Company") as of December 31, 2012, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholder's equity, changes in liabilities subordinated to claims of general creditors, and cash flows for the year then ended that are filed pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of TradeSpot Markets Inc., as of December 31, 2012, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matter

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I, II, III, and IV is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-S under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information in Schedules I, II, III, and IV has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information in Schedules I, II, III, and IV is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR
ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2012

NOTE 1- NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Tradespot markets Inc is a registered general securities broker-dealer which acts as a non-clearing introducing broker. The company does not hold funds or securities for customers and does not carry accounts of, or for customers.

Income is derived from trades introduced to the clearing broker, who completes the transaction with the customer and subsequently remits the commission to the introducing broker. Income from the securities transactions and related expenses are recorded on the trade date.

The company has entered into a clearing agreement with COR Clearing FKA Legent Clearing LLC (hereafter referred to as "COR") whereby COR clears transactions on a fully disclosed basis for the customers of Tradespot Markets Inc. in accordance with this agreement, the company is required to maintain a minimum deposit of $15,000 with COR. The company considers their clearing deposit balance with COR to be a cash equivalent in the statement of cash flows.

Office equipment is recorded at cost. The company provides for depreciation using the straight line method over the estimated useful life of five years. Depreciation expense amounted to $-0- for the year ended December 31, 2012, as it was fully depreciated in prior years.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Although actual results could differ from those estimates, management believes that any difference would be immaterial to the financial statements as a whole.

Report of independent registered Public accounting firm on internal accounting control

The Board of Directors
Tradespot Markets Inc.
Davie, Florida

In planning and performing my audit of the financial statements of Tradespot Markets Inc. for the year ended December 31, 2012, we considered its internal control structure in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements and to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5 (g) (1) of the securities and exchange commission, we have made a study of the practices and procedures (including tests of compliance with such practice and procedures) followed by Tradespot markets, inc. that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5 (g), (1) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3 (a) (11) and the procedures for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3; and (2) in complying with the requirements of prompt payment for securities under section 8 of regulation t of the board of governors of the federal reserve system.

The management of the company is responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of internal accounting control and practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the securities and exchange commission's objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5 (g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may nevertheless occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under the standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design and operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or irregularities in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the internal control structure that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above. In addition, the company was in compliance with the conditions of the exceptive provisions of rule 15c3-3 at December 31, 2011 and, further, no fact came to our attention indicating that the company was not in compliance with such conditions during the year ended December 31, 2012.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the securities and exchange commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the securities act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and our study, we believe that the company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2012 to meet the Securities and Exchange Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management and the Securities and Exchange Commission and applicable self-regulatory organizations and should not be used for any other purpose.
