INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors and Management
CCF Investments, Inc.
Thomasville, Georgia

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of CCF Investments, Inc. as of December 31, 2011, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of CCF Investments, Inc. as of December 31, 2011, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplementary information contained in the Computation of Net Capital under Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Commission required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

The Schedule of Assessments and Payments to the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (Form SIPC-7) on pages 12 through 13, is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 (e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. We have applied certain limited procedures, as enumerated within the Independent Accountants' Report on Applying Agreed-Upon Procedures. However, we did not audit the information and express no opinion on it.

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF BUSINESS

CCF Investments, Inc. (the Company) is an introductory broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulation Authority (FINRA). The Company is a Georgia corporation that is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Capital Choice Financial Services, Inc. (parent).

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of presentation – The accompanying financial statements are presented on the accrual basis of accounting.

Commissions – Commissions are recorded on the trade-date basis as securities transactions occur.

Administration fees – Fees are collected from agents for errors and omissions insurance, compliance audits and fidelity bond. These fees are collected in advance and recognized as revenue during the year for which the corresponding expenses relate.

Cash – The Company does not collect or hold funds on behalf of customers. As such, the Company is exempt from maintaining a special account for the exclusive benefit of customers as required by rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(i) of the SEC.

Depreciation – Depreciation is provided on a straight-line basis using estimated useful lives of five to ten years.

Advertising – Advertising costs are expensed as incurred.

Allocation of expenses – The Parent incurs all overhead expenses and allocates the Company's share via intercompany accounts.

Income taxes – Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due plus deferred taxes. Deferred income taxes are provided for temporary differences between the financial reporting bases and the tax bases of assets and liabilities. Such differences result primarily from the net operating loss generated in prior years which will be carried forward to future years for income tax purposes.

Management estimates – The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent Events – Subsequent events have been evaluated through the date of the independent auditors' report.

CCF Investments, Inc.
Notes to Financial Statements

NOTE 3 – COMMISSIONS RECEIVABLE

Commissions receivable include amounts due from investment and insurance companies. Management considers all receivables to be fully collectible. Accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts has been provided.

NOTE 4 – PREPAID EXPENSES

Prepaid expenses consist of the following:

December 31,	2011
Errors and omissions insurance	$ 7,812
Fidelity bond	2,000
FINRA registrations	15,598
Other	6,626
Total prepaid expenses	$ 32,036

NOTE 5 – EQUIPMENT - NET

Equipment, net consists of the following:

December 31,	2011
Equipment	$ 33,545
Less accumulated depreciation	19,367
Equipment, net	$ 14,178

Depreciation expense was $1,165 for 2011.

NOTE 6 – REGISTRATION FEES COLLECTED IN ADVANCE

FINRA registration fees collected from agents in advance totaled $40,710 at December 31, 2011.

NOTE 7 – NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2011, the Company had net capital of $55,971 which was $40,791 in excess of its required net capital of $14,980. The Company's net capital ratio was 4.03 to 1.

NOTE 8 – INCOME TAXES

The Company utilizes the accounting guidance for uncertainty in income taxes using the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) ASC 740, Income Taxes. Using that guidance, tax positions initially need to be recognized in the financial statements when it is more-likely-than-not the position will be sustained upon examination by the tax authorities. Such tax positions initially and subsequently need to be measured as the largest amount of tax benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the tax authority assuming full knowledge of the position and relevant facts. The Company believes that it has appropriate support for the income tax positions taken and to be taken on its tax returns and that its accruals for tax liabilities are adequate for all open tax years based on an assessment of many factors including experience and interpretations of tax laws applied to the facts of each matter.

The Company has concluded that there are no significant uncertain tax positions requiring disclosure, and there are no material amounts of unrecognized tax benefits.

The income tax provision differs from the amount determined by applying the applicable U.S. statutory federal income tax rate to pretax accounting income primarily as a result of the Company's recording of a valuation allowance against the deferred tax asset resulting from incurred net losses as well as the utilization of outstanding net operating loss carryforwards.

Net deferred income taxes consist of the following:

December 31,	2011
Deferred tax assets	$ 34,440
Valuation allowance	(34,440)
Net deferred income taxes	$ -

The valuation allowance decreased by $820 during 2011.

Federal operating loss carryforwards total approximately $168,423 and will expire in various years through 2027.

The provision for income taxes is for state income taxes totaling $2,915.

The federal income tax returns of the Company for 2008, 2009 and 2010 are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service, generally for three years after they were filed. All state income tax returns of the Company are subject to examination by the state authorities for the same timeframe.

NOTE 9 – COMMITMENTS

The Company finances its errors and omissions insurance through a premium finance agreement with the insurance carrier. The errors and omissions policy is effective for one year beginning December 20, 2011. Premiums related to this policy total $108,160. The Company paid $10,816 of the annual premium prior to December 31, 2011. The remaining balance of the premium is to be paid in nine monthly installments of $10,816 commencing January 20, 2012. The Parent has guaranteed the commitment.

NOTE 10 – SUBORDINATED DEBT

At December 31, 2011, the Company had no subordinated debt.

NOTE 11 – RELATED PARTIES

The Parent incurs all overhead expenses and allocates the Company's share via intercompany accounts. At December 31, 2011, the Company did not owe the Parent for such expenses.

Other Reports and Information

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT ON APPLYING AGREED-UPON PROCEDURES

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have performed the procedures enumerated below with respect to the accompanying Schedule of Assessment and Payments to the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) for the year ended December 31, 2011, which were agreed to by CCF Investments, Inc. and the Securities and Exchange Commission, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc., and SIPC, solely to assist you and the other specified parties in evaluating CCF Investments, Inc.'s compliance with the applicable instructions of the General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7). CCF Investments, Inc.'s management is responsible for the CCF Investments, Inc.'s compliance with those requirements. This agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose. The procedures we performed and our findings are as follows:

1. Compared the listed assessment payments in Form SIPC-7 with respective cash disbursement records entries noting no differences;
2. Compared the amounts reported on the audited Form X-17A-5 for the year ended December 31, 2011, as applicable, with the amounts reported in Form SIPC-7 for the year ended December 31, 2011, noting no exceptions;
3. Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7 with supporting schedules and working papers noting no differences;
4. Proved the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7 and in the related schedules and working papers supporting the adjustments noting no differences; and
5. Compared the amount of any overpayment applied to the current assessment with the Form SIPC-7 on which it was originally computed noting no differences.

We were not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on compliance. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the specified parties listed above and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Board of Directors and Management
CCF Investments, Inc.

We have audited the financial statements of CCF Investments, Inc. for the year ended December 31, 2011, and have issued our report thereon dated February 24, 2012. Professional standards require that we provide you with the following information related to our audit.

Our Responsibility under U.S. Generally Accepted Auditing Standards

As stated in our engagement letter dated December 29, 2011, our responsibility, as described by professional standards, is to express an opinion about whether the financial statements prepared by management with your oversight are fairly presented, in all material respects, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Our audit of the financial statements does not relieve you or management of your responsibilities.

Significant Audit Findings

Qualitative Aspects of Accounting Practices

Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. The significant accounting policies used by CCF Investments, Inc. are described in Note 2 to the financial statements. No new accounting policies were adopted and the application of existing policies was not changed during 2011. We noted no transactions entered into by CCF Investments, Inc. during the year for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus. There are no significant transactions that have been recognized in the financial statements in a different period than when the transaction occurred.

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management's knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from those expected. No significant estimates were noted during the course of our audit.

Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management in performing and completing our audit.

Corrected and Uncorrected Misstatements

Professional standards require us to accumulate all known and likely misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. Management has corrected all such misstatements. No audit adjustments were identified during the audit.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, professional standards define a disagreement with management as a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, that could be significant to the financial statements or the auditor's report. We are pleased to report that no such disagreements arose during the course of our audit.

Management Representations

We have requested certain representations from management that are included in the management representation letter dated February 24, 2012.

Management Consultations with Other Independent Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters, similar to obtaining a "second opinion" on certain situations. If a consultation involves application of an accounting principle to the Company's financial statements or a determination of the type of auditor's opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant facts. To our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants.

Other Audit Findings or Issues

We generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, with management each year prior to retention as the Company's auditors. However, these discussions occurred in the normal course of our professional relationship and our responses were not a condition to our retention.

Other Information in Documents Containing Audited Financial Statements

With respect to the supplementary information accompanying the financial statements, we made certain inquiries of management and evaluated the form, content, and methods of preparing the information to determine that the information complies with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, the method of preparing it has not changed from the prior period, and the information is appropriate and complete in relation to our audit of the financial statements. We compared and reconciled the supplementary information to the underlying accounting records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves.

This information is intended solely for the use of the board of directors and management of CCF Investments, Inc. and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Very truly yours,

Board of Directors and Management
CCF Investments, Inc.
Thomasville, Georgia

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of CCF Investments, Inc. (the Company), as of and for the year ended December 31, 2011, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of compliance with such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g), in the following:

1. Making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the reserve required by rule 15c3-3(e).

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls, and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the company's financial statements will not be prevented or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding customer funds that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures, as described in the second paragraph of this report, were adequate at December 31, 2011, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
